It tells of the youngest of four brothers who sets out for Singapore—and leaving his home-town girl behind him. One of the other boys is in love with her too. And this precipitates much suspense before the most youthful can say it with romance. The picture naturally, uncovers a storm at sea which is tolerably active and eye-compelling. The story isn't so hot, nor on the other hand can it be called so cold. It might be summed up as just a movie—carrying a good cast dominated by Torrence. Joan Crawford makes an attractive heroine.

Drawing Power: Title should have possibilities. Star and Joan Crawford will attract them, too—to say nothing of Torrence. Exploitation Angles: Play up title and bill as melodrama of the sea.

THEME: Melodrama of brother against brother with more sympathetic character winning the girl.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Length, six reels. Released, April, 1928. The Cast: Ramon Novarro, Joan Crawford, Ernest Torrence, Frank Currier, Duke Martin, Edward Connelly, James Mason. Author, Ben Ames Williams. Scenario by Richard Shayer. Director, Will Nigh.

Partners In Crime

Tolerably Amusing

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

WALLACE BEERY and Raymond Hatton are still cutting up didoes and acting as foils for each other. In their present conceit, "Partners in Crime," they play the part of a boob detective and newspaper reporter and since they dominate most every sequence (truly, every important one) the picture succeeds in being amusing. But it isn't any great shakes if you are hunting for a plot, nor is it as funny as some of the earlier Beery-Hatton numbers. One gets to know their stuff after a time and, of course, it becomes fairly easy to call the turn.

The piece wavers between straight, out-and-out melodrama and slapstick farce—the heavy scenes being injected in all probability to furnish suspense. Both stars are very intensive in their high jinks and expressions and as they are seasoned troupers you can put your bet down on them. They won't let you get bored.

Drawing Power: All depends on ability of stars to draw them. Exploitation Angles: Feature title and bill stars as furnishing more comedy of their own particular brand.

THEME: Comedy of boob detective and newspaper reporter.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Length, 6,600 feet. Released, Mar. 17, 1928. The Cast: Wallace Beery, Raymond Hatton, Mary Brian, William Powell, Jack Luden, Arthur Housman, Albert Roccardi, George Irving, Jack Richardson. Story and scenario by Grover Jones and Gilbert Pratt. Director, Frank Strayer.

"Felix in Sure-Locked Holmes"

(Educational—One Reel)

THE black cat is pursued by phantoms in this new cartoon creation from the Sullivan Studio. Replete with laugh material, it is cleverly conceived with a bid for thrills. Menacing shadows, the silhouette of an ape always pursuing are the source of much terror to Felix.

Quite a bit of entertainment, some fine drawings and backgrounds.

The Matinee Idol

Comedy Drama Will Click

(Reviewed by E. G. Johnston)

HERE is a picture which we firmly believe will click as an all around box-office attraction. It seems to have all that any good motion picture needs—good story, good direction, good photography and a most excellent portrayal of roles by the featured players and other members of the cast. Some honest-to-goodness, amusing situations have been worked out, and we predict your patrons will get just as real laughs when they occur. It's not all comedy—real touches of pathos are also introduced. But all turns out well at the end.

We will have to take our hat off to Bessie Love. She does the best we ever saw her do in this picture, even allowing for the fact that her role is easily the strongest. As "Ginger Bolivar," star of a pathetically poor tent show troupe innocently brought to Broadway for the sole purpose of burlesque, her efforts reach real heights. Most every one but the yokels and the troupe are aware that Bolivar players are terrible, but when Don Wilson (Johnny Walker) goes to the sticks for a short rest from the arduous labor of being a star black-face and is accidently included among applicants for a vacancy in the show, his manager seizes the opportunity to sign them all for his Broadway revue. The star's identity is kept secret until the first appearance of the show in New York, when the Bolivars turn the performance into a riot of laughter. "Ginger" at last finds out their real worth and then the tears begin to fall. Don, however, eventually straightens matters out.

Drawing Power: A first rate, first run attraction for the majority of theatres.

Exploitation Angles: Play up names of cast and promise your patrons that you have a real treat for them. The writer sincerely believes that you can go that far. Stress the theatrical theme of the film.

THEME: Comedy-drama. Star comedian of Broadway show becomes involved with tent show troupe. Against his wishes, manager signs them to appear in New York revue. Their pathetic efforts to stage a Civil War drama literally stops the show and girl then realizes that the troupe had been duped. The star eventually wins her affection.

Produced and Distributed by Columbia Pictures. Length, 5,925 feet. Released March 14, 1928. The Cast: Bessie Love, Johnny Walker, Lionel Belmore, Ernest Hilliard, Sidney D'Albrook and David Mir. Produced by Harry Cohn. Excellently directed by Frank Capra. Also credit Peter Milne and Ernest Harris for the adaptation and continuity of Lord-Pagano story.

"George's School Daze"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

THIS is a two-reeler of the silliest sort of knockabout comedy, very similar to all the others of the series in which Sid Saylor is the featured player. It is unfortunate that more attention is not given to story detail for this comedian, as he is undoubtedly capable and entitled to better material.

In this one George is the teacher's pet and given charge of the class in her absence. The silliest sort of comedy is injected, until George, to escape being tossed in a blanket runs into police headquarters, where, by mistake, he is put through with a class of rookies. Because of the frequency with which he helps himself to a peddler's wares, the vendor dopes one of his apples and hands it to George.

At just this time a sweet young thing loses her purse and George dashes into a low den to recover it. He is followed almost immediately by a raiding squad. They clean out the place as George slumbers, but he is given credit for the cleanup because he paved the way for it, and also because, in his sleepy actions he accomplishes the undoing of many of the thugs.

"A Dangerous Trail"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

THIS dangerous trail is the same one that runs through all of this series of western featurettes. It leads to the undoing of the villain by the dashing young member of the Northwest police.

Pierre Lafitte, manager of the trading post gets young Bob Truesdale into his clutches by fleecing him at gambling, and thus gets the youngster's permission to make love to his sister.

Pierre attempts to force his attentions on Mary, but Paul O'Malley of the Mounted runs him off the premises. The infuriated Pierre then determines to win young Bob's ranch from him, but the dealer double-crosses Pierre and Bob wins. Pierre shoots the dealer as O'Malley arrives, but the blame is placed on Bob. The dying dealer, however, points to the real murderer, as Pierre makes his escape. The latter encounters Mary on the road and makes her accompany him. O'Malley gives chase and after a terrific fight overpowers Pierre and rescues the girl, with whom he has always been in love.

"Sadie Sagebrush"
(Universal-Cartoon—One Reel)

OSWALD cuts some funny capers in this Walt Disney cartoon, when as a bold, bad cowpuncher he rescues Sadie from the designing villain. Oswald arrives at the Sagebrush Saloon in a cloud of dust as Sadie appears and implores him to come away. He scorns her entreaties and is just entering the saloon when the villain bolts out of the door, fells Oswald and makes away with Sadie. Regaining consciousness, Oswald gives chase, and, overtaking the pair, routs the villain and rescues Sadie from the side of a precipitous cliff.—CHESTER J. SMITH.

"The Frame-Up Man"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

BOB CURWOOD is featured in this western tale of romance, intrigue and rough riding which is above the average, though very like all other stories of the series. Bob is in love with Inez, beautiful daughter of Senor Hernandez, wealthy ranch owner. Howard Drake, the villain is also in love with the girl and he frames to plant a stolen wallet in the pocket of Bob. The trick works and the victim of the robbery identifies the wallet found in Bob's pocket.

Bob makes a daring getaway in order that he might prove his innocence. The next day Drake comes to the girl, tells her where her lover is in hiding and that he wants to see her. He offers to take her, but she sees him signalling to his pals and becomes suspicious. She phones her father of her suspicions and he hurriedly organizes a posse. Drake, instead of going to the regular destination, makes a dash with the girl for the border, but Bob gets wind of it, overtakes them and after a desperate battle, subdues Drake and turns him and his gang over to the sheriff.

"Oh What a Knight"
(Universal-Cartoon—One Reel)

OSWALD is a gallant knight who woos a fair maiden under the most trying conditions and encounters many obstacles, some of which provide some fair comedy. His serenade brings the young lady to her balcony, and despite a warning that the irate parent is at home, Oswald scales the balcony and enters. In the midst of his ecstacy he is interrupted by the parent and a hot duel between them ensues. An army of knights engages Oswald, who seizes the girl and steps from an open door in the tower into space. Fortunately the fair one's skirts serve as a parachute and they drop to safety—CHESTER J. SMITH.

"A Peculiar Pair o' Pups"—"Nobody Home"
(Educational—One Reel)

THE two terriers who were seen in "Dog Days," a recent subject, are shown again in this new number. Their frolics with two black bears whom they meet in the woods are good for a number of laughs.

The other half of the reel shows scenes of the city, of the people bustling to and fro, and of the country where vacationists are making pleasure trips.

Another good Bruce film.—RAYMOND GANLY.

News Reel Resume

The rousing reception of New York to Huenefeld, Koehl and Fitzmaurice was the most played-up event in the week's new newsreels. Another event that received more than the ordinary amount of celluloid were the memorial services held over Floyd Bennett in Washington, D. C. Exciting and realistic shots of Lockhart's sudden death were obtained by news cameramen close at hand to the tragedy. The aviation shots were not confined to American sites, as the welcome of Costes and Le Brix also came in for fat footage.

In Issue, No. 79, of Paramount News were the Costes-Le Brix reception in Paris; a dress parade at Annapolis; Gen. Nobile's dirigible heading north from Milan; the Bremen left behind on Greenely Island while her fliers go on to New York; vivid pictures of the death of Lockhart while driving at breakneck speed; the funeral of Floyd Bennett in Washington.

No. 80 viewed the reception given the Bremen fliers in New York; U. S. cavalry in cross-country training; Moslem ceremonies in Jerusalem honoring Moses; an excursion steamer at Atlantic City wrecked by storm; the King and Queen of Denmark; cow punchers rounding up herds from the mountains; the annual Penn relays at Philadelphia and starring athletes.

No. 5391 of Kinograms recorded the leave-taking of the Bremen fliers from Greenely Island and the ovation given them by New York; the burial of Bennett; a shaving race for blindfolded barbers; the dirigible Italia at Stolp, Germany; three sisters celebrate their golden weddings; circus clowns performing for invalid children; Costes and Le Brix hailed in Paris; new U. S. minister to Bolivia as he sailed.

In No. 5392 were views of the triumphal procession and reception tendered the Bremen airmen; the celebration of Buddha's birthday in Japan; Tom Heeney arriving from Europe; appropriate pictures for Baby's Week; track stars competing at the Penn Meet; 2,500 athletes who contested in the Drake Relays in Des Moines.

M-G-M News, Vol 1, No. 74: Rome gives demonstration of sorrow for bomb victims and joy that King Emmanuel escaped the plot; speedy motor craft in English tests; Eleanor Sears setting her new walking record; circus performers cherring up hospital children; the Lockhart tragedy on Daytona Beach, Fla.; festivals in Japan in celebration of birthday of Buddha; the late Floyd Bennett; Lindbergh, who flew to the dead flier's rescue; Bremen heroes welcoming the relief plane at Greenely Island.

No. 75 showed the wonderful acclamation New York made in honor of the Bremen crew; canoeists shooting the rapids of the Ramapo River; a football tussle at Wembley, England; steamer hurled on beach by hurricane; western girls hail spring with pretty dances; college stars racing in mud at the Penn relay games; mid-west stars meeting in the Drake relay contest.

The welcome of the Bremen's crew was also the high light of International News, Vol. 10, No. 35, which had, too, the Penn relay games and the Drake relay meet, besides the spring festival of the western lasses and the canoeists riding the rapids. Other items of interest were shots of an Italian multitude singing the new labor marching song; students as exponents of the changes in style; reindeers in the Lapland.

Pathe News, No. 37, began with the arrival in New York of the Bremen trio; Bennett's funeral cortege; the Bremen crew at the burial of Bennett; the welcome given Costes and Le Brix by Paris; a canoe ride through the New Jersey rapids; the 2488th birthday of Buddha observed in Japan; Lockhart meeting his doom in auto wreck.

Fox News, Vol. 9, No. 62, reviewed the rejoicing French throngs welcoming Costes and Le Brix; the Bremen fliers arriving in Quebec from the island; motor cycles racing in California desert; circus brings cheer to ailing children; Mexicans in ancient Judas fete; folk from Tyrol in the Alps journey to Vienna to view war memorial; litters of new collie arrivals; California yachts on San Francisco Bay.

"Tempest" Premiere at Embassy, May 17

"TEMPEST," John Barrymore's new United Artists' film, will have its world premiere Thursday night, May 17th, at the Embassy Theatre in New York. "Two Lovers," Samuel Goldwyn's final Ronald Colman-Vilma Banky picture, will have completed a run of eight weeks by then.

It took a year to produce "Tempest," and the film cost $1,000,000, it is said. The picture was pre-viewed at the Strand Theatre, Yonkers, on Tuesday night of last week.

Regional News from Correspondents

Canada

AN imposing moving picture theatre, one of the finest in the North Country, is being erected at North Bay, Ontario, by L. Rosenbaum of Sturgeon Falls, Ontario. When completed next fall, the house will be operated by Mr. Rosenbaum under the auspices of Famous Players Canadian Corp., Toronto.

The structure will have a 60-foot frontage, with a depth on the side street of 100 feet. The second floor will have offices and the ground floor will include two stores, all being fireproof. The theatre will have a stage for special presentations.

An artistic suburban theatre has been opened in the Notre Dame de Grace section of Montreal, Quebec, by the Confederation Amusement Theatres, Limited, Montreal. This newest house has been called the Empress. Vaudeville is presented along with film programs.

Although, Montreal, Quebec, has its Sunday shows, there is a strong tendency locally for the Saturday openings. The Capitol theatre, under Manager Harry Dahn, moved its weekly opening day from Sunday to Saturday a short time ago and now, starting May 5, Manager George Rotsky of the Palace theatre has adopted the same policy.

Manager Rotsky has also recently reduced the admission scale of the Montreal Palace, which is one of the largest there.

J. M. Franklin, manager of B. F. Keith's theatre, Ottawa, Ontario, spent the week of April 23 in New York City to attend the banquet of the Vaudeville Managers Protective Association and also to look over forthcoming film releases.

While he was away, the Ottawa Keith house had one of its greatest weeks, thanks to the adoption of the Saturday opening policy and also to the raising of the standards of current shows, along with an increase in the admission prices. The public absorbed the price advance without a kick.

After a layoff of some weeks, the Regent theatre, Toronto, operated as a two-a-day moving picture house by Famous Players Canadian Corp., reopened April 30th with a special feature picture engagement.

Along about this time each year, it has been the custom of Shea's Hippodrome, Toronto, Ontario, to announce a summer policy with changed shows and reduced prices. This spring Manager C. J. Appel has come out with the declaration that there will be no so-called "summer policy" and that the big theatre will continue right on with regular programs and regular prices. The bill includes feature and short length film subjects and five acts of vaudeville.

Thomas Lamb, famous New York theatre architect, made a flying trip to Ottawa, the Canadian capital, on April 26, for the purpose of arranging plans for the erection of the big new Capitol theatre there by Famous Players Canadian Corp.

The Laurier theatre, Hull, Quebec, was the scene of the annual Kiwanis Revue on Wednesday and Thursday, April 25 and 26. Donat Paquin, proprietor of the Laurier theatre, is a member of the Hull Rotary Club but placed the theatre at the disposal of the Kiwanians.

Mrs. Marjorie Marier, pianist of the Laurier theatre orchestra, Hull, Quebec, has achieved distinction as the composer of two song selections which have just been published, one in England and the other French. They are "By the Coral Sea" and "Coeur de Maman," both of which have been enthusiastically received.

A brand new radio station has been opened atop the Imperial theatre, St. John, N. B., this being Station CFBO, controlled and operated by C. A. Munro, Limited, and conducted with the active cooperation of the Imperial theatre, which is owned by E. F. Albee of New York.

The Imperial theatre follows the policy of presenting moving pictures exclusively, along with high class music, the house being under the management of Walter H. Golding.

A recent visitor in the Canadian territory was S. S. Neal, general sales manager of the Theatre Ad Mat Service, Inc., for the purpose of placing this service with Canadian theatres. Houses already making use of the feature include the Imperial theatre, Montreal, Howard Conover, manager; Loew's theatre, Toronto, John McManus, manager; and Keith's, Ottawa, J. M. Franklin, manager.

The Canadian Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, has been looking for a film editor for its moving picture studio at Ottawa. A man with at least two years experience is wanted and the salary to start is $2,520. Applications are being received by the secretary of the Civil Service Commission, Ottawa.

The Perkins Electric Company, one of the pioneer theatre supply and radio establishments in Montreal, has been incorporated under a Canadian Federal charter as a limited company with a capitalization of $150,000. G. F. Perkins is the head of this concern.

Milwaukee

THE new Sprague theatre at Elkhorn, a 700 seat house, will be opened on about May 15th, according to Don Kelliher, manager. Mr. Kelliher expects to close the Princess theatre at Elkhorn at this time.

The Chicago M-G-M exchange visited the Milwaukee branch on Saturday and Sunday of last week for the express purpose of seeing the new exchange.

Mike Brumm will take over management of the Ritz at North Milwaukee on May 15th from George Fischer.

Charles B. Paine, of the Universal home office, returned to New York after having attended the opening of the Venetian theatre at Racine recently.

"Dad" Wolcott of Racine was a recent film row visitor.

Vocafilm will be installed in 25 of Milwaukee's theatres by June 1st.

John Ludwig of the Ludwig exchange is driving a new Chandler coupe. F. G. Frackman of Frackman Films is also driving a brand new car, a Chevvy sedan.

John Steeport, manager of the Home theatre at Chilton was seen visiting the exchanges last Tuesday.

Dan Lederman, in charge of construction for Universal, is suffering a slight attack of pneumonia.

M. A. Kahn, formerly with Chicago Tiffany branch, is now traveling the Wisconsin territory for Tiffany.

H. A. Gallup, general manager of the Delt Circuit of upper Michigan, was in the city last Thursday.

Sam Miller, booker for the Fischer theatre circuit, spent a few hours in local exchanges early in the week.

J. E. Rosen, manager of the local Tiffany branch, attended the Tiffany Regional Sales Meeting at Chicago on Saturday and Sunday.

Park Waterbury has announced that he will close the Idle Hour theatre at Jefferson after May 2nd. Neil Duffy, manager of the Elite theatre at Appleton, was in the city recently on business.

N. M. Evans, manager of the Eagle theatre at Eagle River, was a recent visitor at exchanges.

E. H. Malone has been chosen by the city council to manage the Community theatre which is owned by the village of Hammond. It is the custom of the council of this town of 368 to appoint a new manager for the Community each year.

The Majestic theatre at Alpha, Michigan, has a new manager, J. Eubesio, who has taken the theatre over from W. J. Berkin.

Charles Guelson of the Badger theatre at Stoughton called on several exchanges last Wednesday.

S. H. Abrams, manager of the F B O exchange, is in New York visiting relatives.

Frank Cook, manager of the Gem theatre at Sheboygan, was a recent caller at the exchanges.

R. T. Smith, manager of Warners exchange, is attending the convention in New York.

E. J. Brechner, manager of the Opera House, Fennimore, was in the city recently on business.

H. J. Terry, better known to Wisconsin exhibitors as "Pop" Terry, is covering southern Wisconsin for Warners.

H. J. Fitzgerald, general manager of Midwesco, has made some additional changes in the personnel of the circuit to those mentioned in these columns recently. B. R. Griffiths, a former Milwaukee newspaper man and later associated with the Fischer circuit at Madison and La Salle, has been appointed manager of the Tivoli theatre succeeding Donald Smith.

Bob Frenzel, accountant, has been added to the auditing department as assistant to the auditor-in-chief.

P. W. Palmer, manager of the Rialto theatre at Edgerton, was in the city Tuesday on business.

E. Kueppers, formerly with F. & R. at Minneapolis, is now assistant director of publicity.

F. R. Thompson, until recently a member of the West Coast organization as manager of the Ritz theatre at Los Angeles, has succeeded R. W. Hyde in charge of the Retlaw theatre at Fond du Lac.

Charlie Murray replaces J. William Deubach as manager of the Oriental. Mr. Murray was formerly with F. & R. at Minneapolis.

Cliff Gill, trained on various Hollywood publications, has been added to the advertising department in charge of publicizing of Midwesco neighborhood houses.

George F. Crismann, previously in the buying department of Balaban and Katz, has been made assistant in the reorganization of the purchasing department.

Russell Leddy, well known in legitimate circles as a member of the cast of Harry Langdon's last vaudeville skit, "Johnny's New Car," is now assistant production manager under the direction of E. J. Weisfeldt.

Buffalo

SEVERAL more theatre closures were recorded in the past week in the Buffalo territory. The Fillmore, a Buffalo neighborhood house, closed its doors on April 23. Max Rosing operated it. The Fillmore used to be a good money-maker, but, since Rosing opened the beautiful new Roosevelt Theatre only a few blocks away, patronage at the Fillmore began dropping off until it was decided to discontinue operations.

Jim Wallingford, one of the veteran exhibitors in Buffalo, has just sold his Orpheum Theatre to W. E. Currie, who recently disposed of the Linden, also a Buffalo neighborhood house. Wallingford, however, will continue to do the booking and buying for the Orpheum.

Word reached film row in Buffalo last week that S. Bosidlo has closed Everybody's Theatre in Syracuse.

Morris Fogel, who operates the Princess at Rochester, notified the Buffalo exchanges last week that he will shut down the house on May 31 for alterations.

The Langan Theatre at Syracuse, after having been closed for nearly a year, has just reopened its doors under the management of F. M. Croop, a newcomer to the exhibition ranks. Mr. Croop was showered with the good wishes of Western New York's filmdom in his venture.

The Geddes Theatre in Syracuse, which has been closed for some time, has reopened again, under the management of C. J. Forrest.

Well-authenticated reports were circulated here last week that negotiations have reached an advanced stage for the construction of a first-run house at La Salle, N. Y., just outside of Niagara Falls. It is known that plans for the project were conceived some time ago, and have been going forward steadily since. Bids have been asked for, and everything is set to wind up the preliminary details before actual construction work begins. The backers of the project, however, do not want their names made known at this time.

Convention season is on in full bloom and those from Buffalo's movie circles who have not yet attended any conventions this year are preparing to do so pretty soon. H. T. Dixon, manager of the F B O exchange, is planning to leave about May 12 for Chicago to attend the F B O national sales convention there on May 14 at the Drake Hotel. Oscar Hanson, chief of the Pathe exchange here, will attend Pathe's national convention a week later, on May 21, also in the Drake at Chicago.

One of the distinguished visitors to film row here last week was "Dad" Fitzer, father of the famous Four Fitzer Brothers, who have followed his footsteps in cutting out careers for themselves in the theatrical business. The Fitzers have extensive holdings in various cities, notably Syracuse and Kenmore.

Howard Brink, commander-in-chief of Educational's forces in this corner of the forests, breezed in last Saturday from an extended tour through the Rochester and Syracuse territory, and announced he already has bought a new pair of pajamas in stocking up his wardrobe before entraining for Montreal in May to attend Educational's national sales convention.

A majority of the exhibitors in the Buffalo zone reported last week that the unseasonable cool weather thus far this spring has greatly stimulated business. "Let the people kick about the late spring," said one of the showmen, "we don't mind it so long as they keep coming to the movies."

William H. Raynor—"Bill" to his film-folk buddies—returned last week from another one of his flying trips to New York and announced that he had done quite a bit of business for his Lafayette Square Theatre.

Meyer Part, of the Variety Theatre, at Baldwinsville, and Jim Cranides, of the Palace, at Olean, visited the Warner exchange here last week and the genial Miss Rappaport, booker extraordinary, helped them arrange bookings for May and June.

C. E. Almy, manager of the Warner Brothers exchange, spent three days in New York City last week attending a sales convention.

The police department recently declared war on traffic law violators. And about ten of the boys in film row are now out $5 each.

Elmer Lux, who combines his booking activities at the F B O exchanges here with selling jaunts to the nearby bushes, started out in his famous flivver last week for the "Lake Shore sticks." He never got there, however. Somewhere in South Buffalo the trusty machine began falling apart, piece by piece. Elmer came back on his roller skates and had the machine towed in.

Rumors were current last week that the Universal exchange may soon forsake the quarters it now occupies in the old Film Building at 257 Franklin Street, and take a lease on space in the new Film Building at 505 Pearl Street. If this eventuates, only two exchanges —Warner Brothers and R. C. Fox exchanges—will be left in the old Film Building, which, until a few years ago, housed every exchange in town.

Visitors at the R. C. Fox exchanges last week included Bill Tishkoff, of the Murray Theatre, at Rochester; and M. Fogel, of the Princess Theatre, at Rochester. They were here to arrange bookings.

Anna Murphy resigned last week as poster clerk of the Universal exchange to take a similar job with the R. C. Fox exchanges.

Col. Bray, of Bray Productions, was in town last week, on his way from New York City to the Pacific Coast, and visited some of the exchanges to chat with old friends and, incidentally, talk business. He spent quite a bit of time at the First Graphic Exchanges offices.

Mr. Schlaifer, district manager of United Artists, shook the dust of the home office in New York last week for a few days to come to Buffalo and hold a sales meeting at which he told the boys just how it's done.

Miss H. Samuels, bookkeeper at the R. C. Fox exchanges, celebrated her birthday last Friday by working hard all day.

V. G. (Verygood) Sanford, go-getter salesman for the Buffalo office of the National Theatre Supply Company, took a trip to Geneseo last week and came back with an order for two Peerless lamps and a 30-ampere Unitron which A. Aprill is adding to the Kinebooth equipment of his house, the Rex.

Miss Esther Fetes, secretary to Fred Zimmerman, of the Theatrical Utilities Enterprises, was under the weather last week for a few days with a heavy cold. She shook it off, however, and got back to her desk in time to greet Mr. Zimmerman on his return from Pittsburgh, where he acted as master of ceremonies at a get-together party of exhibitors.

Henry Wilkinson, recently appointed general manager of the Pittsburgh offices of the Theatrical Utilities Enterprises, came back with Mr. Zimmerman to make arrangements for moving his family and furniture to Pittsburgh.

Film row welcomed Charles Hayman, owner of the Cataract and Strand Theatres, at Niagara Falls, back to the stamping grounds last week. Mr. Hayman, an officer of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners, spent two months abroad, and recently returned.

Ted O'Shea, chief of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange here, spent last Friday and Saturday in Pittsburgh attending a regional sales convention of the organization.

Alex Weissman, city salesman for Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer, announced last week that he was resigning to return to New York City and Incandescent Row. The blazing lights have too strong a lure for him, he said, to remain in Buffalo.

Lou Phillips, of New York City, attorney there for Paramount-Famous-Lasky, and formerly secretary of the New York City Film Board of Trade, spent a couple of days here last week on official business.

H. W. Shannon notified Miss Marian Gueth, secretary of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners, last week, that he is no longer connected with Piccadilly Theatre in Rochester. He is now manager of the Lyndhurst at Rochester. William Callahan is the new manager of the Piccadilly, which is operated by the Regorson Corporation.

Miss Mildred Caskey, who, by virtue of being a blonde, is much sought after by the gentlemen, will have charge of the Film Board of Trade office during the absence of Miss Emma Abplanalp when the latter goes to California in May to attend the convention of Film Boards of Trade secretaries. Miss Caskey is Miss Abplanalp's assistant.

Bernard Getz, assistant booker of the Pathe exchange here, resigned last week to accept a similar position with Independent Exhibitors in New York City. He had been right-hand man to Lou Schindler for some time. Al Teschemacher, former booker of Fox Film Corporation's exchange here, was signed to replace him. Thus "Tesch" returns to his old familiar post, for he had been booking for Pathe for a dozen years before. A few years ago, he decided to become an exhibitor and took over the Casino Theatre here.

Jack Berkowitz, manager of First Graphic Exchanges, here, got the traveling urge last week, and boarded a train for New York City to transact some business there.

Shea's Buffalo will join in the observance of National Music Week on May 6. Herbert Straub and the theatre's symphony orchestra will play special music numbers, along with Tom Grierson, organist, and they also will broadcast special music programs over the radio.

Southeast

MRS. GERTRUDE SHORT, who has been connected with M-G-M's Charlotte exchanges as secretary to the manager, has resigned and is now with National Theatres Supply Company.

D. W. Townsend, who has owned the Princess theatre in Fayetteville, N. C., for many years but which he had leased to Donald M. Eaves, of Eaves Theatre Circuit, Union, S. C., for the past several months, has again taken active charge of that house.

E. R. Medd has sold his Bijou theatre, Florence, S. C., to J. M. O'Dowd, who also has the O'Dowd theatre in that city.

J. A. Reynolds and George Hughes, formerly owners of the Grand theatre, Greer, S. C., have purchased the Columbia theatre, Albermarle, N. C., from Mrs. Sadie Smith LeFeaux.

The Carolina theatre, Chester, S. C. (which is the old Chestonian theatre), has been transferred from Mrs. L. D. Eaves, of Union, S. C., to F. M. Hamilton.

N. C. Black has sold the New theatre, Bamberg, S. C., to F. A. Hand, Jr.

H. H. Mongo has purchased the Jefferson theatre, Jefferson, S. C. T. F. McCaskill is the former owner.

The Gem theatre, Reidsville, S. C., colored house, has been purchased by W. S. Scales, who owns the Lincoln theatre in Winston-Salem. J. B. McGee was the former owner.

San Francisco

A THING quite apart from the usual theatre opening was that of the new T. & D., Jr., Enterprises new State Theatre premiere at Oroville, April 7th, when all was actually in readiness.

The house opened at a matinee to break in the newness and to have assurance that every detail was complete.

Manager W. A. Crank, who is to be the local manager of the T. & D. Jr.'s new theatre at Chico, which opened April 28th, was master of ceremonies. Mr. Crank had been on the job several days prior to the opening, with Fred Fink who will be the manager of the new house.

That nothing to mar the success of the initial performance had been left undone was evidenced by the perfect smoothness of the night performance. The usherettes handled the huge throng of people like veterans in the business.

A break in the motion picture program was made at 9 p. m. when W. T. Baldwin, Mayor of Oroville, was introduced and, following a brief address, accepted the beautiful theatre as a public temple of amusement for the citizens of the prosperous community.

Mayor Baldwin was followed by Charles F. Deuell, Assemblyman from Butte County and a resident of Chico, who paid the T. & D. Jr. Enterprises Corporation a high compliment for their great faith in the future of Oroville in "providing such a magnificent place of amusement for the pleasure of the people of the community.

Mr. Crank introduced President M. A. Naify of the T. & D. Jr., and R. A. McNeill, the latter addressing the audience on behalf of the corporation. There are many new and up-to-the-minute features about the house. The lighting is unique and original. The fixtures and designs were installed by Thos. Day Company of San Francisco. Electrical work was done by W. G. Gill.

T. L. Pflueger and J. R. Miller were the architects and Faggoni Studios did the decoration. The general scheme is of Aztec design and is particularly interesting. A Wurlitzer organ was an innovation to Oroville theatre-goers and was admirably played by James E. Lynch.

C. F. Weber & Co. supplied all of the seats and opera chairs of the very latest design and comfort.

A thoroughly complete stage equipment and scenery set was furnished and installed by the American Studios of San Francisco. Artist Fitzkee quite outdid himself in the elaborate scenic investiture and modern stage equipment which is planned to accommodate the largest stage productions and road shows which will appear from time to time in the house.

The artistic draperies were designed and hung by the Newman Drapery Shop of Polk street, San Francisco.

Jack Fier of National Screen Service announces that George N. Montgomery and the Supreme Film Co. of San Francisco and Los Angeles are no longer connected with the National Screen Service establishment. Louis Reichert has been appointed their Northern California sales representative with temporary offices at 298 Turk street.

Reichert is well known by the entire film colony and exhibitor fraternity in the district.

Contracts have been signed for a theatre location and building at Placerville by the M. Blumenfeld Theatre Circuit. Plans have been accepted and work will begin at once to have the house completed for early fall opening this year.

Columbia has completed arrangements to take over the entire office at 177 Golden Gate avenue, and it now is as up-to-date as any Film Exchange in San Francisco.

E. B. Anderson, formerly of the Coalinga Theatre, was in San Francisco looking over the theatre situation.

J. H. Goldberg, Columbia's District manager, was recently in San Francisco going over local situations with Branch Manager Weinland and Seattle and returned here the following week.

Chas. Frailer has sold his interest in the Tracy Theatre to the Principal Theatre Corporation, of which S. H. Levin is general manager.

G. C. Parsons has returned from a trip in the San Joaquin Valley.

M. Blumenfeld's interest in the Strand at Gilroy and the Morgan Hill Theatre at Morgan Hill has been acquired by Hyman Levin and son, Ben. The theatres will continue under the same motion picture policy as was in effect by the Blumenfeld Circuit. Ben Levin will remain as local manager, with headquarters at Gilroy.

A 2-story Class-C theatre building to have a capacity of 1,500 is to be erected in Merced for the Merced Theatre Company, Frank J. Alberti, manager, at a cost of $100,000.

Sammy Carr, former banjo soloist at the Warfield, has signed up for a tour of the country, according to word from Los Angeles.

K. W. Emmermacher, head of a Hamburg, Germany, film company was at the Palace, recently.

The Film Inspection Machine Co. of New York has put out an automatic inspection machine and they are being installed in the local Fox Exchange.

South West

THE annual election of officers was held on Monday at the meeting of the Oklahoma City Film Board of Trade. Officers for the year June 1, 1928, to June 1, 1929, are: President, R. M. Clark, Liberty-Specialty Film Co.; Vice-President, E. D. Brewer, First National Pictures, Inc.; Secretary, C. W. Allen, Pathe Exchange, Inc.; Treasurer, W. J. Cammer; Educational Film Exchange and Board of Directors, Wallace Walthall, Home State Film Co., W. P. Moran, Universal Film Exchange, Roy E. Heffner, Paramount Famous Lasky, Ottoe Rohde, Warner Bros.-Vitagraph and R. M. Clark, Liberty Specialty Film Co.

K. H. Blakely, who operated the Criterion theatre at Crescent, Okla., before he sold same to George Graff, is looking for a new location. Mr. Blakley has been calling on friends on Film Row the past week.

G. R. Kapeheart, who has been operating the Lyric theatre at Wellston, Okla., for the past year, has sold same to Mr. O. H. Coxen.

V. A. Hardin, owner of the Majestic theatre at Allen, Okla., has sold his theatre to Mr. Frank Nordean.

E. W. Ballentine, auditor from the home office of F.B.O., has been visiting the local F.B.O. office for the past few weeks.

Sanders & Stanford, of the Folly theatre at Sasakwa, Okla., have sold their interest in this theatre to Lee Cooper. Mr. Cooper at one time operated the Blue Mouse theatre at Atoka, Okla.

The members of the Oklahoma City Film Board of Trade were guests of the Secretary, Chas. R. Zears, at a stag dinner Monday evening.

Miss Mildred Stone, former Editor of the Oklahoma Preview, who has been in Los Angeles since January 1st, is expected to return to Oklahoma City this week. Miss Stone was forced to abandon her work on account of ill health and her many friends on Film Row are glad to know she is now able to return to her home here.

Wallace Walthall, manager of Home State, went to Muskogee, Okla., last week.

H. N. Walker and W. O. Green have opened a motor line for transmission of films between Oklahoma City and Ada, Okla., and intermediate points.

Walter Dolin has been added to the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer service at Oklahoma City.

Lee Upchurch has opened a new theatre, the Grand, at Olustee, Okla.

The Pleasant Valley theatre at Pleasant Valley, Okla., and the Gem at Loco, Okla., has been closed.

The Royal theatre at Dow, Okla., has closed indefinitely.

The name of the Majestic theatre at Ft. Gibson, Okla., has been changed to "Only."

Toy White has purchased the Liberty theatre at Ada, Okla., from J. M. Lytle.

M. Walker has leased the Cozy theatre at Miami, Okla., from Mrs. F. H. Smith.

The Rialto theatre at Hobart, Okla., is being remodeled and redecorated.

C. A. Taylor has purchased the Roberson theatre at Dierks, Okla., from E. C. Roberson.

McDonald & McDonald have purchased the Empress theatre at Shattuck, Okla.

Santos Garza has purchased the Star theatre at Del Rio, Texas.

The K. & K. Circuit has purchased the Plainview theatre at Plainview, Texas.

Hughes & Kemp has purchased the New theatre at De Queen, Ark.

Ed. Rowley was acquitted of Sunday violation of law at Little Rock, Ark., when municipal judge Harb ruled that inasmuch as the show had been operated for Arkansas Crippled Children's Hospital, no violation of either state or city law has been violated.

Sol Davidson has opened the Davidson Theatre Supply House at 108-110 South Hudson Street, Oklahoma City and will carry equipment for both large and small theatres.

M. K. Moore, manager for Publix theatre, the Capital at Oklahoma City, has been transferred to the Joy and New theatres at Fort Smith, Ark., and will be succeeded by Norman Prager.

Chink Conners of the Rex theatre, Purcell, Okla., is in an Oklahoma City hospital, battling with appendicitis.

The Walters theatre at Walters, Okla., is being remodeled.

The Cozy theatre at Newkirk, Okla., is being remodeled.

C. W. Allen, local Pathe manager, Oklahoma City, has recovered from a recent siege of illness.

Buffalo

SEVERAL more theatre closures were recorded in the past week in the Buffalo territory. The Fillmore, a Buffalo neighborhood house, closed its doors on April 23. Max Rosing operated it. The Fillmore used to be a good money-maker, but, since Rosing opened the beautiful new Roosevelt Theatre only a few blocks away, patronage at the Fillmore began dropping off until it was decided to discontinue operations.

Jim Wallingford, one of the veteran exhibitors in Buffalo, has just sold his Orpheum Theatre to W. E. Currie, who recently disposed of the Linden, also a Buffalo neighborhood house. Wallingford, however, will continue to do the booking and buying for the Orpheum.

Word reached film row in Buffalo last week that S. Bosidlo has closed Everybody's Theatre in Syracuse.

Morris Fogel, who operates the Princess at Rochester, notified the Buffalo exchanges last week that he will shut down the house on May 31 for alterations.

The Langan Theatre at Syracuse, after having been closed for nearly a year, has just reopened its doors under the management of F. M. Croop, a newcomer to the exhibition ranks. Mr. Croop was showered with the good wishes of Western New York's filmdom in his venture.

The Geddes Theatre in Syracuse, which has been closed for some time, has reopened again, under the management of C. J. Forrest.

Well-authenticated reports were circulated here last week that negotiations have reached an advanced stage for the construction of a first-run house at La Salle, N. Y., just outside of Niagara Falls. It is known that plans for the project were conceived some time ago, and have been going forward steadily since. Bids have been asked for, and everything is set to wind up the preliminary details before actual construction work begins. The backers of the project, however, do not want their names made known at this time.

Convention season is on in full bloom and those from Buffalo's movie circles who have not yet attended any conventions this year are preparing to do so pretty soon. H. T. Dixon, manager of the F B O exchange, is planning to leave about May 12 for Chicago to attend the F B O national sales convention there on May 14 at the Drake Hotel. Oscar Hanson, chief of the Pathe exchange here, will attend Pathe's national convention a week later, on May 21, also in the Drake at Chicago.

One of the distinguished visitors to film row here last week was "Dad" Fitzer, father of the famous Four Fitzer Brothers, who have followed his footsteps in cutting out careers for themselves in the theatrical business. The Fitzers have extensive holdings in various cities, notably Syracuse and Kenmore.

Howard Brink, commander-in-chief of Educational's forces in this corner of the forests, breezed in last Saturday from an extended tour through the Rochester and Syracuse territory, and announced he already has bought a new pair of pajamas in stocking up his wardrobe before entraining for Montreal in May to attend Educational's national sales convention.

A majority of the exhibitors in the Buffalo zone reported last week that the unseasonable cool weather thus far this spring has greatly stimulated business. "Let the people kick about the late spring," said one of the showmen, "we don't mind it so long as they keep coming to the movies."

William H. Raynor—"Bill" to his film-folk buddies—returned last week from another one of his flying trips to New York and announced that he had done quite a bit of business for his Lafayette Square Theatre.

Meyer Part, of the Variety Theatre, at Baldwinsville, and Jim Cranides, of the Palace, at Olean, visited the Warner exchange here last week and the genial Miss Rappaport, booker extraordinary, helped them arrange bookings for May and June.

C. E. Almy, manager of the Warner Brothers exchange, spent three days in New York City last week attending a sales convention.

The police department recently declared war on traffic law violators. And about ten of the boys in film row are now out $5 each.

Elmer Lux, who combines his booking activities at the F B O exchanges here with selling jaunts to the nearby bushes, started out in his famous flivver last week for the "Lake Shore sticks." He never got there, however. Somewhere in South Buffalo the trusty machine began falling apart, piece by piece. Elmer came back on his roller skates and had the machine towed in.

Rumors were current last week that the Universal exchange may soon forsake the quarters it now occupies in the old Film Building at 257 Franklin Street, and take a lease on space in the new Film Building at 505 Pearl Street. If this eventuates, only two exchanges —Warner Brothers and R. C. Fox exchanges—will be left in the old Film Building, which, until a few years ago, housed every exchange in town.

Visitors at the R. C. Fox exchanges last week included Bill Tishkoff, of the Murray Theatre, at Rochester; and M. Fogel, of the Princess Theatre, at Rochester. They were here to arrange bookings.

Anna Murphy resigned last week as poster clerk of the Universal exchange to take a similar job with the R. C. Fox exchanges.

Col. Bray, of Bray Productions, was in town last week, on his way from New York City to the Pacific Coast, and visited some of the exchanges to chat with old friends and, incidentally, talk business. He spent quite a bit of time at the First Graphic Exchanges offices.

Mr. Schlaifer, district manager of United Artists, shook the dust of the home office in New York last week for a few days to come to Buffalo and hold a sales meeting at which he told the boys just how it's done.

Miss H. Samuels, bookkeeper at the R. C. Fox exchanges, celebrated her birthday last Friday by working hard all day.

V. G. (Verygood) Sanford, go-getter salesman for the Buffalo office of the National Theatre Supply Company, took a trip to Geneseo last week and came back with an order for two Peerless lamps and a 30-ampere Unitron which A. Aprill is adding to the Kinebooth equipment of his house, the Rex.

Miss Esther Fetes, secretary to Fred Zimmerman, of the Theatrical Utilities Enterprises, was under the weather last week for a few days with a heavy cold. She shook it off, however, and got back to her desk in time to greet Mr. Zimmerman on his return from Pittsburgh, where he acted as master of ceremonies at a get-together party of exhibitors.

Henry Wilkinson, recently appointed general manager of the Pittsburgh offices of the Theatrical Utilities Enterprises, came back with Mr. Zimmerman to make arrangements for moving his family and furniture to Pittsburgh.

Film row welcomed Charles Hayman, owner of the Cataract and Strand Theatres, at Niagara Falls, back to the stamping grounds last week. Mr. Hayman, an officer of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners, spent two months abroad, and recently returned.

Ted O'Shea, chief of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange here, spent last Friday and Saturday in Pittsburgh attending a regional sales convention of the organization.

Alex Weissman, city salesman for Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer, announced last week that he was resigning to return to New York City and Incandescent Row. The blazing lights have too strong a lure for him, he said, to remain in Buffalo.

Lou Phillips, of New York City, attorney there for Paramount-Famous-Lasky, and formerly secretary of the New York City Film Board of Trade, spent a couple of days here last week on official business.

H. W. Shannon notified Miss Marian Gueth, secretary of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners, last week, that he is no longer connected with Piccadilly Theatre in Rochester. He is now manager of the Lyndhurst at Rochester. William Callahan is the new manager of the Piccadilly, which is operated by the Regorson Corporation.

Miss Mildred Caskey, who, by virtue of being a blonde, is much sought after by the gentlemen, will have charge of the Film Board of Trade office during the absence of Miss Emma Abplanalp when the latter goes to California in May to attend the convention of Film Boards of Trade secretaries. Miss Caskey is Miss Abplanalp's assistant.

Bernard Getz, assistant booker of the Pathe exchange here, resigned last week to accept a similar position with Independent Exhibitors in New York City. He had been right-hand man to Lou Schindler for some time. Al Teschemacher, former booker of Fox Film Corporation's exchange here, was signed to replace him. Thus "Tesch" returns to his old familiar post, for he had been booking for Pathe for a dozen years before. A few years ago, he decided to become an exhibitor and took over the Casino Theatre here.

Jack Berkowitz, manager of First Graphic Exchanges, here, got the traveling urge last week, and boarded a train for New York City to transact some business there.

Shea's Buffalo will join in the observance of National Music Week on May 6. Herbert Straub and the theatre's symphony orchestra will play special music numbers, along with Tom Grierson, organist, and they also will broadcast special music programs over the radio.

Southeast

MRS. GERTRUDE SHORT, who has been connected with M-G-M's Charlotte exchanges as secretary to the manager, has resigned and is now with National Theatres Supply Company.

D. W. Townsend, who has owned the Princess theatre in Fayetteville, N. C., for many years but which he had leased to Donald M. Eaves, of Eaves Theatre Circuit, Union, S. C., for the past several months, has again taken active charge of that house.

E. R. Medd has sold his Bijou theatre, Florence, S. C., to J. M. O'Dowd, who also has the O'Dowd theatre in that city.

J. A. Reynolds and George Hughes, formerly owners of the Grand theatre, Greer, S. C., have purchased the Columbia theatre, Albermarle, N. C., from Mrs. Sadie Smith LeFeaux.

The Carolina theatre, Chester, S. C. (which is the old Chestonian theatre), has been transferred from Mrs. L. D. Eaves, of Union, S. C., to F. M. Hamilton.

N. C. Black has sold the New theatre, Bamberg, S. C., to F. A. Hand, Jr.

H. H. Mongo has purchased the Jefferson theatre, Jefferson, S. C. T. F. McCaskill is the former owner.

The Gem theatre, Reidsville, S. C., colored house, has been purchased by W. S. Scales, who owns the Lincoln theatre in Winston-Salem. J. B. McGee was the former owner.

San Francisco

A THING quite apart from the usual theatre opening was that of the new T. & D., Jr., Enterprises new State Theatre premiere at Oroville, April 7th, when all was actually in readiness.

The house opened at a matinee to break in the newness and to have assurance that every detail was complete.

Manager W. A. Crank, who is to be the local manager of the T. & D. Jr.'s new theatre at Chico, which opened April 28th, was master of ceremonies. Mr. Crank had been on the job several days prior to the opening, with Fred Fink who will be the manager of the new house.

That nothing to mar the success of the initial performance had been left undone was evidenced by the perfect smoothness of the night performance. The usherettes handled the huge throng of people like veterans in the business.

A break in the motion picture program was made at 9 p. m. when W. T. Baldwin, Mayor of Oroville, was introduced and, following a brief address, accepted the beautiful theatre as a public temple of amusement for the citizens of the prosperous community.

Mayor Baldwin was followed by Charles F. Deuell, Assemblyman from Butte County and a resident of Chico, who paid the T. & D. Jr. Enterprises Corporation a high compliment for their great faith in the future of Oroville in "providing such a magnificent place of amusement for the pleasure of the people of the community.

Mr. Crank introduced President M. A. Naify of the T. & D. Jr., and R. A. McNeill, the latter addressing the audience on behalf of the corporation. There are many new and up-to-the-minute features about the house. The lighting is unique and original. The fixtures and designs were installed by Thos. Day Company of San Francisco. Electrical work was done by W. G. Gill.

T. L. Pflueger and J. R. Miller were the architects and Faggoni Studios did the decoration. The general scheme is of Aztec design and is particularly interesting. A Wurlitzer organ was an innovation to Oroville theatre-goers and was admirably played by James E. Lynch.

C. F. Weber & Co. supplied all of the seats and opera chairs of the very latest design and comfort.

A thoroughly complete stage equipment and scenery set was furnished and installed by the American Studios of San Francisco. Artist Fitzkee quite outdid himself in the elaborate scenic investiture and modern stage equipment which is planned to accommodate the largest stage productions and road shows which will appear from time to time in the house.

The artistic draperies were designed and hung by the Newman Drapery Shop of Polk street, San Francisco.

Jack Fier of National Screen Service announces that George N. Montgomery and the Supreme Film Co. of San Francisco and Los Angeles are no longer connected with the National Screen Service establishment. Louis Reichert has been appointed their Northern California sales representative with temporary offices at 298 Turk street.

Reichert is well known by the entire film colony and exhibitor fraternity in the district.

Contracts have been signed for a theatre location and building at Placerville by the M. Blumenfeld Theatre Circuit. Plans have been accepted and work will begin at once to have the house completed for early fall opening this year.

Columbia has completed arrangements to take over the entire office at 177 Golden Gate avenue, and it now is as up-to-date as any Film Exchange in San Francisco.

E. B. Anderson, formerly of the Coalinga Theatre, was in San Francisco looking over the theatre situation.

J. H. Goldberg, Columbia's District manager, was recently in San Francisco going over local situations with Branch Manager Weinstein. Goldberg went on to Portland and Seattle and returned here the following week.

Chas. Frailer has sold his interest in the Tracy Theatre to the Principal Theatre Corporation, of which S. H. Levin is general manager.

G. C. Parsons has returned from a trip in the San Joaquin Valley.

M. Blumenfeld's interest in the Strand at Gilroy and the Morgan Hill Theatre at Morgan Hill has been acquired by Hyman Levin and son, Ben. The theatres will continue under the same motion picture policy as was in effect by the Blumenfeld Circuit. Ben Levin will remain as local manager, with headquarters at Gilroy.

A 2-story Class-C theatre building to have a capacity of 1,500 is to be erected in Merced for the Merced Theatre Company, Frank J. Alberti, manager, at a cost of $100,000.

Sammy Carr, former banjo soloist at the Warfield, has signed up for a tour of the country, according to word from Los Angeles.

K. W. Emmermacher, head of a Hamburg, Germany, film company was at the Palace, recently.

The Film Inspection Machine Co. of New York has put out an automatic inspection machine and they are being installed in the local Fox Exchange.

South West

THE annual election of officers was held on Monday at the meeting of the Oklahoma City Film Board of Trade. Officers for the year June 1, 1928, to June 1, 1929, are: President, R. M. Clark, Liberty-Specialty Film Co.; Vice-President, E. D. Brewer, First National Pictures, Inc.; Secretary, C. W. Allen, Pathe Exchange, Inc.; Treasurer, W. J. Cammer; Educational Film Exchange and Board of Directors, Wallace Walthall, Home State Film Co., W. P. Moran, Universal Film Exchange, Roy E. Heffner, Paramount Famous Lasky, Ottoe Rohde, Warner Bros.-Vitagraph and R. M. Clark, Liberty Specialty Film Co.

K. H. Blakely, who operated the Criterion theatre at Crescent, Okla., before he sold same to George Graff, is looking for a new location. Mr. Blakley has been calling on friends on Film Row the past week.

G. R. Kapeheart, who has been operating the Lyric theatre at Wellston, Okla., for the past year, has sold same to Mr. O. H. Coxen.

V. A. Hardin, owner of the Majestic theatre at Allen, Okla., has sold his theatre to Mr. Frank Nordean.

E. W. Ballentine, auditor from the home office of F.B.O., has been visiting the local F.B.O. office for the past few weeks.

Sanders & Stanford, of the Folly theatre at Sasakwa, Okla., have sold their interest in this theatre to Lee Cooper. Mr. Cooper at one time operated the Blue Mouse theatre at Atoka, Okla.

The members of the Oklahoma City Film Board of Trade were guests of the Secretary, Chas. R. Zears, at a stag dinner Monday evening.

Miss Mildred Stone, former Editor of the Oklahoma Preview, who has been in Los Angeles since January 1st, is expected to return to Oklahoma City this week. Miss Stone was forced to abandon her work on account of ill health and her many friends on Film Row are glad to know she is now able to return to her home here.

Wallace Walthall, manager of Home State, went to Muskogee, Okla., last week.

H. N. Walker and W. O. Green have opened a motor line for transmission of films between Oklahoma City and Ada, Okla., and intermediate points.

Walter Dolin has been added to the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer service at Oklahoma City.

Lee Upchurch has opened a new theatre, the Grand, at Olustee, Okla.

The Pleasant Valley theatre at Pleasant Valley, Okla., and the Gem at Loco, Okla., has been closed.

The Royal theatre at Dow, Okla., has closed indefinitely.

The name of the Majestic theatre at Ft. Gibson, Okla., has been changed to "Only."

Toy White has purchased the Liberty theatre at Ada, Okla., from J. M. Lytle.

M. Walker has leased the Cozy theatre at Miami, Okla., from Mrs. F. H. Smith.

The Rialto theatre at Hobart, Okla., is being remodeled and redecorated.

C. A. Taylor has purchased the Roberson theatre at Dierks, Okla., from E. C. Roberson.

McDonald & McDonald have purchased the Empress theatre at Shattuck, Okla.

Santos Garza has purchased the Star theatre at Del Rio, Texas

The K. & K. Circuit has purchased the Plainview theatre at Plainview, Texas.

Hughes & Kemp has purchased the New theatre at De Queen, Ark.

Ed. Rowley was acquitted of Sunday violation of law at Little Rock, Ark., when municipal judge Harb ruled that inasmuch as the show had been operated for Arkansas Crippled Children's Hospital, no violation of either state or city law has been violated.

Sol Davidson has opened the Davidson Theatre Supply House at 108-110 South Hudson Street, Oklahoma City and will carry equipment for both large and small theatres.

M. K. Moore, manager for Publix theatre, the Capital at Oklahoma City, has been transferred to the Joy and New theatres at Fort Smith, Ark., and will be succeeded by [illegible]

[illegible] of the Rex theatre, Purcell, Okla., is in an Oklahoma City hospital, battling with appendicitis.

The Walters theatre at Walters, Okla., is being remodeled.

The Cozy theatre at Newkirk, Okla., is being repaired.

C. W. Allen, local Pathe manager, Oklahoma City, has recovered from a recent siege of ill[illegible]

Seattle

JOHN HAMRICK, owner and general manager of the Blue Mouse Theatres in Seattle, Portland and Tacoma, returned to his local office last week after a three-week's trip to Hollywood on a combined business and pleasure voyage, most of the time being spent around the Warner studios and offices. After a few days here, Mr. Hamrick packed up again and departed for New York, where he had scheduled conferences with Harry Warner to discuss next season's product for his Blue Mouse Theatres and the new Music Box Theatre in this city.

Pete Carroll, well-known film man of the Northwest territory, lately a special representative for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's short subject department, last week assumed the management of the local Columbia Films Exchange. He succeeds L. J. McGinley, who announced his resignation last week and will announce a new connection within the next few weeks.

Ernest Gill, for several seasons associated wit hthe music staffs of Pacific Northwest Theatres and West Coast Theatres, Inc., last week was appointed director of music for Broadcasting Station KOMO in Seattle.

Ray Felker, former supervisor of Universal's suburban theatres in the Pacific Northwest, last week announced his resignation with that company, and he has been succeeded by Mike Newman, former "U" field representative. Mr. Newman returns to this territory after an absence of several years, and takes up offices in the Winter Garden Theatre.

Jesse Goldburg, one of the high officials of First Division Pictures, Inc., was a visitor in town last week, conferring with several local regional distributors.

Ben F. Shearer, president of the B. F. Shearer Company, Inc., local theatre equipment firm, returned last week from California, and after about three days in his office here, turned around and hopped the train again for Southern climes, where he has a number of contracts in work.

The Crescent Amusement Company, headed by D. C. Millward, has taken over another house, according to announcements made this week. This time it is the Capitol Theatre in Port Angeles, formerly owned by Charles H. George. W. C. Gowen, one of the Crescent Amusement leaders, has been sent from Tacoma to Port Angeles to manage the house.

According to announcements made here last week, minor changes in the projection room of the Fifth Avenue Theatre are now being made, preparatory to the installation of Movietone as a regular weekly feature at the big house. This will be the third Seattle theatre to feature the "talkie," and the fourth will be Hamrick's Music Box, now in the course of construction.

Dr. T. M. Johnson, former operator of the Loi, Theatre at Toppenish, Washington, spent a short time in Seattle last week, and announces that he will soon market his newly-perfected rotary valve motor which has been in work for many months.

Auditor C. MacKain of Columbia Exchanges returned to the local office last week from Butte, where he closed the regular office and left a shipping office instead. Branch Manager Charles Knickerbocker of Butte was transferred to Kansas City, and E. R. Caddy, Jr., has been placed in charge of the shipping office. Mr. MacKain leaves this city this week for California.

Walter McNeish, former owner of the Bijou Theatre in Tacoma, is now manager of the Bijou and Palace Theatres in that city, both of which houses belong to D. C. Millward's Crescent Amusement Company.

Rolla Duncan's new Avalon Theatre in Olmpia was last week scheduled for formal opening the latter part of April. It is an 850-seat first run picture house.

St. Louis

CONSTRUCTION has started on the theatre Lonnie McClure will erect on North Main street, Dardanelle, Ark. T. N. Downs, architect, is supervising the construction. The house, one-story in height, will cover a site 40 by 100 feet and cost about $25,000.

Lee Brothers will soon award the contract for the construction of their Amuse U theatre in England, Ark. This house will have a main and balcony.

St. Louis film stocks closed on the St. Louis Stock Exchange April 28 as follows: Skouras A, $41.75 bid and $42.50 asked, a gain of $2 for the week. A year ago the stock was held at $40 a share. St. Louis Amusement A, $32 asked. A year ago $43. During the week 500 shares of Skouras stock changed hands, but there were no sales of St. Louis Amusement stock.

Miss Edith Skouras, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skouras, won a gold medal for the best individual address delivered in a recent debate at Hosmer Hall.

Charles Skouras is vice-president of Skouras Brothers Enterprises.

Mrs. Jennie D'Antoni is taking bids on the new theatre she plans to erect in Picayune, Miss. The house will be two-story and basement, 140 by 140 feet. There will be seven stores on the ground floor and 12 offices on the second.

A. M. Menee plans to erect a theatre on South Jackson street, Amory, Miss.

Contract has been awarded for the construction of the Strand theatre in Homboldt, Ia. J. Franke is the manager. The house will be one story, 40 by 114 feet, and cost $25,000.

The Oskaloosa, Ia., Opera House will be remodeled.

Cincinnati

THE Walnut Theatre, Cincinnati, originally built for and playing legitimate attractions several years ago, but for the past 15 years devoted to pictures, is to close the middle of May, according to an announcement from the offices of the Keith-Libson-Harris-Heidingsfeld combinations, into the possession of which interests the house passed some months ago. No reason is assigned for the closing, and no definite information has been given out as to the future of the house, but it is reported that the present owners will not reopen same. The Walnut has a seating capacity of 2,200.

The Grand Opera House, Cincinnati, broke attendance records with recent one week's showing of "Simba," the Johnson animal picture. The house was entirely sold out for all but two performances.

G. B. Lively, Gloversville, N. Y., has been appointed manager of the Ohio Schine Theatre, Sidney, Ohio, to succeed Roy Boomer, who was transferred to Detroit to look after one of the Schine houses.

The Colonial Theatre, Dayton, Ohio, is the latest house in this neck o' the woods to install Movietone. It will be featured in addition to the Vitaphone, which was installed several months ago.

The Rialto Theatre, Dayton, Ohio, in which extensive improvements have recently been completed, now boasts of a new Wurlitzer type "Z" organ, of which Manager E. E. Coleman is unusually proud.

Friends of Howard S. Reeves, manager of the Lyric Theatre, Miamisburg, Ohio, are extending sympathies over the death of his mother, which occurred recently.

Ed E. Keen, the enterprising manager of the Oxford Theatre, Oxford, Ohio, recently played a benefit for the Kiwanis Club of that city, which was very largely attended.

For the first time in its history, the Miami Valley Chautauqua, which is an annual event near Franklin, Ohio, will show movies this year. Ten first-run pictures have been selected.

Griff. Granger, manager of the Kaypee Theatre, Mt. Gilead, Ohio, the smallest first-run theatre in the state, who has many novel innovations to his credit, has now organized a baseball team, named after his house.

John Schwalm, manager of the Rialto Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio, recently played host to a number of local kiddies at a special Saturday morning matinee.

Fred Hilton, 75, former manager of the Orpheum Theatre, and Opera House, Mansfield, Ohio, died at his home in Toledo, Ohio, following a lingering illness. He retired from theatrical life several years ago.

Minneapolis

THE Orpheum theatre at Fergus Falls, Minn., has been remodeled and is now reopened.

Bennie Berger of Grand Forks, N. D., has purchased the Grand theatre at Bemidji, Minn., and leased the Elko theatre in the same city.

Robert Redburn is the new manager of the Wapazo theatre at Redelm, S. D., which has just been reopened.

New York & New Jersey

THE Motion Picture Operators Union, local 306, has chosen Sam Kaplan, Charles Eichorn, Frank Day, David Engel, Max Feinberg, Simon Terr, John Lefante and F. E. Castle as delegates to the convention of International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees and Motion Picture Operators to be held at Detroit, June 4.

Several changes have occurred among the Consolidated Amusement Company's local theatres since the appointment of Rudolph Kuehn as general manager of the Lawrence Bolongino Theatre Circuit. Wm. Miskell succeeds Frank Giovanni at the Jerome and Chas. Mittlemark replaces Louis Mitnick at the Mt. Eden. As mentioned in last week's News, Frank Giovanni has joined with the Joelson-Suchman circuit at the Ritz theatre. Other changes are expected to be made in the Consolidated houses.

"Cove Theatres" is reported to be the new name for the Joelson-Suchman Theatre Enterprises.

No doubt thinking to duplicate a feat by which the safe of another uptown New York City theatre was recently hauled away on a truck by yeggmen, a gang tried the trick on the Jerome theatre last week but was unsuccessful in the undertaking.

Harry Thomas, of First Division Pictures, celebrated a birthday last week.

Fox is reported to have extended the lease on the Gaiety theatre until July 1. The arrangement was made with Pathe, the present holder.

Joe Weinstock has purchased the new theatre recently constructed by Julius Joelson at 167th street and Jerome avenue. The house will seat 2,500.

Al Gould is reported as having disposed of his interest in the Concourse theatre, upper New York City, to G. A. Ryan.

Al Horsten is the new managing director of the Park Lane theatre, controlled by Charles O'Reilly and Al Gould.

Morris Blinder's Tuxedo theatre is scheduled to open Decoration Day.

Louis Ganz, formerly with the Consolidated Amusement Company as assistant general manager, is now in charge of Al Joelson's Tremont theatre.

After an illness of six weeks Herman Starr, purchasing agent for the Joelson-Suchman Circuit, is again back at his desk.

Chester Sawyer, well known executive of Howell's Cine Equipment Co. when that company was managed by Joe Hornstein, has returned from a four weeks' trip to Cuba.

Jack Steinman recently purchased new equipment for his Metro theatre from National Theatre Supply. Joe Hornstein also recently equipped the new Edison Auditorium, Tremont avenue and 177th street.

The Stanley-Fabian Circuit has remodeled the Strand theatre, Bayonne, N. J.

The Fox City theatre is running a stright picture program.

The Park Plaza has included vaudeville with its program.

The Greenwich Village theatre has reopened with a straight picture program.

After several years as salesmon for Big U, Joe Weinberg has joined F. B. O. and will cover Manhattan and the Bronx.

O. H. Yorence is in charge of Loew's Willard at Woodhaven while Manager George Cann is laid up with an eye infection.

George Reddy, formerly with the Pathe publicity office, is working with various theatres in the Loew circuit.

Dave Solomon, of National Theatre Supply, sent us a long story about how successful Manager Morris Suchman was in putting over a Vitaphone picture at Sydney Cohen's Empire theatre without any Vitaphone. Dave told the writer that it was a great story—and it may be—but after reading an entire page of typewritten copy we found that Dave had neglected to state just how Morris accomplished this stunt. Therefore, while taking for granted that Mr. Suchman gave a worthy presentation of the picture and passing along to him compliments, it will be necessary to await further information from Mr. Solomon.

Baltimore

TWO Baltimore first run moving picture houses closed on Saturday night, April 28. One is the Palace, which has been showing moving pictures with burlesque on a grind policy, which will not reopen until the fall, according to present plans. The other is the Rivoli, which, according to an announcement outside the playhouse, the reopening date will be announced later.

The reason for the Rivoli closing, which is under the management of Frank Price, Jr., and operated by the Wilson Amusement Co., has not been announced, but business has fallen off there considerably during the past season and particularly since the Rivoli has not been advertising in two newspapers and has curtailed all advertising in others.

Gaertner Brothers, who operate the Ritz and Red Wing theatres here, has just opened their new Vilma theatre, in the suburban section of the city.

They are officers in the Vilma Amusement Company, which will operate the playhouse. The theatre was designed by John C. Eyring, architect. It cost about $125,000 and has a seating capacity of 900 persons. The interior is decorated in ivory, grey and gold.

Charles A. Koerner has been appointed assistant office manager of the Frank H. Durkee moving picture interests operating the Palace, Belnord, Grand, Boulevard and other Baltimore theatres.

Harry Webb, formerly president of the Parkway Theatre Company, before it was sold to the Whitehurst Interests, and Frank H. Durkee, president of several theatre companies here, are said to be interested in the new moving picture theatre and public library room which is planned to be built at Edmondson avenue and Edgemont street, according to a bill which has been introduced into the City Council here.

An unfavorable report on Daylight Saving for Baltimore, which was submitted to the City Council by the special committee of ten appointed to investigate public sentiment on the matter was adopted by the Council Monday night, April 23, by a unanimous vote. A public hearing had been held by the committee the Friday afternoon previous to the voting and it was on the result of that hearing that the unfavorable report was based.

M. Lang, formerly manager of the Capitol theatre, Richmond, Va., has been appointed resident manager for the Equity Theatres Corp., of the Metropolitan theatre here.

Jack Levy, theatre manager of Equity, has been in Baltimore for some time operating the house. He has returned to his duties in Philadelphia.

The Supreme Bench of Baltimore City has taken under consideration the motion for a new trial in the Sunday Blue Law case against John G. Callan and his associates.

John Phillip Hill, former Congressman, one of the attorneys for Mr. Callan, argued the new trial motion before the Supreme Bench in the case of Callan "and his associates" to show movies in Baltimore on Sunday recently, with Paul B. Mules.

Mr. Callan, who is president of the Liberty Defense League, and was a former member of the House of Delegates, was present at the hearing, before the nine judges of the bench.

Joshua W. Levering and Dr. W. W. Davis, of the Lord's Day Alliance, were present at the hearing also.

It is contended by the attorneys that the law which requires an opera house to be kept closed on Sunday is not applicable to a motion picture theatre. Sunday concerts have been given in Baltimore at the Lyric and motion pictures have been shown in churches on Sunday also and it should have been permitted them to show them at the former trial it was argued.

Within the meaning of the Sunday law, the sale of an admission ticket is not a sale of goods or merchandise.

Assistant State's Attorney Hillary W. Gans argued against granting a new trial.

In his argument also Mr. Hill explained that stereopticon views of the Holy Land have been shown in churches on Sunday and only in the speed with which the views have changed does that differ from showing of motion pictures.

The quarters of J. Louis Rome, general manager of the Associated Theatres Company, and his brother Hyman, were badly damaged when the Clyburne Court apartments owned by Hyman, were damaged recently when the floor and roof were burned.

A ventilating air cooling system is being installed in the Apollo theatre here, operated by the Associated Theatres Company, J. Louis Rome, general manager.

An operation to have his tonsils removed was performed recently on George W. Jacobs, manager of the Goldfield theatre.

J. M. Shellman, motion picture editor of the Baltimore Sun, has started work on his fourth novel, entitled "Hell Changes Management."

EMPIRE FILM VAULTS, INC.
723 Seventh Ave., N. Y. Bryant 5437-5736-2180
STORAGE OF MOTION PICTURE FILMS

Dallas

CHARLES E. KESSNICH, southern division manager for Metro-Goldwyn, and Leroy Bickel, manager of the Dallas M-G-M exchange attended the M-G-M Sales Convention in Kansas City.

R. B. (Pug) Jones, managing director of the Worth Theatre, Ft. Worth, made his usual trip to Dallas to get a few pointers on theatre operation from the Palace Theatre, Dallas.

C. B. Stiff, southern district manager for Publix, John Friedel, manager Publix De Luxe division, and J. J. Deitch, district booker, are in Washington, D. C., attending the Paramount Sales Convention.

E. H. Kleinert, musical director of the Melba Theatr is in New York City on business.

Julia Dawn, organist at the Melba Theatre, Dallas, is guest organist at the Denver Theatre, Denver, Colorado, and will remain there during the next month.

Al Lichtman, general sales manager for the United Artists was a guest of the United Artists Dallas Exchange and Mr. Ralph A. Morrow, manager of the local U. A. office.

W. W. Rucker, assistant manager of the Famous Players Lasky Dallas Exchange reports that business is unusually good, and everything indicates that it will continue to be good. Mr. Rucker is in charge of the local office at the present time, due to the transfer of Oscar Morgan to the Kansas City branch. Up to the present time Mr. Morgan's successor has not been named.

J. B. Duggan, Hugh Owen, Cecil House, John Muchmore, Neil Houston, Sid Simpson, M. I. Honeycutt and Ralph Larnedare attending the Paramount Sales Convention at Washington.

J. E. Elder, purchasing agent for the southern division for Publix, has just returned from a purchasing agents' convention at Chicago.

Word has been received from F. F. Smith, manager of Loew's Theatre at Richmond, Va., that Lloyd Hill, organist, and Sigmund Boguslowsky, concert leader, are both employed at his theatre. Mr. Boguslowsky formerly directed the orchestra of the Palace Theatre, Dallas. Mr. Hill was also a Dallas organist.

Ross A. Wiegand, former publicity manager for the Melba Theatre, left for Oklahoma City Thursday to assist in putting over the Vitaphone campaign on "The Jazz Singer" at the Capitol Theatre in that city. Mr. Wiegand will not return to the Melba Theatre, and James O. Cherry, managing director of the Melba, and Victor Lowery, new house manager, will have charge of publicity for the present time.

Barry Burke, former managing director of the Palace Theatre, Dallas, and now managing director of the Publix Denver theatre was a four day guest of the Worth Theatre at Ft. Worth during its opening.

Mrs. Sarah Rehfeldt, who has been cashier of the Paramount Dallas exchange for the past ten years is resigning her position due to ill health. Mrs. Rehfeldt has proved herself to be a valuable asset to the Dallas exchange, and it is with much regret that the office force gives her up. Mrs. King, who has been employed at the local exchange for the past four years will assume Mrs. Rehfeldt's duties.

M. R. Williams, manager of the Rialto Theatre at Midland, Texas, was a visitor on Film Row, and stated that conditions in his part of the country are very favorable, and good future business is expected. Mr. Williams made a wonderful success of his showing of Harold Lloyd in "Speedy."

Midwest Amusement Co. of Kansas City will erect a $150,000 theatre at Edinburg, Texas. The building will be three stories high and 75 by 142 feet. It is to be a brick structure, trimmed with terra cotta, with a seating capacity of 1800.

An unusual honor was bestowed upon Arthur A. Keyes, exhibitor at Quanah, Tex., when he was selected as district governor for the Rotary Club in his district. Mr. Keyes always occupies a prominent place in civic affairs of his community, and due to his untiring aid to every movement, he has won for himself an envied position in his community.

The first Sunday afternoon show at San Angelo, Texas, furnished grounds for several attacks from the San Angelo churches, and Rev. J. A. Richardson, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church announced that he will take legal steps to prevent the exhibitors from having Sunday shows if necessary.

The R. & R. Enterprises will erect a $150,000 theatre at Del Rio, Texas, according to a recent announcement. Plans call for thoroughly modern theatre equipment, and will have a seating capacity of 1500.

Central Penn

E. L. TRENCHARD, for eight years head of the Grand theatre, Lancaster, as manager, became assistant director of all publicity for the Stanley Theatre Company, of Philadelphia, controlling a big chain of theatres in the latter city, Lancaster and elsewhere, on April 30. He is now in the office of A. L. Einstein, Earle theatre building, Philadelphia.

Plans for the erection of a theatre to cost $200,000 in the central business section of Kulpmont, a rapidly growing town in the Central Pennsylvania hard coal mining regions, were announced on April 23 by the Arcade Amusement Co., a new corporation organized by business men of Kulpmont and Mount Carmel. The corporation has purchased a site at Chestnut and Ninth streets, adjacent to the Dime Deposit Band building. The structure will be of brick and marble, and will be designed for motion picture, vaudeville and road show exhibitions. A feature will be the installation of a Vitaphone device. Plans have been drawn and construction will begin at once and will be rushed with the idea of opening the building for business in the early fall.

Ed R. Moore, manager of the York and Orpheum theatres, in York—part of the Nathan Appell chain of theatres—on April 24, was the subject of a first page jingle in the "Velvet Hammer" column, which is a daily feature of the Harrisburg Evening News.

The Victoria theatre, Mahanoy City, has adopted a policy of substituting vaudeville for pictures one night each week. Pictures are not eliminated entirely from the program on that day, however, as one feature film is offered. The vaudeville nights are Wednesdays.

Among the charters issued to amusement corporations in Pennsylvania at the capitol in Harrisburg, the week of April 23, was one to the Asbury Park Company, of Washington, Pa., organized to "acquire, sell and lease real estate and construct thereon buildings for amusement and recreation to patrons and the public." The nominal stock is $5,000, consisting of 100 shares with a par value of $50 each. The treasurer of the new corporation is W. M. Asbury, of 227 West Spruce street, Washington, Pa., who is also one of the incorporators, owning eight and one-third shares of stock. The other incorporators are Thornton Asbury, 225 West Spruce street, Washington, 25 shares, and Ephraim Corbin, of Washington.

Cleveland

FRANK DREW, local M-G-M branch manager, reported in Pittsburgh last Friday whereat the eastern division of M-G-M convened. District managers, branch managers and home office representatives gathered. William F. Rogers, eastern division manager, presided. Representatives of New York, New Haven, Boston, Albany, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Washington, Pittsburgh, Cleveland Cincinnati, Detroit and Charlotte were present at the meeting.

The local Universal family left here early Thursday morning for Atlantic City to attend the annual "U" convention. Leo Devaney, branch manager, headed the troupe of seven from Cleveland.

Warner Brothers also had Cleveland representatives at their convention in New York last week. Norman Moray, branch manager, and Fred Scheuerman, assistant manager were present.

Carl Lesserman, First National exchange manager, was in Chicago a week ahead of the F. N. convention. He was called there on account of the illness of Mrs. Lesserman. He will stay until after the convention.

Independent producers are beginning their trek across the country. Last week T. U. Curran of Rayart productions was here. So was Henry Goldstone. Milton Simon, formerly with Rayart and now turned producer on his own, was also a visitor.

George Folberth has appointed himself manager of the Almira theatre. Folberth owns the theatre. Until now he was satisfied just to own it. Now he wants to run it as well.

Security Pictures has moved into new quarters in 702 Film Exchange Bldg. It's larger, and offers better buying and selling facilities.

Albany

THE Bijou, in Troy, which has been run for the past several years by Rose and Windekenecht, was sold last week to Louis Benton, of Ballston Spa, a brother of William Benton, who has a chain of several theatres in northern New York. Mr. Benton has been handling his brother's house in Ballston, but will now branch out in business for himself.

The regular monthly inspection of film exchanges was made early last week by the Albany Film Board of Trade, with Harry Seid, local manager for Warner Brothers, escorting Miss Edna Pfister, secretary of the Board, to the various exchanges. Conditions were reported as very satisfactory.

Abe Van Dusen, booker at the F. B. O. exchange in Albany, is anticipating a nice slice of money in the near future, having led the entire United States for two straight weeks in the F. B. O. bookers' drive.

Many of the film exchange managers in Albany, as well as the salesmen, are packing their bags these days and leaving for various conventions. Nat Levy, manager of the Universal exchange, and his three salesmen, Ray Smith, Fred Duffy and Leon Herman, left on Thursday for the Universal conclave. Alec Herman, former manager for First National, in Albany, is attending the First National blow out. Howard Morgan, manager for Educational, is getting all set to attend his company's convention in Montreal on May 22.

According to reports reaching Albany, Mike Banmasauer, of Malone, is doing so well these days that he has received an offer of $50,000 for the theatre which is said to have cost him but $17,000 a year or so ago. The offer is said to have come from an opposition house.

W. T. Finn, who operates theatres in six small places, in the vicinity of Cooperstown, and who is postmaster of his village, has been laid up in bed for several days with an attack of grippe.

Tony Veiller, who recently forsook the motion picture theatre for the garment house, reports that he is well pleased with his change and to all intents and purposes he will remain in his new line of endeavor. He formerly handled the Mark Ritz in Albany.

A negro, singing "The Old Irish Mother O' Mine" in one of Albany's motion picture theatres, one night last week, as a participant in the amateur part of the program, nearly broke up the show, and all but caused a riot among some of the Irish patrons.

Bill Smalley has returned to his home in Cooperstown after a week or two in Atlantic City and has so far recovered his health that he will again become active in the management of a string of a dozen or more theatres.

The Schine Enterprises have created two new districts in New York state and have appointed L. J. Carkey as head of the Mohawk Valley district, with headquarters at Gloversville. Walter M. Powers, one time a resident of Albany, has been placed in charge of the newly created northern district, with headquarters at Oswego, and which will include houses in nine plices in northern New York. Mr. Powers has been manager of the Strand in Oswego for the past four years.

C. E. Taylor, who recently acquired a theatre in Antwerp, is spending considerable money these days in improving the house. He has installed a $4,000 organ, as well as redecorated the theatre throughout.

Abe Stone, owner of the Eagle theatre in Albany, is installing a new ventilating system as well as a couple of new projection machines. He is also improving the smoking room and other portions of the theatre.

Charles Stombaugh, local manager for Pathe, returned last week from a swing through northern New York, during which he found exhibitors busy at many other lines of endeavor and which necessitated his calling at machine shops, feed stores and creameries. Exhibitors in nearly all of the smaller towns do not depend entirely upon their theatres for a livelihood.

The new Smalley theatre in Johnstown, which will replace the one burned several months ago, is rapidly nearing completion and it is now planned to open the house on May 15.

After several weeks of rather poor business, the Central theatre in Albany, closed its doors last week and may not reopen next fall. The house is owned by Walter Emigh and according to some reports it is planned to reconstruct it into a garage.

Amos Curry, who now has Sunday movies at Norwood, was in Albany a few days ago booking features. He expressed himself as well pleased at the outcome of the recent village election.

C. H. Buckley, owner of the Leland and the Clinton Square theatres in Albany, blossomed forth last week not only with a new Cadillac, but also a new chauffeur, and proceeded to announce that he will shortly take a trip to either New York or Montreal.

Tom Thornton, owner of the theatre in Saugerties, is branching out these days and using vaudeville quite frequently. Last week Mr. Thornton had a vaudeville show of no less than 32 persons.

Louis Buettner, of Cohoes, is rapidly recovering his health and is able to be out for short periods [illegible] manager for Fox, drove to Cohoes the other day and spent an hour or so with Mr. Buettner.

Dick Hayes, of the Paramount exchange, was out on the road for his company last week, taking the place of another employee who is temporarily laid up with several bones fractured in one foot.

"Al" Guteck, local manager for F.B.O., will leave on or about May 14 for Chicago, where he will attend his company's convention.

Alec Feltmann, who recently sold his holdings in Schenectady theatres, is ill and confined at a sanitarium. Mr. Feltmann had been suffering with foot trouble for several months.

Abe VanDusen, of Albany, who is a red hot baseball fan, decided to drive down to New York last Sunday for one of the big games. It rained all the way to Poughkeepsie, then cleared up for a few minutes, just long enough to induce Mr. VanDusen to continue on to the metropolis, where he found the rain continuing.

Carl Fahrenholts, booker at the local Fox exchange, was in New York city on Sunday. Abe Dwore and son, of Schenectady, exhibitors, were along Albany's Film Row during the week. Ben Talmadge, of Windham, runs the motion picture theatre in his town, and is a lawyer besides. G. M. Lounsbury, who has a theatre in Grand Gorge, works in the village bank. I. Miller, who runs a theatre in Kingston, is a New York city lawyer and it is almost impossible for film salesmen to catch him except on Saturday and Sunday. William Haines, of Cairo, is getting his theatre in readiness to open for the summer season. Pete Dana, local manager for Tiffany, spent last week in calling on the exhibitors of the Catskill region.

Des Moines

FIRE gutted the motion picture house at Bennett, Iowa last week. The fire was of unknown origin. The theatre is known as the Opera House and is owned by Ross and Willey. They have suspended business activities temporarily and have made no announcement as to whether they will build a new construction or move to new quarters.

The Auditorium Theatre, at Oxford, Iowa, owned by H. F. Heinfield, closed last week. Business has been very slow in that district.

Visitors in film row were P. W. Kale, of the Crown Theatre, at Truro, Iowa; George Wigman, of the Strand, at Boone; S. E. Robertson, of the Gem, at Lohrville; F. W. Holt, of Montezuma; George Hake, of the Lyric at Belmond; all of whom registered at the F B O exchange. H. G. Simpson, of Sigourney, called to see executives of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and, among those who called at the Paramount office were W. P. Grossman, of Nevada; G. W. Cecil, of Bedford; George Schweneker, of Guthrie Center.

Paramount's team won the championship of Des Moines bowlers. Although they were in the lead by but two games they so decidedly defeated the First National team, which won second place in the last games which they played with them, that everyone was ready to concede the Paramount crack team the money. The first prize is seventy-five dollars, which will be awarded to the Paramount team later with appropriate ceremony. The report is that the Paramount team plans to give a celebration party when they receive their prize, especially remembering the girls of their office who have aided from the rooting section, and the reporters who have been following the contest from week to week.

An election, at Ames, over the question of Sunday movies, is scheduled for April 30, both factions making a final effort toward victory. A forecast favors the cause of the exhibitors.

Casey Jones and Jay Mills, who have been alternating at Davenport and the Riviera at Waterloo as stage band directors, will come to Des Moines this week to be on the Capitol stage. Jimmy Ellard, who has been the personality man here for two months, is now on vacation. Casey Jones, at his first performance, received a big hand.

The theatre business at Coon Rapids, Iowa, has recently been transferred from Nebraska to Iowa territory. J. E. Ridgeway is the exhibitor there.

Eloise Bolton, who has charge of the 'phone at the office of M-G-M, is ill. She has an attack of appendicitis.

F. W. Holt, of Montezuma, came into Des Moines on film business last week.

Chicago

BLAND BROS. have moved their offices from 730 South Wabash avenue to the eighth floor of the Gunther building, 1018 So. Wabash. Both the exchange and their theatre office, which is in charge of General Manager Aaron Saperstein, will be located at the new address.

The go-getters of F. B. O.'s Chicago exchange look like sure winners of the Managers Spring Clean-Up Drive, and Manager Herbert Washburn and the sales staff will split the thousand dollar cash prize which was hung up in this contest. The St. Louis exchange, under the management of the old time Chicago exchange man, Harry Weiss, ran our local boys a tough race but was nosed out in the last week.

Balaban & Katz are offering some strong local favorites on the bill at the Oriental the week of May 6th, in an effort to counteract the departure of the Rajah of Jazz, Paul Ash, for New York City, where he will head the stage show at the Paramount theatre. Van & Schenck are billed for the stage show that week and Jesse Crawford is being brought on from New York to preside at the Oriental organ.

Henri Ellman of Columbia Pictures exchange went to New York on a combined business and pleasure trip. Mr. Ellman is expected back at his Chicago office the first of next week.

Tom Mix and Tony are proving a big drawing card at the State-Lake theatre, where the western star is making a personal appearance and for the first time in several months standouts were noticed for a half hour before the doors opened and all during the day. On Tuesday, Mr. Mix showed the children of Chicago some riding stunts at Soldiers' Field, and on Wednesday he was the guest of honor at F. B. O.'s exchange, the exhibitors of Chicago territory being invited to meet him. At the exchange party, Manager Washburn delegated Ted Meyers to dispense with refreshments and Ted, in his cowboy costume, gave a real western atmosphere to the reception.

Manager Herbel and nine salesmen from the Chicago exchange left for Universal's convention at the Coronado Hotel, St. Louis, on Tuesday night and returned to Chicago on Sunday morning.

District Manager Shirley and Exchange Manager Mendelshon of Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer, are among the exchange men who are busy with conventions this week, both being at their company's Kansas City meeting.

Meyer Saperstein has recovered from a severe attack of flu, which kept him home for the past two weeks, and is back at his post at the Lexington theatre, where he is manager.

Divisional Manager Wallace of United Artists is back from a week's trip to New York City.

First National executives, exchange managers and salesmen from all parts of the country were in attendance at the convention which opened Monday at the Drake Hotel and continued until Thursday. Important announcements of the convention included the 1928-29 production schedule and sales policies for the new season's product.

The Filmack Company, makers of special announcement trailers, heralds and programs, have leased the entire floor of their present quarters at 730 South Wabash avenue, in order to secure additional space made necessary by the growing business. Irving Mack, head of the Filmack Company, states that the increased office space will enable him to enlarge his art department and make several other changes, designed to expedite the service rendered by his company.

Denver

THERE was a lot of excitement along Curtis street last week right in the midst of movie row, when a fire broke out in the Plaza Theatre near Seventeenth and Curtis. Much credit is due to Dave Jinacio, projectionist who, taking a chance on the seriousness of the fire, continued to operate the machine as though it were a small matter. The organist, Hannabell Bloomfield, also shares in the glory by continuing to play the organ while the patrons made their exit from the building. Although there was considerable smoke the damage will not exceed $200. The Plaza is one of the Fox theatres of Denver, and is under the management of R. V. Conner.

Sam H. Cain, Universal branch manager, is confined at his home for a few days as a result of a minor operation at St. Luke's hospital last Thursday. He will soon be back at his desk.

Harry E. Huffman, Aladdin Theatre owner, of Denver, and Max Schubach, of the Midwest Theatres Co., have been appointed by the M. P. T. O. here as alternates to serve on the Board of Arbitration when called upon under the rules.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Hamen, an Orpheum Theatre patron, was seized with a heart attack last Sunday night while watching the performance. She died soon afterward.

Mrs. Viola K. Lee, well known organist of the Aladdin Theatre, gave birth to an eight-pound son at the Presbyterian hospital last Thursday. Mrs. Lee is the wife of Ralph D. Lee, popular member of the Wilkes Players, of the Denham Theatre.

Ed Bluck's new theatre in Durango, Colo., is progressing rapidly in construction, and will be ready for opening early in June. The theatre will have about 700 seats and be up-to-date in all the latest ideas of construction.

Mrs. Julia White, mother of Ralph White, manager of the Victory Theatre, of Craig, Colo., died at a Denver hospital last Thursday after a lingering illness.

Burns Ellison, well known exhibitor here operating the Federal Theatre, and Geo. Staples, formerly associated with Wm. Ostenberg, Jr., of Scottsbluff, Neb., have leased the Gem Theatre, of Johnstown, Colo., and will open in the next few days.

Joseph H. Ashby, First National branch manager, has just returned to his desk after spending the past ten days visiting exhibitors in the southern part of the Denver territory.

Ed Schulte, Casper, Wyo., theatre manager, was seen along film row last week transacting some business.

C. W. Hine, owner of the Princess Theatre, of Ault, Colo., was a Denver visitor last week. He attended a meeting of the Board of Arbitration

Robert Saunders, manager of the Liberty Theatre, of Salt Creek, Wyo., spent a few days visiting exchanges here during the latter part of last week.

Contrary to first reports the fire at the Alexander Industries, Inc., plant in Englewood, Colo., last Friday was not a film fire, but a fire in the painting plant of the airplane department. Alexander makes the animated advertising so familiar to exhibitors in these parts.

Frank Edwards, former exhibitor of Seattle, Wash., and now mayor of that city, called on J. T. Sheffield, Columbia exchange owner here, last Thursday. Mr. Edwards spent only a few minutes in Denver that being between trains during his journey to Chicago.

Detroit

FOLLOWING a report made against him by a special guard, a man was arrested in the Granada Theatre on a warrant charging him with malicious destruction of property. Albert Schukowski, the guard, reported finding two stench bombs in a small box in the men's rest room shortly after one had already been thrown in the theatre. He said he emptied the bombs, replaced them and hid. A short time later, he stated, the man appeared and carried them off. Schukowski then phoned the police. Recently the theatre has been the prey of vandals, who, operating during the busiest hours, have ripped upholstery in the seats and broken stench bombs on several occasions.

Work on the new Fox has been resumed after a sympathy strike, in connection with the new Fox theatre being erected in St. Louis. It was a strike conducted by steel workers affiliated with the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers.

It is reported that Henderson M. Richey, the general manager of the M.P.T.O. of Michigan, is back again from the Battle Creek sanitarium, and that his health has improved rapidly although he is still on a strict diet.

An Acme Portable Projector was stolen from the McArthur Theatre Equipment company at 2305 Cass Avenue the other night.

Pat O'Brien, a former Detroit film exchange clerk, who has appeared in serials and westerns, has returned to Hollywood after spending the Easter holidays with his family and many friends in this city.

Atlanta

THE oustanding event of the week was the opening of the new Royal theatre on Rose Hill, Columbus, Ga., Monday evening, April 30, at 8 o'clock at which time notables in the film industry from all over the state and outside gathered to view the new house built by R. E. Martin at a cost of approximately $300,000.

The Royal is situated nearly two miles from the business section of the city in a locality quite accessible to all residential parts and has a seating capacity of 2,800, which is larger than any theatre in Atlanta.

Mr. Martin is one of the most prominent showmen in this section of the country. To show the appreciation of the city for what he has done for Columbus, the Columbus Ledger newspaper will carry a 14 page special edition on the Royal theatre next Sunday, April 29.

John Ezell, manager of Warner Brothers exchange in Atlanta, was re-elected to the presidency of the Atlanta Film Board of Trade at the regular semi-annual election of officers held Monday, April 23. This is the fifth time that Mr. Ezell has been chosen for the post.

Other officers of the new administration include Dave Prince, branch manager for Paramount-Famous-Lasky, vice-president; Jas. W. Hanlon, M-G-M branch manager, secretary, and E. L. Cole, executive secretary and treasurer.

The election of officers Monday followed the regular meeting of the full board when the following directors were elected: John T. Ezell, Warners; W. W. Anderson, Pathe; Dave Price, Paramount; Jas. W. Hanlon, M-G-M., and Arthur C. Bromberg, Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions.

Serving on the Arbitration Committee will be John W. Mangham, Liberty-Specialty, chairman; Jas. W. Hanlon, Dave Prince, Paul C. Bryan, Fox, and R. S. Beacham, United Artists, were chosen as alternates.

According to information reaching Atlanta last week, the Joe Steed Amusement Company sold its Plaza theatre in North Birmingham; the Grand theatre in Wylam, Ala., and the Gary theatre in Fairfield, Ala., to A. P. Sloss.

The DeKalb theatre in Lithonia, Ga., formerly operated by W. J. Brooks, has been bought by J. T. McDonald.

O. P. Corall, salesman for Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions, had a narrow escape from drowning last week when his car went into a stream, swollen to flood proportions by the recent heavy rains.

After having been in New York on important business, W. G. Underwood, of Dallas, Texas, vice-president and general manager of Liberty-Specialty Film Distributing Company, spent Tuesday of this week in Atlanta conferring with John W. Mangham, Jr., Atlanta branch manager, and M. E. Wiman, manager of the Charlotte exchange.

Fred C. Aiken, representative of Grantland Sportlight subjects, with headquarters in New York, was a visitor's to Pathe's Atlanta office last week.

Due to more time required to install Vitaphone and Movietone and to a more extensive plan for elaborate redecoration of the theatre, the Rialto will reopen May 7, instead of April 30, it was announced Wednesday by Manager W. T. Murray.

George Steele, who, for the past four years, has been connected with the Interstate Amusement Co., is now manager of the company's Tianon theatre, Birmingham.

For the purpose of giving their Florida accounts even better service in the future, Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions will, on May 1, establish an exchange in Tampa, according to announcement made last week by Arthur C. Bromberg, president of the company.

The branch will be located at 714 Twigg street and will be in charge of Mrs. George Chester, wife of George Chester, who represents Bromberg Attractions in the Florida territory.

J. H. Butner, Atlanta branch manager of Educational, spent last week in South Georgia.

Fred F. Creswell, district manager of Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions, with headquarters in Atlanta, left last Tuesday for a visit to the company's New Orleans exchange.

C. E. Long, manager of Joe Wheeler's Grand theatre at Cedartown, Ga., was a visitor on film row last week.

E. A. Rambonnet, special representative connected with the Charlotte exchange of Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions, was a recent visitor in Atlanta.

William G. Minder, Southeastern division manager for Tiffany-Stahl Productions, with headquarters in Atlanta, left last Saturday for a visit to the Alabama territory.

Recent visitors to Atlanta included W. D. Patrick, who recently bought the Trojan theatre, Troy, Ala., from C. H. Carney; B. F. Mutch, of the Dixie theatre, Birmingham, Ala.; F. W. Redmond, of the Scenic theatre, Lake Wales, Fla.; Joe Wheeler, of the Capitol theatre, Montgomery, Ala.; S. M. Levinson, of the Park-Seventh theatre, Sarasota, Fla.; Mrs. Irving Dietz, of the Star theatre, Covington, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Edenfield, of the Dreamland theatre, Augusta, Ga.; F. G. Adams, of the Ritz theatre, Montgomery, Ala.; P. H. Sharkey, of the Nelson theatre, Nelson, Ga.; L. D. Joel, of the New Casino theatre, Jacksonville, Fla.; F. G. Craig, of the Ideal theatre, Ashburn, Ala.; L. G. Hobgood, of the Dixie theatre, Bowden, Ga., and Wendell Welch, of the Strand theatre, Dallas, Ga.

Friends of Jim Young, First National salesman out of the Atlanta office, will regret to learn that he is ill.

Salt Lake City

MORE than one hundred orphans of this city were the guests of the Capitol theatre management April 21st. In connection with Louis Marcus and Manager George E. Carpenter, Fire Chief Walter S. Knight, arranged the theatre party.

A. L. Glassman, who recently leased the theatre unit of the old Grand Opera house building of Ogden, Utah, gave a farewell dinner in honor of Joe Goss, manager of the house, now known as the Orpheum, at the Chamber of Commerce of Ogden the evening of April 22nd. Twenty friends were present. Goss is retiring from the theatre business.

Jack Proctor, former exploitation manager of the Louis Marcus Enterprises throughout this section, and who resigned recently to return to Los Angeles, is to be married here this week to Miss Kay Harms, a local newspaper woman.

Among exhibitor visitors spending some time along Film Row here last week was S. L. Gillette of the Strand theatre at Tooelle, Utah. The Ritz theatre which has been operated by the Gillettes at Tooelle, is to be closed this month, it is reported.

E. G. Innis has been assigned the position of assistant office manager at the local DeLuxe exchange here. Innis came to this city from Butte, Mont., where he was connected with Columbia Pictures, and takes the place here of Leonard Mitchell, it is stated.

The Paramount Famous-Lasky Utah salesmen F. S. Gulbransen and Jos. English, are in the local office for a short stay this week, and will return to this section right away, it is reported here.

Louis Hoffman has just come back from a trip throughout Idaho.

Manager L. C. Wingham of the Metro - Goldwyn-Mayer exchange here, will attend the National Convention to be held at Kansas City.

Pathe's District Manager L. L. Savage is still visiting the local exchange.

Manager Al O'Keefe will make a trip into Montana within the next week for Pathe.

A. W. Hartford, local manager for Universal, is making the territory at present. C. C. McDermond was in for a brief stay.

Manager W. F. Gordon, who just returned from an extended trip into Montana, left last week for the Associated First National Convention to be held in Chicago. Salesmen Vete Stewart and Claude Hawkes are to accompany Gordon.

Wayne Ball, who has charge of the local Warner Brothers exchange, attended the National Convention held in New York last week.

Clyde H. Messinger, local manager for Educational Pictures, recently returned from Southern Utah.

Manager Charles Walker, of the Fox exchange in this city, returned a few days ago from an extensive sales trip into Montana.

Richard Roberts, of the Onyx Theatre at Cokeville, Wyoming, paid a visit to film row here last week, as did S. W. Hutchings, of the Royal Theatre, at Lehi, Utah.

The new State Theatre, being constructed by Joe Lawrence and associates, at South State Street here, is nearing completion, and will be ready for the opening about May 1st, it is reported.

T. M. Chesler, of the Princess and Gem Theatres, of Bingham, Utah, was among film row visitors lining up new business here this week.

Mrs. E. H. Littlejohn, of the Lyric and Star Theatres, at Price, Utah, was also in for a booking trip, according to the Columbia office report.

Manager Fred Lind, of the F B O exchange, came back last week from Southern Utah.

The Peery Brothers, of the Egyptian and Ogden first-run theatres of Ogden, spent a short time at the local film mart in the interest of their houses, a few days ago.

Tony Duvall, of the Gem Theatre, at Murray, has conferred with local branch managers last week, as did Earl Steele, of the Venice Theatre, at Nephi, Utah. Ernest K. Pappas, of the Diana, at Copperfield, Utah, was also in, it is reported.

Manager Fred Gage, of the local United Artists exchange, recently returned from a trip into Montana territory. Salesman Johnny Dickson is now in Montana, and Able Davis is making Idaho.

David Bershon, Western Sales Manager for United Artists [illegible] here a short time ago for Los Angeles.

Kansas City

GOLF may not yet be the game of an exhibitor or an exchange man, but it would have taken an expert to have determined that fact by witnessing the annual motion picture golf tournament over the Excelsior Springs course near Kansas City last week. Good scores, bad scores, and "no scores at all" were turned in.

The prize winners:

First prize—Low gross score, silver cup presented by Newman Theatre—Oscar Morgan.

Second prize—Low net score, cocktail shaker presented by Gotham Productions—Lawrence Breuninger.

Third Prize—Blind bogy, poker set presented by Consolidated Amusement Co.—Fred Meyn.

Fourth prize—Second low net score, wrist watch presented by Mainstreet theatre—Ralph Heft.

Fifth prize—Second low gross score, caddie bag presented by Main Street Bank—Charley Knickerbocker.

Sixth prize—Longest drive (first hole), Chieftain driver presented by Midwest Theatres—Jack Langan.

Seventh prize—Longest drive (tenth hole), caddie bag presented by Film Inn—Cecil Vaughn.

Eighth prize—Blind bogy (first nine), tire and tube to fit winner's car presented by Ritz Tire Shop—Bill Warner.

Ninth prize—Blind bogy (second nine), Playmore brassie presented by Film Row Cigar Store—Lawrence Lehman.

Tenth prize—Lowest stroke any hole (first nine), Playmore spoon presented by Hollywood Inn—Lee Jones.

Eleventh prize—Lowest stroke any hole (second nine), mashie iron presented by The Reel Journal—Roland Thompson.

Twelfth prize—Third low net score, Playmore spoon presented by Hooper & Jencks—Lionel Ritchie.

Thirteenth prize—Low score blind hole (first nine), putter, presented by Bill Fite—A. G. Smith.

Fourteenth prize—Low score blind hole (second nine), sweater and stockings presented by Charlie Vaughn—Tom Baldwin.

Fifteenth prize—Third low gross score, one dozen golf balls presented by Flinton Jones—Ed Dubinsky.

Sixteenth prize—Second worst score, mashie presented by Exhibitors Film Delivery—Harry Schiller.

Seventeenth prize—Longest drive (18th hole), driver presented by Johnny Sanford—Lester Levy.

Eighteenth prize—Worst score, toy mashie presented by the committee—Russell Borg.

Nineteenth prize—Greatest number of strokes on any one hole, one dozen golf balls presented by the committee—G. A. Maloney.

The Capitol theatre, downtown house of Kansas City which closed several months ago as a motion picture and musical stock house, has reopened again with the same type of show, the stage features being by the Manhattan Musical Comedy Company.

Leo J. Doty, assistant manager of the United Artists exchange of Kansas City, has been elected vice-president of the Kansas City Film Board of Trade to succeed Arthur Cole, who resigned as branch manager of Paramount. Oscar Morgan, newly appointed branch manager of Paramount, was elected to the board of directors of the film board.

The Cozy theatre, Fulton, Kans., has been purchased by Charles R. Smith and new seats, projection machines and scenery installed. The steel work of the new Country Club Plaza theatre, Kansas City, has been completed.

Bill Warner, First National branch manager at Kansas City, in returning from Excelsior Springs, Mo., to Kansas City, met with a road accident with his Cadillac. None of the occupants, including Mrs. June Metcalf, secretary of the M. P. T. O. Kansas-Missouri, and Miss H. Menaugh, of the Kansas City Film Board of Trade, was injured seriously.

Indianeapolis

SAFE blowers broke into the manager's office at Rivoli theatre, neighborhood house, and stole a safe containing $500. Sheriff Omer Hawkins believed a truck was used to transport the safe to the roadside where it was found.

Manager Roy E. Harrold of the Princess, Rushville, Ind., has installed a new Wurlitzer unit pipe organ.

Granada Theatre at Virginia Ave. and Fountaine Square, had capacity crowds at opening performances Sunday. The theatre is the latest addition to the U. I. Chain Theatres, Inc. The south side house and the Rivoli, east side, are under management of W. W. Grist, Jr.

Manager Mort Harris has formed a dancing class to select a dancing ensemble at the Palace. The ballet will replace Chester Hale girls who will return to New York as soon as the new troupe is ready.

Articles of incorporation for the Newcastle Amusement Company, which will lease the new Capitol theatre, have been filed with Secretary of State. Harry Muller, Harry Goldberg, Joseph Cosco, Randall I. Van Winkle and Chas. L. McDorman are incorporators.

The Apollo theatre had splendid opening week with Vitaphone and Movie tone. The house has been remodeled.

The Circle opened last week under Skouras-Publix management with stage band policy. Eddie Pardo is master of ceremonies. Miss Marjorie Alton is directing a chorus of local girls.

Margaret Powers is new Ohio organist. Billie Spangler is an addition to Connie's band at the Ohio.

The Hoosier Theatre Company is planning a neighborhood house at West Michigan St. and Holmes Ave. The proposed theatre seating 1800 is expected to be begun in June. Completion is planned this fall.

A legal battle on "Sunday movies" is in prospect at Bedford, Ind. A. J. Arnold, manager of the Vonritz, is under arrest on charge of breaking the Sabbath. Released on $100 bond.

E. B. Thornton is leading the fight to close on Sundays. Both sides have retained counsel. Danville town board recently sanctioned Sunday shows, following which Thomas Barnett opened the Royal on Sunday.

The new Fountain Square theatre, Shelby and Prospect Sts., costing $850,000, is expected to be opened soon. Louis B. Golden is president of the new house with 1800 capacity.

William M. Swain, 70, pioneer motion picture man here, died Saturday. Burial was in Crown Hill. He was a native of Cincinnati and came here thirty-eight years ago. He was one of the first to operate neighborhood houses.

Anderson is to have a new 2,000 capacity house. Keith interests will occupy the theatre.

The old Wabash theatre at Attica has been renamed the Orpheum. The house will be remodeled.

Jeffersonville witnessed formal opening of the Le Rose theatre April 19. The Switow Theatre Company built the new house.

Philadelphia

EDMUND J. BAMBERGER, personnel manager of the Stanley Company of America, died in University Hospital, Philadelphia, on April 24th. Mr. Bamberger was a member of a prominent Philadelphia family and had been connected with the Stanley Company for a number of years. He had been ill only a short time and his death came as a shock to his family and friends.

Percy A. Bloch, Philadelphia branch manager for Paramount Pictures Corporation, has returned to his duties after two weeks' spent at his home in New Orleans. Mr. Bloch, accompanied by Mrs. Bloch, made the trip to New Orleans by boat and returned by rail.

B. F. Keith's Chestnut Street theatre, which has been following a policy of popular priced vaudeville, closed on April 28th for an indefinite period. The Keith-Albee executives are considering reopening the house very soon with a super picture policy at popular prices. The possibility of stock and comic opera has also been taken under consideration but it is believed that the picture policy will be adopted in a short time. Joseph C. Dougherty will remain at the house during the summer months as manager.

With work on the new Mastbaum theatre at 20th and Market streets making steady progress and plans for the new Fox theatre, at 17th and Market streets nearing completion, the third large house for the showing of motion pictures is now getting under way. This is the Boyd, which is being erected on the site of the former Aldine Hotel at 19th and Chestnut streets, and will be managed by Al Boyd, a former executive of the Stanley Company. The Boyd will seat 2,500 persons and will be an up-to-date house devoted to first-run films and stage presentations. It will probably be ready for opening before the end of the year.

FEATURE RELEASE CHART

Productions are Listed Alphabetically and by Months in which Released in order that the Exhibitor may have a short-cut toward such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming (S. R. indicates State Right release.)

Refer to THE MOTION PICTURE NEWS BOOKING GUIDE for Productions Listed Prior to September

SEPTEMBER

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Annie Laurie	L. Gish-N. Kerry	M-G-M	8730 feet	May 27
Back to God's Country	R Adoree-R Frazer	Universal	5751 feet	July 25
Barbed Wire	P. Negri-C. Brook-E. Hanson	Paramount	6951 feet
Big Parade, The	Gilbert-Adoree-Dane	M-G-M	11519 feet	Nov 28, '25
Blackjack	B. Jones-B. Bennett	Fox	4777 feet	Mar. 3
Border Cavalier, The	Fred Humes	Universal	4427 feet
Born to Battle	Bill Cody	Pathe	4875 feet
Boy of the Streets	J. Walker-M. Bennett-B. Francisco	Rayart (S. R.)	5059 feet
By Whose Hand?	R. Cortez-E. Gilbert	Columbia	5432 feet	Jan. 7
Camille	N. Talmadge-A. B. Francis-G. Roland	First National	8692 feet	May 6
Cancelled Debt, The	R. Lease-C. Stevens	Sterling Pict (S.R.)	b200 feet
Cat and the Canary, The	L. La Plante-F. Stanley-C. Hale-T. Marshall-G. Astor	Universal	7790 feet	May 20
Chang (Jungle Film)	Special Cast	Paramount	6536 feet	May 13
Clancy's Kosher Wedding	G. Sidney-M. Gordon-S Lynn-R. Lease-W. Armstrong	F B O	5701 feet	Aug. 26
Cruise of the Helion, The	E. Murphy-D. Keith-T. Santschi	Rayart (S. R.)	6089 feet	Sept. 30
Drop Kick, The	R. Barthelmess - D. Revier-B. Kent	First National	6819 feet	Sept. 30
First Auto, The	B. Oldfield-P. R. Miller-R. Simpson	Warner Bros	6767 feet	July 8
Flying U Ranch, The	Tyler-N. Lane	F. B. O.	4924 feet
Foreign Devils	T. McCoy-C.Windsor	M-G-M	4658 feet
Gay Retreat, The	G. Cameron-S. Cohen-T. McNamara	Fox	5524 feet	Sept. 23
Girl From Gay Paree, The	Sherman-Bedford-McGregor-Blythe	Tiffany-Stahl	5233 feet	Sept. 23
Girl From Rio, The	Carmel Myers	Lumas	5990 feet
Honor First (Re-issue)	J. Gilbert-R. Adoree	Fox	4851 feet
In a Moment of Temptation	C. Stevens-C. Keefe-K. Guard-G. Withers	F. B. O.	5605 feet	Nov. 11
Isle of Forgotten Women	Tearle-Sebastian-A. Calhoun-G. Gowland	Columbia	5645 feet	Jan. 21
Jaws of Steel	Rin-Tin-Tin-H. Ferguson-J. Robards	Warner Bros	5569 feet	Sept. 30
Joy Girl, The	O. Borden-N. Hamilton-M. Dressler	Fox	6162 feet	Sept. 23
Life of Riley, The	C. Murray-G. Sidney-S. Hardy-J. Marlowe	First National	6712 feet	Sept. 16
Lone Eagle, The	R. Keane-B. Kent	Universal	5862 feet
Loves of Carmen	Del Rio-McLaglen-D. Alvarado	Fox	8538 feet	Oct. 7
Mojave Kid, The	B. Steele-L. Gilmore	F. B. O	4924 feet	Aug. 12
Nevada	G. Cooper-T. Todd	Paramount	6258 feet	Oct. 28
Old San Francisco	D. Costello-C. E. Mack-W. Oland	Warner Bros	7961 feet	July 8
One Round Hogan	M. Blue-J. J. Jeffries-L. Hyams	Warner Bros	6375 feet	Oct. 7
One Woman to Another	F. Vidor-Von Eltz	Paramount	4551 feet	Sept. 30
Out All Night	R. Denny-M. Nixon	Universal	6170 feet	Oct. 7
Out of the Past	R. Frazer-M. Harris	Peerless Pict. (S. R.)	5701 feet
Painted Ponies	H. Gibson-E. Claire	Universal	5415 feet	Aug. 5
Prince of the Plains	Tex Maynard	Rayart (S. R.)	4134 feet
Racing Romeo, The	"Red" Grange-J. Ralston-T. Friganza	F. B. O.	5992 feet	Dec. 16
Ragtime	J. Bowers-M. de la Motte	First Division (S. R.)	6700 feet	Sept. 9
Red Raiders, The	K. Maynard-A. Drew	First National	6214 feet	Dec. 9
Road to Romance, The	R. Novarro-M. Day-R. D. D'Arcy	M-G-M	6544 feet	Jan. 21
Sailor's Sweetheart, A	L. Fazenda-C. Cook	Warner Bros	5685 feet	Oct. 14
Sally in Our Alley	S. Mason-A. B. Francis-R. Arlen	Columbia	5892 feet
Slightly Used	M. McAvoy-C. Nagel-R. Agnew	Warner Bros	6412 feet	Sept. 30
Smile, Brother, Smile	J. Mulhall-D. Mac-Laill	First National	6669 feet	Sept. 9
Soda Water Cowboy, The	Wally Wales	Pathe	4546 feet	Nov. 4
Stark Love	Special Cast	Paramount	6203 feet	Mar. 11 '27
Swim, Girl, Swim	B. Daniels-G. Ederle-J. Hall	Paramount	6124 feet	Sept. 16
Tell It to Sweeney	Conklin-Bancroft-Hill-Luden	Paramount	6006 feet	Oct. 28
Three Miles Up	Al Wilson-E. Clair	Universal	4136 feet	June 10
Two Girls Wanted	J. Gaynor-G. Tryon	Fox	6293 feet	Oct. 7
We're All Gamblers	Meighan-M. Millner	Paramount	5935 feet

OCTOBER

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
American Beauty	B. Dove-L. Hughes-V. L. Corbin	First National	6333 feet	Oct. 21
Angel on Broadway, The	L. Joy-V. Varconi	Pathe-De Mille	6555 feet	Dec. 16
Ben Hur	Novarro-McAvoy-Bronson-F. X Bushman-C. Myers	M-G-M	11693 feet	Jan. 16, '26
Blondes By Choice	Claire Windsor	Lumas	6987 feet
Body and Soul	A. Pringle-L. Barrymore-N. Kerry	M-G-M	5902 feet	Nov. 25
Boy Rider, The	Buzz Barton	F. B. O	4858 feet	Sept. 30
Breakfast at Sunrise	C. Talmadge-D. Alvarado	First National	6042 feet	Dec. 16
Broadway Madness	M. de la Motte- D. Keith	Excellent Pict. (S.R.)	6945 feet	Oct. 14
Cheating Cheaters	B. Compson-K. Harlan	Universal	5623 feet	Dec. 23
Cherokee Kid, The	T. Tyler-S. Lynn	F. B. O.	4837 feet	Mar. 3
Chinese Parrot, The	M. Nixon-H Bosworth-E. Burns	Universal	7304 feet	Jan. 7
College Hero, The	R. Agnew-P. Garon-R. Lease-B. Turpin	Columbia	5628 feet	Dec. 9
College Widow, The	D. Costello-Collier, Jr.	Warner Bros	6616 feet	Oct. 28
Combat	G. Walsh-G. Hulette-C. Adams	Pathe	5100 feet	Nov. 11
Crystal Cup, The	D. Mackaill-J. Mulhall	First National	6386 feet	Nov. 25
East Side, West Side	G. O'Brien-V. Valli-F. McDonald	Fox	8154 feet	Nov. 4
Fair Co-ed, The	M. Davies-J. M. Brown	M-G-M	6408 feet	Nov. 4
Figures Don't Lie	E. Ralston-R. Arlen	Paramount	5280 feet	Mar. 3
Finnegan's Ball	B. Mehaffey-Landis-C. McHugh-M. Swain	First Division (S. R.)	6200 feet	Dec. 9
Gentleman of Paris, A	A. Menjou-S. O'Hara-A. Marchall	Paramount	5927 feet	Oct. 14
Gingham Girl, The	L. Wilson-G. K. Arthur	F. B. O	6301 feet	July 30
Girl in the Pullman, The	M. Prevost-H. Ford	Pathe-De Mille	5990 feet	Nov. 18
Gun-Hand Garrison	Tex Maynard	Rayart (S. R.)	4879 feet
Harp in Hock, A	Schildkraut-Coghlan-M.Robson-B.Love	Pathe-De Mille	5990 feet	Dec. 16
Highschool Hero	S. Phipps-N. Stuart	Fox	5498 feet	Nov. 11
In Old Kentucky	J. Murray-H. Costello	M-G-M	6646 feet
Jake the Plumber	J. DeVorska-S. Lynn	F. B. O	5186 feet	Nov. 4
Jazz Singer, The (Vitaphone)	Al Jolson-W. Oland-McAvoy	Warner Bros	7423 feet	Oct. 21
Jesse James	F. Thomson-N. Lane	Paramount	8656 feet	Oct. 28
Les Miserables	Special Cast	Universal	7713 feet
Light in the Window, A	Walthall-P. Avery-C. Keefe	Rayart (S. R.)	5960 feet	Nov. 11
Magic Flame, The	Colman-Banky	United Artists	8300 feet	Sept 30
My Best Girl	M.Pickford-C.Rogers	United Artists	7850 feet	Dec. 9
No Place to Go	M. Astor-L. Hughes	First National	6431 feet	Mar. 17
Now We're in the Air	W. Beery-R. Hatton-L. Brooks	Paramount	5798 feet	Dec. 23
Obligin' Buckaroo, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Pathe	4575 feet	Nov. 11
Once and Forever	P.R.Miller-J.Harron	Tiffany-Stahl	5639 feet
Pajamas	O. Borden-L. Gray	Fox	5876 feet	Dec. 2
Pretty Clothes	J. Ralston-J. Walker-G. Astor	Sterling Pict. (S. R.)	5652 feet	Nov. 4
Publicity Madness	E. Lowe-L. Moran	Fox	5893 feet	Feb. 11
Ranger of the North	Ranger (Dog)	F. B. O.	4977 feet
Ride 'Em High	Buddy Roosevelt	Pathe	4542 feet	Nov. 11
Ridin' Luck	Tex Maynard	Rayart (S. R.)
Rose of the Golden West	G. Roland-M. Astor	First National	6477 feet	Oct. 7
Rough Riders, The	F. Hopper-N. Beery-Bancroft-M. Astor-Mack-Farrell	Paramount	9443 feet	April 1
Sailor Izzy Murphy	G. Jessel-A. Ferris	Warner Bros	6020 feet	Oct. 28
Seventh Heaven	J. Gaynor-C. Farrell-D. Butler-G. Brockwell	Fox	8500 feet	June 10
Shanghai Bound	R. Dix-M. Brian	Paramount	5515 feet	Dec. 9
Shanghaied	P. R. Miller-R. Ince-G. Astor	F. B. O	5999 feet	Aug. 26
Shootin' Irons	J. Luden-S. Blane	Paramount	5179 feet
Silk Stockings	L. La. Plante-O. Harlan-J. Harron	Universal	6166 feet	Aug. 26
Silver Valley	T. Mix-D. Dwan	Fox	5011 feet	Oct. 14
Spring Fever	Wm. Haines-J. Crawford-G. K. Arthur	M-G-M	6705 feet	Oct. 28
Straight Shootin'	Ted Wells	Universal	4251 feet	Aug. 19
Tigress, The	J. Holt- D. Revier	Columbia	5357 feet	Mar. 17
Underworld	C. Brook-E. Brent-G. Bancroft-F. Kohler	Paramount	7643 feet	Sept. 9
Way of All Flesh, The	E. Jannings-B. Bennett-P. Haver-D. Keith	Paramount	8486 feet	July 8
Wheel of Destiny, The	F. Stanley-G. Hale	Rayart (S. R.)	5869 feet
Wine (re-issue)	Clara Bow	Universal	7 reels
Wise Wife, The	P. Haver-T. Moore-J. Logan	Pathe-De Mille	5610 feet	Dec. 16
Wolf's Trail	Dynamite (Dog)-E. Cobb-D. Lamont	Universal	4167 feet
Woman on Trial, The	Negri-E. Hanson	Paramount	5960 feet	Oct. 14
Women's Wares	Brent-Lytell-L. Kent	Tiffany-Stahl	5614 feet	Nov. 18
Wreck of the Hesperus, The	A. Hale-V. Bradford-S. de Grasse	Pathe-De Mille	6447 feet	Mar. 31

NOVEMBER

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Arizona Wildcat, The	T. Mix-D. Sebastian	Fox	4665 feet	Mar. 24
Back to Liberty	G. Walsh-D. Hall-E. Breese	Excellent Pict. (S.R.)	5980 feet
Bandit's Son, The	B. Steele-A. Sheridan	F. B. O	4789 feet
Becky	S. O'Neil-O. Moore-G. Olmstead	M-G-M	6433 feet
Blood Will Tell	B. Jones-K. Perry	Fox	4556 feet	Mar. 3
Bowery Cinderella, A	P. O'Malley-G. Hulette	Excellent Pict. (S.R.)	6900 feet	Nov. 25
Broadway After Midnight	P Bonner-C. Landis-G Hughes-B. Tennant	Krelbar Pict. (S. R.)	6199 feet	Nov. 4
Cheer Leader, The	R. Graves-Olmstead	Lumas	6000 feet	Mar. 10

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
1) Gone Wild, The	T. Meighan-L. Brooks-M. Millner-F. Kohler	Paramount	5408 feet	Mar. 3
College	B. Keaton-A. Cornwall-G. Withers	United Artists	5362 feet	Sept. 23
Death Valley	C. Nye-R. Rae-R. Wells	First Division (S. R.)	5880 feet	Aug. 12
Discord	G. Ekman-L. Dagover	Pathe	8586 feet	Nov. 11
Dog of the Regiment, A	Rin-Tin-Tin	Warner Bros.	5003 feet	Nov. 11
Dress Parade	W. Boyd-B. Love	Pathe-De Mille	6599 feet	Nov. 11
Forbidden Woman, The	J. Goudal-V. Varconi-J. Schildkraut	Pathe-De Mille	6568 feet	Dec. 16
Fortune Hunter, The	S. Chaplin-C. Horton-H. Costello	Warner Bros.	6638 feet	Jan. 21
Galloping Fury	H. Gibson-S. Rand	Universal	5503 feet
Garden of Allah, The	A. Terry-I. Petrovich	M-G	8200 feet	Sept. 16
Ginsberg the Great	G. Jessel-A. Ferris	Warner Bros.	5390 feet
Girl From Chicago, The	C. Nagel-M. Loy	Warner Bros.	5978 feet	Dec. 31
Gold From Weepah	Bill Cody	Pathe	4968 feet	Dec. 23
Good-Time Charley	W. Oland-H. Costello	Warner Bros.	6302 feet	Nov. 25
Gorilla, The	C. Murray-F. Kelsey-T. Marshall-A. Day	First National	7133 feet	Dec. 2
Gun Gospel	K. Maynard-V. B. Faire	First National	6288 feet	Mar. 10
Harvester The	N. Kingston-O. Caldwell	F. B. O.	7045 feet	Nov. 25
Heroes in Blue	J. Bowers-S. Rand	Rayart (S. R.)	5000 feet
His Foreign Wife	W. McDonald-E. Murphy-G. von Rue	Pathe	4890 feet	Feb. 11
Home Made	Johnny Hines	First National	6524 feet
Hoof Marks	Jack Donovan	Pathe	4076 feet	Dec. 23
Hook and Ladder, No. 9	D. Ellis-E. Hearne-C. Keefe	F. B. O.	5240 feet	Dec. 16
Judgment of the Hills	V. Valli-F. Darro-O. Caldwell	F. B. O.	6481 feet	Aug. 19
Ladies Must Dress	V. Valli-L. Gray	Fox	5599 feet	Dec. 23
Last Waltz, The (Ufa Film)	W. Fritsch-S. Vernon	Paramount	6940 feet	Dec. 30
Lure of the South Seas, The		First Division (S.R.)	6700 feet
Main Event, The	V. Reynolds-R. Schildkraut-C Delany	Pathe-De Mille	6472 feet	Nov. 11
Man Crazy	Mulhall-Mackaill	First National	5542 feet	Dec. 30
Man, Woman and Sin	J. Gilbert-J. Eagles-G. Brockwell	M-G-M	6280 feet
Night Life	A. Day-J. Harron	Tiffany-Stahl	6235 feet	Dec. 2
One Glorious Scrap	Fred Humes	Universal	4172 feet
On the Stroke of Twelve	E. Torrence-J. Marlowe-D. O'Shea	Rayart (S. R.)	5970 feet
On Your Toes	R Denny-B. Worth	Universal	5918 feet	Jan. 14
Opening Night, The	C. Windsor-J. Bowers.	Columbia	5524 feet	Mar. 17
Open Range	L. Chandler-B. Bronson-F. Kohler	Paramount	5599 feet	Mar. 10
Quality Street	M. Davies-C. Nagel-H. J. Eddy	M-G-M	7193 feet	Nov. 18
Reno Divorce, A	M. McAvoy	Warner Bros.	5492 feet	Nov. 4
Roarin' Broncs	Buffalo Bill, Jr	Pathe	4375 feet	Dec. 30
Shame (Re-issue)	John Gilbert	Fox	5467 feet
She's a Sheik	B. Daniels-R. Arlen W. Powell	Paramount	6015 feet	Dec. 9
Skyhigh Saunders	A. Wilson-E. Tarron	Universal	4393 feet
Small Bachelor, The	Beranger-O. Harlan-B. Kent-C. Geraghty	Universal	6218 feet
Spotlight, The	E. Ralston-N. Hamilton	Paramount	4934 feet
Stage Kisses	K. Harlan-H. Chadwick-J. Patrick	Columbia	5435 feet
Thirteenth Hour, The	Bonaparte (Dog)-J. Gadsdon-L. Barrymore	M-G-M	5252 feet
Thirteenth Juror, The	F. X. Bushman-Nilsson	Universal	5598 feet	Dec. 9
Turkish Delight	R. Schildkraut-J. Faye-K. Thomson	Pathe-De Mille	5397 feet
Two Arabian Knights	W. Boyd-M. Astor-L. Wolheim-I. Keith	United Artists	7850 feet	Nov. 4
Very Confidential	M. Bellamy	Fox	5620 feet	Dec. 16
Wanderer of the West, A	Tex Maynard	Rayart (S. R.)
Warning, The	J. Holt-D. Revier	Columbia	5791 feet	Jan. 7
Web of Fate	Lillian Rich	Peerless Pict. (S. R.)	5800 feet
Wild Beauty	Rex (Horse)-J. Marlowe-H. Allen	Universal	5192 feet
Wild Geese	B. Bennett-A. Stewart-D. Keith-J. Robards-E. Southern	Tiffany-Stahl	6448 feet
Wolf Fangs	Thunder (Dog)-C. Morton-C. Lincoln	Fox	5331 feet	Dec. 16

DECEMBER

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Aflame in the Sky	S. Lynn-J. Luden	F. B. O.	6034 feet	Nov. 11
Aftermath (European film)	Special Cast	Collwyn Pict. (S.R.)	6800 feet	Mar. 3
Alice in Wonderland	Special Cast	Pathe	5 reels
Almost Human	V. Reynolds-K. Thomson	Pathe-De Mille	5596 feet	Mar. 24
Brass Knuckles	M. Blue-B. Bronson	Warner Bros.	6330 feet	Dec. 23
Buttons	Coogan-L. Hanson-G. Olmsted	M-G-M	6050 feet	Mar. 31
Come to My House	O. Borden-A. Moreno	Fox	5430 feet
Desert Dust	Ted Wells	Universal	4349 feet
Desert of the Last	W. Wales-P. Montgomery	Pathe	4933 feet	Dec. 30
Desert Pirate, The	T. Tyler-D. Thompson-F. Darro	F. B. O.	4754 feet
Devil's Twin, The	Leo Maloney	Pathe	5478 feet
Dove, The	N. Talmadge-G. Roland-N. Beery	United Artists	8400 feet	Jan. 7
Fangs of Destiny	Dynamite (Dog)-E. Cobb	Universal	4295 feet
Fashion Madness	C. Windsor-R. Howes	Columbia	5513 feet	Mar. 31
Flying Luck	Monty Banks	Pathe	6403 feet	Nov. 18
Gay Defender, The	R. Dix-T. Todd	Paramount	6376 feet	Dec. 31
Get Your Man	C. Bow-C. Rogers	Paramount	5889 feet
Golden Clown, The	G. Ekman-K. Bell	Pathe	7913 feet	Mar. 24
Grandma's Boy (re-issue)	H. Lloyd-M. Davis	Pathe-De Mille	4750 feet
Ham and Eggs at the Front	Fazenda-H. Conklin-T. Wilson	Warner Bros.	5613 feet
Haunted Ship, The	D. Sebastian-M. Love-R. Hallor-Santschi	Tiffany-Stahl	4753 feet	Feb. 4
Hero for a Night, A	G. Tryon-P. R. Miller	Universal	5711 feet	Dec. 2
Her Wild Oat	C. Moore-L. Kent-G. Lee-H. Cooley	First National	6118 feet	Feb. 11
Honeymoon Hate	F. Vidor-T. Carmenati	Paramount	5415 feet	Feb. 11
Husbands for Rent	H. Costello-O. Moore	Warner Bros.	5200 feet	Jan. 7
If I Were Single	M. McAvoy-C. Nagel.	Warner Bros.	6320 feet	Dec. 31
Irresistible Lover, The	N. Kerry-L. Moran	Universal	6958 feet	Sept. 16
Land of the Lawless	J. Padian-P. Montgomery-T. Santschi	Pathe	4131 feet	Dec. 30
Law and the Man, The	G. Brockwell-Santschi-R. Ellis	Rayart (S. R.)	5916 feet	Mar. 24
Legionnaires in Paris	Al Cooke-Kit Guard-L. Lorraine	F. B. O.	5771 feet
Little Mickey Grogan	F. Darro-J. Ralston-C. Nye	F. B. O.	6515 feet	Mar. 3
London After Midnight	L. Chaney-C. Nagel-M. Day-Walthall	M-G-M	5687 feet	Dec. 23
Lovelorn, The	S. O'Neill-L. Kent-M. O'Day	M-G-M	5950 feet	Dec. 30
Love Mart, The	B. Dove-G. Roland-N. Beery	First National	7388 feet
Man's Past, A	C. Veidt-I. Keith-G. Siegmann-B. Bedford	Universal	6135 feet	Sept. 16
My Friend From India	F. Pangborn-E. Faire	Pathe-De Mille	5750 feet	Mar. 31
Outcast Souls	P. Bonner-C. Delaney.	Sterling Pict. (S.R.)	5210 feet
Polly of the Movies	G. Short-J. Robards.	First Division (S. R.)	6900 feet
Rush Hour, The	M. Prevost-H. Ford.	Pathe-De Mille	5880 feet	Mar. 10
San Francisco Nights	M. Busch-P. Marmont	Lumas	7000 feet	Dec. 31
Serenade	A. Menjou-K. Carver-L. Basquette	Paramount	5209 feet	Dec. 31
Silk Legs	M. Bellamy-J. Hall	Fox	5446 feet
Silver Slave, The	I. Rich-A. Ferris-H. Herbert	Warner Bros.	6124 feet	Dec. 9
Siren, The	D. Revier-T. Moore-N. Trevor	Columbia	5996 feet
Slingshot Kid, The	"Buzz" Barton J. Morgan-F. Rice	F. B. O.	4486 feet
Sorrell and Son	H. B. Warner-Nilsson-M. McBain-A. Joyce	United Artists	9150 feet	Nov. 25
South Sea Love	P. R. Miller-L. Shumway-A. Brooks	F. B. O.	6388 feet	Feb. 18
Spoilers of the West	T. McCoy-M. Daw-W. Fairbanks	M-G-M	4784 feet	Mar. 24
Streets of Shanghai	P. Starke-K. Harlan-J. Robards	Tiffany-Stahl	5276 feet	Mar. 3
Swift Shadow, The	Ranger (Dog)	F. B. O.	4892 feet	Dec. 23
Tea for Three	L. Cody-A. Pringle-O. Moore-D. Sebastian	M-G-M	6273 feet	Nov. 11
Temptations of a Shopgirl	B. Compson-Garon-A. Kaliz	First Division (S. R.)	5604 feet
Texas Steer, A	W. Rogers-L. Fazenda-A. Rork	First National	7419 feet	Nov. 18
Two Flaming Youths	C. Conklin-W. C. Fields-M. Brian	Paramount	5319 feet	Jan. 7
Valley of the Giants	M. Sills-D. Kenyon.	First National	6336 feet
Wild Born	Tex Maynard	Rayart (S. R.)
Wilful Youth	K. Harlan-E. Murphy.	Peerless Pict. (S.R.)	5644 feet
Wizard, The	L. Hyams-E. Lowe-G. Katsonaros-von Seyffertitz	Fox	5629 feet

JANUARY

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Air Patrol, The	Al Wilson	Universal	4259 feet
Alias the Deacon	J. Hersholt-J. Marlowe-R. Graves	Universal	6869 feet	Oct. 21
Baby Mine	G.K.Arthur-K.Dane.	M-G-M	5139 feet	Jan. 14
Ballyhoo Buster, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Pathe	4805 feet	Dec. 30
Beau Sabreur	E. Brent-G. Cooper-W. Powell-N. Beery	Paramount	6536 feet	Jan. 28
Beware of Married Men	I. Rich-R. Tucker-S. Holmes-M. Loy	Warner Bros.	5421 feet	Jan. 28
Boss of Rustlers Roost, The	D. Coleman-E. Gilbert	Pathe	4833 feet	Jan. 14
Branded Sombrero, The	B. Jones-L. Hyams.	Fox Films	5612 feet	Jan. 14
Burning Up Broadway	H. Costello-R. Frazer	Sterling Pict. (S. R.)	5200 feet
Call of the Heart	Dynamite (Dog)-E. Cobb-J. Alden	Universal	5261 feet
Casey Jones	R. Lewis-J. Robards-A. Sheridan	Rayart (S. R.)	6673 feet
Circus, The	C. Chaplin-M. Kennedy	United Artists	6700 feet	Jan. 14
Cohens and the Kellys in Paris, The	G. Sidney-J. F. McDonald-V. Gordon-K. Price-S. Carrol-C. Delany	Universal	7481 feet	Feb. 18
Comrades	H.Costello-G.Hughes-D. Keith	First Division (S. R.)	5970 feet	Mar. 10
Coney Island	L. Wilson-L. Mendez.	F. B. O.	6390 feet	Feb. 25
Cowboy Cavalier, The	B. Roosevelt O. Hasbrouck	Pathe	4526 feet	Jan. 28
Dare Devil's Reward	T. Mix-N. Joyce	Fox	4987 feet	Jan. 21
Dead Man's Curve	Fairbanks, Jr.-S. Blane	F. B. O.	5511 feet	Dec. 31
Desperate Courage	W. Wales-O. Hasbrouck	Pathe	4398 feet	Jan. 21
Divine Woman, The	D. Garbo-L. Hanson-L. Sherman	M-G-M	7300 feet	Jan. 21
Driftin' Sands	Bob Steele	F. B. O	4770 feet
Fearless Rider	F. Humes-B. Worth	Universal	4173 feet
Four Flusher, The	G. Lewis-M. Nixon	Universal	6193 feet	Jan. 28
French Dressing	H. B. Warner-L. Wilson	First National	6344 feet
Gateway of the Moon, The	Del Rio-Fenton-W. Pidgeon	Fox	5038 feet	Jan. 14
Gentlemen Prefer Blondes	A. White-F. Sterling-R. Taylor-Conklin-Friganza-Swain	Paramount	6871 feet	Jan. 21
Girl in Every Port, A	V. McLaglen-M. Casajuana-M. Loy-N. Joyce-R. Armstrong.	Fox	5882 feet	Mar. 3
Heart of Broadway, The	P. Garon-R. Agnew.	Rayart (S. R.)	5853 feet
Laddie Be Good	B. Cody-R. Blossom	Pathe	4155 feet	Dec. 30
Lady Raffles	E. Taylor-R. Drew-L. Tashman	Columbia	5471 feet
Last Command, The	E. Jannings-E. Brent-W. Powell	Paramount	8234 feet	Jan. 28
Let 'Er Go. Gallegher	J. Coghlan-H. Ford-E. Fair	Pathe-De Mille	5888 feet	Jan. 28
Leopard Lady, The	J. Logan-A. Hale	Pathe-De Mille	6650 feet	Mar. 10
Love	G. Garbo-J. Gilbert.	M-G-M	7365 feet	Dec. 16
Love and Learn	E. Ralston-L. Chandler-H. Hopper	Paramount	5737 feet	Feb. 25
Merry Wives of New York.	P. Garon	First Division (S.R.)
Noose, The	R. Barthelmess-L. B quette-A. Joyce.	First National	7331 feet	Jan.

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
On to Reno	M. Prevost-C. Landis	Pathe-De Mille	6 reels
Peaks of Destiny, The (Ufa film)	E. Peterson-L. Riefenstahl-L. Trenker	Paramount	5582 feet	Jan. 21
Perfect Gentleman, A	M. Banks-R. Dwyer	Pathe	5626 feet	Jan. 14
Pioneer Scout, The	F. Thomson-N. Lane	Paramount	6118 feet	Mar. 10
Private Life of Helen of Troy, The	M. Corda-L. Stone-R. Cortez	First National	7694 feet	Dec. 23
Race For Life, A	Rin - Tin - Tin - V. B. Faire-C. Nye	Warner Bros	4777 feet	Feb. 11
Rawhide Kid, The	H. Gibson-G. Hale	Universal	5382 feet
Sadie Thompson	G. Swanson-L. Barrymore-R. Walsh	United Artists	8700 feet	Feb. 11
Sailors' Wives	Astor-Hughes	First National	5485 feet	Mar. 10
Satan and the Woman	C. Windsor-C. Keefe	Excellent Pict. (S. R.)	6400 feet	Mar. 10
Sharpshooters	G. O'Brien-L. Moran	Fox	5573 feet	Jan. 28
Shepherd of the Hills, The	A. B. Francis-M. O'Day-J. Boles	First National	8188 feet	Feb. 25
Striving for Fortune	G. Walsh-B. Roberts	Excellent Pict. (S.R.)	5337 feet
Student Prince, The (In Heidelberg)	R. Novarro-Shearer-J. Hersholt	M-G-M	9566 feet	Oct.
That Certain Thing	V. Dana-R. Graves	Columbia	6047 feet	Mar. 10
Tragedy of Youth, The	Collier, Jr.-P. R. Miller-W. Baxter	Tiffany-Stahl	6361 feet	Mar. 31
West Point	W. Haines-J. Crawford	M-G-M	8134 feet	Jan. 7
What Price Beauty?	N. Naldi-P Gendron-V. Pearson	Pathe	5 reels	Jan. 28
Wickedness Preferred	L. Cody-A. Pringle	M-G-M	5011 feet
Wife Savers	W. Beery-R. Hatton-Z. Pitts	Paramount	5413 feet	Jan. 21
Wife's Relations, The	S. Mason-G. Glass-B. Turpin-A. Kaliz	Columbia	5508 feet
Wizard of the Saddle	B. Barton-D. Thompson	F. B. O.	4805 feet	Dec. 30
Woman Against the World, A	G. Olmstead-H. Ford-G. Hale-S. Rand	Tiffany-Stahl	5283 feet
Woman Wise	W. Russell-J. Collyer-W. Pidgeon	Fox	5050 feet	Mar. 10

FEBRUARY

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Across the Atlantic	M. Blue-E. Murphy	Warner Bros.
Alice Through the Looking Glass	Special Cast	Pathe	5 reels
Apache Raider, The	L. Maloney-E. Gilbert-D. Coleman	Pathe	5755 feet	Feb. 18
Bare Knees	V. L. Corbin-D. Keith-J. Winton-J. Walker	Lumas	5800 eet	Jan. 28
Battles of Coronel and Falkland Islands (English film)	Special Cast—Artlee	Pict. (S. R.)	8400 feet	Mar. 24
Blonde for a Night, A	M. Prevost-H. Ford	Pathe-De Mille	6 reels
Bronc Stomper, The	D. Coleman-E. Gilbert	Pathe	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Chaser, The	H. Langdon-G. McConnell	First National	5744 feet	April 21
Clean Up Man, The	T. Wells-P. O'Day	Universal	4232 feet
Crashing Through	J. Padjans-S. Rand-T. Santschi	Pathe	4480 feet	Feb. 11
Devil Dancer, The	G. Gray-C. Brook	United Artists	6765 feet	Dec. 30
Devil's Skipper, The	B. Bennett-M. Love-McAllister-C. Landis	Tiffany-Stahl	5510 feet
Doomsday	F. Vidor-G. Cooper	Paramount	5665 feet	April 7
Douglas Fairbanks as the Gaucho	D. Fairbanks-E. Southern-L. Valez	United Artists	9256 feet	Dec. 2
Enemy, The	L. Gish-R. Forbes	M-G-M	8189 feet	Dec. 31
Fangs of the Wild	Ranger (Dog)-S. Nelson-D. Kitchen	F. B. O	4578 feet	Jan. 14
Finders Keepers	La Plante-Harron	Universal	6081 feet	Mar. 17
Feel My Pulse	B. Daniels-R. Arlen-W. Powell	Paramount	5889 feet	Mar. 3
Fleetwing	B. Norton-D. Janis	Fox
Flying Romeos	C. Murray-G. Sidney	First National	6184 feet	April 14
Her Summer Hero	D. Thompson-H. Trevor-S. Blane-J. Pierce	F. B. O	5146 feet	Dec. 30
Latest From Paris, The	N. Shearer-G. Sidney-R. Forbes	M-G-M	7743 feet	Mar. 3
Little Snob, The	M. McAvoy-R. Frazer-A. B. Francis	Warner Bros.
Midnight Rose	L. de Putti-K Harlan	Universal	5689 feet	Mar. 10
Nameless Men	C. Windsor-A. Moreno	Tiffany-Stahl	5708 feet	April 14
Napoleon (French Film)	Special Cast	M-G-M
Night Flyer, The	W. Boyd-J. Ralston	Pathe-De Mille	5954 feet
Painted Trail, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Rayart (S. R.)	4571 feet
Passion Island	Special Cast	Pathe-De Mille	7 reels
Phantom Flyer, The	Al Wilson	Universal	4253 feet
Port of Missing Girls, The	B. Bedford-M. McGregor	Brenda Pict. Corp.	7270 feet	Mar. 3
Riding Renegade, The	Bob Steele	F. B. O.
Rose-Marie	J. Crawford-J. Murray-H. Peters	M-G-M	7745 feet	Feb. 18
Secret Hour, The	P. Negri-Hersholt-K. Thomson	Paramount	7194 feet	Mar. 17
Shield of Honor, The	R. Lewis-D. Gulliver-N. Hamilton	Universal	6172 feet	Dec. 30
Show Down, The	Bancroft - Brent - N. Hamilton	Paramount	7616 feet	Mar. 10
Smart Set, The	W. Haines-A. Day-J. Holt-H. Bosworth	M-G-M	6476 feet	Mar. 10
Soft Living	M. Bellamy-J. Mack Brown	Fox	5629 feet	Mar. 3
So This Is Love	V. Dana-W. Collier, Jr.-J. Walker	Columbia	5611 feet
Sporting Goods	R. Dix-G. Olmstead	Paramount	5961 feet	Feb. 18
Stand and Deliver	La Rocque-L. Valez-W. Oland	Pathe-De Mille	5423 feet	April 7
Stronger Will, The	P. Marmont-E. La Bissioniere-R. Carewe	Excellent Pict. (S.R.)	6600 feet
That's My Daddy	R. Denny-B. Kent-J. La Verne	Universal	6073 feet
Under the Tonto Rim	R. Arlen-M. Brian-J. Linden	Paramount	5991 feet
Valley of Hunted Men	Buffalo Bill, Jr.-K. Collins	Pathe	4520 feet	Mar. 3
Wagon Show, The	Ken Maynard	First National
Wall Flowers	H. Trevor-J. Arthur-L. Todd	F. B. O.	6339 feet
Wedding March, The (road show)	von Stroheim-F. Wray	Paramount	12 reels
When the Law Rides	T. Tyler-F. Darro	F. B. O
Whip Woman, The	E. Taylor-A. Moreno-L. Sherman	First National	5087 feet	Mar. 24
Woman's Way, A	M. Livingston-W. Baxter	Columbia
You Can't Beat the Law	L. Lee-C. Keefe	Rayart (S. R.)	5260 feet

MARCH

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Adventure Mad (Ufa film)	E. Barclay-N. Asther-L. Hall-Davis	Paramount	5897 feet
Bachelor's Paradise	S. O'Neill-R. Graves	Tiffany-Stahl	6147 feet
Beyond London's Lights	L. Shumway-G. Elliott-J. Gadsden H. Evans-A. Dore	F. B. O.	5573 feet	Feb. 25
Big City, The	L. Chaney-M. Day-B. Compson-J. Murray	M-G-M	6838 feet	Mar. 31
Blue Danube, The	L. Joy-R. LaRocque-J. Schildkraut	Pathe-De Mille	7 reels
Bringing Up Father	F. Macdonald-G. Olmsted-P. Moran	M-G-M	6344 feet
Brunettes Preferred		First Division (S. R.)	6551 feet
Buck Privates	de Putti-McGregor-Z. Pitts	Universal	6914 feet	Feb. 4
Bullet Mark, The	J. Donovan-M. Gray-G. McConnell	Pathe	4550 feet	Mar. 31
Burning Daylight	M. Sills-D. Kenyon	First National	6500 feet
Chicago	P. Haver-V. Varconi	Pathe-De Mille	9992 feet	Dec. 30
Chicago After Midnight	J. Mendez-R. Ince-Seiter	F. B. O.	6249 feet	Mar. 17
Circus Rookies	K. Dane-G. K. Arthur	M-G-M
Crowd, The	J. Murray-E. Boardman-B. Roach	M-G-M	8548 feet	Feb. 25
Desert Bride, The	B. Compson-A. Forrest-O. Mattieson	Columbia	5425 feet
Domestic Troubles	L. Fazenda-C. Cook-B. Blythe-A. Rankin	Warner Bros.
Dressed to Kill	E. Lowe-M. Astor-C. Morton-B. Bard	Fox	6566 feet	Mar. 17
Faithless Lover, The	G. Hulette-E. O'Brien Krelbar Pict. (S.R.)		5600 feet	Mar. 3
Forbidden Hours	R.Novarro-R.Adoree	M-G-M
Four Footed Ranger, The	Dynamite (Dog)	Universal	4426 feet
Freckles	J. Fox, Jr.-G. Stratton-H. Bosworth	F. B. O.	6131 feet	Jan. 28
Garden of Eden, The	C. Griffith-C. Ray-L. Sherman	United Artists	7300 feet	Jan. 14
Golden Shackles	Priscilla Bonner	Peerless Pict. (S. R.)	5600 feet
Heart of a Follies Girl, The	B. Dove-L. Kent-L. Sherman-M Harris	First National	5957 feet	Mar. 17
Horseman of the Plains	T. Mix-S. Blane	Fox	4397 feet	Mar. 24
Legion of the Condemned, The	G. Cooper-F. Wray-L. Chandler-F. McDonald-B. Norton	Paramount	7415 feet	Mar. 24
Little Buckaroo, The	Buzz Barton	F. B. O
Love Me and the World Is Mine	Philbin-Kerry	Universal	6813 feet	Feb. 11
Mad Hour, The	S. O'Neil-L. Kent-L. Sherman-A. White	National	6625 feet	April 21
Marlie the Killer	Klondyke (Dog)-Bushman, Jr.-B. Mehaffey	Pathe	4600 feet	Mar.
Masked Angel, The	B. Compson-W. Oakman	First Division (S.R.)	5700 feet	Mar. 24
Matinee Idol, The	J. Walker-B. Love-A. Forrest	Columbia
Midnight Madness	J. Logan-C. Brook	Pathe-De Mille	5659 feet
My Home Town	G. Rockwell-G. Glass	Rayart (S. R.)
Old Ironsides	E. Ralston-C. Farrell-W. Beery-G. Bancroft	Paramount	7910 feet	Dec. 18, '26
Partners in Crime	W. Beery-R. Hatton-W. Powell-M. Brian	Paramount
Patsy, The	M. Davies-O. Caldwell-L. Gray	M-G-M	7289 feet
Phantom of the Turf, The	H. Costello-R. Lease	Rayart (S. R.)
Powder My Back	I Rich-A. Ferris-A. Beranger-C. Nye	Warner Bros.
Put 'Em Up	Fred Humes	Universal	4200 feet
Ramona	D. Del Rio-W. Baxter-R. Drew-V. Lewis	United Artists	8200 feet	Feb. 4
Red Hair	C. Bow-W. Austin-L. Chandler	Paramount	6331 feet	Mar. 31
Red Signals	W. McDonald-E. Novak-E. Williams	Sterling Pict. (S.R.)	5032 feet
Saddle Mates	W. Wales-P. Montgomery	Pathe	4520 feet	Mar. 17
Something Always Happens	E. Ralston-N. Hamilton	Paramount
Souls Aflame	G. James-G. Lard-R. Wells	First Division (S. R.)
Square Crooks	R. Armstrong-J. M. Brown-D. Dwan-D. Appleby	Fox	5397 feet	Mar. 31
Stop That Man	A. Lake-B. Kent-E. Gribbon	Universal	5389 feet
Surrender	M. Philbin-I. Moskine	Universal	8249 feet	Mar. 10
Tempest	J. Barrymore-C. Horn-Wolheim	United Artists	(about) 9000 feet
Their Hour	D. Sebastian-J. Harron-J. Marlowe	Tiffany-Stahl	5652 feet
Tracy the Outlaw	Jack Hoey	New-Cal (S. R.)	6000 feet	Mar. 31
Trick of Hearts, A	H. Gibson-G. Hale	Universal	5495 feet
Turn Back the Hours	M. Loy-W. Pidgeon-S. Hardy	Lumas	6500 feet	Mar. 17
Under the Black Eagle	Flash (Dog)-M. Day-R. Forbes	M-G-M	5901 feet
Why Sailors Go Wrong	S. Cohen-T. McNamara-S. Phipps	Fox	5112 feet	April 14
Women Who Dare	H. Chadwick-C. Delaney	Excellent Pict. (S.R.)
Wyoming	T. McCoy-W. Fairbanks-D. Sebastian	M-G-M

APRIL

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Across From Singapore	R. Navarro-J. Crawford-E. Torrence	M-G-M-

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Actress, The	N. Shearer-R. Forbes-G. Lee-O. Moore-D'Arcy	M-G-M
Adorable Cheat, The	L. Lee-C. Keefe	Chesterfield (S. R.)	5400 feet	April 21
After the Storm	H. Bosworth-E. Gilbert-C. Delaney	Columbia
Avenging Shadow, The	Klondike (Dog)-R. Hallor-M. Morris	Pathe	4293 feet	Mar. 31
Bell o Avenue A		First Division (S. R.)
Bit of Heaven, A	B. Washburn-L. Lee	Excellent Pict. (S.R.)
Breed of the Sunsets	R. Steele-N. Drexel	F. B. O.
Broadway Daddies	J. Logan-R. Lease-A. B. Francis	Columbia	5400 feet
Canyon of Adventure	K. Maynard-V. B. Faire	First National	5800 feet
Chinatown Charlie	J. Hines-L. Lorraine	First National	6365 feet
Chorus Kid, The	V. B. Faire-B. Washburn-H. Hopper	Lumas	6200 feet	April 14
Circus Rookies	K. Dane-G. K. Arthur L. Lorraine	M-G-M
Cossacks, The	J. Gilbert-R. Adoree-E. Torrence-M. Alden	M-G-M
Crimson City, The	M. Loy-L. Hyams-R. Tucker-J. Miljan	Warner Bros	5388 feet	April 21
Czar Ivan the Terrible	Special Cast	Amkino (S. R.)	8500 feet	Mar. 24
Danger Patrol, The	W.Russell-V.B.Faire	Rayart (S. R.)
Devil's Trade Mark, The	B. Bennett-W. V. Mong-M. Douglas	F. B O.
Drums of Love	E. Taylor-D. Alvarado-M. Philbin-L. Barrymore	United Artists	9500 feet	Jan. 28
Fagasa (South Seas Isle film)	L. Kelly-G. Kelton-Mr. & Mrs. R. Wells	First Division (S. R.)
Five and Ten Cent Annie	L. Fazenda-C. Cook-G. Astor-W. Demarest	Warner Bros.
Girl He Did'nt Buy, The	P. Garon-A. Simpson	Peerless (S. R.)	5600 feet
Good Morning Judge	R. Denny-M. Nolan-D. Gulliver	Universal	5645 feet
Gypsy of the North	H. Gordon-G. Hale	Rayart (S. R.)
Harold Teen	A. Lake-M. Brian-W. Bakewell-J. Duffy	First National
House of Scandal, The	D. Sebastian-P. O'Malley	Tiffany-Stahl
Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath	Mackaill-Mulhall	First National	6592 feet	April
Last Moment, The	O. Matieson-G. Hale-L. La Verne	Zakoro (S. R.)	5800 feet	Mar. 31
Laugh Clown, Laugh	Chaney-L. Young-N. Asther	M-G-M
Law of Fear, The	Ranger (Dog)-P. R. Miller-C. Byer	F. B. O.	4769 feet	Mar. 10
Law's Lash, The	Klondike (Dog)-R. Ellis-M. Maberry	Pathe	4902 feet	Mar.15
Lilac Time	C. Moore-G. Cooper	First National		Mar. 24
Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come	Barthelmess-G. James-O'Day-Seyffertitz	First National	7700 feet
Little Yellow House, The	O. Caldwell-M. Sleeper	F. B. O.	6403 feet	April 21
Love Hungry	L. Moore-L. Gray	Fox	5792 feet	April 21
Night of Mystery, A	A. Menjou-N. Lane-Collier, Jr.-E. Brent	Paramount	5741 feet	April 21
Phantom of the Range, The	T. Tyler-D. Thompson-F. Darro	F. B. O.	4781 feet	Feb. 11
Pinto Kid, The	B. Barton-H. Trevor-G. Lee	F-B-O	4884 feet	Jan. 7
Red Riders of Canada, The	P. R. Miller-C. Byer	F. B. O.	6419 feet	Dec. 23
Riders of the Dark	T. McCoy-D. Dwan	M-G-M
Scarlet Dove, The	J. Borio-R. Frazer-L. Sherman M. Livingston	Tiffany-Stahl
Skyscraper, The	S. Carroll-W. Boyd-A. Hale-A. Vaughn	Pathe-De Mille	7040 feet	April 14
Speedy	H. Lloyd-A. Christy-B. Ruth-B. Woodruff	Paramount	7960 feet	April 14
Steamboat Bill, Jr.	Keaton-E. Torrence.	United Artists	(about) 6800 feet
Street of Sin, The	E. Jannings-F. Wray	Paramount
Thanks For the Buggy Ride	L. La Plante -G. Tryon	Universal	6197 feet	Feb. 4
Thirteen Washington Square	A. Joyce-J. Hersholt-Z. Pitts	Universal	6274 feet	Feb. 4
Three-Ring Marriage	M. Astor-L. Hughes	First National
Thunder Riders, The	Ted Wells	Universal	4353 feet
Two Lovers	R. Colman-V. Banky	United Artists	(about) 7500 feet
Won in the Clouds	Al Wilson	Universal	4348 feet

MAY

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Alex the Great	"Skeets" Gallagher-R. Dwyer	F. B. O.	5872 feet	Mar. 24
Arizona Cyclone, The	Fred Humes	Universal	4076 feet
Clothes Make the Woman	E. Southern-W. Pidgeon	Tiffany-Stahl
Crooks Can't Win	R. Lewis-T. Hill-S. Nelson	F. B. O.
Hawk's Nest, The	M. Sills-D. Kenyon-A. Stone-M. Love.	First National
Hell Ship Bronson	Mrs. W. Reid- R. Howes-H. Foster-N. Beery	Lumas
Hold 'Em Yale	R. La Rocque-J. Loff-H. Allan	Pathe-De Mille
Hot Heels	G. Tryon-P. R. Miller	Universal
Hound of Silver Creek, The	Dynamite (Dog)	Universal	4095 feet
It's All Greek to Me	C. Murray-L. Fazenda-T. Todd	First National
Lady Be Good	D. Mackaill-J. Mulhall	First National
Ladies of the Night Club	B. Leonard-R. Cortez	Tiffany-Stahl
Man in the Rough, The	B. Steele-M. King	F-B-O
Marry the Girl	B. Bedford-R. Ellis-D. W. Jennings	Sterling Pict. (S. R.)	5300 feet	Mar. 10
Million for Love, A	R. Howes-J. Dunn	Sterling Pict. (S.R.)
Pay As You Enter	C. Cooke-L. Fazanda	Warner Bros.
Rinty of the Desert	Rin-Tin-Tin-A. Ferris-C. Nye	Warner Bros.
Skinner's Big Idea	B. Washburn-M. Sleeper-H. Trevor	F. B. O.	5967 feet	Mar. 17
United States Smith	Special Cast	Lumas	7000 feet
Vamping Venus	C. Murray-Fazenda-T. Todd	First National
Walking Back	S. Carroll-R. Walling	Pathe-De Mille	6 reels
We Americans	G. Sidney P. R. Miller-G. Lewis	Universal	9151 feet	April 7
Wild West Show, The	H. Gibson	Universal	5254 feet
Yellow Lily, The	B. Dove-C. Brook-Seyferrtitz	First National

JUNE

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Dog Justice	Ranger (Dog)-E. Hearn-N. Martan.	F. B. O.
Green Grass Widows	W. Hagen-G. Olmstead-J. Harron-H. Hopper	Tiffany-Stahl
Lingerie		Tiffany-Stahl
Loves of Ricardo	George Beban	F. B. O.	7477 feet	Sept.4'26
Man Higher Up, The		Lumas
Roulette	R. Barthelmess-M. Livingston-W. Oland-L. Basquette	First National
Stormy Waters	E. Southern-M. McGregor	Tiffany-Stahl
Texas Tornado, The	Tom Tyler	F. B. O.
Upland Rider, The	K. Maynard-M. Douglas	First National

JULY

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Albany Night Boat, The		Tiffany-Stahl
Count of Ten, The	C. Ray-J. Gleason	Universal
Fighting Redhead, The	Buzz Barton	F. B. O.
Flyin' Cowboy, A	H. Gibson-O. Hasbrouck	Universal
Grain of Dust, A		Tiffany-Stahl
Head of the Family, The		Lumas
Kelly's Kids	Charlie Murray	First National
Prowlers of the Sea	R. Cortez-C. Myers	Tiffany-Stahl
Trail of Courage, The	R. Steele-M. Bonner.	F-B-O

AUGUST

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Bantam Cowboy, The	Buzz Barton	F. B. O
Barker, The	M. Sills-B. Compson	First National
Beautiful But Dumb		Tiffany-Stahl
Domestic Relations		Tiffany-Stahl
Oh Kay	Colleen Moore	First National
Thru the Breakers		Lumas

Coming Attractions

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Abie's Irish Rose	F. McDonald-J. Hersholt-N. Carroll-C. Rogers	Paramount	12103 feet
Abie of the U. S. A.	George Jessel	Lumas
Adventurer, The	T. McCoy-D. Sebastian-C. Delany	M-G-M	3709 feet
Adventures in Pygmy Land	Jungle Film	W. W. Hodkinson	6800 feet	Mar. 24
Age of Sex, The		First Division (S. R.)
Anne Against the World	Edith Roberts	Rayart (S. R.)
Baby Cyclone, The	L. Cody-A. Pringle	M-G-M
Battle of the Sexes, The	B. Bennett-J. Hersholt-P. Haver-S. O'Neill	United Artists
Battling Buckaroo, The	T. Tyler-E. Clair	F. B. O.
Beauty Doctor, The	Adolphe Menjou	Paramount
Beggars of Life	W. Beery-R. Arlen-L. Brooks	Paramount
Bellamy Trial, The	L. Joy-B. Bronson-K. Thomson-A. Page.	M-G-M
Beward of Blondes		Columbia
Big Bow Mystery, The	I. Rich-C. Brook	F. B. O
Big Game Hunt, The	W. Beery-R. Hatton.	Paramount
Big Killing, The	Beery-Hatton	Paramount
Big Sneeze ,The	W. Beery-F. Sterling-Z. Pitts	Paramount
Big Top, The		M-G-M
Billionaire, The	Al St. John-J. Robards	Rayart (S. R.)
Black Ace, The	D. Coleman-J. Loff	Pathe
Black Pearl, The	Gladys Brockwell	Rayart (S. R.)
Blossom Time (Movietone)	J. Gaynor-C. Farrell.	Fox
Body Punch, The	J. Dougherty-V. B. Faire	Universal
Boss of Little Arcady, The	C. Murray-D. Reed-D. Dawson-L. Young	First National
Branded Man, The	C. Delaney-J. Marlowe-E. La Bissoniere	Rayart (S. R.)
Bride of the Colorado	J. Boles-D. Blossom.	Pathe
Brides Will Be Brides	Laura La Plante	Universal
Bright Aisle, The		Lumas
Broken Hearts		Hercules Film Prod. (S. R.)
Brotherly Love (tentative)	K. Dane-G. K. Arthur-M. Day	M-G-M
Bum, The (tentative)	Percy Marmont	First Division (S. R.)
Burning Winds	H. Gibson-V. B. Faire	Universal
Bushranger, The	T. McCoy-M. Douglas	M-G-M
Butter and Egg Man, The	J. Mulhall-M. O'Day-G. Astor	First National
Certain Young Man, A	Novarro-Adoree-W. Marshall-G. Astor	M-G-M
Children of the Sun (South Seas film)	Special Cast	Universal
Chinatown	Lon Chaney	M-G-M
City of Shadows, The	J. Luden-S. Lynn	F. B. O
Clearing the Trail	H. Gibson-D. Gulliver	Universal
Clown, The (Vitaphone)	Al Jolson	Warner Bros.
Cock-Eyed World, The	V. McLaglen-E. Lowe	Fox
Code of the Scarlet, The	K. Maynard-G. McConnell	First National

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Cohens and the Kellys in Atlantic City, The		Universal
Companionate Marriage		First Division (S. R.)
Cop, The	W. Boyd-J. Logan- A. Hale-R. Armstrong	Pathe-De Mille
Craig's Wife		Pathe-De Mille
Creole Love		First Division (S. R.)
Crimson Hour, The	L. de Putti-I. Moskine-N. de Brulier	Universal
Dance Fever (Ufa film)		Brill, Inc.
Danger Rider, The	H. Gibson-E. Gilbert	Universal
Danger Street		F. B. O.
Deadline, The	Flash (Dog)-L. Lorraine-L. Gray	M-G-M
Detectives	K. Dane-G. K. Arthur-M. Day	M-G-M
Devil's Cage, The	P. Garon-D. Keith	First Division (S.R.)
Devil's Chaplain, The	Cornelius Keefe	Rayart (S. R.)
Diamond Handcuffs	C. Nagel-E. Boardman-L. Gray-D. Sebastian-S. Hardy	M-G-M
Divine Lady, The	C. Griffith-V. Varconi-M. Dressler	First National
Dolorosa		Tiffany-Stahl
Don't Marry	L. Moran-N. Hamilton	Fox
Doubling for Trouble	H. Gibson-E. Gilbert	Universal
Grip of the Yukon, The	Bushmab, Jr.-N. Hamilton-J. Marlowe	Universal
Down Our Way	V. Valli-F. Darro-O. Caldwell	F. B. O.
Dragnet, The	G. Bancroft-E. Brent-W. Powell	Paramount
Dreaded Bandit, The (foreign film)	L. Albertine-E. Iinajeff	Cinema Attractions	6000 feet
Eagle's Talons, The	Tom Tyler	F. B. O.
Easy Come, Easy Go	R. Dix-N. Carroll	Paramount
Easy Money	Lon Chaney	M-G-M
Empty Saddle, The	Fred Humes	Universal
Escape, The	V. Valli-W. Russell	Fox
Excess Baggage	Wm. Haines	M-G-M
Fallen Angels	N. Kerry-P. Starke-K. Harlan	Universal
Fangs of Fury	Sandow (Dog)	Pathe
Fangs of Justice	Silverstreak (Dog)-J. Walker-J Marlowe.	Bischoff Prod. (S.R.)	5000 feet
Fazil	C. Farrel G Nissen-M. Busch	Fox
Fedora	P. Negri-N. Kerry-L. Grant-O. Mattiesen	Paramount
Fifty-Fifty Girl, The	B. Daniels-J. Hall-W. Austin	Paramount
First Kiss, The	F. Wray-G. Cooper	Paramount
Fools for Luck	W. C. Fields-C. Conklin-S. Blane-J. Luden	Paramount
Fools in the Fog	M. McAvoy-C. Nagel.	Warner Bros
Foreign Legion, The	N. Kerry-J. Marlowe-M. Nolan	Universal
Four Devils, The	F. Macdonald-M Duncan-C. Morton-N. Drexel-J. Gaynor	Fox
Four Sons	J. Hall-M. Mann-Bushman, Jr.-C. Morton-E. Foxe-J. Collyer	Fox	9412 feet	Feb. 18
Four Walls	J. Gilbert-J. Crawford	M-G-M
Freedom of the Press	L. Stone-M. Day-D. Keith	Universal
Free Lips		First Division (S. R.)
George Washington, Jr.	George Jessel	Tiffany-Stahl
Girl Downstairs, The	L. Moran-G. O'Brien.	Fox
Girl on the Barge, The	May Philbin	Universal
Give and Take	G. Sidney-S. Lynn-G. Lewis-J. Hersholt	Universal
Glorifying the American Girl	Ruth Elder	Paramount
Glorious Betsy (Vitaphone)	D. Costello-C. Nagel.	Warner Bros
Godless Girl, The	L. Basquette-G. Duryea - Prevost - N. Beery	Pathe-De Mille
Golf Widows	V. Reynolds-H. Ford-S. Rand	Columbia
Gun Shy (tentative)	Beery-Hatton-M. Brian-G. James	Paramount
Gypsy Love (tentative)		Lumas
Half a Bride	E. Ralston-R. Arlen.	Paramount
Hangman's House	V. McLaglen-J. Collyer-L.Kent-E.Foxe	Fox
Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?	T. Moore-B. Love	Universal
Heart to Heart	C. Moore-E. Lowe	First National
Hello, Cheyenne!	T. Mix-C. Lincoln	Fox
Hell's Angels	B. Lyon-J. Hall-G. Nissen	United Artists	(about) 7 reels
He Learned About Women	W. Haines-E. Percy-A. Page-Sojin	M-G-M
Her Cardboard Lover	M. Davies-W. Haines	M-G-M
His Country	R. Schildkraut-M. Dressler	Pathe-De Mille
His Third Master	Henry B. Walthall	Rayart (S. R.)
His Tiger Lady	A. Menjou-E. Brent	Paramount
Hit of the Show, The	Joe Brown-G. Astor	F. B. O.
Home, James	L. La Plante-C. Delaney	Universal
Honor Bound	G. O'Brien-E. Taylor-L. Hyams-Santschi	Fox
Hot News	B. Daniels	Universal
Hyprocrite, The (Ufa film)		Brill, Inc.
I'll Tell the World	Colleen Moore	First National
Innocent, The	Vilma Banky	United Artists
Isle of Lost Men, The	Tom Santschi	Rayart (S. R.)
It Might Happen to Any Girl		Sterling Pict. (S.R.)
Jazz Mad	J. Hersholt-Nixon-G. Lewis	Universal
Jealousy (Ufa film)		Brill, Inc.
King of Kings, The	Special Cast	Pathe-De Mille	13500 feet	April 2
Kit Carson	Fred Thomson	Paramount
Ladies Must Love	Rod La Rocque	Pathe-De Mille
Ladies of Leisure		Tiffany-Stahl
Ladies of the Mob	C. Bow-R. Arlen-M. Alden	Paramount
Ladies Prefer Bonds (tentative)	C. Nagel-M. McAvoy.	Warner Bros.
Land of the Silver Fox, The (tentative)	Rin-Tin-Tin-L. Hyams-C. Nye-Santschi	Warner Bros.
La Plava	L. Valey-W. Boyd	United Artists
Last Cab, The	Rudolph Schildkraut	Pathe-De Mille
Last Warning, The	Laura La Plante	Universal
Law of the Range, The	McCoy-Crawford-R. Lease	M-G-M
Life's Crossroads	G. Hulette-M. Hamilton	Excellent Pict. (S.R.)
Lion and the Mouse, The (Vitaphone)	M. McAvoy-L. Barrymore-A. B. Frances-Collier, Jr.	Warner Bros.
Little Wild Girl, The	L. Lee-C. Landis-F. Merrill	Hercules Film Prod. (S. R.)
Lonesome	G. Tryon-B. Kent	Universal
Madamoiselle From Armentieres (English Film)	E. Brody-J. Stuart	M-G-M
Magnificent Flirt, The	F. Vidor-L. Young-A. Conti-M. Milner	Paramount
Man From Headquarters, The	Cornelius Keefe	Rayart (S. R.)
Man-Made Woman	L. Joy-J. Boles-H. B. Warner	Pathe-De Mille
Man Who Laughs, The	C. Veidt-M. Philbin	Universal
Man—Woman and Wife	N. Kerry-P. Starke-K. Harlan-M. Nixon	Universal
Marriage of Tomorrow (tentative)		Tiffany-Stahl
Mask of the Devil	John Gilbert	M-G-M
Masked Stranger, The (tentative)	Tim McCoy	M-G-M
Meet the Prince	Glenn Tryon	Universal
Meet the Prince	J. Robards-A. St. John	Rayart (S. R.)
Michigan Kid, The	C. Nagel-R. Adoree	Universal
Midnight Taxi, The	A. Moreno	Warner Bros.
Miracle Girl, The	Betty Compson	First Division (S. R.)
Modern Du Barry, The (Ufa film)	Maria Corda	Brill, Inc	7000 feet
Modern Mothers	H. Chadwick-Fairbanks, Jr.-B. Kent	Columbia
Mother Machree	B. Bennett-V. McLaglen-N Hamilton-E. Clayton	Fox	6863 feet	Mar. 17
Mr. Romeo	F. Sterling-N. Carroll-G. Meeker	Fox
Naughty Duchess, The		Tiffahy-Stahl
Navy Blues	Arthur Lake	Universal
News Parade, The	N. Stuart-S. Phipps	Fox
Noah's Ark (Vitaphone)	D. Costello-G. O'Brien-N. Beery-L. Fazenda	Warner Brow
None But the Brave	Lionel Barrymore	Fox
No Questions Asked	A. Ferris-Collier, Jr.-Livingston	Warner Bros
Odd Fellows	Fields-Conklin	Paramount
Once There was a Princess	Mary Astor	First National
One Way Street, The (tentative)	M. Loy-C. Nagel-W. Russell	Warner Bros.
Our Dancing Daughters	J. Crawford-J. M. Brown-D. Sebastian-N. Asther-A. Page	M-G-M
Out of the Night	C. Palmer-F. Stanley-A. Ayres	Rayart (S. R.)
Painted Post, The	T. Mix-N. Kingston.	Fox
Patent Leather Kid, The (road show)	R Barthelmess-M. O'Day	First National	11412 feet	Aug. 28
Patriot, The	E. Jannings-L. Stone-F. Vidor-N. Hamilton	Paramount
Pay As You Enter	L. Fazenda-C. Cook	Warner Bros
Perfect Crime, The	C. Brook-I. Rich-G. McConnell C. Nye	F. B. O.
Perfumed Trap, The	C. Brook-M. Brian-W. Powell	Paramount
Phantom Buster, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Pathe
Phyllis of the Follies	M. Nixon-C. Rogers	Universal
Pigskin	D. Rollens-S. Carrol	Fox
Plastered in Paris	S. Cohen-J. Pennick-M. Batelini	Fox
Play Girl, The	M. Bellamy-J. M. Brown	Fox
Play Goes On	C. Vedt-M. Nolan	Universal
Port of Missing Children, The		Sierra Pictures (S. R.)
Primanerliebe (German film)	Special Cast	Scenic Films	6500 feet	Mar. 24
Quick Lunch	Fields-Conklin-M. Alden-S. Blane-J. Luden	Paramount
Racket, The	T. Meighan-M. Prevost	Paramount
Ransom	L. Wilson-E. Burns-W. V. Mong	Columbia
Red Dancer of Moscow, The	D. Del Rio-C. Farrell-D. Revier	Fox
Red Lips	M. Nixon-C. Rogers	Universal
Red Mark, The	G. von Seyffertitz-N. Quartaro	Pathe-De Mille
River Woman, The	Alma Rubens	Lumas
Robert Flaherty's Southern Skies	M. Blue-R. Torres	M-G-M
Romeo and Juliet	N. Kerry-M. Philbin	Universal
Saddle and Spurs	"Buzz" Barton-L. Eason	F. B. O.
Sally of the Scandals	B. Love-A. Forrest	F. B. O.
Sally of the South Seas		Hercules Film Prod. (S. R.)
Sawdust Paradise, The	E. Ralston-R. Howes-H. Bosworth-M. Alden	Paramount
Shadows of the Night		Hercules Film Prod. (S. R.)
Shanghai Rose	Mae Busch	Rayart (S. R.)
Shooting Stars (English film)		Artlee Pict. (S.R.)
Show Boat		Universal
Show World	M. Davies-W. Haines	M-G-M
Side Show, The	Fields-Conklin-Brian.	Paramount
Silks and Saddles	M. Nixon-R. Walling-M. Nolan	Universal
Simba	Jungle Film	Martin Johnson African Expedition Corp.	8000 feet	Feb. 4
Sin Town	H. Allen-E. Fair	Pathe-De Mille

Feature	Players	Distributed by	Length	Reviewed
Sisters of Eve	Mae Busch	Rayart (S. R.)
Some Mother's Boy	Mary Carr	Rayart (S. R.)
Sport Girl, The	M. Bellamy-J. M. Brown	Fox
Sporting Age, The	B. Bennett-C. Nye-H. Herbert	Columbia
State Street Sadie	C. Nagel-M. Loy-W. Russell	Warner Bros
Stocks and Blondes	J. Logan-"Skeets" Gallagher-G. Astor	F. B. O.
Street Angel, The	J. Gaynor-C. Farrell	Fox	9221 feet
Streets of Algers (Ufa film)	Camilla Horn	Brill, Inc.
Sunrise	Gaynor-G. O'Brien-Livingston	Fox	8729 feet	Oct. 16
Sun of St. Moritz, The	J. Gilbert-G. Garbo	M-G-M
Sunset Legion, The	F. Thomson-E. Murphy	Paramount
Survival of Slim, The	W. Wales-P. Montgomery	Pathe	6053 feet
Tartuffe, the Hyprocrite	Emil Jannings	Brill, Inc.	ft. Aug. 5, '27
Telling the World	Wm. Haines	M-G-M
Tenderloin (Vitaphone)	D. Costello-C. Nagel	Warner Bros	7782 feet
Tenth Avenue	P. Haver-V. Varconi-R. Schildkraut	Pathe-De Mille
Thief in the Dark, The	G. Meeker-D. Hill-G. Lee	Fox
Three Sinners	P. Negri-W. Baxter	Paramount
Thrill Seeker, The	R. Clifford-J. Fulton	Superlative Pict. (S.R.)	4900 feet
Tide of Empire	R. Adoree-J. Murray	M-G-M
Tillie's Punctured Romance	C. Conklin-W. C. Fields-Fazenda M. Swain-D. Hill	Paramount	5733 feet
Toiler, The	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-J. Ralston	Tiffany-Stahl
Trail of '98	K Dane-P. Starke-R Forbes-Del Rio	M-G-M	11,100 feet	Mar. 24
Two Brothers (Ufa film)		Brill, Inc.
Two Sisters, The		Rayart (S. R.)
Uncensored Woman, The		Lumas
Uncle Tom's Cabin	Special Cast	Universal		Nov. 18
Undressed		Sterling Pict. (S.R.)
Valley Beyond the Law, The	D. Coleman-J Loff	Pathe
Vanishing Pioneer, The	J. Holt-S. Blane	Paramount
Viennese Lovers	Philbin-Hersholt-R Keane	Universal
War in the Dark, The	Greta Garbo	M-G-M
Warming Up	R. Dix-J. Arthur	Paramount
Watch My Speed	R. Denny-B. Worth	Universal
Way of the Strong	Anita Stewart	Columbia
Western Suffragettes	H. Gibson-G. Hale	Universal
What Holds Men	Leatrice Joy	Pathe-De Mille
When Danger Calls	W. Fairbanks-E. Sedgwick	Lumas	5000 feet
When Dreams Come True	Lila Lee	Rayart (S. R.)
When Fleet Meets Fleet (British Film)	H. Stuart-B. Goetzke-N. Asther	Hi-Mark (S. R.)	7953 feet
Whip, The	D. Mackaill-L. Sherman-A. Q. Nilsson-R. Forbes	First National
Wind, The	L. Gish-L. Hanson	M-G-M
Wings (road show)	C. Bow-B. Rogers	Paramount	12 reels	Aug. 26
Woman Between, The		Lumas
Woman Disputed, The	N. Talmadge-G. Roland-G. von Seyffertitz	United Artists
Women They Talk About	I. Rich-A. Ferris-W. Collier, Jr	Warner Bros
Yellow Contraband	L. Maloney-G. Goatz	Pathe
ou'll Never Get Rich		First Division (S. R.)

Comedies and Short Subjects

BRAY PRODUCTIONS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Co-Ed, The	Murdock-Cavalier-Lancaster	Feb. 10	2 reels	Jan. 7
Barnyard Rivals	W. Lantz-M. Shaw-T. Ward	Mar. 10	2 reels	Mar. 17
Cat Tales	McDougall Kids	Feb. 20	2 reels
Cutting Up	McDougall Kids	Mar. 20	2 reels	Mar. 17
Daze of '49	J. Cooper-L. Carver	Jan. 1	2 reels	Feb. 4
Duke's Dirty Doings	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Feb. 1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Fowl Play	McDougall Kids	April 20	2 reels
Lost in the Lurch	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Mar. 1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mr. Pooh	McDougall Kids	Jan. 20	2 reels	Jan. 7

EDUCATIONAL

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
All Bear	Curiosities		April 29	1 reel	April 21
All Set	W. Lupino-Sargent-L. Hutton		Jan. 29	1 reel	Feb. 4
Always a Gentleman	Lloyd Hamilton		Feb. 5	2 reels	Feb. 18
At It Again	Monty Collins		May 13	2 reels
Between Jobs	Lloyd Hamilton		Mar. 18	2 reels
Blazing Away	Lloyd Hamilton		April 22	2 reels	April 7
Builders of Bridges—When Twilight Comes	Bruce Outdoor Sketch		Feb. 26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Call of the Sea, The (Color Film)	H. Hampton-M. Valles-N. Kelley		Jan. 1	2 reels	Dec. 31
Chilly Days	"Big Boy"		Feb. 19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Circus Blues	Dorothy Devore		Mar. 25	2 reels	Mar. 17
Count Me Out	Barney Hellum		Mar. 11	1 reel	Mar. 3
Cutie	Dorothy Devore		Jan. 15	2 reels	Feb. 18
Dog Days—The Sun and the Rain	Bruce Outdoor Sketch		Jan. 29	1 reel	Feb. 25
Dummies	Larry Semon		Jan. 1	2 reels	Dec. 23
Fall In	Monty Collins		Jan. 1	1 reel	Dec. 23
Fandango	Lupino Lane		May 6	2 reels	April 14
Felix the Cat in Arabiantics	"Sullivan Cartoon"		May 13	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Comicalities	"Sullivan Cartoon"		April 1	1 reel	April 21
Felix the Cat in Draggin' the Dragon	"Sullivan Cartoon"		Jan. 22	1 reel	Feb. 25
Felix the Cat in Eskimotive	"Sullivan Cartoon"		April 29	1 reel
Felix the Cat in In-and-Out-Laws	"Sullivan Cartoon"		May 27	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Japanicky	"Sullivan Cartoon"		Mar. 4	1 reel	Mar. 31
Felix the Cat in Ohm Sweet Ohm	"Sullivan Cartoon"		Feb. 19	1 reel	Mar. 17
Felix the Cat in Polly-tics	"Sullivan Cartoon"		Mar. 18	1 reel	April 14
Felix the Cat in Sure-Lock Holmes	"Sullivan Cartoon"		April 15	1 reel
Felix the Cat in the Oily Bird	"Sullivan Cartoon"		Feb. 5	1 reel	Mar. 10
Felix the Cat in the Smoke Screen	"Sullivan Cartoon"		Jan. 8	1 reel	Feb. 18
Feline Frolics—The Tonquin Valley	Bruce Outdoor Sketch		Mar. 25	1 reel	Mar. 10
Fighting Orphans, The—Evening Mist	Bruce Outdoor Sketch			1 reel
Green-Eyed Love	Ruby McCoy-George Hall		Apr. 8	1 reel	Mar. 24
High Strung	Jerry Drew		Jan. 29	2 reels	Feb. 4
Hints on Hunting—A Day By the Sea	Bruce Outdoor Sketch		April 22	1 reel	Mar. 31
His Maiden Voyage	George Davis		Feb. 26	2 reels	Feb. 18
How to Please the Public	Hodge Podge		Mar. 11	1 reel	Mar. 17
Indiscrete Pete	Jerry Drew		Mar. 11	2 reels	Mar. 10
Kitchen Talent	George Davis		April 15	2 reels	Mar. 31
Landlord Blues	Curiosities		May 27	1 reel
Listen Sister	Lupino Lane		Mar. 25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Love's Springtime (Color Film)	H. Hampton-J. Catalaine		Feb. 12	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mother Birds	Curiosities		Mar. 4	1 reel	Feb. 18
Mysterious Night, A	Monty Collins		Feb. 12	1 reel	Feb. 4
Navy Beans	"Big Boy"		May 27	2 reels
Never Too Late	Wallace Lupino		May 6	1 reel
New York's Sweetheart	Curiosities		Jan. 1	1 reel	Feb. 11
Nicknames	Hodge-Podge		April 8	1 reel	April 21
No Fare	"Big Boy"		April 8	2 reels	Mar. 24
Off Balance	Monty Collins		April 22	1 reel	Zpril 14
Peculiar Pair of Pups, A—Nobody Home	Bruce Outdoor Sketch		May 20	1 reel
Penny Postals	Curiosities		April 1	1 reel	Mar. 17
Pretty Baby	Monty Collins		Feb. 26	1 reel	Feb. 18
Racing Mad	Al St. John		Jan. 8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Recollections of a Rover	Hodge-Podge		Jan. 8	1 reel	Feb. 4
Rubbernecking	Curiosities		Feb. 5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Running Ragged	Lewis Sargent		Jan. 29	1 reel	Feb. 4
Say Ah-h	Charley Bowers		Feb. 19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Simple Sap, A	Larry Semon		Feb. 12	2 reels	Feb. 25
Slippery Head	Johnny Arthur		April 29	2 reels	April 21
Some Scout	Lupino Lane		Nov. 6	2 reels	Oct. 21
Spring Has Came	Monty Collins		Mar. 25	1 reel	Mar. 17
Star Shots	Hodge-Podge		Feb. 5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Sword Points	Lupino Lane		Feb. 12	2 reels	Dec. 31
There It is	Charley Bowers		Jan. 1	2 reels	Jan. 7
Thoughts While Fishing—Silver Shadows	Bruce Outdoor Sketch			1 reel
Three Tough Onions	Monty Collins		May 20	1 reel
Visitors Welcome	Johnny Arthur		Mar. 4	2 reels	Mar. 10
Wandering Toy, The	Hodge-Podge		May 6	1 reel
wedding Slips	Monty Collins		Jan. 15	1 reel	Feb. 11
Whoozit	Charley Bowers		April 1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Wildcat Valley	Johnny Arthur		Jan. 22	2 reels	Feb. 4
Wild Wool—Night Clouds	Bruce Outdoor Sketch			1 reel
You'll Be Sorry	Charley Bowers		May 20	2 reels

F B O

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Squall	Al Cooke	April 16	2 reels
All Alike	Carr-Alexander-Ross	April 9	2 reels
All Washed Up	Al Cooke		2 reels	Feb. $8
Big Berthas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	May 14	2 reels
Come Meal	Al Cooke	May 28	2 reels
Mickey's Little Eva	Mickey Yule	April 2	2 reels
Mickey's Parade	Mickey Yule	Jan. 2	2 reels
Mickey's Wild West	Mickey Yule	May 7	2 reels
My Kingdom For a Hearse	Al Cooke	April 2	2 reels
Panting Papas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Jan. 9	2 reels
Rah! Rah! Rekie	Al Cooke		2 reels	Feb. 18
Restless Bachelors	Al Cooke	April 30	2 reels
Silk Sock Hal	Al Cooke	May 14	2 reels
Social Error, A	Al Cooke		2 reels	Feb. 11
Too Many Hisses	A. Cook-B. Hellum		2 reels

FOX FILMS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Arkansas Traveler	Variety	Jan. 8	1 reel
Cow's Husband, A	F. Spenser-M. J. Temple		2 reels
Desert Blooms, The	Variety	Feb. 5	1 reel
Exploring Norway	Variety	Aug. 7	1 reel
Hold Your Hat	S. Phipps-N. Stuart-T. Hill-A. Housman		2 reels	Mar. 24
Hot House Hazel	T. Brooke-T. Hill	Jan. 1	2 reels
In a Music Shoppe (Movietone)	Special Casr
Jack and Jilted	P. Cunning-M. King		2 reels
Jungles of the Amazon	Variety		1 reel	Jan. 21
Kiss Doctor, The	T. Brooke-D. Thompson		2 reels	Mar. 17
Lady Lion	C. Lincoln-E. Clayton-B. Bletcher		2 reels
Lords of the Back Fence	Variety	Jan. 22	1 reel
Low Necker, A	Marjorie Beebe		2 reels	Jan. 14
Old Wives Who Knew	Hallam Cooley		2 reels
Over the Andes	Variety		1 reel
Psyche and the Pskyscraper	"O. Henry"		2 reels
Too Many Cookies	T. Brooke-L. Miller		2 reels

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Aching Youth	Charley Chase	Mar. 17	2 reels
African Adventure, An	Ufa Oddities	Aug. 2
All For Nothing	Charley Chase	Jan. 21	2 reels	Jan. 14
Amazing Lovers	Ufa Oddities	Mar. 10	1 reel
Barnum and Ringling, Inc	"Our Gang"	April 7	2 reels	April 21
Bird Man, The	Charley Chase		2 reels
Blow by Blow	Max Davidson	Mar. 31	2 reels	April 21
Came the Dawn	Max Davidson	Mar. 3	2 reels
Children of the Sun	Ufa Oddities	Feb. 11	1 reel
Czarina's Secret, The Technicolor)	O. Baklanova-D. Mir-S. Rand	Mar. 17	2 reels
Dumb Daddies	Max Davidson	Feb. 4	2 reels	Feb. 25
Edison, Marconi and Co	"Our Gang"	Mar. 10	2 reels	April 7
Fair and Muddy	"Our Gang"	May 5	1 reel
Family Group, The	Charley Chase	Feb. 18	2 reels	Feb. 18
Finishing Touch, The	Laurel-Hardy	Feb. 25	2 reels	April 7
Fishing With a Microscope	Ufa Oddities		1 reel
Forty Thousand Miles With Lindbergh	Aviation Film	Mar. 4	3 reels

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
From Soup to Nuts	Laurel-Hardy	Mar. 24	2 reels	April 21
Golden Fleeces	Ufa Oddities	May 19	1 reel
Happy Omen, A	Ufa Oddities	July 14	1 reel
Heavenly Bodies	Ufa Oddities		1 reel
Jungle Round-Up, A	Ufa Oddities	Jan. 28	1 reel	Oct. 9
Lady of Victories, The (Technicolor)	A. Ayres-O. Matiesen-G. Irving	Jan. 21	2 reels	Feb 25
Leave 'Em Laughing	Laurel-Hardy	Jan. 28	2 reels
Let George Do It	Laurel Hardy		2 reels	Mar. 3
Limousine Love	Charley Chase	April 14	2reels	April 21
Monarch of the Glen, The	Ufa Oddities	Mar. 24	1 reel	Jan. 21
Nature's Wizardry	Ufa Oddities	July 28	1 reel
Palace of Honey, The	Ufa Oddities	June 16	1 reel
Pathfinders, The	Ufa Oddities		1 reel
Pass the Gravy	Max Davidson	Jan. 7	2 reels	Jan. 14
Perfume and Nicotine	Ufa Oddities	Jan. 14	1 reel
Pets and Pests	Ufa Oddities	Jan. 28	1 reel	Mar. 3
Primitive Housekeeping	Ufa Oddities	April 21	1 reel
Rainy Days	"Our Gang"	Feb. 11	2 reels
Sanctuary	Ufa Oddities	May 5	1 reel
Secrets of the Sea	Ufa Oddities	Feb. 25	1 reel	May 3
Sleeping Death	Ufa Oddities	June 30	1 reel
Spook-Spoofing	"Our Gang"	Jan. 14	2 reels	Jan. 14
TallyHo	Ufa Oddities		1 reel
Tell It to the Judge	Max Davidson	April 28	2 reels
That Night	Max Davidson		2 reels
Their Purple Moment	Laurel-Hardy		2 reels
Tokens of Manhood	Ufa Oddities	June 2	1 reel
Wicked Kasimir, The	Ufa Oddities	April 7	1 reel
Wonders of the Blue Gulf of Mexico	Ufa Oddities		1 reel
Your'e Darn Tootin'	Laurel Hardy	April 11	2 reels

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Adoration	Novelty	Feb. 25	2 reels
Behind the Counter	E. E. Horton	Mar. 3	2 reels
Bugs My Dear (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	April 21	2 reels
Campus Cuties	Billy Dooley	April 7	2 reels
Dad's Choice	E. E. Horton	Jan. 7	2 reels
Fighting Fanny (Christie)	Featured Cast	Jan. 21	2 reels
Frenzy	Novelty	Jan. 14	2 reels
Gallant Gob, A (Christie)	Billy Dooley	May 26	2 reels
Goofy Ghosts (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	April 28	2 rees
Halfback Hannah (Christie)	Ann Cornwall	April 14	2 reels
Hold 'Er Cowboy (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	June 2	2 reels
Holy Mackerel (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Feb. 11	2 reels
Hunger Stroke, A	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb. 25	1 reel
Ice Boxed	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb. 11	1 reel
Just the Type (Christie)	Neal Burns	Feb. 18	2 reels
Ko-Ko's Bawth	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb. 18	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Jerm Jam	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb. 4	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Earth Control	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar. 31	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kink	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan. 7	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kozy Korner	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan. 21	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Smoke	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar. 3	1 reel
KoKo's Tattoo	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar. 17	1 reel
Love Sunk	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar. 24	1 reel
Long Hose (Christie)	Jack Duffy	Mar. 17	2 reels
Love's Young Sream (Christie)	Anne Cornwall	May 12	2 reels
Love Shy (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Mar. 24	1 reel
Pig Styles	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Jan. 14	1 reel
Save the Pieces (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Jan. 28	2 reels
Say Uncle (Christie)	Jack Duffy	June 9	2 reels
Sea Food (Christie)	Billy Dooley	July 14	2 reels
Shadow Theory	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Jan. 28	1 reel
Slick Slickers (Christie)	Neal Burns	July 7	2 reels
Slippery Heels (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	June 16	2 reels
Sweeties (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Mar. 10	2 reels
Water Bugs(Christie)	Billy Dooley	Feb. 4	2 reels
Wired and Fired	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar. 10	1 reel

PATHE-DE MILLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Animal Snaps	Rarebits	April 8	1 reel
Barnyard Artists	"Aesop Fables"	April 29	1 reel	April 21
Barnyard Lodge No. 1	"Aesop Fables"	April 8	1 reel	April 7
Battling Duet, The	"Aesop Fables"	April 15	1 reel	April 7
Beach Club, The	Bevan-Hurlock	Jan. 22	2 reels	Jan. 14
Benares (Educational)	Geographical Number	Jan. 24	1 reel
Best Man, The	Bevan-A. Bennett-V. Dent	Feb. 19	2 reels	Feb. 11
Bicycle Flirt, The	Bevan-V. Dent-D. Farley-C. Lombard	Mar. 18	2 reels	Mar. 10
Blaze of Glory, A	"Aesop Fables"	Feb. 26	1 reel
Boats and Fishermen of the Arctics and Tropics (Educational)	Science Number	Mar. 4	2 reels
Boy Friend, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan. 22	1 reel
Broncho Buster, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan. 1	1 reel
Buddhists of Burma, The (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb. 5	1 reel
Busy Bodies	Sportlight	Jan. 8	1 reel	Dec. 31
Clothes and the Game	Sportlight	April 15	1 reel	April 7
Comrades in Work	Mabel Normand		2 reels
County Fair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar. 4	1 reel
Crowned Heads	Sportlight	Feb. 19	1 reel
Delhi (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb. 26	1 reel
Do Monkeys Manicure?	Stan Laurel	April 1	1 reel
Family Frolics	Sportlight	Jan. 22	1 reel	Jan. 14
Famous Playgrounds	Sportlight	May 13	1 reel
Flying Age, The	"Aesop Fables"	April 22	1 reel	April 21
Flaming Fathers	Max Davidson	Dec. 18	2 reels	Dec. 16
Flying Elephants	Roach Stars	Feb. 12	2 reels	Feb. 11
Fun Afoot	Sportlight	Mar. 18	1 reel
Galloping Ghosts	O. Carew-O. Hardy-J. Finlayson	Mar. 11	2 reels	Mar. 3
Girl From Nowhere, The	D. Pollard-S. Holloway-Swain	Mar. 25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Good Ship Nellie, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb. 5	1 reel
High Stakes	"Aesop Fables"	Jan. 15	1 reel
Honeymoon Hints	Rarebits	Jan. 15	1 reel
How Man Suits His Life to Differing Surroundings	Science Series		2 reels
Houses of the Arctic and the Tropics (Educational)	Science Number	Feb. 12	2 reels
Jungle Days	"Aesop Cartoon"	Mar. 25	2 reels	Mar. 31
Jungle Triangle	"Aesop Fables"	May 6	1 reel
Kashmir, Old and New (Educational)	Geographical Number	Jan. 10	1 reel
Love at First Flight	Pollard-Hurlock-Cowley	Jan. 29	2 reels	Jan. 21
Man Without a Face (Serial)	A. Ray-W. Miller	Jan. 15	10 episodes	Jan. 14
Mark of the Frog, The (Serial)	M. Morris-D. Reed	Mar. 25	10 episodes	Mar. 24

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Matching Wits	Sportlight		April 29	1 reel	April 21
On the Ice	"Aesop Fables"		Mar. 11	1 reel
Over the Bounding Blue with Will Rogers (Travelesque)			Feb. 12	1 reel	Feb. 11
Playing Hookey	"Our Gang"		Jan. 1	2 reels
Reeling Down the Rhine with Will Rogers	Travelesque		Jan. 15	1 reel	Jan. 7
Run Girl, Run	Sennett Girls		Jan. 15	2 reels	Jan. 14
Scaling the Alps	"Aesop Fables"		April 1	1 reel	Mar. 31
Season to Taste	Sportlight		Mar. 4	1 reel
Shalimar Gardens, The (Educational)	Geographical Number		Mar. 18	1 reel
Should Tall Men Marry?	Roach Stars		Jan. 15	2 reels	Jan. 7
Smile Wins, The	"Our Gang"		Feb. 26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Army Life	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson		Feb. 5	2 reels	Feb. 4
Smith's Bargain	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson			2 reels
Smith's Farm Days	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson		Mar. 4	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Holiday	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson		Jan. 8	2 reels	Dec. 31
Smith's Restaurant	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson		April 1	1 reel
Soldier Man	Harry Langdon
Son Shower, The	"Aesop Fables"		Mar. 18	1 reel
Spider's Lair, The	"Aesop Fables"		Feb. 19	1 reel	Feb. 18
Swim Princess, The	D. Pollard-A. Clyde-C. Lombard		Feb. 26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Tail Waggers	Sportlight		April 1	1 reel
Trees	Rarebits		Mar. 11	1 reel
Twenty-Four-Dollar Island	Novelty			1 reel	Dec. 23
Versatility	Sportlight		Feb. 5	1 reel	Jan. 28
Volcanoes (Educational)	Geological Number		Feb. 19	1 reel
Wandering Minstrel, The	"Aesop Fables"		Jan. 29	1 reel
Work of Running Water (Educational)	Geological Number		Mar. 11	1 reel
Yellow Cameo, The (Serial)	Allene Ray			10 episodes

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Bet, The (story by Chekov)	F. P. Donovan (produer)			2 reels
Cigareete Maker's Romance, A (story by Crawford)	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
District Doctor, The (story by Balzac	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
Girl with the Golden Eyes, The (story by Balzac)	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
Mysterious Airman, The (Serial)		Weiss Bros		10 episodes
Necklace, The	M. Alden-M. Costello-E. Chautard	F. P. Donovan (producer)		2 reels
Nothing to Live For	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke		2 reels
Piece of String, A (story by De Maupassant)	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
Police Reporter, The (Serial)	W. Miller-E. Gilbert-.	Weiss	Mar.	10 episodes
Sophomore, The	G.O'Neil-L.Graydon.	Hi-Mark
Spooky Money	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke		2 reels
Who's Who	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke		2 reels
You Can't Win (Serial)		Weiss Bros		10 episodes

TIFFANY-STAHL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Marcheta	Color Classic	Mar. 1	1 reel
Medallion, The	Color Classic	Mar. 1	1 reel
Mission Bells	Color Classic	Mar. 15	1 reel
North of Suez	Color Classic	Jan. 1	1 reel
Perfect Day, A	Color Classic	April 1	1 reel
Red Man's Home, The	Color Classic		1 reel
Scarface	Color Classic	Jan. 15	1 reel
Souvenirs	Color Classic	Feb. 15	1 reel
Tom, Dick or Harry	Color Classic		1 reel
Treasure Land	Color Classic	Feb. 1	1 reel

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Africa Before Dark	Oswald Cartoon	Feb. 20	1 reel	April 7
All Balled Up (O. R. Cohen story)	Charles Puffy	Feb. 27	2 reels	Feb. 4
Any Old Count	"The Gumps"	Jan. 23	2 reels
Back to Nature	Arthur Lake	Feb. 27	1 reel	Feb. 11
Bare Fists	Jack Perrin	Jan. 14	2 reels	Dec. 23
Battling Justice	Fred Gilman	Mar. 24	2 reels	Feb. 25
Big Bluff, A	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhail	May 2	2 reels	April 7
Boss of the Rancho	Bob Curwood	Jan. 7	2 reels
Brand of Courage, The	B. Curwood-P. Montgomery	Feb. 4	2 reels	Jan. 7
Bright Lights	Oswald Cartoon	Mar. 19	1 reel	April 7
Buckskin Days	Newton House	Feb. 18	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster's Big Chance	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Jan. 11	2 reels	Dec. 23
Buster Shows Off	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Mar. 14	2 reels
Buster Steps Out	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Feb. 8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster's Whippet Race	Trimble, Turner and Dog	May 23	2 reels
By Correspondence	Arthur Lake	Jan. 30	1 reel	Jan. 14
Case of Scotch, A	"The Gumps"	Jan. 9	2 reels	Dec. 23
Cloud Buster, The	"The Gumos"	Feb. 6	2 reels	Jan. 21
Code of the Mounted, The	Jack Perrin	May 5	2 reels	April 7
Dangerous Trail, The	Jack Perrin	June 2	2 reels
Dates for Two	C. King-C. Doherty	Jan. 18	2 reels	Dec. 31
Fighting Destiny	Fred Gilman	May 19	2 reels	April 21
Framed	Bob Curwood	May 26	2 reels
Gauge of Battle, The	Fred Gilman	April 21	2 reels	Mar. 24
George's False Alarm	Sid Saylor	Feb. 29	2 reels	Feb. 4
George's School Daze	Sid Saylor	May 30	2 reels
Haunted Island, The (Serial)	Jack Daugherty-Helen Foster	Mar. 26	10 episodes
Harem Scarem	Oswald Cartoon	Jan. 9	1 reel
Her Only Husband	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhail	April 4	2 reels	Mar. 17
Hidden Loot	Bob Curwood	April 28	2 reels	Mar. 31
High Flyin' George	Sid Saylor	Jan. 25	2 reels
His In Laws (O. R. Cohen story)	Charles Puffy	Mar. 12	2 reels	Feb. 18
Horns and Orange Blossoms (O. R. Cohen story)	Charles Puffy	Jan. 29	2 reels	Jan. 7
Horse Play	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhail	Jan. 4	2 reels	Dec. 16
Hungry Hoboes	Oswald Cartoon	May 14	1 reel	April 21
Indoor Golf	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhail	Mar. 7	2 reels	Feb. 11
Looters, The	Bob Curwood	Mar. 3	2 reels	Feb. 4
Madden of the Mounted	Jack Perrin	Mar. 10	2 reels	Feb. 11
Man of Letters, A	Sid Saylor	Feb. 15	2 reels	Jan. 28
Married Bachelors (O. R. Cohen story)	Charles Puffy	April 9	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mistakes Will Happen	Ben Hall	Feb. 13	1 reel	Jan. 21
Money! Money! Money!	Ben Hall	May 7	1 reel	April 14
Neck n' Neck	Oswald Cartoon	Jan. 23	1 reel

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Newlyweds' Advice		Jan.	2	2 reels	Dec. 16
Newlyweds' Friends, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	April	1	2 reels	Mar. 1
Newlyweds' Imagination, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	May	7	2 reels	April 14
Newlyweds' Servant, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	Feb.	6	2 reels	Feb. 4
Newlyweds Success, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	Mar.	5	2 reels	Feb. 11
No Blondes Allowed	C. King-C. Doherty	Mar.	21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Oh, What a Knight	Oswald Cartoon	May	28	1 reel
Ole Swimmin' 'Ole, The	Oswald Cartoon	Feb.	6	1 reel	Mar. 24
One Every Minute	Arthur Lake	April	23	1 reel	April 7
Out in the Rain	"The Gumps"	Feb.	20	2 reels	Jan. 28
Ozzie of the Mounted	Oswald Cartoon	April	30	1 reel	April 7
Payroll Roundup, The	Bob Curwood	Mar.	31	2 reels	Mar. 3
Prince and the Papa (O. R. Cohen story)	Charles Puffy	Feb.	12	2 reels	Jan. 21
Ride 'Em Plowboy	Oswald Cartoon	April	15	1 reel	Mar. 24
Riding Gold	Newton House	Jan.	21	2 reels
Ring Leader, The	Jack Perrin	April	7	2 reels	Mar. 10
Ringside Romeos	Arthur Lake	Mar.	26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Rival Romeos	Oswald Cartoon	Mar.	5	1 reel	April 7
Sagebrush Sadie	Oswald Cartoon	April	1	1 reel
Sailor George	Sid Saylor	May	9	2 reels	April 14
Scarlet Arrow, The (Serial—	F. X. Bushman Jr.)			10 episodes
Sealed Orders	Jack Perrin	Feb.	11	2 reels	Jan. 28
Shady Rest	"The Gumps"			2 reels
Sliding Home	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan.	16	2 reels	Dec. 30
Social Lions	Ben Hall	Mar.	12	1 reel
Some Babies (O. R. Cohen story)	Charles Puffy	Mar.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Some Pets	Arthur Lake	Jan.	2	1 reel	Dec. 16
Son of the Frontier, A	Newton House	April	14	2 reels	Mar. 17
So This Is Sapp Center	Ben Hall	Jan.	16	1 reel	Dec. 30
Special Edition	Ben Hall	April	9	1 reel	Mar. 17
Start Something	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	Feb.	1	1 reel	Jan. 14
Summer Knights	Arthur Lake	May	21	1 reel
Swell Clothes	Arthur Lake	Dec.	5	1 reel	Nov. 18
Taking the Count	C. King-C. Doherty	April	18	2 reels	Mar. 24
Terrors of the Unknown (Serial)				10 episodes
That's That	Trimble-Turner and Dog	April	11	2 reels	Mar. 17
There's a Will	C. King-C. Doherty	Dec.	21	2 reels
Unexpected Hero, An	F. Gilman-M. King	Feb.	25	2 reels	Jan. 28
Untamed, The	Newton House	May	12	2 reels	April 14
Valiant Rider, The (Western)	Bob Curwood			2 reels
Vanishing Rider, The (Serial)	Wm. Desmond	Jan.	16	10 episodes
Watch George	Sid Saylor	Mar.	28	2 reels	Mar. 3
What a Party	C. King-C. Doherty	Feb.	22	2 reels	Feb. 4
When George Hops	Sid Saylor	April	25	2 reels	Mar. 31
Winged Hoofs	Newton House	Mar.	17	2 reels	Feb. 25
Winning Five, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Sept.	26	2 reels	Sept. 18
Winning Goal, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan.	2	2 reels
Wolves of the Range	Fred Gilman	Jan.	28	2 reels
Woman Chasers	C. King-C. Doherty	May	16	2 reels	April 21

Studio Briefs

Patsy Ruth Miller will play the leading role in Tiffany-Stahl's "Marriage of To-Morrow," which James Flood will direct.

With the addition of Ethel Grey Terry, George Irving, Alan Roscoe and Gene Stone the cast of Columbia's "Modern Mothers" has been completed. The film is entering the final week of producion under the direction of Phil Rosen.

Buster Keaton began working last week on his new M-G-M comedy, "The Camera Man," working on City Hall scenes in New York City. Marceline Day is the feminine lead.

F B O will feature Anna Q. Nilsson in two features for the new program. The first will be "Blockade," an original by Louis Sarecky and John Twist.

Anita Page, one of the M-G-M newcomers whose first featured part is the feminine lead in "Telling the World," will play opposite Lon Chaney in "Easy Money."

Norman Taurog, who has been directing for Educational, has been signed specially to direct George Jessel in his two pictures for Tiffany-Stahl. The star has arrived in Hollywood after a vaudeville tour.

Columbia has signed Elmer Clifton to direct a new picture in which John Boles, also signed, will be the leading man. The story, which will present Olive Borden as a Columbia player, has not been assigned a title as yet.

Ramon Romeo, author and playwright, has been signed to a F B O contract to write a series of originals for screen production. He is at present producing his own play, "Rhapsody," at the Beaux Arts Playshop," in which he plays the leading male role.

Production has been started at the Cosmopolitan studio on "Two Masters" by Rita Wieman, the first of a series of Paramount two-reelers for the Actors Fund of America and the Authors League Fund. Edmund Lawrence is directing from the script by Adeline Leitzbach. The cast includes Mary Eaton, Guy Bates Post, Clarke Silvernail, Carol McComas, Ann Sutherland, Edward Robbins, Minnie Dupree and others.

Tiffany-Stahl has signed Montague Love to act in four pictures for the new season's program. Roy D'Arcy has also been signed to play in four.

Two studio extras, Mirra Rayo and Russell Harlan, are credited players in Paramount's "Half a Bride." Esther Ralston was instrumental in their promotion from the extra ranks.

George Archainbaud is resting at Lake Tahoe between the completion of the Tiffany-Stahl production, "Ladies of the Night Club" and the commencement of "A Grain of Dust."

The names of Julanne Johnston, Jed Prouty and Chappell Dossett last week completed the cast of "Name the Woman," the Columbia picture now in work.

Paul Perez, who at one time titled four pictures in two weeks, will write the titles for "Ladies of the Night Club." Leslie Mason is doing the titles for "Prowlers of the Sea" and "Stormy Waters," both Tiffany-Stahl productions.

Jackie Levine and Lorraine Rivero, who have supported "Big Boy" in his recent starring vehicles, again will be seen with the star in "Navy Beans," one of the new Educational comedies.

A May release from First Division will be "The Devil's Cage," featuring Pauline Garon directed by Wilfred Ney from a story by Isadore Bernstein. Support comes from Donald Keith, Ruth Stone, Armand Kaliz and Lincoln Stedman.

Betty Cauldwell and Jack Lipson, two recent additions to the players' ranks at the Educational studios, take the principal supporting parts in "You'll Be Sorry," Charley Bower's new starring comedy for Educational.

Ernie Shields will play the part of the rat in "Free Lips," First Division's feature production which will be made at the Metropolitan studio under the direction of Wallace McDonald. June Marlowe is starred. Jane Novak also has an important supporting role.

Robert Graves, who is usually cast in heavy roles in Educational comedies, has a different sort of role in "Three Tough Onions," Monty Collins' forthcoming Cameo comedy. Lucille Hutton is the comedian's leading lady in "At It Again," a new comedy in which Jack Miller is also one of the featured players.

Harry T. Morey and Francis McDonald have been given acting assignments in "The Perfumed Trap," new underworld story which Paramount is producing. It is probable that it will be newly titled before release.

"The Cameraman" is the title chosen for Buster Keaton's initial comedy at the M-G-M studio, location work on which was recently finished in New York. The unit is now finishing interiors at Culver City.

Camera work on "Hot News," a new Paramount photoplay, has begun at the studio, the first scene to be filmed finding Bebe Daniels as a newsreel camera girl at a baby show.

Ricardo Cortez will play the role of the motion picture star in "Excess Baggage," M-G-M film.

The cast of "Hot News" continues to grow with the picture already in production. Added to the Paramount unit are Mario Carillo, Ben Hall, Jack Woody, John Kole, May Wallace, Gino Corrado and Maude Turner Gordon.

Richard Barthelmess has completed "Roulette," his latest starring picture for First National Pictures, and has left for Honolulu on his first vacation in a year.

Nora Lane has been selected as leading woman for Fred Thomson in his Paramount special, "Kit Carson." The role calls for the portrayal of Senorita Jaramille, beautiful Spanish girl, who married Carson.

Jack Oakie has been cast for an important role in "The Fleet's In," in which Richard Arlen has the leading male assignment. Malcolm St. Clair will direct and Clara Bow will star.

Roy Press Printers

Preference means Profits

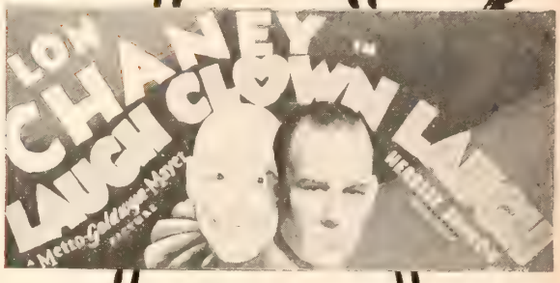
The theatre that stresses screen quality is well on the way to popular preference. And that preference means profits.

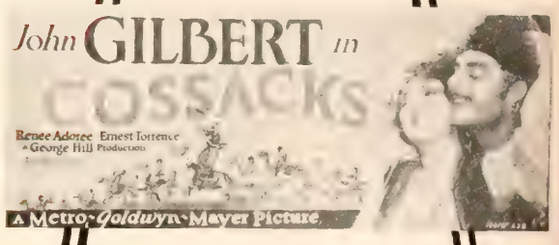
Specify prints on Eastman Positive—the film that preserves every bit of photographic quality for your screen.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

THE SUN NEVER SETS ON A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER 24-SHEET!





HERE'S THE REASON!

The whole world now concedes M-G-M to be the Important Company in this business—

M-G-M took WORLD leadership
BY producing
THE best pictures
AND by TELLING the world
ABOUT them.

Coming: Ramon Novarro, Across to Singapore; Lon Chaney, Laugh, Clown, Laugh; Dane-Arthur, Circus Rookies; Syd Chaplin, Skirts; John Gilbert, The Cossacks; Dane-Arthur, Detectives; Norma Shearer, The Actress; William Haines, Telling The World, Mlle. from Armentieres, Diamond Handcuffs, and more! more! more!

M-G-M

ABOVE: A few of the great 24-sheets on new M-G-M hits. All M-G-M posters are manufactured by the Morgan Lithograph Co., General Office Cleveland, O. Branches: New York City, Los Angeles. Plants: Cleveland O., New York City, Elmhurst, L. I.

May 12, 1928

Motion Picture News

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

THE IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

from

THE IMPORTANT COMPANY

next week

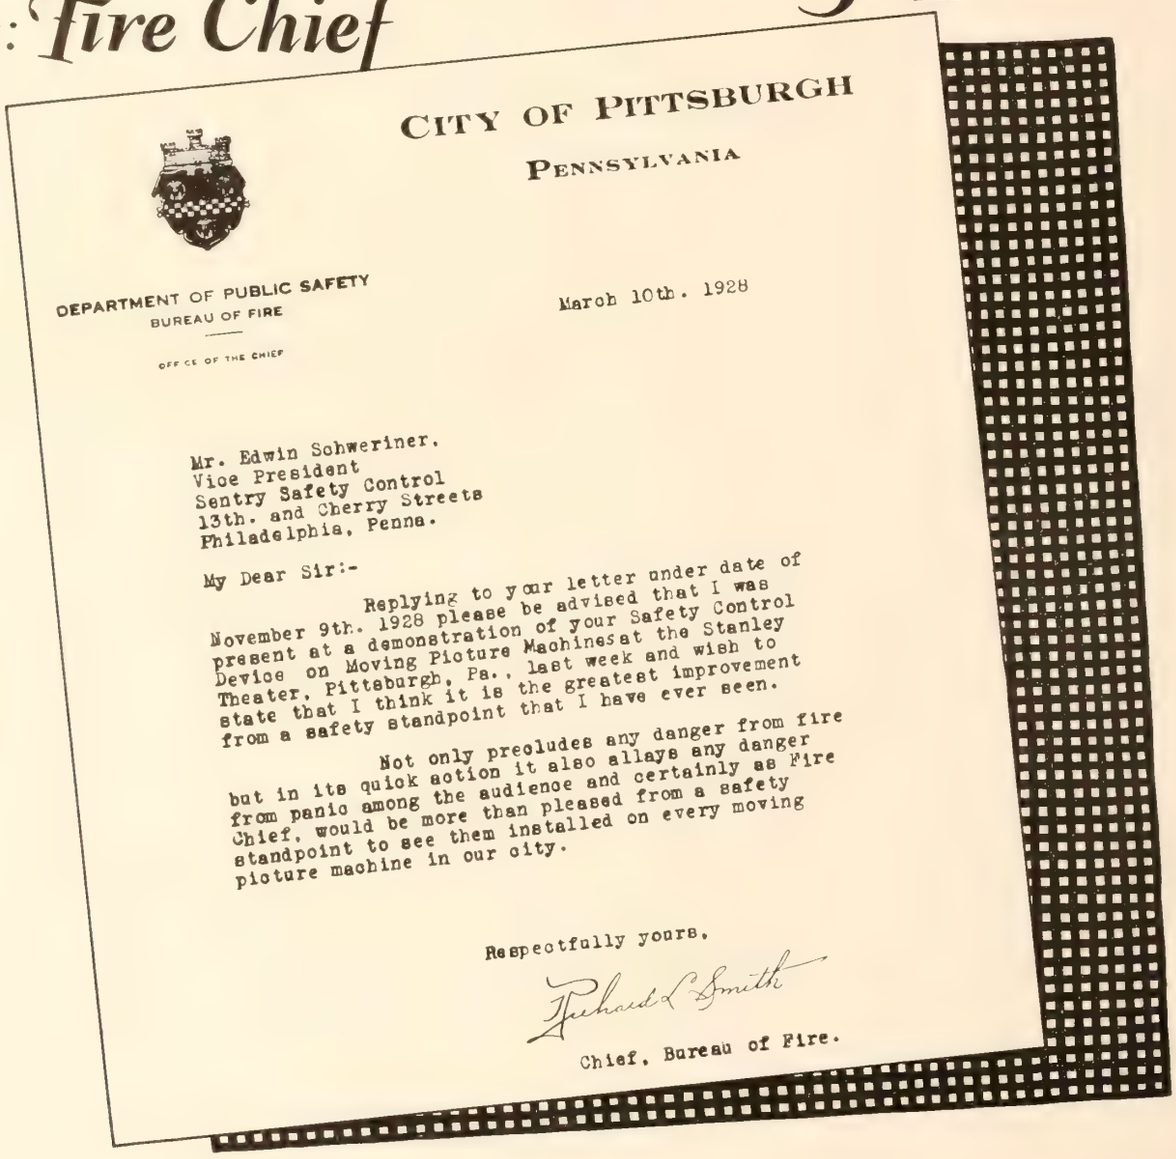
METRO-GOLDWYN ER

THE GREATEST STAR ON THE S

Vol. XXXVII No. 19

Entered as second-class matter [illegible]

PRICE 20 CENTS



Published Weekly—$2.00 a Year

Los Angeles New York Chicago

SENTRY

Allays any danger of panic

says: Fire Chief

CITY OF PITTSBURGH

PENNSYLVANIA

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY
BUREAU OF FIRE

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

March 10th. 1928

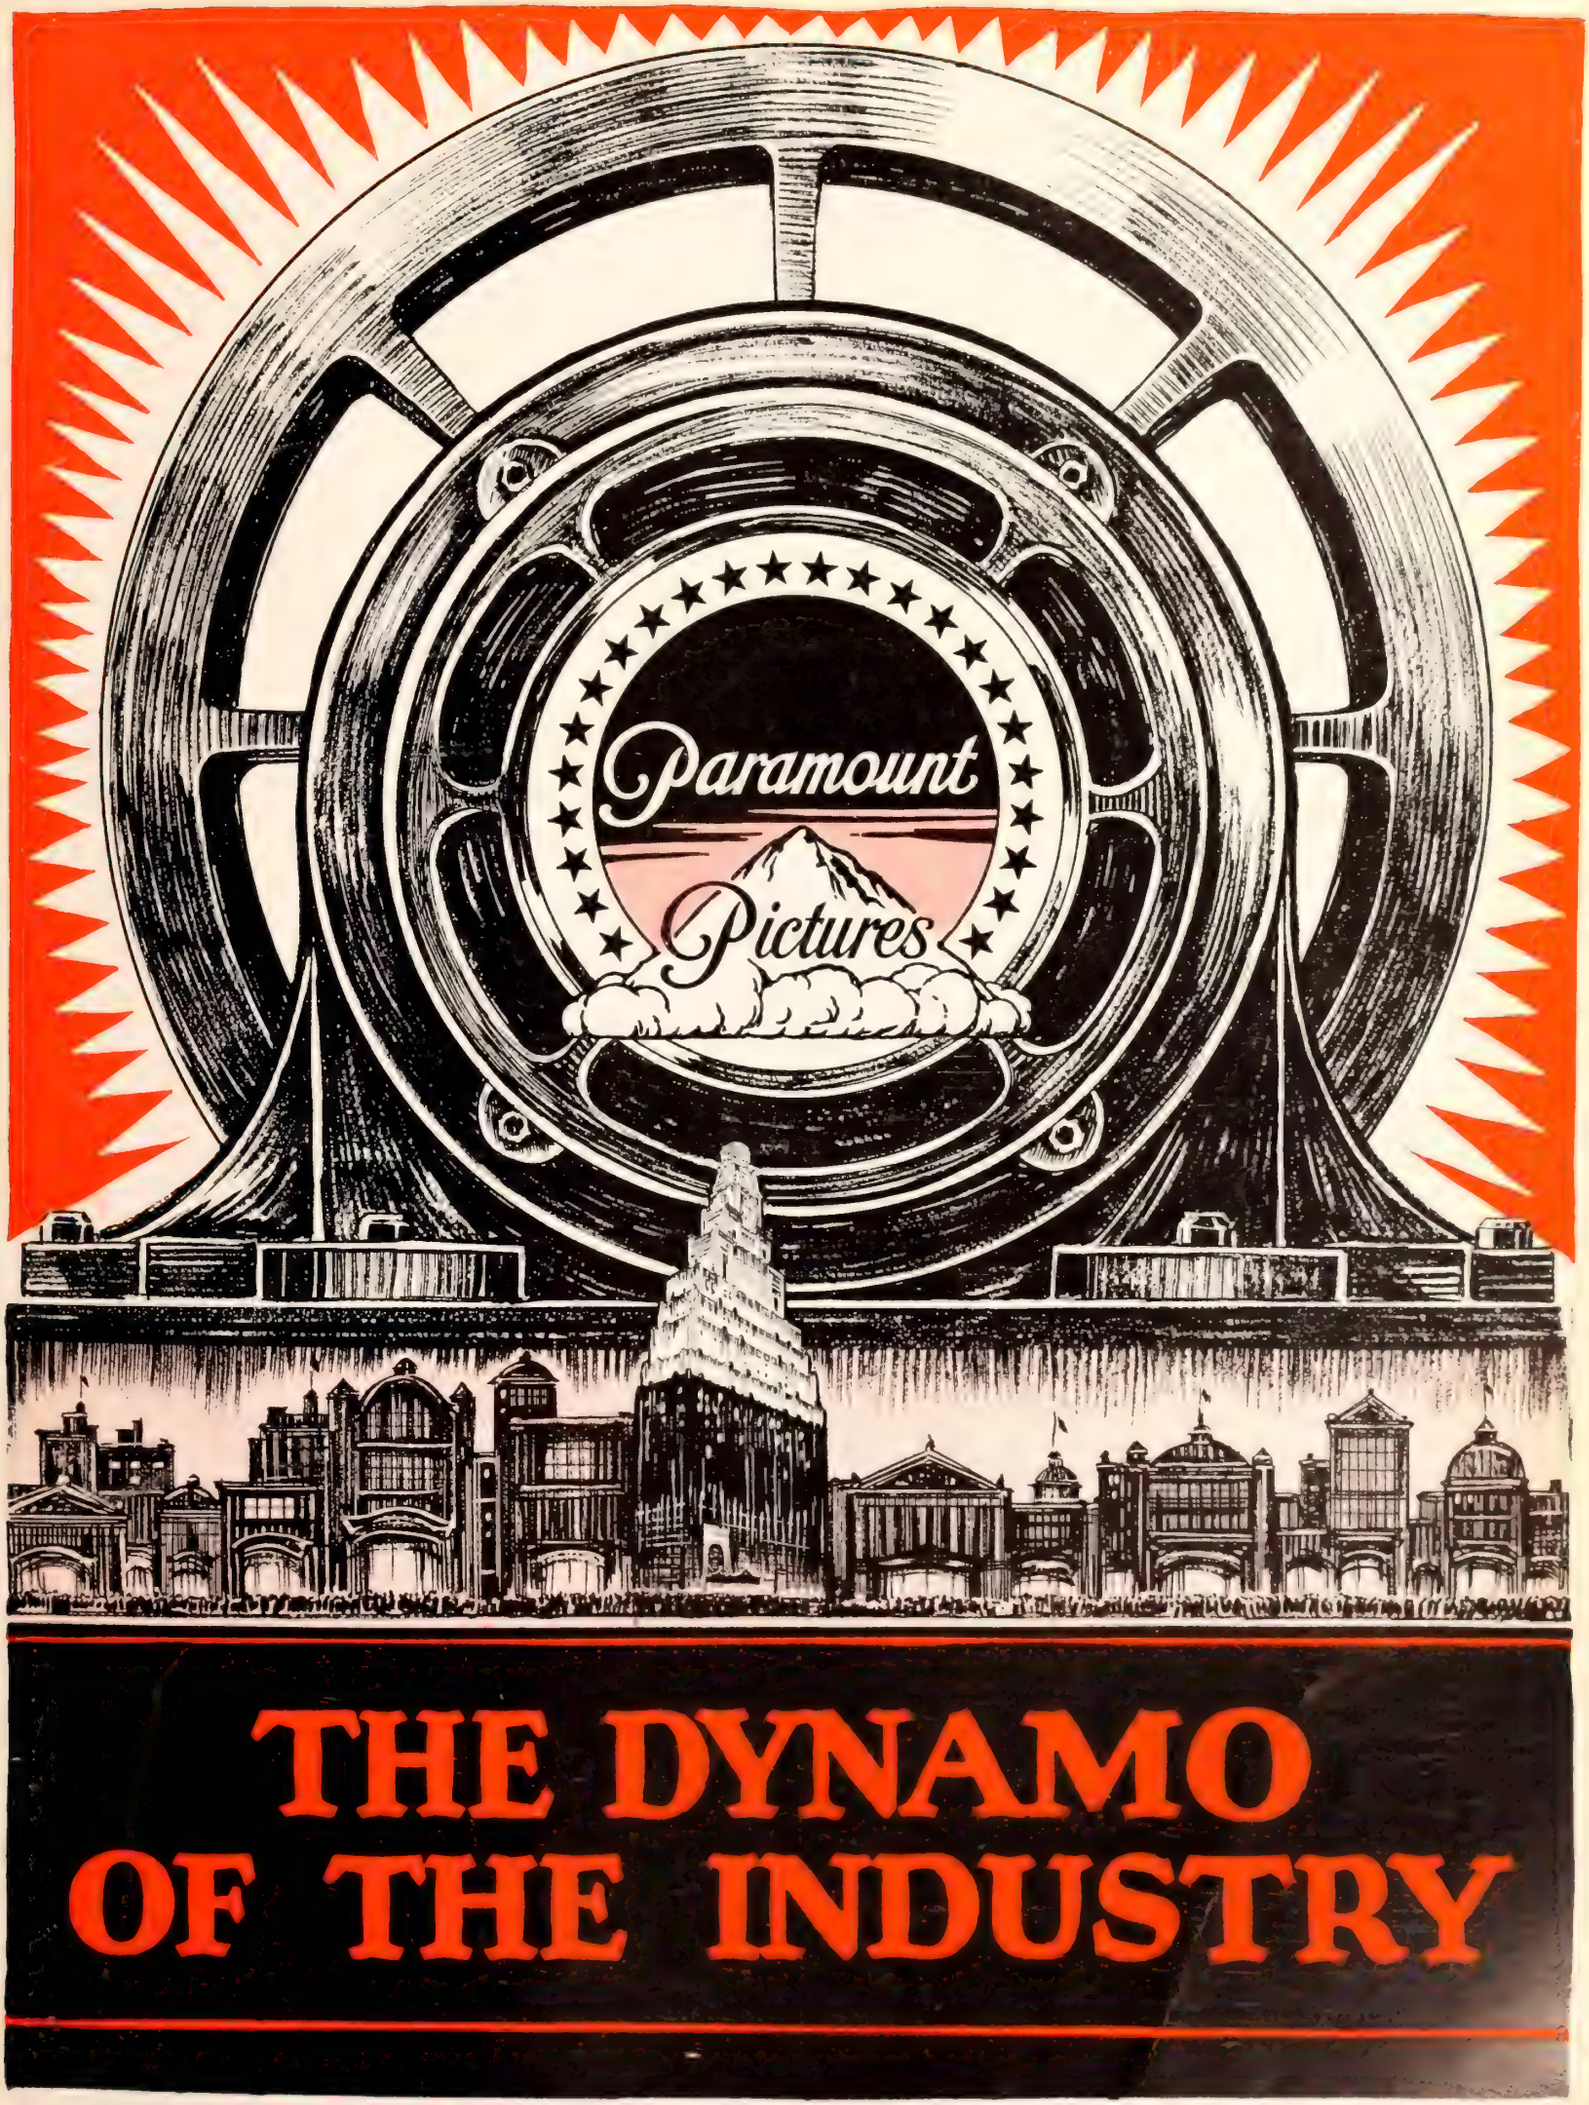
Mr. Edwin Schweriner,
Vice President
Sentry Safety Control
13th. and Cherry Streets
Philadelphia, Penna.

My Dear Sir:-

Replying to your letter under date of November 9th. 1928 please be advised that I was present at a demonstration of your Safety Control Device on Moving Picture Machines at the Stanley Theater, Pittsburgh, Pa., last week and wish to state that I think it is the greatest improvement from a safety standpoint that I have ever seen.

Not only precludes any danger from fire but in its quick action it also allays any danger from panic among the audience and certainly as Fire Chief, would be more than pleased from a safety standpoint to see them installed on every moving picture machine in our city.

Respectfully yours,



Richard L. Smith

Chief, Bureau of Fire.

SENTRY
SAFETY CONTROL
CORPORATION

13th and Cherry Sts., PHILADELPHIA 1560 Broadway, NEW YORK
And All Branches of
NATIONAL THEATRE SUPPLY COMPANY

The positive fire preventer. Can be attached to any projector. Costs only a few cents a day.

Paramount
Pictures
THE DYNAMO
OF THE INDUSTRY

"of course I'm buying Paramount; it's the backbone of my business"

¶ That's what you live-wire exhibitors tell the opposition salesman when he goes to sell you product. This year more than ever. It's only common sense. Paramount has been making the most and the best pictures in this industry for 17 years. Paramount Pictures are the only ones the public asks for by the brand name. ¶ Theatre grosses on Paramount productions this season have been so far ahead of the average for other companies as to cause universal comment throughout the trade. Returns on specials like Harold Lloyd, Clara Bow, "Underworld," "Last Command" and others, taught exhibitors what superior attractions can do. ¶ Naturally the whole talk about 1928-9 is Paramount. This company had a tough job surpassing its 1927-8 line-up. But we've done it. Buying for next season is simplified. All the big stuff—specials, stars, features, newsreel, shorts—is in one group: Paramount's Whole-Show Program. Paramount, the Dynamo of the Industry!

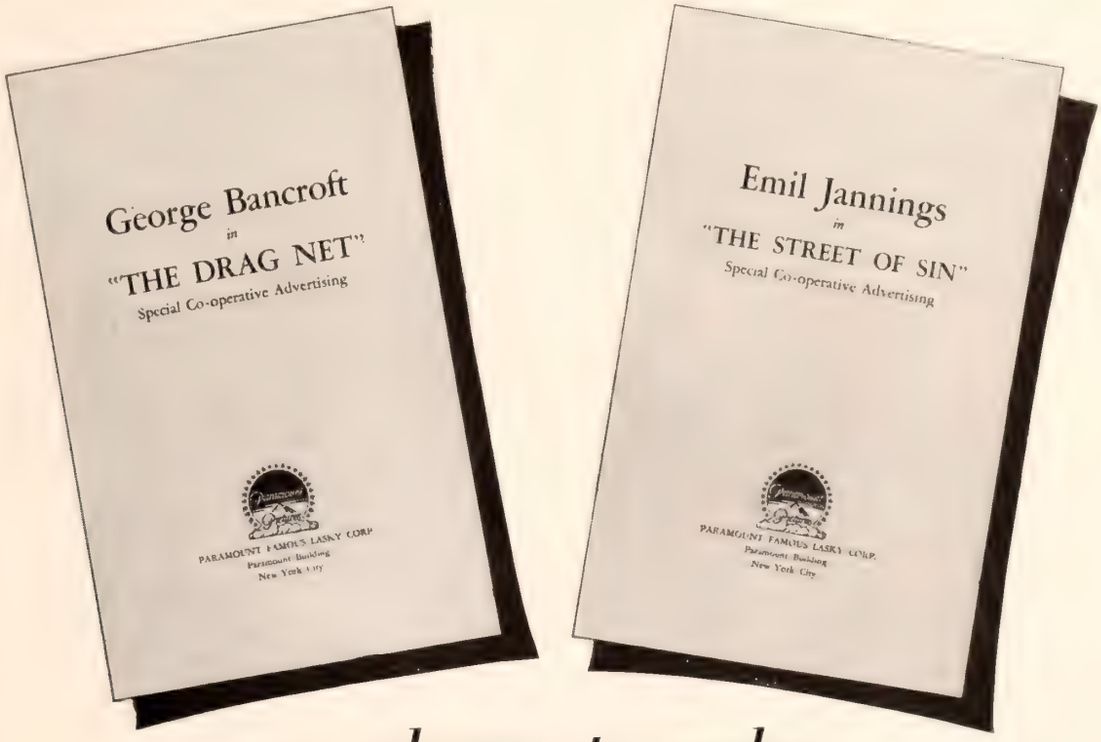
PARAMOUNT'S WHOLE-SHOW PROGRAM

Specials

Harold Lloyd
Wedding March
4 Clara Bow
3 Richard Dix
2 Emil Jannings
Canary Murder Case
Beggars of Life
The Tong War
Crime of Interference
The Letter
Tahiti Nights
Glorifying American Girl
Perfumed Trap
Wolf Song
Dirigible
Man I Love
Hard Boiled Angel
Living Together
Upstart Gentleman
Behind German Lines
Burlesque

Road Shows

Wings
Abie's Irish Rose
The Patriot



Star Hits

3 Richard Dix
4 Geo. Bancroft
4 Bebe Daniels
4 Esther Ralston
2 Pola Negri
3 Wray-Cooper
2 Florence Vidor
4 Chas. Rogers
3 Taylor-Hall
3 Adolphe Menjou
3 Zane Grey
1 Thomas Meighan
2 MacLean-Christie
1 Sir Harry Lauder
1 Model of Montmarte

Shorts

104 Paramount News
8 Vernon Comedies
8 Dooley Comedies
8 "Macduff" Comedies
8 "Confessions of a Chorus Girl" Comedies
12 Great Stars and Authors
26 Krazy Kat
26 Inkwell Imps
2 Horton Comedies
Extra! Byrd's Flight to the South Pole

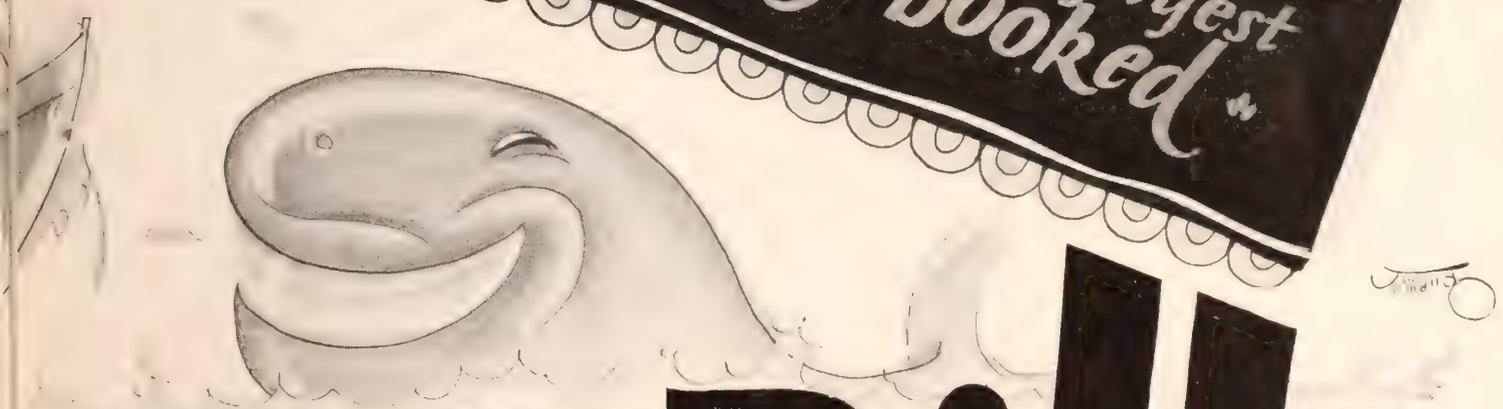
ask the PARAMOUNT salesman about this a chance to make big money with two really big specials!

GEORGE BANCROFT
"The Drag Net"



EMIL JANNINGS
"The Street of Sin"

17 good Paramount Pictures between now and Aug. 1st!

The screen's most hilarious travestry on the Mississippi River a fun team that makes Steam
SAVE YOUR DATES for next season's
UNITED ARTISTS PICTURES
Bigger than ever
UNITED ARTISTS PICTURE

presenting the screen's newest and funniest comedy team
Buster KEATON
AND
Ernest TORRENCE
in the laughingest, thrilliest, gayest comedy now being booked

oat Bill Jr.

eem with a continuous hurricane of laughter

AGAIN---An Educational Short Feature Saves the Show

The New York Daily Mirror, reviewing a Broadway first-run show including the LUPINO LANE Comedy "SWORD POINTS," says:

A Lupino Lane comedy redeems the movie part of the program. It is a short Educational, playful and cuckoo, with its period established during the days of flowery knighthood, wine bibbing and jousting. Lupino is funny and his slapstick misadventures as a noble Knight provoke howls.

Lupino Lane as a torcador in "Fandango"

As a wild-west hero in "Hectic Days"

Lupino Lane as a swashbuckling cavalier in "Sword Points"

Impersonating a school girl in "Listen Sister"

Lupino Lane Comedies

Educational Pictures
THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM

Member, Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., WILL H. HAYS, President

EDUCATIONAL FILM EXCHANGES, Inc.
E. W. Hammons
President

The PRESIDENT GROUP
LEADER OF THEM ALL
ELECTED By MIGHTY MAJORITY
FIRST
NATIONAL AIR

COLLEEN

A GIGANTIC SPECIAL

Richard BARTHELMESS Page 4 | Corinne GRIFFITH Page 6 | The WHIP Page 8 | Billie DOVE Page 9 | Ken MAYNARD Page 10 | LA TOSCA George FITZMAURICE specials Page 11 | Milton SILLS Page 12 | The SQUAL Page 1

MOORE

In ONE of the biggest — finest — most spectacular and magnificent Specials of the age

"LILAC TIME"

A stirring spectacle of unprecedented magnitude, staged in the amphitheatre of the air.

a George Fitzmaurice Production

Presented by John McCormick

From the famous stage hit by Jane Cowl and Jane Murfin which ran 54 weeks on Broadway and the road. With Gary Cooper. Adaptation by Willis Goldbeck. Scenario by Carey Wilson.

A Colleen Moore-George Fitzmaurice SPECIAL!

Also a Series of 3 Other SPECIALS

The PRESIDENT GROUP

First National Pictures

"SYNTHETIC SIN"

A Los Angeles and New York stage success by Frederic and Fanny Hatton, authors of "The Great Lover", "Lombardi, Ltd." and other hits. Underworld and back-stage in New York, scandalous situations that are hilarious as well as thrilling, and a girl trying to "sin and suffer" because she wants to be an actress.

In "BABY FACE"

Colleen's drawing-power will be coupled with that of COSMO HAMILTON, one of the most popular of modern authors, with such successes as "Scandal", "Blindness of Virtue", and half-a-dozen best-selling novels to his credit. "Baby Face" was published in Hearst's International Magazine, reaching half-a-million readers.

And "THE RICHEST GIRL ON EARTH" will show her at her gayest and peppiest, as a girl who suddenly finds she is worth millions, and has the time of anybody's life figuring out the most exciting things she can do with them.

harlie URRAY Page 14 | MACKAILL-MULHALL Page 15 | NO! NO! NANETTE Page 16 | Molly O'DAY Page 17 | BUTTER & EGG MAN Page 18 | INTER-NATIONAL SUCCESSES Page 19 | Alice WHITE Page 20 | MYSTERY MELODRAMAS Page 21

At the Height of His Fame RICHARD

In "THE DROP KICK" he got high money for the town in 4 key cities the same week!

"Richard is himself again...'The PATENT LEATHER KID' is the hit of Barthelmess' career".—Liberty Mag.

"Barthelmess' great success in 'THE NOOSE' and 'THE PATENT LEATHER KID' should establish him as one of the greatest male stars in pictures". —Max Balaban.

"In 'The PATENT LEATHER KID' Barthelmess excells any performance he has heretofore given." —N. Y. Times.

"'THE PATENT LEATHER KID', 'THE DROP KICK', and 'THE NOOSE'—three exceptional successes within six months—definitely established BARTHELMESS as the best male box-office star in pictures today, beyond any doubt!"—John F. Kumler, Pantheon Theatre, Toledo.

Colleen MOORE Page 2 | Corinne GRIFFITH Page 6 | The WHIP Page 8 | Billie DOVE Page 9 | Ken MAYNARD Page 10 | LA TOSCA George FITZMAURICE specials Page 11 | Milton SILLS Page 12 | The SQUALL Page 13

BARTHELMESS

After
"The PATENT LEATHER KID"..."The NOOSE"..."The LITTLE SHEPHERD of KINGDOM COME"

Barthelmess stands at the top of the list of romantic screen heroes. By the verdict of key exhibitors, the best male star-draw in pictures today! Each of his three latest record-breakers has added millions to the following he won with "Tol'able David", "Broken Blossoms", "Way Down East". And these millions have their admission money all ready and waiting for the showmen who play him in 1928-'29, in a series of great pictures headed by

"DIVERSION"

From the brilliant Broadway production of 1928

The PRESIDENT GROUP

What New York Critics thought of "Diversion"

"All around me there was the sound of an audience having a real good cry... At the end of the performance there was stupendous applause".
—Woolcott in N. Y. World.

"DIVERSION"

By John Van Druten

Author of the long-run hit "Young Woodley"

Barthelmess as a dramatic character juvenile with society background. A clean kid, hopelessly caught in the net of a wanton temptress, kills her in a flash of fury when he finds she has been playing with his love. ..Suicide seems to be the only way out of disgrace to an honored name—and the only one who can make death absolutely painless is the boy's father, a famous surgeon!

First National Pictures

Charlie MURRAY Page 14 | MACKAILL-MULHALL Page 15 | NO! NO! NANETTE Page 16 | Molly O'DAY Page 17 | BUTTER & EGG MAN Page 18 | INTER-NATIONAL SUCCESSES Page 19 | Alice WHITE Page 20 | MYSTERY MELODRAMAS Page 21

CORINNE

The DIVINE LADY

A GIGANTIC SPECIAL

by E. BARRINGTON

Greatest literary discovery of recent years. An overnight sensation with 3 best-sellers in a row—"The Divine Lady", "Glorious Apollo", "The Chaste Diana"

THE orchid beauty of the screen returns to First National to repeat the triumphs of "Black Oxen", "Classified", and "Lilies of the Field". Her first of a series of brilliant vehicles will be "THE DIVINE LADY", sweeping romance made nationally famous by its publication in Cosmopolitan Magazine, with five million readers; its sale of 70,000 copies in book form; and its syndication in 800 newspapers with a total circulation of 4,278,000.

Will be directed by FRANK LLOYD, who gave you "The Sea Hawk". Cast will include Victor Varconi of "King of Kings" and Marie Dressler. Adaptation by Forrest Halsey, Continuity by Agnes Christine Johnston, Presented by Richard A. Rowland.

A Frank Lloyd Production
A First National Special

The PRESIDENT GROUP

Colleen MOORE Page 2 | Richard BARTHELMESS Page 4 | The WHIP Page 8 | Billie DOVE Page 9 | Ken MAYNARD Page 10 | LA TOSCA George FITZMAURICE specials Page 11 | Milton SILLS Page 12 | The SQUALL Page 13

GRIFFITH

Mistress of Princes —Mastered by Fate!

Humble of birth—superb in beauty, The Divine Lady marches across the sepulchres of many loves to the very steps of a throne. Passed from hand to hand among the nobility of an empire, each conquest brings her to a new and greater one, until at last she has all England at her feet! And then in the center of the English court at the splendid height of its 19th-century decadence, she begins her supreme affair with Lord Nelson—only to have the whole nation turn upon her in fury when England's greatest naval hero forgets duty, honor, and all else in the glory of her love.

The Battle of Trafalgar

For the first time in screen history First National will film England's greatest naval battle, famous in song and story, as the big scene of "The Divine Lady". Scores of sea monsters at death grips... Flaming frigates plunging to destruction ... The kind of spectacle they tell their friends about.

And 4 Others, including—

"OUTCAST"

The Play made famous by Elsie Ferguson, on Broadway and road show run.

This play by Hubert Henry Davies provides a tenderly appealing central part for Corinne Griffith.... A girl of the streets who comes into a rich man's life as the plaything of a night—and stays for a year as his adored companion... But always there hangs over them the terrible cloud of her Past to which some day she must return.

also

"PAID FOR"

and two others

First National Pictures

harlie URRAY Page 14 | MACKAILL-MULHALL Page 15 | NO! NO! NANETTE Page 16 | Molly O'DAY Page 17 | BUTTER & EGG MAN Page 18 | INTER-NATIONAL SUCCESSES Page 19 | Alice WHITE Page 20 | MYSTERY MELODRAMAS Page 21

KEN MAYNARD

KING of all OUTDOORS!

Absolutely established as the ace of all daredevils in 10,482 of the country's finest theatres.

The Thunder of galloping hoofs, the mystery of the Prairies, the thrills of fight and romance from the start of day 'till the fall of night—not a heart but beats to the chivalry of this buccaneer of the outdoors and his feats of daring and heroism—

Maynard and his horse Tarzan have so firmly set themselves in Class "A" theatres that now they stand with the biggest draws of the game.

If you played "The Wagon Show", "Gun Gospel", "The Red Raiders", "Land Beyond Law", you want Maynard right away in these SPECIAL stories built for thrills, comedy, spectacular scenes—

THE GLORIOUS TRAIL

THE PHANTOM CITY

THE ROYAL RIDER

THE LAWLESS LEGION

CHEYENNE

WELLS FARGO EXPRESS

✱Every Maynard booker becomes a Maynard booster—you'll never know how much profit it's possible to make on romantic thrillers until you play Ken Maynard and that white streak of horse-lightnin' Tarzan.

Presented by CHARLES A. ROGERS

✱"I NEVER SAW A POOR ONE."
Hip Theatre, Crestline, O.

✱"ALL WOOL AND A YARD WIDE."
Rex Salmon, Ida.

✱"STEP ON THE MAYNARDS, THEY BRING RESULTS."
Edward Smith Theatre, Minneapolis.

✱"WHEN BETTER THRILLERS ARE MADE MAYNARD WILL MAKE THEM."
Amuzu Theatre, Winston Salem, N. C.

First National Pictures

The PRESIDENT GROUP

Colleen MOORE Page 2 | Richard BARTHELMESS Page 4 | Corinne GRIFFITH Page 6 | The WHIP Page 8 | Billie DOVE Page 9 | Milton SILLS Page 10 | The SQUALL Page 12

LA TOSCA

Judged by any standard

The Fame of its Author—

VICTORIEN SARDOU is one of the most celebrated of modern dramatists, with a dozen great international successes to his credit including "A Scrap of Paper", "Divorcons", "Diplomacy", "Fedora".

Its sensational Stage Success—

Nearly 1000 performances of "La Tosca" were given by Sarah Bernhardt alone in Europe and America. And it has served as a vehicle for such other famous actresses as Eleanora Duse and Fanny Davenport.

Its pre-eminence as an Opera—

For 28 years one of the principal attractions in all the leading opera houses of the world. Phonograph and radio have made its name and music familiar to millions.

Its tensely dramatic story—

Tosca—once ragged, half wild waif—who becomes the celebrated beauty—dynamic, temperamental, darling of Rome.

Greater than "Carmen" with a sudden, surprising climax that makes it one of the world's masterpieces of dramatic stagecraft.

Its celebrated Star—

BILLIE DOVE

—established as a fan-favorite by her performances in "The Love Mart", "American Beauty", and "The Stolen Bride"—will play the title role in the screen version of LA TOSCA.

The PRESIDENT GROUP

First National Pictures

a GEORGE

FITZMAURICE

Production

a Long-Run SPECIAL!

Also a 2nd from this great director

First National Pictures

The PRESIDENT GROUP

MILTON SILLS

HE-MAN OF THE HOUR!

MILTON SILLS

In a crashing, momentous SPECIAL from the celebrated Broadway and road success

"THE BARKER"

with Betty Compson

"Nifty" Miller, scarred, double-crossing terror of the Side Show . . . just ONE soft spot, his kid! . . . But the kid falls for a little Hula dancer. And then!—It's real—real—REAL!—And all the time this kaleidoscopic carnival background, and picturesque comedy from the strangest lot of hard boiled characters ever filmed!

A GEORGE FITZMAURICE PRODUCTION (he directed "Lilac Time", "The Dark Angel", "Night of Love"). From the play by John Kenyon Nicholson and Charles L. Wagner. Adaptation by Benjamin Glazer, who has "Seventh Heaven", "Flesh and the Devil", "The Trail of '98", to his credit.

Then 4 others gauged specially to appeal to women as well as to Sills' tremendous male following:—

"CAPTAIN OF THE STRONG"

"THE EAGLE'S TRAIL"

"THE SPOTTER"

"HARD ROCK"

Colleen MOORE Page 2 | Richard BARTHELMESS Page 4 | Corinne GRIFFITH Page 6 | The WHIP Page 8 | Billie DOVE Page 9 | Ken MAYNARD Page 10 | LA TOSCA George FITZMAURICE specials Page 11

FIRST NATIONAL
gets Biggest Broadway Buy of 1927!

THE SQUALL

Introduces

THE MOST TEMPESTUOUS TEMPTRESS THE SCREEN HAS EVER KNOWN!

NUBI—gypsy gale of passion! An ill wind that blows no man good when, whirlwind-wild, she rages untamed across a sunny slope of Spain . . . . Born of the storm, this half-clad human hurricane takes love where she will—from old, from young; from father, from son. Cyclonic in her caresses . . . . Venomous, voluptuous, super-vampire . . . . The fury of her passion lays waste the souls of men!

With the coquetry of Carmen . . . . Primitive as Desire . . . . This Spanish siren is box-office appeal personified. Her multiple love story was

THE TALK OF BROADWAY
FOR ONE SOLID YEAR!

By Jean Bart — Presented by Richard A. Rowland

The PRESIDENT GROUP

First National Pictures

Charlie MURRAY Page 14 | MACKAILL-MULHALL Page 15 | NO! NO! NANETTE Page 16 | Molly O'DAY Page 17 | BUTTER & EGG MAN Page 18 | INTER-NATIONAL SUCCESSES Page 19 | Alice WHITE Page 20 | MYSTERY MELODRAMAS Page 21

The PRESIDENT GROUP

BIG-BUY VEHICLES!

SUREST thing you know in Comedy....Has he EVER gone back on you at the Box-Office?—"Life of Riley", "Lost at the Front", "Vamping Venus," winners every one . . . . Now figure what he'll do with the fame of great stage successes and the reputation of author-celebrities to back him!

The star of the immortal "McFadden's Flats" is set for the Greatest Season of his career with—

An original by the most famous of all writers for the screen, RALPH SPENCE, author of "A Connecticut Yankee", "The Gorilla" and dozens of other film successes—

"THE LYING TRUTH"

▼ ▼ ▼

A celebrated sure-fire musical comedy hit—

"WINE, WOMEN, AND SONG"

▼ ▼ ▼

An hilarious stage success by Ian Hay Keith, celebrated author of "The First Hundred Thousand". A race-track comedy that was one of London's & New York's greatest farce hits—

"THE SPORT OF KINGS"

▼ ▼ ▼

And an original story with unlimited laugh possibilities—

"CHARLIE'S NIGHT OUT"

▼ ▼ ▼

First National Pictures

Colleen MOORE Page 2 | Richard BARTHELMESS Page 4 | Corinne GRIFFITH Page 6 | The WHIP Page 8 | Billie DOVE Page 9 | Ken MAYNARD Page 10 | LA TOSCA George FITZMAURICE specials Page 11

The PRESIDENT GROUP

*TWO Stars for the Price of ONE!

The only established man-and-woman comedy-romance team on the screen. Four-time winners in 1927 with "Ladies' Night", "Smile, Brother, Smile", "Subway Sadie", "See You In Jail". What won't they do with four famous story buys like—

"CHILDREN of the RITZ"

SHE married in haste—and divorced for leisure.

HE was fired as a husband—then hired as chauffeur of her second spouse.

It's the answer to "What's wrong with this younger generation?"

From Cornell Woolrich's famous sensational prize novel which won College Humor's nation wide contest. Serialized to a million readers. A best-seller in book form.

"APPLE SAUCE"

A 40-horse power personality in a one-horse town...He thought trouble was applesauce until he stole Rollo's girl!

From Barry Conner's Broadway hit, which has been running 3 years in New York and on the road, with 7 road companys and Chautauqua Circuit bookings.

"TWO WEEKS OFF"

A good-looking plumber who poses as a movie star. He claims he knows all the "joints" in Hollywood—but he's a terrible bust in his first big love scene!

From the play by Kenyon Nicholson—author of "The Barker"—and Thomas Baros.

"WATERFRONT"

Sparkling Human interest comedy by Will Chappel and Gertrude Orr.

*STARS in their own rights—but

FIRST NATIONAL
teams them for double return.

4 from

DOROTHY MACKAILL & JACK MULHALL

Milton ILLS Page 12 | The SQUALL Page 13 | NO! NO! NANETTE Page 16 | Molly O'DAY Page 17 | BUTTER & EGG MAN Page 18 | INTER-NATIONAL SUCCESSES Page 19 | Alice WHITE Page 20 | MYSTERY MELODRAMAS Page 21

NO NO NANETTE

The PRESIDENT GROUP

Famous
New York, London, Chicago
Success

THE whole world has whistled "I Want to Be Happy" and "Tea For Two"—the whole town will flock to the screen version of the musical comedy that made these two song hits famous. Popular appeal proved by thousands of capacity performances abroad and on tour over all the U. S. FIRST NATIONAL will make it in the class with "Sally" and "Irene"—just as big a hit—Tremendous comedy with America's Playground, Atlantic City for Background.

By Otto Harbach, Frank Mandel, Vincent Youmans, Irving Caesar. From the non-musical hit "My Lady Friends", by Emil Nyitray and Frank Mandel.

A CAST OF BIG NAMES

Molly O'Day of

"The Patent Leather Kid", "Shepherd of the Hills", and "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" will play Nanette. Presented by Richard A. Rowland.

First National Pictures

FIRST NATIONAL SPECIAL

Colleen MOORE | Richard BARTHELMESS | Corinne GRIFFITH Page 6 | The WHIP Page 8 | Billie DOVE Page 9 | Ken MAYNARD Page 10 | LA TOSCA George FITZMAURICE specials Page 11

MOLLY O'DAY

NOW a definite and distinct Box-office attraction on the strength of her sensational reception by the public in "The Patent Leather Kid", "The Shepherd of the Hills" and "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come", will be presented by First National as the

STAR

of 2 President Group Productions

The latest idol of the fans . . . A NEW name to feature in your lights and ads . . . A novelty for the public.

First National enables you to get full benefit of the wide following she has won in three successive hits and the great publicity that has followed her enthusiastic welcome by the critics as the most brilliant star-find of 1927!

Her first starring vehicles will show her for the first time in super-smart gowns and society settings, magnifying her irresistible lure and beauty.

The PRESIDENT GROUP

First National Pictures

"The Girl in the Glass Cage"

By George Kibbe Turner, famous Saturday Evening Post writer. The story of a beautiful "Love Nest" fledgling trying to live down the notorious sins of her mother. Calumny and suspicion trail her . . . Gossip lays wicked hands on silken shoulders. But she's a smart girl—'till love makes a Fool of her, and involves her in a tangled murder mystery which climaxes this great romance.

This novel was serialized to five million in Collier's and had a wild sale and publicity in book form.

"When Irish Eyes are Smiling"

Original story by Gerald Duffy, who titled "The Patent Leather Kid", "Her Wild Oat", "See You in Jail" and many others. An ideal character for MOLLY O'DAY'S type as the heroine of the world-famous ballad by Ernest Ball made famous by Chauncey Olcott.

The world has sung the song for a decade—now the romance of its melody will be caught in a truly great production.

Richard A. Rowland
presents

THE BUTTER and EGG MAN

7
MONTHS ON BROADWAY as a stage play. Hailed by every New York critic as one of the funniest of modern comedies!

First National Pictures

Written by the co-author of "Dulcy", "Merton of the Movies"—George S. Kaufman!

Directed by the man who made "McFadden's Flats"—Richard Wallace!

A BUTTER AND EGG MAN-who-came-back—and came back hard!....A worm who turned against the New York wise guys who thought they had "taken" him....ONE Broadway sucker who got MORE than an even break.

Rich with racy, unique types of Broadway "insiders". Intimate revelations of the inner workings of play production. And sure-fire comedy in the attempts of a small-town boy to act tough and wise like "a regular New Yorker".

with JACK MULHALL
GRETA NISSEN, GERTRUDE ASTOR, SAM HARDY

The PRESIDENT GROUP

Colleen MOORE | Richard BARTHELMESS | Corinne GRIFFITH | The WHIP | Billie DOVE | Ken MAYNARD | LA TOSCA George FITZMAURICE specials | Milton SILLS

A Series of Inter-NATIONAL SUCCESSES

Sensations in LONDON, ROME, PARIS
BERLIN, MADRID

WITH famous continental and American stars; by internationally known authors; directed by men who have set new standards in the industry.

These successes will come to you with proved power. Best by test—each picture will pass the requirements of road show quality before you get it.

And the first of a series of three will be

BEN LYON and LYA MARA in
DANCING VIENNA

Continental youth on the rampant—the jazz age as it hits beautiful Vienna—a trip abroad to the city of Waltzes in one of the finest productions that ever came from the other side. "Received with great applause", Welt Am Abend, Berlin. "Great enthusiasm at the premiere", Berliner Lokalanzeiger. "Evoked storms of applause", Firm-Kurier, Berlin.

First National Pictures

The PRESIDENT GROUP

The SQUALL	Charlie MURRAY	MACKAILL-MULHALL	NO! NO! NANETTE	Molly O'DAY	Alice WHITE	MYSTERY MELODRAMAS

"SHOW GIRL"

will open your eyes to THE REAL THING in chorus girls—something they've never seen before!

Pre-sold to the public by serialization in 22,000,000 copies of Liberty Magazine, where it ran for 14 weeks; by publication in book form; and by the national popularity of the author, J. P. McEVOY, famous for his widely syndicated newspaper feature, "The Potters", Ziegfeld Follies Hits, and the musical comedy sensation "Americana".

"ON THE AIR"

will capitalize the Radio craze in the story of a prizefighter's sweetie who was pure Gold, though her man was just plain Yellow.

From a short story in the widely circulated book "Mon Homme", by Paul Deresco Augsburg.

AND TWO OTHERS

The PRESIDENT GROUP

First National Pictures

One look at her, and hundreds of Showmen said, "Here is a

NEW STAR!

Spotted as "sure-fire" in "The Sea Tiger", "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes", "The Mad Hour", "Harold Teen".

The incarnation of youthful lure, she is the perfect star type of Tomorrow.

Shrewd showmen are already visioning the rich new business they will build from the new fan following of this flaming personality!

Colleen MOORE | Richard BARTHELMESS | Corinne GRIFFITH | The WHIP | Billie DOVE | Ken MAYNARD | LA TOSCA George FITZMAURICE specials | Milton SILLS

FIRST NATIONAL answers the tremendous demand for MYSTERY

MELODRAMAS WITH 3 SENSATIONAL SUCCESSES

First National Pictures

The world is mystery mad;

Each year the craving for this type of entertainment becomes greater and greater until now, from the public libraries, comes the statement that mystery fiction ranks 74% in demand above the nearest competitor. Of thirty-five successful plays on Broadway last season eleven were mysteries; book publishers are scouring the field for mystery stories; nightly millions sit thrill-bound before the radios of the world drinking in the thrills of detective yarns—and the best magazines are turning to mysteries as circulation builders. What a shrewd move of showmanship to give you three productions from baffling stories at the time when this craze is at its height.

The PRESIDENT GROUP

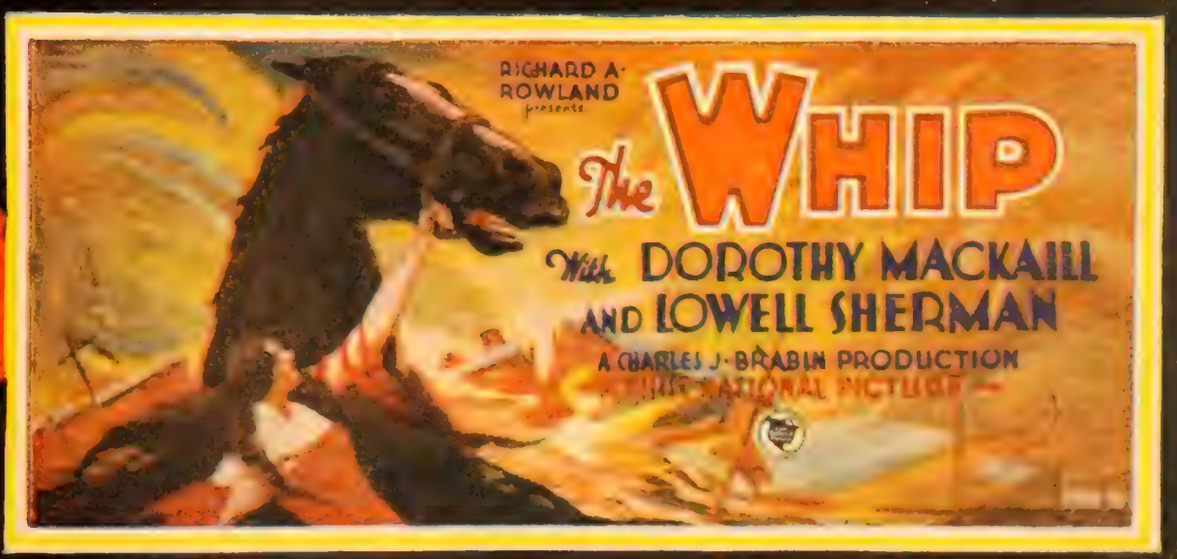
The QUALL	Charlie MURRAY	MACKAILL-MULHALL	NO! NO! NANETTE	Molly O'DAY	BUTTER & EGG MAN	INTER-NATIONAL SUCCESSES
Page 13	Page 14	Page 15	Page 16	Page 17	Page 18	Page

YOU get a run for your money in First National Pictures. You get Extended Runs for the money you put into First National accessories...they'll come on the jump when these 24-sheet Salesmen get to work!

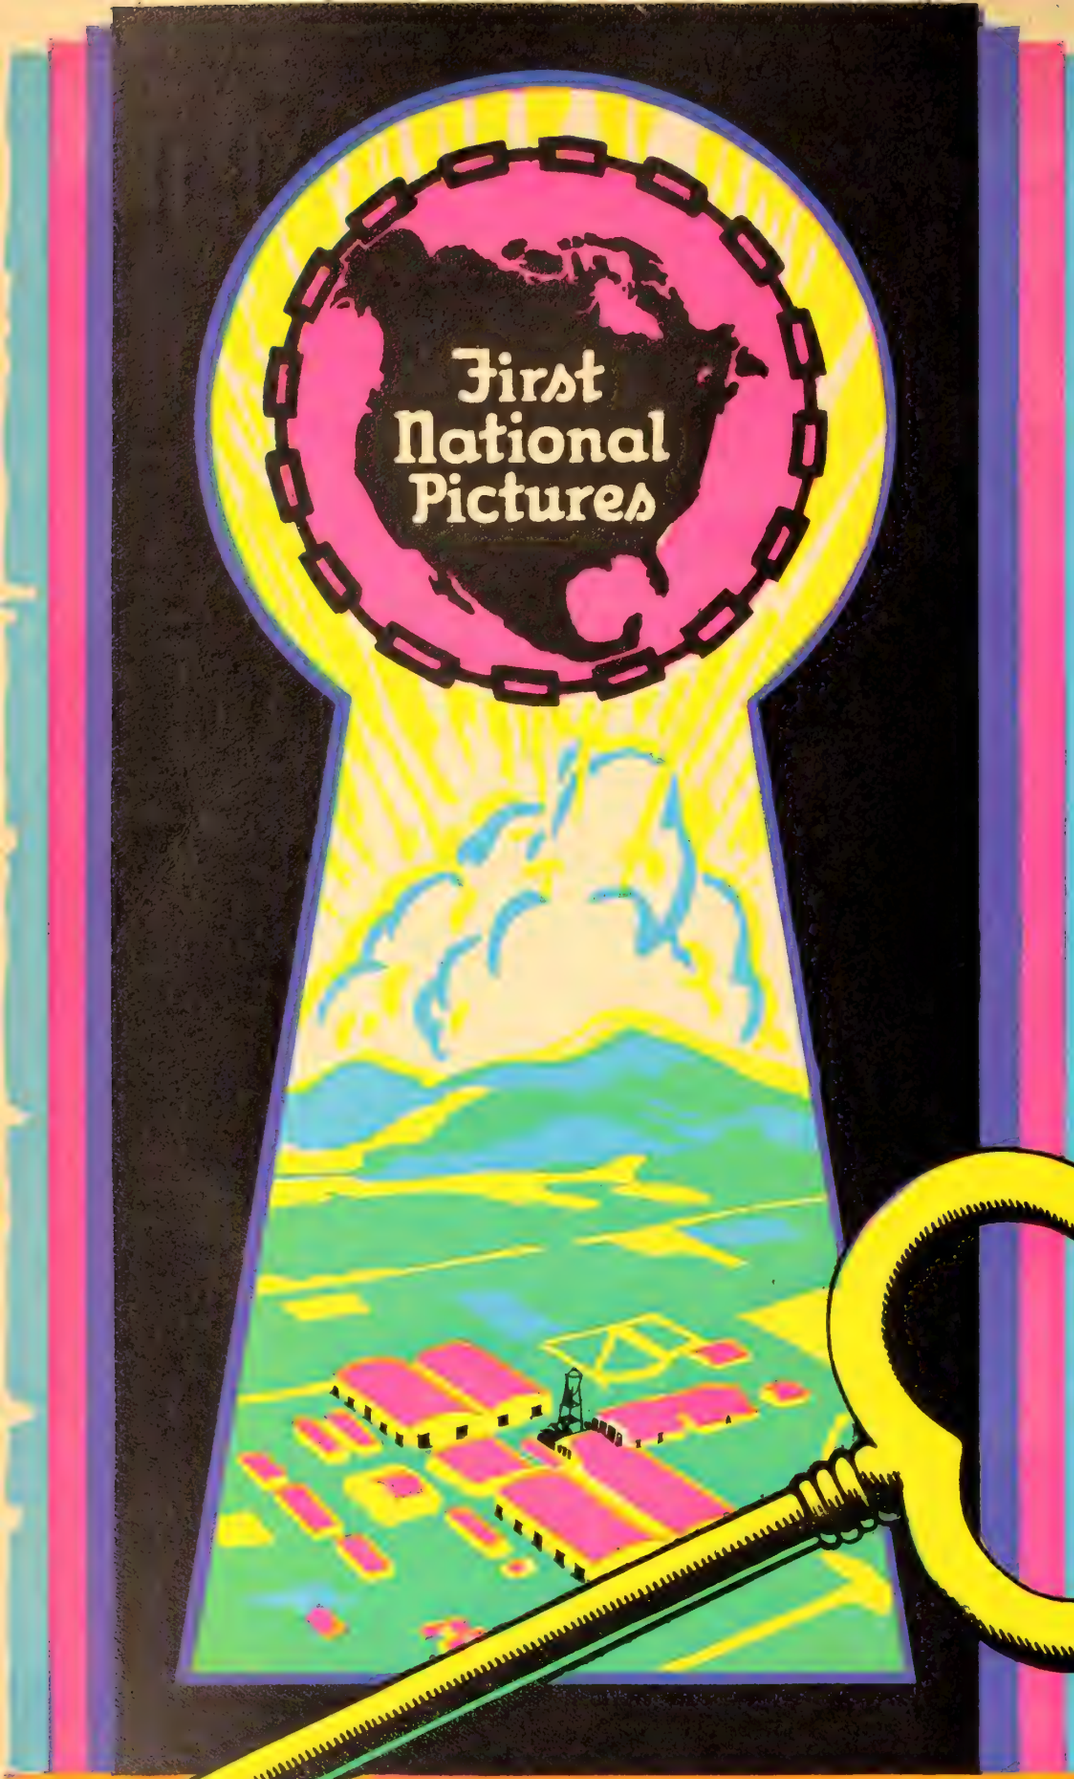
Paper to match the greatness of the product.

First National service never ends with the sale—great publicity and advertising ties up all the way to the last runs.

Every picture will have the greatest exploitation campaign behind it that showman brains can devise.



The public knows the line "A First National Picture" means the only show to see.



National advertising will herald the President Group into the far corners of the earth.

The First National spirit is spreading like wildfire — the public knows who makes the consistent hits.

ADVERTISING is half the business battle...and FIRST NATIONAL advertising is universally recognized as the Best in the Business...for 1928-'29 you can count on more intensive national exploitation and advertising than was ever given a great product in the past.

The PRESIDENT GROUP

~made in the greatest studio in the world!—with eleven great stars and sixty noted featured players—with fourteen sensational stage hits—eleven tremendous best sellers and nine outstanding Specials, will crash through with the greatest majority ever polled at the box office.

Public-made favorite, First National carried 1927 with unanimous vote—the choice of the people—the demand of showmen.

Now, riding the tide of tremendous popularity, having passed the acid test of the box office with a phenomenal landslide of exhibitor endorsement, First National AGAIN gives you the key to Golden Profits.

Those who know will climb aboard the bandwagon of record breaking successes and STAY there!

"This announcement, being made in part in advance of production of the photoplays, is based upon present information and plans and must not be considered as part of any contract licensing the exhibition of any photoplay."

CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE

PRINTED IN U. S. A. BY L. KEHLMANN CO., N.Y.

DON'T ENVY AN M-G-M EXHIBITOR—BE ONE!

The Rich Get Richer When They Play Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer!

CHECK OVER THESE HITS:

a few of the many M-G-M current season winners

BEN-HUR, THE BIG PARADE, THE STUDENT PRINCE, LOVE, THE ENEMY, THE FAIR CO-ED, DIVINE WOMAN, WEST POINT, THIRTEENTH HOUR, ADAM AND EVIL, THE SMART SET, BABY MINE, LONDON AFTER MIDNIGHT, THE BIG CITY, LATEST FROM PARIS, etc., etc.

and in coming weeks

ACROSS TO SINGAPORE
2nd Big Week of Ramon Novarro hit at Capitol, N.Y.
LAUGH CLOWN LAUGH (Chaney)
CIRCUS ROOKIES (Dane-Arthur)
THE ACTRESS (Shearer)
SKIRTS (Syd Chaplin)
THE COSSACKS (Gilbert)
DIAMOND HANDCUFFS
TELLING THE WORLD (Haines)
DETECTIVES (Dane-Arthur)
MLLE. FROM ARMENTIERES and More! More! More!

1,500 new
EXHIBITOR accounts
SWITCHED to
METRO-Goldwyn-Mayer
IN the past year—
10,000 exhibitors
ARE now buying
M-G-M service—
WE'VE won your confidence
BY consistent performance!
M-G-M pledges that
IN 1928-1929
IT will again merit
YOUR confidence with
THE greatest line-up
OF M-G-M history!

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Annual Announcement of Features, Short Subjects and Newsreel appears in Exhibitors Herald, May 12th, and in Motion Picture News, May 19th.

. . . . FIRST! . . . .

Pathé News

FIRST in man power, camera equipment and laboratory facilities

FIRST in regional offices at strategic points .

FIRST in the quantity and quality of "locals." . .

FIRST in world-wide coverage . . . . . .

FIRST in service . . . . . .

FIRST in glamour, tradition and romance . . .

FIRST to blaze new trails and set new standards.

FIRST in national prestige . . . . . .

FIRST in the hearts of the public . . . . . .

FIRST at the barrier—first at the finish . . . .

THE SCREEN NEWS THE PUBLIC KNOWS AND DEMANDS

Motion Picture News

Volume XXXVII NEW YORK CITY, MAY 12, 1928 No. 9

Coming: A Revolution

It Behooves Everyone Concerned to Put His House in Order

By William A. Johnston

WRITING from Los Angeles a year ago, the writer made a prediction: that the sound movie would revolutionize and realign the entire industry of motion pictures.

Just now—this week in fact, the largest producers with their great financial and studio resources are in haste,—too much haste, perhaps, to tie in with the forces holding the mechanical facilities of sound in pictures.

The object of this editorial is, in no wise, an effort to say: "I told you so." It is only written to say as forcefully as possible to exhibitors, directors, writers, players and all concerned that the day of the sound movie is directly before us. And it behooves every one concerned to get his house in order.

Not since the inauguration of feature pictures and the subsequent reordering of theatres, distribution and production, has there dawned so distinct and vital an era in the amusement world.

Or, to put it in other words: there's a new band wagon in motion pictures, in entertainment in general, and the wise ones will hop on.

* * *

I have said that the sound movie would revolutionize and realign; it will also, I believe, rejuvenate; rejuvenate the public interest in motion pictures and, let us hope, the vitality of the industry that, with all its economic faults, has made such a rattling good job of motion picture entertainment.

The sound movie won't come all at once. It will develop with all the experimental steps that defined the years of development in feature production. It will take time, money, brains—a new talent in direction, acting, writing; new studio apparatus; new theatre apparatus and operation; new advertising methods.

Nor will its advent throw black and white pictures into the discard—by a long shot. The baby will creep long before it walks, and only then with the help of the well-developed resources of the machine that has put motion picture entertainment to the forefront.

* * *

Some big questions arise.

There's the one of patents.

The woods are full of talking movie processes. Many are unheard of generally. There's the film method and the disc method. Then, it is one thing to record sound and quite another to take if off the record. In the background loom such powerful organizations as General Electric, Western Electric, Westinghouse and Radio Corporation.

Will patents rule or big business? No one knows. And there is no elucidation. Those who recall the earlier days of this industry can see the shadows overhead of patent litigation and domination, of secret service work.

If I were an exhibitor, I could certainly appreciate some definite announcements.

* * *

One thing we do know: The public has tasted the sound movie, and wants more—and more for years to come.

And another thing: sound movies will be as good as they are made good. The novelty itself won't last. There's a lot of production work ahead. Just what are the studios doing?

Conducted by
An Exhibitor for Exhibitors

BOX OFFICE PROBLEMS

By Charles E. Lewis
Managing Director, Capitol Theatre, Middletown, Conn., and Palace Theatre, Norwich, Conn.

What It's All About

Before going too far into a subject of this kind, it would perhaps be best to devote a little time and space to the subject itself and particularly to those whom this department can best serve.

Primarily, it is our purpose to appeal directly to those theatres, theatre managers and theatre owners located in the smaller towns and cities. So much has already been said about the larger and key cities that it is time some publication devoted a department to the "Small Town" theatres.

Some of our readers might well ask, "What is a Small Town Manager?" Others might ask for an explanation of the difference between the "Big" and "small" town managers. And if you do not think there is a big difference between them, then you are very much mistaken.

Take the average manager of a theatre in one of the larger cities and carefully analyze his responsibilities, his duties and the sum total of what he can accomplish. Compare all of these things with the small town manager, then your respect for the "small towner" is going to increase by leaps and bounds.

The Manager in the Smaller Towns

In the first place, a manager in the small towns and cities is a man who devotes every moment of his working hours to his theatre. This can hardly be said about the big city man, because being in a big city there is much to occupy his time and attention while he is away from his theatre, he has his regular days off, and finds ample time to relax. Not so for the small towner. Especially if he is a man who goes into the town from some other location. His is a beaten track between the hotel and the theatre. He has no days off, or they are so few and far apart that you would never call it that. He gets up in the morning and immediately after breakfast you will find him at his theatre. He must look after his bookings, his lobby display, his advertising and the theatre in general. Don't forget that he must depend upon distant points for his show and other material and failure to receive any part of it means serious delays and substitutions because a delayed shipment is a bad handicap. He must see that his theatre is advertising over an area that reaches into many miles around the town, while the big city manager reckons his area by city blocks. If during the night the fire alarm sounds he is up with the speed of a fireman and hoping it is not the theatre. Can you picture a big city manager getting out of bed when he hears the fire engines? He just turns over and goes back to sleep.

HERE is a new and important department. It is conducted for exhibitors by exhibitors. Charles E. Lewis starts the ball rolling and will keep it rolling. But he wants the help, and so do we, of the live, up-to-the-minute showmen of the business.

We intend to make this the clearing-house of the best box-office ideas of the day—exploitation, house operation, community contacts, etc. Due credit will be given for all ideas used. Send along your photo with your contribution.

A word about Mr. Lewis, the editor of this department: he operates theatres in two typical American towns. He's a practical and successful showman, with wide experience, including the big city, but it's the smaller houses to which this department is especially directed.

William A. Johnston.

Now the managers and theatre owners that we are trying to reach and aid are men within the scope already outlined and to each of them we say—"Here is a department created to and for your interest." In it you will find, as time goes by, many valuable suggestions based upon careful investigation, on actual experience and on positive facts.

Introducing a Certain Type of Manager

Let us acquaint you with just one of the managers that we met on our travels and if you see, in him, a picture or description of yourself, then perhaps our suggestions to him will be of some material help to you. His problems and your problems are alike. What applies to him, will in most cases, apply to you.

We will call him "Mr. Jones." He was the manager of a 1,200 seat theatre in a fine, active town of about 14,000 population, and we found him comfortably seated in his own little office over the lobby of the theatre. His theatre is typical of thousands of theatres in similar towns, and run about the same way.

In the course of a friendly conversation, (since we were brother managers, it was friendly) he tells us that business is fair and that his theatre has been averaging about $200 a week profit. Whether this is a fair return on the investment we will not go into at this time. He was doing a certain amount of business but was resigned to the old fashioned idea that his theatre could only do just that and no more. He admitted that once in a while it might fluctuate a little up and down, depending on the weather (notice he puts the weather first) or perhaps the picture. He particularly informed us that even a Lloyd or Chaplin picture created little or no excitement in his town. Yes, he had opposition, a little 700 seat house located in the foreign section of the town. He was keenly amused when we asked him if he did not think that business could be increased by some special effort in exploitation, advertising, etc. In fact, when he stopped laughing he again emphasized the fact "that in HIS opinion the town could do just so much business and no more." And what's more he was quite contented to leave things alone and keep right on going in the rut he was in. And rut it is.

Some Problems of the Smaller Towns

Before going into Mr. Jones' problems and how we propose to help him, let us see what is happening to the small towns. First—The good-roads campaign is resulting in many magnificent highways being built all over the country. The average family in the small town has a car and they are getting the habit of driving to the nearest bigger city for their entertainment and amusement.

This department claims you can keep the majority of these folks where they belong—in your own town and theatre.

Second—The average theatre-goers today are "theatre-wise." By this we mean, they read the big city papers, their business takes them into larger towns and they most always know which are the good and which are the bad pictures. You can't "pull the wool over his eyes." He is show-wise and must be appealed to in the right way if you would have him satisfied to get his entertainment in town.

Third—Small town advertising methods are ancient. The average small town manager is not keeping abreast of the times in his newspaper or out-door advertising. And this is one of the most deplorable of all conditions because it is absolutely unwarranted. There never was and never will be a business or an industry that turns out so many valuable aids and suggestions in advertising as this business of ours.

Fourth—Projection and house management in most of the small towns have not altered or improved as the years go by. We found many theatres, during our travels, that after walking through the lobby doors was like turning back the years to the days when theatres were nickelodeons. And the strangest part of this angle is that it is cheaper, in the long run, to use modern projection and efficient operation than to be old-fashioned. Is it any wonder that the small towns are crying that their business is going out of town?

Fifth—The local angle, and the most valuable of all, is being neglected or overlooked when it can be turned into business and dollars And here is a point that will be the subject of many interesting points for future discussion.

Adapting Ideas to Local Needs

We have only touched upon some of the subjects that are foremost in our mind right at this time; to attempt to go into them deeply would require more space than we want to devote in this issue, and when we do go into them we want to put it up to you in such a way that you must see the advantages that are yours for the asking, if you would but take them.

It is our contention that every idea sponsored can be remoulded and remodeled to suit your individual requirements and suitable for any town or city. But we go further and say that the small town has a far better chance of putting over a successful "stunt" than the average big city. The small town manager is master of his whole community, and with proper judgment, proper methods and proper tact, he can accomplish wonders and increase his business tremendously. On this point we are completely sold and we propose to "sell" you on it too.

How You Can Use This Department

We have only touched upon some of the points that we want to bring home to you and in a general way outlined some of the things that are running through our mind.

If, after you read this page, you believe that we have echoed thoughts and ideas that might have been applied to you, your town or your general condition, then let us hope that we have created sufficient interest so that you will look forward every week to this department of the NEWS and to do so with an open mind. With the thought that we are not criticising, but are trying to help. With the idea that there is money to be made from the suggestions we will offer.

Turn to Pages 1601-06 in this issue.

There you will find

A New and Improved Release Chart

Arrangement of pictures is given by companies, following suggestions from a great number of exhibitors who prefer this form. Motion Picture News offers complete listing of releases; features, short subjects and coming attractions under the name of the distributor in each case.

This department is in line with the constant effort of Motion Picture News to provide

Better Service for Exhibitors

The Release Chart carries, as usual, information on players, footage and review dates. The Chart will cover, by next September, the listings of the complete season of 1927-28. At that time will appear the greatly enlarged

Booking Guide and Studio Directory

Thus, Motion Picture News gives to its exhibitor readers in complete and ready form, service of permanent value and picture information vital to the successful conduct of the theatre.

Estelle Bradley, besides being one of the best-looking blondes in pictures, is also the wife of Charles Lamont, Educational director. She is an important reason why Monty Collins, Johnny Arthur and other Educational comedians, fall all over themselves trying to win her

Like thousands of fans in almost every land, William Haines and Marion Davies sit entranced before the silent drama. They are teamed for the first time in M-G-M's "Breaking Into the Movies"

Leatrice Joy in the garb of "The Man-Made Woman," a Pathe feature in which she is starring at the De Mille studio. "What Holds Men" will be the title of her next for De Mille. She is also one of the leads in M-G-M's "Bellamy Trial"

Alice White, about 15 months ago unknown, is now announced to star in 4 First National films

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beaudine, returning from a European tour, were greeted upon arriving in Hollywood by friends including William Beaudine, the traveler's brother and director for Universal, and his wife

A Shetland pony, one hour old, becomes the pet of Colleen Moore, the First National star. The pony was born at the First National studio, but he hasn't expressed any interest in picture making, at least, not to date

Agnes Franey, ex-Follies dancer, who is about to try her luck in Warner Bros. pictures

Luther Reed, who directed Caddo's "Hell's Angels" for distribution through United Artists. He will direct "Sawdust Paradise" for Paramount

Young Frankie Darro prepared for any stirring western action. In F B O films, he has made a name for himself as a good little trouper

Fay Wray, the lovely new Paramount star, who will make a series of romances with Gary Cooper. The initial co-starring vehicle will be "The First Kiss"

Inside Slants on the Industry

PICTURES AND PEOPLE

The Mirrors of Filmdom

THE compromise in the French film situation reached by Will H. Hays and M. Herriot, Minister of Education, means, in effect, as our Paris correspondent points out, that France will now have a contingent system, like Germay and England.

In all essential points, Mr. Hays won out. The French stand for enforced exports is virtually abandoned.

There can be no question that the great popularity of American pictures in France was a decisive factor in the situation. After all, the public had to be considered; and it is difficult to see how French theatres could have continued to operate on a successful scale, if deprived of American pictures.

It seems to us that Mr. Hays made an excellent job of a difficult situation.

* * * *

THE problem of reciprocity remains what it has always been, insofar as a solution fair to all is concerned. There is, and can be, no real reciprocity except upon the basis of entertainment quality. In other words, nothing would be accomplished by forced exports or forced imports, for the very good reason that no picture is actually worth anything unless the public wants it.

Reciprocity in which the public cannot share; trade deals for the mere sake of deals, will get nobody anywhere for long.

On the other hand, it has always been our contention that the avenues should be kept clear so that no quality picture, whatever its origin, will fail to get its fair chance here.

It is obvious enough that Europe means to figure much more largely in the world film market than it has ever done before. But this is not a matter of artificial barriers or governmental restrictions. It is a plain matter of making pictures which the public will not and cannot do without.

It is, nevertheless, true that the film has become a large item in the channels of international diplomacy. This arises, not from the entertainment aspect, which is the main one so far as the public is concerned, but because the film carries commercial propaganda as a by-product.

The irony of this situation is that if the American producers had started out to make pictures deliberately for the sake of boosting American commerce, they would have failed dismally. What they did, and are doing, is making entertainment films; the publicizing of American clothes, furniture and manners of life to the world is, so far as the producer goes, entirely incidental to the main purpose, which is selling entertainment.

Governments, however, are concerned with the film as a trade agent and a most important agent it is. That is why, when all is said and done, you have barriers and restriction, quotas and contingents.

* * * *

THE other day I had a talk with a representative of the big hosiery makers of this country. He recited at length how this American product dominates the consumer markets of the world; in Argentina, for instance, over 90 per cent of hosiery sales today are of American make.

"I wonder," I said, "if these gentlemen realize how much they owe to the American motion picture as the advance agent of their goods."

He smiled. "You bet they do!" he answered.

And then one recalls the paltry sum Congress saw fit to give to the motion picture division of the Department of Commerce. It doesn't amount to a single order for American hosiery from a new agent in Central America.

I might add another item of information from the hosiery industry to the motion picture industry. The manufacture of hosiery is probably the most highly competitive business in the United States today; this country is filled with mills. So the margin of profit is scant. Yet this business sees fit and is able to assess the gross sales 7 per cent for advertising—5 per cent for trade and consumer advertising space and 2 per cent for window cards and other dealer helps.

What's the matter with the picture business?

* * * *

COMING back to our own industry, we are interested to see that Nelson B. Bell, photoplay editor of The Washington Post, stresses in his column the vital fact that what this business is selling is entertainment. He says: "It is to be hoped that these able gentlemen will not lose sight of the fact that basically what they have to sell is entertainment. Not a group of names; not a particular quality of photography; not a specialized type of incandescent lighting; not 'camera angles' and weird effects, but a happy coalition of these essential elements in a composite that may reasonably be looked to to afford stimulating mental refreshment.

"It has often seemed to me that the producers of our silent drama do not always utilize all of their resources in such a way as to realize their highest possible value."

* * * *

A SALES convention listening to an address on Art—that is a story in itself, and a true story. For that is what happened at the recent Paramount convention in Washington; rather, at the dinner which concluded the sessions.

The speaker was Otto H. Kahn, banker and art patron. He was listened to with profound attention, as we happen to know. And what Mr. Kahn said was not in the least highbrow or high falutin'.

* * * *

WE quote at random from Mr. Kahn's speech: "Permit me to urge upon you, gentlemen of the selling force, not to turn up your noses at the element of art in the movie. It is perfectly possible to be hard headed without being hard boiled, to be business-like without being a stand-patter, to be a hustler without underestimating the spiritual things of life.

"But, in 'boosting' art to you, I am doing so not merely from the point of view I have indicated, but equally so from the point of view of practical advantage. Art pays.

"Art means far more to the people than is generally realized by those who are but superficially acquainted with the lives and sentiments of the broad masses. . . . Art is not the plaything of opulence. Neither is it high-brow stuff. It is robust, red-blooded, deep-rooted and democratic.

"Art is on the march in America—vigorously so. The interest in it and the cultivation of it are steadily broadening and deepening. There is unmistakable evidence that a spiritual stirring and moving is going on in the land, a searching for the attainment of a fuller and richer and more comprehensive life. The scoffer at art is gone out of fashion. Success is found far more often by aiming high than by aiming low.

"All that, gentlement of the selling force, is not high-falutin' after-dinner fanfaronading. It is the sober talk of a business man based upon pretty wide observation and perhaps a little vision."

UNIVI
HEADLIN

The complete line-up presented in detail on the following 10 pages—is absolute proof that

Ask your Universal Exchange Manager to show you the prize package - - twenty-six Universal Headliners NOW READY in the Exchanges for you to see! It's never been done before by ANY company!!

Again Universal has the Pictures!

ERSAL
ERS 1928-29

5 Great Carl Laemmle Super Productions

7 Smashing Laemmle Specials

4 Big Money Dennys

22 Universal Headliner Jewels

including

4 Laura LaPlantes

4 Glenn Tryons

8 Hoot Gibson Jewels

22 Five-Reel Western and Thrill Features

5 Amazing Super Serials

including Tarzan the Mighty

Universal's Complete Service Contract

International Newsreel

The Best Short Subjects in the World

And Will Show 'em to You FIRST!

5 GREAT SUPER

UNCLE TO

Carl Laemmle's $2,000,000 Production of Harriett Beecher Stowe's immortal classic.
THE GREATEST HUMAN DRAMA EVER SCREENED!

THE MAN W

Victor Hugo's immortal romance of hate, passion and love.
A PAUL LENI PRODUCTION
Starring Mary Philbin and Conrad Veidt
Now selling out every performance at Central Theatre, Broadway, N.Y. Admission $2.00 top.

BROADWAY

It's a Carl Laemmle Super Production
As a stage play it made over $2,000,000 for its producers; as a motion picture it will crash records for thousands of theatres!
Filmed from the Jed Harris stage production written by Philip Dunning and George Abbot.
It's the one and only Broadway!

THE MAT

The REX BEACH Cosmopolitan Magazine made into a great
It's a Carl Laemmle

All Universal Head

PRODUCTIONS!

M'S CABIN

The world's sensation direct from its six months run on Broadway at $2.00 top.
A HARRY POLLARD PRODUCTION
It's a Carl Laemmle Super Production

HO LAUGHS

"The Man Who Laughs proves that there IS such a thing as a two-a-day movie worth every penny of the admission price."
—New York Evening Telegram.
It's a Carl Laemmle Super Production

SHOW BOAT

A HARRY POLLARD PRODUCTION
Tremendous—as Edna Ferber's best selling novel—as the sensational Florenz Ziegfeld musical show—in story value and dramatic punch—as a box office attraction—in exploitation values and advance publicity. It's a Carl Laemmle Super Production

ING CALL

Story and tremendously popular novel box office picture.
Super Production

liners—1928-29

LAEMMLE SP

THE FOREIGN LEGION

starring
NORMAN KERRY
and
LEWIS STONE
with Mary Nolan, June Marlowe, etc.
An Edward Sloman Production
Adapted from I. A. R. Wylie's Novel
"The Red Mirage"
It's a Laemmle Special

THE MICHIGAN KID

RENEE ADOREE
and
CONRAD NAGEL
in a Rex Beach story bigger than
"THE STORM"
It's a Laemmle Special

THE GIRL ON THE BARGE

A glamorous romance of everyday folks from the Cosmopolitan Magazine story
by RUPERT HUGHES
It's a Laemmle Special

GIVE AND TAKE

GEORGE SIDNEY
and
JEAN HERSHOLT
in the William Beaudine Production from the Broadway stage success
by Aaron Hoffman
It's a Laemmle Special

LONESOME

GLENN TRYON
and
BARBARA KENT
in a page from the lives of a girl and a boy—a fresh breeze from the studios —an entirely new and distinctly different type of picture.
Directed by the now famous Dr. Paul Fejos
It's a Laemmle Special

Again Universal has the Pictures!

ECIALS and REGINALD DENNY

THE COHENS AND KELLYS IN ATLANTIC CITY

Another Red-Letter Day for Exhibitors!

All the riotous color of the World's greatest playground plus an avalanche of new gags and side splitting situations!

It's a Laemmle Special

THE LAST WARNING

from Thomas F. Fallon's sensational Broadway mystery play.

with LAURA LA PLANTE and a Great Cast
Directed by PAUL LENI
the same combination that made "THE CAT AND THE CANARY"

It's a Laemmle Special

The Magic Name!

Reginald DENNY

Four Big Money Denny's that will hit every Denny fan right where he lives and make thousands of new Denny fans for you!

4 he-man stories with speed in every picture!

Red Hot Speed
The Night Bird
His Lucky Day
Clear The Decks

And Will Show 'em to You FIRST!

22 HEADLIN

LAURA LaPLANTE

The Screen's Great Comedienne! Now at the height of her glorious career in these four delightful romantic comedies:

HOME JAMES
A William Beaudine Production with Charles Delaney

ONE RAINY NIGHT
A Wesley Ruggles Production

THAT BLONDE DANGEROUS DIMPLES

THE GRIP OF THE YUKON

William MacLeod Raine's powerful story of the frozen north, with NEIL HAMILTON, FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN, June Marlowe, Burr McIntosh.
An Ernst Laemmle Production

PHYLLIS OF THE FOLLIES

Rich—Spicy—Daring. MATT MOORE, ALICE DAY, Lilyan Tashman, Edmund Burns.
An Ernst Laemmle Production

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

with LEWIS STONE, MARCELINE DAY, Henry B. Walthall, Malcolm MacGregor, Hayden Stevenson. A George Melford Production, backed by Tremendous Exploitation.

MAN, WOMAN AND WIFE

Underworld Atmosphere with a new twist, starring NORMAN KERRY with PAULINE STARKE, Kenneth Harlan, Marian Nixon, etc.
An Edward Laemmle Production.

THE CHARLATAN

Shivery—chilling—gripping! From the celebrated stage play by Ernest Pascal and Leonard Haskins.

JAZZ MAD

starring JEAN HERSHOLT with Marian Nixon and George Lewis. Story by Svend Gade.
Directed by Harmon Weight

THE PLAY GOES ON

Powerful—thrilling—dramatic. Beautiful legs—dazzling lights—red hot lips—back-stage life!

Again Universal has the Pictures!

ER JEWELS

ANYBODY HERE SEEN KELLY

with TOM MOORE, BESSIE LOVE, Kate Price, Tom O'Brien and others.

A William Wyler Production

RED LIPS

Youth at a temperature of 212 degrees. Charles Rogers, Marian Nixon, Hayden Stevenson and others.

A Melville Brown Production

HONEYMOON FLATS

A showman's picture with a real showman's title. With George Lewis, Dorothy Gulliver, Bryant Washburn, Eddie Phillips, Ward Crane, Kathlyn Williams, Jane Winton, Jackie Combs, Phillips Smalley.

A Millard Webb Production

THE SHAKEDOWN

The double-action, money-making kick of show-business and underworld atmosphere. Story by Charles A. Logue.

A William Wyler Production

COME ACROSS

A smashing melodrama of the underworld! Silks and satins in the shadow of the law.

A William Wyler Production

GLENN TRYON

His face is your fortune. Watch him burn 'em up for you with his four new knockouts:

FRESH EVERY HOUR
THE GATE CRASHER
THE KID'S CLEVER
The LIFE of the PARTY

He's Carl Laemmle's Sensational Screen Find

SILKS AND SADDLES

from Gerald Beaumont's great story "Thoroughbreds" with MARIAN NIXON, Richard Walling, Montague Love, Otis Harlan, Mary Nolan, Sam DeGrasse, Hayden Stevenson, David Torrence, Claire MacDowell and the famous Jockey, Johnny Fox, Jr.

A Robert Hill Production

YOU CAN'T BUY LOVE

Fast moving drama of the restless spirit of youth. Story by Beatrice Van.

A Ernst Laemmle Production

And Will Show 'em to You FIRST!

AGAIN!-Universa

HOOT GIBSON

Proven at the box office absolute King of all Western Stars in 8 Great Gibson Jewels with more action—more speed

—more western atmosphere than ever before

The Danger Rider
by Arthur Statter
Directed by Henry McRae

Burning The Wind
Smilin' Guns
The Getaway

Points West from the story
by B. M. Bower

Clearing The Trail
Blow For Blow
King Of The Rodeo

UNIVERSAL'S

COMPLETE SERVICE CONTRACT

For the Profit, Prosperity and Continued Success of Thousands of Exhibitors!

The Exhibitors only real assurance of Complete
Box Office Programs as he wants them —when he wants them—and at a price he can afford to pay!

All Universal Head

l has the Pictures!

5 AMAZING NEW UNIVERSAL SUPER SERIALS THAT TOP ALL COMPETITION!

TARZAN the MIGHTY

from the world-famous stories by Edgar Rice Burroughs 12 Tremendous Episodes. Greater than
BLAKE OF SCOTLAND YARD

The Final Reckoning

by G. A. Henty
World's most popular writer of stories for boys
12 Thrilling Episodes

The Pirates of Panama

by William MacLeod Raines whose stories of adventure are enjoyed by millions
12 Smashing Episodes

The Mystery Rider

George Morgan's gripping story made into a great chapter play
10 Episodes

The Diamond Master

Jacques Futrelle
the great writer at his tip-top best
10 Action-Crammed Episodes

---

22 5 REEL UNIVERSAL WESTERN and Thrill FEATURES!

7 Ted Wells Western Dramas

6 Rex, The Wonder Horse with Jack Perrin

7 Thrilling Melodramas

2 Aviation Pictures with Jack Wilson

Loaded with action—crowded with drama—packed tight with thrills

liners – 1928–29!

The Best Short Sub

THE COLLEGIANS

CARL LAEMMLE Jr's

Universal Junior Jewels

2 Bigger, Better and Grander Series
12 Two-Reelers in Each starring GEORGE LEWIS, with Dorothy Gulliver, Eddie Phillips,

Churchill Ross, Hayden Stevenson

INTERNATIONAL NEWSREEL

First in the judgment of more than 9000 exhibitors!

First in the eyes of millions of people
—it's the Jewel of the Newsreels!

2 each week—104 a year
Released thru Universal jects in the World!

STERN BROTHERS

2-REEL COMEDIES, including

SNOOKUMS

the World's Wonder Baby and outstanding box-office draw of the short subjects in George McManus' famous newspaper comics

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby"

Universal Junior Jewels

2 reels each—13 in the series

MIKE and IKE

"Rube" Goldberg's tremendously popular cartoon comics

LET GEORGE DO IT

George McManus' big syndicate newspaper comic strip

BUSTER BROWN

R. F. Outcault's Newspaper Kid Headliners
All two reels each, 13 in each series

OSWALD

the Lucky Rabbit
First choice of all cartoon comedies
among thousands of exhibitors
26 in the series — one reel each
Created by Walt Disney
Winkler Productions

Horace in Hollywood

starring Arthur Lake
13 One-Reelers

Laemmle Novelties

something new under the sun
13 in the series, one reel each

52 ACTION FEATURETTES

Pure, unadulterated, concentrated thrills — 2 reels each

12 TENDERFOOT THRILLERS with George Chandler

12 FOREST RANGER PICTURES with Edmund Cobb

12 STUNT COWBOY SERIES with Bob Curwood

8 HARRY CAREY Reissues

8 JACK HOXIE Reissues

liners – 1928–29!

Important Changes Made in Theatre Field

Universal and Publix Chains Figure in Announcements of Reported Transactions

MANY important theatre changes are being recorded in all parts of the United States, with some of the larger circuits acquiring additional houses and the individually owned houses passing into new hands. Publix and Universal figure more or less prominently in the dispatches coming from different points during the week.

The following wires tell of changes made recently.

Jacksonville, Fla.—The Lyric and Baird theatres in Gainesville, Fla., have been taken over by E. J. Sparks, it was announced this week, and both houses will receive his personal supervision. It was also stated that a standard plan as to prices and policy would become immediately effective at the two theatres.

These houses were formerly operated by the Publix Theatre Corporation and the Saenger Amusement Company of New Orleans.

J. Newton Treece, formerly at the Rialto and Imperial theatres in Jacksonville, and in charge of other operations for Publix in Florida, will continue as resident manager for Sparks Enterprises, with Harris Davies also retained as assistant.

According to announcement carried in the Gainesville press, admission prices in Gainesville will be standardized under the policy of operation to be instituted by the Sparks organization. Special features on Mondays and sometimes for the first two days of the week, will carry slightly higher prices than on other days. Popular prices will prevail at the Baird as in the past, it was stated.

The same arrangement with Publix that prevails in other cities in Florida is understood to govern in the Gainesville houses.

Kansas City, Mo.—Arrangements were concluded by M. B. Shanberg, general manager of the Midland Circuit of Theatres, and C. B. Plaine of New York, representative of Universal Chain Theatrical Enterprises, Inc., whereby the Isis, Apollo, Linwood, Lincoln, Gillham and Gladstone theatres will be returned to the Universal chain. With the Uptown, now under Universal management, Universal will have a string of seven suburban houses in Kansas City. George Steiner, manager of the Uptown, will be local manager. The Midland operates about fifty theatres in Missouri, Kansas and Iowa, but, with this change, will be interested only in Loew's Midland in Kansas City.

New London, Conn.—Announcement is made of the purchase of the Garde Theatre, the newest and largest theatre in New London, Conn., which was taken over a short time ago by W. Garde from the original lessee by A. Goddesman, who owns a number of theatres in the Connecticut area.

Coincident with this announcement comes that from the New England Theatres Operating Corp. of Boston that it has acquired from Walter Murphy, the Crown Theatre in New London, Conn. This is the first theatre which the New England Theatres Operating Corp. has purchased in Connecticut and marks the entrance of this $25,000,000 corporation into that state.

Boston, Mass.—Crescent Gardens Theatre at Revere, Mass., and the Central Square Theatre at East Boston have been sold by M. F. Cronin to Joseph Levenson, Boston. Mr. Levenson heads the Mark Strand enterprises in New England and it is believed that the two theatres are acquired for that circuit.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Two Minneapolis neighborhood houses were acquired by Finkelstein & Ruben this week. One of them, the new Granada, is now under construction at Hennepin Avenue and Lake Street. The other theatre is the Arion at Twenty-third Street and Central Avenue northwest. Both theatres were leased by F. & R. from Louis Rubenstein and A. A. Kaplan, operators of several neighborhood houses in Minneapolis. Mr. Rubenstein will be retained by F. & R. to manage both houses.

Construction of the Granada was begun last fall by William Berg, Minneapolis contractor, who leased the building to the Granada Amusement Co., represented by Mr. Kaplan and Mr. Rubenstein. F. & R. have announced that the new building, which cost $100,000 will be rushed to completion immediately. The Arion theatre will be redecorated and other improvements made.

New Posts for Clarke and Green

R. L. CLARKE, president of the National Theatre Supply Company, has also been elected to the presidency of that company, succeeding H. A. R. Dutton, who resigned to become president of the National Contract Purchase Corp.

Walter E. Green, vice-president of National Theatre Supply Co., has been made general manager of that company. Mr. Green will make his headquarters in Chicago and New York.

Profits of Montreal Chain Indicate an Increase

United Amusements, Limited, operating 12 moving picture theatres in Montreal, Quebec, has issued a report which shows that the earnings of the company for the first six months of the fiscal year of 1927-1928 are more than 70 per cent of the revenue for the entire year ending August 31 last.

Net earnings for the half year, after administrative expenses and mortgage interest, were in excess of five times bond interest and left a substantial surplus for dividends. Outstanding capitalization of the company, in which Famous Players Canadian Corp., owns a substantial common stock interest, consists of $1,500,000 six per cent first mortgage bonds and 60,036 shares of no par value.

George Nicholas Ganetakos has been managing director of United Amusements Limited, for many years.

Skouras Made Profit of $62,345 During Quarter

The annual report of Skouras Brothers Enterprises, Inc., shows that during the quarter ending on March 31, 1928, the company made a net profit of $62,345.46. The following is a summary of earnings for the first quarter ending March 31, 1928:

Net profit before deducting depreciation, $75,295.75; depreciation and amortization, $12,950.29; net profit for 3 months, $62,-345.46.

In the capital stock account, which includes 13 months, and is of January 31, 1928, is given balance as of December 1, 1926, $1,943,161.21, from which $22,911.67 is deducted for adjustments applicable to prior years and to which is added $149,-651.25 for net profit in the 13 months before deducting depreciation and amortization amounting to $142,384. These two adjustments being completed, there remained $1,927,516.03, from which $123,736 is deducted for dividends on A and B stock, leaving a balance of $1,803,779.23 as of January 31, 1928.

O. B. Shepard, Theatre Owner of Toronto, Passes

O. B. Shepard, theatre owner and long a leader in municipal and theatrical affairs in Toronto, died there on April 30 after a short illness. He was 79 years old and had numerous friends in theatrical circles in Western New York. He also was widely known among theatre men throughout the continent. A half century ago he entered the show business as treasurer of the Grand Opera house, and in recent years he was one of the best known of Canadian theatre managers.

Quirk Buys "Smart Set" and "McClure's"

Smart Set Magazine and McClure's Magazine have been purchased by James R. Quirk from William Randolph Hearst. Quirk is owner and publisher of Photoplay Magazine.

The transfer of ownership and operation of the publications is effective immediately. The magazines will continue under their present editorships, William J. Lengel of Smart Set and Arthur Sullivan Hoffman of McClure's.

Tom Mix Recovering from Recent Illness

News from the Congress Hotel, Chicago, where Tom Mix, FBO's new western star, has been seriously ill for several days with influenza, indicates that the star is recovering and hopes to resume his vaudeville tour within a few days. The star is expected in New York on May 20th.

Paramount Report Is Rejected

Sole Question Between Company and Federal Trade Commission Now Hinges on Block Booking

THE Federal Trade Commission has rejected Paramount's second report of compliance in reply to the commissions order regarding block booking of motion pictures, and the company disputes that it "block books" in the sense charged by the commission. That seems to be the only dispute between the commission and Paramount at present, as the other parts of the report, relating to alleged conspiracy to restrain trade and acquisition of theatres for alleged intimidation of exhibitors in connection with booking films, were accepted by the commission as unobjectionable.

There are two moves that now seem imminent. The commission has the right to petition for enforcement in a United States Circuit Court of Appeals, and the indications are that this step will be taken, and the respondents have the right to petition for vacation of the commission's order. Paramount has not yet decided what step it will take.

The orders of the Federal Trade Commission not being self-executing, to uphold its order it must institute proceedings in the Federal Court. No decision has yet been made as to whether court proceedings are to follow upon the commission's rejection of Paramount's report.

The respondent's report on block booking was rejected by the commission because, it was announced, "the facts alleged as to the manner and form in which respondents are complying, and have complied with paragraph two of said order to cease and desist are insufficient to show a compliance with said paragraph two."

It is believed that the action of the commission was based largely upon the fact that in its report Paramount stated that it had adopted the new standard contract as drawn up and recommended by a committee appointed for that purpose last October at the trade practice conference held in New York, but did not explain how that action was in compliance with the order. The full text of the commission's statement follows:

The commission rejected the report of compliance in so far as it related to block booking, stating that "the facts alleged as to the manner and form in which respondents are complying, and have complied with paragraph two (that in which block booking is prohibited) of said order to cease and desist," are "insufficient to show a compliance with said paragraph two."

The Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation stated in its report of compliance submitted April 15 that it had adopted the new standard contract as drawn up, and recommended by a committee appointed for that purpose last October at the trade practice conference of the motion picture industry held in New York under auspices of the commission.

The next step has not been determined. The commission has the right to petition for enforcement in a United States Circuit Court of Appeals, and the respondents have the right to petition for vacation of the commission's order.

The commission declares in its "order rejecting in part respondent's report of compliance" that "the sole question to be decided by the commission upon said report of compliance, is the sufficiency of the facts alleged in said report to constitute com-

(Continued on page 1508)

Cleveland Conspiracy Suit Due

Action Against Ten Leading Producers and Distributors Up for Hearing Monday

A SUIT of much importance to the industry will be up for hearing in the court of Federal Judge D. C. Westenhaver, in Cleveland, on May 14. It charges ten producers and distributors with violation of the Sherman Anti Trust Act, and violation of the Clayton Act, alleging conspiracy in restraint of trade.

The suit was brought by the U-B Theatrical Enterprises, Inc., against the Cleveland Film Board of Trade, United Artists Corporation, First National Pictures, Inc., Warner Bros., Vitagraph, Inc., Standard Film Service Company, Fox Film Corporation, Ohio Exchange for Educational Pictures, Inc., Pathe Exchange, Inc., Universal Exchanges, Inc., and Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corporation. The petition asks for a temporary injunction, and that upon final hearing such injunction be made permanent.

The U-B Theatrical Enterprises, Inc., states in its petition that on February 14, 1927, it contracted with United Artists for two pictures. It played one of the pictures with considerable financial loss and thereupon refused to play the second picture, claiming it was a failure at other theatres.

United Artists invoked the provisions of the arbitration clause in the standard exhibition contract. The questions submitted to the Joint Board of Arbitration were the liability of the U-B Theatrical Enterprises for failure to pay for the first film and the refusal to accept the second film. United Artists won an award of $800, three members of the Board voting in favor of an award, two voting against an award, and one not voting at all.

The petition states that United Artists Corporation and the Film Board of Trade attempted to resumbit the questions to a second arbitration. There being no provision for a second submission in the contract, the U-B Theatrical Enterprises refused to recognize the legality of such action.

It is charged that immediately following the award and "as a means of coercing compliance therewith and for the purpose of denying the plaintiff the right to challenge the same in proper judicial proceedings the United Artists Corporation, the only party to the contracts with the plaintiff and the only party among the defendants in said arbitration, called to its aid all the other defendants with whom the plaintiff had outstanding exchange contracts for the leasing and exhibition of pictures."

It is alleged that each of the other defendants thereupon demanded of the U-B Theatrical Enterprise security payment on each of its contracts. The amount of these security payments is said to approximate $5,000. It is further stated that this security demand is entirely independent of credit rating, but is a threat used by the producers and distributors through conspiracy and combining together in restraint of trade.

The petition sets forth in detail the alleged burdens of block and blind booking, and the elleged ability of the producers and distributors to put an exhibitor out of business by means of conspiracy and combining together either to cut off service to an exhibitor, or to demand excess security deposits.

The temporary injunction filed by the U-B Theatrical Enterprises asks to restrain the defendants from discontinuing service for films under contract; to restrain the defendants from interfering with the performance of any contract by any defendant to supply films to the plaintiff; to restrain the defendents from attempting to enforce against the plaintiff any award by the Joint Arbitration Board referred to in the petition; to restrain the defendants from conspiring, acting or combining together to impose restraints upon or to interfere with picture films being transmitted in interstate commerce from any of the defendants to the plaintiff, or to restrain the defendants from effectuating any such conspiracy, combination or agreement whenever made.

Cleveland may possibly be the scene of the first move on the part of the Department of Justice of the United States in its investigation of the motion picture industry. Following the filing of this petition of the U-B Theatrical Enterprises, Inc., United States District Attorney A. E. Bernstein is said to have ordered Wilfred J. Mahon, his chief assistant, to work with the agents of the department in probing the local situation. A copy of U-B Theatrical enterprises, Inc., petition was sent to Washington.

Warners Announce Titles for New Season

Lineup is Completed for Eighteen Features Included in Program for 1928-29

HARRY M. WARNER, president of Warner Bros. has announced the titles of the eighteen pictures that will make up the company's program for the 1928-29 season, or at least as many of them as have been given titles. They are as follows:

"Kid Gloves," with Conrad Nagel; "The Little Wildcat," by Gene Wright, with Audrey Ferris; Rin-Tin-Tin in three productions, Monte Blue in "The Greyhound Limited" and "From Headquarters;" "One Stolen Night," by D. D. Calhoun; Audrey Ferris in "Fancy Baggage;" Irene Rich and Audrey Ferris in "Women They Talk About;" May McAvoy in "Stolen Kisses;" "She Knew Men;" Audrey Ferris and William Collier, Jr., in "No Questions Asked;" Myrna Loy in "Hard Boiled Rose;" May McAvoy and Conrad Nagel in a mystery melodrama, the title of which has not yet been decided upon; Antonio Moreno and Helene Costello in "The Midnight Taxi;" Monte Blue in "No Defense;" Conrad Nagel and Myrna Loy in "State Street Sadie."

Warners intend to keep well ahead on their production schedule for the new season, and, in fact, have already completed a number of pictures, while others are now under way. All productions are to have Vitaphone synchronizations, but will be available to exhibitors with or without Vitaphone.

Two of the coming season's features were completed last week at the company's Hollywood studios. These are a co-starring vehicle for May McAvoy and Conrad Nagel, temporarily titled, "Fools in the Fog," and Irene Rich, William Collier, Jr., and Audrey Ferris in "Women They Talk About."

Howard Bretherton directed "Fools in the Fog" from Charles Condon's script of a story by Jerome Kingston. The supporting cast to Miss McAvoy and Nagel includes, Mack Swain, Charles Gerrard, Ruth Cherrington, Emil Chautard and Hugh Herbert.

"Women They Talk About" was directed by Lloyd Bacon. It is an Anthony Coldeway story for which Robert Lord prepared the scenario. In the supporting cast are, Claude Gillingwater, Anders Randolf, Jack Santoro and John Miljan.

Monte Blue's first starring vehicle for next season will be "The Greyhound Limited," by Albert Howson, Warners scenario editor. Its adaption has been assigned to Anthony Coldeway. Helene Costello will be leading lady. The picture will go before the cameras about the first of July when Blue returns from Europe.

Production is under way on "The Midnight Taxi," in which Antonio Moreno and Helene Costello have the leading roles. John Adolfi is directing and the story is by Robert Agnew. Featured in the supporting cast are Robert Agnew, Myrna Loy, William Russell and Hugh Herbert.

American, Salt Lake, Bought by Glasmann

THE American Theatre, at 241 South street, Salt Lake City, was sold this past week to A. L. Glasmann of Ogden, Utah, for a price in excess of $500,000, it is announced. The property was purchased from the Dahnken Theatre company through Carsten Dahnken, general manager and the transaction was handled by D. E. Schayer, associated with the Dahnken interests for the past two and a half years.

Dave Schayer, it is announced, will remain at the American as exploitation manager under the new ownership.

Glasmann is also purchasing from the Dahnken Theatre company the 20-year lease on the Egyptian Theatre at Boise, Idaho. This theatre was built by Boise interests, headed by Leo J. Falk, and was opened a year ago this month.

The Orpheum Theatre, of Ogden, Utah, was also recently taken over by Glasmann, who also has newspaper interests in Ogden, and it is stated that he intends to establish a large chain of theatres in the intermountain territory.

Dubinsky Buys 3 Theatres of Late Walter Wallace

Ed Dubinsky, manager of the Regent theatre, Kansas City, has purchased the Orpheum, Lyceum and Strand theatres of Leavenworth, Kas., from the estate of the late Walter Wallace, who died recently. They are the only three theatres in Leavenworth, a city of 30,000 people. The purchase of the three houses increases Mr. Dubinsky's string of theatres to ten.

Merritt Crawford Editing New Aywon Special

Merritt Crawford has been engaged by Nathan Hirsh, president Aywon Pictures, to edit and re-title for roadshowing "A Daughter of Israel," starring Betty Blythe, and directed by Eduard Jose from Pierre Benoit's famous novel, "Jacob's Well." The film when shown will be about 7,500 ft. long, and is scheduled for its American premiere at the Cameo.

Neilan Will Make Several Films for FBO

Marshall Neilan, director, will make several pictures for F B O, the first to be "Taxi 13," a comedy-drama, which will star Chester Conklin with Martha Sleeper supplying the feminine romantic interest. The director is now casting the production, and work will commence within the next few days.

Mr. Neilan's association with the Kennedy organization means that his contemplated trip to England, where he is scheduled to make a series of pictures for an English company, is postponed indefinitely.

Paramount Report Rejected by Trade Commission

(Continued from preceding page)

pliance with so much of said order to cease and desist as requires respondents to file a written report or written reports as to the manner and form of their compliance with paragraphs one, two and three of said order to cease and desist; the question of actual compliance with said order, or any part thereof, not being determined by the commission, but being left open at all times to investigation, challenge, allegation and proof, under the terms of the Federal Trade Commission Act."

Two Parts of Report Accepted

On the basis of the foregoing paragraph the commission further declares:

"Within the limitations and for the sole purpose suggested in the first paragraph of this order, the commission determines and orders as to the several parts of said report, as follows:

1. "The commission accepts as unobjectionable the allegations of so much of said report as relates to compliance with paragraph one of said order to cease and desist."

(Paragraph one of the order prohibits the corporation and individuals from continuing a conspiracy to lessen competition and restrain trade interstate and foreign commerce in motion picture films.)

2. "The commission rejects the allegations of so much of said report as relates to compliance with paragraph two of said order to cease and desist, as being insufficient to show that respondents have complied, or are complying, with said paragraph two."

(Paragraph two of the order prohibits the respondents from the practice of block-booking; that is, leasing films in a block or group and compelling the picture house which shows the films to take all pictures in the group or block, or none at all, without regard to the character of the pictures or the wishes of the picture house.)

3. "The commission accepts as unobjectionable the allegations of so much of said report as relates to compliance with paragraph three of said order to cease and desist."

(Paragraph three of the order prohibits respondents from acquiring, or threatening to acquire, theatres for the purpose of intimidating or coercing an exhibitor of films to book and exhibit films of the corporation.)

The commission's order to cease and desist was issued July 9, 1927, with the provision that a report of compliance was to be submitted within 60 days. The commission granted the corporation two extensions of time at its own request, and the present report of compliance is the second one submitted by Paramount.

Great Activity in "Sound" Field

Two Companies Join Forces in Movement to Develop Sound Device for Synchronization of Pictures

WITH the trend of affairs in the motion picture industry all toward talking movies, the various companies having tie-ups with the electric companies and the Radio Corporation of America, which control amplifying devices, all continue busy with their experiments or with the production of talking pictures.

Now comes the news that Paramount and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer are in the field jointly for experimental purposes. They are together equally for experimenting with the Roy J. Pomeroy device which is used for recording the sound effects in connection with the picture, "Wings."

This information regarding the joining forces of Paramount and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer was conveyed by Paul Bern, assistant to Irving Thalberg and supervisor in the purchase of stories for M-G-M. Mr. Bern, in the course of an interview, declared that Paramount and Metro had been experimenting for some time with talking picture devices, that they were in the proposition on an equal footing, and that their experiments were largely with the Pomeroy device.

Paramount recently renewed the contract of Pomeroy, who has been with the company for the past six years. His sound recording equipment and system is different than that employed by other devices in that the sound is recorded neither on a disc nor on the same film with the picture. It is on an entirely separate film with synchronization running concurrently with the picture film.

The Pomeroy machine so far, has been used only in connection with "Wings." It does away with back-stage effects and synchronizes machine gun fire, airplane whirring, and other accompanying noises with the running picture.

Pomeroy has established his studio at the Lasky studios and with the Metro and Paramount engineers is conducting his experiments and continually striving to make improvements. The switchboard and recording equipment set up at the studio last week is said to resemble the kind used in a small telephone exchange. There are four hundred wire leads, with plug-in sockets running into the board. When photographing sound on a film, this board enables the recorder or director to plug-in for increased volume or plug-out for moderation.

Warners seem to be developing the talking motion picture more rapidly than the other companies with their Vitaphone. The company plans extensive activities along these lines during the coming season. An announcement from their office says that they will make the picture, "The Terror," without a single title of any kind, and that it will be predicated entirely upon Vitaphone. The presentation credit sheet will be discarded and the credits announced by Vitaphone, as will the cast and presentation company.

Warners also announce a complete Vitaphone musical comedy with the making of the popular musical show, "The Desert Song." It will constitute the first full-length musical play to be produced with sound effect on the screen, and will be made as a road show on the Warner program for 1928-29.

Another progressive step in connection with talking movies was made by Donald Crisp at a dinner of the Writers' Branch of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. He advocates the making of talking pictures here by French, German and Russian companies to insure a market beyond the English speaking countries.

From Albany comes word that Eastman Teaching Films, Inc., has been organized as a subsidiary to the Eastman Kodak Com-

(Continued on Page 1577)

Hays Wins French Compromise

Compromise Modifies French Restrictions and Permits U. S. 60 Per Cent of Last Year's Films Free in France

By L. C. MOEN

Staff Correspondent, Motion Picture News

PARIS, May 9.—Will H. Hays is returning on the Berengaria due in New York Thursday night or Friday morning, after having won an important if not complete victory in his concluding session with the French Cinema Control Commission. As a result of this session the French have abandoned the principle of enforced exports.

The plan now becomes a contingent system such as is in force in Germany. For each French film received in American seven permits will be granted to import foreign films, with two additional permits for American distribution. America can also import free sixty per cent of last year's number of releases. Just before his departure on the Berengaria, Mr. Hays expressed complete satisfaction over the modified regulations.

After a series of disappointments in which it seemed the visit to France of Will H. Hays might be entirely unfruitful, and just at the time when it seemed a meeting with Edouard Berriot, Minister of Education, would not materialize, Mr. Hays accomplished his mission and returns to America. The modified quota law as briefly outlined in cabled dispatches from France meets with the entire approval of the industry in America.

As a result of this compromise American films will be admitted to France free of all restrictions up to sixty per cent of last year's American releases in France. French imports in excess of sixty per cent will be under the regulation requiring American concerns to release at least one French picture for every seven of their own distributed in France.

Immediately upon the announcement of the compromise effected American distributors who had threatened to withdraw from France resumed their activities and exchanges are again operating at full force.

The compromise brought about by Mr. Hays is said to have come out of a conference of a special sub-committee appointed by the French Commission and representatives of American firms, with Mr. Hays as the dominant figure. Among other clauses is one that provides that American pictures previously banned owing to French nationalistic feeling will be given a clean bill of health.

It is not yet known just in what manner the modified regulations will be enforced, but it is thought that the difficulties will not be any greater than those now existant under the quota law in England. It is felt that the French law will be quite elastic, and that American distributors may by buying a permit exhibit seven pictures without actually taking over any French pictures. It is also said that they might buy a French picture for actual exhibition in France and thus secure the right to release seven pictures, since every French picture carries one permit.

Another elastic condition is thought to provide that if a French picture is bought for showings in France and also in the United States, distributors will secure the right to release nine American pictures in France. Just what will constitute American distribution of French pictures still some room for argument, but it is thought that scattered showings in a few American theatres owned or controlled by producer-distributors will be considered sufficient to constitute an observance of the French regulations.

Another important concession won in the modified arrangement is one that American companies organized under the laws of France will, for production purposes, be considered as French companies. It is figured that about 234 pictures will be submitted to France this year from America before the purchase of additional French pictures are required for licenses.

Steffes Re-named Head of Northwest Owners

Exhibitors Will Refuse to Arbitrate With Producers Selling to Non-theatrical Agencies

W. A. STEFFES, of Minneapolis, was re-elected to the presidency of the Northwest Theatre Owners' Association at the annual meeting of that organization held last week at the Nicollet Hotel, at Minneapolis. The re-election of Mr. Steffes was accomplished without opposition, a determined effort to replace him with Lieutenant-Governor W. I. Nolan, of Minnesota, failing completely at the last minute.

W. M. Miller, of Cloquet, who had started the move to go outside the organization for a president, and to establish the Lieutenant-Governor as Northwest theatre czar, did an "about face," and moved that the nominations be closed after Steffes name had been put up. Mr. Nolan had stated previously that he was in no sense a candidate for the position if there was to be a contest for it in the convention, but said that he would consider the post if it were tendered to him unanimously. The position pays about $10,000 yearly.

Vice-presidents elected were: Otto Raths, St. Paul; Theodore Hays, Minneapolis; Mrs. James Leslie, Clark, S. D.; and Mrs. M. C. Riggs, Owatonna, Minn. H. E. Hoffman, of St. Paul, was elected treasurer in place of Harry Dreyer, also of St. Paul, who declined to serve, and A. A. Kaplan, of Minneapolis, was re-elected secretary. The organization also chose 20 directors.

About 300 exhibitors from Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota attended the convention. A resolution adopted early in the meeting provided that members refuse to arbitrate with any producing company which sold films to non-theatrical agencies. This resolution was passed after several speakers had pointed out that one company's manager (United Artists) had declared that he would sell pictures to schools, churches or tent operators if he wished to.

Later the organization went on record as favoring arbitration of exhibitor disputes as provided in the uniform contract drafted by the Hays organization. Mr. Miller led the fight against the arbitration clause, claiming that it worked a hardship on exhibitors, while Mr. Steffes spoke in favor of arbitration, expressing the opinion that, while the present system was far from perfect, it was as satisfactory an arrangement as could be obtained from the producers at this time.

The convention also went on record as supporting any exhibitor who sought to cancel a film he considered immoral or in any way unsuited to his audience. It was pointed out that theatre owners are at the mercy of the producers, as under their contracts for the output of any large producing company they are compelled either to play objectionable pictures or pay for them, thus suffering heavy financial losses.

Speakers at the convention included Mayor George E. Leach, of Minneapolis, who made the welcoming address, the Reverend John Dunphy, of the Ascension Church, and the Rev. Phillips E. Osgood, of St. Marks Episcopal Church.

Efforts to Eliminate Admission Tax Balked

EFFORTS by the Democrats led by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, to eliminate entirely the admission tax on May 8 were defeated after considerable debate in the Senate and the provision for an increase in the exemption from 75 cents to $3 was accepted.

A peculiar situation arose in connection with the consideration of the admission tax, a vote on Senator Simmons' amendment to repeal it in its entirety resulting in a tie at 40 to 40. Upon announcing the result of the vote the attention of Vice-president Dawes, in the chair, was called to the fact that under the Constitution he is required to cast his vote when there is a tie, and he voted with the Republicans. The ballot was questioned as to legality and something of a parliamentary wrangle ensued which was concluded by Senator Smoot, of Utah, asking unanimous consent that the vote be taken over, which was granted. Upon the second vote Senator McNary, of Oregon, switched from yea to nay, and Senator Cutting, of New Mexico, made his appearance in the Senate and voted with the Republicans, resulting in a vote of 42 to 39 to reject the Democratic proposal.

Tampa Wrought Up Over Censorship Question

An agitation against the exhibition of what they term "offensive motion pictures," was begun last week by the moral welfare committee of the Hillsboro County Federation of Women's Clubs of Tampa, Florida. The protest was started by a picture shown recently in Tampa, which brought letters of condemnation from residents. The Women's Clubs have been assured by John B. Carroll, general manager of Consolidated Amusements, of his cooperation in every way possible.

Daylight Saving Battle Is Imminent in K. C.

Kansas City seems destined to have another fight on the question of daylight saving. Exhibitors and others in the film business are vigorously opposing the introduction of the time system which Kansas City tried out years ago but eventually gave up in disgust. Now it looks as though the plan will have another trial, as the Kansas City Clearing House Association, the banks and golf clubs are in favor of the change in time.

R. R. Biechele, president of the M. P. T. O.-Kansas-Missouri, terms the change to daylight saving time as "ridiculous." "Such a move," he said, "would greatly injure the theatre business and, as far as I can see, would do no one else any good."

Daylight Saving Battle in Progress in Indianapolis

Theatre interests of Indianapolis led a bitter fight on daylight saving before the city council in Indianapolis. Labor interests also joined in the battle led by Charles Metzger, president of Associated Theatre Owners; Helen Brown, secretary; Ace Berry, of the Skouras-Publix interests and Patricia Lynch, of the Film Board of Trade. The indications are that Mayor L. Ert Slack will veto the measure when presented to him by council. He is personally opposed to daylight saving, but has not taken a stand officially.

The council fight was led by Herman P. Lieber, formerly associated with Circle Theatre Company. He changed his vote at the April 29 meeting so he could call for reconsideration. A petition of 12,000 remonstrators was obtained in local movie houses.

Long-Term Contracts Given New De Mille Players

George Duryea and Lina Basquette, the two starring players in "The Godless Girl," the new Cecil B. De Mille production for Pathe, have both been signed to new long-term contracts by the director. They will be featured in a number of forthcoming productions on the Pathe program.

Duryea's screen experience prior to his engagement by De Mille was limited to a few educational films made by a New England firm. He has been loaned to M-G-M for a role in "The Tide of Empire." Miss Basquette was recently premiere danseuse of the Ziegfeld Follies; she began screen work less than a year ago.

Papers of Incorporation Granted to 4 at Albany

Newly incorporated motion picture companies entering the business in New York state during the past week and receiving charters from the secretary of state at Albany, included the following: Oscaria Theatre Corporation, $20,000, Minnie Thorne, Augustus Thorne, New York City; Ella Holden, Brooklyn; Industrial Pictures Corporation, capitalization not stated, Samuel and Pauline Epstein, Evelyn Stern, New York City; Hoboken Theatrical Company, Inc., capitalization not stated, Mabel G. Crawford, Frances Davis, Toby Cohen, New York City.

J. I. Schnitzer Returns to Desk After Illness

J. I. Schnitzer, senior vice-president of F B O supervising distribution, has returned to his desk fully recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia. He will attend the F B O convention in Chicago, which starts on May 14.

Educational Outlines Program

Company Will Produce at Least 52 Two-reelers, and 50 One-reelers, As Well As Kinograms

E. W. HAMMONS, president of Educational Film Exchanges, Inc., announces a lengthy list of short subjects for the 1928-29 season. Details of the company's production program were completed only last week, and it is revealed that there will be at least 52 two-reel comedies, while the single reel product will include at least 50 subjects, in addition to the twice-a-week release of the newsreel, Kinograms.

Lupino Lane will assume a position of even greater importance on the company program for next season with eight comedies in two-reel length, intended to be of the finest feature character as regards stories, settings and direction. Big Boy will also be seen in eight Big Boy Juvenile Comedies.

One new series of two-reel subjects will be introduced by Educational under the brand name of "Ideal Comedies." These will feature Jack White's newest "find," Jerry Drew, who figured prominently in Mermaid Comedies during the past season. There will be eight of these "Ideal Comedies."

Dorothy Devore, the only girl starring in her own series of two-reel comedies, will continue in the Educational line-up, with six Dorothy Devore Comedies.

There will be sixteen two-reel Mermaid Comedies, which will feature such comedians as Monty Collins, George Davis, Al St. John and others. It was the Mermaid Comedy series with which Jack White began his association with Educational more than eight years ago.

Wallace Lupino and other popular stars will be seen in the new group of Tuxedo Comedies, of which there will be six.

In the single reel product Educational introduces a new and modern screen magazine to be called "The World Today." There will be one release each month of this new screen magazine, which will aim to give a broad view of our old world in the newest and snappiest method of screen presentation.

Cameo Comedies, which for several years have occupied an important position on the company's schedule, will continue on Educational's program with twenty-six releases for the season.

The Lyman H. Howe organization will again produce twelve of the Hodge-Podge releases of "some sense and some nonsense." The Kinograms newsreel continues with Educational on its long-term contract.

"For several seasons," said Mr. Hammons, "it has been our practice to add to Educational's releases as the season progressed, the best of the special subjects which became available in the short feature field. Such special releases have included many beautiful subjects in color, such as the Romance Productions and "The Voice of the Nightingale," and many other exceptionally interesting subjects of varied character. We expect, in addition to the program of comedy, novelty and news releases already planned, to add to our releases in later months a few of the best special short features, which may be produced throughout the world."

All of Educational's two-reel comedy product and single reel Cameo Comedies will be produced at the Educational Studios on Santa Monica Boulevard, Los Angeles. This comedy plant has been still further improved during the last year by the erection of a large new stage building and other extensive physical developments.

Jack White, as director-in-chief of the Educational Studios, will be surrounded by a large staff of well known comedy directors. These will include several men who have contributed very materially to the success of Educational's comedy product during several seasons, among them being Stephen Roberts, Charles Lamont and Jules White. To this staff other prominent comedy directors are to be added in the near future.

Fox Films Announces 52 Features

Twelve Productions Already Completed on Silver Anniversary Program of Company

FOX FILM CORPORATION, celebrating its Silver Anniversary after its twenty-five years existence announces a pretentious program of 52 pictures for the 1928-29 season. These pictures will be produced under the general direction of Winfield Sheehan, general manager of the company.

Of the fifty-two productions contemplated, twelve are completed and ready for screening and four of these are already known to Broadway. These four are "Sunrise," F. W. Murnau's song of two humans, which was shown twice daily for twenty-eight weeks at the Times Square Theatre; "Mother Machree," its successor at that theatre; "Four Sons," the John Ford production now in its thirteenth week, and "Street Angel," in its fifth week at the Globe Theatre.

"The Street Angel" will be followed within two weeks by "The Red Dance," fifth of the Fox specials at a theatre still to be announced. The latter is a Raoul Walsh production featuring Dolores Del Rio, Charles Farrell and Ivan Linow.

The sixth special offering designed for reserved seat showings this summer is Edna Ferber's story, "Mother Knows Best," produced by J. G. Blystone. In it Madge Bellamy plays a stage entertainer who is managed from birth to maturity by her ubiquitous Mama. This picture is now being photographed at the Fox studios with a cast including Louise Dresser, Farrell Macdonald and Marjorie Beebe.

It will be followed by three other specials, of which "Fazil" is now completed and ready for screening. This is a Howard Hawks production, based on the English and French dramatic versions of "L'Insoumise" by Pierre Frondaie. Charles Farrell plays the role of Prince Fazil, who abandons his desert principality because of the siren enchantments of the alluring Greta Nissen. Mae Busch, Tyler Brooke and John Boles will also be seen in this picture.

Frank Borzage is now at work on "Backwash," based on the novel "The River," by Tristram Tupper, to be published by J. B. Lippincott next week. This is the first important picture for Mary Duncan, who will be remembered for her stage work in "The Shanghai Gesture."

Something unusual is expected from "The Air Circus," which Howard Hawks is now directing, with Sue Carol actually teaching Arthur Lake and David Rollins how to fly.

Raoul Walsh is now at work on "Me, Gangster," the novel by Charles Francis Coe, tracing some of the exploits of the gangs of New York, with a cast including June Collyer, Nick Stuart and Ben Bard.

"Dry Martini," the novel by John Thomas, is being directed by H. D'Abbadie D'Arrast, from a scenario by Douglas Z. Doty.

The new comedy team of Sammy Cohen and Jack Pennick is now completing "Plastered in Paris," made under the direction of Benjamin Stoloff with Lola Salvi in one of the chief supporting roles.

Irving Cummings arrived in New York last Wednesday, with his cameraman and assistants, to shoot scenes in New Bedford for a motion picture based on Tom Cushing's stage play, "La Gringa."

These twelve pictures, either completed or well along in production, are the only titles at present revealed by the Fox organization, which will hold its annual sales convention May 23rd at the Park Central Hotel in New York. On that date will be announced the forty additional pictures offered for release between August 1, 1928 and July 30, 1929.

Victor McLaglen will be starred in "The River Pirate," according to an announcement from the William Fox West Coast Studios. Production has just begun on this underworld drama, which is based on Charles Francis Coe's novel of the same name. William K. Howard is directing. Lois Moran and Nick Stuart have been cast in leading roles.

:: "The Check-Up" ::

"The Check-Up" is a presentation in the briefest and most convenient form of reports received from exhibitors in every part of the country on current features, which makes it possible for the exhibitor to see what the picture has done for other theatre managers.

The first column following the name of the feature represents the number of managers that have reported the picture as "Poor." The second column gives the number who consider it "Fair"; the third, the number who consider it "Good"; and the fourth column, those who consider it "Big."

The fifth column is a percentage figure giving the average rating on that feature, obtained by the following method: A report of "Poor" is rated at 20%; one of "Fair," 40%; "Good," 70%; and "Big," 100%. The percentage ratings of all of these reports on one picture are then added together, and divided by the number of reports, giving the average percentage—a figure which represents the consensus of opinion on that picture. In this way exceptional cases, reports which might be misleading taken alone and such individual differences of opinion are averaged up and eliminated.

No picture is included in the list which has not received at least ten reports.

Title of Picture	Reporting "Poor"	Reporting "Fair"	Reporting "Good"	Reporting "Big"	Percentage Value	Length
COLUMBIA PICTURES
Alias the Lone Wolf	—	3	28	4	71	5,831 Ft.
Blood Ship, The	—	—	24	8	78	6,843 Ft.
By Whose Hand	—	3	7	—	61	5,432 Ft.
College Hero, The	—	3	14	2	68	5,628 Ft.
Romantic Age, The	—	3	7	1	65	5,267 Ft.
Sally in Our Alley	—	1	13	—	70	5,892 Ft.
Warning, The	—	1	9	1	70	5,791 Ft.
F B O
Arizona Nights	—	3	12	5	74	6,382 Ft.
Breed of Courage, The	—	2	8	—	64	4,910 Ft.
Clancy's Kosher Wedding	—	2	15	1	68	5,701 Ft.
Coney Island	—	2	8	—	64	6,390 Ft.
Coward, The	1	1	11	—	64	5,093 Ft.
Gingham Girl, The	—	4	16	2	67	6,301 Ft.
Great Mail Robbery, The	—	2	16	1	68	6,507 Ft.
Harvester, The	—	9	10	2	60	7,045 Ft.
Judgment of the Hills	—	6	8	—	57	5,700 Ft.
Legionnaires in Paris	1	—	11	—	66	5,771 Ft.
Moon of Israel	—	2	23	5	73	6,680 Ft.
Mother	—	4	23	1	67	6,934 Ft.
Not for Publication	—	3	7	—	61	6,140 Ft.
Racing Romeo, The	1	1	12	—	64	5,992 Ft.
Shanghaied	—	3	10	—	63	5,999 Ft.
Silver Comes Thru	—	2	17	3	71	5,476 Ft.
South Sea Love	1	—	11	—	66	6,388 Ft.
FIRST NATIONAL
American Beauty	—	7	27	—	64	6,333 Ft.
Breakfast at Sunrise	1	5	20	2	65	6,042 Ft.
Broadway Nights	—	6	16	1	63	6,765 Ft.
Camille	—	5	35	14	75	8,692 Ft.
Crystal Cup, The	3	6	16	1	58	6,386 Ft.
Dance Magic	1	4	9	—	58	6,588 Ft.
Devil's Saddle	—	1	13	—	68	5,488 Ft.
Drop Kick, The	1	6	26	3	66	6,802 Ft.
For the Love of Mike	1	8	20	1	61	6,588 Ft.
Framed	1	4	20	2	66	5,282 Ft.
French Dressing	1	3	18	1	65	6,344 Ft.
Gorilla, The	1	6	27	6	69	7,133 Ft.
Hard-Boiled Haggerty	2	5	32	—	64	7,443 Ft.
Helen of Troy	2	8	15	6	65	7,694 Ft.
Her Wild Oat	—	7	24	7	70	6,118 Ft.
Home Made	1	1	8	—	62	6,524 Ft.
Life of Riley, The	—	4	30	2	68	6,720 Ft.
Lonesome Ladies	—	6	13	—	61	5,718 Ft.
Lost at the Front	—	4	16	2	67	5,255 Ft.
Love Mart, The	—	2	29	2	70	7,388 Ft.
Mad Hour, The	—	1	9	—	67	6,625 Ft.
Man Crazy	1	2	21	2	66	5,542 Ft.
Naughty, But Nice	—	2	25	5	73	6,520 Ft.
Noose, The	—	3	20	5	72	7,331 Ft.
No Place to Go	1	8	7	1	55	6,431 Ft.
Patent Leather Kid, The	—	2	21	12	79	11,412 Ft.
Poor Nut, The	—	7	15	2	64	6,897 Ft.
Prince of Headwaiters, The	1	6	18	—	61	6,400 Ft.
Red Raiders	—	2	18	—	67	6,214 Ft.
Rose of the Golden West	—	9	19	4	65	6,477 Ft.
Sailors' Wives	—	2	9	—	65	5,484 Ft.
Shepherd of the Hills, The	—	2	20	6	74	8,188 Ft.
Smile, Brother, Smile	—	5	25	2	68	6,669 Ft.
Stolen Bride, The	—	3	31	3	72	7,179 Ft.
Sunset Derby, The	—	3	13	—	64	5,000 Ft.
Tender Hour, The	—	8	20	3	65	7,400 Ft.
Texas Steer, A	—	6	23	1	65	7,419 Ft.
Three's a Crowd	1	5	10	1	60	5,666 Ft.
Valley of the Giants	—	2	25	2	70	6,336 Ft.
Whip Woman, The	2	2	6	—	54	5,087 Ft.
White Pants Willie	2	5	18	2	63	6,499 Ft.
FOX
Arizona Wild Cat, The	—	3	14	—	65	4,665 Ft.
Blackjack	—	2	8	—	64	4,777 Ft.
Circus Ace, The	—	3	17	3	70	4,810 Ft.
Colleen	—	4	10	2	66	5,301 Ft.
Come to My House	1	4	12	—	60	5,430 Ft.
Cradle Snatchers	—	3	20	3	70	6,281 Ft.
Dressed to Kill	—	2	7	2	77	6,566 Ft.
East Side, West Side	—	1	23	5	74	8,154 Ft.
Gateway of the Moon, The	—	4	14	1	65	5,038 Ft.
Gay Retreat, The	—	1	22	9	78	5,524 Ft.
High School Hero, The	—	2	16	4	73	5,498 Ft.
Hills of Peril	—	2	16	—	67	4,943 Ft.
Joy Girl, The	—	6	21	—	63	6,162 Ft.
Ladies Must Dress	—	3	12	2	68	5,599 Ft.
Loves of Carmen	—	8	30	9	71	8,538 Ft.
One Increasing Purpose	2	4	8	1	57	7,677 Ft.
Outlaws of Red River	—	3	27	3	70	5,327 Ft.
Paid to Love	—	4	16	1	66	6,888 Ft.
Pajamas	—	1	13	2	72	5,876 Ft.
Publicity Madness	1	7	15	—	59	5,893 Ft.
Rich but Honest	—	2	8	2	70	5,480 Ft.
Secret Studio, The	2	2	12	—	60	5,870 Ft.
Seventh Heaven	—	4	51	35	80	8,500 Ft.
Sharpshooters	—	4	12	1	65	5,573 Ft.
Silk Legs	1	2	18	2	68	5,446 Ft.
Silver Valley	—	1	16	1	70	5,011 Ft.
Slaves of Beauty	1	2	5	2	65	5,412 Ft.
Sunrise	—	1	8	1	70	8,729 Ft.
Tumbling River	—	3	17	1	67	4,675 Ft.
Two Girls Wanted	—	6	12	2	64	6,293 Ft.
Very Confidential	—	2	13	—	66	5,620 Ft.
What Price Glory	—	—	55	47	84	11,109 Ft.
Wizard, The	—	3	14	—	65	5,629 Ft.
Wolf Fangs	—	3	7	1	65	5,331 Ft.
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER
Adam and Evil	—	5	24	—	65	6,667 Ft.
After Midnight	—	6	39	4	69	6,312 Ft.
Annie Laurie	—	9	30	4	67	8,730 Ft.
Baby Mine	2	6	17	1	63	5,139 Ft.
Becky	—	5	19	2	67	6,433 Ft.
Ben Hur	—	9	35	45	82	11,693 Ft.
Big City, The	—	2	13	3	72	6,838 Ft.
Big Parade, The	—	3	38	35	83	11,519 Ft.
Body and Soul	2	8	20	2	61	5,902 Ft.
Bugle Call, The	—	3	23	4	71	5,821 Ft.
Buttons	—	1	11	4	76	6,050 Ft.
California	—	3	6	1	64	4,912 Ft.

Title of Picture	Reporting "Poor"	Reporting "Fair"	Reporting "Good"	Reporting "Big"	Percentage Value	Length
Callahans and the Murphys	—	1	25	7	75	5,875 Ft.
Captain Salvation	—	9	32	2	65	7,395 Ft.
Divine Woman, The	—	3	23	6	73	7,300 Ft.
Enemy, The	1	2	13	1	65	8,189 Ft.
Fair Co-Ed, The	—	—	38	11	77	6,408 Ft.
Foreign Devils	—	1	9	—	67	4,658 Ft.
Frontiersman, The	1	2	12	1	65	4,982 Ft.
Garden of Allah, The	2	10	28	7	66	8,200 Ft.
In Old Kentucky	—	9	23	3	65	6,646 Ft.
Latest From Paris, The	—	1	16	1	70	7,743 Ft.
London After Midnight	—	4	26	9	74	5,687 Ft.
Lovelorn	1	7	11	1	59	5,950 Ft.
Man, Woman and Sin	2	8	30	5	66	6,280 Ft.
Mockery	2	9	31	3	64	5,957 Ft.
On Ze Boulevard	—	6	7	—	56	5,671 Ft.
Patsy, The	—	—	8	2	76	7,289 Ft.
Quality Street	—	10	16	2	61	7,193 Ft.
Road to Romance, The	—	9	27	4	66	6,544 Ft.
Rose-Marie	—	1	17	—	68	7,745 Ft.
Smart Set, The	—	1	12	1	70	6,476 Ft.
Spring Fever	1	5	35	4	68	6,507 Ft.
Student Prince, The	—	1	20	16	82	9,563 Ft.
Tea for Three	—	2	14	—	66	5,273 Ft.
Thirteenth Hour, The	—	6	20	1	64	5,252 Ft.
Twelve Miles Out	—	5	34	10	73	7,899 Ft.
Unknown, The	—	5	26	10	74	5,517 Ft.
West Point	—	1	24	13	79	8,134 Ft.
PARAMOUNT
Barbed Wire	—	2	28	5	73	6,951 Ft.
Beau Geste	3	4	31	18	75	9,879 Ft.
Beau Sabreur	3	8	18	5	63	6,704 Ft.
Chang		6	30	9	72	6,536 Ft.
City Gone Wild, The	—	8	17	2	63	5,408 Ft.
Doomsday	—	4	7	—	59	5,665 Ft.
Drums of the Desert	—	6	22	4	68	5,907 Ft.
Feel My Pulse	—	6	16	2	65	5,889 Ft.
Figures Don't Lie	—	2	27	3	71	5,386 Ft.
Firemen, Save My Child	1	7	28	7	69	5,399 Ft.
Gay Defender, The	1	3	30	2	68	6,376 Ft.
Gentleman of Paris, A	—	6	26	3	67	6,017 Ft.
Gentlemen Prefer Blondes	—	7	19	6	69	6,871 Ft.
Get Your Man	—	2	32	5	72	5,889 Ft.
Honeymoon Hate	—	4	12	—	63	5,415 Ft.
Hula	—	1	32	14	78	5,862 Ft.
Jesse James	2	4	23	2	65	8,656 Ft.
Last Command, The	—	—	21	15	83	8,234 Ft.
Last Outlaw, The	—	3	9	1	65	6,032 Ft.
Last Waltz, The	1	3	12	—	61	6,940 Ft.
Legion of the Condemned	—	—	11	6	81	7,415 Ft.
Love and Learn	—	3	12	2	68	5,737 Ft.
Madame Pompadour	1	8	20	—	60	7,180 Ft.
Man Power	—	4	35	8	73	5,617 Ft.
Metropolis	4	6	19	6	64	8,039 Ft.
Nevada	—	2	25	2	70	6,258 Ft.
Night of Mystery, A	—	2	13	2	70	5,741 Ft.
Now We're in the Air	—	6	36	8	71	5,798 Ft.
Old Ironsides	1	5	28	8	72	7,910 Ft.
One Woman to Another	2	4	11	1	59	4,551 Ft.
Open Range	—	2	21	—	67	5,599 Ft.
Partners in Crime	—	1	9	—	72	6,600 Ft.
Pioneer Scout, The	—	4	9	—	61	6,118 Ft.
Red Hair	—	—	10	8	83	6,331 Ft.
Rolled Stockings	1	3	19	1	65	6,249 Ft.
Rough Riders, The	5	6	42	7	66	9,443 Ft.
Running Wild	2	3	20	2	65	6,368 Ft.
Secret Hour, The	—	1	10	—	67	7,149 Ft.
Serenade	—	4	16	2	67	5,209 Ft.
Service for Ladies	1	6	18	6	68	6,170 Ft.
Shanghai Bound	1	7	32	6	69	5,515 Ft.
She's a Sheik	—	2	25	3	71	6,015 Ft.
Showdown, The	—	4	8	1	63	7,616 Ft.
Soft Cushions	1	6	14	1	60	6,838 Ft.
Speedy	—	1	9	9	83	7,960 Ft.
Sporting Goods	—	2	21	2	70	5,951 Ft.
Spotlight, The	1	1	13	3	71	4,934 Ft.
Stark Love	2	1	14	—	62	6,203 Ft.
Swim, Girl, Swim	—	1	44	4	72	6,124 Ft.
Tell It to Sweeney	1	8	20	—	67	6,006 Ft.
Ten Modern Commandments	—	4	22	3	69	6,497 Ft.
Tillie's Punctured Romance	2	3	5	—	51	5,733 Ft.
Time to Love	2	7	11	—	55	4,926 Ft.
Two Flaming Youths	—	—	14	4	77	5,319 Ft.
Under the Tonto Rim	—	2	9	1	68	5,991 Ft.
Underworld	—	6	32	13	74	7,643 Ft.
Way of All Flesh, The	—	2	33	21	89	8,486 Ft.
We're All Gamblers	—	—	10	24	1	62	5,935 Ft.
Whirlwind of Youth, The	1	8	16	2	61	5,866 Ft.
Wife Savers	1	7	18	3	64	5,413 Ft.
Woman on Trial, The	—	6	20	2	66	5,960 Ft.
PATHE-DEMILLE
Angel of Broadway, The	2	4	12	1	60	6,555 Ft.
Chicago	—	3	12	3	70	9,992 Ft.
Country Doctor, The	—	1	19	3	73	7,500 Ft.
Dress Parade, The	—	5	26	4	69	6,599 Ft.
Fighting Eagle, The	—	1	20	1	68	8,002 Ft.
Girl in the Pullman	—	1	11	2	72	5,990 Ft.
Harp in Hock, A	—	3	10	—	63	5,999 Ft.
Heart Thief, The	—	4	4	2	64	6,035 Ft.
His First Flame	—	6	8	—	57	4,660 Ft.
Leopard Lady, The	1	2	11	—	62	6,650 Ft.
Let 'Er Go Gallegher	—	1	7	3	75	5,888 Ft.
Main Event, The	—	4	14	1	65	6,472 Ft.
Night Flyer, The	—	2	7	1	67	5,954 Ft.
Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary	—	1	7	3	75	5,844 Ft.
Stand and Deliver	—	2	12	—	66	5,423 Ft.
Wise Wife, The	—	2	15	2	70	5,610 Ft.
Wreck of the Hesperus, The	—	2	26	2	70	6,447 Ft.
Yankee Clipper, The	—	2	24	3	69	7,920 Ft.
STATE RIGHTS
Satin Woman, The	1	2	7	—	59	7,000 Ft.
TIFFANY-STAHL
Lightning	—	—	8	3	78	6,049 Ft.
Streets of Shanghai	—	1	9	1	70	5,276 Ft.
Wild Geese	—	1	25	3	72	6,448 Ft.
UNITED ARTISTS
Circus, The	—	2	15	24	86	6,700 Ft.
College	—	5	17	6	71	5,362 Ft.
Devil Dancer, The	—	4	12	5	71	6,765 Ft.
Dove, The	—	8	20	9	71	8,400 Ft.
Gaucho, The	—	1	28	14	79	9,256 Ft.
Magic Flame, The	—	—	39	6	74	8,300 Ft.
My Best Girl	—	4	43	17	76	8,500 Ft.
Sadie Thompson	—	1	25	9	77	8,700 Ft.
Sorrell and Son	—	2	23	16	80	9,000 Ft.
Two Arabian Knights	—	1	27	16	80	8,250 Ft.
UNIVERSAL
Alias the Deacon	1	4	12	—	60	6,869 Ft.
Back to God's Country	1	5	20	—	62	5,751 Ft.
Beware of Widows	1	7	12	1	59	5,670 Ft.
Cat and the Canary, The	—	3	47	14	75	7,190 Ft.
Chinese Parrot, The	1	5	15	5	68	7,304 Ft.
Claw, The	1	3	5	1	59	5,252 Ft.
Cohens and Kellys in Paris	—	2	18	9	77	7,481 Ft.
Fast and Furious	—	—	16	3	75	5,684 Ft.
Four Flusher, The	—	1	9	—	67	6,193 Ft.
Hero for a Night, A	—	—	14	2	74	5,711 Ft.
Irresistible Lover, The	—	3	15	1	67	6,958 Ft.
Les Miserables	—	3	22	3	70	7,713 Ft.
Lone Eagle, The	—	3	14	1	67	5,862 Ft.
Man's Past, A	—	4	14	—	63	6,135 Ft.
On Your Toes	—	4	14	—	63	5,918 Ft.
Out All Night	1	2	20	2	68	6,170 Ft.
Painting the Town	—	—	23	4	74	6,045 Ft.
Prairie King, The	—	1	11	2	72	5,689 Ft.
Silk Stockings	—	3	17	1	67	6,166 Ft.
That's My Daddy	—	3	10	3	70	6,073 Ft.
Thirteenth Juror, The	—	3	15	1	67	5,598 Ft.
WARNER BROS.
Black Diamond Express, The	—	3	16	1	67	5,803 Ft.
Bush Leaguer, The	—	1	15	—	68	6,281 Ft.
Climbers, The	—	6	7	—	56	6,621 Ft.
College Widow, The	—	2	26	1	69	6,616 Ft.
Dearie	—	2	10	—	65	5,897 Ft.
Desired Woman, The	—	2	12	1	68	6,408 Ft.
Fortune Hunter, The	—	1	9	—	67	6,638 Ft.
Girl from Chicago, The	—	4	14	—	63	5,978 Ft.
Good-Time Charley	—	2	9	2	70	6,302 Ft.
Ham and Eggs at the Front	—	2	7	1	67	5,613 Ft.
Heart of Maryland	—	4	25	1	67	5,868 Ft.
Jazz Singer, The	—	—	6	15	91	9,117 Ft.
Million Bid, A	—	4	14	1	65	6,310 Ft.
Missing Link, The	—	5	19	3	68	6,485 Ft.
Old San Francisco	—	2	33	4	69	7,961 Ft.
One Round Hogan	—	1	20	—	69	6,375 Ft.
Slightly Used	—	6	14	—	61	6,012 Ft.
When a Man Loves	—	1	30	6	73	10,081 Ft.

More Trade Paper Advertising Urged by Exhibitors of Northern Minnesota

AT a meeting of northern Minnesota exhibitors held last week, prior to the convention of the Northwest Theatre Owners' Association in Minneapolis, a resolution was adopted advocating more trade paper advertising, according to a dispatch to Variety.

The resolution adopted by the meeting called upon producers and distributors to patronize the advertising columns of trade papers more liberally in order to keep theatre owners more fully informed concerning forthcoming productions.

The resolution stated that it is the sense of the body that trade papers "are of vital importance to the industry" and views with alarm the present move to curtail trade paper advertising.

Salt Lake School Sued

Exhibitors Protest Regular Commercial Picture Shows With Admission Fee Charged

SALT LAKE CITY is involved in a suit which will determine the right of high schools to exhibit commercial type pictures in their auditoriums for profit. The complaint charges that the Board of Education has permitted North Summit High School building to be used for the exhibition of ordinary commercial pictures, lyceum entertainments, minstrel shows, dramas and operas. It is alleged that all of these entertainments have been held for private commercial purposes for profit.

The case was instituted by George Beard as a taxpayer and theatre owner, and member of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Utah. It was brought against the Board of Education of the North Summit High School district, a body corporate, and the individual members of said board. All of the evidence has been submitted and Judge M. L. Ritchie has it under advisement.

It is alleged that at the entertainments an admission fee is charged and that none of the proceeds have gone to the treasury of the school, but to the person or persons sponsoring the entertainments. The affairs are given by an organization known as the Student Body of North Summit High School. The entertainments, it is alleged, form no part of the school curriculum and are not confined to students of the high school, but the general public is invited and urged to attend.

It is charged that the entertainments add greatly to the school district for fuel, light, heat, janitor service and the general upkeep of the building, and that no part has ever been paid from the proceeds. The defendants are alleged to be allowing the use of the trucks owned by the school district for use in transporting students to and from the entertainments without charge.

The purpose of the suit is to prevent school districts which are tax exempt and exempt from purchasing a theatre license, from entering into competition with legitimate privately owned theatres. The exhibitors charge that it is un-American and unfair to permit public institutions which are supported and maintained by taxation to enter into the field of commercialism and into competition with taxpayers. The case will undoubtedly be appealed to the Supreme Court of the state regardless which side gets a favorable decision. It is the contention of the defendants that they should be permitted to furnish entertainments to the students in order to utilize their leisure time.

West Coast Manager Is Slain by Bandit

JOSEPH F. MALOY, 25 years old, assistant manager of the West Coast California Theatre at San Diego was killed by a bandit last Sunday night when his office was entered with intent to secure the Sunday receipts. The bandit evidently lost his nerve after shooting Maloy through the jugular vein and fled the scene in a car with another man.

The police were soon in pursuit and the bandits abandoned their car and separated, following a gun battle with the officers. One of the bandits was killed and one officer shot through the shoulder, but the killer, thought to be wounded, escaped. Maloy, the slain man was a native of Pennsylvania and had been with West Coast for four years.

Educational Program for June Contains 12 Films

Educational's line-up of short features for June contains 12 subjects.

Lupino Lane does a travesty on wild western thrill drama in "Hectic Days." "Big Boy" is cast as an orphan in "The Gloom Chaser." "Rah, Rah, Rah!" is the new starring comedy for Dorothy Devore. Lloyd Hamilton is pictured as a soda jerker in "A Home Made Man." George Davis and Monty Collins form the comedy team of "Who's Lyin'?"

Two Cameo Comedies, "Crown Me," featuring Wallace Lupino, and "Sailor Boy," featuring Monty Collins, are on the program. There will be the usual Lyman H. Howe's Hodge-Podge and Curiosities releases. A summer month release is the Bruce Outdoor Sketch, "Thoughts While Fishing"—"Silver Shadows." The two Felix the Cat animated cartoon comedies are "Felix the Cat in Outdoor Indore" and "Felix the Cat in Futuritzy."

St. Louis Merchants Wage War on Blue Law

A threat to force St. Louis police and court officers to strictly enforce Missouri's ancient blue laws if the St. Louis Sunday closing ordinance against delicatessen owners is applied, has been made by J. W. Stokes, president of the Delicatessen and Confectionery Merchants' Association, Inc. The delicatessen men plan to carry their fight to the Supreme Court, and if they lose there they will then demand that all of Missouri's blue laws be observed to the letter. That means that all the motion picture theatres and other amusement places of St. Louis will be forced to close their doors.

Stokes' threat was the result of a decision handed down April 30 by Circuit Judge Robert W. Hall dissolving the temporary injunction granted the delicatessen men and enjoining the police from enforcing the closing ordinance.

Berlin and Silvers to Do Music for Jolson Film

Irving Berlin will write a special song number for Al Jolson in "The Singing Fool," which is to be started at the Warner Bros. studio on June 1. The remainder of the music incidental to the new Vitaphone film will be composed by Lou Silvers, who wrote a special song for "The Jazz Singer" and arranged the score. An item of interest in connection with "The Singing Fool" is that Lloyd Bacon will be its director.

Vitaphone activities on the 18 Warners' pictures for next year as well as the specials the company will put out will be supervised by Mr. Silvers, appointed musical director general of the Vitaphone Symphony Orchestra.

First Division Opening Own New England Exchanges

Its own exchanges in Boston and New Haven will shortly be opened by First Division Distributors in connection with Harry G. Segal. The new exchanges will be directly in charge of Mr. Segal with headquarters in Boston, and will offer First Division product to six New England states.

Chester Conklin Renews Paramount Contract

Chester Conklin, screen comedian, signed this week a new contract with Paramount. He recently was teamed by Paramount with W. C. Fields. Plans are now being made for new starring vehicles for him.

7 New Films to Start in May at Burbank

THE current month which has seen filming begin on three new First National pictures, will see four more get under way before the end of the month.

Colleen Moore will begin work on "Oh Kay!" immediately upon her return from Hawaii. She is expected back at the studios about the middle of May. Richard Barthelmess, who is also in Hawaii, is expected to return to the studios a week after Miss Moore's home-coming, to begin at once filming "Out of the Ruins." Billie Dove will start on her next picture, from a Parisian play, within a week, under the direction of Alexander Korda.

The first joint stellar production for Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall, "Applesauce," will get under way towards the end of the month. No director has yet been assigned. Photography was started last week on "The Phantom City" and "Heart to Heart."

Lois Wilson and Horton Acting in Stage Play

Between stages of their picture work, Lois Wilson and Edward Everett Horton are appearing in "The Gossipy Sex," a stage comedy, at the Vine Street Theatre in Hollywood. Miss Wilson entered the cast opposite the comedian on Friday night, April 27. She is assuming the place of Harrietta George, who was suddenly called to New York. At the close of the play Miss Wilson will immediately start work on a new screen vehicle.

Horton and his brother, Winter D., have taken lease on the Vine Street.

Filming on "The Whip" Finished by Sam Rork

First National's race track special, "The Whip," from the Drury Lane melodrama, has been completed insofar as photography is concerned. The final sequences, a typical English fox hunt, was filmed last week. Cutters and titlers are now at work whipping the film into the proper order and length. Sam E. Rork supervised this production.

M-G-M to Screen Novel by Hermann Sudermann

"Stephen Tromholt's Wife," a novel by Hermann Sudermann, German author, has been purchased by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and will be filmed under the title of "The Wonder of Women." The story will be the second Sudermann novel to be filmed at the M-G-M studio, the first being "Flesh and the Devil."

Mary Brian Signs New Paramount Contract

A new contract has been signed by Paramount and Mary Brian, who is at present working in "The Perfumed Trap." During the season she is scheduled to appear in a series of films with Richard Arlen, including "The Upstart Gentleman."

Columbia Sets Sessions

Season's Product and Sales Policies to Be Discussed at Los Angeles, New York and Chicago

THREE conventions will be held by Columbia Pictures Corporation this year, at which will be outlined the 1928-29 program and the company's sales and production policies. The meetings are to be held from May 10 to 12 in Los Angeles, from May 17 to 19 in New York and from May 21 to 22 in Chicago. Columbia will increase its product for the coming season from thirty to thirty-six features, the most pretentious program ever conducted by the company.

The western division will open its series of sessions on May 10 with Harry Cohn, vice-president, and Joe Goldburg, recently appointed west coast sales manager presiding. The gathering will be attended by production and sales executives now in California, and by the branch and sales managers and the most important members of the sales forces of Columbia's four west coast exchanges.

The delegation will be headed by I. E. Tillman, Portland branch manager; L. J. McGinley, Seattle branch manager; Jack Bowers, Los Angeles branch manager and Phil Weinstein, San Francisco branch manager. Harry Cohn will open the meeting with an outline of the company's production plans, which include ten specials and twenty-six program pictures. Elmer Harris, head of the scenario department, will outline the stories, and Joe Goldburg will tell of the sales policies.

The second meeting in New York will bring together the representatives of the eastern division. This session will be presided over by Cecil Maberry, Columbia sales manager. Others who will address the meeting are, Jack Cohn, treasurer of the company; General Manager Macgowan, and Alex Moss, director of advertising and publicity.

The Mid-West Division will hold its meeting at Chicago starting May 21. It will be attended by all branch and sales managers who are not present at the other two. Jack Cohn, Cecil Maberry, Claude Macgowan and Alex Moss will form the home-office delegation.

The three division get-togethers will be followed by a series of smaller meetings in each territory. They will be presided over by Cecil Maberry, who will start on a tour of the country immediately after the close of the Chicago convention.

Columbia announces the following stars under contract for the coming season: Jack Holt, Hobart Bosworth, Lois Wilson, Bert Lytell, Lya de Putti, Betty Compson and Margaret Livingston. Among the directors signed are, George B. Seitz, Frank Capra, Walter Lang and Irwin Willat.

Dietz Now Visiting Culver City Studios of M-G-M

Howard Dietz, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer director of publicity, advertising and exploitation, is now on his annual visit to the M-G-M Culver City studio, lining up promotion plans for the coming year. He proceeded directly to the coast from the Western regional convention of M-G-M at Kansas City, which was concluded May 1st.

During his absence, Silas F. Seadler, advertising manager, is in charge of the New York office.

Dorothy Devore Signs for New Educational Series

Dorothy Devore, who has been in New York City for some time on an extended vacation, has been signed by Educational to make a series of six two-reel starring comedies next season.

Miss Devore returned to Short Feature comedies last season after playing for several years in feature length productions. Previous to that she had played in one and two-reel comedies.

3 New Paramount-Christie Releases for June

Bobby Vernon, starring in "Hold 'Er Cowboy," heads the June Christie comedy releases on the Paramount schedule. The other Christie comedies for the month are "Say Uncle," featuring Jack Duffy, and "Slippery Heels," starring Jimmie Adams.

R. H. Cochrane Assures "U" Salesmen Company Is Not for Sale

R. H. COCHRANE vice-president of Universal, in a message to the company convention in San Francisco this week assured the salesmen and executives present that all rumors to the effect that Universal might be sold were groundless and that Carl Laemmle would not sell under any circumstances.

Mr. Cochrane also informed the salesmen that Mr. Laemmle had turned down a profit of $500,000 which he had been offered for the picture rights to the Ziegfeld musical show, "Showboat," which Universal will produce on a large scale. Another offer which Mr. Laemmle had turned down, said Mr. Cochrane, was one of $400,000 for the rights to "Broadway," for which $225,000 was paid last Summer. The San Francisco convention is the last of three held by the company, the others having been at Atlantic City and St. Louis.

Schenck Denies That M-G-M Will Distribute Hoover Films

IN response to inquiries by the press as to the selection of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer by the Herbert Hoover Campaign Headquarters to produce a campaign picture, Nicholas M. Schenck, President of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, stated:

"I have read in the morning papers the news story that 'arrangements have been made with the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures Corporation to prepare a campaign film.' This is an error of reporting, since we have never been approached in such a matter either in the East or at our studios in California. The statement in today's press is the first we have heard of such a plan."

"J. D." to Invade U. S.

Is Ready to Distribute Five British Productions Here and in Canada

By Arrangement with Kinematograph Weekly

LONDON, April 26.—Since the inception, a few weeks ago, of United Motion Picture Producers, Ltd., J. D. Williams, the managing director, has been very busy securing recent British pictures for distribution in U. S. and Canada, and has been successful in obtaining half a dozen.

The names of these will be shortly made known. In conversation with "J. D." this week, the Kine, learned that the most important is "A South Sea Bubble," now in its final editing stages by T. Hayes Hunter.

This Gainsborough picture, starring Ivor Novello, is, of course, based on Roland Pertwee's story which ran in the Saturday Evening Post.

Mr. Williams declared that this film is calculated to appeal widely on the other side, and will enhance Novello's reputation enormously.

This project has far-reaching potentialities. "J. D.," who made the Elstree studio possible, has never wavered from his conviction that production, to be successful, must be made for a world market. He is a fervent advocate of British effort in this direction, and his aims are a great deal wider than the mere handling of completed product.

It is his intention of developing on the other side the first real organization entirely devoted to the exploitation of British and other European films. Hitherto all such attempts have failed in the face of insuperable obstacles.

"J. D." declares that America is seeking novelty in settings, and that European mentality, properly schooled in the technique of story presentation, is going to be eagerly welcomed. He regards the all-British insularity of certain firms as a real obstacle to their own advancement; for Hollywood's present predominance can be largely attributed to its freedom from this narrow national attitude.

"J. D.'s" venture is a bold one, and it is frankly difficult to think of another man better qualified to carry it into effect. His record in the industry is one of a man who has several times achieved apparent impossibilities, and his knowledge of the American exhibiting angle is unique.

F. J. McConnell Heads "U" Serial Department

FRED J. McCONNELL, who several years ago left the short subject department of Universal to enter the trade paper field, has re-enrolled under the Laemmle banner and will devote his attention to serials. He last week addressed the sales convention of Universal workers in San Francisco.

Mr. McConnell has lately produced independently for Pathe. In the new line-up of Universal serials he will deal with five productions. They are: "Tarzan the Mighty," story by Edgar Rice Burroughs, to star Frank Merrill; "The Final Reckoning," by Henty; "The Pirate of Panama," by William McLeod Raine; "The Mystery Rider," by George Morgan, and "The Diamond Master," by Jacques Futrelle.

Burr Adds Players to "Black Magic" Cast

A number of players have been cast for "Black Magic," C. C. Burr's forthcoming First National picture starring Johnny Hines. The production is now well under way before the battery of cameras at the Tec Art Studio, in Hollywood. Among those figuring prominently are Edmund Breese, Charles Giblyn, Henry Herbert, Walter James, Betty Egan, Kashi Heraldi and Fred Kelsey.

Columbia Will Release "Modern Mothers" May 13

Columbia's second release for May is "Modern Mothers," officially ready for exhibition on May 13. Helene Chadwick appears as the actress mother in this production. Barbara Kent is the daughter and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., is the boy.

Change Titles of 2 Alice White Pictures

The titles of two of the four First National pictures in which it has been announced that Alice White will be starred during the season of 1928-29 have been changed. "Hot Stuff" will be the title under which Robert Carr's Smart Set story of "Bluffers" will appear upon the screen. "Ritzy Rosie" will be the release title for the vehicle announced as "Rosie of the Ritz," an original by Charles Beahan and Garrett Fort. Another White film will be "On the Air," story by Paul D. Augusburg.

Miss White's first picture for the new season will be "Show Girl," from the J. P. McEvoy story serialized in Liberty Magazine. Alfred Santell has been assigned the direction. James T. O'Donahue is writing the adaptation and continuity.

"Blue" Sunday Question Stirs Tampa, Fla.

Tampa is in the throes of a "blue" Sunday agitation. Arising a couple of weeks ago when Sunday baseball came up, the question has been prodded into life. The Tampa papers, the Mayor and several civic societies came out in favor of the Sunday baseball games which were vigorously opposed by the Tampa Ministers' Association. The public showed their favor for the Sunday sport by forming the largest crowd ever to attend a baseball game in Tampa when the game was held last Sunday. Both teams and officials were arrested following the game but were later released after bonds were posted. The cases will be tried soon in the Court of Crimes.

A committee formed by the ministers met with the managers of the ball teams and then appeared before the Board of Representatives of Tampa demanding the passage of an ordinance prohibiting all forms of Sunday amusement, or to call an election and have the people vote on the issue. The Tampa Ministers' Association took the stand that all activities shall be prohibited in Tampa except their own.

Roach Studio Reopened; Chase Comedy in Work

Actual production has been started at the Roach studios, following the reopening last Monday after a five weeks' vacation. The Charley Chase unit started a society comedy for M-G-M release the first part of the week. A supporting cast chosen by Leo McCarey includes Ed. Kennedy, Gene Morgan, Vivien Oakland, and Anita Garvin. Hal Yates is directing.

Anita Stewart Will Wear Mask in Columbia Film

In "Name the Woman," her new picture for Columbia, Anita Stewart will have her face covered by a Benda-like Mask. She will depend entirely on her hands and the movements of her body to put over her reactions. The mask will play an important part in building up the suspense of the mystery story.

"War in the Dark" Now in Production

Conrad Nagel was selected last week for the leading male role in "War in the Dark," Greta Garbo's new starring vehicle for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and this film has gone into production under the direction of Fred Niblo. Bess Meredyth did the adaptation.

Great Activity in Talking Movie Field

(Continued from Page 1569)

pany, with the object of producing films for instructive purposes in schools and universities. The corporation papers were filed last week with a capital stock of $1,000,000.

Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, formerly with the New York State Education Dept. and at one time head of the state school system of Pennsylvania, is head of the new Eastman unit and is general manager as well. Dr. C. E. K. Mees, director of the Eastman Kodak Research Laboratories, is vice-president. The directors are: L. B. Jones, M. B. Folsom, E. P. Curtis, Dr. Mees and Dr. Finegan.

Organization of the company follows ten-weeks' experiments involving 12,000 pupils and 176 teachers. The experiments were made in Chicago, Denver, Detroit, Kansas City, Lincoln, Newton, Mass.; Oakland, Cal.; Rochester, San Diego, Atlanta and Winston-Salem.

Forty films are ready and plans are under way for 100 additional.

"U" Will Use Sound in "Show Boat"

Universal is planning to employ a sound device in connection with the making of their big attraction, "Show Boat." It is said that the sound effects will be employed for about one-third the length of the picture. There will also be recorded the effects of a steamboat traveling down the Mississippi, of the negroes singing, and the band leaving the boat and marching up the town's main street.

"Show Boat" is to be put into work June 1. It is not yet known just which of the sound reproducing devices will be utilized in the making of the picture.

"The Tale of Two Cities" for Ronald Colman

"The Tale of Two Cities," the Charles Dickens' novel, will be made by Samuel Goldwyn into a motion picture for United Artists. Ronald Colman will star, playing the role of Sidney Carton. Lilli Damite, the new Goldwyn leading lady, will sail from Europe on May 5 to play opposite Colman. The direction will be by Herbert Brenon.

Pathe to Issue Immigrant Feature on June 4

De Mille's production, "A Ship Comes In," formerly called "His Country," will be issued by Pathe on June 4. Featuring the trio, Rudolph Schildkraut, Louise Dresser and Robert Edeson, the picture deals with the basic theme of patriotism.

Wyler Signed Up Again by Universal

Having finished the Universal feature, "Anybody Here Seen Kelly," William Wyler has signed a new long-term agreement with the Laemmle studio.

Board of Trade Bans Non-Theatrical Sales by Imposition of Fines

EXCHANGES in Oklahoma City and Des Moines are cooperating with exhibitors and refusing to sell pictures to schools and churches for non-theatrical use. From Oklahoma comes word that practically all exchanges have discontinued sales to non-theatrical houses and that with few exceptions pictures booked for non-theatrical houses are coming through houses outside of Oklahoma.

The Board of Trade at Des Moines has issued instructions to its members not to sell product to schools and churches for non-theatrical use. A penalty has been set at $25 for the first offense, $50 for the second and expulsion from the board for the third.

Producers Show Profits

Paramount, Warner and M-G-M Financial Statements Indicate Banner Year in Industry

IT seems evident from statements issued by Paramount, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Warner Bros. that 1928 is to be a banner year in the history of the industry. At least the financial statement by Warners for the first half of their fiscal year, by Paramount for the first quarter and by M-G-M for a 28-week period indicate that business is exceptionally good.

The Warner statement for the first six months shows a net profit of $611,184 and Harry M. Warner, president of the company, predicts that each of the two remaining quarters will net about $450,000, making a total for the year of approximately $1,500,000, after interest and charges.

Estimated profits for 1928 will be equal to approximately $7.50 a share for the 199,780 shares of Class A, and to about $3 a share on the $550,000 shares combined Class A and Common stocks.

The Paramount first quarter statement indicates a record year in prospect with figures that will even eclipse the high mark of last year. The estimated earnings for the first quarter of this year are $2,250,000, after deduction of all charges and taxes, including the undistributed share of earnings of Balaban & Katz Corporation. This is equal to $3.27 a share on the 687,379 shares of common stock outstanding, compared with $2,067,000 or $3.01 a share in the same three months in 1927.

The M-G-M statement for the 28-week period ended March 11, shows net profits of $3,032,838. Gross profit was $6,307,096; operating expenses, $3,592,308; net operating profit, $2,714,788 and miscellaneous income $318,050.

Plans for Opening of "U" Studio Announced

PLANS for the resumption of feature production at Universal City, the big studio plant of Universal Pictures, were made public this week.

The first picture to go into work will be a Reginald Denny Production entitled "Red Hot Speed," slated to start on May 15th, under the direction of Fred Newmeyer.

At the same time Glenn Tryon will start work on his first feature, "The Gate Crasher," under the direction of William A. Craft. Tryon is now on his way to St. Louis to make a personal appearance at Universal's Middle West Sales Convention.

Picture production started at Universal City this week on "The Diamond Master," a serial adapted from a Jacques Futrelle story and to be directed by Jack Nelson.

6 Short Subjects Form Pathe May 20 Schedule

Headed by Pathe Review No. 21, the Pathe short feature program for the week of May 20 consists of five other subjects: "A Race with Death," chapter nine of the current serial, "The Mark of the Frog"; "A War Bride," an Aesop cartoon; Topics of the Day No. 21, and issues Nos. 44 and 45 of the Pathe newsreel.

In the new Review are: "Interesting People—A Master of Murals," "Nice Babies," "The Legend of Laughing Waters" and "The Time, The Gown, and The Girl."

Change Title Barthelmess Picture for New York

"Kentucky Courage" will be the title of First National's Richard Barthelmess picture founded upon "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," in the New York territory. Elsewhere it will be released under the title of the novel. It will have its New York premiere at the Mark Strand theatre, New York, beginning Saturday, May 12th.

F. N. Buys "Saturday's Children" for Griffith

"Saturday's Children," the play by Maxwell Anderson, has been bought for motion pictures by First National. It will serve as one of Corinne Griffith's stellar productions under her new contract with First National. The play played 41 weeks on Broadway.

Censorship of Talking Pictures to Be Tested in N. Y.

THE question as to whether the New York state censorship board has jurisdiction over sound in motion pictures will be tested in a friendly suit with one of the companies producing this type of film.

James Wingate, director of the censorship commission, said this week that the board maintains it has jurisdiction over the "talkies." The point has already been raised in Pennsylvania, where Vitaphone was denied a temporary injunction against the censorship board of that State, but the final disposition of the case has not yet been made.

Mr. Wingate is closely observing developments in the Pennsylvania situation.

M-G-M Assigns Directors

Many of New Season's Features Under Way With Others in Preparation for Starting

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER has made a number of directorial assignments for pictures to be produced on the 1928-29 program. There are twenty-four of these directors at the studio busy turning out pictures or preparing to do so.

Aside from those announcements already made of directorial assignments, Tod Browning will direct Lon Chaney in "West of Zanzibar," as well as in other pictures during the season. "While the City Sleeps," another Chaney vehicle of New York underworld life, will be directed by Jack Conway.

Nick Grinde, recently signed as a director, will direct several Tim McCoy Western films, the first of which will be "Beyond the Sierras." William Nigh has been assigned to the direction of "Four Walls," an adaptation of the stage play.

Edward Sedgwick is engaged in directing Buster Keaton's, "The Cameraman," and is likely to direct other comedies during the course of the year. Victor Seastrom appears on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer release schedule for 1928-29 with the Lillian Gish starring picture, "The Wind," an adaptation of Dorothy Searborough's novel. Lars Hanson has the male lead.

Sam Wood, who directed "Rookies," the Karl Dane-George K. Arthur picture, and William Haines in "Telling the World," will have as his first picture for next season "Ballyhoo," with Norma Shearer as the star.

Chet Withey is directing Tim McCoy in the first of the coming year's series of McCoy outdoor adventure films, and Frank Capra is to direct "Brotherly Love," a new Karl Dane-George K. Arthur co-starring comedy. Malcolm St. Clair has completed "Beau Broadway," a Lew Cody-Aileen Pringle co-starring comedy for the new season, and Edward Sutherland has completed "The Baby Cyclone," another Lew Cody-Aileen Pringle vehicle adapted from the George M. Cohan stage farce.

Standard Contract Is Adopted by Canada

THE standard form of moving picture booking contract, as drawn up recently in the United States, has been adopted for use in Canada with minor alterations, according to official announcement of Col. J. A. Cooper, president of the Motion Picture Distributors and Exhibitors of Toronto, Canada. Changes of names and the inclusion of reference to Canadian Customs duties on films had been made in the form of contract for the Dominion, but otherwise the agreement was essentially the same in both countries.

Canadian contracts are to be filed with the Motion Picture Distributors and Exhibitors of Canada and are identified by the signature of the president of the Canadian association. The names of Canadian key cities are inserted.

New First National Films Employ Many Extras

Long lines of extras now crowd First National's Burbank studios, where several pictures calling for large sets are in production.

The finishing touches are being given to "Happiness Ahead." An elaborate setting is being employed for Corinne Griffith's "The Divine Lady." Nearly 500 extras are working in one of its scenes. "The Barker" is utilizing an entire carnival for certain sequences. "The Whip" will be presently completed.

Jack Mulhall is making some dramatic scenes for "The Butter and Egg Man." Charlie Murray is working on scenes for "The Head Man." Harry Langdon has been staging parades and other scenes for his new comedy. Billie Dove is about to start "The Night Watch." Finally, Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes are ready to begin work on "Heart to Heart."

Phil Gleichman Heads Ohio Amusement Co.

Phil Gleichman, for many years active in Detroit exhibition, has acquired a substantial interest in the Ohio Amusement Co., which operates 13 neighborhood houses. In addition to Gleichman, who has been elected president, other new officers are: Leo Keller, vice-president; Arthur Keller, secretary and treasurer; Max Greenhut, chairman of the board of directors. Greenhut is also a new shareholder in the firm.

The company plans to acquire and build new houses in Cleveland and surrounding towns. Changes in the policies of houses in the circuit will be made following an analysis of each situation.

Sixteen Loew Houses Open in Sept.

Sixteen houses, all under construction, will be opened throughout the country by Loew, beginning in September. Their capacities will range from 2,400 to over 4,000. As yet their individual policies have not been determined.

The list includes seven houses in New York and one each in the following cities: Jersey City, Providence, Louisville, Roanoke, Va.; London, England; Akron, Ohio. The Providence and Louisville theatres will open in September, the others later.

Sam Wood to Megaphone "Ballyhoo" for M-G-M

Sam Wood, director of M-G-M features, will take over the megaphone on "Ballyhoo," a future vehicle for Norma Shearer. He will collaborate with Frances Marion on the adaptation and it is anticipated that the picture will enter production on June 1.

In and Out of Town

AL LICHTMAN, vice-president and general manager of distribution of United Artists, John W. Considine, Jr., general manager of production of Art Cinema Corporation, and Victor M. Shapiro, advertising and publicity director for United Artists, left New York City last week for Hollywood. They are going West to confer with Joseph M. Schenck, president of United Artists.

WILLIAM M. PIZOR, president of Capitol Productions, left New York on a motor sales tour which will take him to every exchange center in the United States.

EVELYN BRENT, Paramount featured player, arrived in New York last Friday from the Coast for a short vacation and shopping tour.

FLORENCE VIDOR, Paramount star, and her eight-year-old daughter, Suzanne, arrived in New York last Friday, also. They are here from the Coast for a week's stay before boarding the S. S. Paris for Europe, where they will spend a two-months' vacation.

RAY HALL, editor of Pathe News, is visiting his local men in various mid-Western cities, and perfecting plans for the coming season.

MR. AND MRS. HAL ROACH arrived in New York on Tuesday, May 8, on the S. S. Majestic, thus coming to the last lap of their 'round-the-world voyage, which was started in January. They will make a brief stay in the city and then return to Los Angeles.

SAM EFRUS, president of the Peerless Pictures Corporation, has left New York for the Southwest territory on a sales trip.

Chas. J. Eastman Dies After Long Illness

A LOYAL and devoted employee was lost to Motion Picture News when, on Friday, May 4, Charles J. Eastman died in St. Luke's Hospital after an illness of about ten weeks. Services were held Sunday afternoon at the Bender Funeral Parlor, 851 Amsterdam Avenue, and the body was taken to Keene, New Hampshire, for interment in the family plot.

Mr. Eastman was born in St. Albans, Vt., and was 77 years old. At one time he was an executive of the Cheshire Railroad in New England, and for some years he worked with Funk and Wagnalls. Surviving is a daughter.

Affectionately known in the News office as "Colonel," he was with us for nine years. So friendly was his nature and considerate his heart that he commanded the respect of all those with whom he came in contact. A large circle of friends mourn his loss.

Theatre Price War in Omaha

The theatre price war in Omaha has brought things just about down to the bone. At least four of the downtown houses have made one or two cuts during the past three months. The last move was for the Riviera, the Publix de luxe house, to cut its weekday matinee from 40c to 35c, and to offer its balcony at night, except Saturday and Sunday, for 40c. Downstairs seats remain at 60c.

Latest quotations on leading theatres, then, are:

Riviera ..... 60c, 40c, 35c and 25c
Orpheum 50c, 35c, 25c
World 50c, 35c, 25c

The Moon, a second-class house, is contemplating running matinee prices until 7 p. m., while the rest already have let the bars down until 6:30.

The Riviera's cut was the first made since the opening, but the Orpheum has come down twice recently. The World has gone up after installing Vitaphone and Movietone.

Band Will Play "4 Sons" Theme on Mother's Day

The theme song of "Four Sons" has found its way through the air to the White House, where it so appealed to Mrs. Coolidge that she has requested the U. S. Navy Band to play "Little Mother" on Mother's Day, May 13th, it is said.

Featured Players Join Cast of M-G-M's "4 Walls"

Carmel Myers and Vera Gordon will have roles in "Four Walls," which M-G-M is making into a film from an adaptation of the stage play of that name.

Barbara Kent Re-signs With Universal

Barbara Kent has signed a new Universal contract. Her latest role is in "Lonesome," in which she plays opposite Glenn Tryon.

Golf Tourney Lining Up

Thirty-five Already Entered for Event to Be Contested at Rockville Center May 24

WITH the annual Spring film golf tournament still two weeks away, thirty-five enthusiastic golfers have already filed their entries with the tournament committee. The event is to be contested on the course of the Rockville Center, Long Island, Country Club on May 24 and with 200 members to be heard from the tournament committee anticipates a record breaking entry list.

The inclement weather of the past few weeks has retarded the progress of the golfing fraternity, but the regulars have taken advantage of every opportunity for practice and each is confident that he will walk away with the best gross score.

The committee in charge of the event is busy now gathering together all of the available prizes possible so that even those whose low gross is registered in the 140's will be rewarded for his efforts. There will be cups and trophies of every description, prizes and special prizes for foursomes, two-somes, birdies, eagles, for morning and afternoon play and for putting and approaching. There will be prizes for producers, distributors and even exhibitors and then there will be more prizes for those who might not even be inclined toward golf.

Among the individuals and organizations who have donated trophies to date are the following; Jules Brulator, Columbia Pictures, Keith-Albee, Carl Laemmle, Morning Telegraph, Motion Picture News, J. P. Mueller Agency, National Theatre Supply Company, Pathe Exchange, Inc., Stanley Company of America, Stebbins, Lederman & Gates, The Film Daily, and others.

The New York Motion Picture Club will supply two de luxe buses for convenience of golfers, running them from in front of the Astor Hotel. One will leave at 8.30 A. M. and the other at 4.30 P. M.

The tournament committee in charge of the event is made up as follows: Elmer Pearson, Bruce Gallup, William A. Johnston, Don Mersereau, Arthur Stebbins, Nat Rothstein, John Spargo and Jack Alicoate.

Eight from Chesterfield

Company Announces Productions that Will Be Released Regionally During Coming Season

CHESTERFIELD MOTION PICTURE CORPORATION, of which George Batcheller is president, announces that its production activities for the coming season will be concentrated on eight feature productions to be released regionally at six weeks intervals.

The pictures bear the following titles: "The Adorable Cheat," "The House of Shame," "Campus Knights," "Circumstantial Evidence," "South of Panama," "The Roaring Forties," "Below the Deadline" and "The Peacock Fan."

All of these features are to be made under the personal supervision of Lon Young, production supervisor of the company. The first of the group has already been completed and trade-shown. It is "The Adorable Cheat," an adaptation by Arthur Hoerl of an original story by Adeleine Leitzbach, which Burton King directed. Lila Lee is the featured player, while in the supporting cast are, Burr McIntosh, Cornelius Keefe, Gladden James, Reginald Sheffield and others.

The second production, "The House of Shame," will be ready in July. The story is by Lee Authmar. Third on the list is "Campus Knights," by Bernard Anthony and described as a college story without football.

It is announced that "Circumstantial Evidence" will be ready in October. It is a drama by Adeleine Leitzbach. Following in the order named will be "South of Panama," "The Roaring Forties," by Fanny D'Morgal; "Below the Deadline," an underworld drama by Ada Lee, and "The Peacock Fan," by Arthur Hoerl.

A number of well known screen personalities are now being signed for principal roles, and continuities on the seven remaining stories are under way. George Batcheller, president of Chesterfield, will leave for California within the next few weeks, accompanied by Lon Young, who will remain on the coast until production has been completed.

Cleveland Not in Favor of Double Features

THE Cleveland Motion Pictures Exhibitors Association has voted thumbs down on double features. Members of the association believe that double featuring cannot do anybody any good, and is bound to do a lot of harm. Although nothing is being done to compel members to refrain from showing double features, pressure of opinion is being brought to bear to bring the practice to an end in Cleveland. Examples of double featuring were given by the association such as "The Circus" and "West Point"—"Sadie Thompson" and "Sharp Shooters."

Cummings on Location With Fox Unit

Irving Cummings has left for New Bedford, Massachusetts, where he will photograph types and settings characteristic of a New England shipping town for the Fox picturization of Tom Cushing's play, "La Gringa." James Tinling will be in New York for a week while photographing traffic and congestion scenes for "Red Lights and Green."

Sees Cut in Studio Costs

Westinghouse Engineer Points Out Changes in Lighting; Tests Conducted

E. W. BEGGS, Illuminating Engineer of the Westinghouse Lamp Company, has just returned from an extensive inspection trip through all of the large motion picture studios of California. Mr. Beggs, at the request of motion picture studio owners and electric lighting organizations, conducted an extensive test as to the proper lighting for studios in order that full efficiency in lighting equipment could be obtained at all times.

When asked about his California trip, Mr. Beggs said, "Hollywood of the 'movies' is the scene of a revolution that will one day affect all of us. It is not apparent to the casual observer; in fact, many of the citizens of Hollywood itself are not fully aware that it is in progress. It is an industrial convulsion of the type seen only seldom; that is, only when an infant industry reaches maturity. The results will be simply better motion pictures at less cost.

In speaking of the changes in studio lighting Mr. Beggs said: "During these same years which have seen the changes in film and lenses, the incandescent lamp has been developed to a point where scarcely any other light source is needed for our lighting. These lamps are available in sizes ranging from that of a grain of wheat of a fraction of a candlepower to a 10-inch bulb of 30,000 candlepower. Even greater ones are being made experimentally. The result is that now the studio finds Mazda lamps ready for use just as it finds itself ready to call upon them.

"The result of all this is bound to show in reduced film producing cost. Early reports indicate a saving of over one hundred dollars per day per stage set due to elimination of the trimmers and the use of less intense and better controlled light. The indirect costs resulting from delays while carbons were changed, delays during which the entire studio personnel, including stars, director, cast, orchestra, etc., were forced to stand idly by, can hardly be calculated. These too are eliminated. Also, since the intensity of the light can now be readily measured, the danger of a "retake" being necessary to reduce to a minimum.

"These matters of cost are now very important because the motion picture is facing relatively hard times," said Mr. Beggs. "The automobile, plus good roads, leads to huge theatres where one single film amuses thousands instead of hundreds. This reduces the number of productions or prints needed to supply the demand. The radio is also producing a noticeable effect on movie attendance. These two influences, and perhaps the fact that the novelty of the motion picture is wearing off, have made serious inroads into the enormous profits returned by the movies. The studios are striving to meet the situation. They are economizing, and they are producing better pictures.

"This better picture idea has introduced colored and also sound movies. They are not perfect as yet, but they are progressing very well.

Spargo Exec. Secretary of M. P. Club

UPON the eve of his departure on a trip to the coast, Al Lichtman, President of the Motion Picture Club, announced the engagement of John S. Spargo as Executive Secretary of the Motion Picture Club of New York. Mr. Spargo formerly New York Editor of the Exhibitors Herald and World will enter upon his new duties immediately and until the club house is open, will make his office at 1560 Broadway.

President Lichtman also called a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Club for May 10th. The purpose of this meeting was to pass upon bids which have been received by Lee Ochs, Chairman of the Construction Committee, and by David Chadkin and Emil Jensen.

Fox News Chief Arrives in Paris

Truman H. Talley, head of Fox News and Fox Varieties, has arrived in Paris to confer with his organization there. His previous stop was in Berlin, where an important audition of the Movietone was given before a distinguished official audience. Important developments are understood to be on foot in connection with Movietone.

Jack Connolly, formerly of the Hays office, and for some time handling Movietone activities in Europe, has returned to America.

New Title Selected for "Southern Skies"

"White Shadows in the South Seas" has been selected as final title of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture formerly known as "Southern Skies." Exteriors for this film were recently completed under W. S. Van Dyke after five months on the island of Tahiti. A farewell banquet was tendered the M-G-M unit by the native islanders.

Extra Dividend Voted on Loew Common

The board of directors of Loew's, Inc., this week voted an additional dividend of 25 per cent on the common. It is payable June 18 to stockholders of record June 9. Yesterday's declaration supplements the regular dividend of 50 cents, payable June 30 to stockholders of record June 20.

F B O Executives Entrain for Chicago Meet

Home office executives entrained May 11 for Chicago, where the annual sales convention will be held at the Drake Hotel, starting Monday, May 14th.

Joseph P. Kennedy, president, and J. I. Schnitzer, senior vice-president, will address the assembled sales forces, which will be presided over by Lee Marcus, general sales manager.

Other home office executives who entrained for the convention today include: E. B. Derr, secretary and treasurer; Clinton J. Scollard, assistant treasurer and manager of exchange operations; Hyatt Daab, director of advertising and publicity; S. E. Fitzgibbon, director of sales promotion; Ambrose Dowling, assistant to the president; William Dahler, manager of sales accounting department, and E. A. Horne, manager of print and negative department.

The New York exchange will be represented by Charles Rosenzweig, New York State sales manager, and Phil Hodes, exchange office manager. Other branch managers who have already entrained for the meeting are:

E. J. O'Leary, New England sales manager; Cleve Adams, Central sales manager; Jerome Safron, Eastern Pennsylvania and Southern New Jersey sales manager, and J. Frank Shea, Western sales manager.

Alberta Vaughn Returns to F B O

Alberta Vaughn has been signed by Larry Darmour to play the leading feminine role in "Racing Blood," a series of twelve two-reel productions which he is making for Standard Cinema Corporation, to be released by F B O.

Work on the "Racing Blood" series is scheduled to start within a few days.

Fred Kohler Signs New Paramount Contract

Ivy Harris and Tom Ricketts have been added to the cast of "Just Married," first Paramount team vehicle for Ruth Taylor and James Hall. William Austin is the fifth player thus far selected for the picture. Arnold Kent, originally a member of the cast, has been withdrawn.

More Additions to Cast of "Just Married"

Fred Kohler, villain in Paramount pictures, this week signed a new contract. He is at present at work with Mary Brian and Clive Brook on "The Perfumed Trap."

Australian Film Man Visting Britain, U. S.

FILM exchanges and centers in England and the United States will be visited by O. J. Fenwick, ex-president of the Queensland Motion Picture Exhibitors' Association, who left Australia on May 4 for a holiday. While away he will act as the accredited representative of the Queensland body of exhibitors, carrying with him special letters of introduction from Australian exchanges to the managing directors of the countries he will visit.

Mr. Fenwick is the proprietor of a first-run theatre in Brisbane, which he has personally managed over a period of 13 years.

F. N. Signs First Studio Salvage Engineer

A NEW figure has entered motion pictures—the salvage engineer. There are only 25 members of this profession in the United States, Rasburn Pettay Powell, the only one West of Detroit, has just been employed by First National at Burbank.

Powell will systematize the salvage work, highly important in motion picture plants, where sets are erected and destroyed each week, and where many unusual properties and fittings are assembled and discarded every working day.

"As soon as a set is abandoned it will be carefully checked over to see what may be reclaimed and what may be scrapped, and sold," states Mr. Powell.

"Jeanne D'Arc" Opens in Copenhagen Theatre

One of the most significant French productions to date, "La Passion de Jeanne d'Arc," was given its world premiere in Copenhagen on April 21, that city being selected because the director, Carl Dreyer, is Danish. Press comments were enthusiastic.

Mlle. Falconetti, who plays Jeanne, was present at the opening. The film has been produced by the same company that made "The Miracle of the Wolves."

Hungary Is Favorable to American Pictures

Hungary, according to Elek Horvath, Hungarian Secretary of State, who was in Hollywood recently to arrange for booking of films under his country's present quota law, is anxious for showing of American films in his theatres.

The Secretary of State was impressed by the speed and efficiency of Hollywood production. He visited his countryman, Director Paul Fejos, who recently completed "Lonesome" for Universal.

Heavy Increase Shown in Paris Film Receipts

Total receipts at Paris motion picture theatres showed an increase in 1927 of 32 million francs ($1,280,000) over 1926, figures just made public by the Service du Controle de l'Assistance Publique. The total for 1926 was 145,994,959 francs; for 1927, 177,655,896 francs—a very substantial increase for a single year.

Much of this gain is credited to newer and better theatres and to increased use of exploitation.

M-G-M Studio Working on 8 Feature Films

Eight stories with a New York locale are in the process of filming at the M-G-M studios. They are: "Four Walls," "While the City Sleeps," "The Bellamy Trial," "The Camera Man," "Our Dancing Daughters," "Excess Baggage," "The Baby Cyclone" and "The Deadline."

Sapiro Offers U. S. Aid

Organization Will Give Full Co-operation to Government in Suit Against Industry Practices

AARON SAPIRO, president of the Independent Motion Picture Exhibitors Association, Inc., of New York, has forwarded a communication to Charles H. Tuttle, United States Attorney, offering the complete co-operation of his organization to the government in pressing its suit to determine the legality of practices in the motion picture industry having to do with distribution, arbitration and credit.

Two petitions in equity have been filed by the Department of Justice designed to test the legality of these practices. The defendants named are the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, the 32 film boards of trade throughout the country and ten leading motion picture corporations.

The Sapiro letter to U. S. Attorney Tuttle follows in part:

"The Independent Motion Picture Exhibitors Association, Inc., is directly interested in the actions which have been instituted by the United States of America against the combination of Motion Picture Producers and Distributors, generally operating under the direction of Will Hays, commonly known as the Hays Organization. In the trial of these actions the Government will undoubtedly desire testimony from various exhibitors throughout the United States to show how objectionable has been the practice of coercing the exhibitors into the execution and acceptance of arbitrary contracts and coercing them into the acceptance of arbitration arrangements and objectionable credit conditions.

"This Association desires to place itself at your disposal.

"We will gladly co-operate with you in providing proof that the Independent Exhibitors have been unable to secure pictures unless they signed the so-called Standard Hays Organization Contract; and that they could not secure pictures at all, to any practical extent, unless they got the pictures from members of that organization.

"We will also supply proof to the effect that arbitration provisions of the contract were thus forced upon the exhibitors, and that these arbitration provisions contain terms which are absolutely inequitable and improper.

"We will provide proof that procedure of the Boards of Arbitrators, particularly in cases of default, have been worse than arbitrary; and that the provisions for the suspension of service by all distributors because of a quarrel with one company is one of the most high-handed and arrogant provisions that lawyers have ever met in contracts.

"We will further provide proof that the Film Boards of Trade have been accepted only because the exhibitors had to take any system forced on them by the combination of producers and distributors acting through the Hays Organization; and that the statement of the 'overwhelming satisfaction' with the plan is based wholly upon the fact that the exhibitors have had no choice and have been compelled to take anything in the line of contractual arrangements that the Hays Organization chose to impose upon them."

With regard to the attitude of the Sapiro organization to the Hays organization, the former issued the following statement, which is printed in part:

"The I. M. P. E. A. was formed as a co-operative body. It is eager to co-operate with bodies representing other elements of this business for the welfare of the industry exactly as its own members co-operate for their own welfare. We are not out to fight anybody or any other organization. We do propose, however, to have the exhibitor take his rightful place in the councils of the industry; we intend to make the exhibitor a force as strong as his proportionate service and investment in the industry entitle him to be, and we believe that the exhibitor will hereafter speak for the exhibitor in the discussion of problems of the industry.

"The Hays organization has served its members well; but the interest of those members and the interest of the whole industry, including Independent Exhibitors, have not always been the same. The I. M. P. E. A. respects the accomplishments of the Hays organization; but the exhibitor has had little chance in any deal or business contact with it. Henceforth, the exhibitor, particularly the exhibitor-members of the I. M. P. E. A., intend to get all that is coming to them, without any attempt to take a thing from the other fellow."

Ingram's U. A. Film Will Be "3 Passions"

REX INGRAM and United Artists have definitely settled arrangements for release throughout the world of "The Three Passions," an Ingram film version of the new and unpublished novel by Cosmo Hamilton, which will be the first of a series of productions that the director will make in Europe.

Alastair Mackintosh, former assistant general manager of Les Artistes Associes, distributors of United Artists Pictures in Continental Europe, will be production head of the Ingram company that will film this story in England and France. The cast will include Alice Terry, Ivan Petrovich, Claire Eames, Shayle Gardner and Gerald Fielding. Production will be started before the end of May and the film will be released by United Artists in the Fall.

"The Three Passions" will be published shortly serially in the London Daily Mail.

Drop of $350,000 in Admission Taxes

Washington, D. C.—A drop of approximately $350,000 in collection of theatre taxes is shown for the nine months ended with March 31, compared with the corresponding period last year, in figures just compiled by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. The total collection for the period was $13,003,838, against $13,352,570.

Exhibitors Service Bureau

"Student Prince" Drive Blanketed City

Wide Variety of Ideas Used in Campaign Staged by Pantages Theatre in Salt Lake

IN point of getting thorough coverage of the town through a wide variety of exploitation connections, the campaign for "The Student Prince," put on by Grand Pemberton of Pantages Theatre, Salt Lake City, stands out as one of the most remarkable drives executed in behalf of this picture in any of the first-run presentations. Pemberton was assisted by an M-G-M exploiteer.

In addition to the scope of the publicity drive, the campaign was notable in the respect that the interest in "The Student Prince" was worked up well in advance of playdate. Among the highlights of the drive were the following displays and co-operative stunts which acquainted Salt Lake picture patrons with the presentation of "The Student Prince" at Pantages Theatre.

A circular flasher, lettered "Coming—Ramon Novarro and Norma Shearer in 'The Student Prince,'" was placed at the rear of the orchestra floor two months in advance of play date.

A fifteen-foot shadow-box reading: "'The Student Prince' with Ramon Novarro and Norma Shearer—Coming," appeared in three dailies for three weeks before the opening.

Full-sheet pastels of Novarro, Shearer and Hersholt were displayed in the theatre lobby for ten days in advance. Ten lobby alcoves were covered with cathedral-like windows lettered at the base: "Coming—'The Student Prince.'"

House Advertising

The theatre ushers, whose uniforms are quite familiar to those worn by the Old Heidelberg studentry, further enhanced the effect by yellow shoulder ribbons, lettered "The Student Prince." These ribbons were used for one week in advance of opening, and later did duty at Liggett's Drug Store, where they were worn by the fountain girls in connection with the Student Prince Sundae as featured at the store. The University of Utah Drug Store also concocted this special sundae.

Heralds were attached to the house programs a week prior to opening.

Station KDYL broadcast "The Student Prince" Question Contest. This included a description of the picture's highlights, as well as a questionnaire relative to cast, director, producers, etc., of "The Student Prince." Theatre tickets were offered to the contest winners.

Station KSL stated that "The Student Prince" music could not be broadcast owing to a ruling of the Composers' Association. They advised their radio friends accordingly, adding that while this was a condition with which they could not cope, it would still be possible to hear all selections from "The Student Prince" operetta by attending the Pantages Theatre.

A ten-foot high flasher sign, reading: "Stop and see 'The Student Prince'," was placed in front of the box-office during the engagement of the picture.

Three by eight foot pastel heads of Novarro and Shearer were used at either side of the theatre entrance.

A Panatrope was placed directly behind the picture screen and used during the drinking and love sequences of "The Student Prince." "Deep in My Heart" and "The Drinking Song" were the selections played.

Preceding the showing of the picture, a singer rendered: "Deep in My Heart" to the organ accompaniment.

The opening night of "The Student Prince" was also the opening night of the German play "Alt Heidelberg." Before the curtain descended on the last act, an announcement in German was made from the stage descriptive of "The Student Prince" at the Pantages Theatre.

A "Student Prince" Contest was conducted at the East High School. The principal permitted the display of a full-sheet mat in the main hall of the school, advising of the contest. The five boys receiving the largest number of votes because of their qualifications in athletics, scholarship and popularity, were guests of the school paper.

The Salt Lake Telegram sponsored the Want-Ad Jingle, the Scrambled Ad and the Essay Ad Contests, all of which netted three hundred and seventy-three inches of space, covering a period of nine days.

Special cards were used on the dash space of seventy-five street cars during the run of the picture.

Napkins, printed with an announcement of the film, were distributed at restaurants and soda fountains.

Music store window displays were obtained at Glen Bros., Roberts, Daynes-Beebe, and the Consolidated Music Co.

Crippled Youngsters See Themselves on Screen

The children from the Junior League Home for Crippled Children in Nashville, Tenn., saw themselves in a motion picture as well as seeing First National's Milton Sills picture, "Burning Daylight," when the manager of the Knickerbocker Theatre in that city tied up with the Daily Tennessean to give a party for them. A motion picture was taken of the children at the home and run off in conjunction with the feature picture.

Showmanship

Briefs

CHARLIE TAYLOR, of Shea's Buffalo, laid himself out a nice campaign for exploiting "Legion of the Condemned," which plays at this theatre during the week of May 6. Some of his tie-ups included an arrangement with the U. S. Army recruiting station whereby 25 Army boards with 1-sheets on each side were prominently displayed, stating in effect that the kind of heroes seen in "Legion of the Condemned" are the kind the Army turns out. He also arranged with the Spalding sports goods stores to put aviation coats in their show windows, the cards mentioning the picture. The Courier-Express was advertising that it soon would begin a story called "Aces Up," all about America's flyers in the world war, and Charlie grabbed the chance to tie up with the paper on that.

MANAGER H. M. ADDISON of the Great Lakes theatre, Buffalo, isn't overlooking any bets on capitalizing the forthcoming personal appearance at his theatre of Buck Jones and his famous movie horse. "Addy" already has arranged for Jones to meet the Mayor, attend luncheons, talk on the radio, visit crippled children and orphans and, in his spare time, do his stuff three times daily on the Great Lakes stage, during the week of May 13. Another of Addison's recent stunts has been to reduce the admission price for children under 12 to 25 cents up to 6 o'clock during the summer.

THE Victoria Theatre management, in Mahanoy City, Pa., has introduced a plan of giving coupons at certain performances which entitle children to admittance to the show advertised for the following week, at a reduced rate. These coupons are given at all performances on the days designated, and the plan has the effect not only of attracting parents to the theatre with the idea of getting the coupons, but also of increasing the number of children attending the following week.

ON April 22 the West Coast California Theatre in San Diego, completed its first year and Manager H. L. Hartman made the celebration a feature of the week. He sent complimentary tickets to many of the prominent social and business people of the community for one evening. Another angle was covered by the gift of tickets to all couples whose wedding anniversaries came in the week, and pictures of these people were used in the daily publicity in the newspapers. A giant birthday cake was an attraction in the theatre lobby during the week.

IN order to stimulate business during June, Abe L. Einstein, publicity director for the Stanley Company, is outlining a campaign to be known as "Stanley Theatres Jubilee Week," which will start off the summer picture season by calling special attention to the hot weather comforts of Stanley houses.

OUT in Rock Island, Ill., they figure a mule is faster than a horse as was evidenced by Manager Everet R. Cummings using a mule to pull a specially-built troley car through the streets to advertise "Speedy" at the Fort Armstrong Theatre.

Changes in Personnel of Midwesco Organization

A realignment of the managerial line-up of the Midwesco Theatres, Inc., has been made by H. J. Fitzgerald, general manager of the circuit. J. William Deubach, formerly manager of the Oriental theatre in Milwaukee, has been appointed purchasing agent, with George F. Crismann, until recently associated with B. & K. as assistant.

Louis Orlove, who has been in charge of the purchasing, is manager of the Mirth theatre in Milwaukee, succeeding Milton Harman, who has been transferred to the Savoy. The Savoy post recently was vacated by Harry Perlewitz, who has taken over the Jackson, Murray and Astor theatres in Milwaukee in association with John Ludwig. B. R. Griffiths, formerly with the Fischer circuit, is managing the Tivoli, succeeding Donald Smith, who is in charge of the new Capitol theatre in Racine.

Deubach's former managerial post at the Oriental is being filled by Charlie Murray, formerly with F. & R. at Minneapolis. Russell Leddy has been appointed assistant production manager under direction of E. J. Weisfeldt, while Cliff Gill has been added to the advertising department in charge of publicizing the circuit's deluxe neighborhood houses.

Prizes for Best Drawing of Hat for Colleen

The Knickerbocker Theatre, Nashville, Tenn., the Lebeck department store, and the Nashville Tennessean tied up in a Colleen Moore hat contest to publicize her picture, "Her Wild Oat."

The public was asked to choose a spring hat for Miss Moore—that is, to draw and color a hat to fit the face of Miss Moore which was published in the Tennessean along with the announcement of the contest, rules, prizes, etc.

The drawing of Miss Moore's face was to be cut out, pasted on cardboard or heavy paper and a fitting hat drawn and colored. The first prize was a $10 spring hat from the millinery department of Lebeck's; second prize, one $5 hat awarded by the same firm; the third prize, $2.50 in cash awarded by the Knickerbocker Theatre. Prizes Nos. 4 to 8 inclusive was one dollar in cash. Prizes Nos. 9 to 25 were two tickets each to the Knickerbocker Theatre.

Hugo's Works Subject of Essay Contest

An essay contest sponsored by the Liberty theatre, Youngstown, Ohio, for local schools recently in connection with the presentation of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" is of special interest because the same idea can be applied to any picture based on a story by Victor Hugo, or for the matter of that any picture based on a story by any prominent novelist. The Youngstown contest was on the subject "Do you think "The Hunchback of Notre Dame' is Hugo's greatest Book?" It was arranged by A. J. Sharick, Universal exploiteer, and the management of the Liberty theatre.

Prizes were offered for the best letter of not more than 250 words on the question.

Lyric, Dover, Mass., Celebrates Nineteenth Anniversary

THE Lyric theatre in Dover, Mass., celebrated its 19th anniversary during the week of May first, with special programs arranged in honor of the event. The Lyric has long held a prominent place in the community life of the town and consistently has enjoyed a success that gives it rank among the most flourishing picture houses in the country.

This theatre, now operated by Publix, is managed by Iona M. Redden, who has the distinction of being the only woman manager of a theatre in the circuit. During the past several years Manager Redden has been conspicuously associated with the community life in her connection as chief executive of the Lyric theatre. She received her training in theatre management and operation under the tutelage of her aunt, Mrs. John Dolan, a pioneer in the development of the motion picture business in New England.

Curtain Announcer for "Patent Leather Kid" at Imperial

MANAGER T. R. EARL used a novel way of getting advance advertising on "The Patent Leather Kid" by using a curtain at the Imperial Theatre, Asheville, N. C.

Letters made out of compoboard and done in silver were placed on a black oil cloth drop. The thin lines appearing in each letter was a sparkle bronze which gave out colored reflections when hit by the spot light.

Two weeks in advance, the letters on the drop read, "Coming The Patent Leather Kid." The following week the word 'Coming" was dropped and in its place was 'Next Week.'

The set was hung on a trolley and presented to the patrons between each show. All house lights were out in order to bring about the best color effect and add to its attractiveness. A spot from the booth was thrown directly on the title and four colored 1000 watt floods were used from the side and proscenium.

This was rather a novel way of advertising "The Patent Leather Kid" as it was the first time a coming attraction had ever been presented to the patrons from the stage. Those who saw it—and there were many—were most enthusiastic in their praise and complimented the theatre staff upon the idea as well as the colorful way in which it was presented.

The lobby was unusually attractive. The cut-outs and panels which were placed on both sides of the lobby were given a varnish finish and as a result, greatly resembled oil paintings.

Just over the box-office—a little to the front was an electric sign. By leaving the outer lobby lights cut off, the electric sign was very effective.

Just in front of the box office was a frame holding six 11 x 14 stills from the picture with a small heart cut-out on top showing Richard Barthelmess and Molly O'Day and title of picture.

An oil cloth banner was hung completely around the marquee on which contained the title of picture in large square letters.

Perrin Engineers First Stage Wedding in Greeley, Colo.

UNTIL it was accomplished by Manager C. T. Perrin of the Sterling theatre in Greeley Colo., the idea of having a couple wed on the stage of a theatre in that town was generally considered a most improbable occurrance, if not an impossible one. However, Greeley has witnessed a stage wedding of a local couple. That more did not view the event is due entirely to the lack of space to accommodate all that attempted to be on hand.

The wedding took place on the opening night of the Adolphe Menjou picture "A Night of Mystery" at the Sterling.

Twenty local merchants rendered full and absolute co-operation in publicizing the idea by breaking the news with a full page spread on the morning the picture opened.

The merchants also contributed appropriate and substantial gifts to the bride and groom and further advertised the wedding by placing their gifts on display in the windows together with neatly lettered cards about the wedding, picture, theatre and play dates.

Even the opposition theatre profited by the wedding by taking care of the people who were unable to get inside the Sterling. It was safely estimated that 800 people were turned away.

The beauty of the whole thing was that the wedding didn't cost the theatre anything.

Key City Reports

New York City

REGULAR customers and others of the Broadway houses got their first taste of Spring last week and that, coupled with the advent of daylight saving time, did not help matters. Business was just about on a par with the preceding week, pretty good in spots but on the whole a trifle slow and not at all unusual for this time of the year. At this season theatres always feel the competition of outdoor amusements and the big town has always demonstrated that it can take its movies or let them alone. The strongest of the shows were pretty well patronized and perhaps this can explain another angle of the decline—none too many of the strong ones around just at present.

A bright spot along the Street was where the Capitol held forth with "Across to Singapore." Business here was good—good enough for the M-G-M house to hold the picture over for a second week. Joan Crawford, Ramon Novarro and Ernest Torrence were the featured players and the trio made a strong combination. At the Roxy, business picked up a bit over the preceding week with a good Rothafel presentation and a Fox film, "Honor Bound." Of late it has been the presentation end of the Roxy program which has been the means of sending the customers away in a satisfied state of mind. The big Publix house, the Paramount, also had a touch of Spring fever with the result that the Wallace Beery-Raymond Hatton comedy, "Partners in Crime" gave this house a little below average week. This week-end, the famous Paul Ash of Chicago, comes to town to make his debut at the Paramount and many are wondering whether New York will give this maestro the same big hand the mid-west metropolis gave him. "Hello New York" is the apt title of the first Ash venture .

It was just a regular Strand week at the Stanley house where Pathe's "Blue Danube" and the first Stanley-patterned presentation were offered to the public. The Strand has its ups and downs and last week business was even a bit below average—attractions not strong enough to offset general conditions.

The Rialto and Rivoli, the Publix-U. A. houses, each did a fair week's trade with "Drums of Love" and Lloyd's "Speedy," respectively. They both will go out at the end of the week, the former being replaced by "Steamboat Bill, Jr.," and the latter by "Ramona." The little Cameo had a German made picture. "The Raider Emden" for very fair returns.

It is reported that Paramount's "Wings" will be held at the Criterion through the entire Summer. This is not surprising in view of the fact that this picture has been doing consistently good business ever since it opened. Universal's "The Man Who Laughs" is getting along nicely at the Central, demonstrating thus far at least that Hugo has been widely read and that this type of picture has entertainment value in spite of a rather out-of the ordinary theme. "Abie's Irish Rose" at the 44th Street has still to show what it will do. Business here has not been any too good. It is possible that the present conditions along Broadway have something to do with it but on the other hand it is also possible that the large crop of Irish-Jewish pictures indulged in by several producers has also had the effect of glutting the market with this type of entertainment. Fox' "Four Sons" and "Street Angel" are doing very fair business at the Gaiety and Globe, respectively. At the Times Square, "Mother Machree" does not show so well. U.-A.'s "Two Lovers" at the Embassy is sagging a bit but has made a pretty fair run of it. At Warner's, "Glorious Betsy" continues to get very fair returns.

Harrisburg

TWO warm days, with temperatures close to ninety, interfered with the business of the picture theatres in Harrisburg the latter part of the week to an extent that made the net results, financially speaking, somewhat below normal.

"The Heart of a Follies Girl," starring Billie Dove, at the Colonial, did a fairly good business, the hot weather notwithstanding, while Phyllis Haver, in the much-exploited "Chicago," at Loew's Regent, enjoyed fair patronage. At the Victoria, Richard Dix in "Easy Come, Easy Go," netted only fair box-office receipts.

The State offered as its film attraction, in addition to the regular vaudeville the last half of the week, "The Desert Bride," starring Betty Compson, with only a moderate degree of financial success. The Broad Street stimulated business with a double bill consisting of two features, "Almost Human," with Vera Reynolds, and Tex Maynard in "Gun-Hand Garrison." The Grand presented "Rose of the Golden West," with Mary Astor and Gilbert Roland in the principal roles, and the Capitol showed Fred Thomson in "Arizona Nights."

Manager C. M. Gibble, of the State, was quick to sense the effect of the sudden reappearance of hot weather by inserting in his newspaper advertisements the statement that "our refrigerated air plant keeps you comfortable hot afternoons and evenings."

The Royal attracted good-sized juvenile audiences with Fred Thomson and his horse, Silver King, in "Don Mike," while the National offered a double program including George Bancroft in "The Showdown," and Charlie Chaplin in "The Fireman."

Los Angeles

BOX office receipts dropped off this week following a hot wave that shot thermometers up over the 90 mark. Downtown houses reported a falling off in business, while the first run theatres in Hollywood held up under the first hot spell of the season.

Grauman's Chinese closed with "The Circus" after a successful run and will open next week with "The Trail of '98." At the new Warner theatre "Glorious Betsy" with Vitaphone presentations is doing excellent business.

"Sunrise" at the Criterion is playing to satisfactory business.

Good business is reported for "Street Angel" at the Carthay Circle.

"Potemkin" at the Broadway Palace is attracting considerable attention.

"Wings," now in its seventeenth week at the Biltmore, is advertised to close in eight days.

"The Good-Bye Kiss" at the Million Dollar is not registering at the box office.

Bebe Daniels in "50/50 Girl" at Loew's State and Pola Negri in "3 Sinners" at the Metropolitan are doing satisfactory business.

Atlanta

WARM weather showed its effect on Atlanta box-offices this week. Despite a line-up of heralded features, on the whole business was off.

The management of the Howard received a surprise in George Bancroft's latest, "The Showdown," which started taking a slide on the opening day and continuing throughout the week. Although a great picture from point of acting, directing and technical perfections, it proved very unfavorable to a feminine audience—hence the slump. Men thought it a real picture, but women, with few exceptions, couldn't give it a semblance of a good hand.

Next door Norma Shearer in "The Actress," brought Loew's Grand fair business, but not what was expected of this popular actress.

"We Americans," the Universal long heralded special, failed to live up to its prediction at the Capitol. Although pronounced a splendid feature picture, filled with human interest, it did not draw the title of a special. Business at the Capitol was very good, but most of the credit must be given to the vaudeville, one act in particular , which showed some native children in a sketch under the supervision of Virginia Semon, daughter of Manager Martin Semon, of the Capitol.

Keith's Georgia had a good house, on the whole, to see William Boyd in "The Skyscraper." Perhaps Keith's may rightfully claim the high mark for the week.

"Mad Hour" played to fair business at the Metropolitan.

The Tudor, with three westerns, enjoyed a usual week, while the New Alamo, with a bill of second runs and reissue of "Wine," pulled well.

Dallas

DALLAS theatres enjoyed another good average week's business, although no big receipts were registered at any of the first run houses.

At the Majestic "A Girl in Every Port" with Victor McLaglen and Louise Brooks brought in above the average attendance for the past seven days. A good vaudeville bill completed the very satisfactory program.

"The Noose" with Richard Barthelmess at the Melba secured good patronage and was well received. This picture was the first to be shown by the Melba using the Vitaphone with a non-synchronized score, and proved more than satisfactory.

The Palace showing "The Patsy" with Marion Davies fell a little below the Palace's usual weekly gross, but business was on the safe side of the ledger for the seven day run.

At the Capitol "13 Washington Square" with Jean Hersholt and Alice Joyce failed to bring them in, and the week's attendance was only fair, with the largest crowds at the end of the week.

"Doom's Day" with Florence Vidor and Gary Cooper, and "Skyscraper" with William Boyd and Sue Carol registered the usual fair business at the Old Mill.

At the Arcadia "Man, Woman and Sin" with John Gilbert, "Seventh Heaven" with John Farrell and Janet Gaynor, and "Freckles" with Hobart Bosworth and John Fox, Jr., accounted for another good week at Dallas' suburban theatre de luxe.

Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE downtown theatres just completed a rather slow week. The weather was the languid, spring-fever variety that keeps folks out on the country roads touring about in the family flivver without a thought of the attractions offered in downtown theatres. The Riverside opening on Saturday attracted a very large portion of theatre-goers throughout the week. The photoplay feature at the Riverside was "The Big Noise," which was greatly appreciated by the throngs of Milwaukeeans, who crowded to the new theatre.

The Wisconsin offered "A Girl in Every Port" to moderate houses.

"Speedy" was held over for a second week at the Merrill, and continued to draw exceedingly well. "The Gay Retreat" was offered at the Strand, and was accorded very slim patronage.

"The Jazz Singer" continues to do very good business at the Garden, where it has been returned for a brief engagement. This was its sixth week in Milwaukee.

Gilda Gray spent a week in her home town at the Davidson, appearing in conjunction with her picture, "The Devil Dancer." The performances were very well attended. An unusually strong bill was offered at the Orpheum, where "Blue Danube" was the photoplay feature, and the house was crowded at every performance.

Neighborhood houses also found business rather dull throughout the week. "The Joy Girl" was featured at the Tower, Garfield, Uptown and Modjeska. Business was fair.

"Quality Street," offered at the Oriental, drew fairly well.

"Cheating Cheaters," at the Venetian, did good business.

Minneapolis

BUSINESS was about average in Minneapolis last week, with the new Minnesota still taking away much of the trade from the other theatres. This theatre showed "Across to Singapore," with Ramon Novarro, and did about the best week of any since its opening in March.

The State had "We Americans," which did just a fair business, while the Strand was making a fairly good showing with "Tillie's Punctured Romance."

Pantages lost a big attraction when the city council placed a ban on the personal appearance of Fatty Arbuckle, but it had a rather nice drawing card in the film, "The Escape," with Virginia Valli and William Russell. The Hennepin-Orpheum rounded out its vaudeville program with Sally O'Neil and Owen Moore in "Becky."

Doug Fairbanks in "The Gaucho" came into the Grand for a second run showing, and ran up a big gross for the week.

Among the neighborhood houses the Lagoon found "The Smart Set" to be a popular attraction, while the American, Lyndale and Rialto did from fair to good business with such pictures as "Stand and Deliver," "Bush Leaguer" and "The Cohens and Kellys in Paris."

Indianapolis

BUSINESS was "spotty" in Indianapolis last week. Afternoon business was off and evening attendance was "just fair," indicating a 25 to 30 per cent drop in box-office receipts.

Berkell stock opened season at English's with "Mary's Other Husband," drawing heavily from movie crowds. Enormous advance sale for Stuart Walker's opening week at Keith's this week. "Why Marry?" is opening bill.

"Tenderloin," with Dolores Costello, set the pace in attendance, although it was held the second week. Movietone newsreel and Vitaphone vaudeville acts also on bill.

Sells-Floto circus Tuesday night drew its share of business. Weather was fair.

"The Smart Set" with William Haines, Charlie Davis and Indian Stage band, led major downtown houses for the week. "Love and Learn" at Circle, and "Laugh, Clown, Laugh" at Loew's Palace, played to fair crowds. Dave Silverman, guest conductor at Circle, is proving popular. Eddie Pardo's stage band, which was introduced three weeks ago at the Circle, is proving an attraction.

No special exploitation effort made by any houses.

Cleveland

NOTHING very startling happened in local movie circles last week. None of the theatres reported any broken records. And, on the other hand, none of them reported any flops. Taken by and large, it was a moderately successful week, as judged by the box office.

"Ramona" was sufficiently well liked by patrons of the Stillman to justify holding the picture over another week. The Allen drew good crowds with "The Actress" as the feature picture. "Something Always Happens," unusually well sustained mystery play, maintained the general high average at Keith's Palace.

The State theatre also reports that business was average for the week with "Lady Be Good," good comedy, full of breezy action and a satisfactory love ending. Reade's Hippodrome did pretty well for the first week of the new all-picture program. "The Sunset Legion" was the feature attraction, unanimously agreed to be good standardized popular entertainment.

"Wings" built up consistently during its fourth week at the Colonial, where it is being roadshowed at $1.65 top. Keith's East 105th had a fair week with a fair picture, "Love and Learn." The Park and the Cameo played second run engagements of "The Gaucho," following a continued downtown run of the picture. Both houses did well, but nothing extraordinary.

Competition was keen as the Metropolitan Opera drew capacity attendance to the Public Auditorium.

Neighborhood house business was below average.

Buffalo

BOX-OFFICE receipts were not startling at any of the leading Buffalo theatres last week, although, for the most part, they were on a par with average weeks.

Loew's State had a very good week, due largely to the personal appearance of Francis X. Bushman, which attracted the old-time theatre-goers who remembered him as the Beau Brummel of the screen in years gone by when he played alongside Beverly Bayne. Bushman's appearance in a dramatic sketch was accompanied by a screen comedy, "Circus Rookies," in which Karl Dane and George K. Arthur added to their local popularity.

Shea's Buffalo had a darb of a Publix revue in "Sun Shades," featuring Joe Jackson, the pantomimist, with Richard Dix on the screen in "Easy Come, Easy Go," which wasn't particularly "hot." The house had a normal box-office turnover.

The Great Lakes drew good crowds all week, with "Sharp Shooters," featuring George O'Brien and Lois Moran, proving a good film attraction, and eight vaudeville acts helping to entice the public. Shea's Hippodrome had a money-maker on the cinema in "Doomsday," with Florence Vidor, which drew much favorable comment. The stage bill also was good, with "A Chameleon Caprice," a talented company, headlining. "French Dressing," with H. B. Warner, and a well-balanced vaudeville offering, attracted normal audiences to the Lafayette.

Neighborhood houses reported normal business throughout the week.

Albany

MARION DAVIES did what had been regarded as impossible at the Leland in Albany last week, when "The Patsy" scored a knockout over daylight saving, packing the theatres not only for one show but for both shows each evening and with matinees running extremely heavy. Miss Davies is extremely popular in Albany, and a large personal following did the trick. At the Mark Strand, "The Legion of the Condemned" likewise played to good business with daylight saving making little or no inroads at the box office. Richard Dix in "Easy Come, Easy Go," went over fairly well at the Ritz. "Simba," playing at the Capitol at prices ranging from 50 cents to $1.65 went over fairly well, although not up to "King of Kings," which had been the attraction at the theatre the previous week. Some good preliminary work had been done through the schools and the newspapers in building up business for "Simba."

The Clinton Square theatre went over well with a Tom Mix picture the "Horseman of the Plains" and another feature entitled "Domestic Troubles."

Neighborhood houses reported business as being slightly off on account of daylight saving. Proctor's Grand continues to use exceptionally good pictures with its vaudeville.

The outstanding feature the past week in Troy was the excellent business done by "Speedy." Business that ran far ahead in many instances of other weeks when there was no handicap in the way of daylight saving. Coupled with the feature were two excellent Vitaphone presentations which included the Rose and Taylor orchestra and a comedy entitled "Papa's Vacation."

At the Lincoln in Troy, "The Mad Hour" ran to good business for four days while "Bringing Up Father" did only fair for three.

Business held up well at the American in Troy with "Beyond London's Lights" for four days and with "Heroes in Blue" dropping a bit for the three remaining days.

The smaller theatres in Troy reported business as being good.

Tampa

NOTHING shown in Tampa the past week developed what you could call a real draw, but the week as a whole was satisfactory. "Easy Come, Easy Go" failed to keep receipts up to the average of the Tampa. Dix is well liked here, and his pictures usually draw excellent business, but this one didn't seem to click. It was used the first four days. "The Crowd," featured the last half, did better, but it was not a draw.

At the Victory the business continues very good with Vitaphone productions and presentations, and the added attraction of the Movietone news reel. The feature last week was "The Silver Slave."

"Wickedness Preferred" started the week off very nicely for the Strand. Following this, "The Enemy" was used for three days, and it went over very good. "Homeless Men" completed the week, and brought average returns. The gross for the week was a little better than average.

The Franklin gave the entire week to the showing of "The Red Kimono." The matinees were exclusively for women, and the night shows for men. Children were not admitted and a straight price of 50c was made. The business was fairly good, but nothing that could be considered big.

The Seminole, Tampa's finest neighborhood house, had "The Big Parade" for two days, and "stood 'em up" at every show. As this is about the fourth showing of this picture in Tampa the business was really remarkable.

Baltimore

INROADS on the patronage of the first-run moving picture theatres for the week beginning Monday, May 7, were caused by the opening of the races here and the annual visit of the circus, for two days.

However, with the exception of only a few theatres, business was good generally and in several cases excellent. At Loew's Century "Rose Marie," featuring Joan Crawford and James Murray, held up very well with The Maryland Collegians on the same bill. Business throughout the week was excellent, due in part to various nights being arranged for pupils at the various colleges.

"Speedy," featuring Harold Lloyd, did excellently at Loew's Valencia during its second week at that playhouse.

"Lucrecia Borgia," at the Little theatre, presented by the Motion Picture Guild, Inc., proved a good business getter with Conrad Veidt and Paul Wegener, who have been seen in American made productions, playing two of the principal roles.

At Keith's Hippodrome, "The Sporting Age," starring Belle Bennett, went over fairly well with five acts of Keith-Albee family time vaudeville, doing a better business than during the previous week.

At the Keith-Albee New Garden "The Shield of Honor," featuring Neil Hamilton and Ralph Lewis, proved a fairly good pulling vehicle with seven acts of Keith-Albee high class vaudeville.

"Tenderloin," starring Dolores Costelo and Conrad Nagel, with Vitaphone accompaniment and dialogue and other Vitaphone attractions, proved a good business getter at Warners' Metropolitan for the second week of its engagement. It was held for a third week.

The Stanley only had fair patronage throughout the week with "The Showdown," featuring George Bancroft and Evelyn Brent and a stage presentation, entitled Around the Clock.

However, it must be remembered that it takes 4,000 persons to fill the Stanley when every seat is taken.

Boston

WITH the inroads of daylight saving offset by continued cool weather, Boston theatres had about an even break during the week. The expected falling off from daylight saving may have occurred, but if it did the weather brought up the box-office receipts to figures which are eminently satisfactory.

Conditions have not yet been favorable to the opening of the summer resort theatres, and, until these are opened, Boston managers do not expect any material slowing down of programs. It has not been necessary to advertise the cooling plants yet, although it may become so any day now.

Metropolitan Theatre had an unusually good week with "Stand and Deliver" as its feature, coupled with Paul Whiteman and his band. The combination brought capacity houses all week, and were it possible to hold over a Metropolitan show for a second week, there would be no question as to what would happen.

"Garden of Eden" was the feature at Loew's State, and played to the large audience, which has become a habit at this playhouse.

"Something Always Happens" attracted rather better than average audiences to the Keith-Albee Boston Theatre, and receipts were highly satisfactory.

"The Silver Slave" and "The Night Flyer" were the double features at the twin theatres, the Modern and Beacon, following features which have been held over from one to eight weeks. The films drew far better than the average houses at these two theatres for a good week's business.

"The Circus" and "The Showdown" divided honors at the Exeter for a good mid-spring week. "Motherhood" and "Flying Romeos" at the Fenway provided the box-office with plenty of material.

Other films of the week drawing good houses were: "The Smart Set," at Loew's Orpheum; "Man, Woman and Sin" and "Sadie Thompson," at Loew's Columbia; "Buck Privates," at the Scollay Square Olympia; "Heart of a Follies' Girl," at the Washington Street Olympia; "Skyscrapers" and "Wife Savers," at the University; "The Circus," at the Allston; "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," at the Capitol; and "The Circus," at the Central Square.

San Diego

ONE of the longest runs given any picture at any local house has been the four weeks' showing of "The Jazz Singer," featuring Al Jolson, at the Plaza the last three weeks of April and the first week of May. Manager Dwight Hill says it has been one of the best business getters he has had, even though its predecessor, "Chicago," did a big business for three weeks.

"That's My Daddy" would have had a specially good run at the West Coast California, based on its merits, even though little Jane La Verne, known as "Pudge," the tiny juvenile star in the play, had not made a personal appearance at the house during the week. Jane became an instantaneous favorite and proved a big attraction in herself.

"Beau Sabreur" proved to be a good attraction at the California and, as one of the house staff put it, "everybody liked it." "Feel My Pulse," featuring Bebe Daniels, also was shown to good houses, for Bebe always goes well in San Diego.

While a special local appeal was expected when "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" was shown at the Cabrillo, because of the fact that Anita Loos, its author, was a former San Diego girl, it did just a fair business.

"The Last Command," at the Cabrillo, did well for the two weeks it was on the screen.

"We Americans," at the West Coast California, the film attraction during the first anniversary week celebration for the house, did a very good business, with its lesson on Americanization, and its touch of the World War patriotic appeal.

One of the best films featuring Harold Lloyd, from the standpoint of popularity, was his "Speedy," which filled the Cabrillo for every showing, with a waiting queue as a general thing.

"Seventh Heaven," which came back to San Diego after its first showing at Pantages, was one of the biggest drawing cards ever shown at the community houses, declared Kent Bush, of the Bush Theatres, Inc., who had it at the Egyptian.

Des Moines

AT the Des Moines Theatre "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" was the attraction, and it opened up with a rushing business. It may have been the good record that Barthelmess made in "The Patent Leather Kid," or the fact that the audiences expected it to be a Vitaphoned picture, but the first shows were big; the week did not hold up so well.

At the Capitol business was good with Richard Dix in "Easy Come, Easy Go," a pleasant comedy, and a good stage show. Casey Jones, stage hand director, made a good personal drawing. At the Strand "The Crowd" caused much comment with opinion about evenly divided. The ones who were for it were strong for it, and those opposed felt as decidedly. The week finished with Fred Thomson in "The Sunset Legion," and did very well. At the Garden "The Student Prince" did big business on a second run, and held up well for a half-week run. Some objection was made to the sentimental bits in the picture, while others were most enthusiastic about the charm of the picture.

Ottawa

CONTINUED coolness and rather copious rain have tended to help the theatres in the Ottawa, Ontario, district and every type of film attraction has been getting attention from the public.

A very interesting program was presented by Manager Ray Tubman at the Regent theatre, Ottawa, during the week of April 30. This comprised "Red Hair," starring Clara Bow, and "40,000 Miles with Lindbergh." The latter aroused much interest because of Lindbergh's visit to Ottawa last year. "Red Hair" was fair.

There was plenty of fun around B. F. Keith's theatre with "The Fortune Hunter" with Syd Chaplin. Big crowds were the rule and they were generally satisfied with the picture.

Heavy patronage was registered at the Imperial, where "Bringing Up Father" was the attraction. The cast of this picture proved to be a strong argument for the older people while, of course, the juveniles rushed to see it because of its cartoon fame.

At the Centre theatre "A Girl in Every Port" was the feature and opinions were rather divided but the theatre got big business all week.

Rin-Tin-Tin packed them in at the Columbia theatre as usual, the vehicle this time being second run of "A Dog of the Regiment." The canine actor always draws a crowd at the Columbia. The program also included a serial, news weekly and comedy.

There was another well-balanced program at the Fern theatre, another bustling neighborhood house, and the capacity crowds were eager and noisy. The bill included "The Frontiersman," the serial "Melting Millions," and Lloyd Hamilton's comedy, "Somebody's Fault."

"The Stolen Ranch" was just the type of feature to make the Rex theatre popular. On top of this, Manager Nolan had second run of the pictures showing the Bremen and crew at Greenly Island, with a serial chapter and comedy. Both the crowds and the theatre got their money's worth.

San Francisco

AL JOLSON, in "The Jazz Singer," which just finished playing its eleventh week at the Embassy Theatre, broke a record for any picture ever shown in San Francisco, not only from the standpoint of weeks, but also because the theatre held its crowds so wonderfully the entire number of weeks the picture was shown. This was due to the fact, that many went two or three times to see this picture, and were such good boosters for it. Many were surprised "The Jazz Singer" did so well, as the theatre is not as centrally located as some of the other houses.

"Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath," shown at the Loew's Warfield Theatre, proved very popular. On the stage, "Moscow Ideas" and Rube Wolf and his orchestra. The Granada Theatre was comfortably filled with the picture, "Skyscraper," the Publix Stage Revue with the presentation act, "Treasure Ships," helping to draw. "The Patent Leather Kid," was shown a third week at the St. Francis Theatre, where it did as well the third as the second week. "Speedy," at the California Theatre, was held over for a few days more than the second, but this picture did not do well those days.

The Union Square Theatre reported excellent business with "Pretty Clothes," "Painty Pappas" and five acts vaudeville. The Golden Gate Theatre reported big business with "The 13th Hour," partly due to the popularity of Barrymore in this city and the vaudeville acts.

The residential theatres, as a whole, reported good business. The Coliseum showing "Coney Island," together with "The Varsitonians," who play on the stage, and the Alexandria showing the picture "French Dressing."

Salt Lake City

ATTENDANCE at the Salt Lake City downtown theatres has varied some this past week, according to reports. Good weather conditions prevailed, the week having been cool and clear throughout.

Exceptionally big crowds were enjoyed at the Capitol Theatre, the main feature apparently being Moss and Frye, "The original blackbirds," in the stage presentation "How High Is Up?", a Fanchon & Marco offering, which caused a great deal of merriment. Poli Negri in "Three Sinners" was also very well received at this house.

The Paramount Empress Theatre did a highly satisfactory business on "Speedy," Harold Lloyd's latest comedy. "Two Girls Wanted" went over to fairly large crowds at the Victory.

Special lobby displays and a good deal of exploitation was employed at the American Theatre during their presentation of "We Americans," which though it did not play to extremely large houses, was received with a good deal of favorable comment by those who were in attendance, and the box-office receipts were above the average.

Beatrice Fairfax's romance, "The Lovelorn," was the picture offering shown at the Pantages Theatre this past week, with fairly satisfactory results. This house also presents Pantages vaudeville.

"Chicago After Midnight" proved to be quite a good drawing card at the Gem Theatre, with crowded houses being the rule.

"The Shepherd of the Hills," with Molly O'Day, was the second-run offering at the Rialto last week, having been very well received in consideration of this fact.

The Mission, a suburban house here, did very well with John Gilbert and Greta Garbo in "Love."

Kansas City

A WEEK of warm weather, a novelty thus far this spring, last week sent a large part of Kansas City's population scurrying into the country with motor cars at night, with the result that business at none of the downtown houses measured up to the previous week, despite the fact that the line-up of pictures was strong. The condition merely was temporary, however, most exhibitors agreed.

At Loew's Midland, Emil Jannings in "The Last Command" played to fair houses, but fell short of what was expected of it, in so far as attendance was concerned. "Under the Tonto Rim," at the Newman, played to meager crowds, but "Why Sailors Go Wrong" held up fairly well at the Pantages Theatre, as did "Harold Teen" at the Mainstreet.

"Tenderloin," at the Globe, did only a small business. A return engagement of "The Merry Widow," at the Liberty, however, played to an average attendance.

There was nothing unusual in the way of exploitation at any of the houses.

Comerford Will Improve House in Honesdale, Pa.

Purchase of the Lyric theatre, Honesdale, Pa., for $65,000, by the Comerford Amusement Company, of Scranton, which controls a chain of 150 theatres, was announced on April 30, when negotiations in the transactions were closed. The house will be modernized by an expenditure of $25,000 when the new owners take possession July 1. Improvements will include the installation of a Vitaphone device, betterment of the acoustic properties, addition of more seats and extensive interior decorations.

Newsreel Resume

No. 39 of Pathe News takes in the Shriners parade in Miami; the Bremen crew honored in New York and at Washington; West Pointers instructed in gunnery at Aberdeen, Md.; the Sinclair oil refinery swept by fire; the President and Mrs. Coolidge attending the circus; pursuit planes maneuvering in the clouds. This last mentioned bit shows a dazzling display of airplane skill. Some splendid shots were obtained by the newsreel man.

The airplane tragedy in which Leonard Bonney met his death while trying out new plane; the West Point cadets on parade; the quakes in Greece and Bulgaria; the King's troops in march review before the Duchess of York; and the war games at Langley Field, Va.; were the important features of No. 40 of Pathe News. Two additional items concerned the May festival at Wellesley College and the back-yard show put on by the kids of New York's East Side.

Issue No. 81 of Paramount News dealt with the visit of King Emmanuel to Tripoli; army pilots in war play at Langley Field; the West Pointers receiving gun instruction, and the fliers received in Washington. Other stories were about the salvaging of a liner wrecked off the Massachusetts coast; the Shriners impressive procession at Miami, and the new seaplane service from Nice to Monaco along the Riviera.

No. 82 had views of Italian workmen hailing Mussolini; the dam at Greeneville, S. C., which imperils neighboring valley; and the crash of Bonney's plane. The remainder of the shots were of motor bike stars in a tricky hill climbing contest; the annual spring regatta at the "Venice of Mexico"; the West Point cadets in parade; the builder of the Bremen plane; German woman athlete practicing for the Olympics; Walter Hagen defeated on British links, and a daredevil exploit by girl who jumps successfully from airplane.

No. 76 of M-G-M News reported the West Pointers studying the big guns at Aberdeen; the capital's tribute to the Bremen fliers; the Coolidges attending the circus, and the march of the Shriners at their national conclave at Miami. Interspersed throughout the reel were other stories—diving and other water sports at Austin, Tex.; the huge throng attending the Pimlico opening; airman sets a new record for upsidedown flying; pelicans come out of doors after long winter sojourn.

No. 77 presented the smartly dressed West Point cadets on the parade grounds; the May day celebration at Wellesley College; the visit of the Italian king to North Africa; and the plane demonstrations at Langley Field. Helen Wills in France and a round up of wild horses in Oregon also contributed to the interest of the reel.

Kinograms No. 5393 offered scenes of Rome's mayor visiting New York and the Bremen fliers received at Bolling Field, Va. Also viewed were shots of the colt, Alacrity; the huge derrick which collapsed in New York's street; Helen Finkley training for Olympic Games; jiu jitsu experts in a match.

No. 5394 related more scenes of enthusiasm anent the Bremen fliers as they attend a ball game in New York. In the line of news were more items: the Duchess of York inspecting her regiment; English boys trained in gymnastics; Walter Hagen beaten in golf match in England; Wellesley students saluting the seniors; Chicago drivers racing on the Roby Speedway; the West Pointers parading; the army fliers staging a "battle" in the air.

Fox News, Vol. 9 No. 63 began with scenes of Rome and the celebration of the city's 2,681 birthday. Also on hand was the New York welcome to the Bremen crew. Other events that obtained notice were the bestowal of prize cups to Spanish polo players, carnival at Columbus, Ga., in honor of its 100 birthday; track stars in the Penn relays.

No. 64 showed the West Point corps getting instruction at Aberdeen and the Bremen airmen decorated by the President. On hand also were items relating to a kid's top spinning contest in the south; Lindy Landing at Washington in the "Spirit of St. Louis"; California athlets training for the Olympics; Danish prince, who is leaving California to return home; Dixie girls in the dress of Cleopatra's time; Pike's Peak emerging from the winter shows.

In the Fox Movietone, Vol. 1 No. 23, were heard the voices of the Bremen fliers responding to their reception in New York; a squad of motor cyclists performing difficult feats and an aviation cadet undergoing a rigorous test in an "orientator."

A REVELATION OF CHARACTER
ACTING ON THE SCREEN !

"Czar Ivan the Terrible"

Produced by

SOVKINO of MOSCOW

(Producers of "Potemkin")

For bookings apply exclusively to

AMKINO CORPORATION

723 SEVENTH AVE., NEW YORK CITY

Bryant 7678

Opinions on Pictures

The Big Noise

Film Travesty, Neatly Done and Amusing

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

HERE is a neat little piece of satire which is exceptionally well done—which serves in introducing a smart take-off on the tabloid type of journalism. Yet beneath its outer shell of humor one can spot a deal of pathos—which shapes up as genuinely human. There is a background of something which might register as utter futility of life. And this note is what makes it click so well. There are points about it which suggest several recent films. It takes its character around New York's East Side and West Side, too. And on to Coney Island. After carrying out a touch of the humdrum existence of its characters it settles down into a story somewhat approaching "Chicago."

Chester Conklin plays the central figure —that of a subway guard. He is a meek chap who never feels any importance until he puts on his uniform. It develops that a mayoralty campaign is on which exploits the uplift of the overworked subway guard. After the candidate gets elected on this particular platform the subway guard is forgotten. And he becomes the work-slave again. Here is real pathos. And here is reality. What is presented here could reasonably happen. It is all very good—and acted very deftly by Conklin and the others of the cast. Your patrons should enjoy this number. It is far from being the usual diffle of the day.

Drawing Power: Needs heavy exploitation, but word-of-mouth advertising should put it over. Exploitation Angles: Feature Conklin as having ideal role. Bill as true slice of big city life.

THEME: Comedy-drama of subway guard exploited by politicians.

Produced and distributed by First National. Length, six reels. Released, May, 1928. Cast: Chester Conklin, Alice White, Bodil Rosing, Sam Hardy, Jack Egan, Ned Sparks, David Torrence. Director, Allan Dwan.

The Escape

A Fair-To-Middlin' Melodrama

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

AN effort to capture the highlights of the original of this picture which met with tolerable success on the stage hasn't been very successful. It can't be catalogued as very interesting, nor, on the other hand, very poor. It just serves up an average line of action concerning bootleggers and night clubs, with other ingredients to keep it moving. Being absorbed with much incident the plot does become complicated —so much so toward the climax that it becomes rather difficult to follow.

There is a hospital interne in the story who is sent out on a poverty case. When he arrives at the house he is compelled to use the phone next door to report the matter to his hospital. And by using the phone he meets the "little mother." And thus starts the romance. The heroine's father is a bootlegger and when he is bumped off in a raid she gets a job as hostess in a night club—a racket run by the very man responsible for her dad's death, though the girl is ignorant of it.

Along comes the young doctor, who, after getting discharged from the hospital, takes up with furnishing liquor for the club. After this episode, well the story runs into a flock of episodes before it fades into a happy ending. Miss Valli is appealing as the heroine, but the other characters are kind of lost in the shuffle. Just a so-so film.

Drawing Power: For average houses. Exploitation Angles: Feature as film version of successful play. Feature Miss Valli. Bill as serving up lots of action, etc.

THEME: Melodrama of bootleggers, etc., and the appeal of innocent girl to bring boy friend away from wayward path.

Produced and distributed by Fox. Length, six reels. Released, May, 1928. Cast: Virginia Valli, William Russell, Nancy Drexel, George Meeker. Directed by Richard Rosson.

Easy Come, Easy Go

Good Enough Entertainment Here

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

AS a play this wasn't so hot, but it presented sufficient high jinks to keep most any audience in a good frame of mind. Coming to the screen it carries on with some creditable comedy—and shapes up as the best picture Richard Dix has had in some time. He could stand even better ones than this—as its plot is kind of vapid. The idea revolves around the goings-on in a sanitarium where the star follows his girl friend. The hero has been fired by his father from the job of radio announcer. He becomes the innocent accomplice of an aged bank crook. And during the trip to the sanitarium where he has followed the girl friend he is suspected of lifting the loot from the passengers on the train.

And that's about all there is to it. Dix makes the piece hum with plenty of incident, and his personality makes the piece really enjoyable. There are many amusing complications, though several of them are hoary with age. Altogether it shapes up as a pretty spritely film, though it could stand some trimming here and there. Nancy Carroll makes an attractive heroine, though the role is limited.

Drawing Power: Title and popularity of star. Okay for average houses and first runs, too. Exploitation Angles: Tease the title and go after Dix's popularity. Feature Nancy Carroll of "Abie's Irish Rose" fame.

Produced and distributed by Famous Players. Length, six reels. Released, May, 1928. Cast: Richard Dix, Nancy Carroll, Charles Sellon, Frank Currier, Arnold Kent. Directed by Frank Tuttle.

The Man Who Laughs

Strong Drama Finely Acted and Directed

(Reviewed by E. G. Johnston)

THIS is the third of Victor Hugo's stories to be made into special productions by Universal and the author's characteristic outbursts are once more admirably conveyed to screen drama—this time by a master-craftsman of lights and shadows, Paul Leni. This is strong drama—a big production almost faultlessly made as far as motion pictures go. Any adverse criticism to this picture must be directed at its theme. Some of Hugo's novels have not been pleasant ones and this one falls under this classification. There were instances when his tirades were against horrifying states of affairs and this deals with one—the imperialistic regimes of King James the Second and Queen Anne. There were cruel practices those days and this quality must necessarily run through the picture in order to preserve story value. When these occur they are treated delicately as circumstances permit and the result is—we repeat—a really, fine motion picture even though it may have its gruesome moments.

Conrad Veidt does excellently as the clown who, in childhood, was the victim of Comprachicos, a marauding band of gypsies whose surgeon distorted the boy's features to a wide grin at the order of James II. The father of the boy had incurred the King's displeasure, he was executed and all property of the peer passed into the hands of the Duchess Josianna. Time passes and the boy develops as a famous clown. Olga Baclanova has the role of the Duchess and along with Veidt, Brandon Hurst, Caesar Gravina and Mary Philbin, contributes what this writer thinks to be an exceptional piece of work. As the defiant and wayward Duchess she fits the role to perfection.

The disfigured child grows up in the home of Ursus (Gravina) who capitalizes on the boy's ability to make the public laugh. A blind girl (Mary Philbin) rescued when a baby by the boy, is also used as a member of the family show troupe. From childhood, romance develops between the clown and the girl who cannot see her lover's distorted features. This affair, which is about to materialize into marriage, is almost upset by the Duchess' entry in the field and the discovery that the clown is the rightful heir to her estate. Josianna is not in good standing at Court and Queen Anne orders that she marry the clown and that the latter be made a peer of England. The turbulent court scene follows—the clown escapes and rejoins old Ursus and the blind girl after a violent scene at the docks where his enemies seek to prevent the departure. The somewhat incongruous entry of a police dog at this point aids the escape.

Drawing Power: Is of extended run calibre for the larger cities. As a more popular priced attraction for the smaller cities it should go big. It may have a lack of appeal to some of the feminine sex—this is questionable. Exploitation Angles: Les Miserables and the Hunchback of Notre Dame have proved beyond a doubt that Victor Hugo has been widely read. Capitalize on this. It is a most unusual story—play up this and also names in the excellent cast.

THEME: The romance between a disfigured clown and a blind girl who are thrown together in early youth. Fate decrees that they go through life together—the man sensitive to the point where he attempts to stifle his love for the girl even though she cannot see his distorted countenance. Many tribulations beset the two due to the discovery that the clown is rightful heir to a peerage. They escape their enemies and the ending is as happy a one as can be made—the two in each other's arms and their decision to brave life together. The real story ends much more tragically. ....

Produced and Distributed by Universal. Length, eleven reels. Released, Fall of 1928. The Cast: Conrad Veidt, Mary Philbin, George Siegmann, Torben Myers, Brandon Hurst, Josephine Crowell, Olga Baclanova, Caesar Gravina, Stuart Holmes, Sam De Grasse, Edgar Norton, Nick De Ruiz, Zimbo, the dog and Julius Molner. Story by Victor Hugo. Directed by Paul Leni. Adaptation and screen play by J. Grubb Alexander.

Hellship Bronson

A Melodramatic Sea Story

(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

THIS is an unlovely, almost revolting sea story with a mother-love appeal in it that will win feminine audiences, while the underworld sequences and the brutality exhibited aboard the sailing ship are bound to have the wrapt attention of the males. So with these various elements making up the action it should prove a good audience picture.

It is inclined to be slow in spots with entirely too much of the brutality injected, and is too long in working up the feminine appeal, but it is a powerful story, well conceived, with some remarkably strong situations and climaxes well worked out.

The cast is a splendid one, and does its work well. In the leading roles are Noah Beery, Mrs. Wallace Reid and Reed Howes. Beery is the unbelievably cruel, sinister captain of the sailing craft, who brings his son up to hate his mother, whom he has deserted, because of an unwarranted belief that she had been unfaithful to him. Beery, as usual, proves himself the capable actor, but the work of Reed Howes, the chip of the old block, hard, fighting, and versed only in the ways of the sea, is going to surprise his most ardent admirers. It is perhaps the best Howes has ever done. Mrs. Reid makes the most of the sad, oppressed mother, whose patience and tenderness wins out in the end.

Drawing Power: It has all of the elements that appeal to an audience, and should prove a good draw in all types of houses. Exploitation Angles: The underworld sequences of San Francisco's old waterfront; the storm at sea and the popularity of the leading players.

THEME: Sea captain, believing his young wife has been unfaithful to him, takes his young son and rears him in the ways of the sea at the same time instilling him with hatred for his mother. After an absence of twenty years the mother locates the missing pair, stows away on their ship, and, before the voyage is completed, wins the love of her son and forgiveness of her husband.

Produced and Distributed by Gotham Productions. Length, 7,000 feet. Released, May 1, 1928. The Cast: Noah Beery, Mrs. Wallace Reid, Reed Howes, Helen Foster, James Bradbury, Jr., Jack Anthony. Director, Joseph Henabery. Screen play by Louis Stevens. Supervised by Harold Shumate.

"You're Darn Tootin'"

(M-G-M-Comedy—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by E. G. Johnston)

DON'T miss this Stan Laurel-Oliver Hardy comedy. It's a cuckoo if there ever was one in this line of entertainment. When an ennuied bunch of film reviewers fairly laugh their heads off—even hard-boiled old Jack Harrower—then we'll go the limit toward congratulating this popular Roach comedy team—and their director, Edgar Kennedy. It's good all the way through, but the choice highlight is the employment of a simple gag which is admirably built up to a point where, if it doesn't produce some of the best laughs you ever heard, then put this writer down as one who doesn't know what it's all about.

Laurel and Hardy have a job with a concert band and they're not so good and this is what starts all the trouble. A boarding-house bill also contributes to their difficulties.

With the musical theme some good effects might be introduced by your theatre orchestra.

"Fair and Muddy"

(M-G-M-Our Gang—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by E. G. Johnston)

THERE'S a great deal too much mud-throwing in this Gang comedy to bring it up to the level of other McGowan-directed two-reelers, which deal with these prankish kids. A little mud would have been alright, but when the film develops into just one mud-heave after another it becomes very monotonous entertainment. The story has to do with a child-hating spinster who, in order to receive a bequest from a rich uncle, must somehow acquire a child of her own by a certain date. An orphanage furnishes "The Gang," its director instructing the kids to make life as miserable as possible for the lady when they all start for a day's outing via auto. The mud-throwing turns out to be just the means of softening her attitude toward children and she adopts the whole crew.

If you like "The Gang" plus lots of mud, take a chance.

"Three Tough Onions"

(Educational—One Reel)

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

THE ancient institution of marriage comes in for a few breaks in this new comedy of the Cameo series starring Monty Collins. Monty works as energetically as ever. He is one comedian who puts everything he has into his work. As the hen-pecked husband, pestered to death with his wife's relations, considerately come to live with him, he has several opportunities for comedy and they are for fans occasions for effective laughter. Estelle Bradley, Robert Graves and Katherine Parrish are the assistant players. They were directed by Jules White.

Most of the reel consists of Monty's troubles in his own home, where the in-laws have taken possession of everything. Some of this comedy is good, other portions of it are just about fair. All in all, it will provide an entertaining ten minutes for the program of the average exhibitor.

"Navy Beans"

(Educational—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

"BIG BOY," Educational's smallest player, (smallest in size but not in fame or popularity by a long shot), has a fairly strong laugh vehicle in this one, which deals with the navy. Teamed with little Lorraine Rivero and Jackie Levine in the first few hundred feet, the scene of his activities shifts to shipboard when he hides inside a sailor's kit, and is accidentally carried on board ship, where a peck of trouble ensues for him. While not as competently gauged for laughs and as nicely proportioned as some of the star's other comedies, "Navy Beans" can be counted on to draw a goodly share of chuckles.

The gags on board ship have a certain repetition, but that will be overlooked in the average theatres where the fans are not critical minded and ready to burst into a laugh. The kid actor has troubles with the captain of the vessel and the fun culminates in a scene of gun inspection wherein "Big Boy" is revealed as a culprit, but nevertheless is taken to heart by the captain and the crew.

Other performers are Lewis Sargent, Robert Graves and Lila Leslie. As usual, Charles Lamont directed "Big Boy." William Byer did the photography, which is very much in evidence in a slow motion scene of the boy sea sick.

"Whose Wife"

(Universal—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

MIKE and Ike have a better vehicle than usual in this one. It affords them an opportunity to display some knockabout comedy that is better than the average, and it has some humorous situations. Mike takes just the wrong time to make up his mind to get married, against the judgment of Ike.

As the wedding ceremony is concluded a wire arrives from Mike's uncle saying that if Mike is still single on his immediate arrival, he will make Mike his sole heir. Uncle arrives as the wedding party is about to board the train, and Mike deceives him into believing that Ike is the real bridegroom. Uncle decides to join the party on the honeymoon, and insists upon Mike occupying the upper over him, leaving the adjoining lower to the bride and Ike, to the keen embarrassment of all concerned.

Complications come thick and fast as Mike, Ike and the bride endeavor to untangle the situation, which eventually is accomplished when Mike and his bride fall out of the compartment window as the train lurches. Uncle then realizes that the joke has been on him and the happy couple are permitted to do their honeymooning alone.

"The Newlyweds' Happy Day"

(Universal—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

THE Newlyweds with their young hopeful, Snookums, go through some funny antics on a hunting trip, during the progress of which Snookums and his dad are chased by a bear. They take refuge in a tree, and Snookums saves the situation by dropping a pine cone on the bear's head and chasing him off.

On their arrival back home they find a telegram from Snookum's wealthy grandfather saying he will arrive immediately. This brings to the Newlyweds' home all of the poor relations, each seeking to win the favor of grandfather. Snookums gets into all sorts of mischief, and all but drives the entire assemblage to distraction. His parents fear for results as grandfather is the victim of many of the youngster's misdeeds.

Mrs. Newlywed is in tears over Snookums' behavior, but these tears quickly change to smiles of joy when grandfather announces that Snookums is his sole heir. There are a few real good laughs in the two reels.

Classified Ads

RATES: 10 cents a word for each insertion, in advance except Employment Wanted, on which rate is 5 cents

Position Wanted

WINNER OF $50 PRIZE in Harold Lloyd's "Speedy" Exploitation Contest, as announced in January 28th issue of Motion Picture News, desires position as manager or publicity man. Have operated own theatres for past eleven years. Now disposing of all interests, with view of making connection with theatre circuit State salary, etc. Address Box 310, care of Motion Picture News, New York City.

THEATRE MANAGER—Five years experience managing vaudeville and picture houses, chain and independent, advertising and exploitation. Age 25 — married. Any location with permanent connection. Address Box 333, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

PROJECTIONIST UNION. Young man with broad experience in motion picture projection desires position. Capable, can make good anywhere. Address Box 346, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York.

A-1 Male Organist at liberty. Wurlitzer specialist. Organist, 1112 Lee St., Charleston-Ka., W. Va.

ORGANISTS and SINGERS, thoroughly trained and experienced in theatre work. Men and women now ready for good positions. Union or nonunion. Write salary, and other data. Address, Chicago Musical College, 64 E. Van Buren, Chicago.

For Sale

FOR SALE—Washington Theatre, Granite City, Illinois. Modern and up to the minute in every detail; cost half a million dollars and owing to sickness will sacrifice. Seats 1900, can stand 700—open air theatre next to building, seats 1600, can stand 1000 — Seven day town — population over 30,000 and from surrounding towns draw 30,000 more. Pay rolls 2½ million a month. Two other small theatres in town. Will gladly show all records for past five years which show $50,000 a year profit. $125,000 cash will handle deal, balance in ten years. Address Box 342, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

FOR SALE—Marlowe Theatre, Buffalo, N. Y. 750 seats, $45,000. $12,000 cash required. For details write David Krieger, 257 Virginia Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

FOR SALE—400 leather upholstered opera chairs, also grand chandelier. Good condition. Wire for prices. Norfolk Daily News, Norfolk, Nebraska.

Theatre Wanted

THEATRE WANTED.—Country Town or Suburban, will lease or buy. Give particulars. H. R. W., 8 Downing Ave., Downington, Pa.

WANTED—To lease theatres in towns of 1800 up. Address Box 347 Motion Picture News, New York City.

WANTED — Two Experienced Theatre Managers as FOURTH OWNERS to locate as resident associates. One in Ohio City, other in New York State. Full particulars with Bank References upon request. Address Ross A. McAvoy, 252 Lafayette Ave., Geneva, N. Y.

Reproductions of some first run theatre displays featuring First National's "Shepherd of the Hills." The group includes a 3-column layout in half-tone for the Circle theatre, Indianapolis; a 3-column ad for the Imperial, Columbia, S. C.; a 4-column display for the Pantheon and a 4-column ad for the Southern, Columbus, O., and a 2-column ad for the Orpheum in South Bend, Ind.

Regional News from Correspondents

Buffalo

FIRE swept Loew's Yonge Street theatre in Toronto on Friday, May 4, destroying a pipe organ valued at $12,000, and damaging the building and furnishings to the extent of approximately $18,000. The loss was fully covered by insurance, but the performances will have to be given on a roof garden on the same property until repairs can be made.

Alex Weissman, who recently resigned from the sales staff of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange here, has joined the Hollywood Pictures outfit in New York City, according to word reaching his Buffalo friends.

Bernstein Brothers of Elmira broke ground last week for their new theatre at Ithaca. It will be a 2000-seat house, playing both pictures and vaudeville. Expectations are that the theatre will be completed and formally opened to the public about November 1, next.

The Fox Film Corporation exchange here was visited last week by Max Roth of New York City, home office representative.

Buffalo exchange salesmen returning for the weekend from Syracuse report that Harry Gilbert, former owner of the Regent theatre there, and who is now building a new and imposing-looking house on South Salina Street in Syracuse, expects to open up on September 1.

Joe Miller, manager of the Tiffany exchange here, left for New York on Friday to attend the national sales convention of his organization on May 5 and 6.

On May 3, Nicholas Kuhn, for 57 years identified with theatre work in Buffalo, died in his Buffalo home after a ten days' illness.

Jim Kelly, Tonawanda theatre owner, is initiating the Kiwanis club there into the habit of becoming show addicts.

Miss Ruth Rappaport, booker for the Warner Brothers exchange, had to remain in bed several days last week on account of a heavy cold.

The film folk know that Spring, a long time in coming, has arrived with a bang. John Sitterly was seen on Film Row last week all dolled up in a new suit.

Fred Zimmerman, Bobbie Albert and Maurie Cohen were among those seen at the opening of the baseball season here last week.

Charlie Johnston, from the Ridge theatre at Lackawanna, expects to have his car on the road again soon. He had a severe smashup recently.

Manager C. E. Almy of Warner Brothers exchange here has just returned from his organization's national sales convention.

Mrs. F. J. A. McCarthy, wife of the manager of the First National exchange here, is recovering from a severe attack of the flu.

The Model theatre at Syracuse, managed by R. Stevens, the Dew Tell at South Dayton, operated by Tickup & Cunningham, and the Savonia at Savonia, managed by Walter Deming, have been closed recently, according to word reaching Buffalo film folk last week.

Joseph Kooperman has sold the Liverpool theatre at Liverpool to Victor L. Parsons, who appointed E. E. Roberts as manager.

J. Meyer Schine of Gloversville, head of the Schine Theatrical Enterprises, paid a brief visit to Buffalo last week, and then entrained for Rochester to look over the field there.

Manager Dave Miller and the salesmen of the Universal exchange here are out in the field selling the 1928-29 product following their return last week from the national convention of Universal at Atlantic City.

Charlie Hayman, owner of the Cataract and Strand theatres in Niagara Falls, and one of the most widely known exhibitors in this part of the country, who returned recently from a three months' European trip with his wife, is now planning on a trip soon to Californ- their city residence for the season

Mr. and Mrs. Behling of the Fillmore-Palace, the Ellenterry, and the Sylvia theatres, have given up their city residence for the season and are now at their summer home in Waverly Beach, Canada.

F. D. Rundell, manager of the Capitol theatre at Waverly, is highly enthusiastic over the results noted since the recent installation there of a Vitaphone. Rundell also manages the Tioga theatre at Oswego.

Elmer Lux, booker for F B O, got too intimate last week with a cold and, as a result, was forced to spend several days in bed.

John Nolan, manager of the Fox Film Corporation exchange here, spent most of last week in New York, conferring with officials in the home office.

F B O exchange here enlarged its staff last week. Leo Murphy resigned from the Tiffany exchange sales force to join F B O's, and Eddie Walsh, formerly of First National, also was added to the F B O staff. Max Rowley, who has been with F B O for many years, has resigned to become a farmer, having purchased some acreage at Silver Creek.

Charles Martina of Mt. Morris, who recently took over the Academy theatre at Nunda, gave V. G. Sanford, National Theatre Supply company salesman from the Buffalo office, an order last week for two new Peerless reflector arc lamps and one Unitron.

Manager John E. Carr of the Hippodrome won the hearts of the Boy Scouts here last week by turning the theatre over to them one morning free of charge so they could stage a play of their own.

The American Seating company, catering to theatres, has just opened an office in Buffalo in the Huyler Building, across the hall from the Film Board of Trade offices. John R. Bentley is in charge.

The Photoplay theatre at Castile has closed indefinitely, the Palace and Webster theatres at Rochester have closed for repairs and will be reopened in the fall, and the Connette at Ripley has closed indefinitely.

Miss Jennie Barone of the Fox Film Corporation was stricken with a cold last week and had to remain away from the office several days.

John A. Flewellyn, 56, for more than 35 years a stage employe at Niagara Falls and Lockport theatres, died in Niagara Falls on April 28 of pneumonia.

Chicago

"DOC" NED RAFELSKI, manager of Bland Bros.' Rogers and Magnolia theatres, was held up by two armed men and robbed of his automobile and five hundred dollars on Sunday night. "Doc" was driving home when the robbers leaped on his running board at Canton and Maplewood avenues and forced him to turn over the money, which comprised the receipts of the Rogers theatre for the evening. They tossed "Doc" out at Homan avenue and Augusta street, but fortunately he escaped injury.

Pat Garyn of National Screen Service, who has been on the west coast, making an extensive trade survey, stopped in Chicago last week for a conference with Manager H. C. Young of the local office and left Tuesday for his New York City headquarters.

A feature of Tom Mix's successful week's visit to Chicago was the exhibitors' reception given for him at F. B. O.'s exchange, by Manager Herb Washburn and staff. The luncheon committee was in charge of Ted Meyers and Len Ullrich. Monte Blue was also a visitor of F. B. O. on that day and took part in the festivities.

M. Marcus, of the C. C. Quimby Enterprises in Fort Wayne, Ind., made a flying trip to Chicago last week. When seen on film row he stated that the new Emboyd theatre is expected to open on the 12th of this month. According to Mr. Marcus, this theatre will be one of the largest and most beautiful de luxe houses in the state of Indiana. Al W. Sobler, well known Chicago publicity expert, is handling the exploitation and publicity in connection with the opening of this house.

E. Braum, who has recently taken over the Ritz theatre in North Milwaukee, was in Chicago this week on business. The Ritz, which is classed as one of Milwaukee's finest suburban houses, was formerly operated by George Fischer, but Mr. Braum will take the house back on May 15th. Mr. Braum, by the way, was the first exhibitor to sign a regular service contract at the new office of the National Screen Service.

B. N. Judell, of B. N. Judell, Inc., announces that he is opening a new office at 828 S. Wabash avenue, on May 8th.

Edward Lindeman, special representative for D. W. Griffith, has been in the city for several days on business, and is making his headquarters at United Artists exchange.

Simansky & Miller opened the Forest theatre at Forest Park, Ill., on Saturday night and got away to a good start. The house, which was formerly owned by Ascher Brothers, has been completely redecorated and refurnished, since acquired by Messrs Simansky and Miller, and presents a very handsome appearance. Mike Siegel has been appointed manager and E. D. Miller, Jr., assistant manager.

Al Lichtman, Victor Shapiro, manager of publicity, and Producer John Considine, visited the local United Artist exchange last week and then left for the west coast, where they will remain for several weeks.

James Morrissey, managing director of Midwesco theatres in Kenosha, Wis., has resigned that position to become associated with his former employer, Tom Saxe, as Detroit manager of White Tower, Inc., and will supervise the installation of a chain of these White Tower hamburger stands in Michigan

Baltimore

THE Garden Roof, atop the New Garden theatre here, will be kept open as a dance hall throughout the entire summer according to the present plans, which is the first time in the history of the place that this has been done, so far as is known.

Fred Robbins, who has conducted the orchestra there, has gone to Carlin's Dance hall for the summer and the orchestra to play throughout the summer will be a Charles Farson unit under the direction of Oscar Apfel.

Joe Robbins, father of Fred and Sam Robins, both leaders of orchestras, has gone to Virginia Beach, Va., to superintend the opening of his concessions there.

B. Marsh, veteran theatrical man, who has been assistant manager of the New Theatre for several weeks, has resigned.

Stanley Turo, formerly concert master at Loew's Valencia, has resigned that position.

Bernard E. Schnapper, who has been for five years with the Baltimore Daily Post here, and for several years of that time handling motion picture advertising, has been appointed Classified Manager of that paper, but still handles movie display.

T. M. Cushing, movie critic of the Morning Sun here, had charge of the Colonial Day Pageant, at St. Johns College, Annapolis, Md., which took place recently.

The Brooklyn Theatre, here, seating 500 persons, was opened recently by Louis Tunick, who also operates the Overlea Theatre.

The Grand theatre, Highlandtown, Baltimore, Md., operated by the Frank H. Durkee Interests, and managed by C. Elmer Nolte, will be closed during the summer for extensive alterations.

William A. Busch, formerly assistant manager at the Stanley here, and previous to that First National salesman, has recovered from an illness which he suffered recently.

George W. Jacobs, manager of the Goldfield theatre, here, has gone to Mt. Clemens, Mich., for his health.

Mrs. Charles Rich, wife of a salesman for Warners Exchange, Washington, D. C., presented her husband with a baby girl recently.

The annual conference of the Film Boards of Trade, to be held on the West Coast, will be attended by James B. Fitzgerald, secretary of the Washington, D. C., Film Board of Trade.

J. W. Wickham has succeeded Leroy Breitbarth as manager of the Elite Theatre, Washington, D. C. Mr. Brietbarth has become manager of the Hippodrome there.

M. Bechtold has been succeeded as cashier of the United Artists Corporation Exchange, Washington, D. C., by George E. Bonesteef.

Joe Kronman has succeeded Mrs. Clara Cunningham as cashier of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Exchange, Washington, D. C.

Another theatre is planned for Catonsville, Md., a suburb of Baltimore, by the Catonaville Theatre Corporation, A. C. Brueckman, president. The theatre will cost about $100,000 and plans are being drawn by J. J. Zink, architect.

A new theatre is to be built at Bethesda, Md., by Walter R. Tuckerman. It will measure 85 by 100 feet and will cost about $90,000.

Vitaphone mechanism will be installed in the Colony Theatre, Portsmouth, Va.

The Regent Theatre, colored, Baltimore, Md., operated by Isaac Hornstein, has had Vitaphone mechanism installed.

Bernard Depkin, Jr., formerly manager of the Stanley here and then production manager for that house, has been promoted to handle the stage production work for both the Earle in Washington, D. C., and the Stanley in Baltimore. He stages the productions which are brought from New York at the Earle and then they are taken to the Stanley in Baltimore for the following week.

The Liberty Theatre, Cumberland, Md., managed by Thomas H. Burke, will be rebuilt this summer. The ceiling will be raised, rest rooms and 600 more seats will be added. A vacant space adjoining the theatre measuring 90 by 135 feet will be used in the remodeling.

The Aladdin Theatre, Baltimore, Md., has been reopened as a colored house by Harry Morstein, who operates the Queen theatre here.

Salt Lake City

AMONG exhibitor visitors spending some time at the local exchange mart last week were Steve Deal of the Star Theatre at Springville, Utah, George Lindsay of the Star theatres at Eureka and Payson, Utah, and O. E. Ostlund of the Rivoli at Springville, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. William Worman who have a circuit of theatres out of Ogden, Utah, have been lining up some new pictures here of late, as have Mr. and Mrs. Littlejohn of the Star and Lyric theatres at Price, Utah.

J. Frank Shea, District Manager for F B O spent several days in this city from San Francisco last week. Sid Wiesbaum, Denver Branch Manager for F B O was also here.

Manager Al O'Keefe spent last week at the Butte Pathe office.

Lee Stallings of a circuit of theatres out of Richfield, Utah, was a visitor here last week.

Ben Fish, Seattle Manager for M-G-M, stopped off in this city enroute to the convention being held at Kansas City.

Manager L. C. Wingham, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange manager here, also attended the convention at Kansas City.

Manager George E. Carpenter of the Capitol Theatre here expects to make a two weeks' trip to the Pacific Coast within the coming month, accompanied by his golf bag.

The Victory Theatre management here announced that preparations are being made now for the installation of the Vitaphone and Movietone.

The National Theatre Supply Company of this city has recently sold an up-to-date booth equipment and a screen to C. C. Voeller, manager of the new theatre now under construction at Buhl, Idaho.

A. K. Shepherd, Montana sales representative tor Paramount-Famous-Lasky at the local exchange, was in for a few days.

O. J. Hazen, representative here for the National Theatre Supply Company, after completing a four weeks' trip throughout the state of Idaho, has returned to the local office, it is stated. This company has just completed the installation of Reflector Arc Lamps and Generator equipment in L. M. Zug's Rialto Theatre at Jerome, Idaho.

Dallas

A PEP-TOMIST Club is being organized by the Palace theatre, Dallas, the members of the club being the wives of the theatre staff, and their mission will be to take an active part in Dallas civic movements in behalf of the Palace theatre. Last year the theatre was instrumental in placing over three hundred needy children in vacation camps and the club will continue this good work during the year, and will endeavor to see that needy children receive attention. A. Haydn Mason is managing director of the Palace.

Homer Phillips, head pianist of the Palace stage band, will play at the Elizabeth Gerard benefit at the Fair Park Auditorium.

Leroy Bickel, manager of the Dallas Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange, has been awarded a place in the Legion of Honor, M-G-M's prize sales organization, for his effective work in developing an exceptionally fine sales organization, and for his unusual executive ability over a long period of years.

William Zoellner, manager of the Oklahoma City M-G-M exchange, received a similar award for securing distribution on all classes of products and for holding second place in short subjects sales.

James O. Cherry, managing director of the Melba theatre, has proved himself to be no "mean" arranger of scores for feature pictures by arranging a non-synchronized vitaphone score.

L. E. Schneider, western divisional manager for Publix, has returned from the Washington convention and will attend the opening of the Majestic in Austin.

UNIFORMS FOR HOUSE ATTACHES COSTUMES FOR STAGE PRESENTATIONS BROOKS 1437 B'way N. Y. City

Albany

MISS EDNA PFISTER, who who has served as a very efficient secretary of the Albany Film Board of Trade for the past year leaves on May 15 for Los Angeles, as a delegate to the national convention of Film Boards of Trade.

The Farash Theatre Company is planning to build a new house in Scotia, across the river from Schenectady. Officials of the company say that the new house will be the first of a chain that will be either bought or constructed within a radius of 100 miles of the Electric City.

Mrs. Charles Stombaugh, wife of the manager of the Pathe exchange in Albany, has returned east after spending several weeks in Minneapolis.

At least three theatres have decided to close their doors during the summer months. The trio includes the Bright Spot and the Columbia in Rensselaer, owned by Ross Fayles, while the Queen theatre in Saranac Lake has also closed.

Jack Golden, whose work as manager of Proctor's theatre in Troy, contributed to the S. R. O. sign being out practically every night, is once more back on the job after spending several days in New York city.

The meeting of the Albany Film Board of Trade as well as the Arbitration Board, was held on Monday of last week and lasted for several hours on account of the large number of cases up for consideration.

Charles Marshall, of Ausable Forks, believes that he has one of the best combinations from a business standpoint, of any exhibitor in all New York state. During the winter months, Marshall applies himself to his duties as owner of a theatre, while during the spring and summer he spends the greater part of his time in selling automobiles.

The Vitaphone has been installed at the Broadway theatre in Kingston and had its premiere on Monday of this week. The house is owned by Harry Lazarus, a former resident of Albany.

It now looks as though there would be a new theatre built soon in Plattsburg. It is said that there are three after the house, these including William Benton of Saratoga Springs, the Publix theatres, and the Schine organization.

Subsequent run houses in Schenectady appear to be doing a good business this spring, in fact making a better showing when overhead is considered, than the bigger houses. When business slows up at the huge manufacturing companies in Schenectady, and people begin to pinch their pennies a bit, the smaller houses gain business.

Al Gutek, local manager for F B O, made a business trip through the Adirondacks last week and reported that many of the mountain towns are getting in shape to open for the summer tourists.

The biggest event of the week so far as C. H. Buckley of Albany is concerned was the arrival of the stork one day last week and with it a boy nine and a quarter pounds.

Sue Weller has decided to devote all of her time to her theatre at Alexandria Bay, and plans to sell the large garage which she has owned and operated for several years there.

Watervliet had its first carnival of the season last week, much to the disgust of exhibitors in that city. The carnival also drew from both Troy and Albany.

Elizabeth Friedlander, a booker at the Educational exchange in Albany, is recovering from a sickness of several weeks standing.

I. Shancupp, who is connected with the State theatre in Utica, and Sam Goldstein of Springfield, Mass., were along Albany's Film Row during the week. Henry Frieder of Hudson and Maurice Chase, president of Chase Pictures, were also in town.

The theatre in Lake George, which has been run for several years by Mrs. Carpenter, will reopen next week under the same management.

Lew Fischer of Fort Edward, arrived on Albany's Film Row last Monday, and dropped in at several of the exchanges. Fischer announced that he had just bought a new organ for his house in Hoosick Falls.

Probably no one in this section was more greatly affected by the tragic death of Congressman Sweet than Jake Golden, who served several years as a newspaperman at the State Capitol, and whose work then brought him in close touch with Mr. Sweet who was then Speaker of the Assembly.

Among local film managers, either out of town or just back from conventions, are Kenneth Robinson, of the Paramount; H. O. Worden, of Metro; Harry Seed, local manager for Warner Brothers; Nat Levy, of Universal, and R. S. Wehrle, manager for First National. The sales force from each of these exchanges also attended the conventions.

From the speed that is being shown these days in preparing the way for the new theatre that is to be built by the Stanley interests in Albany, it is evident that the house will be in shape to open this coming fall.

The town hall in Ellisburg, has closed as a motion picture theatre for the summer months. The Hudson theatre in Albany, damaged by fire some weeks ago is still closed. A new priest has arrived in Altona, and will show pictures one night a week.

Louis Saperstein handles the American theatre in Troy and boasts that he hasn't had a day off in months. Under his direction the house has become one of the best known and likewise best paying subsequent run theatres in the Collar City.

The Temple Theatre in Pulaski will serve for a month or so as the meeting place for members of the First Baptist church, as the result of a courtesy extended by Manager Frank W. Lane. The church is in process of being repaired.

Pete Dana, of Albany, manager for Tiffany, spent a few days last week attending the Tiffany-Stahl convention.

Pete Gordon, who has the theatre in Keeseville, is nursing a fractured wrist sustained in a recent fall from a ladder, while engaged in house repairs.

Clara Page, who has charge of the ticket office at the Troy theatre, has returned to her duties after a week's illness with grippe. The young ladies serving as ushers at the Troy theatre, appeared in new uniforms last week.

Jack Campbell is back on the job at the Griswold theatre in Troy, after a short illness. He is continuing his Monday "opportunity nights" and they seem to be going over well.

Minneapolis

A VOTE is to be taken soon in Clark, S. D., to settle the Sunday show question. Sentiment in the community seems to be strongly in favor of the shows.

Studios have been opened at 624 Hennepin avenue, Minneapolis, by the Ted Brown Producing and Booking Agency in order to better serve their clientele and to have a larger number of productions available.

Hitchcock and True, of the Princess theatre, Minneapolis, have recently installed one of the latest models of the Robert Morton Unit organs with the result, according to the owners, that business has increased 50 per cent. C. B. Cooper, Northwest representative of the Robert Morton Company, handled the entire transaction.

W. L. Hamilton, salesman out of the Minneapolis office for Pathe, was able to leave the hospital this week after undergoing a serious operation. He expects to return to cover the Wisconsin territory shortly.

Another exchange man to return to his desk after a serious illness is T. A. Burke, manager of the Minneapolis First National office. Burke's illness was apparently due to overwork and he is now doing part time at his desk.

Ben Blotchy, district manager for Paramount, has just completed a three weeks' trip of the company offices in the middle west.

The Opera House at Brooten, Minn., is again showing motion pictures under the direction of Lawrence Reine.

J. E. Nason, Minneapolis architect, has been secured to draw the plans for a new $30,000 theatre at Phillips, Wis. John Estrel of Park Falls, Wis., expects to start work on the theatre this summer.

W. H. Bannister closed his Grand theatre at Hallock, Minn., the last of April.

The third annual Vodvil Dance of the St. Paul Movie Managers' Club was held the first of the month in St. Paul. A large crowd reported a fine time.

The Sandon theatre at Jackson, Minn., is to be closed. It was recently purchased by Frank A. Matuska, owner of the State theatre in the same town.

The State theatre at Fairmont, Minn., has been purchased by Finkelstein and Ruben and W. L. Nicholas and will be closed.

J. W. Woodman, an exhibitor at Frederick, S. D., died recently at his home in Frederick.

John Vogt, who was formerly with F. & R., has been appointed manager of the Fischer-Paramount Company's Rialto theatre at Gladstone, Mich.

Extensive improvements in the building and equipment of the Gem theatre at McVille, N. D., have necessitated the closing of the house for six weeks.

The Bettendorf theatre at Bettendorf, Iowa, has been purchased by L. J. Ashwin of Minneapolis.

A new theatre is to be installed in a building at Adrian, Minn., by Joe Fischenich and M. E. Carrigan.

While I. J. Craite is in Milwaukee on an extended business trip, the Lyric theatre at Little Falls, Minn., will be under the management of R. L. Nedry of Chicago.

The Eagle theatre at Austin, Minn., has been sold by W. J. Hamilton to John Kent of Olson, Wis.

Indianapolis

MISS MARION McCULLOUGH, now assistant secretary at Cincinnati, Ohio, will return to Indianapolis as permanent secretary of the Indianapolis Film Board of Trade about June 1. She had charge of the Indianapolis office last year before accepting a position as traveling representative for the National Board.

She will come to Indianapolis May 12 and leave May 16 for the Los Angeles convention. Miss Patricia Lynch, who will relinquish her post to Miss McCullough, will join the Portland, Oregon, board.

W. W. Williamson, resident manager of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange, returned this week from the Kansas City convention, where he conferred on the new selling season.

Dudley Williston, local manager, attended the Warner Bros. convention last week.

Fred Sanders announced the Sanders neighborhood house at Fountain Square was permanently closed May 4.

Dr. Carl Osterheld has sold the Broad Ripple theatre, north side neighborhood house, to W. M. Turner.

The Lyric at Lafayette has been purchased by R. C. Watson. C. W. Thompson formerly owned the property.

The Liberty at Morristown, owned by O. R. Cane, has been sold to E. B. Copeland.

L. W. Marriott, sales manager, and Owen Donham, office manager, have returned from the Tiffany-Stahl sales convention at the Stevens Hotel, Chicago, April 28-May 1.

Tamler Bros., Indianapolis chain owners, have purchased the Tacoma, on E. Washington street, from Floyd Beitman. The neighborhood house makes the fourth theatre under Tamler control. The others are the Savoy, Garfield and Tuxedo.

C. E. Penrod, F. B. O. of A., local manager, will leave May 13th for the Chicago convention.

Morris Horwitz, of Louisville, has joined the Capitol Film Exchange sales staff.

Irving W. Mandel, Chicago, owner of Security Pictures, conferred with E. A. Sipe, local manager, last week, about the coming season.

Phil Dunas, of Pittsburgh, is new sales manager of United Artists Corp., replacing Ralph Abbett. Dunas formerly was with Universal.

The Fountain Square theatre, new presentation playhouse on the south side, was opened Saturday night.

Louis B. Goulden of the Goulden-Feldman Theatres, Inc., conducted the formal opening. Westin B. Masters, formerly of West Coast Theatres chain, was the concert organist. Goulden is president and general manager and Morris Horowitz, treasurer. This 1500 seat house is the finest south side theatre.

Tim Crawford, until recently featured organist at the Indiana theatre, appeared at R. R. Bair's Uptown theatre Sunday.

The Wabash theatre at Clinton is closed for a month for extensive cleaning and repairs.

Work on a two-story Spanish design theatre to cost $45,000 has been begun at Spencer, Ind., E. M. Viquesney, sculptor, announced.

The Ideal theatre, in the Jennings building, on Broad street, opened last Thursday. Walter Green is manager of the new house, which seats 250.

The Emboyd theatre at Ft. Wayne will open May 14th. The new house was designed by A. M. Strauss and Charles Eberson, architects.

Atlanta

ACCORDING to reports which reached Film Row this week, the Liberty Theatre at Roanoke, Ala., was badly damaged by fire last Monday night, April 30. The house was operated by Dr. C. B. Welch. It is understood that Dr. Welch plans to start immediately to repair the house for an early reopening.

An approaching wedding of interest to members of the film circle is that of Carter Barron, manager of the Metropolitan theatre, to Miss Velma Snelling, of Bostwick, Ga., which will be solemnized June 6.

Carl F. Mock, well known to exhibitors throughout the Southern territory, has established a connection with the Atlanta branch of Educational as salesman and will cover Alabama territory.

James Lynch joined the sales force of Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions this week and left Wednesday for the Tennessee territory, to which he was assigned by Fred F. Creswell, district manager of the company.

E. L. Coel, secretary to the Atlanta Film Board, will leave May 15 for Chicago, where he will join the main party going to the convention of the Film Board Secretaries in Los Angeles.

Universal's Atlanta delegation to the company's second regional sales convention left early last Tuesday morning. The meeting took place in the Coronada Hotel in St. Louis, beginning Wednesday, May 2, and will last through Saturday. The members of the Atlanta party arrived the morning the convention opened. In the delegation were R. B. Williams, Southern district manager; "Shag" Jordan, Atlanta branch manager; Earle E. Griggs, district publicity director; and Salesman Frank W. Salley, C. G. Harrell, Heyward and Harry M Williams.

John W. Mangham, Jr., manager of Liberty-Specialty, returned last week from a trip on the west coast of Florida.

George F. Blethen and Alex Callen, Liberty-Specialty representatives, were in the Atlanta office for the week-end.

Flynn Haygood, of the Grand Theatre, Waynesboro, Ga., was a recent visitor to Film Row.

C. R. Beacham, M. Blick and George Almon, First National representatives who attended the company's sales convention in Chicago, returned last Friday.

C. A. Clegg, manager of First National's Atlanta branch returned last Monday from a trip to the company's home office.

"Buster" Miller, of the Conyers Theatre, Conyers, Ga., made a trip to Atlanta last week.

Recent visitors to Film Row included E. T. Hopkins, of the Strand Theatre, Lawrenceville, Ga.; W. F. Wells, of the Opera House, Newberry, S. C.; Major C. F. Rhodes, of the South Amusement Corporation, Fair Park, Birmingham, Ala.; C. H. Carney, formerly operator of the Trojan Theatre, Troy, Ala., who will operate the new theatre, yet unnamed, at LaFayette, Ala. Mr. Carney expects to open his new house on June 1st.

M. Mitchell, Pathe salesman, attended the opening of the new Royal Theatre in Columbus, O.

Tracy Mathewson, Pathe newsreel cameraman returned to Atlanta last Tuesday from Columbus, Ga., after attending the opening of R. E. Martin's new theatre, the Royal.

C. L. Peavey, Atlanta branch manager for F B O, made a trip into South Georgia last week.

Canada

LOEW'S theatre, Toronto, one of the largest theatres in the Dominion, suffered serious loss by fire early on the morning of May 4, when flames destroyed the pipe organ, piano, orchestra instruments, along with the orchestra pit, a number of rows or orchestra seats, as well as rooms under the stage. Decorations and furnishings of the theatre were also damaged by smoke and water while the starting of the automatic sprinkler system by the heat also caused some loss back stage.

That the well-known theatre was not destroyed was probably due to the quick judgment on the part of Isaac Thompson, night watchman.

Manager J. Bernstein transferred the week's show to Loew's Winter Garden, which is atop the theatre which was damaged.

Property damage, apart from the mural decorations and furnishings, was estimated at $30,000, the pipe organ representing a loss of $12,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

J. M. Franklin, manager of B. F. Keith's theatre, Ottawa, Ontario, who has been an officer of the Rotary Club for a number of years, has again been elected a director of the Ottawa branch of the organization for the fiscal year just starting.

Incidentally, Mr. Franklin has found the Saturday opening plan for Keith's theatre in Ottawa to be highly successful in its operation and resulting in profits.

A special free show for children was given at Keith's theatre Saturday morning under the direct auspices of the Ottawa Humane Society, of which Manager Franklin is a director.

P. J. Nolan, proprietor of the Rex and Columbia theatres, Ottawa, Ontario, has taken out a building permit for the erection of a third suburban theatre in Ottawa, this being the Globe theatre at Bank street and Second avenue. The house, which is costing $50,000, is designated as fireproof. Construction has already been started.

New England

THE Strand theatre at Oakland Beach, R. I., is to open soon under the management of John Carey, formerly of the Cranston Palace theatre.

Branch Manager R. C. Cropper of the Pathe exchange at Boston is recovering from an attack of the grippe at his home.

Ed Urschel, booker at the Pathe exchange, Boston, has taken up his residence at Whitehead avenue, Nantasket Beach, for the summer season.

L. J. Hacking, former district manager of Pathe-Producers, now special home office representative for Pathe, with headquarters in New York City, was a visitor in Boston during the week.

Ralph Quive, formerly salesman at the Pathe exchange, Boston, has been appointed manager of United Artists office at Winnipeg, Manitoba, and left early in the week to take charge there.

Ernest Warren of the sales force at Pathe exchange has returned to duty after being laid up with a badly injured knee, sustained in trying to crank a balky auto.

Miss Rosamond Cohen, assistant contract clerk at the Fox exchange at Boston, is confined to her home with the grippe.

Harriet is the new arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Simons. Mr. Simons is advertising manager for Independent Films, Inc., Boston.

Tom Lewis, of the Town Hall at Westboro, Mass., is seriously ill at his home.

District Manager M. N. Wolf of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange, has been in Pittsburgh attending the convention of that company.

First National exchange, Boston, was represented at the Chicago convention by District Manager Thomas B. Spry, Jack Mangan, Dave Purcell and Frank Scully. They returned Saturday after having been absent from Boston since the preceding Saturday.

Charles Williams, of Boston, who recently took over the Victory theatre at Lowell, a house which has changed hands several times in the past few months, is making a success of the theatre.

Cunningham Park, at East Milton, of which William Caldwell is manager, closes this week for the summer season.

Charles Repec, assistant booker at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange, has returned to his desk after a week's absence from illness.

Sam Bischoff, formerly of Boston and now a producer on the West Coast, was welcomed to Boston for a week's visit the past week.

Harry Segal, manager of Royal Films and First Division Films, is in New York on business. First Division Films are now being handled through the Royal exchange.

Louis Rottenberg, well known theatre operator, is confined to his home by illness.

The Red Seal exchange, 46 Church street, Boston, has been extensively remodeled and new equipment added.

Miss Mina Chamsky, formerly of First Division films, is now secretary of the Royal Film exchange, Boston.

Miss Sylvia Walkon has been promoted to booker at the Red Seal exchange, Boston.

Dave Adams, of the Auditorium theatre at Concord, N. H., was in Boston during the week for summer bookings.

Joseph Sully, formerly projectionist at Pathe exchange, Boston, is now operator at the Paramount exchange, Boston.

Miss Martha Ferris of the New England Film Board at Boston and Miss Katherine Sullivan of the New Haven Film Board expect to leave May 14th for the convention at Los Angeles of the Film Board Secretaries.

District Manager H. F. Campbell of the Fox exchange, Boston, was in New York last week for an important conference with District Sales Manager James R. Grainger.

The Community theatre at Montgomery Center, Vt., formerly owned and operated by Merton D. Craig, has been bought by L. D. Hart, who will continue along the same lines as the former owner.

The Royal theatre at Olneyville, R. I., which has been operated by M. Acker, has been taken over by Philip J. Smith. Mr. Smith was formerly manager of the National theatre at Boston. He is now operating the Strand theatre, South Boston, and will continue both theatres.

The recent dance of the New-England Bookers Association at Loew's State ball room was a big success and is expected to add in the vicinity of $2,000 to the organization's philanthropic fund.

Herman Rifkin and George Solomon, who operated the film exchange known as Supreme Films, on Piedmont street, Boston, have named their exchange the Bayart Film Exchange.

Des Moines

AT Afton, Iowa, a petition in favor of Sunday movies is being circulated among the citizens here. The churches and the W. C. T. U. are fighting the measure and Mayor John Porter has expressed his disapproval. He also stated that he believed the council would vote the proposition down.

Prefaced with some of the warmest campaigns in the history of the city, voters of Ames went to the polls to express again their sentiments on whether movie theatres shall be opened on Sunday, and voted the measure down by a vote of 2037 against 1999. The city council recently elected was favorable to the Sunday shows and the loss of the measure by thirty eight votes was a disappointment to those who had spent some hard work on the campaign.

Chris Nelson who has been operating the Empress Theatre over a period of years at Pella, Iowa, sold his house last week. The theatre has been in the process of being redecorated since a fire in the building over the theatre caused much damage from water to the interior of the theatre. The house has been completely reseated. The new owner of the Empress is E. P. Hosack. Mr. Hosack has been an exhibitor at Elston, Iowa, where he had the Community Theatre until he sold it some time back to Miller and Fauser.

W. E. Banford, manager of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange, returned from the conference of branch managers and district managers at Kansas City last week.

Nine of the sales and executive staff of the Paramount office have left for the national convention in San Francisco. A. W. Nichols, district manager will join the Des Moines group which is made up of R. M. Copeland, branch manager, E. J. Frase, C. W. Robbins, H. J. Kitchenerer, H. H. Savereide, E. R. Rushing, of the sales staff, and M. E. Anderson, booking manager, L. M. Palmquist, ad sales manager.

Casey Jones, who has been acting as personality man at the Capitol Theatre, Des Moines, while Jimmy Ellard is on vacation, expected this week to alternate with Jay Mills who is at the Columbia at Davenport. Mr. Mills, however, was rushed to the hospital at Davenport with an attack of appendicitis. Casey Jones made a good record his first week here and will now stay for the second week.

Representing the Des Moines office of Universal at the Convention at St. Louis were Jack Osserman, branch manager, and Frank Crawford, Herb Case, J. C. Wolfe and J. J. Jacobson.

W. H. Eddy, owner of the Empress Theatre at Indianola, and also secretary and treasurer of the Iowa theatre owners association, is at Lutheran Hospital, Des Moines. He is able to see visitors and a daily delegation from Film Row stop in.

Visitors at the office of Paramount were E. Michaels of Jefferson, L. C. West of Mt Vernon, A. B. Pettit of Winterset and Wes Mansfield of Tama.

Morris Smith who formerly had the Royal Theatre at Sioux City, is booking pictures in North and South Dakota.

Carl Reese left the Des Moines office of Paramount to take up a place with Universal out of the Omaha office.

Miss Lena Dissoli who has the management of the U. and I. Theatre, a suburban theatre in southern Des Moines, has reopened the theatre for the new season.

Ross Ewing, formerly owner of the Rex Theatre at Newton, Iowa, accompanied E. P. Smith, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Iowa, on a trip to Missouri. Mr. Ewing sold his theatre about six months ago.

E. Levine, manager of the Des Moines Theatre, Des Moines, is leaving this week to return to New York to take up again his work as instructor at the Paramount School. Mr. Levine was in charge of the school for a year before he came to take charge of the Columbia at Davenport and after that of the Des Moines. Announcement will be made next week of his successor.

Abe Frankel, who has the Casino Theatre in Des Moines and is one of the oldest exhibitors of Des Moines, announces that Riverview Amusement Park of which he is manager, will open on May 9.

At Corydon, Iowa, J. G. Sterns has secured permission to show on Sundays.

Jess Day, who has been with the A. H. Blank organization for nearly ten years, is leaving to take the management of the Oshkosh Theatre at Oshkosh, Wis., for the Midwesco Theatres. Mr. Day has been manager of the Strand Theatre in Des Moines.

EMPIRE LABORATORIES INC.
723 Seventh Ave., N. Y. Quality Bryant 5437-5736-2180
DEVELOPING AND PRINTING MOTION PICTURE FILM

New York & New Jersey

FIRE did $40,000 damage to Joelson and Suchman's Blenheim theatre on Tuesday of last week when a blaze started in the organ chamber and swept through the stage, damaging two hundred chairs before being brought under control. The origin of the fire is said to have been due to a short circuit. It will probably be from four to six weeks before the Blenheim is able to resume business operations. The Blenheim is located at 167th Street and Park Avenue.

After a severe siege of the grippe, W. T. Bainbridge, proprietor of the Dale theatre, Farmingdale, L. I., is again able to resume his trips to Film Row.

Chas. Fischer opened the Paragon theatre, Fulton Street and Eastern Parkway, last Thursday evening. Ray Lestrange, lately connected with one of the Schmukler theatres, will manage the house. General manager Cellar, also of the Schmukler circuit, will do the buying for the Paragon. This house was originally named the Ritz.

Frank Philocco will manage the recently reopened Tip Top theatre, 357 Wilson Avenue, Brooklyn. Frank Busceni is the owner.

J. Greene has resigned from management of the Tiffany theatre, Chester Street, Brooklyn.

Bratter & Pollak will open their new house at Nyack, N. Y., May 15. All equipment was supplied from National Supply Company.

National Supply also recently supplied new Hall & Connolly lamps for the Parthenon theatre, Brooklyn.

Sam Baker's new Hicksville theatre, Hicksville, L. I., opened on Tuesday evening, May 8.

Sam Sonin's West End theatre at Long Beach will start the season next Sunday.

Schwartz and Mueller's Roosevelt at Richmond Hill recently treated itself to a new screen, bought from National Supply.

Manager Rosay is now at Sam Burman's Senate theatre, Brooklyn.

Bill Price has started in on his new job as manager of Rudy Sanders' Globe and Sanders theatres, Brooklyn. Mr. Price recently returned from a trip to Cuba.

Small and Straussberg are reported as having closed their Globe theatre, Sumner Avenue, Brooklyn, for the Summer months.

Harry Sid White is a new associate of Seider and Moley's and will attend to the job of selling the S. & M. acts for neighborhood theatres. White is now installed in his new office at 745 7th Avenue. He moved there from 1658 Broadway.

After ten years service as manager of the New Plaza theatre, 156 High Street, Brooklyn, Billy Mauro recently resigned.

The Filmland theatre, Church and Nostrand Avenues, Brooklyn, recently hung up a brand new sign with the name Crescent on it. It is said that a new corporation has been formed to control the house. Manager Garfield remains in charge.

Jack Steinhauer has resigned from the Consolidated Amusement Co.'s Oxford theatre, New York City.

John de Mato, owner of the Washington theatre, 474 Myrtle Avenue, is trying his hand at operating the house.

Eddie Canter, after a long siege of sickness, was seen around the Film curb last week. He is slowly regaining his health—but very slow. It is reported that a benefit is under way by some of the boys in this business to provide funds for a special treatment of Canter's malady.

It is rumored that Harry Harris will close his West End theatre for the Summer months.

The Atlantic Playhouse, closed for a long time, will probably be reopened for the Summer. The house is located at 7th Avenue and 52nd Street, Brooklyn.

Aaron Freedman, formerly assistant manager of A. H. Schwartz' Marine theatre, Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, has lately assumed the management of the new Marboro theatre, a recent addition to the holdings of Rapf Enterprises and spoken of as one of Brooklyn's most beautiful theatres. Aaron is probably New York City's youngest theatre manager, having only recently passed his 21st milestone.

W. M. Horne, formerly Home Office representative of Universal and manager of the contract department for Warner Bros., and previously, exchange manager for the Standard Film Co. of Pittsburgh, has joined Zakoro Film Corporation as Manager of Sales for State-Rights.

Cincinnati

THE Fayette theatre, Washington, C. H. Ohio, built by Harry V. Smoots, Mt. Vernon, O., was formally opened the early part of May. The new house, located on South Fayette street, has a seating capacity of 750. It is built along the Spanish style of architecture, with antique ivory and gold as the predominating colors in the finish treatment. A special cosmetic room for lady patrons is located on the mezzanine floor. The lobby, which is 16 feet in width, is finished in Italian marble. A Page "Old Master" organ has been installed. Hoy O. Simmons has been appointed manager. The house, designed by Harry Holbrook, architect, Columbus, Ohio, is one of the most complete in point of modern conveniences and furnishings in this section of Ohio.

According to the latest rumor the Keith-Albee interests will soon have a house at Portsmouth, Ohio, a 30-day option having been taken on property at Washington and Chillicothe streets, in that city.

John A. Schwalm, manager of the Rialto theatre, Hamilton, O., recently set apart a certain night to be known as Hi-Nite, at which time the house was turned over to students of the local high school.

J. L. Kohler, manager of the Ohio theatre, Prospect, Ohio, announces that his house will hereafter operate on Sunday. Kohler has always observed the Sunday closing law, but since the theatres at Marion, Ohio, a few miles distant, are now open Sundays, Kohler says his Saturday patronage has diminished as his patrons seem to prefer Sunday entertainment, and have been going to Marion to get it.

Herbert Elkins, house superintendent of the Palace theatre, Hamilton, Ohio, has been absent for the past several weeks, due to an appendicitis operation.

John G. Gregory, of Springfield, Ohio, and George Revelis, of Washington, C. H. Ohio, have purchased additional ground on which an extension may be built to the new Washington theatre, which is now under construction in that city. The house is to have a seating capacity of 1,300, while the plans call for the addition of a balcony should the owners later decide to build it. Gregory and Revelis now operate the Palace theatre at Washington C. H.

Loew's theatre, Dayton, Ohio, recently held a special midnight show, the proceeds of which were turned over to a local committee in charge of a drive for funds to erect a new hospital.

Thomas Jones and Miss Katheryn Rousch, of Portsmouth, O., are building a new house at Waverly, O.

Florida

THE A. C. Bromberg Attractions, of Atlanta, opened a branch in Tampa last week on Twiggs Street near the Union depot. The exchange is under the management of George T. Chester with Carl Floyd as booker and office man. This is the first film exchange, handling a line of releases, to be operated in Tampa since the "Mutual" went out of business a dozen years ago.

Tom Bigger and his brother, owners of the Winter Garden theatre at Winter Garden, visited in Tampa last week. They reported business holding up fairly good and stated they intend to increase their capacity during the summer so as to handle the crowds better during the winter season.

Colleen Moore, a former Tampa girl, one of the First National stars, remembered her alma mater with a check for $1,000, as her contribution to the building fund of the new Holy Name academy which is now under construction on the Bayshore boulevard.

Manager Charles Lester, of Universal's Jacksonville exchange, and Salesmen Simpson and Simrell, returned Wednesday from the Universal convention, held at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Atlantic City.

C. B. Ellis, manager of F B O's exchange in Jacksonville, is planning to attend the company's sales convention, which will be held at the Drake Hotel, Chicago, from May 14 to May 21.

Scotty Chestnut, manager of Paramount's Jacksonville exchange, and his salesmen attended the company's convention in Washington, D. C. They reported an interesting meeting and an enjoyable time in the capital city.

South East

THE Grand Theatre, Greer, S. C., which was recently taken over by C. W. Drace from J. A. Reynolds and George Hughes, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday, April 20. No plans have as yet been announced regarding the rebuilding of the theatre.

E. E. Whitaker, former manager of the Imperial Theatre in Charlotte was in the city last week. He is now manager for Publix in Spartanburg, S. C.

George Overend, manager of the Warner Brothers Broadway Theatre, Charlotte, spent three days last week in New York.

Fred C. Aiken, general representative of the Grantland Rice Sportlight, was in Charlotte this week visiting the local Pathe exchange. Mr. Aiken left Thursday for Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Edward L. McShane, wife of the manager of Pathe exchange, left Monday night for Washington to visit friends.

The Board of Directors of the North Carolina Motion Picture Theatre Owners Association, consisting of Charles W. Picquet, president; Nat. L. Royster, secretary, and L. L. Drake, Percy Wells, W. E. Stewart, A. F. Sams, Jr., and U. K. Rice met in Charlotte Wednesday for an important conference. A tentative date, June 26, was set for their summer convention at Wrightsville Beach, Wilmington, N. C.

The Imperial Theatre, Charlotte, opened Monday after having been closed for a week for complete redecoration and installation of Movietone.

Rufus A. Davis, of National Theatre Supply Company, left last Tuesday night for Atlanta.

Mrs. Jack Dorland, whose husband is connected with Paramount as salesman, left last Sunday for a week's visit to Augusta, Ga.

The Rivoli Theatre, Greenville, S. C., which is owned by Publix and has only been operating two days a week for the past few weeks, will close next week for the summer.

Walter Griffith, of the Horlacher Delivery Service, left Sunday night for New York on business.

On May 20, W. S. Scales, who operates the Lincoln Theatre, Winston Salem, N. C. (a colored house) will take over the Eagle Theatre, (Colored) High Point, N. C., from Jack Dillard.

E. C. Davenport has sold the Amuzu Theatre, Inman, S. C., to J. C. Crowe.

Visitors on Film Row last week were F. E. Manley, Omar Theatre, Spartanburg, S. C.; C. I. Cresham, Artcraft Theatre, Mooresville, N. C.; U. K. Rice, Colonial Theatre, Winston Salem, N. C.; A. F. Sams, Jr., Piedmont Amusement Company, Winston Salem, N. C.; L. L. Drake, Ansonia Theatre, Concord, N. C.; Percy Wells, Bijou Amusement Company, Wilmington, N. C.; Charles W. Picquet, Carolina Theatres in Hamlet and Pinehurst, N. C.; Walter Griswold, Manager of the Playhouse, Broadway and Crescent Theatres, Statesville, N. C.; V. D. Humphries, Lyric Theatre, Bishopville, S. C.; and Dan Yarborough and his mother, Cameo Theatre, Goldville, S. C.

Philadelphia

THE new Fern theatre at 5th and Fern streets, Philadelphia, will be ready for opening about the first week in July. The new theatre, which has a seating capacity of 1,400, will be under the management of Christopher Stamper.

Jack Greenburg, secretary of the local Film Board of Trade, will attend the annual convention of Film Board Secretaries in Hollywood from May 21 to 24.

Ground has been broken for a new theatre to be operated by the Stanley-Benn Company in Colling dale, just outside of Philadelphia. The new theatre will be built by the Mercantile Theatre & Properties Company, which is now constructing a number of large houses for the Stanley Company. The new theatre will have a seating capacity of 1,000 on one floor and it is expected will be ready for opening about August 1st.

Friends and relatives of Jack Rosenthal, chairman of the Entertainment Committee of the M. P. T. O. of Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware, tendered him a surprise party on April 14th in honor of his fortieth birthday. The affair was held at the Colonial Cafe, Fifth and South streets, and Mr. Rosenthal was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. William Freihofer will sail on May 11th for a three months' tour of Europe. It is reported that Mr. Freihofer will meet Fred G. Nixon-Nirdlinger in Paris to discuss the Stanley-Freihofer-Nirdlinger agreement covering West Philadelphia theatres.

The Great Northern theatre, Broad street and Erie avenue, Philadelphia, which reverted to William Freihofer, the owner, when the Stanley Company lease expired on April 1st, has been completely renovated and redecorated and reopened under the present ownership on April 30th. A new organ, new booth equipment and lighting system were installed and the theatre was redecorated throughout.

Walter Stuempfig, veteran Germantown theatre owner, was elected to honorary membership in the Lions Club of Germantown on May 2nd. Mr. Stuempfig opened the first theatre in Germantown and was lauded as the "man who has done most for Germantown during the past year."

The Stanley Company of America is now making tentative plans for closing and change of policy in some of its houses for the coming summer. The Broadway, Cross Keys and Orpheum, which have been running vaudeville and pictures, will probably revert to popular priced pictures. The Grand Opera House, which has heretofore run as a vaudeville house and always closed for the summer, may remain open as a picture house, although the Stanley Company already has one picture theatre, the Liberty, practically just around the corner.

Milwaukee

THE Milwaukee Theatre Circuit has recently made a few changes in management of local theatres. Marvin Harris who was formerly at the Lake theatre is now managing the Venetian in the place of Emil Franke who has returned to the State. Harry Tondreau former manager of the State is now managing the Lake theatre. Leonard Grossman who has been in charge of the Juneau theatre in Milwaukee for the past six months, has been transferred to the Rialto theatre at Racine. Eugene Arnstein has been transferred from the Kosciuszko to the Juneau theatre, and Edwin Koenigsreiter is now manager of the Kosciuszko.

E. M. Saunders, general manager for M-G-M spent Saturday in the new exchange here.

Francis Kadow, manager of the Mikado theatre at Manitowoc was a recent visitor at exchanges.

Miss Rosemary Grant of the M-G-M exchange has spent the past week at a sanitorium recovering from a nervous break down.

Irvin Rink of the Rink Advertising Service is at his home seriously ill. He is not expected back at his office for about two weeks.

Edwin Berth, manager of the Pastime at Kiel was a visitor at exchanges last Wednesday.

Al Robarge, manager of the Cosmo theatre at Merrill came to Milwaukee last Tuesday and stopped in at several of the exchanges.

E. E. Hemming is no longer representing M-G-M in northern Wisconsin.

George Levine, western sales manager for Universal was in St. Louis attending the Universal convention.

About 25 Milwaukeeans, members of the Film Board and Exhibitors association went to Racine on May 1st to be present at the opening of F. E. Wolcott's new theatre, the Majestic. They were the guests of the Kiwanis club of Racine while there and were very royally feted. Mr. Wolcott was given an elaborate desk and chair by the Kiwanis club of Racine and the Uptown Business men's Association presented him with an attractive grandfather clock.

J. H. McIntyre has been transferred from the Milwaukee to the Minneapolis branch of Pathe as manager. W. A. Aschmann who was branch manager before Mr. McIntyre's regime, is back again piloting the Milwaukee branch. Koss Baldwin, formerly booker, is now covering the territory for Pathe in northern Wisconsin.

Max Schwartz, Chicago city salesman for M-G-M, came up on Saturday to look over the new exchange.

South West

PERMIT to operate a new motor bus line between Oklahoma City and Ada, Oklahoma, for the purpose of transporting motion picture films, has been granted the Blue-Bird Motor Express Company. This company was organized several months ago by H. N. Walker, W. Z. Spearman, manager of the Barton and Cozy Theatres at Stroud, Okla., and president of the M. P. T. O. of Oklahoma, has recovered sufficiently from a recent illness to permit him to make his tri-weekly visits to Film Row again.

E. W. Johnson, manager of the Orpheum Theatre, Tulsa, Okla., spent last Monday and Tuesday visiting friends on Film Row.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brooks, of Broken Arrow, Okla., spent Monday and Tuesday in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Brooks has been operating the Crystal Theatre at Broken Arrow for the last nine years, and devoted her time while here to looking after her bookings, while Mr. Brooks enjoyed himself attending the State-wide Republican Convention at the Coliseum.

Joe Dock advises he has closed his Midway Theatre at Schulter, Okla., for an indefinite period.

A. M. Abbott, of the Ki-he-kah Theatre, Pawhuska, Okla.; Charles Mahone, of the Cozy and Palace Theatres, Hobart, Okla., and Leonard White, of the Bungalow Theatre, Weatherford, Okla., were in Oklahoma City the latter part of the week attending the State Rotary Convention.

Edw. G. Kadane, of the Criterion and Gem Theatres, Frederick, Okla., spent several days in Oklahoma City last week. While here Mr. Kadane made the announcement that he had purchased the A-Mu-Su Theatre at Frederick, and would assume charge immediately. The A-Mu-Su was but recently taken over by West Harris from Mrs. Grace Brown.

The Gem Theatre at Loco, Okla., has closed until after the summer months.

G. T. Williams, formerly of the Quannah Theatre, Commanche, Okla., has recovered his health sufficiently to leave the sanitarium where he has been for several months.

Joe Bloustein, former checker for Metro-Goldwyn, has now been added to the sales force as junior salesman.

J. C. Hinds, manager of the Orpheum Theatre, Haskell, Okla., together with Mrs. Hinds, were callers on Film Row last Monday and Tuesday.

Wm. Redfearn, manager of the Dixie Theatre at Tulsa, Okla., spent the early part of last week in Oklahoma City attending to bookings for his theatre.

Leonard White, whose Bungalow Theatre at Weatherford, Okla., was destroyed by fire recently, advises work on his new theatre is progressing rapidly.

A. R. Bender, of the Melba Theatre, Cleveland, Okla., spent several days recently on Film Row.

Ruth Tolbert, who operates the Rialto Theatre at Hobart, Okla., is remodeling and redecorating her theatre.

F. H. Cochran advises he has leased the Cozy Theatre at Lamont, Okla., from W. C. Snyder.

C. Badger Reed has purchased the Hancock Opera House at Austin, Tex.

The Dorbandt Theatre at Jacksonville, Tex., has reopened after having been closed for repairs.

Charles Bros. have placed orders for new scenery for their theatre at Alice, Tex.

Jack Adams, president, Home State Film Co., at Dallas, Tex., has returned from Mineral Wells, Tex., where he has been recuperating.

Authorities at Oklahoma City have requested all theatre owners to remove advertising signs from the sidewalks in front of their houses, in accordance with city ordinance.

The operation of the first movie show at San Angelo, Tex., last week, caused considerable stir and opposition, and the preachers are going to test the matter out.

The Midwest Amusement Company will erect a new theatre at Edinburg, Tex., in near future.

James Moyer, assistant manager at Loew's State Theatre, Houston, Tex., has been promoted to assistant manager of the new Loew and United Artists Theatre in St. Louis, Mo.

The Dixie Theatre at Athens, Tex., is being remodeled.

Rubin Frels will erect a new theatre at Cuero, Tex., in near future.

The Home Theatre at Valley View, Tex., was recently destroyed by fire.

Cleveland

GEORGE RYDER, manager of Loew's Mall theatre, and prior to that manager of Loew's Liberty theatre, died last Sunday after an illness of more than a year. Ryder had been connected with the local Loew organization for almost ten years. He is survived by a son and a daughter.

Reade's Hippodrome last week inaugurated its summer policy, showing a straight motion picture program. Presumably vaudeville will be resumed in the fall. Summer prices have been cut to 25c. for adults and 15c. for children.

Sam Gorrell has been appointed manager of the Cincinnati office of Security Pictures Corporation. Gorrell resigned as city salesman for Standard Film Service Company to take on his new duties. Gorrell is well known all through the territory and has the confidence of the exhibitors. His success in Cincinnati is assured.

Tom Mix will meet his film friends in the local F. B. O. exchange Wednesday afternoon, May 16th. "Tony" will not attend the party. Mix and "Tony" will headline the bill at Keith's Palace the week of May 13th.

Ed. Johnson's car was stolen the other night at Superior and East 105th streets. Golf sticks were in the car. Johnson isn't interested particularly in the return of the car but he does want his sticks back.

Mrs. George Moffett, secretary of the Cleveland Film Board of Trade, leaves here May 21st for Los Angeles, to attend the gathering of the secretaries of all the film boards.

Harry Lande has closed his local independent exchange, the Lande Film Distributing Co., and is said to have retired from the picture business.

Ben Wise has let a contract for the complete rebuilding of his National theatre, East 55th street and Lexington avenue. Only the outside walls of the theatre will remain intact. When completed the National will have a greater seating capacity than formerly. It is expected to be finished by July 1st.

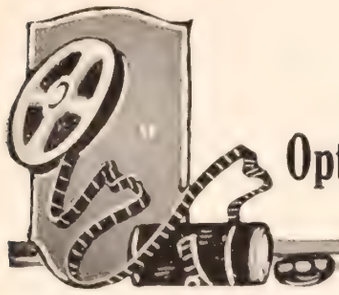
The Oliver Moving Picture Supply Company has taken on the distribution in Ohio of the monronaphone, a musical instrument.

Thomas H. Gardner has sold the Circle theatre, Toledo, to William Rehklau. The new owner took possession May 6th.

Central Penn

THE Grand Theatre, Lancaster will be closed temporarily on July 1 to permit extensive improvements which will include the installation of a new pipe organ, chairs, draperies and projection booth equipment. The house is a link in the chain of theatres controlled by the Stanley Company of America, of Philadelphia.

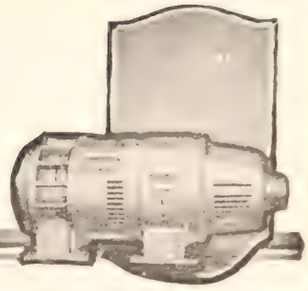
L. Mainker, who recently purchased the Franklin Theatre, Allentown, announces his intention to expend $25,000 to remodel and improve the house.



Luke Gring, owner of the Capitol and Strand theatres, Chambersburg, has announced that he and Mrs. Gring have adopted a nine months' old baby who has been named John David Gring.

L. J. Chamberlain, of the Chamberlain Amusement Company, of Shamokin, which controls a chain of picture theatres in the hard coal mining regions of Pennsylvania, was a recent visitor to the film exchange district in Vine Street, Philadelphia, where he booked a number of film attractions for his theatres. Another recent Vine Street visitor was Louis Appell, of the Appell Amusement Enterprises of York, which control practically all the theatres in that city and several in York county and adjacent counties.

Between $50,000 and $60,000 is being expended by J. Beilin, owner of the Palace Theatre, Bethlehem, in improving the property. A new pipe organ is being installed and a new front is being put in the theatre together with an ornate marquee extending to the sidewalk. The lobby will be enlarged and many decorative features will be incorporated. The seating capacity will be increased and there will be new flooring and a number of rest rooms.



Theatres of Pottsville are heading a movement to raise funds for the widow and child of Patrolman Morgan E. Skidmore, who was slain by a bandit on April 16.

C. Floyd Hopkins, district head of the Wilmer & Vincent theatres in Reading and Harrisburg, donated the use of the State Theatre, in the latter city, on May 8, for a public meeting that was addressed by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York City.

Projection

Optics, Electricity, Practical Ideas & Advice

Inquiries and Comments

Aerial Image May Cause Loss of Light

PART I

FEW projectionists realize that it is practically impossible with present arc systems of illumination to obtain the full effectiveness of projection lenses even when the lens is completely filled with light and presumably, is working at its full aperture.

For example, a quarter size lens, or one having a free aperture of 1⅝ inches may be used in conjunction with an ordinary arc-condenser illuminator and this lens may appear to be completely filled with light which would indicate that it was working to full advantage. Yet it is possible and indeed, quite likely, that this lens is only about fifty per cent effective under the conditions which means that it is transmitting to the screen only fifty per cent of the light it could really deliver were it used under the right conditions with every arc lamp illuminator, a virtual loss of light occurs beyond the projection lens. This loss is occasioned by the formation of the aerial image which is nothing more than an image of the condenser formed by the projection lens at a distance which may vary from 6½ to 10 or more inches ahead of it (the projection lens).

The presence of the aerial image does not necessarily imply a loss of light under all conditions because with some light sources, notably the incandescent lamp, it is possible to design the projection system so that the aerial is quite harmless in this respect.

With all of the ordinary forms of arc lamp systems, however, the conditions are such that the aerial image seriously effects the screen illumination because it acts as a restriction to prevent the full passage of light from the entire area of the projection lens.

Size of Aerial Image Determines Loss

The size of the aerial image determines whether or not a loss of light occurs and if so, the extent of this loss.

In order to insure complete effectiveness of the projection lens for the purpose of screen illumination, it is necessary that the aerial image be larger than the free opening of the lens; how much larger, will be determined by the size of the screen picture, the throw, and the distance of the aerial image from the projection lens.

For best results, the aerial image should be of such size that a straight line drawn from the top of the projection lens to the top of the screen picture, will touch the top of the aerial image and a similar line, drawn from the bottom of the lens to the bottom of the screen picture, will touch the bottom of the image. In other words, the aerial image must subtend the same angle as the screen, as the latter is viewed by the lens.

Small Aerial Image Acts as Aperture Restriction

Where the aerial image is smaller than the required size, as above determined, or, where it is smaller than the projection lens (presumed to be working at full aperture), a virtual loss of light occurs because we are then faced with the problem of making a lens project light to a screen through an aperture which is smaller than the lens and the screen.

In other words, the conditions are similar to those found at the condenser and of the system where a set of condenser lenses are used to project light through the aperture plate and into projection lens. Here also, the aperture is smaller than the condenser lenses and projection lens so that it is impossible for the condenser lenses to work at maximum efficiency in providing light to the projection lens.

In effect, the aerial image acts a secondary light source for providing illumination to the screen. It derives its brightness from the projection lens and its size from the imaging of the condenser by the same lens.

Obviously, then, if the aerial image is small, it will have low illuminating powers and if large, it will have illuminating powers in proportion to its increased area. Its effective size can never exceed the limits imposed upon it by the projection lens for the reason that it is dependent upon the latter for its virtual brightness.

Indeed, it appears that the aerial image can never be in the nature of advantage and the best that can be done is to see that it does not become a disadvantage.

Like Peck's Bad Boy, it can only be restrained from making a nuisance of itself—and that, only at times.

It may seem ambiguous to say that a small aperture placed in an optic system prevents the free passage of light between two elements such as two lenses, but unless the projectionist understands just why this is so, it will be difficult for him to see how the formation of a small aerial image can also act as a real aperture to prevent the free passage of light from the projection lens to all points on the screen surface.

This may best be explained by comparing it with the action of the condenser in providing light to the projection lens.

If a typical set of conditions were drawn up to scale, so that the condenser, aperture, and projection lens were correctly shown in their relative sizes and distance from each other it would readily be evident that the aperture acts to prevent all points on the rear element of the projection lens from seeing a complete view of the condenser placed on the other side of the aperture.

Only the center points on the projection lens would have the advantage of this complete view but those points on the edge would see but a small part of the condenser. Under the best conditions, the edge points of the projection lens would see somewhat less than half of the complete condenser area. This simply means that those points not favored with such a complete view would receive light in direct proportion to the amount of condenser area which was visible from the particular point.

Thus, if only one-quarter of the entire condenser were visible from a given point on the projection lens, this point would receive but a quarter of the total light which the condenser was capable of delivering. Those points at and near the center of the projection lens would enjoy a complete view of the condenser and so would receive the full benefit of the condenser illumination.

If the condenser were extremely large, not even the center points on the projection lens would be able to see its entirety so that the aperture really acts to limit the size of the condenser which can be used for any given set of conditions. This condition has not yet been reached, however, because no condenser now used—not even the mirrors of reflector arc systems—is of such size that the center point on the projection lens cannot see its full surface under ordinary conditions.

Aerial Image Hides Lens from Screen

While no real aperture is placed at the aerial image, the image itself acts as an optical aperture to prevent the free passage of light between the projection lens and the screen.

In this respect, the conditions are similar to those just described for the condenser system and the results, too, are exactly the same as if a real aperture were placed before the projection lens.

If the aerial image is appreciably smaller than the free diameter of the projection lens, it will be impossible for all points on the screen (within the confines of the picture) to see a full view of the projection. This means that those points not so favored will be illuminated to a lower degree than the screen points which enjoy such a complete view. Here, too, only the central screen points will have a full view of the projection lens so that the center of the screen will be bright while on the edges, where only a partial view can be had, the intensity will be materially low. For this reason, the old form of arc-condenser sys-

(Continued on page 1360)

—like a fine automobile!

On the driving shafts of your Gold Seal Register you'll find bronze bushings at the bearing surfaces . . . just the same as in your automobile. They are put in for the same purpose in each case—to ensure longer and more satisfactory service.

GOLD SEAL
Ticket Registers and "Tickets That Fit"

Only in the Gold Seal will you find bronze bushings on all the driving shafts . . . case hardened steel surfaces where the wear comes . . . a master lock for the whole mechanism . . . rust proof steel . . . one driving mechanism for any number of units . . . lubrication sealed in . . .

No other ticket register even approaches Gold Seal for quality and longevity of service.

Our Reserved Seat Ticket Plants in Boston and New York Can Save You Money. Get Our Estimates

GOLD SEAL — USED WHEREVER AUTOMATIC TICKETS ARE SOLD — THE MARK OF PERFECTION

AUTOMATIC Ticket Register Corporation

723 Seventh Ave., New York

Independent Printers of Quality Tickets for Every Purpose.

STOCK PROGRAMS
PROGRAM COVERS
For
Moving Picture Houses
Joseph Hoover & Sons Company
Market and 49th Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

A BUSINESS BOOSTER
for your theatre
A Beautiful, 2-color Program, all Features written up for you, Printed and Delivered to your theatre at a small cost.
Write for Samples and Prices to
THE DERBY PRESS
2015 So. Vermont Ave. Los Angeles, Calif.

Inquiries & Comments

(Continued from page 1599)

tems found it impossible to give even screen illumination.

This condition has been considerably improved through the use of reflector arcs but the ultimate has not yet been reached.

In extreme conditions, where the aerial image is quite small, not even the central screen points have a full view of the condenser so that the intensity over the entire screen area is reduced.

The effect of the aerial image on various systems, now used, will be discussed in the concluding article.

(To be continued)

Standard
VAUDEVILLE
for
Motion Picture Presentation

THE FALLY MARKUS AGENCY
Astor Theatre Building
N. W. Cor. 45th St. & Broadway
Lackawanna 7876

Warners Open New West Coast Theatre

Another achievement of importance for Warner Brothers and for the home of their combined endeavors, Hollywood, was realized on the night of Thursday, April 26, when the doors to the new Warner Brothers two million dollar theatre were officially opened to the public and the world premier of their special production, "Glorious Betsy," followed a prologue of unusual entertainment value.

For several days previous to this event, streets adjacent to Hollywood Boulevard and Wilcox Avenue, were generously decorated with flags and banners. Indeed, the city at large paid the builders of this magnificent edifice almost unprecedented tribute.

Preliminary ceremonies and the entire presentation of Warner Brothers' Vitaphone features included in the prologue, as well as the projection of "Glorious Betsy," moved along smoothly and the combined opening of the theatre and a world premier may be modestly described as a triumphant success.

The most impressive feature about the interior of the Warner Brothers Theatre in Hollywood, is its charming and dignified simplicity. It is a marvelously spacious structure of Spanish architecture and design, with a seating capacity of three thousand and is equipped with every modern convenience from a hospital to an electric plant. Hollywood already has several theatre palaces; the new Warners is a worthy addition.

Each Month The Showman Issue of Motion Picture News Carries announcements of Vital Interest to All Theatre Owners

Pull Big Business in Hot Weather

Cool theatres pull big business. It pays to keep your patrons cool—comfortable.

Fill your empty seats—increase your box-office receipts—draw crowds of steady patrons with the Typhoon Cooling System.

Write for Booklet N-1

Typhoon Fan Company

345 West 39th Street, New York

Offices in Principal Cities

COMPLETE RELEASE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of Distributors in order that the Exhibitor may have a short-cut toward such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features which are finished or are in work, but to which release dates have not been assigned, are listed in "Coming Attractions" (S. R. indicates State Right release.)

Refer to THE MOTION PICTURE NEWS BOOKING GUIDE for Productions Listed Prior to September

BRAY PRODUCTIONS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Co-Ed, The	Murdock-Cavalier-Lancaster	Feb. 10	2 reels	Jan. 7
Barnyard Rivals	W. Lantz-M. Shaw-T. Ward	Mar. 10	2 reels	Mar. 17
Cat Tales	McDougall Kids	Feb. 20	2 reels
Cutting Up	McDougall Kids	Mar. 20	2 reels	Mar. 17
Daze of '49	J. Cooper-L. Carver	Jan. 2	2 reels	Feb. 4
Duke's Dirty Doings	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Feb. 1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Fowl Play	McDougall Kids	April 20	2 reels
Lost in the Lurch	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Mar. 1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mr. Pooh	McDougall Kids	Jan. 20	2 reels	Jan. 7

COLUMBIA

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Storm	Bosworth-Gilbert-Delaney	April 19	5459 feet
By Whose Hand?	Cortez-Gilbert	Sept. 15	5432 feet	Jan. 7
Broadway Daddies	Logan-Lease	April 7	5466 feet
College Hero, The	Agnew-Lease-Garon	Oct. 9	5628 feet	Dec. 9
Desert Bride, The	Compson-Forest	Mar 26	5425 feet
Fashion Madness	Windsor-Howes	Dec 8	5513 feet	Mar. 31
Golf Widows	Ford-Reynolds-Rand	May 1
Isle of Forgotten Women	Tearle-Sebastian	Sept. 27	5645 feet	Jan. 21
Lady Raffles	Taylor-Drew	Jan. 25	5471 feet
Matinee Idol, The	Walker-Love	Mar. 14	5925 feet
Opening Night, The	Windsor-Bowers	Nov. 14	5524 feet	Mar. 17
Sally in Our Alley	Mason-Arlen	Sept. 3	5892 feet
Siren, The	Revier-T. Moore	Dec. 20	5996 feet
So This Is Love	Mason-Collier-Walker	Feb. 6	5611 feet
Sporting Age, The	Bennett-Herbert-Nye	Mar.	5467 reet
Stage Kisses	Harlan-Chadwick	Nov. 2	5435 feet
That Certain Thing	Graves-Mason	Jan. 1	6047 feet	Mar. 10
Tigress, The	Holt-Revier	Oct. 21	5357 feet	Mar. 17
Warning, The	Holt-Revier	Nov. 26	5791 feet	Jan. 7
Wife's Relations, The	Mason-Glass	Jan. 13	5508 feet	April 28
Woman's Way, A	Livingston-Baxter	Feb. 18	5472 feet

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Beware of Blondes
Modern Mothers	Chadwick-Fairbanks, Jr.-Kent
Name the Woman	Stewart-Glass

EDUCATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
All Bear	Curiosities	April 29	1 reel
All Set	W. Lupino-Sargent-L. Hutton	Jan. 29	1 reel	Feb. 4
Always a Gentleman	Lloyd Hamilton	Feb. 5	2 reels	Feb. 18
At It Again	Monty Collins	May 13	2 reels
Between Jobs	Lloyd Hamilton	Mar. 18	2 reels
Blazing Away	Lloyd Hamilton	April 22	2 reels	April 7
Builders of Bridges	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Feb. 26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Call of the Seas, The	Hope Hampton	Jan. 1	2 reels	Dec. 31
Chilly Days	"Big Boy"	Feb. 19	2 reels	Feb. 17
Circus Blues	Dorothy Devore	Mar. 25	2 reels	Mar. 18
Count Me Out	Barney Hellum	Mar. 11	1 reel	Mar. 3
Cutie	Dorothy Devore	Jan. 15	2 reels	Feb. 18
Dog Days—Sun and Rain	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Jan. 29	1 reel	Feb. 25
Dummies	Larry Semon	Jan. 1	2 reels	Dec. 23
Fall In	Monty Collins	Jan. 1	1 reel	Dec. 23
Fandango	Lupino Lane	May 6	2 reels	April 14
Felix the Cat in Arabiantics	"Sullivan Cartoon"	May 13	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Comicalities	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April 1	1 reel
Felix the Cat Draggin' Dragon	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Jan. 22	1 reel	Feb. 15
Felix the Cat in Eskimotive	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April 29	1 reel
Felix in In-and-Out-Laws	"Sullivan Cartoon"	May 27	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Japanicky	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Mar. 4	1 reel	Mar. 31
Felix in Ohm Sweet Ohm	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Feb. 19	1 reel	Mar. 17
Felix the Cat in Folly-tics	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Mar. 18	1 reel	April 14
Felix in Sure-Lock Holmes	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April 15	1 reel
Felix the Cat in the Oily Bird	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Feb. 5	1 reel	Mar. 10
Felix in the Smoke Screen	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Jan. 8	1 reel	Feb. 18
Feline Frolics—Tonquin Valley	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Mar. 25	1 reel	Mar. 10
Fighting Orphans—Evening Mist	Bruce Outdoor Sketch		1 reel
Green-Eyed Love	Ruby McCoy-George Hall	April 8	1 reel	Mar. 24
High Strung	Jerry Drew	Jan. 29	2 reels	Feb. 4
Hints on Hunting—Day by Sea	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	April 22	1 reel	Mar. 31
His Maiden Voyage	George Davis	Feb. 26	2 reels	Feb. 18
How to Please the Public	Hodge Podge	Mar. 11	1 reel	Mar. 17
Indiscrete Pete	Jerry Drew	Mar. 11	2 reels	Mar. 10
Kitchen Talent	George Davis	April 15	2 reels	Mar. 31
Landlord Blues	Curiosities	May 27	1 reel
Listen Sister	Lupino Lane	Mar. 25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Love's Springtime	H. Hampton-J. Catalaine	Feb. 12	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mother Birds	Curiosities	Mar. 4	1 reel	Feb. 18
Mysterious Night, A	Monty Collins	Feb. 12	1 reel	Feb. 4
Navy Beans	"Big Boy"	May 27	2 reels
Never Too Late	Wallace Lupino	May 6	1 reel
New York's Sweetheart	Curiosities	Jan. 1	1 reel	Feb. 11
Nicknames	Hodge-Podge	April 8	1 reel
No Fare	"Big Boy"	April 8	2 reels	Mar. 24
Off Balance	Monty Collins	April 22	1 reel	April 14
Peculiar Pair of Pups, A	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	May 20	1 reel
Penny Postals	Curiosities	April 1	1 reel	Mar. 17
Pretty Baby	Monty Collins	Feb. 26	1 reel	Feb. 18
Racing Mad	Al St. John	Jan. 8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Recollections of a Rover	Hodge-Podge	Jan. 8	1 reel	Feb. 4
Rubbernecking	Curiosities	Feb. 5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Running Ragged	Lewis Sargent	Jan. 29	1 reel	Feb. 4
Say Ah-h	Charley Bowers	Feb. 19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Simple Sap, A	Larry Semon	Feb. 12	2 reels	Feb. 25
Slippery Head	Johnny Arthur	April 29	2 reels
Spring Has Came	Monty Collins	Mar. 25	1 reel	Mar. 17
Star Shots	Hodge-Podge	Feb. 5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Sword Points	Lupino Lane	Feb. 12	2 reels	Dec. 31
There It Is	Charley Bowers	Jan. 1	2 reels	Jan. 7
Thoughts While Fishing	Bruce Outdoor Sketch		1 reel
Three Tough Onions	Monty Collins	May 20	1 reel
Visitors Welcome	Johnny Arthur	Mar. 4	2 reels	Mar. 10
Wandering Toy, The	Hodge-Podge	May 6	1 reel
Wedding Slips	Monty Collins	Jan. 15	1 reel	Feb. 11
Whoozit	Charley Bowers	April 1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Wildcat Valley	Johnny Arthur	Jan. 22	2 reels	Feb. 4
Wild Wool—Night Clouds	Bruce Outdoor Sketch		1 reel
You'll Be Sorry	Charley Bowers	May 20	2 reels

EXCELLENT PICTURES (S. R.)

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Back to Liberty	Walsh-Hall	Nov. 10	5980 feet
Bit of Heaven, A	Lee-Washburn	April
Bowery Cinderella, A	O'Malley-Hulette	Nov. 1	6900 feet	Nov. 25
Broadway Madness	De La Motte-Keith	Oct. 1	6300 feet	Oct. 14
Satan and the Woman	Windsor-Keefe	Dec. 15	6400 feet	Mar. 10
Striving for Fortune	Walsh-Roberts	Jan.	5337 feet
Stronger Will	Marmont-Carewe	Jan. 15	6600 feet
Women Who Dare	Chadwick-Delaney	Mar.

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Life's Crossroads	Hulette-Hamilton

F B O

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Aflame in the Sky	Lynn-Luden	Dec. 18	6034 feet	Nov. 11
Alex the Great	Gallagher-Dwyer	May 13	5872 feet	Mar. 24
Bandit's Son, The	Steele-Sheridan	Nov. 20	4769 feet
Bantam Cowboy, The	Buzz Barton	Aug. 12
Beyond London's Lights	Shumway-Cadsdon	Mar. 18	5573 feet	Feb. 25
Boy Rider, The	Buzz Barton	Oct. 23	4858 feet	Sept. 30
Breed of the Sunsets	Bob Steele	April 1
Cherokee Kid, The	Tyler-Lynn	Oct. 30	4837 feet	Mar. 3
Chicago After Midnight	Mendez-Ince	Mar. 4	6249 feet	Mar. 17
Clancy's Kosher Wedding	Sidney-Lease-Lynn	Sept. 17	5701 feet	Aug. 26'27
Coney Island	Wilson-Mendez	Jan. 13	6396 feet	Feb. 25
Crooks Can't Win	Lewis-Hill-Nelson	April 7
Dead Man's Curve	Fairbanks, Jr.-Blane	Jan. 15	5511 feet	Dec. 23
Desert Pirate, The	Tyler-Thompson	Dec. 25	4754 feet
Devil's Trade Mark, The	Bennett-Mong-Douglas	May 28
Dog Justice	Ranger-Hearn	June 10
Driftin' Sands	Bob Steele	Jan. 1	4770 feet
Fangs of the Wild	Ranger-Nelson	Feb. 5	4578 feet	Jan. 14
Fighting Redhead, The	Buzz Barton	July 1
Flying U Ranch, The	Tyler-Lane	Sept. 4	4924 feet
Freckles	Bosworth-Fox, Jr.	Mar. 21	6131 feet	Jan. 28
Gingham Girl, The	Wilson-Arthur	Oct. 2	6301 feet	July 29'27
Harvester, The	Kingston-Caldwell	Nov. 23	7045 feet	Nov. 25
Her Summer Hero	Thompson-Trevor-Blane	Feb. 12	5140 feet	Dec. 30
Hook and Ladder No. 9	Ellis-Keefe-Hearn	Nov. 13	5240 feet	Dec. 16
In a Moment of Temptation	Stevens-Keefe	Sept. 18	5605 feet	Nov. 11
Jake the Plumber	Devorska-Lynn	Oct. 16	5186 feet	Nov. 4
Judgment of the Hills	Valli-Caldwell	Nov. 6	6481 feet	Aug. 19'27
Law of Fear, The	Ranger-Miller-Nyer	April 8	4769 feet	Mar. 10
Legionnaires in Paris	Cooke-Guard	Jan. 31	5711 feet
Little Buckaroo, The	Buzz Barton	Mar. 11
Little Mickey Grogan	Darro-Ralston-Nye	Dec. 27	6515 feet	Mar. 3
Little Yellow House, The	Sleeper-Caldwell	April 24	6403 feet	April 21
Loves of Ricardo, The	George Beban	June 17	7477 feet	Sept. 4'26
Man in the Rough, The	Steele-King	May 20
Mojave Kid, The	Steele-Gilmore	Sept. 25	4924 feet	Aug. 12'27
Phantom of the Range	Tyler-Thompson-Darro	April 22	4781 feet	Feb. 11
Pinto Kid, The	Barton-Trevor-Lee	April 29	4884 feet	Jan. 7
Racing Romeo, The	Grange-Ralston	Sept. 1	5932 feet	Dec. 16
Ranger of the North	Ranger dog	Oct. 9	4977 feet
Red Riders of Canada	Miller-Byer	April 15	6419 feet	Dec. 23
Riding Renegade, The	Bob Steele	Feb. 19
Sally of the Scandals	Love-Forrest	July 15
Shanghaied	Miller-Ince	Oct. 19	5969 feet	Aug. 26'27
Skinner's Big Idea	Washburn-Sleeper-Trevor	May 11	5967 feet	Mar. 17
Slingshot Kid, The	Barton-Morgan-Rice	Dec. 4	4486 feet
South Sea Love	Miller-Shumway-Brooks	Dec. 10	6300 feet	Feb. 18
Swift Shadow, The	Ranger dog	Dec. 11	4892 feet	Dec. 23
Texas Tornado, The	Tom Tyler	June 24
Trail of Courage, The	Steele-Bonner	July 8
Wall Flowers	Trevor-Arthur-Todd	Feb. 16	6339 feet
When the Law Rides	Tyler-Darro	Feb. 26
Wizard of the Saddle	Barton-Thompson	Jan. 22	4805 feet	Dec. 30

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Squall	Al Cooke	April 16	2 reels
All Alike	Carr-Alexander-Ross	April 9	2 reels
All Washed Up	Al Cooke		2 reels	Feb. 18
Big Berthas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	May 14	2 reels

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Come Meal	Al Cooke	May	28	2 reels
Mickey in School	Mickey Yule	Feb.	6	2 reels
Mickey's Little Eva	Mickey Yule	April	2	2 reels
Mickey's Parade	Mickey Yule	Jan.	2	2 reels
Mickey's Wild West	Mickey Yule	May	7	2 reels
My Kingdom For a Hearse	Al Cooke	April	2	2 reels
Oui Oui Heidelberg	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Feb.	13	2 reels
Panting Papas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Jan.	9	2 reels
Rah! Rah! Rekie	Al Cooke			2 reels	Feb. 18
Restless Bachelors	Al Cooke	April	30	2 reels
Silk Sock Hal	Al Cooke	May	14	2 reels
Social Error, A	Al Cooke			2 reels	Feb. 11

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Big Bow Mystery, The	I. Rich-Brook
City of Shadows, The	Luden-Lynn
Down Our Way	Valli-Caldwell-Darro
Eagle's Talons, The	Tom Tyler
Hit of the Show, The	Brown-Astor
Saddle and Spurs	Barton-Eason
Stocks and Blondes	Logan-Gallagher

FIRST DIVISION (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Comrades	Keith-Hughes-H. Costello	Jan.	1	5970 feet	Mar. 10
Death Valley	Nye-Wells-Rae	Nov.	15	5880 feet	Aug. 12
Devil's Cage, The	Garon-Keith	May
Fagasa	Kelly-Kelton-Wells	Mar.
Firnegan's Ball	Landis-Mehaffey	Oct.	1	6200 feet	Dec. 9
Masked Angel, The	Compson-Oakman	Feb.	1	5700 feet	Mar. 24
Merry Wives of New York	Pauline Garon	Jan.
Polly of the Movies	Short-Robards	Dec.	15	6900 feet
Ragtime	De La Motte-Bowers	Sept.	15	6700 feet	Sept. 9
Sculs Aflame	James-Wells-Lard	Mar.
Temptations of a Shop Girl	Compson-Garon-Kaliz	Dec.	1	5604 feet

FIRST NATIONAL

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
American Beauty	Dove-Hughes	Oct.	9	6333 feet	Oct. 21
Barker, The	Sills-Compson	Aug.	19
Big Noise, The	Conklin-Hardy-White	Mar.	25
Breakfast at Sunrise	Talmadge-Alvarado	Oct.	23	6042 feet	Dec. 16
Burning Daylight	Sills-Kenyon	Mar.	11	6500 feet	April 28
Camille	Talmadge-Roland	Sept.	4	8692 feet	May 6
Canyon of Adventure	Maynard-Faire	April	29	5800 feet
Chaser, The	Langdon-McConnell	Feb.	12	5744 feet	April 21
Chinatown Charlie	Hines-Lorraine	April	15	6365 feet
Crystal Cup, The	Mackaill-Mulhall	Oct.	16	6396 feet	Nov. 25
Drop Kick, The	Barthelmess-Kent	Sept.	25	6819 feet	Sept. 30
Flying Romeo	Sidney-Murray	Feb.	26	6187 feet	April 14
French Dressing	Warner-Brook-Wilson	Jan.	15	6344 feet
Gorilla, The	Murray-Day-Kelsey	Nov.	13	7133 feet	Dec. 2
Gun Gospel	Maynard-Faire	Nov.	6	6288 feet	Mar. 10
Harold Teen	Lake-Brian-White	May	27	7500 feet
Hawk's Nest, The	Sills-Kenyon	May	27
Heart of a Follies Girl	Dove-Kent	Mar.	18	5957 feet	Mar. 17
Her Wild Oat	Moore-Kent	Dec.	25	6118 feet	Feb. 11
Home Made	Hines-Daw	Nov.	20	6524 feet
Kelly's Kids	Charlie Murray	July	29
Ladies' Night in Turkish Bath	Mackaill-Mulhall	April	1	6592 feet	April 14
Lady Be Good	Mackaill-Mulhall	May	6
Life of Riley, The	Sidney-Murray	Sept.	18	6712 feet	Sept. 16
Lilac Time	Moore-Cooper	April	22		Mar. 24
Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come	Barthelmess-O'Day	April	8	7700 feet
Love Mart, The	Dove-Roland	Dec.	18	7388 feet
Mad Hour, The	O'Neill-Kent	Mar.	4	6625 feet	April 21
Man Crazy	Mackaill-Mulhall	Nov.	27	5542 feet	Dec. 30
Noose, The	Barthelmess-Joyce	Jan.	29	7331 feet	Jan. 7
No Place to Go	Astor-Hughes	Oct.	30	6431 feet	Mar. 17
Oh Kay	Colleen Moore	Aug.	26
Patent Leather Kid, The	Barthelmess-O'Day			11412 feet	Aug. 26, '27
Private Life of Helen of Troy	Corda-Stone-Cortez	Jan.	8	7694 feet	Dec. 23
Red Raiders, The	Maynard-Drew	Sept.	4	6214 feet	Dec. 9
Rose of the Golden West	Astor-Roland	Oct.	2	6477 feet	Oct. 7
Roulette	Barthelmess-Basquette	June	10
Sailors' Wives	Astor-Hughes	Jan.	22	5485 feet	Mar. 10
Shepherd of the Hills	Francis-O'Day	Jan.	1	8188 feet	Feb. 25
Smile, Brother, Smile	Mackaill-Mulhall	Sept.	11	6669 feet	Sept. 9
Texas Steer, A	Rogers-Fazenda	Dec.	4	7419 feet	Nov. 18
Three-Ring Marriage	Astor-Hughes	April	29
Upland Rider, The	Maynard-Douglas	June	3
Valley of the Giants	Sills-Kenyon	Dec.	11	6336 feet
Vamping Venus	Murray-Todd-Fazenda	May	13
Wagon Show, The	Maynard-Faire	Feb.	19
Whip Woman, The	Taylor-Moreno	Feb.	5	5087 feet	Mar. 24
Yellow Lily, The	Dove-Brook	May	20

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Butter and Egg Man	Mackaill-O'Day
Code of the Scarlet	Maynard-McConnell
Divine Lady, The	Griffith-Varconi
Head Man, The	Murray-Reed-Dawson
Heart to Heart	Astor
I'll Tell the World	Colleen Moore
Whip, The	Mackaill-Nilsson-Forbes

FOX FILMS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Arizona Wildcat, The	Mix-Sebastian	Nov.	20	4665 feet	Mar. 24
Black Jack	Jones-Bennett	Sept.	25	4777 feet	Mar. 3
Blood Will Tell	Jones-Perry	Nov.	13	4556 feet	Mar. 3
Branded Sombrero, The	Jones-Hyams	Jan.	8	5612 feet	Jan. 14
Come to My House	Borden-Moreno	Dec.	25	5430 feet
Dare Devil's Reward	Mix-Joyce	Jan.	15	4987 feet	Jan. 21
Dressed to Kill	Lowe-Astor	Mar.		6566 feet	Mar. 17
East Side, West Side	O'Brien-Valli	Oct.	9	8154 feet	Nov. 4
Fleetwing	Norton-Janis	Feb.
Gateway of the Moon	Del Rio-Pidgeon	Jan.	1	5038 feet	Jan. 14
Gay Retreat, The	Cohen-McNamara	Sept.	25	5524 feet	Sept. 23
Girl in Every Port, A	McLaglen-Armstrong	Jan.	29	5882 feet	Mar. 3
Hello, Cheyenne	Mix-Lincoln	May	13
High School Hero	Phipps-Stuart	Oct.	16	5498 feet	Nov. 11
Holiday Lane		Jan.	22
Horsemen of the Plains	Mix-Blane	Mar.		4397 feet	Mar. 24
Joy Girl, The	Borden-Hamilton	Sept.	18	6162 feet	Sept. 23
Ladies Must Dress	Valli-Gray	Nov.	20	5599 feet	Dec. 23
Love Hungry	Moran-Gray	April		5792 feet	April 21
Loves of Carmen	Del Rio-McLaglen	Sept.	4	8538 feet	Oct. 7
News Parade, The	Stuart-Phipps	May	27
Pajamas	Borden-Gray	Oct.	23	5876 feet	Dec. 2
Play Girl, The	Bellamy-Brown	April		5200 feet	April 28
Publicity Madness	Moran-Lowe	Oct.	2	5893 feet	Feb. 11
Seventh Heaven	Gaynor-Farrell	Oct.	30	8500 feet	June 10
Shame (re-issue)	John Gilbert	Nov.		5467 feet
Sharpshooters	O'Brien-Moran	Jan.	15	5573 feet	Jan. 28
Silk Legs	Bellamy-Hall	Dec.	18	5446 feet
Silver Valley	Mix-Dwan	Oct.	2	5011 feet	Oct. 14
Soft Living	Bellamy-Brown	Feb.		5629 feet	Mar. 3
Square Crooks	Brown-Armstrong-Dwan	Mar.	4	5397 feet	Mar. 31
Two Girls Wanted	Gaynor-Tryon	Sept.	11	6293 feet	Oct. 7
Very Confidential	Madge Bellamy	Nov.	6	5620 feet	Dec. 16
Why Sailors Go Wrong	Cohen-McNamara	Mar.		5112 feet	April 14
Wizard, The	Lowe-Hyams	Dec.	11	5629 feet
Wolf Fangs	Thunder-Morton-Lincoln	Nov.	27	5331 feet	Dec. 16
Womanwise	Russell-Collyer-Pidgeon	Jan.	8	5050 feet	Mar. 10

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Arkansas Traveler	Variety	Jan.	8	1 reel
Cow's Husband, A	Spenser-Temple			2 reels
Desert Blooms, The	Variety	Feb.	5	1 reel
Hold Your Hat	S. Phipps-N. Stuart-T. Hill			2 reels	Mar. 24
Hot House Hazel	T. Brooks-T. Hill	Jan.	1	2 reels
Jack and Jilted	P. Cunning-M. King			2 reels
Jungles of the Amazon	Variety			1 reel	Jan. 21
Kiss Doctor, The	T. Brooke-D. Thompson			2 reels	Mar. 17
Lady Lion	Lincoln-Clayton-Bletcher			2 reels
Lords of the Back Fence	Variety	Jan.	22	1 reel
Low Necker, A	Marjorie Beebe			2 reels	Jan. 14
Mum's the Word				2 reels	Sept. 3
Old Wives Who Knew	Hallam Cooley			2 reels
Over the Andes	Variety			1 reel
Psyche and the Pskyscraper	"O. Henry"			2 reels
Too Many Cookies	T. Brooke-L. Miller			2 reels

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Cock-Eyed World, The	Lowe-McLaglen
Don't Marry	Moran-Hamilton
Escape, The	Valli-Russell
Fazil	Farrell-Nissen-Busch
Four Devils, The	Macdonald-Gaynor-Morton
Four Sons	Mann-Hall-Bushman	9412 feet	Feb. 18
Girl Downstairs, The	Moran-O'Brien
Hangman's House	McLaglen-Collyer-Kent
Mother Machree	Bennett-McLaglen	6863 feet	Mar. 17
Mr. Romeo	Sterling-Carroll-Meeker
None But the Brave
Painted Post, The	Mix-Kingston
Pigskin	Rollens-Carol
Plastered in Paris	Cohen-Pennick
Red Dancer of Moscow, The	Del Rio-Farrell-Revier
Street Angel, The	Gaynor-Farrell	9221 feet
Sunrise	Gaynor-O'Brien	8729 feet	Oct. 14
Thief in the Dark, The	Meeker-Hill-Lee

LUMAS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Knees	Corbin-Faith	Feb.	1	5800 feet	Jan. 28
Blondes By Choice	Claire Windsor	Oct.	1	6987 feet
Cheer Leader, The	Graves-Olmstead	Nov.	1	6000 feet	Mar. 10
Chorus Kid, The	Faire-Washburn	April	10	6200 feet	April 14
Girl From Rio, The	Myers-Pidgeon	Sept.	1	6990 feet
Head of the Family, The		July
Hell Ship Bronson	Mrs. W. Reid-Howes-Beery	May
Man Higher Up		June
San Francisco Nights	Marmont-Busch	Jan.	1	7000 feet	Dec. 31
Thru the Breakers		Aug.
Turn Back the Hours	Loy-Pidgeon	Mar.	12	6500 feet	Mar. 17
United States Smith	Gribbon-Lee-Harlan	May

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Abie of the U. S. A.	George Jessel
Down Grade, The	Fairbanks-Calhoun
Gypsy Love (tent.)
River Woman, The	Alma Rubens
Uncensored Woman, The
When Danger Calls	Fairbanks-Sedgwick
Woman Between, The

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Across to Singapore	Novarro-Crawford	Mar.	24	6805 feet
Actress, The	Shearer-Forbes-O. Moore	April	28	6998 feet
Annie Laurie	Gish-Kerry	Sept.	17	8730 feet	May 27 '27
Baby Mine	Arthur-Dane	Jan.	21	5139 feet	Jan. 14
Becky	O'Neill-O. Moore	Nov.	12	6433 feet
Ben Hur	Novarro-McAvoy	Oct.	8	11693 feet	Jan. 16, '26
Big City, The	Chaney-M. Day-Compson	Feb.	18	6838 feet	Mar. 31
Big Parade, The	Gilbert-Adoree	Sept.	10	11519 feet	Nov. 28 '25
Body and Soul	L. Barrymore-Pringle-Kerry	Oct.	1	5902 feet	Nov. 25
Bringing Up Father	Macdonald-Olmsted-Moran	Mar.	17	6344 feet	25
Buttons	Coogan-L. Hanson	Dec.	24	6050 feet	Mar. 31
Certain Young Man	Novarro-Adoree	May	19
Circus Rookies	Dane-Arthur	Mar.	31	5661 feet
Cossacks, The	Gilbert-Adoree	April	14
Crowd, The	Boardman-Murray	Mar.	3	8548 feet	Feb.
Diamond Handcuffs	Boardman-Gray-Nagel	May	5
Divine Woman, The	Garbo-Hanson	Jan.	14	7300 feet	Jan. 21
Enemy, The	Gish-Forbes	Feb.	18	8189 feet	Dec. 31
Fair Co-Ed	Davies-Brown	Oct.	15	6408 feet	Nov. 4
Forbidden Hours	Novarro-Adoree	June	16
Foreign Devils	McCoy-Windsor	Sept.	3	4658 feet	April 28
Garden of Allah	Terry-Petrovich	Nov.	5	8200 feet	Sept. 16
In Old Kentucky	H. Costello-Murray	Oct.	29	6646 feet
Latest from Paris, The	Shearer-Forbes	Feb.	4	7743 feet	Mar. 3

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Laugh, Clown, Laugh	Chaney-Young-Asther	April	7
London After Midnight	Chaney-M. Day-Nagel	Dec.	3	5687 feet	Dec. 23
Love	Garbo-Gilbert	Jan.	2	7365 feet	Dec. 16
Lovelorn, The	O'Neill-Kent-O'Day	Dec.	17	5950 feet	Dec. 30
Man, Woman and Sin	Gilbert-Eagels	Nov.	19	6280 feet
Patsy, The	Davies-Caldwell-Gray	Mar.	10	7289 feet
Quality Street	Davies-Nagel	Dec.	31	7193 feet	Nov. 18
Riders of the Dark	McCoy-Dwan	April	00
Road to Romance, The	Novarro-M. Day	Sept.	24	6544 feet	Jan. 21
Rose-Marie	Crawford-Murray-Peters	Feb.	11	7745 feet	Feb. 18
Skirts	Chaplin-Balfour	May	19
Smart Set, The	Haines-Holt-A. Day	Feb.	25	6476 feet	Mar. 10
Spoilers of the West	McCoy-Daw	Dec.	10	4784 feet	Mar. 24
Spring Fever	Haines-Crawford	Oct.	22	6705 feet	Oct. 22
Student Prince, The	Novarro-Shearer	Jan.	30	9566 feet	Oct. 7
Tea for Three	Cody-Pringle-O. Moore	Dec.	10	6273 feet	Nov. 11
Thirteenth Hour, The	L. Barrymore-Gadsdon	Nov.	26	5252 feet
Under the Black Eagle	Flash-M. Day-Forbes	Mar.	31	5901 feet
West Point	Haines-Crawford	Jan.	7	8134 feet	Jan. 7
Wickedness Preferred	Cody-Pringle	Jan.	28	5011 feet
Wyoming	McCoy-Sebastian	Mar.	24	4435 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Aching Youth	Charley Chase	Mar.	17	2 reels
All For Nothing	Charley Chase	Jan.	21	2 reels	Jan. 14
Amazing Lovers	Ufa Oddities	Mar.	10	1 reel
Barnum and Ringling, Inc	"Our Gang"	April	7	2 reels
Bird Man, The	Charley Chase			2 reels
Blow by Blow	Max Davidson	Mar.	31	2 reels
Came the Dawn	Max Davidson	Mar.	3	2 reels
Children of the Sun	Ufa Oddities	Feb.	11	1 reel
Czarina's Secret, The	Baclanova-Mir-Rand	Mar.	17	2 reels
Dumb Daddies	Max Davidson	Feb.	4	2 reels	Feb. 25
Edison, Marconi and Co	"Our Gang"	Mar.	10	2 reels	April 7
Fair and Muddy	"Our Gang"	May	5	1 reel
Family Group, The	Charley Chase	Feb.	18	2 reels	Feb. 18
Finishing Touch, The	Laurel-Hardy	Feb.	25	2 reels	April 7
Fishing With a Microscope	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Forty Thousand Miles with Lindbergh	Aviation Film	Mar.	4	3 reels
From Soup to Nuts	Laurel-Hardy	Mar.	24	2 reels
Golden Fleeces	Ufa Oddities	May	19	1 reel
Happy Omen, A	Ufa Oddities	July	14	1 reel
Heavenly Bodies	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Jungle Round-Up, A	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	28	1 reel	Oct. 9
Lady of Victories, The	A. Ayres-O. Matiesen-G. Irving	Jan.	21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Leave 'Em Laughing	Laurel-Hardy	Jan.	28	2 reels
Let George Do It	Laurel Hardy			2 reels	Mar. 3
Limousine Love	Charley Chase	April	00	2 reels
Monarch of the Glen, The	Ufa Oddities	Mar.	24	1 reel	Jan. 21
Nature's Wizardry	Ufa Oddities	July	28	1 reel
Palace of Honey, The	Ufa Oddities	June	16	1 reel
Pathfinders, The	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Pass the Gravy	Max Davidson	Jan.	7	2 reels	Jan. 14
Perfume and Nicotine	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	14	1 reel
Pets and Pests	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	28	1 reel	Mar. 3
Primitive Housekeeping	Ufa Oddities	April	21	1 reel
Rainy Days	"Our Gang"	Feb.	11	2 reels
Sanctuary	Ufa Oddities	May	5	1 reel
Secrets of the Sea	Ufa Oddities	Feb.	25	1 reel	Mar. 3
Sleeping Death	Ufa Oddities	June	30	1 reel
Spook-Spoofing	"Our Gang"	Jan.	14	2 reels	Jan. 14
Tally-Ho	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
That Night	Max Davidson			2 reels
Their Purple Moment	Laurel-Hardy			2 reels
Tokens of Manhood	Ufa Oddities	June	2	1 reel
Wicked Kasimir, The	Ufa Oddities	April	7	1 reel
Wonders of Blue Gulf Mexico	Ufa Oddities			1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Adventurer, The	McCoy-Sebastian	4709 feet
Baby Cyclone, The	Cody-Pringle
Bellamy Trial, The	Joy-Bronson
Brother Love (tentative)	Dane-Arthur
Bushranger, The	McCoy
Deadline, The	Flash-Lorraine-Gray
Detectives	Dane-Arthur
Excess Baggage	Haines
Four Walls	Gilbert-Crawford
He Learned About Women	Haines-Page-Percy
Law of the Range, The	McCoy-Crawford
Madamoiselle from Armentieres	E. Brody-J. Stuart
Masked Stranger, The	McCoy
Napoleon	Special Cast
Our Dancing Daughters	Crawford-Brown-Sebastian
Show People	Davies-Haines
Southern Skies	Blue-Torres
Telling the World	Haines
Tide of Empire	Adoree-Murray
Trail of '98, The	Del Rio-Forbes	11100 feet	Mar. 24
War in the Dark	Greta Garbo
Wind, The	Gish-Hanson

PARAMOUNT

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adventure Mad	Barclay-Asther	Mar.	31	5897 feet
Barbed Wire	Negri-Brook	Sept.	10	6591 feet
Beau Sabreur	Brent-Cooper	Jan.	7	6704 feet	Jan. 28
Big Killing, The	Beery-Hatton	May	19
Chang	Jungle Film	Sept.	3	6536 feet	May 13 '27
City Gone Wild, The	Meighan-Brooks	Nov.	12	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Doomsday	Vidor-Cooper	Feb.	18	5652 feet	April 7
Drag Net, The	Bancroft-Brent	May	26	7720 feet
Easy Come, Easy Go	Dix-Carroll	April	21	5364 feet
Feel My Pulse	Daniels-Arlen	Feb.	25	5808 feet	Mar. 3
Figures Don't Lie	Ralston-Arlen	Oct.	8	5280 feet	Mar. 3
Flirty-Fifty Girl, The	Daniels-Hall	May	12	7720 feet
Fools for Luck	Fields-Conklin	May	5	5758 feet
Gay Defender, The	Dix-Todd	Dec.	10	6376 feet	Dec. 31
Gentleman of Paris, A	Menjou-O'Hara	Oct.	15	5927 feet	Oct. 14
Gentlemen Prefer Blondes	Taylor-Sterling-White	Jan.	28	6871 feet	Jan. 21
Get Your Man	Bow-Rogers	Dec.	10	5998 feet
Honeymoon Hate	Vidor-Carmanati	Dec.	3	5415 feet	Feb. 11
Jesse James	Thomson-Lane	Oct.	22	8656 feet	Oct. 28
Last Command, The	Jannings-Brent	Jan.	21	8154 feet	Jan. 28
Last Waltz, The	Fritsch-Vernon	Nov.	26	6940 feet	Dec. 30
Legion of the Condemned	Cooper-Wray	Mar.	10	7415 feet	Mar. 24
Love and Learn	Ralston-Chandler	Jan.	14	5737 feet	Feb. 25
Nevada	Cooper-Todd	Sept.	10	6258 feet	Oct. 28
Night of Mystery, A	Menjou-Brent	April	7	5741 feet	April 21
Now We're in the Air	Beery-Hatton	Oct.	22	5798 feet	Dec. 23
Old Ironsides	Ralston-Farrell-Beery	Mar.	3	7900 feet	Dec. 18 '26
One Woman to Another	Vidor-Von Eltz	Sept.	24	4551 feet	Sept. 30
Open Range	Chandler-Bronson	Nov.	5	5599 feet	Mar. 10
Partners in Crime	Beery-Hatton-Brian	Mar.	17	6600 feet
Peaks of Destiny	Special Cast	Jan.	28	5582 feet	Jan. 21
Pioneer Scout, The	Thomson-Lane	Jan.	21	6118 feet	Mar. 10
Red Hair	Bow-Chandler	Mar.	10	6336 feet	Mar. 31
Rough Riders, The	N. Beery-Bancroft	Oct.	1	9443 feet	April 1 '27
Secret Hour, The	Negri-Thomson	Feb.	4	7194 feet	Mar. 17
Serenade	Menjou-Carver-Basquette	Dec.	24	5209 feet	Dec. 31
Shanghai Bound	Dix-Brian	Oct.	15	5515 feet	Dec. 9
She's a Sheik	Daniels-Arlen	Nov.	12	6015 feet	Dec. 9
Shootin' Irons	Luden-Blane	Oct.	8	5179 feet
Show Down, The	Bancroft-Brent	Feb.	25	7616 feet	Mar. 10
Something Always Happens	Ralston-Hamilton	Mar.	24	4729 feet
Speedy	Lloyd-Christie	April	7	7960 feet	April 14
Sporting Goods	Dix-Olmstead	Feb.	11	5951 feet	Feb. 18
Spotlight, The	Ralston-Hamilton	Nov.	19	4934 feet
Stark Love	Special Cast	Sept.	17	6200 feet	Mar. 11 '27
Street of Sin, The	Jannings-Wray	May	26
Sunset Legion, The	Thomson-Murphy	April	21	6763 feet
Swim, Girl, Swim	Daniels-Hall	Sept.	17	6124 feet	Sept. 16
Tell It to Sweeney	Conklin-Bancroft	Sept.	24	6006 feet	Oct. 28
Three Sinners	Negri-Baxter	April	14	7029 feet	April 28
Tillie's Punctured Romance	Fields-Conklin	Mar.	3	5733 feet
Two Flaming Youths	Conklin-Fields	Dec.	17	5319 feet	Jan. 7
Under the Tonto Rim	Arlen-Brian	Feb.		5991 feet	April 28
Underworld	Bancroft-Brent-Brook	Oct.	29	7643 feet	Sept. 9
Way of All Flesh	Jannings-Bennett-Haver	Oct.	1	8486 feet	July 8
Wedding March, The	Von Stroheim-Wray	Feb.
We're All Gamblers	Meighan-Millner	Sept.	3	5935 feet
Wife Savers	Beery-Hatton	Jan.	7	5413 feet	Jan. 21
Woman on Trial	Negri-E. Hanson	Oct.	29	5960 feet	Oct. 14

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adoration	Novelty	Feb.	25	2 reels
Behind the Counter	F. E. Horton	Mar.	3	2 reels
Bugs My Dear (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	April	21	2 reels
Campus Cuties	Billy Dooley	April	7	2 reels
Dad's Choice	E. E. Horton	Jan.	7	2 reels
Fighting Fanny (Christie)	Featured Cast	Jan.	21	2 reels
Frenzy	Novelty	Jan.	14	2 reels
Gallant Gob, A (Christie)	Billy Dooley	May	26	2 reels
Goofy Ghosts (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	April	28	2 reels
Halfback Hannah (Christie)	Ann Cornwall	April	14	2 reels
Hold 'Er Cowboy (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	June	2	2 reels
Holy Mackerel (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Feb.	11	2 reels
Hunger Stroke, A	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb.	25	1 reel
Ice Boxed	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb.	11	1 reel
Just the Type (Christie)	Neal Burns	Feb.	18	2 reels
Ko-Ko's Bawth	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb.	18	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Jerm Jam	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb.	4	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Earth Control	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	31	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kink	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan.	7	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kozy Korner	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan.	21	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Smoke	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	3	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Tattoo	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	17	1 reel
Love Sunk	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar.	24	1 reel
Long Hose (Christie)	Jack Duffy	Mar.	17	2 reels
Love's Young Scream	Anne Cornwall	May	12	2 reels
Love Shy (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Mar.	24	1 reel
Pig Styles	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Jan.	14	1 reel
Save the Pieces (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Jan.	28	2 reels
Say Uncle (Christie)	Jack Duffy	June	9	2 reels
Sea Food (Christie)	Billy Dooley	July	14	2 reels
Shadow Theory	Krazy Kay Cartoon	Jan.	28	1 reel
Slick Slickers (Christie)	Neal Burns	July	7	2 reels
Slippery Heels (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	June	16	2 reels
Sweeties (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Mar.	10	2 reels
Water Bugs (Christie)	Billy Dooley	Feb.	4	2 reels
Wired and Fired	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar.	10	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Abie's Irish Rose	Hersholt-McDonald	12103 feet	April 28
Beggars of Life	Beery-Arlen-Brooks
His Tiger Lady	Menjou-Brent
First Kiss, The	Wray-Cooper
Glorifying the American Girl	Special Cast
Half a Bride	Ralston-Arlen
Kit Carson	Fred Thomson
Ladies of the Mob	Bow-Arlen
Magnificent Flirt, The	Florence Vidor
Odd Fellows	Fields-Conklin
Patriot, The	Jannings-Stone-Vidor
Quick Lunch	Fields-Conklin
Racket, The	Meighan-Prevost
Side Show, The	Fields-Conklin
Vanishing Pioneer, The	Holt-Blane
Warming Up	Richard-Dix
Wings	Bow-Rogers	12 reels	Aug. 26 '27

PATHE

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Alice in Wonderland	Special Cast	Dec.	25	5 reels
Alice Thru Looking Glass	Special Cast	Feb.	12	5 reels
Almost Human	Reynolds-Thomson	Dec.	26	5596 feet	Mar. 24
Angel o. Broadway, The	Joy-Varconi	Oct.	3	6555 feet	Dec. 16
Apache Rider, The	Leo Maloney	Feb.	12	5755 feet	Feb. 18
Avenging Shadow, The	Klondike-Hallor-Morris	April	29	4293 feet	Mar. 31
Ballyhoo Buster, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Jan.	8	4805 feet	Dec. 30
Blonde for a Night, A	Prevost-Ford	Feb.	26	6 reels
Blue Danube, The	Joy-La Rocque	Mar.	11	7 reels
Born to Battle	Bill Cody	Sept.	11	4875 feet
Boss of Rustlers Roost	Dan Coleman	Jan.	22	4833 feet	Jan. 14
Bronc Stomper, The	Dan Coleman	Feb.	26	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Bullet Mark, The	Jack Donovan	Mar.	25	4550 feet	Mar. 31
Chicago	Haver-Varconi	Mar.	4	9992 feet	Dec. 30
Combat	Walsh-Adams-Hulette	Oct.	23	5100 feet	Nov. 11
Cowboy Cavalier, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Jan.	29	4526 feet	Jan. 28
Crashing Through	Jack Padjan	Feb.	5	4480 feet	Feb. 11
Desert of the Lost, The	Wally Wales	Dec.	18	4933 feet	Dec. 30
Desperate Courage	Wally Wales	Jan.	15	4398 feet	Jan. 21
Devil's Twin, The	Leo Maloney	Dec.	11	5478 feet
Discord	Ekman-Dagover	Nov.	20	8586 feet	Nov. 11
Dress Parade	Boyd-Love	Nov.	11	6599 feet	Nov. 11
Flying Luck	Monty Banks	Dec.	4	6463 feet	Nov. 18

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Forbidden Woman, The	Goudal-Varconi	Nov.	7	6568 feet	Dec. 16
Girl in the Pullman	Prevost-Ford	Oct.	31	5867 feet	Nov. 18
Golden Clown, The	Ekman-Bell	Dec.	18	7913 feet	Mar. 24
Gold From Weepah	Bill Cody	Nov.	20	4968 feet	Dec. 23
Grandma's Boy (re-issue)	Harold Lloyd	Dec.		4750 feet
Harp in Hock, A	R. Schildkraut-Coghlan	Oct.	10	5990 feet	Dec. 9
His Foreign Wife	McDonald-Murphy	Nov.	27	4890 feet	Feb. 11
Hold 'Em Yale	La Rocque-Loff	May	13
Hoof Marks	Jack Donovan	Nov.	13	4076 feet	Dec. 23
Land of the Lawless	Jack Padjan	Dec.	25	4131 feet	Dec. 30
Laddie Be Good	Bill Cody	Jan.	1	4155 feet	Dec. 30
Law's Lash, The	Klondike-Ellis-Maberry	April	22	4902 feet	Mar. 31
Leopard Lady, The	Logan-Hale	Jan.	22	6650 feet	Mar. 10
Let 'Er Go Gallegher	Coghlan-Ford	Jan.	15	5888 feet	Jan. 28
Main Event, The	Reynolds-R. Schildkraut	Nov.	18	6472 feet	Nov. 11
Marlie the Killer	Klondike-Bushman, Jr.	Mar.	4	4600 feet	Mar. 3
Midnight Madness	Logan-Brook	Mar.	25	6 reels
My Friend From India	Pangborn-Fair	Dec.	19	5750 feet	Mar. 31
Night Flyer, The	Boyd-Ralston	Feb.	5	5954 feet
Obligin' Buckaroo, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Oct.	16	4575 feet	Nov. 11
On to Reno	Prevost-Landis	Jan.	1	6 reels
Passion Island	Special Cast	Feb.		7 reels
Perfect Gentleman, A	Monty Banks	Jan.	15	5626 feet	Jan. 14
Ride 'Em High	Buddy Roosevelt	Oct.	9	4542 feet	Nov. 11
Roarin' Broncs	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Nov.	27	4375 feet	Dec. 30
Rush Hour, The	Prevost-Ford	Dec.	12	5880 feet	Mar. 10
Saddle Mates	Wally Wales	Mar.	11	4260 feet	Mar. 17
Skyscraper	Boyd-Carrol	April	8	7040 feet	April 14
Soda Water Cowboy, The	Wally Wales	Sept.	25	4546 feet	Nov. 4
Stand and Deliver	La Rocque-Valez	Feb.	19	5423 feet	April 7
Turkish Delight	R. Schildkraut-Fay-Robson	Nov.	11	5397 feet
Valley of Hunted Men	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Feb.	19	4520 feet	Mar. 3
Walking Back	Carrol-Walling	May	6	6 reels
What Price Beauty?	Nita Naldi	Jan.	22	5 reels	Jan. 28
Wise Wife, The	Haver-T. Moore-Logan	Oct.	24	5610 feet	Dec. 16
Wreck of the Hesperus	Bradford-Marion	Oct.	31	6447 feet	Mar. 31

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Animal Snaps	Rarebits	April	8	1 reel
Barnyard Artists	"Aesop Fables"	April	29	1 reel
Barnyard Lodge No. 1	"Aesop Fables"	April	8	1 reel	April 7
Battling Duet, The	"Aesop Fables"	April	15	1 reel	April 7
Beach Club, The	Bevan-Hurlock	Jan.	22	2 reels	Jan. 14
Benares (Educational)	Geographical Number	Jan.	24	1 reel
Best Man, The	Bevan-A. Bennett-V. Dent	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 11
Bicycle Flirt, The	Bevan-V. Dent-D. Garley	Mar.	18	2 reels	Mar. 10
Blaze of Glory, A	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	26	1 reel
Boats and Fishermen	Science Number	Mar.	4	2 reels
Boy Friend, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	22	1 reel
Broncho Buster, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	1	1 reel
Buddhists of Burma, The (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb.	5	1 reel
Busy Bodies	Sportlight	Jan.	8	1 reel	Dec. 31
Clothes and the Game	Sportlight	April	15	1 reel	April 7
County Fair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar	4	1 reel
Crowned Heads	Sportlight	Feb.	19	1 reel
Delhi (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb.	26	1 reel
Do Monkeys Manicure?	Stan Laurel	April	1	1 reel
Family Frolics	Sportlight	Jan.	22	1 reel	Jan. 14
Famous Playgrounds	Sportlight	May	13	1 reel
Flying Age, The	"Aesop Fables"	April	22	1 reel
Flying Elephants	Roach Stars	Feb.	12	2 reels	Feb. 11
Fun Afoot	Sportlight	Mar.	18	1 reel
Galloping Ghosts	Carew-Hardy	Mar.	11	2 reels	Mar. 3
Girl From Nowhere, The	Pollard-Holloway-Swain	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Good Ship Nellie, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	5	1 reel
High Stakes	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	15	1 reel
Honeymoon Hints	Rarebits	Jan.	15	1 reel
How Man Suits His Life	Science Series			2 reels
Houses of Arctic and Tropics	Science Number	Feb.	12	2 reels
Jungle Days	"Aesop Cartoon"	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 31
Kashmir, Old and New	Geographical Number	Jan.	10	1 reel
Love at First Flight	Pollard-Hurlock-Cowley	Jan.	29	2 reels	Jan. 21
Man Without a Face (Serial)	A. Ray-W. Miller	Jan.	15	10 episodes	Jan. 14
Mark of the Frog, The	M. Morris-D. Reed	Mar.	25	10 episodes	Mar. 24
Matching Wits	Sportlight	April	29	1 reel
On the Ice	"Aesop Fable"	Mar.	11	1 reel
Over the Bounding Blue with Will Rogers (Travelesque)		Feb.	12	1 reel	Feb. 11
Playing Hookey	"Our Gang"	Jan.	1	2 reels
Reeling Down the Rhine	Travelesque	Jan.	15	1 reel	Jan. 7
Run Girl, Run	Sennett Girls	Jan.	15	2 reels	Jan. 14
Scaling the Alps	"Aesop Fables"	April	1	1 reel	Mar. 31
Season to Taste	Sportlight	Mar.	4	1 reel
Snalimar Gardens, The	Geographical Number	Mar.	18	1 reel
Should Tall Men Marry?	Roach Stars	Jan.	15	2 reels	Jan. 7
Smile Wins, The	"Our Gang"	Feb.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Army Life	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Feb.	5	2 reels	Feb. 4
Smith's Bargain	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson			2 reels
Smith's Farm Days	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Mar.	4	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Holiday	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Jan.	8	2 reels	Dec. 31
Smith's Restaurant	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	April	1	1 reel
Soldier Man	Harry Langdon
Son Shower, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar.	18	1 reel
Spider's Lair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	19	1 reel	Feb. 18
Swim Princess, The	Pollard-Clyde-Lombard	Feb.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Tail Waggers	Sportlight	April	1	1 reel
Trees	Rarebits	Mar.	11	1 reel
Twenty-Four-Dollar Island	Novelty			1 reel	Dec. 23
Versatility	Sportlight	Feb.	5	1 reel	Jan. 28
Volcanoes (Educational)	Geological Number	Feb.	19	1 reel
Wandering Minstrel, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	29	1 reel
Work of Running Water	Geological Number	Mar.	11	1 reel
Yellow Cameo, The (Serial)	Allene Ray			10 episodes

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Bride of the Colorado	Boles-Blossom
Cop, The	Boyd-Logan
Godless Girl, The	Basquette-Prevost
His Country	R. Schildkraut-Dressler
King of Kings, The	Warner-Logan	13500 feet	April 29 '27
Ladies Must Love	Rod La Rocque
Man-Made Woman	Joy-Boles-Warner
Red Mark, The	von Seyffertitz
Sin Town	Allen-Fair
Survival of Slim, The	Wally Wales
Tenth Avenue	Haver-Varconi
Valley Beyond the Law	Coleman-Loff
What Holds Men	Leatrice Joy
Yellow Contraband	Leo Maloney

PEERLESS PICTURES (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Girl He Didn't Buy, The	Garon-Simpson	April		5600 feet
Golden Shackles	Priscilla Bonner	Mar.		5600 feet
Out of the Past	O'Malley-L. Rich	Sept.	26	6000 feet
Web or Fate, The	Lillian Rich	Nov.	7	5800 feet
Wilful Youth	Harlan-Murphy	Dec.		5800 feet

RAYART (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Boy of the Streets, A	Walker-Bennett	Sept.		5059 feet
Casey Jones	Lewis-Robards	Jan.		6673 feet
Cruise of the Hellion	Murphy-Keith	Sept.		6089 feet	Sept. 30
Danger Patrol, The	Russell-Faire	April
Gun-Hand Garrison	Tex Maynard	Oct.		4879 feet
Gypsy of the North	Gordon-Hale	April
Heart of Broadway, The	Garon-Agnew	Jan.		5853 feet
Heroes in Blue	Bowers-Rand	Nov.		5000 feet
Law and the Man, The	Santschi-Brockwell	Jan.		5916 feet	Mar. 24
Light in the Window, A	Walthall-Avery-Keefe	Oct.		5960 feet	Nov. 11
My Home Town	Brockwell-Glass	Mar.
On the Stroke of 12	E. Torrence-Marlowe-O'Shea	Nov.		5970 feet
Painted Trail, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Feb.		4571 feet
Phantom of the Turf, The	H. Costello-Lease	Mar.
Prince of the Plains	Tex Maynard	Sept.		4134 feet
Ridin' Luck	Tex Maynard	Oct.
Wanderer of the West, A	Tex Maynard	Nov.
Wheel of Destiny, The	Stanley-Hale	Oct.		5869 feet
Wild Born	Tex Maynard	Dec.
You Can't Beat the Law	Lee-Keefe	Feb.		5260 feet

STERLING PICTURES (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Pretty Clothes	Ralston-Walker	Oct.	15	5652 feet	Nov. 4
Outcast Souls	P. Bonner-Delaney	Dec.	15	5210 feet
Burning Up Broadway	H. Costello-Frazer	Jan.	30	5200 feet
Marry the Girl	Bedford-Ellis	Mar.	1	5300 feet	Mar. 10
Million For Love, A	Dunn-Howes	May

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
It Might Happen to Any Girl

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Aftermath	Special Cast	Collwyn	Dec.		6800 feet	Mar. 3
Battles of Coronel	Special Cast	Artlee	Feb.		8400 feet	Mar. 24
Broadway After Midnight	Bonner-Landis	Krelbar	Nov.		6199 feet	Nov. 4
Broken Hearts		Hercules
Czar Ivan the Terrible	Special Cast	Amkiro	April		8500 feet	Mar. 24
Dance Fever	Corda-Varconi	Brill
Faithless Lover, The	O'Brien-Hulette	Krelbar	Mar.		5600 feet	Mar. 3
Fangs of Justice	Silverstreak-Walker	Bischoff			5000 feet
Jealousy	Lya de Putti	Brill
Last Moment, The	Matieson-Hale	Zakoro	April		5800 feet	Mar. 31
Little Wild Girl, The	Lee-Landis	Hercules
Modern Du Barry, A	Maria Corda	Brill	June	1	7000 feet
Port of Missing Children	Special Cast	Superlative
Port of Missing Girls	Bedford-McGregor	Brenda			7270 feet	Mar. 3
Primanerliebe	German Cast	Scenic Films			6500 feet	Mar. 24
Sally of the South Seas		Hercules
Sealed Lips	Swedish Cast	Colwyn			6000 feet
Shadows of the Night		Hercules
Shooting Stars	English Cast	Artlee	April		5800 feet	April 28
Simba	Jungle Film	Capitol Pict			8000 feet	Feb. 4
Streets of Algiers	Camilla Horn	Brill			7 reels
Thrill Seekers	Clifford-Fulton	Superlative			4900 feet
Tartuffe the Hyprocrite	Jannings-Dagover	Brill			7 reels	Aug. 5 '27
Tracey the Outlaw	Jack Hoey	New-Cal	Mar.		6000 feet	Mar. 31
Two Brothers	Conrad Veidt	Brill
When Fleet Meets Fleet	English Cast	Hi-Mark			7953 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bet The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Cigarette Maker's Romance	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
District Doctor, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Girl with the Golden Eyes, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Mysterious Airman, The		Weiss Bros			10 episodes
Necklace, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)	Mary Alden			2 reels
Nothing to Live For	Al Joy	Cranfield Clarke			2 reels
Piece of String, A	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Police Reporter The (Serial)	W. Miller-E. Gilbert	Weiss	Mar.		10 episodes
Sophomore, The	G. O'Neill-L. Graydon	Hi-Mark
Spookey Money	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke			2 reels
Who's Who	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke			2 reels
You Can't Win (Serial)		Weiss Bros			10 episodes

TIFFANY-STAHL

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bachelor's Paradise	O'Neill-Graves	Mar.	15	6147 feet
Clothes Make the Woman	Southern-Pidgeon	May	1
Devil's Skipper, The	Bennett-Love-Landis	Feb.	1	5510 feet
Girl From Gay Paree	Bedford-McGregor	Sept.	15	5233 feet	Sept. 23
Green Grass Widows	Hagen-Harron-Olmsted	June	10
Haunted Ship, The	Love-Sebastian-Santschi	Dec.	1	4753 feet	Feb. 4
House of Scandal	Sebastian-O'Malley	April	1
Ladies of Night Club	Cortez-Leonard	May	15
Lingerie	White-McGregor	June	20
Nameless Men	Windsor-Moreno	Feb.	15	5708 feet	April 14
Night Life	Harron-A. Day	Nov.	1	6235 feet	Dec. 2
Once and Forever	Miller-Harron	Oct.	15	5639 feet
Prowlers of the Sea	Cortez-Myers	July	20
Scarlet Dove, The	Frazer-Borio	April	15
Stormy Waters	Southern-McGregor	June	1
Streets of Shanghai	Starke-Harlan	Dec.	15	5276 feet	Mar. 3
Their Hour	Harron-Sebastian	Mar.	1	5652 feet
Tragedy of Youth	Baxter-Miller-Collier, Jr.	Jan.	15	6361 feet	Mar. 31
Wild Geese	Bennett-Southern-Keith	Nov.	15	6448 feet
Woman Against the World	Ford-Hale-Olmsted	Jan.	1	5283 feet
Women's Wares	Brent-Lytell-Kent	Oct.	1	5614 feet	Nov. 18

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Marcheta	Color Classic	Mar.	1	1 reel
Medallion, The	Color Classic	Mar.	1	1 reel

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Mission Bells	Color Classic	Mar.	15	1 reel
North of Suez	Color Classic	Jan.	1	1 reel
Perfect Day, A	Color Classic	April	1	1 reel
Scarface	Color Classic	Jan.	15	1 reel
Souvenirs	Color Classic	Feb.	15	1 reel
Treasure Land	Color Classic	Feb.	1	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Albany Night Boat		July	10
Beautiful But Dumb		Aug.	1
Domestic Relations		Aug.	15
Grain of Dust, A		July	1
Lingerie		June	20
Marriage of Tomorrow	Miller-Gray
Toilers, The	Ralston-Fairbanks, Jr.

UNIVERSAL

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Air Patrol, The	Al Wilson	Jan.	1	4259 feet
Alias the Deacon	Hersholt-Marlowe	Jan.	22	6869 feet	Oct. 21
Arizona Cyclone, The	Fred Humes	May	6	4076 feet
Back to God's Country	Adoree-Frazer	Sept.	4	5751 feet	Aug. 29
Border Cavalier, The	Fred Humes	Sept.	18	4427 feet
Buck Privates	De Putti-McGregor	June	3	6171 feet	Feb. 4
Call of the Heart	Dynamite-Cobb-Alden	Jan.	29	4345 feet
Cat and the Canary	La Plante-Hale-Stanley	Sept.	11	7198 feet	May 20
Cheating Cheaters	Compson-Harlan	Oct.	9	5623 feet	Dec. 23
Chinese Parrot, The	Bosworth-Nixon	Oct.	23	7304 feet	Jan. 7
Clean Up Man, The	Wells-O'Day	Feb.	12	4232 feet
Cohens and Kellys in Paris	Sidney-Macdonald	Jan.	15	7481 feet	Feb. 18
Count of Ten, The	Ray-Ralston	June
Desert Dust	Ted Wells	Dec.	18	4349 feet
Fangs of Destiny	Dynamite-Cobb-Caldwell	Dec.	4	4259 feet
Fearless Rider, The	Humes-Worth	Jan.	15	4173 feet
Finders Keepers	La Plante-Harron	Feb.	5	6081 feet	Mar. 17
Flyin' Cowboy, The	Gibson-Hasbrouck	June
Four Footed Ranger, The	Dynamite (dog)	Mar.	25	4426 feet
Four Flushers, The	Lewis-Nixon	Jan.	8	6193 feet	Jan. 28
Galloping Fury	Gibson-Rand	Nov.	20	5503 feet
Good Morning Judge	Denny-Nolan	April	29	5645 feet
Hero For a Night, A	Tryon-Miller	Dec.	18	5711 feet	Dec. 2
Hot Heels	Tryon-Miller	May	13
Hound or Silver Creek	Dynamite (dog)	May	20	4095 feet
Irresistible Lover, The	Keane-Moran	Dec.	4	6958 feet	Sept. 16
Les Miserables	Special Cast	Oct.	30	7713 feet
Lone Eagle, The	Keane-Kent	Sept.	18	5862 feet	April 28
Love Me and World Is Mine	Philbin-Kerry	Mar.	4	6813 feet	Feb. 11
Made to Order Hero	Ted Wells	June	3	4120 feet
Man's Past, A	Veidt-Bedford	Dec.	25	6135 feet	Sept. 16
Midnight Rose	De Putti-Harlan	Feb.	26	5689 feet	Mar. 10
One Glorious Scrap	Fred Humes	Nov.	20	4172 feet
On Your Toes	Denny-Worth	Nov.	27	5918 feet	Jan. 14
Out All Night	Denny-Nixon	Sept.	4	6170 feet	Oct. 7
Painted Ponies	Gibson-Claire	Sept.	25	5416 feet	Aug. 5
Phantom Flyer, The	Al Wilson	Feb.	26	4253 feet
Put 'Em Up	Fred Humes	Mar.	11	4200 feet
Rawhide Kid, The	Gibson-Hale	Jan.	29	5382 feet
Shield of Honor, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Hamilton	Feb.	19	6172 feet	Dec. 20
Silk Stockings	La Plante-Harron	Oct.	2	6166 feet	Aug. 26
Sky Hand Saunders	Al Wilson	Nov.	6	4393 feet
Small Bachelor, The	Kent-Beranger	Nov.	6	6218 feet
Stop That Man	Lake-Kent	Mar.	11	5309 feet	April 28
Straight Shootin'	Ted Wells	Oct.	16	4251 feet	Aug. 19
Surrender	Philbin-Moskine	Mar.	4	7245 feet	Mar. 10
Thanks For Buggy Ride	La Plante-Tryon	April	1	6197 feet	Feb. 4
That's My Daddy	Denny-Kent	Feb.	5	6073 feet
Thirteenth Juror, The	Nilsson-Bushman	Nov.	13	5590 feet	Dec. 19
Thirteen Washington Square	Hersholt-Joyce	April	8	6274 feet	Feb. 4
Three Miles Up	Al Wilson	Sept.	4	4136 feet	July 11
Thunder Riders, The	Ted Wells	April	8	4353 feet
Trick of Hearts, A	Gibson-Hale	Mar.	18	5495 feet
We Americans	Sidney-Miller-Lewis	May	6	9151 feet	April 7
Wild Beauty	Rex-Allen-Marlowe	Nov.	27	5192 feet
Wild West Show, The	Gibson-Gulliver	May	20	5254 feet
Wolf's Trail	Dynamite-Cobb-Lamont	Oct.	2	4167 feet
Won in the Clouds	Al Wilson	April	22	4348 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Africa Before Dark	Oswald Cartoon	Feb.	20	1 reel	April 7
All Balled Up	Charles Puffy	Feb.	27	2 reels	Feb. 4
Any Old Count	"The Gumps"	Jan.	23	2 reels
Back to Nature	Arthur Lake	Feb.	27	1 reel	Feb. 11
Bare Fists	Jack Perrin	Jan.	14	2 reels	Dec. 23
Battling Justice	Fred Gilman	Mar.	24	2 reels	Feb. 25
Big Bluff, A	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhail	May	2	2 reels	April 7
Boss of the Rancho	Bob Curwood	Jan.	7	2 reels
Brand of Courage, The	B. Curwood-P. Montgomery	Jan.	7	2 reels	Jan. 7
Bright Lights	Oswald Cartoon	Mar.	19	1 reel	April 7
Buckskin Days	Newton House	Feb.	18	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster's Big Chance	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Jan.	11	2 reels	Dec. 23
Buster Shows Off	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Mar.	14	2 reels
Buster Steps Out	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Feb.	8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster's Whippet Race	Trimble, Turner and Dog	May	23	2 reels
By Correspondence	Arthur Lake	Jan.	30	1 reel	Jan. 14
Case of Scotch, A	"The Gumps"	Jan.	9	2 reels	Dec. 23
Cloud Buster, The	"The Gumps"	Feb.	6	2 reels	Jan. 21
Code of the Mounted, The	Jack Perrin	May	5	2 reels	April 7
Dates for Two	C. King-C. Doherty	Jan.	18	2 reels	Dec. 31
Fighting Destiny	Fred Gilman	May	19	2 reels
Framed	Bob Curwood	May	26	2 reels
Gauge of Battle, The	Fred Gilman	April	21	2 reels	Mar. 24
George's False Alarm	Sid Saylor	Feb.	29	2 reels	Feb. 4
Haunted Island, The (Serial)	Jack Daugherty-Helen Foster	Mar.	26	10 episodes
Harem Scarem	Oswald Cartoon	Jan.	9	1 reel
Her Only Husband	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	April	4	2 reels	Mar. 17
Hidden Loot	Bob Curwood	April	28	2 reels	Mar. 31
High Flyin' George	Sid Saylor	Jan.	25	2 reels
His In Laws	Charles Puffy	Mar.	12	2 reels	Feb. 18
Horns, Orange Blossoms	Charles Puffy	Jan.	29	2 reels	Jan. 7
Horse Play	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	Jan.	4	2 reels	Dec. 16
Hungry Hoboes	Oswald Cartoon	May	14	1 reel
Indoor Golf	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhaill	Mar.	7	2 reels	Feb. 11
Looters, The	Bob Curwood	Mar.	3	2 reels	Feb. 4
Maiden of the Mounted	Jack Perrin	Mar.	19	2 reels	Feb. 11
Man of Letters, A	Sid Saylor	Feb.	15	2 reels	Jan. 28
Married Bachelors	Charles Puffy	April	9	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mistakes Will Happen	Ben Hall	Feb.	13	1 reel	Jan. 21
Money! Money! Money!	Ben Hall	May	7	1 reel	April 14
Neck n' Neck	Oswald Cartoon	Jan.	23	1 reel
Newlyweds' Advice		Jan.	2	2 reels	Dec. 16
Newlyweds' Friends, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	April	1	2 reels	Mar. 10
Newlyweds' Imagination, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	May	7	2 reels	April 14
Newlyweds' Servant, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	Feb.	6	2 reels	Feb. 4
Newlyweds Success, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	Mar.	5	2 reels	Feb. 11
No Blondes Allowed	C. King-C. Doherty	Mar.	21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Ole Swimmin' 'Ole, The	Oswald Cartoon	Feb.	6	1 reel	Mar. 24
One Every Minute	Arthur Lake	April	23	1 reel	April 7
Out in the Rain	"The Gumps"	Feb.	20	2 reels	Jan. 28
Ozzie of the Mounted	Oswald Cartoon	April	30	1 reel	April 7
Payroll Roundup, The	Bob Curwood	Mar.	31	2 reels	Mar. 3
Prince and the Papa	Charles Puffy	Feb.	12	2 reels	Jan. 21
Ride 'Em Plowboy	Oswald Cartoon	April	15	1 reel	Mar. 24
Riding Gold	Newton House	Jan.	21	2 reels
Ring Leader, The	Jack Perrin	April	7	2 reels	Mar. 10
Ringside Romeos	Arthur Lake	Mar.	26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Rival Romoes	Oswald Cartoon	Mar.	5	1 reel	April 7
Sagebrush Sadie	Oswald Cartoon	April	1	1 reel
Sailor George	Sid Saylor	May	9	2 reels	April 14
Scarlet Arrow, The (Serial)	F. X. Bushman, Jr			10 episodes
Sealed Orders	Jack Perrin	Feb.	11	2 reels	Jan. 28
Shady Rest	"The Gumps"			2 reels
Sliding Home	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan.	16	2 reels	Dec. 30
Social Lions	Ben Hall	Mar.	12	1 reel
Some Babies	Charles Puffy	Mar.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Some Pets	Arthur Lake	Jan.	2	1 reel	Dec. 14
Son of the Frontier, A	Newton House	April	14	2 reels	Mar. 17
So This Is Sapp Center	Ben Hal.	Jan.	16	1 ree.	Dec. 30
Special Edition	Ben Hall	April	9	1 reel	Mar. 17
Start Something	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	Feb.	1	1 reel	Jan. 14
Summer Knights	Arthur Lake	May	21	1 reel
Swell Clothes	Arthur Lake	Dec.	5	1 reel	Nov. 18
Taking the Count	C. King-C. Doherty	April	18	2 reels	Mar. 24
Terrors of the Unknown (Serial)				10 episodes
That's That	Trimble-Turner and Dog	April	11	2 reels	Mar. 17
There's a Will	C. King-C. Doherty	Dec.	21	2 reels
Unexpected Hero, An	F. Gillman-M. King	Feb.	25	2 reels	Jan. 28
Untamed, The	Newton House	May	12	2 reels	April 14
Valiant Rider, The (Western)	Bob Sherwood			2 reels
Vanishing Rider, The (Serial)	Wm. Desmond	Jan.	16	10 episodes
Watch George	Sid Saylor	Mar.	28	2 reels	Mar. 3
What a Party	C. King-C. Doherty	Feb.	22	2 reels	Feb. 4
When George Hops	Sid Saylor	April	25	2 reels	Mar. 31
Winged Hoofs	Newton House	Mar.	17	2 reels	Feb. 25
Winning Five, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Sept.	26	2 reels	Sept. 19
Winning Goal, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan.	2	2 reels
Wolves of the Range	Fred Gilman	Jan.	28	2 reels
Woman Chasers	C. King-C. Doherty	May	16	2 reels

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Body Punch, The	Daugherty-Faire
Brides Will Be Brides	Laura La Plante
Children of the Sun	Special Cast
Crimson Hour, The	De Putti-Moskine
Doubling For Trouble	Gibson-Gilbert
Fallen Angels	Kerry-Starke
Foreign Legion, The	Kerry-Stone-Marlowe
Freedom of the Press	Stone-Keith-M. Day
Give and Take	Sidney-Hersholt
Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?	Love-T. Moore
Home, James	La Plante-Delaney
Jazz Mad	Hersholt-Nixon-Lewis
Last Warning, The	Laura LaPlante
Lonesome	Tryon-Kent
Man Who Laughs, The	Veidt-Philbin
Navy Blues	Arthur Lake
Play Goes On	Veidt-Nolan
Red Lips	Nixon-Rogers
Silks and Saddles	Nixon-Walling-Nolan
Uncle Tom's Cabin	Special Cast
Viennese Lovers	Philbin-Hersholt-Keane
Watch My Speed	Denny-Worth

UNITED ARTISTS

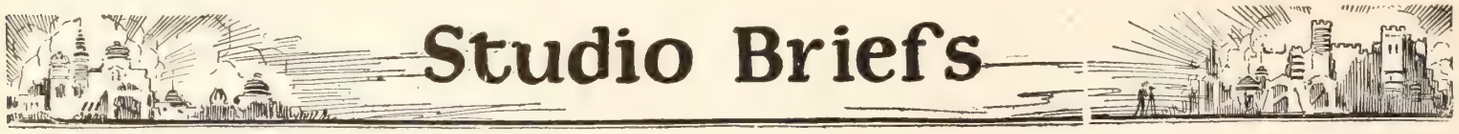
FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Circus, The	Chaplin-Kennedy	Jan.	7	6400 feet	Jan. 14
College	Buster Keaton	July	29	5800 feet	Sept. 23
Devil Dancer, The	Gray-Brook	Nov.	19	7000 feet	Dec. 30
Dove, The	Talmadge-Roland	Jan.	7	8400 feet	Jan. 7
Drums of Love	Philbin-Alvarado	Mar.	31	9195 feet	Jan. 28
Garden of Eden, The	Griffith-Ray	Feb.	4	7558 feet	Jan. 14
Gaucho, The	Fairbanks-Valez	Jan.	1	9358 feet	Dec. 2
Magic Flame, The	Colman-Banky	Aug.	11	7850 feet	Sept. 30
My Best Girl	Pickford-Rogers	Oct.	31	7460 feet	Dec. 9
Ramona	Del Rio-Baxter	Feb.	11	7552 feet	Feb. 4
Sadie Thompson	Swanson-L. Barrymore	Jan.	7	8000 feet	Feb. 11
Sorrell and Son	Warner-Joyce	Dec.	2	9000 feet	Nov. 25
Steamboat Bill, Jr.	Buster Keaton	April
Tempest	J. Barrymore-Horn			9 reels
Two Arabian Knights	Boyd-Wolheim	Sept.	23	8250 feet	Nov. 4
Two Lovers	Colman-Banky			8500 feet	April 28

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Battle of the Sexes, The	Bennett-Hersholt-O'Neill
Hell's Angels	Lyon-Hall-Nissen	about		7 reels
Innocent, The	Vilma Banky
La Piava	Boyd-Valez
Woman Disputed, The	Talmadge-Roland

WARNER BROTHERS



FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Across the Atlantic	Blue-Murphy	Feb.	25
Beware of Married Men	Rich-Tucker-Holmes	Jan.	14	5121 feet	Jan. 28
Brass Knuckles	Blue-Bronson	Dec.	3	6330 feet	Dec. 23
College Widow, The	D. Costello-Collier, Jr	Oct.	15	6616 feet	Nov. 25
Crimson City, The	Loy-Miljan-Hyams	April	7	5300 feet	April 21
Dog of the Regiment- A	Rin-Tin-Tin-Gulliver	Oct.	29	5003 feet	Nov. 11
Domestic Troubles	Fazenda-Cook	Mar.	24
First Auto, The	Miller-Oldfield	Sept.	18	6767 feet	July 8
Five and Ten Cent Annie	Fazenda-Cook	April	21
Fortune Hunter, The	Chaplin-Costello	Nov.	7	6639 feet	Jan. 21
Ginsberg the Great	Jessel-Ferris	Nov.	26	5300 feet
Girl From Chicago, The	Nagel-Loy	Nov.	19	5978 feet	Dec. 31

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Good Time Charley	Oland-H. Costello	Nov. 5	6302 feet	Nov. 25
Ham and Eggs at Front	Wilson-Conklin-Loy	Dec. 24	5613 feet
Husbands For Rent	Moore-Costello	Dec. 31	6320 feet	Jan. 7
If I Were Single	McAvoy-Nagle	Dec. 17	6320 feet	Dec. 31
Jaws of Steel	Rin-Tin-Tin	Sept. 10	5569 feet	Sept. 30
Jazz Singer, The (Vitaphone)	Jolson-McAvoy	Oct.	7423 feet	Oct. 21
Little Snob, The	McAvoy-Fraser	Feb. 11
Missing Link, The	Syd Chaplin	Aug. 7	6485 feet	May 20
One-Round Hogan	Blue-Hyams	Sept. 17	6357 feet	Oct. 17
Old San Francisco	D. Costello-Oland	Sept. 4	7961 feet	July 8
Pay As You Enter	Cook-Fazenda	May 19
Powder My Back	Rich-Ferris-Beranger	Mar. 10
Race For Life, A	Rin-Tin-Tin-Nye-Faire	Jan. 28	4777 feet	Feb. 11
Reno Divorce, A	McAvoy-Graves	Oct. 22	5492 feet	Nov. 4
Rinty of the Desert	Rin-Tin-Tin-Ferris-Nye	May 5
Sailor Izzy Murphy	Jessel-Ferris	Oct. 8	6020 feet	Oct. 28
Sailor's Sweetheart, A	Fazenda-Cook	Sept. 24	5685 feet	Oct. 14
Silver Slave, The	I. Rich-Miljan	Nov. 12	6142 feet	Dec. 9
Slightly Used	McAvoy-Nagel	Sept. 3	6412 feet	Sept. 30
When a Man Loves	Barrymore-Costello	Aug. 21	10081 feet	Feb. 18'27

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Fools in the Fog	McAvoy-Nagle
Glorious Betsy (Vita.)	D. Costello-Nagle		7091 feet
Ladies Prefer Bonds (tent.)	Nagle-McAvoy
Land of the Silver Fox	Rin-Tin-Tin-Nye-Hyams
Lion and the Mouse (Vita.)	L. Barrymore-McAvoy-Collier, Jr.
Noah's Ark (Vita.)	D. Costello-O'Brien
No Questions Asked	Ferris-Collier, Jr.
Singing Fool, The (Vita.)	Al Jolson
State Street Sadie	Loy-Nagle
Tenderloin (Vita.)	D. Costello-Nagle		7782 feet	April 28
Women They Talk About	I. Rich-Ferris-Collier, Jr.

Headed by R. Lee Hough, director of "Wild Wset Romance," a company of sixty screen players entrained for Douglas, Ariz., to remain three weeks filming exteriors for a new Fox western starring Rex Bell. Caryl Lincoln heads the cast of supporting players, which includes Billy Butts, Neill Neeley, Jack Walters, Fred Parke, Albert Baffert, George Pearce and Ellen Woodsten.

Lawrence Grant has been signed to support Pola Negri in her new Paramount picture, which has not yet been titled.

"White Shadows in the South Seas" has been selected as final title of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture formerly known as "Southern Skies." Exteriors for this film were recently completed under W. S. Van Dyke after five months on the island of Tahiti. A farewell banquet was tendered the M-G-M unit by the native islanders.

"The Docks of New York," an original screen story by John Monk Saunders, will be George Bancroft's next vehicle. Josef von Sternberg will again direct the Paramount star. The adaptation will be by Jules Furtman.

Columbia last week filled the cast of "Virgin Lips," the name of Olive Borden's initial vehicle for the company, with the signing of Erne Veo, Richard Alexander, Alexander Gill and Arline Pretty.

"Creole Love," a story by Raymond Wells about Louisiana history, is being prepared for production at the studio of First Division Distributors.

Gotham has begun production at its studio on "United States Smith," which follows "Hellship Bronson" on the line for the current season. The cast will feature Eddie Gribbon and Lila Lee with Kenneth Harlan and Mickey Bennett in support. Curtis Benton prepared the scenario.

Otto Matiesen, Danish actor and star of "The Last Moment," has been signed for a supporting role in Pola Negri's new, and untitled picture, filmed by Paramount from Sardou's "Fedora."

Rowland V. Lee, Paramount director, John Farrow, scenarist, and Sidney Street, company business manager, have left Hollywood for St. Martins, Md., to prepare for the arrival of the starring team and supporting cast of "The First Kiss" on May 18. Lane Chandler and Leslie Benton have been added to the cast. The story is an adaptation of Tristram Tupper's "The Four Brothers."

Wallace MacDonald, who recently turned from acting to directing, has just finished "Free Lips," his first feature production. Made for First Division, it features June Marlowe, Jane Novak and Frank Hagney.

George B. Seitz and Erle C. Kenton are directing their own stories for Columbia, the former "Ransom," and the latter "Name the Woman," dealing with 'Frisco's Chinatown and Los Angeles respectively.

William Austin, Paramount featured comedian, will leave Hollywood early in June to spend two months vacationing in England.

"Here Comes the Band" will be the title of Harry Langdon's new comedy for First National upon which he has been actively at work for about seven weeks. In support of Langdon is Doris Dawson, as leading woman.

George Irving will have an important featured role in "Ladies of the Mob," a new Paramount picture whose theme is the underworld.

The De Mille studios are producing for Pathe at the present two new productions, "Power" and "Love Over Night." In the first stars William Boyd, with Jacqueline Logan in support, and in the latter appears Rod La Rocque as the star with Jeanette Loff as leading lady.

First National has placed William A. Seiter under a long-term contract following the completion by him of "Happiness Ahead." During the first year of the contract he will screen four stories, with more to follow.

In preparation at the De Mille studios are "Annapolis," with Lina Basquette and John Mack Brown, and "Craig's Wife." The former, from a story by F. McGrew Willis, will be directed by Christy Cabanne. Clara Beranger is doing the adaptation of "Craig's Wife."

J. Roy Hunt will photograph for Paramount the picture tentatively titled "The Perfumed Trap," which went into production last week under the direction of Victor Schertzinger.

"Just Married," by Anne Nichols, is definitely set as the first of a series of Paramount pictures to co-star Ruth Taylor and James Hall. William Austin and Arnold Kent have been chosen for parts. Frank Strayer will direct.

"Follow Through" will be the title of the latest Hal Roach comedy co-starring Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy. The action was filmed at the Riviera Country Club and the Westward Golf Course.

John Farrow, 23-year old Australian scenarist, novelist and playwright, has renewed his contract with Paramount. His first novel will be off the press this fall. His present work for Paramount is the script of "The First Kiss." Lane Chandler has been added to the latter picture.

Additions to the cast of M-G-M's "Excess Baggage" made last week include Cyril Chadwick, Greta Granstedt, Kathleen Clifford, Tom Dugan and Ricardo Cortez.

Supporting characters in "Hot News," a Paramount film, will be Mario Carillo, May Wallace, Ben Hall, Jack Woody, John Kolb and Gina Corrado.

Mae Busch has been signed by M-G-M for a role in Lon Chaney's "While the City Sleeps." Appearing as detectives in this picture will be Charles Brinley, one of the screen's pioneer actors, Frank Newburg and Eddie Kane.

F. Richard Jones has been engaged by Paramount to handle the megaphone on "The Water Hole," a new Zane Grey story in which Jack Holt will star.

Raoul Paoli, French actor, is to have one of the featured roles in "Kit Carson," Fred Thomson's next for Paramount. He and Thomson were competitors at the Inter-Allied Games held in Paris after the Armistice.

Howard Estabrook, scenarist, and Robert Milton, New York producer and stage director, are new names added to Paramount's production forces on the coast. Estabrook is to work on the first starring vehicle for Buddy Rogers. John Mankers, writer, has also signed a contract with Paramount, a renewal of his old.

Preference means Profits

The theatre that stresses screen quality is well on the way to popular preference. And that preference means profits.

Specify prints on Eastman Positive—the film that preserves every bit of photographic quality for your screen.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

A Matchless Musical Attraction

No feature of the magnificent new Loew-United Artists-Penn Theatre at Pittsburg was more enthusiastically received than the wonderful Robert Morton Philharmonic Unit Organ.

The World's leading showmen everywhere-the more progressive exhibitors, are taking advantage of the box office value of the- Robert Morton Unit Organ.

Robert Morton Organs are distinctively different from all others. Unapproached grandeur and beauty of tone. Greater orchestral and theatrical resources and structural improvements found in no other instrument, make it the supreme musical instrument of all time.

Robert Morton Organ Co.

New York
1560 Broadway

Chicago
624 So. Michigan

Los Angeles
1914 So Vermont

San Francisco
168 Golden Gate

Robert Morton UNIT ORGAN

GENUINE DEAGAN PERCUSSIONS USED

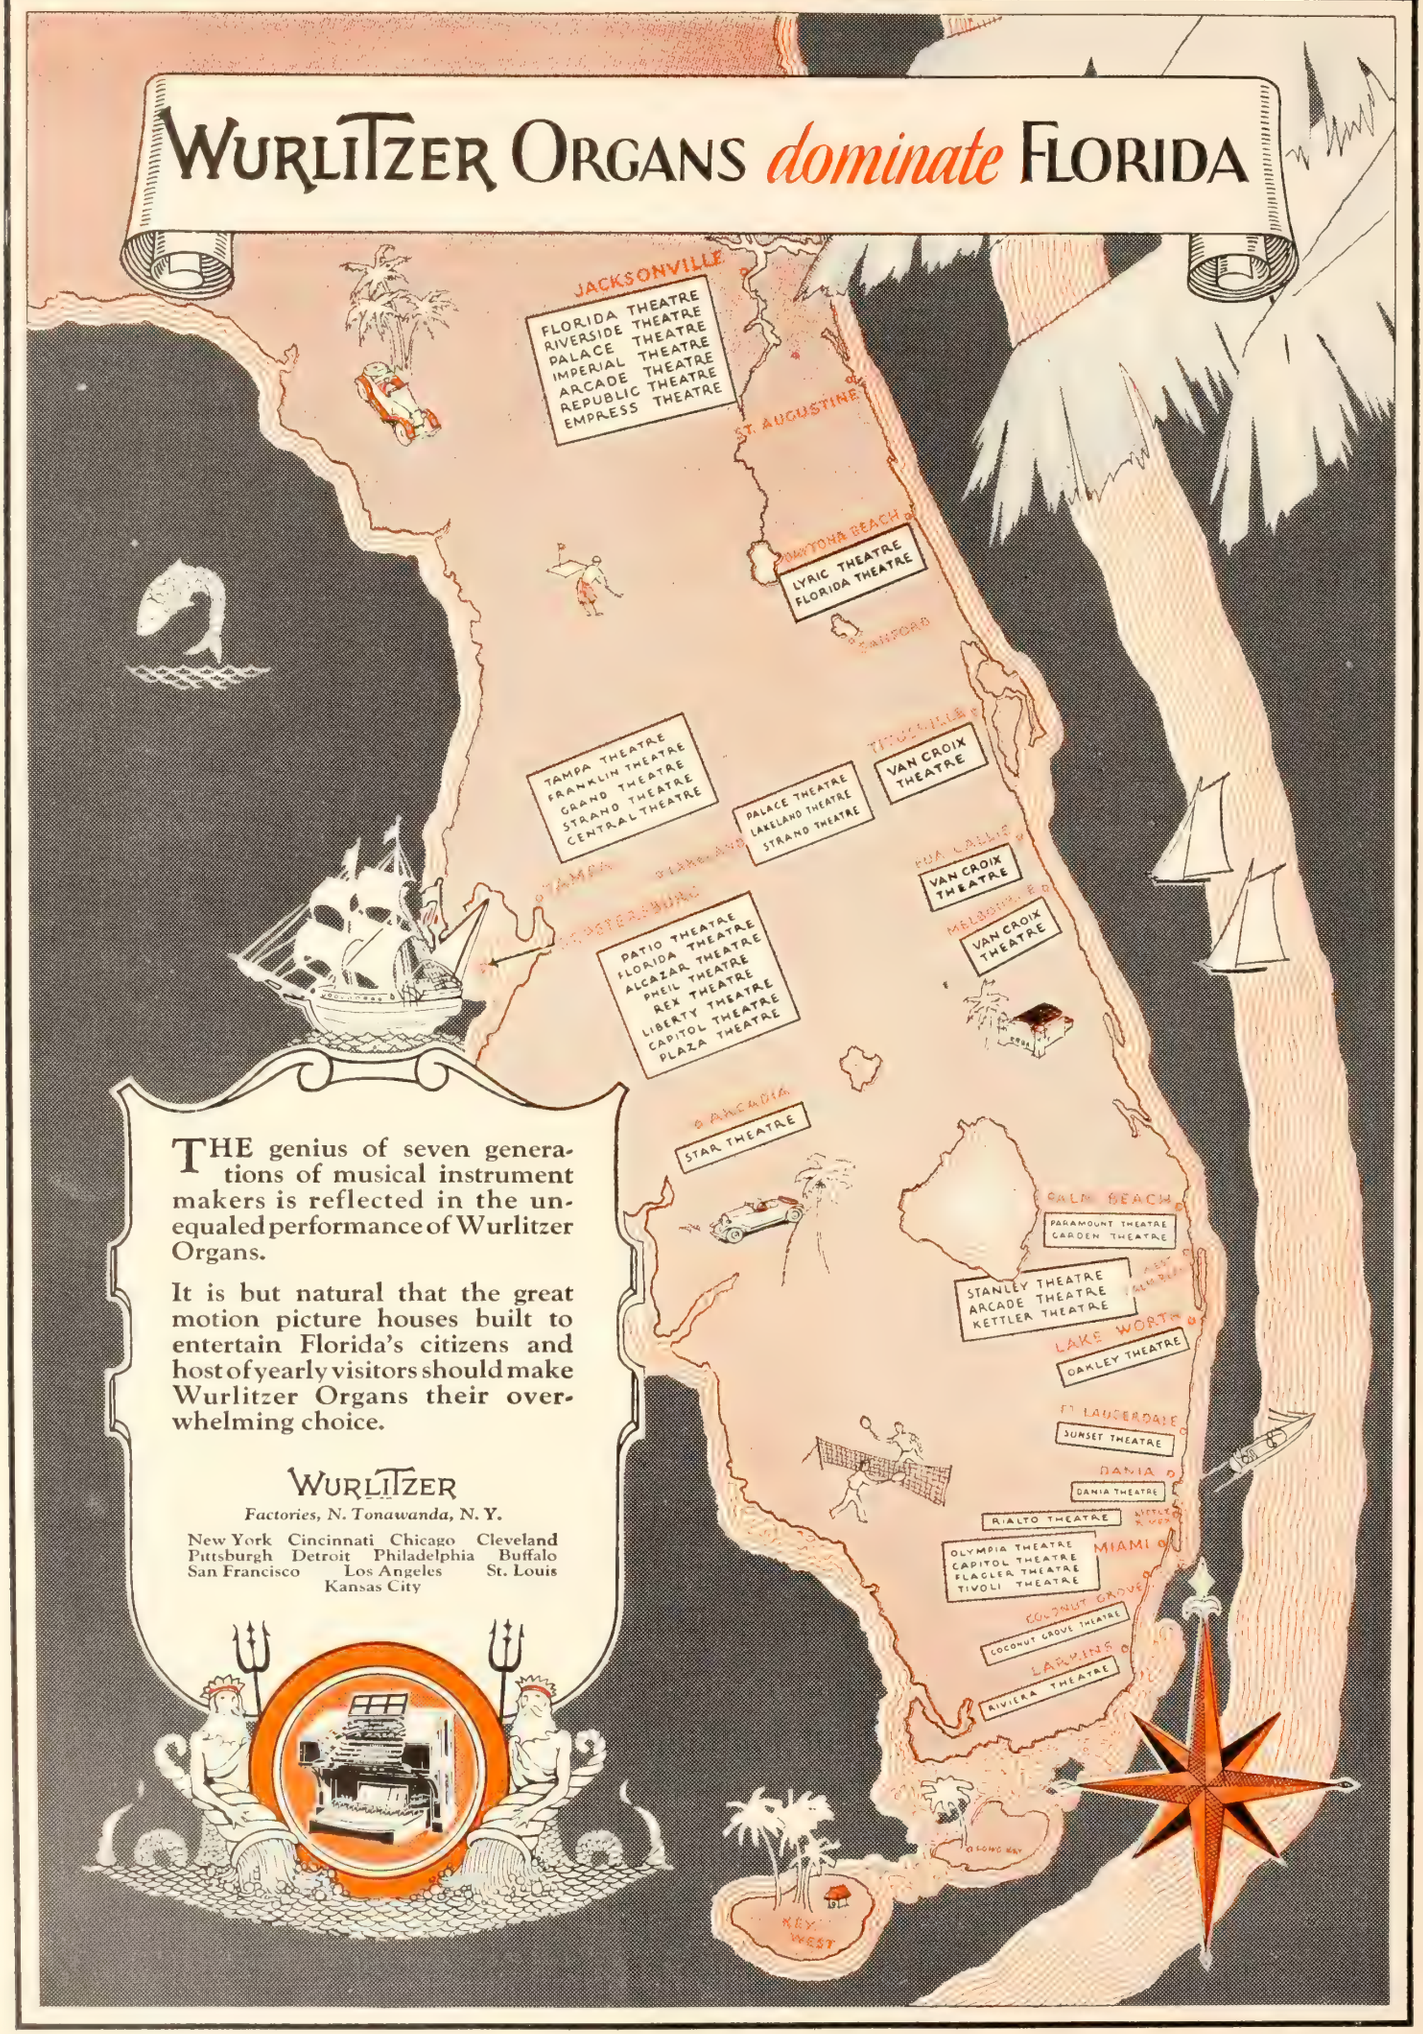
May 19, 1928

Motion Picture News

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

EXTRA!

Vol. XXXVII No. 20



Entered as second-class matter April 22, 1926, at the Post Office at New York N. Y. under act of March 3, 1879

PRICE 20 CENTS

Published Weekly $8.00 a Year

Los Angeles New York Chicago

WURLITZER ORGANS dominate FLORIDA

THE genius of seven generations of musical instrument makers is reflected in the unequaled performance of Wurlitzer Organs.

It is but natural that the great motion picture houses built to entertain Florida's citizens and host of yearly visitors should make Wurlitzer Organs their overwhelming choice.

WURLITZER

Factories, N. Tonawanda, N. Y.

New York Cincinnati Chicago Cleveland
Pittsburgh Detroit Philadelphia Buffalo
San Francisco Los Angeles St. Louis
Kansas City

What smart showmen look for in 1928-29 product announcements

¶ Not gaudy colors. Not smart cracks dished up in trick type. Not has-been or synthetic stars. Not run-of-the-mill, old-fashioned pictures. Not good pictures for which there is no advance demand from the public. What you look for are the sure-fire naturals, the pictures you can tell six months before you play them that they will pack your house. ¶ The Harold Lloyds and the Clara Bows and the Emil Jannings and the Richard Dixes and the "Wings" and

"The Wedding March." And "Canary Murder Case," which you and your wife and 200,000 folks have been reading and talking about. And new up-and-coming favorites like Charles Rogers, Esther Ralston, Wray-Cooper and Hall-Taylor, idols of the young 16-30 crowd from which you draw 70% of your audiences. ¶ Short features? It's Paramount News that attracts your attention because the public and the trade are talking about how much swifter, breezier, better it is than the others. It's always an asset to your house to offer the best. And Christie Comedies, which play more de luxe theatres on merit than several other companies' comedies combined. The only really nationally advertised short-comedy stars. You want the rest of the Paramount shorts line-up too. They're outstanding. ¶ Buying product is simplified this year. The important pictures that the smart showman looks for—specials, features, news reel, shorts—are all in one group . . . . . .

PARAMOUNT'S WHOLE-SHOW PROGRAM

Specials

Harold Lloyd
Wedding March
1 Clara Bow
3 Richard Dix
2 Emil Jannings
Canary Murder Case
Beggars of Life
The Tong War
Crime of Interference
The Letter
Tahiti Nights
Glorifying American Girl
Perfumed Trap
Wolf Song
Dirigible
Man I Love
Hard Boiled Angel
Living Together
Upstart Gentleman
Behind German Lines
Burlesque

Road Shows

Wings
Abie's Irish Rose
The Patriot

Star Hits

3 Richard Dix
4 Geo. Bancroft
4 Bebe Daniels
1 Esther Ralston
2 Pola Negri
3 Wray-Cooper
2 Florence Vidor
4 Chas. Rogers
3 Taylor-Hall
3 Adolphe Menjou
3 Zane Grey
1 Thomas Meighan
2 MacLean-Christie
1 Sir Harry Lauder
1 Model of Montmarte

Shorts

104 Paramount News
8 Vernon Comedies
8 Dooley Comedies
8 "Macduff" Comedies
8 "Confessions of a Chorus Girl" Comedies
12 Great Stars and Authors
26 Krazy Kat
26 Inkwell Imps
2 Horton Comedies
Extra! Byrd's Flight to the South Pole

GOOD NEWS!

EMIL JANNINGS
"The Street of Sin"

CLARA BOW
"Ladies of the Mob"

GEORGE BANCROFT
"The Drag Net"

17 of the best
PARAMOUNT PICTURES of the year
between now and August 1st

BEBE DANIELS
"The Fifty Fifty Girl"
"Hot News"

RICHARD DIX
"Easy Come, Easy Go"

POLA NEGRI
"Three Sinners"

BEERY - HATTON
"The Big Killing"

ADOLPHE MENJOU
"A Night of Mystery"
"His Tiger Lady"

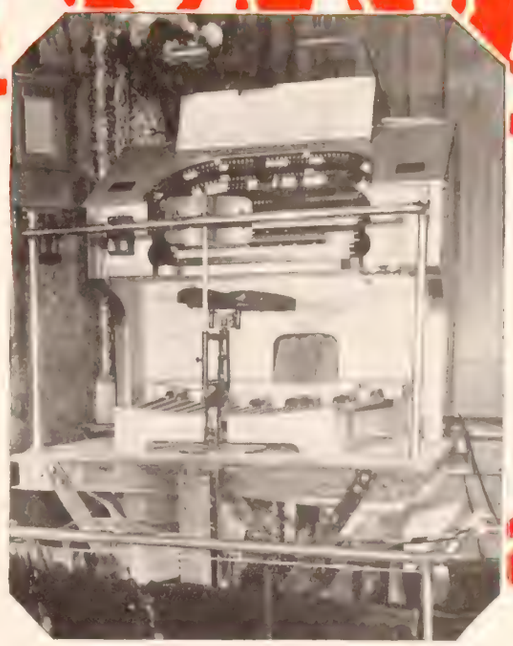
ESTHER RALSTON
"Half a Bride"

FLORENCE VIDOR
"The Magnificent Flirt"

JACK HOLT
"The Vanishing Pioneer"

THOMAS MEIGHAN
"The Racket"
(Produced by The Caddo Co.)

FRED THOMSON
"Kit Carson"
"Sunset Legion"



FIELDS - CONKLIN
"Fools for Luck"

re-read
PARAMOUNT'S
Announcement of the Whole Show Program
for 1928-29!

any month—any season—the best pictures—the most pictures are PARAMOUNT!

THE WHOLE SHOW FROM MOTION PICTURE HEADQUARTERS!

Making the ORGAN a FEATURE!

LIVE theatre owners know the attracting power of good music in their programs. They know this so well that they are satisfied only with a unit pipe organ of finest make. When they have such an organ, they advertise it. They make it a vital, drawing part of their entertainment.

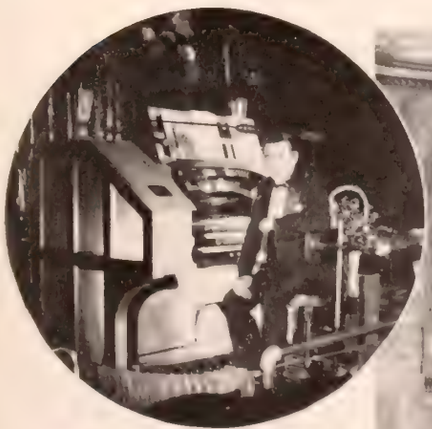
One exhibitor who realizes the value of featuring the organ is Charles Bayer. In his Park Theatre, Lehighton, Pa., he has installed a Page Unit Organ. The console — beautifully finished in stipple gold and mahogany, with three manuals—is on an elevator. Thus the organ can be spotlighted to extraordinary advantage. Special organ numbers are given to delight patrons, with the console looming above the pit and level with the stage. An idea of the elevating mechanism can be gained from the illustration at the right.



PAGE UNIT ORGANS

Mr. Bayer has learned that the Page Unit Organ is an ideal organ to be featured. So have other exhibitors. It is known and honored for melody of unforgettable richness, soothing warmth and pulsating fulness; for the glorious color of its tone; for wonderful workmanship of the best materials.

There is a lesson in Mr. Bayer's experience. His is a fine theatre in a city of less than 10,000 population. What he has done, exhibitors in other small cities and towns can do.

Page architects are ready to study your requirements without obligation. Page Unit Organs are easier to own than you might think. Investigate—you want the organ your theatre deserves.

THE PAGE ORGAN COMPANY
521 N. Jackson St., Lima, Ohio

Park Theatre, Lehighton, Pa.
Above — Robert Seidel at Page Unit Organ
Right — The Park Interior

Preference means Profits

The theatre that stresses screen quality is well on the way to popular preference. And that preference means profits.

Specify prints on Eastman Positive—the film that preserves every bit of photographic quality for your screen.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

THE METRO GOLDWYN MAYER LION
THE GREATEST STAR ON THE SCREEN

LEO, THE M-G-M LION IS ON HIS WAY!

The Most Famous Ballyhoo World Tour Since Trackless Train

LEO, the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Lion makes his personal bow to the audiences of the world in a globe tour that is a sensational promotion follow-up to the Trackless Train (now in Australia). Leo's tour is just one of our giant promotion stunts of next season.

All over the earth, picture-goers know M-G-M. The Trackless Train continues its world tour and later will make a triumphant home-coming tour of America.

The sensational airplane flight of Leo, the M-G-M Lion, won more publicity for M-G-M than any company has been able to build up in years of national advertising.

The wheels of industry are humming with the greatest prosperity of years

THE COMING SEASON WILL BE THE MOST PROSPEROUS IN THE HISTORY OF THE MOTION PICTURE BUSINESS.

A financial forecast by NICHOLAS M. SCHENCK
President Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

FOR many days I have been collecting opinions from bankers, statistical experts, market analysts, and—

[[continued on second page following]]

John Gilbert

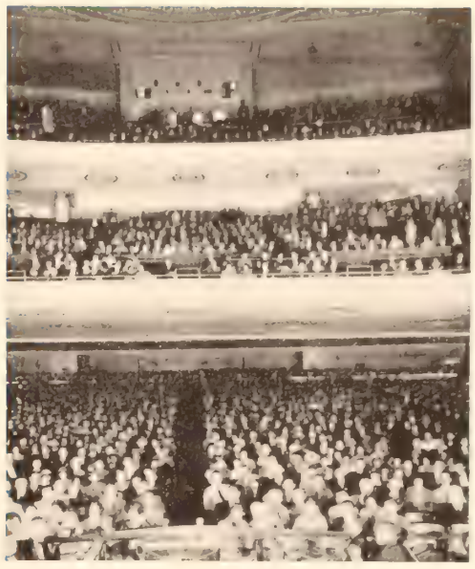
The Man of The Hour

IT is their general conclusion that motion picture enterprises are due for the greatest boom in their brief history.

NOTHING halts the amusement seeker from attending the show that he likes. The wide variations of weekly receipts prove this. So the 1928-29 possibilities rest squarely on the calibre of the photoplay fare and the drawing power of star names.

I HAVE recently watched the workings of all studios producing pictures and I am confident that exhibitors will receive a fine average of product from all leading producers.

CHOOSE your pictures with discrimination. Follow this advice and I am confident that with the ability of first-class showmen to promote their wares, 1928-29 will be the biggest season you have ever had.



Lon Chaney

The Man of 1000 faces
and 100 million fans

When your attraction doesn't attract! oh!

But when you've got what they want! oh boy!

YOUR THEATRE depends on YOUR PICTURES

GIVE them a show! That's what Mr. and Mrs. John H. Public want when they set out to buy tickets somewhere in your town. You may have a wonderful organ in your theatre and a cooling plant that actually cools. But if you haven't got the product, you haven't

[[continued on second page following]]

"We can get seats for that picture across the street."

"I'D RATHER STAND ON LINE AND SEE THIS METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER PICTURE. THEY'RE ALWAYS GOOD."

Greta Garbo

The World's Newest Screen Idol

John Gilbert and Greta Garbo will appear in "THE CARNIVAL OF LIFE," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Special got the crowds. Your first consideration is not brick and mortar—but pictures! Take any successful exhibitor and analyze his success. You'll find that his first and greatest concern has always been what gets on his screen. That policy has won for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer some 10,000 steady exhibitor customers who are satisfied and happy because their patrons are also satisfied and happy. The faith of your audience that they will always get their money's worth at your theatre is an asset no exhibitor may underestimate. You've got what they want when you've got Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

William Haines

A great Drawing-Card

The Calibre of Production

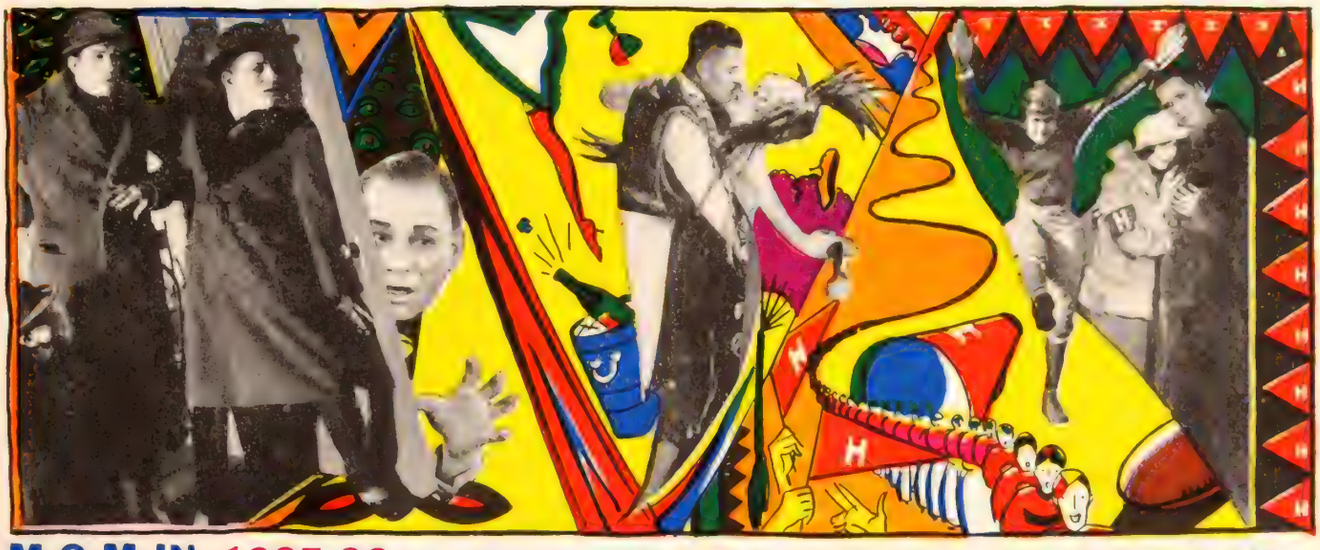
The Quality of the Stars

FACTORS THAT SHOULD GOVERN YOUR BOOKING OF A PRODUCT

WE'RE glad that pictures are being bought today on a more intelligent basis than ever. Picture-buying is stripped of bunk. Fair-minded and level-headed theatre owners realize that after all the two important considerations in signing for service are dependability of the producing organization as reflected in the calibre of production, and the quality of the stars offered for sale. No one in the industry can honestly challenge the assertion that M-G-M has the greatest group of star names. And the calibre of M-G-M production over the four years of our existence is a matter of history.

PICTURE after picture, consistency is—

[continued on second page following]



Ramon Novarro

"Ben-Hur" won him millions of new admirers

The keynote of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

M-G-M IN 1924-25: His Hour, The Navigator, The Snob, The Silent Accuser, He Who Gets Slapped, Sinners in Silk, So This Is Marriage, Excuse Me, Lady of the Night, Cheaper to Marry, Wine of Youth, The Red Lily, The Great Divide.

M-G-M IN 1925-26: The Unholy Three, A Slave of Fashion, Pretty Ladies, Never the Twain Shall Meet, The Midshipman, The Merry Widow, His Secretary, The Black Bird, Ibanez' Torrent, Beverly of Graustark, Brown of Harvard, Mike, Road to Mandalay, The Barrier.

M-G-M IN 1926-27: The Waning Sex, The Temptress, Upstage, War Paint, Tin Hats, Flesh and the Devil, Tell It to the Marines, Slide, Kelly, Slide, Lovers, Mr. Wu, Tillie the Toiler, Rookies, Twelve Miles Out, The Flaming Forest.

[continued on second page following]

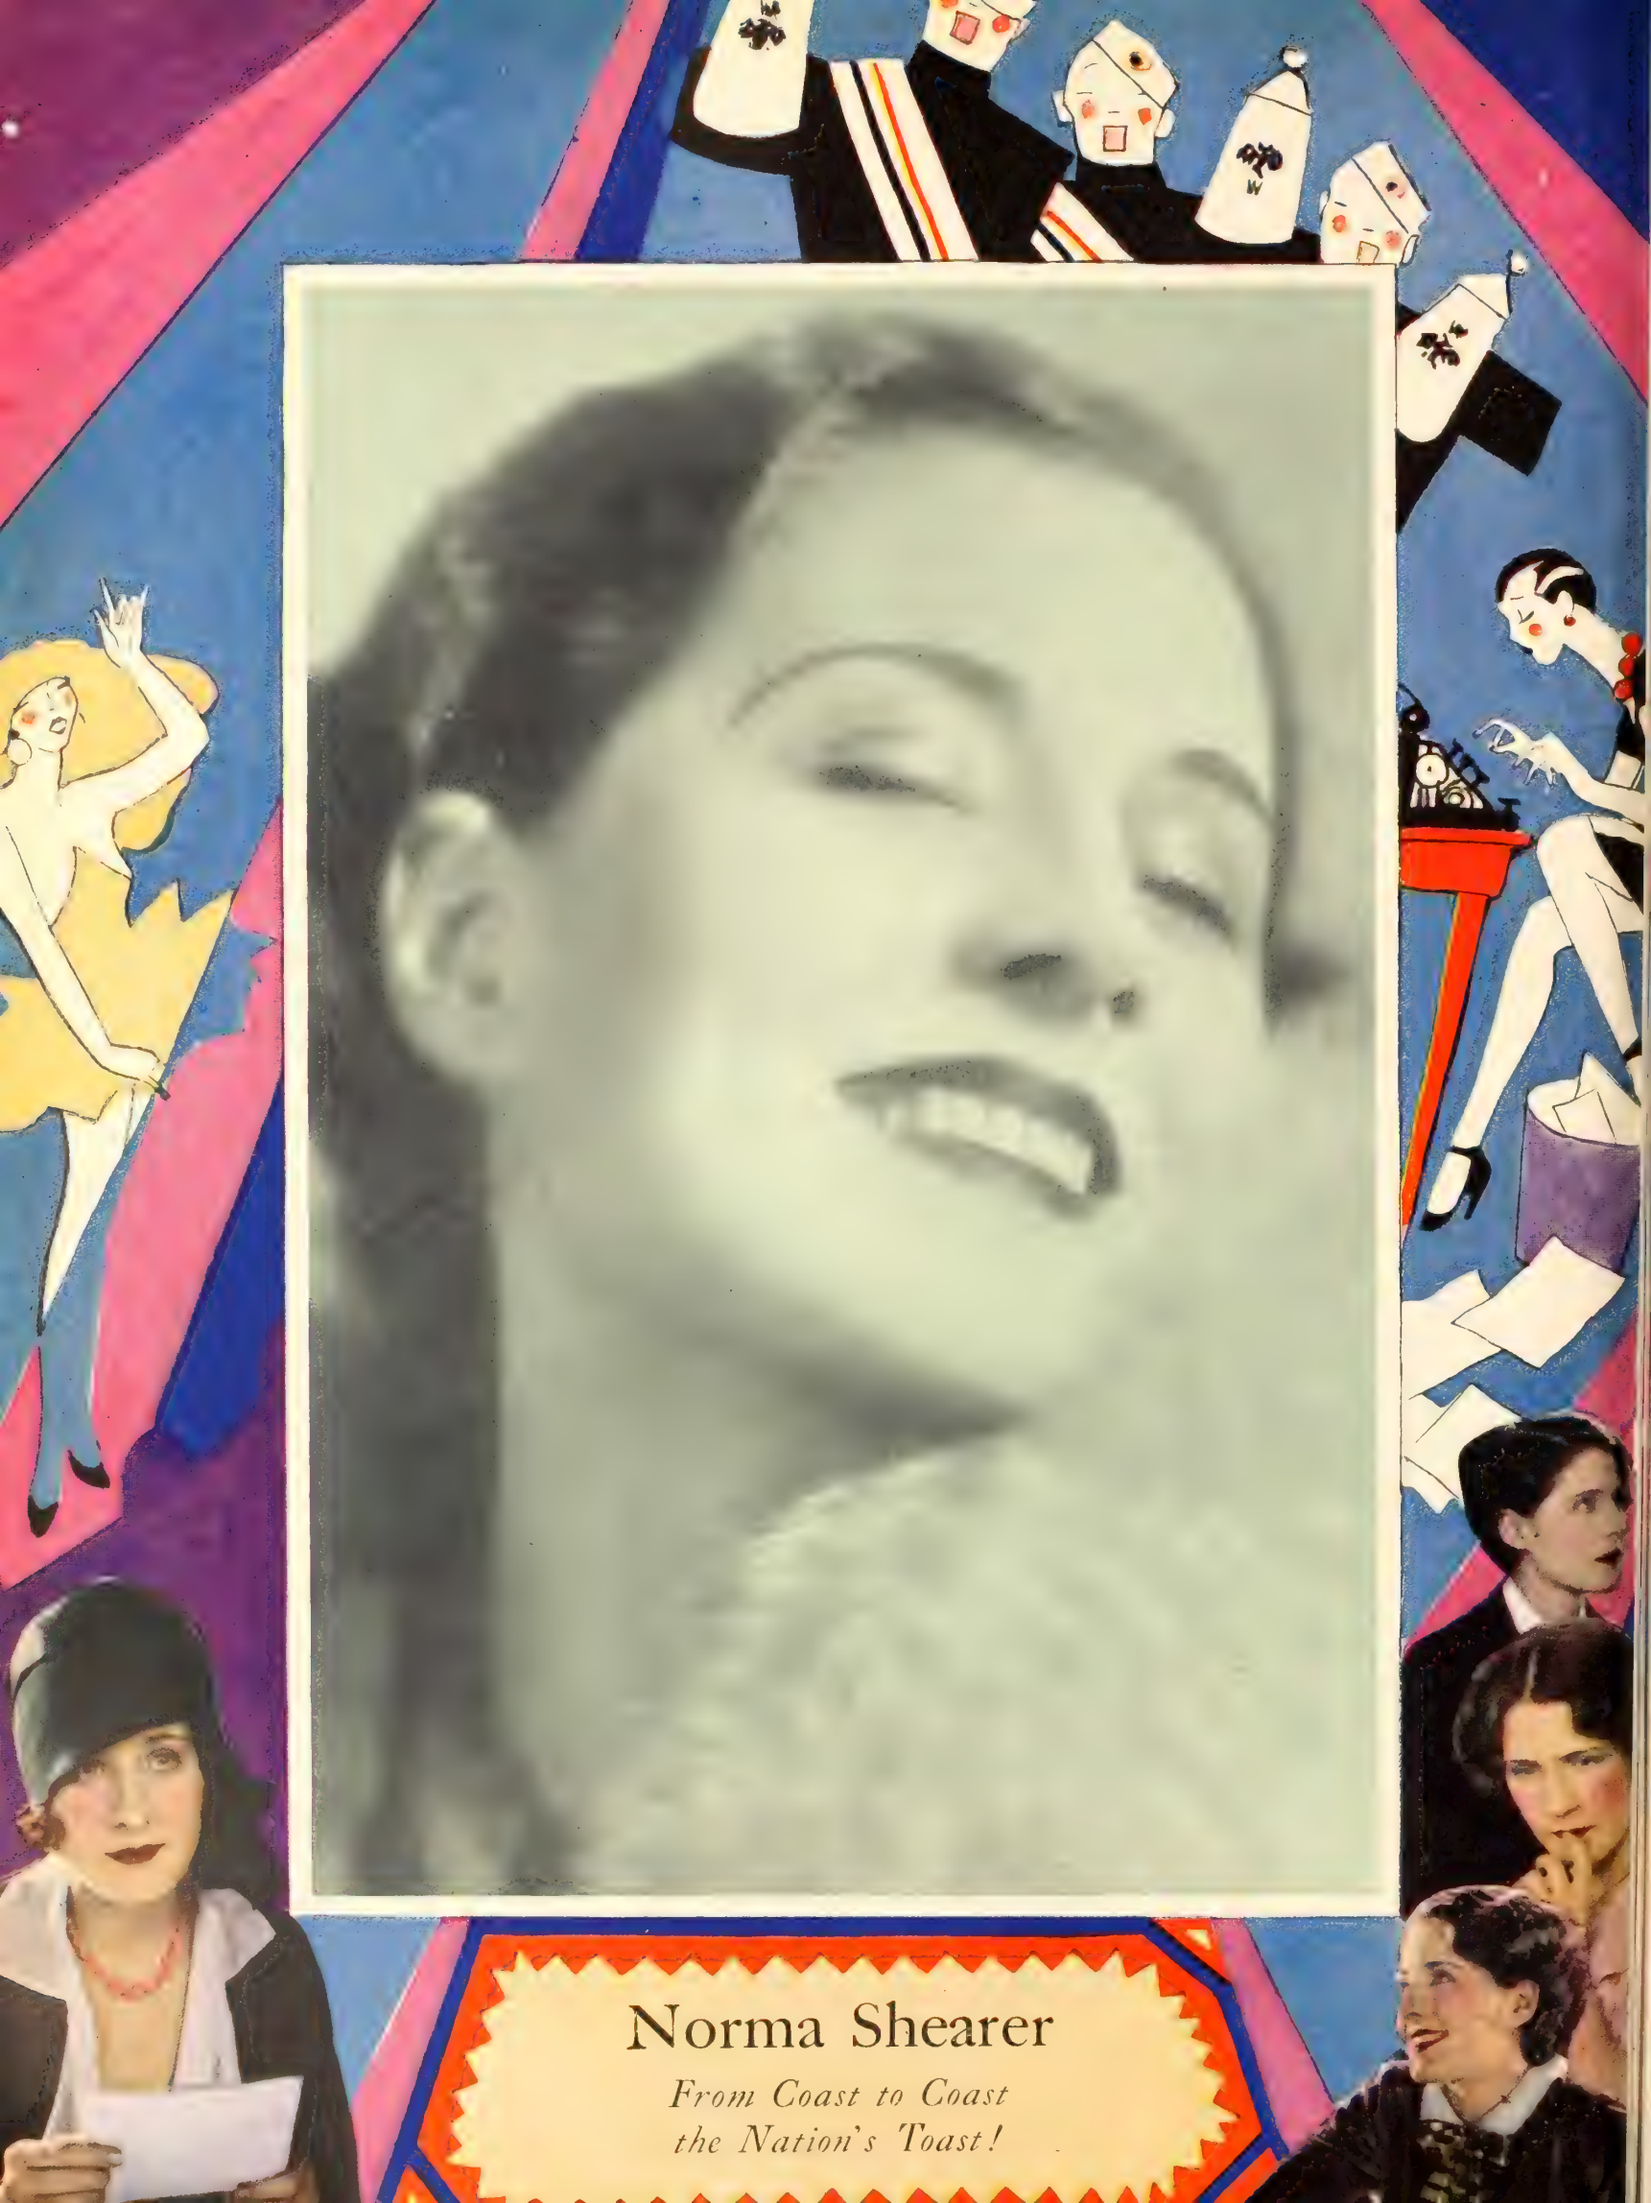
HA
HAHAHAHA
HAHA
HA
HA
H



M-G-M IN 1927-28: Ben-Hur, The Big Parade, The Student Prince, Love, The Enemy, The Fair Co-ed, London After Midnight, West Point, The Divine Woman, The Big City, The Latest From Paris, The Smart Set, Across to Singapore, Laugh Clown Laugh, The Cossacks.

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER HAS THE BEST PRODUCT ON THE MARKET

IN AN industry given over to the extravagant use of adjectives it is comforting to realize that when all is said and done the box-office remains to tell the true story. That is why we can in all sincerity print the statement that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer makes the best pictures. The box-office is authority for the statement and there are thousands of exhibitors who gladly bring testimony from their personal experience that M-G-M product returns them the best profits. That has been the case during the past four years of M-G-M's existence and you may be sure it will be true again in 1928-29 and thereafter.

[continued on second page following]

Norma Shearer

From Coast to Coast
the Nation's Toast!

1928-1929

THE YEAR OF YOUR GREATEST PROSPERITY

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

presents

49 including the following:

{ continued on second page following }

NOTE—Several corrections have been necessitated in the list of 1928-29 product as shown here. These corrections are as follows: Lon Chaney's [illegible] of 3—Tyrol instead of 44. The last page in this insert shows the final correct list

Marion Davies

The Greatest Comedienne of Picture History

3 SPECIALS

SHOW PEOPLE
MARION DAVIES - WILLIAM HAINES

A unique box-office attraction, in which appear Charlie Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks, Norma Talmadge, John Gilbert, William S. Hart, Renee Adoree, Mae Murray, Leatrice Joy, Rod La Rocque and most of the leading stars of Hollywood. King Vidor, director.

THE CARNIVAL OF LIFE
JOHN GILBERT - GRETA GARBO

Fresh from their triumph in "Love," the most sensational pair of screen personalities the industry has ever known now appear in a drama of St. Moritz, playground of wealth and beauty. Clarence Brown, director of "The Trail of '98" and "Flesh and the Devil," is making it !

THE LOVES OF CASANOVA

Those who have followed box-office history abroad know of the unique success of "Casanova" the romantic picture marvel. It has been obtained for the American public by M-G-M and as "The Loves of Casanova" will be one of the talked about pictures of the coming year.

NAMES THAT RECALL FAMED HITS ARE ON M-G-M'S BIG DIRECTORIAL ROSTER

CLARENCE BROWN

KING VIDOR

TOD BROWNING

FRED NIBLO

VICTOR SJÖSTROM

Dane-Arthur

bringing happiness to every box-office

M-G-M PRIDES ITSELF ON HAVING THE SCREEN'S LEADING DIRECTORS

WILLIAM NIGH

MONTA BELL

ROBERT Z. LEONARD

EDWARD SEDGWICK

GEORGE HILL

3 LON CHANEY

While The City Sleeps

2 more at present untitled

3 GRETA GARBO

Tiger Skin

By Elinor Glyn

Single Standard

and 1 more at present untitled

It would be difficult to imagine a more golden opportunity than is presented in the stellar beauty of Miss Garbo, the engrossing story [illegible]

4 WILLIAM HAINES

Excess Baggage

and 3 more at present untitled

"Excess Baggage," [illegible] play by John McGowan, is an ideal vehicle for handsome Bill Haines. It has all those happy qualities of youth, romance and thrills that are after all what the public truly wants.

2 RAMON NOVARRO

Gold Braid

and 1 more at present untitled

M-G-M is making a sequel to "The Midshipman," an announcement that should bring joy to every showman heart. A wonderfully winning role for Ramon Novarro, "Gold Braid" has even more color, glitter and romantic thrill than its illustrious predecessor.

WIELDERS OF THE MEGAPHONE NOW DIRECTING 1928-29 PRODUCT

JAMES CRUZE

EDWARD SUTHERLAND

MALCOLM ST. CLAIR

SAM WOOD

JACK CONWAY

Cody-Pringle

who add new laughs to the comedy of marriage!

M-G-M HAS MORE WELL-KNOWN SHOWMAN-DIRECTORS THAN ANY COMPANY!

ALLAN DWAN

CHESTER FRANKLIN

JOHN P. McCARTHY

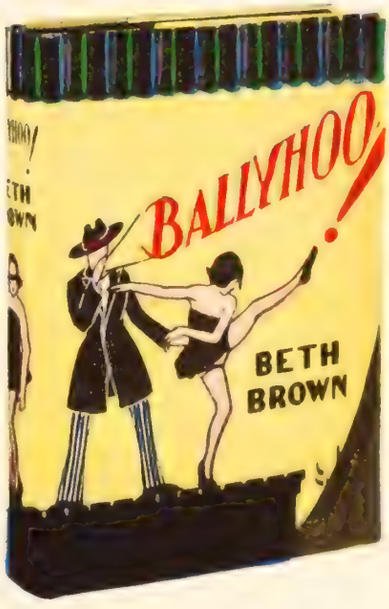
NICK GRINDE

HARRY BEAUMONT

2 JOHN GILBERT

The Devil's Mask

and 1 more at present untitled



The popular screen personality in a story commensurate with his top position in the film world. "The Devil's Mask" is everything that your patrons could command in a dashing, romantic, colorful John Gilbert starring production.

4 NORMA SHEARER

Ballyhoo

and 3 more at present untitled

M-G-M is delighted to be able to offer you "Ballyhoo," the year's novel sensation by Beth Brown as a Norma Shearer production.

QUERY

How many times have you played
"THE BIG PARADE"
and "BEN HUR"?

FRANK CAPRA

CHET WITHEY

W. S. VAN DYKE

2 BUSTER KEATON

The Camera Man

and 1 more at present untitled

M-G-M gave you Buster Keaton in "The Navigator" and M-G-M has now developed an equally great comedy idea, based on the experiences of a newsreel camera man. Edward Sedgwick, famed for "Slide, Kelly, Slide," is director.

(Keaton Pictures are now being produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer on the M-G-M lot)

[continued on second page following]

Tim McCoy

who now plays to more theatres than any outdoor star

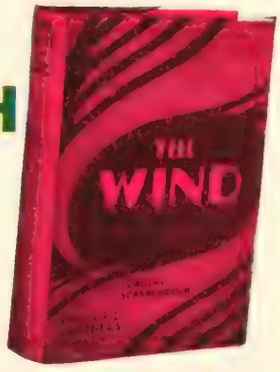
4 KARL DANE
GEO. K. ARTHUR



Camping Out

and 3 more at present untitled

How this team is coming along is a source of real pride

1 LILLIAN GISH

The Wind

"The Wind" is one of the most stirring dramas the screen has known. The genius of Seastrom, director of "Laugh, Clown, Laugh" is in it. Lars Hanson appears with Miss Gish.

3 LEW CODY - AILEEN PRINGLE

The Baby Cyclone

The famous stage success

and 2 more at present untitled

George M. Cohan's comedy "The Baby Cyclone" suits this merry pair to a T. The play had a long and profitable run. The picture will repeat!

6

Exhibitors tell us that the quality standard of Tim McCoy pictures is the highest of any in his field. Be assured this quality will continue.

TIM McCOY

at present untitled

THE VICTORY THREE

In their early showings these important attractions have [illegible] the name, Victory Three. For immediate playing: John Gilbert and Greta Garbo in "Love"; Ramon Novarro and Norma Shearer in "The Student Prince"; "The Enemy" with Lillian Gish.

[[continued on second page following]]

ELECTRIC LIGHT NAMES

on the M-G-M Roster

Renee Adoree, Lionel Barrymore, Eleanor Boardman, John Mack Brown, Edward Connelly, Joan Crawford, Frank Currier, Marceline Day, Ralph Forbes, Lars Hanson, Cecil Holland, Tenen Holtz, Gwen Lee, Polly Moran, James Murray, Conrad Nagel, Bert Roach, Dorothy Sebastian, Fay Webb, (pictured

3 COSMOPOLITAN PRODUCTIONS

Our Dancing Daughters

This unusual story by Josephine Lovett is an up-to-the-minute narrative of our pleasure-mad generation. Joan Crawford, John Mack Brown and Dorothy Sebastian head an all-star cast and Harry Beaumont is director. The theme and its selling title insure it a syndication and promotion by the Hearst nation-wide resources such as few serial stories have merited.

The Tide of Empire

A story of epic sweep has been written into a best-seller novel by the ever more popular Peter B. Kyne. Unquestionably the author had the screen in mind when he wrote, for the result is a marvelous picture subject. In the all-star cast are Joan Crawford and James Murray. Allan Dwan is director. Plus nation-wide Hearst serialization and advertising.

Help Wanted!

The circulation-builders of the Hearst organization picked this thrilling drama of today because they know what the public wants in serial stories. That's why it's going to be a great audience picture.

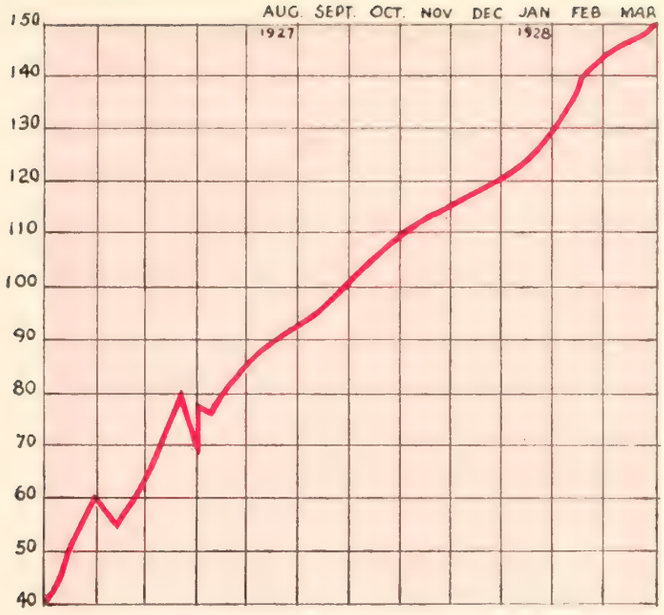
3 ELECTRIC LIGHT HITS

The Bellamy Trial

In obtaining picture rights to the well-known mystery "The Bellamy Trial," by Frances Noyes Hart, M-G-M has won the prize Saturday Evening Post serial story and novel of years. Monta Bell, director, has picked a great cast headed by Leatrice Joy.

The Wonder of Women

Ever since "Flesh and the Devil" the Hermann Sudermann story which made picture history, M-G-M has planned to bring forth another great novel by this same author. "The Wonder of Women," based on Sudermann's book "Stephen Tromholt's Wife," is comparable in many respects to "Flesh and the Devil" and promises to be an important offering of next season.



A Free Soul

The sure-fire qualities of Adela Rogers St. Johns' powerful theme were so apparent when this well-known story ran in Cosmopolitan Magazine that it subsequently became a Broadway play, enjoying marked success. It will be an outstanding production of the new season.

Our Gang

—they're little, but oh my!

A nationwide survey reveals the fact that within eight months M-G-M has climbed to leadership in distribution of Shorts and Newsreels. The period is from last August to March. M-G-M's lead over this field is increasing daily.

IN SHORT PRODUCT (as well) M-G-M HAS TAKEN (unquestioned) LEADERSHIP —and with our 1928-29 plans, it doesn't seem likely that any company can approach the M-G-M standard of Junior Feature production.

BUYING short product just to fill time on a program has stopped since Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer entered the field of Junior Features. For the coming season of 1928-29 you can be sure this quality will be carefully maintained. M-G-M's first season was a sensational success, outdistancing all competitive records for playing time previously established. The plans for our second season make it a certainty that henceforth all exhibitors must look to M-G-M for their short product.

[[continued on second page following]]

Laurel-Hardy

—a fortune in laughs!

"40,000 Miles with Lindbergh" is typical of the new outlook M-G-M has given to the Short Subject market.

DON'T BE A GAP!

—any exhibitor who by any chance is not playing 100% M-G-M is doing his theatre and his public a grave injustice

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is far and away the best product on the market for every exhibitor in the country. There is no reason why every possible exhibitor should not play 100% M-G-M. Wherever there are exhibitors who by any chance do not play 100% M-G-M, it is because something is lacking in the exhibitor or else he has not fully comprehended our service. Over 10,000 theatres now play M-G-M. When each exhibitor realizes what M-G-M can mean to him that gap (small though it is) will be closed. AWAKE EXHIBITORS WHO ARE BACKWARD! DON'T BE A GAP!

Charlie Chase

the Aristocrat of the Short-Subject Field

OUR 1928-'29 SHORT SUBJECT PRODUCT

THEY DIDN'T DO RIGHT BY NELL!

Do you realize that up to the time Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer entered the Short Subject Field, these important little attractions were the step-children of the industry.

M-G-M HAS GIVEN SHORTS A NEW MONEY-VALUE AT THE B. O.

HAL ROACH Comedies

The Greatest Product in the History of the Short Feature

10 OUR GANG

The happiest group of joy-artists in the short comedy field have a grand new bag of tricks for their millions of admirers. The bright spot on any program. They draw money.

10 STAN LAUREL OLIVER HARDY

Not in all picture history has there been so amazing a success as this hilarious team. One hit after another have made them a sure-fire money-maker. Wait 'till you see what's lined up for these boys next season.

10 CHARLIE CHASE

In a class by himself, the comedian de-luxe of his field. He has won a loyal ticket-buying following with class comedies and he'll keep those folks coming again in '28-'29.

10 ALL STAR

TO ALL STARS

Hal Roach's All Stars are famous:
Max Davidson, Viola Richards, Martha Sleeper
and others

6 GREAT EVENTS

in technicolor

Among next season's subjects being considered for this beautiful, colorful series of M-G-M's distinguished Great Events are: Theodore Roosevelt, Stonewall Jackson, The Fall of the Alamo, Abraham Lincoln, Marie Antoinette, John Paul Jones, Christopher Columbus and others.

26 ODDITIES

M-G-M has again arranged to offer in the new season 26 of the amazing U FA Oddities. These single-reel gems have proved perfect in rounding out a program, and the range of new subjects assures exhibitors an even more intensely interesting series.

M-G-M NEWS

104 issues Twice each week

M-G-M points with pride to the thousands of satisfied exhibitors who now play M-G-M News twice each week. Naturally, with the world-wide news sources of the Hearst organization and the constant growth of its newsreel facilities, plus the enterprise of M-G-M personnel, it is only logical that all exhibitors must inevitably turn for their newsreel service to the superior M-G-M News.

6 M-G-M GREAT EVENTS

The All-Technicolor Wonder Pictures based on real romances of history

"LOOKS LIKE THE BIGGEST YEAR OF ALL"

With M-G-M's line-up of Features and Shorts you have a right to expect that 1928-29 will be your boom year.

THE present era of prosperity means that the public has plenty of money to spend. It's up to you to get that money with the best drawing product you can put into your show-shop. The experience of 10,000 exhibitors in the past year has been that with a complete M-G-M quality show, feature, shorts and newsreel, their business has shown a consistent growth. Your theatre is only as important as its product. Get the big money with M-G-M service. Don't be a gap!

M-G-M players are the fans' favorites!

26 M-G-M ODDITIES

UFA's amazing Life Dramas produced all over the world

SUMMARY OF 1928-1929

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures

3 SPECIALS

SHOW PEOPLE
Marion Davies
William Haines

THE CARNIVAL OF LIFE
John Gilbert
Greta Garbo

THE LOVES OF CASANOVA

4 LON CHANEY
While the City Sleeps
and 3 others

3 GRETA GARBO
Tiger Skin, Single Standard
and 1 more

4 WILLIAM HAINES
Excess Baggage
and 3 more

2 RAMON NOVARRO
Gold Braid
and 1 more

2 JOHN GILBERT
The Devil's Mask
and 1 more

4 NORMA SHEARER
Ballyhoo
and 3 more

2 BUSTER KEATON
The Camera Man
and 1 more

1 LILLIAN GISH
The Wind

4 KARL DANE GEO. K. ARTHUR Camping Out
and 3 more

3 LEW CODY AILEEN PRINGLE
The Baby Cyclone
and 2 more

6 TIM McCOY

3 COSMOPOLITAN PRODUCTIONS
Our Dancing Daughters
The Tide of Empire
and 1 more

3 ELECTRIC LIGHT HITS
The Bellamy Trial
The Wonder of Women
A Free Soul

40 HAL ROACH COMEDIES
10 OUR GANG
10 STAN LAUREL-OLIVER HARDY
10 CHARLEY CHASE
10 ALL STAR (with Max Davidson, Viola Richards, Martha Sleeper, etc.)

104 M-G-M NEWS
(Twice Weekly

6 M-G-M GREAT EVENTS
(entirely in Technicolor)

26 M-G-M ODDITIES
(a sensational new series of UFA world-wide gems)

PLAY M-G-M 100 PER CENT — DON'T BE A GAP!

THE METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER LION
THE GREATEST STAR ON THE SCREEN

West Coast Theatres, Master Showmen of America, Book Solid on Gotham's "HELLSHIP BRONSON"

Now Playing Criterion Theatre in Los Angeles — Here Are Four Good Reasons Why YOU Should Book It!

FILM DAILY: Noah Beery makes picture with strong characterization in name part .... Works up to strong climax ... Happy fade-out. Good B. O.!

DAILY REVIEW: A rip roarin' story of the high seas. Noah Beery and Mrs. Wallace Reid ... big names, to play up big. Henabery has done a job of which he should be proud!

M. P. TODAY: A picture that will fascinate everybody who sees it ... Noah Beery ... is as always magnificent. This is a picture to book and exploit for golden dollars at the box-office!

M. P. NEWS: Should prove a good audience picture ... Powerful story with remarkably strong situations. ... Should prove a good draw in all types of houses.

GOTHAM PRODUCTIONS, Inc.
1650 Broadway, New York City
SAM SAX
Pres.
BUDD ROGERS
Vice-Pres.

Starring NOAH BEERY and MRS. WALLACE REID, with Reed Howes, Helen Foster.
Directed by JOSEPH HENABERY
"BUILT FOR THE BOX-OFFICE"

Foreign Rights Controlled by British and Continental Trading Co., Inc.
1540 Broadway, New York City
J. C. BARNSTYN, Pres.

Out In June

The Spring Edition of

Theatre Building and Equipment

Buyers Guide

featuring theatres designed by

Thomas W. Lamb, Architect

Twelve pages of colored illustrations, special editorial and pictorial review of theatre architecture. Also complete buying index for the purchase of all types of theatre equipment.

Make All Advertising Reservations Now

MOTION PICTURE NEWS, Inc.

The Boys Are Getting Rough!

(No. 585—Straight from the Shoulder Talk by Carl Laemmle, President of the Universal Pictures Corporation)

SOME OF UNIVERSAL'S COMPETITORS ARE GETTING ROUGH.

SOME OF THEM ARE ALMOST NAUGHTY AND NASTY IN THEIR FRANTIC efforts to explain to you why they are not prepared, as Universal is, to show you completed pictures instead of words for the coming season.

TUT, TUT, COMPETITORS!

BE GENTLEMANLY. TRY TO AVOID GUTTER TACTICS AS MUCH AS your nature will permit. Don't let anything get your goat—not even the fact that Universal has twenty-six of its pictures completed and ready to show!

IT'S NEVER BEEN DONE BEFORE BY ANY COMPANY—BUT UNIVERSAL has always liked to do things which have never been done before.

I REALIZE THAT IT IS A TERRIBLE HANDICAP FOR OTHER COMPANIES to face. I realize that it is a tough job for a salesman of another company to try to sell words to the exhibitor while the Universal salesmen are offering pictures ready for screening.

YOU SEE, MR. EXHIBITOR, UNIVERSAL NOT ONLY HAS THE PICTURES —but has them completed and ready to show—26 of them! Never in the history of the business has any company been able to offer this many on the screen and not merely in the fancy announcements!

SOME OF OUR COMPETITORS ARE QUITE FRANTIC ABOUT IT. THEY ask you to pay no attention to our completed pictures, but to wait for their promises.

YOU'VE BEEN PLAYED FOR A SUCKER MANY A TIME, BUT THIS IS THE season when you are going to buy with your eyes open—and Universal, as usual, is the one to open 'em!

NO PRINTED ARGUMENT IN THE WORLD CAN POSSIBLY ANSWER THE Universal challenge—pictures completed and ready to show!

IS IT ANY WONDER THE BOYS ARE GETTING ROUGH AND A BIT frantic?

HOLLYWOOD

A NEW DEPARTMENT

Starting with this week's issue.

Turn to page 1695

All the activities of Filmdom's Capitol thoroughly covered and concisely presented by our West Coast Staff. This department will keep you informed of current happenings every week.

BOOKING GUIDE

AND

STUDIO DIRECTORY

Issued in September

Will be a complete reference to all productions and an accurate rating on box-office success and performance.

Write for Biography Blank

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

729 Seventh Avenue,
New York City, N. Y.

Hollywood Security Bldg.,
Hollywood, Calif.

Your TREASURE'S HERE!

FBO's

SENSATIONAL LINE-UP FOR 1928-29

booms into port amid thundering acclaim of exhibitors all over the country!

MIGHTY CARGO OF GOLDEN PRODUCT!

6 24 6

GREAT SPE

"THE PERFECT CRIME"
with CLIVE BROOK, IRENE RICH

"BLOCKADE"
Colossus of Sea Thrillers with
ANNA Q. NILSSON

GREATER

James Oliver Curwood's
"THE YELLOWBACK"

"THE RED SWORD"
Tense Drama in the Flaming Land of the Czars!

"STOCKS AND BLONDES"
with
JACQUELINE LOGAN
and other stars

Harold McGrath's
"DANGER STREET"
with WARNER BAXTER,
MARTHA SLEEPER
Directed by Ralph Ince

Stirring Love Dramas backed by Tremendous Hearst Circulation!

"STOLEN LOVE"
by Hazel Livingston

"SALLY'S SHOULDERS"
by Beatrice Burton

"LOVE IN THE DESERT"
Box-office—Nothing else But!

"THE JAZZ AGE"
Destined to Rock the Nation!

TOM MIX AND TONY

GREATER FBO

BIG STORIES—BIG STARS—SMA

CIAL PRODUCTIONS

"GANGWAR"

The Ultimate in Underworld Thrillers!

"THE CIRCUS KID"

with FRANKIE DARRO
Poodles Hanneford and world-famed circus troupe in cast!
Directed by RALPH INCE

"HIT OF THE SHOW"

Ralph Ince's Epic of Life Backstage with Joe E. Brown, Gertrude Olmsted, Gertrude Astor

"TAXI 13"

with screen's Greatest Comedian CHESTER CONKLIN
Directed by MARSHALL NEILAN

GOLD BONDS

Two Mighty FBO-True Story Productions

"SINNERS IN LOVE"
Already Published in True Story

GIGANTIC CONTEST STORY TO BE CHOSEN!

Backed by tremendous combined circulation of Macfadden Magazines

"THE AIR LEGION"
Supreme Air Mail Spectacle!

"TROPIC MADNESS"
with ANNA Q. NILSSON

"HEY RUBE"
azzling Super-thriller of the Carnival Racket!

"VOICE OF THE STORM"
Stupendous Melodrama of the Telephone Service!

"SINGAPORE MUTINY"
with RALPH INCE
as star and director

"LEST WE FORGET"
A stirring tribute to America's Bravest!

"HARDBOILED"
by Arthur Somers Roche

"CHARGE OF THE GAUCHOS"
with JACQUELINE LOGAN, FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN

"THE CONVICT'S SON"
Million Volt Melodrama
with RALPH INCE

H. C. Witwer's
"DOUBLE CROSSED"
Comedy Drama Knockout!

"SKINNER STEPS OUT"
Henry Irving Dodge at his Best!

"THE RECORD RUN"
Stirring Railroad Drama
with RALPH INCE
as star and director

"KING OF THE KLONDIKE"
An Avalanche of Thrills!

"HIS LAST HAUL"
Scalding Drama of Souls Seared by Sin!

WESTERN SPECIALS

A new and epochal page in the amazing career of this mighty figure of the Show World . . . . Now at the absolute Top of His Box-Office Powers!

1928-29

ING TITLES—GREAT DIRECTORS!

In addition to which there will be the

WORLD'S GREATEST RODEO OF WESTERN STARS AND BOX-OFFICE ATTRACTIONS

FBO's Boy Wonder

BUZZ BARTON

In Seven Whizzing Wild West Shows!
Everything Bigger this Season . . including the Kid himself!

Smashing Stories! Brand New Thrills!

TOM TYLER
FRANKIE DARRO and Pals

in SEVEN Daring Sensational Westerns!

SUPERLATIVE OUTDOOR HEAD-LINERS AND PRODUCTIONS

A Hit Last Season . . A Sensation in 28-29!

BOB STEELE

in SIX Headlong Action Melodramas!
New Characters! New Ideas!

The Invincible Dog Star

RANGER

In Four Thrilling Action Shows!

MAMMOTH PROGRAM OF SHORT FEATURES

Including Four Nationally Publicized Comedy Series

H. C. Witwer's

"RACING BLOOD" SERIES

Cosmopolitan Magazine Stories with AL COOKE and ALBERTA VAUGHN

Fontaine Fox's

MICKEY McGUIRE COMEDIES

World's Most Popular Kid Comedian and His Gang

Circulation Scoop of the Year

BARNEY GOOGLE

[in the flesh]

Famous Hearst Newspaper Comic Strip

12 Two Reel Riots in Flesh and Blood

TOOTS AND CASPER

Rollicking Hearst Newspaper Comic Strip

Produced by Standard Cinema Corporation, Supervision Larry Darmour

Walter Futter's

CURIOSITIES

The Movie Side Show presented by Amedee J. Van Beuren

CLEAR THE DECK FOR FAST ACTION!

When these showmen's chests, laden with mighty tales of adventure, love, romance, thrills and comedy come sweeping into your theatre, you'll need plenty of room for the golden flow of dollars that will follow in their wake!

Epochal in novelty, colossal in theme, staggering in box-office appeal, FBO's 1928-29 Product has been geared at road show speed to meet the insistent demand for BIGGER AND BETTER ENTERTAINMENT!

THIS IS YOUR GREATEST YEAR!

FBO PICTURES CORPORATION

Another milestone in MOTION PICTURE HISTORY

Introducing the

A Product of

Radio Corporation of America
General Electric Company
Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Co.

Radically Different

FOLLOWING years of intensive research and experiment in the foremost electrical and acoustical laboratories of the world, the Radio Corporation of America announces the formation of RCA Photophone, Inc. for the purpose of marketing new and highly perfected devices for the recording and reproducing of sound on motion picture film.

Only a supremely scientific and mechanical age could produce a mechanism so superbly efficient as the RCA Photophone, and so capable of revolutionizing present-day motion picture values. And only an industry that has reached the heights of the motion picture business could have inspired it.

As a new form of embellishment of motion picture programs, and as an aid in enhancing the effects and naturalism of motion picture productions, RCA Photophone marks the next step in advance in the production and presentation of motion pictures—a step long prophesied, and inevitable.

Differing materially from all other systems in its achievement of complete practicability, RCA Photophone restores to the motion picture theatre its original birthright of the screen's popularity.

As such, it promises to become as necessary an element of every theatre's equipment as its theatre chairs.

RCA Photophone

Now—

A Perfect "Sound Film" That All Producers And Theatres Can Use

Far-Reaching Advances

RCA PHOTOPHONE embodies projection and acoustical improvements of far-reaching significance. Nothing approaching it in tonal effectiveness has ever before been offered motion picture theatres.

The human voice is reproduced by RCA Photophone as a real voice, rather than the emanation of some mechanical force. The most delicate tones of a symphonic orchestra reach their hearers with all the tonal fidelity of the original orchestration. There is absolutely no over-loading, no distortion or unnatural volume.

Furthermore, as a result of a wholly new sound recording process, RCA Photophone films last. The sound track of these films will outlive the picture.

In the production of motion pictures, the RCA Photophone will add the vast entertainment resources of the radio field to those of the film industry.

There will be available a wide selection of full length motion picture productions from front-rank producing organizations, synchronized with symphonic orchestrations and dramatic sound effects. Also, news reels and novelty films.

The new RCA Photophone projection equipment will be ready for installation in theatres July 1st. Installation prices will vary from $4,000 to $15,000, depending upon the size of the theatre. The equipment may be leased at exceptionally moderate terms.

Equipment that meets every requirement

RCA PHOTOPHONE projection equipment may be installed in practically every projection booth with little alteration.

Standard films, without the sound feature, may be used without any change in the RCA Photophone, as may all types of "talking films." The installation of RCA Photophone equipment in no way interferes with the projection of the ordinary picture.

In addition to a wide range of feature productions, news reels and novelty films, there will be available through RCA Photophone, Inc., a large selection of films of incidental and non-synchronized music.

For theatres desiring only reproducing apparatus for incidental and non-synchronized music, there will be available high power reproducers, providing superlative performances, at moderate prices.

Board of Directors of RCA Photophone, Inc.

CORNELIUS N. BLISS
PAUL D. CRAVATH
GENERAL JAMES G. HARBORD
EDWARD W. HARDEN
EDWIN M. HERR
DAVID SARNOFF
JAMES R. SHEFFIELD
GERARD SWOPE
OWEN D. YOUNG

• • •

Officers of RCA Photophone, Inc.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD
GENERAL JAMES G. HARBORD

PRESIDENT
DAVID SARNOFF

Vice-President E. E. BUCHER
Technical Vice-Pres., ALFRED N. GOLDSMITH
Treasurer, GEORGE S. DeSOUSA Secretary, LEWIS MacCONNACH
Comptroller. CHARLES J. ROSS

Board of Consulting Engineers
ALFRED N. GOLDSMITH C. W. STONE S. M. KINTNER

• • •

Forward-looking exhibitors, when in New York, are invited to investigate at our studio, the business-building potentialities of RCA Photophone.

RCA PHOTOPHONE INC.

411 FIFTH AVENUE NEW YORK

A Subsidiary of the Radio Corporation of America

YORK air conditioning

Exempts you from a weather tax

With a public that has been educated to comfort, —air cooling and conditioning is today, just as important as a modern heating plant or a lighting system.

It is no longer an innovation or an unusual feature. It is an essential, and the theatre which neglects this phase of its equipment is laboring under a handicap that the best show cannot offset.

York Mechanical Refrigeration is foremost the world over in every phase of commerce and industry where controlled cold is required.

York Engineers have brought to the theatre field their knowledge and experience which has made York equipment for play houses successful and advantageous from every operating standpoint.

Write today for complete information regarding York Air Conditioning equipment in your theatre.

YORK
ICE MACHINERY CORPORATION
YORK PENNA

The York Carbon Dioxide Compressor direct connected to a synchronous motor has been specially designed to meet the requirements of the theatre field. Quiet operation and the comparatively small space required for this part of equipment, are among its many advantages. Economical, and absolutely dependable, it represents the most advanced equipment for air cooling and conditioning requirements.

NEXT WEEK

. . . . . The most announcement

PAT important of the year

HÉ

Western Electric

SYSTEM

of

TALKING PICTURES

Adopted by

WARNER BROTHERS (VITAPHONE)
FOX FILM CORPORATION (MOVIETONE)
PARAMOUNT FAMOUS LASKY CORPORATION
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER CORPORATION
FIRST NATIONAL PICTURES, INC.
UNITED ARTISTS CORPORATION
UNIVERSAL PICTURES, INC.

The System which has been selected by all the major producing companies as their standard is Western Electric—product of the world's pioneers in communication—development of the Bell Telephone Laboratories—the only application of sound to motion pictures now in commercially successful use.

For two years an outstanding development in the field of entertainment, Western Electric equipment is now installed in more than 300 theatres, bringing to audiences all over the country pictures that talk and sing and play.

With seven great producers putting sound into their pictures, progressive exhibitors everywhere will recognize its significance to the industry.

For information as to theatre equipments address

Electrical Research Products Inc.

SUBSIDIARY OF

Western Electric Company

250 WEST 57TH STREET, NEW YORK, N. Y.

THE STANDARD FOR THE INDUSTRY

The Hit of the Year!

Count the STARS 53

STARS and FEATURED FAVORITES

What other company can show so many that have made good so often!

COLLEEN MOORE
RICHARD BARTHELMESS
CORINNE GRIFFITH
BILLIE DOVE
MILTON SILLS
CHARLIE MURRAY
DOROTHY MACKAILL
JACK MULHALL
ALICE WHITE
KEN MAYNARD
Molly O'Day
Louise Fazenda
Ben Lyon
Anna Q. Nilsson
Betty Compson
H. B. Warner
Doris Kenyon
Marie Dressler
Gary Cooper
Ralph Forbes
Lowell Sherman
Greta Nissen
Gertrude Astor
Sam Hardy
Lilyan Tashman
Larry Kent
Maria Corda
Arthur Stone
Thelma Todd
Clive Brook
Lya Mara
Paul Wegener
Ian Keith
Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.
Alma Bennett
Albert Gran
Marc McDermott
Natalie Kingston
Lucien Littlefield
William Demarest
Yola d'Avril
Edythe Chapman
Mary Johnson
Victor Varconi
Donald Reed
Mathew Betz
Paul Vincenti
John Kolb
Paul Hurst
Lucien Prival
Big Boy Williams
Gustav von Seyffertitz
Jane Winton

"THE PRESIDENT GROUP" by FIRST NATIONAL

Last week....

What a week in Show Business!

The entire picture trade dazzled by the brilliance of First National's President Group.

No wonder there's a new sparkle in the eyes of thousands of showmen.

They KNOW what they'll do with product like that!

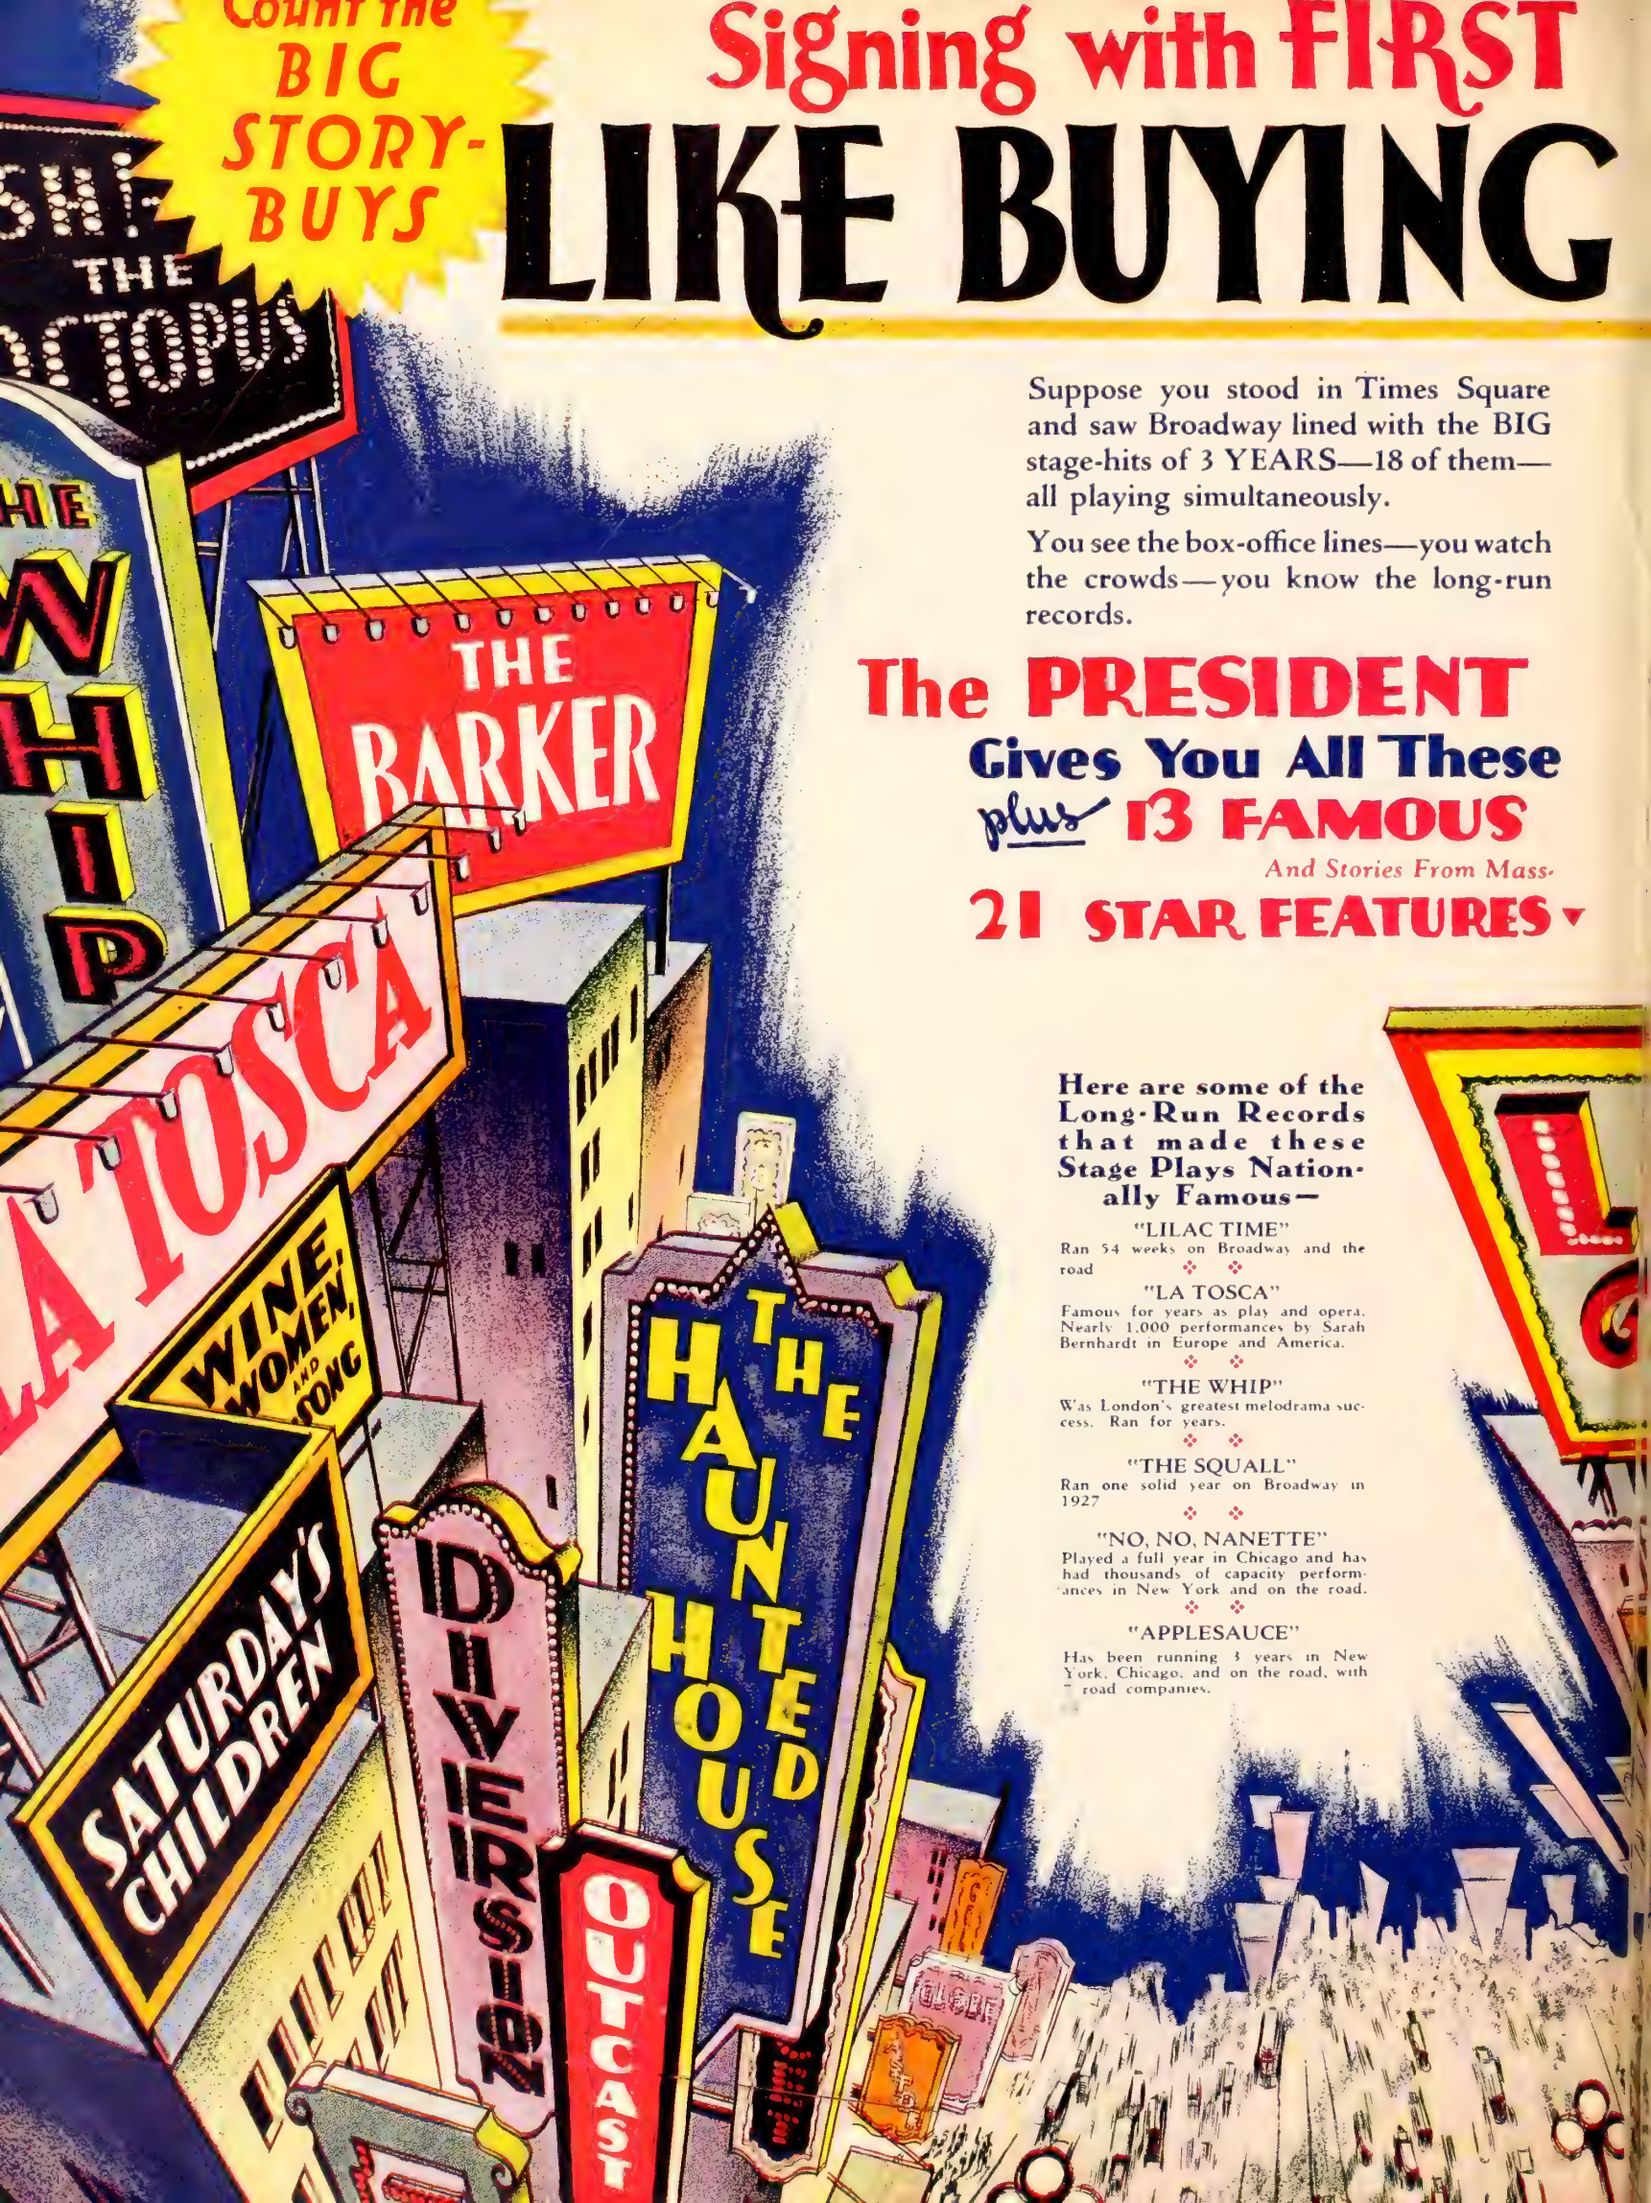
Its marvelous potentialities have given the entire industry a NEW LEASE ON LIFE!

WITH A 53-STAR CAST

SET for a 52-week capacity run in thousands of theatres in 1928-29

Count the BIG STORY-BUYS

Signing with FIRST LIKE BUYING



Suppose you stood in Times Square and saw Broadway lined with the BIG stage-hits of 3 YEARS—18 of them—all playing simultaneously.

You see the box-office lines—you watch the crowds—you know the long-run records.

The PRESIDENT Gives You All These plus 13 FAMOUS

And Stories From Mass-

21 STAR FEATURES

Here are some of the Long-Run Records that made these Stage Plays Nationally Famous—

"LILAC TIME"
Ran 54 weeks on Broadway and the road

"LA TOSCA"
Famous for years as play and opera. Nearly 1,000 performances by Sarah Bernhardt in Europe and America.

"THE WHIP"
Was London's greatest melodrama success. Ran for years.

"THE SQUALL"
Ran one solid year on Broadway in 1927

"NO, NO, NANETTE"
Played a full year in Chicago and has had thousands of capacity performances in New York and on the road.

"APPLESAUCE"
Has been running 3 years in New York, Chicago, and on the road, with [illegible] road companies.

NATIONAL this year is

UP BROADWAY!

You say to yourself—"I want to play all these in my theatre"... And you walk down the street and buy up every last one of them!

Sounds like magic...YET THAT'S EXACTLY WHAT YOU DO when you buy—

GROUP for 1928-'29—

Famous Stage Successes

BEST-SELLERS

Circulation Magazines

3 INTERNATIONAL SUCCESSES

First National's 1928-29 Stage Buys were Hailed as Masterpieces by the Critics—

"THE BUTTER AND EGG MAN"

"Deliciously funny." . . . "Its theatre humor is classical." . . . "A truly exhilarating evening in the theatre."—said New York critics.

"THE BARKER"

"An abundant, overflowing evening in the theatre . . . Enjoyed every minute of it." Alexander Woollcott in N. Y. World.

"Different, vivid, alive, thrilling."—Alan Dale in N. Y. American.

"SH!—THE OCTOPUS"

"Plentitudinously creepy . . . If you want alternating nervous chills and chortles to make you forget the day's humdrum, drop in and see 'Sh!—The Octopus.'"—N. Y. American

Check over the COMPLETE LIST again!

Here is the Line-Up that thrilled the Industry one week ago today!

THE 14 MAMMOTH SPECIALS

COLLEEN MOORE
in
LILAC TIME
A Firnatone Production

THE STAR HITS

RICHARD BARTHELMESS in
"Diversion" "Mutiny"
And Others

CORINNE GRIFFITH in
"Outcast" "Saturday's Children"
"Paid For"
And 1 Other

BILLIE DOVE in
"The Other Tomorrow"
"The Heart of a Princess"
"Pleasure Bound"

MILTON SILLS in
"Captain of the Strong"
"The Eagle's Trail"
"The Spotter" "Hard Rock"

DOROTHY MACKAILL and
JACK MULHALL in
"Children of the Ritz"
"Waterfront"

These two million-dollar productions alone would establish the dominance of The President Group.

COLLEEN MOORE
in "Synthetic Sin"

COLLEEN MOORE
in "Baby Face"

COLLEEN MOORE
in "The Richest Girl on Earth"

"LA TOSCA"
with Billie Dove

"THE WHIP"
with Dorothy Mackaill, Ralph Forbes,
Anna Q. Nilsson, Lowell Sherman

"THE SQUALL"

"NO, NO, NANETTE"

"THE BUTTER AND EGG MAN"
with Jack Mulhall, Greta Nissen, Sam Hardy
Gertrude Astor

"THE BARKER"
with Milton Sills, Dorothy Mackaill,
Betty Compson, Doug. Fairbanks, Jr.

"CHANGELING"
A George Fitzmaurice Production

And 2 Added Specials
Not included in previous announcements

"THE GOOD-BYE KISS"
A Mack Sennett Romantic Drama

"TOILERS OF THE SEA"
From Victor Hugo's Classic

CORINNE GRIFFITH
in
THE DIVINE LADY
From E. Barrington's Famous Best-Seller

THE STAR HITS

DOROTHY MACKAILL in
"The Girl in the Glass Cage"
"Two Weeks Off"

JACK MULHALL in
"Applesauce"
"When Irish Eyes Are Smiling"

CHARLIE MURRAY in
"The Lying Truth"
"The Sport of Kings"
"Wine, Women and Song"
"Charlie's Night Out"

ALICE WHITE in
"Show Girl" "On the Air"
"Bluffers" "Rosie of the Ritz"

KEN MAYNARD in
"The Glorious Trail"
"The Phantom City"
"The Royal Rider"
"The Lawless Legion"
"Cheyenne"
"Wells Fargo Express"

THE 3 MYSTERY DRAMAS

"THE HAUNTED HOUSE"
Owen Davis' sensational play

"SH!—THE OCTOPUS"
Famous Broadway thrill success

"SEVEN FOOTPRINTS
TO SATAN"
A. Merritt's best-seller

THE INTERNATIONAL SUCCESSES

Paul Wegener in
"THE STRANGE CASE
OF CAPTAIN RAMPER"

"DANCING VIENNA"
with Ben Lyon—Lya Mara

"THE WARE CASE"
with a great English cast

FIRST NATIONAL's PRESIDENT GROUP for 1928-29

READ IT TWICE!—You'll see why this year of all years First National has The Best Proposition in the Field!—

Member of Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America Inc.—Will H. Hays President

Motion Picture News

Volume XXXVII NEW YORK CITY, MAY 19, 1928 No. 20

The Revolution Arrives

Important Developments in "Sound Movie" Field

By William A. Johnston

FOLLOWING our editorial of last week, there have been sudden and important announcements on the engrossing subject of the sound movie.

The Radio Corporation, with which is allied the General Electric, announces in full, in this issue, the Photophone. The Radio Corporation owns a substantial interest in F. B. O.

The Western Electric Company, announces through its subsidiary—the Electrical Research Products Company, the licensing of Paramount, M-G-M and United Artists to use the Movietone. Negotiations are also under way, it is stated, with Universal and Keith-Albee. The Western Electric installation provides for both Vitaphone and Movietone, the one recording on the disc, the other on the film. First National has already taken a license with the Western Electric, choosing the disc, or Vitaphone method, bringing in the Victor Company, and styling the device the Firnatone.

Warner Bros., of course, the well known pioneer in this new field of the sound movie, has the Vitaphone. Educational has already announced the Vocafilm.

So we now have under the banner of the Western Electric (Electric Research Products Co.), Warner Bros. and First National using the Vitaphone (disc) device, Fox, Famous, M-G-M and United Artists electing the Movietone, and Universal and Keith-Albee to be heard from (they can, we understand, use either method under the Western Electric license.)

The Radio Corporation makes an announcement emphatic and interesting. The Photophone, it is stated, takes standard film with the sound feature and all types of "Talking films." Also this: "In addition to a wide range of feature productions, news reels and novelty films, there will be available through the R. C. A. Photophone a large selection of incidental and non-synchronized music." And furthermore: "in the production of motion pictures the R. C. A. Photophone will add the vast entertainment resources of the radio field to those of the film industry."

To sum up, then, we have, it would seem, following main factors to be considered:

1. The installation devices—their availability, price, tonal quality, etc.

2. The entertainment to go forth from the machines. Here enter the film entertainment resources of the picture studios, the radio field, the talking machine companies, etc.

Apparently the two kinds of installations we refer to are to be standardized; the sound movies from all the studios are not to be restricted to any particular reproduction device in the theatre. There is to be no discrimination. (See article by Chester J. Smith in this issue).

That is the important thing.

There is more, however, to the situation. In addition to the above important devices there is the Vocafilm. This, we understand, is restricted to Educational subjects. Then the woods are full of recording and reproducing devices as yet unannounced, but being actively promoted.

In some respect the situation seems fair to favor the old days of camera and projection machine patents. There will be the large licensed companies versus the independents.

We are receiving numerous letters from

(Continued on Page 1050)

Jerry Drew is Educational's latest stellar luminary. He will be featured in six Educational-Ideal comedies during the new season

Welcoming a notable at Universal City. His Excellency Alek Horvath, Hungarian Secretary of State, was cordially received by Laemmle workers. From left to right: Nicholas Fodor, Carl Laemmle, Jr., Mr. Horvath, Paul Fejos and Denes Kovach, ministerial secretary

Alberta Vaughn, petite comedienne, is returning to the F B O banner and will star in "Racing Blood," a new series being made by Larry Darmour

The first picture taken of Richard Dix since since his recent illness. The scene above shows him at the hospital, where his latest for Paramount, 'Warming Up," was run off for him

Dorothy Mathews in a scene with Victor McLaglen from the Fox production, 'A Girl in Every Port." Miss Mathews has appeared in a number of important productions recently, including "The Devil Dancer, United Artists, and "The Escape," Fox Films

Mack Sennett, the comedy producer to whom many stars make their obeisances, is now in New York on a visit. "The Good-Bye Kiss," his feature, is soon to be presented on Broadway

John Barrymore and his new leading lady, the gracious and beautiful Camilla Horn, in a scene from "Tempest," a new United Artists release and the star's first in a year's time

Billie Dove, a delightful photographic subject, and Clive Brook, who appears opposite her in "The Yellow Lily," a current release from First National. 'La Tosca" is a future vehicle

Darryl Francis Zanuck, an associate executive of the Warner studio, who is assisting Jack L. Warner in the preparation of the company's new seasonal program

A get-together on the Berengaria. Hal Roach and Mrs. Roach with Irving Thalberg and Mrs. Thalberg, better known as Norma Shearer

Jack Holt starring in Zane Grey Westerns for Paramount, and also announced for the starring role in "Out of the Depths," a Columbia special on the 1928-29 schedule

Inside Slants on the Industry

PICTURES AND PEOPLE

The Mirrors of Filmdom

SWINGING in behind as shrewd a ballyhoo as New York has seen in several Springs and a couple of Summers, Paul Ash this week is saying "Hello, Broadway" as the master of ceremonies in a stage presentation of that title at the Paramount Theatre—to which he has transferred his personality activities from the Oriental theatre in Chicago where he conducted more than 4,500 performances and is estimated to have played to more than 14,700,000 admiring auditors.

The "Genial Giant of Jazz," as the Paramount publicity boys say it in their ads, so far has only succeeded in becoming the entry against the field in a game called: "Will he make it, or will he be a flop on Broadway?" Only that and nothing more! But could even a darling of the Loop's jazz devotees ask for more?

The fruit now being plucked from the ballyhoo bush began to grow when the Broadway show fans—professional and amateur—asked each other if Ash could duplicate in New York his Chicago triumphs. It burst into blossom when the Paramount's advertising appropriation spread itself into a series of newspaper displays hailing "The Genial Giant of Jazz." And it ripened when the newspaper reviewers, with a paltry few exceptions, devoted to Paul Ash the bulk of their space on the current Paramount bill. Thus the reviewers passed the game to the public on the proverbial silver platter, and now the public is in on the game.

* * * *

ASH'S style of show at this late date can hardly be expected to score as novelty. What many term the "Paul Ash Policy" has been with the New York picture theatre patrons too long for that—and if you listen to some of the old-line picturegoers it has been with them too long for anything.

Mr. Ash calls the customers "folks," leads the applause as well as his band, and indulges in the other now pretty well standardized master of ceremony mannerisms.

Playing up to local interests is perhaps the keynote of the band act leader's campaign to capture the interest of his audiences. He brings to the glittering but bloodless "flash act," which the producers in their loyalty to the bank roll make big in scale but little in substance, a dash of warmth and life that is totally lacking in the glittering "presentations."

He brings a home touch to unit shows produced here and circuited hither and yon over a chain of theatres. He does it by putting the "local slant" on the act. Thus, Mr. Ash tells the Paramount customers that he started for Broadway three years ago but like many others was held up in Chicago. A dancer is introduced as a "little New York girl." And George Gershwin is one of "New York's" greatest writers—no less.

* * * *

JUDGING by certain revisions, suspiciously connecting themselves with chidings from some of the newspaper reviewers, Paul Ash is ready to give the Paramount patrons what they want the way they like it. He will find the range of the local bull's eye and when he does he will pop away at his audience until he has them on the run in his direction—that's our guess. After all, why should he find things more difficult at the Paramount than he did at McVickers and the Oriental in Chicago? The Paramount audiences are in general make-up the same people who patronize the Loop cinemas.

Maybe Mr. Ash is unfortunate in bringing his thunder to Broadway so long after the lightning flash. But had there been no flash such as it was possible for him to set off in Chicago—and perhaps impossible for him to do in New York—Broadway today would not be concerning itself over his ability to make good nor perhaps so ready to give him the eager audience he appears to be receiving. He does with more finish, more poise and more general competence all the things which his so-called imitators have done before at the Paramount and other houses.

* * * *

HAL ROACH, returned from a world tour, believes that the theatre-building possibilities of the Orient are greater than in the United States.

As in every other country, the future of the motion picture in the Far East, Mr. Roach explained, is closely linked to the economic status of the inhabitants of that part of the world. At the present time China, which has six times the population of the United States, has only eighty-five cinema theatres. The country presents the perplexing problem of enormous quantities of underdeveloped, impecunious people, constantly beset by political and economic difficulties. There is practically no "spending money."

* * * *

COLVIN BROWN has been elected to one of the most important executive positions in the industry. The Board of Directors of Pathe this week announced his appointment as Executive Vice-President. In every sense, the naming of this young man to so important a post is deserved.

Mr. Brown has had wide experience in virtually every department of film activity. Recently, since Joseph P. Kennedy became business adviser to Pathe, Mr. Brown has played a major part in the reorganization of the company, and his work has attracted wide attention throughout the industry.

Through marked ability and hard work, Mr. Brown now definitely takes his place in the select group of leaders of the film world. Our sincere congratulations go to him and to Pathe.

* * * *

The Revolution Arrives

By William A. Johnston

(Continued from Page 1677)

exhibitors asking for specific information on this whole subject.

The exhibitor is in a state of mind.

To all inquiries and to our readers in general, we wish to say that we will publish right along all available information on this revolutionary change in motion picture entertainment and that we have already in preparation a series of articles written expressly from the exhibitors' viewpoint.

Batavia Buying Combine Claims to Have 200 Enrolled

AFFILIATED THEATRICAL UTILITIES CORPORATION, whose main offices are located at Batavia, New York, and whose operations are conducted along similar lines to those of the Aaron Sapiro organization, claim that sixty independent exhibitors of the Pittsburgh territory have become affiliated with them recently.

Affiliated is headed by Nikitas Dipson as a buying combine and claims a total of 200 houses now enrolled in its ranks in New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania. In addition to the main office at Batavia, branches are maintained at Buffalo, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, and a New York office is planned for the near future.

Colvin Brown Elected Pathe Executive

Appointed Vice-President by Board of Directors; Played Big Part in Company Reorganization

J. J. MURDOCK, president of Pathe Exchange, Inc., announced this week the election by the board of directors of that corporation of Colvin W. Brown as executive vice-president. Mr. Brown resigned his office as vice-president of F.B.O. to accept the new office.

Mr. Brown was placed in charge of the affairs of Pathe by Joseph P. Kennedy at the time he became business adviser of the company. He figured very importantly in the reorganization of Pathe, and is credited with having a major part in the decided improvement of conditions during the past several months. It was on Mr. Kennedy's recommendation that Mr. Brown received the election.

The new Pathe official began his career as a newspaper man, and has been connected with the motion picture business for the past twelve years. His entry into the business was as an advertising and publicity man. He gradually worked his way into the sales end, and then becoming vice-president and manager of distribution for the Thomas H. Ince Corporation, came in active contact with production and general distribution. On the death of Mr. Ince he became vice-president of F.B.O. in charge of domestic distribution. Subsequently he was charged by Mr. Kennedy with the reorganization and building up of the foreign business of that corporation, and through frequent trips to Europe became familiar with that field. Through these activities in every department of the picture business his experience has been unusually broad, giving him peculiar fitness for his new position.

His election to his new office makes Mr. Brown one of the most powerful of the younger executives in the industry.

Colvin Brown

Denver Exhibitors Win "Country Store" Case

The last "country store" case in the criminal court of Denver has been disposed of by a sealed verdict of acquittal for Joseph Roth, manager of the Rivoli theatre of Denver and H. M. Sanders the well known "country store" operator in those parts.

This is the last of the pending cases filed by the district attorney's office charging violation of a state lottery law in operating the "country stores." It is the third case to be disposed of in favor of the exhibitors and is believed to be the last attempt on the part of the district attorney to convict Denver exhibitors as long as they conduct the "stores" in the method now used. The Roth-Sanders case went to a jury while the others were disposed of by directed verdict.

Classification of Films Adopted in Alberta

The classification of all moving picture releases has been undertaken by the Province of Alberta, Canada, the work being in the hands of Howard Douglas, chief moving picture censor at Edmonton. The films are divided for adult (A) or general presentation, the latter being designated as (U). This plan has been in force in Great Britain, and was lately adopted in the Province of Ontario. Newspaper advertisements in Alberta cities carry the classification mark for the guidance of parents.

"Rose-Marie," "The Legion of the Condemned," "The Four Flusher" and "Flying Romeos" are the type of features recently approved in Alberta for universal presentation.

7 First National Films in Work; 6 Being Edited

Camera work having been completed on "The Head Man," "The Hawk's Nest," and "The Butter and Egg Man," the First National cutters and film editors now have before them six productions, including "Lilac Time" and "Roulette." "The Yellow Lily" left their hands some time ago and a print has been shipped to New York.

"The Butter and Egg Man" went into the Burbank cutting room on May 1, and it is scheduled for delivery at the end of the month with "The Head Man." "The Hawk's Eye," it is thought, will go to the printers in a few days, while "Happiness Ahead" is so far along in the cutting work that a print is promised for next week.

Occupying the lots are "Here Comes the Band," now in its ninth week; "Black Magic," in its fourth week; "The Divine Lady," which has been in the filming stage for six weeks; "The Barker," in its fourth week; "The Glorious Trail," entering its third week, and "Heart to Heart," now in its second week and two days ahead of schedule.

Sunday Shows Established Again in Pawtucket

Sunday shows commenced last week in the motion picture theatres at Pawtucket, R. I., for the first time.

Some two years ago legislation was enacted permitting the opening of theatres for Sunday shows in all cities of the state excepting Pawtucket, which was not included because of the strong opposition which was brought to bear on the Legislature at that time by Pawtucket interests.

After trying the Sunday shows out in the other cities, a new bill was presented the Legislature which included Pawtucket and this was passed and has now become law so that Pawtucket now, for the first time, has Sunday shows.

All of the Pawtucket theatres will run Sunday shows.

3 Marion Davies Vehicles for New M-G-M Season

There will be three starring vehicles presenting Marion Davies during the next season. They will be in addition to the special feature, "Show People," which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has produced, with William Haines acting opposite the comedienne. An announcement is expected shortly regarding the star's first new vehicle for the season, which will go into work as soon as "Her Cardboard Lover" is finished by Director Robert Z. Leonard.

Competition Gives Exhibitors "Break" on Talkie Devices

RCA and Western Electric Machines Standardized and Keen Fight is Due in Sound Apparatus Leasing to Theatre Owners

By CHESTER J. SMITH

THE lid is off the "talking movie" phase of the motion picture industry. There are some things about it now that are not as deep secrets as they were a week ago. There are many points that have passed the conjectural stage and have become known facts.

The signing of Paramount, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and United Artists to contracts with the Western Electric Company has brought a more or less general loosening up of information both from the Western Electric Company and the Radio Corporation of America, which concerns hold most of the basic patent rights on the recording and production of sound to be used in connection with the showing of motion pictures.

Keen Rivalry Indicated

It is only necessary to talk to one of the leading executives of one of these sound recording and reproducing companies for a few minutes to be convinced that the keenest rivalry exists between them, and that they will shortly be engaged in the keenest competition in their efforts to install their equipment in the motion picture houses of the world.

One fortunate thing from the standpoint of all, and particularly the exhibitor, is that the amplifying devices of either company can be used without alteration or any additional equipment in the amplification of the sound in the theatres.

That there will be great rivalry will be disclosed when the terms are revealed under which the devices are leased to theatres. And, by the way all of these machines will be leased and none sold to theatres. For the most part the leases will be for a ten-year period. It is said that one company will make as a condition of the lease that one-half of the payment for the full term of the lease must be made when the lease is signed, and the other half at the expiration of the first year. Thus the theatre owner will have to pay for a full ten-year lease within a year. The other company, it is said, will demand one-half of the payment of the full lease within the first year, and the balance will be extended equally over the balance of the full term of the lease.

Discussing Photophone, which is the recording device of the Radio Corporation of America, Elmer E. Bucher, vice-president and general manager in charge of sales, had considerable to say with regard to the future. He also spoke at length with regard to the entire "talking movie" situation. In part, Mr. Bucher said:

"No Discrimination"

"The exhibitor need not have the slightest fear, when he equips his theatre with one of these devices of any company, that he will be discriminated against.

"If by any chance it should come to a point where discrimination is shown or there is a variation of rental prices on pictures made to exhibitors using one machine and another company's product there will be an upheaval in the motion picture industry such as has never been heard before. I am sure the exhibitor will be given every protection, and that he will be fairly dealt with.

"We have heard rumors that motion picture interests feared our intrusion into the picture industry, but I can assure all of them that we have nothing but a feeling of the kindliest cooperation."

Asked why, if all machines were standardized and could run the same film without different equipment, the companies controlling the basic patents could not get together and put out but one machine, Mr. Bucher said:

"While the basic patents are controlled by the companies, we have made great improvements in these patents, and we feel that the R. C. A. has a considerably superior machine as a result. And at the same time we are equipped to market it at a considerably lower price and a price that will be within the reach of the smallest exhibitor. In another year or two, or not far beyond that, every exhibitor with any vision will see the necessity of installing these machines. We expect to have not less than 4,000 of them operating in theatres within another year, and we see no reason why we should not function independently of any other company.

"We have been experimenting with sound reproducing devices for the past several years, and we feel that with Photophone we have reached a greater stage of perfection than has any other device. Right now we have $3,000,000 tied up in production, and we hope to have our first apparatus on exhibition on Broadway in connection with a big feature by July 1."

Because of the fear that the demand for Photophone might exceed the production facilities and to forestall any possible hitches no contracts for machines have yet been signed nor will there be until there is a sufficient number available for delivery to meet the early demands.

Prices Are Given

With regard to the cost of the Photophone apparatus, Mr. Bucher said the price would range from $4,000 up to $15,000. The smallest price will be for school auditoriums where it is only necessary to install a single projector device.

(Continued on following page, third column)

Paramount, M-G-M and U. A. Sign With Western Electric

PARAMOUNT, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and the United Artists have closed contracts with the Western Electric Company through that company's subsidiary, Electrical Research Products, whereby those companies are licensed to use Western Electric's recording and reproduction devices for talking motion pictures. The contracts were concluded Tuesday of this week and all three companies have agreed to use the trade name, Movietone, by special arrangement with and permision of the Fox-Case Corporation.

Universal is said to be negotiating a deal with the same company, but has not yet decided upon the recording device it will use. It is known that Carl Laemmle and other executives of Universal were present at a hearing of Photophone, controlled by the Radio Corporation of America. The latter organization also declares that it is in negotiation with other producing companies with which it hopes to close contracts in the near future.

The signing of Universal with either the Western Electric or the Radio Corporation of America will pretty well tie up the leading producing companies. Fox, Warner Bros. and First National already are tied up with Electrical Research Products for talking pictures—Warners with Vitaphone, First National with Firnatone, which is hooked up with the Victor Talking Machine Company, and Fox with Movietone.

For the present, Photophone equipment is not being supplied the theatres, nor has any company been licensed to use its recording or reproduction devices except F B O, which the Radio Corporation of America declares it has only purchased an interest in, and that it has not bought F B O outright as has been rumored in the trade.

Vitaphone and Movietone apparatus has been for some time and is now being installed in theatres throughout the country. Photophone hopes to have its apparatus on exhibition on Broadway by the first of July, and to have not less than 4,000 theatres equipped within a year. This company now claims to have $3,000,000 tied up in equipment production, and will be ready to manufacture on a large scale in the near future.

One fortunate thing from the standpoint of the exhibitor is that the amplifying de-

(Continued on following page)

Keen Rivalry in Talking Movie Field

Big Producers Sign Contracts; P. F. L. to Reopen L. I. Studio

(Continued from Preceding Page)

vices on the machines controlled by R. C. A. and Western Electric Company will permit the reproduction of sound on any of the equipment, so that the exhibitor is assured in signing contracts that the film product he purchases will be as readily used in one machine as the other.

With regard to the signing of Paramount, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and United Artists, and the general trend of the industry toward the talking movie, J. E. Otterson, President of Electrical Research Products, subsidiary of Western Electric, issued the following statement, in part:

Western Electric Statement

"The action taken by Paramount, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, United Artists and the other companies will be proof to the public that talking motion pictures are here to stay. Many months have been devoted by these producers to studying the relative merits of the different systems at their disposal, and the fact that all of these outstanding companies in the industry have concluded that such pictures represent the latest great development in the motion picture art, makes the possibilities for the future of talking pictures practically unlimited.

"Almost two years ago the Warner Brothers pioneered in this field through a license which they took from us and the success of Vitaphone has been outstanding. Subsequently, about a year ago, we licensed the Fox-Case Company to use the system developed in our laboratories, and out of this association has come the Movietone with its unqualified success.

"It is naturally very gratifying to us at this time that all the other major producers of pictures have recognized the new field for the application of sound in pictures, and have elected to use for their productions, after thorough and exhaustive research, the methods and system developed in the Bell Telephone Laboratories for the Western Electric Company.

"Years of experiment lie back of these talking pictures. They are, in the last analysis, a by-product of the telephone, for it was through the continuing study by the Bell Laboratories experts of the ways in which speech is produced that they were ultimately developed. Successive steps in this development were the perfection of the public address system for amplifying and distributing sound; the development of electrical methods of recording sound on phonograph records as now successfully employed by the Victor and Columbia Phonograph Companies; and the recording and reproduction of sound in conjunction with motion picture film, now in use for more than a year in Movietone and Vitaphone productions.

"It is my understanding that Paramount, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and United Artists have already begun the installation in their studios of the necessary equipment for introducing sound into their productions. They have placed substantial orders both for the studio equipment thus needed, and for reproducing equipment in the theatres owned or controlled by them. With the seven leading producers thus committed to the production of talking pictures, it is obvious that the time is not far off when we shall have well nigh universal application of sound to pictures, and every first-class theatre will be equipped to enable its audiences to hear as well as to see screen productions. In anticipation of this demand for equipment the Western Electric Company's manufacturing facilities, already large, are being still further increased."

It is understood that more than 300 theatres are now equipped for the showing of Vitaphone and Movietone, while orders for 300 additional theatres have recently been placed, and call for installation within the next three or four months. With the impetus which the signing of the new contracts will bring, it is conservatively estimated that at least 1,000 theatres will be equipped by the end of 1928.

Schenck Issues Warning

In confirming the announcement that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer had signed contracts with Western Electric for the use of the Western Electric Sound Projector in the production of talking pictures, Nicholas M. Schenck, president of the film company, urged caution by all producers against the indiscriminate introductions of sound in pictures.

"It is the belief of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer that the importance of sound in pictures is too great to permit of any indiscriminate use which may hamper its ultimate full expression. The application of sound pictures will unquestionably in its final development help to make the motion picture more than ever the greatest single entertainment force in the world, and it is with this conviction that we have availed ourselves of the Western Electric Sound Projector which we consider the best development of this technique. But it will not be the policy of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to rush into print with anticipated elaborate plans for talking pictures. Rather it will be our policy to proceed so that each of our films employing the use of sound may do so with the most intelligent and sympathetic application.

"We have already undertaken the installation of the necessary equipment at our studios in Culver City, California, and within a short time we will announce to the public further details of the initial Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer pictures adapted to sound."

Paramount Studio Reopens

The signing of the contract between Electrical Research Products, Inc., and Paramount-Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, whereby Paramount is licensed to use the Western Electric Projector System, has caused Paramount to re-open its Long Island studio where the talking pictures will be produced.

Discussing Paramount's entry into the talking picture field, Adolph Zukor, President, says:

"For the past two years we have been investigating the performance of every device for the reproduction of talking pictures. After intensive study of every reproduction machine, we have decided that the Sound Projector System of the Western Electric Company is the best.

"Another factor considered in this decision is the ability of the Western Electric Company to produce in quantity, for it was realized that there would be an immediate call for a great quantity of these sound projectors from Publix Theatres, which owns, controls or directs the activities of a great number of theatres throughout this country and abroad."

Talkie Competition Gives Exhibitors "Break"

(Continued from Preceding Page)

Machines devised for houses of 1,000 capacity will cost between $6,500 and $7,000. Equipment for a 2,000-seat house will require an expenditure of $9,000, while the big palaces that need the most elaborate machine will be compelled to expend probably $15,000.

For the present Photophone will depend upon F B O for its production but there seems every assurance on the part of R C A officials that additional companies will be franchised in the near future. At any rate, any company can produce with Photophone accompaniment on a royalty arrangement for each subject produced.

Photophone Film "Heard"

It was the good fortune of the writer to sit in the other day at a private hearing of a Photophone film with which there was no picture accompaniment. It is my humble opinion that the sound recording of this device is nearer perfection than any I have heard. It was an orchestral record in which every instrument could be clearly defined and the tone of each was just about perfection. One could close the eyes and feel satisfied that he was actually listening to a Broadway orchestra. I heard no speech in connection with the record, but was assured that speech was just as clearly reproduced as music. If such is the case, Broadway is going to be astounded by this newest and as yet unrevealed sound reproduction machine.

Not only is Photophone going to give its attention to the leasing of machines to theatres and to the licensing of producing companies for the synchronization of sound, but Mr. Bucher declares that within a year feature pictures will be revealed within the homes, but with an entirely different technique than the features shown in the theatre.

Photophone declares it will manufacture a home machine that will probably sell for about $300 and that before many years they will be almost as generally in use as the radio is today. This, according to Mr. Bucher, will develop an entirely new class of writers, an entirely new technique in direction, and a brand new aggregation of stars and players, people whose voices will register as well as they will register on the screen.

Kennedy Joins K-A-O Interests

Buys Into Vaudeville Circuit in Association with Banker Group; Rumored Retirement of Albee Is Denied

E. F. ALBEE announced May 16 that Joseph P. Kennedy, president of F B O Pictures Corporation, has become associated with him in the conduct of the Keith-Albee-Orpheum Circuit of theatres. This was brought about through the acquiring of an important interest in the K-A-O by Mr. Kennedy in association with a group of bankers, including Elisha Walker, president of Blair & Company; the Lehman Brothers, and Jeremiah Milbank, the latter being a well known financier identified with the Chase National Bank group.

These interests, including Mr. Kennedy, have purchased sufficient holdings in the Keith-Albee-Orpheum common stock to interest themselves personally in the future of this circuit.

This announcement fulfills the promise made by E. F. Albee at the time of the far-reaching merger of the Keith-Albee and Orpheum Circuits of theatres that new and young blood would be injected into the directorate of the Keith-Albee-Orpheum Corporation.

At a meeting May 15 the board of directors of the Keith-Albee-Orpheum Corporation elected E. F. Albee president, Marcus Heiman, executive vice-president, and Joseph P. Kennedy, chairman of the board. Elisha Walker, president of Blair & Co., Richard C. Hunt, representing Jeremiah Milbank, and the Lehman Brothers were added to the board of directors.

The Keith people and their associates retain the control of the company, says the announcement, which continues:

"There is no truth in any rumor abroad that Mr. Albee, the president of the Keith-Albee-Orpheum Circuit, is to retire or be less active in the affairs of the Keith-Albee-Orpheum Circuit than he has been for the past forty years.

"It was he, with Mr. Keith, who built this circuit, who labored early and late and injected principles into the vaudeville business which has made it respected throughout the world."

Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Albee will now work out together, with the co-operation of these financial groups mentioned above, the new program which has been laid out for the expansion of the Keith-Albee-Orpheum Circuit.

"The motion picture has become such an important factor in the K-A-O theatres in the last few years that it is only natural," said Mr. Albee in his announcement, "that I should look to the picture industry for a new associate. Mr. Kennedy has shown, in a brief but colorful career in the picture business, such constructive and organization genius that we consider him a tremendous asset to our business. He is energetic, dynamic and a straight shooter."

Joseph P. Kennedy entered the motion picture business activity two years ago when he bought F. B. O. Pictures Corporation from the British banker owners. He has just recently effected an affiliation between his F. B. O. Company with Radio Corporation of America, General Electric and Westinghouse under which these interests are his partners in F.B.O.

With Mr. Kennedy's election as chairman of the board of K-A-O, a closer association is established between the two companies, K-A-O recently having acquired an interest in F.B.O. Pictures, and Mr. Kennedy recently having become unofficial business advisor of the Pathe Company, in which K-A-O is heavily interested.

Safeguarding U. S. Films Abroad

Hays Statement Declares American Interests Are Amply Protected; Results of Trip Analyzed

WILL H. HAYS, head of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, returned from France last week after a successful mission in having the original stringent quota laws considerably modified by the French Cinema Control Commission. Mr. Hays, on his arrival, issued a very brief statement in which he said the French negotiations were most amicable and the conclusion reasonably satisfactory to all.

The Hays statement, in full, follows:

"The government of nearly every country in Europe has taken some kind of legal steps to help the nation's motion picture business. This grows out of their realization of the value of the motion picture as a national asset, and expresses their determination to foster and protect it. In some countries it amounts to a subsidy. All this is a perfectly proper purpose and we take no exception to it.

"The motion picture has, indeed, become an important factor for any country, and any government does well sympathetically to encourage it. This fact is thoroughly appreciated abroad. Our concern has been that this protection does not develop in such a way as actually to prohibit American pictures from competing at all. The American motion picture has attained a commanding position in the world on its merit, and we only want that place in the world's commerce which the quality of our product warrants.

"The negotiations in France were most amicable in nature and the conclusion reasonably satisfactory to all."

By L. C. Moen

Paris Correspondent, Motion Picture News

By the time this appears in print, the French expedition of Will H. Hays will have begun to be history, and this appears to be an opportune time to analyze impartially the results of the offensive, which might be characterized as a qualified victory for both sides—America has submitted to a French contingent law, and France has relinquished the principle of enforced reciprocity.

Here are the exact changes, as given to us by Mr. Hays aboard the "Berengaria," a few minutes before sailing from Cherbourg, and which may therefore be regarded as official and final:

Article VII, and its amendments, which provided that for every French picture purchased and distributed in America an American company could import four of its own pictures into France, has been repealed. In its place, the Cinema Control Commission passed resolutions providing that seven permits to import foreign pictures (no country specified) shall be granted with every French picture producer; that such seven permits can all go to one country; and that there are no requirements as to any distribution of such French films anywhere.

Thus an American company can obtain permits to import its films in three ways: By producing French films; by buying French films with their permits included; by buying permits only from French producers.

At a later meeting, the Commision eliminated the retroactive features of Section X, which provides for the refusal of permits to companies showing films harmful to the good name of France. As the section stood, the Commission could revoke all past permits to such a company; now it can merely refuse to issue further permits.

In addition, a company distributing a French film in any foreign country, which is in itself an important producing country (United States, Germany, England, Italy, for example), shall receive two additional permits. This is the only trace remaining of the effort to bring about reciprocity and enforced exports.

Also, the Commission increased the percentage of last year's number of releases which each company can bring in without purchasing any French films or permits whatever, from 40 per cent to 60 per cent. All films of more than 1,300 meters are to

(Continued on page 1684)

U. A. Holds Conventions

Joseph M. Schenck and Al Lichtman Address Sales Heads on Product for Coming Season

THE first sales convention of United Artists west coast managers was opened last Monday by Al Lichtman, with Joseph M. Schenck addressing the session at the Roosevelt Hotel in Los Angeles. Mr. Schenck presented an outline of the 1928-29 line-up of United Artists pictures, and the convention proceeded to discuss special sales and exploitation campaigns.

Those in attendance, aside from Mr. Schenck and Mr. Lichtman, were: David Bershon, western division sales manager; Kenneth Hodkinson, San Francisco; D. J. McNerney, Seattle; H. Bradley Fish, Denver; Guy S. Gunderson, Los Angeles; Frederic Gage, Salt Lake City; F. E. Benson and Harry Stern, special representatives; and Victor M. Shapiro, advertising and publicity director of United Artists.

Next Sunday, May 20th, a middle-western, southern and eastern convention will be held at the Drake Hotel, Chicago. Mr. Lichtman and Mr. Shapiro heading east from Los Angeles on Thursday to attend. The Chicago convention will be attended by a large delegation from New York and other eastern centers.

According to Cresson E. Smith, assistant general sales manager of United Artists, the following people will attend the Chicago convention Sunday:

Al Lichtman; Cresson E. Smith; Victor M. Shapiro; Paul N. Lazarus, sales promotion manager; L. J. Schlaifer, district manager of district No. 1; William Rosenthal, district manager district No. 2; Harry L. Gold, district manager of district No. 3; O. C. Wallace, district manager of district No. 4; Haskell Masters, district manager from Canada; Joseph Luckett, special representative; Emil Jensen, representative of Joseph M. Schenck Productions and Inspiration Pictures; Carroll Trowbridge, representative of Douglas Fairbanks Productions; Guy Morgan, Samuel Goldwyn's representative; Edward Lindeman, D. W. Griffith's representative; and the following branch manager: Saul Resnick, Cleveland; Arthur M. Wineberger, Washinton; Charles Stern, New Haven; H. E. Lotz, Boston; Michael J. Garritty, Portland; George Moeser, Buffalo; Jack Von Tilzer, Philadelphia; B. M. Stearn, Pittsburgh; C. E. Peppiatt, Charlotte; W. G. Carmichael, Atlanta; Jose Levy, Cincinnati; Phil Dunas, Indianapolis; D. V. McLucas, Omaha; Guy F. Navarre, Kansas City; Mannie Gottlieb, St. Louis; Ralph A. Morrow, Dallas; Moe Streimer, New York; and H. G. Morrow, New Orleans.

Safeguarding U. S. Films Abroad

(Continued from page 1683)

be counted in calculating this (more than 5,000 feet, approximately).

To illustrate how this will work out, let us take, for example, Paramount, which distributed last year in France 60 pictures.

First, Paramount will immediately receive free from the Commission 36 permits (60 per cent of last year's number). To bring in the remaining 24 pictures, Paramount can either produce four French pictures (which it has already been doing annually), buy four French pictures, or buy 24 permits from French producers. Or it can produce or buy three French pictures and distribute them in America.

So there is no reason to expect that the law, in its present emasculated form, will work any great improvement in French production. It means, in effect, that American producers will "kick in" a certain amount of subsidy to a few French producers. The probability is that a French producer will be able to get two or two and a half million francs for his seven permits with a film (eighty or one hundred thousands dollars), but that is merely a guess, and may be far wide of the mark. It will depend entirely upon how spirited is the bidding between various American companies; between American and German, etc.

The greatest psychological stimulus to the making of better pictures, the prospect of having films shown in America, at least to exhibitors and critics, has been removed.

So the probabilities are that next year will find French production just about where it is today.

What the law has accomplished for France is to give a small financial aid to a few producers, and to give the Commission strong means of dealing with companies which picture France unfavorably on the screen.

What it means for America is a cross between a contingent and a censorship. If all American companies actually lose money operating in France, as they claim, it will further increase those losses—unless it leads them to curtail the number of pictures released in France, which we still contend would work more constructive benefit to both French and American companies than any legislative measure.

Mr. Hays' final statement was:

"To these modifications the organized American industry has given its assent. We are assured that the Commission will proceed in a liberal spirit in its application of the provisions of the regulations to the end that the closest sympathy and a continuous harmony of action may be advanced and maintained between the French and the American industries. In this effort the American industry will most earnestly cooperate.

"The negotiations, leading up to the conclusion reached today, have been conducted in a most friendly and amicable spirit."

Cohen Brothers Add to Detroit Holdings

The seventh theatre in the Detroit picture house circuit, owned by Ben and Lou Cohen, has just been acquired. Negotiations were completed with Kunsky Theatres last week whereby the Lincoln Square, a west-side house, will became an important link of their enterprises. The purchase price has not been revealed. No change of policy will be made for the time being.

Until recently, the Lincoln Square was one of the largest and foremost picture houses here. When the Cohen brothers opened the new Hollywood, however, it became a source of direct competition. Following is a list of the Cohen theatres in order of importance: Hollywood, Colonial, Lincoln Square, Rex, Globe, Coliseum and Grand Victory. All are situated on the west side of the city.

New Little Theatre for New York City

Property at 151-153 East 50th Street in New York City will be the site of a new little theatre which, it is said, will seat 300 and will be built by Little Picture House Inc., in conjunction with the Film Bureau. On May 9, Little Picture House, Inc., represented by Taylor, Blanc, Capron and Marsh, as counsel, executed contract for the purchase of the property. The seller was Ernest J. Wile, who was represented by Edwin S. Kessler, as counsel. Derecktor and Company, Inc., were the brokers of the transaction.

The officers of Little Picture House, Inc., are: Elizabeth Perkins, president; Mrs. Harris Childs, Miriam Blagden, Mrs. Robert Weeks Kelley, and Mrs. Arthur Lewis, vice-president; Mrs. Howard Greenly, treasurer.

Paramount Declares Its Quarterly Dividend

At a meeting held this week the board of directors of Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation declared the regular quarterly dividend of $2.00 per share on the common stock, payable July 2, 1928, to stockholders of record at the close of business on June 8, 1928. The books will not close.

Charninsky, Showman, Dies Suddenly

A SUDDEN death overtook Simon Charninsky, managing director of the Capitol Theatre at Dallas, on the afternoon of Tuesday, May 8, when he was stricken with a heart attack in his office in the Capitol. At once removed to St. Paul's Sanitarium, he passed away at 2:45 that afternoon. He was 46 years old.

Mr. Charninsky and his business partner and associate, R. J. Stinnett from Pantages Theatre nearby, were recently successful in obtaining a verdict of $237,500 damages in the Dallas District Court against Paramount and others on anti-trust charges. In association with John T. Jones he entered the show business, the two running the Melba Theatre in Dallas. Later he and Mr. Stinnett became joint operators of the Old Garden, now the Pantages. In 1923 the two partners acquired the Capitol.

Surviving are his mother, three sisters and five brothers, three of whom are musical leaders in various theatres. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of the deceased with Dr. David Lefkowitz, rabbi of Temple Emanu-El, officiating. Interment was made at White Rock Cemetery.

FBO Will Produce 60 Features

Six Specials and Six Super-Westerns Starring Tom Mix Top Schedule for 1928-29

JOSEPH P. KENNEDY, president of F B O Pictures Corporation announces that the production program of the company for the 1928-29 season will be made up of sixty feature pictures and five series of short subjects. Included in these will be six specials, six super-westerns starring Tom Mix, twenty-four Gold Bond productions, seven westerns starring Tom Tyler, seven westerns starring Buzz Barton, six with Bob Steele and four starring Ranger, the dog.

The six specials on the program include "The Perfect Crime," "Taxi 13," "The Hit of the Show," "Gang War," "Blockade" and "The Circus Kid."

"The Perfect Crime," is a mystery melodrama by William Le Baron, based on Israel Zangwill's novel, "The Big Bow Mystery" directed by Bert Glennon. Clive Brook and Irene Rich are co-starred, with Tully Marshall, Gladys McConnell, Carroll Nye, Edmund Breese, Ethel Wales, Dick Bellfield, Phil Gastrock and James Farley in prominent parts. "The Perfect Crime" is already finished.

Marshall Neilan's first directorial effort for F B O is "Taxi 13" with Chester Conklin in the leading role, now in course of production at the studio. Martha Sleeper plays the feminine lead.

"The Hit of the Show," is a Ralph Ince production, based on the story by Viola Brothers Shore. This picture is also finished. Joe E. Brown, well known vaudevillian, portrays the role of "Twisty" a hoofer in a Broadway show, who sacrifices his life for the girl he loves. The balance of the cast include Gertrude Olmstead, William Norton Bailey, Gertrude Astor, Ole M. Ness, Lee Shumway, William Francis Dugan, Ione Holmes, Leroy Mason, Frank Mills, Daphne Pollard and Cosmo Kyrle Bellew.

"Gang War" is a story of the underworld in San Francisco's Chinatown, and is now in course of production. The story comes from the pen of James Ashmore Creelman, and is being directed by Bert Glennon.

"Blockade" with Anna Q. Nilsson in the leading feminine role, is a melodrama of the conquest of the rum-runners of the Atlantic, while "The Circus Kid" is a story of the big tops, with Frankie Darro in the leading role. "Poodles" Hannaford and his troupe of circus performers have been persuaded to take part in this production. Ralph Ince will direct "The Circus Kid."

Among the twenty-four Gold Bonds are two prize-winning stories from True Story Magazine, the first of which is "Sinners in Love." The second is to be selected later. "Sinners in Love" will be directed by Ralph Ince. "Stolen Love," from the novel by Hazel Livingston is another of the Gold Bonds. Others of this series will include; "Sally's Shoulders," by Beatrice Burton; "Stocks and Blondes," with Gertrude Astor, Jacqueline Logan, Richard "Skeets" Gallagher and Albert Conti in the leading roles; "The Singapore Mutiny," a Ralph Ince production in which Ince will also enact the leading male role.

"Danger Street" of the Gold Bond series is already completed. It is a Red Book Magazine story by Harold MacGrath, in which Martha Sleeper and Warner Baxter have the leads. Others in the cast are Duke Martin, Frank Mills, Bob Perry, Harry Allen Grand and Ole M. Ness. Ralph Ince directed.

"The Air Legion" is by James Ashmore Creelman, and "The Red Sword" is a Russian tale. Anna Q. Nilsson will play the feminine lead in "Tropic Madness." "The Convict's Son" is another of the Ralph Ince productions in which Ince will play the leading role. Ince will also have the leading role and direct "The Record Run," by James Ashmore Creelman. "Lest We Forget" is another Creelman story of a hero of Flanders Field.

The James Oliver Curwood story, "The Yellow Back," will be among the Gold Bonds, as will "The Jazz Age" and "King of the Klondike," an Alaska adventure tale.

Still others of the Gold Bonds will be: "Skinner Steps Out,' by Henry Irving Dodge; "Double Crossed," by H. C. Witwer; "Hardboiled," by Arthur Somers Roche; "The Last Haul," by Louis Sarecky; "Voice of the Storm," "Hey, Rube" "The Charge of the Gauchos," in which Francis X. Bushman and Jacqueline Logan play the leads, and "Love in the Desert."

There will be seven western pictures starring Tom Tyler. These are "Terror Mountain," "The Avenging Rider," "Tryant of Red Gulch," "Trail of the Horse Thieves," "Gun Law," "Idaho Red" and "The Pride of Pawnee." Six of these pictures have already been completed.

Buzz Barton, F B O's hard-riding,

(Continued on page 1686)

New Writers Stir Hollywood

Authors of "Flash Hits" Are Signed by Studios in Hope of Securing New Talent

By EDWIN SCHALLERT

Editor of The Los Angeles Times Preview and Special Correspondent of Motion Picture News

Los Angeles, May 12.

THERE seems to be a host of writers in Hollywood. Many of them are new ones. At Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Fox the number has increased amazingly, and Paramount has added to its staff. Companies, I hear, are bent on signing up writers of "flash hits." When a playwright writes a play that scores on Broadway, or an author registers a success with a book, his talents are likely soon to be tested for the films. Perhaps a number of these writers are "one idea" men, but it is figured that some of them may click at least once at the studio, and also that they may prove more amenable to the different environment than did most of the novelists and dramatists in the past, who had larger prejudices to overcome because of repeated successes in their own special medium.

Outside of these additions to the scenario staff, the personnel of the various companies remains unchanged. There is very little inclination to add to the permanent stock players at present.

While the rage for newcomers is somewhat abated, talents of many will continue to be tried out, if only for a very short period. Some studios have added to their list of directors.

One notes additions to the list of freelance players. Leatrice Joy, having left De Mille, is now playing the featured lead in "The Bellamy Trial," one of the more important M-G-M productions, which Monta Bell is directing. In this same picture appears Betty Bronson, who is under contract for two starring films at Warner Brothers to follow this.

United Artists, which has been very quiet, is looking up. Norma Talmadge's "A Woman Disputed" is well along toward completion, and with Henry King directing, gives indications of being an excellent picture. Griffith is getting under way with "The Battle of the Sexes." Charles Chaplin talks of doing another picture very soon. Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, of course, have gone to Europe, and will not return until late summer. Had it not been for the death of Miss Pickford's mother, they would have started new productions this spring. Doug was practically set for his next picture. He has an exceptional idea for the sequel to "The Three Musketeers," and on his return will probably decide to produce this.

Samuel Goldwyn is all but ready to begin his first Vilma Banky starring picture. One hears many glowing reports of his two new European discoveries. Miss Banky's leading man, Walter Byron, is already here, and may be said to resemble Ronald Colman slightly. An English actor, he has been on the stage since he was six years old, and has also played in pictures abroad.

Miss Banky's first story will have an Alsation locale. She will be cast as a peas-

(Continued on page 1686)

New Theatre Circuit After Houses in Virginia and Carolinas

THE Mark Gates Theatre Corporation, according to advices from Washington, D. C., is busy with a project to develop a chain of one hundred theatres in Virginia and the Carolinas. Gates for eleven years was with the Loew organization and in recent years was manager of Loew's Columbia in Washington. Because of this connection it has been rumored that the new chain would be a Loew project, but this has been emphatically denied.

The new company has declared itself as being in the field for theatres and is ready to enter the following Virginia towns: Staunton, Covington, Bristol, Portsmouth, Roanoke, Fredericksburg and Winchester. They are also looking for houses in North and South Carolina.

Texas Exhibitors Meet

Semi-Annual Convention Elects Officers and Discusses Conditions in Territory

THE Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Texas held their semi-annual convention at the Baker Hotel, May 8th and 9th, and attendance was all that could be expected. On the opening day a special screening of "Mother Machree" was given the conventioneers at the Majestic Theatre, and in the afternoon a revision and discussion of the constitution and by-laws of the organization were the topics of interest.

H. A. Cole, president, was called from the assembly room and returned a few moments later to announce that Simon Charninsky, managing director of the Capitol Theatre of Dallas and a long and active member of M. P. T. T. O. and a former director of this organization, had suddenly passed away. The entire assembly stood in silence for a moment in respect to his memory.

The Wednesday session was devoted to the election of officers and directors and problems of business. H. A. Cole was re-elected president, and other officers elected were: Burt King, of Stamford, first vice-president; E. J. Callahan, Crockett; A. V. Wade, Gainesville, H. T. Hodge and Henry Sparks, Cooper, second vice-presidents. Jack Lilly was re-elected Secretary-treasurer. Sixteen directors were elected to replace the usual eight; the newly elected directors being: M. R. Flannagan, Longview; Ross Dorbandt, Jacksonville; John Lilly, Sulphur Springs; E. J. Callahan, Crockett; J. L. Santos, Wharton; A. V. Wade, Gainesville; John Stewart, Kaufman; Thomas Donnelle, Stephenville; Sam Heffley, Cameron; H. G. Stein, Luling; Ruben Frels, Victoria; H. H. Starcke, Seguin; Lee Walker, Lampasas; Burt King, Stamford; Homer Mulkey, Clarendon; and E. H. Mosely, Alpine.

The number of directors was increased in order to give greater representation throughout the state. The Brookhart bill was indorsed by the exhibitors and a committee was appointed to ascertain by what means a uniform electrical rate might be obtained for exhibitors throughout the state, as it was pointed out that theatres in different towns were paying almost double charges of other exhibitors. Mr. Cole, the president, stated that although he was not satisfied with several clauses in the new contract it was better than the old contract, but should still be improved.

Frank J. Rebusch, of Indiana, stated that the exhibitors' difficulties are many, as business is dominated by producers, and that it is necessary for exhibitors to maintain a strong organization in order to combat them and secure the rights deserved.

A tribute was paid to the Alexander Film Co., and E. S. Hunt, the district manager, for the valuable cooperation given in the past, and the statement was made that this film company has done much toward enriching the coffers of the M. P. T. T. O. Other discussions included Blue Ribbon pictures, constitutional amendments and district meetings. The members attended a special screening of "Tenderloin" at the Old Mill Theatre Tuesday night, and the closing feature of the convention was a cabaret dinner dance on Wednesday night at the Baker Hotel.

FBO to Produce 60 Features

(Continued from page 1685)

freckled faced, fourteen year old western ace, will make seven for the 1928-29 program. These include "The Young Whirlwind," "Rough Ridin' Red," "Orphan of the Sage," "The Vagabond Cub," "The Freckled Rascal," "The Little Savage" and "Pals of the Prairie." Four Buzz Barton pictures have already been completed.

Bob Steele will make a series of six youth and adventure pictures. These include "Heading for Danger," "Lightning Speed," "Captain Careless," "Come and Get It," "The Amazing Vagabond" and "Laughing at Death."

Ranger, the dog, will make a series of four outdoor pictures. These include "Dog Law," "Fury of the Wild," "Tracked" and "The One Man Dog."

Five series of short subjects are scheduled. Four of the series will be made by Larry Darmour for Standard Cinema Corporation. These include:

"Racing Blood," a series of twelve two reel jockey stories, from the pen of H. C. Witwer, now running serially in Cosmopolitan Magazine. Alberta Vaughn, Eleanor Flynn and Al Cooke have been slated for leading roles.

A series of "Barney Google" twelve two reel subjects, based on Billy De Beck's cartoon strip of Barney and his pal Spark Plug.

"Toots and Casper" another cartoon strip, is a series of twelve two reelers which will form part of the new season's short subject offerings.

The success of the Mickey McGuire subjects during 1927-28 prompted F B O to arrange for the distribution of another series featuring Mickey and his gang. Twelve two reelers are now in course of production, with Mickey Yule in the leading role. The series are based on the cartoons by Fontaine Fox.

The short subject program will be rounded out with 26 one reel Curiosities, known as the Movie Sideshow. These "Curiosities" are made by Walter Futter, and will be presented by Amedee J. Van Beuren. The Curiosities are not cartoons, but are motion pictures based on unusual bits of life, photographed and dramatized by an observing camera.

New Writers on Increase in Hollywood

(Continued from page 1685)

ant girl. The production is to feature native costumes of the country, and the picturesque customs. For that reason it gives every indication of being pictorially alluring, as are the majority of Goldwyn productions. Both Miss Banky and Colman will appear in modern subjects, the first Colman picture probably being one with a theme of regeneration laid in a foreign setting.

On his return from Europe Goldwyn expressed his reasons for choosing foreign players. He declared that an English actor of the type of Byron not only has the asset of experience, but that he has strongly-marked Anglo-Saxon virility. "It is quality that one can discover as a rule only in British and American players," said Goldwyn.

"On the other hand I prefer Continental women to any others because of their decided femininity," he continued. "Their whole training in Europe is to please, whereas in America the tendency is for women to dominate. This is brought about by their condition of independence, which has in many cases been thrust upon them much against their will. I believe that there are very feminine types to be found in America, but they are not as readily discovered here as on the European continent." The popularity of Vilma Banky would bear out Mr. Goldwyn's theory.

Goldwyn mentioned also that there are many other excellent actors to be brought from Europe. "Talent is still plentiful there, and unquestionably the future will see many more players forwarded from abroad," he indicated.

Monty Banks and Unit Film Exteriors in Paris

Monty Banks, American screen comedian, is in Paris with a company shooting exteriors for a feature comedy for British International Films.

Merger Pictures Completes Financial Contract

Merger Pictures, Inc., capitalized at $5,000,000, has completed its financial structure with the signing of a contract with Duhan and Co., Wall Street investment bankers, which has underwritten a stock issue. H. E. McGoldrick, of Seattle, financial representative of Merger Pictures, arranged the deal. The company, headed by Richard Thomas, will produce one road-show a year, it is said, and will also market a new color process. A new laboratory is also planned. The first picture will be "The Woman Who Was Forgotten," which will be distributed by States Cinema, the head of which is Charles S. Goetz, who is also general manager of Merger Pictures.

In a few days Thomas plans to leave for the coast to start production on the picture, which is tied up with the National Educational Association.

M-G-M Foreign Managers Arrive in New York

Arriving in New York last week were Ludwig Lawrence, who was formerly Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer manager for Western continental Europe; J. J. Letsch, who was formerly stationed in Belgium, and Allen Byre, head of the M-G-M distributing staff in France.

Mr. Lawrence will set up residence in New York and will serve as special representative of the M-G-M international department, which is being expanded following plans laid out at the recent foreign sales convention. Mr. Letsch will assume new duties as managing director for M-G-M in Spain and Portugal. Mr. Byre will act as managing director for his company in Belgium and Switzerland, as well as in France.

Gilbert W. Kahn Elected to Paramount Board

Gilbert W. Kahn, son of Otto H. Kahn, of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, was elected a member of the board of directors of Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation at the regular monthly meeting held on May 14. Mr. Kahn is one of the younger members of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Company. After attending Princeton, he spent several years studying business conditions and banking in England, France and other foreign countries. Since his return to America he has been associated with his father at Kuhn, Loeb and Company.

Lila Lee Signed for "Just Married" Portrayal

Lila Lee has been signed by Paramount for a featured part in "Just Married," in which the new team of Ruth Taylor and James Hall are making their first appearance. She will play a French girl.

Tiffany-Stahl Opens Paris Branch Office

Tiffany-Stahl has opened a branch office at 26, Avenue de Tokio, Paris, from which to handle its European sales. La Societe Anonyme Francaise Tiffany is being formed.

Ten Cooney Chicago Theatres Are Due to Change Hands

THE ten Cooney Brothers theatres in Chicago are about to be taken over by James Costen, who headed a booking circuit in Chicago, according to report. This will put to an end some spirited bidding for the houses that has been going on for several weeks past. It is said the houses will be taken over next week under an arrangement between the Cooneys, their bankers and Costen.

It was declared recently, when it became known that several interests were involved in the bidding for the theatres, that the Gregory Bernasek circuit had closed for the chain, which includes the Avalon and Capitol, de luxe houses, and the Chatham, Cosmo, Jeffrey, Grove, Stratford, West Englewood, Highland and Colony.

Film Board Secretaries to Discuss Ethics

Los Angeles Meeting Will Hear Contents of Code Drawn at Trade Practice Conference

SECRETARIES of the Film Boards of Trade from all parts of the United States will convene in Los Angeles the week of May 21 to discuss problems of interest to the motion picture industry. Chief among the topics to be discussed will be the new code of ethics as drafted at the Trade Practice Conference in New York last October, and ratified by the Federal Trade Commission; the new uniform contract and the various questions involved in arbitration.

C. C. Pettijohn, general counsel of the Film Boards of Trade, Gabriel L. Hess, and Mrs. Mabel Parkhouse left New York during the week in company with secretaries of eastern boards to attend the sessions. Representatives from various boards will join the train at Chicago, Omaha and Salt Lake City. A dinner will be tended the secretaries by the Motion Picture Producers Association in Los Angeles the night of May 25.

The announcement of the code of ethics as drafted by the conference in New York last October and approved by the Trade Commission is being waited with no little interest by all branches of the industry. All phases of the code will be discussed at the Los Angeles sessions and definite instructions will be given the secretaries as to how they are to proceed in the future.

These preparations for the code of ethics have already been concluded, it is said, and announcement of them will be forthcoming from Washington by the Federal Trade Commission in the near future. At any rate they will be released for consideration by the Los Angeles meeting next week.

There is much speculation throughout the industry as to the contents of the code and as to how it disposes of the resolutions adopted by the industry at the Trade Practice conference last fall. Many of the different angles are expected to develop heated discussion before their angles are definitely disposed of. The sessions in Los Angeles are to be held at the Hotel Ambassador from May 21 to May 26 inclusive.

Daylight Saving Defeat in Indianapolis

THEATRE owners won their fight against daylight saving time passed by city council last Monday night. Mayor L. Ert Slack vetoed the measure in response to the storm of protest from Associated Theatre Owners of Indiana, Inc., led by Charles Metzger, president, Miss Helen Brown secretary, and Ace Berry of the Skouras-Publix interests. Councilman Herman P. Lieber, formerly of the Circle Theatre Company, led the opposition in council.

Fort Wayne adopted daylight saving time effective from May 26 to Sept. 29 by a vote of 11,607 to 9,716. The fast time program also was adopted at Valparaiso, Ind., by vote of 1,980 to 1638.

European Unit Will Shoot Scenes in America

H. Fellner, of Felsom Film, Berlin, has sailed for America to make advance arrangements for the filming of scenes for "The Woman in the Moon," which will be directed by Fritz Lang, who made "Metropolis" for Ufa. Lang and his unit are to follow.

Fellner will remain in New York but a few days, after which he will proceed to Mount Wilson Observatory, where he will arrange for the filming of important astronomical scenes.

H. S. Hummell Joins First Division as Sales Manager

H. S. Hummell, formerly sales manager for Columbia and a representative of Pathe in Chicago at one time, has joined First Division Distributors, Inc., as sales manager. He is now visiting territorial buyers in Buffalo, Toronto, Detroit and Chicago in the interest of the 18 features First Division has scheduled as the new season's product. Mr. Hummell has been in the picture business for 18 years and formerly was a producer.

Eastman Acquires New Three-Color French Film Process

By L. C. MOEN

Staff Correspondent, Motion Picture News

Paris, May 9.

IMPORTANT developments in the American situation as regards motion pictures in color may be expected from the acquisition by the Eastman Kodak Company of the United States, Canada and Great Britain rights, and world amateur rights, to the Keller-Dorian color process, a French development.

This process is not a sudden, haphazard development, but has back of it years of patient experiment by an established French concern. The inventor is Rudolphe Berthon, who has spent a lifetime in experimenting with color photography.

It differs from existing processes in America in that it is a three-color process instead of a two-color, and can therefore reproduce all the colors of the rainbow. An ordinary camera can be used, with a slight change in the lens; an ordinary projector, likewise. A special negative stock, ruled with 2000 fine colored lines to the inch, must be used, the prints must be made on a special stock. Cost will be moderate, it is claimed.

The company's first film, a fragment made in Corsica from Boccacio's "Matteo Falcone," is now being shown at the Salle Marivaux in Paris, on the same program with Chaplin's "The Circus," where Mr. Eastman saw it on his recent visit to Paris.

New Regulation Bill Due

Canon Chase Measure Introduced by Congressman Hudson Includes Matter Agitated By Reformers

CANON CHASE has succeeded in getting a bill before congress for the thorough regulation of the motion picture industry. It has been introduced in the House of Representatives by Congressman Grant M. Hudson of East Lansing, Mich., who early in the session introduced a block booking bill similar to that of Senator Brookart of Iowa.

The new measure contains the provisions of the block booking bill but goes further, incorporating a great deal of the matter which has been agitated in Congress by the reformers for several years.

The measure bans the use of blind and block booking, producer ownership of the theatres and compulsory arbitration.

The other purposes of the measure are described by Congressman Hudson as the development of "all the branches of the industry to their largest and highest capacity and to maintain a fair, broad and open field of endeavor in every branch."

The bill seeks to secure at the source of production, without censorship or any compulsory system of pre-examination of films before exhibition, conformity to the moral standards which were drawn up by the industry in 1921, it was explained by Mr. Hudson. This, it is asserted, will assist parents to protect their children from the exploiters of youth in such a manner as to increase the amusement value of the films and the financial profits of the business.

The bill is also designed to promote America's foreign business in all branches of trade by removing the principal reasons why France and other nations object to American films. "Otherwise," Mr. Hudson declared, "other nations like Russia may adopt government ownership of films, may limit their importations as Great Britain and France have recently done, or may exclude them altogether."

The bill also regulates the political activities of the industry, and places the settlement of trade disputes and supervision of the industry in the hands of a Federal Comission, to be non-partisan and beyond unfair political influence, which will devote its whole work to the motion picture industry solely.

An appropriation of $1,000,000 is to be furnished for the use of the Federal Bureau of Education to inaugurate the use of teaching films in the schools of the country.

Vidor Uses Newsreel to Introduce Trial Scene

TO introduce the murder mystery in the story of "The Bellamy Trial," which he is screening for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Monta Bell uses a current M-G-M newsreel release which will be captioned "Trial of the Century" and which will in a terse title present the facts of the murder trial and those figuring in it. The action continues from the newsreel views and the mystery plot develops as the witnesses are brought to the stand. Bell hit upon this method of presenting his story while watching a newsreel in a motion picture theatre.

Sapiro Invited to Address M.P.T.O. Unit

George P. Aarons, secretary of the M.P.T.O.A. of Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware, has sent an invitation to Aaron Sapiro, president of the I.M.P.E.A., to address the members of the tri-state group on Thursday, May 24.

Mr. Sapiro has accepted the invitation. He will be accompanied to Philadelphia, where the luncheon-meeting will be held, by Herbert R. Ebenstein, secretary of the I.M.P.E.A.

5 New M. P. Companies; Paramount Reduces Stock

Newly incorporated motion picture companies chartered by the secretary of state in Albany during the past week, included the following: Eastman Teaching Films, Inc., $1,000,000, Thomas E. Finegan, Edward P. Curtis, Marion B. Folsom, Rochester; The M. I. L. Corporation, capitalization not stated, John F. Wharton, M. I. Trimble, J. Simpson, New York City; Kirkland and Strickland, Inc., capitalization not stated, Alexander Kirkland, Robert H. Wrubel, New York City; Francis C. Strickland, Manchester, Conn.; Jessem Productions, Incorporated, capitalization not stated, Joseph L. Greenberg, Henry C. and Louis Greenberg, New York City.

During the week papers were filed by the Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation, noting the reduction of capitalization. The 1,200,000 shares consisting of 200,000 shares of preferred stock and 1,000,000 shares of common stock, have been reduced to 1,000,000 shares of no par value. The papers were filed by a firm of New York City attorneys.

Pathe Announces Features for Release in May

Pathe lists a trio of features as its feature output for the current month. The titles announced are: "Hold 'Em Yale," "The Law's Lash" and "Walking Back."

Rod La Rocque stars in the first, released May 13; Klondike, the dog, is the principal performer in second, announced for May 20. The last picture for the month is "Walking Back," starring Sue Carrol and also scheduled for May 20.

Sills Pays Tribute To Hays' Leadership

MILTON SILLS, in his speech before the Los Angeles Women's Club, lately, said, as reported in the Los Angeles Examiner of May 2:

"Tribute to Will Hays for giving the motion picture industry the 'same type of business leadership and inspiration which he used in putting the Postoffice Department on the most efficient basis it had ever known. . .'

"The motion picture industry for six years now, thanks to Mr. Hays, has been following a definite, clearcut policy of arousing public interest.

"Six years ago the industry was unorganized in its policies. Each company was a separate unit, perhaps jealous of every other unit and probably differing in its attitudes from every other company.

"It was then that a new type of leadership was brought in. The pictures you are seeing today, made by sanely operated business concerns, with all the improvements which science and art have been able to add in the brief history of the screen, are evidences of the industry's adoption and acceptance of this type of leadership."

Suspect Held in Bomb Plot in Seattle

THOMAS J. WOODHOUSE, employee of a coal company, was arrested last week in Seattle, Washington, as an aftermath of the second dynamite bombing of the Embassy Theatre in the Pacific Northwest city, and is being held by Seattle police while further investigations are under way to determine the "higher-ups" in the case.

The Embassy, a first run downtown theatre operated by Joe Danz on an all-night policy, has twice been the target for dynamite bombs within the past three weeks, each of which has wrought considerable damage to the theatre and nearby buildings. Both explosions occurred after midnight.

Woodhouse's arrest came after identification of his car as the one that had been seen by late workmen parked in the alley of the theatre a few moments before the explosion. When arrested at his home at 5 a. m., police report that the radiator of the car was still warm, despite his protests that he had been home since 12:30 midnight.

The Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Washington have offered a reward of $2500 for the apprehension and conviction of any one bombing a Seattle theatre, as a result of several recent dynamite and "stink" bomb outrages.

Columbia Completing '27-28 Picture Program

Featured and supporting players are now working at the Columbia studios on the West Coast on the remainder of the Columbia program for 1927-28. Four features are in filming and two are being scenarized.

Now being edited and titled is "Name the Woman," scheduled for release on May 25. George B. Seitz is shooting the final sequences on "Ransom," adapted from a story by himself. Elmer Clifton is working on thrill scenes for "Virgin Lips." The company has just returned from Griffith Park, the airport of the California National Guard, where airplane shots were taken.

On another stage in the Columbia studio Frank Capra is directing an underworld story titled "The Gangster" and adapted from "Say It With Sables." George C. Hull is preparing "Beware of Blondes."

5 Warner Films for Next Season in Cutting Room

Producing in advance of schedule, Warner Bros. have in their studio cutting room five of their 18 features scheduled for the season of 1928-29. At the start of the new season the company will have actually ready a number of their pictures.

These finished vehicles are: "The Land of the Silver Fox," "State Street Sadie," "No Questions Asked," "Women They Talk About" and "Fools in the Fog."

Goldwyn's New Male Star Arrives in New York

Walter Butler, whom Samuel Goldwyn will groom as successor to Ronald Colman in male leads in Vilma Banky vehicles, arrived last Friday, April 13th, on the Aquitania on his first visit to America. He will leave New York almost immediately for Hollywood to play in "The Innocent."

Trade Commission to File Action

Will Bring Suit Against Paramount for Enforcement of Cease and Desist Order on Block Booking

COURT action seems bound to come by the Federal Trade Commission against Paramount on the question of block booking. Paramount still has the right to petition to have the Commission's cease and desist order vacated, but evidently has not yet decided upon the next step to be taken in the matter, as no statement has been forthcoming from the company.

Plans for the filing of a suit against Paramount Famous Lasky in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, probably in New York, to secure enforcement of the cease and desist order of last July with respect to block booking were announced by the Federal Trade Commission May 14. Block booking will be the only issue in the suit, Paramount's report having been accepted with respect to the alleged conspiracy to restrain trade and the acquisition of theatres for alleged intimidation of exhibitors in connection with booking films.

The commission on May 7 rejected that part of Paramount's report covering the question of block booking on the ground that "the facts alleged as to the manner and form in which respondents are complying, and have complied with paragraph two of said order to cease and desist are insufficient to show a compliance with said paragraph two."

It has been apparent for some time that in all probability the case would go to the courts, the commission having repeatedly indicated its intention of insisting upon absolute compliance with the block booking provisions of its July order. In view of the experience of the Federal Trade Commission in other cases, it is probable that the suit will work its way through the courts until it is finally decided by the United States Supreme Court, which means that many months will elapse before the question of block booking is finally disposed of.

The Commission's anouncement in full text follows:

The Federal Trade Commission will ask the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for enforcement of the Commission's order prohibiting Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corporation from "block booking" of motion picture films.

This latest action of the Commission follows failure of the motion picture concern to submit a satisfactory report of compliance to the Commissioner's order. Two reports of compliance had been made by the corporation but each was rejected as insufficient to show compliance with the "block booking" clause of the Commission's order.

The order to cease and desist was issued against the picture corporation July 9, 1927. The order contained three provisions, one of which prohibited "block booking" of films. The corporation's reports of compliance to the two other provisions of the order were accepted as "unobjectionable."

The Commission's petition for enforcement will probably be entered in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in New York.

Ralph Block Will Make 9 Films of Pathe Program

Nine feature pictures of the new Pathe productions at the De Mille studio this coming summer season will be produced by Ralph Block. The first is the picture tentatively titled "Power." The story, by Tay Garnett, is now being directed by Howard Higgin. Mr. Block not so long ago supervised 26 features for Paramount in 14 months.

"The Awakening" New Title for Banky Film

"The Awakening" instead of "The Innocent" will be the title of Vilma Banky's first starring picture for Samuel Goldwyn after the disbanding of the team of Miss Banky and Ronald Colman. Appearing as leading man, will be Walter Byron, British screen star, Louis Wolheim and George Davis.

National Line of Action Planned by Musicians on Talkies

A NATIONAL line of action on sound pictures by the American Federation of Musicians will be mapped out, it is expected, at the convention of the organization to be held in Louisville, Ky., beginning May 21. President Joseph N. Weber announced recently that an emergency "war chest" of $5,000,000 was planned by the Federation.

The musicians' union is said to view with alarm the rapid developments in the talking picture field. Since the introduction of Movietone and Vitaphone into theatres, the musicians have insisted that orchestras be retained on theatre payrolls while the sound pictures were being played. In some cases, this is said to have resulted in musicians drawing pay without work. No solution has been offered, it is reported, in the case of phonographic music in theatres.

Exhibitor Charges "Blacklist" in Georgia Damage Suit

P. V. KELLEY, Ashburn, Georgia exhibitor, has filed suit in the amount of $102,000, triple damages, in the Federal District Court in Atlanta against thirteen distributors and the Atlanta Film Board of Trade, because of alleged blacklisting.

Kelley charges the alleged "Blacklisting" came after his refusal to comply with an arbitration decision. Plaintiff alleges that a Fox News contract which he claims had expired and was cancelled, was upheld by the arbitration board, and when he refused to accept the decision, Fox, United Artists, Pathe, M-G-M, First National, Universal and Tiffany-Stahl, with which exchanges he had been doing business, declined service unless he posted deposits totalling $2,045.

When these firms are alleged to have refused to do business with him, Kelley declares he sought service from Paramount, Warners, Educational, F B O, Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions and Liberty-Special. These firms, also, Kelley alleges, were prohibited from serving him because of membership in the Film Board.

"Dawn" Will Open in N. Y.

Films Bureau Puts O. K. on Picture and Premiere Is Set for Times Square Theatre May 29

DESPITE the protests regarding the picture "Dawn" and its banning by a number of the leading circuits in America, Arch Selwyn, who controls the American rights to the production will open it at the Times Square Theatre in New York on Tuesday night, May 29. The ticket sale for the opening night will be largely a private one, and if any tickets are left they will be on sale to the general public at prices ranging from $1 to $5.

A considerable controversy has been aroused over the showing of the film. Because of the animosity aroused over it, a private screening was made before the Film Bureau, and an expression from that organization was, that it was a "picture without hatred or bitterness toward anyone." Because of this approval given by officials of the Film Bureau, Otto H. Kahn, banker, and a member of the advisory committee of the organization, is said to have resigned from the board. The Film Bureau committee which saw the film is sponsoring the opening at the Times Square Theatre. It is claimed, by those sponsoring the film, that Mr. Kahn was not present at the private showing. With regard to the opening of the picture and to its banning by theatre chains, Mr. Selwyn said, in part:

"The larger distributing monopolies have added their clamor gratuitously announcing that they will not handle the picture, and that it will not be shown in their theatres. I say gratuitously because they have never been asked to. It was never the intention to show "Dawn" in the chain moving picture houses. That is no place for it.

"It is not an effort to commercialize Edith Cavell's great sacrifice or to appeal to national prejudice and try to resurrect the feeling of bitterness between enemies who, having declared peace, seek to have it firmly cemented. The contrary is the case. From the commercial point of view, a percentage of all the profits of the picture, no matter where shown—and it is a liberal percentage—is being diverted to the nursing homes which have been established in memory of Edith Cavell."

4 Specials on Program of First Division

FOUR special productions will be a part of the 1928-29 production program of First Division Distributors. They have not been determined upon thus far but their titles will probably be announced following the return of Jesse J. Goldburg, First Division president from the coast.

Mr. Goldburg declared that the specials would have a budget appropriated for them, that a special publicity and exploitation campaign would be put behind each of them and that they would be specials in fact and not "based on hopes."

10 M-G-M Units In Active Production Work

Ten companies are now actively producing and several others are preparing to start shortly at the Culver City studios. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer reports that the studios are in full swing on the new season's production activities.

W. S. Van Dyke has practically completed interior scenes for "White Shadows of the South Seas," which kept him for a considerable time on a tropical location. Monte Blue and Robert Anderson are the only white actors in the cast. "War in the Dark" is now in work under Fred Niblo's direction. Harry Beaumont has returned from location at Del Monte with the "Our Dancing Daughters" production company and is now shooting interiors. Chester Withey is directing an Australian screen play, "The Bushranger." Buster Keaton has returned from New York with Edward Sedgwick directing him in "The Camera Man."

Edward Sutherland is directing "The Baby Cyclone," Monta Bell is making "The Bellamy Trial," Jack Conway is megaphoning "While the City Sleeps," and William Nigh is working on "Four Walls." A screen version of "Excess Baggage" is being produced by James Cruze and a European novel, "Mask of the Devil" is being directed by Victor Seastrom. Clarence Brown is preparing "The Carnival of Life," and Tod Browning is working on a new Lon Chaney story.

In the cutting rooms are "Diamond Handcuffs," "Detectives," and "The Deadline."

Fox Lists Dozen Features Concluding Program

Prior to the announcement of its production schedule for the 1928-29 season, Fox Films lists the dozen remaining pictures on its current program. A dozen pictures are mentioned. Their release dates are situated between now and the end of July.

Beginning with May 13, when "Hangman's House," and "Hello, Cheyenne," starring Tom Mix, the program consists of: "Thief in the Dark," with George Meeker and Marjorie Beebe, to be released on May 20; "The News Parade" scheduled for May 27; "Don't Marry," featuring Lois Moran and due on June 3; "No Other Woman," starring Dolores Del Rio and set for June 10; "Chicken a la King," now in production with George Meeker, Nancy Carroll and Ford Sterling, but established for release on June 17; "None But the Brave," in which Dorothy Knapp will make her first bow in pictures, listed for June 24.

The next, on July 1, is "Road House," with Lionel Barrymore and Maria Alba; "Painted Post," starring Tom Mix, will be released on July 8. "The Farmer's Daughter" with Marjorie Beebe and Albert Gran is now in production but will be issued on July 15 "Fleetwing," the last of the features for the current season, co-stars Barry Norton and Dorothy Janis, and will arrive on July 22.

New 1500 Seat Theatre for Baltimore

Plans to construct a one story moving picture theatre with public library building adjoining it, to be built at Edmonson Avenue and Edgewood Street, Baltimore, are going forward by the Lyndhurst Corporation of which H. C. Poffenberger is the head. The seating capacity will be 1,500 and the theatre will measure 145 by 70 feet and the library 60 by 50 feet. Work will be started about June 1, according to the present plans, it is said. It is understood that Harry Webb and Frank H. Durkee are interested in the building of this theatre.

Columbia Signs Alice Day and Margaret Livingston

For the two leading women of "The Gangster," Columbia has engaged Alice Day and Margaret Livingston. Miss Day will play a blind street musician and Miss Livingston will appear as an underworld vamp. The story of "The Gangster" is an adaptation of "Say It With Sables." Mitchell Lewis is also announced for a featured role.

In and Out of Town

DR. HUGO RIESENFELD arrived in New York City recently from the coast to take charge of the musical presentation of "Ramona," the United Artists film now playing at the Rivoli.* After conducting at the premiere last Thursday, Dr. Riesenfeld, who is managing director of all United Artists theatres, left for Los Angeles the following day.

DOROTHY DEVORE, after a sojourn of several weeks in New York City, sailed last Friday for a brief tour of Europe. Accompanying her on the Cunard liner "Caronia" was her husband. They will visit the motion picture studios of Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy, and when not sightseeing will spend their time at the Lido.

MAX MILDER, central division manager for Warner Bros., will leave the New York headquarters for a trip through the territory which is under his supervision. His first stops will be Chicago and Minneapolis.

WILLIAM LE BARON, F B O vice-president in charge of production, arrived in New York last Tuesday and left for Chicago the same afternoon to attend the F B O convention there. Upon his return from Chicago, he expects to remain in New York for about a month in conference with Joseph P. Kennedy and other executives of the company.

JANET GAYNOR, Fox star, will arrive in New York May 28 as the guest of the Fox organization at its silver anniversary international convention at the Park Central Hotel. Miss Gaynor will be accompanied by her mother.

LILI DAMITA, Samuel Goldwyn's new feminine player, arrived in New York last Friday, May 11, on the S.S. Berengaria. This is her first visit to America.

AFTER a vacation in Europe, Irving Thalberg and Norma Shearer, his wife, were given a homecoming reception by friends upon arriving in New York. On the same boat were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Roach. While abroad the Thalbergs visited Paris, Rome, London and the Riviera. Accompanying the couple to the Coast is Paul Bern, who came East to look over the new plays and stories.

JEAN HERSHOLT has left Hollywood for a trip east. His latest role is in "Abie's Irish Rose."

RAMON GARCIA, for the past five years in the Fox Films foreign department, sailed aboard the steamer Siboney for Havana last Saturday enroute to Mexico to open an office as an independent motion picture distributor. He will make his headquarters in Mexico City. His wife and boy accompanied him.

CLAYTON P. SHEEHAN, foreign manager of Fox Films, returned last week aboard the steamer American Legion from a three-months' tour of the Fox exchanges in South America. Mrs. Sheehan accompanied her husband on the trip.

ARRIVING on the Berengaria last Friday morning was Sol M. Wurtzel, general superintendent of the Fox Hollywood studios, and Lew Seiler, Fox director. Mr. Wurtzel is to proceed immediately to Hollywood while Mr. Seiler is to begin immediate production on "Nobody's Children," which will feature Margaret Mann.

New Cleveland Houses

Two Spacious Theatres Scheduled for Construction in Near Future With Others to Follow

CLEVELAND is scheduled to have at least two new spacious motion picture theatres. One, according to recent announcement, will be part of the new Terminal Station project on the Public Square, and the other will be in the Moreland Circle development in Shaker Heights. It is said that several interests have entered negotiations for the theatre in the Terminal development which will include the Terminal station, the Terminal Tower Bldg. and a large department store.

Building reports show that Cleveland and several nearby towns are in line for new theatres. Paul Gusdanovic has had plans for a theatre to be located at Miles Ave and East 131st St., drawn by Nicola Petti, Cleveland architect. This is to be a two story building, and will be built to show combination vaudeville-picture programs.

Sam Rosenthal and E. C. Flanigan will extend their theatre holdings to include a new house in Ravenna. The location chosen is on Chestnut St., directly opposite the Court House. C. G. Kistler of Kent, has prepared the plans. The building will be three stories high with stores on the ground floor and apartments on the second and third floors. It is to cost about $150,000, and work is to be started this spring.

Loew's Theatrical Enterprises of New York have leased a theatre in Akron, which will be part of a $1,500,000 project including an arcade with 32 stores. Eberson and Eberson of New York are the architects. The location is at 182 S. Main St.

The Harris Amusement Company of Pittsburgh, with theatre interests in Ohio as well, will build a theatre in Steubenville, Ohio. Thomas W. Lamb of New York has prepared plans but no announcement is made when the building will be started.

Court Deadlocked on Law

Missouri Jurists Are Unable to Reach a Decision on Constitutionality of Sunday Closing

THE Missouri Supreme Court is deadlocked and unable to reach a decision on the constitutionality of the Sunday closing ordinance for motion picture theatres in Springfield, Mo., which has been before the court for more than a year. On May 12 the high court instructed the attorneys interested in the controversy to select a special judge to sit with the court in a reargument of the case in an effort to break the tie. The case will come up again at the October term of the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court en banc includes seven jurists, but in this particular case one of the judges disqualified himself. The other six divided three to three and have been unable to reach a decision.

The judge who disqualified himself is believed to be Judge John Turner White, who resides in Springfield, and whose son, Judge Warren L. White of the Greene County Circuit Court, rendered a decision holding the Sunday closing ordinance to be unconstitutional. The city apealed from that decision.

The Missouri statutes provide the special method of picking a judge to help decide cases when the Supreme Court deadlocks. This is the first time this method has been used for years.

The voters of Springfield adopted the Sunday closing law several years ago and two unsuccessful attempts have since been made to repeal the law.

W. W. Smith is the theatre owner who brought the test case of the ordinance in September, 1926. He was convicted in Police Court and appealed to the Circuit Court, where he was acquitted, the conviction being set aside. The city appealed to the Supreme Court in January, 1927, and the case was argued and submitted to that court on May 6, 1927.

"Girl on the Barge" to Be Made in East

FOR ten years, ever since the production activities of the company were transferred to Universal City, Universal has not made a production in its plant in Fort Lee, N. J. Today, the Universal Eastern studio is being refurnished for the inspection of Edward Sloman, Universal director who will arrive in New York next week to decide whether the facilities there are sufficient for the filming of the interiors on Rupert Hughes' "The Girl on the Barge." It is quite possible that the entire production will be shot in New York instead of taking the company back to the coast for interiors.

Mary Philbin and George O'Brien have been withdrawn from the cast, to be replaced by Sally O'Neil and Malcolm McGregor. Jean Hersholt, who is to play the role of the Barge captain, arrived in New York last Tuesday.

"Glorious Trail" New Ken Maynard Western

"The Glorious Trail" is Ken Maynard's new western film for First National. It is now being made by Director Albert Rogell for Charles R. Rogers. The story tells of the stringing of the first telegraph wires west of the Rockies.

Shoots Last Scene on "Carry on Sergeant"

The last scene of "Carry on Sergeant," the Canadian International Films, Ltd., production, was shot last Friday. The picture is now being edited and titled for an early fall release.

A Second Printing Was Necessary!

TO supply the orders of Exhibitors, Theatre Executives and Theatre Workers for the most comprehensive and authoritative work written on the subject, the publishers, George H. Doran Company, New York, has made a second printing of—

MOTION PICTURE THEATRE MANAGEMENT

By Harold B. Franklin

(President of West Coast Theatres, Inc., and leading theatre executive)

NOW

you too may obtain a copy of this monumental work dealing with every branch of the theatre and offering a carefully considered presentation of the theories and practices, tested by years of experience, making for the successful and profitable business method of running a motion picture theatre.

The author, Harold B. Franklin, is known throughout the industry as one of the most progressive and able theatre executives and showmen the picture theatre has developed, and one of the leading forces contributing to the advance which the motion picture playhouse has made from its "nickelodeon" beginning to the palatial community institution which the better theatre of today represents.

DON'T DELAY

The present supply of copies is by no means large enough to supply all those who eventually will want copies of this book, so prompt action is imperative if you want to be assured of a copy.

THE PRICE IS $5.

35 Chapters and 26 Illustrations* Tell You How—

To train and maintain an organization that will function smoothly in the running of your theatre.

To provide adequate safety methods.

To carry on systematic inspections.

To prepare a properly balanced budget.

To judge the effectiveness of advertising.

To purchase equipment and to Build Good Will.

Order Your Copy Today →

Use This Order Blank

MOTION PICTURE NEWS,
729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

Send me postpaid MOTION PICTURE THEATRE MANAGEMENT by Harold B. Franklin.
I enclose (check) (money order) for $5.00.

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

State .....

Conducted by
An Exhibitor for Exhibitors

BOX OFFICE PROBLEMS

By Charles E. Lewis
Managing Director, Capitol Theatre, Middletown, Conn., and Palace Theatre, Norwich, Conn.

THIS new department devoted to a discussion of the ways and means of building box office business and with particular emphasis on exploitation methods of practical and tested value to the smaller theatres, has already established a large following among showmen everywhere — as evidenced by the many expressions applauding the idea which have been received by this publication since the appearance last week of the first presentation of "Box Office Problems."

Since we intend the department to be a clearing-house for the best box office ideas of the day, we invite reports of ideas used and the opinions of all exhibitors. Send along your photo with your contributions.

Competing With Carnival Shows

Since we are finding ourselves right in the midst of the Circus and Carnival season it would perhaps be best to take advantage of that fact and use it for part of our little business boosting campaign.

As soon as the warm weather arrives, you are bound to hear many of the small town managers complaining that carnivals and circuses eat deep into their business. Now, since there is no way of stopping these summer activities, did it ever occur to you to tie up with these carnivals? Possibly you can work your theatre into some inexpensive advertising. Crying how bad business is going to be won't help the box office a bit. How do you like a suggestion of this kind: Reach the man in charge of the Carnival and offer to run a slide or a sign for him in the theatre, providing he will grant you the privilege of erecting a booth on the fair grounds. Nine out of ten times they will jump at the chance. We did exactly what we are now advising you to do. We erected an attractive booth and put two of our ushers there in their regular theatre uniforms, where they remained on duty handing out circulars and heralds. We also provided some chairs where folks who were tired could sit down and rest for a few minutes.

On the second day we started handing out special refund tickets good during the run of the Carnival (which lasted ten days) and strange to relate, over 70 per cent of these tickets were used during the Carnival. This not only helped business during a time when we expected it to be slack, but brought us many new patrons and our mailing list took an upward shot to the tune of over two hundred new names.

We tried the same idea with the first circus that came to town but they turned us down, so we fixed up a bally-hoo wagon with a few Boy Scout buglers and signs, joined the parade and kept the wagon busy around the circus grounds throwing heralds to the crowds. We did not fare so badly and business was only a little under par.

Boosting Local Events Pays

This same might be said of your various local functions such as the Police or Fireman's Ball and many others, which for business reasons are good to support.

Our local Police department was particularly well liked in the town and they were making arrangements for their annual ball. We volunteered to handle and furnish the entertainment for this affair and put a note in our program about it. Even our newspaper advertising for the two days prior to the ball carried a box at the bottom reading—"A Perfect Evening. Come to the C . . . . Theatre first—then go to the Police Ball."

We figured there was no use in sitting around and crying because lots of our patrons would go to the ball instead of to the theatre, so we made the best of it. The theatre received a lot of free publicity, plenty of praise for staging the entertainment and again, strange to relate, business was not nearly as bad as we were led to suspect it would be.

Meet and Beat Opposition

The point we are trying to drive home in relating these few incidents is this: Don't resign yourself to bad business and lay down just because a little opposition comes your way. Why not try to turn that opposition into a little business and capitalize on it as much as possible. Even if it don't bring business or help things during such affairs, at least it keeps your theatre's name before the public and that means something.

Follow Cities on Big Pictures

We wonder how many of our readers have given this next subject any great amount of consideration? It is something to think over.

Do you date your pictures in ahead or after the near-by big cities? Our emphatic advice is to play all the good pictures after the larger cities. That fine sounding phrase "Ahead of . . . city" will only bring you disappointments at the box office. We all know that folks in the smaller towns read the big city papers every day and if they are playing up a picture with an expensive advertising campaign in the papers, why not cash in on it by following them within a few weeks after they run the picture?

Give this suggestion a little thought and after a few experiments we are sure you will find our way better. We tried it both ways and would not try to play anything ahead of the big cities again on a bet.

Extending the Territory

Perhaps the most valuable source of revenue opened to the small town are the many small villages and communities laid out around every town and city. With trolley and bus service being used all over the country it actually brings these communities right to your door. In addition, most of the residents in the outlying sections have their own cars (Fords included) and a little drive into town is always in order if the incentive is provided.

Our first actual experience with these surrounding sections was on "Ben Hur." "Ours" was a theatre formerly run by one of the managers in "Mr. Jones" class. He took particular delight in telling us two weeks in advance just how much business we were going to do and then smilingly show us that he was right. But—Was he right? Not so far as subsequent experience has shown us.

In order that we might make a little profit on "Ben Hur" we had to do unusual business. Normal business would only have given us an even break and we can't pay dividends on "even breaks." So—we laid out a campaign that took in every little town and village, every community and farm house within a radius of almost 17 miles from where our theatre was located. Three days in advance of the showing of this picture we sent out crews of 10 boys in charge of one of our own ushers. These crews each took allotted sections of towns, etc., and made a house-to-house canvas with special circulars. Our own billposter and assistant took care of all the business sections of these small towns and villages with one sheets and window cards. We did not waste good advertising material in our own town because the theatre and local newspaper advertising could easily take care of that. But of one thing we were more than certain: that "17 mile radius" was covered completely and thoroughly. By the day the picture opened we were getting calls from points miles and miles away from our own town asking what time the picture goes on, etc.

(Continued on page 1694)

"Ben Hur" broke every known record, not only in our own house and town, but for practically the entire state.

This idea, worked on particularly big pictures, but not too often, will not only boost business for that picture but will bring out a class of trade more often than they have been accustomed to coming out.

We would like to see every manager in towns of the size that this department is working for, pick some picture, worthy of such an advertising campaign and try it out.

Small Town in Name and Fact

Someone once said to me: "What makes a small town small?" And I answered—"The small town manager." It is conceded that small town folks do go to the bigger cities very often. They visit them perhaps more often than we even dream of. While there, they most certainly go to one of the larger theatres and that is where they develop the idea that their own local theatre is "just a small town movie." It's all wrong. What do the big cities give, that we in the small town cannot give. You enter the theatre and a uniformed doorman takes your ticket. Why can't YOU have a uniformed doorman? Does the $25 or $35 cost of the uniform stand in your way? We don't believe so. They enter the theatre and a neat uniformed usher politely offers to find them a seat. Why can't YOU have a neat uniformed boy in an usher's outfit? The atmosphere of the theatre is clean and healthy, not because it costs twenty times the cost of your theatre, but because it is kept that way. And let the first man who can't run his place that way step forward and say so.

Here's the idea—Put your theatre on a "Big City" basis so far as operation is concerned. Don't, for God's sake, run your theatre like it was run ten or twenty years ago. Be modern—and be surprised to find that it don't cost any more than it does to do it the old-fashioned way.

If you have an assistant, put him in a cheap Tuxedo; if not, take an older usher and dress him that way. Let him make himself conspicuous on the floor where people can see him. Let him direct your usher or two or three, and have him greet your patrons with a pleasant good evening, and as they pass out of the theatre, let him single out some of those who look like good prospects and ask them how they liked the show. Within a few weeks you will be gratified to find that your theatre is the talk of the town. And it won't cost you any more than the way you are doing it now. Have your ushers always stand at attention when being addressed by a patron and ALWAYS give a polite reply, regardless of how they are addressed. It will count on the crowded nights, when keeping the patrons happy until there are seats—becomes a profitable matter.

In most cases you have nice theatres, good pictures, fair music and in fact every asset to compete with the big towns, but you don't use them. Brush up on your own business and run your theatre like a theatre and not like a "shooting gallery." It's dollars in the box office and that's what we are in business for. Right?

Turn to Pages 1719-24 in this issue.
There you will find

A New and Improved Release Chart

Arrangement of pictures is given by companies, following suggestions from a great number of exhibitors who prefer this form. Motion Picture News offers complete listing of releases; features, short subjects and coming attractions under the name of the distributor in each case.

This department is in line with the constant effort of Motion Picture News to provide

Better Service for Exhibitors

The Release Chart carries, as usual, information on players, footage and review dates. The Chart will cover, by next September, the listings of the complete season of 1927-28. At that time will appear the greatly enlarged

Booking Guide and Studio Directory

Thus, Motion Picture News gives to its exhibitor readers in complete and ready form, service of permanent value and picture information vital to the successful conduct of the theatre.

HOLLYWOOD

Lillian Gale
Staff Correspondent

Wm. McCormack
Western Representative

Ray Murray
Special Representative

Hollywood Office—6381 Hollywood Blvd— Phone Granite 3982.

Three Openings Arrive in One Week

Premieres of "Trail of '98" and "Drums of Love" Held; New Neighborhood House Opened Hollywood, May 12.

THREE openings in one week: On Monday, May 7th, Grauman's Chinese was the scene of action. The occasion was the premiere showing on the west coast of "Trail of '98." The usual crowds thronged the exterior of the theatre and the usual capacity audience graced the interior. Fred Niblo acted as master of ceremonies; the personal presentation of celebrities following the projection of the picture.

Again the motion picture first nighters turned out en masse on Tuesday, May 8th to pay homage to D. W. Griffith, the occasion being the opening of his production "Drums of Love," at United Artists Theatre.

Cecil B. DeMille, acting as master-of-ceremonies eulogized Griffith and said that his ideals had been the inspiration of all sincere workers in the industry.

"The motion picture owes more to Mr. Griffith," said Mr. DeMille, "than to any other individual or set of individuals ever associated with the art."

At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. DeMille presented D. W. with a gold engraved watch as a token of the industry's appreciation of his efforts. In a short speech of acceptance, Griffith thanked the industry and thereupon presented Charles Chaplin to the audience.

The third opening was that of The Filmarte Theatre, one that was formerly known as "The La Mirada," a neighborhood house, but which is now designed to present pictures that have not met with commercial acclaim, yet aspire to please patrons interested, primarily, in artistic endeavors.

Frank L. Newman, formerly identified with the Publix West Coast forces, is the new business manager of the Columbia Studio. A theatre owner in Kansas City, Mr. Newman later managed the Los Angeles Publix houses, including the Metropolitan Conceded the most elaborate film in prospect for the current season, is "Noah's Ark," Warner Brothers' most auspicious effort to date on which they stand ready to spend over a million dollars, and are spending it in substantial amounts, daily.

Construction of sets is said to surpass in magnitude and imposing detail any, yet devoted to film productions, and during the last two weeks from one to four thousand extra people have been enrolled.

More than two years of research and preparation were devoted to pre-production activities on "Noah's Ark," but since filming was begun, several weeks ago, Michael Curtiz has made gratifying progress and this week completed sequences which take place in the huge Biblical temple, the set in itself, a spectacle.

Many prominent names are already included in the cast headed by Dolores Costello and George O'Brien, for among the noted players are Noah Beery, Louise Fazenda, Paul McAllister, Nigel de Brulier, Anders Randolf, Armand Kaliz, Myrna Loy, William V. Mong and Malcolm Waite.

Anthony Coldewey is responsible for the scenario of Darryl Zanuck's original story and J. L. Warner, production executive has openly declared that every facility of the studio necessary, will be pressed into service in behalf of those concerned in the making of "Noah's Ark," augmented by Vitaphone.

* * *

Jesse L. Lasky, vice president of Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corp., returned to Hollywood last Thursday, from conventions of the company held in the East. He was accompanied by J. W. Butler, an official of the corporation. Mr. Lasky and Mr. Butler left last Sunday night for San Francisco where they will attend the third of the district sales conclaves. Lasky announced that Paramount planned to make 274 pictures during the coming year.

* * *

Edwin Carewe, surrounded by a staff of twenty, is shooting right along on "Revenge," his forthcoming United Artists picture, starring Dolores Del Rio. In addition to Wallace Fox and Richard Easton, acting as chief aide and first assistant, respectively, Mr. Carewe has engaged Dr. Alexander Arkatov, as technical advisor. Dr. Arkatov is slated as an authority on customs and costumes in the locale in which the story, adapted by Finis Fox from Konrad Bercovivi's colorful yarn originally entitled "The Bear Tamer's Daughter," is laid.

* * *

Production of "The Racket," Thomas Meighan's first starring vehicle under his new contract with Howard Hughes, President of The Caddo Company, began on April 1st, finished the first week in May and will be released next month by Paramount.

* * *

Members of the Caddo's troupe engaged in the making of "Hell's Angels," including the director-producer, Howard Hughes, the featured players, Ben Lyon and James Hall and Harry Perry, the cameraman, travel via aerial route daily to location twenty miles north of Hollywood.

* * *

Dorothy Dwan is playing the leading role in "Out With the Tide," a Charles Hutchinson production, at Metropolitan Studios. Cullen Landis will be seen in the masculine lead and the supporting cast includes Crauford Kent, Mitchell Lewis and Ernest Hilliard.

* * *

Fred Thomson and his troupe leave for Arizona and the Painted Desert on May 21 to film scenes for "Kit Carson." This is

(Continued on following page)

Screen Writers' Guild Elects Officers

OFFICERS of the Screen Writers' Guild have been elected for the forthcoming term as follows: Grant Carpenter, President; Joseph Farnham, Vice President; Ewart Adams, Secretary; Joseph Jackson, Treasurer.

New members of the Board of Directors are Malcolm Stuart Boylan, Al Cohn, Lloyd Corrigan, Jack Cunningham, Louise Long, Will Ritchey and Viola Brothers Shore.

Hollywood—Continued

Thomson's fourth and last picture on his present Paramount contract. He will use 600 Indians for the battle sequences. Al Werker will direct, with Douglas Dawson acting as business manager.

* * *

Bess Meredyth, when through with her adaptation of "War in the Dark," a Viennese-Russian story by Ludwig Wolff, ordered the ribbon changed on her trusty typewriter and is said to be writing a play.

* * *

Edmund Goulding, author, writer, director and sojourner to New York, wires that when he returns to Hollywood he will be accompanied by Al Woods, theatrical producer.

* * *

After completing "Dark Fire," which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer purchased as a vehicle for Ramon Novarro, Dorothy Farnum has been assigned the adaptation of "Stephen Tromholt's Wife," the Sudermann novel, conceded as an important purchase.

* * *

Two Alan Crosland pictures, each with Vitaphone accompaniment, are showing on local screens. One is "The Jazz Singer," at the Tower and the other, "Glorious Betsy," at Warner's new theatre.

* * *

Rod LaRocque and Pathe-DeMille will part company next month, according to report. LaRocque has not been satisfied with his stories and has asked for his release. Several companies are bidding for his services and it is likely he will transfer his make-up box to United Artists.

* * *

Lincoln Stedman, upon being signed to play the lead opposite Marjorie Beebe in "The Farmer's Daughter," a Fox production, directed by Arthur Rosson, left immediately to join the company in Santa Cruz, where exteriors are being filmed.

* * *

Admirers of George Hackathorne welcome the news that he has been signed for the title role of "The Stool Pigeon," from a story by Basil Dickey, which will be directed by Leigh Jason. Hackathorne has been contributing his talents to vaudeville since he completed work as the hunchback in Universal's "Merry-Go-Round."

* * *

Marion Nixon will leave Universal June 8. She will become a free lance at the conclusion of her contract.

* * *

Contrary to current rumor, Robert Edeson, who has returned to the free lance field following three years' association under DeMille contract, will not sign on any dotted line under stipulations embraced in long term agreements.

* * *

Members of "The River Pirate" company are on location at Pleasanton, a picturesque northern California village, where sequences of Charles Francis Coe's story are being filmed under direction of William K. Howard. Earle Foxe, whose first role as a screen "menace" in "Four Sons," has been widely acclaimed, will play the heavy in "The River Pirate," and Robert Perry, veteran screen player will be seen also.

Zane Grey, noted novelist, recently visited the set at the Paramount Studio in Hollywood, where his latest western story, "The Vanishing Pioneer," is being filmed. There Grey met director John Waters and the featured leading man, Jack Holt, and in company with them witnessed the projecting of scenes taken on location near Zion National Park, Utah.

* * *

The docks of San Francisco, the exterior of San Quentin prison and other points north will be used as backgrounds for "Me-Gangster," which Raoul Walsh is directing for Fox. Don Terry, a new face on the screen, is playing the boy and June Collyer, featured Fox player, the girl.

* * *

Lois Wilson is rehearsing in "The Queen's Husband," the second successive play in which she will appear on the Hollywood stage, opposite Edward Everett Horton, although it is reported that Miss Wilson has been signed by F B O for a starring role in a picture to be started within a week.

* * *

Work on William Beaudine's current First National production, "Heart to Heart," was interrupted by the director himself when he sprung a surprise party on Mary Astor, in honor of her birthday. The cast, invited to partake of refreshments on the set, formed an interesting group. It included Louise Fazenda, Thelma Todd, Raymond McKee, Aileen Manning and little Virginia Gray.

* * *

Funeral services were held last Thursday for the late Clara Williams famous screen and stage actress, and the wife of Reginald Barker, director. Mrs. Barker has been ill for some time, having recently undergone several critical operations. She will be remembered as a former star of the Thomas H. Ince Productions and played with such well known artists as H. B. Warner, Charles Ray, Louise Glaum and Dorothy Dalton. Her best known role was "Carmen of the Klondike." She married Barker at the height of her career, when he was directing for Ince.

* * *

Monta Bell, director for the past three years at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot, has resigned to become an independent producer. Bell has several stories which he will direct and produce on his own.

Columbia to Make Holt Film at $250,000 Cost

AS its initial production on the 1928-29 program, Columbia announces a special tentatively called "Out of the Depths," which is to be produced on an elaborate scale at a cost of $250,000 it is said. Jack Holt will appear in the leading role—that of the captain of a submarine—and will be directed by Irwin Willat. Norman Springer, who wrote "The Blood Ship," is author of the story. Winifred Dunn is preparing the continuity.

Anna Q. Nilsson fell from a horse last Wednesday and fractured her ankle. Miss Nilsson was to have started work this week in the stellar role of "Ned McCobb's Daughter" a DeMille-Pathe production. The story will be held up until she is able to walk again.

* * *

Nils Asther, whose first appearance of importance in an American made picture was in "Sorrell and Son," has had little time for else but work in the past six months. During this period he has played the leading male roles in "Rachel," for Paramount; "The Blue Danube," DeMille-Pathe, and in "Laugh, Clown, Laugh," appeared in the leading juvenile role in support of Lon Chaney. His ability being recognized, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer assumed his original contract with United Artists for one year and Asther's most recent assignment is the lead opposite Marion Davies in "Her Cardboard Lover."

* * *

Lucien Prival has just completed a featured role in "The Racket" and upon strength of his performance, his contract with First National was taken over by Caddo in order that Prival might appear in the heavy role of "Hell's Angels."

* * *

Joseph Franklin Poland, supervising editor of feature comedies for Universal, and Matt Taylor, have completed "The Cohens and Kellys in Atlantic City," another sequel to the joint activities of the families headed, in picture versions, by George Sidney and Charlie Murray. Matt is writing the continuity.

* * *

The selection of May McAvoy for the featured feminine role in "The Terror," has been confirmed by Jack Warner, who, at the same time, announced that the picturization of this stage success was to be made as one of the biggest specials on Warner's future program. Roy Del Ruth, who will direct, is selecting his cast, while Harvey Gates is writing the screen version of the Edgar Wallace play.

* * *

Betty Blythe, whose laurels are not confined to beauty, but whose voice has also won her much acclaim, has been assigned the coveted role of the opera star in "War in the Dark."

* * *

And Betty Bronson will have the leading feminine role in "The Singing Fool," which Graham Baker is adapting from a stage play by Leslie S. Barrows.

* * *

F. W. Murnau, the director of "Sunrise," has established a reputation for doing the unusual. In making his most recently completed production, "The Four Devils," he shot every scene excepting one under a studio roof and was on location during the filming of the picture just four hours for one day. Murnau's next assignment is "Our Daily Bread," a story which combines the play, "The Mud Turtle," in which Mary Duncan will play the lead.

A group of four newspaper displays exploiting "Tenderloin" with Vitaphone Accompaniment. The reproductions above show the form of advertising used by Neth's Grand, at Columbus, O., represented with two displays each of two-column size; the Apollo at Indianapolis, with a three-column display, and the Rialto in Dallas. The Rialto ad was two columns wide.

Classified Ads

RATES: 10 cents a word for each insertion, in advance except Employment Wanted, on which rate is 5 cents

Situations Wanted

ORGANIST, versatile, competent, desires change of city. Union. Complete library. Eight years experience. Straight picture policy preferred. Address Box 351, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

ORGANISTS and SINGERS, thoroughly trained and experienced in theatre work. Men and women now ready for good positions. Union or nonunion. Write salary, and other data. Address, Chicago Musical College, 64 E. Van Buren, Chicago.

A-1 Male Organist at liberty. Wurlitzer specialist. Organist, 1112 Lee St., Charleston-Ka., W. Va.

ORGANIST. AAA references from theatres that count. Exceptional opportunity to secure well known musician of uncommon ability. Investigate. Box 315, care of Motion Picture News, New York City.

PROJECTIONIST UNION. Young man with broad experience in motion picture projection desires position. Capable, can make good anywhere. Address Box 346, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York.

Experienced Projectionist. Single. Go anywhere. Write or wire. Carr Hilburn, Bladenboro, North Carolina.

For Sale

FOR SALE — Five year lease finest negro theatre in State. Seats 600, fully equipped. Address Harton & Hurton, 5001 15th Street, Tampa, Fla.

FOR SALE—Marlowe Theatre, Buffalo, N. Y. 750 seats, $45,000. $12,000 cash required. For details write David Krieger, 257 Virginia Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

FOR SALE: Corporation operating chain of six theatres in towns of 2,000 to 7,000 population. Will sell all or part. Inquire Box 323, care Motion Picture News, 729 7th Ave., New York City.

FOR SALE 1,100 secondhand, veneer theatre chairs in first-class condition at $1.10 per chair. Address, Box 425, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York.

FOR SALE: 700 upholstered opera chairs, $2.25 each; 600, $2.75 each; 500, $2.50 each; 1,000 veneer chairs, price $1.25 each. Good serviceable condition. Can be seen on request. Box 425, Motion Picture News, 729 7th Avenue, New York City.

Theatre Wanted

THEATRE WANTED.—Country Town or Suburban, will lease or buy. Give particulars. H. R. W., 8 Downing Ave., Dowingtown, Pa.

WANTED — Two Experienced Theatre Managers as FOURTH OWNERS to locate as resident associates. One in Ohio City, other in New York State. Full particulars with Bank References upon request. Address Ross A. McAvoy, 252 Lafayette Ave., Geneva, N. Y.

Exploit Lindbergh Film

Three-Reel Feature Receives Strong Advertising Support at First Run Theatres Over Country

IT is rarely that a short feature receives the extensive exploitation support from theatre men that has been accorded local showings of "40,000 Miles With Lindbergh." Of course, it is not usual for the theatre men to have a subject that lends itself to popular interest as this picture presenting a compilation of scenes taken in the United States, Europe and South America. However, a theatre cannot keep going on the "cream" that comes along once and a while for the exploitation man, and there is needed more energy, more originality and more interest by the exploitation men in the matter of giving the right kind of support to short features, if the picture houses are to fully capitalize their potential drawing cards. The result of all the excellent exploitation that has been accorded "40,000 Miles with Lindbergh" was reflected in the check-up on leading attractions for the month from March 15 to April 15 as presented in the Theatre Attendance Analysis published in The Showman for May, in which this three-reeler was rated among the prominent key city attractions for the period reported.

Two recent campaigns staged for the picture illustrate the vigorous method in which showmen supported their presentations, and indicate the variety and extent of cooperative exploitation that has been accomplished. These campaigns were put on in Toledo, Ohio, by Manager Len Grotte of the Valentine theatre, and in Dallas, by Manager James O. Cherry of the Melba.

Cherry's drive was a combination campaign exploiting "The Smart Set" and "40,000 Miles With Lindbergh."

Ten days in advance all paper posted on "The Smart Set" was sniped with an announcement of the extra added attraction, "Forty Thousand Miles With Lindbergh."

Trailer Week in Advance

One week in advance a special trailer was run on the film calling attention to the fact that the attraction was a complete chronicle of Lindbergh's exploits. One week in advance a newspaper campaign was started. This consisted of underlining the "Smart Set" and other current attraction ads. Special stories were secured a Sunday in advance of play date, and special photo layouts, one three-column and one four-column layout, were secured. Also special stories were secured during the week prior to play date.

Due to Col. Lindbergh visiting Dallas enroute to the coast to secure his new plane, on the second day of play date, the newspaper extras the opening day of play date carried the scare-line "Lindy coming here" and this gave a natural plug. The Monday papers carried special photos of his arrival in Dallas, Sunday, together with a page one story.

A special cooperative hook-up was effected with the United States Post Office in Dallas through the cooperation of Postmaster Philp. He permitted the use of a 22 x 28 card in two colors—one on each side of every post office motor truck in service in Dallas. These numbered sixty-five.

Arrangement was also made through Postmaster Philp for an aeroplane delivery of the film presumably from Chicago by a National Air Transport plane. A special trailer showing the arrival of the print was shown three days in advance of playdate.

A special tie-up was effected with the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Recruiting Stations, whereby permission was given to use the A Boards of these offices posted with a special one-sheet regarding Lindbergh's army training. Two hundred of these boards were posted.

Newspaper Tie-Up

A special tie-up was effected with the Circulation department of the Dallas News and Journal. The news boys (street sales) on all the downtown corners wore a special Lindbergh novelty cap over-printed with theatre name and play date. This was quite an effective stunt opening day, as the Newsies were yelling "Extra, Lindy Coming Here."

A marble contest was tied-up to the publicity on the short feature, when it played at the Valentine Theatre, Toledo.

Owing to the fact that the News-Bee was in the midst of its annual marble tournament, it was necessary to tie-in with the contest in order to get special publicity on the picture. Hence arrangements were made to give participants in the Marble Contest a special showing on Saturday, the opening day, sponsored by the newspaper. In addition, pictures of Lindbergh were carried for ten days on eight trucks employed by the newspaper. Large posters and cut-outs were used in lobby, and the entire electric sign over the marquee was devoted to the Lindbergh picture.

Nautical Display Exploits "Across to Singapore"

A window display of historic interest, suggested by the period in which the photoplay is set, did a great deal to augment the success of "Across to Singapore," when that picture played at the Warfield Theatre, San Francisco, Cal. The display was arranged by the manager of the theatre, assisted by a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exploiteer.

A display of photos of old windjammers, the logs of several old ships, a quadrant and sextant, together with the bell from famous clipper "Young America," and her chronometer and clock, was secured in the Merchants Exchange, linked with stills, etc., to the picture and theatre.

Showmanship

Briefs

THE personal endorsement message frequently has been used for newspaper and direct mail advertising with good effect, and now the same idea has been applied successfully to an advance screen trailer. This method of announcing an attraction was adopted by Manager Grant Pemberton, of Pantages theatre, Salt Lake City, in connection with his campaign for "The Crowd." Pemberton tied-up the trailer message with all other advertising by stressing the fact that this was the first instance in which he personally endorsed a picture.

HAROLD H. WERNER, manager of the Central theatre, Cedarhurst, N. Y., had a real "Patent Leather Kid" as a ballyhoo for his showing of the Barthelmess picture of that title. Werner's stunt was a street worker, a young man, dressed in clothes made of a high grade black oil cloth, which had a brilliant, glossy finish and resembled patent leather. The man carried a sign on his back announcing the attraction and play dates. This stunt, which Werner reports as most profitable from the box office standpoint, cost only ten dollars, the cost of making the "patent leather" suit.

THE Pennsylvania theatre controlled by the Harris Amusement Company, of Pittsburgh, are planning a statewide tournament for amateur dancers in which cash prizes will be awarded to the winners. John Meerbaugh and Miss Margaret Royer, of Altoona, who recently won a dancing contest in the Harris-Majestic theatre, Johnstown, subsequently won fifth prize in a national dancing contest held in Chicago, in which dancers from thirty cities competed. They received handsome gold medals and a motion picture of their dance was taken.

A MOST elaborate campaign for the showing of the Vitaphone production "The Jazz Singer" at Atlanta featuring a tie-up with the Southern railway in which the Southern railway put on special excursions, offering both two day and six day rates was staged in the interests of "The Jazz Singer" in Atlanta. This cooperative drive, patterned after a campaign at Omaha and reported in this department, offered out-of-town theatregoers special excursion rates to Atlanta on railroads feeding that city from out-of-town communities.

IN connection with the showing of "Red Hair" at the West Coast California Manager H. L. Hartman distributed cash prizes to the three red-headed girls who were acclaimed by the audiences as the best out of a field of some forty. The prizes were $25, $15 and $10, and as it happened the first went to Hazel Henry, 11, attending grammar school, while the second went to a high school girl and the third to a State College student, the successful contestants thus representing three different grades of educational institutions.

IF you saw a parade of Hupmobiles, each topped with a girl sitting on the hood resting her silk clad legs on the mud guard, you'd give more than a casual look, wouldn't you? So did everyone in San Diego, California, when Harry L. Hartman, resident manager of the Fairmount Theatre, staged this stunt during the run of "Silk Stockings."

Exhibitor's Ideas Adopted by Distributor

It is not unusual for a theatre man to adopt the ideas suggested in press books issued by distributors, but the occurrence where a distributor adopts an exhibitor's exploitation to national exploitation is less frequent, despite the fact that many highly ingenious campaign inventions are introduced by showmen. The reversal of the order of things, however, has been made in the case of some special star exploitation for Glenn Tryon pictures by Universal.

This week the company announced that an exploitation stunt used by Manager Robert Bender of the Columbia theatre in Seattle, has been applied on a national basis. The stunt consists of a "Glenn-Tryon Bag of Tricks."

The idea was used by Manager Bender in connection with his exploitation for Tryon's latest picture and consisted of a bag of magic tricks given out as premiums to those attending showings of the picture. Universal has prepared a bag containing seven sleight of hand tricks bearing an advertising line to boost this star.

Tieup with Public Library Exploits "The Enemy"

Tie-ups with the public library were one of the means employed by Manager William Shirley of the State Theatre, Schenectady, N. Y., to publicize a showing of "The Enemy." Shirley was assisted by an M-G-M Exploiteer.

A tie-up was arranged, both with the Public Library and the Renting Reader Library, and three thousand book-markers were used. In the Public Library, the theatre was able to make a small display on the librarian's desk with books, a window card and stills.

Puts Headlights on Cutout of Locomotive Display

Manager F. J. Miller used a lobby display in the form of a locomotive to advertise "The Night Flyer" at the Publix Modjeska Theatre, Augusta, Ga.

The locomotive was cut out from the 24-sheet and then a large headlight was placed on it as were two small lights on each side.

This display was used in the foyer of the theatre one week in advance of play dates and then moved to the outer lobby.

Close Stanley's Season of Children Matinees

THE Department of Public Service and Education of the Stanley Company of America has closed the season in Philadelphia, during which more than 100,000 children attended special Saturday morning performances in ten of the Stanley theatres in that city. Mrs. Walter Willard, chairman of the Motion Picture Committee of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, cooperated with Harry D. Wescott, associate director of the Public Service and Education Department of the company, in bringing an entertaining and highly educational type of pictures to the children. Films were furnished gratis by Pathe and the U. S. Department of Education.

Noise from Boiler Room Supplies Accompaniment to Dance at Roxy

THE Roxy symphony orchestra steps aside in favor of the dynamo and turbine engines of the theatre's boiler room to supply the accompaniment to a dance which is one of the features of the current program at the big Cathedral of the Motion Picture. This innovation is the realization of a new ideal in the dance—freedom from the conventions which these long years have "shackled" the art, which once upon a time was deemed to be wedded to music.

The dance presentation is introduced by Eugene Von Grona, a German dancer who is an exponent of a new school of dancing "in which definite technique is abandoned for the natural movements of the body."

The dance is called "The Spirit of Labor" and is interpreted solely to an accompaniment of factory noises. In the interests of greater realism these noises are achieved by connecting microphones on the stage with the power plant of the theatre itself and the actual noises of the engines in the cellar of the Roxy are heard by the audience.

Gets Visiting Opera Stars to Endorse "Ramona" Film

WHAT ordinarily would be considered a strong competing attraction, was turned to advertising capital for the presentation of a motion picture through an ingenious stroke of showmanship introduced in Cleveland by M. A. Malaney, manager of the Stillman theatre there, in connection with his presentation of "Ramona."

The annual visit to Cleveland of the Metropolitan Opera Company occurred at the time Malaney was showing the Del Rio starring vehicle at the Stillman. As a means of tying up with the popular interest in the Opera troupe, the manager gave a special preview of "Ramona" for stars of the company visiting Cleveland. At the conclusion of the showing, Malaney obtained from several of the leading singers expressions of praise for the picture. These statements complimentary to the picture and its star were used as advertising copy in a series of ads for "Ramona." Such stars as Queena Mario, Julia Claussen, Arnold Tokatyan, Giovanni Martinelli and Frederick Jagel, were quoted as endorsing the Stillman attraction.

Another campaign of note staged in behalf of "Ramona" was put on in Atlanta, Ga., by Manager Ernest Morrison of the Howard theatre. Among the leading features of the campaign was a newspaper co-operative stunt in which Miss del Rio started the first run of the film at the Howard by pushing a button at the studio in Los Angeles, the action being reproduced by telephoto and the resulting photograph being published in the newspaper along with a picture of the projection booth interior taken as the signal was received from the coast.

An extraordinary window flash was obtained through dealers in the Feist song and in Victor, Brunswick and Columbia records. A newspaper ran a contest with prizes for the best new chorus to the song "Ramona."

The theatre also flashed a night display on a large building with a stereopticon and a stenciled slide announcing "Ramona" as the current attraction. A library tie-up, a Ford car tie-up, and a dozen other stunts marked this engagement for the picture.

Introduces New Organist With Feature Exploitation Drive

AN extensive campaign such as is usually given to an exceptional picture was accorded to Francis Farney, the "new idea organist" at the Colorado Theatre, Pueblo, Colo.

Three weeks in advance of Farney's presiding at the organ, one-inch teasers were used and carried right on through to his opening appearance.

The Pueblo Chieftain carried a cartoon coloring contest showing Farney seated at the organ. This contest was especially meant for the younger folks and the ones sending in the best 'coloring jobs' according to the findings of the judges were awarded suitable prizes.

Announcement of Farney's coming was shown on the screen by a special trailer; in the foyer on two art one-sheets; 25 merchants' windows carried special welcome cards; all music stores carried insert frames with special copy and a photograph of the man; one cafe had a "Francis Farney New Idea Sandwich" and another a "Francis Farney New Idea Sundae."

At the opening baseball game of the season, a Western Union boy went all through the crowd calling, "Telegram for Francis Farney."

100 cut-out discs, mounted on wooden blocks were placed on top of cash registers about the city and 1000 automobile stickers reading, "Welcome Farney" were pasted on as many auto windshields.

All in all the campaign was such as to make Farney the talk of the city.

Key City Reports

New York City

GOOD motoring weather and daylight saving, thoughts of bungalows and beach resorts are beginning to get in their annual wallop to all indoor attractions with the result that gas stations, real estate dealers, concessionnaires and the owners of such enterprises as the Holland tunnel are commanding a considerable share of the public's attention. The seasonal decline is generally anticipated by most all theatre owners and signs of added strength to programs are already evident along Broadway. Heavier advertising, strong attractions and giving the needle to the presentations usually helps to overcome competition from the outdoor field.

Probably the biggest noise along the Street came along the latter part of the week when Paul Ash, the much heralded Chicago maestro, made his debut at the Paramount. Criticism, aimed at the "Genial Giant of Jazz" by certain members of this trade and local newspaper reviewers, seems to reveal a tendency, on the part of most of them, to have been all set to pounce on the popular bandmaster who has worked his way from coast to coast through sheer force of theatre personality. These writers' reviews appeared to reflect their disappointment over the fact that they had to pay Mr. Ash any tribute at all. It is our opinion that he will click strongly with Paramount audiences.

Last week's film at the Paramount was "Easy Come, Easy Go" with Richard Dix and while attendance was somewhat under average, due to conditions mentioned in the first paragraph, the house did fair enough. The Capitol, with its holdover of "Across to Singapore," was not quite as lucky as the gate dropped off quite a bit from the preceding week's good business. The Strand seems to be in a slump and not even an entertaining comedy like "The Big Noise" (F. N.) was capable of snapping this house out of its recent slow pace. The new stage units lately inaugurated at the Strand are receiving scant praise.

The Rialto finished with Griffith's "Drums of Love" and the Rivoli let go of "Speedy" after five weeks. Not too much was expected of the Griffith picture after a run at the Liberty and while a sixth week may have been planned for "Speedy," each succeeding week saw a consistent drop in gross and "Ramona" followed in. All in all, Lloyd's latest did pretty fair. It was simply a case of over-estimating the length of the run. Reports from outside will parallel the performance at the Rivoli.

The Roxy came back slightly last week—just slightly, with Fox's "The Escape." The Summer months may tell the story of the big Fox house—whether rather mediocre program pictures coupled with a strong Rothafel presentation will be enough to show a reasonable profit. The nut on the Roxy is said to be between $85,000 and $90,000.

The smaller theatres with the larger prices also felt the general conditions, practically all of them taking one on the chin. M-G-M's "The Trail of '98," up until the past week has been doing four-fifths capacity and this may be put down as strong. Paramount's "Wings" was also under average but there can be no real kick on this. Fox's "Street Angel" can also be classed among the stronger ones but this, too, felt the depression. The Vitaphoned "Glorious Betsy" did fair enough at Warners, indicating the interest in the "Talkies."

There seems to be no doubt that "Abie's Irish Rose" is getting a raw deal from the theatre-going folks and we advanced our reasons for this in these columns last week. We might add that a different sign on the marquee might improve things somewhat. It reads: "Anne Nichols' Abie's Irish Rose"—perhaps creating an impression that its the old legit show back again. And it's playing across the river right now. The Central is doing well enough with Universal's "The Man Who Laughs" and about the same may be said of "Four Sons" at the Gaiety. Nothing much can be said about "Mother Machree" at the Times Square. Its just there. The Cameo had a fair week with "The Raider Emden" (Columbia).

Seattle

MODERATELY good business is all that was claimed by the picture houses of Seattle last week, with no particularly sensational box office attractions.

"The Patsy," at the Seattle theatre, attracted average good houses, but this theatre still suffers in gross because of the lack of matinee business. The picture was well received, and, coupled with a Publix stage show entitled "Dancing Feet," it played to pleasing business.

At the Fifth Avenue theatre, "Circus Rookies" was the attraction. It was not as strong a box office bet as other Dane-Arthur films have been, but was satisfactory. Eddie Peabody was featured for his last week of the five-week engagement as master of ceremonies, and also pulled his share of business. 'Fanchon-Marco's "Jazzical Trial" idea was the stage show, and was quite acceptable. Total gross about average.

"The Jazz Singer," in the second week of its return engagement at the Blue Mouse theatre, played to very good houses, and still showed that it was the strongest box office film ever shown at this house, and seldom equalled anywhere. The two weeks were very good, considering the record-breaking engagement of six weeks just a couple of months ago.

At the United Artists theatre, "The Patent Leather Kid" took a slight drop in its second week. The opening week of the film was very satisfactory, but the following seven days were considerably lower in gross, and brought the total run down noticeably. A good picture because of its local interest in filming, but not particularly strong for a two-week engagement at a big house.

"We Americans," at the Columbia theatre, was a slightly stronger film than other recent "U" attractions have been, and added exploitation and advertising succeeded in building up the house's gross a bit. Good for one week of rather good business, in spite of previous slack reports.

"The Summer Hero," at the Orpheum, and "Square Crooks," at the Pantages, were average attractions, but not big money getters.

"Upstream," at the Embassy, was a well received film.

"West of Broadway," at the Palace Hip theatre, and "Red Riders of Canada," at the Winter Garden, were mediocre attractions.

Altogether, a fairly quiet week, reflecting general business conditions in the Pacific Northwest.

Los Angeles

"WINGS" closed at the Biltmore after a successful engagement of 18 weeks. The picture was originally scheduled to play 8 weeks, but because of its reception with the public it was held over for an extended run.

At the Criterion "Sunrise" is holding up very well. The theare is also featuring the Movietone and Pat Rooney and Marion Bent in "Shamrocks."

"The Good-Bye Kiss" proved to be a disappointment for the Million Dollar. Bebe Daniels in "The 50-50 Girl" got away to a good start and carried on satisfactorily throughout the week. Ann Pennington appeared in person on the bill. She also proved a good drawing card for Loew's State.

Pola Negri in "Three Sinners" at the Metropolitan played to good business.

Satisfactory attendance is reported for the week for "Street Angel" at the Carthay Circle Theatre. "Glorious Betsy" at Warner's Theatre in Hollywood continues to draw big business.

"The Trail of '98" opened last week at Grauman's Chinese, and reports of the first few days show normal receipts.

Good attendance is reported for "Drums of Love," which opened this week at United Artists Theatre.

The Filmarte Theatre, under the direction of Miss Regge Doran, formerly of New York City, opened its doors to the public this week, with the premiere showing of "The Golden Clown." This theatre, sponsored by West Coast-Hollywood Theatres, Inc., will present productions which have not found their way into regular motion picture theatres, but at the same time warrant showing because of their merit from an artistic standpoint. The admission prices are 75 cents and $1.00. Satisfactory business has been reported for the first few days.

Buffalo

ALL existing box-office records at the Lafayette Theatre went to smash last week when "Tenderloin," the talking picture, packed 'em in like they haven't been packed in for many, many months. So general was the response of the public that it was decided to hold the picture over for another week's run. The picture, starring Dolores Costello and Conrad Nagel, shattered all records at the Lafayette, the opening days surpassing the mark set by Valentino's last picture, "The Son of the Sheik." A fair vaudeville bill supported this feature film.

Shea's Buffalo also rang up some excellent box-office receipts, with one of the finest all-around bills ever shown at this house. "Legion of the Condemned" was the film, and "Hey, Hey!" was the Publix revue that set the theatregoers by the ears.

The Great Lakes recorded some excellent patronage with "Why Sailors Go Wrong" on the screen and a classy vaudeville program headlining Roger Imhof and Marcelle Coreene and company in a comedy, "In a Pest House." Loew's got satisfactory results from a strong stage and screen bill, with Lon Chaney in "Laugh, Clown, Laugh" as the film, and Lieut. Gitz-Rice featuring the vaudeville bill.

Sheas Hippodrome chalked up splendid box-office results with "Stand and Deliver" on the screen and an elephant act heading a varied stage bill.

Neighborhood houses reported normal business.

Philadelphia

DAYLIGHT saving has not affected business in Philadelphia as seriously as expected. The Stanley Company houses as a whole are doing better business than during the corresponding period of daylight saving last year. Other important chains in the city report a similar condition.

William Haines in "The Smart Set," with an elaborate stage presentation "Around the Clock," in which Allan Rogers again acted as master of ceremonies, showed good box office results at the Stanley.

The Fox had George O'Brien and Estelle Taylor in "Honor Bound" on the screen, and a stage show consisting of Juan Sebastian and his Guatemala Marimba Band, Addison Fowler and Florence Tamara, dancers, Emil Boreo and the Abbey Sisters.

The Carman showed "Bare Knees on the screen and a bright and snappy "Song and Dance Revue" that drew satisfactory attendance all week.

Harold Lloyd in "Speedy at the Stanton still continues to draw the crowds. The action is swift and entertaining, and proves that a good comedy is always a good box-office attraction.

"Street Angel," with Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, at the Fox Locust has achieved great success and will continue there for several weeks more.

"The Legion of the Condemned," a sequel to "Wings," with a splendid cast, completed its second week at the Aldine with a fine record.

"The Big City," with Lon Chaney, had rather a disappointing week at the Karlton. The opinion seemed to be that this is not quite up to the Chaney standard.

At the Arcadia, Pola Negri in "Three Sinners" played to average business.

The Palace reports satisfactory results with Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle in "Wickedness Preferred."

Greta Garbo in "The Divine Woman" drew a good share of patronage for the Capitol.

Atlanta

REOPENING with Vitaphone and Movietone, the Rialto Theatre last week leaped far ahead of the other houses with the showing of "Tenderloin," its initial offering of Vitaphone pictures.

The other theatres fell into about an equal split.

Keith's Georgia, with Adolphe Menjou in "A Night of Mystery," proved popular, while next door, at the Capitol, "Honor Bound," with George O'Brien and Estelle Taylor, was likewise liked.

Richard Barthelmess in "The Noose" did not draw the houses anticipated. Not the picture's fault, but business conditions generally.

At Loew's Grand, Rene Adoree and Lionel Barrymore played to fair houses in "Body and Soul."

"The Port of Missing Girls" brought only a mediocre box-office for the Metropolitan.

The Tudor held its own with "Beyond London's Lights," "Sky High Saunders," and "Slingshot Kid."

One first run, "The Return of Peter Grimm," and four second runs brought the New Alamo its usual good week.

Indianapolis

RECEIPTS at Indianapolis theatres were only fair the past week, although first-run houses managed to show a little profit for the week. The weather was ideal for good picture business, somewhat bolstering business, which has been off for several weeks. Exhibitors over the State generally report business bad, due to unemployment.

The Indiana offered "The Latest From Paris," and found results from this showing satisfactory. Charlie Davis' stage band continues to hold Indiana crowds.

Gloria Swanson in "Sadie Thompson" did moderately well at Loew's Palace, and Richard Barthelmess in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," was accorded fair patronage at the Circle. Dave Silverman, of Louis, guest conductor of the Circle orchestra, drew heavily.

Monte Blue and Belle Bennett in "The Bush Leaguer" was the feature at the Ohio, and was very well attended.

Tom Wilson and Heinie Conklin, in "Ham and Eggs at the Front," with Movietone and Vitaphone vaudeville, enjoyed a good gross for the week at the Apollo.

Stuart Walker's stock at Keith's and Berkell players at English's drew heavily from movies. Good advance sale for Walker's opening week.

Baltimore

ALTHOUGH the attendance at the races here is eating into the patronage of moving picture theatres to some extent, generally speaking the week beginning, Monday, May 7, was a fairly good one at the first-run houses.

At the Keith-Albee New Garden prices were lowered to meet those of the regular movie houses and, with "San Francisco Nights," starring Percy Marmont, business was good with seven acts of Keith-Albee high class vaudeville on the same bill.

At Keith's Hippodrome, where five acts of Keith-Albee family time vaudeville is given with a feature picture, the attraction was "Night Life," featuring Alice Day and Johnny Harron. Business throughout the week there was fairly good.

The Little Theatre, operated by the Motion Picture Guild, Inc., went along with good business with "The Treasure," a foreign production featuring Werner Krauss.

But the high mark in good attendance for the week was grabbed off by Loew's Valencia, where "Laugh, Clown, Laugh," starring Lon Chaney, was given its world premiere for the public, and pulled wonderfully during the entire week.

At Loew's Century "Easy Come, Easy Go," starring Richard Dix, proved a fairly good patron getter with a presentation act entitled "Swanee Moon" with Ted Claire and other vaudeville favorites.

The Stanley went along pretty good also with "The Shepherd of the Hills," featuring Alec B. Francis with Molly O'Day, and a presentation act called "In Bermuda," with Sammy Kaufman, and other vaudeville headliners.

"Ham and Eggs at the Front," with Tom Wilson, Heinie Conklin, Myrna Loy and Noah Young in blackface, proved a fairly good patronage getter at Warners' Metropolitan with Vitaphone accompaniment and other Vitaphone acts.

Honor Bound" did not go over so good, at the New Theatre, with George O'Brien, Estelle Taylor and Leila Hyams in the featured parts. This might be attributed to the subject of the film rather than to the way it was acted and directed.

Des Moines

"THE GARDEN OF EDEN," at the Des Moines, where the Vitaphone pictures continue to draw well, played to a very good week. The sudden warmth in the midweek had a decided effect on business, but did not cut business so badly but that the week's run was good.

At the Capitol Theatre "Across to Singapore" was the feature, with a very good stage show, with Casey Jones, fill-in personality man, making a good record. His songs were enthusiastically applauded, while the jugglers almost stopped the show.

At the Strand, "Burning Daylight," with Milton Sills, also made a good record. This theatre, however, always does well, due to the price reduction there.

Minneapolis

THE best picture shown in Minneapolis last week, "The Showdown," did not do as well as it deserved to do at the box-office. This excellent film, which featured George Bancroft and Evelyn Brent, was shown at the State, but did only a fair business. "Harold Teen" was the film attraction at the new Minnesota, where it played to good houses. The fact that the comic strip, "Harold Teen," runs in The Minneapolis Journal, undoubtedly helped this picture some. The Publix stage unit attraction at the Minnesota was Boris Petroff's revue, "Tick Tock."

Pantages gave "Honor Bound" the advantage of some good advertising and, although the critics did not seem to think this film was a knockout, it seemed to please the patrons of the theatre. Norma Shearer in "The Latest from Paris" did a fair business at the Strand, and Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle in "Wickedness Preferred" ran about the average at the Lyric. The Hennepin-Orpheum found a "Midnight Madness" a nice picture to top off its vaudeville program with, at the Seventh Street Theatre Hoot Gibson was attracting the western fans in "A Trick of Hearts."

The Grand showed "Legion of the Condemned," which was seen a few weeks ago at the Strand, and this picture retained much of its box-office kick.

Business was fair to good at the neighborhood houses, with the Lagoon, American, Lyndale and Loring showing such pictures as "Two Flaming Youths," "Sorrell and Son," "Rich Men's Sons," and "The Spotlight."

The movies received their stiffest competition from the Shubert, where Clara Kimball Young was appearing in person with the Bainbridge Players in "The Constant Wife." Hundreds of movie fans flocked to the Shubert during the week, and the cinema theatres suffered to just that extent.

Chicago

DAYLIGHT SAVING, which became effective the first of the month, has failed to help matters in Chicago, and business straight down the line in all classes of houses, was only fair.

The Chicago Theatre, which was holding its annual "Take A Chance Week," fell off somewhat the first two days, and in Tuesday's ads announced "Easy Come, Easy Go" with Richard Dix as the feature, and a stage bill, business for the rest of the week showing some improvement. "Laugh, Clown, Laugh," was in its last week at McVickers' Theatre, and continued to do fairly well.

"The Fifty-Fifty Girl" was the screen attraction at the Oriental and, Kosloff, as guest conductor, headed a stage show. Attendance being somewhat below the standard set by the Oriental during Ash's regime at this house.

The Roosevelt continued to do average business with "We Americans," which was in the last week of its run.

Both the Granada and Marbro Theatres featured Dolores Costello and Conrad Nagel in "Tenderloin," advertised as the first talking motion picture. At the Granada, Kaley's stage band headed the program and at the Marbro, popular Benny Meroff led, attendance at both houses holding up very well.

"The Big City" and elaborate stage show accounted for the average box office receipts at the Uptown and, at the Tivoli, the same feature with Benny Kreuger and his orchestra and Henry A. Keates as guest organist, pulled good business.

A comedy program, "The Cohens and the Kellys in Paris," went over well at the Avalon, and a crook melo, "Chicago," at the Capitol, again proved itself a good local box office attraction.

Dallas

RECEIPTS at the Dallas first-run theatres were only fair for the past seven days, with only one enjoying unusually good business. However, no one was complaining, as a profit was shown and big business was not expected, due to the first real warm week of spring weather.

The Majestic, showing "Soft Living," with Madge Bellamy, registered the largest gross, and the totals for the week were exceptionally good. Babe Egan and her Hollywood Redheads headed the vaudeville bill, and received an unusually good reception, which was well earned.

"The Latest From Paris," with Norma Shearer at the Melba, secured only a fair patronage, but the figures for the week were on the safe side of the ledger. This was the second non-synchronized feature offered by the Melba using the vitaphone.

At the Palace, "Easy Come, Easy Go," with Richard Dix and Nancy Carroll, brought an average week's business, and received favorable comment.

The Capitol Theatre was closed the greater part of the week, due to the death of Simon Charninsky, owner and manager, who passed away after a two-hour illness on Tuesday, May 8th. The Capitol reopened Friday, May 11th.

At the Old Mill, "Wickedness Preferred," with Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle, checked up only fair receipts for the seven-day run.

At the Arcadia, Clara Bow in "Red Hair," "Old San Francisco," with Dolores Costello, and "Old Ironsides," brought that theatre another good weekly gross.

Milwaukee

BUSINESS in the down-town theatres continued at its usual steady gait last week, bringing in average returns at practically all the houses. The great enthusiasm with which Gilda Gray in "The Devil Dancer" was greeted last week at the Davidson warranted her remaining here for another week. The theatre continued to crowd them in this second week. The Riverside continued to draw good houses in its second week. The photoplay feature was "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath."

The Alhambra did very well with "Good Morning, Judge."

"The Actress" at the Wisconsin was very well received and very satisfying business was the result. "The Patsy" drew fair houses at the Merrill. "The Patent Leather Kid" did moderately well at the Strand. The Garden continued "The Jazz Singer" for a second week in this return engagement and business was fair. "Are You Fit to Marry?" is playing at the Empress to fair houses. The Orpheum offered a very strong program with "The Play Girl" as the photoplay, and the theatre was crowded at every performance.

Activity in the neighborhood theatres was not very pronounced. "Quality Street" at the Garfield, Uptown, Tower and Modjeska was only moderately well attended.

"Tillie's Punctured Romance" did fairly well at the Oriental. The Venetian Theatre found business rather brisk with "The Swell Head" as the feature. "Finders Keepers" was well attended at the Egyptian.

Salt Lake City

THEATRE attendance at the downtown houses has fallen off some since the warm weather made its appearance during the last week, but some fairly crowded houses are still reported.

The Capitol Theatre played to good business during the showing of the Fox picture "The Escape," and the Fanchon and Marco stage presentation featuring Ukelele Ike.

George O'Brien and Estelle Taylor in "Honor Bound" was well erceived by fairly good-sized audiences at the Paramount Empress Theatre.

"The Enemy" and the vaudeville bill at the Pantages Theatre drew the usual crowded house here.

"Ben Hur," which was shown as a second-run at the Victory Theatre, packed the house.

The American Theatre did fairly well with their presentation of Myrna Loy in "The Crimson City."

"Sally of the Scandals," with Bessie Love and Allan Forrest, proved to be a good drawing card at the Gem Theatre, it was reported.

Lon Chaney in "London After Midnight" went over good in a second-run at the Rialto.

The new State Theatre offered Percy Marmont in the first-run Columbia picture "San Francisco Nights" as the opening production.

The Empire Theatre presented the first showing of Tom Mix in "The Broncho Twister" with fairly good results.

Harrisburg, Pa

ONLY moderate business was done in the first-run theatres of Harrisburg last week, a slight slump being attributed in part to warmer weather. Marion Davies in "The Patsy" at Loew's Regent, perhaps was the best drawing card of the week in any strictly movie house, although at the State, which includes also vaudeville, there were crowded houses at practically every performance. The film part of the program the last half of the week was Madge Bellamy in "The Play Girl," while the other half of the bill consisted of a musical revue, which perhaps did more to draw the crowds than did the picture.

At the Victoria, Esther Ralston, in "Something Always Happens," produced a lot of thrills but did not draw big crowds. The Colonial's offering was George O'Brien and Lois Moran in "Sharp Shooters," which did average business. Those who saw the picture were immensely pleased with it.

The Grand showed Tom Tyler in "The Cyclone of the Range," which, as the title indicates, was a Western thriller, and the Capitol bill was featured by "Held by the Law." The Royal did fair business with Tom Mix in "Bronco Twister," while the Broad Street presented "Under the Black Eagle.

The return of warm weather marked the start of the open-air carnival season in many cities of Central Pennsylvania, which always offers a certain amount of competition to the picture shows. In Harrisburg the Sheesley Shows held forth for the week for the benefit of the Governor's Troop of the Pennsylvania National Guard.

Tampa

THE Tampa had two favorites last week who are usually sure-fire but they failed to register their usual takings. Lon Chaney, in "Laugh, Clown, Laugh" opened the week. The Sunday matinee was off, probably due to the perfect weather which pulled 'em to the beaches. The night show came up good, as did the following three days, but the draw was not up to expectation. Adolphe Menjou in "A Night of Mystery" was the feature of the last half and he too fell under his usual average.

The Victory continues to pull the crowds with the Vitaphone presentations, features and the Movietone News. The feature of this week's program was "Slightly Used." Business was very good.

The Strand also had a good week with "A Gateway to the Moon," "The Count of Ten," and "Crooks Can't Win" also showing up nicely.

Business at the Franklin was hardly up to average. "The Last Laugh" seemed to be the best card of the three. "Chicago" was given a second run and the "Passion Play" is a feature that has been pretty well played around here at different times.

Ottawa

THERE was much picture value in various features which were presented in Ottawa, Ontario, theatres during the week of May 7, and the local theatre fans showed their appreciation by turning out in big numbers.

The most strikingly dramatic attraction of the week was "The Legion of the Condemned," at the Regent Theatre, where capacity crowds were stirred by an exciting story excellently portrayed. Manager Ray Tubman chalked up big figures for the week.

Another sincere type of feature was "The Harvester" at the B. F. Keith's Theatre. Although Gene Stratton-Porter's story is a sad narration, thousands saw its presentation and were deeply moved. It is a feature to be remembered.

The Imperial Theatre satisfied those who craved amusement by the presentation of William Haines in "The Smart Set." The story proved to be highly interesting, and Haines continued on his wave of popular favor in this picture. Heavy patronage.

Ottawa saw "Passion," with Pola Negri and Emil Jannings, at last, this feature having been kept from Ontario eyes for years by the Provincial censors because of its country of origin. It is interesting to note that Manager Don Stapleton featured Jannings in the advertising, according Pola second place. Fair to good crowds.

The Rex Theatre, a neighborhood house, did a land-office business with "40,000 Miles with Lindbergh" and "Hoot Gibson in "Silent Rider."

The Lindbergh feature also was a strong attraction at the Columbia Theatre, this being doubled with "The Block Signal," with Ralph Lewis. Business was above average at both of these houses.

The Fern Theatre was jammed for "False Alarm," the seventh chapter of "Melting Millions," and "Wild Wallops," comedy. You couldn't squeeze into the Fern after 7:30 P. M.

San Francisco, Cal.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, always well received in this city, was accorded a most satisfactory welcome at the St. Francis Theatre in "The Circus." Both the picture and the box-office receipts being especially good. "The Garden of Eden" shown at Loew's Warfield Theatre, together with the Fanchon and Marco presentation "20 Society Ingenues," filled that house every day, both afternoons and evenings. The Fox Movietone, while interesting, is not considered exceptionally popular at this theatre, and therefore is shown but a short time at each show.

The Granada Theatre drew big crowds all week with Norma Shearer in "The Actress," along with the Publix stage revue "Blue Plate." "Drums of Love," while considered a good picture, did not draw at the California Theatre.

The Golden Gate Theatre did very well with Kyne's timber story, "The Valley of the Giants," and vaudeville. A similar reception was tendered "The Frenzied Flame," offered by the Union Square Theatre, together with five acts of vaudeville and short subjects.

"Wings," the Columbia Theatre's fare, shown at advance prices, attracted fairly good crowds, but nothing like the attendance at the Granada or Loew's Warfield.

The Ackerman and Harris theatres, the Coliseum and Alexandria, did exceptionally well last week, as did the Irving. "Baby Mine" was featured at the Alexandria; "Wife Savers" and Varsitonians at the Coliseum; and "That's My Daddy" at the Irving.

Cleveland

A WEEK of Metropolitan opera and the first outburst of spring combined to lessen the charm of the theatres last week. However, all things considered, the theatres got off very well.

"Ramona" did better in its second week at the Stillman than it did the first week. Receipts grew steadily and consistently all during the engagement. "Burning Daylight," a splendid picture with sound entertainment qualities, and Theodore Roberts in person, made up a bill that filled Keith's Palace both afternoon and evening.

The Allen had a good week, nothing extraordinary, but eminently satisfactory with "Easy Come, Easy Go," showing Dix at his best, as the feature attraction. State patrons were plentiful, and were enthusiastic over the latest Beery-Hatton comedy, "Partners in Crime," a distinct come-back for this popular comedy team. "Chicago After Midnight" did very well at Keith's East 105th St. It's a fine underworld story, with several new touches that make it very interesting. "Powder My Back" failed to click either at the Park or the Cameo, where it was playing simultaneously. Reade's Hippodrome got its share of the business with "Coney Island," not new in plot, but interesting in development and containing a good fight. "Wings" continued to do very well at the Colonial where it is being shown at advanced prices.

Legitimate theatre competition was not particularly keen, so that they did not offer much of an alibi for a week of moderate business. "The Letter," with Katherine Cornell, was playing at the Hanna; The Ohio and Alhambra are playing summer dramatic stock; the Playhouse continues to draw patronage regularly, and Bertha Kalich did well at the Little Theatre in "The Kreutzer Sonata."

Neighborhood houses report business was not good.

Boston

WHILE business at the Boston theatres is reported as good for this time of the year, it showed a falling off from the previous weeks, partly due to daylight savings time and partly due to the advent of warm weather.

Managers have no kick coming, they all declare, for the early season's business to date, and if it holds up as well in proportion as it has grossed during the season to date, as compared with former years, the present year ought to be a real record breaker.

In contrast to Boston is Providence, which is holding up remarkably well and which has had the best season for years. Other New England cities report excellent business. It must be taken into consideration that during the 1927-28 season, New England had many more theatres than a year ago and yet all of the first and second run houses in the New England territory enjoyed one of the best seasons in history, with more of the theatres operating uninterruptedly than ever before.

Metropolitan Theatre, Boston, enjoyed a big week with receipts holding up to former weeks. "Stand and Deliver" was the film and Paul Whiteman and his band was the stage presentation.

"Big City" was the film at the State during the week and grossed exceptionally well. More attention is being paid to the film and less to the surrounding stage numbers at the State and judging from box office receipts, the audience approves of the big pictures just as much as it does of a big presentation.

"Feel My Pulse" and "The Mad Hour" divided honors at the Fenway under the split week plan for a better than fair business.

"Rose Marie" at Loew's Orpheum was one of the most successful films, from the box office angle, of the week in Boston.

Keith-Albee's Boston Theatre, with "Dressed to Kill" has closed one of its best weeks of the year and by far the best week for any corresponding period.

Modern and Beacon, the Twin Houses, showing "Bachelors Paradise" and "Chicago" as the double features, report a good week.

Other films in Boston proper enjoying good business are "A Girl in Every Port," "The Crowd" and "His Better Half" for a triple feature bill at the Bowdoin Square; "Finders Keepers" and "Blondes for the Night" at the Exeter, "The Divine Woman" and "Feel My Pulse" at the Lancaster, "Under the Tonto Rim" at Loew's Columbia, "The Devil's Trade Mark" at the Scollay Square Olympia and "Harold Teen" at the Washington Street Olympia.

Suburban theatres reporting good business include the University with "A Girl in Every Port," Allston with "Skyscraper," Capitol with "The Crowd," Central Square with "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," Codman Square with "The Circus" and Embassy with "The Port of Missing Girls."

Albany & Troy

BUSINESS was off at all of the motion picture theatres in Albany and Troy during the past week, the second of the daylight saving period and a week that was characterized by summerlike weather.

The Mark Strand attracted only fair sized audiences with "Rose-Marie," which was coupled with a couple of Vitaphone presentations. The Leland did no better with Lon Chaney in "The Big City." In fact the house was just about filled evenings and no more, with the crowds arriving around eight o'clock. The Ritz theatre used "The Port of Missing Girls" and with considerable rather sensational advertising, managed to pull out with a fair business.

Business was decidedly off at the Clinton Square theatre, in Albany, despite the fact that this house is using double features first run and last week employed "Sailors' Wives" and "Nameless Men." Of course there is no question but that the motion picture theatres of Albany suffered also last week from some exceptionally high class shows at the Capitol theatre, which is given over to the legitimate.

Neighborhood houses in Albany found themselves in the same boat with the downtown theatres and without exception stated that business had taken a slump. Harmanus-Bleecker Hall, which is using vaudeville and features, seemed to draw fairly well, but not up to past standards.

In Troy, business was also reported as off, although Clara Bow in "Red Hair," a prime favorite in the collar city, would unquestionably have packed the Troy theatre at any other time of the year outside of the late spring and summer months. The picture made money for the theatre but did not pack the house night in and night out by any means. The American used "A Woman's Way" to just fair business, while the Lincoln split its week and used "The Port of Missing Girls" the fore part, and attracted fair crowds and considerable comment.

Universal to Build Theatre in Marion, Indiana

Marion, Ind., will have a new Universal Pictures house. The house will be completed Oct. 1. Henry Herbel, Chicago director, arranged for the building. The theatre will be a replica of the $750,000 Grenada recently opened in Indianapolis. The site occupied by the Oyster Bay Restaurant will be used.

Donald Graham, Indianapolis architect, drew plans for the house. Vaudeville probably will be added.

News Reel Resume

Receiving a prominent display in the newsreels for the week were the Japanese-Chinese conflict; the Bremen crew on their tour of the United States; Lindbergh's plane, which will be housed in the Smithsonian Institute, and the U. S. fleet in practice in Hawaiian waters. Also mentioned in several of the reels were the rodeo held in the West; Henry Ford's second-hand street car; the orchid show held in New York, and the Preakness victory in the Washington race.

Paramount News, issue No. 83, related the Japanese-Chinese clash; the orchid show; Germans rushing work on new trans-ocean Zepplin; Lt. R. V. Thomas, who died in crash after establishing new solo flight record; Italians test cars on roof of auto plant; the Bremen crew arriving in Philadelphia; bronco bustin' at rodeo in California; an exclusive Paramount story of first landing by blimp on a moving merchant ship at sea.

The following issue, No. 84, tells of Walter Hagen at Sandwich, England; Britain's largest submarine; the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico race course; Prince Carol of Roumania; Lindbergh's "Spirit of St. Louis"; champ jugglers; expedition which will fly the Bremen back from Greenely Island; the Bremen crew in Chicago; the ships of the U. S. fleet maneuvering at Honolulu; convention of Confederate Army veterans at Little Rock, Ark.; Capt. Fieseler, German airman, shows his stunts.

No. 65, Vol. 9, of Fox News, began with views of the Italian Royalty being heartily welcomed on their visit to Tripoli; the Spanish Dictator and his bride-to-be; Helen Wills and American golf stars; highschool runners meet at Milwaukee; Leonard Bonney, who died in fatal air test; prize unit of Belgian army honored by King Albert; West Point cadets parading for mayor of Rome; tunnel through heart of the Cascade Mountains in the West finally completed; big air show held by American fliers over Langley Field.

In issue No. 66 were scenes of Mussolini and his Italian audience in the Coliseum; whippet champions racing; King Alfonso of Spain participating in Madrid polo game; Baron Lowenstein, one of world's richest men; Bremen crew greeted in Philadelphia; mass exercises demonstrated by New Jersey college girls; Prince Carol; trappers of Alaska shipping their pelts via airplane; daring workmen risk lives cleaning edge of New York skyscrapers; tumblers in rodeo held in Northwest.

Issue No. 78, Vol 1, of M-G-M News, showed the Japanese troops in China; a wing-flap airplane; ruins of Cornith, Greece, from earthquake; annual convention of the Confederate Veterans; Henry Ford with his street car relic; Irving Thalberg and Norma Shearer; Hoot Gibson and his wife; Lindbergh's plane being dismantled; the whippet race; General Nobile in dirigible Italia starting for Spitzbergen; dynamiting Niagara frozen by tentacles.

In the succeeding issue, No. 79, were shots of the fleet at Hawaii; Australian horse-man trying for height record; King Alfonso honoring Infanta Luisa, royal war nurse; Rus-

(Continued on Page 1707)

Opinions on Pictures

Circus Rookies

Ordinary Comedy With Little Mirth

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

THE team that put over "Baby Mine" and made it highly mirthful is not registering so well with the new number. Karl Dane and George Arthur apparently ran out of gags — and they weren't resourceful enough in this instance to "ad lib" along and make it spontaneous and funny. Dane has to rely upon goofy expressions and indicate something approaching non compos mentis to get over. Where there is real serious drama his comedy relief has come along very well to afford the necessary balance. But he is unable to be constantly funny. And Arthur is not enough of a legitimate foil.

Here the partners have a hodge-podge which releases a series of time-worn gags. There are laughs, sprinkled through the piece, but they don't follow fast enough. So it's a give-and-take between Karl and George with slapstick of the old-fashioned garden variety being struck for the loud guffaw. The background is of the circus and it's Dane's job to be the bully and pick on Arthur, playing the role of the underdog. The piece, if supported by strong short subjects and a neat musical program, should satisfy without anyone going into a rave over it.

Drawing Power: For average houses or those having strong programs. Exploitation Angles:: Might ballyhoo a la circus. If stars are popular give them plenty of publicity.

THEME: Comedy of bully and an underdog—with latter coming out ahead in the end, winning the girl, etc.

Produced and distributed by Karl Dane. Length, six reels. Released, May, 1928. Cast: Karl Dane, George K. Arthur, Louise Lorraine, Fred Humes. Directed by Edward Sedgwick.

Steamboat Bill, Jr.

Buster Has a Neat Comedy Here

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

YOU can take it or leave it, but Buster Keaton bobs up with a bright and exceptionally funny comedy here—and the stony-faced one must share honors with Ernest Torrence, whose gift of humor is as rich as his gift of emotion. The Keaton likes to lay around in the Southland. Having piloted an engine in Dixie, he now takes to piloting a steamboat on that ol' man river. And around the conflict between Torrence, as Buster's dad, who owns one of the boats and a business rival who owns the other and whose daughter furnishes the romantic appeal—you are in for some rare fun.

The piece is told with fine gags, most of which are new, and it is also well titled. And to show that it doesn't depend entirely upon comedy you can develop much suspense over the effort of the elder Steamboat Bill to thwart his rival. His boat has been condemned and in a rage the skipper turns on his enemy and is jailed. So long comes Buster hiding a hardware store of tools in a loaf of bread in his effort to effect his old man's freedom. That's one of the highlights here. Another has to do with a cyclone which acts as a prop for some typical Keaton business. And so it goes, traveling high and shooting forth peals of laughter. Book it and make 'em happy.

Drawing Power: Title and star and Torrence. O. K. for any type of house. Exploitation Angles: Play up title and tease it. Use old river songs for music. Feature Torrence.

THEME: Comedy of business rivals who own steamboats—with son of one marrying daughter of the other and settling the feud.

Produced and distributed by United Artists. Length, seven reels. Released, May, 1928. Cast: Buster Keaton, Ernest Torrence, Tom Lewis, Tom McGuire, Marion Byron. Director, Charles F. Reisner.

Hangman's House

Good Picture, Interesting Throughout

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

A PICTURE of Irish life comes along here which doesn't make a bid for laughter by burlesquing its characters. It treats its subject with restraint without going in the opposite direction and plucking sentimental dew-drops from the hat. Most Irish stories must be burlesqued or drip with sentiment. But this one is different. Which makes it worth seeing.

The story hasn't strong suspensive qualities principally because the action doesn't call for it. What it does reveal is a neat slant of the w.k. human element. And John Ford has treated the idea so sympathetically that it never gets out of key. There is a good play of drama revolving around the Irish girl whose father has condemned so many unfortunates to death that his castle is known as Hangman's House. The love triangle figures prominently. The girl is betrothed by her father to a scoundrel and the bit of suspense figures in her problem of marrying the man of her choice.

Ford has brought forth some striking scenes, with soft-focus effects. In fact, the photography is exceptionally good. And the picture is richly saturated with atmosphere. Pictorially, it is very good. And the story nearly keeps pace with the technical side of it. The acting is praiseworthy, too. Victor McLaglen, June Collyer, Earle Foxe, and Larry Kent turn in fine performances. So altogether it can be set down as a capital film—interesting and well done.

Drawing Power: Should draw through title. Good enough for any theatre. Exploitation Angles: Bill as interesting film of Irish life—and feature cast. Play up director.

THEME: Comedy-drama of Irish girl frustrating father whose choice of husband is not her own. She wins.

Produced and distributed by Fox. Length, six reels. Released, May, 1928. Cast: Victor McLaglen, June Collyer, Larry Kent, Earle Foxe, Hobart Bosworth, Joseph Burke, Eric Mayne. Director, John Ford.

Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come

Romance In Them Thar Hills—Just Fair

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

THE screen version of "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" doesn't shape up as very hot. Back in the days of "Tol'able David" it would have carried on with great appeal, but stories of hill billies at work and play have been served too often in celluloid — especially since Barthelmess' triumph in the earlier opus. So it happens to be just an everyday movie, made so of course by the obvious plot back of it all. The young "no account" portrayed by the star is made colorful and sympathetic enough, but modern folks aren't going to be terriby agitated over it.

The director has done as well as possible by the story. But it carries creaking hinges when it opens from one scene to another. With the interest centering around the trials of the young mountaineer to make something of himself it naturally employs much sentiment. Tales of the Southland written back in the author's day were always saturated with sentiment. This one is no exception. However, Barthelmess injects feeling and sincerity into the characterization—a goodly feat considering the triteness of theme. It is also charmingly played by Molly O'Day as the mountain girl and Doris Dawson as the pretty aristocrat from the city. It is also well mounted, the atmosphere and detail suggesting the genuine article.

Drawing Power: Appeal of star and adaptation of popular novel of two decades ago. Suitable for average houses. Exploitation Angles: Feature star, Molly O'Day and Doris Dawson. Exploit as romance of Kentucky mountains, etc.

THEME: Romance of mountaineer and his effort to make something of himself.

Produced and distributed by First National. Length, six reels. Released, May, 1928. Cast: Richard Barthelmess, Molly O'Day, Doris Dawson, Martha Mattox, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Claude Gillingwater, Victor Potel, Eulalie Jensen, David Torrence. Director, Alfred Santell..

Hello, Cheyenne

A Typical Mix Story

(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

THIS is a typical Tom Mix story, teeming with action and suspense from start to finish. It is all very implausible of course, but if the shortcomings of the story can be forgotten it does hold the interest. Tom is a very busy hero, what with one rescue and another, and he keeps things fairly on the hop.

It is a thrilling race story, a race between two rival gangs striving to complete telephone lines for the first connection between Rawhide and Cheyenne. To the winner goes a rich plum and to the loser it means ruin. The father of Tom's girl is depending upon this victory to reestablish himself, while the villain resorts to all sorts of trickery to win the race. Through Tom's ingenuity the girl's father is successful, but not until many a bitter fight has been waged and many a heroic act completed.

Mix, as usual, leaves nothing undone in the staging of his thrills and his work is particularly effective in this picture. In Caryl Lincoln he has a sweet and winsome leading lady who does very well through the series of thrills. Martin Faust is the handsome, though leering villain who will stop at nothing to accomplish his ends. Al St. John furnishes the comedy element, of which the less said the better.

Drawing Power: Should do as well as any of the usual run of Mix pictures. His following is sure to like it. Exploitation Angles: The Mix name will probably be sufficient to draw them in.

THEME: Rival interests are striving to complete the first telephone line between Rawhide and Cheyenne. The father of the girl Tom loves faces ruin unless he can win and his rival will stop at nothing to defeat him. Through the heroic actions of Tom the girl's father wins.

Produced and distributed by Fox Films Corporation. Released, May 13, 1928. Length, 4,518 feet. The Cast: Tom Mix, Caryl Lincoln, Jack Baston, Joseph Girard, Al St. John, Martin Faust, William Caress. A Gene Forde production. Story by Harry Sinclair Drago. Scenario by Fred Myton.

The Upland Rider

A Dazzling Western

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

ONE of the best western vehicles seen in a long time is this open-range story starring Ken Maynard. It is a perfectly proportioned bit of cowboy story. All the requisites of the western can be called its own. What action and swift plot development it has—and it boasts much of these—has been effectively brought to the fore through the sure and deft direction of Al Rogell. With rhythmic surety, this western will gallop into the hearts of western fans.

Ken Maynard is improving constantly in his hero roles. There is now a greater ease and naturalness in his acting. Of course, he is the same impeccable rider, the best the screen has at the present time. The main event in the story is a race between breeders of bronc and thoroughbred horses. This sequence serves Maynard and his horse, Tarzan, as an opportunity to exhibit their wonderful coordination. Maynard rides as if he were glued to the saddle, and Tarzan gallops with all the majesty of a king of horses.

You can bet we recommend this western, as it undeniably has all the winning qualifications; action, a good story, competent portrayals, humor, expert direction, and a backgorund that has been beautifully photographed.

Drawing Power: Wherever they like westerns they'll like this one. Exploitation Angles: Cutouts of Maynard and Tarzan. Start a Ken Maynard club. Begin a drawing contest, the object to be drawn being Tarzan.

THEME: Western drama. Breeder of broncs is fast coming into the power of unscrupulous thoroughbred owner. His only chance to win out is to win the relay horse racing contest, the winner of which is promised a contract with the government. The thoroughbred owner plans to win the race with the aid of treachery. Young cowboy riding the bronc entry successfully evades this treachery, however, and brings the horse to victory, having ridden him all the way. He proves the superiority of the broncs over the thoroughbreds and wins the daughter of his boss.

Produced by Charles R. Rogers. Distributed by First National. Released, June 3, 1928. Length, 5 reels. The Cast: Ken Maynard, Marion Douglas, Lare McKee, Sidney Jarvis, Robert Walker, Bobby Dunn, David Kirby, Robert Milash. Story by Marion Jackson. Director, Al Rogell.

Under the Black Eagle

Good Story Lacks Wide Appeal

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

HAVING in mind American audiences, primarily, the writer does not believe that this story of a German soldier and his part in the World War will hold the undivided attention. The best point of view is to gauge this film as being appropriate for universal showings. It does not glorify war, rather it shows its cruelness to man and beast. Furthermore, it does not place one side over the other. But still the fan, we believe, will hold back some of his sympathies. Really, films of this type ought to be encouraged as they make for amity between nations.

The picture serves to introduce "Flash," M-G-M's dog star. The screen, nearly cluttered up with various hounds, can readily make room for the new arrival for he is a good actor, well trained and apt with varied expressions. The dog is the pet of Ralph Forbes, a poetic sort of chap, and the enemy of William Fairbanks, a soldier who places discipline above everything. These two go to war and the dog becomes separated from his master until he comes across him wounded in a shellhole. In the war scenes are realistic flashes of battle in which the dog is also wounded. Brought back to safety both he and the man recover.

The greater portion of the picture establishes the friendship between Forbes and the dog. The initial scenes showing the military training are splendid, but what follows leading up to the battle is somewhat tedious. On the whole, an expensive and well done drama for a dog star.

Drawing Power: About fair. Exploitation Angles: Exploit the new dog star and the cast of principals, particularly Fairbanks, who is first-rate as the soldier. Use a machine gun as a lobby display, also a few helmets, guns, etc.

THEME: War story of the love between a man and his dog. The man goes to war leaving the dog behind and they are not united again until the dog finds his master wounded. The man feeling a horror for war witnesses the death of his comrade by a machine gun, and in a frenzy he rushes out to bomb the nest. The dog, trying to save him, is also wounded. They both recover and the boy returns to his painting and his girl.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Released, March 31, 1928. Length, 5,901 feet. The Cast: Flash, Ralph Forbes, William Fairbanks, Marceline Day, Bert Roach, Marc MacDermott. Story by Norton Houston. Continuity by Bradley King. Director, W. C. Van Dyke.

The Canyon of Adventure

Above the Average

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

WHILE the story of "The Canyon of Adventure" is not as convincing as that of "The Upland Rider," it is nevertheless above the average story that is stretched through western films. In this one, Ken is called on to do too many impossible things; if not impossible his exploits are at least too daredevilish, too all-powerful to carry that necessary degree of plausibility. Anyway, the story has its portions of action, fighting and heroism—enough to satisfy avid fans.

The Spanish grandees of California hover in the background. Dolores, the pretty daughter of one of the proud Dons, is very much in prominence, she being the fascination that draws the young American land-agent again and again to her hacienda. Around the unsuspecting heroine and her father is being woven a web of sublety by a neighboring Don. Of this latter gentleman's activities, Maynard is, of course, in the know. The plot grows tighter and tighter, the girl's father is held prisoner and she herself is about to be forced into an unwelcome marriage. But at this time Maynard disguised as a caballero, appears: by dint of slugging, duelling and other means of besting, the Spaniards are subdued and Maynard wins his senorita.

Drawing Power: Maynard, having built up a reputation for winning westerns, this one should go over, even though not as good as some of his others. Exploitation Angles: Ballyhoo star and Tarzan. Deck lobby and array box-office establishing a Spanish effect.

THEME: Action drama of the early Californians and of the time they had to register their lands when the state became one of the Union. A scheming Spanish grandee plans to steal the lands of a neighboring Don and marry the latter's daughter to his worthless son. The plan is foiled through the activities of an American land-agent, who makes friends with a gang of semi-outlaws and with their aid raids the hacienda where the girl is about to be forced into marriage. When they do hold the wedding the American is the groom.

Produced by Charles R. Rogers. Distributed by First National. Released, April 29, 1928. Length, 5,800 feet. The Cast: Ken Maynard, Virginia Browne Faire, Eric Mayne, Theodore Lorch, Tyron Brereton, Hal Salter, Billy Freney, Charles Whitaker. Story by Marion Jackson. Director, Albert Rogell.

"Poor Papa"

(Universal—One Reel)

(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

THE troubles of Oswald, the cartoon rabbit, contribute some hilarious fun in this clever piece of animation by Walter Disney. A baffling problem confronting the bunny is how to ward off the persistent storks who visit his home in large numbers, and fill his humble abode with active little Oswalds. The father, becoming frantic because of the regularity of the birds' visits, arms himself with a shot gun to keep them away. Undaunted the birds dump their tender burdens in the water tank and when Oswald turns on the faucet in his home, he unwittingly introduces another endless stream of bunnies.

The rapidity of the action, the cleverness of the drawings and the consternation of poor Oswald, establish this as an excellent novelty for programs.

"The Ambuscade"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

A MINIATURE Western, this story of a Texas Ranger carries very little of the elements of reality. Compressed into two reels are the usual skirmishes between the law and the lawless. Fist fights, hard-riding and a slight tinge of love interest feature this film, which altogether carries the general trend of the average Western of full-length. The story of this number is similar to those that have gone before, embracing the hero who defeats a gang of outlaws, and wins the beautiful heroine. The role of the Ranger is played by Fred Gilman and that of the girl by Connie Dawn. They were about to be married when difficulties arose in the person of the girl's brother, whom the Ranger discovers is a member of a notorious band of cut-throats disturbing the peace of the countryside. To keep him from divulging their identity, the brother and his confederates send the Ranger on a ruse to a lonely cabin where they plan to do away with him. The girl learns of the plot and motors to the cabin to save Gilman. Kidnapped on the way by the chief of the outlaws, her safety is threatened until Gilman effects her rescue, having escaped from the cabin after a terriffic battle.

Josef Levigard handled the direction. The release is listed for June 16th.

"The Fighting Kid"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

YOUNG NEWTON HOUSE is the featured player in this Western featurette, the story of which bears a marked resemblance to all others of the series. The youngster has all the attributes of the older western stars and is showing steady improvement in his work before the camera.

Newton is Slim O'Day in this one and he and his sister Molly have a hard time of it to keep things going on the ranch, particularly after Slim had run the renegade, Jud Mc Coy off the place. Jud swears vengeance and starts his dirty work when he sends a band of Indians to attack the stage and do away with Tom Morgan, government agent and friend of Slim and Molly, when he is coming to visit them.

When Tom regains consciousness he staggers into the O'Day cottage and tells his story. Slim, suspecting McCoy, starts after him and tracks him to a cave hide-out, where the youngster is overpowered. McCoy, meantime, thinking Molly unprotected, determines to kidnap her. Morgan is too weak from his injuries to offer much resistance, but Slim makes his escape from the cave and arrives just in time to subdue McCoy after a terriffic fight.

"Famous Playgrounds"
(Sportlight-Pathe—One Reel)

THIS will prove a particularly interesting film to those interested in any way in sports and it will be attractive for its pictorial beauty to those who have no sport interest. It shows all of the famous winter and summer playgrounds, such as Lake Placid, Palm Beach, Pinehurst, Newport, Southampton, Atlantic City and Del Monte, and the sports particularly identified with each. There are revealed in an attractive manner, skiing, dog team jaunts, speed boats, golf, polo, yachting, bathing, tennis and all manner of diversion, with many beautiful shots of each. This should prove a splendid filler in any type of house.—CHESTER J. SMITH.

"When George Meets George"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

BECAUSE of well timed double exposure scenes this two-reel Stern Brothers comedy of the "Let George Do It" series is worthy of mention, but otherwise the general comedy element runs in a slow tempo.

The star (Sid Saylor), as George, is in love with Betty, but so bashful he doesn't rate much. Betty's father plans to stage a boxing bout, and urges George to sign on as a fighter. Terrified, George accepts, hoping to win Betty's favor. He bribes Jim, a fighter who strikingly resembles him, to take his place in the ring, and when Betty visits the training camp she is made love to by Jim, believing it is George minus his bashfulness. The day of the fight Jim is arrested for speeding, and George is forced to don the gloves. His opponent knocks him into the shrubbery, where Jim, having shaken the cop, changes clothes with him, dashes into the ring and wins the fight. In the confusion, George takes Jim's place, the laurels and the girl. S. Newfield directed this comedy, to be released in June.

"The Valiant Rider"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

A SURPRISE ending worthy of a picture of greater footage gives this two-reel Western featurette, starring Bob Curwood, a slightly different twist from previous numbers in the series.

The action of the story revolves around Samuel Guthrie, a wealthy financeer and his beautiful daughter, who decide to vacation on the Wyoming Ranch. Jimmy Dare (Bob Curwood), a guide at the ranch assigned to meet them enroute, sees their car stop on a lonely road, and Jake Skinner, a notorious outlaw directing them away from the ranch. He dashes to their assistance, but Skinner and his henchmen discredit his assertion of being the guide, and take them to a cabin in the woods, where they plan to rob Guthrie. Jimmy overpowers the bandits who have him tied, and after much spectacular riding and a terrific brawl at the cabin, rescues Guthrie and the girl. Director Mitchell is responsible for this vehicle, which is to be released June 23rd.

"You'll Be Sorry"
(Educational—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

CHARLEY BOWERS is the screen's foremost and most ingenious creator of baffling comedy. In his newest Educational release, one of his extremely mystifying creations is on display. This subject is a little dog, very funny to look at. This mechanical canine lends Bowers excellent support and he has some long stretches in which he performs alone and in which he will secure a number of laughs.

The story, poking fun at cops and mythical kingdoms, tells of Charley's efforts to make good as an independent police department. He falls into the hands of a gang of plotters who have a captive princess. They have the secret code of her country which they intend to use to provoke trouble. There's gentle satire and burlesque and a good portion of comedy. Charley quells the princess' fears by obtaining the only copy of the code and playing the gallant hero.

Betty Caldwell, a charming miss, is the princess and Jack Lipson, George Burton and J. Gordon Russell the supporting cast. H. L. Muller directed the comedy produced under the Bowers Process. Jay Turner tended the camera.

"The Trickster"
(Universal—One Reel)

THERE is some real good comedy in this one-reeler of the Snappy Comedy series with Ben Hall as the featured player. Ben, as Harold Highbrow, loses his job as star reporter on The Clarion and joins up with Profesor Dodo, a faking hypnotist. They hire a hall and pack it with an excited audience, in the front row of which are Broadcasting Annie, Alice, the Clarion office drudge and Harold's best girl. The professor hypnotizes Annie and after putting the rest of the audience in a trance compels her to lift all their valuables, during the progress of which there is considerable humor. Harold and Alice escape the trance, restore the audience to normalcy and capture the fleeing professor.—CHESTER J. SMITH.

"Follow the Leader"
(Fox—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

THIS is rather a good story as these two-reel comedies go. It is far more pretentious than most of them and considerable attention was given the detail of building the production. It is largely an animal picture, though the humans in the cast inject a lot of fun into it.

It starts in as a farm tale with the younger of two brothers compelled to do all the work and he makes it easy for himself by building some ingenious devices by which cows are milked and the animals generally given full attention. It is all accomplished by the pulling of levers. The youngster then constructs a ramshackle train which is propelled by the animals, which consist of a dog, a monkey, a goat, a bear and a skunk.

The train becomes completely dismantled when its progress down the main street is halted by a traffic cop and the youthful engineer is chased into an orphan asylum, where he is mistakenly confined as an inmate by the stern old maid keeper. The animals follow him in and simply play havoc with the keeper and the establishment. Eventually the whole outfit makes its escape to the boy's farm. There are a lot of laughs al the way through.

"A Full House"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

THE many efforts to achieve something of a funny nature all go for naught in this latest screen version of the adventures of Pa and Ma McGinis, the familiar figures of the Keeping Up with the Joneses' comic sheet. Purely slapstick, and in general feebly humorous, it seems as though all the scrambled gags of other and better comedies of this series have had their effect on this new release. The thread of the story shows the predicaments of Pa McGinis drawn from a poker game by his domineering wife, to buy a masquerade outfit for a ball at the McGinis home. Escaping from Ma McGinis in the guise of a sailor lad, Pa is mistaken by the police for an escaped loon. After much dodging and maneuvering to evade the police, Pa returns home to the Masque ball, and another "bootleg" poker game, which ends the way of the first.

Gus Meins wielded the megaphone.

"A Lady Lion"
(Fox—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

ANIMAL comedies can usually be depended upon to provide some good comedy and this one is no exception. There are many humorous situations and incidents provided during the two reels, which abound with action. Caryl, much adored by three sweethearts, craves a caveman, which none of them is. Fred is fat and good natured, Billy short and mild and Eddie in every way a highly respected young man, but none of them just suits Caryl.

Then the rough and uncouth animal trainer comes to town and his ways appeal to Caryl. Billy and Fred each resolve to kidnap the girl, but they bungle the job and make her admire the trainer the more. They take her to the bungalow where the animals are kept and there is a general mixup when the lion, tiger, etc., break loose, with the result that Caryl proposes to the unwilling caveman.

"Happy Days"
(Pathe—One Reel)

THE popular fear of what might happen to one in a barber chair—if the barber was in a prankish mood—is picturized with humorous results in this animated cartoon. This release as a whole does not rank with Paul Terry's best creations, because he again resorts for the major portion of his action to the oft worked gag of Farmer Alfalfa taking a drubbing from the cartoon animals.—GEORGE J. REDDY.

"A Jungle Triangle"
(Fables-Pathe—One Reel)

THIS is a cartoon triangle involving a fickle maiden, a devoted monkey and a philandering elephant. The monkey apparently has the inside track on the fair Marion's affections until the big palm and olive elephant puts in an appearance and suggests a dance at an adjacent road house. They repair to the cafe with the monkey trailing and on arrival there the monkey puts a sleeping powder in the elephant's drink. When the latter drowses off the monkey steals the fair one and carries her off to his favorite cocoanut tree.
—CHESTER J. SMITH.

"Should Women Drive"
(M-G-M-Comedy—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by E. G. Johnston)

MAX DAVIDSON should have known better than to try to teach his wife or any other woman how to drive an automobile—particularly a new one—so we think he got just what he deserved and ought to be thankful that he is alive. Of course, Max had two witnesses to the damage suit, but on the day of the trial they imbibed too much moonshine. Trouble getting the pair to court furnishes some good comedy. When they finally arrive the case has been lost—to Max. Mama appears with the repaired car, and on the way home it is completely demolished. A very fair two-reeler.

"Coast to Coast"
(Fables-Pathe—One Reel)

THIS has to do with a coast to coast auto race done in cartoons and with goodly amount of humor injected. It has among the contestants Old Al, Slick Slim and Henry Cat. There is a lot of foul racing and some serious intrigue as the contest progresses, but it all adds to the fun. The autos dash over precipitous mountains, take short cuts through rivers and even take to flying when the occasion demands. Henry Cat eventually wins by a tail.
CHESTER J. SMITH.

"The Virgin Queen"
(M-G-M-Technicolor—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by E. G. Johnston)

EXQUISITELY done in color this two-reel drama of the days of "Queen Bess" and the gallant Sir Walter Raleigh(in this film spelled the old way—Ralegh) will lend an artistic touch to the average theatre program. Most every one knows the story of how Ralegh gained the Queen's good graces by laying down his coat in order that the sovereign might cross a muddy spot without soiling her shoes. Jealousy, court intrigue and romance are woven into an interesting little story. The cast is excellent.

"War Brides"
(Pathe—One Reel)

THE striking originality of the gags injected into this cartoon rates this Fables release way above the average. Cartoonist Terry takes the typical war-time theme of the sweetheart who goes away to battle, leaving his girl to the unwelcome advances of a villainous member of the cat family. It is while Milt Mouse is at the front amid cannon roar and bursting shells that the business of a big war is cleverly burlesqued. This short-reel is ideal for any program.—GEORGE J. REDDY.

"Star Builders"
(Pathe—One Reel)

GRANTLAND RICE "Sportlight" subjects are always good entertainment, therefore this newest issue will need no "send-off." The famous sports authority this time offers a picturized summary of the background that develops stars in the field of athletics. The important part that the coach and trainer plays is interestingly shown. The whole subject is handled in true sportmanship manner.—GEORGE J. REDDY.

Newsreel Resume

(Continued from page 1703)

sians visiting new Soviet zoo in Moscow; Michael, boy king of Roumania; Will Hays returning from France; Paul Whiteman now a colonel in the Salvation Army; crack cavalry unit in work-out at Texas camp.

Pathe News, No. 41, has views of college troops marching for Chilean diplomat; Thea Rasch, German aviatrix, who plans to fly the Atlantic; the orchid exhibition in New York; cowboys' rodeo in California; new Coolidge dam which will irrigate Arizona area; Henry Ford seen with his second-hand street car; Japan troops rush to war zone in China.

No. 42 contained glimpses of the Byrd polar plane in tests; Lindbergh's plane which has been presented to the Smithsonian museum; the historic Preakness being captured by Victorian; crowds watch railway opening; the U. S. fleet leave the Pacific Coast for sea drills around Hawaii.

Release No. 5395 of Kinograms showed the Bremen fliers hopping off for Philadelphia from New York; the Bremen crew at Philly; Lindbergh's plane ready for museum; Ford driving his newly-purchased street car; four sets of twins; the $1,000,000 orchid show held in New York; daring young miss rides a sawmill flume; college girls demonstrate gymnastics; New Jersey girls in Sokol exhibit; a Wild West exhibition at the California rodeo.

No. 5396 takes you on board the U. S. S. Mississippi on the voyage to Hawaii with the fleet; Lindy's ship arrives at Washington museum; Victorian winning the Preakness; "Parade of the Tin Soldiers" put on by the Duke of York's School; 94-year-old mother and her 72-year-old daughter celebrate birthday by taking airplane ride; Tunney starts training in Adirondack camp; Coney Island revels on night of opening.

International News, No. 39, Vol. 10, also had the race at Pimlico; Lindbergh's plane and Will Hays. Additional items included shots of 2,000 boys receiving baseball equipment; a dog with a hairy face; railway guns tried out for coast defense work; gold star mothers honor the Unknown Soldier; Charles M. Schwab returning from Europe; Coney Island opens for the season.

3 Levine Serials for '28-29, 5 for '29-30

MASCOT PICTURES CORPORATION, of which Nat Levine is president, plans the production and distribution of three serials for the season of 1928-29 and of five serials for the season following. The title of the first chapter-play is "Wolves of the Sea," now being written by Joseph Anthony Roach and set for production on June 1. Casting is now in progress.

Mr. Levine plans to concentrate on serial production for the next few years. He is now in California where he will stay for three months. Offices have been opened at the Metropolitan studio. Ben Schwalb has been appointed production manager for Mascot. Jay J. Bryan is business manager and William L. Roubert is head of the editorial department.

Sennett's Feature to be Handled by First National

Mack Sennett's nine-reel comedy romance featuring Sally Eilers, Johnny Burke and Matty Kemp, and entitled "The Good-Bye Kiss," will be distributed by First National, its release just having been announced for July. The picture is now running at the Million Dollar Theatre in Los Angeles.

Others in the cast are Lionel Belmore, Wheeler Oakman, Alma Bennett, Carmelita Geraghty, Irving Bacon, Eugene Pallette, Jean Laverty and Andy Clyde. The story is by Jefferson Moffitt, Phil Whitman and Carl Harbaugh, and the titles are by Tom Miranda and John A. Waldron. John W. Boyle was in charge of the cameramen.

Christie Studios Resume Production of Comedies

The first few comedies of a new schedule of comedies and features for release through Paramount were begun last week with four directors starting new pictures at the Christie studios, which re-opened last week. The new comedies under way are the first of the four series, one a "Confessions of a Chorus Girl," a "Sandy McDuff" Scotch comedy featuring Jack Duffy, and also a Bobby Vernon comedy as well as a Billy Dooley laugh vehicle. The directors working on the new two-reelers are Arvid Gilstrom, Harold Beaudine, William Watson and William Holland.

M-G-M Casts Tom Dugan for "Excess Baggage"

Tom Dugan, for 18 years a vaudeville comedian, is to play the role of a hoofer in "Excess Baggage," M-G-M's romance of the "two a day." The picture is to go into production next week. Jules Cowles has been added to the cast of "The Cameraman," Buston Keaton's new comedy for M-G-M.

Charley Chase and "Our Gang" Comedies in Work

Charley Chase is already at work upon his first of the new year's Roach comedies under the direction of Hal Yates. He is supported by Gene Morgan, Vivian Oakland and Anita Garvin. Robert McGowan also has his "Our Gang" troupe at work on a new comedy.

McCarey Preparing Story for Roach Comedians

Story material for Max Davidson, Oliver Hardy and Stan Laurel is being prepared by Leo McCarey, supervising director and a vice-president of the Roach studios. Davidson will be directed by Arch Heath while Laurel and Hardy will be supervised by James Parrott.

Ralph Cedar Will Direct "Barney Google" Series

Ralph Cedar, comedy director, will handle the megaphone on the "Barney Google" series which Larry Darmour is about to launch for release through F B O.

Regional News from Correspondents

Des Moines

VISITORS at the office of FBO this last week were J. E. Michaels, of the Strand, at Jefferson; J. R. Forsman, of the Strand, at Jewell; W. C. Treloar, of the Opera House, at Ogden, and Joe Benjamin Gerbracht, of Ames, Iowa.

The M-G-M group have returned from the convention at Kansas City and are all pepped up on their spring line, especially since E. M. Saunders, general manager, and H. P. Wolfberg, district manager, stopped from the national convention for a special Sunday sales meeting in Des Moines. The salesmen were all in for the conference from the road. H. R. Frankel, branch manager for FBO, will be accompanied by A. B. Seymour, salesman, for the national convention in Chicago, leaving May 14. Jack Raper, manager of the Fox office, will leave to be at the national convention in New York about May 23. Jimmy Winn, manager for the Educational offices, is lined up for a dandy trip to the convention at Montreal, Canada. He will leave the middle of May and will return June 1.

W. R. Liebman, formerly with Pathe as branch manager here, has returned to take charge of the office after having been at the Minneapolis branch. He succeeds A. H. Levy, who has resigned to take a tour of Canada.

Jess Day, who has taken the management of the Oshkosh theatre at Oshkosh, Wis., is well pleased with his new position. Mr. Day has a 1,500-heat house which is installed with both the Vitaphone and the Movietone and is directly under Homer Gill, who is district manager for the Midwesco theatres there.

P. D. Allman, who has the management of the Rialto at Davenport, was in Des Moines last week to confer with the headquarters of the Blank independent chain of theatres. Vitaphone is to be installed at the Rialto in the near future.

Abe Frankle, veteran showman, announced that Riverview Amusement Park, of which he is the manager, had a very auspicious opening on May 9. Mr. Frankle, who has been interested in the theatre business for more than fifteen years, has limited his part in the theatre field to the Casino theatre, of Des Moines, and spends all his time upon the Riverview Park interests. He has a very capable manager for the Casino in Miss Lillian Rittenmeyer.

Visitors in Movie Row last week were L. F. Wolcott, of Eagle Grove, J. P. Hundling of the Rialto, the Publix house at Newton. Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Godtland, who are joint managers of the theatre at Lake Mills. These ladies have been associated in the theatre business at Lake Mills for several years. Their house is known as the Irving theatre. A. J. Johnson, of the Hawkeye theatre at Graettinger, who rarely visits the film exchanges, was a welcome visitor this week. He was in to buy pictures and advertising.

Harry Weinberg, of the Commonwealth Theatres Company, announces that this organization has taken over the Ritz theatre at Sheridan, Iowa, which will be under the management of T. W. Thompson. The Lincoln theatre, which has been in charge of the Commonwealth theatres organization for some time, under the management of Harry Ward, will show pictures just at the week-ends and will be run also by Mr. Thompson.

Harry Ward, who has been at the Lincoln theatre at Sheraton, Iowa, is the new manager of the Strand theatre in Des Moines, succeeding Jess Day. He was manager of the Blank house at Clinton for a period of years.

E. P. Hosack, the new owner of the Alamo theatre at Pella, Iowa, has taken complete charge of the theatre which he bought from Chris Nelson. Mr. Hosack was recently at Ellston, Iowa.

W. H. Eddy, the popular exhibitor from Indianola, Iowa, is ill at the Iowa Lutheran Hospital in Des Moines. The office of M-G-M presented him with a bouquet of flowers and he is also receiving a number of fair visitors from along Movie Row. Mr. Eddy is a member of the Film Board arbitration board and secretary and treasurer of the Iowa M.P.T.O.A.

The sales force of Universal, in charge of Jack Osserman, returned from their spring convention, while the office of First National again welcomes Elmer Tilton, branch manager, and his trio, Clyde Pratt, Bill Finter and Lou Elman, who were in Chicago for the Midwestern sales convention.

W. E. Banford, manager for M-G-M, was at Cedar Rapids and Mason City, while out in the territory this week.

Casey Jones made quite a satisfactory record at the Capitol theatre during the two weeks that Jimmy Ellard, personality man, was on vacation. A big welcome home program is being planned for Jimmy next week.

John D. Howard, who has been for the past three years with the Saenger theatres in the south, has been made manager of the Rialto theatre at Omaha, an A. H. Blank-Publix house. The theatre has been in charge of Mr. Corach, who resigned.

The Strand theatre, at Grundy Center, has closed indefinitely. O. B. Eels, who has had charge of this house for several years, reports that business in this sector does not justify maintaining the theatre there.

The Pastime theatre, at Brandon, Iowa, owned by B. M. Bagley, is closed for the summer.

E. Levine, who had announced that he would return to the Publix School, will remain at the Des Moines theatre in Des Moines.

South West

OTTO J. ROHDE, branch manager for Warner Brothers, has returned from New York, where he attended the annual Warner Brothers sales convention.

J. F. Via, who has been operating the Palace theatre at Blackwell, Oklahoma, for the past several years, advises he has relinquished his lease and the theatre is temporarily closed.

W. B. Zoellner, branch manager for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, returned last week after attending a district sales convention held by Metro in Kansas City.

W. P. Moran, branch manager for Universal, together with his able sales force, spent last week in St. Louis attending the Universal sales convention.

The Royal theatre, at Ralston, Oklahoma, has been closed for the summer months.

Aubrey & Colquitt have relinquished their lease on the Olympia theatre at Braman, Oklahoma. The theatre is being taken over by its owner, O. S. McKee, who expects to operate it personally.

Pat McGee, manager of the Criterion theatre, Oklahoma City, is recovering rapidly from a recent tonsil operation.

Fred Garrison, who has been operating the Rialto theatre at Okeene, Oklahoma, for the past two years, visited Film Row last week, accompanied by G. W. Greene, who has just purchased the theatre from Garrison. Mr. Greene has been mayor of Okeene for the past twelve years.

E. V. Weaver, of the Senate and Osage theatres at Shidler, Oklahoma, visited friends on Film Row last week.

J. W. Clem advises he has purchased the Cozy theatre, at Slick, Oklahoma, from P. A. Barton.

E. W. Johnson and Harry Schafer were business callers on Film Row the past week.

C. O. Scrivner, of Sulphur, Okla., is reported to have purchased the Empress theatre at Roff, Okla. The Empress has been closed for the last several months and Scrivner expects to re-open same immediately.

Marie Murrow, of the local Universal office, has returned to her desk after a visit with her parents in Enid, Okla.

H. W. Ferguson, advertising manager for the Mid-West Enterprises, is back on the job, after a short absence due to illness.

Orville Enloe, manager of the Criterion theatre at El Reno, Oklahoma, paid a business visit to Film Row last week.

R. E. Griffith, manager of Griffith Amusement Company, is in New York on a business trip. During his absence the assistant manager and booker, H. A. Falls, devoted a week's vacation to county jury service.

Incorporation—New Palace theatre, capital stock $30,000, Blackwell, Okla. Incorporators, Charles Bellarits, T. L. Tetirick, and Allie Aubrey.

E. E. Collins has been transferred by Publix theatres from Queen and Fremont theatres in Galveston to Houston, Texas, and is succeeded by L. E. Sowar, of Fort Smith, Ark.

The Empress theatre at Oklahoma City is remodeling its stage for the purpose of presenting vaudeville performances. Tom H. Boland, manager of the Empress, has gone to Chicago for both business and pleasure purposes.

The Texan theatre, at Throckmorton, Texas, sustained a small fire recently.

H. L. Houston will remodel his Crystal theatre at Pittsburg, Texas.

M. A. Connally has taken over the Palace theatre at Hemphill, Texas.

The new Arcadia theatre at Harlingen, Texas, has opened for business.

East Texas theatres announce cut in admission prices at Mount Pleasant, Texas, to 5 and 10 cents for all shows.

Hall Industries have opened their Rialto theatre at Kenedy, Texas.

The R. & R. Washington theatre at Sherman, Texas, was slightly damaged by fire.

Tony Ryan, Fox manager at Oklahoma City, visited in Tulsa, Okla., last week.

Salt Lake City

THE Walker theatre, operated by George E. Walker at Arco, Idaho, has recently had the latest type Simplex Projectors installed.

An order has been placed with the local office of the National Theatre Supply Company for a ventilating system to be installed at the Gem theatre at Filer, Idaho, owned by Mr. Tanner.

An Orchestraphone is now ready for delivery at the local branch of the National Theatre Supply Company.

According to report here the Opera House at Wellsville, Utah, has recently had the latest type Mazda equipment installed.

A Simplex Projector has just been installed at the North Cache High School at Richmond, Utah, for educational purposes.

Thomas Berts of the Rialto Amusement Company at Rocksprings, Wyo., just left this city after a visit of several days.

Columbia pictures are to be distributed from an office of their own here, located at 258 East 1st South street on the new film row. Dave Farquhar, who was branch manager in this city for Warner Brothers for the past several years, is to have charge.

Manager O. Wog of the Paramount Famous-Lasky exchange in this city, accompanied by all of the sales representatives, the ad-sales manager and the booking manager, left last week for the Paramount National convention at San Francisco.

L. C. Wingham is back from the Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer Managers convention held at Kansas City and is holding sales meeting with the local sales force preparatory to selling the 1928-29 products.

Home Office Representative Park Agnew of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer organization was recently in this city from the Denver office.

Manager Al O'Keefe will be back to his Pathe office from Butte, Mont., within the week and will leave for the Pathe National convention at Chicago.

Tony Hartford, manager here for Universal, salesmen C. C. McDermond and E. M. Gibson, and Office Manager E. S. Winward have left for Universal convention being conducted at San Francisco.

Wayne Ball, manager here for Warner Bros., returned last week from the convention held by Warner Bros. at New York.

Manager W. F. Gordon of the Associated First National exchange, is back from the National convention as are Salesmen Stewart and Hawkes.

Clyde H. Messinger, of the Educational office here, left his managerial desk last week for the Cache Valley section of Utah. The Educational national convention is to be held at Montreal, Canada, commencing May 22nd, and Messinger will leave to attend upon his return from Northern Utah.

Manager Charles Walker of the Fox office in this city expects to leave within the next few days for New York, where the Fox convention is to be held. Salesman J. L. Tidwell is in from his Southern Utah territory and Joe McEnhinney is still in his Montana section, while Harry Levey is in Idaho.

Andy Murdock of the Ideal theatre at Heber City, Utah, was among exhibitor visitors looking over some of the new season's products last week.

George Smith of the Gem and Empress at Magan, Utah, was also in attending to his bookings.

For the coming year the Columbia exchanges of Salt Lake and Denver have arranged to distribute the Gotham line-up of product.

J. T. Sheffield, owner of the Columbia exchanges in Denver and Salt Lake, spent a few days in this city from Denver the past week.

J. H. Miller, of the Cameo theatre at American Fork, Utah, was a recent visitor.

Exhibitor Tony Duvall of the Gem theatre at Murray, Utah, fell and broke his wrist recently.

It was stated at the local film mart that J. W. Johnson of the Iris at Midvale is ill with diphtheria.

"Hap" Fredericks, local exchange manager for Columbia, has spent the past few weeks in the Idaho branch, and is expected to be back to his office here the latter part of the week.

Royal W. Taylor of the Salem theatre at Salem, Utah, was among exhibitors visiting here.

Louis Marcus, president and general manager of the Louis Marcus Enterprises, left for San Francisco last week to attend the Paramount convention as a guest.

Joe Koehler of the Idaho theatre at Twin Falls, Idaho, recently spent a short time in this city.

Mell Stringham of the Colonial theatre at Ogden, Utah, was also among exhibitor visitors seen along the row recently.

The new State theatre had its formal opening the evening of May 5th. The interior of the theatre has been decorated and fitted out at a cost of $60,000 and will seat 500 persons on the main floor and 200 in the balcony. The house is under the management of Jos. Lawrence and George Randall, who operate the Rialto theatre here. The projection apparatus, according to the managers, is of the latest type obtainable.

Manager Fred Lind of the F. B. O. exchange is at Chicago attending the convention held there. A regional convention will be held at the Salt Lake office the week of May 21st for the Denver, Butte and Salt Lake salesmen.

Omaha

THEATRE managers have another thing to think about now, Krug Park, the local outdoor playground has opened. There are many outdoor features and also five reels of pictures.

George Johnson, popular young organist at the Riviera theatre, crashed into front page publicity the other day with an announcement of his engagement to Omaha's perfect flapper.

Another one of the boys from the Riviera who is stepping out to make a name for himself is Lawrence Jones. Jones has been sent to Waterloo, Iowa, to try his hand at stage band directing. Lawrence is a protege of Paul Spor, Riviera master of ceremonies.

The Golden Coast Limited pulled out of Omaha Thursday morning carrying about three hundred western division managers, bookers and salesmen headed for the Paramount convention in San Francisco.

John D. Howard arrived last Wednesday to take over the duties as manager at the Rialto, Howard comes all the way from Mobile, Alabama. This is his second assignment in this vicinity, having been manager of the Broadway theatre in Council Bluffs some two years ago.

The Gaiety theatre closed burleque for the season last week. They are now running pictures. The management has not announced whether they would continue with this policy or not.

The boys at Paramount Exchange are all hopped up over the thoughts of the convention next week. San Francisco will be the center of activities. Omaha will be represented by A. Mendenhall, branch manager; O. M. Newhouse, booking manager; I. W. Fisher, ad sales manager, and Salesmen C. F. Reese, W. E. Baker, W. A. Burke, and Jack McCarty The boys plan to leave Wednesday morning for the coast.

Frank Hensler, branch manager of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, returned last week from the district convention at Kansas City.

Milton Korrach has resigned as manager of the Rialto theatre, and has not announced any plans for the immediate future. Bob Vore, assistant to Korrach, remains as house manager and is handling house operation, while Ed Bresendine, of the Riviera Publicity Department, is doing the exploitation and advertising.

B. W. Prusiner, of the Blank Enterprises, was a visitor, spending the week end in Omaha.

Chicago

THE Orpheum theatre, Rockford, has been leased by Forest City Theatres, Inc., a new company headed by Charles Lamb, president, and Russell Lamb, secretary and treasurer. The house, which was owned by the Rockford Enterprises, Inc., has been operated by Great States for some time past. The new Lamb organization has also taken over the Palm theatre, which has been under the management of Russell Lamb. It is understood that the Orpheum will be closed in June, and after being remodeled, may open in fall as a stock house. The only Rockford theatre now controlled by Great States Theatres, Inc., is the Cornado, which this company will continue to operate.

Gradwell Sears, manager of First National's Chicago office, is receiving congratulations over being the father of an eight and one-half pound boy.

Homer Gill has been appointed district manager of all Midwesco theatres in Wisconsin, outside of the City of Milwaukee.

A. W. Szold, of the Apez theatre, Peoria, was a caller on film row last week.

C. W. Nebel, of Community Theatres, Inc., reports that his company's new Geneva theatre at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, is nearing completion and will open on May 30th.

The Rialto theatre at Racine, Wisconsin, is about to close. This house is owned by the Universal Circuit which recently opened the new Venetian theatre in Racine.

The Woods theatre will inaugurate a policy of feature photoplays and musical company stock on May 30th, according to Jones, Linick & Schaefer, the owners. Johnnie Jones, Jr., will become manager of the Woods when the change in policy becomes effective.

Jules J. Rubens, of Great States Theatres, Inc., is making a tour of all the houses on the company's circuit.

W. D. Burford, of Great States, has returned to Chicago after a trip to New York City and Detroit, where he attended the Paramount convention. Mr. Mayer, also of Great States, joined Mr. Burford in Detroit for the convention.

Carl Leserman, recently appointed manager of First National's Cleveland office, was compelled to return to Chicago, on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Leserman. He has been here for over two weeks and his many friends will be glad to learn that his wife is showing some improvement and there are now strong hopes for her recovery.

M. P. Kelley, director of publicity of the Midwesco Theatres, Inc., was in Chicago recently and made a tour of the neighborhood de luxe houses.

Divisional Manager Wallace of United Artists was in Omaha last week while Manager Abrose of the local office was making a trip through the territory. Al Lichtman, of this company, stopped off for a brief visit at the local headquarters and then continued his journey from New York City to the West coast.

Jack M. Schwartz, who recently severed his connection with First National as a salesman, is now in that capacity for Fox and has been assigned to his old territory in Illinois. Another addition to Manager Clyde Eckhardt's staff is E. L. Goldberg, another veteran film man who was recently branch manager for Paramount at Peoria. Mr. Goldberg will cover central Illinois.

Ruben's Rialto theatre at Joliet is celebrating its second anniversary next week and will offer patrons a gala program.

Denver

COLUMBIA will soon open their own distributing branch in Denver under the management of Eugene Gerbase, well known film man in the Denver territory. Gerbase is now attending a Columbia convention and is expected to return to Denver with definite plans for the future concerning distribution plans.

Mrs. Rosetta Fairchild, mother of Frank Fairchild, died at her residence in Ft. Collins, Colo., last Monday from an attack of influenza. She was buried in the Crown Hill cemetery of Denver last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Fairchild was 76 years old at the time of her death. Frank Fairchild is manager of the Ft. Collins theatres of the Kohn and Fairchild Amusement Co. He is one of the leading exhibitors of the Denver territory.

J. G. Kittleson, former owner and manager of the Liberty theatre, Salt Creek, Wyo., was elected mayor of Salt Creek at an election held last Tuesday. I. C. Floersheim, manager of the Pastime theatre of Springer, N. M., was also recently elected mayor of his city.

Wm. Nagle is building a new 500 seat theatre in Gallup, N. M., which will be ready for its grand opening in the near future. Nagle has named his theatre the Gallup. It will furnish opposition to the Rex theatre, now the only amusement house in the New Mexico town.

J. H. Ashby and party of the local First National office returned last Friday from the National convention held in Chicago. R. J. Morrison, Fox branch manager, leaves soon to attend a convention in New York City. He will stop over in Cleveland en route and continue his journey to New York City with Ward Scott, who is managing the Fox branch office in Cleveland. Sam H. Cain, Universal manager, is attending a convention in San Francisco. S. D. Weisbaum and Sam Feinstein of F.B.O. left last week for Chicago to attend their convention. The convention of F. B. O. this week will be followed by the Pathe convention the following week. A. G. Edwards, local branch manager of Pathe, will attend.

Harry Lustig, district manager for Warner Bros., was in Denver visiting Chas. R. Gilmour, branch manager here. Lustig is enroute to the coast from the national convention held recently in New York City.

Thomas Love, exhibitor, operating the Hanna theatre of Hanna, Wyo., was in Denver last week doing some business with exchanges.

B. M. Shooker, for years an independent distributor in Denver, has sold out his interest in the Atlas exchange to C. B. Mark.

The Paramount office delegation of Denver left last Thursday for Los Angeles to attend their sales convention. They will be gone for about ten days.

Over in Crede, Colo., John Mattern will open the Opera House, with high class movie shows for the coming season. The theatre was formerly operated by the American Red Cross there.

H. C. Howe, a new comer among exhibitors, has purchased the Liberty theatre of Vona, Colo., from Fred Flannagan.

In Salt Creek, Wyo., J. G. Kittleson has sold the Liberty theatre to D. H. McNeill, who has also been operating the Midwest theatre of Midwest, Wyo. Robert Saunders, former manager of the Liberty theatre, will manage the theatre in Midwest.

A report comes from Roy, N. M., that Wm. G. Johnson and Roy Self will try their hand as exhibitors in the operation of the Pendrick, formerly operated by R. A. Pendleton.

Ray Bartlett, exhibitor in Artesia, N. M., has taken over the operation of the Cozy theatre of Portales, N. M. The Cozy theatre has been closed for several months. Its reopening will furnish opposition to the Portola theatre.

Minneapolis

THE town of Clark, S. D., has approved Sunday shows by a vote of 299 to 110, and for the first time in its history will have movies on the Sabbath. An attempt to put over Sunday shows was made two years ago at an election, but was defeated at that time. Mrs. James Leslie, proprietor of Clark's theatre, has been working diligently since that time to bring about a favorable verdict from the voters.

Mark Ross has been appointed manager of the Theatre Owners Film Exchange, it was announced last week by W. A. Steffes, president of the Northwest Theatre Owners and general manager of the film division of that organization.

The State theatre at Jackson, Minn., is to have a new organ, according to F. A. Matuska, its owner.

William Gould, who is M-G-M salesman in North Dakota, has recovered from an illness which kept him in the hospital for nearly five weeks.

Fire did slight damage recently to the Opera House at Granite Falls, Minn.

The Southern theatre, Minneapolis, had the dials of its safe knocked off by robbers last week, but there didn't happen to be any cash in the strongbox.

Harry Smith has taken over the Bijou theatre at Browns Valley, Minn., from W. E. Zetzman.

H. A. Brummond, veteran theatre owner of Thief River Falls, Minn., underwent an operation for mastoids.

Albany

FRANCIS J. McCARTHY, manager of the First National exchange in Buffalo, came to Albany last week to confer with the local manager relative to bookings for the Schine circuit.

William Smalley has so far recovered from his long illness that he was in New York City last week. Mr. Smalley was reported to have regained his old time pep and there is a warm welcome awaiting him from his many friends along Albany's film row.

Lee Langdon, one of the old timers in the booking business, returned to Albany last week, after spending some time in New York City.

"Al" Guteck, local manager for F. B. O., left last Saturday for Chicago, where he will attend his company's convention.

Lew Buettner, of Cohoes, served as one of the exhibitors at last Monday's meeting of the Board of Arbitration. Buettner was a sick man for several weeks, but is now back on the job and looks in fine shape.

Nat Levy, manager for Universal in Albany, blossomed forth last week with a brand new Buick touring car.

M. E. Silberstein, of Catskill, was a bit worried last week when a fire broke out in the neighborhood of the Community theatre and for a time threatened to sweep the business centre of the village. Hard work on the port of the firemen, however, confined the fire to one of the large business blocks.

Manager Pearlman, of the James theatre in Utica, paid his first visit to Albany last week, and became acquainted with many of the boys along film row. He was accompanied by Sam Slotnick, owner of the house.

W. W. Farley, owner of the Farash theatres in Schenectady, was much pleased last week at the showing made by Governor Alfred E. Smith in the California primaries.

The village band in Warrensburg will not only play this summer but will also have new uniforms as the result of a benefit given last week at the Fairyland theatre.

Ernest J. Wolf, formerly exhibitor in Lowville, is now looking forward to a loving cup or two from the annual dog show in Syracuse, where he will exhibit this week his famous Great Danes.

George Dwore, owner of the Cameo, Capitol and Colony theatres in Schenectady, did considerable booking along film row last week. V. F. Winne, of Cherry Valley, wearing knickers, was also along the row booking.

Irving Goldsmith of Saratoga Springs, a Supreme Court Justice, and part owner of a theatre in his home city, presided at a term of court in Brooklyn last week. Goldsmith's house is now booking prereleases for the racing month of August.

Boosting the new product, film managers and salesmen are like flies these days around some of the theatres. William Benton, entertained, or at least received, according to his own word, at least half of the branch managers of Albany last week. But that is nothing to the way they have flocked to the Schine offices in Gloversville.

William Shirley played the part of host at the State theatre in Schenectady one night last week in observing his tenth year in the show business in the electric city. The party was held in the lobby of the theatre following the last show of the evening. About 100 persons attended. There was an orchestra for dancing and plenty in the way of feed. During the evening Shirley was presented with a handsome gold watch by his employees. The Farash Company, with which Mr. Shirley is associated, took over the lease last week of the Hudson theatre in Schenectady.

Windbiehl and Shelly, of Amsterdam, operating the Orpheum, report business as being good these days. They cater to the working classes of the city.

George Goldberg, a well known film salesman in Albany, returned last Saturday from a week's swing through the Adirondack region, and reported road conditions as being much better than during the last few weeks.

Lumberg and Robbins, owners of the Uptown theatre in Utica, are planning to make the house a subsequent run one.

It looks as though Abe VanDusen, booker at the F. B. O. exchange, is in line for a nice fat check in the near future. VanDusen has been in the money for the past five weeks in the bookers cash drive which is now winding up.

The new Stanley theatre in Utica, which will open soon, is one of the most imposing structures in the business centre of the city and one in which residents are already taking much pride. Smalley's theatre in Johnstown is also rounding in shape and will be opened in the very near future.

When asked last week as to how business was going, Morris Silverman, of Schenectady, replied that he had taken in more during one day the previous week than he had during three days this past week. Bob Pierce of Ilion summed up the situation by saying: "Business not so good of late."

William Benton has definitely decided to operate a theatre that is to be built in Plattsburg, and which will be one of the outstanding houses along the northern border.

Jack Krause, former manager for Tiffany in Albany, is now an automobile salesman, handling the Reo line.

Tony Veiller, who recently resigned as manager of the Mark Ritz in Albany, appeared at the steering wheel of a brand new car last week, and journeyed over to Boston for the week end. Mrs. Veiller, who has been confined at a local hospital, was able to return home during the week.

George Tetrault, owner of the Grand in Watervliet, is now running three days a week and is finding the going rather hard with the second street carnival within three weeks.

Pete Dana, local manager for Tiffany, arrived home last week from New York.

San Francisco

ADVANCE trailers are now established with definite distributing headquarters in all of the Pacific Coast division branch exchange centers. Art A. Schayer, general division manager, recently visited San Francisco, where he completed arrangements for a local office in the All Star Film Exchange Building. Joseph F. Samuels will be the resident manager.

The opening of the new Warner Brothers theatre in Hollywood, April 29th, caused a traffic congestion for 20 blocks, according to a message received from W. B. Wagnon, manager of the Embassy here.

The Publix Theatres Corporation have placed what is considered by showmen the largest single order ever given for theatre chairs—over 40,000.

J. Frank Shay has returned to New York after several weeks spent in the FBO exchanges in this territory.

George E. Rust, of Georgetown, was here for a few days getting bookings lined up for his theatres. He has taken over the Folsom theatre, Folsom, California, since May 1st. Jack Frates was the owner.

Chas. Kauffman, his wife and son were seen recently on Film Row.

W. A. Thresher, of Wasco, was seen on the Row getting his bookings set for the coming season.

G. C. Parsons has left to attend the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer convention which is being held at Kansas City.

Jack Bettencourt made a short trip to Hollywood—looking over the situations.

Jimmie Chapman has been advanced from the booker's desk at Educational to salesman.

Phil Weinstein is proud of the new and enlarged branch exchange office improvement that is being done in his Columbia home at 177 Golden Gate avenue.

The new West Coast theatre in Oakland will be seated with American chairs, furnished and installed by C. F. Weber & Co., of San Francisco.

Henry Fontana, of Lindsay, favored the bookers with dates recently.

Walter Berger is now at the booker's desk at Educational, having been promoted to that position when Jimmie Chapman vacated it to start his career selling film.

R. Pollock, of Calistoga, was a recent visitor on the Row. He says vacation time is coming on and Calistoga is waiting for people.

Don Smith, formerly assistant manager of the local P.D.C. office, and later with Tiffany, following the P.D.C.-Pathe combine, is now connected with United Artists, having accepted the San Joaquin territory recently covered by Fred Gage.

The new theatre now under construction at San Bruno will have theatre chairs of the American Seating Company manufacture, furnished and installed by C. F. Weber & Co.

Oliver B. Prickett recently announced the opening of his new Alcazar theatre, Carpinteria, Calif.

Oliver Watson, a former stock and bond salesman from Detroit, is a new addition to the sales force of F.B.O.

Nadine Amos spent her vacation in Los Angeles.

EMPIRE FILM VAULTS, INC.
723 Seventh Ave., N. Y. Bryant 5437-5736-2180
STORAGE OF MOTION PICTURE FILMS

Baltimore

NEW rates which went into effect at the New Garden here beginning Monday, May 7, were: 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., entire house 35 cents; 1 p.m. to 5.30 p.m., orchestra 50 cents and balcony 35 and 25 cents; 5.30 p.m. to closing, orchestra 60 cents, balcony 50 and 35 cents. This brings this Keith-Albee high class vaudeville and picture house to a level on prices with the other first-run theatres in town with a 60 cent top.

Mary Pascor, assistant bookkeeper at the New theatre office here, has resigned to become connected with a lawyer's office.

Work has been started on the new theatre being erected at Welch, W. Va., for Samuel Polon and C. D. Brewster, which will cost about $100,000. It was designed by Alex Mahood, architect, Bluefield, W. Va.

The Grand theatre, Greer, S. C., was destroyed by fire recently. This house was owned by C. W. Drace and the loss is estimated at about $25,000.

The Empire theatre, Winchester, Va., owned by the Shenandoah Valley Theatres Corporation, of which Isaac Weinberg is the head, is to be remodeled and have an addition built to it costing about $100,000. The contract for the work has been given to the Neilson Construction Company, Harrisburg, Pa.

Plans are under way by the Enterprise Theatre Company, to build a theatre to seat 2,500 persons to measure 120 by 110 feet. Plans were drawn by Milburn, Heister and Company, Washington, D. C.

The Oakford theatre, Richwood, W. Va., was one of the buildings destroyed in a large fire which destroyed many buildings in that city recently. The entire loss was about $325,000.

An addition is to be built to the Lyric theatre, Baltimore, to cost about $50,000, from the plans by Taylor and Fisher, architects, of this city. This theatre, managed by J. Albert Young, is used for concerts, operas and moving picture special performances. The last shown there were Kreimhilde and Seigfried.

The Liberty theatre, Cumberland, Md., owned by Tom Burke, is to be remodeled and have an addition built to it costing about $35,000. The plans were drawn by H. R. Hitchens, architect, Cumberland.

A lodge building, theatre and store to be built at Hagerstown, Md., will cost about $50,000. It is being built by B.P.O.E. No. 378 of Hagerstown, after the design of C. E. Kountz and A. J. Klinkhart.

Phillip J. Scheck, part owner of Keith's Hippodrome, here, is rapidly completing the work on the Dixie theatre, West Baltimore street, which he recently took over and which was formerly operated by Nat Keene. The house is being entirely remodeled.

A large electric sign with 300 bulbs going 35 feet high has been built over the front entrance of the Garden theatre, Cumberland, Md.

The Orpheum theatre, Portsmouth, Va., has been leased to the Theatres Corporation of America and the company will remodel it, to reopen as a first run house, seating 1,700 persons.

St. Louis

ANOTHER drive to close the theatres of Springfield, Mo., on Sundays was launched on May 6, when Paul Bennett, a singing evangelist, filed complaints against six local motion picture theatre operators.

Missouri theatres and other places of amusement paid $334,912 in internal revenue taxes for the first nine months of the present fiscal year, compared with $258,735 for the same period the previous year.

State Senator Joseph Mogler, president of the St. Louis Motion Picture Exhibitors League and owner of the Mogler, Bremen and Excello theatres in North St. Louis, has filed as a candidate for Republican city committee man from his ward.

Eddie Peabody, who was scheduled to take over the master-of-ceremonies job at Skouras Brothers' Missouri theatre on May 12, has decided to stay on the Pacific Coast. His sudden decision forced Skouras Brothers and Reeves Espy, publicity director for Skouras Enterprises, to make a hurried trip to New York City in search of some one to fill the position formerly occupied by Brooke Johns.

Arthur Nealy, master of ceremonies at Skouras Brothers Missouri theatre, was forced to lay off May 2 because of a badly infected hand and will not be able to return for another week or so. Freddy Bernard has taken over the master-of-ceremonies position.

Mason Peters, former newspaper man, has been named business manager of the Garden theatre on the Olive street road in St. Louis county.

J. Earle Estes is the new guest organist of the St. Louis theatre, Grand and Delmar boulevards, St. Louis. Estes is a native of St. Louis. He joined the Orpheum Circuit nine years ago.

Jack O'Toole, formerly St. Louis manager for Pathe, has entered the golf business as the local representative of Play Golf. He has temporary quarters at 3320 Lindell boulevard and has installed a full line of golf paraphernalia. Exhibitors and others desiring to improve their game of golf should consult Jack, who even has in stock some "hole in one" clubs which will get the desired results with proper handling under favorable conditions.

Visitors of the week included Mrs. I. W. Rodgers, Cairo, Ill.; Bill Karstetter, Columbia, Mo., and Ted Yemm, Duquoin, Ill.

W. S. Johns, father of Brooke Johns, former master of ceremonies at the Missouri theatre, St. Louis, Mo., died on his son's farm near Rockville, Md., on April 28. The elder Johns was 67 years old and had been in ill health for many months.

Cleveland

THERE have been several changes of personnel in the local Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange. Frank Belles has resigned as office manager, and Louis A. Freiberg, formerly with Fox in Albany, has been appointed to succeed him. Arthur Engelbert, cashier, has been succeeded by A. E. Rohlfs. Rohlfs has been with the M-G-M organization for the past eleven years.

Jack Gardner, of Toledo, figured in the real estate transactions of his city last week when he bought the Artcraft theatre from W. L. Beckham.

In Ashland, Ohio, the Sunday movie antagonists have broken out again. The ministerial association has called a mass meeting to get the majority opinion of the citizens in regard to Sunday movies. Exhibitors of Ashland, no less active, are also calling a mass meeting in the expectation that they will get the larger crowd.

Jack Flanigan, of Tri-State Motion Pictures, and Pathe cameraman, was in New York at the time of the public reception in honor of the Bremen flyers and participated in getting News Reel pictures of them. Flanigan also got their pictures while in Cleveland and had them on the screen the same day on which they were in the city.

The Cleveland Motion Picture Exhibitors Association held an organization meeting last Thursday. William James, president of the M.P.T.O. of Ohio, and P. J. Wood, business manager of the M.P.T.O. of Ohio, were present from Columbus. The association was particularly interested in discussing the possibilities of a state law being introduced which would make it compulsory for every exhibitor to use a safety device on projection machines before obtaining an operating license. Such a law exists in Philadelphia, and it is rumored that an effort will be made to introduce a similar law in other states. Cleveland and the Ohio state exhibitor organization are taking time by the forelock and are laying plans to prevent such a law from being introduced in Ohio.

William James, president of the M.P.T.O. of Ohio, is secretary of the Know Ohio Week, starting May 20, set aside to educate Ohioans as to the growth, industry and possibilities of Ohio. Governor Donahey is president of the movement.

Louis Isreal's Standard theatre, Prospect avenue and East Ninth street, suffered about $1,200 damages from fire one day last week. The fire started in the projection room. Two reels of film were destroyed, two motion picture projection machines were damaged, and the building was slightly damaged. The house was closed for a few hours only, until mechanical repairs on the projectors could be made. Henry Lieb, 4880 East 85th street, operator, escaped without injury.

New York & New Jersey

THE coming of the summer months has prompted the management of the Park Theatre, 44th Street and 5th Avenue, Brooklyn, to side-track from its present picture and vaudeville policy, and run instead stock burlesque and photoplays.

The Plaza, Heights Theatre Corporation house, located on High Street, Brooklyn, has undergone a change of management, with C. Bevilacqua succeeding Billy Marrow.

Harry Nesdler is the new manager of the Fortway, an independent house, located on Fort Hamilton Parkway, Brooklyn.

The Eden Theatre, at 201 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, formerly operated by the Genell-Pelkiner-Horowitz circuit, and which has been temporarily closed, will reopen soon under a new banner.

For the third time, ownership of the Floral Park Theatre, Floral Park, L. I., a practically new house, has changed hands. H. O'Neil, who originally built the theatre, has taken it over from the Schwartz Circuit. Michael Blinn was the first owner.

Hymie Bloom has been appointed manager of the Major Theatre, an independent, located on Canal St. Bloom fills the place formerly occupied by P. Doblin.

The new State Theatre, West Orange, New Jersey, owned by Mrs. Bogenstein, will be opened sometime in June, under the management of Jack Halpern, formerly of the Savoy in West Orange.

According to rumors along the curb, Max Kramer will erect a new, modernly-equipped theatre on First Avenue, between 55th and 56th Streets.

Closed for several months, the Linden Theatre, Linden, N. J., formerly owned by George Slatter, was reopened last week by Aaron and Benjamin Chausmin under the name of St. George.

Morris Needles, owner of the Park West Theatre, 99th Street and Columbus Avenue, is back in New York again after a long holiday in the South, where he acquired an enviable coat of tan and a hard-earned rest.

Two new links will be added to the fast growing chain of Pollak and Bratter theatres, with the opening very soon of their Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., house, and another at Rahway, N. J., in the early summer.

Another installation of Vitaphone has been reported, this time by Manager Louis La Rocca, of the Park Plaza, a Lask and Greenberg house, located at Tremont and University Avenues, the Bronx. La Rocca announced the initial presentation a huge success.

Julius Wolfe, formerly owner of the Miller Theatre, Saratoga Avenue, Brooklyn, is now operating the Bay Theatre, Bath Ave. and 20th St., which he recently purchased from W. Weinberg. Weinberg, it is believed, will retire from the show business for a while.

"Chick" Meehan, prominent New York University football coach, dropped in at the Pathe Exchange last week, and gave the boys some new pointers on exhibitor "touchdowns." "Chick's" main purpose in the visit was to discuss the production of his second series of football shorts for Pathe distribution.

The Bronx will boast of another new and finely-equipped theatre, with the opening, about May 30th, of the Tuxedo, at Gun Hill Road and Jerome Avenue. The house will open under the direction of Morris Blinders.

Katherine Esposito, New York booker at Pathe Exchange, is the happy winner of the $100 first prize in the bookers' contest recently held by that company.

Marcell Goodwin has been appointed by Harry Taub as assistant manager of the Tivoli Theatre, Borough Hall, Brooklyn.

Isaac Katz, President of 85 Cortlandt, Inc., has sold the Cortlandt Theatre to the Marilyn Amusement Corporation, of which M. Hausener is President, and B. Guttman, Treasurer.

Since his purchase of the State Theatre, Boonton, N. J., from Mr. Sobelson, M. Snapper has opened the house one day a week, on Saturday, because of poor business.

The Auditorium Theatre, Highland, New Jersey, formerly an M & G enterprise, has been transferred to Marian Black.

New theatres that will open in the near future are: the Mayfair, Hillside, N. J.; the Park, Roselle Park, N. J., by Mr. Segal; and the Cameo Theatre, Nutley, N. J., by Louis Gold.

Abe Peshkin, who formerly conducted the Manhattan Theatre, Greenpoint, has acquired the Colonial Theatre, 7415 5th Avenue, Brooklyn, from H. Blinderman.

The Tuxedo Motion Picture Corporation has sold its Tuxedo Theatre, located at 42nd Street and 3rd Avenue, to John Vafiades.

Francis H. Robertson is now owner of the Art Theatre, 57th Street and 7th Avenue, Brooklyn.

The Palace Theatre, Huntington, L. I., has recently passed into the hands of the A. H. Schwartz circuit.

Mecca Theatre, at 441 East 14th Street, owned by Al Harston, has changed hands, and is now the property of the 14th Street Mecca Corporation, T. Kausman, President and M. Kausman, Secretary.

South East

MRS. R. B. WILBANKS, whose husband is the local Paramount manager, was recently in Atlanta visiting relatives.

Rufus A. Davis, of National Theatre Supply Company, has sold his interest in the Iris theatre, Salisbury, N. C., to Mrs. Phelps Sasseen.

The Charlotte Paramount Famous Lasky office won first place in the company's recent sales drive. Cash prizes were awarded at the convention in Washington, D. C., last week.

The Wonderland theatre, Durham, N. C., which closed April 30, having been condemned by city and state authorities, is being remodeled and will open in two or three weeks.

Mrs. Marion G. Wrenn, secretary of the Charlotte Film Board of Trade, left last week for the convention of secretaries, film boards of trade, which will be held in Los Angeles.

Announcement was made Monday, April 23, of the marriage of J. O. Mock and Mrs. Mary Conkwright, which took place Saturday, April 7. Mrs. Mock is connected with the Paramount office and Mr. Mock is with Educational's exchange as booker. The marriage came as quite a surprise to their many friends in the film industry.

The Strand theatre, Charlotte, N. C., has been leased by Miss Grace Brown, of Charlotte, and F. L. Brown, of Columbia, S. C., for a period of five years. The plan is to put on light musical comedies, vaudeville and good pictures at the Strand. The Strand will be completely renovated, with repainting and redecorating and put in first class shape.

Among visitors in Charlotte last week were W. S. Freezer, Badin theatre, Badin, N. C.; S. W. Williamson, Majestic theatre, Camden, S. C.; Messrs. Beam and Plummer, of Beam and Plummer Enterprises, Shelby, N. C.; V. D. Humphries, Lyric theatre, Bishopville, S. C.; C. I. Gresham, Artcraft theatre, Mooresville, N. C., and J. R. House, Victory theatre, Mooresville, N. C.

F. A. Leatherman returned to Atlanta last Monday from a trip north.

William G. Minder, southeastern division manager of Tiffany-Stahl Productions, with headquarters in Atlanta, left last week for the Florida territory.

Announcement is made from the offices of Milton Starr, at Nashville, Tenn., that three new theatres have just been acquired by the Starr-Scales Circuit. These new acquisitions by this circuit are the Liberty theatre of Greenville, S. C., the Eagle theatre of High Point, N. C., and the New Gem theatre of Reidsville, N. C. With the taking on of these houses, the Starr-Scales Circuit gains national recognition as the largest circuit of Negro theatres in the country.

The Starr-Scales Circuit now controls the following theatres: The Bijou theatre and Lincoln theatre of Nashville, Tenn.; the Lincoln theatre of Winston Salem, N. C.; the Lenox theatre of Augusta, Ga.; the Lincoln theatre of Charleston, S. C.; the Royal theatre of Columbia, S. C.; the Lincoln theatre of New Bern, N. C.; the Palace theatre of Ensley, Ala.; the Liberty theatre of Greenville, S. C.; the New Gem theatre of Reidsville, N. C., and the Eagle theatre of High Point, N. C.

Cincinnati

AMONG the recent managerial changes in central Ohio is the appointment of Thomas H. Ealand, who has taken charge of Loew's and United Artists' Broad theatre, at Columbus, Ohio. Ealand succeeds Charles F. Burns, who is returning to the home office in New York.

The Star theatre, Eaton, Ohio, is being extensively improved. An addition will be built at the rear of the house, and a modern heating plant will be installed. The interior will be entirely redecorated, and a new front will be built.

The Rex theatre, Ashland, Ohio, is all "lit up" with a new screen of the reflector type, which Manager Harry Carl recently installed.

The Ohio theatre, Mansfield, Ohio, recently featured the local high school band of eighty members as an added attraction to the regular program.

The Majestic, Mansfield, Ohio, has reduced the admission scale, the new schedule being 10 and 15 cents for afternoons, and 10 to 25 cents for evening performances.

Samuel Gorrell, veteran film salesman, has been appointed manager of Security Picture Exchange in Cincinnati.

New England

J. FRANK SHEA, division sales manager for F. B. O. on the West Coast and formerly sales manager at Boston for Paramount, was a visitor to Boston for several days. He came east to attend the F. B. O. convention sessions at Chicago.

Martha Ferris, secretary of the New England Film Board, left early last week for Los Angeles to attend the secretaries convention there.

Harry F. Campbell, district manager of the Fox exchange, Boston, was in New York for several days last week.

The Union Hill theatre at Gloucester, Mass., which has been running stock, will show an all comedy picture bill every Sunday in the future and run stock the rest of the week.

George Haley has resigned as manager of the Morton theatre in Dorchester and is succeeded there by Al Lourie, formerly manager of the Franklin Park theatre, Boston. A. Pinanski, formerly assistant manager at the Franklin Park theatre, has been advanced to manager of that theatre.

E. A. "Doc" Golden sails this week from New York for Russia in the interest of American films in that country. He will be absent about six weeks. He was formerly head of First Division Films, Boston, until it was taken over by H. A. Segal. Mr. Segal will now distribute First Division Films for New England from his exchange at 46 Church street, Boston.

The Elm theatre at West Springfield, Mass., opened Monday night for the season. Ed. Knight is the manager.

Harold Keegan of the Rialto theatre at Waterbury, Vt., was in Boston last week for the first time since the floods of last fall.

Walter Murphy and Ray S. Averill are to manage the Capitol and Crown theatres in New London, Conn.

John Carey has opened the Strand theatre at Oakland Beach, R. I. This is the second theatre to open at this resort this month.

The Mystic theatre at Malden, operated jointly by the Gree-Eilenburg and Ramsdell Brothers interests, has closed for the summer. It will reopen about Labor Day.

Edward Anderson of First National exchange has returned after an extended vacation and is covering New Hampshire and Vermont for that company.

Nate Ross, formerly of the First National staff at Boston, has been appointed branch manager for United Artists at St. John, N. B., and left during the week to take charge there. He is the second Boston salesman to be named branch manager for a Canadian exchange, Ralph Quive formerly of Pathe, having been named a week ago to take charge of United Artists exchange at Winnipeg.

Ann Rolfe of the inspection department at First National has sufficiently recovered her health after hospital treatment to return to her home. She has decided not to return to the film business.

A. P. "Del" Bibber, sales manager of First National exchange at Boston, has resigned. He suffered a long illness during the winter and had returned to his desk about a month ago. He will take a long vacation and will devote most of his spare time to managing his theatre at Portland Spring, Me.

William Kelley, salesman in the Boston territory for American Feature Films, is covering the ground in his new Nash.

Manager Bianchi of the Globe theatre at St. Johnsbury, Vt., was a visitor to Boston recently.

The Lincoln theatre at Quincy Point, Mass., has closed indefinitely.

George A. Smith has been appointed manager at the Capitol theatre at Somersville. He was formerly assistant at the Revere theatre in Revere. Before coming East, he was located with the Balaban-Katz interests in Chicago and the Publix theatres in Georgia.

Assistant General Manager Harold Messiter of New York is in charge of the New England territory for Universal Chain Theatres temporarily. He expects to remain in New England for several weeks.

The Pastime theatre at Chicopee, Mass., closed last Saturday for the summer and will reopen about Labor Day. The Casino theatre at Boston also closed last Saturday for the summer.

The Elm theatre at North Attleboro is soon to close temporarily, it is understood, for the purpose of making some extensive improvements in the house.

The Riverside theatre, Medford, has adopted a new policy. It will run double features with two changes of program weekly. Vaudeville has been discontinued.

Canada

THE 1928 convention of the eastern managers of Famous Players Canadian Corp., Toronto, will be held at Toronto, July 17 and 18, under the direction of Clarence Robson, Eastern Division manager. The Western Canadian convention will be held at Banff Springs, Alberta, on July 6 and 7, with H. M. Thomas, Toronto, Western Division manager, in charge. N. L. Nathanson, managing director; T. G. Bragg, comptroller; John Arthur, supervisor of music; Sam dePass and other officials of the company will conduct the discussions.

Famous-Players now owns or controls some 135 theatres in the Dominion and practically all managers will attend either one or other of the company conventions.

J. B. Bickell, of Toronto, vice-president of Famous Players Canadian Corp., has become a director of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Mr. Bickell is widely known for his mining and other business activities, being president of famous mines operated by the McIntyre-Porcupine Mines, Limited, and Castle-Tretheway Mines, Limited, and a director of other industrial companies.

The Empress theatre, a handsome new cinema on Sherbrooke street west, Montreal, seating 1,800, was formally opened May 19 with a combination policy of pictures and vaudeville.

The interior of Loew's theatre, Toronto, Ontario, is being practically rebuilt under the direction of the architectural firm of Thos. W. Lamb, New York, under whose direction the theatre was erected in 1913.

A new Wurlitzer organ has replaced the original organ which was burned; a much larger orchestra pit has been constructed to accommodate a concert orchestra; the boxes have been redesigned and other important changes made. In the meantime, Manager J. Bernstein is conducting regular performances in the Winter Garden, which is situated above the damaged theatre, the building being of the double-deck type.

Atlanta

JUDGING from the reception which Atlanta accorded the remodeled Rialto last Monday, and throughout the week, it seems certain that the theatre has guaranteed its future popularity for a long time to come with the new policy embracing Vitaphone and Movietone synchronized pictures. Wherefore, congratulations are in order for Publix, and for Manager W. T. Murray, who has devoted himself untiringly to the task of maintaining the Rialto popularity.

W. Ray Johnston, president of the Rayart Pictures Corporation, spent last Saturday in Atlanta in conference with Arthur C. Bromberg, head of the Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions.

News reached Film Row last week that Major John W. Quillian, who was formerly president of Enterprise Film Corporation, has sailed for France on business.

C. C. Jordan, formerly operator of the Arcade theatre, Kissimee, Fla., was in Atlanta last week negotiating the taking over of the Del Ray theatre, Del Ray, Fla.

Carl Cape, of the Colonial theatre, Buford, Ga., spent last Thursday in Atlanta.

Walter Bracken, of the Callahan theatre, Bambridge, Ga., was a recent visitor to Film Row.

P. J. Henn, of the Bonita theatre, Canton, Ga., also visited the film exchanges.

R. J. Barnes, formerly representative for United Artists, joined the sales force of Fox last week. He will cover the company's Alabama territory.

W. W. Anderson, manager of Pathe's Atlanta branch, made a trip to Savannah last week.

W. E. Dowdy, of the Canal Point theatre, Canal Point, Fla., was a recent caller among the exchanges.

The Atlanta Joint Board of Arbitration considered and disposed of approximately twenty-five cases at its regular meeting, held recently in the offices of the board at 101 Marietta street, Atlanta.

Paul A. Strachan, salesman for Pathe connected with the Memphis branch, was in Atlanta last week, having returned to the city on account of the illness of his wife.

A social event of interest was the Howard theatre and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Club dance, held at the Henry Grady Hotel last Saturday night.

Kansas City

TO own a theatre lobby is a good form of investment, it was proved by real estate records in Kansas City last week. A 20-foot strip of land occupied by the entrance and long lobby of the Pantages theatre, motion picture and vaudeville house, is under lease to the theatre for eighty-six years at a net rental of $5,000 a year. Albert Schoenberg, fee owner, sold that narrow strip last week to Kline's, Inc., of Kansas City, for $95,000. That corporation bought it at a sound investment, netting slightly better than 5 per cent.

At last the annual exhibitors-distributors baseball game has been set for the first week in June. All erstwhile players who are employed by exchanges have been requested to report to Tom Byerle of the First National exchange.

About fifty delegates of the West and Middle West attended the sales convention of M-G-M at the Hotel Baltimore, Kansas City, recently. The new product, new exploitation ideas and advertising campaigns were discussed. Felix Feist, general sales manager, was in charge of the meeting, which was attended by several home office executives, division managers and branch managers.

The Ritz theatre, suburban house of Kansas City, was bought last week by Dr. Nathan Zoglin from Oscar Litwin. The theatre occupies a corner site, 57 x 120 feet. The property was sold subject to a lease with three years to run, which contains an option of a 5-year extension.

Topeka, Kas., is to have a negro theatre, it has been announced. A building permit has been granted to Ben Kross, and the National Theatre Company, of which M. W. Jencks is president, will lease the theatre.

Nat Levine, producer of several serials; N. S. Shiren, home office auditor for Tiffany-Stahl, and Al Steffes were Kansas City visitors recently.

A. A. Renfro, formerly of the Pathe staff in Oklahoma City, has joined the Paramount sales force in Kansas City.

C. A. Schultz, manager of the Midwest Distributors, Inc., was hustling in the territory last week, as was Beverly Miller of the National Screen Service.

The Motion Picture Machine Operators' local union No. 170 in Kansas City gained some front page publicity in daily newspapers last week when the union voted unanimously in favor of municipal bonds, which were voted on by citizens.

The Orpheum theatre, first run and vaudeville house of Kansas City, closed its season last week.

After a battle which has lasted more than a year, it looks as though the Sunday closing question in Herington, Kas., is to come to a decision. Recently C. L. McVey, exhibitor, opened his house for five consecutive Sundays, then voluntarily closed on Sundays for two weeks and "put his ear to the ground" in order that he might sense the public pulse. Ministers adopted a resolution condemning the shows and citing the fact that there was a state law against such performances. McVey came back with the announcement that there was no law specifying it illegal to operate a motion picture show on Sunday, any more than there was a statute which prohibited an organist in a church from working for pay on Sundays. The "blue labor law" makes both unlawful, he said. The law, however, rarely has been enforced.

So McVey is going to leave the entire matter to the citizens of the little town. If the majority, by "mouth to mouth" vote, appear in favor of Sunday shows, there will be Sunday shows. Otherwise, there will be none.

A new Wicks pipe organ has been installed in the Douglas theatre, Lees Summit, Mo., by the J. W. Jenkins' Sons, Kansas City distributors.

The Temple theatre, Yates Center, Kas., has been purchased by J. M. Hobbs from H. Fuhrer.

The Isis theatre, Alton, Mo., which has been closed on account of a smallpox epidemic, has been re-opened.

The Kansas City First National branch held a golf tournament all of its own at the Lakewood Golf and Country Club, Kansas City, on May 15, according to Tom Byerle, branch manager.

Buffalo

BILL TISHKOFF, who, with M. Fogel, operates the Webster theatre in Rochester, was in town last week and took occasion to spike reports that the house was closing down.

Dick Walsh, head of the poster department of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange, has been promoted to salesman.

Fred Zimmerman, chief of the Theatrical Utilities Enterprises offices here, has recovered from an attack of influenza.

Buffalo's contribution to the National Vaudeville Association drive was greater this year than ever before, according to a letter last week to H. M. Addison, president of the Buffalo Theatre Managers' Association, from E. F. Albee. Theatres that participated in the drive here included Shea's Buffalo, Great Lakes, Shea's Hippodrome, Loew's, and the Lafayette.

R. C. Fox, head of the exchange bearing his name, made a trip to Rochester last week.

Leo Murphy, formerly of Pathe and Tiffany, is now with F. B. O., covering Niagara and Erie counties.

M. L. Osborne of Fredonia was a visitor to film row last week. Other out-of-town exhibitors who were here during the week included Max Fogel of the Princess theatre at Rochester and Mr. Stahley of the Monroe theatre in Rochester. Rumor has it that Mr. Fogel is contemplating closing his theatre at the end of this month for about six weeks to carry out some alterations and enlarge the house.

Ed Walsh, who recently resigned from First National, has joined F. B. O. in the Syracuse territory.

L. E. Chamberlin, of Batavia, of the New Aerial theatre, paid film row a visit.

Bobby Albert, of Lancaster, with the co-operation of some of the theatre managers, put on a show with movies and several stage acts for the inmates of the county jail last week.

Miles Cohen of the Majestic theatre at Jamestown was a recent visitor at the exchanges.

Detroit

WARNINGS have been issued to theatrical staff members in several downtown houses, following complaints against pickpockets. Last week, one woman was robbed of a $390 check and seven others reported the loss of small amounts of money.

An attempt to pass a $20 bill was thwarted by Catherine Porter, cashier at the Madison theatre, last Sunday evening. Catherine noticed the counterfeiter about to leave the theatre before having passed into the interior. She became suspicious and notified police, who apprehended the crook.

B. F. Keith's Temple, for many years a landmark in this locality, has been closed indefinitely. First run pictures booked at that house will hereafter be presented in the Uptown, the remaining K-A enterprise.

Joe Lee, press agent who presided at the Oriental for several months, has resigned to join Harry Carey and will tour as business manager through the Latin American countries.

E. H. Forbes, well known to exhibitors in the territory of the Detroit National Theatre Supply Co. branch, has taken over the duties of branch manager. He succeeds R. G. Colvin, who has been transferred to Kansas City as sales representative for the state of Kansas. Joe O'Neill, former office manager at Omaha, will fill the vacancy left by Forbes.

Glenn Harris, formerly manager of the Capitol theatre in Owosso, has been appointed manager of the Wuerth in Ann Arbor, Mich. For the past 14 years, Harris has been connected with the Butterfield organization.

UNIFORMS FOR HOUSE ATTACHES COSTUMES FOR STAGE PRESENTATIONS BROOKS 1437 B'way N. Y. City

Dallas

F. A. TOMES, manager of the Dallas Educational exchange, will leave next week for the convention at Montreal, Canada, and will be away from the office about two weeks.

E. H. Kleinert, musical director of the Melba theatre, was married recently to Miss Ann Leaf of Los Angeles, former feature organist of the Metropolitan theatre of Los Angeles. Mr. Kleinert has been appointed divisional supervisor of Vitaphone music for Publix with headquarters at the Melba theatre, Dallas.

Walter C. Crosbie, managing director of the Majestic theatre, was host recently to 250 orphans. Toto, the celebrated clown, made a big hit with the kiddies.

John J. Friedl, district manager of Publix theatres, and A. Hadyn Mason, managing director of the Palace theatre, announced that $200,000 will be spent in improving the Palace theatre. Work will start around June 1st and should be completed about July 15th. The front and lobby of the theatre will be widened and given an ornate appearance, a new electric sign, said to be the largest in the South, will be erected, and new ultra-modern electric stage equipment will be installed. The dressing rooms will be constructed, and new furnishings and carpets will be purchased, and new scene shifting apparatus will be installed. The unusually good patronage enjoyed by the Palace theatre warrants these new improvements.

L. E. Schneider and C. B. Stiff have returned from the Paramount convention and are now in Galveston to attend the opening of the Queen theatre there.

Ross A. Wiegand, former director of publicity for the Melba theatre, has been transferred to the Minneapolis theatre at Minneapolis.

Joe Dietch, district booker for Publix, has returned from the Paramount sales convention.

Earl T. Crabb, former manager of Texas for Publix, and more recently city manager for Keith-Albee at Boston, has resigned that position to accept the district managership for the Stanley chain at Philadelphia.

H. A. King of the King Scenic & Theatre Supply Co. states that he has just decorated three houses for the K. & H. Circuit, and that business generally is very good in both Texas and Oklahoma. Mr. King left for points in Oklahoma on business.

Colonel H. R. Fardwell has gone to Kansas City and Chicago on business pertaining to the erection of a theatre in Houston.

R. J. O'Donnell was in Chicago looking over some shows for Interstate.

Hal Nordfleet, former director of Kid comedies for Interstate, is out of the hospital.

The Oak Cliff Amusement Company has acquired the Sunset theatre.

F. L. Wolfe of the Beltonia theatre at Belton, Texas, and L. A. Walker of the Leroy theatre, Lampasas, were recent visitors at the First National exchange.

Visitors on film row the past week included H. A. Callahan of the Auditorium theatre, Crockett, Texas; Diaz Callahan from the Winter Garden, Carrizo Springs, Texas; Wm. Epstein, Aztec theatre, San Antonio; A. Martini of the Martini and Dixie theatres at Galveston.

E. C. Houston has closed his Crystal theatre at Pittsburgh, Tex., to remodel and expects to open again about June 1st.

The Mission theatre, operated by the Dent organization at Wichita Falls, has burned.

Mr. Wilkes, manager of the Dallas First National exchange, and his salesmen have returned from the company convention.

Tony Ryan, manager of the Fox exchange at Oklahoma City, was a Dallas visitor.

T. C. Kirksey of the Gem theatre at Lott, Texas, was a visitor on film row last week.

Milwaukee

A NUMBER of Milwaukee theatres recently changed managers. Victor Spector is new manager at the Murray theatre under the new regime. Harry Perlowitz will take over affairs at the Parkway. Perlowitz was formerly manager of the Savoy. Elmer Hall has been transferred from the Fern theatre to the Jackson. Jerry Turner, who was manager of the Parkway, is now at the Granada. Frank Galaska is now managing the Astor theatre. He was formerly at the Granada.

J. Ashkin is representing Tiffany in the Wisconsin territory. Ashkin was formerly associated with Tiffany and Educational in Toronto.

John Ludwig and Harry Perlowitz have taken over the Parkway theatre from the Goetz Bros.

The M-G-M Efficiency Club resumed its regular meetings on Wednesday of last week. Moving interrupted the schedule of meetings and this was the first get-together they have had in several months.

A number of out-of-town exhibitors were in the city last week. Among them were Francis Kadow of the Mikado theatre at Manitowoc; E. J. Bregger, of the Ejay theatre at Crystal Falls; Harvey Hanson, of the Palace at Antigo; Stella McGee, of the Opera House at Evansville; A. C. Accola, of the Bonham theatre at Prairie du Sac; John Adler, of Marshfield, and a contingent from Racine, including Donald M. Kessler of the Granada, Don Smith of the Capitol, Steve Dorece of the Star and Louis Rossa of the Douglas.

Arthur Arndt of the First National exchange has been ill for a week, suffering from an attack of influenza.

Harold J. Sliter, representative for Fox, was reported seriously ill the past week.

The erstwhile bowling fans are turning thoughts to golf, and again we hear rumors of an exhibitor-exchange golf tournament.

Plans for the usual baseball games are beginning to materialize and the first game of the season looms near.

The theatre which has promised the west side in the neighborhood of Fond du Lac and 22nd has been abandoned and a filling station is arising on the site, which was cleared for the theatre and office building.

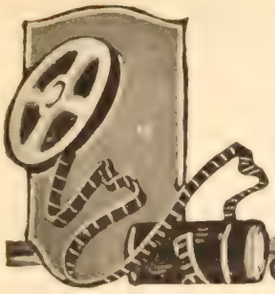
Central Penn

MOTION picture theatres and their employees played a big part in helping the Harrisburg Welfare Federation raise its annual budget of $290,000 for the support of the city's charitable institutions in a campaign during the first week and a half in May.

C. Floyd Hopkins, head of the Wilmer & Vincent theatres in that city, was chairman of the division of volunteer solicitors who raised about $10,000 in the rural districts. He and Mrs. Hopkins made a personal subscription of $200 and the Wilmer & Vincent Corporation gave $400. The employees of the State theatre contributed $131, and the Colonial's working force, $55.50. The Victoria employees gave $45.45. Loew's Regent theatre chipped in $50, and the Morgan Wallace Players, presenting stock at the Majestic, made a generous contribution. Peter Magaro, pioneer motion picture exhibitor of Harrisburg, and former owner of the Regent, wrote his check for $200.

Picture theatres of Allentown faced competition of two big circuses within two weeks in May.

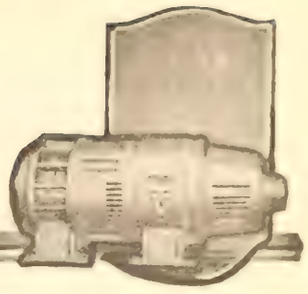
Shea's theatre, Bradford, announces it is about to install the Vitaphone and Movietone devices.



Reuben Mainker, of the Franklin theatre, Allentown, contributed a check for $56, representing a day's receipts, to the fund for financing the Jubilee celebration held in honor of the fact that Allentown has passed the 100,000 mark in population.

Excavations have been completed for the new $200,000 theatre that John V. Schreck is planning to erect in Ashland. The house will seat 1300 and will occupy a plot 42 by 125 feet. Mr. Schreck formerly lived in Mount Carmel, where he was a pioneer in the motion picture business. The Chamberlain Amusement Enterprises of Shamokin, operating a chain of theatres, bought the Victoria, Mount Carmel, from Mr. Schreck, who then moved to Ashland to build the new theatre. He plans to run movies and vaudeville and an occasion legitimate show.

The death occurred recently of Walter M. Murphy, who was organist at the Grand theatre, Frackville, and formerly held a like position in the Temple, Ashland.



William Hissner and Thomas Monaghan, former manager of the Capitol theatre, Lebanon, have organized the Strand Amusement Company, of that city, which now controls the Strand, Capitol and Academy theatres, in Lebanon, and the Strand in Annville.

Pappas Brothers, owners of the Bijou theatre, Milton, announce they expect to start work early in June on the new $125,000 theatre they propose to erect in that town. It will have a seating capacity of 1,100.

Projection

Optics, Electricity, Practical Ideas & Advice

Inquiries and Comments

Aerial Image May Cause Loss of Light

PART II

IN the preceding article it was shown how the formation of an aerial image in the optic system of a motion picture projector might indicate a loss of light—or, rather, a lack of efficiency—due to the fact that this image is in the nature of an optical aperture which, under certain conditions, would be of such a size that it would restrict the free passage of light from the projection lens to the screen.

There is, to be sure, no actual restriction such as occurs at the film aperture of the projection for the reason that the diaphragming action of the aerial image is virtual only and depends entirely upon optical, rather than physical, considerations.

The effectiveness of this diaphragming action of the aerial image varies with the optical setup and is influenced principally by the focal length and free diameter of the projection lens; the diameter of the condenser (either lens or reflector) and its distance from the projection lens; the size of the screen picture; and the projection distance.

How to Check It

The method of determining whether or not the aerial image, for any given set of conditions, will cause a loss of efficiency is quite simple since it is necessary to consider only the condenser and projection lens in order to make a rough check.

It was pointed out in the preceding article that where the diameter of the aerial image was less than the working diameter of the projection lens, a loss was encountered because all points on the projection lens were not providing light to all screen points.

To make the first rough check, then, it is necessary to determine the size of the aerial image. This is done by using the simple optical formulas required for image finding.

Knowing the diameter of the condenser, its distance from the optic center of the projection lens, and the focal length of this lens; the distance at which the image of the condenser will be formed is readily determined.

The aerial image, it will be recalled, is nothing more than the image of the condenser formed by the projection lens. Once the distance of this image from the projection lens has been determined its size can be found quickly by proportion. Thus, if a 4½ inch condenser is placed 15 inches from the projection lens which forms an image of it at a distance of 5 inches, the size of this image, obviously, will be only one-third that of the condenser, or 1½ inches. Unless the size of the aerial image is greater than the working diameter of the projection lens, a loss of efficiency is certain. The diameter of the image must always be greater than that of the lens if a loss in this respect is to be avoided.

The Mazda System

Let us now consider some practical examples of optic systems now in use for motion picture projection.

The incandescent lamp system is an excellent illustration in this respect since its designers were fully cognizant of the effect which the aerial exerts and made certain that there should be no loss in this respect. Indeed, the aerial image can be considered as a criterion of the efficiency of the system and it is upon this fact that the claims for the high efficiency of the Mazda System are based.

In its original form, the Mazda system employed a 4½ inch diameter prismatic condenser and while later developments brought about the use of the present parabolic condenser the conditions in this respect were not changed.

Using the prismatic lens as a basis and assuming the use of a projection lens of 5½ inches E. F. (which is about the average) we find the conditions to be as follows: diameter of condenser 4½ inches; distance of condenser to projection lens 12 inches; projection lens E. F. 5½ inches.

The image location is found from the following:

$$\text{E. F.} = \frac{X\,Y}{X+Y}$$

$$5.5 = \frac{12\,Y}{12+Y}$$

$$66 + 5.5\,Y = 12\,Y$$

$$Y = 10$$

The aerial image, then, will be found 10 inches in front of the projection lens. The size of this image will be as shown below.

$$4.5 : 12 = X : 10$$

$$12\,X = 45$$

$$X = 3.75$$

The diameter of the image will be 3¾ inches and since the diameter of the projection lens is approximately 2½ inches it will be seen that there no diaphragming action occurs under these conditions.

In other words, the system is as efficient as it can be made in this respect.

The Arc-Condenser System

The old arc-condenser system of projection was notoriously inefficient as later developments in the reflector arc line proved. It was long known that this was so and an inspection of the aerial image characteristics of the system will show just where this inefficiency lay.

The following practical conditions will be assumed. Condenser diameter 4½ inches; distance of condenser from projection lens, 25½ inches; projection lens, E. F., 5½ inches.

With this setup, the aerial image will be formed at a distance of 6.8 inches from the projection lens and the size of the image will be 1.2 inches in diameter.

Now this is smaller than even a quarter-size projection lens (which measures approximately 1¾ inches in diameter) so that it will be evident that serious diaphragming occurred in the old arc system.

This, more than anything else was a sure indication that the system was grossly inefficient.

It was claimed in some directions that the exceptionally small aerial image formed by the old arc system was a positive advantage because it enabled the projectionist to trim down the blades of the shutter to such extent as to make the shutter action as efficient as possible.

This, in effect, is equivalent to saying that the happiest man is he who is penniless because he has nothing to worry about.

The Reflector Arc System

The reflector arc system, which succeeded the old arc represented a considerable improvement as regards the aerial image with the result that the overall efficiency was raised to a much higher degree.

Taking the ecliptic mirror outfit as an illustration the conditions are as follows: Diameter of mirror 8 inches; distance of mirror from projection lens 29½ inches; projection lens E. F., 5½ inches.

The aerial image under this arrangement will be found at a distance of 6¾ inches from the projection lens and will have a diameter of 1.8 inches. This indicates an increase in efficiency of more than 100 per cent over the old arc system and practical tests have closely checked this expected increase.

It would appear from this line of reasoning that the reflector arc has not yet reached the ultimate in the way of efficiency unless practical considerations serve to limit to the present output.

As regards the high intensity arc using condensers, while no specific figures will be given to support the statement it can be said that under normal conditions the system works at high efficiency and does not suffer materially in this way. There is no perceptible diaphragming action of the aerial image and while there still appears to be room for further improvement the greatest step towards the most efficient condition has already been achieved.

—the knives cut
JUST ONCE!

In the Gold Seal, the cutting knives move across, shear the ticket cleanly and move back ready for the next cut. They don't flutter back and forth two or three times. In other words, in the Gold Seal, the knife joints get less than one-half as much wear as in old style registers.

GOLD SEAL
Ticket Registers
and "Tickets That Fit"

It's a little point—that matter of the knives. But it's the painstaking attention to every last detail, however small, that has made the Gold Seal a far superior register. That is why you'll find—only in the Gold Seal—rust-proof steel . . . bronze bearings on all driving shafts . . . case hardened surfaces where the wear comes . . . a cast aluminum ticket wheel . . . one driving mechanism for any number of units. Look INSIDE the register before you buy—and you'll choose Gold Seal.

Our Reserved Seat Ticket Plants in Boston and New York Can Save You Money. Get Our Estimates

GOLD SEAL — USED WHEREVER AUTOMATIC SYSTEM TICKETS ARE SOLD — THE MARK OF PERFECTION

AUTOMATIC Ticket Register Corporation

723 Seventh Ave., New York
Independent Printers of Quality Tickets for Every Purpose.

Standard
VAUDEVILLE
for
Motion Picture Presentation

THE FALLY MARKUS AGENCY
Astor Theatre Building
N. W. Cor. 45th St. & Broadway
Lackawanna 7876

Sentry Appoints Graver to European Post

Louis A. Graver, who has been representing the Sentry Safety Control Corporation in this country, has been appointed general technician for all European countries and sailed recently for Paris, where he began demonstrations and installations of the Sentry Safety Control. Mr. Graver will make a tour of all European countries and will probably return to the United States some time in the fall. He was for many years an operator in Philadelphia motion picture theatre and is a brother of James Graver, manager of the Liberty Theatre. He is considered one of the best authorities in Philadelphia on projection.

Marr & Colton Executive To Tour Europe

Leo Heerwagen, who for many years has been closely associated with the sales department of the Marr and Colton Company, Warsaw, N. Y., and whose office was in the Paramount Building, New York City has left for a vacation in Europe. Mr. Heerwagen will tour through Germany, France and Italy. He will take up his duties as usual in the sales management of the New York Office of the Marr and Colton Company upon his return. Mr. Marr and Mr. Colton were in New York to wish Mr. Heerwagen "Bon Voyage" when he sailed on the S. S. Muenchen.

RADIO-MAT PATENTED
TALK from your screen
WITH your quickly
TYPEWRITTEN MESSAGES.
WHITE, AMBER or GREEN.
Accept no substitute.
RADIO-MAT SLIDE CO. NEW YORK
IS THE STATIONERY OF THE SCREEN

A BUSINESS BOOSTER
for your theatre
A Beautiful, 2-color Program, all Features written up for you, Printed and Delivered to your theatre at a small cost.
Write for Samples and Prices to
THE DERBY PROGRAM CO.
1799 Jerome Ave. New York City
2015 So. Vermont Ave. Los Angeles, Calif.

STOCK PROGRAMS
PROGRAM COVERS
For
Moving Picture Houses
Joseph Hoover & Sons Company
Market and 49th Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

Each Month The Showman Issue of Motion Picture News Carries announcements of Vital Interest to All Theatre Owners

People want cool comfort—

—in hot weather. Are you going to meet this demand?

Proper air conditions in the modern theatre are just as essential as the excellence of its entertainment.

Write for Booklet N-2

Typhoon Fan Company
345 West 39th Street, New York
Offices in Principal Cities

COMPLETE RELEASE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of Distributors in order that the Exhibitor may have a short-cut toward such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features which are finished or are in work, but to which release dates have not been assigned, are listed in "Coming Attractions" (S. R. indicates State Right release.)

Refer to THE MOTION PICTURE NEWS BOOKING GUIDE for Productions Listed Prior to September

BRAY PRODUCTIONS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Co-Ed, The	Murdock-Cavalier-Lancaster	Feb.	10	2 reels	Jan. 7
Barnyard Rivals	W. Lantz-M. Shaw-T. Ward	Mar.	10	2 reels	Mar. 17
Cat Tales	McDougall Kids	Feb.	20	2 reels
Cutting Up	McDougall Kids	Mar.	20	2 reels	Mar. 17
Daze of '49	J. Cooper-L. Carver	Jan.	2	2 reels	Feb. 4
Duke's Dirty Doings	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Feb.	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Fowl Play	McDougall Kids	April	20	2 reels
Lost in the Lurch	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Mar.	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mr. Pooh	McDougall Kids	Jan.	20	2 reels	Jan. 7

COLUMBIA

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Storm	Bosworth-Gilbert-Delaney	April	19	5459 feet
By Whose Hand?	Cortez-Gilbert	Sept.	15	5432 feet	Jan. 7
Broadway Daddies	Logan-Lease	April	7	5406 feet
College Hero, The	Agnew-Lease-Garon	Oct.	9	5628 feet	Dec. 9
Desert Bride, The	Compson-Forrest	Mar.	26	5425 feet
Fashion Madness	Windsor-Howes	Dec	8	5513 feet	Mar. 31
Golf Widows	Ford-Reynolds-Rand	May	1	5592 feet
Isle of Forgotten Women	Tearle-Sebastian	Sept.	27	5645 feet	Jan. 21
Lady Raffles	Taylor-Drew	Jan.	25	5471 feet
Matinee Idol, The	Walker-Love	Mar.	14	5925 feet	May 5
Modern Mothers	Chadwick-Fairbanks, Jr.-Kent	May	13	5540 feet
Opening Night, The	Windsor-Bowers	Nov.	14	5524 feet	Mar. 17
Sally in Our Alley	Mason-Arlen	Sept.	3	5892 feet
Siren, The	Revier-T. Moore	Dec.	20	5996 feet
So This Is Love	Mason-Collier-Walker	Feb.	6	5611 feet
Sporting Age, The	Bennett-Herbert-Nye	Mar.	2	5467 feet
Stage Kisses	Harlan-Chadwick	Nov.	2	5435 feet
That Certain Thing	Graves-Dana	Jan.	1	6047 feet	Mar. 10
Tigress, The	Holt-Revier	Oct.	21	5357 feet	Mar. 17
Warning, The	Holt-Revier	Nov.	26	5791 feet	Jan. 7
Wife's Relations, The	Mason-Glass	Jan.	13	5508 feet	April 28
Woman's Way, A	Livingston-Baxter	Feb.	18	5472 feet

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Beware of Blondes
Name the Woman	Stewart-Glass
Ransom	Wilson-Burns
Way of the Strong, The	Stewart-Glass
Virgin Lips	Borden-Boles

EDUCATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
All Bear	Curiosities	April	29	1 reel	April 21
All Set	W. Lupino-Sargent-L. Hutton	Jan.	29	1 reel	Feb. 4
Always a Gentleman	Lloyd Hamilton	Feb.	5	2 reels	Feb. 18
At It Again	Monty Collins	May	13	2 reels	April 28
Between Jobs	Lloyd Hamilton	Mar.	18	2 reels
Blazing Away	Lloyd Hamilton	April	22	2 reels	April 7
Builders of Bridges	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Feb.	26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Call of the Sea, The	Hope Hampton	Jan.	1	2 reels	Dec. 31
Chilly Days	"Big Boy"	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Circus Blues	Dorothy Devore	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 17
Count Me Out	Barney Hellum	Mar.	11	1 reel	Mar. 3
Crown Me	Wallace Lupino	June	3	1 reel
Cutie	Dorothy Devore	Jan.	15	2 reels	Feb. 18
Dog Days—Sun and Rain	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Jan.	29	1 reel	Feb. 25
Dummies	Larry Semon	Jan.	1	2 reels	Dec. 23
Fall In	Monty Collins	Jan.	1	1 reel	Dec. 23
Fandango	Lupino Lane	May	6	2 reels	April 14
Felix the Cat in Arabiantics	"Sullivan Cartoon"	May	13	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Comicalities	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	1	1 reel	April 21
Felix the Cat Draggin' Dragon	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Jan.	22	1 reel	Feb. 25
Felix the Cat in Eskimotive	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	29	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Futuritzy	"Sullivan Cartoon"	June	24	1 reel
Felix in In-and-Out-Laws	"Sullivan Cartoon"	May	27	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Japanicky	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Mar.	4	1 reel	Mar. 31
Felix in Ohm Sweet Ohm	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Feb.	19	1 reel	Mar. 17
Felix in Outdoor Indore	"Sullivan Cartoon"	June	10	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Polly-tics	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Mar.	18	1 reel	April 14
Felix in Sure-Lock Holmes	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	15	1 reel	May 5
Felix the Cat in the Oily Bird	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Feb.	5	1 reel	Mar. 10
Felix in the Smoke Screen	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Jan.	8	1 reel	Feb. 18
Feline Frolics—Tonquin Valley	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Mar.	25	1 reel	Mar. 10
Fighting Orphans—Evening Mist	Bruce Outdoor Sketch			1 reel
Gloom Chaser, The	"Big Boy"	June	24	2 reels
Green-Eyed Love	Ruby McCoy-George Hall	April	8	1 reel	Mar. 24
Hectic Days	Lupino Lane	June	17	2 reels
High Strung	Jerry Drew	Jan.	29	2 reels	Feb. 4
Hints on Hunting—Day by Sea	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	April	22	1 reel	Mar. 31
His Maiden Voyage	George Davis	Feb.	26	2 reels	Feb. 18
Homemade Man, A	Lloyd Hamilton	June	17	2 reels
How to Please the Public	Hodge Podge	Mar.	11	1 reel	Mar. 17
Indiscrete Pete	Jerry Drew	Mar.	11	2 reels	Mar. 10
Kitchen Talent	George Davis	April	15	2 reels	Mar. 31
Landlord Blues	Curiosities	May	27	1 reel
Listen Sister	Lupino Lane	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Love's Springtime	H. Hampton-J. Catalaine	Feb.	12	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mother Birds	Curiosities	Mar.	4	1 reel	Feb. 18
Mysterious Night, A	Monty Collins	Feb.	12	1 reel	Feb. 4
Navy Beans	"Big Boy"	May	27	2 reels	May 12
Never Too Late	Wallace Lupino	May	6	1 reel	April 28
New York's Sweetheart	Curiosities	Jan.	1	1 reel	Feb. 11
Nicknames	Hodge-Podge	April	8	1 reel	April 21
No Fare	"Big Boy"	April	8	2 reels	Mar. 24
Off Balance	Monty Collins	April	22	1 reel	April 14
Peculiar Pair of Pups, A	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	May	20	1 reel	May 5
Penny Postals	Curiosities	April	1	1 reel	Mar. 17
Pretty Baby	Monty Collins	Feb.	26	1 reel	Feb. 18
Racing Mad	Al St. John	Jan.	8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Rah Rah Rah	Dorothy Devore	June	3	2 reels
Recollections of a Rover	Hodge-Podge	Jan.	8	1 reel	Feb. 4
Rubbernecking	Curiosities	Feb.	5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Running Ragged	Lewis Sargent	Jan.	29	1 reel	Feb. 4
Sailor Boy	Monty Collins	June	17	1 reel
Say Ah-h	Charley Bowers	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Simple Sap, A	Larry Semon	Feb.	12	2 reels	Feb. 25
Slippery Head	Johnny Arthur	April	29	2 reels	April 21
Spring Has Came	Monty Collins	Mar.	25	1 reel	Mar. 17
Star Shots	Hodge-Podge	Feb.	5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Sword Points	Lupino Lane	Feb.	12	2 reels	Dec. 31
There It Is	Charley Bowers	Jan.	1	2 reels	Jan. 7
Thoughts While Fishing	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	June	17	1 reel
Three Tough Onions	Monty Collins	May	20	1 reel	May 12
Visitors Welcome	Johnny Arthur	Mar.	4	2 reels	Mar. 10
Wandering Toy, The	Hodge-Podge	May	6	1 reel
Wedding Slips	Monty Collins	Jan.	15	1 reel	Feb. 11
Whoozit	Charley Bowers	April	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Who's Lyin'	Davis-Collins	June	10	2 reels
Wildcat Valley	Johnny Arthur	Jan.	22	2 reels	Feb. 4
Wild Wool—Night Clouds	Bruce Outdoor Sketch			1 reel
You'll Be Sorry	Charley Bowers	May	20	2 reels

EXCELLENT PICTURES (S. R.)

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Back to Liberty	Walsh-Hall	Nov.	10	5980 feet
Bit of Heaven, A	Lee-Washburn	April
Bowery Cinderella, A	O'Malley-Hulette	Nov.	1	6900 feet	Nov. 25
Broadway Madness	De La Motte-Keith	Oct.	1	6300 feet	Oct. 14
Satan and the Woman	Windsor-Keefe	Dec.	15	6400 feet	Mar. 10
Stronger Will	Marmont-Carewe	Jan.	15	6600 feet
Women Who Dare	Chadwick-Delaney	Mar.

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Life's Crossroads	Hulette-Hamilton
You're in the Army Now	Santschi-Blythe

F B O

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Aflame in the Sky	Lynn-Luden	Dec.	18	6034 feet	Nov. 11
Alex the Great	Gallagher-Dwyer	May	13	5872 feet	Mar. 24
Bandit's Son, The	Steele-Sheridan	Nov.	20	4789 feet
Bantam Cowboy, The	Buzz Barton	Aug.	12	4893 feet
Beyond London's Lights	Shumway-Elliott	Mar.	18	5583 feet	Feb. 25
Boy Rider, The	Buzz Barton	Oct.	23	4858 feet	Sept. 30
Breed of the Sunsets	Bob Steele	April	1	4869 feet
Cherokee Kid, The	Tyler-Lynn	Oct.	30	4837 feet	Mar. 3
Chicago After Midnight	Mendez-Ince	Mar.	4	6249 feet	Mar. 17
Clancy's Kosher Wedding	Sidney-Lease-Lynn	Sept.	17	5701 feet	Aug. 26'27
Coney Island	Wilson-Mendez	Jan.	13	6390 feet	Feb. 25
Crooks Can't Win	Lewis-Hill-Nelson	May	11
Dead Man's Curve	Fairbanks, Jr.-Blane	Jan.	15	5511 feet	Dec. 23
Desert Pirate, The	Tyler-Thompson	Dec.	25	4754 feet
Devil's Trade Mark, The	Bennett-Mong-Douglas	April	7	5984 feet
Dog Justice	Ranger-Martin	June	10	5043 feet
Driftin' Sands	Bob Steele	Jan.	1	4770 feet
Fangs of the Wild	Ranger-Kitchen	Feb.	5	4804 feet	Jan. 14
Fighting Redhead, The	Buzz Barton	July	1	4758 feet
Flying U Ranch, The	Tyler-Lane	Sept.	4	4924 feet
Freckles	Bosworth-Fox, Jr.	Mar.	21	6131 feet	Jan. 28
Gingham Girl, The	Wilson-Arthur	Oct.	2	6301 feet	July 29'27
Harvester, The	Kingston-Caldwell	Nov.	23	7045 feet	Nov. 25
Her Summer Hero	Thompson-Trevor-Blane	Feb.	12	5146 feet	Dec. 30
Hook and Ladder No. 9	Ellis-Keefe-Hearn	Nov.	13	5240 feet	Dec. 16
In a Moment of Temptation	Stevens-Keefe	Sept.	18	5605 feet	Nov. 11
Jake the Plumber	Devorska-Lynn	Oct.	16	5186 feet	Nov. 4
Judgment of the Hills	Valli-Caldwell	Nov.	6	6481 feet	Aug. 19'27
Law of Fear, The	Ranger-Reid-Nelson	April	8	4769 feet	Mar. 10
Legionnaires in Paris	Cooke-Guard	Jan.	31	5893 feet
Little Buckaroo, The	Buzz Barton	Mar.	11	4801 feet
Little Mickey Grogan	Darro-Ralston-Nye	Dec.	27	6515 feet	Mar. 3
Little Yellow House, The	Sleeper-Caldwell	May	28	6829 feet	April 21
Loves of Ricardo, The	George Beban	June	17	5181 feet	Sept. 4 '26
Man in the Rough, The	Steele-King	May	20	4748 feet
Mojave Kid, The	Steele-Gilmore	Sept.	25	4924 feet	Aug. 12'27
Phantom of the Range	Tyler-Thompson-Darro	April	22	4781 feet	Feb. 11
Pinto Kid, The	Barton-Trevor-Lee	April	29	4884 feet	Jan. 7
Racing Romeo, The	Grange-Ralston	Sept.	1	5992 feet	Dec. 16
Ranger of the North	Ranger (dog)	Oct.	9	4977 feet
Red Riders of Canada	Miller-Byer	April	15	6419 feet	Dec. 23
Riding Renegade, The	Bob Steele	Feb.	18	4729 feet
Sally of the Scandals	Love-Forrest	July	15
Shanghaied	Miller-Ince	Oct.	19	5999 feet	Aug. 26'27
Skinner's Big Idea	Washburn-Sleeper-Trevor	May	11	5967 feet	Mar. 17
Slingshot Kid, The	Barton-Morgan-Rice	Dec.	4	4486 feet
South Sea Love	Miller-Shumway-Brooks	Dec.	10	6388 feet	Feb. 18
Swift Shadow, The	Ranger (dog)	Dec.	11	4892 feet	Dec. 23

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Texas Tornado, The	Tom Tyler	June	24
Trail of Courage, The	Steele-Bonner	July	8
Wall Flowers	Trevor-Arthur-Todd	Feb.	16	6339 feet
When the Law Rides	Tyler-Darro	Feb.	26
Wizard of the Saddle	Barton-Thompson	Jan.	22	4805 feet	Dec. 30

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Squall	Al Cooke	April	16	2 reels
All Alike	Carr-Alexander-Ross	April	9	2 reels
All Washed Up	Al Cooke			2 reels	Feb. 18
Almost a Gentleman	Al Cooke	June	11	2 reels
Big Berthas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	May	14	2 reels
Come Meal	Al Cooke	May	28	2 reels
Heavy Infants	Karr-Ross-Alexander	June	11	2 reels
Mickey in Love	Mickey Yule	June	4	2 reels
Mickey in School	Mickey Yule	Feb.	6	2 reels
Mickey's Little Eva	Mickey Yule	April	2	2 reels
Mickey's Parade	Mickey Yule	Jan.	2	2 reels
Mickey's Wild West	Mickey Yule	May	7	2 reels
My Kingdom For a Hearse	Al Cooke	April	2	2 reels
Oui Oui Heidelberg	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Feb.	13	2 reels
Panting Papas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Jan.	9	2 reels
Rah! Rah! Rekie	Al Cooke			2 reels	Feb. 18
Restless Bachelors	Al Cooke	April	30	2 reels
Silk Sock Hal	Al Cooke	May	14	2 reels
Social Error, A	Al Cooke			2 reels	Feb. 11

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Battling Buckaroo, The	Tyler-Clair
Big Bow Mystery, The	I. Rich-Brook
City of Shadows, The	Luden-Lynn
Danger Street	Baxter-Sleeper
Down Our Way	Valli-Caldwell-Darro
Eagle's Ta'ons, The	Tom Tyler
Headin' for Danger	Steele-Mendez
Hit of the Show, The	Brown-Astor
Perfect Crime, The	Rich-Brook-McConnell
Saddle and Spurs	Barton-Eason
Stocks and Blondes	Logan-Gallagher

FIRST DIVISION (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Comrades	Keith-Hughes-H. Costello	Jan.	1	5970 feet	Mar. 10
Death Valley	Nye-Wells-Rae	Nov.	15	5880 feet	Aug. 12
Devil's Cage, The	Garon-Keith	May
Fagasa	Kelly-Kelton-Wells	Mar.
Finnegan's Ball	Landis-Mehaffey	Oct.	1	6200 feet	Dec. 9
Masked Angel, The	Compson-Oakman	Feb.	1	5700 feet	Mar. 24
Merry Wives of New York	Pauline Garon	Jan.
Polly of the Movies	Short-Robards	Dec.	15	6900 feet
Ragtime	De La Motte-Bowers	Sept.	15	6700 feet	Sept. 9
Souls Aflame	James-Wells-Lard	Mar.
Taxi 13	Conklin-Sleeper
Temptations of a Shop Girl	Compson-Garon-Kaliz	Dec.	1	5604 feet

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Free Lips	Marlowe-Novak

FIRST NATIONAL

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
American Beauty	Dove-Hughes	Oct.	9	6333 feet	Oct. 21
Barker, The	Sills-Compson-Mackaill	Aug.	19
Big Noise, The	Conklin-Hardy-White	Mar.	25	7400 feet	May 12
Breakfast at Sunrise	Talmadge-Alvarado	Oct.	23	6042 feet	Dec. 16
Burning Daylight	Sills-Kenyon	Mar.	11	6500 feet	April 28
Camille	Talmadge-Roland	Sept.	4	8692 feet	May 6
Canyon of Adventure	Maynard-Faire	April	29	5800 feet
Chaser, The	Langdon-McConnell	Feb.	12	5744 feet	April 21
Chinatown Charlie	Hines-Lorraine	April	15	6365 feet
Crystal Cup, The	Mackaill-Mulhall	Oct.	16	6386 feet	Nov. 25
Drop Kick, The	Barthelmess-Kent	Sept.	25	6819 feet	Sept. 30
Flying Romeo	Sidney-Murray	Feb.	26	6187 feet	April 14
French Dressing	Warner-Brook-Wilson	Jan.	15	6344 feet
Gorilla, The	Murray-Day-Kelsey	Nov.	13	7133 feet	Dec. 2
Gun Gospel	Maynard-Faire	Nov.	6	6288 feet	Mar. 10
Harold Teen	Lake-Brian-White	May	27	7500 feet
Hawk's Nest, The	Sills-Kenyon	May	27
Heart of a Follies Girl	Dove-Kent	Mar.	18	5957 feet	Mar. 17
Her Wild Oat	Moore-Kent	Dec.	25	6118 feet	Feb. 11
Home Made	Hines-Daw	Nov.	20	6524 feet
Kelly's Kids	Charlie Murray	July	29
Ladies' Night in Turkish Bath	Mackaill-Mulhall	April	1	6592 feet	April 14
Lady Be Good	Mackaill-Mulhall	May	6
Life of Riley, The	Sidney-Murray	Sept.	18	6712 feet	Sept. 16
Lilac Time	Moore-Cooper	April	22		Mar. 24
Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come	Barthelmess-O'Day	April	8	7700 feet
Love Mart, The	Dove-Roland	Dec.	18	7388 feet
Mad Hour, The	O'Neill-Kent	Mar.	4	6625 feet	April 21
Man Crazy	Mackaill-Mulhall	Nov.	27	5542 feet	Dec. 30
Noose, The	Barthelmess-Joyce	Jan.	29	7331 feet	Jan. 7
No Place to Go	Astor-Hughes	Oct.	30	6431 feet	Mar. 17
Oh Kay	Colleen Moore	Aug.	26
Patent Leather Kid, The	Barthelmess-O'Day			11412 feet	Aug. 26, '27
Private Life of Helen of Troy	Corda-Stone-Cortez	Jan.	8	7694 feet	Dec. 23
Red Raiders, The	Maynard-Drew	Sept.	4	6214 feet	Dec. 9
Rose of the Golden West	Astor-Roland	Oct.	2	6477 feet	Oct. 7
Roulette	Barthelmess-Basquette	June	10
Sailors' Wives	Astor-Hughes	Jan.	22	5485 feet	Mar. 10
Shepherd of the Hills	Francis-O'Day	Jan.	1	8188 feet	Feb. 25
Smile, Brother, Smile	Mackaill-Mulhall	Sept.	11	6669 feet	Sept. 9
Texas Steer, A	Rogers-Fazenda	Dec.	4	7419 feet	Nov. 18
Three-Ring Marriage	Astor-Hughes	April	29
Upland Rider, The	Maynard-Douglas	June	3
Valley of the Giants	Sills-Kenyon	Dec.	11	6336 feet
Vamping Venus	Murray-Todd-Fazenda	May	13
Wagon Show, The	Maynard-Faire	Feb.	19
Whip Woman, The	Taylor-Moreno	Feb.	5	5087 feet	Mar. 24
Yellow Lily, The	Dove-Brook	May	20

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Black Magic	Hines-Lorraine
Butter and Egg Man	Mulhall-O'Day
Code of the Scarlet	Maynard-McConnell
Divine Lady, The	Griffith-Varconi
Happiness Ahead	Colleen Moore
Head Man, The	Murray-Reed-Dawson
Heart to Heart	Astor-Hughes
Here Comes the Band	Langdon-Davison
I'll Tell the World	Colleen Moore
Phantom City, The	Ken Maynard
Whip, The	Mackaill-Nilsson-Forbes

FOX FILMS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Arizona Wildcat, The	Mix-Sebastian	Nov.	20	4665 feet	Mar. 24
Black Jack	Jones-Bennett	Sept.	25	4777 feet	Mar. 3
Blood Will Tell	Jones-Perry	Nov.	13	4556 feet	Mar. 3
Branded Sombrero, The	Jones-Hyams	Jan.	8	4612 feet	Jan. 14
Come to My House	Borden-Moreno	Dec.	25	5430 feet
Dare Devil's Reward	Mix-Joyce	Jan.	15	4987 feet	Jan. 21
Dressed to Kill	Lowe-Astor	Mar.	18	6566 feet	Mar. 17
East Side, West Side	O'Brien-Valli	Oct.	9	8154 feet	Nov. 4
Fleetwing	Norton-Janis
Gateway of the Moon	Del Rio-Pidgeon	Jan.	1	5038 feet	Jan. 14
Gay Retreat, The	Cohen-McNamara	Sept.	25	5524 feet	Sept. 23
Girl in Every Port, A	McLaglen-Armstrong	Feb.	26	5500 feet	Mar. 3
Hangman's House	McLaglen-Collyer-Kent	May	13	6518 feet
Hello, Cheyenne	Mix-Lincoln	April	29	4618 feet
High School Hero	Phipps-Stuart	Oct.	16	5498 feet	Nov. 11
Holiday Lane		Jan.	22
Honor Bound	O'Brien-Taylor	May	6	6188 feet
Horsemen of the Plains	Mix-Blane	Mar.	11	4397 feet	Mar. 24
Joy Girl, The	Borden-Hamilton	Sept.	18	6162 feet	Sept. 23
Ladies Must Dress	Valli-Gray	Nov.	20	5599 feet	Dec. 23
Love Hungry	Moran-Gray	April	8	5792 feet	April 21
Loves of Carmen	Del Rio-McLaglen	Sept.	4	8538 feet	Oct. 7
News Parade, The	Stuart-Phipps	May	27
Pajamas	Borden-Gray	Oct.	23	5876 feet	Dec. 2
Play Girl, The	Bellamy-Brown	April	22	5200 feet	April 28
Publicity Madness	Moran-Lowe	Oct.	2	5893 feet	Feb. 11
Seventh Heaven	Gaynor-Farrell	Oct.	30	8500 feet	June 10
Shame (re-issue)	John Gilbert	Nov.		5467 feet
Sharpshooters	O'Brien-Moran	Jan.	15	5573 feet	Jan. 28
Silk Legs	Bellamy-Hall	Dec.	18	5446 feet
Silver Valley	Mix-Dwan	Oct.	2	5011 feet	Oct. 14
Soft Living	Bellamy-Brown	Feb.	5	5629 feet	Mar. 3
Square Crooks	Brown-Armstrong-Dwan	Mar.	4	5397 feet	Mar. 31
Thief in the Dark, The	Meeker-Hill-Lee	May	20
Two Girls Wanted	Gaynor-Tryon	Sept.	11	6293 feet	Oct. 7
Very Confidential	Madge Bellamy	Nov.	6	5620 feet	Dec. 16
Why Sailors Go Wrong	Cohen-McNamara	Mar.	25	5112 feet	April 14
Wizard, The	Lowe-Hyams	Dec.	11	5629 feet
Wolf Fangs	Thunder-Morton-Lincoln	Nov.	27	5331 feet	Dec. 16
Womanwise	Russell-Collyer-Pidgeon	Jan.	8	5050 feet	Mar. 10

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
America's Little Lamb	Variety	April	15	1 reel
Arkansas Traveler	Variety	Jan.	8	1 reel
Cow's Husband, A	Spenser-Temple			2 reels
Desert Blooms, The	Variety	Mar.	19	1 reel
Follow the Leader	Payson-Ramon	May	13	2 reels
Head Hunters of Ecuador	Variety	Jan.	22	1 reel
Hold Your Hat	Phipps-Stuart	Jan.	15	2 reels	Mar. 24
Hot House Hazel	T. Brooks-T .Hill	Jan.	1	2 reels
In a Music Shoppe (Movietone)	Special Cast
Jack and Jilted	P. Cunning-M. King			2 reels
Jungles of the Amazon	Variety	Feb.	5	1 reel	Jan. 21
Kiss Doctor, The	Brooke-Thompson	Jan.	29	2 reels	Mar. 17
Lady Lion	Lincoln-Clayton-Bletcher	Mar.	25	2 reels
Lords of the Back Fence	Variety	Jan.	22	1 reel
Love is Blonde	Rollens-Ellis	Feb.	26	2 reels
Low Necker, A	Marjorie Beebe			2 reels	Jan. 14
Mum's the Word				2 reels	Sept. 3
Old Wives Who Knew	Hallam Cooley	April	8	2 reels
On a South Sea Shore	Variety	April	1	1 reel
Over the Andes	Variety			1 reel
Psyche and the Pskyscraper	"O. Henry"			2 reels
Ship Ahoy!	Variety	Feb.	19	1 reel
Spanish Influence	Variety	April	29	1 reel
T. Bone for Two	Tyler Brooke	April	22	2 reels
Too Many Cookies	T. Brooke-L. Miller	Mar.	11	2 reels
Vintage, The	Variety	Mar.	4	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Air Circus, The	Carrol-Lake-Rollins
Cock-Eyed World, The	Lowe-McLaglen
Don't Marry	Moran-Hamilton
Dry Martini
Escape, The	Valli-Russell	April 29	5109 feet — May 12
Farmer's Daughter, The	Beebe-Warren
Fazil	Farrell-Nissen-Busch
Four Devils, The	Macdonald-Gaynor-Morton
Four Sons	Mann-Hall-Bushman	9412 feet	Feb. 18
Girl Downstairs, The	Moran-O'Brien
Me, Gangster	Collyer-Stuart
Mother Machree	Bennett-McLaglen	6863 feet	Mar. 17
Mr. Romeo	Sterling-Carroll-Meeker
None But the Brave
Painted Post, The	Mix-Kingston
Pigskin	Rollens-Carol
Plastered in Paris	Cohen-Pennick
Red Dancer of Moscow, The	Del Rio-Farrell-Revier
River Pirate, The	Victor McLaglen
Street Angel, The	Gaynor-Farrell	9221 feet
Sunrise	Gaynor-O'Brien	8729 feet	Oct. 14
Wild West Romance	Bell-Lincoln

LUMAS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Knees	Corbin-Faith	Feb.	1	5800 feet	Jan. 28
Blondes By Choice	Claire Windsor	Oct.	1	6987 feet
Cheer Leader, The	Graves-Olmstead	Nov.	1	6000 feet	Mar. 10
Chorus Kid, The	Faire-Washburn	April	10	6200 feet	April 14
Girl From Rio, The	Myers-Pidgeon	Sept.	1	6990 feet
Head of the Family, The		July
Hell Ship Bronson	Mrs. W. Reid-Howes-Beery	May	1	7000 feet	May 12
Man Higher Up		June
San Francisco Nights	Marmont-Busch	Jan.	1	7000 feet	Dec. 31

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Thru the Breakers		Aug.
Turn Back the Hours	Loy-Pidgeon	Mar.	12	6500 feet	Mar. 17
United States Smith	Gribbon-Lee-Harlan	May

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Abie of the U. S. A.	George Jessel
Down Grade, The	Fairbanks-Calhoun
Gypsy Love (tent.)
River Woman, The	Alma Rubens
Uncensored Woman, The
When Danger Calls	Fairbanks-Sedgwick
Woman Between, The

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Across to Singapore	Novarro-Crawford	April	7	6805 feet	May 5
Actress, The	Shearer-Forbes-O. Moore	April	28	6998 feet
Annie Laurie	Gish-Kerry	Sept.	17	8730 feet	May 27 '27
Baby Mine	Arthur-Dane	Jan.	21	5139 feet	Jan. 14
Becky	O'Neill-O. Moore	Nov.	12	6433 feet
Ben Hur	Novarro-McAvoy	Oct.	8	11693 feet	Jan. 16, '26
Big City, The	Chaney-M. Day-Compson	Feb.	18	6838 feet	Mar. 31
Big Parade, The	Gilbert-Adoree	Sept.	10	11519 feet	Nov. 28 '25
Body and Soul	L. Barrymore-Pringle-Kerry	Oct.	1	5902 feet	Nov. 25
Bringing Up Father	Macdonald-Olmsted-Moran	Mar.	17	6344 feet
Buttons	Coogan-L. Hanson	Dec.	24	6050 feet	Mar. 31
Certain Young Man	Novarro-Adoree	May	19
Circus Rookies	Dane-Arthur	Mar.	31	5661 feet
Cossacks, The	Gilbert-Adoree	June	23
Crowd, The	Boardman-Murray	Mar.	3	8538 feet	Feb. 25
Diamond Handcuffs	Boardman-Gray-Nagel	May	5
Divine Woman, The	Garbo-Hanson	Jan.	14	7300 feet	Jan. 21
Enemy, The	Gish-Forbes	Feb.	18	8189 feet	Dec. 31
Fair Co-Ed	Davies-Brown	Oct.	15	6408 feet	Nov. 4
Forbidden Hours	Novarro-Adoree	June	16
Foreign Devils	McCoy-Windsor	Sept.	3	4658 feet	April 28
Garden of Allah	Terry-Petrovich	Nov.	5	8200 feet	Sept. 16
In Old Kentucky	H. Costello-Murray	Oct.	29	6646 feet
Latest from Paris, The	Shearer-Forbes	Feb.	4	7743 feet	Mar. 3
Laugh, Clown, Laugh	Chaney-Young-Asther	April	14	7045 feet
Law of the Range, The	McCoy-Crawford	Jan.	21	5393 feet
London After Midnight	Chaney-M. Day-Nagel	Dec.	3	5687 feet	Dec. 23
Love	Garbo-Gilbert	Jan.	2	7365 feet	Dec. 16
Lovelorn, The	O'Neill-Kent-O'Day	Dec.	17	5950 feet	Dec. 30
Man, Woman and Sin	Gilbert-Eagels	Nov.	19	6280 feet
Patsy, The	Davies-Caldwell-Gray	Mar.	10	7289 feet
Quality Street	Davies-Nagel	Dec.	31	7193 feet	Nov. 18
Riders of the Dark	McCoy-Dwan	April	21	5014 feet
Road to Romance, The	Novarro-M. Day	Sept.	24	6544 feet	Jan. 21
Rose-Marie	Crawford-Murray-Peters	Feb.	11	7745 feet	Feb. 18
Skirts	Chaplin-Balfour	May	19
Smart Set, The	Haines-Holt-A. Day	Feb.	25	6476 feet	Mar. 10
Spoilers of the West	McCoy-Daw	Dec.	10	4784 feet	Mar. 24
Spring Fever	Haines-Crawford	Oct.	22	6705 feet	Oct. 22
Student Prince, The	Novarro-Shearer	Jan.	30	9435 feet	Oct. 7
Tea for Three	Cody-Pringle-O. Moore	Dec.	10	6273 feet	Nov. 11
Thirteenth Hour, The	L. Barrymore-Gadsdon	Nov.	26	5252 feet
Under the Black Eagle	Flash-M. Day-Forbes	Mar.	29	5901 feet
West Point	Haines-Crawford	Jan.	7	8134 feet	Jan. 7
Wickedness Preferred	Cody-Pringle	Jan.	28	5011 feet
Wyoming	McCoy-Sebastian	Mar.	24	4435 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Aching Youth	Charley Chase	Mar.	17	2 reels
All For Nothing	Charley Chase	Jan.	21	2 reels	Jan. 14
Amazing Lovers	Ufa Oddities	Mar.	10	1 reel
Barnum and Ringling, Inc.	"Our Gang"	April	7	2 reels	April 21
Bird Man, The	Charley Chase			2 reels
Blow by Blow	Max Davidson	Mar.	31	2 reels	April 21
Came the Dawn	Max Davidson	Mar.	3	2 reels
Children of the Sun	Ufa Oddities	Feb.	11	1 reel
Cleopatra		July	7	2 reels
Crazy House	"Our Gang"	June	2	2 reels
Czarina's Secret, The	Baclanova-Mir-Rand	Mar.	17	2 reels
Dumb Daddies	Max Davidson	Feb.	4	2 reels	Feb. 25
Edison, Marconi and Co.	"Our Gang"	Mar.	10	2 reels	April 7
Fair and Muddy	"Our Gang"	May	5	2 reels	May 12
Family Group, The	Charley Chase	Feb.	18	2 reels	Feb. 18
Fight Pest, The	Charley Chase	May	12	2 reels
Finishing Touch, The	Laurel-Hardy	Feb.	25	2 reels	April 7
Fishing With a Microscope	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Follow Through	Laurel-Hardy			2 reels
Forty Thousand Miles with Lindbergh	Aviation Film	Mar.	4	3 reels
From Soup to Nuts	Laurel-Hardy	Mar.	24	2 reels	April 21
Golden Fleeces	Ufa Oddities	May	19	1 reel
Happy Omen, A	Ufa Oddities	July	14	1 reel
Heavenly Bodies	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Jungle Round-Up, A	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	28	1 reel	Oct. 8
Lady of Victories, The	A. Ayres-O. Matiesen-G. Irving	Jan.	21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Leave 'Em Laughing	Laurel-Hardy	Jan.	28	2 reels
Let George Do It	Laurel Hardy			2 reels	Mar. 3
Limousine Love	Charley Chase	April	14	2 reels	April 21
Monarch of the Glen, The	Ufa Oddities	Mar.	24	1 reel	Jan. 21
Nature's Wizardry	Ufa Oddities	July	28	1 reel
Palace of Honey, The	Ufa Oddities	June	16	1 reel
Pathfinders, The	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Pass the Gravy	Max Davidson	Jan.	7	2 reels	Jan. 14
Perfume and Nicotine	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	14	1 reel
Pets and Pests	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	28	1 reel	Mar. 3
Primitive Housekeeping	Ufa Oddities	April	21	1 reel
Rainy Days	"Our Gang"	Feb.	11	2 reels
Sanctuary	Ufa Oddities	May	5	1 reel
Secrets of the Sea	Ufa Oddities	Feb.	25	1 reel	Mar. 3
Should Women Drive?	Max Davidson	May	26	2 reels
Sleeping Death	Ufa Oddities	June	30	1 reel
Spook-Spoofing	"Our Gang"	Jan.	14	2 reels	Jan. 14
Tally-Ho	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Tell It to the Judge	Stanley-Dwan-Manning	May	12	2 reels
That Night	Max Davidson			2 reels
Their Purple Moment	Laurel-Hardy	May	19	2 reels
Tokens of Manhood	Ufa Oddities	June	6	1 reel
Virgin Queen, The	Stanley-Dwan-Manning	May	12	2 reels
Wicked Kasimir, The	Ufa Oddities	April	7	1 reel
Wonders of Blue Gulf Mexico	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Your Darn Tootin'	Laurel-Hardy	April	21	2 reels	May 12

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Adventurer, The	McCoy-Sebastian	4709 feet
Baby Cyclone, The	Cody-Pringle
Beay Broadway	Cody-Pringle
Bellamy Trial, The	Joy-Bronson
Brother Love (tentative)	Dane-Arthur
Bushranger, The	McCoy-Douglas
Cameraman, The	Keaton-Day
Deadline, The	Flash-Lorraine-Gray
Detectives	Dane-Arthur
Excess Baggage	Haines-Cortez
Four Walls	Gilbert-Crawford
He Learned About Women	Haines-Page-Percy
Madamoiselle from Armentieres	E. Brody-J. Stuart
Masked Stranger, The	McCoy
Napoleon	Special Cast
Our Dancing Daughters	Crawford-Brown-Sebastian
Show People	Davies-Haines
Southern Skies	Blue-Torres
Telling the World	Haines-Page
Tide of Empire	Adoree-Murray
Trail of '98, The	Del Rio-Forbes	11100 feet	Mar. 24
War in the Dark	Garbo-Nagel
While the City Sleeps	Chaney-Page
Wind, The	Gish-Hanson

PARAMOUNT

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adventure Mad	Barclay-Asther	Mar.	31	5897 feet
Barbed Wire	Negri-Brook	Sept.	10	6591 feet
Beau Sabreur	Brent-Cooper	Jan.	7	6704 feet	Jan. 28
Big Killing, The	Beery-Hatton	May	19
Chang	Jungle Film	Sept.	3	6536 feet	May 13 '27
City Gone Wild, The	Meighan-Brooks	Nov.	12	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Doomsday	Vidor-Cooper	Feb.	18	5652 feet	April 7
Drag Net, The	Bancroft-Brent	May	26	7720 feet
Easy Come, Easy Go	Dix-Carroll	April	21	5364 feet	May 12
Feel My Pulse	Daniels-Arlen	Feb.	25	5808 feet	Mar. 3
Figures Don't Lie	Ralston-Arlen	Oct.	8	5280 feet	Mar. 3
Fifty-Fifty Girl, The	Daniels-Hall	May	12	7720 feet
Fools for Luck	Fields-Conklin	May	5	5758 feet
Gay Defender, The	Dix-Todd	Dec.	10	6376 feet	Dec. 31
Gentleman of Paris, A	Menjou-O'Hara	Oct.	15	5927 feet	Oct. 14
Gentlemen Prefer Blondes	Taylor-Sterling-White	Jan.	28	6871 feet	Jan. 21
Get Your Man	Bow-Rogers	Dec.	10	5998 feet
Honeymoon Hate	Vidor-Carmanati	Dec.	3	5415 feet	Feb. 11
Jesse James	Thomson-Lane	Oct.	22	8656 feet	Oct. 28
Last Command, The	Jannings-Brent	Jan.	21	8154 feet	Jan. 28
Last Waltz, The	Fritsch-Vernon	Nov.	26	6940 feet	Dec. 30
Legion of the Condemned	Cooper-Wray	Mar.	10	7415 feet	Mar. 24
Love and Learn	Ralston-Chandler	Jan.	14	5737 feet	Feb. 25
Nevada	Cooper-Todd	Sept.	10	6256 feet	Oct. 28
Night of Mystery, A	Menjou-Brent	April	7	5741 feet	April 21
Now We're in the Air	Beery-Hatton	Oct.	22	5798 feet	Dec. 23
Old Ironsides	Ralston-Farrell-Beery	Mar.	3	7900 feet	Dec. 18 '26
One Woman to Another	Vidor-Von Eltz	Sept.	24	4551 feet	Sept. 30
Open Range	Chandler-Bronson	Nov.	5	5599 feet	Mar. 10
Partners in Crime	Beery-Hatton-Brian	Mar.	17	6600 feet	May 5
Peaks of Destiny	Special Cast	Jan.	28	5582 feet	Jan. 21
Pioneer Scout, The	Thomson-Lane	Jan.	21	6118 feet	Mar. 10
Red Hair	Bow-Chandler	Mar.	10	6336 feet	Mar. 31
Rough Riders, The	N. Beery-Bancroft	Oct.	1	9443 feet	April 1 '27
Secret Hour, The	Negri-Thomson	Feb.	4	7194 feet	Mar. 17
Serenade	Menjou-Carver-Basquette	Dec.	24	5269 feet	Dec. 31
Shanghai Bound	Dix-Brian	Oct.	15	5515 feet	Dec. 9
She's a Sheik	Daniels-Arlen	Nov.	12	6015 feet	Dec. 9
Shootin' Irons	Luden-Blane	Oct.	8	5179 feet
Show Down, The	Bancroft-Brent	Feb.	25	7616 feet	Mar. 10
Something Always Happens	Ralston-Hamilton	Mar.	24	4729 feet
Speedy	Lloyd-Christie	April	7	7960 feet	April 14
Sporting Goods	Dix-Olmstead	Feb.	11	5951 feet	Feb. 18
Spotlight, The	Ralston-Hamilton	Nov.	19	4934 feet
Stark Love	Special Cast	Sept.	17	6200 feet	Mar. 11 '27
Street of Sin, The	Jannings-Wray	May	26
Sunset Legion, The	Thomson-Murphy	April	21	6763 feet
Swim, Girl, Swim	Daniels-Hall	Sept.	17	6124 feet	Sept. 16
Tell It to Sweeney	Conklin-Bancroft	Sept.	24	6006 feet	Oct. 28
Three Sinners	Negri-Baxter	April	14	7029 feet	April 28
Tillie's Punctured Romance	Fields-Conklin	Mar.	3	5733 feet
Two Flaming Youths	Conklin-Fields	Dec.	17	5319 feet	Jan. 7
Under the Tonto Rim	Arlen-Brian	Feb.		5991 feet	April 28
Underworld	Bancroft-Brent-Brook	Oct.	29	7643 feet	Sept. 9
Way of All Flesh	Jannings-Bennett-Haver	Oct.	1	8486 feet	July 8
Wedding March, The	Von Stroheim-Wray	Feb.
We're All Gamblers	Meighan-Millner	Sept.	3	5935 feet
Wife Savers	Beery-Hatton	Jan.	7	5413 feet	Jan. 21
Woman on Trial	Negri-E. Hanson	Oct.	29	5960 feet	Oct. 14

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adoration	Novelty	Feb.	25	2 reels
Behind the Counter	E. E. Horton	Mar.	3	2 reels
Bugs My Dear (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	April	21	2 reels
Campus Cuties	Billy Dooley	April	7	2 reels
Dad's Choice	E. E. Horton	Jan.	7	2 reels
Fighting Fanny (Christie)	Featured Cast	Jan.	21	2 reels	April 28
Frenzy	Novelty	Jan.	14	2 reels
Gallant Gob, A (Christie)	Billy Dooley	May	26	2 reels
Goofy Ghosts (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	April	28	2 reels
Halfback Hannah (Christie)	Ann Cornwall	April	14	2 reels
Hold 'Er Cowboy (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	June	2	2 reels
Holy Mackerel (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Feb.	11	2 reels
Hunger Stroke, A	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb.	25	1 reel
Ice Boxed	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb.	11	1 reel
Just the Type (Christie)	Neal Burns	Feb.	18	2 reels
Ko-Ko's Bawth	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb.	18	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Jerm Jam	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb.	4	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Earth Control	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	31	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kink	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan.	7	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kozy Korner	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan.	21	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Smoke	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	3	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Tattoo	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	17	1 reel
Love Sunk	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar.	24	1 reel
Long Hose (Christie)	Jack Duffy	Mar.	17	2 reels
Love's Young Scream	Anne Cornwall	May	12	2 reels
Love Shy (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Mar.	24	1 reel
Pig Styles	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Jan.	14	1 reel
Save the Pieces (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Jan.	28	2 reels
Say Uncle (Christie)	Jack Duffy	June	9	2 reels
Sea Food (Christie)	Billy Dooley	July	14	2 reels
Shadow Theory	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Jan.	28	1 reel
Slick Slickers (Christie)	Neal Burns	July	7	2 reels
Slippery Heels (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	June	16	2 reels
Sweeties (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Mar.	10	2 reels
Two Masters	Eaton-Post
Water Bugs (Christie)	Billy Dooley	Feb.	4	2 reels
Wired and Fired	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar.	10	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Abie's Irish Rose	Hersholt-McDonald	12103 feet	April 28
Beggars of Life	Beery-Arlen-Brooks
His Tiger Lady	Menjou-Brent
First Kiss, The	Wray-Cooper
Glorifying the American Girl	Special Cast
Half a Bride	Ralston-Arlen
Hot News	Daniels-Hamilton
Kit Carson	Thomson-Lane
Ladies of the Mob	Bow-Arlen
Magnificent Flirt, The	Florence Vidor
Perfumed Trap, The	Brian-Brook
Odd Fellows	Fields-Conklin
Patriot, The	Jannings-Stone-Vidor
Quick Lunch	Fields-Conklin
Racket, The	Meighan-Prevost
Sawdust Paradise, The	Ralston-Howes
Side Show, The	Fields-Conklin
Vanishing Pioneer, The	Holt-Blane
Warming Up	Richard Dix
Wings	Bow-Rogers	12 reels	Aug. 26 '27

PATHE

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Alice in Wonderland	Special Cast	Dec.	25	5 reels
Alice Thru Looking Glass	Special Cast	Feb.	12	5 reels
Almost Human	Reynolds-Thomson	Dec.	26	5596 feet	Mar. 24
Angel o/ Broadway, The	Joy-Varconi	Oct.	3	6555 feet	Dec. 16
Apache Rider, The	Leo Maloney	Feb.	12	5755 feet	Feb. 18
Avenging Shadow, The	Klondike-Hallor-Morris	April	29	4293 feet	Mar. 31
Ballyhoo Buster, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Jan.	8	4805 feet	Dec. 30
Blonde for a Night, A	Prevost-Ford	Feb.	26	6 reels
Blue Danube, The	Joy-La Rocque	Mar.	11	7 reels
Born to Battle	Bill Cody	Sept.	11	4875 feet
Boss of Rustlers Roost	Dan Coleman	Jan.	22	4833 feet	Jan. 14
Bronc Stomper, The	Dan Coleman	Feb.	26	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Bullet Mark, The	Jack Donovan	Mar.	25	4550 feet	Mar. 31
Chicago	Haver-Varconi	Mar.	4	9992 feet	Dec. 30
Combat	Walsh-Adams-Hulette	Oct.	23	5100 feet	Nov. 11
Cowboy Cavalier, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Jan.	29	4526 feet	Jan. 28
Crashing Through	Jack Padjan	Feb.	5	4480 feet	Feb. 11
Desert of the Lost, The	Wally Wales	Dec.	18	4933 feet	Dec. 30
Desperate Courage	Wally Wales	Jan.	15	4398 feet	Jan. 21
Devil's Twin, The	Leo Maloney	Dec.	11	5478 feet
Discord	Ekman-Dagover	Nov.	20	8586 feet	Nov. 11
Dress Parade	Boyd-Love	Nov.	11	6599 feet	Nov. 11
Fangs of Fate	Klondike (dog)	June	24	5 reels
Flying Luck	Monty Banks	Dec.	4	6403 feet	Nov. 18
Forbidden Woman, The	Goudal-Varconi	Nov.	7	6568 feet	Dec. 16
Girl in the Pullman	Prevost-Ford	Oct.	31	5867 feet	Nov. 18
Golden Clown, The	Ekman-Bell	Dec.	18	7913 feet	Mar. 24
Gold From Weepah	Bill Cody	Nov.	20	4968 feet	Dec. 23
Grandma's Boy (re-issue)	Harold Lloyd	Dec.		4750 feet
Harp in Hock, A	R. Schildkraut-Coghlan	Oct.	10	5990 feet	Dec. 9
His Foreign Wife	McDonald-Murphy	Nov.	27	4890 feet	Feb. 11
Hold 'Em Yale	Le Rocque-Loff	May	13	8 reels
Hoof Marks	Jack Donovan	Nov.	13	4076 feet	Dec. 23
Land of the Lawless	Jack Padjan	Dec.	25	4131 feet	Dec. 30
Laddie Be Good	Bill Cody	Jan.	1	4155 feet	Dec. 30
Law's Lash, The	Klondike-Ellis-Maberry	May	20	4902 feet	Mar 31.
Leopard Lady, The	Logan-Hale	Jan.	22	6650 feet	Mar. 10
Let 'Er Go Gallegher	Coghlan-Ford	Jan.	15	5888 feet	Jan. 28
Main Event, The	Reynolds-R. Schildkraut	Nov.	18	6472 feet	Nov. 11
Marlie the Killer	Klondike-Bushman, Jr.	Mar.	4	4600 feet	Mar. 3
Midnight Madness	Logan-Brook	Mar.	25	6 reels
My Friend From India	Pangborn-Fair	Dec.	19	5750 feet	Mar. 31
Night Flyer, The	Boyd-Ralston	Feb.	5	5954 feet
Obligin' Buckaroo, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Oct.	16	4575 feet	Nov. 11
On to Reno	Prevost-Landis	Jan.	1	6 reels
Passion Island	Special Cast	Feb.		7 reels
Perfect Gentleman, A	Monty Banks	Jan.	15	5626 feet	Jan. 14
Ride 'Em High	Buddy Roosevelt	Oct.	9	4542 feet	Nov. 11
Roarin' Broncs	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Nov.	27	4375 feet	Dec. 30
Rush Hour, The	Prevost-Ford	Dec.	12	5880 feet	Mar. 10
Saddle Mates	Wally Wales	Mar.	11	4260 feet	Mar. 17
Skyscraper	Boyd-Carrol	April	8	7040 feet	April 14
Soda Water Cowboy, The	Wally Wales	Sept.	25	4546 feet	Nov. 4
Stand and Deliver	La Rocque-Valez	Feb.	19	5423 feet	April 7
Turkish Delight	R. Schildkraut-Fay-Robson	Nov.	11	5397 feet
Valley of Hunted Men	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Feb.	19	4520 feet	Mar. 3
Walking Back	Carrol-Walling	May	29	6 reels
What Price Beauty?	Nita Naldi	Jan.	22	5 reels	Jan. 28
Wise Wife, The	Haver-T. Moore-Logan	Oct.	24	5610 feet	Dec. 16
Wreck of the Hesperus	Bradford-Marion	Oct.	31	6447 feet	Mar. 31

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Animal Snaps	Rarebits	April	8	1 reel	April 21
Barnyard Artists	"Aesop Fables"	April	29	1 reel
Barnyard Lodge No. 1	"Aesop Fables"	April	8	1 reel	April 7
Bath Time	Sportlight	June	24	1 reel
Battling Duet, The	"Aesop Fables"	April	15	1 reel	April 7
Beach Club, The	Bevan-Hurlock	Jan.	22	2 reels	Jan. 14
Benares (Educational)	Geographical Number	Jan.	24	1 reel
Best Man, The	Bevan-A. Bennett-V. Dent	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 11
Bicycle Flirt, The	Bevan-V. Dent-D. Garley	Mar.	18	2 reels	Mar. 10
Blaze of Glory, A	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	26	1 reel
Boats and Fishermen	Science Number	Mar.	4	2 reels
Boy Friend, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	22	1 reel
Broncho Buster, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	1	1 reel
Buddhists of Burma, The (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb.	5	1 reel
Busy Bodies	Sportlight	Jan.	8	1 reel	Dec. 31
Clothes and the Game	Sportlight	April	15	1 reel	April 7
Coast to Coast	"Aesop Fables"	May	13	1 reel
County Fair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar	4	1 reel
Crowned Heads	Sportlight	Feb.	19	1 reel
Delhi (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb.	26	1 reel
Do Monkeys Manicure?	Stan Laurel	April	1	1 reel
Family Frolics	Sportlight	Jan.	22	1 reel	Jan. 14
Famous Playgrounds	Sportlight	May	13	1 reel
Flight That Failed, The	"Aesop Fables"	June	3	1 reel
Flying Age, The	"Aesop Fables"	April	22	1 reel	April 21
Flying Elephants	Roach Stars	Feb.	12	2 reels	Feb. 11
Fun Afoot	Sportlight	Mar.	18	1 reel
Galloping Ghosts	Carew-Hardy	Mar.	11	2 reels	Mar. 3
Girl From Nowhere, The	Pollard-Holloway-Swain	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Good Ship Nellie, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	5	1 reel
Happy Days	"Aesop Fables"	May	27	1 reel
High Stakes	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	15	1 reel
Honeymoon Hints	Rarebits	Jan.	15	1 reel
How Man Suits His Life	Science Series			2 reels
Houses of Arctic and Tropics	Science Number	Feb.	12	2 reels
Jungle Days	"Aesop Cartoon"	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 31
Jungle Triangle, A	"Aesop Cartoon"	April	28	1 reel
Kashmir, Old and New	Geographical Number	Jan.	10	1 reel
Limberlegs	Sportlight	June	10	1 reel
Love at First Flight	Pollard-Hurlock-Cowley	Jan.	29	2 reels	Jan. 21
Man Without a Face (Serial)	A. Ray-W. Miller	Jan.	15	10 episodes	Jan. 14
Mark or the Frog, The	M. Morris-D. Reed	Mar.	25	10 episodes	Mar. 24
Matching Wits	Sportlight	April	29	1 reel	April 21
On the Ice	"Aesop Fables"	Mar.	11	1 reel
Over the Bounding Blue with Will Rogers (Travelesque)		Feb.	12	1 reel	Feb. 11
Playing Hookey	"Our Gang"	Jan.	1	2 reels
Power	William Boyd
Puppy Love	"Aesop Fables"	June	10	1 reel
Reeling Down the Rhine	Travelesque	Jan.	15	1 reel	Jan. 7
Run Girl, Run	Sennett Girls	Jan.	15	2 reels	Jan. 14
Scaling the Alps	"Aesop Fables"	April	1	1 reel	Mar. 31
Season to Taste	Sportlight	Mar.	4	1 reel
Shalimar Gardens, The	Geographical Number	Mar.	18	1 reel
Should Tall Men Marry?	Roach Stars	Jan.	15	2 reels	Jan. 7
Smile Wins, The	"Our Gang"	Feb.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Army Life	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Feb.	5	2 reels	Feb. 4
Smith's Bargain	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson			2 reels
Smith's Farm Days	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Mar.	4	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Holiday	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Jan.	8	2 reels	Dec. 31
Smith's Restaurant	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	April	1	1 reel
Soldier Man	Harry Langdon
Son Shower, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar.	18	1 reel
Spider's Lair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	19	1 reel	Feb. 18
Star Builders	Sportlight	May	27	1 reel
Swim Princess, The	Pollard-Clyde-Lombard	Feb.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Tail Waggers	Sportlight	April	1	1 reel
Trees	Rarebits	Mar.	11	1 reel
Twenty-Four-Dollar Island	Novelty			1 reel	Dec. 23
Versatility	Sportlight	Feb.	5	1 reel	Jan. 28
Volcanoes (Educational)	Geological Number	Feb.	19	1 reel
Wandering Minstrel, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	29	1 reel
War Bride, A	"Aesop Fables"	May	20	1 reel
Work of Running Water	Geological Number	Mar.	11	1 reel
Yellow Cameo, The (Serial)	Ray-Hearn	June	3	10 episodes

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Annapolis	Basquette-Brown
Bride of the Colorado	Boles-Blossom
Cop, The	Boyd-Logan
Godless Girl, The	Basquette-Prevost
King of Kings, The	Warner-Logan	13500 feet	April 29 '27
Ladies Must Love	Rod La Rocque
Love Over Night	La Rocque-Loff
Man-Made Woman	Joy-Boles-Warner
Power	Boyd-Logan
Red Mark, The	von Seyffertitz
Ship Comes In, A	R. Schildkraut-Dressler	June 4
Sin Town	Allen-Fair
Survival of Slim, The	Wally Wales
Tenth Avenue	Haver-Varconi
Valley Beyond the Law	Coleman-Loff
What Holds Men	Leatrice Joy
Yellow Contraband	Leo Maloney

PEERLESS PICTURES (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Girl He Didn't Buy, The	Garon-Simpson	April		5600 feet

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Golden Shackles	Priscilla Bonner	Mar.		5600 feet
Out of the Past	O'Malley-L. Rich	Sept.	26	6000 feet
Web or Fate, The	Lillian Rich	Nov.	7	5800 feet
Wilful Youth	Harlan-Murphy	Dec.		5800 feet

RAYART (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Boy of the Streets, A	Walker-Bennett	Sept.		5059 feet
Casey Jones	Lewis-Robards	Jan.		6673 feet
Cruise of the Hellion	Murphy-Keith	Sept.		6089 feet	Sept. 30
Danger Patrol, The	Russell-Faire	April
Gun-Hand Garrison	Tex Maynard	Oct.		4879 feet
Gypsy of the North	Gordon-Hale	April
Heart o/ Broadway, The	Garon-Agnew	Jan.		5853 feet
Heroes in Blue	Bowers-Rand	Nov.		5000 feet
Law and the Man, The	Santschi-Brockwell	Jan.		5916 feet	Mar. 24
Light in the Window, A	Walthall-Avery-Keefe	Oct.		5960 feet	Nov. 11
My Home Town	Brockwell-Glass	Mar.
On the Stroke o/ 12	E. Torrence-Marlowe-O'Shea	Nov.		5970 feet
Painted Trail, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Feb.		4571 feet
Phantom of the Turf, The	H. Costello-Lease	Mar.
Prince of the Plains	Tex Maynard	Sept.		4134 feet
Ridin' Luck	Tex Maynard	Oct.
Wanderer of the West, A	Tex Maynard	Nov.
Wheel of Destiny, The	Stanley-Hale	Oct.		5869 feet
Wild Born	Tex Maynard	Dec.
You Can't Beat the Law	Lee-Keefe	Feb.		5260 feet

STERLING PICTURES (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Pretty Clothes	Ralston-Walker	Oct.	15	5652 feet	Nov. 4
Outcast Souls	P. Bonner-Delaney	Dec.	15	5210 feet
Burning Up Broadway	H. Costello-Frazer	Jan.	30	5200 feet
Marry the Girl	Bedford-Ellis	Mar.	1	5300 feet	Mar. 10
Million For Love, A	Dunn-Howes	May

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
It Might Happen to Any Girl

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adorable Cheat, The	Lee-Keefe	Chesterfield	April	15	5400 feet	April 21
Aftermath	Special Cast	Collwyn	Dec.		6800 feet	Mar. 3
Air Mail Pilot, The	Mefaffey-Metcalfe	Hi-Mark			5000 feet
Battles of Coronel	Special Cast	Artlee	Feb.		8400 feet	Mar. 24
Broadway After Midnight	Bonner-Landis	Krelbar	Nov.		6199 feet	Nov. 4
Broken Hearts		Hercules
Czar Ivan the Terrible	Special Cast	Amkino	April		8500 feet	Mar. 24
Dance Fever	Corda-Varconi	Brill
Daughter of Israel	Betty Blythe	Aywon			7 reels

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Faithless Lover, The	O'Brien-Hulette	Krelbar	Mar.	5600 feet	Mar. 3
Fangs of Justice	Silverstreak-Walker	Bischoff		5000 feet
Jealousy	Lya de Putti	Brill
Last Moment, The	Matieson-Hale	Zakoro	April	5800 feet	Mar. 31
Little Wild Girl, The	Lee-Landis	Hercules
Modern Du Barry, A	Maria Corda	Brill	June 1.	7000 feet
Port of Missing Children	Special Cast	Superlative
Port of Missing Girls	Bedford-McGregor	Brenda		7270 feet	Mar. 3
Primanerliebe	German Cast	Scenic Films		6500 feet	Mar. 24
Sally of the South Seas		Hercules
Sealed Lips	Swedish Cast	Colwyn		6000 feet
Shadows of the Night		Hercules
Shooting Stars	English Cast	Artlee	April	5800 feet	April 28
Simba	Jungle Film	Capitol Pict		8000 feet	Feb. 4
Streets of Algiers	Camilla Horn	Brill		7 reels
Thrill Seekers	Clifford-Fulton	Superlative		4900 feet
Tartuffe the Hyprocrite	Jannings-Dagover	Brill		7 reels	Aug. 5 '27
Tracey the Outlaw	Jack Hoey	New-Cal	Mar.	6000 feet	Mar. 31
Two Brothers	Conrad Veidt	Brill
When Fleet Meets Fleet	English Cast	Hi-Mark		7953 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bet The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Cigarette Maker's Romance	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
District Doctor, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Girl with the Golden Eyes, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Mysterious Airman, The		Weiss Bros			10 episodes
Necklace, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)	Mary Alden			2 reels
Nothing to Live For	Al Joy	Cranfield Clarke			2 reels
Piece of String, A	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Police Reporter The (Serial)	W. Miller-E. Gilbert	Weiss	Mar.		10 episodes
Sophomore, The	G. O'Neill-L. Graydon	Hi-Mark
Spookey Money	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke			2 reels
Who's Who	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke			2 reels
You Can't Win (Serial)		Weiss Bros			10 episodes

TIFFANY-STAHL
FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bachelor's Paradise	O'Neill-Graves	Mar. 15		6147 feet
Clothes Make the Woman	Southern-Pidgeon	May	1
Devil's Skipper, The	Bennett-Love-Landis	Feb.	1	5510 feet
Girl From Gay Paree	Bedford-McGregor	Sept. 15		5233 feet	Sept. 23
Green Grass Widows	Hagen-Harron-Olmsted	June 10
Haunted Ship, The	Love-Sebastian-Santschi	Dec.	1	4753 feet	Feb. 4
House of Scandal	Sebastian-O'Malley	April	1
Ladies of Night Club	Cortez-Leonard	May 15
Lingerie	White-McGregor	June 20
Nameless Men	Windsor-Moreno	Feb. 15		5708 feet	April 14
Night Life	Harron-A. Day	Nov.	1	6235 feet	Dec. 2
Once and Forever	Miller-Harron	Oct. 15		5639 feet
Prowlers of the Sea	Cortez-Myers	July 20
Scarlet Dove, The	Frazer-Borio	April 15
Stormy Waters	Southern-McGregor	June 1
Streets of Shanghai	Starke-Harlan	Dec. 15		5276 feet	Mar. 3
Their Hour	Harron-Sebastian	Mar.	1	5652 feet
Tragedy of Youth	Baxter-Miller-Collier, Jr.	Jan.	15	6361 feet	Mar. 31
Wild Geese	Bennett-Southern-Keith	Nov.	15	6448 feet
Woman Against the World	Ford-Hale-Olmsted	Jan.	1.	5283 feet
Women's Wares	Brent-Lytell-Kent	Oct.	1.	5614 feet	Nov. 18

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Marcheta	Color Classic	Mar.	1	1 reel
Medallion, The	Color Classic	Mar.	1	1 reel
Mission Bells	Color Classic	Mar.	15	1 reel
North of Suez	Color Classic	Jan.	1	1 reel
Perfect Day, A	Color Classic	April	1	1 reel
Scarface	Color Classic	Jan.	15	1 reel
Souvenirs	Color Classic	Feb.	15	1 reel
Tom, Dick or Harry	Color Classic			1 reel
Treasure Land	Color Classic	Feb.	1	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Albany Night Boat		July	10
Beautiful But Dumb		Aug.	1
Domestic Relations		Aug.	15
Grain of Dust, A		July	1
Marriage of Tomorrow	Miller-Gray
Toilers, The	Ralston-Fairbanks, Jr.

UNIVERSAL
FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Air Patrol, The	Al Wilson	Jan.	1	4259 feet
Alias the Deacon	Hersholt-Marlowe	Jan.	22	6869 feet	Oct. 21
Arizona Cyclone, The	Fred Humes	May	6	4076 feet
Back to God's Country	Adoree-Frazer	Sept.	4	5751 feet	Aug. 29
Border Cavalier, The	Fred Humes	Sept.	18	4427 feet
Buck Privates	De Putti-McGregor	June	3	6171 feet	Feb. 4
Call of the Heart	Dynamite-Cobb-Alden	Jan.	29	4345 feet
Cat and the Canary	La Plante-Hale-Stanley	Sept.	11	7190 feet	May 20
Cheating Cheaters	Compson-Harlan	Oct.	9	5623 feet	Dec. 23
Chinese Parrot, The	Bosworth-Nixon	Oct.	23	7304 feet	Jan. 7
Clean Up Man, The	Wells-O'Day	Feb.	12	4232 feet
Cohens and Kellys in Paris	Sidney-Macdonald	Jan.	15	7481 feet	Feb. 18
Count of Ten, The	Ray-Ralston	June	17	6279 feet
Desert Dust	Ted Wells	Dec.	18	4349 feet
Fangs of Destiny	Dynamite-Cobb-Caldwell	Dec.	4	4295 feet
Fearless Rider, The	Humes-Worth	Jan.	15	4173 feet
Finders Keepers	La Plante-Harron	Feb.	5	6081 feet	Mar. 17
Flyin' Cowboy, The	Gibson-Hasbrouck	June
Four Footed Ranger, The	Dynamite (dog)	Mar.	25	442 6 feet
Four Flushers, The	Lewis-Nixon	Jan.	8	6193 feet	Jan. 28
Galloping Fury	Gibson-Rand	Nov.	20	5503 feet
Good Morning Judge	Denny-Nolan	April	29	5645 feet
Hero For a Night, A	Tryon-Miller	Dec.	18	5711 feet	Dec. 2
Hot Heels	Tryon-Miller	May	13
Hound or Silver Creek	Dynamite (dog)	May	20	4095 feet
Irresistible Lover, The	Keane-Moran	Dec.	4	6958 feet	Sept. 16
Les Miserables	Special Cast	Oct.	30	7713 feet
Lone Eagle, The	Keane-Kent	Sept.	18	5862 feet	April 28
Love Me and World Is Mine	Philbin-Kerry	Mar.	4	6813 feet	Feb. 11
Made to Order Hero	Ted Wells	June	3	4120 feet
Man's Past, A	Veidt-Bedford	Dec.	25	6135 feet	Sept. 16
Midnight Rose	De Putti-Harlan	Feb.	26	5689 feet	Mar. 10
One Glorious Scrap	Fred Humes	Nov.	20	4172 feet
On Your Toes	Denny-Worth	Nov.	27	5918 feet	Jan. 14
Out All Night	Denny-Nixon	Sept.	4	6170 feet	Oct. 7
Painted Ponies	Gibson-Claire	Sept.	25	5416 feet	Aug. 5
Phantom Flyer, The	Al Wilson	Feb.	26	4253 feet
Put 'Em Up	Fred Humes	Mar.	11	4206 feet
Rawhide Kid, The	Gibson-Hale	Jan.	29	5302 feet
Shield of Honor, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Hamilton	Feb.	19	6172 feet	Dec. 20
Silk Stockings	La Plante-Harron	Oct.	2	6166 feet	Aug. 26
Sky Hand Saunders	Al Wilson	Nov.	6	4393 feet
Small Bachelor, The	Kent-Beranger	Nov.	6	6218 feet
Stop That Man	Lake-Kent	Mar.	11	5389 feet	April 28
Straight Shootin'	Ted Wells	Oct.	16	4251 feet	Aug. 19
Surrender	Philbin-Moskine	Mar.	4	8249 feet	Mar. 10
Thanks For Buggy Ride	La Plante-Tryon	April	1	6197 feet	Feb. 1
That's My Daddy	Denny-Kent	Feb.	5	6073 feet
Thirteenth Juror, The	Nilsson-Bushman	Nov.	13	5598 feet	Dec. 19
Thirteen Washington Square	Hersholt-Joyce	April	8	6274 feet	Feb. 4
Three Miles Up	Al Wilson	Sept.	4	4136 feet	July 11
Thunder Riders, The	Ted Wells	April	8	4353 feet
Trick of Hearts, A	Gibson-Hale	Mar.	18	5495 feet
We Americans	Sidney-Miller-Lewis	May	6	9151 feet	April 7
Wild Beauty	Rex-Allen-Marlowe	Nov.	27	5192 feet
Wild West Show, The	Gibson-Gulliver	May	20	5253 feet
Wolf's Trail	Dynamite-Cobb-Lamont	Oct.	2	4167 feet
Won In the Clouds	Al Wilson	April	22	4348 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Africa Before Dark	Oswald Cartoon	Feb.	20	1 reel	April 7
All Balled Up	Charles Puffy	Feb.	27	2 reels	Feb. 4
Ambuscade	Fred Gilman	June	16	2 reels
Any Old Count	"The Gumps"	Jan.	23	2 reels
Back to Nature	Arthur Lake	Feb.	27	1 reel	Feb. 11
Bare Fists	Jack Perrin	Jan.	14	2 reels	Dec. 23
Battling Justice	Fred Gilman	Mar.	24	2 reels	Feb. 25
Big Bluff, A	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhail	May	2	2 reels	April 7
Boss of the Rancho	Bob Curwood	Jan.	7	2 reels
Brand of Courage, The	B. Curwood-P. Montgomery	Jan.	7	2 reels	Jan. 7
Bright Lights	Oswald Cartoon	Mar.	19	1 reel	April 7
Buckskin Days	Newton House	Feb.	18	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster's Big Chance	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Jan.	11	2 reels	Dec. 23
Buster Shows Off	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Mar.	14	2 reels
Buster Steps Out	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Feb.	8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster's Whippet Race	Trimble, Turner and Dog	May	23	2 reels	April 28
By Correspondence	Arthur Lake	Jan.	30	1 reel	Jan. 14
Case of Scotch, A	"The Gumps"	Jan.	9	2 reels	Dec. 23
Cloud Buster, The	"The Gumps"	Feb.	6	2 reels	Jan. 21
Code of the Mounted, The	Jack Perrin	May	5	2 reels	April 7
Dangerous Trail, A				2 reels	May 5
Dates for Two	C. King-C. Doherty	Jan.	18	2 reels	Dec. 31
Diamond Master, The
Fighting Destiny	Fred Gilman	May	19	2 reels	April 21
Fighting Kid, The	Newton House	June	9	2 reels
Frame-Up Man, The	Bob Curwood	May	26	2 reels	May 5
Full House, A	Long-Adams-Lymon-McPhaill			2 reels	June 13
Gauge of Battle, The	Fred Gilman	April	21	2 reels	Mar. 24
George Meets George	Sid Saylor	June	20	2 reels
George's False Alarm	Sid Saylor	Feb.	29	2 reels	Feb. 4
George's School Daze	Sid Sacylor			2 reels	May 5
Haunted Island, The (Serial)	Jack Daugherty-Helen Foster	Mar.	26	10 episodes
Harem Scarem	Oswald Cartoon	Jan.	9	1 reel
Her Only Husband	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	April	4	2 reels	Mar. 17
Hidden Loot	Bob Curwood	April	28	2 reels	Mar. 31
High Flyin' George	Sid Saylor	Jan.	25	2 reels
His In Laws	Charles Puffy	Mar.	12	2 reels	Feb. 18
Horns, Orange Blossoms	Charles Puffy	Jan.	29	2 reels	Jan. 7
Horse Play	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	Jan.	4	2 reels	Dec. 16
Hungry Hoboes	Oswald Cartoon	May	14	1 reel	April 21
Indoor Golf	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhaill	Mar.	7	2 reels	Feb. 11
Looters, The	Bob Curwood	Mar.	3	2 reels	Feb. 4
Madden of the Mounted	Jack Perrin	Mar.	10	2 reels	Feb. 11
Man of Letters, A	Sid Saylor	Feb.	15	2 reels	Jan. 28
Married Bacheiors	Charles Puffy	April	9	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mistakes Will Happen	Ben Hall	Feb.	13	1 reel	Jan. 21
Money! Money! Money!	Ben Hall	May	7	1 reel	April 14
Neck n' Neck	Oswald Cartoon	Jan.	23	1 reel
Newlyweds' Advice		Jan.	2	2 reels	Dec. 16
Newlyweds' Friends, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	April	1	2 reels	Mar. 10
Newlyweds' Happy Day, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	June	4	2 reels	May 12
Newlyweds' Imagination, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	May	7	2 reels	April 14
Newlyweds' Servant, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	Feb.	6	2 reels	Feb. 4
Newlyweds Success, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	Mar.	5	2 reels	Feb. 11
No Blondes Allowed	C. King-C. Doherty	Mar.	21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Oh, What a Knight	Oswald Cartoon			1 reel	May 5
Ole Swimmin' 'Ole, The	Oswald Cartoon	Feb.	6	1 reel	Mar. 24
One Every Minute	Arthur Lake	April	23	1 reel	April 7
Out in the Rain	"The Gumps"	Feb.	20	2 reels	Jan. 28
Ozzie of the Mounted	Oswald Cartoon	April	30	1 reel	April 7
Payroll Roundup, The	Bob Curwood	Mar.	31	2 reels	Mar. 3
Poor Papa	Oswald Cartoon	June	11	1 reel
Prince and the Papa	Charles Puffy	Feb.	12	2 reels	Jan. 21
Ride 'Em Plowboy	Oswald Cartoon	April	15	1 reel	Mar. 24
Riding Gold	Newton House	Jan.	21	2 reels
Ring Leader, The	Jack Perrin	April	7	2 reels	Mar. 10
Ringside Romeos	Arthur Lake	Mar.	26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Rival Romoes	Oswald Cartoon	Mar.	5	1 reel	April 7
Sagebrush Sadie	Oswald Cartoon	April	1	1 reel	May 5
Sailor George	Sid Saylor	May	9	2 reels	April 14
Scarlet Arrow, The (Serial)	F. X. Bushman, Jr.	June	3	10 episodes
Sealed Orders	Jack Perrin	Feb.	11	2 reels	Jan. 28
Shady Rest	"The Gumps"			2 reels
Sliding Home	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan.	16	2 reels	Dec. 30
Social Lions	Ben Hall	Mar.	12	1 reel
Some Babies	Charles Puffy	Mar.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Some Pets	Arthur Lake	Jan.	2	1 reel	Dec. 14
Son of the Frontier, A	Newton House	April	14	2 reels	Mar. 17
So This Is Sapp Center	Ben Hal	Jan.	16	1 reel	Dec. 30
Special Edition	Ben Hall	April	9	1 reel	Mar. 17
Speed Sheik, The	Arthur Lake	June	18	1 reel
Start Something	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	Feb.	1	1 reel	Jan. 14
Summer Knights	Arthur Lake	May	21	1 reel	April 28
Swell Clothes	Arthur Lake	Dec.	5	1 reel	Nov. 19
Taking the Count	C. King-C. Doherty	April	18	2 reels	Mar. 24
Terrors of the Unknown (Serial)				10 episodes
That's That	Trimble-Turner and Dog	April	11	2 reels	Mar. 17
There's a Will	C. King-C. Doherty	Dec.	21	2 reels
Trickster, The	Ben Hall	June	4	1 reel
Unexpected Hero, An	F. Gillman-M. King	Feb.	25	2 reels	Jan. 28
Untamed, The	Newton House	May	12	2 reels	April 14
Valiant Rider, The (Western)	Bob Sherwood	June	23	2 reels
Vanishing Rider, The (Serial)	Wm. Desmond	Jan.	16	10 episodes
Watch George	Sid Saylor	Mar.	28	2 reels	Mar. 3
What a Party	C. King-C. Doherty	Feb.	22	2 reels	Feb. 4
When George Hops	Sid Saylor	April	25	2 reels	Mar. 31
Whose Wife	King-Doherty	June	6	2 reels	May 12
Winged Hoofs	Newton House	Mar.	17	2 reels	Feb. 25
Winning Five, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Sept.	26	2 reels	Sept '9

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Winning Goal, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan.	2	2 reels
Wolves of the Range	Fred Gilman	Jan.	28	2 reels
Woman Chasers	C. King-C. Doherty	May	16	2 reels

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Anybody Here Seen Kelly	Love-Moore
Body Punch, The	Daugherty-Faire
Brides Will Be Brides	Laura La Plante
Burning Winds	Hoot Gibson
Children of the Sun	Special Cast
Clearing the Trail	Gibson-Gulliver
Cloud Dodger, The	Al Wilson
Crimson Hour, The	De Putti-Moskine
Danger Rider, The	Hoot Gibson
Doubling For Trouble	Gibson-Gilbert
Fallen Angels	Kerry-Starke
Foreign Legion, The	Kerry-Stone-Nolan
Freedom of the Press	Stone-Keith-M. Day
Fresh Every our	Glenn Tryon
Give and Take	Sidney-Hersholt
Grip of the Yukon, The	Bushman-Hamilton-Marlowe
Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?	Love-T. Moore
Home, James	La Plante-Delaney
Honeymoon Flats	Lewis-Gulliver
Jazz Mad	Hersholt-Nixon-Lewis
Last Warning, The	Laura LaPlante
Lonesome	Tryon-Kent
Man Who Laughs, The	Veidt-Philbin			11 reels	May 12
Man, Woman and Wife	Kerry-Starke-Nixon
Michigan Kid, The	Nagel-Adoree
Navy Blues	Arthur Lake
Phyllis of the Follies	M. Moore-A. Day
Play Goes On	Veidt-Nolan
Plunging Hoofs	Rex-Perrin
Red Lips	Nixon-Rogers
Silks and Saddles	Nixon-Walling-Nolan
Sky Skidder, The	Al Wilson
Uncle Tom's Cabin	Special Cast
Viennese Lovers	Philbin-Hersholt-Keane
Watch My Speed	Denny-Worth
Wild Blood	Rex-Perrin

UNITED ARTISTS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Circus, The	Chaplin-Kennedy	Jan.	7	6400 feet	Jan. 14
College	Buster Keaton	July	29	5800 feet	Sept. 23
Devil Dancer, The	Gray-Brook	Nov.	19	7000 feet	Dec. 30
Dove, The	Talmadge-Roland	Jan.	7	8400 feet	Jan. 7
Drums of Love	Philbin-Alvarado	Mar.	31	9195 feet	Jan. 28
Garden of Eden, The	Griffith-Ray	Feb.	4	7558 feet	Jan. 14
Gaucho, The	Fairbanks-Valez	Jan.	1	9358 feet	Dec. 2
Magic Flame, The	Colman-Banky	Aug.	14	7850 feet	Sept. 30
My Best Girl	Pickford-Rogers	Oct.	31	7460 feet	Dec. 9
Ramona	Del Rio-Baxter	Feb.	11	7552 feet	Feb. 4
Sadie Thompson	Swanson-L. Barrymore	Jan.	7	8600 feet	Feb. 11
Sorrell and Son	Warner-Joyce	Dec.	2	9000 feet	Nov. 25
Steamboat Bill, Jr.	Buster Keaton	April
Tempest	J. Barrymore-Horn			9 reels
Two Arabian Knights	Boyd-Wolheim	Sept.	23	8250 feet	Nov. 4
Two Lovers	Colman-Banky			8500 feet	April 28

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Battle of the Sexes, The	Bennett-Hersholt-O'Neill
Hell's Angels	Lyon-Hall-Nissen		(about)	7 reels
Innocent, The	Vilma Banky
La Piava	Boyd-Valez
Woman Disputed, The	Talmadge-Roland

WARNER BROTHERS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Across the Atlantic	Blue-Murphy	Feb.	25	6052 feet
Beware of Married Men	Rich-Ferris-Cook	Jan.	14	5421 feet	Jan. 28
Brass Knuckles	Blue-Bronson	Dec.	3	6330 feet	Dec. 23
College Widow, The	D. Costello-Collier, Jr.	Oct.	15	6616 feet	Nov. 25
Crimson City, The	Loy-Miljan-Hyams	April	7	5388 feet	April 21
Dog of the Regiment- A	Rin-Tin-Tin-Gulliver	Oct.	29	5003 feet	Nov. 11
Domestic Troubles	Fazenda-Cook	Mar.	24	5164 feet
First Auto, The	Miller-Oldfield	Sept.	18	6767 feet	July 8
Five and Ten Cent Annie	Fazenda-Cook
Fortune Hunter, The	Chaplin-Costello	Nov.	7	6639 feet	Jan. 21
Ginsberg the Great	Jessel-Ferris	Nov.	26	5390 feet
Girl From Chicago, The	Nagel-Loy	Nov.	19	5978 feet	Dec. 31
Good Time Charley	Oland-H. Costello	Nov.	5	6302 feet	Nov. 25
Ham and Eggs at Front	Wilson-Conklin-Loy	Dec.	24	5613 feet
Husbands For Rent	Moore-Costello	Dec.	31	6320 feet	Jan. 7
If I Were Single	McAvoy-Nagle	Dec.	17	6320 feet	Dec. 31
Jaws of Steel	Rin-Tin-Tin	Sept.	10	5569 feet	Sept. 30
Jazz Singer, The (Vitaphone)	Jolson-McAvoy	Oct.		7423 feet	Oct. 21
Little Snob, The	McAvoy-Frazier	Feb.	11	5331 feet
Missing Link, The	Syd Chaplin	Aug.	7	6485 feet	May 20
One-Round Hogan	Blue-Hyams	Sept.	17	6357 feet	Oct. 17
Old San Francisco	D. Costello-Oland	Sept.	4	7961 feet	July 8
Pay As You Enter	Cook-Fazenda	May	19
Powder My Back	Rich-Ferris-Beranger	Mar.	10	6185 feet
Race For Life, A	Rin-Tin-Tin-Nye-Faire	Jan.	28	4777 feet	Feb. 11
Reno Divorce, A	McAvoy-Graves	Oct.	22	5492 feet	Nov. 4
Rinty of the Desert	Rin-Tin-Tin-Ferris-Nye	April	21	4820 feet
Sailor Izzy Murphy	Jessel-Ferris	Oct.	8	6020 feet	Oct. 28
Sailor's Sweetheart, A	Fazenda-Cook	Sept.	24	5685 feet	Oct. 14
Silver Slave, The	I. Rich-Miljan	Nov.	12	6142 feet	Dec. 9
Slightly Used	McAvoy-Nagel	Sept.	3	6412 feet	Sept. 30
When a Man Loves	Barrymore-Costello	Aug.	21	10081 feet	Feb. 18'27

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Fools in the Fog	McAvoy-Nagle
Glorious Betsy (Vita.)	D. Costello-Nagle			7091 feet	May 5
Ladies Prefer Bonds (tent.)	Nagle-McAvoy
Land of the Silver Fox	Rin-Tin-Tin-Nye-Hyams
Lion and the Mouse (Vita.)	L. Barrymore-McAvoy-Collier, Jr.
Midnight Taxi, The	Moreno-Costello
Noah's Ark (Vita.)	D. Costello-O'Brien
No Questions Asked	Ferris-Collier, Jr.
Singing Fool, The (Vita.)	Al Jolson
State Street Sadie	Loy-Nagle
Tenderloin (Vita.)	D. Costello-Nagle			7782 feet	April 28
Women They Talk About	I. Rich-Ferris-Collier, Jr.

Lois Wilson will be the leading girl player in "Sally's Shoulders," a screen version of the novel by Beatrice Burton which ran serially in a Los Angeles paper and in "McCall's Magazine." Lynn Shores will produce the picture for F B O.

Burr McIntosh has been substituted for James Marcus in the role of the old man in "The Racket," which Caddo is filming for release through Paramount.

Larry Darmour, who is making a series of Witwer two-reel productions for Standard Cinema Corporation and F B O release under the title of "Racing Blood," announces his complete cast. Alberta Vaughn will be the female lead, with Eleanor Flynn, Lewis Sargent and Willie Gray in the other prominent roles.

A Paramount contract has been signed by Olga Baclanova, the actress of the Moscow Art Theatre who was brought to America by Morris Gest.

Warren Burke, son of Johnny Burke, the vaudeville star, has been assigned a leading juvenile part in "Road House," directed by Richard Rosson and featuring Lionel Barrymore and Maria Alba. Rosson has also chosen Burke for the juvenile role in "The Farmer's Daughter," Marjorie Beebe's initial starring appearance, based on an original by Harry Brand and Henry Johnson with continuity by Frederica Sagor.

Production on "Taxi 13" began this week at the F B O studios. Additions which have just been made to the cast include Ethel Wales, Hugh Trevor and Lee Moran. The story tells of the activities of an all-night taxi driver. Continuity is by Scott Darling.

As he is listed for other Paramount assignments, Richard Arlen will not be the hero in Paramount's "The Fleet's In," starring Clara Bow. Instead that role will probably be played by James Hall. Malcolm St. Clair will direct.

Ruby Lafayette and Robert Edeson have been added to the cast of "Marriage of Tomorrow," in which Patsy Ruth Miller and Lawrence Gray are playing the leads for Tiffany-Stahl.

John Cromwell, a stage director under William A. Brady for 12 years, has been signed as a Paramount featured player. During the run of "The Racket" in New York he played the role of the police captain.

Byron Haskins has been signed as chief cameraman for the Warner Bros. unit making "The Singing Fool," which will be the next starring vehicle for Al Jolson. Actual studio work on the picture will begin next month with Lloyd Bacon at the megaphone.

The direction of Fannie Brice's first motion picture was given last week by the Warner Bros. to Archie Mayo. The production is without a title at present but one will be given it shortly. Robert Lord has just completed the story on which the picture is based.

Tiffany-Stahl has begun casting for George Jessel in "The Ghetto." Mary Doran, Rosa Rosanova and William Strauss have so far been signed. Isadore Bernstein has completed the continuity from the adaptation of Viola Brothers Shore's story, "The Schlemiehl."

Fay Wray and Gary Cooper and the 17 members of the Paramount unit filming "The First Kiss" left Hollywood last Monday for St. Martin's, Md. They were headed by Dan Keefe, assistant director. They expect to arrive at Clayton, near St. Martin's, this Friday afternoon. A tentative shooting schedule calls for a month of work in the Chesapeake Bay section.

Roy Press
Printers

Your patrons are demanding Better Music now!

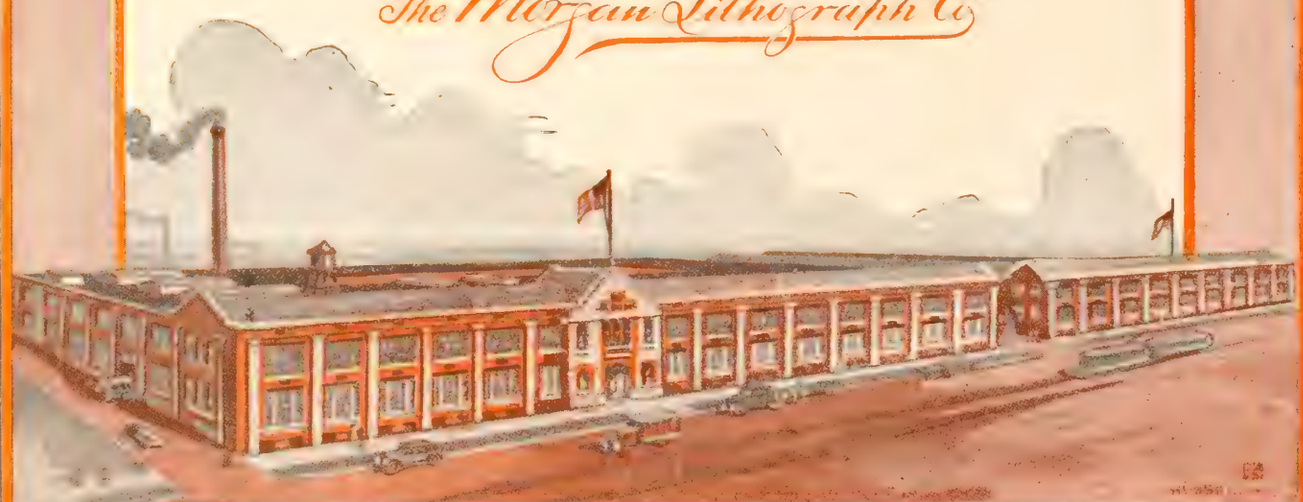
— you can give it to them with The Kilgen Wonder Organ

YEARS ago, when Motion Pictures were still something of a novelty, patrons were satisfied with the music of a drum, piano, viola and cornet. Today, in first-class theatres, they demand a full symphonic orchestra.

They were satisfied, then, with almost any kind of a Pipe Organ. Far more critical today, they demand an artistic Orchestral Organ. Ascribe this change to what you will, the fact remains that outstanding Organ Music is now expected, and helps fill your House.

Nothing can so satisfactorily furnish it as The Kilgen Wonder Organ — the one distinctly Theatre Organ. Artistic in every detail, capable of powerfully interpreting every impression that the screen portrays, and unlimited in its resources, the Kilgen Organ is the one great dividend-payer that should be in every playhouse.

Write for catalog and information to Geo. Kilgen & Son, Inc., 4024 N. Union Blvd., St. Louis, Mo., Makers; or to any of the National Theatre Supply Company Offices, Distributors. ♣ ♣ ♣ ♣



SOMETHING CLEVER!

For the Cleverest Picture of ALL TIMES

Poster Work by

The Morgan Lithograph Co

The Morgan Lithograph Co

CLEVELAND, O.

May 26, 1928

Motion Picture News

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

Vol. XXXVII No. 21

under act of March 3, 1879

PRICE 20 CENTS

Los Angeles New York Chicago

TO THE INDEPENDENT DISTRIBUTOR AND MY EXHIBITOR-FRIENDS...

BUCK JONES CORPORATION
489 Fifth Avenue
New York City
Phone Murray Hill 4560

May 21-28.

I hardly know how to express my appreciation for the numerous offers of appreciation and co-operation received from both exhibitors and independent distributors even before any public announcements had been made of my exact intentions.

There have been many unfounded rumors of my having been affiliated with various producing organizations, but after due deliberation, I have decided to fulfill an ambition which I have had for five years or more--to make my own pictures and to make them of a standard equal to any other type of picture being produced today.

I never could really understand why producers insist on curtailing the cost of western attractions when they have for nearly a quarter of a century formed the backbone of the motion picture industry. In other words, they have been the breadwinners.

I am going to make only FOUR pictures for the 1928-29 season, which will give my organization and myself sufficient time to concentrate considerable more effort on each attraction than every before.

Every effort will be made to make these pictures of the highest possible calibre, a standard that will be used as a basis of comparison for all future westerns.

These productions will be released through the very best of the independent exchanges in each territory and I feel sure that my exhibitor friends will be glad that I have made this move after they see the type of pictures we are going to make.

May the coming season be a banner one for you.

Buck Jones.!

now they can be sold

¶ Provided you have a good theatre and run good pictures, your real competition today is not the theatre down the street. Time was when motion pictures had a monopoly on entertainment for the masses. Not so in these modern days. Automobiles, radio, golf, ball games, books, bridge, dancing, and scores of other diversions compete for people's leisure time. ¶ More good pictures died in 1928 for lack of patronage than in any previous year. But, on the other hand, productions like Harold Lloyd in "Speedy," "Wings," "Underworld" and the like did unprecedented big business. Why? Because they sold not only the chronic movie-goers but auto-riding, radio-listening millions besides. ¶ It's no accident that you find practically all the product of this type in Paramount's Whole-Show Program. Paramount planned it that way. Big-time stars like Harold Lloyd, Emil Jannings, Clara Bow and Richard Dix. Stories like "Canary Murder Case" bought and read by 200,000 people. Specials like "Wings" and Von Stroheim's "The Wedding March." ¶ Analyze all the product announcements and you'll find it's on this point that Paramount, more than ever, excels! Paramount has 1928-9 pictures your whole town wants to see. ¶ You've wondered how to sell that extra $5,000 worth of patronage that means S.R.O. Now they can be sold . . . . with . . .

PARAMOUNT'S WHOLE-SHOW PROGRAM

Specials

Harold Lloyd
Wedding March
4 Clara Bow
3 Richard Dix
2 Emil Jannings
Canary Murder Case
Beggars of Life
The Tong War
Crime of Interference
The Letter
Tahiti Nights
Glorifying American Girl
Perfumed Trap
Wolf Song
Dirigible
Man I Love
Hard Boiled Angel
Living Together
Upstart Gentleman
Behind German Lines
Burlesque

Road Shows

Wings
Abie's Irish Rose
The Patriot

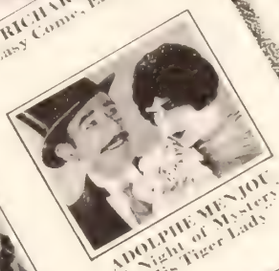
Star Hits

3 Richard Dix
4 Geo. Bancroft
4 Bebe Daniels
4 Esther Ralston
2 Pola Negri
3 Wray-Cooper
2 Florence Vidor
4 Chas. Rogers
3 Taylor-Hall
3 Adolphe Menjou
3 Zane Grey
1 Thomas Meighan
2 MacLean-Christie
1 Sir Harry Lauder
1 Model of Montmarte

Shorts

104 Paramount News
8 Vernon Comedies
8 Dooley Comedies
8 "Macduff" Comedies
8 "Confessions of a Chorus Girl" Comedies
12 Great Stars and Authors
26 Krazy Kat
26 Inkwell Imps
2 Horton Comedies
Extra! Byrd's Flight to the South Pole

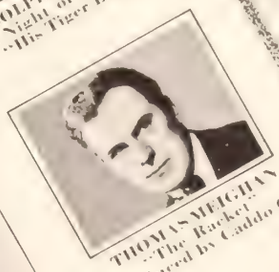
17 of the best PARAMOUNT PICTURES between now and August 1st!



Your cooling plant can cool crowds instead of cobwebs this summer!

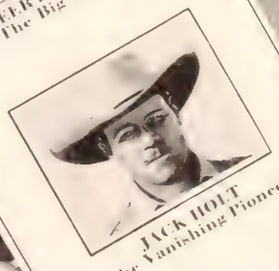
EMIL JANNINGS
"The Street of Sin"

GEORGE BANCROFT
"The Drag Net"



CLARA BOW
"Ladies of the Mob"

RICHARD DIX
"Easy Come, Easy Go"



ADOLPHE MENJOU
"A Night of Mystery"
"His Tiger Lady"

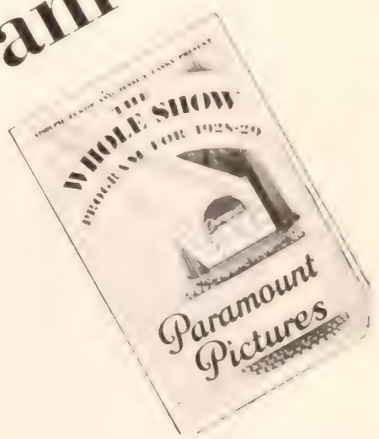
BEERY-HATTON
"The Big Killing"

POLA NEGRI
"Three Sinners"

THOMAS MEIGHAN
"The Racket"
Produced by Caddo Co.

BEBE DANIELS
"The Fifty Fifty Girl"
"Hot News"

JACK HOLT
"The Vanishing Pioneer"



FLORENCE VIDOR
"The Magnificent Flirt"

ESTHER RALSTON
"Half A Bride"

FIELDS-CONKLIN
"Fools for Luck"

FRED THOMSON
"Kit Carson"
"Sunset Legion"

big bets and all the in one program . . .

The Man

Universal's 1928-29 Headliners!

These Four Great Carl Laemmle Super Productions

The Man Who Laughs
Uncle Tom's Cabin
Broadway
Show Boat

---

7 Smashing Laemmle Specials

4 Big-Money Dennys

22 Universal Headliner Jewels

Including 4 Laura La Plantes, 4 Glenn Tryons

8 Hoot Gibson Jewels

22 Five-Reel Western and Thrill Features

5 Amazing Super Serials

Including
TARZAN THE MIGHTY

Complete Service Contract

International Newsreel

The Best Short Subjects in the World

Carl Laemmle

Who Laughs

--is the man who has something to be happy about. That's Carl Laemmle. Laughing because Universal is sitting on top of the world! Laughing because Universal has the goods! 67 FEATURES! 26 of 'em finished!

Showing 'em to exhibitors. Twenty-six of 'em completed. Pictures you can see --right NOW! Plays, stories, titles, casts, directors, PRODUCTION CLASS that you can see. SHOWMANSHIP that you can see. BOX-OFFICE thought in every single picture on the list that is so evident it fairly shouts! Shouts: YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE UNIVERSAL THIS YEAR. Carl Laemmle made 'em. Spent hundreds of thousands of dollars to get the pick of the market in stories, plays, books, etc. Got them. Called for the best in every department. Got it. We know it. You know it. Everybody knows it. UNIVERSAL IS SITTING ON TOP OF THE WORLD. NO WONDER THIS MAN LAUGHS!!

Leads the Way!

On file!

ON file in many of the offices of the world's leading theatre owners, theatre architects and builders are complete sets of the past issues of

THEATRE BUILDING & EQUIPMENT BUYERS GUIDE

and in some instances to assure preservation against continuous use these file numbers have been bound in leather.

Over 15,000 copies of THEATRE BUILDING & EQUIPMENT BUYERS GUIDE are distributed to all theatre owners and architects, theatre builders and electrical contractors. The entire field watches for each new number of BUYERS GUIDE, to get the latest ideas of theatre design and up-to-date references for the sources of purchase of all types of theatre equipment.

Twelve full pages of four color illustrations will be used in the Spring issue of BUYERS GUIDE featuring the work of Thomas W. Lamb, Architect. This true reproduction of fine theatres is a feature that places BUYERS GUIDE in a class by itself as a trade publication.

Over 100 manufacturers advertised their products through the pages of our 1927 issue of BUYERS GUIDE—the most effective advertising medium that has ever been offered manufacturers of theatre equipment, appointments and building materials. BUYERS GUIDE assures the manufacturer that his advertisement is constantly before all individuals responsible in any way for the buying for new theatres or the re-equipping of theatres in operation.

The Spring Number of THEATRE BUILDING & EQUIPMENT BUYERS GUIDE will be out in June. Complete details and specimen copies of BUYERS GUIDE will be gladly sent upon request. Make your advertising reservations now. Address, Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

NINTH ANNUAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Educational Pictures

"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

The World's Greatest Distributors of Short Features..

YOUR CHAMPION

It is no idle boast to say that EDUCATIONAL FILM EXCHANGES, Inc., are the world's greatest distributors of Short Features. This is proved again by the stirring history of the last year in the picture industry.

EDUCATIONAL stands today as the only large producing and distributing organization in the world that is truly independent and that is dealing in Short Features exclusively---or even primarily.

Think that over!

You won't be misled by unfounded statements about who "made Short Features what they are today." You know that EDUCATIONAL has been the one outstanding pioneer in the field since the day it entered the business. And you know that every other big company has "other fish to fry" first; that Educational alone must and will stand as the champion of quality in the spice of your program, before all other considerations.

The men who make Educational Pictures for you in 1928-1929 will be mostly the men who have been building Educational's record of consistent performance for years. In his ninth year of association with EDUCATIONAL as a comedy producer and director, Jack White, as director-in-chief at Educational Studios, will be surrounded by a large staff of such able directors as Stephen Roberts, Charles Lamont, Jules White, Henry W. George and others equally well known. The same known stability, the same assurance stand back of the single-reel novelty and news series.

And EDUCATIONAL, as always, stands back of this program with strong, consistent advertising.

It is no idle boast to claim the Short Features championship for EDUCATIONAL.

E. W. Hammons

No star has made bigger strides in public favor in the past year than Lupino Lane.. No other Short Features star offers such splendid promise of exceptional entertainment value and added profits in the next.

Educational Pictures

"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

The WORLD'S GREATEST

Lane Comedies

8
2 Reel

SHORT FEATURE COMEDY STAR.

BIG BOY Juvenile
-COMEDIES-

Comedies in the Spirit of Youth

Educational Pictures

"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

JACK WHITE PRODUCTIONS

Millions on Millions know "BIG BOY," and every one who knows him loves him.... His irresistible charm is reflected in an irresistible box-office urge..

8 2 Reel

DIRECTED BY CHARLES LAMONT

IDEAL COMEDIES

with JERRY DREW

A new series of comedies featuring Jack White's latest spectacular find--JERRY DREW. Splendidly produced, as well dressed as DREW himself, yet fast and snappy, Ideal Comedies truly merit their name. They are ideal comedy entertainment.

8 2 Reel

Educational Pictures
"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

Produced under supervision of JACK WHITE

MERMAID COMEDIES

16
2 Reel

Jack White Productions

The comedies that Jack White's genius first made famous. Consistent, unfailing laugh producers for the past eight seasons, and still getting faster, snappier, funnier. With many of the old Mermaid favorites and with some bright new faces, too--Monty Collins, George Davis, Jack Miller, Estelle Bradley....

Educational Pictures
"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

Produced under the personal supervision of JACK WHITE

Tuxedo Comedies

6
2 Reel

Tuxedo Comedies possess a sophistication and a smartness that lift them far above the average comedy subject. Featuring Wallace Lupino and others whose names will be an additional guarantee of fun and lively action..

JACK WHITE PRODUCTIONS

Educational Pictures
"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

DOROTHY DEVORE COMEDIES

A clever comedienne, a beautiful girl, a daredevil at thrill stunts, alone in her field as a star of two-reel comedies--DOROTHY DEVORE. With a tremendous fan following.

6 Two Reel

Educational Pictures
"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

Cameo COMEDIES

They get away with a flying start and pack into one reel enough laughs for any program.
Brief fast action comedies with a long and enviable record...

Educational Pictures
"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

26 One Reel

KINOGRAMS

Acclaimed Throughout the Trade as First Among NEWS REELS

KINOGRAMS has been acclaimed throughout the trade as the news reel leader---it holds the remarkable record of three to one over its nearest competitor, as attested by unbiased press comparisons of the news reels, for consistent service and entertainment..

KINOGRAMS is the only independent news reel on the market----it has no object to serve except to provide you with the best news reel service obtainable.

KINOGRAMS pledges itself to continue in the coming season to give the same outstanding service and entertainment value that have made it a three-to-one favorite over the field.

Twice A Week

Educational Pictures

"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

Lyman H. Howe's
Hodge-Podge
Some Sense and Some Nonsense
A laugh or two, a bit of wisdom, a glimpse at the world's beauties and oddities, some camera tricks and clever cartoon clowning; stirred together in just the right proportion and served smartly ---- a delicious cocktail for your program.....
12 One Reel
Educational Pictures
"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

The WORLD TODAY

-A Modern Screen Magazine-

ONE PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS.

Whatever is most interesting in this old world of ours--presented in the most up-to-date modern style.

One A Month

Educational Pictures

"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

Educational Pictures

save many a show..
And they always make a good show better.
Exploit them to make your profits bigger.

Educational Pictures
"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"

EDUCATIONAL
FILM EXCHANGES, Inc.
E. W. Hammons
President

MEMBER, MOTION PICTURE PRODUCERS AND DISTRIBUTORS OF AMERICA, INC.
Will H. Hays, President.

CECIL B. DE MILLE

PATHE is prepared

THE motion picture is committed to newness and the immediate Now. The Screen succeeds, not in yesterday's glory or tomorrow's hope, but in the facts of Today.

Pathe advances into the new season assured and prepared in terms of Now.

Twenty-nine deluxe features, headed and hall-marked for quality by CECIL B. DE MILLE'S "The King of Kings" and "The Godless Girl", comprise the major dramatic offerings—an array of product attuned to the demand of today—and Now—from theatres and their patrons. These—the twenty-nine—are pictures of and for their time—aggressive with the sparkle of modernity, deliberately considered in their execution and bearing the impress of mastery.

Pathe's name spread across the screen with the birth of the picture theatre, nearly a quarter of a century ago. Pathe's name, alone of those who began, is still there, now. Through the years, exhibitors have been dealing with Pathe, a house of honor, jealous of its good name and fair repute, untainted of competition with its customers, rendering unswerving service and asking in return nothing beyond its proper due.

Pathe, as always, is prepared, now—today.

ROD LA ROCQUE

LEATRICE JOY

WILLIAM BOYD

JACQUELINE LOGAN

PHYLLIS HAVER

NOAH BEERY

VICTOR VARCONI

EDDIE QUILLAN

JOHN MACK BROWN

JUNIOR COGHLAN

LINA BASQUETTE

LILI DAMITA

GEORGE DURYEA

JEANETTE LOFF

H. B. WARNER

ALAN HALE

JOSEPH SCHILDKRAUT

MARIE PREVOST

ROBERT ARMSTRONG

GUSTAVE VON SEYFFERTITZ

NENA QUARTARO

LOUIS NATHEAUX

SEENA OWEN

JOHN BOLES

1928 1929

29 DeLuxe Features that

The Supreme Gift of Motion Picture Art —Now Available for General Release

CECIL B. DeMILLE'S

"KING of KINGS"

by Jeanie MacPherson

Specials

"TENTH AVENUE"

with PHYLLIS HAVER,

Victor Varconi and Joseph Schildkraut. A William C. de Mille Production from the stage play by John McGowan and Lloyd Griscom. Continuity by Douglas Doty. De Mille Studio Production.

WILLIAM BOYD

in

"THE COP"

with Alan Hale, Jacqueline Logan and Robert Armstrong. A Donald Crisp Production. Screen play by Tay Garnett from the story by Elliott Clawson. Produced by Ralph Block for De Mille Pictures Corp.

"SHOW FOLKS"

with JEANETTE LOFF,

Eddie Quillan and Robert Armstrong. From an original story by Philip Dunning, co-author of "Broadway" Ralph Block—Associate Producer.

WILLIAM BOYD

in

"POWER"

with Jacqueline Logan and Alan Hale. A Ralph Block Production. Story and continuity by Tay Garnett. Directed by Howard Higgin.

"CRAIG'S WIFE"

with IRENE RICH

Adapted by Clara Beranger from the Broadway stage success by George Kelly.

"THE RED MARK"

with Nena Quartaro, Gaston Glass, Gustave Von Seyffertitz and Rose Dione. Adaptation and continuity by Julien Josephson from the story by John Russell. Personally directed by JAMES CRUZE. Presented by James Cruze, Inc.

"CELEBRITY"

with Lina Basquette and Robert Armstrong. Adapted by Elliott Clawson from the play by Willard Keefe. Directed by Howard Higgin. Ralph Block—Associate Producer.

NED McCOBB'S DAUGHTER

with ANNA Q. NILSSON

Robert Armstrong and a great all-star cast. Adapted by Beulah Marie Dix from the Theatre Guild hit by Sidney Howard.

"THE SPIELER"

with Jacqueline Logan and Alan Hale. From an original story by Elliott Clawson. Ralph Block—Associate Producer.

ROD LaROCQUE

in

"LOVE OVER NIGHT"

with Jeanette Loff, Tom Kennedy and Mary Carr. A Hector Turnbull Production. Original story and adaptation by George Dromgold and Sanford Hewitt. Directed by Edward H. Griffith.

"ANNAPOLIS"

with Lina Basquette and John Mack Brown. Original story by F. McGrew Willis. Directed by W. Christy Cabanne.

Pathé

Challenge COMPARISON

CECIL B. DeMILLE'S
"The GODLESS GIRL"
with LINA BASQUETTE, EDDIE QUILLAN
GEORGE DURYEA, MARIE PREVOST and NOAH BEERY

Story by Jeanie Macpherson

Another Cecil B. DeMille Super-Attraction —One of the Season's Greatest Road Show Specials

Super-Features

"THE GETAWAY"
with Jeanette Loff, George Duryea and Robert Armstrong. From the original story by Ernest Pascal. Ralph Block—Associate Producer.

LEATRICE JOY
in
"MAN-MADE WOMEN"
with H. B. Warner, John Boles and Seena Owen. Screen play by Alice D. G. Miller from the story by Ernest Pascal. Directed by Paul L. Stein. Produced by Ralph Block for de Mille Pictures Corporation.

"LISTEN BABY!"
with Lina Basquette and Eddie Quillan. From the Red Book Magazine story by Elsie Janis and Gene Markey.

"MARKED MONEY"
with JUNIOR COGHLAN
Alan Hale and George Duryea. From an original story by Bertram Millhauser. Directed by Spencer Bennet.

ROD LA ROCQUE
in
"CAPTAIN SWAGGER"
A Hector Turnbull Production. From the story by Adelaide Heilbroun and Leonard Praskins.

LILI DAMITA
The Great European Sensation in
"FORBIDDEN LOVE"
from the play "The Queen was in the Parlour" by Noel Coward.

"NOISY NEIGHBORS"
with Eddie Quillan and the Quillan Family. A Hector Turnbull Production from an original story by George Dromgold and Sanford Hewitt.

"SQUARE SHOULDERS"
with JUNIOR COGHLAN
and George Duryea. From an original story by Beulah Marie Dix. Directed by Frank Urson

WILLIAM BOYD
in
"THE LEATHERNECK"
with Lina Basquette, Robert Armstrong and Alan Hale. From an original story by Elliott Clawson. Directed by Howard Higgin. Ralph Block—Associate Producer.

"THE FLYING FOOL"
with Lina Basquette. From the story by Ernest Pascal. Directed by Edward H Griffith.

"HIGH VOLTAGE"
From the story "The Trouble Shooter" by Tay Garnett. Ralph Block — Associate Producer.

JEANETTE LOFF
featured in
"THE ELEVATOR GIRL"
with George Duryea and Robert Armstrong Adapted by Beulah Marie Dix from an original story by Tay Garnett. Ralph Block—Associate Producer.

"GERALDINE"
with Eddie Quillan. Adapted by Tay Garnett from the story by Booth Tarkington

PHYLLIS HAVER
in
"SAL OF SINGAPORE"
with Alan Hale Adapted by Julien Josephson from "The Sentimentalists" by Dale Collins

"THE OFFICE SCANDAL"
with George Duryea. A Hector Turnbull Production

"THE SHADY LADY"
with George Duryea From the story by Leonard Praskins

PATHE SUPER WESTERNS
The punch of your program—Pathe's big-money super Westerns with the greatest of the Western stars—Leo Maloney, Harry Carey, Wally Wales, Don Coleman.

Pathé

~and the LAST

20 MACK SENNETT Super-Comedies

FROM the imposing new studios of Mack Sennett, the King of Comedy Producers, will come 20 hilarious two-reelers that will set up fresh standards in short laugh-films and cause mirthquakes in thousands of movie palaces. Laughs are dollars and Mack Sennett is the laugh mint of movieland.

Pathé News

SEES ALL  KNOWS ALL

PATHE NEWS is an institution of the screen, backed by 18 years' leadership. When you book it you are backing the judgment of the public, for the public looks upon Pathe News as the very symbol of the cinema. If you don't play this dominant screen factor, you are cutting away the very heart of your presentation system.

Issued Twice a Week

GRANTLAND RICE

Sportlights

THE SPORTING PAGE OF THE SCREEN
26 ISSUES—ONE EVERY TWO WEEKS
Produced by John L. Hawkinson
A CHAMPION SHORT FEATURE!

Pathé Review

The Magazine of the Screen

Under the Editorship of TERRY RAMSAYE

A fascinating one-reel subject that satisfies every demand of the public and box-office.

ISSUED ONCE A WEEK

SMITTY AND HIS PALS

Presented by
AMEDEE J. VAN BEUREN
From the Famous Cartoon Character Originated by BERNDT
Syndicated throughout the World

10 Sensational New Kid Comedies—a hundred percent series that will sweep into popularity from the start, with a ready-made audience of 15,000,000 readers a day!

ALWAYS the dominant factor in the industry in the production of short subjects, Pathe transcends its own previous achievements for the coming season with an unprecedented output, bringing new elements into its elaborate program and providing more extensive facilities in publicity, advertising and exploitation.

The Premier House of Short Subjects announces as its "backbone of programs" more than 300 units, the very cream of the market, shorts that will many times save your show and will at all times provide that diversity of presentation and novelty without which no picture house can firmly establish itself.

WORD IN SHORTS

A NEW SENSATION IN SHORT COMEDIES

"DAN, THE TAXI MAN"

with Jack Cooper and Carol Lombard

Series of 6

"HANDY ANDY"

with Andy Clyde and Anita Barnes

Series of 6

"THE TIRED BUSINESS MAN"

with Billy Bevan and Carmelita Geraghty

Series of 6

5 GREAT NEW Pathé Serials

"THE TERRIBLE PEOPLE" with Allene Ray and Walter Miller. Directed by Spencer Bennet. Story by Edgar Wallace. Scenario by George Arthur Gray.

"EAGLE OF THE NIGHT"

featuring Frank Clarke, greatest of aeroplane stunt flyers. Original story by Paul Cruger. Directed by Jimmy Fulton.

"THE FIRE DETECTIVE"

Original story and continuity by Frank Leon Smith, who wrote the scenario for "The Green Archer." Directed by Spencer Bennet.

"THE TIGER'S SHADOW"

Original story and scenario by George Arthur Gray, author of "The Crimson Flash", "Hawk of the Hills", "The Yellow Cameo", etc. Directed by Spencer Bennet.

"QUEEN OF THE NORTH WOODS"

Original story and scenario by George Arthur Gray. Directed by Spencer Bennet.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

A sure-fire short subject that's guaranteed to win a good hearty laugh every ten seconds.

Presented by

Timely Films, Inc.

AMEDEE J. VAN BEUREN, President

1560 Broadway, New York

ONE A WEEK

AESOP'S FILM FABLES

Funnier than ever in 1928-29 this guaranteed laugh-getter is setting out on high to break the all-time laugh records.

ONE A WEEK

Cartoonist—PAUL TERRY

Fables Pictures, Inc.

1560 Broadway, New York

AMEDEE J. VAN BEUREN, President

Pathé

SAMUEL GOLDWYN—
FRED NIBLO—RONALD
COLMAN—VILMA BANKY

"If ever there was a more perfect combination, certain to make a success of any picture we have yet to see it."

Says Exhibitor's Daily Review

Direct from 8 big weeks at the Embassy New York City at $2.00 top.

"All the world will Love 'Two Lovers'" New York Telegraph

And all exhibitors will find in this—the last and biggest Colman-Banky picture—one of the greatest box-office pictures they have ever played.

Samuel Goldwyn presents

Ronald COLMAN

Vilma BANKY

in

"Two Lovers"

from story "Leatherface" by Baroness Orczy

FRED NIBLO PRODUCTION

UNITED ARTISTS PICTURE

A Second Printing Was Necessary!

TO supply the orders of Exhibitors, Theatre Executives and Theatre Workers for the most comprehensive and authoritative work written on the subject, the publishers, George H. Doran Company, New York, has made a second printing of—

MOTION PICTURE THEATRE MANAGEMENT

By Harold B. Franklin

(President of West Coast Theatres, Inc., and leading theatre executive)

NOW

you too may obtain a copy of this monumental work dealing with every branch of the theatre and offering a carefully considered presentation of the theories and practices, tested by years of experience, making for the successful and profitable business method of running a motion picture theatre.

The author, Harold B. Franklin, is known throughout the industry as one of the most progressive and able theatre executives and showmen the picture theatre has developed, and one of the leading forces contributing to the advance which the motion picture playhouse has made from its "nickelodeon" beginning to the palatial community institution which the better theatre of today represents.

DON'T DELAY

The present supply of copies is by no means large enough to supply all those who eventually will want copies of this book, so prompt action is imperative if you want to be assured of a copy.

THE PRICE IS $5.

35 Chapters and 26 Illustrations* Tell You How—

To train and maintain an organization that will function smoothly in the running of your theatre.

To provide adequate safety methods.

To carry on systematic inspections.

To prepare a properly balanced budget.

To judge the effectiveness of advertising.

To purchase equipment and to Build Good Will.

Order Your Copy Today →

Use This Order Blank

MOTION PICTURE NEWS,
729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

Send me postpaid MOTION PICTURE THEATRE MANAGEMENT by Harold B. Franklin.
I enclose (check) (money order) for $5.00.

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

State .....

A Discussion on ADVERTISING

By Mr. Adolph Zukor

President, Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation, an acknowledged leader in the motion picture industry and an eminent figure in the world affairs of business.

(Reported by MARTIN J. QUIGLEY)

AN industry, like an individual, is inclined to go from one extreme to another. During the past few years the motion picture business in conjunction with its general program of economic readjustment has gone from the extreme of an extravagant use of certain forms of advertising to another extreme which has consisted of an unwise and unsound curtailment of at least one essential form of advertising: namely, advertising within the trade.

Under the stress of a broadcast readjustment which the trend of the business had rendered necessary, the pendulum on trade paper advertising has been permitted to swing too far in the direction of curtailment. A swing back toward the point of normalcy is now both advisable and necessary.

I regard advertising within the trade as an essential activity of the business of motion pictures. The trade press is or should be the voice of the industry and the scene in which is depicted evidence of the thought, action and progress of the business. When the trade press reflects, or tends to reflect, a quiescent state of affairs in the industry it is a bad condition for the business and for all the concerns in the business.

* * *

CONSIDERING directly the interests of our organization, I want to see a vigorous and enterprising trade press; one that is alive with the progressive thought of the business. Advertisements in the trade press that are well-written and effectively displayed serve to stimulate the exhibitor's interest in his business; such advertisements being properly and accurately informative are a valuable aid to the theatreman.

I make it a practice to study the advertisements of all of the companies. When I see good advertising, whether it is from Paramount or from some other company, I am interested and pleased, because I know that such advertising stimulates interest in product; is an inspiration to better work on the part of every other advertising department; and that it is contributing to the spirit of progress in the business.

[OVER]

* * *

EXAMPLE is one of the greatest influences in life. Through the trade press the successful showmanship efforts of one exhibitor in any particular part of the country are held up for the guidance of all other exhibitors. Here is a sphere of great service for the trade press.

Advertising to the public is, of course, an important activity of the industry but the logical first step of the industry in publicity is advertising within the trade. However important may be any local or national advertising effort aimed at the general public it must be remembered that the media for reaching the trade are the trade media. It is in these publications that the producer and distributor is enabled to send his business message directly and surely into the hands of the man who is most interested in the news of the business, whether it be about product or about something else that concerns the business of motion pictures.

When the trade press publishes an important advertisement or an important article we know that the information concerned is going directly to the persons for whom the information is intended. When it appears elsewhere we know that while it may reach some small part of the trade it does not reach the whole trade and, whatever its merit may be, that merit is non-existent for all those whom it does not reach.

* * *

THE trade paper in the motion picture business is bound to be a big influence—either for progress or retrogression. When I read the trade paper week by week and find a volume of enterprising and effective advertising copy, and an editorial section which is alive to the progress of the business, I am stimulated and I know that a similar effect is achieved throughout the business. If, on the other hand, I pick up a trade paper and find but few advertisements and these indifferently displayed I feel that the dominant urge of the business is for the moment held in abeyance and that the industry is foolishly sacrificing an opportunity for advancement.

The trade press is the mirror of the business; at all times it should reflect a picture of initiative, enterprise and intelligent activity.

First National Pictures

EVERY ONE OF THESE STARS IS AN ESTABLISHED FAVORITE

FIND OUT WHY BEFORE YOU BUY

Get down to cases—the cold, hard facts.

Sum up every essential element — searchingly, scientifically.

Look at THE AMAZING INVENTORY OF BOX-OFFICE MATERIALS First National is showing you week by week!

You'll understand why FIRST NATIONAL is FIRST!

COLLEEN MOORE
RICHARD BARTHELMESS

CORINNE GRIFFITH
BILLIE DOVE

MILTON SILLS
KEN MAYNARD

Dorothy Mackaill
Jack Mulhall

Charlie Murray
Alice White

Molly O'Day
Louise Fazenda

Ben Lyon
Betty Compson

H. B. Warner
Maria Corda

Doris Kenyon
Marie Dressler

YOU KNOW FIRST NATIONAL IS THE ONLY COMPANY WITH SO MANY STARS THAT HAVE MADE GOOD AT YOUR BOX-OFFICE TIME AFTER TIME . . . . . BUT DO YOU REALIZE THAT

62%

OF THE STORIES IN THE PRESIDENT GROUP

will also come to you with REPUTATIONS ALREADY ESTABLISHED! Story Fame ADDED to the Star Draw in every one. Seldom have so many pre-sold vehicles been included in a single season's line-up.

Gary Cooper
Ralph Forbes

Anna Q. Nilsson
Lowell Sherman

Sam Hardy
Lilyan Tashman

Larry Kent
Arthur Stone

Thelma Todd
Ian Keith

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.
Lucien Littlefield

Jane Winton
And 22 Others

"THE SQUALL"

YOU WILL GET ••

$721,000 WORTH OF STORY FROM FIRST NATIONAL

A KING'S RANSOM

Spent for the Film Rights Alone to the

18 LONG-RUN STAGE-HITS

13 FAMOUS BEST-SELLERS

and Stories from Mass-Circulation Magazines

21 STAR FEATURES

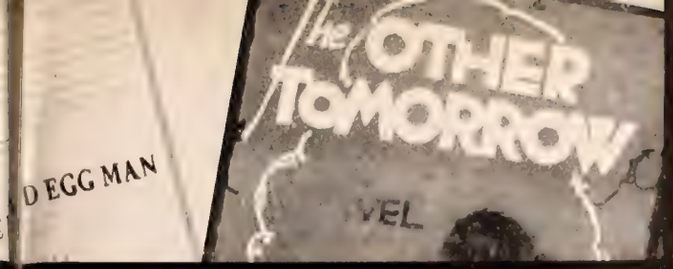
3 INTERNATIONAL SUCCESSES

in

The PRESIDENT GROUP

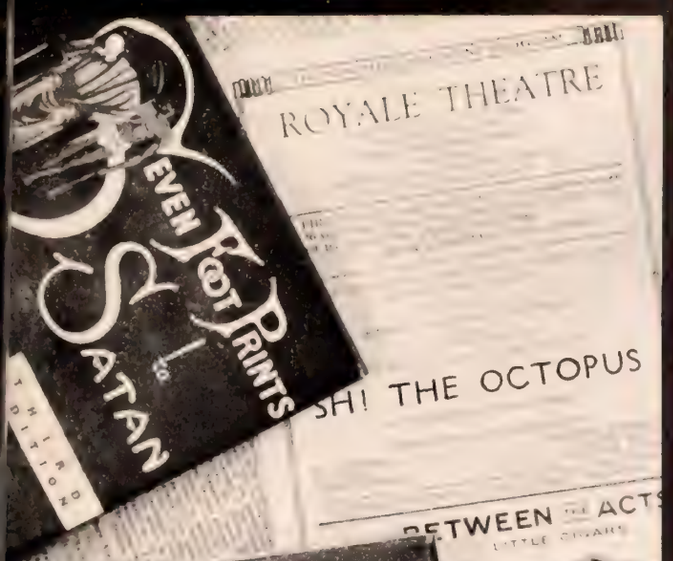
"LILAC TIME" Play by Jane Cowl and Jane Murfin

"SYNTHETIC SIN" Play by Frederic and Fanny Hatton



"BABY FACE" By Cosmo Hamilton

"LA TOSCA" Play by Victorien Sardou



"OUTCAST" Play by Hubert Henry Davies

"WINE, WOMEN and SONG" Famous musical comedy

"TWO WEEKS OFF" Play by Kenyon Nicholson

BUYS
1928-'29

"UNTED HOUSE" Owen Davis

"THE WHIP" Play by Raleigh and Hamilton

"THE SPORT OF KINGS" Play by Ian Hay Beith

YOU SIGN UP 23 GREAT POPULAR AUTHORS

WHEN YOU SIGN FOR THE PRESIDENT GROUP

INCLUDING

[redacted] One of the leaders of the [redacted] ed writers [redacted] popular novelists on the strength of "Scandal Blindness" "Virtue" and many other. He contributes BABY FACE to The President Group

[redacted] also wrote THE DIVINE LADY [redacted] the greatest [redacted] successes of recent years. Famous for [redacted] best [redacted] [redacted] wrote THE DIVINE LADY [redacted] Glorious Apollo" and "The Citadel [redacted]

RALPH SPENCE When you hear that the author [redacted] THE LYING TRUTH [redacted] also the author of "The Gorilla" and the adapter of "A Connecticut Yankee" and several other [redacted] you [redacted] know it [redacted] to be a sure-fire story.

SAM SHELL [redacted] SATURDAY'S CHILDREN [redacted] the second great success by the co-author of "What Price Glory"

[redacted] Victor Hugo's [redacted] One of the literary immortals known to nearly every man, woman and child as the author of "Les Miserables" "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" and "TOILERS OF THE SEA." The last named will be produced as a President Group Special

HAYS HAWN has [redacted] stage [redacted] scored [redacted] hit [redacted] that as [redacted] dramatist [redacted] THE HAUNTED HOUSE [redacted] greatest

ELLIOTT [redacted] TURNER Remember "White Shoulders" and "The Street of Forgotten Men" The author of THE GIRL IN THE GLASS CAGE also wrote these and other famous film hits.

[redacted] A favorite of [redacted] the [redacted] [redacted] and other leading magazines [redacted] THE OTHER TOMORROW [redacted]

GEORGES KAUFMAN [redacted] the author of THE BUTTER AND EGG MAN [redacted] [redacted] You [redacted] [redacted] Mr. [redacted] the Movietone [redacted] Dorothy [redacted]

[redacted] SHOW GIRL [redacted]

[redacted] CHANGE [redacted]

[redacted] CHILDREN OF THE KITZ [redacted] published prize contest

BY THE MOST CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATE 35,000,000 PEOPLE HAVE READ THE NOVELS AND SHORT STORIES IN

THE LINE-UP THAT HAS SWEPT THE INDUSTRY LIKE WILDFIRE!

THE 14 MAMMOTH SPECIALS

COLLEEN MOORE
in
LILAC TIME
A Firnatone Production

CORINNE GRIFFITH
in
THE DIVINE LADY
From E. Barrington's Famous Best-Seller

The STAR FEATURES

RICHARD BARTHELMESS in
"Diversion" "Mutiny"
And Others

CORINNE GRIFFITH in
"Outcast" "Saturday's Children"
"Paid For"
And 1 Other

BILLIE DOVE in
"The Other Tomorrow"
"The Heart of a Princess"
"Pleasure Bound"
And 1 Other

MILTON SILLS in
"Captain of the Strong"
"The Eagle's Trail"
"The Spotter" "Hard Rock"

DOROTHY MACKAILL and
JACK MULHALL in
"Children of the Ritz"
"Waterfront"

COLLEEN MOORE
in "Synthetic Sin"

COLLEEN MOORE
in "Baby Face"

COLLEEN MOORE
in "The Richest Girl on Earth"

"LA TOSCA"
with Billie Dove

"THE WHIP"
with Dorothy Mackaill, Ralph Forbes,
Anna Q. Nilsson, Lowell Sherman

"THE SQUALL"

"NO, NO, NANETTE"

"THE BUTTER AND EGG MAN"
with Jack Mulhall, Greta Nissen, Sam Hardy
Gertrude Astor

"THE BARKER"
with Milton Sills, Dorothy Mackaill,
Betty Compson, Doug. Fairbanks, Jr.

"CHANGELING"
A George Fitzmaurice Production

And 2 Added Specials
Not included in our original announcement

"THE GOOD-BYE KISS"
A Mack Sennett Romantic Drama

"TOILERS OF THE SEA"
From Victor Hugo's Classic

The STAR FEATURES

DOROTHY MACKAILL in
"The Girl in the Glass Cage"
"Two Weeks Off"

JACK MULHALL in
"Applesauce"
"When Irish Eyes Are Smiling"

CHARLIE MURRAY in
"The Lying Truth"
"The Sport of Kings"
"Wine, Women and Song"
"Charlie's Night Out"

ALICE WHITE in
"Show Girl" "On the Air"
"Hot Stuff" "Ritzy Rosie"

KEN MAYNARD in
"The Glorious Trail"
"The Phantom City"
"The Royal Rider"
"The Lawless Legion"
"Cheyenne"
"Wells Fargo Express"

FIRST NATIONAL'S PRESIDENT GROUP FOR 1928-29

The 3 Mystery Dramas

"THE HAUNTED HOUSE"
Owen Davis' sensational play

"SH!—THE OCTOPUS"
Famous Broadway thrill success

"SEVEN FOOTPRINTS
TO SATAN"
A. Merritt's best-seller

The International Success

Paul Wegener in
"THE STRANGE CASE
OF CAPTAIN RAMPER"

"DANCING VIENNA"
with Ben Lyon—Lya Mara

"THE WARE CASE"
with a great English cast

THE BEST PROPOSITION IN THE FIELD THIS YEAR

Motion Picture News

Volume XXXVII NEW YORK CITY, MAY 26, 1928 No. 21

A Bombshell

Adolph Zukor's Declaration on Trade Advertising

By William A. Johnston

ADOLPH ZUKOR gives, in this week's issue, a two-fisted declaration on the subject of trade advertising.

A bombshell like this has been needed—to clear the air which has not only been befogged, but worse still, a distressing vacuum.

This statement will, we are confident, be read soberly by the larger sighted men of this business, and the business, we are equally confident, will be greatly benefited by its sage advice.

The pendulum, as he says, will swing back to sanity.

* * *

We have, it is true, a peculiar advertising problem.

The goods sold the exhibitor and which he in turn sells to the public, cannot, like other retailed commodities, be moved by national advertising.

Each picture differs from another; there is no uniform distribution; and each picture moves too swiftly on to make way for another.

The producer can advertise a brand, but not the individual picture.

So it's up to the exhibitor. He is the man on the spot, the individual to sell the individual picture. And his success with it will depend quite largely upon his advertising resources.

* * *

But this fact does not lessen the producer's responsibility—to the exhibitor, or to himself.

On the contrary. If the producer cannot go in for national advertising, he must go in for dealer advertising. In other words, he must actually put into the exhibitor's hands the full and adequate selling helps—newspaper advertisements, readers, and the ideas and materials of community promotion and theatre display.

In other words, this is a dealer advertising industry.

And that means trade paper advertising.

* * *

The trade paper, in this business, should be a supreme advertising force.

There is no ducking this issue.

Either a producer gives adequate service along with his pictures or he doesn't. If, as we constantly assert, advertising is half the battle in getting pictures to the public, then to any exhibitor the advertising service back of pictures is equally as important as the pictures themselves.

And the wise exhibitor will buy pictures exactly on this basis.

The argument that, because theatres buy in chains, trade paper advertising is a diminished force, doesn't hold any water. It is nothing more or less than an admission that all a producer cares about is getting pictures off his hands and into the exhibitors'—that he doesn't give a rip whether the exhibitor makes money on them or not.

This is not far sighted selling and it will not prevail. Collective buying does not sell the picture at the box office. Chains or no chains, there is but one way to sell pictures successfully and that is with service.

Trade paper advertising is for exhibitors. The more thorough and efficient the advertising, the better for the exhibitor.

Exhibitors, we repeat, will play pictures that are well-advertised to exhibitors.

"The Lion and the Mouse" Hailed as Remarkable Innovation

By LILLIAN GALE

Staff Correspondent, Motion Picture News

HOLLYWOOD, May 22.—Warner Brothers' "The Lion and the Mouse," hailed as the first full length talking picture, may be modestly described as a remarkable innovation. So impressive is the first half that it suggests road showing. The adaptation of Charles Klein's celebrated drama serves as a judicious selection for introducing on a scale never before attempted, the combination of sound and silence in the photoplay.

It provides a sterling cast with excellent opportunities to expound tone qualities of voice and acting abilities, notwithstanding the rather monotonous use of close-ups which are mildly distracting.

The audible speech is much to the advantage of such veteran artists as Lionel Barrymore and Alec B. Francis. However, it is trying on May McAvoy, who, except when she attempts to read lines, is charming in the delineation of an important part.

Nevertheless, a capacity audience remained spellbound through the presentation and there is no discounting the fact that artists whose voices lend themselves to synchronization become more realistic in "sound" portrayals than they do in customary pantomine. The sequences in which voices are discernible are skilfully separated. Thus, tiresome monotony of sound is avoided, with the result that when scenes which approach the dramatic climax again incorporate voices, these do not offend as unwelcome intrusions.

Irrespective of added features including continuous Vitaphone accompaniment by a symphony orchestra, production values have not been curtailed. Settings are elaborate and the offering would stand as above average if presented as a regulation motion picture. The scenario is by Robert Lord; direction, Lloyd Bacon; photography, Norbert Brodin; titles by Jimmy Starr.

The Warner Theatre in Hollywood has been playing capacity since the picture opened. Public interest is unquestionable.

Samuelson Suit Settled

Old Action Is Compromised Out of Court; Objectionable Practices No Longer Obtain

THE suit of Sidney E. Samuelson, Newton, N. J., exhibitor, filed against Arrow Exchange, Inc., et al., back in 1923, has been adjusted out of court, and, according to the statement sent out, "to the complete satisfaction of all parties concerned."

The action involved a number of the leading distributing organizations and was brought on the ground that the defendants represented a monopoly in restraint of trade and that independent theatre owners were compelled to accept their dictation.

Samuelson, who sued in the amount of $450,000, alleged that the so-called uniform contract required by the big distributors was in furtherance of the alleged monopoly and that independent exhibitors who refused to meet the terms of the distributors were blacklisted and forced out of business. It was said after the settlement was made that the objectionable features no longer obtained. Just what the terms of the settlement were is not revealed.

The statement, which was made following the announcement of the settlement of the suit, was signed by David L. Podell, counsel for Samuelson, and Max D. Steuer, attorney for the defendants, and read:

"The litigation between Sydney E. Samuelson and the Arrow Exchange, Inc., and others, has been adjusted to the complete satisfaction of all parties thereto. The old Hoy system and many features which were the cause of the investigation and gave rise to the lawsuit have been completely eliminated from the industry."

In the action, which grew out of a disagreement between himself and the Arrow Exchange Corporation, a distributer, Samuelson also named the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, Fox Film Corporation, Associated First National Pictures, Inc., and the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture Corporation. Mr. Hays was brought into the suit when Samuelson contested the right of any industry to appoint a "dictator," on the grounds that such procedure tends to centralize the control of the industry in the hands of a few.

Nathan F. Appell Dies in York, Pa., at 59

Nathan F. Appell, head of the Nathan Appell Amusement Enterprises, York, Pa., who had part interest in a chain of theatres in York county and elsewhere, died at his home in York on Thursday, May 17, after an illness of several months. He was 59 years old and a pioneer promoter of theatrical enterprises in Central Pennsylvania, having been interested in such work for almost 40 years. He was a member of the Combination Theatrical Managers' Association, the International Theatrical Managers' Association, Bill Posters' Association, and other organizations having to do with the theatre. His friends estimate that he amassed a fortune of about $5,000,000.

He is survived by his son, Louis J. Appell, an executive of the Nathan Appell Amusement Enterprises, who is looked upon as the logical successor of his father as the head of the theatre chain; Mrs. Huldah Appell and a sister, Miss Laura Appell, both of Harrisburg. Private funeral services were held in York on Sunday, May 20, and burial was in Progress Cemetery, near Harrisburg.

Managers Discuss Laws with Milwaukee Mayor

Milwaukee Theatre Managers' Association, a recently-formed organization, composed of Milwaukee exhibitors from the downtown and neighborhood theatres, met in conference with the Mayor after their regular noon meeting last Wednesday, to discuss with him several city ordinances which conflict with State regulations. It is understood that the ordinance relating to outdoor signs and the regulation concerning the ventilation of theatres were taken up with a view of amending the city ordinances to conform to the State regulations and the exhibitors' needs and wishes in the matter. The Mayor signified his willingness to intercede for the exhibitors and take up the questions at the next session of the Council.

Officers of this newly-formed association are Henry Goldenberg, manager of the Empress Theatre, president; vice-president, James Higler, of the Palace-Orpheum; Ernest Langmack, of the Colonial Theatre, treasurer; Fred Meyers, of the Alhambra Theatre, secretary.

Premier and Officials of Toronto View "Dawn"

The British feature, "Dawn," was privately viewed by Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, premier, and high officials of the Ontario Government at Toronto on May 17, prior to its inspection by the Ontario Board of Moving Picture Censors.

No comment was made by Premier Ferguson, although he announced that the feature would come up before the Ontario censors in due course. This was taken to mean that the Ontario Government officially has no objection to the feature on political grounds, and that the picture will be allowed to take its course in so far as Ontario is concerned.

Entertainment Tax Now Confronts Irish Showmen

Irish exhibitors, both North and South, are tackling with determination the Entertainment Tax. The trade in Ulster is pressing the Finance Minister for an immediate reduction of the tax, while that in the Free State is going one better by demanding its total abolition.

Inside Slants on the Industry

PICTURES AND PEOPLE

The Mirrors of Filmdom

"TEMPEST" is a fine picture. It looks to us like real box-office in the regular picture houses, besides being a hit at the $2 scale at the Embassy, New York.

John Barrymore steps away from his accustomed role of aristocrat and plays a Russian peasant—and how! He loses none of the romantic appeal which has distinguished his other pictures, and adds opportunities for a new range of acting which the screen has not hitherto afforded him.

Camilla Horn registers immediately as a screen actress of distinction, and proves a fine selection to play opposite Barrymore. The scenes between the two are excellent.

The whole picture is played with admirable restraint and is a very fine piece of direction on the part of Sam Taylor, who adds new laurels in the field of the dramatic photoplay to those he has already gained as a comedy director.

We would add only this: If the picture had been, or could have been, a "talkie," with Barrymore's great voice reproduced, it would have been still more striking. But, as it stands, it's one of the year's best.

* * *

SIDNEY B. LUST, Washington, D. C., motion picture distributor and proprietor of the Hippodrome, Grand, Leader and Elite theatres in that city, screened his picture "Over There" for The Better Films Committee of the D. A. R. The Committee was presided over by Mrs. Newton D. Chapman, chairman who, at the close of the showing, expressed approval of Mr. Lust's collection of official U. S. and allied government film of the Great War.

With the support of the D. A. R. membership, as indicated by Mrs. Chapman's remarks, and other possible tie-ups with patriotic bodies and local Army and Navy recruiting stations, it would appear that Mr. Lust's picture will have a wide distribution field. There would also be the additional interest from war participants and their families—the chance that many of the enlisted men might see their pictures among the shots at Brest, aboard ship and both front and rear line trenches.

It took Mr. Lust about four years to assemble these six reels of war film and one other two reeler exclusively devoted to the efforts of colored troops in France. Some idea of this task will be gained through the fact that there still remains over 60,000 feet of negative.

Perhaps the best way to sum up "Over There" is to state that it is a long news reel of the Great War, containing a large number of very interesting and unusual sights: the Navy's convoy of the A. E. F.; the landing of the troops at Brest and their march to the war zone; airplane convoy; the muck and mire of the trenches; cootie hunting; advancing troops under a barrage; actual shots of men dropping from shell and machine-gun fire; the big tanks crushing their forward trail and a hundred others—all of which, Mr. Lust states, are authentic. Other Allied troops are shown in action and there is also a rare shot of the former Kaiser reviewing his goose-stepping soldiers at the beginning of the struggle.

* * *

FRANK L. NEWMAN joins Columbia Pictures as business manager at the studios—an announcement which interests us greatly, for one reason because it means the bringing of an outstanding and successful exhibitor into production.

This strikes us as a capital idea, and a progressive move on the part of Columbia.

* * *

As to the commercial practicability of television, this opinion from Dr. Lee De Forest as reported in the New York Times is interesting:

"It is fair to say that no engineers in the world know more about this subject of television than those of the Bell Laboratories. Dr. H. E. Ives, acting as spokesman for the Bell Laboratories, recently delivered a lecture at the Sheffield Scientific School, Yale University, in which he went on record as stating that the intricacies and expense involved in television are such, and will continue to be such for a long time to come, that the idea would be commercially impractical until such time as the television could be thrown on a large screen in the theatre where a large number of fairly high priced admissions could be had to pay for the operating and maintenance expense. This has been my position from the first."

* * *

CONTINUING, Dr. De Forest pointedly remarks: "I cannot conceive how engineers of any large electrical organization, who have gone into this subject of television carefully, can afford to express an opinion radically different from that which Dr. Ives has stated. Yet for some reasons best known to themselves or their organization, such statements have been appearing almost daily in the press.

"To me the purpose of such statements as those referred to are most certainly not to enlighten the public, or to give them a frank and honest insight into the actual status of television for the present or for the immediate future. Such statements as those to which I refer cannot be too severely condemned—especially now when they have proven themselves most distinctly misleading and are working a genuine harm, not only to the public but to the manufacturers who have labored and are laboring honestly and intelligently to build up the radio business. The same applies with equal force to the motion picture field and particularly that of the talking motion pictures."

Published weekly by Motion Picture News, Inc. Founded in September, 1913. Publication Office, 729 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y.; Editorial and General Offices, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City; Branch Offices, 845 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.; Room 616 Security Bldg., Hollywood, California. William A. Johnston, president; E. Kendall Gillett, vice-president; William A. Johnston, editor; Oscar Cooper, managing editor; Raymond E. Gallagher, advertising manager; Paul M. Abbott, manager of accessory advertising; L. H. Mason, Chicago representative; William McCormack, Los Angeles representative. Subscription price, $3.00 per year, postpaid in United States, Mexico, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Philippine Islands and some other countries. Canada, $5.00; Foreign, $10.00. Copyright, 1928, by Motion Picture News, Inc., in United States and Great Britain. Title registered in the United States Patent Office and foreign countries. Western Union cable address is "Picknews," New York. Entered as second-class matter at the Post Office, New York, N. Y., April 22, 1926, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Their latest picture. "Our Gang," the Hal Roach comedy ensemble, obligingly pose for a span of seconds. Mary Ann Jackson, new "gang" member, is on the left

The four First National Misses, who form the basketball squad at the Burbank studio. Left to right: Thelma Todd, Frances Hamilton, Alice White and Yola d'Avril

Phyllis Haver, versatile star, who has completed work for Pathe in "Tenth Avenue" and for D. W. Griffith in "The Battle of the Sexes," now vacationing in New York

Ready to start Al Jolson's second Warner Bros.' special with Vitaphone. Jack L. Warner, Jolson and Darryl Francis Zanuck

Tod Browning in a meditative moment. The M-G-M director, whose penchant is flavoring a film with suspense and a mysterious atmosphere, is now preparing a Chaney film

Warner Baxter as Alessandro and Delores Del Rio as Ramona in the screen version by United Artists of the Helen Hunt Jackson novel, "Ramona"

With her playing of the Duchess Josianna in "The Man Who Laughs" (Universal) Olga Baclanova has won prominence

Dorothy Devore, Educational comedienne, who has finished a varied series of comedies now being released by Educational and who is all set to start a new series

Emil Jannings visits Pola Negri and Director Ludwig Berger during the filming of "The Girl from Moscow" at the Paramount studio in Hollywood

Action and adventure will mark the series of "youth" pictures Bob Steele will make for F B O's new program for the season

Big Activity in "Talkie" Field

Hal Roach to Use Sound in Comedies; Plans Being Made by Several Leading Producers at Studios

PLANS went forward this week by several big film companies for the making of talking pictures. It was announced that Hal Roach had signed with Western Electric for the reproduction of sound with the Roach comedies.

Roy J. Pomeroy, sound expert of the Paramount forces, arrived in New York. Plans for the reopening of the Paramount Long Island studio are being pushed.

Joseph M. Schenck, president and chairman of the board of directors of United Artists Corporation, gave out the following statement:

"United Artists will use the sound device on those pictures to which sound is adaptable. The addition of sound to pictures is a great step in the progress of films provided it is used judiciously."

At the same time Samuel Goldwyn announced that Vilma Banky's first starring picture, "The Awakening," has been selected by United Artists as their initial production with a Movietone accompanimentment. Dr. Hugo Riesenfeld has been engaged to prepare the score and to direct the orchestra which is to produce the musical background and sound effects.

From First National comes word the Ralph I. Poucher, production executive, left late last week for the company's studios in Burbank, California, where he will assist in arranging the Firnatone accompaniment to the Colleen Moore-George Fitzmaurice special, "Lilac Time." This will be the first of the First National synchronized pictures. It is likely that during his stay at the studios Mr. Poucher will arrange for the Firnatone accompaniment on a number of other First National productions.

Paul J. Swift, sales manager for Vitaphone Corporation, spent part of last week in the Atlanta branch of Warner Bros. laying plans for the opening of a sales and shipping office of Vitaphone Corporation. The new office will be in operation the first part of June. At the present time Vitaphone has offices in New York, Chicago and San Francisco.

Among the latest installations of Movietone and Vitaphone machines was that in the Victory Theatre in Salt Lake City. It is said that the equipment installed by Louis Marchas Enterprises will cost approximately $20,000.

Walsh Seeks Federal Probe

Introduces Resolution for Investigation by Senate Judiciary Committee; Thorough Study to be Made

INVESTIGATION of the acts and practices of the film boards of trade throughout the country, which it was predicted several weeks ago would be sought in Congress, took form May 22 with the introduction of a resolution by Senator Walsh of Montana, under which the judiciary committee of the Senate would be called upon to make a thorough study of the situation.

If the investigation is authorized by the Senate, it will probably be conducted during the coming summer, presumably by a subcommittee appointed by Senator Norris of Nebraska, chairman of the committee, who was expected originally to be the author of the resolution. In the event of the appointment of such a subcommittee it is likely that Senator Walsh would be one of the members, in which case he would probably lead the investigation. The membership of the judiciary committee is: Senators Norris of Nebraska, chairman; Borah of Idaho, Deneen of Illinois, Gillett of Massachusetts, Goff of West Virginia, Robinson of Indiana, Blaine of Wisconsin, Steiwer of Oregon, and Waterman of Colorado, Republicans; and Overman of North Carolina, Reed of Missouri, Ashurst of Arizona, Walsh of Montana, Caraway of Arkansas, King of Utah, Neely of West Virginia, and Stephens of Mississippi, Democrats.

The text of the resolution is as follows: "That the Senate direct the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire what proceedings are now pending before the courts upon the initiation of the Department of Justice or otherwise, or before the Federal Trade Commission, involving the acts or practices of the film boards of trade; what investigations have been prosecuted leading to such proceedings and the amount expended in the same; what complaints have been made concerning such acts or practices; with what diligence and fidelity such complaints have been investigated and proceedings to restrain or punish any unlawful or apparently unlawful acts or practices of the said film boards of trade and the Famous Players Lasky Corporation or the Famous Players Lasky Paramount Corporation, or of the officers, agents or servants thereof have been instituted or prosecuted."

Various suits are pending throughout the country or are now in the process of hearings, with most of the complaints apparently having to do with the matter of arbitration and the system under which arbitration proceedings are conducted. Then, too, there is the suit contemplated by the Federal Trade Commission against Paramount on the failure of the latter to satisfactorily respond to the Cease and Desist order in the matter of block booking.

Paramount has taken no further action so far as known in the matter of the cease and desist order of the Trade Commission. The company has the right to apply to have the order vacated, but apparently has not yet made any move in that direction. Meantime the Commission has not yet instituted proceedings against Paramount.

The suit of the U-B Enterprises, Universal subsidiary in Cleveland, against the Film Board of Trade and ten distributor members, charging conspiracy in restraint of trade, has been withdrawn. Stanley & Horwitz, attorneys for the exhibiting firm, filed a stipulation with the Federal Court agreeing to dismissal of the petition, provided no advance payment for films is demanded. The petition had alleged that the distributors refused service to the theatre company unless deposits were posted as penalty for the company's failure to comply with the arbitration award.

It is said that the evidence gathered in support of the petition of the U-B Enterprises has been forwarded to U. S. Attorney General John Sargent for use in the Government's actions against the Hays organization, 32 Film Boards of Trade and ten distributors.

Revenue-Reduction Bill Passed by Senate

ADMISSIONS not exceeding $3 are exempt from tax under the terms of the revenue-reduction bill as passed by the Senate at 9:15 p.m., May 21, following 11 hours of heated debate. Efforts of the Democrats to break down the defenses raised by the finance committee and expand the program of tax reduction which was brought into the Senate on May 1 were unsuccessful and, for the most part, the committee program was carried through by party votes.

The bill is now before a conference committee, representing both the House and Senate, where the differences between the two bodies will be reconciled, and the bill finally drafted by the conference committee will be passed by Congress and sent to President Coolidge for approval.

Among the items to come before the conference committee will be that on admission tax exemption, the House bill, passed December 15, last, carrying an increase from 75 cents to $1. The conference committee may accept either the House figure or that of the Senate, or provide a compromise acceptable to both. At any event, however, little time will be lost by the committee in arriving at a compromise as present plans contemplate the adjournment of the session May 26.

Theatre Deal Merges Big Interests in Denver Territory

A LARGE theatre merger was effected in Denver, last Friday, when articles of incorporation were filed for Consolidated Theatres, Inc., with a capital stock of one million dollars. This is a consolidation of the D & R interests, the Midwest Theatre interests and the individual interests of Frank Culp.

The officers are Rick Ricketson, president; Dick Dickson, vice president; Max Schubach, secretary, and Frank Culp, treasurer, all of Denver. The board of directors consists of these officers, together with two other directors, Paul Krier of Walsenburg, Colo. and Dan Lehrburger of Denver.

The theatres belonging to the new corporation comprise the Egyptian, Highlands and Queen of Denver, formerly owned by D & R; the Mission of Denver, owned by Midwest, and the Oriental and Granada theatres of Denver, owned by Frank Culp. also theatres in Sidney, Nebraska; Rocky Ford, Brush, Sterling and Fort Morgan ,Colorado, owned by Midwest, and theatres in Rapid City, S. D., Delta, Walsenburg and Montrose, Colo., owned by D & R.

This merger creates the largest independent circuit of theatres in the Denver territory, if not the largest circuit of theatres of any kind in this territory. All of the men interested in the new company have been in the theatre or distributing business in the Denver territory for years.

Regorson, Schine Combine

Two Chains Join Forces to Build and Operate String of Houses in City of Rochester

THE Regorson Corporation and the Schine Enterprises, Inc., have combined their interests in Rochester in one of the biggest mergers of theatre corporations in the history of Western New York. The announcement was made last week. The Regorson interests are reported to have acquired fifty per cent of Schine Enterprises in Rochester.

The Regorson Corporation owns the Regent and Piccadilly theatres and the Schine interests control the Riviera, Liberty, State, Webster and Grand theatres in Rochester. The combination is in opposition to the Fenyvessy interests, which control the powerful Rochester theatre, which is operated under the managing directorship of Thomas D. Soriero.

According to the announcement from the offices of the Regorson Corporation, the Schine Enterprises, with headquarters in Gloversville, has joined with the Regorson Corporation in forming an equal partnership to organize a company with a large capitalization to build, acquire and operate theatres in the city of Rochester.

The Fenyvessy interests, controlled by Paul and Chester Fenyvessy, operate, in addition to the Rochester, the Strand, Family and Clifton theatres.

It is said in Rochester that the Schine houses will in the future be conducted as second runs. None of those in authority in connection with the new combine will discuss for the present the extent of the activities in theatre operation which the new corporation will undertake. Authentic reports, however, in the wake of the Regorson announcement, were to the effect that the company expects soon to close options already obtained on Rochester playhouses now in operation. J. M. Schine is head of the Schine Enterprises and George W. Todd is president of the Regorson Corporation.

Cleveland Undecided on Double Featuring

DOUBLE featuring is not a subject for association regulation says George W. Erdmann, secretary of the Cleveland Motion Picture Exhibitors Association. Although the matter of showing double features was brought up for discussion at the last meeting of the association, it was not put to a vote. The Association as a whole has taken no stand in the practice at all, Erdmann has pointed out. Whatever stand has been taken, is by individual exhibitors. Many local exhibitors deplore the practice of showing two for the price of one, but on the other hand, there are some exhibitors who have no other way of offering competition against combined vaudeville and picture programs.

Theatre Employees Free in Montreal Disaster

Ameen Lawand, manager, and Camil Bazzy and Michel Arie, employees of the ill-fated Laurier Palace Theatre, Montreal, will not serve their jail terms for alleged manslaughter in connection with the disaster which occurred at the theatre last year in which 78 children lost their lives, according to a judgment handed down by the Court of Appeals at Montreal on May 17.

The prison sentence imposed by the Court of King's Bench, Montreal, last October, two years for Lawand and one year each for Bazzy and Arie, were set aside by the higher court, the appeal from the verdict at the jury trial being upheld. The sentences were quashed by the unanimous decision of the five appeal judges.

The question of cause and effect was considered by the Court of Appeals and the decision was reached in the upper court that there was no connection between the evasion of civic bylaws, as brought out at the jury trial, and the eventual catastrophe. The ruling was made that infringement of a civic bylaw did not constitute manslaughter and, therefore, the verdict of the jury, and the sentences imposed by Mr. Justice Wilson were ordered quashed.

The accused had been granted bail when leave to appeal the verdict had been allowed and the men had not started to serve their sentences. They are now free.

Gotham Launches 1928-29 Schedule of Films

With three major productions now in work at the studio, Gotham Productions has entered the period of producing for the new season. Pictures include "The Head of the Family," "The River Woman," and "Father and Son," which is scheduled to be the first special, and the first production on the 1928-29 list.

Sets are now in the course of construction, the story has been adapted for continuity. Noah Beery has been signed to a contract calling for several pictures, the first of which will be "Father and Son." Beery's son, Noah, Jr., will also play in this production.

The continuity and adaptation on "The Head of the Family" are being prepared by Scott Darling and "The River Woman" is being prepared by Adele Buffington.

Chesterfield Closes for New England Distribution

A distribution franchise for the 1928-29 series of eight Chesterfield Productions was closed this week when contracts were signed making Consolidated Films, Inc., of Boston and New Haven, the New England distributors of Chesterfield. Negotiations were carried on between Mr. J. L. Roth of Consolidated and Lon Young, representing Chesterfield.

Ten productions in all will be delivered from Chesterfield this season, three of which are already completed.

Going Abroad to Make New Color Classics

A series of six one-reel Tiffany Color Classics will be made in Europe and Northern Africa for the program of 24 Tiffany Color Classics for 1928-29. A photographic unit, under the direction of Curtis F. Nagel, will sail for Africa on June 9th. Tiffany-Stahl Productions will make a feature-length picture in technicolor under the direction of Leonce Perret.

A. S. Kane District Chief for United Artists

Two appointments in United Artists distributor ranks were made this week.

Arthur S. Kane has been made district manager of district No. 5, covering Dallas, St. Louis, Kansas City and New Orleans.

Oscar Kuschner, former salesman in the Indianapolis territory, has been promoted to manager at Indianapolis, succeeding Phil Dunas, resigned through ill health.

37 Features Due From Pathe

29 De Luxe Productions, 8 Westerns and Long Series of Short Subjects Make Up Program

IN answer to speculations as to the future plans for Pathe the company announces for the 1928-29 season that it will produce twenty-nine De Luxe features, headed by "The King of Kings" and "The Godless Girl"; a group of 8 Westerns starring Leo Maloney, Don Coleman, Harry Carey and Wally Wales; eight series of two-reel comedies, comprising forty-eight in all; six Pathe-serials, each consisting of ten two-reel episodes; one hundred four issues of Pathe News; fifty-two issues of the Pathe Review of one-reel each; twenty-six Sportlights of one-reel each; fifty-two "Aesop's Film Fables," the one-reel animated cartoon release, and fifty-two numbers of "Topics of the Day" in one reel each.

Of the twenty-nine De Luxe features, thirteen are Specials, one of which, "The Godless Girl" is a road show special. "The King of Kings," which for a year has been presented as a road show, will be released for general distribution as one of the specials. Both of these pictures were personally directed by Cecil B. De Mille from stories by Jeanie Macpherson.

The other Specials follow:

William Boyd in "Power," a title subject to change. Featured in the cast are Alan Hale and Jacqueline Logan. Howard Higgin is director, Ralph Block Associate Producer, and Tay Garnett the author of the story.

"The Spieler," with Jacqueline Logan and Alan Hale. This is an original circus story by Elliott Clawson, and Ralph Block is Associate Producer.

Rod LaRocque in "Love Over Night," with Jeanette Loff, Tom Kennedy and Mary Carr. This is from an original story by George Dromgold and Sanford Hewitt. Edward H. Griffith is director and Hector Turnbull Associate Producer. It is a comedy-drama.

"Annapolis," with Lina Basquette and John Mack Brown. This is a story of Uncle Sam's Naval Academy written by F. McGrew Willis. W. Christy Cabanne is the director.

"Celebrity," with Lina Basquette and Robert Armstrong, is from the stage play, "The Celebrity," by Willard Keefe. Howard Higgin is the director and Ralph Block the Associate Producer. The adaptation is by Elliott Clawson.

"Craig's Wife," with Irene Rich, is from the stage play of the same name by George Kelly. Clara Beranger did the adaptation.

"Show Folks," with Jeanette Loff, Eddie Quillan and Robert Armstrong, is from the original story by Philip Dunning, co-author of "Broadway," Ralph Block is Associate Producer.

"Ned McCobb's Daughter," with Anna Q. Nilsson and Robert Armstrong, is from the Theatre Guild play by Sidney Howard. Beulah Marie Dix did the adaptation.

William Boyd stars in "The Cop," with Alan Hale, Jacqueline Logan and Robert Armstrong. Donald Crisp directed, and Ralph Block was Associate Producer. The story was by Tay Garnett and Elliott Clawson did the adaptation.

James Cruze's personally directed "The Red Mark," with Nena Quartaro, Gaston Glass, Rose Dione and Gustav von Seyffertitz, is another Special. Julien Josephson did the adaptation of the story by John Russell.

Phyllis Haver in "Tenth Avenue," with Victor Varconi, Joseph Schildkraut and Robert Edeson, closes the list of Specials. It was directed by William C. DeMille. John McGowan and Lloyd Griscom are the authors of the story, and the continuity is by Douglas Doty.

Of the thirteen Specials "The King of Kings," "The Godless Girl," "The Red Mark," "The Cop" and "Tenth Avenue" are finished; "Power," and "Love Over Night" are almost completed, and most of the others are ready to put into production.

The program pictures follow:

Leatrice Joy in "Man-Made Woman," with John Boles, H. B. Warner and Seena Owen. Paul Stein directed, Ernest Pascal wrote the story, and Alice D. G. Miller did the adaptation. Ralph Block was Associate Producer.

Rod LaRocque in "Capt. Swagger," a story by Adelaide Heilbroun and Leonard Praskins, with Hector Turnbull as Associate Producer.

William Boyd in "The Leatherneck," with Lina Basquette, Robert Armstrong and Alan Hale. Howard Higgin will direct, with Ralph Block as Associate Producer. Elliott Clawson wrote the story.

William Boyd in "High Voltage," from the story "The Trouble Shooter" by Tay Garnett. Ralph Block is Associate Producer. William Boyd in "The Flying Fool," with Lina Basquette, by Ernest Pascal. Edward H. Griffith is the director.

Phyllis Haver stars in "Office Scandal."

(Continued on Page 1772)

Non-Theatrical Trouble Grows

Threatens to Become National Issue as Word is Waited from Trade Commission on Resolution

EXHIBITOR units and non-theatrical agencies are engaged in a controversy that threatens to assume national importance, with the possibility of its disrupting present conditions of arbitration. Exhibitor organizations in all parts of the country are becoming more and more aroused over non-theatrical competition, and are determined to fight distributing companies that serve the non-theatricals.

The exhibitors consider it entirely unfair competition to have to compete with tax-free institutions and other non-theatricals, and are prepared to bolt from arbitrating with distributing companies that they contend are not playing fair with them.

At the Trade Practice Conference held in New York last October service to non-theatrical accounts was branded an unfair trade practice, and exhibitors are determined it shall be outlawed. They are anxiously waiting word from the Federal Trade Commission as to whether or not that body will ratify the Trade Practice Conference resolution. There seems to be some doubt that the resolution will be ratified.

Meantime exhibitors are in a quandry as to what method to pursue in stamping out the evil, which is growing to such proportions that it threatens to put many of them out of business. In certain territories the competition of these tax-free organizations is so keen that exhibitors cannot pay present prices for films and operate at anything but a loss, according to their statements.

It is said that in some instances, in order to stamp out this alleged unfair competition, exhibitors are using their membership on arbitration boards to serve as a club over distributors who serve the non-theatricals. They are threatening to refuse to arbitrate cases in which the offenders are involved.

This latter condition is said to obtain in the Pittsburgh territory, where exhibitors have given distributors until June 1 to discontinue the non-theatrical service or they will in the future, refuse to arbitrate.

There is a considerable controversy on in Minneapolis over the same question, where arbitration threatens to become disrupted as a result of non-theatrical service being rendered by distributors.

Oklahoma exhibitors, after much concerted action are concluding a successful fight with the non-theatricals. In Utah a test case has gone to the courts to determine the right of tax-free schools to show pictures. In this case it is charged that school buses are used to convey the audience to the school where the pictures are shown and that the proceeds do not become a part of the school funds.

Church competition is reported lively in San Francisco, where the exhibitors are doing all in their power to put an end to showing of this kind. From many other sections comes word to the same effect, and with it the report that new non-theatrical showings are springing up everywhere.

J. D. Williams Signs 12 British Films for Distribution Here

CABLES from London this week announced that J. D. Williams has made a deal with British International Pictures to handle distribution in America of twelve films made by that concern. The deal is stated to have involved $500,000 and was closed by Mr. Williams with John Maxwell, who is expected to arrive in America shortly.

A report from a correspondent in London to the effect that physical distribution for the Williams pictures would be handled here by Educational was referred by wire to E. W. Hammons, at the Educational convention in Montreal. He replied that it was news to him.

Steffes to Organize New National Body

Plans 3-Day Exhibitor Convention on Lake Steamer; Will Cooperate with M. P. T. O. A.

W. A. STEFFES is at the head of a movement that contemplates the launching of a new National exhibitors organization. Steffes, president of the Northwest exhibitor unit has a novel method under which the organization meeting will be conducted. He has planned a three-day meeting starting July 10 and to be held aboard a passenger ship enroute from Duluth to Port Arthur, Ontario. It is anticipated that there will be some sensational developments at the meeting.

According to information received from the northwest territory, Mr. Steffes has a large number of acceptances from interested exhibitors and a record turnout is anticipated. Plans for the sessions call for a one-day stopover at Port Arthur and the rate for the three days has been fixed at $25 per person. This also includes meals.

The announcement regarding the new organization imparts the information that it will in no way conflict with the present Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America which is presided over by R. F. Woodhull, but, on the contrary will cooperate with that body in every way, though the organization will be along entirely different lines.

Just what lines the new organization will operate along have not yet been revealed, except for the statement that they will be entirely different than those of the present National organization.

Steffes, who led the insurgent exhibitors at the break several years ago at the Chicago convention, headed the Allied States Exhibitor Association, which subsequently was formed, only to be disbanded later when the several units included in it returned to function under the banner of the M. P. T. O. A.

37 Features Due From Pathe

(Continued from Page 1171)

with George Duryea. Hector Turnbull is Associate Producer. Phyllis Haver also stars in "Sal of Singapore," with Alan Hale. This story is adapted from Dale Collins' novel, "The Sentimentalists," by Julien Josephson; Miss Haver in "The Shady Lady," with George Duryea; story by Leonard Praskins.

"The Elevator Girl" with Jeanette Loff, Robert Armstrong and George Duryea, is from a story by Tay Garnett; "The Getaway," with Jeanette Loff, George Duryea and Robert Armstrong. Ernest Pascal wrote the story.

"Listen Baby," with Lina Basquette and Eddie Quillan, is from the story by Elsie Janis and Jean Markey.

Lilli Damiti in "Forbidden Love," is from Noel Coward's stage play, "The Queen Was In the Parlor," and was produced in Germany.

"Noisy Neighbors" introduces the Quillan family of eight, headed by Eddie. The story is by George Dromgold and Sanford Hewitt.

"Marked Money" with Junior Coghlan, Alan Hale and George Duryea, is from the story by Bertram Millhauser, with Spencer Bennet as director; "Square Shoulders" with Junior Coghlan and George Duryea. Frank Urson is director, and Beulah Marie Dix wrote the story; "Geraldine," with Jeanette Loff and Eddie Quillan, is from Booth Tarkington's story.

The eight Western features include Leo Maloney in "Yellow Contraband," from the story by Ford I. Beebe and directed by Mr. Maloney; Don Coleman in "45-Calibre War," with Jeanette Loff, also directed by Leo Maloney; "Sin Town," with Elinor Fair, Ivan Lebedeff, Hugh Allan and Jack Oakie; Harry Carey in "Burning Bridges," a Charles R. Rogers production; Harry Carey in "The Border Patrol," also a Charles R. Rogers production; Wally Wales in "Saddle Mates," an Action Picture production directed by Richard Thorpe; Don Coleman in "The Black Ace," a Leo Maloney production, and Wally Wales in "The Flyin' Buckaroo," an Action Pictures production directed by Richard Thorpe.

Of the forty-eight two reel comedies twenty will be under the Sennett name. These twenty are in four groups, the "Sennett Girl," "Mack Sennett," "The Smiths" and "Sennett De Luxe."

There will be four comedies in the "Sennett Girl Series." Billy Bevan, Daphne Pollard, Johnny Burke, Sally Eilers, Matty Kemp, Carole Lombard, Mack Swain and the Sennett bathing girls appear in various pictures of this series.

There will be six comedies in the "Mack Sennett" series. Billy Bevan, Dot Farley, Vernon Dent, Carole Lombard, Carmelita Geraghty, Andy Clyde and Bud Jamieson are among the players.

There will be six "Sennett De Luxe" comedies, featuring Mary Ann Jackson, Ruth Hiatt and Raymond McKee. There will be three comedies in "The Smiths" series, each of which will feature Mary Ann Jackson, Ruth Hiatt and Raymond McKee. There will be one two reel Harry Langdon comedy, produced by Sennett, called "Soldier Man."

Supplementing these Sennett comedies will be three new series of Pathecomedies, each composed of six two reelers—the "Dan the Taxi Man" series, "Handy Andy" series and "The Tired Business Man" series. Jack Cooper and Carole Lombard will be featured in the "Dan the Taxi Man" comedies, Andy Clyde and Anita Barnes in the "Handy Andy" series, and Billy Bevan and Carmelita Geraghty in "The Tired Business Man" series.

Another new series will be the "Smitty," consisting of ten two reel "kid" comedies. The title comes from the cartoon by Berndt.

Six serials are announced—the same number as last year; "The Yellow Cameo" with Allene Ray as the star, to be released on June 3rd, was directed by Spencer Bennet; Allene Ray and Walter Miller star in "The Terrible People," which is to be released on August 12th. This too was directed by Spencer Bennet, and was adapted from Edgar Wallace's novel of the same title. "Eagle of the Night," an airplane "stunt" serial with Frank Clarke, stunt aviator featured, will be released on Oct. 21st; "The Fire Detective," authored by Frank Leon Smith, will be released on December 30th. This will be directed by Spencer Bennet. On March 10th, 1929, will be released the first episode of "The Tiger's Shadow," a crook melodrama by George Arthur Gray, and also directed by Spencer Bennet. The last of the six will be "Queen of the North Woods," a story of the fur country of the Northwest.

Aerial Shots of Mt. McKinley in M-G-M News

MOUNT McKINLEY, in Alaska, is circumnavigated in the current issue of M-G-M News.

The trip around Mount McKinley was made by Lieutenant Earl Rossman, explorer and M-G-M News cameraman. The plane in which he made the trip was piloted by M. A. Nieminen. In addition to circumnavigating Mount McKinley, Rossman flew over and photographed the two other highest peaks on the North American continent, Mount Hunter and Mount Foraker.

Rossman carried five cameras in his plane. The plane circumnavigated the peaks of Mount McKinley no less than six times.

Local Newsreel Planned for New York

WILLIAM STEINER, President of the Artistic Film Co., Inc., has established his offices at 220 West 42nd Street, for the distribution of "New York Today," the Metropolitan Newsreel, in Greater New York. The reel will be produced in co-operation with The Evening Telegram.

"New York Today," it is said, is not intended to compete with the national newsreels. It is to be released daily in a standard length of 125 feet, permitting theatres with one or two program changes weekly to use the daily release of the newsreel without disturbing their musical setting. The human interest side of the news will be emphasized in each story picturized, it is said.

The editorial management of "New York Today" will be in the hands of Cullon Holmes Ferrell, lately of Pathe.

"New York Today" will be produced in association with The Evening Telegram, whereby "New York Today" is assured not only the tremendous news facilities of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, but also every theatre in Greater New York showing "New York Today" will be advertised daily in the columns of The Evening Telegram.

National Supply Names New Officials

A number of additional changes to those already announced, have been made in officials of the National Theatre Supply Company. The position of general sales manager is now filled by George E. De Kruif, who has been actively engaged in sales management for National since the inception of the company.

Mr. De Kruif was formerly sales manager of the Exhibitors Supply Company, and has long since established an enviable reputation for himself, both among National salesmen and National customers.

L. S. Hunt, general purchasing agent, came to the National Theatre Supply Company from the Commercial Electric Company, of St. Louis, of which organization he was vice-president for several years. This organization was well known for its exceptional success and growth. Prior to his association with this company, Mr. Hunt was successfully engaged in the field of Public Utilities.

Constance Talmadge in Barrymore Vehicle

The role of Mrs. Cheney opposite John Barrymore in "The Last of Mrs. Cheney" will be played by Constance Talmadge. The role was acted in the stage play by Ina Claire, while Roland Young played Barrymore's part, that of Lord Arthur Dilling.

Barbara Leonard to Play on Stage

Barbara Leonard, who appears in the Tiffany-Stahl production, "Ladies of the Night Club," has been loaned by her company to appear on the stage at the Hollywood Playhouse, under the management of Joseph Schildkraut.

Many Changes Reported in Theatre Chains

Multnomah Corp. Names New Officers; Broadway Closes in Tacoma; Shenandoah to Expand

RUMORS continue in abundance regarding changes and contemplated changes in theatre chains in various parts of the country. These reports have to do with everything from a change of directing officers to a shutting down of activities and extensive plans for expansion.

From Portland, Oregon, comes word that the Multnomah Theatres Corporation, a pioneer development of residential picture show houses in the Pacific Northwest, has elected a new set of officers and made various other changes in handling their string of houses.

These changes were necessary on account of Bob White, former president and general manager withdrawing and selling out his interests in order to devote his time to his mining interests.

New officers of this corporation now include President, Edward Fautz; vice president, Hugh McCredie, Jr.; secretary-treasurer and managing director, F. W. Hamburger of the Circle Theatre, Portland; Bert Levy of the Columbia theatre, Portland, and Russel Brown of the McDonald theatre in Eugene.

The theatres controlled by the company include the Bagdad, Bob White, Chaldean, Egyptian, Gay Granada, Lincoln, Moreland and Venetian of Portland. The company also controls the Columbia Theatre, Portland; The Columbia in Seattle, two theatres in Eugene and two in Corvallis, known as the college towns; and also some 300 in other parts of the country. Its chain includes 28 theatres in the Pacific Northwest.

In addition to the above officers it is understood that among the purchasers of the corporation are G. I. Woodlaw, H. C. Phillips and Stephen Parker. These men now control the Circle and Granada theatres in Portland and two in The Dalles. Half of the stock is held by the Universal Film company.

A persistent rumor still is afloat in Kansas City that the National Theatres Company and the Lawrence Amusement Company will merge this summer, in so far as Topeka, Kas., theatres are concerned, bringing all the theatres of that city, about 60,000 in population, under one management. The Lawrence Amusement Company would hold the second run houses, it is said. Officers of neither company will comment upon the rumor.

After its operation for about a year on what is reported as an almost continuously losing basis, the Broadway Theatre in Tacoma, Washington, was closed last week for an indefinite time by West Coast Theatres, Inc., operators of the house. The theatre, formerly the old Tacoma Theatre, was renovated and remodeled a year ago for West Coast use at a tremendous expense, and was the only new and high-grade house in that city. It played the leading film attractions and also housed the Fanchon-Marco stage revues for a week, prior to their arrival in Seattle from Portland.

West Coast Theatres still continues to operate the Colonial and Rialto Theatres in Tacoma, both being strictly film theatres, and the Colonial operating on a 25c at any time policy. Within the last two weeks the management of these two houses has been turned over to W. Stefan Perutz, former manager of the United Artists Theatre in Seattle. Mr. Perutz becomes managing director of West Coast holdings in Tacoma, and leaves Al Bernard, assistant manager, in charge of the U. A. house in Seattle.

Shenandoah Valley Theatre Corp., Universal ally and operator of a chain in that Virginia valley, is entering upon an extensive expansion program. Isaac Weinberg, general manager, is on a business trip to New York.

The Shenandoah corporation now operates 14 theatres, including three at Winchester, two at Lexington, two at Staunton, one at Harrisonburg, one at Clifton Forge, one at Bedford and four affiliated houses in Danville.

The first steps of the program include a new house in Winchester, a new house in Harrisonburg, one in Clifton Forge, and affiliations in four other towns.

Hollywood Cameramen Unionize and Draft Terms to Producers

THE cameramen of Hollywood have organized a union along similar lines to the eastern union, which has been in operation for some time and the two have become closely affiliated. The Hollywood union is said to have forwarded a communication to the producing companies asking a conference with them, at which terms will be submitted.

The scale of wage fixed by the new union calls for weekly payment of $250 for first cameramen, $150 for second cameramen, $60 for assistants and $60 for still cameramen.

Among other stipulations are that daily work must be limited to ten hours and that the men must be retained on payrolls between pictures. The membership of the new union is given as 320 members, which, it is said, leaves only 25 cameramen who are not enrolled as members.

Plan Would Finance Exhibitor Units on Costs of Arbitration

ACCORDING to a dispatch from Chicago to Greater Amusements a new plan is under way by exhibitor members of the contract committee to finance exhibitor organizations in the cost of arbitration, "and other necessary activities of benefit to the entire industry." The plan, it is said, is to be worked out by distributors in return for exhibitor agreement to waive protests on contract and arbitration.

"It is now known that exhibitor members of the contract committee agreed to permit certain clauses to go into, or remain in the contract without protest, and to vote for the adoption of the present arbitration rules,' states the article, providing the distributors would work out plans for financing exhibitor organizations.

"Having so far failed to work out plans for financing as requested, it is expected the exhibitor representatives of the contract committee will demand an early meeting of the continuing committee to reopen the discussions and to draw up a new contract and make changes in the rules of arbitration."

New Arbitration Edict Stirs Northwest

Steffes Threatens Legal Action if Association Appointees Are Disqualified in Future

ARBITRATION troubles have Northwestern exhibitors and the film board of trade completely aroused, with every indication that the courts would be resorted to before the difficulties could possibly be straightened out. In fact such action was promised this week by W. A. Steffes, president of the Northwest Theatre Owners.

Mr. Steffes promised that legal action would be taken to enjoin enforcement of a ruling which would prohibit northwest theatre owners from serving on any arbitration board for disputes between motion picture exhibitors and distributors.

The Steffes statement came after C. C. Pettijohn of New York, general counsel for the Film Boards of Trade, ruled that the Northwest Theatre men were disqualified because they refused to arbitrate a recent case.

"We are not going to let disqualification stand without a fight," said Mr. Steffes. "We expect to start suit."

The present difficulty grew out of the action of the Northwest exhibitor unit in refusing to permit its members to sit on cases involving United Artists because of that company's alleged action in serving films to non-theatricals.

This action, in the opinion of C. C. Pettijohn and Gabriel L. Hess, of the Hays office, disqualified appointees of the association to act as arbitrators, and accordingly they have instructed the Film Board to proceed under arbitration rules to secure appointment of other exhibitor arbitrators.

It seems probable that association members will not permit non-members to sit on their cases, and if action is taken, will refuse to abide by any decision made. There has been but one arbitration meeting since passage of the resolution against United Artists, and exhibitors whose cases were heard at that meeting may take the stand that if association members are disqualified now, they were then, and, consequently, may seek to restrain the board from carrying out decisions rendered at that meeting.

European Film Renters Meet in Berlin

FILM renters, organized and not organized, met last week in Berlin to discuss the questions of the day. They were nearly unanimous in recommending a more limited supply (annual)—not more than 350 pictures—and adopting the principle of making kontingent regulations unnecessary through a system of self-control. The American distributors present expressed their full accord with the proposals made by their German colleagues.

Canadian International Films in Difficulty

Canadian International Films, Ltd., organized last November to produce pictures in Canada to qualify under the British quota law, is reported in difficulties. An order is reported issued at Toronto from Osgoode Hall, on application of Edward Pardee Johnston, president of the company, directing the Sheriff of Hastings County to seize the continuity of the feature, "Carry On, Sergeant," which was being made at the Ontario Government motion picture studio at Trenton.

Canadian International Films was promoted by Col. W. F. Clarke, formerly of London, England, and later with Cranfield and Clarke. The continuity ordered seized was said to be in the possession of Capt. Bairnsfather, who was said to be directing the picture.

The order is also said to have directed the sheriff to seize the negatives of 300 still photographs of "Carry On, Sergeant," valued at $1,000. In presenting the complaint of the company Mr. Johnston declared that Bairnsfather was wrongfully retaining the continuity and still negatives and had refused to give them up. The directors of Canadian International Films are listed as follows: E. P. Johnston, President; Col. W. F. Clarke, General Manager; Capt. Bruce Bairnsfather, Supervising Director; Henry S. Gooderham and G. F. McFarland.

Numerous Charters Are Granted at Albany

Companies incorporating in the motion picture business in New York State at Albany during the past week included the following: Bellburton Theatre Corporation, $50,000. Louis N. Lesser, Abraham Midenick, Samuel J. Wishner, Brooklyn; Bethmar, Inc., capitalization not stated, Gladys Tensing, Dorothy Clifford, T. Roger Mahon, New York City; 125th Street-Apollo Theatre Co., Inc., capitalization not stated, Joseph Weinstock, New York; M. William Minsky, Brooklyn; Joseph Hurtig, Lawrence, L. I.; Ashman See-Easy Condenser, Inc., capitalization not stated, Joseph Manne, Louise Ehrenberg, Milton W. Sametz, Brooklyn; Eton Amusement Corporation, capitalization not stated, Beatrice Zelenko, Gertrude Lebelson, Matie Hammerstein, New York City.

Hotel Paramount Operating Co., Inc., $2,000, John H. Mayer, Lina Goldman, Walter H. Flandreau, New York City; Manthom Pictures, Inc., $10,000, Lillian Cunningham, Florence Abramson, Peter Lewis, New York City; Shea-Empire Stock Co., Inc., capitalization not stated, Joseph E. Shea, Marguerite Spielman, Edward de Tishe, New York City; True Life Photoplays, Inc., $10,000, Florence Abramson, Middle Village; Lillian Cunningham, Peter Lewis, New York City; Borrah Minevitch, Inc., capitalization not stated, Borrah Minevitch, Estehr Lasner, Samuel J. Schwartzman, New York City.

Many St. Louis Theatres Offered For Sale

For the first time in many years a considerable number of the theatres in the St. Louis trade territory are being publicly advertised for sale. Many other houses are being quietly offered to prospective buyers.

In St. Louis two houses are on the block. One contains 600 seats and operates 15 hours a day, while the second is a 300-seater of the neighborhood variety. Another house being offered is in a town of 80,000 inhabitants and works seven days per week. The fourth house also works every day in the week and is located in a town of 20,000 population.

Ronald Colman in "The Rescue," Conrad Novel

"The Rescue," by Joseph Conrad, has been selected by Samuel Goldwyn as the first picture for Ronald Colman's career as an independent star. Consequently, plans for Dickens' "A Tale of Two Cities," already announced, have been postponed. Herbert Brenon will direct at the Goldwyn studio. Lily Damita will appear opposite Colman.

French Society of Authors, Composers Shows Profits

Received by the Motion Picture Section of the Department of Commerce in Washington from Trade Commissioner Geo. R. Canty, Paris, the following film items from the European press are submitted as of interest:

The receipts of the French Society of Authors, Composers and Music Editors show an almost uninterrupted progress since its beginning. The first business year's receipts (1851-52) were very low—14,000 francs. Ten years later (1861-62), the annual result was 129,000 francs. Twenty years after that date (1881-82) the total yearly income was 841,000 francs. The fifty-first year, 1901-1902, showed 2,563,000, and the sixty-second year, 1912-1913, showed an income of 5,213,000 gold francs. This prodigious rise was stopped during the war, when receipts fell to 1,422,000 francs. But after the end of the war a great change occurred, and the receipts of 1918-1919 rose again to 7,108,000 francs, reached 41,326,000 francs in 1925-1926, and 45,748,000 francs in 1926-1927.

British - Canadian Pictures Launch Production

Active operations have been started by the British-Canadian Pictures, Ltd., at Calgary, Alberta, with Neal Hart as star and director, the first picture of the new company having an Alberta theme. Guy Weadick is general manager of the company, and foreign distribution arrangements are in the hands of William Steiner, of New York, distributor and exporter. Alvin Wyckoff, formerly director of photography for the Famous Players California studios, is the cameraman, and the players include Barbara Kent, a native of Alberta; Charles Wellesley, of London, England; William Quinn, of Toronto, and Joe Rickson.

Four June Pictures Set by First National

Three starring productions and a picture with a featured team comprise the four pictures to be released by First National during June.

On June 3d, "The Upland Rider," starring Ken Maynard, will be released. On June 10th will come "Three-Ring Marriage," from the story "Help Yourself to Hay," featuring Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes. June 17th is the date for "The Wheel of Chance," starring Richard Barthelmess. June 24th will see "Happiness Ahead," starring Colleen Moore.

Columbia Engages D'Arcy and Matt Moore

Two additional players, Matt Moore and Roy D'Arcy will end their temporary absence from the screen to appear in Columbia pictures.

Although specializing in widely different characterizations, both Mr. Moore and Mr. D'Arcy have a large number of roles to their credit. Mr. Moore, youngest of the Moore brothers, is usually cast as a diffident or slightly humorous hero, while Mr. D'Arcy plays the suave and sinister villain.

W. C. Patterson Leaves Universal for Post with Publix

W. C. Patterson

WILLARD C. PATTERSON has resigned as Southern Division Manager of Universal Theatres to become District Manager for Publix Theatres Corporation. He will have supervision over a group of de luxe Publix houses around the Atlanta territory.

Patterson's resignation became effective May 21 and he left immediately for Dallas, Texas, to join Milton Feld of the Publix New York office, for a tour of the de Luxe Publix houses. The return trip to Atlanta will be made by way of Birmingham, where they will stop over a day to visit the new Alabama Theatre, one of the three de Luxe houses to be under Mr. Patterson's supervision. The other two are the Howard in Atlanta and Keith's Georgia. Mr. Patterson will make his headquarters at the Howard Theatre Building in Atlanta.

Mr. Patterson has been connected with amusement enterprises for the past twenty-six years. He joined Universal two years ago after a varied career embracing vaudeville, road shows, stock companies and motion pictures.

Comerford Denies Tale of Rumored Sale

Vice-President Walker Says Rumor Unfounded and That Company Has No Expansion Plans

THE following statement is issued by Frank C. Walker, vice-president of Comerford Theatres, Inc:

"There is absolutely no truth in the report that Comerford Theatres, Inc. is negotiating with any organization for the sale of an interest in its circuit.

"The Comerford Company has not, nor does it contemplate, giving any consideration to such a move, but intends to pursue the same identical course, in so far as its theatre operations are concerned, that it has heretofore.

"The Company has no expansion plans, nor does it intend invading the territory of other chains, as has been rumored, but is devoting all of its time and attention to the towns in which it is now operating.

"The company did recently acquire an interest in the Dillon houses in Ithaca, and has also taken over an interest in the property now operated by Mr. Steele at Carlisle, Pa. The company owned an interest in the real estate in Carlisle for some years, and took over full title to the property for the reason that Mr. Steele is retiring from business. In all probability, this theatre will be leased to other interests.

"The company now has in course of construction in towns in which it is operating, a number of theatres, viz:

Wilkes-Barre—one 3,000 seat house, and three neighborhood houses seating approximately 1200 each.

"Scranton—one 3,000 seat house, and three other houses seating approximately 1200 to 1500 each.

"In conjunction with the Kallet Circuit, a house is now being constructed in Rome, N. Y., to seat approximately 2500 people.

"In Williamsport, Pa., on property heretofore acquired from the Chamberlain Circuit, a 2500 seat house is now being erected, and the present plans are to open the theatre during the early fall.

"This statement is made in answer to the many rumors that have been recently broadcast."

Closes House Because of Blue Law

BENNIE BERGER, who closed the Grand Theatre at Hallock, Minn., recently, has given notice to the town that he will not reopen it until the ordinance preventing Sunday shows is repealed. He says that Hallock cannot support a theatre unless Sunday shows are permitted. At present the Hallock council is not very friendly towards the movies, but the town's business men are very anxious to have Mr. Berger continue with his enterprise. A delegation of them has been pleading with Mr. Berger to reopen, and even offered to pay a month's rent, but the Hallock exhibitor insists the house will stay dark until Hallock's ordinance is removed.

New Assignments in the Warners Sales Ranks

Warner Bros. has allotted three more branch offices to the territory supervised by Max Milder as central sales manager.

C. E. Almy, branch manager of Warner Bros.' Buffalo exchange, hereafter will assume supervision over Buffalo, Albany and Pittsburgh as division manager.

Agitate Sunday Closing

Midwest Hearings Being Held and Petitions Filed for Both Sides of Question

SUNDAY closing laws are being fought for and against in various parts of the middle West, particularly through Iowa and Missouri, where hearings are being held regularly and petitions are being filed both for and against these showings.

Another hearing before the Missouri supreme court to test the validity of an ordinance of the city of Springfield, Mo., prohibiting Sunday motion picture shows has been ordered by the court. The re-hearing, which will call for a special judge, is a rare and unusual procedure before that body. Attorneys on both sides have been notified to agree on a special judge who will sit with the court en banc at the next hearing of the case.

Springfield, a city of about 65,000, has been without Sunday motion picture shows several years as a result of a city ordinance which prohibits shows on Sunday. Exhibitors long have been opposing the ordinance and are hopeful that the re-hearing before the state supreme court will result in their favor.

At Afton, Iowa, a petition asking for the Sunday shows is being circulated among the citizens although the mayor has expressed his disapproval of the measure and stated that his council would vote against the Sunday show. Churches and the W. C. T. U. are also working against the petition.

At Ames, Iowa, where the Sunday shows lost a close battle, those in authority state that they are waiting for later elections to try the issue again. Several of the staff of the State University at Ames opposed the opening of the Sunday shows.

The City council of Ida Grove, Iowa, voted to allow the Sunday shows there. There has never before been Sunday movies at Ida Grove.

Traer, Iowa, will have its first Sunday movie this week.

C. A. Pratt, attorney for Elmer Weller, manager of the Princess theatre at Traer, appeared before the city council and announced that Sunday evening shows would be started at once.

Following the announcement of Mr. Pratt, the city council authorized Thomas & Thomas, attorneys, to prepare an ordinance prohibiting Sunday night movies in Traer, the ordinance to be submitted to the council for its approval.

Because of lack of evidence, no action was brought against the two Ashland, Ohio, theatre owners who opened their houses recently for the first Sunday showings ever given in the city. Under the Ashland city ordinance it must be proved that admission is charged to a theatre open on Sunday, and no such evidence was obtainable. Mayor B. F. Zercher has intimated that he would not sign affidavits against theatre owners for subsequent violations unless he personally purchased a ticket. The inference is plain, and Sunday shows will probably continue unmolested.

Amusement and other business interests who do their greatest business on Sundays in St. Louis, Mo., favor the passage of a proposed new city ordinance which will permit delicatessens to remain open all day Sundays.

Alderman Riefling has introduced the new measure which eliminates the delicatessens from the restrictions as to closing on Sundays placed on groceries, meat shops and bakeries.

Heretofore the delicatessens have been permitted to open Sundays only between 3 and 6 p.m.

The delicatessen men, claiming they were being discriminated against, had threatened to compel the St. Louis police and prosecuting officials to strictly enforce ancient blue laws which require every line of business to close down tightly on Sundays.

A bill introduced by Alderman Riefling will avert the Sunday closing issue at this time.

The advent of legalized Sunday motion picture shows in Hoopeston, Ill., has proved a bonanza for the merchants of that community, as thousands of persons from surrounding "blue" communities now motor into Hoopeston for amusement and recreation. Business in the confectioneries, lunch rooms, restaurants, drug stores and filling stations have increased considerably.

Liberty-Specialty Corp. to Meet in Memphis

THE annual sales convention of Liberty-Specialty Film Distributing Corporation will be held at Memphis, Tenn., this year. Executives, branch managers and salesmen will arrive in Memphis on Sunday, May 27, the opening session taking place the following day. The convention will be in session for two or three days, and about 25 branch managers and salesmen will attend.

It is expected that E. V. Richards, of New Orleans, president of the company, will reach Memphis on the opening day of the meeting for an address to the delegates. W. C. Underwood, vice-president and general manager, whose headquarters are in Dallas, Texas, will attend, together with H. T. Peebles, of Dallas, recently appointed assistant general manager, and other executives.

According to plans already mapped out, the convention promises to be a strictly business meeting, during which the company executives will announce the coming season's product and will discuss sales policies.

Camera Work Started on "Girl on the Barge"

Having assembled his cast at Whitehall, N. Y., Edward Sloman, director for Universal, has begun photography on "The Girl on the Barge." The locations of this picture will be along the Champlain Ship Canal, near Whitehall, which Sloman chose in preference to sites along the Erie Canal. A tug-boat and a barge have been engaged for scenes on the water.

Acting as location manager of the Sloman unit is Arthur Cosine; the second assistant director is Ray Cosine. Jack Voshell, who accompanied Sloman from Hollywood, is assistant director, and Jackson Rose is in charge of camera work. After the scenes up-state have been taken, Universal will have the barge towed back to New York City for additional scenes.

The picture will be made entirely in the east. The leads will be Jean Hersholt, Sally O'Neil, and Malcolm McGregor, the support, Francis Robertson, Henry West, George Offerman, Jr., Morris Mackintosh and Nancy Kelly. The story has been adapted by Charles Kenyon and Nan Cochrane.

Contract for Club Interior Work Assigned

The interior work of the Motion Picture Club of New York has been let to Shapiro Brothers of New York City. Involved in the contract are the building and decoration of the club rooms in the Bond Building, including the lounge, dining room, gymnasium, etc., the work to be finished by July 15.

The firm of Shapiro Brothers is a subsidiary of M. Shapiro and Son, who built the Warners', the Colony and the N. V. A. club houses. Jacob Shapiro, one of the brothers is a member of the Motion Picture Club. Bids for other work on the club are now being considered by the building committee, headed by Lee Ochs, Dave Chadkin and Emil Jensen.

Guido Orlando Signed by Rialto Company

Lewis I. Maisell, general manager of the Rialto Motion Picture Company, with headquarters in New York, has signed Guido Orlando to a directorial contract. Orlando will write and direct a series of six one-reel novelty subjects, all of which will be produced in the east. He recently directed "The White Lie," which was shown at Grauman's Chinese Theatre in Hollywood. Negotiations are now being carried on for the distribution of the coming series.

Conway to Direct Novarro in "Gold Braid"

Jack Conway will be at the megaphone when Ramon Novarro begins work in "Gold Braid" at the M-G-M studio in Culver City. The story of the new Novarro vehicle, by Byron Morgan, will show the star as a young ensign in the U. S. Navy. Lieutenant Commander F. W. Weed is cooperating with M-G-M on the picture and will act as technical advisor during the filming. The picture starts shortly after June 1.

Cruze to Direct Meighan in Rex Beach Story

James Cruze, to direct Thomas Meighan in a second picture for Paramount release, following "The Racket," has completed negotiations with Rex Beach for the purchase of a special story for Meighan's use under his direction. The picture, as yet untitled, will go into production May 28. It is a melodrama.

First National Plans Many Foreign Films

FIRST NATIONAL has definitely gone into the business of producing films in Europe, two production affiliations having already been made, one in England and one in Germany. Eight feature films have already been completed for release by First National not only in the United States but throughout the world.

In Germany, First National has set up Defu-First National. The studios are in Berlin, where several hundred employees are at work under the direction of Ray Rockett. Three pictures, "Dancing Vienna," "The Strange Case of Captain Ramper," "The Ware Case," are ready for release. Five pictures have been completed by the London organization, First National-Pathe, Ltd. The pictures are, "Confetti," "God's Clay," "Somehow Good," "Eileen of the Trees."

C. S. Clancy to Produce "The Viking Ship"

The story of the early Norsemen is to be filmed as a road show attraction by Carl Stearns Clancy, the producer of "The Headless Horseman," with Will Rogers and of Pathe's "Travelesques" series.

Mr. Clancy is said to have spent the last five years to the work of condensing the Icelandic sagas recording Viking adventures, and has the resulting data in a screen story, "The Viking Ship, a Saga of Surging Seas." Emmett Crozier has written the scenario. Arrangements have been completed for filming the exterior scenes in Norway, where production will start July 1. The interior scenes will be made at the Tec-Art Studios in Hollywood. The production budget of Epic Films, Inc., the financing organization, is $500,000. An additional $100,000 will be invested in exploitation, it is said.

Last November, Mr. Clancy engaged Capt. Gerhard Folgero, who in 1926 sailed a 42-foot open boat from Oslo to Philadelphia, to serve as navigator for the fleet of Viking ships to be used in the pictures, and sent him to Norway to supervise the designing and construction of these crafts.

3 New Faces in Sennett Feature Production

Three new screen faces will be seen in "The Good-Bye Kiss," Mack Sennett's personally directed comedy-romance for First National. Sally Eilers, Wampas Baby Star for 1928, plays the leading feminine role, with Johnny Burke, well-known on the vaudeville stage as a comedy headliner, and Matty Kemp, a new juvenile, in the other leading role.

New Title for Richard Barthelmess Picture

"The Wheel of Chance" is the title for the next Richard Barthelmess picture, founded upon Fannie Hurst's "Roulette." The picture has been in the First National cutting room for about two weeks. A print is expected at the company's home office within a short time.

Sterns Offer New Faces

Many Changes Have Been Made in Principals and Casts for Comedies of Next Season

STERN BROTHERS will spring a number of new faces in connection with the various series of comedies they will release through Universal during the coming season. There are to be a number of new comedians and larger casts in most of the pictures. The "Mike and Ike" series will see new featured players, as will the Buster Brown series, while Snookums in the "Newlyweds" series will have new parents.

Jack Egan and Derlys Perdue are the new "newlyweds." Egan is well known as a screen comedian, following a long experience on the stage. Miss Perdue is a former Wampas baby star and has played in screen comedies for several years. Sid Saylor, star of the "Let George Do It" comedies will have some new support in Harry Martell, long known in screen comedies, and Dorothy Coburn, who will be leading lady. Miss Coburn has been seen in several Hal Roach comedies recently released.

For the "Mike and Ike" series the Sterns have acquired an entirely new lineup of principals. The twin roles will be played by Joe Young and Ned La Salle. Young is a recruit from the Mack Sennett lot, while La Salle has a stage career behind him and has played many juvenile roles in pictures. Supporting Mike and Ike will be Harriett Mathews and Betty Welsh, both experienced in screen comedies.

Lois Hardwick will be the new Mary Jane in the Buster Brown series. She played a small role in the plantation scenes in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Merry Mae Mc Keen is another newcomer to this series. She is fourteen months old and a sister of "Snookums" Mc Keen. Bobby Newman, fat boy, and Bobby Lloyd, well known child actor will also be seen in these comedies. Arthur Trimble will continue as Buster and Pete, the dog, will be Tige.

Buck Jones Incorporates

Western Star to Produce and Distribute Four Specials For Coming Season

FORMATION of the Buck Jones Corporation, which will produce and distribute pictures starring the Western player, was announced at the company's offices, 489 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Jones will produce four specials during the coming season, the first being a drama of the plains and the air temporarily titled "The Big Hop." Jones at present is completing a personal appearance tour of the larger cities throughout the country. He will leave next week for Hollywood to begin immediate production on the first of the new series.

Don McElwaine, who recently resigned as publicity manager of Fox Film Corporation, to join Mr. Jones, will leave for the coast immediately to take charge of production at the studios. Charles F. Schwerin, for many years a sales executive with various important motion picture companies, has been placed in charge of the Buck Jones Corporation sales organization and J. R. Levee has been named as his assistant. Both Mr. Schwerin and Mr. Levee recently left United Artists to join the Jones organization.

The Jones pictures will be distributed through independent exchanges.

Educational Okay With Cleveland Exhibitors

CLEVELAND exhibitor members of the Cleveland Motion Picture Exhibitors Association have been notified by Secretary Erdmann to buy Educational product for the 1928-29 season. This follows an announcement by Educational that it is willing to co-operate with the exhibitors in their request for reduced protection.

Cleveland exhibitors have launched a campaign against buying pictures with 59 days first-run protection. They are asking 21 days protection. Pending action by the exhibitor committee on protection, exhibitors have pledged themselves not to buy any new product.

Educational is the first company to accede to the exhibitors' request.

J. Josack, Jr., Managing Revere Theatre, Mass.

The Revere Theatre in Revere, Massachusetts, is being managed by Joseph Josack, Jr., who has just been appointed by Universal Chain Theatrical Enterprises, Inc. George A. Smith will continue as manager of the Capitol Theatre, Somerville, in the same district.

Joseph Henabery Signed to Gotham Contract

Representing a new acquisition to the Gotham directorial staff, Joseph E. Henabery has just been signed on a long-term contract by Gotham. He has just completed work on "United States Smith," a Marine Corps subject.

Jannings' Title Changed to "Sins of the Fathers"

"Sins of the Fathers" has definitely replaced "The Man Who Never Missed" as the title for Emil Jannings' next Paramount production, "The Feeder." Jannings is scheduled to play a veteran vaudeville trouper.

Educational Announces New Series

EDUCATIONAL FILM EXCHANGES, INC., opened its annual sales convention Tuesday of this week at the Mount Royal Hotel in Montreal, Canada, with managers in attendance from all of the company's thirty-six exchanges in the United States and Canada. This is the first convention of a big film distributing organization to be held in Canada.

At the opening session E. W. Hammons, president of Educational, sprang a surprise on the delegates in the form of an announcement of a new series of six two-reel adventure pictures based on the Thomson Burtis aviation stories in the American Boy. This series is in addition to the 52 two-reel comedies, 50 one-reel subjects and 104 Kinograms news reel releases, already announced for the 1928-29 program. Reed Howes will be the star of the new series, the stories of which have been running in the American Boy Magazine for the last four years. The stories are also published in book form by Doubleday, Doran and Company.

Howes and Burtis were introduced to the convention and spoke before the sales managers, Howes coming across the continent to be present at Educational's big gathering.

Attempt Reconstruction of Bavaria Film Industry

The report of the Munich Chamber of Commerce on the first quarter of 1928, states that, for the first time, very interesting efforts are being made to develop film production in Bavaria, says information received by the U. S. Department of Commerce. This excepts, of course, Emelka. The report says: "Endeavors are being made lately to reconstruct the Bavarian film industry, excepting Emelka's activity, and to put various firms to work again for a regular production, with the co-operation of Bavarian authorities. The Ministry of Commerce and the Town Council of Munich are approving and co-operating with these negotiations. However, no basis for the material execution of this plan is ready as yet."

According to German press reports, nothing has been done as yet in this connection beyond suggestions and deliverations. It will be easily understood, it is said, that Bavaria will do anything for the further development of its film industry which is supported by Emelka. If, according to the Chamber of Commerce's report, the basis for the material execution of this plan is not ready yet, such a basis would be easy to create for the Bavarian State, the Munich Town Council and, especially, the Bavarian Bank and industrial capital.

Classifies the Films as a Public Utility

Motion pictures are, in a way, a public utility, argues a Montreal investment house, in offering $3,000,000 of 6½ per cent debentures of Famous Players Canadian Corp., Ltd.

"Motion picture theatres are in the public utility class to the extent that they provide the public with a service for which the demand is general throughout all classes of society. They satisfy the universal desire for entertainment, at a price within the reach of all," he states.

"The operation of motion picture theatres is a cash business, with practically no inventories and no credit accounts. The 'movie' is one of the last business barometers to show unfavorable conditions and among the first to reflect increased returns from prosperous times. Earnings of well-managed companies which control chains of motion picture theatres are as stable as those of many successful public utility companies."

Production Resumed by Educational Studio

With Charles Lamont and Stephen Roberts directing, actual production work is under way on the first two Educational comedies for the new season. The Educational studios took on new life the first of last week with the resumption of activity by these two units. The studio remained partly open during the usual vacation period, however, so that the Bowers unit could continue work.

Lamont is directing "Big Boy," first of a series of eight. Sidney Levy, formerly with Fox, will assist Lamont as gag man.

Roberts is directing Al St. John in the initial Mermaid of the season. Roberts will have his gag man, John Lockert, back with him again this season.

In addition to St. John, George Davis, Monty Collins and Jack Miller are scheduled to play featured roles in the Mermaid series this coming season. Lupino Lane, who already is back at the studios ready to start on his first comedy, also will make eight starring productions. Dorothy Devore is still vacationing, and will return to the Educational lot later to start work on the first of her series of six starring laugh productions.

Production on the first picture in the new series of eight Ideal Comedies, featuring Jerry Drew, is to be started within a few days.

National A. G. Distributing All W. B. Films

Herman Starr, Warner Bros.' executive, returning from Europe last week on the Berengaria, made public the details of production and distribution deals consummated by him while abroad. Chief among them is the contract signed between Warner Bros. and National Film A. G. of Berlin.

The terms of this agreement call for the latter firm to distribute the entire Warner Bros. product in Germany. Another important clause relates to arrangements for Warner Bros. and National Film A. G. to produce jointly twelve pictures in Berlin this year.

Mr. Starr has been absent from New York for eight weeks. Not only did he accomplish this enterprise in Germany but he visited the Warner branches in London and Paris to inaugurate their sales drive for the new season.

While in Paris, Mr. Starr appointed a new managing director of his company's activities in France to succeed Maurice Livingston, who has resigned. This post has been assumed by Robert Schless, formerly with First National.

Many Firms Chartered in New England

Motion picture companies recently granted charters of incorporation to conduct operations in the film industry in New England include the following: Parish Players, Inc., Branford, $15,000, J. A Smith, Branford; L. S. P. Corporation, Boston, 1,000 shares of no par value capital, Benjamin A. Trustman, Charles B. Newhall, Boston; Markell's Milton Theatre, Inc., Milton, $50,000, Philip Markell and P. Lincoln Slayton, Boston; Amherst Amusement Company, Amherst, $5,000, Ethan H. Holden and Blanche P. Burnett, Amherst; Star Theatre of New Milford, $20,000, A. D. Dawson, Waterbury; Associates Theatres, Inc., Providence, 100 shares no par stock, Arthur H. Feiner, Nellie V. Monahan and John C. Knowles, Providence; Interstate Theatres Corporation, Boston, $50,000, E. Harold Stoneman, Edward Ansin and Marjorie C. O'Brien; Avon Amusement Company, Inc., Avon, $100,000, Charles J. Geiser and Helen G. Greenwood, Brockton.

Rayart Distributing Corp., Boston, $100,000, Herman Rifkin, George G. Solomon and Pauline Rifkin; Special Films, Inc., Boston, $15,000, Samuel M. Moscow, Saul E. Simons and Thomas E. Morris; Rocky Point Amusement Company of Mass., Ayer, $10,000, Madeline G. Callahan, Helen G. Wilson and George L. Wilson; Amusement Associates, Inc., Boston, $16,000, Cecelia D. Maye, Helen V. O'Brien and Curtis H. Waterman, Boston; Moviescope Co., Inc., Boston, $50,000, Wilfred E. Tait, Albert C. Sawyer and Gerald S. Connoly, Boston; McConville Amusement, Inc., Boston, $76,000, George E. McConville, John P. McConville and Joseph A. McConville, Boston.

Montreal Trade Council Protests Ordinance

SO thoroughly disgusted with the new Provincial law prohibiting the admission of children under 16 years of age to moving picture theatres in the Province of Quebec have they become that the members of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council, representing organized labor in the largest city of Canada, decided unanimously at their meeting on May 18 to arouse public opinion against the new regulation, thus forcing its repeal.

The council endorsed a letter of condemnation presented by the International Association of Machinists and a demand was forwarded to the Quebec Government demanding the repeal of the statute forthwith. It was pointed out that the law worked a hardship on all classes of people, but affected the workers particularly. Parents could not take their families with them to the theatres and they would not go without them, leaving them to the dangers of fire and traffic. Therefore the adults, as well as the children, were being denied amusement and recreation, it was argued.

The suggestion that the Quebec Government be asked to enforce the new law to the letter, so that the people would rebel against it, was turned down in favor of the move to demand the withdrawal of the statute forthwith.

In and Out of Town

DAVE BADET, accessory manager for Universal, is now visiting various exchanges in the West and central region of the country. He will stop off at Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Denver, Kansas City, Omaha, Des Moines and Chicago.

MAX ALEXANDER, the Stern Film Corporation's Eastern representative, has arrived back in New York after two months spent at the studio on the Cost, assisting in the launching of the new season's schedule.

HAL ROACH, comedy producer, accompanied by his wife, left New York last week for the Coast.

SAM ECKMAN, JR., recently appointed managing director for M-G-M in London, arrived in New York May 21 on the Leviathan.. He has come for a brief visit.

FLORENCE STRAUSS, scenario editor for First National, leaves Wednesday for the company's Burbank studio, where she will sit in at conferences relating to the purchase and production of stories. She will return to the home office in about two weks.

MILT GROSS, creator of "Nize Baby" and "Gross Exeggerations," has departed from New York with his family Hollywood bound. He will write at least one original story for M-G-M, and may follow with others, it is said.

SOL G. NEWMAN, representative for FBO in the United Kingdom and Scandanavia, arrived in New York from London last week. He expects to remain for three or four weeks.

JOHN WEBER, Gotham's assistant general manager, has left for a tour which will cover the eastern and Canadian offices. While on this trip he will make the final arrangements with the exchanges for the distribution of the new Gotham product.

SAM E. MORRIS, general manager of distribution for Warner Bros., has returned to New York from a week's trip to the middle-west.

TRUMAN H. TALLEY, director-in-chief of Fox News, returned this week on board the Mauretania from a three-months' tour of Europe. He brought back with him a feature length film of Hungarian national life. Mrs. Talley accompanied him.

MALCOLM STUART BOYLAN, recently appointed editorial supervisor for Fox Films, arrived in New York last Monday morning for a vacation.

Columbia Handling "Raider Emden" in U. S., Canada

Columbia has acquired for distribution in the United States and Canada, "The Raider Emden," which was produced by the Emelka Studios of Munich under the supervision of the German Admiralty and is said to be Germany's official screen record of the Emden.

Pressbooks and an impressive line-up of paper and accessories have been issued for this production.

Musicians Set New Scale

High Prices Fixed for Sound Films; Long Contracts to be Demanded by Unions

MUSICIANS have set a high scale for their services on sound films, and it is also indicated that long term contracts will be sought by musicians' unions as a means of protection against threatened encroachment of sound pictures. The Federation of Musicians opened its convention at Louisville during the week and the main topic of discussion was to be with regard to the effect of talking movies on musicians in general and the protective steps to be taken.

Meantime, the Associated Musicians of Greater New York, Local No. 802, has fixed a scale of prices to be applied to work in connection with sound pictures. It calls for $30 per man per session of three hours or less, on special engagements, and $200 per man for a regular engagement of 5½ days exclusive of Sunday, calling for 33 hours work with not more than two sessions daily. In all cases the conductor is to receive double for services and no session is to exceed three hours.

The schedule applies to work in connection with Vitaphone, Movietone, Phonofilm, Vocafilm and similar devices, and if recording is done in a theatre or any place where the orchestra is regularly engaged, the price called for in the schedule, must be paid in addition to regular salaries. There is no extra charge for Saturday night.

On the special engagement schedule, two sessions on the same day, of six hours or less per man the scale is $50, with overtime $5 per half hour or fraction thereof. Leeway of five minutes is provided, as well as intermission between sessions of not less than one hour.

Educational Holds Meet

Pres. Hammons Announces New Series of Two Reel Flying Pictures, Starring Reed Howes

EDUCATIONAL FILM EXCHANGES, Inc., held in Montreal this week the first sales convention ever conducted in Canada by one of the big distributing companies. Business sessions were held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with home office executives and managers of all of Educational's thirty-six exchanges in the United States and Canada in attendance.

On Tuesday night the convention delegates were guests of honor at a banquet given at the Mount Royal Hotel, convention headquarters, by the theatrical interests of Montreal, and B. E. Norrish, of Associated Screen News, was host at a luncheon on board the Canadian Pacific liner Montclare on Wednesday.

At the luncheon on the Montclare E. W. Hammons, president of Educational, introduced Thomson Burtis, author of "Russ Farrell" flying stories, which have been appearing in the American Boy Magazine for four years, and on which are to be based Educational's new series of two-reel "Russ Farrell" flying pictures, and Reed Howes, the star, who came from Los Angeles to attend the convention and to be officially welcomed to Educational's line-up of stars.

Fourth Bomb Damages Seattle Houses

THE fourth dynamite bombing of non-union theatres in Seattle, Washington, occurred last week. John Danz's Colonial and Capitol Theatres were the target. At shortly after eight o'clock in the evening, audiences in both houses were thrown into an uproar by the explosion of a large bomb in the joint alley separating the rear doors of the two theatres.

The bomb exploded with sufficient force to throw several small bits of iron and steel through the steel door of the Colonial Theatre into the front of the auditorium. The force of the explosion knocked patrons to the floor, broke glass windows for a block around, and so frightened one theatre patron that she became hysterical and was removed to a hospital.

Thos. Woodhouse, arrested some time ago in connection with the recent bombing of the Embassy Theatre, is at present free on bail, and will be tried within a short time in connection with the case.

Warners Loan Irene Rich For De Mille Lead

Warner Bros. have completed arrangements with the De Mille studio for the loan of Irene Rich for the stellar role in "Craig's Wife" to be filmed soon by the latter company under the direction of William De Mille. Miss Rich has just completed work on "Women They Talk About."

Ricardo Cortez Lead in "A Grain of Dust"

Ricardo Cortez is to play the leading role in the Tiffany-Stahl production "A Grain of Dust," Claire Windsor and Alma Bennett will play the leading feminine roles. The picture is now being directed by Geo. Archainbaud.

New Spanish-American Film Company Formed

With a capital of a million pesos, a Spanish-American production and renting company, entitled Hispano Americano Manzanera, has been formed. It will have offices both in Barcelona and Buenos Aires.

Hungary Favorable to American Pictures

HUNGARY, according to Elek Horvath, Hungarian Secretary of State, who was in Hollywood recently to arrange for booking of films under his country's present quota law, is anxious for showing of American films in its theatres.

The Secretary of State was impressed by the speed and efficiency of Hollywood production. He visited his countryman, Director Paul Fejos, who recently completed "Lonesome" for Universal.

Stanley Head Announces New Phila. Theatre

The Stanley Company of America, through its president, Irving D. Rossheim, announced yesterday an important addition to the circuit of houses under direction of that company, with the erection of the Villa Theatre, at the northwest corner of Parker and Lincoln Avenues, Collingdale. The house, which will represent an investment of half a million dollars, will be of exceptional beauty and comfort, and will have a capacity for 1,000 persons. It will be under the general supervision of Marcus A. Benn, whose personal attention has been given most happily to a chain of other successful theatres along Woodland Avenue, Darby and the Chester Pike sections.

The Villa Theatre is being designed by the Hoffman-Henon Company of this city, and that concern will build the house. Hoffman-Henon theatre creations here include the magnificent new Mastbaum, the Erlanger, the Earle, the Kent and the Wynne, and the Manor at Prospect Park, Pa., and the Waverly at Drexel Hill. The Villa, in the modern French style of architecture, will be constructed of terra cotta, brick, stone and steel.

Hotel - Theatre Building Under Way in Ala.

With the transfer of the property at Dothan, Ala., now known as the Wadlington Hotel from Williams & Espy to J. C. Wadlington, it is understood that actual work on the construction of the combination hotel-theatre building to be erected by the Alabama Theatre Company, of which Mr. Wadlington is manager, will begin in a short while.

Mr. Wadlington plans to remodel the structure, adding a modern theatre to seat 1,500 people and with a stage of sufficient size and equipment to accommodate vaudeville acts.

The remodeling plans specify a four-story hotel building of approximately 100 rooms. The present ground floor will be altered to permit a large rotunda or lounging room as an entrance to the theatre in the rear of the structure. Elevators are to be installed and the structure will be rebuilt from basement to roof.

Von Stroheim to Direct Gloria Swanson

GLORIA SWANSON has engaged Eric Von Stroheim to direct "The Swamp," her third United Artists picture. Von Stroheim has written an original story, its locale German East Africa, which will be made in Los Angeles, production being started within a few weeks.

Asks Bids On New House for Carlisle, Pa.

David S. Cooper, owner of the Orpheum Theatre, Carlisle, has asked for bids for the erection of a new theatre on the present site of the Orpheum and the adjoining property, on which he proposes to spend about $150,000. The projected theatre will have a seating capacity of 1,100, and will have an ornate foyer and lobby. The present theatre building, which includes also a number of apartments, and the adjoining structure, both are four stories high, and both will be razed for the new theatre, the two upper stories of which will be used for offices. The present theatre, Mr. Cooper says, will be closed for a part of the coming summer to permit the improvement. Mr. Cooper for several years has contemplated the erection of another theatre on property which he has acquired directly opposite the Orpheum on High Street, and, while he has not abandoned this project, he has announced he has indefinitely postponed it.

Finish Excavations for New Ashland Theatre

Excavations have been completed for the new $200,000 theatre that John V. Schreck is planning to erect in Ashland, Pa. The house will seat 1,300 and will occupy a plot 42 by 125 feet. Mr. Schreck formerly lived in Mount Carmel, where he was a pioneer in the motion picture business. The Chamberlain Amusement Enterprises of Shamokin, operating a chain of theatres, bought the Victoria, Mount Carmel, from Mr. Schreck, who then moved to Ashland to build the new theatre. He plans to run movies and vaudeville and an occasional legitimate show.

"The Ghetto," Jessel Film, to Be Released Soon

The Tiffany-Stahl production, "The Ghetto," one of the star's series for 1928-29, in which George Jessel plays the leading role, has just been finished. The picture was directed by Norman Taurog, and it is his first picture for that organization. Supporting Mr. Jessel in the cast are Margaret Quimby, Gwen Lee, Mary Doran, Rosa Rosanova, William Strauss and Gayne Whitman.

Name of Pa. Theatre Co. Undergoes Change

Announcement is made that the name of the new corporation which plans to erect a $210,000 theatre in Kulpmont, Pa., has been changed from the Arcade Amusement Company to the Imperial Amusement Company. The backers of the project, it is disclosed, are three Mount Carmel bankers. They are Dr. W. R. Buckley, secretary of the board of directors of the Liberty State Bank, and president of the Mount Carmel Chamber of Commerce; Joseph Mallinowski, vice-president of the bank, and John Zotkiewicz, a director of the bank, owner of a cigar manufacturing business, and manager and principal stockholder of the Arcade Theatre, Mount Carmel.

The new theatre will be a stone and concrete building with a marble front, and will seat more than 1,000. It will be devoted to both movies and vaudeville, and will be under the management of Mr. Zotkiewicz, who has had fifteen years' experience in the theatre business.

M-G-M Signs New Foreign Talent

JACQUES FEYDER and Erich Schoenfelder, foreign directors, and Mitzi Marena, Viennese actress, have been engaged by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Mr. Feyder has directed "Missing Husbands," "Faces of Children" and Raquel Meller's "Carmen." He will arrive in New York not later than October 1. Mr. Schoenfelder, German picture-maker, will also be on the Culver City lots next season.

Allentown Theatres in Favor of Daylight Saving

Fifteen theatres of Allentown, Pa., which had previously met and agreed to continue to operate on Standard time, notwithstanding the city as a whole went on daylight saving time, have rescinded their action and joined the daylight saving movement. They issued a joint statement showing that the reason for yielding was in the interest of harmony and to prevent creating confusion in the city.

Warner Theatres Will Not Exhibit "Dawn"

All theatres owned or controlled by Warner Brothers will not show "Dawn," the English film which is proposed for exhibition in the United States, stated H. M. Warner, president of Warner Brothers, who announced that he had arrived at the conclusion after discussing the matter thoroughly with James W. Gerard, ex-ambassador to Germany.

Tiffany - Stahl to Film "Albany Night Boat"

Preparations are now under way for the filming of the Tiffany-Stahl production, "The Albany Night Boat," an original story by Ben Grauman Kohn, and to be directed by Tom Terriss. A company of players will be brought East, where many of the scenes will be taken aboard the Albany Night Boat on the Hudson River.

Report FBO May Sell to English Firm Denied

A VIGOROUS denial has been made by Joseph P. Kennedy, FBO president, on the published report that FBO may be sold to English interests. Mr. Kennedy officially stated that the story was without any foundation.

HOLLYWOOD

Lillian Gale
Staff Correspondent

Wm. McCormack
Western Representative

Ray Murray
Special Representative

Hollywood Office—6381 Hollywood Blvd—Phone Granite 3982.

Effect of Economy Wave Felt by Players

Many Companies Have Not Re-Signed Stars Heretofore Listed on Their Programs

HOLLYWOOD, May 19.—The economy wave which swept through the studios a year ago with such alarming effect is still being felt in many quarters. More and more of the leading players who have been liberated from contracts find that new contracts for their services are not being snapped up with the avidity of former years.

The past few weeks have witnessed the dropping of options on several stars and the failure to renew their contracts has greatly agitated not a few well known players.

The First National roster no longer includes several names which, heretofore, occupied the electric lights throughout the country. The contracts of Harry Langdon, as well as that of Johnny Hines, both well known comedians, were not renewed. This company also allowed Lloyd Hughes, Lewis Stone and several other featured players to join the free lancers.

The DeMille organization has also determined to trim down its pay roll, and, as a result, released Rod LaRocque, Leatrice Joy, Joseph Schildkraut, Vera Reynolds Robert Edeson and several others long associated with DeMille.

Another well known screen actress, who has been affiliated with Warner Brothers for years, Irene Rich, is now numbered among free lance artists.

The rumored departure of Pola Negri from the Paramount ranks recalls such talented artists as Thomas Meighan, Raymond Hatton and Fred Thomson, who are not included in that company's announcements. Meighan's contract was recently sold to Howard Hughes, of the Caddo Company, and while his productions will be released on the Paramount program, Tom is not at that studio. Thomson has one more picture under his four-picture Paramount contract, but after the filming of his concluding effort, "Kit Carson," he will seek new affiliations.

The Fox Company lost two of its Western heroes—Tom Mix and Buck Jones—early this year. Mix is to make several independent productions for the FBO program. To supplant these two, Fox has Rex Bell as a Western star. He is now making his second feature for next season's program.

The various comedy units have been suspended for several months. Sennett Studios have moved to new quarters in North Hollywood and will likely commence work on a new program for Pathé the latter part of June. Christie also contemplates building additional stages near the Sennett plant and will become active again in a few weeks.

Educational Studios have recently resumed work. The Hal Roach Studios are again active after a six weeks' vacation.

There are rumors that Universal will not start up with its full quota of stars this year and many changes in its personnel are anticipated. It is said that Laura LaPlante is dickering with First National and may not renew her Universal contract.

There are but two spectacular productions in the making at present in Hollywood. These are "Noah's Ark," a Warner Brothers production, and "Hell's Angels," a Caddo film, being made for United Artists. Each of these will run well over a million dollars in cost, but none of the other producers have any productions of this magnitude in preparation.

A recent visitor to Hollywood was the Honorable Vincent Massey, Canada's minister to the United States. While among the movie folk he was the guest of Louis B. Mayer, with whom he is shown above

Club Elects Officers

The Russian-American Art Club, of Hollywood, embracing in membership a group of film notables of Russian birth, held an election of officers on May 16th, resulting in the appointments of Michael Varvitch, president; Michael Vissarof, first vice-president; Nickoli Kobliansky, second vice-president, and Joseph Panitz, chief auditor.

Cossacks vs. Cowboys

Thirteen thousand Hollywood extras are watching with interest the feud between thirty imported hard-riding Cossacks and the expert dare-devil American cowboys.

An American showman visited France last year and picked out 30 stalwart Cossacks and brought them to America for a tour of the country under bond with the immigration authorities. Eventually they arrived in Hollywood and went into motion pictures. They have been working as "American cowboys." They were bonded to leave America January 1, 1928, but their time was extended by the immigration service to May I. These Cossacks in pictures are in direct competition with American veterans of the world war and as they also work "afoot" they compete with American citizens in many lines of picture work, according to local producers.

The extras are naturally strong for the American cowboy, who is classed as a sober, hard-working, industrious citizen, paying taxes and owning homes in the film capital. The American cowboy makes a good "American cavalryman" in productions calling for formation riding. The Cossacks, on the other hand, cannot handle

(Continued from Hollywood Page)

Educational Announces New Screen Magazine

A NEW magazine reel, "The World Today," is planned by Educational as a monthly release. It will feature the unusual event, new inventions, scientific discoveries and native life. Each release is to be made up of five or six subjects, topics or events. Where the subject is of outstanding importance and warrants the footage of one release, it will be so presented.

A staff of 150 cameramen has been organized to supply material for "The World Today." These field workers have already sent in material. Three groups of cameramen have begun expeditions to search for material in the Dutch East Indies, the South Seas and South America. They are searching for places never before photographed.

Hollywood—Continued

a rope, find it hard to "play Indians" or ride bareback. Forty Cossacks were recently used to ride through a gate at a local studio and all but two fell off before they got through. As stunt riders they do not compare with the American cowboy and the producers are learning that the substitution is becoming costly.

United Artists Executives

Sales executives of the Western and Coast branch offices of United Artists Corporation met with the film company officials at the Hotel Roosevelt, May 14. Joseph M. Schenck, president of United Artists Corporation, presented the 1928 production program.

Al Lichtman, general manager of distribution in the United States and Canada, will also preside at another sales convention at Chicago for Eastern sales forces soon.

Among those attending are Victor M. Shapiro, director of publicity and advertising; Dave Bershon, Western division sales manager; Kenneth Hodkinson, San Francisco; D. J. McNerney, Seattle; H. Bradley Fish, Denver; Guy Gunderson, Los Angeles; Frederick Gage, Salt Lake City, and S. E. Benson and Harry Stern, special representatives.

Producers Act as Hosts

Representatives of the film boards of trade of this country and of Canada, in session for their annual meeting, were guests of The Association of Motion Picture Producers at a dinner held in the Roosevelt Hotel, May 25. Arrangements for the dinner were made by Fred W. Beetson, executive vice-president, in co-operation with Cecil B. DeMille, president, and with members of the executive board.

"Sea Fury" Previewed

"Sea Fury," the first of a series of deep water pictures to be produced by Tom White, was previewed at the Carmel theatre in Hollywood, recently. Post cards, requesting the opinions of patrons, were distributed in the audience, and, judging from returns, the picture met with favorable response.

There are no land scenes in "Sea Fury." The entire action is laid at sea. Therefore, it is cooling in effect and lends itself admirably as a summer attraction.

Mae Murray Sued

Mae Murray has been sued by Arthur Gregor, director, for $110,000. Gregor asks for $100,000 on account of alleged statements made by Miss Murray, which, he states, reflect on his ability and standing as a director, and $5,000 for services as a director, and another $5,000 for loss of time occasioned by Miss Murray's alleged failure to keep him employed.

Gregor was employed by the star to make an independent production called "The Hungarian Rhapsody" and announcement was duly made that Gregor was to direct. Later Miss Murray changed her mind and gave out the statement that she did not like the story but that Gregor did. She has decided to use another story and another director. Gregor has directed a number of features for independent concerns.

Fox Signs Stage Writer

The increasing adaptability of stage writers to the realm of the screen, with the development of talking pictures, was illustrated by William Kernell, who has been placed under long-term contract by Winfield Sheehan, vice-president of Fox Films. Kernell has written a song which Beatrice Lillie is to do for Movietone entitled "Rambling Along the Highway," and is working on "Road House," which he is to title for Fox.

New DeMille Director

Tay Garnett, popular screen writer, is receiving congratulations this week on his promotion to director at the DeMille studios. Garnett has made his mark in the screen world writing titles and original stories. He was formerly with Mack Sennett. His first picture will be "Celebrity," in which Lina Basquette, Robert Armstrong and Clyde Cook will be featured.

"Craig's Wife"

William DeMille is rounding up his plans for the production of "Craig's Wife," taken from the drama by George Kelly. He has recently completed finishing touches on "Tenth Avenue."

Gets M-G-M Contract

Earl Baldwin, scenarist, who recently completed "Brotherly Love," new prison-reform comedy, and who worked on "Detectives," has been placed under contract to write exclusively for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

An H. M. Walker Title

"Imagine My Embarrassment" is the title conferred upon Charley Chase's most recent Hal Roach M-G-M comedy, by H. M. Walker, vice-president of the Hal Roach Studios, and official "christener" of the institution. Gene Morgan, noted master of ceremonies and band leader, will appear as a butler in support of Chase.

Rayart Starts 1928-29 Program

THE first Rayart production of the new season has been put into work on the West Coast. It is a Trem Carr Production, directed by Scott Pembroke and is called "The Divine Sinner," by Robert Anthony Dillon, it features Vera Reynolds, borrowed from the De Mille organization; John Peters, Nigel de Brulier, Ernest Hilliard, Carol Lombard and Barney Seigal. It will be ready for release July 1st.

The second production to go into work will be "The Man from Headquarters," adapted from George Bronson-Howard's "The Black Book." This will be directed by Duke Worne. The third picture, also to be directed by Pembroke, is to be "Sisters of Eve," an adaptation of E. Phillips Oppenheim's "The Tempting of Tavernake." Pembroke will take a company to England for this production.

Stays with Educational

Stephen Roberts will continue as director of Educational pictures. Mr. Roberts signed a new contract following his return from a vacation in Canada and Oregon. Roberts has directed two-reelers for Educational for the past three years, having made 16 comedies. Jack White will continue to supervise the Roberts comedies.

Kerry Must Pay

Norman Kerry, former Universal star, will have to pay D. A. Hamburger $2,351 as the result of an automobile accident several weeks ago. Kerry was not driving the car at the time it struck Hamburger, who is a local merchant and business leader.

Returns to N. Y.

Charles Francis Coe, Saturday Evening Post writer, who has been spending the past few months on the Coast, writing an original for Victor McLaglen, Fox featured player, has returned to New York City.

Neville Signed Again

Some time ago John Thomas Neville, former newspaper man and publicity writer, joined the scenario staff of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Now he has been signed to remain on the Metro lot and write exclusively for that company, for whom he wrote "Spoilers of the West" and "Winners of Wilderness," starring Tim McCoy, "The Enchanted Island," and "Beyond the Sierras."

"Terror" Cast Chosen

Roy Del Ruth, who is preparing to direct "The Terror," as an all Vitaphone production for Warner Brothers, has selected his cast and awaits only a June starting date. May McAvoy and Edward Everett Horton will play the leads. In the line-up will be Louise Fazenda, Alec B. Francis, Mathew Betz, Holmes Herbert, Otto Hoffman and Joseph Girard.

Ruggles Assigned Film

Wesley Ruggles has been selected by General Manager Robert Welsh, of Universal, to direct Mary Philbin in "Salvage."

Change of Title

The Johnny Hines starring vehicle for Burr-Hines Enterprises which is nearing completion at Tec-Art Studios will be called "The Wright Idea." This title supplants that of "Black Magic," under which the original story by Jack Townley, a Hollywood columnist, was written. Latest additions to the cast includes J. Barney Sherry and Henry Barrows.

Seiter and Moore

William A. Seiter is to direct Colleen Moore in another First National picture, namely, "Synthetic Sin."

Conducted by
An Exhibitor for Exhibitors

BOX OFFICE PROBLEMS

By Charles E. Lewis
Managing Director, Capitol Theatre, Middletown, Conn., and Palace Theatre, Norwich, Conn.

Personality in Management

Since we have been saying so many things about the small town perhaps it were time that we said something about the small town manager. "He" is a subject that will provide many interesting angles, because he is the most important cog in the machinery of the average small town theatre.

There has been one point about the small town manager that has been opened to a lot of discussion at various times. It has been argued pro and con wherever and whenever such managers or theatre owners get together and we don't believe the argument will ever end just because there are so many angles to this kind of a discussion.

Here's the point: Should a manager in a small town be a "Good" fellow. Should he conduct himself in public like a native of the town? Should he use a certain amount of reserve and restrain in his contact with others? These and many other questions are not the easiest to answer, possibly because the answers depend on two things. The man himself, and the town in which he is working. We can only offer our own actual experiences and reactions to this most interesting angle on small town showmanship. We would, however, like to hear from some of our readers so as to get other views.

In one of our towns we had a manager who formerly came from a larger city and had experience in small towns previous to that. He joined several fraternal organizations in town and mixed well with certain folks. Our first impressions were very favorable regarding this man, but as time went on we found that he was mixing too much with certain classes and ignoring others to the point of hurting their feelings. In our humble opinion, a manager should be well acquainted with those people of the town who are active in civic matters, public utilities and any others who can be of some material aid to the theatre if the necessity arises. Letting certain people in town slap you on the back and call you by your first name is all right if it doesn't go too far and is confined to just those people whom you are willing to become very friendly with. But if you extend this privilege to too many, then that mythical paradise which the average small towner calls the theatre, loses its charm and you are just another man of the town.

Then we had another man in still another town, who might be termed the direct opposite to the first. He carried himself with so much restraint, held himself so aloof that folks, little and big, poor and rich, had him labeled as a "high-hatter." They took great delight in finding fault around the theatre so that they could go and abuse him. He was, however, the type of man who ran his theatre perfectly but made friends with nobody, and although he was nice in his manners he could get no one in town to warm up to him. Tradespeople who wanted to tie up with the theatre on any kind of a stunt were either reluctant or afraid to approach him. Even on the floor he gave the impression that he was high-hatting everyone. Perhaps he never meant anything by it, but never the less that was the way he was figured. So far as meaning anything to the public at large, he could hide himself away in his office for months at a time and no one would miss him. So the value of his running the theatre so efficiently was lost in the inability to make friends and get the support of local people who might mean something to the house.

What would be the happy medium?

We should venture the suggestion that a little of each man described above, plus a little common sense and tact, would make for the best type of small town managers.

This subject offers so many interesting possibilities that we do not want to drop it entirely. We would appreciate hearing about it from towns where the conduct of the theatre manager is carefully observed. We will reproduce any letters that are interesting.

One of the first letters received after the appearance of this new department was from Wm. Applegate Jr., Supervising Manager of the Schwartz Circuit in Brooklyn and Long Island. I quote a paragraph from his letter ". . . I happen to be one of those young men that are always trying to learn something new, so you can rest assured here is one party who will read the NEWS from now on."

Charles E. Lewis

That's the spirit Bill. And let us hope that many others will see the wisdom of your letter.

Another was from an exchange friend who says "Your department, in my opinion, fills a long felt necessity in the exhibition field of our business. Wise showmen will not only follow it closely, but should contribute to its success themselves."

Thank you Ned Mallouf, I am wishing for the same results.

C. E. L.

Will I Print a House Organ?

The subject of programs or house organs are generally being looked upon with favor wherever there is a progressive manager. Without a doubt any little program of attractive appearance will be read from cover to cover. You have in this item a most important and valuable asset, but are you using it to its best advantage and getting everything out of it that you should? You must admit that many theatre programs to-day, are just pieces of printing matter containing the names of the pictures for the current and coming weeks.

Why not make yours the mouthpiece of your theatre? Surely not for lack of material. You can pick up a copy of the NEWS of any week and find in it a wealth of interesting copy for your program. If it is printed locally and the costs start to mount, by reason of too much set-up, why just take a small back page ad, and you will find it self-supporting without necessarily making it a regular advertising program—which we admit has its drawbacks. Use the front page as a sort of editorial page wherein you can call attention to the "Service" your theatre renders to its patrons. Talk about the ventilation, about some great picture that you are plugging, and about a million and one different things. Get them into the habit of looking for the program and reading it from cover to cover. And above all create a good mailing list. Its value in the small towns is far greater than in any big city. If you don't believe it, just park your car near a group of mail boxes on the Rural Delivery Route, and watch them dive for those boxes as soon as the mail man puts in his appearance. Receiving mail is always one of the day's greatest events in such places. And you can wager your last dollar that if your program is in that mail box it is going to be read from beginning to end, and if you have something coming to your theatre that is particularly interesting they are going to make every effort to attend. The theatre program holds the interest only second to the local paper. There are so many angles that can be utilized in this connection that every manager should build up a good strong mailing list.

Work With Local Organizations

How about your local Chamber of Commerce? Do you take advantage of all the possibilities it offers? Here is an angle that with a little common sense can turn business your way time and time again.

There are always some activities going on in town sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. You should belong to it, and you should be on all the active committees that might give you a chance to turn some business your way.

"We" are on the educational, boy's work, and other committees and have already engineered several big events into the doors of the theatre. Right at this moment the National Boys' Week campaign is under way and we have sponsored a boys exhibit with contributions coming from all the organized boys clubs, Y. M. C. A. Junior Achievement, Farm Bureau, public schools, and scouts working like Trojans to outdo each other. All of these exhibits including about fifty independent exhibits, will be on display for boys' week in the lobby and on the mezzanine floor of the theatre. Thousands of people will come in to see these exhibits and the newspaper is giving it plenty of space. We don't care whether the people who come to see the exhibits buy tickets or not. They will see plenty in the lobby about our pictures and shows that they might ordinarily miss seeing. And we are co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce in a worthy cause.

Then how about that semi-annual Fashion show—run with the backing of the Chamber? All the trade-members forming a committee and your theatre staging the show? WOW—what a business getter that has always been (and the merchants pay the bills). The funny part of it is that it's begging for you to get behind and cash in on it. Wake up brothers, don't try and outsleep our old friend Rip-Van-Winkle.

Around the Christmas holidays you can form a committee of the secretary of the Chamber, the local newspaper editor and yourself and sponsor a Kiddies morning show. What a whale of publicity you can grab off and the only expense is the operator and juice to run the show. If you have vaudeville, let the acts contribute something in the way of entertainment. I've never yet met an actor or actress that wouldn't lend themselves to a cause like this, and the newspaper likes the idea because they are in on it.

Keep your eyes and ears open as to every activity of your Chamber of Commerce and whenever you see a chance to tie in with them for the benefit of the theatre, go to it.

Make Use of Your Trade Paper

About the hardest task a trade paper can take upon itself is to make the average small town manager read all about the various exploitation stunts and suggestions that its columns offer. In talking about this particular item to several managers we find that most of them developed the idea that a stunt described in a larger city is of no use to them. Of course, to those who know exploitation this statement is absurd. There was never yet an idea put over in a big city that could not be localized for any size town or city. We recall the Finklestein & Rubin stunt on Harry Langdon's "Tramp-Tramp-Tramp"

(Continued on Page 1782)

Announcing

THE MANAGER'S ROUND TABLE CLUB

The wide-spread interest that our new department has created prompted us to organize the MANAGER'S ROUND TABLE CLUB, and we want every live-wire manager to send in his application as soon as he reads this announcement.

There are no restrictions of any kind. It is open to managers and exhibitors all over the world and the only initiation fee is your promise to send us whatever successful "stunt" or advertising campaign you put across that might benefit your brother members.

The Slogan of the Club is

"USE THE NEWS"

And it's an appropriate slogan since it contains a bit of good, money-making advice.

Don't forget to send us your photo when sending in your application.

The purpose of the club is to create a contact between managers throughout the country through the medium of the trade's leading publication—THE MOTION PICTURE NEWS.

Fill out your application and send it to me care of the NEWS, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

Charles E. Lewis
Chairman.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN "MANAGER'S ROUND TABLE CLUB"

I hereby apply for membership in the club and promise to send in, for publication, a complete description of every successful advertising campaign or exploitation that I put across.

Name .....

Address ..... Policy .....

Theatre ..... Capacity .....

City ..... State .....

Honorary Chairman
Wm. A. Johnston

Chairman
Charles E. Lewis

Exhibitors Service Bureau

Feature Guest Organists

Musicians Borrowed from Nearby Cities Proving Popular in Smaller Pennsylvania Towns

THEATRES in some of the smaller cities of Central Pennsylvania have hit upon a plan of increasing box office receipts by "borrowing" guest organists of well established reputations from theatres in larger nearby cities for brief periods. The idea is particularly applicable in communities where chains of theatres operate in adjacent cities under the same management, the stronger theatres of the chain lending their organists to their weaker members which cannot always afford to have a permanent organist. The plan, however, is by no means limited to chain theatres. Recently Manager George Gerth, of the Seltzer theatre, Palmyra, introduced W. E. Smith, console specialist of Wilmer & Vincent's Colonial theatre, Harrisburg, as guest organist with very satisfactory financial results.

Another application of the guest organist plan, with slight variations, occurred on May 21, 22 and 23 when the Victoria Theatre, Mahanoy City, and the Victoria, Shamokin, traded their organists for the three-day period. Professor Harold Beswick went from the Shamokin house to Mahanoy City and Professor Michael Stowitsky went from Mahanoy City to Shamokin. The plan worked especially well because the Mahanoy City theatre was presenting at the time the film version of "The Student Prince," and Professor Beswick had made a special study of the various numbers of the musical score of the operetta.

Theatre men are predicting that the guest organist plan will have a great vogue especially in small towns whose theatres want to give something special in the musical line with pictures that particularly require that sort of embellishment, such, for instance, as "The Student Prince."

"Harold Teen" Cartoons Used in Novel Exploitation

NOVEL use of the cartoon strips featuring "Harold Teen," cartoon character and now seen in a feature motion picture of that title, is being made at the theatres exploiting the film. Among two highly successful newspaper tie-ups reported on "Harold Teen" are the stunts staged by Con Hoobler, publicity and exploitation director for Blooming Theatres, Inc., and Bloomington, Ill., and Manager F. Hookailo of the Olympia theatre, Boston, Mass.

Hoobler put on a cartoon strip contest which he started more than three weeks in advance of the opening of the picture at the Irvin Theatre.

The drawings for a Harold Teen newspaper strip, minus the speeches of the characters, were printed, with spaces for the contestant to supply the conversation. Three thousand of the printed forms were distributed to the high school pupils of the city. The school papers reprinted the entire form and two weeks before the opening, Hoobler was already receiving answers to his contest.

The prizes were $10, $3, $2, and six pairs of tickets to the picture. A thousand replies were received in the contest.

Manager Hookailo tied up with the Boston Traveler in a coloring contest. The newspaper has been running the comic strips of Harold Teen and it was an easy matter to get this paper to come in on the tie-up.

For the best colored sets of the comic strip of Harold Teen, 50 sets of tickets to see the picture were awarded as prizes. All that was necessary to win one of the prizes was to color the comics using either crayon or paints.

In addition to running the contest, the newspaper further publicized the contest by running advance stories pertaining to the contest, picture, theatre and play dates as well as carrying banners on all their delivery trucks.

Displayed Oil Derrick to Exploit "Showdown"

Manager N. Prager borrowed a miniature oil derrick about seven feet in height from the Magnolia Petroleum Co., which was displayed in the lobby to advertise "The Showdown" at the Capitol Theatre, Oklahoma City.

The miniature derrick was complete in every detail with a motor concealed in a miniature pump house which animated the arm on the derrick.

The derrick was set in a jungle atmosphere made of beaverboard in the form of a stage setting with miniature lamps set in behind each set piece to give color.

Cut-outs from 8 x 10's were placed on the platform of the rig and the base of the display with a shadow box.

Girls on Roller Skates Ballyhoo Picture

Two pretty girls on roller skates went through the busiest streets of Los Angeles with signs on their backs reading, "Thanks for the Buggy Ride." No other publicity indicated why they skated home. The point of the stunt was driven home by other exploitation features which told that the comedy was playing at the Boulevard Theatre.

Showmanship

Brief

C. S. FERGUSON, manager of the Capitol theatre, Brandon, Manitoba, caused a local sensation in a street stunt for Harold Lloyd's "Speedy" by turning out with the first horse-drawn street car ever used in Manitoba. The ancient car was appropriately decorated and carried appropriate signs, a young man who resembled Harold Lloyd being engaged to drive it. The horse-drawn car made regular trips on all lines of the local trolley system and the passengers largely consisted of members of the Capitol theatre staff. Downtown streets became congested whenever the old car appeared.

MANAGER ROY L. SMART got more than he originally bargained for in the way of music store tie-ups for "Ramona," playing at the Florida theatre, St. Petersburg, Fla. The direct tie-up was with one of the largest music stores whereby they loaned an orthophonic victrola and the new record, "Ramona," for use on the stage during the showing of the trailer on "Ramona." The store turned over its entire window to a display of "Ramona" records.

SHEA'S BUFFALO ranked front-page space in the Buffalo Evening Times for more than a week on an excellent publicity tie-up whereby the paper produced a film called "The Penalty of Indifference," carrying a message of the danger to children in careless automobile driving. The picture is being shown at the Buffalo during the week of May 20. Buffalo youngsters made up the cast in the film, and each day, as the making of the picture was in progress, The Times carried a story on page one which always stated that the movie would be shown at Shea's Buffalo.

JOE SAPERSTEIN, handling Harmanus-Bleecker Hall in Albany, is making plans for a "perfect 36" contest the latter part of the month. It will run throughout the week with the finals on Saturday. Mr. Saperstein will cooperate with Albany merchants, who will contribute prizes for the winners.

JOHN THOMA, manager of the Avon theatre in Watertown, is conducting a beauty contest, the finals of which will be held at the Schine-Eckel theatre in Syracuse, in determining the young lady who will represent New York state at the Texas beauty carnival at Galveston next month.

MANAGER F. J. MILLER used a large beaverboard cut-out painted to represent a clock in his lobby to advertise "The Mad Hour," playing at the Modjeska theatre, Augusta, Ga. 8 x 10 stills were mounted on the face of the clock with similar stills just beneath the face of the clock.

THE management of the Lyric theatre, Allentown, inaugurated a policy, beginning April 26, of making advance sales of reserved seats for all performances. This policy seems likely to be adopted by many Pennsylvania theatres who see in it the advantage of being able to fill their houses on rainy days when persons who had not previously bought seats would be more likely to stay at home.

Suggests Idea to Improve Window Display Material

SPEAKING from the standpoint of experience in obtaining window displays to feature attractions at local picture houses, L. L. Levy, advertising and publicity director of Corsican Theatres, Inc., Corsicana, Tex., submits a suggestion for the improvement of material for this purpose put out by distributors in connection with their releases in a statement that will appear in the June Showman, to be published in Motion Picture News next week.

Theatre managers and theatre exploitation men who are interested in having better material to work with in their exploitation work should read Mr. Levy's statement and follow the suggestions he makes that his fellow showmen submit their ideas concerning this highly important phase of showmanship.

Read Mr. Levy's statement in the June Showman, it will prove well worth your time, and then tell us your ideas.

Wedding Ceremony Performed on Marquee of Theatre

MANAGER C. "BONES" SMITH of the Electric theatre, Kansas, City, Kansas, in a report to this department of one of the most unusual exploitation ideas used in conjunction with the marriage of a local couple and a tie-in with a drive by the local Chamber of Commerce to boost home town buying, describes in the following paragraphs the entire outline of his remarkable stunt.

Late last fall the Chamber of Commerce, Trade Division in this City put on an extensive advertising campaign aimed to sell people the idea of Trading in Kansas City Kansas with the Retail Merchants. All stores veiled their windows, and put on special window decorations. The first night of the week people came to see the windows and view the models. The second night the Theatre came into its own by having made arrangements for a public wedding and giving the Bride and Groom some $1000.00 of merchandise solicited from the various merchants. Everything furnished for them. The wedding ceremony was performed by a Minister on the Marquee in front of the theatre. Traffic was stopped and sent around the block. No street cars were allowed to run. A forty-five piece girls band seated on a stand across from the theatre with spot lights from the booth made a very attractive addition. This brought about ten thousand people down town for the second night of the week's campaign and the theatre is still talked of for its cooperation. On Friday of the same week the theatre arranged a Big Amateur Carnival which again showed the Theatre's willingness to help boost the Chamber of Commerce project.

The cost of this wedding to the theatre was the price of the wedding license which was rather inexpensive for the good will and business we received. Help boost your town and get on the band wagon.

Box Office Problems

By Charles E. Lewis

(Continued from page 1780)

which you might recall. It was published in detail some time ago in the NEWS. If you will, even now, dig up the copy and read it through you will readily see, if you are reading it for such a purpose, that many ideas suggest themselves to you in a smaller way. In one town we could not stage the cross country hike with shoes donated by a local shoe store, so we used the two large windows of the biggest shoe store in town and had a marathon on tread-mills with some unusual and unexpected results. Along about 5 P. M. on the first day the favorite of the two fell exhausted on the tread mill and neither one could last long enough to even start to wear out the shoes. It was a great tie-up and was really suggested by the F & R idea, merely brought down to the small town.

This is but one of the many ideas that suggested a means of following the big city exploitation idea. We will admit that a tread-mill race in place of a cross-country marathon is a long shot, but when we look back on the advertising the theatre and the shoe store received for their efforts then we call it a good idea.

An Assistant to the Manager

Just develop that "NEWS reading" idea and make your weekly issue pay you dividends on your subscription by finding some suggestions for increasing business within its pages. If you read it through with that idea in mind you are bound to find many valuable aids.

A manager once said to me "I wish I had an assistant, a man who can show me some advertising ideas, that is what my theatre needs and I lack that ability myself."

This department next week is going to show this manager that he has working for him an advertising man whose salary exceeds a quarter of a million dollars a year, and who is begging to be put to work.

If you think you cannot afford an assistant or a man to handle your advertising and exploitation then we will offer you one free of charge.

Awards for Winners of the "Speedy" Bike Race

One of the many things Manager C. T. Perrin did to advertise Harold Lloyd in "Speedy" at the Sterling Theatre, Greeley, Colo., was to hold a bike race.

All boys between the ages of ten and fifteen were eligible to compete in the "Speedy" boys' bicycle race which was held in honor of Lloyd's new picture, "Speedy."

The Tribune co-operated by running advance publicity on the stunt including two front-page stories. First prize was $5.00; 2nd prize—$3.00; and 3rd prize, a pass to the winner and ten of his friends to see the picture.

The Chief of Police arranged for no traffic obstruction at street intersections during the race. And banners were placed at the starting point announcing the "Harold Lloyd" race and the picture's engagement at the Sterling.

Seeks Applicants to Join "Legion of Condemned"

Manager John P. Read got a lot of publicity for "The Legion of the Condemned" at the Rialto Theatre, Colorado Springs, Colo., by passing out 1,000 application blanks.

The blanks were in the form of a small card and contained the following copy:

"Do You Want to Join—
The Legion of the condemned?"

Answer these questions, then present blank at Legion headquarters.

1. Could you laugh at death?
2. Would you flirt with death, and then court her as your sweetheart?
3. Would you, having tried everything else, go up in the air as cavalry of the clouds with no logical hope of returning?

The other side of the card was devoted to selling copy.

Log Fort Built in Lobby Sells "Men of Daring"

Manager P. D. Griffith made his lobby look like a log fort to advertise "Men of Daring" playing at the York Theatre, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Griffith went out in the woods and chopped down some small trees and then trimmed them and so constructed them in the lobby that the display presented sort of a stockade.

Leaves were scattered all over the floor of the lobby and a cut-out showing the front end of a covered wagon was put over the box office window to make it look exactly like a covered wagon in a stockade on the Western frontier.

Key City Reports

New York City

AGAIN, nothing which might be classed as sensational took place among Broadway theatres the past week, with the possible exception of the premiere of U. A.'s "Tempest," at the Embassy, a 500-seat, two-a-day house. This picture got off to an excellent start, received a lot of friendly criticism from the local papers and U. A. claims that standing room has been sold at every performance. The "specs" are also in on it and this, of course, is always flattering. It is said that seats are selling four weeks in advance.

Outside of the fuss raised by "Tempest" nothing much can be said except that Paul Ash proved an attraction at the Paramount and that the Rivoli beat its sister house, the Rialto, by a mile. The feature at the Paramount was "The 50-50 Girl" (Par), but it was Ash who brought the gate up to an average one. The Rialto did only fair with "Steamboat Bill" (U.A.), but the Rivoli came through with flying colors with "Ramona" (U.A.). This picture's title, in the shape of a song, has been plugged over radio and other places for the past several months, and whether exploitation or not, helped a lot to sell the title to the public.

The Strand did somewhat better than some preceding weeks with "Kentucky Courage" (known outside of N. Y. as "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come"). The N. Y. title probably brought back fond, old memories to this town's large army of wets, but of course Barthelmess' popularity must be credited with the increase. The Capitol put on a larger presentation than usual to compete with stiffer shows at other houses, but accounted for nothing beyond ordinary results. The Capitol's feature picture was Dane-Arthur in "Circus Rookies" (M-G-M).

The Roxy had a better than usual picture last week in "Hangman's House" (Fox), and that, coupled with the regular Rothafel program, brought the house up a bit. The Little Cameo let the German picture, "The Raider Emden" (Columbia), out after a three weeks' stay. Its returns were just so-so.

With the two-a-days, aside from "Tempest," last week's leaders, "Trail of '98" (M-G-M), "Wings" (Par.), "The Man Who Laughs" (U.), and "Street Angel" (Fox) retained their positions. "The Trail of '98" is doing consistently well for this season of the year and the same can be said for "Wings" and "Street Angel." At the Gaiety, "Four Sons" (Fox) is going along at a fair rate; likewise Warner's, with the Vitaphoned "Glorious Betsy" (Warner Bros.).

Again referring to Universal's "The Man Who Laughs," an announcement from Universal states that the past week set a new high record for the picturized Victor Hugo story and predicts that the film will stay at the Century well into the Summer months.

The weakest pair of specials on the street at present are "Mother Machree" (Fox), at the Times Square, and "Abie's Irish Rose," at the 44th Street. The last five days are being advertised for "Machree" and nothing much more can be said for "Abie" than has already been stated in this column. It certainly appears that Broadway's appetite for Irish-Jewish pictures has been satiated.

The Rialto will usher in Emil Jannings' latest, "The Street of Sin," on Saturday. Tom Mix and "Tony" are drawing them in the Hipp, and Tom and his pony are billed quite naturally—and honestly—over anything else in the big 6th avenue house.

Buffalo

BOX office receipts were not as satisfactory in Buffalo theatres last week as they should have been, in view of the brand of attractions offered. However, attendance generally was normal and, in some instances, better than average. Shea's Buffalo presented "The Love Mart" on the screen and it drew much favorable comment, but the stage revue, "Rio Romance," fell below expectations, although Joe Penner, comedian, went over big. Seems the public is about filled up to the ears with the Spanish costume stuff, the Argentine atmosphere productions, and kindred presentations.

Shea's Hippodrome fared very well with a strong screen and stage program. The picture was "Three Sinners," starring Pola Negri, and the vaudeville bill was headed by Ned Wayburn's "Buds of 1928." The Great Lakes turnstiles clicked with a regularity pleasing to the ears of Harry M. Addison, manager. Most of the patrons came to see Buck Jones and his horse, who were liberally exploited, in person, as headliners of the vaudeville bill. The picture was "Dressed to Kill."

The Lafayette had a good week with "Tenderloin," as a holdover feature film. The picture ran two weeks, but the second week's receipts didn't begin to approach the record-breaking returns of the first week. A well-balanced vaudeville program also was shown. Loew's State had a fair week with Norma Shearer in "The Actress" as the film attraction and Priscilla Dean in a personal appearance in a dramatic playlet as the stage headliner.

The neighborhood houses experienced the usual run of business.

Chicago

DULL business continues to worry Chicago theatre managers, the usual summer slump appearing to have arrived prematurely on the heels of an unusually lifeless early Spring season.

The Chicago Theatre had an average week with a bill which featured popular Norma Shearer in "The Actress" and under normal conditions should have gone over big, while for the same period "Hold 'Em Yale" on the screen and Mark Fisher's inaugural week show on the stage accounted for a fair weeks' business.

"The Street of Sin" continued its run at McVickers and was only moderately successful in attracting attendance. Another holdover was "We Americans at the Roosevelt where the box office reports were not so satisfactory.

A brighter note was struck at United Artists Theatre where "Sadie Thompson" with Gloria Swanson as the star awakened the public interest and did an excellent business.

Outside of the loop the outstanding feature of the week was Movietone's opening at the Granada and Marbro Theatres with extra advertising. Both houses offered "The Escape" as the screen feature, Vitaphone and stage acts, the combination bringing in good business.

Other de luxe regional theatres generally had an off week.

Philadelphia

CINEMA interest in Philadelphia last week centered in a world premiere of "Hangman's House," at the Fox theatre, simultaneously with the Roxy theatre in New York, a rare event in this city. In addition, the entire program was an exceptionally interesting one, including Roseray and Capella, Adagio dancers, Castleton and Mack, and Miss Frances Williams, and the Fox, in consequence, enjoyed an excellent week's business.

The Stanley, with Corinne Griffith in "The Garden of Eden" and an elaborate stage entertainment entitled "The Stanley Strutters," with Allan Rogers acting as master of ceremonies and including Jules and Josie Walton, the Eight English Mascots, the Lane Sisters, Caffery & Miller, and Milo, an imitator of various sounds, also played to good business.

The Victoria, with Virginia Valli in "The Escape," reports an average week.

"The Legion of the Condemned" has attained great success at the Aldine, but on account of bookings the engagement closes, to be followed by "Old San Francisco," with Dolores Costello and Vitaphone accompaniment.

The Arcadia, with "The Shepherd of the Hills," had only a fair week.

"Speedy," with Harold Lloyd, has been one of the greatest hits shown at the Stanton this year, and as a laugh getter it is unsurpassed. It will be followed by the "Patent Leather Kid," with Richard Barthelmess.

The Carmen this week presented Madge Bellamy, in "The Play Girl," on the screen, with a novelty revue entertainment in which Jessie Maker and William Redford offer a comedetta, "High Lights of Life," containing clever dancing, humorous skits and a dramatic scene, "The Big Parade." Enthusiastic audiences applauded the entertainment all week.

"Street Angel" continues to attract crowds at the Fox-Locust and the results have been very satisfactory.

The Palace, with Clara Bow, in "Red Hair," and the Karlton, with Lillian Gish, in "The Enemy," report average business.

Minneapolis

BUSINESS was just about average at Minneapolis last week. The State did a fairly good business with Lillian Gish in "The Enemy," while the Minnesota was rolling up about an average gross with Pola Negri in "The Three Sinners," supplemented by the Publix stage show "Milady's Fan." The Strand had Marion Davies in "The Patsy" for its final week of the season, and found the picture a very nice attraction. "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath" was at the Lyric, where it enjoyed a fairly brisk trade. Pantages showed Victor McLaglen in "Hangman's House" as a part of its regular vaudeville program, while the Hennepin-Orpheum was featuring "The Girl From Chicago."

Business at the neighborhood houses felt the effects of real summer weather to some extent. The Lagoon, Loring, American, Lyndale and Rialto were showing such pictures as "Rose Marie," "Helen of Troy," "The Spotlight," "Two Arabian Knights" and "Legion of the Condemned."

Atlanta

ATLANTA theatres enjoyed fair business last week, due partly to very warm weather and partly to a mediocre bill-of-fare.

The Rialto held the strongest fort with its second week run of "Tenderloin," accompanied by Vitaphone and Movietone newsreel.

The Capitol, showing "The Freedom of the Press," fell down from its pinacle of steady good business. Although it did not really suffer, the box-office received a setback. Although heralded far as an outstanding picture, patrons in general classified it mediocre, if not below par.

Richard Dix, at the Howard, in "Easy Come, Easy Go," plus a good vaudeville presentation, drew fair for that house.

Loew's Grand enjoyed an average week with "The Patsy," Marion Davies' latest. Loew's vaudeville did not stack up and the accentuated "low browness" drew some unfavorable comments.

Sue Carol, in "Walking Back," brought the Metropolitan a fair week.

Keith's Georgia, last, but perhaps on top, can claim the best all round bill for the week. Edmund Lowe and Mary Astor held the honors on the screen in "Dressed to Kill," while an exceptionally good vaudeville reigned from the stage. With the exception of the Rialto, with its innovation of Vitaphone and Movietone, which naturally are drawing cards, the Georgia led the box-office parade.

Three numbers, "The Devil's Trademark," "Avenging Fangs," and "Tom's Gang" held the Tudor steady.

Indianapolis

AVERAGE box office business was enjoyed last week by Indianapolis movie houses. Ideal spring weather helped boost movie attendance, making business somewhat normal.

Opening of the park season has failed to make a noticeable cut in attendance. Two local stock companies are getting their share of business from the first run houses.

May McAvoy and Conrad Nagel, in "If I Were Single," secured good patronage and were well received at the Indiana theatre. Charlie Davis' 1,000th performance week observance drew considerably. Indianapolis continues to prefer their local favorite, Charlie Davis, instead of Eddie Pardo, master of ceremonies at the Circle, another Skouras Publix house.

Pardo is in his sixth week here and is proving himself a popular showman, although confronted with strong opposition from the Indiana.

Mary Philbin, in D. W. Griffith's "Drums of Love," at Loew's Palace, played to satisfactory business.

Bebe Daniels, in "Fifty-Fifty Girl," registered the usual fair business at the Circle.

Al Jolson, in "The Jazz Singer," lived up to expectations at the Apollo.

Neighborhood houses reported a fair week.

San Francisco

THE past week both pictures and weather were suitable to San Franciscans. It was cloudy and on those days the people do not go to the local beach as they do on other days during the year.

Loew's Warfield was crowded both day and night with the showing of "The 50-50 Girl" and the presentation of "Japa-Knees," together with Rube Wolfe, as director, were the reasons for the great crowds. Pola Negri, in "Three Sinners," together with the Publix Revue, entitled "Havana," and other features, drew well at the Granada theatre.

The St. Francis theatre continued to draw crowds with "The Circus," with Chaplin, although this picture was not considered as good as his other productions. The California theatre has done better than it has done for many months during the past week, because of the picture with Emil Jannings, entitled "The Street of Sin."

"Burning Up Broadway," shown at the Golden Gate theatre, together with the acts of vaudeville, drew strongly at that theatre, as well as the Union Square theatre, with "Three Is a Crowd," "Her Huskie Hero" and "The Summer Hero," together with vaudeville acts.

During the week, two Ackerman, Harris & Oppen theatres played the same picture, "The Gaucho," in two of their theatres, the Coliseum and the Alexandria, both of which are in the same residential district, and very good business resulted from this idea.

Salt Lake City

SOME very good box office receipts were enjoyed at the downtown motion picture theatres here this past week, in spite of the fact that spring seems to have at last set in. The weather conditions in this section are still somewhat cooler than usual for this time of the year, however.

Corinne Griffith, in "The Garden of Eden," brought very satisfactory results to the Capitol theatre, with the Fanchon and Marco stage presentation, "In Holland," also proving to be a drawing card here.

It is announced that Ramon Novarro, in "Across to Singapore," which commenced at the Pantages the middle of the week, is breaking attendance records there. This is in addition to the vaudeville bill offered at this house.

Bebe Daniels and James Hall, in the comedy, "The Fifty-Fifty Girl," played to fairly large houses at the Paramount Empress, as did "No Place to Go," with Lloyd Hughes and Mary Astor, the Victory theatre comedy offering this past week.

Shirley Mason and Richard Arlen, in "Sally in Our Alley," did about average business at the American theatre, it is reported. Vera Reynolds, in "Almost Human," drew fairly good houses at the Gem, according to reports. The Rialto, a second run house here, did exceptionally well with "The Last Command," featuring Emil Jannings.

A special Mother's Day picture was presented as a second at the Towers, a suburban house here featuring Mary Carr in "Over the Hill."

The new State theatre enjoyed a good share of patronage during their second week's performance, having presented "The Spoilers of the West," with Marjorie Daw and Tim McCoy this week.

Des Moines

BUSINESS in Des Moines was off last week, whether due to the rainy weather was not definitely decided. "Old San Francisco," at the Des Moines, was considered a little heavy, while some fans were most enthusiastic. The Vitaphone drew them in there. At the Capitol, Jimmy Ellard, returning after a short vacation, got a big reception, although "The Actress" was not generally well received. The picture received most favorable criticisms and was well done in the care taken to accurately portray the period in which it was set. It seems, however, that Miss Shearer, who is gaining ground quite rapidly, is better liked in modern versions. "Ladies' Night at a Turkish Bath" was an attraction at the Strand, and "The Secret Hour" also did well.

General rains over the state have had some effect on business, though it is repeatedly stated that the box office shows up better than a year ago.

Albany

EVEN a personal appearance on the part of Theodore Roberts was not sufficient last week to bring packed houses to Proctor's Grand, where "Buck Privates" was the feature picture. Business simply did not come to the motion picture theatre of the city, no matter how much the exploitation or the attractiveness of the feature. On the other hand, large crowds greeted the legitimate at the Capitol Theatre, where such attractions as "Diplomacy" and "The Merry Wives of Windsor" packed the house to the roof at stiff prices prevailing.

The Leland, in connection with a week's run of "The Enemy" did heavy exploitation work, only to find that the crowds were lacking, at least for the first show of the evening, and to no great extent at the second show. Summer weather and daylight saving proved too heavy an obstacle for the motion picture theatres to surmount. Douglas Fairbanks in "The Gaucho" at the Mark Strand did only fair business, even though there were a couple of good Vitaphone presentations. At the Mark Ritz "Bringing Up Father" played to but fair houses. Even Harmanus-Bleecker Hall took a decided slump with its pictures and its vaudeville. This week this theatre is using Franklin Fairnum in person for three days in the hope of bracing business. Clinton Square Theatre in Albany did not do so bad, considering all things, with "The Crystal Cup" and "Their Hour," but the theatre is a small one at best.

The neighborhood houses reported business as being bad. Exhibitors from out of town visiting Albany's Film Row were inclined to complain.

In Troy the Troy Theatre split its week with "The Garden of Eden" running to fair business for four days, and "Hangman's House" doing little to brag about for the last three days. At the Lincoln, "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath" went over fairly well, but the house was forced to split its week and use "The Fortune Hunter" to three days of rather poor business. Theodore Roberts, in person, did his full share in attracting crowds to Proctor's Fourth street house.

Tampa

THE hot weather may have been the cause of a slight decrease in receipts the past week, though the houses here are always delightfully cool. The beaches are certainly getting 'em on Sunday afternoons and, as a consequence, the theatres are playing to little better than half the average attendance on the matinee. The night crowds still hold up good.

The Victory continues to lead the field with their Vitaphone and Movietone programs. This week's bill packed a powerful kick and went over fine. "Skyscraper" was the feature attraction. The Harrington Sisters, remembered here from vaudeville days, pulled the best hands in the Vitaphone presentations. Premier Mussolini was the star of the Movietone presentations.

The Tampa had a pretty fair week. "The Garden of Eden" was the feature of the first half and "Across to Singapore" the last half.

Rin-Tin-Tin, in "The Dog of the Regiment," drew a nice business for the Strand. It was featured for three days. "Three Sinners" and "Sporting Age," used two days each, did not do so well. Business hardly up to the average of the house.

The Franklin inaugurated a new summer schedule this week with four changes of program, two first runs and two second. "The Desert Bride" and "The Bandit's Son" were the first runs. "The Patsy" and "Sporting Goods" were the second runs. None of them developed much of a draw.

St. Louis

SOME rain and cool weather, coupled with unemployment and general adverse conditions, prevented the first run, combination and neighborhood houses from breaking any box office records during the week ending May 18th.

Fair to middling is the best that can be reported on any house.

Dolores Del Rio, in "Ramona," held the screen at Loew's State and, aided by Nat Nazarro's "Oddities" on the stage, pulled in its share of the business for the week.

At the Grand Central, "Glorious Betsy," with Dolores Costello and Conrad Nagel, was the Vitaphone offering for the week. The bill also included several Vitaphone short subjects. The Vitaphone has won its place in the amusement budget of St. Louisians, and, considering the seating capacity of the Grand Central, this program did very well.

"Mad Hour" was on the screen at the Ambassador theatre, but didn't have very much to do, if any, with the attendance for the week. As usual Ed Lowry, master of ceremonies extraordinary, was the best noise at the box office. Ed celebrated his 1000th appearance in St. Louis during the week and is well set toward his second 1000th show. "Lady Be Good" was on the screen at the Missouri and had an average week. It is an amusing and pleasing picture of life back stage. A fine comedy.

Dallas

WARM weather and outdoor attractions did nothing to help receipts at the Dallas first run theatres and the past week developed no big draws, although grosses for the week were not bad.

At the Melba, "Drums of Love," with Mary Philbin and Lionel Barrymore, proved to be only a fair draw, although it received much favorable comment.

The Majestic enjoyed a good week's business with "Daredevil's Reward," starring Tom Mix, and Interstate vaudeville, with the greater part of the credit going to the vaudeville headliner, Toto, the world famous clown.

"Thanks for the Buggy Ride," with Laura LaPlante and Glenn Tryon, at the Capitol, registered only fair receipts for the week.

At the Palace, "Ramona," with Dolores Del Rio, had an average gross for the seven day run.

"Love and Learn,' with Esther Ralston, at the Old Mill, brought average business.

"The Legion of the Condemned," featuring Gary Cooper and Fay Wray, at the Arcadia, enjoyed good business.

Baltimore

ONLY one of the first-run moving picture theatres here did an excellent business for the week beginning Monday, May 14. That was Loew's Century, where "The Patsy," starring Marion Davies, was shown with a stage presentation act called Cameos, featuring Ted Claire with his orchestra and other vaudeville headliners. This picture was given extra publicity and advertising in the two Hearst newspapers, the American and News here.

While "Laugh, Clown, Laugh," starring Lon Chaney, went over pretty well during its second week at Loew's Valencia, it did not do the business expected, and really pulled them in on Chaney's personal attraction here.

At the Keith-Albee New Garden Theatre, with the prices lowered to the regular 60-cent top at night, "The Haunted Ship," starring Dorothy Sebastian and Montagu Love, proved a good pulling attraction with seven acts of Keith-Albee high class vaudeville.

At Keith's Hippodrome, where "Good Morning, Judge," featuring Reginald Denny, was shown, with five acts of Keith-Albee family time vaudeville, business went along fairly well throughout the week.

The Stanley had a fairly good week with "Lady Be Good," co-starring Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall. On the stage was Anatole Friedland in person with his Club Anatole Revue.

The foreign-made production, "The Trial of Donald Westhof," was presented at the Little Theatre by the Motion Picture Guild, but although this picture was excellently directed and acted, it proved only a poor business puller at that 250-seater.

The Maryland, a legitimate house, went over to pictures for the week, "The Port of Missing Girls" being presented by the Equity Theatres Corporation of Philadelphia on a rental policy. The regular movie rates prevailed, but business throughout the week was very poor, even though it was presented continuously each day.

Business at Warners' Metropolitan fell down heavily with "Rinty of the Desert," starring Rin-Tin-Tin and Vitaphone attractions on the same bill.

Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE theatres finished one of the poorest weeks this season the past week. The first day of the week started fairly well. Sunday matinee business was nil, for the German-Irish fliers paraded down Wisconsin avenue, and it was estimated that less than one hundred patrons could be found in any of the down town theatres during the afternoon. Rainy weather managed to hold down receipts for the balance of the week.

"Sadie Thompson" had a fair run at the beginning of the week at the Garden. "The Showdown" drew very moderate business to the Wisconsin. "Hot Heels" was fairly well attended at the Alhambra. "Dressed to Kill" was accorded very slim patronage at the Merrill. "The Patent Leather Kid" was held over for a second week at the Strand and was fairly successful. "Soft Living" was the photoplay feature at the Riverside. Business here was a little more brisk.

The Orpheum succeeded in drawing good houses throughout the week. "A Blonde for a Night" was the picture here.

Five neighborhood houses installed Vitaphone, which was initiated this week—the Oriental, Garfield, Uptown, Tower, and Modjeska. The feature at these theatres was "Speedy," and at all business was unusually good.

Kansas City

EXPLOITATION on cooling systems, confined chiefly to trailers, prepared first run houses of Kansas City to be well fortified for the unusual hot weather the past week, and business, while there was no increase, did not show any slump, as usually is the case during the first warm week here.

At Loew's Midland, Clara Bow, in "Red Hair," did a good business all week, surpassing the attendance mark of the previous week. Richard Dix, in "Easy Come, Easy Go," and Sid Chaplin, in "Skirts," comprised the split-wek program at the Newman, the former picture drawing slightly more than the latter, although the attendance at neither picture reached a basis of profit, toward which the Newman has been struggling since the opening of Loew's Midland last fall. Both theatres are under the same control.

"Honor Bound" did a good business at the Pantages, while the attendance attracted by "Braveheart" at the Liberty was fair, as was "A Dog of the Regiment" at the Globe. Nothing unusual in the way of exploitation was used by any of the houses.

Ottawa

THERE was a sort of off-period for the theatres of Ottawa, Ontario, during the week of May 14, for a variety of reasons. Warm weather made its inroads into patronage for one thing, and then the features at two of the principle theatres hardly measured up to expectations.

"Blue Danube," at B. F. Keith's theatre, proved to be a colorful feature and it proved a popular attraction, the vaudeville section of the program being particularly excellent.

The crowd did not seem to like "The Dove," starring Norma Talmadge, at the Regent theatre, and patronage took a drop. A few even wrote letters of complaint to Manager Ray Tubman.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," at the Centre theatre, was up to the standard of Barthelmess' features and was well-liked by regular patrons. Some stayed away, however, because they did not like this type of story.

There was disappointment over the feature at the Imperial theatre. This was presented as "Man and Woman," but the original title was "Man, Woman and Sin," the sin having been deleted by the Ontario censors. The rest of the picture was apparently whitewashed by the Board of Censors. Patronage tapered off when word got around.

The neighborhood houses had a big time of it. The Columbia theatre, for instance, gave plenty but got plenty in return, the bill including "Colleen"; "Hawk of the Hills," a serial; a comedy and a news weekly. The Fern theatre cashed in prettily with this program: "Gorilla," the feature; "Listen Lena," comedy, and chapter 8 of "Melting Millions."

At the Rex theatre the crowds of youngsters and adults were cheering for "Arizona Nights," in which Fred Thompson and Silver King appeared.

Harrisburg, Pa.

HARRISBURG theatres already have begun to feel the adverse effects of the arrival of summer outdoor amusements and kindred counter attractions, and the same may be said of Central Pennsylvania cities and towns in general. The season for the appearance of carnivals and circuses and for the opening of outdoor dancing pavilions is at hand, and Harrisburg this week had to compete also with the four-day Mozard Musical Festival which drew materially from the usual movie crwods.

Though Lon Chaney attractions normally have a big following in the city, there were a good many vacant seats in Loew's Regent during the week's run of the Chaney film, "Laugh, Clown, Laugh," notwithstanding the play seemed to meet with the approval of the newspaper critics. There was a falling off of the usual crowds at the Colonial, too, where the feature film was the aviation comedy, "Flying Romeos," starring George Sidney and Charlie Murray. The Victoria's patronage, on the other hand, stood up fairly well, considering the counter attractions, with the offering of Gary Cooper in "Doomsday," which was attributed in part to the fact that "Sorrell and Son," by the same author, made an exceptional hit in Harrisburg a few months ago.

The screen attraction at the State the last three days was "Hangman's House," with Victor McLaglen, and it met with a fair degree of popular approval. "The Smart Set" was shown in two of the city's second run theatres for part of the week, proving a good attraction at both the Russell and the Broad Street. The National offered Douglas Fairbanks in "The Gaucho," which had drawn big crowds to Loew's Regent a few weeks before.

Cincinnati

THE past week in movie circles in the Queen City, although satisfactory as a whole, could have been considerably better. Business was off color, due, no doubt, to the gradually increasing warm weather, and the opposition from some of the outdoor resorts who are featuring "first-look days."

Richard Dix, in "Easy Come, Easy Go," at the Albee, had good crowds for the greater part of the week. The picture had the advantage of the advertising from a recent stage (stock) presentation of the play.

The Lyric, with "Ramona," held up nicely throughout the week, Dolores Del Rio being considerably of a favorite with Cincinnati fans.

"The Cohens and Kellys in Paris," at B. F. Keith's, did an average business. There was no occasion for turning 'em away.

"The Skyscraper," at the Capitol, fared somewhat better than the other houses. The picture was well received, as were also the week's features of Vitaphone and Movietone.

"Little Mickey Grogan," first half, and "So This Is Love?" last half, drew fairly well, although this house, which shows at reduced admissions, has its own particular following.

The Strand had a good week with Irene Rich in "The Desired Woman."

The closing of the legitimate theatres, as also the Walnut (movie) should bring increased returns for the other houses from now on, and managers are rather optimistic in this regard.

Seattle

NONE of the city's leading film houses made any startling box office records during the last seven days. Business is rather below average, and the keen competition between "presentation" houses, vaudeville, etc., is making it impossible for anyone to show big reports.

Considering capacity of house and number of patrons during the week, John Hamrick's Blue Mouse theatre was probably the big money-getter for the week. "Tenderloin" was the attraction, and a three-week advance campaign had the city well prepared for the arrival of the big "talkie." They liked the film. Business was big—second only to the opening weeks of "The Jazz Singer"—and the film goes into a second week.

"The Enemy," at the Seattle theatre, was a very fine attraction, but a trifle out of the popular film taste. However, it was strongly advertised, and in conjunction with a Publix revue entitled "The Fast Mail" it played to pleasing houses. Business here is below what it should be for the successful operation of the theatre.

At the Fifth Avenue theatre, "Across to Singapore" was the atraction and most audiences liked the film and its cast very well. Jack Waldron, former musical revue entertainer, made his bow as a singing and dancing master of ceremonies with moderate success. Fanchon-Marco's "Pan-Americana" idea on the stage was below par. The bill opened big for three days, but then fell down to average business.

At the Columbia theatre, "Good Morning, Judge" played to fair business, attracting just about the usual number of film-goers. The house is still below par, with apparently no chance to build it up again at the same 50c admission charge as collected at the big houses.

"Drums of Love," at the United Artists theatre, was an interesting film from the production standpoint, but failed to arouse any audience enthusiasm, and the picture did only a mediocre business. One week was plenty for this one, with box office slightly below normal.

"A Girl in Every Port," at Pantages, had the call over "The Count of Ten," at the Orpheum theatre, as far as the vaudeville houses are concerned, and business was far from strong at either house. The new Orpheum policy of continuous unreserved shows at 50c top is not a financial success, and the calibre of vaudeville and film attractions is rapidly losing patronage for this one-time leading theatre.

At the Embassy theatre, "Stranded" played to the usual average business. The second run downtown houses are showing poor reports as a result of first run shows at rock-bottom admission prices, and the fact that this city is overseated is becoming more apparent each day.

Cleveland

IT is with great pleasure that the jinx can be reported out of business, and that all of the local theatres enjoyed being in business last week. Whether it was the psychological week for theatre attendance, or whether the attractions were particularly alluring, who can say? Whatever the reason, the results were most gratifying not only in the matter of dollars and cents, but also in keeping up the morale among theatre owners.

Tom Mix and his pony, 'Tony," in a personal appearance, walked off with first honors last week. Keith's Palace played to capacity-plus business for every performance. Reginald Denny, in "That's My Daddy," was selected as the screen attraction best fitting the occasion. The picture, somewhat different from the usual Denny picture, was well liked. However, it was difficult to get a slant on the picture when the audience's whole interest was centered in Mix. "The Enemy," Lillian Gish's latest release, scored a decided success at the Stillman, and is being held over another week. Ward Marsh, Motion Picture Editor of The Plain Dealer, says, "Miss Gish won her first "A" in "The Scarlet Letter"; she easily wins her second film "A" in "The Enemy."

The Allen had big houses consistently all week with Richard Barthelmess in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" as the feature, a picture similar to "Tol'able David," both in subject matter and in appeal. "Vamping Venus," a lot of fun about not much of anything, very well done by Louise Fazenda and Charlie Murray, attracted large audiences at the State and kept them laughing all the time they were in the theatre, which, after all, is a good comedy gauge. Reade's Hippodrome had unusually large attendance all week with "Horseman of the Plains," a Mix picture, which won added response from the public on account of Mix' personal appearance in the city. "Stand and Deliver," an unusually colorful and romantic picture, pleased large audiences at Keith's East 105th Street. Loew's Park did well with a first-run neighborhood showing of "Laugh, Clown, Laugh," one of Chaney's masterpieces. "Wings," road show attraction at the Colonial, continues to attract large crowds, although it is now in its sixth week. It will be continued. The Oriental had a good week with "The Russian Revolution" as the feature. It's interesting, instructive, and not at all inflammable in its context.

Neighborhood houses did not enjoy the same success that the downtown houses did. The majority of them report that business was normal—meaning that it continues to be poor.

"Name the Woman" Will Be a May Release

"Name the Woman" is Columbia's third May release, ready for exhibitors on May 25.

News Reel Resume

Pathe News, No. 43, has a special release of the Kentucky Derby. The four other items presented by this reel were: Colonial pageant at Annapolis; coast defense guns in practice at Fort Story, Va.; new French plane which will try Atlantic hop; bridal ceremonies of Seattle girl who married Maharajah of Indore.

No. 44 showed snapshots of principals of Mandell-McLarnin bout; Gov. Smith operating a linotype machine and doing other press work; the first gorilla born in captivity in Germany; the young Nebraska boy who has won fame because of his smoking proclivities at the age of three; King George installing Knights of the Bath; Coolidge speaking at academy celebration; little King Mahai inspecting his soldiers at Bucharest; Navy pilots in play in the clouds above Honolulu.

Issue No. 85 of Paramount News contained views of the Prince of Wales presenting golf trophy to Walter Hagen; pageant marks commemoration of colonial days at Annapolis; anti-aircraft batteries of Fort Totten, N. Y., show their power; Tom Heeney and Gene Tunney in training; monument honoring Nungesser, Coli and Lindbergh unveiled in Paris; a dizzy drive for auto speedsters; planes bombing balloon at Fort Crockett, Texas; the Kentucky Derby.

No. 86 told of the huge oil fire at Midland, Texas; 30-year-old Chicago mother who established new swimming endurance mark; Birmingham workmen clean 25-year-old statue; Queen Mary dedicating English hospital; Chinese diplomat arrives in N. Y.; Vienna's workers march; new lion cubs at Gay's Farm; Coolidge at anniversary celebration of the Philips Academy; 200,000 Roumanian peasants in demonstration against reigning government; airmen in thrilling maneuvers over Washington, D. C.

In M-G-M News, Vol. 1, No. 80, were scenes showing the parade of crack British troops before King George; anti-aircraft guns in action; triplet sons, who look alike; memorial for airmen unveiled in Paris; Japanese war canoes in stirring regatta; baby squirrel being fed from a bottle; Walter Hagen and the Prince of Wales; airplane flight around the summit of Mount McKinley; girls join the Fascisti and drill before Mussolini.

No. 81 gave accounts of Joie Ray's comeback in marathon run; Hagen winning before the Prince of Wales; flower festival in San Jose, Cal.; Mexican riders in exhibition before President Calles; society girls frolicing on the beach at Waikiki; Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge at Sesquicentennial celebration of Philips Academy; the Kentucky Derby; Japan honoring the Mikado's birthday.

Vol. 9, No. 67, of Fox News, included in its contents the celebration of Tutuila, South Sea Isle, on the anniversary of coming under the protection of the U. S.; Lindbergh's plane dismantled for museum; an animal novelty; the Bremen crew acclaimed in Chicago and Milwaukee; the tallest bridge in the world over the Snake River Canyon in Idaho; boy wins title of tumbling champ; herds of Angora goats in Oregon; Spain's entry into beauty show to

Opinions on Pictures

The Yellow Lily

Attractive Shots—But Story is Weak

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

IT seems to be quite a task to find a story measuring up to Billie Dove's stature as an actress. This star has talent which has been displayed upon occasions, but, for the most part she is allowed to see it buried in plots which could be interpreted by one endowed with half her ability. Still the girl has that beauty. And no matter how her stories go over you can't deny that she can decorate them.

The present story is one of those royal doo-dads—which has the Glynish glamour or the tints of a Graustarkian background. And into its plot appears an Hungarian archduke whose game is women. He sheiks around until he is captivated by the belle of a village, and after a bit of by-play with pistols the story ends with the customary fadeout. It is neatly staged and the settings are truly picturesque. So are the costumes.

The story tries to be sophisticated, and had it been produced in Germany it might have carried a kick at that. But fear of censorship has kept it within bounds and so it happens to be just an ordinary film. Clive Brook makes a good appearance and the others are competent.

Drawing Power: Satisfactory for neighborhood houses and all other types. Exploitation Angles: Play up star and her beauty. Tease the title. Bill as romance of court life.

Produced and distributed by First National. Length, six reels. Released, May 20, 1928. The Cast: Billie Dove, Clive Brook, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Marc MacDermott, Eugenie Besserer, Nicholas Soussanin, Jane Winton, Charles Puffy. Director, Alexander Korda.

The Devil's Skipper

A Strong Narrative

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

IT is not often that roles are as strongly portrayed as is Belle Bennett's playing of a woman skipper of a slave ship. Nor does the average story of the sea hold forth as many powerful situations as does this Jack London tale, an adaptation of his "Demetrious Contos." With power lurking in her performance and the burden of the picture resting on her shoulders, the production drives home because of Miss Bennett's meritorious and straightforward characterization.

Jack London's is a good name to feature prominently in the billing. His realistic knack of writing has brought him thousands of admirers. In this story the motif is the problem of a woman commander of a hell ship planning to revenge herself upon her husband. Having come on board her ship presumably to inspect her cargo of slaves, the man and his daughter find themselves in the power of the woman, who offers the girl to the crew while the father, a captive, watches helplessly. With a surge the drama bursts over the woman when she finds that the girl is her child. Seeking to save her from one of the sailors she is stabbed. Dying she sees her daughter and husband being rowed ashore to future happiness.

To achieve a strong vigor would have meant better direction than John G. Adolfi has turned in. As it is the story with its powerful theme is but rarely colored with forceful directional touches. Montagu Love stands above the supporting cast very prominently.

Drawing Power: Should draw in all houses. Exploitation Angles: One of your best bets is the author's name. Feature Miss Bennett and Love.

THEME: Drama of a mother, who was tricked by her husband and sold to a slave ship, leaving behind a child whom she thought dead. Placed in a position to revenge herself upon the man, she is about to give his girl to her rowdy crew when she learns that the victim is her own flesh and blood. She is stabbed while saving her from one of the sailors and later dies.

Produced and distributed by First National. Released, Feb. 1, 1928. Length, 5,510 feet. The Cast: Belle Bennett, Montagu Love, Mary McAllister, Cullen Landis, Gino Corrado, G. Raymond Nye, Pat Hartigan, Adolph Millar, Phillip Sleeman, Frank Leigh. Adaptation of London story by John Francis Natteford. Director G. Adolfi.

The 50-50 Girl

Bebe Is Good, But Needs Hotter Stuff

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

THIS isn't a bad little comedy as comedies go. It has a slight idea and does present a few laughs here and there. But in the main the laughter is tucked away in moth-eaten situations. The plot itself is quite provocative of interest—in that it exploits a girl who thinks she can do a man's job—and get away with it. So meeting her man, they exchange places—and what follows gives Bebe Daniels the opportunity to release some laughs. Anyway, she injects enough spirit and abandon into her characterization, and makes things hum. The star gives a great performance, but she really should have bigger and better stories.

It isn't a picture which will lose her any of her following. And she gives the part enough shading to make it interesting. The romance is properly developed, and the girl, sadder and wiser over her experience is willing to settle down and play the woman. James Hall does some creditable acting, though his opportunities are limited like Bebe's. The piece is staged in a fitting manner.

Drawing Power: Title is alluring. And star has a public. Okay for average houses or first runs surrounded by strong program. Exploitation Angles: Tease the title and exploit the desire of woman to do man's work in this modern era. Play up star.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Length, six reels. Released, May 12, 1928. The Cast: Bebe Daniels, James Hall, William Austin, Johnnie Morris. Director, Clarence Badger.

Wilful Youth

Good Independent Production

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

THE sum of entertainment in the story of "Wilful Youth" is a pleasing one. Laid in a lumber camp and with the natural setting that such a locale offers, the story is so laid out by Director Dallas M. Fitzgerald that it holds the interest, even in its most climatic parts where generally a story is either muffed or played with a winning hand. Kenneth Harlan and Edna Murphy are the leads and in their respective roles they play restrainedly and with no obvious shortcomings.

In the story you have an older brother who does his best to implicate his younger brother in a murder. A tragic figure, that of a wronged girl, wanders throughout the first portion of the tale but is killed off under circumstances which point to the younger brother as responsible for the crime. The actors make their problems very real so that the studio atmosphere of make believe is not in evidence to the degree it is present in the average independnt production.

A good attraction for the majority of houses.

Drawing Power: Okay for second run and neighborhood trade or for houses where vaudeville forms part of the program. Exploitation Angles: Concentrate on the two leads and the lumber camp location.

THEME: Younger brother of a millionaire lumber king, deprived of his share in the father's fortune because of the elder brother's double dealing, is wrongfully accused of killing a girl, whose death is really due to the rascally elder brother. On the night of the killing, however, the accused had been with his fiance and she proves his innocence and implicates the elder brother as the guilty party. The murderer commits suicide leaving the road to happiness open to the two.

Produced by Dallas M. Fitzgerald. Distributed by Peerless Pictures (S. R.) Released, December, 1927. Length, 5,500 feet. The Cast: Kenneth Harlan, Edna Murphy, Jack Richardson, Walter Perry, James Aubrey, James Florey, Eugenie Forde, Arthur Morrison. Story by Edith S. Tupper. Continuity by Ada Mc Quillan and Gladys Gordon. Director, Dallas M. Fitzgerald.

"Old Wives Who Knew"

(Fox—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

THERE'S a deal of comedy in most of the sequences of this short subject. Hallam Cooley, Jimmy Finlayson and Anita Garvin are enabled to [illegible] material at hand. The cock-and-bull story that Cooley tells his wife after imbibing freely at a party is amusing as well as ludicrous.

He gives various reasons why his wife has [illegible] bandits and alluring Oriental maidens beguiles her for a while, but at recurring intervals she becomes suspicious, which suspicions the hubby has to dispel by adding another sequel to the story. By the time he has finished, the tale has grown into a mountainous concoction of lies.

A good laugh number.

Something Always Happens

Mystery Melodrama—Moderately Interesting

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

ONE can't complain over Esther Ralston's newest picture. Built on a mystery angle, naturally it goes melodramatic. And as things shape up it comes through as plenty good enough. The idea bobs up around the efforts of a youth to tame his sweetheart who develops an excitement complex. The girl just craves one thrill after another. So in the hopes of curing her the boy resorts to much practical joking. To keep the thing on the move and kicking with suspense a real crook enters the story. From his entrance and through the finish the action stirs up plenty of adventure in a typically melodramatic manner.

The background is the English countryside, and the director has captured the environs of Hollywood to make them look genuinely atmospheric. To explain the background the hero is a member of an English family—and his fiancee is an American girl visiting his parents.

It is packed full of incident and never allows itself to become duly serious. Indeed, the director has modeled it along satirical lines. And thus saves it from becoming one of those things. Miss Ralston's beauty is charmingly set off—and her talent is O K too. Others who help the picture are Sojin and Neil Hamilton.

Drawing Power: Good for first runs and first class houses. Would be suitable for any type of theatre. Exploitation Angles: Would tease the title. Feature beauty of star. Bill as adventure story of girl seeking thrills. Feature Neil Hamilton.

THEME: Comedy-drama of adventurous girl who is tamed by her fiance.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Length, 4,792 feet. Released, March 24, 1928. Cast: Esther Ralston, Neil Hamilton, Sojin, Roscoe Karns, Lawrence Grant. Director, Frank Tuttle.

A Thief in the Dark

Thrilling Crook Play

(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

THIS Fox production of crooks and mysticism falls just short of being a really good photoplay, one out of the ordinary. As it is it holds the interest fairly well throughout, though it is permitted to drag a little here and there. Its ultimate outcome is also a little bit too obvious for a play of the type.

It is good entertainment, however, with enough of romance and comedy mixed with the more thrilling action to make it appealing to almost any audience. The story has to do with a band of circus crooks, of which Professor Zeno, a mystic, is the master mind In his seances he gets information from his subjects that reveals to him the hiding place of valuables and then he details one of his crooks to the job of bringing in the loot.

The big haul is to be made at the mansion of an eccentric old collector of rare jewels, whose beautiful granddaughter falls in love with the newest recruit in the crook band. The latter relents after his first job and turns hero by exposing Zeno as the murderer of the girl's grandfather. There are mysterious passageways and trick doors in the house of the jewel collector which add to the tenseness of the action as the story progresses.

The principal roles are in the hands of Michael Vavitch, as Professor Zeno; Doris Hill, as the girl, George Meeker as the repentant young crook and Noah Young, as Monk, another of the crook band. All of them do their work acceptably.

Drawing Power: It is the type of story that has a popular appeal and it should do better than the average program picture. Exploitation Angles: The expose of fake spiritualism; the circus sideshow atmosphere and the general tieups suggested in the press sheet.

THEME: Mystery drama of mystic leader of circus crooks whose crime of murder is revealed by one of his young henchmen who has fallen in love with the granddaughter of the murdered man.

Produced and distributed by Fox Film Corporation. Length, 5,937 feet. Released, May 20, 1928. The Cast: George Meeker, Doris Hill, Gwen Lee, Marjorie Beebe, Erville Alderson, Michael Vavitch, Noah Young, C. M. Belcher, Raymond Turner, James Mason, Yorke Sherwood, Frank Rice, Tom McGuire. Director, Albert Ray. Story by Albert Ray and Kenneth Hawks. Continuity by C. Graham Baker.

Home Made

Fairly Good Comedy

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

AS a small-town Johnny with nerve and ability to get ahead, Johnny Hines, assimilates some fairly good comedy. Always a pleasing personality, the comedian is handicapped to some extent because of a dearth of laughable gags. So instead of the usual adjectives of praise generally applied to a Hines vehicle, this reporter must fall back on those of a less optimistic nature.

Johnny arrives in the big city full of enthusiasm and a desire to establish his mother's home-made jam as the best on the market. Before he can make any headway in his endeavors he must bring into service an unlimited supply of gall and nerve. There are reasons for slightly uproarious guffaws now and then, but these intervals of merriment do not come often enough. In the wake of these gags are moments of dulness which occur with too great a frequency. But whenever Hines has a chance at some comedy, he always comes across.

A feature for the houses daily changing their programs.

Drawing Power: Fairly good. Exploitation Angles: A first-rate assortment of exploitation ideas are available in the press sheet.

THEME: Comedy of a small-town boy with nerve, who comes to the big city and establishes his mother's home-made jam as a quick-selling product. In reaching this successful peak, he also wins a charming girl and makes the name of the jam famous all over the country.

Produced by C. C. Burr. Distributed by First National. Released Nov. 20, 1927. Length, 6,524 feet. The Cast: Johnny Hines, Marjorie Daw, Edmund Breese, Maud Turner Gordon, Margaret Seddon, De Witt Jennings, Charles Gerard. Story by C. B. Carrington. Titles by Paul Peres. Director, Charles Hines.

Honor Bound

Slow-Moving and Not Much to It

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

NOT so much can be said toward recommending this picture. It has a story which has seen considerable service on the screen—and here it doesn't capture any interest beyond the characterization. Estelle Taylor has the principal part and does wonders by it. She succeeds in winning attention anyway, even though she hasn't many opportunities. The director has brought the players to the fore here and made them do their stuff. And he has created some good effects with the photography, and again in the whipping scenes.

The idea exploits the "sacrifice" motif. A young spouse accidentally kills her husband. Since she has hated him things look extremely black for her until a self-sacrificing youth (much in love with her) assumes the blame for the crime and goes to prison. He is bound over by the State to a coal-mine owner. And the highlights of the action feature him being beaten and flogged. The heroine, having moved near the camp, gets revenge eventually on the prison boss by beating him. The story has a counter-plot and it does become somewhat complicated. But all ends well.

As mentioned above the acting here is the whole thing. It builds none to well and never leaves its story-book atmosphere.

Drawing Power: Suitable for program houses. Exploitation Angles: Play up cast, featuring Miss Taylor and George O'Brien and Tom Santschi, one of the oldest actors in point of service on the screen. Bill as story of love and self-sacrifice.

Produced and distributed by Fox Films. Length, 6,188 feet. Released, May 6, 1928. The Cast: Estelle Taylor, George O'Brien, Tom Santschi, Leila Hyams, Frank Cooley, Sam DeGrasse, Al Hart. Director, Alfred E. Green.

"Jack and Jilted"

(Fox-Imperial—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by Chester J. Smith)

IF one can see the humor in the smashing of eggs all over the countenances of every member of the cast, as well as the features of a few extras because of the abundance of eggs, then this is a real riotous comedy. It will probably be about a fifty-fifty proposition with neighborhood audiences; it will set half of them laughing and will nauseate the other half to the point where they will probably leave the theatre.

It certainly is not pleasing to see a series of closeups of eggs spattered over faces and clothing or of two men sitting in a Pullman train slapping each other in the face with eggs. That is the entire element of comedy in this two-reeler and the setting is in a Pullman car, where dozens and dozens of eggs are hurled about. It is a fair enough story up to the point where they get to hurling the eggs, but from then on it is fairly disgusting. The cast is made up of Pat Cunning, Marjorie King,Harry Dunkinson, Dorothea Wolbert, Bud Jamison, Nick Copeland and Eddie McPhail.

"America's Little Lamb"

(Fox—One Reel)

SHEEP herding in the Western part of the United States is shown in this Variety release, of more-than-the-average interest. Driving the flocks to new grazing grounds, the intelligent work of the shepherd dogs, shearing the sheep—the items reveal illuminating points of the sheep raising industry. Not merely educational but interesting is this Variety. Good for all programs.—RAYMOND GANLY.

The Blue Danube

Just a Tidbit of Romance—That's All

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

THE title decorating this picture indicates that it might carry the swing and rhythm and movement of Strauss' immortal waltz. But the comparison ends with the monicker. It just shapes up as a sentimental excursion involving a love triangle—and aside from some attractive shots and some creditable acting it has nothing to place it in a select circle.

The story plods along, obviously, lacking any punch to keep one interested after the romantic interludes. The gist of it carries a young baron away to war leaving his sweetheart pining for him. A cripple, conducting a hopeless love for the girl, endeavors to double-cross the more personable youth. He is successful for a time and then fades out of the romance and the picture.

Leatrice Joy as the heroine acts with fine spirit which is tempered with pathos. But she deserves a good break after a long season of mediocre films. Nils Asther looks well in an Austrian uniform and Joseph Schildkraut makes the other character sinister enough. It's just a moving picture for average audiences.

Drawing Power: Title has possibilities. Also players. Suitable for program houses. Exploitation Angles: Feature title and use excerpts of melody for musical accompaniment. Feature three leading players.

THEME: Romantic drama of lovers separated by war with sinister figure endeavoring to steal the girl away from more attractive rival.

Produced by De Mille. Distributed by Pathe. Length, 7 reels. Released, Mar. 11, 1928. The Cast: Leatrice Joy, Joseph Schildkraut, Nils Asther, May Robson, Seena Owen, Albert Gran, Frank Reicher.

"Rah, Rah, Rah"

(Educational—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

A CLEVER comedienne, Dorothy Devore fares very well in her latest comedy for Educational which was written and directed by Norman Taurog. Playing a frivolous college freshie, she has many opportunities for some good work in scenes where the sweet seniors are hazing her. They place crabs, lobsters and toads in her bed at retiring-time, and, the fun consists in the reactions of whichever individual the mollusks nip; it is good stuff. The hefty Babe London has one of the principal supporting roles and, with Wallace Lupino and Jack Miller, does some of the best comedy bits in this particular subject. Lupino gives one of his woman interpretations and is extremely effective.

Another occasion for fun is had in a basket ball game in which, however, the ancient gag of having a person perilously balanced atop a flagpole is introduced for another attempt to net a few chuckles. But there is really little to criticize in this comedy as for the most part it succeeds in its mission of creating laughter. The title writer also has bright efforts to display.

"The Speed Sheik"

(Universal—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

THIS two reel comedy starring Arthur Lake offers only a fair amount of laughs, depending mostly for its real punch on a more or less thrilling cross-country automobile race, which in a measure serves to counterbalance the lack of humor.

The youthful comedian this time, is intent upon winning an auto race from his rival, for Mary the girl he adores has promised to marry the victor. As everything is fair in love and war, the contestants pull many daring stunts during the course of the race, in an endeavor to eliminate each other. In a last desperate effort to wreck Arthur's speed bus, the rival throws a hand grenade, which bounces back into his own car and explodes, leaving Arthur undisputed winner of the race and the girl. This release will furnish average entertainment for any type of audience.

"Who's Lyin'?"

(Educational—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

EDUCATIONAL could have a good comedy team in George Davis and Monty Collins if they were surrounded with clever gags and a better type of comedy than "Who's Lyin'?" has. In judging this laugh effort one cannot but note that it consists mainly of an idea that is really falling apart with old age, cinematically speaking. The idea referred to is having a few lions or other jungle cats slinking in and out of the scenes and terrifying the various principals of the play. Lions in comedies have been chasing comedians for about ten years, or whatever time it was when "Roaring Lions" and similar comedies first made their appearance.

Both of the co-starring players have ability, but their chances to display the same come rarely. The scene of their activities lies in a hotel in which is also stopping an Indian prince with an attractive wife. The Indian entertains suspicions that the two are intimate with the lady and as their respective suites are separated by the bath there are several occasions when it does look as if his suspicions are justified. After a time escaped lions make their appearance and are a source of terror to all concerned.

Directed by Stephen Roberts the comedy also has in supporting roles Betty Boyd, Robert Graves, Eva Thatcher and Ray Turner.

"The Palace of Honey"

(M-G-M-Ufa—One Reel)

A CLOSE-UP of one of nature's orderliest creations—a bee hive—forms the very interesting theme of this Ufa short subject. For sustained and well-balanced interest, the reel is a winner. One of the best of the Oddities releases.

The activities of the hive are all caught under the microscope. The queen, the center of the hive is shown. The brood-cells and the honey-cells are also given an intimate study. The amazing capacity for work of these winged insects is brought out in the multiform processions of the bees searching for and storing honey, attending their queen, defending their hive from attack. One scene visualizes a lone bee trying to put up a defense against a number of attacking ants. The bee fights a losing battle and is eaten alive before the camera's all-watching eye. There are many other items as compelling and as unusual.—RAYMOND GANLY.

"Tokens of Manhood"

(M-G-M-Ufa—One Reel)

THE makers of the painstaking and educational Ufa Oddities journeyed down to the uncivilized regions of the South American continent to obtain at first hand glimpses of a barbarous and superstitious rite practiced by the savages. Reaching maturity, the youths of the tribe are initiated into manhood. Preceded by a score of their fellows who make weird noises the youths enter the place of the initiation from which all females are barred. Fierce and undiminished noise is made which the women believe to be the voice of the evil spirit making known his wishes. After the initiation rites the noise ceases, the youths, now men, make merry with the women folk and strong liquor is taken in generous quantities. The reel is interesting.—RAYMOND GANLY.

"Their Purple Moment"

(M-G-M-Roach—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

WHAT appears to be the best comedy team in present-day short subjects—Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy—appear in this new Hal Roach comedy, invested with an amazing amount of laughter and replete with really funny happenings. Is it as good as "The Finishing Touch" and that other laughable affair in which they were washing-machine salesmen? No, not quite as good. But even when this pair is offered an average assortment of gags they give vent to a humor far above the ordinary comedies.

Imagine the calamity in which these two find themselves. They possess wives who take all their salaries, but on the sly Laurel saves quite an amount. The two of them are saving up for a whirl of pleasure and so this day they venture out, Stan believing his wallet contains his money horde. They fall in with two girls and adjoin to an expensive restaurant where they order liberally from the menu. After treating royally, Stan looks into his wallet and discovers his wife has purloined his bills and substituted cigar store coupons. Follows a wild time, the two trying to escape payment of the check and the hilarity receives a further impetus when the two wives arrive, having been informed of their husbands' philanderings.

Laurel is a dandy comedian; in this comedy he fares better than does Hardy. Laurel is subjected to a long close-up showing his bewilderment and consternation when he finds out what is in his wallet. The comedy benefits from a repetition of one gag—that of a waiter continually falling over Laurel. Much of it is slapstick but it is effective.

"The Iron Code"

(Universal—Two Reels)

(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

ALTHOUGH this two-reel featurette starring Jack Perrin, is typical of the usual Northwest Mounted tale of the trails, it must be credited with containing enough of the elements of hard-riding, rough-and-tumble fighting and love interest to make it a welcome incident on the average program.

Bob Frazer (Jack Perrin), of the Mounties, happily gallops through the Canadian wilds to the home of Marie Chaudet, whom he is to marry. Upon his arrival there he learns from Marie's father that she has been kidnapped by Wolfe Baptiste, a ruthless outlaw. As they are starting in pursuit, Bob sees the flash of an M. P. signal directing him to capture bank robbers hiding at Indian Gulch. Torn between love and duty, Bob sends Marie's father to headquarters for help in seeking her, and then departs for the bandits' rendezvous, where to his surprise he finds Baptiste, holding his sweetheart prisoner. An exciting chase and a terrific fight follow, with Bob and his buddies from headquarters finally overcoming the gang.

"Pathe Review No. 22"

(Pathe—One Reel)

A THREE subject offering, this entertaining Review contains: "Maids of Java," a beautiful Pathecolor presentation in which dainty Javanese maidens, aspiring to become temple dancers undulate rythmically; "The Legend of the Pekingese": A strang tale of the ancient Chinese legend, the love of the lion for the dog and the concession to love—the hybrid aristocrat. The highlight of this educational reel is "Sahara the Mystic," an interesting pictorial of the adventures of Horace D. Ashton, Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, in the great white wastes of Africa. In all this Pathe Review issue is good and will be an appreciated filler on any program.—GEORGE J. REDDY.

"Crazy House"
(M-G-M-Roach—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

A GOOD "Our Gang" comedy and one with which to provide howls for almost any type of audience. Many of the familiar faces of the old "gang" have disappeared; in fact, a new "gang" is fast becoming a reality. But as all these clever little children are entertaining to the extreme, it matters little whether the old performers have gone so long, as they have been replaced by equally clever kids. In "Crazy House" the bunch are treated to an April Fool party. They have lots of fun, which the spectator shares.

Little Jean Darling is the young miss who invites them into her luxurious home and treats them to the April Fool diversion. Her father had had installed wires throughout the rooms which provide electric shocks, water spouts, air gusts and whatever else is desired. The "gang" is puzzled by these contrivances and even Pete, the dog, wonders what it is all about. Finally the kids ring the burglar alarm and bring in the cops. A maelstrom of balloons hides them from the police and they make their escape.

Robert McGowan directed the "gang," as usual. Richard Currier did the editing and H. M. Walker the titling.

"Buster Minds the Baby"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

BUSTER and Mary Jane provide their usual quota of fun in this newest Stern Brothers' two-reeler, but the bulk of the applause goes to the dog actor Tige, who has been given a wealth of humorous business, which puts over the plot of this comedy.

Buster is about to receive a spanking from his father, when Tige, through a clever trick, diverts his mind from the task. As a reward Buster and Mary leave Tige to mind the baby, and join the gang headed for a local bazaar. One after another Buster and his gang crash the gate, until "Oatmeal," the little darky is detected crawling through the doorkeeper's legs. At this point a round-up of the kids is attempted, causing a good deal of fun. The real laughs of the comedy are supplied by the dog, who in the meantime has taken the baby on an outing.

"Crown Me"
(Educational—One Reel)

LUPINO LANE has a brother who will need watching. Possessing real cleverness before the camera, Wallace Lupino is fast developing into a funny screen personality. To date, he has appeared in some good Cameo offerings, the best of which, perhaps, was "All Set." In supporting roles with his more famous brother, he has scored several times as an effective pantomimist.

Directed by Henry W. George and supported by George Burton and Muriel Evans, he is seen in this new Cameo as a man suffering from a tooth-ache. It can be said that none of the gags are startlingly new, but funny nevertheless and well put over.

A fast and snappy number.—RAYMOND GANLY.

"The Fight Pest"
(M-G-M-Roach—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

THE nimble Charlie Chase, of whom many complimentary things are being said by stony critics of the movies, stars in this new output of the Hal Roach Studio. Ably supported by Edna Marion, Edgar Kennedy (very ably), Frank S. Hagney and Bull Montana, his latest vehicle, while not up to the par of some of his recent offerings, is nevertheless well stocked with the situations which cause laughs and giggles.

Charlie is a fight fan, also a pest. Those sitting next to him at a pugilistic seance suffer as he is the type of fan whose reactions to a fight consist of swinging his arms, nudging with his elbows and generally carrying on in a manner dissatisfactory to his neighbors. Edgar Kennedy sits next to Charlie and is involved in all the disturbances and commotions caused by that vociferous fan. After he has given the razzberry to one of the fighters, Charlie is invited to contribute some better fighting himself. He goes into the ring and knocks his opponents silly, not because of his skill with the gloves but because a towel, saturated with chloroform and meant for him, has instead acted as a sleep-provider for his antagonists.

H. M. Walker has some good titles. Fred Guiol directed.

"Hectic Days"
(Educational—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

SCORE another winning comedy for Lupino Lane. His newest, "Hectic Days," is provokingly funny and liberally spruced with light, satiric gags. In reality, the comedy is a parody and its theme is the wild west. Lane is right at home in this environment and doles out laughs all the way. Another one who does his share to make hilarious moments frequent throughout the two reels is Wallace Lupino, who is right behind his more famous brother in the fun-making.

At the megaphone of this effective laugh-piece was Henry W. George.

As a credulous youth who believes all the wild and wooly stories he reads in cheap magazines, Lane plays the lone hero in his attempts to capture the lawless leader of a bandit gang. The bandits have captured the sheriff and their chief is about to carry off the girl when the heroic Lane gives battle to the desperadoes. These fights are really comedy skits, especially the one between Lane and Lupino in which you see the antagonists resting when the struggle becomes hot. Suffice it to say that Lane cleans up the gang and expects the plaudits of the town. But whatever cheers are heard go to the sheriff, who has freed himself of his bonds and who calmly takes all the credit.

"The Wandering Tov"
(Educational—One Reel)

HERE is one of the best releases from the studios of Lyman H. Howe in some time. Archie N. Griffith's animated art titles are excellently done and the ideas of Robert E. Gillaum, around which this animation is built, take in variety and spicy subjects. A little wooden soldier is carried away by a balloon and travels from country to country. Some of the shots of this Hodge-Podge include the royal guard at the palace at Stockholm, a street in Holland and Java's boiling springs. A nicely put together short subject. — RAYMOND GANLY.

"Inklings"
(Red Seal—One Reel)

DRAWINGS by Dave Fleischer grace this cartoon reel. An invisible pen traces the Sphinx, the Leaning Tower of Pisa, the Cathedral of Moscow, the House of Parliament at London, the Eiffel Tower and the Statue of Liberty. A few seconds of animation are introduced and then the artists compares the faces of dogs with those of men. Fair program filler. —RAYMOND GANLY.

"The Fox Chase"
(Universal—One Reel)
(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

IN this Oswald comic the animated bunny goes in for fox hunting, thereby giving cartoonist Walter Disney an opportunity to create a rather clever pen burlesque on society's great outdoor sport. Much humor has been compiled into this short reel, the animated "gags" of which are nearly all original.

"Felix the Cat in Eskimotive"
(Educational—One Reel)

IT appears there is no end of adventures in store for Felix, the screen's only cat star. The possibilities of adventure for the feline do not seem to be exhausted. For instance, in this new cartoon release starring the Sullivan cat the idea of a bubble for transportation is cleverly presented with an embellishment of gag material generously placed throughout. To please one of the little Felixes, the cat blows a soap bubble around him and a gust of wind carries the little fellow northwards. Frantic, Felix chases the bubble, up to the lair of the eskimo and polar bear. He catches up with his little son and they both use the bubble to get back to civilization.—RAYMOND GANLY.

Newsreel Resume

(Continued from page 1786)

be held in the U. S.; the Preakness race at Pimlico.

The Kentucky Derby was one of the stories contained in No. 68. Also receiving mention were scenes of N. Y. anti-aircraft guns in practice; King Albert of Belgium and King Christian of Denmark; Mme. Lupeweu, the companion in exile of Prince Carol of Roumania; California girl dancing along Pacific shore; Nobile sails over arctic wastes in the Italia; Tom Heeney training; Fascist girls saluting Mussolini; American bride of Indian rajah arrives in Paris; Walter Hagen receiving championship cup from Prince.

International News, Vol. 10, No. 40: Maypole festival in New York City; Annapolis pagaent revives Colonial days; monument honoring aviators dedicated in France; Mr. and Mrs. Stillman; President Coolidge conferring medal on World War hero; Japanese honor their god of the waters; German horsemen in risky jumps; British cavalrymen in some fancy riding; "debs" on way to meet King George; parade in Orleans, France, honors Joan of Arc.

Kinograms, No. 5398, devoted itself to views of Coolidge at Massachusetts academy; seaplane racing for Curtiss trophy; Joie Ray, making new marathon mark; naval officers shown chemical warfare of the future; weaponless matadors fight bulls; the Kentucky Derby.

No. 5397: The Kentucky Derby; France pays homage to Joan of Arc; Gene Tunney in work-out; the Coolidges attending the Annapolis pageant; exhibition of miniature locomotives; a private zoological garden; three-day old lion cubs at Gay's Farm; lady performer wrestling with tiger in circus act.

Joie Ray winning the marathon, the President and Mrs. Coolidge attending the school anniversary celebration, King George installing the Knights of the Bath; Mandell and McLarnin, and the Kentucky Derby were some of the highlights of No. 41. Also included were the liner Mohawk, which suffered a collision in fog; military display before Japanese emperor; a rose festival parade at San Jose; elephant group in museum.

Last Warner Picture for Season Released May 26

The final Warner feature for 1927-28 will be released on May 26th when "Five and Ten Cent Annie" co-starring Louise Fazenda and Clyde Cook reaches the public.

Classified Ads

RATES: 10 cents a word for each insertion, in advance except Employment Wanted, on which rate is 5 cents

Situations Wanted

THEATRE MANAGER, age 32, thoroughly experienced vaudeville, pictures and presentations, desires permanent connection, character and references unquestionable, last position as managing director of theatre, very good publicity man. Address Box 352, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

Studio and Laboratory manager desires change. Complete knowledge of cameras, laboratory, titles, animation, theatre trailers, news releases. Best references. Want position with future. If you can offer good salary and need a man who knows the game, write Box 353, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Avenue., New York City.

ORGANISTS and SINGERS, thoroughly trained and experienced in theatre work. Men and women now ready for good positions. Union or nonunion. Write salary, and other data. Address, Chicago Musical College, 64 E. Van Buren, Chicago.

PROJECTIONIST UNION. Young man with broad experience in motion picture projection desires position. Capable, can make good anywhere. Address Box 346, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York.

Laboratory man, nine years' experience in all branches of laboratory work, including 16 m.m. production. At present employed; desires connection with future. Address: Box 195, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

A-1 Male Organist at liberty. Wurlitzer specialist. Organist, 1112 Lee St., Charleston-Ka., W. Va.

THEATRE MANAGER—Five years experience managing vaudeville and picture houses, chain and independent, advertising and exploitation. Age 25 — married. Any location with permanent connection. Address Box 333, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

POSTER ARTIST — Can make attractive lobby displays, posters, banners, signs, original newspaper ads. Will go anywhere. Young, married, ambitious. Address Box 329, care Motion Picture News, 729 7th Ave., N. Y. City.

Wanted

WANTED — Two Experienced Theatre Managers as FOURTH OWNERS to locate as resident associates. One in Ohio City, other in New York State. Full particulars with Bank References upon request. Address Ross A. McAvoy, 252 Lafayette Ave., Geneva, N. Y.

For Sale

FOR SALE—Marlowe Theatre, Buffalo, N. Y. 750 seats, $45,000. $12,000 cash required. For details write David Krieger, 257 Virginia Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Theatre Wanted

THEATRE WANTED.—Country Town or Suburban, will lease or buy. Give particulars. H. R. W., 8 Downing Ave., Downington, Pa.

A group of four newspaper displays featuring presentations of "The Garden of Eden" at first run theatres. The reproductions include layouts used by the following theatres: Alabama, Birmingham; Kirby, Houston, Tex.; Riviera, Dallas, and Allen, Cleveland. The Kirby ad was in one-column size and employs a press book mat in a very effective original layout.

Buffalo

CONSTRUCTION work on a pretentious new theatre in La Salle is expected to get under way soon. Marvin Atlas, who recently sold the Lumberg theatre at Niagara Falls, which had been in existence for 20 years, is behind the La Salle project. It will be a first-run house, with about 1500 seats, and, when completed, will rival any house of its size in this section in architectural and interior beauty. La Salle is a town outside Niagara Falls.

John Schultz, manager of the Liberty theatre in Rochester and former owner of the Park theatre there, was a recent visitor along film row.

Howard "Dad" Brink, of the Educational exchange here, left on May 21 for Montreal, to attend the organization's annual national sales convention in the Canadian city, May 22, 23 and 24.

Michael Shea was in New York last week, presumably to talk over the matter with the sponsors of the talking devices now in use or about to be marketed.

Cyril Bird, salesman for the National Theatre Supply company branch here, has resigned and joined the Buffalo sales staff of the United Projector and Film company.

The Dreamland theatre in Bolivar is being all spruced up in real Spring fashion. Maire Williams, the owner, is having the house remodeled on the outside and completely redecorated on the inside.

More than 150 persons, including the managers of other local theatres and newspapermen, witnessed a private screening of "The Lion and the Mouse," a talking picture, at the Lafayette theatre last Friday night, as guests of Manager William H. Raynor.

Miss Emma Abplanalp, hard-working secretary of the Film Board of Trade here, left last week for California to attend the annual convention there of the secretaries of Film Boards of Trade all over the country. The local Film Board showered her with small gifts to make her trip comfortable and her California stay enjoyable. In her absence, Miss Mildred Caskey, assistant secretary, is carrying on.

Smiling Elmer Lux, F B O's booker here, was so glad to get back on the job last week after a long siege of illness that verged on pneumonia, that he threw a large party at his Avery Avenue home for the office personnel of the exchange in appreciation of the warm welcome they extended him on his return to his desk.

C. E. Almy, branch manager of the Warner Brothers exchange in Buffalo, has been promoted to District Managership of the Albany, Buffalo and Pittsburgh offices.

Henry Kurtz, formerly of the Lyric theatre in Rochester but now retired, was in town last week and made the rounds of the exchanges to chat about old times with his friends.

Film men who were in Rochester last week brought back reports that Mrs. Thompson, whose late husband owned the Grand theatre there and who is connected with Mr. Kaplan in operating the Lyric, Cameo and Rivoli houses in Rochester, is contemplating building a large new theatre in that city.

Vincent R. McFaul, general manager of the Shea Operating Company, operators of the Buffalo, the Hippodrome, the Kensington and the North Park here, announced last week that negotiations are under way for the installation of a sound-producing device in Shea's North Park and Shea's Kensington houses to enable the showing of talking pictures.

Marion Gueth, secretary of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners organization here, received word last week that the Victoria theatre in Rochester, managed by Jack Farren, is closing this month.

Ted Schlanger, eastern division sales director for Universal, spent several days here last week conferring with Dave Miller, Universal's branch manager in this city, on the coming season's product.

Harry E. Lutz, Boston branch manager for United Artists and formerly with Associated Exhibitors in Buffalo, stopped over here for a day last week to renew acquaintanceships while enroute to Chicago to attend the United Artists' national convention.

H. A. Herman, salesman of First National's exchange here, made an extended trip last week through the Syracuse territory, and indicated on his return that business was good.

H. T. Dixon, genial manager of the F B O exchange here, returned last Saturday from the F B O convention in Chicago, just in time to accept delivery on a shiny new car.

The Shafer boys of Rochester, Sol and Leon, theatre managers there, received many messages of condolence from film folk in this section as a result of the death of their father last week, from a heart attack.

Arnold Febrey, booker in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange here, has resigned and his place has been taken by S. Gottlieb, who came to Buffalo from New York City.

Several of the Schine chain managers were in town from Rochester last week, booking for June and July. They included Sol Shafer of the Grand; Leon Shafer of the State; W. L. Belcher of the Riviera, and J. Schultz of the Liberty.

Callers at Miss Ruth Rappaport's booking desk in Warner Brothers' exchange here last week for future playdates on pictures included James Constantino of the Elmwood theatre, Syracuse, and Frank Becker of the Arcadia theatre, Syracuse.

Salt Lake City

MANAGER O. WOG of the local Paramount Famous-Lasky exchange, and his sales staff are attending the convention being held at the present time in San Francisco.

It is reported at the local Associated First National office that Salesman Pete Stewart has been transferred to Montana to handle the entire state with headquarters at Great Falls.

The Blizzard Ventilating System was sold to O. E. McIff of the Kinema Theatre at Panguitch, Utah, last week, having been purchased from the local office of the National Theatre Supply Company.

Hugh Rogers and Thomas Gavin of the Liberty Theatre at Butte Montana, were visitors at the Salt Lake Branch of the National Theatre Supply Company's office last week.

The National Branch recently installed a double Roll Seeburg Player Pipe organ at the State Theatre here, previous to its recent opening.

Earl D. Smith, local manager for the National Theatre Supply Company, and owner of the Towers theatre, is in San Francisco attending the District Convention there.

All of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer salesmen have left the office here for their territories after having attended a sales meeting conducted by Manager L. C. Wingham.

Park Agnew, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Home Office Representative, left this city last week for Los Angeles after a short visit at the local exchange.

George Derrick, Assistant Office Manager for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, has returned from a business trip to Butte.

Leo Alder, Traveling Auditor for Pathe, is now visiting the Salt Lake exchange, having arrived here recently from Cincinnati.

Manager Al O'Keefe of the local Pathe office is now in Chicago, for the purpose of attending the convention being held at the Drake Hotel there by Pathe.

Salesman Jack Connors came in from his Southern Utah section last week and will return there within a short time.

Manager A. W. Hartford, accompanied by C. C. McDermond, E. M. Gibson and E. S. Winward of the Universal sales organization, returned last week from the convention held by Universal.

Sales representative Able Davis was in the United Artists office last week after a trip of several weeks duration into Idaho. Johnny Dickson just returned from an eight weeks' trip into Montana.

Dave Farquhar, newly appointed manager for the office being opened by Columbia Pictures, returned from the recent convention held at Los Angeles. The new office is located at 258 East 1st South Street.

Wayne Ball, local manager for Warner Brothers, returned recently from the convention held in New York, having stopped over in Denver long enough to become married to Miss Helen McGee, former cashier of the F B O exchange there.

District Sales Manager, Harry Lustig, is expected to arrive at the Salt Lake Warner Brothers exchange soon, for the purpose of conducting a sales meeting with all of the local force.

Manager Clyde H. Messinger left last week for the Educational convention to be held at Montreal, Canada.

It is reported that Manager "Hap" Fredericks of the local Columbia exchange, had an accident with his car, which was completely wrecked when he drove it into a ditch recently.

Paul DeMordaunt of the Mission Theatre at Blackfoot, Idaho, and Hugh Drennen of the Rex Theatre at Rexburg, Idaho, paid a visit to the local film mart last week.

John Rugan of the Egyptian, American and Orpheum at Park City, Utah, spent some time looking over the new season's product recently as did E. Ostlund of the Rivoli at Springville, Utah.

Chas. Walker, manager here for Fox, left the latter part of last week for the Fox Convention at New York City.

Louis and Harmon Peery of the Egyptian and Ogden first run theatres of Ogden, called on film row last week.

S. B. Rahn, District Manager for Tiffany in Salt Lake and Denver, has returned to this city from Los Angeles and is now looking over the local situation.

Fred Gage, United Artists sales manager here, left for a sales convention being held by this organization at Los Angeles.

Chicago

FIFTEEN Fox exchange managers from cities as far west as Vancouver and San Francisco gathered in Chicago on Monday, and after spending the day with Manager Clyde Eckhart left for New York city to participate in the national sales conference of the Fox organization. Included in the party were Messrs. Eckhart, Chicago; F. S. Sliter, Milwaukee; M. A. Levy, Minneapolis; J. L. Raper, Des Moines; F. W. Voight, San Francisco; J. A. Wilson, Winnipeg; Harry Milcher, Omaha; Ben Gould, Los Angeles; C. L. Walker, Salt Lake; J. N. Hubr, Calgary; C. H. Kilgers, Kansas City; B. F. Rosenberg, Denver; J. M. Linn, Seattle; C. R. Deppie, Vancouver, and E. M. McKean, St. Louis.

Roy Alexander, popular exchangeman, is again active on film row, having become associated with Ben Judell in the distribution of the "Road to Ruin," a Cliff Broughton production, in northern Illinois.

Plans for the fifth annual Mid West Film Golf Tournament are about completed and the date has been fixed for Friday, June 15th. Chairman Len Ulrich reports that a meeting of the committee in charge will be held this week and the club selected for the big match will be announced within a few days. The action of Olympia Fields Club in barring trade tournaments has eliminated this course, which has been the scene of all tournaments in the past, but Mr. Ulrich promises an equally interesting links for this year.

Charles E. Gregory, former Kansas City M-G-M salesman, is now connected with the Chicago exchange and Manager Mendelsohn has assigned him to central Illinois territory.

Frank Flaherty, of Fox, and Henry Goldberg, of Educational who took their vacations early, are back on the job. Both are such loyal Chicagoans that they stayed at home. Why go away, they say, with the Cubs winning thirteen straight.

Roy Shimmerman, a newcomer in the business, opened the new Weldon theatre at Weldon, Ill., last week. Weldon has been without a motion picture theatre for several years past.

Earl Bennett is making extensive improvements in his theatre, The Liberty, at Delevan, Ill., but is keeping the house open while the changes are being made.

Hal Roach, who for the past four months has been making a trip which took him around the world, was a visitor at M-G-M exchange last week.

Balaban and Katz Midwest have taken over two Chicago theatres, The Shore and the Jackson, from I. Bloom. Both houses have been booked by the Coston Circuit for some time past.

Another small but cozy theatre will be added to the Illinois list some time in June when Lou Ausman plans to open his new Forest theatre at Forest, Ill. The house is small, but of an artistic antique design and will be a credit to the town.

Frank R. Wolcott was a visitor on film row this week following the opening of his fine new Majestic theatre in Racine, where Mr. Wolcott has been an exhibitor for seventeen years. He is very proud of his newest house, which is rated as one of the finest neighborhood theatres in the middle west, and according to all reports the opening of the Majestic was made the occasion for a remarkable demonstration of friendship for Mr. Wolcott, which was participated in by city officials, business friends and thousands of citizens of Racine. Two big special editions of newspapers were published in connection with the opening, and floral tributes and gifts [illegible] showered on the popular veteran.

Manager Young, of National Screen Service, has added Elmer Dunas to his sales staff. Mr. Dunas will work out of the Chicago office.

Bernasek and Gregory will close their Lagrange theatre, La Grange, for the summer, on Sunday, May 19.

James R. Grainger, general sales manager, will preside at the regional convention of Fox Films organization, which will be held at the Stevens Hotel, June first and second. Managers and salesmen from eleven exchanges will attend, as well as J. S. Woody, assistant to the general sales manager, and District Managers Clyde W. Eckhardt and Ben F. Rosenberg.

Mike Siegel, well known Chicago exhibitor, has bought an interest in Linden Hall, a beautiful twenty-three acre estate on the highlands which overlook the Hudson River, near Rhinecliff, N. Y., about sixty mlies from New York City. Lindell Hall is operated as a rest resort, and will open this week under the management of Mr. Siegel's brother. Mike Siegel will remain in Chicago.

Seattle

HAROLD B. FRANKLIN, president and general manager of West Coast Theatres, Inc., left this city last week after a few days visit here with Herschel Stuart, general manager of the Pacific Northwest territory. Mr. Franklin, on a tour of the Pacific Coast district, also spent a short time in Portland.

Vic Gauntlett, advertising and publicity manager of the Blue Mouse circuit of theatres, is now a writer of radio broadcast continuity. Each week Vic supplies the "words" that go with the "music" on the Warner Brothers one-hour program in Seattle over station KOMO.

Pat Garyn, sales official of the National Screen Service, spent a few days here last week making new office appointments for his company in the Seattle and Portland districts. To manage the local territory he has selected Robert R. Nave, well known on the local Film Row through his connections with the booker's desks. In Portland, National Service will be represented by L. M. Cobbs, formerly associated with the sales staff of the Pathe exchange in Seattle.

W. D. Gross, veteran exhibitor of Alaska, paid the local film magnates a visit recently, buying and booking pictures to run in his chain of houses through the several cities in Southwestern Alaska.

Carl Stearn, manager of the Warner Brothers exchange in this city, and Bob Hill, head of the Portland branch office, departed last week for New York to attend the convention of their company.

Ben Fish, manager of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer branch here, and Lou Amacher, Portland head, are also planning their departure soon for a convention.

Clarence Hill, film representative of this territory, last week was appointed Pacific Northwest representative for the Advance Trailers company. He is now in San Francisco talking matters over with company officials, and will soon return to Seattle and open a sales office on the new Film Row.

Eddie Peabody, banjo-playing master of ceremonies, closed a five-week engagement at James Q. Clemmer's Fifth Avenue Theatre last week. He has been succeeded here by Jack Waldron, singer and dancer.

Several of the exhibitors of the territory were guests of Roy Peacock, manager of the National Theatre Supply Company's local office, last week for the first demonstration of the new "Orchestraphone."

One of the very infrequent visitors to Film Row made his appearance here last week in the person of Al Wagner, exhibitor from the state of Idaho. Mr. Wagner, operating houses in Cottonwood, Clermont, Craigmont and Grangeville, announces that he has removed his general offices to the Lyric Theatre in Grangeville, which he acquired recently.

Ted Gamble, associated with Universal's theatre department in this city for several seasons, last week was appointed assistant to Mike Newman, the new manager of "U" suburban enterprises in Seattle. Mr. Gamble's duties will be principally the booking of attractions for all eleven "U" houses in this city.

Frank Pratt, formerly connected with the Columbia Theatre here, was recently appointed as manager of the Universal Portola Theatre in West Seattle.

"Ollie" Wallace, concert organist, closed his local engagement with West Coast Theatres here last week, and has been booked for a tour of the Canadian Publix chain.

Ike Binnard, popular exhibitor of Lewistown, Idaho, spent a short time among the local film exchanges last week, buying and booking pictures.

Les Weir, district manager of Pathe, spent several days in the local territory recently as manager of the Seattle office, as a result of the recent resignation of L. A. Samuelson, manager. Mr. Samuelson, in charge here for several years, has announced no definite plans for the future.

Opening of John Hamricks new Music Box Theatre, first run house directly across the street from his Blue Mouse Theatre, is scheduled for the early part of July, according to information made public from the theatre last week. It is understood that it will be a long-run house, seating about 1000 persons, and will probably open with one of Warner Brothers "talkies."

EMPIRE LABORATORIES INC.
723 Seventh Ave., N. Y. Quality Bryant 5437-5736-2180
DEVELOPING AND PRINTING MOTION PICTURE FILM

Albany

BEARING the good wishes of every exhibitor in town, Edna Pfister, secretary of the Albany Film Board of Trade, boarded the Lake Shore Limited last week for the Los Angeles national convention.

Bob Pierce, of the Capitol theatre in Ilion, visited Film Row last week, and announced that he is planning to install Vitaphone in the near future.

Howard Morgan, who handles Educational's product in Albany, is back from his company's convention in Montreal.

Catherine Dobbs, a member of Tiffany's office force, is at an Albany hospital, where she will undergo a slight operation. Betty Mead is filling her place temporarily at the exchange. Mildred Coons, of the Pathe office, is recovering from a tonsil operation.

Although Abe VanDusen, booker at the F B O exchange, did not land first place in the recent countrywide bookers contest, he nevertheless pocketed a nice check last week as the result of his efforts.

Among exhibitors seen on Film Row last week were John Augello of the Family theatre in Utica; Vincent Danielle, of the Lyric in Utica, and William McNeilly, of Rome.

It is reported that Elmer Soper, plans to reopen the Gayety theatre at Inlet as soon as the tourists begin to arrive. H. Edick, who operates theatres in Leonardsville and Mohawk, is planning to open in West Winfield soon.

Lew Fischer, of Fort Edward, who has a large chain of houses, announced last week that he would add a vaudeville act to his picture programs as a means of bracing up business. The act will play a month on the Fischer time, appearing at Fort Edward, Hoosick Falls, Ticonderoga, Chatham and Cambridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hellman, owners of the Paramount and Royal theatres in Albany, have returned from a trip to Cleveland, where they were the guests of Jack Little, vaudeville star.

Pete Dana, local manager for Tiffany, spent all of last week on a tour through Utica, Watertown and northern New York.

W. Finn, an exhibitor with houses in Madison, Munnsville and Eaton, notified the exchanges in Albany last week that he would close for the summer months.

Charles Stombaugh, manager of the Pathe exchange in Albany, is back from the Chicago convention. Miss Rea Carmody, of the Pathe office force, is back at her desk following an influenza attack.

C. H. Buckley, owner of the Leland and the Clinton Square theatres in Albany, has decided to name the latest arrival at the Buckley home, "Billie."

Jules Berinstein, owner of the Colonial in Albany, is one exhibitor who finds his greatest enjoyment in his pipe. Cigars and cigarettes do not tempt Mr. Berinstein, who may be seen each night standing in front of his theatre and puffing lustily at his briar.

Joe Wallace, handling Proctor's Grand in Albany, stating that business was not up to normal, lays the slump not only to daylight saving but also to the fact that many people are now pinching their pennies, because of spring automobile purchases.

Harry Seed, who looks after Warner Brothers' interest in Albany, was in New York city last week, meeting with the Stanley and the Comerford representatives, the latter buying for the Binghamton houses.

Isaiah Perkins, of Speculator, is now planning to build a dance hall this summer, to be run along with his theatre which is open from May until September.

Dallas

HAL NORFLEET, director of publicity for the Interstate-Orpheum circuit of theatres in Texas, is back on the job again after seven weeks in a sanitarium from a nervous breakdown. Following a conference with R. J. O'Donnell, director of theatres, Norfleet left for Houston, where he will prepare for the big business expected during the National Democratic Convention to be held in that city in June.

Karl Hoblitzelle, president of the Interstate Amusement Co., left Tuesday for a two weeks' visit on the west coast, where he will spend his time in the Los Angeles studios.

The late Simon Charninsky, managing director of the Capitol theatre, left his entire estate to Mrs. Pauline Charninsky, his mother, according to his will filed for probate last Monday.

Frank O. Harting of the Interstate Amusement Co. press department at Dallas, has been transferred to the Majestic theatre, Fort Worth, where he will be assistant manager and director of publicity. Mr. Harting was former publicity man of the Circle theatre, the Melba theatre under the Loew regime, and was connected with the Palace theatre before joining the staff of the Interstate.

L. E. Harrington and Ed Pullman of the Dallas F. B. O. office are attending the F. B. O. convention at Chicago.

Frank Martin has been selected as new cashier for the local F. B. O. office.

Theo. Routt, office booker for First National, is absent from his office, due to illness.

Ray Stinnett has taken charge of the Capitol theatre as managing director since the death of Simon Charninsky, his business partner. At the present time Mr. Stinnett has charge of both the Capitol and Pantages theatres, of which he and Mr. Charninsky were joint owners.

P. K. Johnston, manager of the Fox Dallas exchange, left last Saturday for the annual Fox Sales Convention in New York.

Ben F. Broyles, salesman for Fox for the past seven years, has been promoted to home office representative over the southern territory. Mr. Broyles will also attend the Fox Sales Convention in New York.

J. W. Williams is the latest addition to the Fox sales staff in Dallas, and will travel south Texas territory.

The Fox Southern District Sales Convention will be held at the Baker Hotel, June 1st and 2nd.

E. Watson and H. A. Brown, employees of the Majestic theatre, Austin, were recently injured in an automobile accident near Austin. Mr. Watson suffered a broken collar bone, and Mr. Brown was severely bruised and shaken up.

St. Louis

ED LOWRY, master of ceremonies at Skouras Bros. Ambassador Theatre, entertained the disabled veterans at United States Government Hospital at Jefferson Barracks on May 17. The entertainment was under the auspices of American Legion Auxiliary, No. 3.

Charlie Schmat on May 25 will conclude an eight months' run as master of ceremonies at Skouras Bros. Granada Theatre, Gravois and Ellenwood avenues, St. Louis, Mo.

In Schmat's farewell week the first annual spring revue was given at the Granada, the leading outlying house of St. Louis. Four other master of ceremonies took part in the revue—Paul Markman, of the Maplewood Theatre; Rich, the singing banjoist from the Shenandoah Theatre; Jerry Ross, of the Kings, and Chick Quayle, of the Lindell Theatre. There is also a chorus of 18, including the original Granada Rockets. The screen attraction was "The Showdown."

Skouras A closed the week at $44.50, an advance for the week of $1.50 a share. A year ago this stock was quoted at $45 a share. St. Louis Amusement was unchanged for the week, being held around $32.

The Gem Theatre Company headed by I. W. Rodgers, has had preliminary plans prepared for a new theatre in Cairo, Ill. It will cost about $100,000.

A. R. Mason has taken over the Plaza Theatre in St. Louis, Mo.

Julius Sanowsky, proprietor of the Venus Theatre, St. Louis, Mo., has opened the Kinloch Airdome in Kinloch Park, St. Louis County, Mo.

Jack O'Toole, formerly St. Louis manager for Pathe, who recently entered the wholesale golf business as the local representative of Play Golf, has opened permanent quarters at 825 Ambassador Theatre Building, Seventh and Locust streets.

Out-of-town exhibitors seen along Picture Row recently included Ted Yemm, Duquoin, Ill.; Joe Hewitt, Robinson, Ill.; Oscar Wesley, Gillespie, Ill.; H. Delahanti, Pocahontas, Ill.; Walter Thimmig, of Duquoin, Ill., and S. E. Brady, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Progressive Pictures, Inc., with $30,000 capital, has been incorporated under the laws of Missouri by Tom McKean, Johnny Walsh and Walter Light, who recently bought out Progress Pictures, Corporated, operated by Tom Leonard. Tom McKean is president of the new company; Walter Light, vice-president, and Johnny Walsh, secretary and treasurer.

New England

ARTHUR LAMAR, theatrical promotor and manager, died early last week at his home in Portland, Me., aged 62 years. He was born in Mobile, Ala., and entered the theatrical field at the age of 19 in New York. He left the legitimate field to take up the distribution of motion pictures. He was a charter member of the Agents and Managers Club of New York City. Death was due to pneumonia. His wife, Alice Johnson Lamar, is in charge of publicity for various theatres n New Jersey.

Tony Trando of 994 Carew Street and Chicopee Road, Springfield, is to erect a theatre at Carew street and Chicopee road, Springfield, 70 by 120. Plans will be announced soon.

Moe Grassgreen, sales manager at the Fox exchange, has bought a new sedan.

Joseph M. Cohen, travelling auditor for Fox, was at the Boston exchange last week.

Many stage and film stars appeared at the big benefit given the Boston Theatre Treasurers' Club last Thursday at the Colonial Theatre.

The D. Latchis Theatre Co., which is erecting a new theatre at Claremont, N. H., together with an office building, has work well under way and contracts were awarded last week for the plumbing and electrical work. The structure will be 100 by 200 feet. Haynes & Mason of Fitchburg, Mass., are the architects.

Edward R. Kevane, who operated the Star Theatre at North Brookfield, died early last week after a brief illness. His widow is to continue the operation of the theatre.

Prior to her recent departure for the Secretaries' Convention in Los Angeles, Miss Catherine Sullivan, secretary of the New Haven exchange, was tendered a dinner by the exchange staffs.

The new Capitol Theatre at Lawrence, Mass., opened last Saturday.

Arthur Holbrook has acquired the Cameo Theatre at Palmer, Mass.

Memorial Hall at Cochituate, Mass., has been sold by John K. Bennett to J. Sarango.

The Waldorf and Central Theatres in Waltham, Mass., have been added to the circuit of the New England Theatres Operating Corporation.

Helen Mitchell has been appointed assistant biller at Fox exchange succeeding Miss Marion Shaw, resigned.

Robert H. Sewall has been awarded the contract for the new A. H. Morse estate theatre at East Central and Cottage Streets, Franklin, Mass.

Ed McAvoy, special representative for F B O, formerly salesman in the Boston territory, was a recent visitor to Boston.

Walter Nelson and Joseph Kelly, film salesmen in Boston, are now distributing special films.

District Manager R. C. Cropper of Pathe has returned to his desk after a two weeks' illness.

Larry Gardner and Cyril McGerrigle of F B O are attending the Chicago convention of that company.

Buck Stein has been promoted to shipper at the First National exchange, taking the place of Joe Cohen, who has resigned.

Richard Hill has resigned at the Fox exchange, Boston, and is succeeded as assistant shipper by Americo Burlon.

San Francisco

IT has been announced by Jack Ley, manager of the Alexandria Theatre, that his little two-year daughter will enter motion pictures.

May 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th, Western Division and Sales Managers of the Universal film exchange, held a get-together sales meeting in San Francisco. A total of 62 salesmen and Division exchange managers attended this meet, that was considered one of the most successful ever arranged by Universal.

Fred Gage, for some time branch manager of the local U. A. office, later going on the road for the same concern, is now branch manager of their Salt Lake exchange.

New draperies and hangings are to be installed in two recently opened theatres of T. & D. Jr. Enterprises at Oroville and Chico, California.

R. A. McNeil, vice-president and general manager of the Golden State Theatre Circuit, recently sailed for New York, by way of the Panama Canal. Mrs. McNeil accompanied him, and they will be gone six weeks. While in New York, McNeil will take up matters pertaining to the large circuit of theatres in Northern California, of which he is an executive.

The new El Capitan Theatre, which will be opened on Mission Street, San Francisco, in July by Ackerman, Harris & Oppen, is said to be one of the de luxe motion picture houses in the West. Every facility and convenience has been incorporated in its plans whereby this theatre will offer every comfort to patrons.

Ellis Levy, manager of the New Balboa, has been laid up with a throat illness. During his sickness George Oppen, Jr., has been acting as manager.

A new type dissolver and reflector lamps, together with complete projection room equipment, has been installed in the Hippidrome Theatre at Sacramento.

Max Blumenfeld, circuit operator, placed an order for complete and up-to-the-minute projection room and stage lighting equipment for his new theatre, nearing completion, and located in North Sacramento. Max expects to open in July.

Manager Walden, of the Martin Theatre, at Globe, Arizona, has conducted a spring re-seating campaign at his house.

Manager Sam Gordon, of the Napa Hippodrome, has purchased a new set of pipes for his massive organ. Other repairs and alterations on the organ were made.

Thomas D. Van Osten, Secretary-Manager, and Mrs. Walter McGinn, of the Public Relations Department of the Allied Amusement Industries, Inc., organization, were luncheon guests of the Vacaville Boosters' Club of Vacaville, recently. Mrs. McGinn addressed the club, talking on the subject of "Theatres and Their Relation to Education and Civic Progress."

J. W. Yates, of Alturas, was a recent visitor to San Francisco.

Indianapolis

M. J. WELLER, H. G. Forde and M. V. Gallagher, of Muncie, Ind., have incorporated the Muncie Theatrical Enterprises. The purpose of the new company as set out in the incorporation is to build, construct, purchase and operate theatres and amusement places.

Sale of the Indiana theatre at Terre Haute to the Wabash Theatre Corporation was announced by Miller Davis, trustee of the Indiana Theatre Company, owners for several years. The Wabash Company also owns the Hippodrome theatre building, which Keith-Albee is operating as a vaudeville and picture house.

Vitaphone and Movietone are proving popular with Apollo theatre patrons.

Ed Resener resumed his place as Circle theatre conductor last week after the return of Dave Silverman to St. Louis. Silverman was guest conductor for several weeks.

Stuart Berrie opened an indefinite engagement as guest organist at the Indiana theatre last week. Berrie is from the Ambassador at St. Louis.

Manager Charles M. Reagan, Booking Manager C. C. Nieman, Advertising Manager A. J. Schmalz and six salesmen of the Paramount exchange returned recently from the spring convention at Detroit.

Marion McCollouch has resumed charge of the Indianapolis Film Board of Trade office, in place of Patricia Lynch.

A new organ has been installed in the Lark theatre at Brazil.

The Wabash theatre at Clinton is closed temporarily for remodeling and decoration.

UNIFORMS FOR HOUSE ATTACHES COSTUMES FOR STAGE PRESENTATIONS BROOKS 1437 B'way N. Y. City

South West

W. A. RYAN, Branch Manager for Fox, spent several days last week in Dallas on business.

Miss Claudine Davis, for the past several years cashier at the Liberty Theatre in Oklahoma City, has resigned her position and left Oklahoma for Florida, where she expects to remain permanently. Miss Davis is being succeeded at the Liberty by Lou Burke.

Lee Cooper, who recently took over the Folly Theatre at Sasakwa, Oklahoma, announces he has changed the name of his house to the Idle Hour.

Tom Boland, Manager of the Empress Theatre, Oklahoma City, spent the early part of last week in Chicago.

V. E. Hamm has closed the Majestic Theatre at Ringling for an indefinite period but will continue to operate the Capitol.

Frank Miller, of the White Way and Rex Theatres at Marlow, Oklahoma, was a visitor on Film Row last week.

Ralph LeBeau, District Manager for Paramount spent last week-end in Oklahoma City looking over the local office.

Chas. Blaine, of the Blaine Theatre, Wetumka, Oklahoma, visited Oklahoma City last Saturday to advise his friends on Film Row that he had acquired the Orpheum and Cozy Theatres in Weleetka from W. L. Greenwood and Sam Thomas, respectively.

Roy E. Heffner, Branch manager for Paramount, together with the local sales force and Booking Manager, Curtis Logan, departed early last week for San Francisco to attend the annual Paramount Sales Convention.

A. Walker, who took over the Cozy Theatres at Afton and Fairland, Oklahoma, recently, advises he has been forced to close these houses until after the summer months.

Ray Moore, of the Ray Theatre, Snyder, Oklahoma, was a business caller on Film Row recently.

Chas. R. Zears, Secretary of the Oklahoma City Film Board of Trade, left last Tuesday for the annual Film Boards of Trade Convention in Los Angeles.

Brick English's Orchestra opened at the Empress Theatre in Oklahoma City last Saturday for an indefinite run. This is the beginning of a change in policy for the Empress from straight "movies" to the addition of "extra attractions.'

The Capitol Theatre, Oklahoma City, began its second week's run of "The Jazz Singer" with its new Vitaphone. The Vitaphone has proven a most popular addition to the theatre's equipment.

D. F. Spalding and E. M. Cackler, who have been operating a motor truck line handling film shipments out of Oklahoma City to Ponca City and Enid, have dissolved partnership. Cackler will operate the C. & C. Motor Express between Oklahoma City and Waurika, Okla., while Spalding will operate the C & W Motor Express between Oklahoma City, Ponca City and Enid.

The Liberty Theatre, Oklahoma City opened with the Movietone for the first time last Saturday, and is playing to capacity houses.

Carl Bishop, cashier for Educational Film Exchange for the last year and a half, has resigned to accept a position as Cashier with the Blue Bird Motor Express Company. He has been succeeded at Educational by Miss Della Vogel.

W. P. Moran, Branch Manager for Universal Film Exchange, together with his salesmen, returned last Monday from the national convention in St. Louis.

Max Holstein, veteran salesman for F B O is enjoying a two-weeks' vacation visiting relatives in Ft. Scott, Kansas.

Claude Dowley, of the Limerick Theatre, Hunter, Oklahoma, advises his theatre will be closed until July 1st.

Carl Burton has resigned as salesman for Liberty Specialty Film Company to take up theatre management.

Canada

P. J. NOLAN, proprietor of the Rex and Columbia Theatres, Ottawa, Ontario, has announced that his new theatre at Bank Street and Second Avenue, Ottawa, will be called the Avalon. It will have mission architectural style with stucco front, the seating capacity of the orchestra floor and balcony being 1,000. There will be a double-stage arrangement, the larger one for the stage hand and a smaller one to the rear for special presentations. The equipment will include a pipe organ. At present there are 49 workmen on the job, and the opening is scheduled to take place September 1.

Ottawa Rotary won the attendance trophy at the Rotary District convention at Binghamton, N. Y. Much of the success of the Ottawa club in this respect was due to J. M. Franklin, manager of B. F. Keith's Theatre, Ottawa, who was chairman of the committee in charge.

Following the closing of the Russell Theatre, Ottawa, the Collegiate Institute Board of the Canadian Capital has been considering making application to the Ontario Government for a theatre license for the large auditorium of the Glebe Collegiate Institute in order to add to the theatre facilities of the city. Such a license would cost $300. annually for the 1,200 seats. Conflict with existing local theatres has been considered, however, and the matter has been laid over until next September.

The new Empress Theatre, Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal, seating 1,800, opened auspiciously last Saturday evening, under the ownership of Confederation Amusements, Limited, a Montreal company. Prices range from 15c to 35c.

Loew's Theatre, London, Ontario, managed by Fred Jackson for years, showed a small reduction in gross profits for the past fiscal year, but general expenses were less so that the net profit proved to be higher, according to the annual financial statement just released.

Gross profits were $82,764, as compared with $83,528 for the previous 12 months, while the net was found to be $48,211, which compared favorably with $41,532 for the previous year.

The Canadian Theatre and Electrical Supplies, Limited, Toronto, which is affiliated with Famous-Players Canadian Corp., has opened in new premises at 61 Albert St., Toronto, where 7,000 feet of floor space is devoted to the display and sale of theatre equipment.

Minneapolis

THE Strand, one of Minneapolis' leading loop theatres which invariably runs through the summer, closed its doors this week until fall. Competition from the new Minnesota was largely responsible for its closing. The Garrick, another big house, closed a few weeks ago. The Minnesota, the State and the Lyric will be the only first run picture houses operating in the loop this summer.

Bob Workman, manager of the Minneapolis branch of M-G-M, received a call recently from E. M. Saunders, assistant general manager and S. A. Shirley, district manager.

District Manager Ben Blotcky, of the Minneapolis Paramount exchange, left last week for San Francisco with a number of sales representatives to attend the company's sales convention for the western division.

The new Garden theatre, a low-priced movie theatre in the Minneapolis loop district, is being dismantled by Finkelstein & Ruben. It will be converted into a store. The picture has not been actively operated for about three years, although occasional sex pictures have been shown there. The theatre was built about ten years ago, being acquired by F. & R. two years after it was built.

The Marcus theatre at Lemmon, S. D., is being remodelled and enlarged by S. D. Meyers. Its capacity will be doubled and accommodations made for road shows.

The Opera House at Cooperstown, N. D., has been taken over by the Sons of Norway lodge.

The Platte Community theatre at Platte, S. D., has been taken over by the Lyric Theatre Company.

The Rex theatre, at Starkweather, N. D., has been purchased by John G. Eiden and T. M. Reed from F. R. Irons.

The Gem theatre at Caledonia, Minn., has been bought from Robert Ziemann by Elmer Deters. Its name has been changed to the State.

Joe Garrison is covering southern Minnesota for Universal after having been with Educational three years.

Tom Burke, who manages the First National exchange in Minneapolis, is at work again after recovering from his recent illness.

Mike Frisch, manager of the local F.B.O. exchange, attended the F.B.O. convention held recently in Chicago.

Florida

WITH the closing of the Grand Theatre, the Franklin has reduced its scale and becomes the popular price house of down-town Tampa. The new schedule is 25c for adults and 10c for the children. There will be four changes of programs each week, two of which are first runs and two being second.

O. S. Hammer, who operates the Princess at Lakeland, reported that because hot weather was cutting into his mid-week business, he has decided to close down on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week, and to open only the first and last two days.

D. Willig, of the Manatee at Manatee, and B. A. Bonnett, chief projectionist of the Palace, Bradenton, were recent visitors along Tampa's rialto.

Rumor has it that C. D. Cooley is going to take over the management of the new Hyde Park Theatre.

C. B. Ellis, manager of FBO's Jacksonville local office, attended the company's convention at the Drake Hotel in Chicago last week.

It is reported Allison T. French is going to build a new house in Kissimmee, and that M. Tucker will erect a theatre at Gainesville.

The Amusement Park on Clearwater Beach has been reorganized, with Charles Van Guten at the helm.

The Palace Theatre, Jacksonville, will reopen next Sunday under the management of Charlie Morrison and his staff from the Arcade. The Arcade will be closed for extensive repairs, new paint and new decorations, etc.

Manager Charles Lester and Salesman Bob Simrell of the Universal exchange, are traveling downstate together this week.

District Manager Jess Clark, of Publix, spent several days in Jacksonville last week. Frank Dowler was in Jacksonville recently.

Other callers on film row last week were: C. C. Jordan, of the Delray Theatre, Delray, Florida; Ruff Thrift, of the Dixie Theatre, at McClenny; and L. A. Andrews, of the Rex Theatre, at Fernandino.

Manager C. R. Ellis, of the F B O exchange, is at present visiting in Chicago.

Mrs. Muriel Sikes, secretary to Branch Manager Ellis in the F B O exchange, has returned to Jacksonville, after spending her vacation in Lakeland.

James M. Wiest, well known in Tampa, he having managed the Tampa and the Strand, gave us a visit last week, accompanied by his wife. Jimmie is now managing the Palace at Bradenton, and reports business is coming along nicely. He has been successful in getting the city to permit Sunday shows and says they will open on the seven days schedule.

O. S. Hammer, manager of the Princess in Lakeland, is branching out. He has completed arrangements with the colored theatres in Plant City and Florence Villa to furnish the shows. During the summer months, Mr. Hammer states, he will operate only two nights weekly in Plant City, and just one night in Florence Villa.

Consolidated Amusements, of Tampa, have placed the management of their two popular priced down town houses, the Franklin and the Strand, in the hands of A. B. Heston. Mr. Heston, who took charge this week, hails from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, but he has been operating theatres for the Publix circuit for some time and has established a reputation as a "go-getter. J. H. McLaughlin, who is replaced at the Franklin, came to Tampa about ten years ago to manage the Prince theatre for Southern Enterprises. When this company was absorbed by Consolidated, Mac was transferred to the Franklin, which had just been built and has managed it since. Jack Hobby, the former manager of the Strand, has been transferred to Palatka, as stated in this column last week. Tampa now has two Iowa men at the head of theatres, the other being George B. Peck, at the Victory.

N. V. Darley, owner of the Rivoli in Ybor City and the Royal in Tarpon Springs, has been having a bad time with his stomach and the doctor ordered a complete rest, so Darley went to Cuba. He was much impressed with the tropical isle and pleasant visits with many of the officials, who, he says, speak English like a native.

Paul Laverents has closed his theatre, The Jungle, at Homosassa. He says he may reopen in July and try out the summer business, or he may let it stay dark until fall.

Charles A. Sappal, manager of the Central, Tampa, enjoyed a restful vacation in Miami last week.

South East

AT a convention of the Atlanta branch, sales promotion department and division office of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, held in the Ansley Hotel, Saturday, May 5, Miss Lois Davis, of the Atlanta office, was announced winner of the booker's prize in the Southern Division Contest sponsored personally by Division Manager Charles E. Kessnich during the month of March.

H. T. Peebles, who has been branch manager of Liberty-Specialty Film Distributing Corporation at Dallas, Texas, has been appointed assistant general manager of the company, according to news reaching film row this week. The appointment was made by General Manager W. G. Underwood, with whom Mr. Peebles has been associated for some years.

Ingram's theatre, Ashland, Ala., owned and operated by Ernest Ingram, has been closed for complete remodeling and the installation of new equipment, including reseating. Mr. Ingram plans to reopen the house about June 1.

John W. Mangham, Jr., Atlanta branch manager of Liberty-Specialty, made a business trip to Columbus, Ga., the early part of last week.

E. J. Sparks, of the Sparks Enterprise, Jacksonville, Fla., arrived last Wednesday for a short visit to Atlanta.

Friends of Joe Wheeler, of the Capitol theatre, Montgomery, Ala., will be glad to learn he has recovered from the tonsil operation he underwent last week.

Mose Klein, of the Lillian theatre, Clarksville, Tenn., spent last week in Atlanta.

O. C. Lam, of the Rivoli theatre, Rome, Ga., was a visitor to film row last week.

A. H. and J. H. McCarty, of the Mildred theatre, Barnesville, Ga., and Forsyth, Forsyth, Ga., made a recent trip to the exchange.

C. W. Maxey, of the Royal theatre, Summerville, Ga., was a recent caller on film row.

Ben Stein, of the Douglas theatre, Macon, Ga., was another recent visitor to the exchanges.

W. W. Anderson, branch manager of Pathe's Atlanta office, left last Wednesday to attend the company's convention to be held in Chicago, May 23.

T. E. Watson, of the Strand theatre, Montevallo and Princess, Piedmont, Ala., made a trip to Atlanta this week.

R. E. Martin, of the Martin theatres, Columbus, Ga., and B. E. Ponder, who has become his partner in the taking over of the Fainbow theatre, Opelika, from Mrs. J. W. Kramer, lessee, were visitors in the exchange last week.

Flynn Haygood, of the Grand theatre, Waynesboro, Ga., was in Atlanta Monday attending the state Rotary convention. He represented the Waynesboro chapter of the club.

Baltimore

T. M. CUSHING, movie and dramatic critic for the Baltimore Morning Sun, has resigned that position to give his full time to his work as director of the Play-Arts Guild, operating the Guild theatre, on West 22nd street, here. Mr. Cushing also has a number of engagements to direct concerts and outdoor spectacles and has now gone into the work as a professional rather than as an amateur.

Gilbert Reddish, assistant office manager of the Frank H. Durkee Interests here, underwent an operation at the Maryland General Hospital recently, and is reported to be getting along very nicely.

A theatre is to be built at Louisville, Ky., costing about $50,000, by the Parkway Amusement Company. It was designed by Carl J. Epping, architect.

Work is going forward on a theatre to be erected in Memphis, Tenn., by the Memphis Theatre and Realty Company. It will measure 228 by 114 feet and will cost approximately $1,000,000.

The James L. Kernan Company, which operates the Maryland and New Garden theatres here, and has operated the Maryland Hotel for the past 20 years, has re-[illegible] George B. McQuillen, of Jackson, Mich.

Central Penn

EIGHT hundred patrons of the Capitol theatre, Pottsville, Pa., were led to safety during a fire that filled a large portion of the building with smoke on the night of May 19.

It was impossible because of the smoke for the theatre patrons to depart by the regular exits, but they were directed to go through emergency exits to side streets. This was affected safely through the work of Samuel Friedman, manager of the theatre, his assistant, Lloyd Hause, and the corps of girl ushers, who emptied the auditorium within five minutes.

The damage was estimated at $2,500. The fire occurred on a Saturday night and the theatre was able to resume performances on the following Monday afternoon. The fact that the theatre is almost entirely of fire-proof construction prevented a more serious spread of the flames.

The site of the Victor theatre, 716 Hamilton street, Allentown, under the terms of a court order issued May 14, will be sold by the heirs of the late Jonas George, of Allentown, to John H. Snyder, of Reading. Extensive alterations and improvements are shortly to be made to the theatre.

A Pennsylvania charter of incorporation was granted at Harrisburg recently to the Hendel Theatre Enterprises, of Pittsburgh, organized to "purchase, sell and conduct places of amusement such as theatres, moving picture houses and other theatrical enterprises." The capital stock is $50,000, consisting of 500 shares of a par value of $100 each. The paid in capital is $5,000. Harry Hendel, of 5659 Marlborough street, Pittsburgh, is treasurer and one of the incorporators. The other incorporators are: Louis Hendel, 5523 Bryant street, Pittsburgh, and Robert Hendel, 109 Halket street, Pittsburgh.

J. V. Schreck, of Mt. Carmel, is planning to build a new elaborate theatre in Ashland. Vitaphone and Movietone devices will be part of the equipment of the house, which, it is expected, will be ready for opening about October 1.

George Cooper, owner of the Orpheum theatre, Carlisle, has denied a published report that the theatre, which is about to undergo extensive improvements, is to be sold to the Comerford Amusement Company, of Scranton. The Comerfords are reported, however, to be negotiating for the purchase of the Strand theatre, Carlisle, from R. S. Steele.

Motion pictures are being made by the State Game Commission, of Pennsylvania, of the game birds and animals of the state, for use in schools, clubs and other interested institutions. Complete films are now available of deer, bear and elk and many smaller varieties of game and birds.

An address on "The Theatre as an Important Community Institution" was given by Michael J. O'Toole, of Scranton and New York, general manager and executive secretary of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America, at a recent luncheon of the Hazleton Kiwanis Club.

The Orpheum theatre, Franklin, beginning May 21, reduced the prices of admission for the summer period to 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Robert Seidel has recovered from a recent severe illness and has resumed his duties as organist at the Park theatre, Lehighton.

Workmen are putting a new roof on the Hippodrome theatre, in York, which is a link in the chain operated by the Appell Amusement Enterprises. Late in the summer the interior of the theatre will be completely redecorated.

The Victoria theatre, Mahaney City, managed by Perry Hoffman, installed a new orchestra recently, which had its premiere presentation under direction of Michael Slowitsky.

Des Moines

CHECKING over the bookings of the smaller theatres of the state, Al Yarwosky, booker at the office of Universal in Des Moines, observed that fewer theatres have been closing this year. He believes that the late spring and delay in really warm weather partly accounts for this longer season for many houses.

The Cozy Theatre, at Dyersville, was recently remodeled.

The American Legion is operating the theatre at Klemme, Iowa, which was previously run by M. O. Barr.

The American Theatre, at Cherokee, Iowa, owned by Dale Goldie, has been repaired and redecorated.

C. C. Dunsmore, who recently bought the Legion Theatre at Marshalltown, is taking bids for a new house to be named the Capitol. The theatre is to have a seating capacity of 1,000, and full stage equipment.

Rainy weather caused a slump in visitors along film row. But among the faithful who came in spite of the wet was F. W. Curtis of Redfield.

Floyd Albert, formerly in the show business at Primghar, Iowa, but who for the past two years has been assistant cashier of the bank there, has bought the theatre at Cambridge, Ill., previously owned by R. S. Record.

Hubert Shrodt, manager of the Garden Theatre in Des Moines, was in an automobile accident last week, but was not badly hurt.

Callers last week at Fox were: Don Anderson of Boone, and A. C. Shuneman of Webster City.

Bert Thomas is now accessory manager for Universal in Des Moines, having jumped from the ranks. He was assistant shipper before he took the accessory manager's place succeeding Bill McGivern.

A. T. Chado is the new owner of the Rialto at Mechanicsville. Mr. Chado, who was formerly an exhibitor at Strawberry Point and at Cedar Rapids, bought the house from H. S. Robertson. The theatre has been named the Pastime.

L. E. Mathews, who owned the World Theatre at Lakota, Iowa, sold the house last week to A. B. Orgen. Mr. Mathews also sold his theatre at Buffalo Center to George F. Teever.

The Opera House, at Malcolm, Iowa, which has been operating during the winter season, is closing for the warm weather.

The Orpheum Theatre, at Donnelson, which has been closed for the winter months, is opening for the summer trade. This house is run by B. F. Warner.

Among exhibitors seen along the row were: W. P. Kale of Truro, W. C. Treloar of Ogden, F. C. Williams of Cedar Rapids, and A. T. Chado of Mechanicsville.

Joyce Reynolds is the new biller at the offices of Universal. She succeeds Alice Gannon who has resigned.

Eloise Bolton, telephone desk girl for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, made the announcement last week, that she has been married since last October.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones have again taken over the management of the Gem Theatre, a suburban house of Des Moines.

Jack Raper, manager of the Fox office, has departed for the managers' convention in New York City.

N. C. Rice, of the Call Opera House at Algona, was in Des Moines last week to visit Mrs. Rice who is ill at the hospital here.

Art Levy, who resigned his position as manager of the Des Moines office of Pathe on May 12th, will line up with another film organization after a vacation trip through Canada. He is succeeded at the Pathe office by W. Liebman.

E. P. Smith, president of the Iowa M. P. T. O. A., made a business trip to Omaha early last week.

A bonfire in an alley back of the theatre was thought to be the origin of a blaze which damaged the Laurens, at Laurens, Iowa.

Kansas City

PLANS for the annual convention of the M. P. T. O. Kansas-Missouri, which was to have been early in June, have been knocked into a cocked hat by the national Republican convention, which will be in Kansas City, starting June 12. The M. P. T. O. K-M has decided to postpone the date of its convention until after the Republican convention.

Glenn Dickinson has leased the O'Donnell building in Junction City, Kas., and will remodel it into what will be known as the Columbia theatre. The Palace theatre, Golden City, Mo., has been purchased by H. B. Wilson from Arthur Farr and C. R. Marshall.

The contest in which exchange salesmen of Kansas City have been competing to obtain the most new members for the M. P. T. O. Kansas-Missouri, will end June 1, R. R. Biechele, president of the M. P. T. O. K-M, announced. Prizes are to be offered those salesmen who finish with the best records.

Miss A. L. Menaugh, secretary of the Kansas City Film Board of Trade, left last Wednesday for San Francisco, where she will attend a convention of film board secretaries.

A new theatre will be erected in Edinburg, Texas, by Edward Grogger, owner of the Belmont theatre, Kansas City.

New York & New Jersey

BECAUSE it is directly in the path of the new subway, now under construction on the west side, it is believed that the Fugazy theatre, located at 150 West Houston street, will come down the latter part of the year. Rumor along the curb has it that Frank Valle, owner of the Fugazy, will counteract his misfortune in losing this beautiful house by erecting a new 1,500-seat theatre somewhere around the West Houston district.

Louis Gold, New Jersey theatre owner, is out of the hospital following a week's illness. Mr. Hennessy, also associated with the Gold interests, is at home recovering from an operation he recently underwent for Sinus trouble.

Plans have been completed by Ray Snyder, of Union City, N. J., for the erection of a new theatre at 127th street and 7th avenue, New York City, which will cater exclusively to colored patronage. The theatre is to be named "The Raymond," and the best of first run films and vaudeville acts will be presented. The architecture of the theatre will resemble that of the Embassy on Broadway, except for the fact that it will have balconies. The interior promises to outrival many of the sumptuous palaces of the Great White Way.

Publix theatres have broken ground for a new house to be built on Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, at an advantageous point between the A. H. Schwartz theatres, the Albermarl and Rialto.

It is reported that Keith's Flatbush theatre, located at Church and Flatbush avenues, Brooklyn, will close down in the near future on account of losing lease. To offset this closing, the Keith organization has put up the Kenmore theatre, almost directly across the street, where the former policy of pictures and vaudeville will be continued. The Flatbush, it is believed, will run stock.

Hymie Goldschein is now managing the Beverly theatre, in Brooklyn, for the Henry Seigel circuit.

The United and Subway theatres, on Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, have been closed. The latter is to be reopened by the owner, Sy Barr, after a spring house cleaning has been completed.

H. Gittleson, formerly manager of the Mayfair theatre, Coney Island avenue and Avenue U, Brooklyn, has been transferred to another Schwartz house, the Roosevelt, in Flushing.

Katherine Banahan, secretary to Jack Springer, owner of the Symphony and several other theatres on upper Broadway, is at present confined to her home with a nervous breakdown.

W. T. Bainbridge has sold his Dale theatre, at Farmingdale, Long Island. The new owners also operate another house in Farmingdale. Mr. Bainbridge will vacation temporarily, and later reenter the theatre business.

With the completion of alteration work in the near future, the Arverne theatre, Arverne, L. I., will open under the management of Adler & Company.

According to rumor along the curb, Milton Kronacher, "crack" Pathe salesman, is contemplating becoming an exhibitor.

The new Paramount theatre building on Flatbush Extension and Fulton street, Brooklyn, is in the final stages of construction. Fox is erecting a house on the opposite corner.

The opening of Pollak and Bratter's theatre at Nyack, New York, last Tuesday, was reported a huge success. Mort Bratter is manager.

Philadelphia

E. L. TRENCHARD, manager of the Stanley Company's Grand Theatre, Lancaster, Pa., for the past eight years, has been appointed assistant director of publicity for the Stanley Company interests. His office is in the new Stanley headquarters in the Earle Building, 11th and Market Sts., Philadelphia.

Sixty new members have joined the M. P. T. O. of Eastern Penna., Southern New Jersey and Delaware since the commencement of its drive on March 26th. The campaign has been extended for several weeks longer. George E. Schwartz, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer salesman, heads the list with 18 new members, while Bill Bethel, of De Luxe, is a close second with 17.

Doris Einstein, daughter of Abe L. Einstein, publicity director of the Stanley Company of America, is slowly recovering from a serious infection that followed the removal of her tonsils.

Work is progressing at a most satisfactory rate on the new Uptown Theatre, Broad and Susquehanna Ave., Philadelphia, which is being erected by Nate Goldman, who operates the Blue Bird Theatres, almost directly opposite the house now in course of construction. The Uptown will be one of the finest neighborhood houses in the city, and it is expected will be ready for occupancy early in the fall.

Charles G. Martin, who was for several years connected with the Pathe exchange, and was at one time Philadelphia manager for United Artists, has returned from New Haven, where he acted as branch manager for a time for the Pathe exchange there. Mr. Martin has temporarily reentered the real estate business.

Two men implicated by police in the murder of Max T. Harrison, assistant manager of the Cross Keys Theatre, 60th and Market Sts., Philadelphia, who was shot during an attempted hold up on March 23rd, were held without bail after a hearing in Central Station, and a third suspect has been arrested. Martha Yetter, who had just left the theatre and was seriously wounded by one of the bullets, is still in Misericordia Hospital.

Sam Rosen, local F B O sales manager, attended the firm's national convention in Chicago.

Fifteen motion picture theatres, of Allentown, Pa., which had previously voted to continue operating Standard Time in spite of the fact that all other institutions in the city went on a Daylight Saving basis, on May 1st, reversed their decision and turned the clock ahead in order to avoid the confusion incident to two kinds of time. Requests for the change became so numerous that the theatre managers acceeded to the popular demand in the interest of harmony.

Work will be started at an early date on the remodeling of the Elm theatre, 71st and Elmwood avenue, Philadelphia. Weiss Brothers are the owners.

Ground was broken on May 5th for a new $100,000 theatre at Mt. Ephraim, N. J. Thomas T. Lazarick is owner of the ground and head of the company in charge of the new house.

Bill Weber, formerly manager of Green & Altman's Avon and Jefferson theatres, is now in charge of their Northeastern theatre, Torresdale avenue and Benner street, Philadelphia, recently bought from John Smith.

Cincinnati

SOMEONE who evidently had a "nose for news" confiscated a Fox newsreel from the basement of the Madison Theatre, Mansfield, Ohio. The theft occurred early in May, but Manager Tim Roberts kept the matter quiet in the hope that the culprit might return the property. As this was not done, Roberts reported the matter to the police, who are investigating.

The State and Faurot Theatres, Lima, Ohio, have been taken over by the owners of the Sigma Theatre, of that city. Both houses are being remodeled, and will play regular stage attractions on Saturdays and Sundays, with the balance of the week devoted to a straight picture policy.

The Ceramic Theatre, East Liverpool, Ohio, is to undergo extensive remodeling, which, according to Manager William C. Tallman, will cost around $100,000. Movietone and Vitaphone will be installed.

The Webber Theatre, Dover, Ohio, which has been closed for several weeks, has been reopened. A. V. Abel is manager.

The Crown Theatre, New Bremen, Ohio, built some 15 years ago by the late Herbert Schulenberg, but more recently owned and operated by Dr. R. C. Becker, of Piqua, Ohio, has been acquired by Tom Larkins, of St. Marys, Ohio. No change is policy is contemplated.

Griff. Granger, manager of the Kaypee Theatre, Mt. Gilead, Ohio, was among those present at the recent banquet given by the F B O offices at Cleveland in honor of Tom Mix.

R. A. Werner has sold his Happiness Theatre to Chas. Hahn, at Sherwood, Ohio.

The Kenton Amusement Co., of which William Kraus is head, will build a new theatre in that city, according to a decision reached at a special meeting of the building committee.

Milwaukee

JACK RETLAW is now manager of the Midwesco group of theatres at Kenosha. He succeeds J. L. Morrissey, who has resigned to take charge of the Detroit activities of White Towers, Inc., a Saxe enterprise.

Mrs. Minnie Gilman, of the Princess theatre at Plymouth, was in the city on business last Monday.

Now that the Fox exchange has been opened officially, the Theatrette is in operation and daily screenings are being held for exhibitors.

August Berkholz of the Mermac theatre at West Bend was in early the past week to transact business at several of the exchanges.

Don Smith, manager of the new Capitol theatre at Racine, was in last week, arranging the final details for the opening of the Capitol, which is scheduled for Decoration Day.

W. A. Aschmann, Pathe manager, has celebrated his return to the office by buying a new car.

Mrs. August Gloe of the Rivoli theatre at Two Rivers came in to Milwaukee recently to check up on bookings.

Rose Mary Grant has returned to her duties in the M-G-M office after an illness of two weeks.

Neil Duffy, manager of the Elite theatre at Appleton, was in the city recently on business.

The Lyric theatre at Peshtigo has been turned over by O. Larson to Miss Helen Connelly, who will conduct the house in the future.

The Majestic theatre at Reedsburg has been closed, according to an announcement from P. H. Conley, manager.

Harold Sliter, sales representative for Fox, has been confined to the Misericordia hospital for the past three weeks.

The Venus theatre, according to Steve Bauer, manager, will be closed indefinitely.

D. M. Saunders, sales manager for M-G-M from the New York office, and S. A. Shirley, district manager, were in the M-G-M exchange recently for a brief visit.

Ed. Fuchs, manager of the Opera House at Marion, was here recently to confer with bookers at several exchanges.

Ben Koenig, secretary of the Film Board, left last Wednesday for the Film Board Secretaries' convention in Los Angeles.

The Community Theatres, Inc., have opened offices at 603 Carpenter building.

Arthur Wilson, home office auditor, is spending a few days in the local Fox exchange. J. R. Berry, traveling master booker, is also spending some time at the Fox office.

Dan Kelliher, southern Wisconsin exhibitor, was among visitors at the exchanges recently.

S. H. Abrams, manager of F B O, left last Sunday for Chicago to attend the annual convention.

Homer Gill, former manager of the Oshkosh theatre, at Oshkosh, has been promoted to the district managership of Midwesco Theatres, Inc. He is succeeded by Jess Day. Mr. Day was formerly manager of the Des Moines theatre for the Blank interests.

Emil Jolson, brother of the famous Al, was in the city recently making business calls on various exchanges.

J. S. Ambrose, manager of the Chicago branch of United Artists, was in Milwaukee last Wednesday.

F. G. Sliter, manager of the Fox exchange, left last Friday for New York to attend the national convention.

Mark Morgan, sales representative, announces, some what belatedly, that he is a proud father. His son is now three weeks old.

N. R. Scheinpaugh, Fox representative, is ill in a Minneapolis hospital at the present time.

A. L. Otto, manager of the Auditorium theatre at Seymour, put in his appearance in Milwaukee exchanges after an absence of several months.

George McKeen, personal representative of James R. Grainger, of the Fox organization, has been in Milwaukee for two weeks covering the territory for Fox News.

Mr. Guthrie, manager of the Town Hall at Muskegon, was a recent visitor to film row.

Cleveland

A CHANGE of policy has been announced for Loew's Park theatre to become effective Sunday, May 27th. On that date presentations will make way for a combination vaudeville and picture policy, with two complete changes a week. The vaudeville will split its week with the Granada, Loew's West Side house. Instead of first run pictures, the Park, under this policy, will show pictures that have been downtown successes. With this change of policy comes also a change of personnel. Angelo Vitale and his popular Park Theatre orchestra will go over to the Granada, and Ray Steck, who has an equally successful orchestral leader and the Granada, will bring his men over to the Park. Likewise will there be a shifting around of managers. George Gilliam, Park manager, becomes manager of the Cameo. He follows Fred Coddington, who takes over the Mall. Howard Foerste, who was assistant manager at the State some years ago, has been appointed manager at the Park and George Dumond, presentation production manager, will become resident manager at the Granada.

Frank Drew, local M-G-M exchange manager, returned last week from the M-G-M sales convention.

Anna Gusdanovic, the oldest of Paul Gusdanovic's four daughters, was married last Wednesday in St. Thomas' church to Francis X. Busher, of Cleveland. Paul Gusdanovic is one of the leading theatre owners of Cleveland.

Saul Resnick, and Harry Gold, branch sales manager and district sales manager respectively for United Artists left last Saturday to attend the U. A. convention in Chicago.

Jack Flanigan of Tri-State Motion Picture Company, is going to have a busy summer. He took pictures of the Bremen flyers both in New York and in Cleveland, "covered" the Kentucky Derby, has some appointments next week in New York, and will do both the Republican and Democratic conventions.

Starting in May, Board of Arbitration meeting will alternate monthly between the Film Board of Trade and the Cleveland Motion Picture Exhibitors Association. The May meetings are being held in the Exhibitor headquarters.

Mrs. Georgia Moffett, secretary of the Cleveland Film Board of Trade left here last Wednesday bound for Los Angeles and the convention of Film Board secretaries. She plans to be gone two weeks.

Euclid Beach Theatre opened May 19th, and once again it is under the management of Joe Leavitt, who has been operating this amusement park theatre for many years.

Luna Park, which opened last week, has substituted free motion pictures for free vaudeville as on previous summers.

Herman Garfield is spending some time in this territory in the interest of Samuel Bischoff Productions of Hollywood.

Nat Barach has been dismissed from Battle Creek Sanitarium where he has been undergoing a series of health treatments, and will be in harness selling Vitaphone equipment some time next week.

A. A. Millman has closed the Cleveland branch of International Film Exchange and has returned to New York. S. Silverstein is now handling distribution of productions formerly distributed by International. Silverstein is located in 219 Film Exchange Bldg.

F. W. Gebhardt is now located here in the interest of Vitaphone sales. Gebhardt is covering the Cleveland, Buffalo and Detroit territories.

Cleveland had a distinguished visitor last week. No less a person than Jack Woody. Mr. Woody, is now assistant of Fox's general sales manager, J. R. Grainger. E. T. Gomersall of the Fox home office, chaperoned Woody during his short visit in Cleveland.

Ward Scott, local Fox exchange manager, made a pre-convention trip to New York last week. He leaves again next week to attend the gathering of the Fox clan in New York.

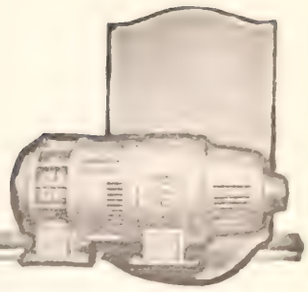
Denver

HARRY STERN, former manager for United Artists in Salt Lake, and now a special representative for that company, is in Denver for a stay of about three weeks.

Duke W. Dunbar, Secretary of the Denver Film Board of Trade, accompanied by Mrs. Dunbar, left last week for Los Angeles, to attend the convention of Film Board Secretaries. He is motoring through, and expects to be back in Denver by June first.

Thos. E. Villnave, Casper, Wyo., theatre manager, was in Denver the past week.

Word has been received of a change of ownership of the Rialto Theatre, Palisade, Colorado. Mr. Delford Taylor has sold this theatre to Mr. Anton J. Danielson.



Eugene Gerbase returned last week from Los Angeles, where he attended the Columbia convention.

W. F. Nicholson and J. W. Ady, of the Burns Theatre, Colorado Springs, were Denver visitors last week.

Projection

Optics, Electricity, Practical Ideas & Advice

Inquiries and Comments

On Faith

IT is the custom, fixed by long years of teachings and practice, for projectionists, the world over, to have at all times a clear view of the screen on which the picture is being projected. At first thought, this would seem to be a most obvious requirement for the attainment of satisfactory projection as it is necessary for the projectionist to be instantly ready to correct any fault which might appear during the course of projection.

So firmly is the idea of "watchful waiting" intrenched in the field of projection that some persons even advocate that the projectionist plant himself beside the projector in operation and never move himself therefrom, the better to be able to instantly detect each faults in projection, when—and if—they occur.

This constant attention to the immediate duty of projection is an heritage of the days when the equipment available and the condition of the film, were such that faults did occur with annoying frequency so that it required every minute of the projectionist's time to keep a picture on the screen—and a not very good picture at that.

The continuance of this practice today, however, is really an admission—or, perhaps, it would be better to say, a suspicion—that present projection equipment is likely to fail at any moment, or that any one of the innumerable things are likely to happen which would result in a dark screen, not to mention those which would cause less serious, although visible, defects.

Blind Projection

It appears that this suspicion is ill-founded and has no real reason for existing. This was most forcibly brought home to the writer when, during a recent inspection of a fairly large suburban theatre, he entered the projection room and was dumbfounded to see every observation port covered with a hinged metal door, everyone of which was kept tightly closed while projection was in progress.

It was utterly impossible for anyone in the projection room to see into the theatre unless an observation port door was opened, and not once, while the writer was present in the room did the projectionist so much as touch a door for the purpose of seeing what kind of a job of projection was being done.

In fact, while the projector was running, he concerned himself with numerous other duties about the room, preparing spotlight and slide projector parts, replacing carbons, inspecting and rewinding film and, in fact, overlooking no detail in the coming operation of the machines which were to be used next.

From the time the active projector was started until it stopped, not the slightest concern was shown about the picture being projected.

When asked for an explanation concerning the metal port hole doors, the projectionist made a statement which could only be construed as an expression of extreme confidence in the ability of equipment manufacturers to provide him with apparatus which could be relied on implicitly to function perfectly at all times, if only reasonable care and attention were given toward keeping it in condition.

He went on to explain that nothing was overlooked when preparing the projectors for operation and that everything which contributed directly to projecting the picture was inspected and adjusted before each of the machines was placed in action. This was done not once a week, or once a day, but every time the machine was used. Each day's experience had taught him that if this attention was paid to preparing the projectors for action, nothing could happen—aside from an outright accident—which could possibly mar the projection results on the screen. It was useless, therefore, he reasoned, to look at the screen and in order to break himself of the habit of frequently walking to a port hole to observe the screen, he had taken the bull by the horns, so to speak, and had effectively plugged up each port hole, the better to be able to resist the temptation of sneaking a look.

He broke himself of the habit, finally, and at the time of the writer's visit his attitude was one of extreme disregard for what was happening on the screen. He knew that everything was all right because he had reliable equipment and he had done his part toward seeing that nothing had been overlooked which would prevent the show from running as smoothly as if he had glued himself at the observation port.

When asked about the possibility of accidents his answer was to the effect that accidents were likely to happen any time and the fact that he was operating blindly would neither prevent an accident nor yet make it worse. His argument was that he had done everything to prevent an accident so that if one should really happen, it would have to be of such nature that he would instantly detect it inside the projection room and would, therefore, have notice of its occurrence.

After thinking things over, we reached the conclusion that this projectionist's idea was not so absurd as it seemed on first thought. After all, is it really necessary to incessantly watch the motion picture screen during projection? Will such watching prevent a fault from occurring?

Looking Toward the Future

It is more reasonable to suppose that such attention to the screen is based on a suspicion in the projectionist's mind that all is not right with his equipment or that he has overlooked something in preparing the projector for action. It is in the nature of an unnecessary worry which dogs the projectionist and keeps him from performing those duties which, if done, would relieve him of this fear and leave him with a clear mind. These fears are entirely groundless because he has the equipment necessary to produce best results. If he will but study the equipment and then do the things necessary to permit the equipment to work as the builder intended it should, then there is no reason why anything should happen to mar the projection.

In this mechanical age, it is safe to place reliance on the accuracy and certain operation of mechanical devices rather than on human capabilities. This is being proved every day.

Huge transatlantic liners are guided through the thickest fogs with an accuracy as perfect as though no fog existed by means of radio bearings. These same ships take depth soundings by means of sound waves which instantly reveal to the pilot the nature of the bottom and the depth of water beneath the ship. Railroad trains are guided by night by signals in which the engineer has implicit faith even though he cannot see what lies before him. Even in warfare, the artillery does its stuff effectively without seeing hide or hair of the enemy.

The most remarkable evidence of the precision of blind operation when based on mechanical devices, is found in aviation. Lindbergh astounded the world when he flew a "blind" plane from New York to Paris, placing absolute reliance on the instrument board before him and on his uncanny sense of flying.

Byrd's flight to the North Pole was successful primarily because of the earth indicator compass which guided his flight because a magnetic compass is useless in that part of the world.

And so on without end, cases can be cited where the frailties of human judgment have been superseded by the infallible guidance of unemotional scientific devices and mechanical engines.

True it is, that the preparatory work necessary to placing these devices in operation is, and always will be, of great importance because if errors of adjustment are made, there are no means by which such errors may be self-corrected by the particular machine. If the preliminary work —designed by engineers!

(Continued on following page)

Anyone who understands machines will give a hearty O. K. to the design and construction of your Gold Seal. Years of expert thought and experience have brought it to its present high state of perfection. Long service is built into every part.

GOLD SEAL
Ticket Registers
and "Tickets That Fit"

The more you examine a Gold Seal, the better you appreciate why it has so many satisfied users. Look at the case hardened surfaces wherever continuous wear comes, the bronze bearings on all driving shafts, the rust-proof steel on all exposed parts, the sturdy cast aluminum ticket wheel, etc. The Gold Seal has only one driving mechanism for two, three, four, five or six units—and the lubrication is sealed in. Only a Gold Seal can give you this complete Gold Seal satisfaction.

Our Reserved Seat Ticket Plants in Boston and New York Can Save You Money. Get Our Estimates.

GOLD SEAL — USED WHEREVER AUTOMATIC SYSTEM TICKETS ARE SOLD — THE MARK OF PERFECTION

AUTOMATIC Ticket Register Corporation

723 Seventh Ave., New York

Independent Printers of Quality Tickets for Every Purpose.

STOCK PROGRAMS PROGRAM COVERS
For
Moving Picture Houses
Joseph Hoover & Sons Company
Market and 49th Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

A BUSINESS BOOSTER
for your theatre
A Beautiful, 2-color Program, all Features written up for you, Printed and Delivered to your theatre at a small cost.
Write for Samples and Prices to
THE DERBY PROGRAM CO.
1799 Jerome Ave. New York City
2015 So. Vermont Ave. Los Angeles, Calif.

R. E. Martin Opens New Theatre at Columbus, Ga.

BEFORE an enthusiastic audience of 3,000, the largest number of theatregoers ever assembled in Columbus, Ga., the new Royal Theatre was recently formally dedicated.

The Royal, newest house in the chain of six theatres owned and operated by R. E. Martin, pioneer showman of this city, surpassed all expectations of viewers in its beauty. With a background of sixteen years of successful experience as theatre owner and manager, together with a careful survey made of theatres in New York and other large cities, Mr. Martin incorporated into his new venture the most modern ideas and conveniences, presenting to Columbus a theatre which in every sense of the word reflects an outstanding credit to her, in matter of fact, to a city of much larger size than she.

Besides bringing the best of first-run pictures to Columbus, the Royal brings the innovation of vaudeville attractions, which will inevitably promote the popularity of the theatre.

For a first night, the entire program clicked unusually well, and drew cordial admiration from all patrons.

Through the courtesy of Pathe News, moving pictures were made of the first-nighters and speakers by Tracy Mathewson, considered the best cameraman in this section.

The policy of the Royal will consist of daily change of first class pictures with a split week vaudeville.

Standard
VAUDEVILLE
for
Motion Picture Presentation

THE FALLY MARKUS AGENCY
Astor Theatre Building
N. W. Cor. 45th St. & Broadway
Lackawanna 7876

Inquiries and Comments

(Continued from preceding page.)

is accurate, however, the results, barring accidents, will not be in doubt.

So why not operate a motion picture show blindly? What good to look at the screen if the groundwork of preparation has been accurately performed on reliable machines? Years of experience have proved that these projectors are reliable if only they are given the proper attention.

And by the same token careful attention to detail and good equipment will absolutely assure the success of any performance.

Each Month The Showman Issue of Motion Picture News Carries announcements of Vital Interest to All Theatre Owners

Hot days are coming. Put cool, refreshing Typhoon Breezes on the job. They cost nothing because they pay for themselves.

Write for Booklet 3

Typhoon Fan Company
345 W. 39th Street New York, N. Y.
Offices in Principal Cities

COMPLETE RELEASE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of Distributors in order that the Exhibitor may have a short-cut toward such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features which are finished or are in work, but to which release dates have not been assigned, are listed in "Coming Attractions" (S. R. indicates State Right release.)

Refer to THE MOTION PICTURE NEWS BOOKING GUIDE for Productions Listed Prior to September

BRAY PRODUCTIONS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Co-Ed, The	Murdock-Cavalier-Lancaster	Feb.	10	2 reels	Jan. 7
Barnyard Rivals	W. Lantz-M. Shaw-T. Ward	Mar.	10	2 reels	Mar. 17
Cat Tales	McDougall Kids	Feb.	20	2 reels
Cutting Up	McDougall Kids	Mar.	20	2 reels	Mar. 17
Daze of '49	J. Cooper-L. Carver	Jan.	2	2 reels	Feb. 4
Duke's Dirty Doings	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Feb.	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Fowl Play	McDougall Kids	April	20	2 reels
Lost in the Lurch	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Mar.	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mr. Pooh	McDougall Kids	Jan.	20	2 reels	Jan. 7

COLUMBIA

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Storm	Bosworth-Gilbert-Delaney	April	19	5459 feet
By Whose Hand?	Cortez-Gilbert	Sept.	15	5432 feet	Jan. 7
Broadway Daddies	Logan-Lease	April	7	5406 feet
College Hero, The	Agnew-Lease-Garon	Oct.	9	5628 feet	Dec. 9
Desert Bride, The	Compson-Forrest	Mar.	26	5425 feet
Fashion Madness	Windsor-Howes	Dec	8	5513 feet	Mar. 31
Golf Widows	Ford-Reynolds-Rand	May	1	5592 feet
Isle of Forgotten Women	Tearle-Sebastian	Sept.	27	5645 feet	Jan. 21
Lady Raffles	Taylor-Drew	Jan.	25	5471 feet
Matinee Idol, The	Walker-Love	Mar.	14	5925 feet	May 5
Modern Mothers	Chadwick-Fairbanks, Jr.-Kent	May	13	5540 feet
Name the Woman	Stewart-Glass	May	25
Opening Night, The	Windsor-Bowers	Nov.	14	5524 feet	Mar. 17
Sally in Our Alley	Mason-Arlen	Sept.	3	5892 feet
Siren, The	Revier-T. Moore	Dec.	20	5996 feet
So This Is Love	Mason-Collier-Walker	Feb.	6	5611 feet
Sporting Age, The	Bennett-Herbert-Nye	Mar.	2	5467 feet
Stage Kisses	Harlan-Chadwick	Nov.	2	5435 feet
That Certain Thing	Graves-Dana	Jan.	1	6047 feet	Mar. 10
Tigress, The	Holt-Revier	Oct.	21	5357 feet	Mar. 17
Warning, The	Holt-Revier	Nov.	26	5791 feet	Jan. 7
Wife's Relations, The	Mason-Glass	Jan.	13	5508 feet	April 28
Woman's Way, A	Livingston-Baxter	Feb.	18	5472 feet

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Beware of Blondes
Gangster, The	Livingston-Day
Ransom	Wilson-Burns
Way of the Strong, The	Stewart-Glass
Virgin Lips	Borden-Boles

EDUCATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
All Bear	Curiosities	April	29	1 reel	April 21
All Set	Lupino-Sargent-Hutton	Jan.	15	1 reel	Feb. 4
Always a Gentleman	Lloyd Hamilton	Feb.	5	2 reels	Feb. 18
At It Again	Monty Collins	May	13	2 reels	April 28
Between Jobs	Lloyd Hamilton	Mar.	18	2 reels
Blazing Away	Lloyd Hamilton	April	22	2 reels	April 7
Builders of Bridges	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Feb.	26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Call of the Sea, The	Hope Hampton	Jan.	1	2 reels	Dec. 31
Chilly Days	"Big Boy"	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Circus Blues	Dorothy Devore	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 17
Count Me Out	Barney Hellum	Mar.	11	1 reel	Mar. 3
Crown Me	Wallace Lupino	June	3	1 reel
Cutie	Dorothy Devore	Jan.	15	2 reels	Feb. 18
Dog Days—Sun and Rain	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Jan.	29	1 reel	Feb. 25
Dummies	Larry Semon	Jan.	1	2 reels	Dec. 23
Fall In	Monty Collins	Jan.	1	1 reel	Dec. 23
Fandango	Lupino Lane	May	6	2 reels	April 14
Felix the Cat in Arabiantics	"Sullivan Cartoon"	May	13	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Comicalities	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	1	1 reel	April 21
Felix the Cat Draggin' Dragon	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Jan.	22	1 reel	Feb. 25
Felix the Cat in Eskimotive	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	29	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Futuritzy	"Sullivan Cartoon"	June	24	1 reel
Felix in In-and-Out-Laws	"Sullivan Cartoon"	May	27	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Japanicky	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Mar.	4	1 reel	Mar. 31
Felix in Ohm Sweet Ohm	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Feb.	19	1 reel	Mar. 17
Felix in Outdoor Indoor	"Sullivan Cartoon"	June	10	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Polly-tics	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Mar.	18	1 reel	April 14
Felix in Sure-Lock Homes	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	15	1 reel	May 5
Felix the Cat in the Oily Bird	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Feb.	5	1 reel	Mar. 10
Felix in the Smoke Screen	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Jan.	8	1 reel	Feb. 18
Feline Frolics—Tonquin Valley	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Mar.	25	1 reel	Mar. 10
Fighting Orphans—Evening Mist	Bruce Outdoor Sketch			1 reel
Gloom Chaser, The	"Big Boy"	June	24	2 reels
Green-Eyed Love	Ruby McCoy-George Hall	April	8	1 reel	Mar. 24
Hectic Days	Lupino Lane	June	17	2 reels
High Strung	Jerry Drew	Jan.	29	2 reels	Feb. 4
Hints on Hunting—Day by Sea	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	April	22	1 reel	Mar. 31
His Maiden Voyage	George Davis	Feb.	26	2 reels	Feb. 18
Homemade Man, A	Lloyd Hamilton	June	17	2 reels
How to Please the Public	Hodge Podge	Mar.	11	1 reel	Mar. 17
Indiscrete Pete	Jerry Drew	Mar.	11	2 reels	Mar. 10
Kitchen Talent	George Davis	April	15	2 reels	Mar. 31
Landlord Blues	Curiosities	May	27	1 reel
Listen Sister	Lupino Lane	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Love's Springtime	H. Hampton-J. Catalaine	Feb.	12	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mother Birds	Curiosities	Mar.	4	1 reel	Feb. 18
Mysterious Night, A	Monty Collins	Feb.	12	1 reel	Feb. 4
Navy Beans	"Big Boy"	May	27	2 reels	May 12
Never Too Late	Wallace Lupino	May	6	1 reel	April 28
New York's Sweetheart	Curiosities	Jan.	1	1 reel	Feb. 11
Nicknames	Hodge-Podge	April	8	1 reel	April 21
No Fare	"Big Boy"	April	8	2 reels	Mar. 24
Off Balance	Monty Collins	April	22	1 reel	April 14
Peculiar Pair of Pups, A	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	May	20	1 reel	May 5
Penny Postals	Curiosities	April	1	1 reel	Mar. 17
Pretty Baby	Monty Collins	Feb.	26	1 reel	Feb. 18
Racing Mad	Al St. John	Jan.	11	2 reels	Jan. 28
Rah Rah Rah	Dorothy Devore	June	3	2 reels
Recollections of a Rover	Hodge-Podge	Jan.	8	1 reel	Feb. 4
Rubbernecking	Curiosities	Feb.	5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Running Ragged	Lewis Sargent	Jan.	29	1 reel	Feb. 4
Sailor Boy	Monty Collins	June	17	1 reel
Say Ah-h	Charley Bowers	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Simple Sap, A	Larry Semon	Feb.	12	2 reels	Feb. 25
Slippery Head	Johnny Arthur	April	29	2 reels	April 21
Spring Has Came	Monty Collins	Mar.	25	1 reel	Mar. 17
Star Shots	Hodge-Podge	Feb.	5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Sword Points	Lupino Lane	Feb.	12	2 reels	Dec. 31
There It Is	Charley Bowers	Jan.	1	2 reels	Jan. 7
Thoughts While Fishing	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	June	17	1 reel
Three Tough Onions	Monty Collins	May	20	1 reel	May 12
Visitors Welcome	Johnny Arthur	Mar.	4	2 reels	Mar. 10
Wandering Toy, The	Hodge-Podge	May	6	1 reel
Wedding Slips	Monty Collins	Jan.	1	1 reel	Feb. 11
Whoozit	Charley Bowers	April	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Who's Lyin'	Davis-Collins	June	10	2 reels
Wildcat Valley	Johnny Arthur	Jan.	22	2 reels	Feb. 4
Wild Wool—Night Clouds	Bruce Outdoor Sketch			1 reel
You'll Be Sorry	Charley Bowers	May	20	2 reels	May 19

EXCELLENT PICTURES (S. R.)

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Back to Liberty	Walsh-Hall	Nov.	10	5980 feet
Bit of Heaven, A	Lee-Washburn	April
Bowery Cinderella, A	O'Malley-Hulette	Nov.	1	6900 feet	Nov. 25
Broadway Madness	De La Motte-Keith	Oct.	1	6300 feet	Oct. 14
Satan and the Woman	Windsor-Keefe	Dec.	15	6400 feet	Mar. 10
Stronger Will	Marmont-Carewe	Jan.	15	6600 feet
Women Who Dare	Chadwick-Delaney	Mar.

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Life's Crossroads	Hulette-Hamilton
You're in the Army Now	Santschi-Blythe

F B O

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Aflame in the Sky	Lynn-Luden	Dec.	18	6034 feet	Nov. 11
Alex the Great	Gallagher-Dwyer	May	13	5886 feet	Mar. 24
Bandit's Son, The	Steele-Sheridan	Nov.	20	4789 feet
Bantam Cowboy, The	Buzz Barton	Aug.	12	4893 feet
Beyond London's Lights	Shumway-Elliott	Mar.	18	5583 feet	Feb. 25
Boy Rider, The	Buzz Barton	Oct.	23	4858 feet	Sept. 30
Breed of the Sunsets	Bob Steele	April	1	4869 feet
Cherokee Kid, The	Tyler-Lynn	Oct.	30	4837 feet	Mar. 3
Chicago After Midnight	Mendez-Ince	Mar.	4	6249 feet	Mar. 17
Clancy's Kosher Wedding	Sidney-Lease-Lynn	Sept.	17	5701 feet	Aug. 26'27
Coney Island	Wilson-Mendez	Jan.	13	6390 feet	Feb. 25
Crooks Can't Win	Lewis-Hill-Nelson	May	11
Dead Man's Curve	Fairbanks, Jr.-Blane	Jan.	15	5511 feet	Dec. 23
Desert Pirate, The	Tyler-Thompson	Dec.	25	4754 feet
Devil's Trade Mark, The	Bennett-Mong-Douglas	April	7	5984 feet
Dog Justice	Ranger-Martin	June	10	5043 feet
Driftin' Sands	Bob Steele	Jan.	1	4770 feet
Fangs of the Wild	Ranger-Kitchen	Feb.	5	4804 feet	Jan. 14
Fighting Redhead, The	Buzz Barton	July	1	4758 feet
Flying U Ranch, The	Tyler-Lane	Sept.	4	4924 feet
Freckles	Bosworth-Fox, Jr.	Mar.	21	6131 feet	Jan. 28
Gingham Girl, The	Wilson-Arthur	Oct.	2	6301 feet	July 29 '27
Harvester, The	Kingston-Caldwell	Nov.	23	7045 feet	Nov. 25
Her Summer Hero	Thompson-Trevor-Blane	Feb.	12	5146 feet	Dec. 30
Hook and Ladder No. 9	Ellis-Keefe-Hearn	Nov.	13	5240 feet	Dec. 16
In a Moment of Temptation	Stevens-Keefe	Sept.	18	5605 feet	Nov. 11
Jake the Plumber	Devorska-Lynn	Oct.	16	5186 feet	Nov. 4
Judgment of the Hills	Valli-Caldwell	Nov.	6	6481 feet	Aug. 19'27
Law of Fear, The	Ranger-Reid-Nelson	April	8	4769 feet	Mar. 10
Legionnaires in Paris	Cooke-Guard	Jan.	31	5893 feet
Little Buckaroo, The	Buzz Barton	Mar.	11	4801 feet
Little Mickey Grogan	Darro-Ralston-Nye	Dec.	27	6515 feet	Mar. 3
Little Yellow House, The	Sleeper-Caldwell	May	28	6829 feet	April 21
Loves of Ricardo, The	George Beban	June	17	5181 feet	Sept. 4 '26
Man in the Rough, The	Steele-King	May	20	4748 feet
Mojave Kid, The	Steele-Gilmore	Sept.	25	4924 feet	Aug. 12'27
Phantom of the Range	Tyler-Thompson-Darro	April	22	4781 feet	Feb. 11
Pinto Kid, The	Barton-Trevor-Lee	April	29	4884 feet	Jan. 7
Racing Romeo, The	Grange-Ralston	Sept.	1	5992 feet	Dec. 18
Ranger of the North	Ranger (dog)	Oct.	9	4977 feet
Red Riders of Canada	Miller-Byer	April	15	6419 feet	Dec. 23
Riding Renegade, The	Bob Steele	Feb.	18	4729 feet
Sally of the Scandals	Love-Forrest	July	15
Shanghaied	Miller-Ince	Oct.	19	5999 feet	Aug. 26'27
Skinner's Big Idea	Washburn-Sleeper-Trevor	May	11	5967 feet	Mar. 17
Slingshot Kid, The	Barton-Morgan-Rice	Dec.	4	4486 feet
South Sea Love	Miller-Shumway-Brooks	Dec.	10	6388 feet	Feb. 18
Swift Shadow, The	Ranger (dog)	Dec.	11	4897 feet	Dec. 23

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Trail of Courage, The	Steele-Bonner	July	8
Wall Flowers	Trevor-Arthur-Todd	Feb.	16	6339 feet
When the Law Rides	Tyler-Darro	June	24	4698 feet
Wizard of the Saddle	Barton-Thompson	Jan.	22	4805 feet	Dec. 30

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Squall	Al Cooke	April	30	2 reels
All Alike	Carr-Alexander-Ross	April	9	2 reels
All Washed Up	Al Cooke	Feb.	6	2 reels
Almost a Gentleman	Al Cooke	June	25	2 reels
Are Husbands People?	Al Cooke	April	2	2 reels
Big Berthas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	May	14	2 reels
Come Meal	Al Cooke	June	11	2 reels
Happy Trio, The	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Mar.	12	2 reels
Heavy Infants	Karr-Ross-Alexander	June	11	2 reels
Joyful Days	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Aug.	14	2 reels
Mickey's Babies	Mickey Yule	Aug.	7	2 reels
Mickey's in Love	Mickey Yule	June	4	2 reels
Mickey in School	Mickey Yule	Feb.	6	2 reels
Mickey's Little Eva	Mickey Yule	April	2	2 reels
Mickey's Nine	Mickey Yule	Mar.	5	2 reels
Mickey's Parade	Mickey Yule	Jan.	2	2 reels
Mickey's Triumph	Mickey Yule	July	3	2 reels
Mickey's Wild West	Mickey Yule	May	7	2 reels
My Kingdom For a Hearse	Al Cooke	April	16	2 reels
Oui Oui Heidelberg	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Feb.	13	2 reels
Panting Papas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Jan.	9	2 reels
Rah!, Rah! Rexie	Al Cooke	Feb.	20	2 reels	Feb. 18
Restless Bachelors	Al Cooke	May	14	2 reels
Silk Sock Hal	Al Cooke	May	28	2 reels
Social Error, A	Al Cooke	Jan.	23	2 reels	Feb. 11
Standing Pat	Karr-Ross-Alexander	July	9	2 reels
Too Many Hisses	Al Cooke	Mar.	5	2 reels
Top Hats	Al Cooke	Mar.	19	2 reels

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Battling Buckaroo, The	Tyler-Clair
City of Shadows, The	Luden-Lynn
Danger Street	Baxter-Sleeper
Down Our Way	Valli-Caldwell-Darro
Gang War
Eagle's Ta'ons, The	Tom Tyler
Headin' for Danger	Steele-Mendez
Hit of the Show, The	Brown-Astor-Olmstead
Perfect Crime, The	Rich-Brook-McConnell
Saddle and Spurs	Barton-Eason
Stocks and Blondes	Logan-Gallagher
Taxi 13	Conklin-Sleeper-Trevor

FIRST DIVISION (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Comrades	Keith-Hughes-H. Costello	Jan.	1	5970 feet	Mar. 10
Death Valley	Nye-Wells-Rae	Nov.	15	5880 feet	Aug. 12
Devil's Cage, The	Garon-Keith	May
Fagasa	Kelly-Kelton-Wells	Mar.
Finnegan's Ball	Landis-Mehaffey	Oct.	1	6200 feet	Dec. 9
Masked Angel, The	Compson-Oakman	Feb.	1	5700 feet	Mar. 24
Merry Wives of New York	Pauline Garon	Jan.
Polly of the Movies	Short-Robards	Dec.	15	6900 feet
Ragtime	De La Motte-Bowers	Sept.	15	6700 feet	Sept. 9
Souls Aflame	James-Wells-Lard	Mar.
Temptations of a Shop Girl	Compson-Garon-Kaliz	Dec.	1	5604 feet

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Free Lips	Marlowe-Novak

FIRST NATIONAL
FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
American Beauty	Dove-Hughes	Oct.	9	6333 feet	Oct. 21
Barker, The	Sills-Compson-Mackaill	Aug.	19
Big Noise, The	Conklin-Hardy-White	Mar.	25	7400 feet	May 12
Breakfast at Sunrise	Talmadge-Alvarado	Oct.	23	6042 feet	Dec. 16
Burning Daylight	Sills-Kenyon	Mar.	11	6500 feet	April 28
Camille	Talmadge-Roland	Sept.	4	8692 feet	May 6
Canyon of Adventure	Maynard-Faire	April	22	5800 feet	May 19
Chaser, The	Langdon-McConnell	Feb.	12	5744 feet	April 21
Chinatown Charlie	Hines-Lorraine	April	15	6365 feet
Crystal Cup, The	Mackaill-Mulhall	Oct.	16	6386 feet	Nov. 25
Drop Kick, The	Barthelmess-Kent	Sept.	25	6819 feet	Sept. 30
Flying Romeos	Sidney-Murray	Feb.	26	6184 feet	April 14
French Dressing	Warner-Brook-Wilson	Jan.	15	6344 feet
Good-Bye Kiss, The	Eilers-Burke-Kemp	July	22
Gorilla, The	Murray-Day-Kelsey	Nov.	13	7133 feet	Dec. 2
Gun Gospel	Maynard-Faire	Nov.	6	6288 feet	Mar. 10
Harold Teen	Lake-Brian-White	May	27	7500 feet
Hawk's Nest, The	Sills-Kenyon	May	27
Heart of a Follies Girl	Dove-Kent	Mar.	18	5957 feet	Mar. 17
Her Wild Oat	Moore-Kent	Dec.	25	6118 feet	Feb. 11
Home Made	Hines-Daw	Nov.	20	6524 feet
Ladies' Night in Turkish Bath	Mackaill-Mulhall	April	1	6592 feet	April 14
Lady Be Good	Mackaill-Mulhall	May	6
Life of Riley, The	Sidney-Murray	Sept.	18	6712 feet	Sept. 16
Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come	Barthelmess-O'Day	April	8	7700 feet	May 19
Love Mart, The	Dove-Roland	Dec.	18	7388 feet
Mad Hour, The	O'Neill-Kent	Mar.	4	6625 feet	April 21
Man Crazy	Mackaill-Mulhall	Nov.	27	5542 feet	Dec. 30
Noose, The	Barthelmess-Joyce	Jan.	29	7331 feet	Jan. 7
No Place to Go	Astor-Hughes	Oct.	30	6431 feet	Mar. 17
Oh Kay	Colleen Moore	Aug.	26
Patent Leather Kid, The	Barthelmess-O'Day	Jan.		11412 feet	Aug. 26, '27
Private Life of Helen of Troy	Corda-Stone-Cortez	Jan.	8	7694 feet	Dec. 23
Red Raiders, The	Maynard-Drew	Sept.	4	6214 feet	Dec. 9
Rose of the Golden West	Astor-Roland	Oct.	2	6477 feet	Oct. 7
Sailors' Wives	Astor-Hughes	Jan.	22	5485 feet	Mar. 10
Shepherd of the Hills	Francis-O'Day	Jan.	1	8188 feet	Feb. 25
Smile, Brother, Smile	Mackaill-Mulhall	Sept.	11	6669 feet	Sept. 9
Texas Steer, A	Rogers-Fazenda	Dec.	4	7419 feet	Nov. 18
Three-Ring Marriage	Astor-Hughes	May	27
Upland Rider, The	Maynard-Douglas	June	3		May 19
Valley of the Giants	Sills-Kenyon	Dec.	11	6336 feet
Vamping Venus	Murray-Todd-Fazenda	May	13
Wagon Show, The	Maynard-Faire	Feb.	19	6212 feet
Wheel of Chance	Barthelmess-Basquette	June	10
Whip Woman, The	Taylor-Moreno	Feb.	5	5087 feet	Mar. 24
Yellow Lily, The	Dove-Brook	May	20

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Butter and Egg Man	Mulhall-O'Day
Code of the Scarlet	Maynard-McConnell
Divine Lady, The	Griffith-Varconi
Glorious Trail, The	Ken Maynard
Happiness Ahead	Colleen Moore
Head Man, The	Murray-Reed-Dawson
Heart to Heart	Astor-Hughes
Here Comes the Band	Langdon-Davison
I'll Tell the World	Colleen Moore
Lilac Time	Moore-Cooper		Mar. 24
Phantom City, The	Ken Maynard
Whip, The	Mackaill-Nilsson-Forbes
Wright Idea, The	Hines-Lorraine

FOX FILMS
FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Arizona Wildcat, The	Mix-Sebastian	Nov.	20	4665 feet	Mar. 24
Black Jack	Jones-Bennett	Sept.	25	4777 feet	Mar. 3
Blood Will Tell	Jones-Perry	Nov.	13	4556 feet	Mar. 3
Branded Sombrero, The	Jones-Hyams	Jan.	8	4612 feet	Jan. 14
Chicken a la King	Sterling-Carroll-Meeker	June	17
Come to My House	Borden-Moreno	Dec.	25	5430 feet
Dare Devil's Reward	Mix-Joyce	Jan.	15	4987 feet	Jan. 21
Don't Marry	Moran-Hamilton	June	3
Dressed to Kill	Lowe-Astor	Mar.	18	6566 feet	Mar. 17
East Side, West Side	O'Brien-Valli	Oct.	9	8154 feet	Nov. 4
Escape, The	Valli-Russell	April	29	5109 feet	May 12
Farmer's Daughter, The	Beebe-Burke	July	15
Fleetwing	Norton-Janis	July	22
Gateway of the Moon	Del Rio-Pidgeon	Jan.	1	5038 feet	Jan. 14
Gay Retreat, The	Cohen-McNamara	Sept.	25	5524 feet	Sept. 23
Girl in Every Port, A	McLaglen-Armstrong	Feb.	26	5500 feet	Mar. 3
Hangman's House	McLaglen-Collyer-Kent	May	13	6518 feet	May 19
Hello, Cheyenne	Mix-Lincoln	May	13	4518 feet	May 19
High School Hero	Phipps-Stuart	Oct.	16	5498 feet	Nov. 11
Holiday Lane		Jan.	22
Honor Bound	O'Brien-Taylor	May	6	6188 feet
Horsemen of the Plains	Mix-Blane	Mar.	11	4397 feet	Mar. 24
Joy Girl, The	Borden-Hamilton	Sept.	18	6162 feet	Sept. 23
Ladies Must Dress	Valli-Gray	Nov.	20	5599 feet	Dec. 23
Love Hungry	Moran-Gray	April	8	5792 feet	April 21
Loves of Carmen	Del Rio-McLaglen	Sept.	4	8538 feet	Oct. 7
News Parade, The	Stuart-Phipps	May	27
None But the Brave	Dorothy Knapp	June	24
No Other Woman	Del Rio-Alvarado	June	10
Painted Post, The	Mix-Kingston	July	8
Pajamas	Borden-Gray	Oct.	23	5876 feet	Dec. 2
Play Girl, The	Bellamy-Brown	April	22	5200 feet	April 28
Publicity Madness	Moran-Lowe	Oct.	2	5893 feet	Feb. 11
Road House	Barrymore-Alba	July	1
Seventh Heaven	Gaynor-Farrell	Oct.	30	8500 feet	June 10
Shame (re-issue)	John Gilbert	Nov.		5467 feet
Sharpshooters	O'Brien-Moran	Jan.	15	5573 feet	Jan. 28
Silk Legs	Bellamy-Hall	Dec.	18	5446 feet
Silver Valley	Mix-Dwan	Oct.	2	5011 feet	Oct. 14
Soft Living	Bellamy-Brown	Feb.	5	5629 feet	Mar. 3
Square Crooks	Brown-Armstrong-Dwan	Mar.	4	5397 feet	Mar. 31
Thief in the Dark, The	Meeker-Hill-Lee	May	20	5937 feet
Two Girls Wanted	Gaynor-Tryon	Sept.	11	6293 feet	Oct. 7
Very Confidential	Madge Bellamy	Nov.	6	5620 feet	Dec. 16
Why Sailors Go Wrong	Cohen-McNamara	Mar.	25	5112 feet	April 14
Wizard, The	Lowe-Hyams	Dec.	11	5629 feet
Wolf Fangs	Thunder-Morton-Lincoln	Nov.	27	5331 feet	Dec. 16
Womanwise	Russell-Collyer-Pidgeon	Jan.	8	5050 feet	Mar. 10

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
America's Little Lamb	Variety	April	15	1 reel
Arkansas Traveler	Variety	Jan.	8	1 reel
Cow's Husband, A	Spenser-Temple			2 reels
Desert Blooms, The	Variety	Mar.	19	1 reel
Follow the Leader	Payson-Ramon	May	13	2 reels	May 19
Head Hunters of Ecuador	Variety	Jan.	22	1 reel
Hold Your Hat	Phipps-Stuart	Jan.	15	2 reels	Mar. 24
Hot House Hazel	T. Brooks-T. Hill	Jan.	1	2 reels
In a Music Shoppe (Movietone)	Special Cast
Jack and Jilted	P. Cunning-M. King			2 reels
Jungles of the Amazon	Variety	Feb.	5	1 reel	Jan. 21
Kiss Doctor, The	Brooke-Thompson	Jan.	29	2 reels	Mar. 17
Lady Lion	Lincoln-Clayton-Bletcher	Mar.	25	2 reels	May 19
Lords of the Back Fence	Variety	Jan.	22	1 reel
Love is Blonde	Rollens-Ellis	Feb.	26	2 reels
Low Necker, A	Marjorie Beebe			2 reels	Jan. 14
Mum's the Word				2 reels	Sept. 3
Old Wives Who Knew	Hallam Cooley	April	8	2 reels
On a South Sea Shore	Variety	April	1	1 reel
Over the Andes	Variety			1 reel
Psyche and the Pskyscraper	"O. Henry"			2 reels
Ship Ahoy!	Variety	Feb.	19	1 reel
Spanish Influence	Variety	April	29	1 reel
T. Bone for Two	Tyler Brooke	April	22	2 reels
Too Many Cookies	T. Brooke-L. Miller	Mar.	11	2 reels
Vintage, The	Variety	Mar.	4	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Air Circus, The	Carrol-Lake-Rollins
Cock-Eyed World, The	Lowe-McLaglen
Dry Martini
Fazil	Farrell-Nissen-Busch
Four Devils, The	Macdonald-Gaynor-Morton
Four Sons	Mann-Hall-Bushman	9412 feet	Feb. 18
Girl Downstairs, The	Moran-O'Brien
Me, Gangster	Collyer-Stuart
Mother Machree	Bennett-McLaglen	6863 feet	Mar. 17
Pigskin	Rollens-Carol
Plastered in Paris	Cohen-Pennick
Red Dancer of Moscow, The	Del Rio-Farrell-Revier
River Pirate, The	McLaglen-Foxe
Street Angel, The	Gaynor-Farrell	9221 feet
Sunrise	Gaynor-O'Brien	8729 feet	Oct. 14
Wild West Romance	Bell-Lincoln

LUMAS
FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Knees	Corbin-Faith	Feb.	1	5800 feet	Jan. 28
Blondes By Choice	Claire Windsor	Oct.	1	6987 feet

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Cheer Leader, The	Graves-Olmstead	Nov.	1	6000 feet	Mar. 10
Chorus Kid, The	Faire-Washburn	April	10	6200 feet	April 14
Girl From Rio, The	Myers-Pidgeon	Sept.	1	6990 feet
Hell Ship Bronson	Mrs. W. Reid-Howes-Beery	May	1	7000 feet	May 12
San Francisco Nights	Marmont-Busch	Jan.	1	7000 feet	Dec. 31
Thru the Breakers		Aug.
Turn Back the Hours	Loy-Pidgeon	Mar.	12	6500 feet	Mar. 17
United States Smith	Gribbon-Lee-Harlan	May

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Abie of the U. S. A	George Jessel
Down Grade, The	Fairbanks-Calhoun
Gypsy Love (tent.)
Head of the Family, The		July
Man Higher Up		June
River Woman, The	Alma Rubens
Uncensored Woman, The
When Danger Calls	Fairbanks-Sedgwick
Woman Between, The

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Across to Singapore	Novarro-Crawford	April	7	6805 feet	May 5
Actress, The	Shearer-Forbes-O. Moore	April	28	6998 feet
Annie Laurie	Gish-Kerry	Sept.	17	8730 feet	May 27 '27
Baby Mine	Arthur-Dane	Jan.	21	5139 feet	Jan. 14
Becky	O'Neill-O. Moore	Nov.	12	6433 feet
Ben Hur	Novarro-McAvoy	Oct.	8	11693 feet	Jan. 16, '26
Big City, The	Chaney-M. Day-Compson	Feb.	18	6838 feet	Mar. 31
Big Parade, The	Gilbert-Adoree	Sept.	10	11519 feet	Nov. 28 '25
Body and Soul	L. Barrymore-Pringle-Kerry	Oct.	1	5902 feet	Nov. 25
Bringing Up Father	Macdonald-Olmsted-Moran	Mar.	17	6344 feet
Buttons	Coogan-L. Hanson	Dec.	24	6050 feet	Mar. 31
Certain Young Man	Novarro-Adoree	May	19
Circus Rookies	Dane-Arthur	Mar.	31	5661 feet	May 19
Cossacks, The	Gilbert-Adoree	June	23
Crowd, The	Boardman-Murray	Mar.	3	8538 feet	Feb. 25
Diamond Handcuffs	Boardman-Gray-Nagel	May	5
Divine Woman, The	Garbo-Hanson	Jan.	14	7300 feet	Jan. 21
Enemy, The	Gish-Forbes	Feb.	18	8189 feet	Dec. 31
air Co-Ed	Davies-Brown	Oct.	15	6408 feet	Nov. 4
orbidden Hours	Novarro-Adoree	June	16
oreign Devils	McCoy-Windsor	Sept.	3	4658 feet	April 28
Garden of Allah	Terry-Petrovich	Nov.	5	8200 feet	Sept. 16
In Old Kentucky	H. Costello-Murray	Oct.	29	6646 feet
Latest from Paris, The	Shearer-Forbes	Feb.	4	7743 feet	Mar. 3
Laugh, Clown, Laugh	Chaney-Young-Asther	April	14	7045 feet
Law of the Range, The	McCoy-Crawford	Jan.	21	5393 feet
London After Midnight	Chaney-M. Day-Nagel	Dec.	3	5687 feet	Dec. 23
Love	Garbo-Gilbert	Jan.	2	7365 feet	Dec. 16
Lovelorn, The	O'Neill-Kent-O'Day	Dec.	17	5950 feet	Dec. 30
Man, Woman and Sin	Gilbert-Eagels	Nov.	19	6280 feet
Patsy, The	Davies-Caldwell-Gray	Mar.	10	7289 feet
Quality Street	Davies-Nagel	Dec.	31	7193 feet	Nov. 18
Riders of the Dark	McCoy-Dwan	April	21	5014 feet
Road to Romance, The	Novarro-M. Day	Sept.	24	6544 feet	Jan. 21
Rose-Marie	Crawford-Murray-Peters	Feb.	11	7745 feet	Feb. 18
Skirts	Chaplin-Balfour	May	19
Smart Set, The	Haines-Holt-A. Day	Feb.	25	6476 feet	Mar. 10
Spoilers of the West	McCoy-Daw	Dec.	10	4784 feet	Mar. 24
Spring Fever	Haines-Crawford	Oct.	22	6705 feet	Oct. 22
Student Prince, The	Novarro-Shearer	Jan.	30	9435 feet	Oct. 7
Tea for Three	Cody-Pringle-O. Moore	Dec.	10	6273 feet	Nov. 11
Thirteenth Hour, The	L. Barrymore-Gadsdon	Nov.	26	5252 feet
Under the Black Eagle	Flash-M. Day-Forbes	Mar.	29	5901 feet	May 19
West Point	Haines-Crawford	Jan.	7	8134 feet	Jan. 7
Wickedness Preferred	Cody-Pringle	Jan.	28	5011 feet
Wyoming	McCoy-Sebastian	Mar.	24	4435 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Aching Youth	Charley Chase	Mar.	17	2 reels
All For Nothing	Charley Chase	Jan.	21	2 reels	Jan. 14
Amazing Lovers	Ufa Oddities	Mar.	10	1 reel
Barnum and Ringling, Inc	"Our Gang"	April	7	2 reels	April 21
Bird Man, The	Charley Chase			2 reels
Blow by Blow	Max Davidson	Mar.	31	2 reels	April 21
Came the Dawn	Max Davidson	Mar.	3	2 reels
Children of the Sun	Ufa Oddities	Feb.	11	1 reel
Cleopatra		July	7	2 reels
Crazy House	"Our Gang"	June	2	2 reels
Czarina's Secret, The	Baclanova-Mir-Rand	Mar.	17	2 reels
Dumb Daddies	Max Davidson	Feb.	4	2 reels	Feb. 25
Edison, Marconi and Co	"Our Gang"	Mar.	10	2 reels	April 7
Fair and Muddy	"Our Gang"	May	5	2 reels	May 12
Family Group, The	Charley Chase	Feb.	18	2 reels	Feb. 18
Fight Pest, The	Charley Chase	May	12	2 reels
Finishing Touch, The	Laurel-Hardy	Feb.	25	2 reels	April 7
Fishing With a Microscope	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Follow Through	Laurel-Hardy			2 reels
Forty Thousand Miles with Lindbergh	Aviation Film	Mar.	4	3 reels
From Soup to Nuts	Laurel-Hardy	Mar.	24	2 reels	April 21
Golden Fleeces	Ufa Oddities	May	19	1 reel
Happy Omen, A	Ufa Oddities	July	14	1 reel
Heavenly Bodies	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Jungle Round-Up, A	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	28	1 reel	Oct. 9
Lady of Victories, The	A. Ayres-O. Matiesen-G. Irving	Jan.	21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Leave 'Em Laughing	Laurel-Hardy	Jan.	28	2 reels
Let George Do It	Laurel Hardy			2 reels	Mar. 3
Limousine Love	Charley Chase	April	14	2 reels	April 21
Monarch of the Glen, The	Ufa Oddities	Mar.	24	1 reel	Jan. 21
Nature's Wizardry	Ufa Oddities	July	28	1 reel
Palace of Honey, The	Ufa Oddities	June	16	1 reel
Pathfinders, The	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Pass the Gravy	Max Davidson	Jan.	7	2 reels	Jan. 14
Perfume and Nicotine	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	14	1 reel
Pets and Pests	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	28	1 reel	Mar. 3
Primitive Housekeeping	Ufa Oddities	April	21	1 reel
Rainy Days	"Our Gang"	Feb.	11	2 reels
Sanctuary	Ufa Oddities	May	5	1 reel
Secrets of the Sea	Ufa Oddities	Feb.	25	1 reel	Mar. 3
Should Women Drive?	Max Davidson	May	26	2 reels	May 19
Sleeping Death	Ufa Oddities	June	30	1 reel
Spook-Spoofing	"Our Gang"	Jan.	14	2 reels	Jan. 14
Tally-Ho	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Tell It to the Judge	Stanley-Dwan-Manning	May	12	2 reels
That Night	Max Davidson			2 reels
Their Purple Moment	Laurel-Hardy	May	19	2 reels
Tokens of Manhood	Ufa Oddities	June	6	1 reel
Virgin Queen, The	Stanley-Dwan-Manning	May	12	2 reels	May 19
Wicked Kasimir, The	Ufa Oddities	April	7	1 reel
Wonders of Blue Gulf Mexico	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Your Darn Tootin'	Laurel-Hardy	April	21	2 reels	May 12

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Adventurer, The	McCoy-Sebastian	4709 feet
Baby Cyclone, The	Cody-Pringle
Beau Broadway	Cody-Pringle
Bellamy Trial, The	Joy-Bronson
Brother Love (tentative)	Dane-Arthur
Bushranger, The	McCoy-Douglas
Cameraman, The	Keaton-Day
Deadline, The	Flash-Lorraine-Gray
Detectives	Dane-Arthur
Excess Baggage	Haines-Cortez
Four Walls	Gilbert-Crawford
He Learned About Women	Haines-Page-Percy
Her Cardboard Lover	Davies-Asther
Loves of Casanova, The	Special Cast
Madamoiselle from Armentieres	E. Brody-J. Stuart
Masked Stranger, The	McCoy
Mask of the Devil	John Gilbert
Napoleon	Special Cast
Our Dancing Daughters	Crawford-Brown-Sebastian
Show People	Davies-Haines
Southern Skies	Blue-Torres
Telling the World	Haines-Page
Tide of Empire	Adoree-Murray
Trail of '98, The	Del Rio-Forbes	11100 feet	Mar. 24
War in the Dark	Garbo-Nagel
While the City Sleeps	Chaney-Page
Wind, The	Gish-Hanson

PARAMOUNT

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adventure Mad	Asther-Hall-Davis	Mar.	31	5897 feet
Barbed Wire	Negri-Brook	Sept.	10	6591 feet
Beau Sabreur	Brent-Cooper	Jan.	7	6536 feet	Jan. 28
Big Killing, The	Beery-Hatton	May	19
Chang	Jungle Film	Sept.	3	6536 feet	May 13 '27
City Gone Wild, The	Meighan-Brooks	Nov.	12	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Doomsday	Vidor-Cooper	Feb.	18	5665 feet	April 7
Drag Net, The	Bancroft-Brent	May	26	7720 feet
Easy Come, Easy Go	Dix-Carroll	April	21	5364 feet	May 12
Feel My Pulse	Daniels-Arlen	Feb.	25	5808 feet	Mar. 3
Figures Don't Lie	Ralston-Arlen	Oct.	8	5280 feet	Mar. 3
Firty-Fifty Girl, The	Daniels-Hall	May	12	7720 feet
Fools for Luck	Fields-Conklin	May	5	5758 feet
Gay Defender, The	Dix-Todd	Dec.	10	6376 feet	Dec. 31
Gentleman of Paris, A	Menjou-O'Hara	Oct.	15	5927 feet	Oct. 14
Gentlemen Prefer Blondes	Taylor-Sterling-White	Jan.	28	6871 feet	Jan. 21
Get Your Man	Bow-Rogers	Dec.	10	5998 feet
Honeymoon Hate	Vidor-Carmanati	Dec.	3	5415 feet	Feb. 11
Jesse James	Thomson-Lane	Oct.	22	8656 feet	Oct. 28
Last Command, The	Jannings-Brent	Jan.	21	8234 feet	Jan. 28
Last Waltz, The	Fritsch-Vernon	Nov.	26	6940 feet	Dec. 30
Legion of the Condemned	Cooper-Wray	Mar.	10	7415 feet	Mar. 24
Love and Learn	Ralston-Chandler	Jan.	14	5737 feet	Feb. 25
Nevada	Cooper-Todd	Sept.	10	6258 feet	Oct. 28
Night of Mystery, A	Menjou-Brent	April	7	5741 feet	April 21
Now We're in the Air	Beery-Hatton	Oct.	22	5798 feet	Dec. 23
Old Ironsides	Ralston-Farrell-Beery	Mar.	3	7910 feet	Dec. 18 '26
One Woman to Another	Vidor-Von Eltz	Sept.	24	4551 feet	Sept. 30
Open Range	Chandler-Bronson	Nov.	5	5599 feet	Mar. 10
Partners in Crime	Beery-Hatton-Brian	Mar.	17	6600 feet	May 5
Peaks of Destiny	Special Cast	Jan.	28	5582 feet	Jan. 21
Pioneer Scout, The	Thomson-Lane	Jan.	21	6118 feet	Mar. 10
Red Hair	Bow-Chandler	Mar.	10	6331 feet	Mar. 31
Rough Riders, The	N. Beery-Bancroft	Oct.	1	9443 feet	April 1 '27
Secret Hour, The	Negri-Thomson	Feb.	4	7175 feet	Mar. 17
Serenade	Menjou-Carver-Basquette	Dec.	24	5209 feet	Dec. 31
Shanghai Bound	Dix-Brian	Oct.	15	5515 feet	Dec. 9
She's a Sheik	Daniels-Arlen	Nov.	12	6015 feet	Dec. 9
Shootin' Irons	Luden-Blane	Oct.	8	5179 feet
Show Down, The	Bancroft-Brent	Feb.	25	7616 feet	Mar. 10
Something Always Happens	Ralston-Hamilton	Mar.	24	4792 feet
Speedy	Lloyd-Christie	April	7	7960 feet	April 14
Sporting Goods	Dix-Olmstead	Feb.	11	5951 feet	Feb. 18
Spotlight, The	Ralston-Hamilton	Nov.	19	4934 feet
Stark Love	Special Cast	Sept.	17	6200 feet	Mar. 11 '27
Street of Sin, The	Jannings-Wray	May	26
Sunset Legion, The	Thomson-Murphy	April	21	6763 feet
Swim, Girl, Swim	Daniels-Hall	Sept.	17	6124 feet	Sept. 16
Tell It to Sweeney	Conklin-Bancroft	Sept.	24	6066 feet	Oct. 28
Three Sinners	Negri-Baxter	April	14	7029 feet	April 28
Tillie's Punctured Romance	Fields-Conklin	Mar.	3	5733 feet
Two Flaming Youths	Conklin-Fields	Dec.	17	5319 feet	Jan. 7
Under the Tonto Rim	Arlen-Brian	Feb.		5991 feet	April 28
Underworld	Bancroft-Brent-Brook	Oct.	29	7643 feet	Sept. 9
Way of All Flesh	Jannings-Bennett-Haver	Oct.	1	8486 feet	July 8
Wedding March, The	Von Stroheim-Wray	Feb.
We're All Gamblers	Meighan-Millner	Sept.	3	5935 feet
Wife Savers	Beery-Hatton	Jan.	7	5413 feet	Jan. 21
Woman on Trial	Negri-E. Hanson	Oct.	29	5960 feet	Oct. 14

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adoration	Novelty	Feb.	25	2 reels
Behind the Counter	E. E. Horton	Mar.	3	2 reels
Bugs My Dear (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	April	21	2 reels
Bum Steer, A	Krazy Kat Cartoon	April	21	1 reel
Campus Cuties (Christie)	Billy Dooley	April	7	2 reels
Dad's Choice	E. E. Horton	Jan.	7	2 reels
Fighting Fanny (Christie)	Featured Cast	Jan.	21	2 reels	April 28
Frenzy	Novelty	Jan.	14	2 reels
Gallant Gob, A (Christie)	Billy Dooley	May	26	2 reels
Goofy Ghosts (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	April	28	2 reels
Halfback Hannah (Christie)	Ann Cornwall	April	14	2 reels
Hold 'Er Cowboy (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	June	2	2 reels
Holy Mackerel (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Feb.	11	2 reels
Hunger Stroke, A	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb.	25	1 reel
Ice Boxed	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb.	11	1 reel
Just the Type (Christie)	Neal Burns	Feb.	18	2 reels
Knights of the Air	Aviation Film	Mar.	31	2 reels
Ko-Ko's Bawth	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb.	18	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Haunted House	Inkwell Cartoon	April	28	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Hot Dog	Inkwell Cartoon	April	14	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Jerm Jam	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb.	4	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Earth Control	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	31	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kink	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan.	7	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kozy Korner	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan.	21	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Smoke	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	3	1 reel

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Ko-Ko's Tattoo	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	17	1 reel
Long Hose (Christie)	Jack Duffy	Mar.	17	2 reels
Love's Young Scream	Anne Cornwall	May	12	2 reels
Love Shy (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Mar.	24	1 reel
Love Sunk	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar.	24	1 reel
Pig Styles	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Jan.	14	1 reel
Save the Pieces (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Jan.	28	2 reels
Say Uncle (Christie)	Jack Duffy	June	9	2 reels
Sea Food (Christie)	Billy Dooley	July	14	2 reels
Shadow Theory	Krazy Kay Cartoon	Jan.	28	1 reel
Slick Slickers (Christie)	Neal Burns	July	7	2 reels
Slippery Heels (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	June	16	2 reels
Sweeties (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Mar.	10	2 reels
Tong Tied	Krazy Kat Cartoon	April	7	1 reel
Two Masters	Eaton-Post
Water Bugs (Christie)	Billy Dooley	Feb.	4	2 reels
Wired and Fired	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar.	10	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Abie's Irish Rose	Hersholt-McDonald	12103 feet	April 28
Beggars of Life	Beery-Arlen-Brooks
His Tiger Lady	Menjou-Brent
First Kiss, The	Wray-Cooper
Glorifying the American Girl	Special Cast
Half a Bride	Ralston-Arlen
Hot News	Daniels-Hamilton
Just Married	Hall-Taylor
Kit Carson	Thomson-Lane
Ladies of the Mob	Bow-Arlen
Magnificent Flirt, The	Florence Vidor
Perfumed Trap, The	Brian-Brook
Odd Fellows	Fields-Conklin
Patriot, The	Jannings-Stone-Vidor
Quick Lunch	Fields-Conklin
Racket, The	Meighan-Prevost
Sawdust Paradise, The	Ralston-Howes
Side Show, The	Fields-Conklin
Vanishing Pioneer, The	Holt-Blane
Warming Up	Richard Dix
Wings	Bow-Rogers	12 reels	Aug. 26 '27

PATHE

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Alice in Wonderland	Special Cast	Dec.	25	5 reels
Alice Thru Looking Glass	Special Cast	Feb.	12	5 reels
Almost Human	Reynolds-Thomson	Dec.	26	5596 feet	Mar. 24
Angel of Broadway, The	Joy-Varconi	Oct.	3	6555 feet	Dec. 16
Apache Rider, The	Leo Maloney	Feb.	12	5755 feet	Feb. 18
Avenging Shadow, The	Klondike-Hallor-Morris	April	29	4293 feet	Mar. 31
Ballyhoo Buster, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Jan.	8	4805 feet	Dec. 30
Blonde for a Night, A	Prevost-Ford	Feb.	26	6 reels
Blue Danube, The	Joy-La Rocque	Mar.	11	7 reels
Born to Battle	Bill Cody	Sept.	11	4875 feet
Boss of Rustlers Roost	Dan Coleman	Jan.	22	4833 feet	Jan. 14
Bronc Stomper, The	Dan Coleman	Feb.	26	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Bullet Mark, The	Jack Donovan	Mar.	25	4550 feet	Mar. 31
Chicago	Haver-Varconi	Mar.	4	9992 feet	Dec. 30
Combat	Walsh-Adams-Hulette	Oct.	23	5100 feet	Nov. 11
Cowboy Cavalier, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Jan.	29	4526 feet	Jan. 28
Crashing Through	Jack Padjan	Feb.	5	4480 feet	Feb. 11
Desert of the Lost, The	Wally Wales	Dec.	18	4933 feet	Dec. 30
Desperate Courage	Wally Wales	Jan.	15	4398 feet	Jan. 21
Devil's Twin, The	Leo Maloney	Dec.	11	5478 feet
Discord	Ekman-Dagover	Nov.	20	8586 feet	Nov. 11
Dress Parade	Boyd-Love	Nov.	11	6599 feet	Nov. 11
Fangs of Fate	Klondike (dog)	June	24	5 reels
Flying Luck	Monty Banks	Dec.	4	6403 feet	Nov. 18
Forbidden Woman, The	Goudal-Varconi	Nov.	7	6568 feet	Dec. 16
Girl in the Pullman	Prevost-Ford	Oct.	31	5867 feet	Nov. 18
Golden Clown, The	Ekman-Bell	Dec.	18	7913 feet	Mar. 24
Gold From Weepah	Bill Cody	Nov.	20	4968 feet	Dec. 23
Grandma's Boy (re-issue)	Harold Lloyd	Dec.		4750 feet
Harp in Hock, A	R. Schildkraut-Coghlan	Oct.	10	5990 feet	Dec. 9
His Foreign Wife	McDonald-Murphy	Nov.	27	4890 feet	Feb. 11
Hold 'Em Yale	La Rocque-Loff	May	13	8 reels
Hoof Marks	Jack Donovan	Nov.	13	4076 feet	Dec. 23
Land of the Lawless	Jack Padjan	Dec.	25	4131 feet	Dec. 30
Laddie Be Good	Bill Cody	Jan.	1	4155 feet	Dec. 30
Law's Lash, The	Klondike-Ellis-Maberry	May	20	4902 feet	Mar 31.
Leopard Lady, The	Logan-Hale	Jan.	22	6650 feet	Mar. 10
Let 'Er Go Gallegher	Coghlan-Ford	Jan.	15	5888 feet	Jan. 28
Main Event, The	Reynolds-R. Schildkraut	Nov.	18	6472 feet	Nov. 11
Marlie the Killer	Klondike-Bushman, Jr.	Mar.	4	4600 feet	Mar. 3
Midnight Madness	Logan-Brook	Mar.	25	6 reels
My Friend From India	Pangborn-Fair	Dec.	19	5750 feet	Mar. 31
Night Flyer, The	Boyd-Ralston	Feb.	5	5954 feet
Obligin' Buckaroo, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Oct.	16	4575 feet	Nov. 11
On to Reno	Prevost-Landis	Jan.	1	6 reels
Passion Island	Special Cast	Feb.		7 reels
Perfect Gentleman, A	Monty Banks	Jan.	15	5626 reet	Jan. 14
Ride 'Em High	Buddy Roosevelt	Oct.	9	4542 feet	Nov. 11
Roarin' Broncs	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Nov.	27	4375 feet	Dec. 30
Rush Hour, The	Prevost-Ford	Dec.	12	5880 feet	Mar. 10
Saddle Mates	Wally Wales	Mar.	11	4260 feet	Mar. 17
Skyscraper	Boyd-Carrol	April	8	7040 feet	April 14
Soda Water Cowboy, The	Wally Wales	Sept.	25	4546 feet	Nov. 4
Stand and Deliver	La Rocque-Valez	Feb.	19	5423 feet	April 7
Turkish Delight	R. Schildkraut-Fay-Robson	Nov.	11	5397 feet
Valley of Hunted Men	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Feb.	19	4520 feet	Mar. 3
Walking Back	Carrol-Walling	May	20	6 reels
What Price Beauty?	Nita Naldi	Jan.	22	5 reels	Jan. 28
Wise Wife, The	Haver-T. Moore-Logan	Oct.	24	5610 feet	Dec. 16
Wreck of the Hesperus	Bradford-Marion	Oct.	31	6447 feet	Mar. 31

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Animal Snaps	Rarebits	April	8	1 reel	April 21
Barnyard Artists	"Aesop Fables"	April	29	1 reel
Barnyard Lodge No. 1	"Aesop Fables"	April	8	1 reel	April 7
Bath Time	Sportlight	June	24	1 reel
Battling Duet, The	"Aesop Fables"	April	15	1 reel	April 7
Beach Club, The	Bevan-Hurlock	Jan.	22	2 reels	Jan. 14
Benares (Educational)	Geographical Number	Jan.	24	1 reel
Best Man, The	Bevan-A. Bennett-V. Dent	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 11
Bicycle Flirt, The	Bevan-V. Dent-D. Garley	Mar.	18	2 reels	Mar. 10
Blaze of Glory, A	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	26	1 reel
Boats and Fishermen	Science Number	Mar.	4	2 reels
Boy Friend, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	22	1 reel
Broncho Buster, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	1	1 reel
Buddhists of Burma, The (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb.	5	1 reel
Busy Bodies	Sportlight	Jan.	8	1 reel	Dec. 31
Clothes and the Game	Sportlight	April	15	1 reel	April 7
Coast to Coast	"Aesop Fables"	May	13	1 reel	May 19
County Fair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar	4	1 reel
Crowned Heads	Sportlight	Feb.	19	1 reel
Delhi (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb.	26	1 reel
Do Monkeys Manicure?	Stan Laurel	April	1	1 reel
Family Frolics	Sportlight	Jan.	22	1 reel	Jan. 14
Famous Playgrounds	Sportlight	May	13	1 reel	May 19
Flight That Failed, The	"Aesop Fables"	June	3	1 reel
Flying Age, The	"Aesop Fables"	April	22	1 reel	April 21
Flying Elephants	Roach Stars	Feb.	12	2 reels	Feb. 11
Fun Afoot	Sportlight	Mar.	18	1 reel
Galloping Ghosts	Carew-Hardy	Mar.	11	2 reels	Mar. 3
Girl From Nowhere, The	Pollard-Holloway-Swain	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Good Ship Nellie, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	5	1 reel
Happy Days	"Aesop Fables"	May	27	1 reel	May 19
High Stakes	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	15	1 reel
Honeymoon Hints	Rarebits	Jan.	15	1 reel
How Man Suits His Life	Science Series			2 reels
Houses of Arctic and Tropics	Science Number	Feb.	12	2 reels
Jungle Days	"Aesop Cartoon"	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 31
Jungle Triangle, A	"Aesop Cartoon"	April	28	1 reel	May 19
Kashmir, Old and New	Geographical Number	Jan.	10	1 reel
Limberlegs	Sportlight	June	10	1 reel
Love at First Flight	Pollard-Hurlock-Cowley	Jan.	29	2 reels	Jan. 21
Man Without a Face (Serial)	A. Ray-W. Miller	Jan.	15	10 episodes	Jan. 14
Mark or the Frog, The	M. Morris-D. Reed	Mar.	25	10 episodes	Mar. 24
Matching Wits	Sportlight	April	29	1 reel	April 21
On the Ice	"Aesop Fables"	Mar.	11	1 reel
Over the Bounding Blue with Will Rogers (Travelesque)		Feb.	12	1 reel	Feb. 11
Playing Hookey	"Our Gang"	Jan.	1	2 reels
Puppy Love	"Aesop Fables"	June	10	1 reel
Reeling Down the Rhine	Travelesque	Jan.	15	1 reel	Jan. 7
Run Girl, Run	Sennett Girls	Jan.	15	2 reels	Jan. 14
Scaling the Alps	"Aesop Fables"	April	1	1 reel	Mar. 31
Season to Taste	Sportlight	Mar.	4	1 reel
Shalimar Gardens, The	Geographical Number	Mar.	18	1 reel
Should Tall Men Marry?	Roach Stars	Jan.	15	2 reels	Jan. 7
Smile Wins, The	"Our Gang"	Feb.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Army Life	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Feb.	5	2 reels	Feb. 4
Smith's Bargain	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson			2 reels
Smith's Farm Days	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Mar.	4	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Holiday	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Jan.	8	2 reels	Dec. 31
Smith's Restaurant	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	April	1	1 reel
Soldier Man	Harry Langdon
Son Shower, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar.	18	1 reel
Spider's Lair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	19	1 reel	Feb. 18
Star Builders	Sportlight	May	27	1 reel	May 19
Swim Princess, The	Pollard-Clyde-Lombard	Feb.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Tail Waggers	Sportlight	April	1	1 reel
Trees	Rarebits	Mar.	11	1 reel
Twenty-Four-Dollar Island	Novelty			1 reel	Dec. 23
Versatility	Sportlight	Feb.	5	1 reel	Jan. 28
Volcanoes (Educational)	Geological Number	Feb.	19	1 reel
Wandering Minstrel, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	29	1 reel
War Brides	"Aesop Fables"	May	20	1 reel	May 19
Work of Running Water	Geological Number	Mar.	11	1 reel
Yellow Cameo, The (Serial)	Ray-Hearn	June	3	10 episodes

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Annapolis	Basquette-Brown
Bride of the Colorado	Boles-Blossom
Cop, The	Boyd-Logan
Godless Girl, The	Basquette-Prevost
King of Kings, The	Warner-Logan	13500 feet	April 29 '27
Ladies Must Love	Rod La Rocque
Love Over Night	La Rocque-Loff
Man-Made Woman	Joy-Boles-Warner
Power	Boyd-Logan
Red Mark, The	von Seyffertitz
Ship Comes In, A	R. Schildkraut-Dressler	June 4
Sin Town	Allen-Fair
Survival of Slim, The	Wally Wales
Tenth Avenue	Haver-Varconi
Valley Beyond the Law	Coleman-Loff
What Holds Men	Leatrice Joy
Yellow Contraband	Leo Maloney

PEERLESS PICTURES (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Girl He Didn't Buy, The	Garon-Simpson	April		5600 feet

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Golden Shackles	Priscilla Bonner	Mar.		5600 feet
Out of the Past	O'Malley-L. Rich	Sept.	26	6000 feet
Web of Fate, The	Lillian Rich	Nov.	7	5800 feet
Wilful Youth	Harlan-Murphy	Dec.		5800 feet

RAYART (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Boy of the Streets, A	Walker-Bennett	Sept.		5059 feet
Casey Jones	Lewis-Robards	Jan.		6673 feet
Cruise of the Hellion	Murphy-Keith	Sept.		6089 feet	Sept. 30
Danger Patrol, The	Russell-Faire	April
Gun-Hand Garrison	Tex Maynard	Oct.		4879 feet
Gypsy of the North	Gordon-Hale	April
Heart of Broadway, The	Garon-Agnew	Jan.		5853 feet
Heroes in Blue	Bowers-Rand	Nov.		5000 feet
Law and the Man, The	Santschi-Brockwell	Jan.		5916 feet	Mar. 24
Light in the Window, A	Walthall-Avery-Keefe	Oct.		5960 feet	Nov. 11
My Home Town	Brockwell-Glass	Mar.
On the Stroke of 12	E. Torrence-Marlowe-O'Shea	Nov.		5970 feet
Painted Trail, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Feb.		4571 feet
Phantom of the Turf, The	H. Costello-Lease	Mar.
Prince of the Plains	Tex Maynard	Sept.		4134 feet
Ridin' Luck	Tex Maynard	Oct.
Wanderer of the West, A	Tex Maynard	Nov.
Wheel of Destiny, The	Stanley-Hale	Oct.		5869 feet
Wild Born	Tex Maynard	Dec.
You Can't Beat the Law	Lee-Keefe	Feb.		5260 feet

STERLING PICTURES (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Pretty Clothes	Ralston-Walker	Oct.	15	5652 feet	Nov. 4
Outcast Souls	P. Bonner-Delaney	Dec.	15	5210 feet
Burning Up Broadway	H. Costello-Frazer	Jan.	30	5200 feet
Marry the Girl	Bedford-Ellis	Mar.	1	5300 feet	Mar. 10
Million For Love, A	Dunn-Howes	May

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
It Might Happen to Any Girl

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Adorable Cheat, The	Lee-Keefe	Chesterfield	April 15	5400 feet	April 21
Aftermath	Special Cast	Collwyn	Dec.	6800 feet	Mar. 3
Air Mail Pilot, The	Metaffey-Metcalfe	Hi-Mark		5000 feet
Battles of Coronel	Special Cast	Artlee	Feb.	8400 feet	Mar. 24
Broadway After Midnight	Bonner-Landis	Krelbar	Nov.	6199 feet	Nov. 4
Broken Hearts		Hercules
Czar Ivan the Terrible	Special Cast	Amkino	April	8500 feet	Mar. 24
Dance Fever	Corda-Varconi	Brill
Dawn	Special Cast	Arch Selwyn
Daughter of Israel	Betty Blythe	Aywon		7 reels
Faithless Lover, The	O'Brien-Hulette	Krelbar	Mar.	5600 feet	Mar. 3
Fangs of Justice	Silverstreak-Walker	Bischoff		5000 feet
Jealousy	Lya de Putti	Brill
Last Moment, The	Matieson-Hale	Zakoro	April	5800 feet	Mar. 31
Little Wild Girl, The	Lee-Landis	Hercules
Modern Du Barry, A	Maria Corda	Brill	June 1	7000 feet
Port of Missing Children	Special Cast	Superlative
Port of Missing Girls	Bedford-McGregor	Brenda		7270 feet	Mar. 3
Primanerliebe	German Cast	Scenic Films		6500 feet	Mar. 24
Sally of the South Seas		Hercules
Sealed Lips	Swedish Cast	Colwyn		6000 feet
Shadows of the Night		Hercules
Shooting Stars	English Cast	Artlee	April	5800 feet	April 28
Simba	Jungle Film	Capitol Pict		8000 feet	Feb. 4
Streets of Algiers	Camilla Horn	Brill		7 reels
Thrill Seekers	Clifford-Fulton	Superlative		4900 feet
Tartuffe the Hyprocrite	Jannings-Dagover	Brill		7 reels	Aug. 5 '27
Tracey the Outlaw	Jack Hoey	New-Cal	Mar.	6000 feet	Mar. 31
Two Brothers	Conrad Veidt	Brill
When Fleet Meets Fleet	English Cast	Hi-Mark		7953 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Bet The	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
Cigarette Maker's Romance	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
District Doctor, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
Girl with the Golden Eyes, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
Mysterious Airman, The		Weiss Bros		10 episodes
Necklace, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)	Mary Alden		2 reels
Nothing to Live For	Al Joy	Cranfield Clarke		2 reels
Piece of String, A	F. P. Donovan (producer)			2 reels
Police Reporter The (Serial)	W. Miller-E. Gilbert	Weiss	Mar.	10 episodes
Sophomore, The	G. O'Neill-L. Graydon	Hi-Mark
Spookey Money	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke		2 reels
Who's Who	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke		2 reels
You Can't Win (Serial)		Weiss Bros		10 episodes

TIFFANY-STAHL

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Bachelor's Paradise	O'Neill-Graves	Mar. 15	6147 feet
Clothes Make the Woman	Southern-Pidgeon	May 1
Devil's Skipper, The	Bennett-Love-Landis	Feb. 1	5510 feet
Girl From Gay Paree	Bedford-McGregor	Sept. 15	5233 feet	Sept. 23
Green Grass Widows	Hagen-Harron-Olmsted	June 10
Haunted Ship, The	Love-Sebastian-Santschi	Dec. 1	4753 feet	Feb. 4
House of Scandal	Sebastian-O'Malley	April 1
Ladies of Night Club	Cortez-Leonard	May 15
Lingerie	White-McGregor	June 20
Nameless Men	Windsor-Moreno	Feb. 15	5708 feet	April 14
Night Life	Harron-A. Day	Nov. 1	6235 feet	Dec. 2
Once and Forever	Miller-Harron	Oct. 15	5639 feet
Prowlers of the Sea	Cortez-Myers	July 20
Scarlet Dove, The	Frazer-Borio	April 15
Stormy Waters	Southern-McGregor	June 1
Streets of Shanghai	Starke-Harlan	Dec. 15	5276 feet	Mar. 3
Their Hour	Harron-Sebastian	Mar. 1	5652 feet
Tragedy of Youth	Baxter-Miller-Collier, Jr.	Jan. 15	6361 feet	Mar. 31
Wild Geese	Bennett-Southern-Keith	Nov. 15	6448 feet
Woman Against the World	Ford-Hale-Olmsted	Jan. 1	5283 feet
Women's Wares	Brent-Lytell-Kent	Oct. 1	5614 feet	Nov. 18

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Marcheta	Color Classic	Mar. 1	1 reel
Medallion, The	Color Classic	Mar. 1	1 reel
Mission Bells	Color Classic	Mar. 15	1 reel
North of Suez	Color Classic	Jan. 1	1 reel
Perfect Day, A	Color Classic	April 1	1 reel
Scarface	Color Classic	Jan. 15	1 reel
Souvenirs	Color Classic	Feb. 15	1 reel
Tom, Dick or Harry	Color Classic		1 reel
Treasure Land	Color Classic	Feb. 1	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Albany Night Boat		July 10
Beautiful But Dumb		Aug. 1
Domestic Relations		Aug. 15
Ghetto, The	George Jessel
Grain of Dust, A		July 1
Marriage of Tomorrow	Miller-Gray
Toilers, The	Ralston-Fairbanks, Jr.

UNIVERSAL

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Air Patrol, The	Al Wilson	Jan. 1	4259 feet
Alias the Deacon	Hersholt-Marlowe	Jan. 22	6869 feet	Oct. 21
Arizona Cyclone, The	Fred Humes	May 6	4076 feet
Back to God's Country	Adoree-Frazer	Sept. 4	5751 feet	Aug. 29
Border Cavalier, The	Fred Humes	Sept. 18	4427 feet
Buck Privates	De Putti-McGregor	June 3	6171 feet	Feb. 4
Call of the Heart	Dynamite-Cobb-Alden	Jan. 29	4345 feet
Cat and the Canary	La Plante-Hale-Stanley	Sept. 11	7190 feet	May 20
Cheating Cheaters	Compson-Harlan	Oct. 9	5623 feet	Dec. 23
Chinese Parrot, The	Bosworth-Nixon	Oct. 23	7304 feet	Jan. 7
Clean Up Man, The	Wells-O'Day	Feb. 12	4232 feet
Cohens and Kellys in Paris	Sidney-Macdonald	Jan. 15	7481 feet	Feb. 18
Count of Ten, The	Ray-Ralston	June 17	6279 feet
Desert Dust	Ted Wells	Dec. 18	4349 feet
Fangs of Destiny	Dynamite-Cobb-Caldwell	Dec. 4	4295 feet
Fearless Rider, The	Humes-Worth	Jan. 15	4173 feet
Finders Keepers	La Plante-Harron	Feb. 5	6081 feet	Mar. 17
Flyin' Cowboy, The	Gibson-Hasbrouck	June
Four Footed Ranger, The	Dynamite (dog)	Mar. 25	4426 feet
Four Flushers, The	Lewis-Nixon	Jan. 8	6193 feet	Jan. 28
Galloping Fury	Gibson-Rand	Nov. 20	[illegible] feet
Good Morning Judge	Denny-Nolan	April 29	[illegible] feet
Hero For a Night, A	Tryon-Miller	Dec. 18	5711 feet	Dec. 2
Hot Heels	Tryon-Miller	May 13
Hound or Silver Creek	Dynamite (dog)	May 20	4095 feet
Irresistible Lover, The	Keane-Moran	Dec. 4	6958 feet	Sept. 16
Les Miserables	Special Cast	Oct. 30	7713 feet
Lone Eagle, The	Keane-Kent	Sept. 18	5862 feet	April 28
Love Me and World Is Mine	Philbin-Kerry	Mar. 4	6813 feet	Feb. 11
Made to Order Hero	Ted Wells	June 3	4120 feet
Man's Past, A	Veidt-Bedford	Dec. 25	6135 feet	Sept. 16
Midnight Rose	De Putti-Harlan	Feb. 26	5689 feet	Mar. 10
One Glorious Scrap	Fred Humes	Nov. 20	4172 feet
On Your Toes	Denny-Worth	Nov. 27	5918 feet	Jan. 14
Out All Night	Denny-Nixon	Sept. 4	6170 feet	Oct. 7
Painted Ponies	Gibson-Claire	Sept. 25	5416 feet	Aug. 5
Phantom Flyer, The	Al Wilson	Feb. 26	4253 feet
Put 'Em Up	Fred Humes	Mar. 11	4200 feet
Rawhide Kid, The	Gibson-Hale	Jan. 29	5382 feet
Shield of Honor, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Hamilton	Feb. 19	6172 feet	Dec. 20
Silk Stockings	La Plante-Harron	Oct. 2	6166 feet	Aug. 26
Sky Hand Saunders	Al Wilson	Nov. 6	4393 feet
Small Bachelor, The	Kent-Beranger	Nov. 6	6218 feet
Stop That Man	Lake-Kent	Mar. 11	5389 feet	April 28
Straight Shootin'	Ted Wells	Oct. 16	4251 feet	Aug. 19
Surrender	Philbin-Moskine	Mar. 4	8249 feet	Mar. 10
Thanks For Buggy Ride	La Plante-Tryon	April 1	6197 feet	Feb. 4
That's My Daddy	Denny-Kent	Feb. 5	6073 feet
Thirteenth Juror, The	Nilsson-Bushman	Nov. 13	5598 feet	Dec. 19
Thirteen Washington Square	Hersholt-Joyce	April 8	6274 feet	Feb. 4
Three Miles Up	Al Wilson	Sept. 4	4136 feet	July 11
Thunder Riders, The	Ted Wells	April 8	4353 feet
Trick of Hearts, A	Gibson-Hale	Mar. 18	5495 feet
We Americans	Sidney-Miller-Lewis	May 6	9151 feet	April 7
Wild Beauty	Rex-Allen-Marlowe	Nov. 27	5192 feet
Wild West Show, The	Gibson-Gulliver	May 20	5254 feet
Wolf's Trail	Dynamite-Cobb-Lamont	Oct. 2	4167 feet
Won in the Clouds	Al Wilson	April 22	4348 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Africa Before Dark	Oswald Cartoon	Feb. 20	1 reel	April 7
All Balled Up	Charles Puffy	Feb. 27	2 reels	Feb. 4
Ambuscade, The	Fred Gilman	June 16	2 reels	May 19
Any Old Count	"The Gumps"	Jan. 23	2 reels
Back to Nature	Arthur Lake	Feb. 27	1 reel	Feb. 11
Bare Fists	Jack Perrin	Jan. 14	2 reels	Dec. 23
Battling Justice	Fred Gilman	Mar. 24	2 reels	Feb. 25
Big Bluff, A	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhail	May 2	2 reels	April 7
Boss of the Rancho	Bob Curwood	Jan. 7	2 reels
Brand of Courage, The	B. Curwood-P. Montgomery	Jan. 7	2 reels	Jan. 7
Bright Lights	Oswald Cartoon	Mar. 19	1 reel	April 7
Buckskin Days	Newton House	Feb. 18	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster Minds the Baby	Trimble, Turner and Dog	June 27	2 reels
Buster's Big Chance	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Jan. 11	2 reels	Dec. 23
Buster Shows Off	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Mar. 14	2 reels
Buster Steps Out	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Feb. 8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster's Whippet Race	Trimble, Turner and Dog	May 23	2 reels	April 28
By Correspondence	Arthur Lake	Jan. 30	1 reel	Jan. 14
Case of Scotch, A	"The Gumps"	Jan. 9	2 reels	Dec. 23
Cloud Buster, The	"The Gumps"	Feb. 6	2 reels	Jan. 21
Code of the Mounted, The	Jack Perrin	May 5	2 reels	April 7
Dangerous Trail, A			2 reels	May 5
Dates for Two	C. King-C. Doherty	Jan. 18	2 reels	Dec. 31
Diamond Master, The
Fighting Destiny	Fred Gilman	May 19	2 reels	April 21
Fighting Kid, The	Newton House	June 9	2 reels	May 19
Fox Chase, The	Oswald Cartoon	June 25	1 reel
Frame-Up Man, The	Bob Curwood	May 26	2 reels	May 5
Full House, A	Long-Adams-Lymon-McPhaill	June 13	2 reels	May 19
Gauge of Battle, The	Fred Gilman	April 21	2 reels	Mar. 24
George Meets George	Sid Saylor	June 20	2 reels
George's False Alarm	Sid Saylor	Feb. 29	2 reels	Feb. 4
George's School Daze	Sid Sacylor		2 reels	May 5
Haunted Island, The (Serial)	Jack Daugherty-Helen Foster	Mar. 26	10 episodes
Harem Scarem	Oswald Cartoon	Jan. 9	1 reel
Her Only Husband	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	April 4	2 reels	Mar. 17
Hidden Loot	Bob Curwood	April 28	2 reels	Mar. 31
High Flyin' George	Sid Saylor	Jan. 25	2 rels
His In Laws	Charles Puffy	Mar. 12	2 reels	Feb. 18
Horns, Orange Blossoms	Charles Puffy	Jan. 29	2 reels	Jan. 7
Horse Play	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	Jan. 4	2 reels	Dec. 16
Hungry Hoboes	Oswald Cartoon	May 14	1 reel	April 21
Indoor Golf	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhaill	Mar. 7	2 reels	Feb. 11
Iron Code, The	Jack Perrin	June 30	2 reels
Looters, The	Bob Curwood	Mar. 3	2 reels	Feb. 4
Madden of the Mounted	Jack Perrin	Mar. 10	2 reels	Feb. 11
Man of Letters, A	Sid Saylor	Feb. 15	2 reels	Jan. 28
Married Bachelors	Charles Puffy	April 9	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mistakes Will Happen	Ben Hall	Feb. 13	1 reel	Jan. 21
Money! Money! Money!	Ben Hall	May 7	1 reel	April 14
Neck n' Neck	Oswald Cartoon	Jan. 23	1 reel
Newlyweds' Advice		Jan. 2	2 reels	Dec. 16
Newlyweds' Friends, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	April 1	2 reels	Mar. 10
Newlyweds' Happy Day, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	June 4	2 reels	May 12
Newlyweds' Imagination, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	May 7	2 reels	April 14
Newlyweds' Servant, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	Feb. 6	2 reels	Feb. 4
Newlyweds Success, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhaill	Mar. 5	2 reels	Feb. 11
No Blondes Allowed	C. King-C. Doherty	Mar. 21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Oh, What a Knight	Oswald Cartoon		1 reel	May 5
Ole Swimmin' 'Ole, The	Oswald Cartoon	Feb. 6	1 reel	Mar. 24
One Every Minute	Arthur Lake	April 23	1 reel	April 7
Out in the Rain	"The Gumps"	Feb. 20	2 reels	Jan. 28
Ozzie of the Mounted	Oswald Cartoon	April 30	1 reel	April 7
Payroll Roundup, The	Bob Curwood	Mar. 31	2 reels	Mar. 3
Poor Papa	Oswald Cartoon	June 11	1 reel	May 19
Prince and the Papa	Charles Puffy	Feb. 12	2 reels	Jan. 21
Ride 'Em Plowboy	Oswald Cartoon	April 15	1 reel	Mar. 24
Riding Gold	Newton House	Jan. 21	2 reels
Ring Leader, The	Jack Perrin	April 7	2 reels	Mar. 10
Ringside Romeos	Arthur Lake	Mar. 26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Rival Romoes	Oswald Cartoon	Mar. 5	1 reel	April 7
Sagebrush Sadie	Oswald Cartoon	April 1	1 reel	May 5
Sailor George	Sid Saylor	May 9	2 reels	April 14
Scarlet Arrow, The (Serial)	F. X. Bushman, Jr	June 3	10 episodes
Sealed Orders	Jack Perrin	Feb. 11	2 reels	Jan. 28
Shady Rest	"The Gumps"		2 reels
Sliding Home	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan. 16	2 reels	Dec. 30
Social Lions	Ben Hall	Mar. 12	1 reel
Some Babies	Charles Puffy	Mar. 26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Some Pets	Arthur Lake	Jan. 2	1 reel	Dec. 14

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Son of the Frontier, A	Newton House	April	14	2 reels	Mar. 17
So This Is Sapp Center	Ben Hal	Jan.	16	1 reel	Dec. 30
Special Edition	Ben Hall	April	9	1 reel	Mar. 17
Speed Sheik, The	Arthur Lake	June	18	1 reel
Start Something	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	Feb.	1	1 reel	Jan. 14
Summer Knights	Arthur Lake	May	21	1 reel	April 28
Swell Clothes	Arthur Lake	Dec.	5	1 reel	Nov. 18
Taking the Count	C. King-C. Doherty	April	18	2 reels	Mar. 24
Terrors of the Unknown (Serial)				10 episodes
That's That	Trimble-Turner and Dog	April	11	2 reels	Mar. 17
There's a Will	C. King-C. Doherty	Dec.	21	2 reels
Tricky Trickster, The	Ben Hall	June	4	1 reel	May 19
Unexpected Hero, An	F. Gillman-M. King	Feb.	25	2 reels	Jan. 28
Untamed, The	Newton House	May	12	2 reels	Apri. 14
Valiant Rider, The (Western)	Bob Sherwood	June	23	2 reels	May 19
Vanishing Rider, The (Serial)	Wm. Desmond	Jan.	16	10 episodes
Watch George	Sid Saylor	Mar.	28	2 reels	Mar. 3
What a Party	C. King-C. Doherty	Feb.	22	2 reels	Feb. 4
When George Hops	Sid Saylor	April	25	2 reels	Mar. 31
When George Meets George	Sid Saylor	June	0	2 reels	May 19
Whose Wife	King-Doherty	June	6	2 reels	May 12
Winged Hoofs	Newton House	Mar.	17	2 reels	Feb.25
Winning Five, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Sept.	26	2 reels	Sept 19
Winning Goal, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan.	2	2 reels
Wolves of the Range	Fred Gilman	Jan.	28	2 reels
Woman Chasers	C. King-C. Doherty	May	16	2 reels

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Anybody Here Seen Kelly	Love-Moore
Body Punch, The	Daugherty-Faire
Brides Will Be Brides	Laura La Plante
Burning Winds	Hoot Gibson
Children of the Sun	Special Cast
Clearing the Trail	Gibson-Gulliver
Cloud Dodger, The	Al Wilson
Crimson Hour, The	De Putti-Moskine
Danger Rider, The	Hoot Gibson
Doubling For Trouble	Gibson-Gilbert
Fallen Angels	Kerry-Starke
Foreign Legion, The	Kerry-Stone-Nolan
Freedom of the Press	Stone-Keith-M. Day
Fresh Every our	Glenn Tryon
Give and Take	Sidney-Hersholt
Grip of the Yukon, The	Bushman-Hamilton-Marlowe
Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?	Love-T. Moore
Home, James	La Plante-Delaney
Honeymoon Flats	Lewis-Gulliver
Jazz Mad	Hersholt-Nixon-Lewis
Last Warning, The	Laura LaPlante
Lonesome	Tryon-Kent
Man Who Laughs, The	Veidt-Philbin			11 reels	May 12
Man, Woman and Wife	Kerry-Starke-Nixon
Michigan Kid, The	Nagel-Adoree
Navy Blues	Arthur Lake
Phyllis of the Follies	M. Moore-A. Day
Play Goes On	Veidt-Nolan
Plunging Hoofs	Rex-Perrin
Red Lips	Nixon-Rogers
Silks and Saddles	Nixon-Walling-Nolan
Sky Skidder, The	Al Wilson
Uncle Tom's Cabin	Special Cast
Viennese Lovers	Philbin-Hersholt-Keane
Watch My Speed	Denny-Worth
Wild Blood	Rex-Perrin

UNITED ARTISTS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Circus, The	Chaplin-Kennedy	Jan.	7	6400 feet	Jan. 14
College	Buster Keaton	July	29	5800 feet	Sept. 23
Devil Dancer, The	Gray-Brook	Nov.	19	7000 feet	Dec. 30
Dove, The	Talmadge-Roland	Jan.	7	8400 feet	Jan. 7
Drums of Love	Philbin-Alvarado	Mar.	31	9195 feet	Jan. 28
Garden of Eden, The	Griffith-Ray	Feb.	4	7558 feet	Jan. 14
Gaucho, The	Fairbanks-Valez	Jan.	1	9358 feet	Dec. 2
Magic Flame, The	Colman-Banky	Aug.	14	7850 feet	Sept. 30
My Best Girl	Pickford-Rogers	Oct.	31	7460 feet	Dec. 9
Ramona	Del Rio-Baxter	Feb.	11	7552 feet	Feb. 4
Sadie Thompson	Swanson-L. Barrymore	Jan.	7	8600 feet	Feb. 11
Sorrell and Son	Warner-Joyce	Dec.	2	9000 feet	Nov. 25
Steamboat Bill, Jr	Keaton-Torrence	April		7700 feet	May 19
Tempest	J. Barrymore-Horn			9 reels
Two Arabian Knights	Boyd-Wolheim	Sept.	23	8250 feet	Nov. 4
Two Lovers	Colman-Banky			8500 feet	April 28

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Awakening, The	Banky-Byron
Battle of the Sexes, The	Bennett-Hersholt-O'Neill
Hell's Angels	Lyon-Hall-Nissen		(about)	7 reels
La Plava	Boyd-Valez
Revenge	Dolores Del Rio
Woman Disputed, The	Talmadge-Roland

WARNER BROTHERS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Across the Atlantic	Blue-Murphy	Feb.	25	6052 feet
Beware of Married Men	Rich-Ferris-Cook	Jan.	14	5421 feet	Jan. 28
Brass Knuckles	Blue-Bronson	Dec.	3	6330 feet	Dec. 23
College Widow, The	D. Costello-Collier, Jr.	Oct.	15	6616 feet	Nov. 25
Crimson City, The	Loy-Miljan-Hyams	April	7	5388 feet	April 21
Dog of the Regiment- A	Rin-Tin-Tin-Gulliver	Oct.	29	5003 feet	Nov. 11
Domestic Troubles	Fazenda-Cook	Mar.	24	5164 feet
First Auto, The	Miller-Oldfield	Sept.	18	6767 feet	July 8
Five and Ten Cent Annie	Fazenda-Cook
Fortune Hunter, The	Chaplin-Costello	Nov.	7	6639 feet	Jan. 21
Ginsberg the Great	Jessel-Ferris	Nov.	26	5390 feet
Girl From Chicago, The	Nagel-Loy	Nov.	19	5978 feet	Dec. 31
Good Time Charley	Oland-H. Costello	Nov.	5	6302 feet	Nov. 25
Ham and Eggs at Front	Wilson-Conklin-Loy	Dec.	24	5613 feet
Husbands For Rent	Moore-Costello	Dec.	31	6320 feet	Jan. 7
If I Were Single	McAvoy-Nagle	Dec.	17	6320 feet	Dec. 31
Jaws of Steel	Rin-Tin-Tin	Sept.	10	5569 feet	Sept. 30
Jazz Singer, The (Vitaphone)	Jolson-McAvoy	Oct.		7423 feet	Oct. 21
Little Snob, The	McAvoy-Frazier	Feb.	11	5331 feet
Missing Link, The	Syd Chaplin	Aug.	7	6485 feet	May 20
One-Round Hogan	Blue-Hyams	Sept.	17	6357 feet	Oct. 17
Old San Francisco	D. Costello-Oland	Sept.	4	7961 feet	July 8
Pay As You Enter	Cook-Fazenda	May	19
Powder My Back	Rich-Ferris-Beranger	Mar.	10	6185 feet
Race For Life, A	Rin-Tin-Tin Nye-Faire	Jan.	28	4777 feet	Feb. 11
Reno Divorce, A	McAvoy-Graves	Oct.	22	5492 feet	Nov. 4
Rinty of the Desert	Rin-Tin-Tin-Ferris-Nye	April	21	4820 feet
Sailor Izzy Murphy	Jessel-Ferris	Oct.	8	6020 feet	Oct. 28
Sailor's Sweetheart, A	Fazenda-Cook	Sept.	24	5685 feet	Oct. 14
Silver Slave, The	I. Rich-Miljan	Nov.	12	6142 feet	Dec. 9
Slightly Used	McAvoy-Nagel	Sept.	3	6412 feet	Sept. 30
When a Man Loves	Barrymore-Costello	Aug.	21	10081 feet	Feb. 18'27

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Fools In the Fog	McAvoy-Nagle
Glorious Betsy (Vita.)	D. Costello-Nagle			7091 feet	May 5
Ladies Prefer Bonds (tent.)	Nagle-McAvoy
Land of the Silver Fox	Rin-Tin-Tin-Nye-Hyams
Lion and the Mouse (Vita.)	L. Barrymore-McAvoy-Collier, Jr
Midnight Taxi, The	Moreno-Costello
Noah's Ark (Vita.)	D. Costello-O'Brien
No Questions Asked	Ferris-Collier, Jr.
Singing Fool, The (Vita.)	Jolson, Bronson
State Street Sadie	Loy-Nagle
Tenderloin (Vita.)	D. Costello-Nagle			7782 feet	April 28
Women They Talk About	I. Rich-Ferris-Collier, Jr.

The Blue Book of Filmdom—

Containing Accurate Records and Ratings
on Pictures & People

BOOKING GUIDE
AND
STUDIO DIRECTORY

Write for Biography Blank

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

729 Seventh Avenue,
New York City

Hollywood Security Bldg.,
Hollywood, Calif.

Roy Press
Printers

Preference means Profits

The theatre that stresses screen quality is well on the way to popular preference. And that preference means profits.

Specify prints on Eastman Positive—the film that preserves every bit of photographic quality for your screen.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

A Matchless Musical Attraction

No feature of the magnificent new Loew-United Artists-Penn Theatre at Pittsburg was more enthusiastically received than the wonderful Robert Morton Philharmonic Unit Organ.

The World's leading showmen everywhere-the more progressive exhibitors, are taking advantage of the box office value of the- Robert Morton Unit Organ.

Robert Morton Organs are distinctively different from all others. Unapproached grandeur and beauty of tone. Greater orchestral and theatrical resources and structural improvements found in no other instrument, make it the supreme musical instrument of all time.

Robert Morton Organ Co.

New York
1560 Broadway

Chicago
624 So. Michigan

Los Angeles
1914 So Vermont

San Francisco
168 Golden Gate

Robert Morton UNIT ORGAN

GENUINE DEAGAN PERCUSSIONS USED

In This Issue: "The Showman"

Motion Picture News

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

2 GILBERT

3 DAVIES

4 CHANEY

2 NOVARRO

4 SHEARER

4 HAINES

3 GARBO

THEY MEAN BUSINESS!

1 GISH

2 KEATON

4 DANE-ARTHUR

3 CODY-PRINGLE

ESTABLISHED names—
M-G-M stars in
M-G-M hits are the
SURE- fireworks of '28-'29.

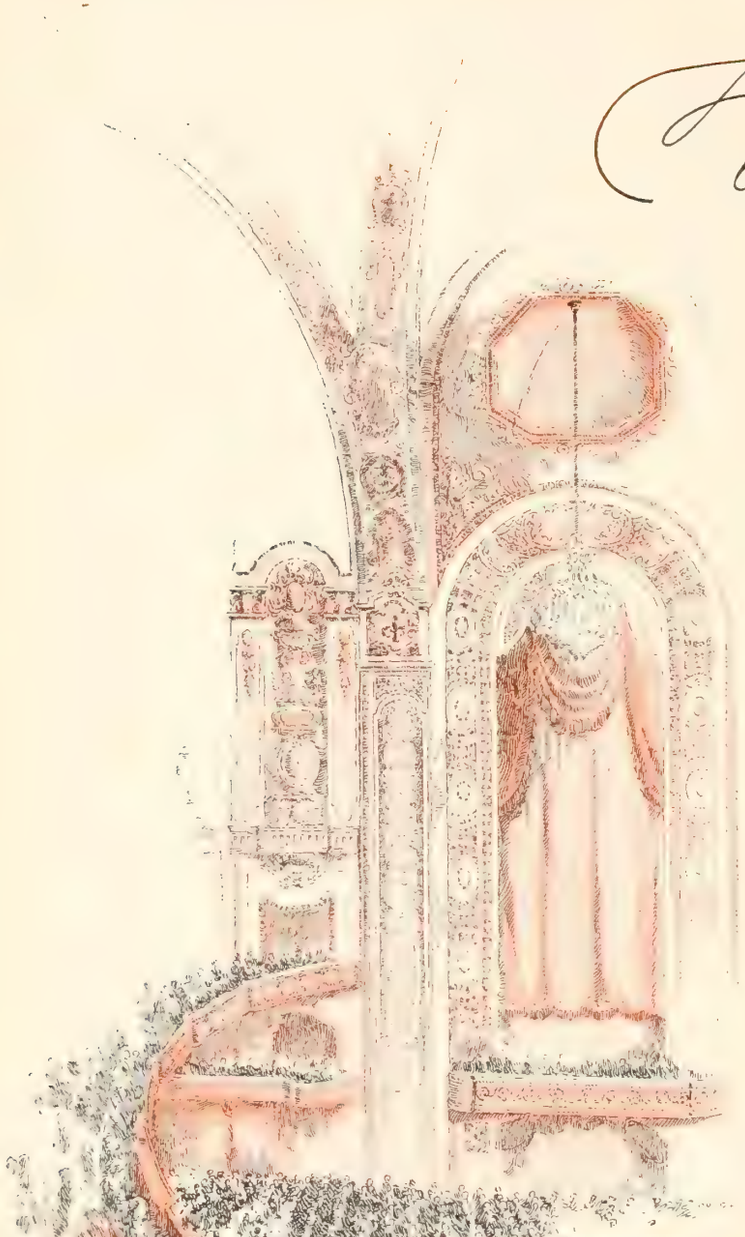
6 McCOY

10 "OUR GANG"

The Important Company
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

10 CHASE

10 ROACH ALL-STAR



10 LAUREL-HARDY

PLUS: 3 BIG SPECIALS: SHOW PEOPLE, Marion Davies, William Haines, THE CARNIVAL OF LIFE, Joan Gilbert, Greta Garbo, THE LOVES OF CASANOVA. 3 COSMOPOLITAN; 3 ELECTRIC LIGHT HITS; 2 FLASH (dog star); 104 M-G-M NEWS; 10 M-G-M GREAT EVENTS (Technicolor); 26 M-G-M ODDITIES

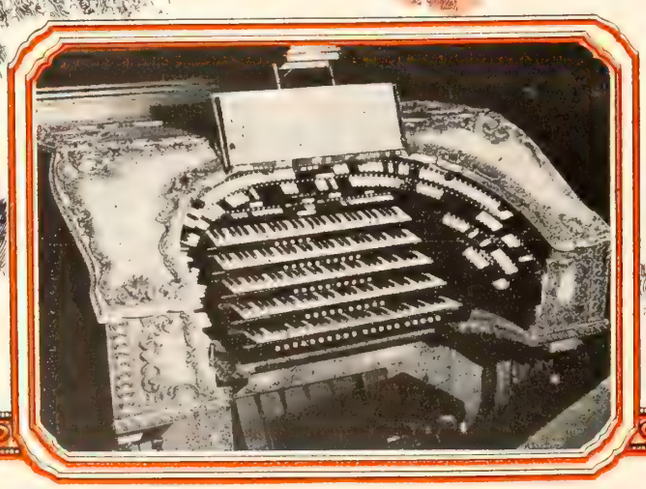
Vol. XXXVII
No. 22

June 2, 1928
PRICE 20 CENTS



The new Michigan Theatre of Detroit has installed a

WURLITZER ORGAN

The very finest theatres in the United States and many foreign countries have installed Wurlitzer Organs. There must be reasons—definite, practical reasons.

Foremost, Wurlitzer Organs surpass in rich tonal quality, ease and responsiveness of action. No other organ is equipped to produce such almost unlimited varieties and combinations of effects. As an investment the Wurlitzer Organ embodies far greater dollar for dollar value than any other make of organ.

The Wurlitzer Organ is always dependable, appealing to lovers of good music, and is preferred by all authoritative organists.

NEW YORK
CLEVELAND
PHILADELPHIA
ST. LOUIS
CHICAGO
PITTSBURGH

WURLITZER ORGAN

BUFFALO
SAN FRANCISCO
CINCINNATI
DETROIT
KANSAS CITY
LOS ANGELES

FACTORIES: NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y.

Lindbergh was the 67th flyer to cross the Atlantic

¶ The other 66 were good enough flyers. But Lindbergh got the crowds. Why? Personality that appealed to the modern public. Front-page publicity everywhere. On the tip of every tongue. S. R. O. wherever he turned. It's the same with pictures. ¶ 66 good pictures get only a passing nod. The 67th picture knocks box-office records for a row. Everybody knows about it. everybody wants to see it. You find good pictures in other companies' announcements for 1928-9; you find the 67th type of good picture and star in large quantity, exclusively in Paramount's Whole-Show Program. ¶ Because Paramount geared its production staff and spent its millions to make high-powered pictures with the spark that fires the public. "Wings," that has smacked every road-show record of all times. Harold Lloyd, leading box-office draw of the world, with his own smart Harold Lloyd Corporation production outfit. "Canary Murder Case," read by 200,000 people. Von Stroheim's "Wedding March," most eagerly-awaited picture in years. Clara Bow, to whom 30,000 fans a month write. Jannings (world's greatest dramatic genius), Dix, Bancroft, Daniels, Ralston (coming up like a rocket), Charles Rogers (new idol of the millions), and more, more, more. Stars and pictures that stand out like Lindberghs above the mass of other product. ¶ The important pictures of next season are in . . . . . .

PARAMOUNT'S WHOLE-SHOW PROGRAM

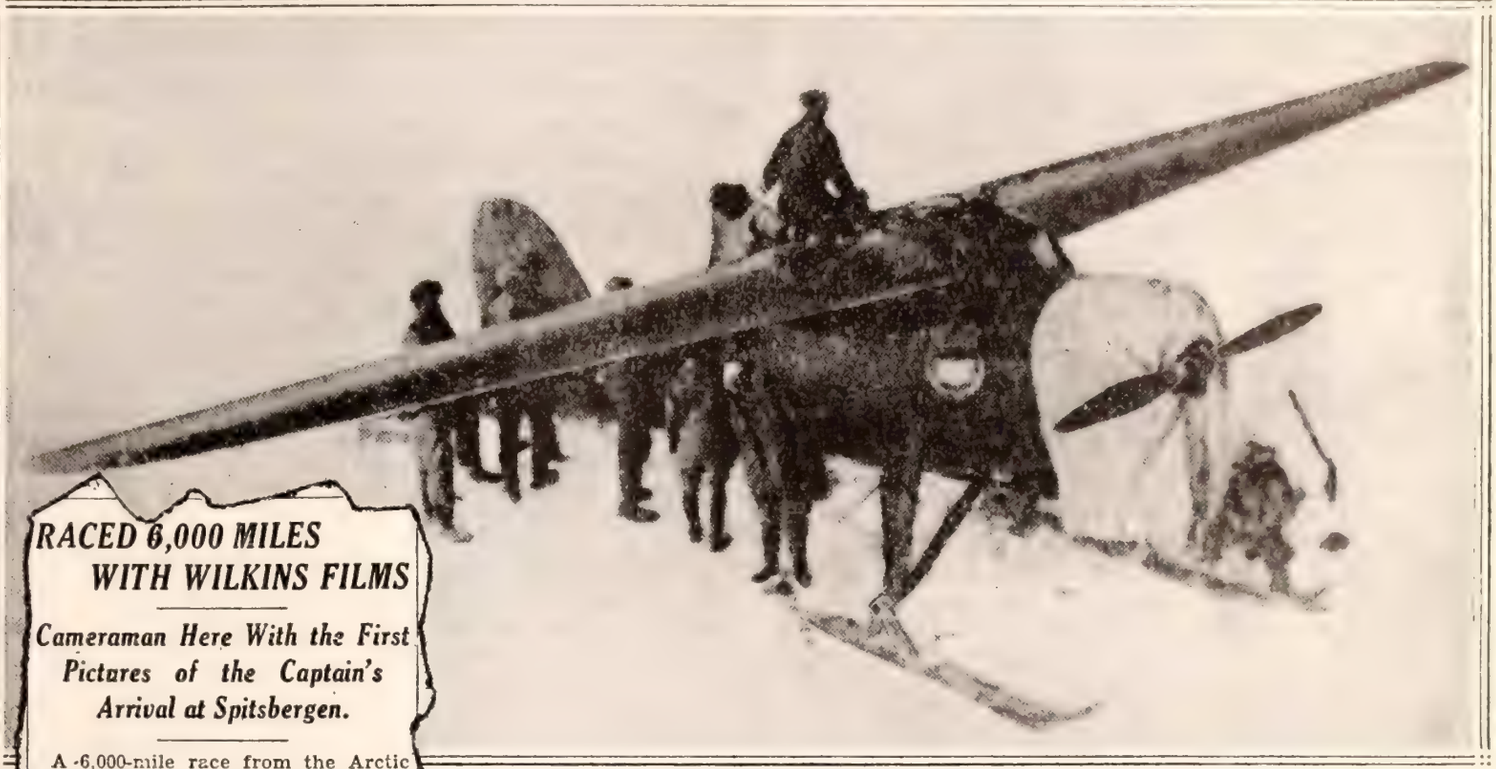
Specials

Harold Lloyd
Wedding March
4 Clara Bow
3 Richard Dix
2 Emil Jannings
Canary Murder Case
Beggars of Life
The Tong War
Crime of Interference
The Letter
Tahiti Nights
Glorifying American Girl
Perfumed Trap
Wolf Song
Dirigible
Man I Love
Hard Boiled Angel
Living Together
Upstart Gentleman
Behind German Lines
Burlesque

Road Shows

Wings
Abie's Irish Rose
The Patriot

Star Hits



3 Richard Dix
4 Geo. Bancroft
4 Bebe Daniels
4 Esther Ralston
2 Pola Negri
3 Wray-Cooper
2 Florence Vidor
4 Chas. Rogers
3 Taylor-Hall
3 Adolphe Menjou
3 Zane Grey
1 Thomas Meighan
2 MacLean-Christie
1 Sir Harry Lauder
1 Model of Montmarte

Shorts

104 Paramount News
8 Vernon Comedies
8 Dooley Comedies
8 "Macduff" Comedies
8 "Confessions of a Chorus Girl" Comedies
12 Great Stars and Authors
26 Krazy Kat
26 Inkwell Imps
2 Horton Comedies
Extra! Byrd's Flight to the South Pole

THE NEW YORK TIMES. SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1928

FIRST PICTURES OF CAPTAIN GEORGE WILKINS AFTER HIS POLAR FLIGHT.

Paramount News-Associated Press.

RACED 6,000 MILES WITH WILKINS FILMS

Cameraman Here With the First Pictures of the Captain's Arrival at Spitsbergen.

A 6,000-mile race from the Arctic Circle was won yesterday by John Dored, staff camerman of the Paramount News and Associated Press, with the first pictures of the landing in Spitsbergen of Captain George Wilkins and Lieutenant Carl Eielson after their flight from Alaska over polar regions.

By steamer, launch, dog sled, automobile, train and airplane, Dored raced to win a clean beat of five days on one of the outstanding news stories of the year. An hour after the films were landed here yesterday they were developed and on their way to newspapers and theatres throughout the country.

Mo[illegible] photogr[illegible]

N. Y. Times hails Paramount Scoop!

¶ Biggest news event since Greenely Island and Paramount News first again with exclusive pictures of actual completion in Spitzbergen of Capt. George Wilkins' great Arctic Flight! • • •

¶ 300-foot Paramount News Special on the screen Saturday, May 26th, beating all competition. No extra cost to subscribers.

¶ One after another • • • Paramount News scoops the field!

PARAMOUNT NEWS

News Reel Leader from the Start!

"—picture has everything LOVE DRAMA ACTION THRILLS— It should rank among the 'best films' of the year."

Boston Traveller

D.W. GRIFFITH'S

with MARY PHILBIN

UNITED ARTISTS PICTURE

"—A GREAT picture. A gripping drama of LOVE BATTLE and PASSION—lavish settings and regal splendor."

Dallas Journal

DRUMS OF LOVE

LIONEL BARRYMORE
DON ALVARADO · TULLY MARSHALL
WILLIAM AUSTIN

UNITED ARTISTS PICTURE

FACTS

ABOUT PICTURES AND PEOPLE

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW

Whatever your connection with the industry—
Producer, Distributor, Exhibitor or Newspaper.

IN A COMPACT VOLUME

Just the information you need. Arranged in a way that you can easily find it.

STUDIO DIRECTORY

and

BOOKING GUIDE

The Blue Book of Filmdom

Write for biography blank

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

729 Seventh Avenue
New York City

Hollywood Security Bldg.
Hollywood, Calif.

A REVIEW OF THE PAST SEASON—

Atten-shun!

FACE
THE facts!
M-G-M won the 1927-1928
BOX office honors with

(continued)

(continued)

EVERY WEEK

A BIG STAR NAME!

NO company on earth
CAN give you the
SECURITY of a
BIG Star name
TO put in your
MARQUEE lights
EVERY week—
1500 new accounts
SWITCHED from other companies
TO M-G-M last year!
10,000 practical showmen
NOW use M-G-M service
BECAUSE experience shows
M-G-M product returns
THE consistent profits!

THE MONEY PRODUCT
1928-1929

3 SPECIALS
SHOW PEOPLE
Marion Davies
William Haines
THE CARNIVAL OF LIFE
John Gilbert
Greta Garbo
THE LOVES OF CASANOVA

4 LON CHANEY
While the City Sleeps
and 3 others

3 GRETA GARBO
Tiger Skin, Single Standard
and 1 more

4 WILLIAM HAINES
Excess Baggage and 3 more

3 MARION DAVIES
Dumb Dora and 2 More

2 RAMON NOVARRO
Gold Braid and 1 more

2 JOHN GILBERT
The Devil's Mask and 1 more

4 NORMA SHEARER
Ballyhoo and 3 more

2 BUSTER KEATON
The Camera Man and 1 more

1 LILLIAN GISH
The Wind

4 DANE-ARTHUR
Camping Out and 3 more

3 CODY-PRINGLE
The Baby Cyclone
and 2 more

6 TIM McCOY

2 FLASH
The Amazing Dog
Star in Grease Paint
and 1 more

3 COSMOPOLITAN PRODUCTIONS
Our Dancing Daughters
Breakers Ahead
Mothers and Sons

3 ELECTRIC-LIGHT HITS
The Bellamy Trial
The Wonder of Women
A Free Soul

40 HAL ROACH COMEDIES
10 OUR GANG
10 LAUREL-HARDY
10 CHARLEY CHASE
10 ALL STAR

104 M-G-M NEWS
Twice Weekly

6 M-G-M GREAT EVENTS
entirely in Technicolor

26 M-G-M ODDITIES
UFA world-wide gems

M-G-M

THE IMPORTANT COMPANY

"There's A NEW BAND WAGON in motion pictures . . ."

—WILLIAM A. JOHNSTON
In "Motion Picture News"

Watch your step in getting on!

In the Entertainment Field, Science Has Always Blazed the Trail

SUPERIOR facilities and superior resources automatically attract superior services. This is as true in the realm of entertainment as it is in the realm of business.

In the development of "talking" pictures, art will follow science. The box office prizes of the future will go to those possessing the most advanced and efficient facilities for sound reproduction.

Some may seek to upset this principle, but the public is never long misled.

The selection of the proper "sound" equipment is the most important matter before the exhibitor today. On the efficiency of that equipment ultimately will rest the quality of the pictures he has to show.

It behooves him, therefore, to make sure he is in right before he goes ahead.

The RCA PHOTOPHONE

Leads the Way to Assured Public Favor in "Talking" Pictures

With the introduction of the RCA Photophone, "talking" pictures have passed beyond the experimental state. It is to previous devices what the modern day phonograph is to the old-time gramophone. Only the resources and research facilities of the world's foremost engineering laboratories could have made such an achievement possible.

Revolutionary Improvements

While the RCA Photophone equipment is standardized in that it permits of the interchange of films with other processes, it differs from all other "sound film" appliances in these essential characteristics:

TONAL FIDELITY

The superior tonal quality of the Photophone is due to the fact that the Photophone employs the "variable width" or "serrated edge" method of recording sound on the film, as opposed to the "variable density" process.

There are no limitations to the Photophone recording process. Nor are its tone qualities affected by under-developing or over-developing of the sound track. Full value is obtained from all musical gradations—full advantage taken of the phonetic quality of a performer's voice.

ACOUSTICAL ADVANCES

The Photophone reproducing apparatus embodies all of the technical improvements which the Radio Group have developed in their work in the broadcast field. Photophone reproduction is practically a "straight line" method, giving equal amplification for all sound frequencies. Furthermore, Photophone does not use horns for reproduction. It employs a newly discovered and highly perfected cone of the electrodynamic type, which gives a tone quality that can never be approached by the horn method.

As a result of these improvements sound reproduction achieves a fidelity in RCA Photophone never before equalled.

There is absolutely no suggestion of mechanical transference—no over-loading, no distortion, no unnatural volume. It is devoid of metallic sounds, or shrillness, harshness or slurring.

PERFECT SYNCHRONIZATION

Absolute synchronization is accomplished by RCA Photophone by the projection of both picture and sound from the same source.

The sound is on the film—not on another machine. There can be no gap between the sound and the picture caused by jumping disc needles or variations in timing of separate apparatus.

PRODUCTION EFFICIENCY

Much of the effectiveness of "talking" pictures is dependent upon the skill exercised in the placing of the microphones. The Radio Group's vast experience in such work as the result of its broadcasting activities will be utilized in the production of all films made by the Photophone process, assuring the most satisfactory results in recording.

DURABILITY

The sound track of the RCA Photophone lasts. In contrast to other film recording methods, RCA Photophone films are as well preserved after the tenth week of operation as they are after the first. They will outlive the picture itself.

FULL-SIZED PICTURES

Producers may put synchronized orchestral accompaniment on existing negatives by the Photophone process without destroying a portion of the picture.

The RCA Photophone is the only sound film that preserves the normal size of such pictures. The Photophone Company produces positive prints with sound track by a special optical reduction printer which enables it to save the entire picture record and still leave enough room on the film for the sound track. Other methods destroy a portion of the picture record to accommodate the sound track.

Furthermore, there is no distortion of the photography by reason of the necessity for duping to make possible the introduction of the sound element. RCA Photophone pictures are printed direct from the negative on positive stock.

PROJECTION IMPROVEMENTS

The RCA Photophone equipment embodies new projection improvements that are both simpler of operation and more effective than any other existing system.

ECONOMY

The RCA Photophone offers a substantial saving in its installation cost, while mechanical efficiency assures a low maintenance cost.

You take no chances in installing RCA Photophone. It gives you all the improvements of present-day science, plus the assurance of such improvements as may develop in the future.

Equipment that meets every requirement

RCA PHOTOPHONE projection equipment may be installed in practically every projection booth with little alteration.

Standard films, without the sound feature, may be used without any change in the RCA Photophone, as may all types of "talking films." The installation of RCA Photophone equipment in no way interferes with the projection of the ordinary picture.

In addition to a wide range of feature productions, news reels and novelty films, there will be available through RCA Photophone, Inc., a large selection of films of incidental and non-synchronized music.

For theatres desiring only reproducing apparatus for incidental and non-synchronized music, there will be available high power reproducers, providing superlative performances, at moderate prices.

Board of Directors of RCA Photophone, Inc.

CORNELIUS N. BLISS
PAUL D. CRAVATH
GENERAL JAMES G. HARBORD
EDWARD W. HARDEN
EDWIN M. HERR
DAVID SARNOFF
JAMES R. SHEFFIELD
GERARD SWOPE
OWEN D. YOUNG

* * *

Officers of RCA Photophone, Inc.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD
GENERAL JAMES G. HARBORD

PRESIDENT
DAVID SARNOFF

Vice-President E. E. BUCHER
Technical Vice-Pres., ALFRED N. GOLDSMITH
Treasurer, GEORGE S. DeSOUSA Secretary, LEWIS MacCONNACH
Comptroller, CHARLES J. ROSS

Board of Consulting Engineers
ALFRED N. GOLDSMITH C. W. STONE S. M. KINTNER

* * *

Forward-looking exhibitors, when in New York, are invited to investigate at our studio, the business-building potentialities of RCA Photophone.

RCA PHOTOPHONE INC.

411 FIFTH AVENUE NEW YORK

A Subsidiary of the Radio Corporation of America

W. RAY JOHNSTON is pleased to announce

MISS VERA REYNOLDS

(BY COURTESY OF DE MILLE PICTURES)

As the Star of

"THE DIVINE SINNER"

The first of "RAYART'S BOX-OFFICE TWENTY" for 1928-29

RAYART PICTURES

RAYART PICTURES

VERA REYNOLDS

A TREM CARR BLUE-RIBBON PRODUCTION For RAYART PICTURES

STORY BY ROBERT ANTHONY DILLON - DIRECTED BY SCOTT PEMBROKE

RAYART PICTURES CORPORATION

SEVEN TWENTY THREE SEVENTH AVENUE - NEW YORK

Foreign Distributors

RICHMOUNT PICTURES

The Flower Short

of the Subject Field!

Laemmle Shows the Way!!

To greater profits—for more than 14,000 Exhibitors with the best SHORT SUBJECT in the world.

Don't use a yard stick to measure the circulation of a motion picture trade paper. What appears to be a yard may not be a yard at all.

For instance, it is possible to sell a long list of subscriptions to some theatre organization and yet fail to have the trade paper in the hands of the individuals who buy.

The problem of a motion picture trade journal is to know who does the buying and to know that these individuals are readers of that journal.

Right here is the difference between MOTION PICTURE NEWS circulation and yard stick circulation. We know the NEWS is read by the real buyers. We know our readers consist of the executive and operative personnel of the theatre field.

We know these facts and so do many of the biggest theatre equipment manufacturers—manufacturers who acknowledge this confidence in MOTION PICTURE NEWS circulation thru exclusive advertising.

SHE'S DIFFERENT
IT'S DIFFERENT

JOHN McCORMICK Presents

Colleen MOORE in "HAPPINESS AHEAD"

With Edmund Lowe, Lou Tellegen, Edmund Goulding, Screened by Dorothy Gish. A First National Picture

Keep Smiling!

Keep Smiling!

Keep Smiling!

Keep Smiling!

Keep Smiling!

11,500,000 Will Want It

and SMART SET, on sale July 1st, will reach new

"Thank heaven!—I'll be able to feature one new Big-Star Attraction every week this Summer!—That will keep my patrons in the movie-going habit—help my business all through the week."

COLLEEN MOORE
in "Happiness Ahead"

COLLEEN MOORE
in "Oh Kay!"

RICHARD BARTHELMESS
in "The Wheel of Chance"
An Alfred Santell Production

RICHARD BARTHELMESS
in "Out of the Ruins"

CHARLIE MURRAY
in "The Head Man"

3 Specials

Mack Sennett's personally directed
"THE GOOD-BYE KISS"
with 3 New Star Finds
Johnny Burke, Sally Eilers, Matty Kemp

"THE BARKER"
with MILTON SILLS
DOROTHY MACKAILL
Betty Compson
A George Fitzmaurice production
From the famous Broadway hit.

RICHARD BARTHELMESS
in "The Patent Leather Kid"
An Alfred Santell Production
It holds the record for breaking records

FIRST NATIONAL'S

Special Summer Series

"HAROLD TEEN"
with
Arthur Lake, Mary Brian, Alice White
Full-length feature comedy from Carl Ed's famous comic strip syndicated to 32 million readers.

HARRY LANGDON
in "Here Comes the Band"

JOHNNY HINES
in "The Wright Idea"

"THREE-RING MARRIAGE"
with Mary Astor, Lloyd Hughes
Directed by Marshall Neilan

"HEART-TO-HEART"
with Mary Astor, Lloyd Hughes
Louise Fazenda, Thelma Todd

KEN MAYNARD
in "Code of The Scarlet"

BILLIE DOVE
in "The Yellow Lily"

MILTON SILLS
in "The Hawk's Nest" with Doris Kenyon and Montagu Love

"VAMPING VENUS"
with CHARLIE MURRAY
Louise Fazenda, Thelma Todd

"LADY BE GOOD"
with Dorothy Mackaill, Jack Mulhall

KEN MAYNARD
in "The Upland Rider"

"Because you need BETTER pictures in Summer . . . . ."

BUY THEM AS A GROUP...
THEY'RE WEATHERPROOF!

First National Pictures

Member of Motion Picture Producers and Distributers of America Inc—Will H Hays President

Motion Picture News

Volume XXXVII NEW YORK CITY, JUNE 2, 1928 No. 22

A Big Job

"Sound" Movies and Readjustment of Industry

By William A. Johnston

THE new sound movie and its place in this industry reminds one of an infant which has suddenly entered a house where a large and hectic party is going on.

Some people are totally unaware of its presence; others see it, but loftily refuse to recognize it; a good many don't know what on earth to do with it; and those most interested get to quarrelling over its parentage.

Only a few are making rapid plans to rear the child; a still fewer number are already well on their way.

The intrusion is not a welcome one. The industry, as we have said before, finds itself very much in the same fix as it did when the feature photoplay bobbed up. The studios were not at all ready for it; there were no writers, directors and technicians in general; the old line distributors couldn't handle it at all; and so the prosperous dealers in short subject programs wanted to kick it back into oblivion.

But the public wanted it; and the industry, after violent and wide-spread reordering of itself, went right ahead to supply it.

* * * *

Now, it would appear by the most obvious signs, the public wants something else again, something more vitally entertaining, not merely the novelty in itself. The sound movie! The silent drama with a voice. And, of course, the great amusement public is going to get what it wants. That's certain.

But the industry is aghast at its job: and you can't blame it.

Over the past fifteen years a vast producing and distributing machine has been built up and cemented in the effort to supply the silent photoplay. Not only have studio and studio resources, and distribution and distribution resources been expanded and perfected, but even theatres acquired in the great competitive effort to get features to the public whether the public wanted them or not. And the race is still on.

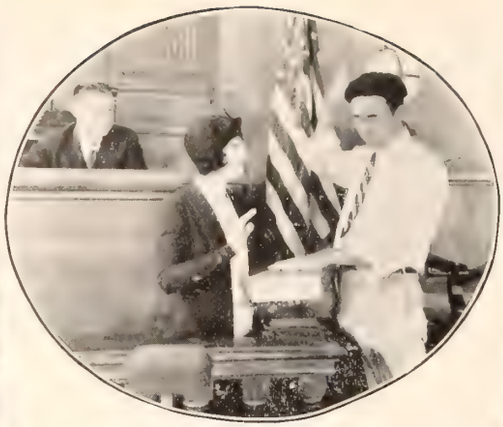
But—within the past year or so—something has happened, something fundamental.

The trade itself has been busy with Wall Street and mergers, with fiscal matters and economies, with chaining up theatres—and yes, there is still a producers' race to acquire theatres in the same fatuous attempt to jam pictures down the public throat.

The something that has happened has been a growing apathy on the part of the public toward the silent drama. Vaudeville was tried and fell flat. Grand presentations were employed and often do the trick, but at what price!

At their best these extraneous efforts were pulmotors only. And now comes along something new, in and of and out of the silent drama. It's voice! And the public has had a taste of the new entertainment and is eating it up.

* * * *



So the public controls, as usual. And the reordering of production and distribution will have to be made, but it can't be done in a day, or a week, or even a year.

Meanwhile, the production and distribution of silent pictures—announced and planned for the new season will go on, of course. That's a big job in itself.

In this period of radical readjustment, it behooves everybody to keep a clear head, and not to rock the boat.

Another cartoon character joins the movie throng. Walter Berndt, the creator of "Smitty," signs a contract with Amedee J. Van Beuren and Harry Weber, on his right, who will transfer "Smitty" to two-reeler productions for release through Pathe channels

The tense court-room scenes in Frances Noyes Hart's "The Bellamy Trial" were recently filmed by Director Monta Bell, who is shown above with Leatrice Joy demonstrating how to take the oath

Thomas Burtis, left, author of the aviation stories which will be released soon by Educational, and Reed Howes, star of the series, talking to the captain of the S.S. Montclare, on which vessel Educational's convention was entertained by Associated Screen News, Ltd.

Alberta Vaughn as a vivacious chorine. She is starring in the "Racing Blood" series for FBO distribution

One writes popular songs, the other sings them in a world-winning manner. Irving Berlin will write a number which Al Jolson will sing in Warner Bros.' "The Singing Fool"

Give the hard-working cameraman a hand. Nick Stuart, Fox player, has his eye focused on stardom

E. Bruce Johnson (with the cigarette) vice-president and foreign manager of First National, met upon his Berlin arrival by members of the Defu-First National producing force. Directly behind Mr. Johnson is Ray Rockett, supervisor of First National's foreign productions

Olive Borden, who supplies all the feminine appeal in "Virgin Lips," her first Columbia production

Mary and Doug, vacationing in Europe, visit Rex Ingram at his studio in Nice, where he is to make "The Three Passions" for United Artists. Left to right: Douglas Fairbanks, Rex Ingram, Alastair Mackintosh, production manager of the Ingram Studio, and Mary Pickford

Inside Slants on the Industry — PICTURES AND PEOPLE — The Mirrors of Filmdom

"DAWN," the much discussed British picture, opened at the Times Square Theatre, New York, this week amid a total absence of excitement. This, of course, is the film which has caused many protests on the ground that the showing of it would kindle old hatreds and revive the war spirit.

Leaving aside for the moment the question as to whether the picture ought to be shown, so far as the international viewpoint is concerned, and considering it merely as a motion picture, these observations occur to us:

The outstanding thing in the production is the performance given by Sybil Thorndike, in the role of Nurse Cavell. Her work is one of the great impersonations of the screen.

The direction by Herbert Wilcox is, on the whole, good, though it lacks in spots a full command of tempo. It is by far the best work Mr. Wilcox has done. The production values are good, the only notable defect being poor photography in certain of the sequences.

In the selection of types; in the titles; and in other ways, Mr. Wilcox has gone to great lengths to present his story as a story, and not as a document directed against any nation.

* * * *

ACCORDING to correspondents of the NEWS in two territories, the buying of product for the new season is getting under way very slowly. St. Louis reports that business is not good, and assigns the reason to lack of sufficient advertising in regional and national trade publications, in order to prepare the way for salesmen. In Northern and Central New York, with Albany as the exchange center, exhibitors are open in declaring that they will hold off buying for weeks to come in an effort to force prices downward. Although practically all of the conventions are over, the exchanges in Albany are going no further these days than the mere quoting of prices, and are frank in admitting that they do not expect the buying season to get under way, even with the big fellows, within sixty days or more. Many of the exchanges do not plan to send their salesmen into the smaller towns much before October.

The situation, in so far as the theatres which book from the Albany exchanges, is a peculiar one this spring. In the first place, many of these theatres, holding off for several weeks last year, then bought to the extent that they absolutely loaded up with pictures, and now find themselves with more on hand than they can consume. This means that these theatres will be playing last season's product for two or three months to come, and also that the exhibitors will not buy to the extent of a year ago, and precipitate themselves into a repetition of last year. Exchange managers admit that this condition exists in many instances.

As a result, the majority of accounts will be held over until next fall, before activity to any extent can be expected. The Schine circuit, of course, will be eagerly sought by the exchange managers and salesmen from now on. This chain numbers over 125 houses and is the big plum for the exchanges. Some of the exchange managers are hoping to book their product with Schine within the next month or so, but this is rather doubtful.

William Benton, of Saratoga Springs, with a dozen or more houses in northern New York, does not plan to close with the new product within a couple of months. William Smalley, of Cooperstown, who has fifteen houses or so, is planning to do likewise.

In so far as prices are concerned, the exchanges are quoting an increase over a year ago. They claim that the quality of the pictures is ahead of last year and that they are justified in asking higher prices. The exhibitors, in turn, say that they paid the peak last year and then found themselves with many pictures that proved of no great drawing power. They say emphatically, that they will not pay any more than a year ago, and some go so far as to say that they do not intend to pay even as much as last season.

* * * *

OUR Paris correspondent, L. C. Moen, cables that Louis Nalpas has resigned as managing director of Cineromans, the company controlled by Jean Sapene, and will start his own production organization. The separation is described as a friendly disagreement over policy.

M. Nalpas will announce important plans soon. During his six years' association with Sapene, M. Nalpas made, among other pictures, "Les Miserables."

The same correspondent reports that the world picture rights to the Olympic games have been sold to Luce, the Italian state film monopoly. American newsreel companies are negotiating for the rights here, and Mussolini's friendliness to the American screen makes a successful outcome likely.

* * * *

FOR the first time in the history of the Capitol Theatre, New York, a two-reel comedy will be presented as a regular feature of the weekly program. The product will be selected from the Hal Roach output for M-G-M.

This announcement is of importance because it means the restoring of the short length comedy to Broadway, first-run, where it has been crowded out by the overplus of presentation stuff.

June 2, 1928 Motion Picture News Vol. XXXVII, No. 22

Published weekly by Motion Picture News, Inc. Founded in September, 1913. Publication Office, 729 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y.; Editorial and General Offices, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City; Branch Offices, 845 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.; Room 616 Security Bldg., Hollywood, California. William A. Johnston, president; Kenneth M. Goode, vice-president William A. Johnston, editor; Oscar Cooper, managing editor; Raymond E. Gallagher, advertising manager; Paul M. Abbott, manager of accessory advertising; L. H. Mason, Chicago representative; William McCormack, Los Angeles representative. Subscription price, $3.00 per year, postpaid in United States, Mexico, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Philippine Islands and some other countries. Canada, $5.00; Foreign, $10.00. Copyright, 1928, by Motion Picture News, Inc., in United States and Great Britain. Title registered in the United States Patent Office and foreign countries. Western Union cable address is "Picknews," New York. Entered as second-class matter at the Post Office, New York, N. Y., April 22, 1926, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Walsh Resolution for U. S. Probe Fails of Adoption

WHEN Congress adjourned this week, no action had been taken by the Senate on the resolution introduced by Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana which sought an investigation of the Film Boards of Trade, the Government's probe of the industry and the Federal Trade Commission's action in the Paramount case.

Senator Walsh had sought to have the Judiciary Committee of the Senate inquire into the investigations which have been conducted by the Department of Justice in relation to the Film Boards of Trade and the Trade Commission with reference to Paramount. He sought to determine what progress had been made and with what diligence any alleged illegal practices uncovered may have been prosecuted.

Trade Commission Ready to Enforce Code

Believed Second Trade Practice Conference Will Be Asked by Industry

THE Code of Ethics announced for the industry by the Federal Trade Commission, and printed elsewhere in this issue, will be enforced by that governmental body. This refers to resolutions unanimously endorsed by all groups at the recent Trade Practice Conference.

Respondents in such cases brought hereafter will be required to show that acts complained of were not in violation of the rules laid down by the industry itself.

The manner in which the rules are complied with will be checked up by the Commission through various sources in the industry, including the delegates to the Trade Practice Conference. Upon these reports and demands of the industry itself will be based any decision as to a second conference, but it is believed, that a second conference will be asked by the industry within a few months.

Companies objecting to any of the regulations can secure modification only by action of the industry itself, since the resolutions comprising the code were adopted unanimously by all groups, and, therefore, no company can contend that any particular rule was adopted without sanction of the group of which it is a member.

Service Not Compulsory

Rejection of Non-Theatrical Resolution Does Not Mean That Exchanges Must Serve Them

THE condition with regard to service to non-theatricals remains the same as before despite the findings of the Trade Commission, in that it will not be compulsory for exehanges to serve the non-theatricals. The rejection by the Commission of the resolution would simply seem to attest that that body declines to sanction a resolution which it is feared might be interpreted as being in restraint of trade.

The Commission, "although fully in sympathy with the predicament of exhibitors subjected to non-theatrical competition," is bound by the law, and consequently could not accept the resolution.

It is said that the Commission has no power to compel a company to sell to non-theatricals, as the Supreme Court has held that a company may refuse to sell a man for some unwarranted reason, but if two companies refuse to sell that man, for no better reason, it savors of restraint of trade and boycott. Thus, it is held that if any resolution is effected that non-theatrical accounts should be refused it would immediately become an agreement in restraint of trade.

It is explained to individual exchanges that they may refuse to sell non-theatricals if they so desire, but they must not get together and reach an agreement with other exchanges. It is even pointed out that a decision as to conspiracy in restraint of trade often is based upon the result of the acts of a number of individuals, rather than proof of any agreement among them.

In the event that all exchanges in a city individually refused to sell a non-theatrical account, they would be required, in the event of a suit, to show conclusively that their actions were not related. This, it is held, would be a difficult thing to prove.

The result of the rejection of the resolution by the Commission leaves the non-theatrical situation exactly as it has been in the past.

Pooling Denied by Carl Laemmle

"THERE is not one word of truth in the story published about Universal pooling with any other company or companies," stated Carl Laemmle on his arrival in New York several days ago after some time spent in Louisville, Ky.

"Such a thing has not even been discussed nor considered," stated the Universal president.

Eberson to Collaborate With English Architects

Having been invited to collaborate with a group of English architects in the planning of several atmospheric theatres in London and the provinces, John Eberson, theatre architect of New York, sailed on the Leviathan last Saturday, May 26. He is bound for London.

"Caught in the Fog" New Title of Warner Picture

A new and definite title for the Warner Bros. picture titled "Fools in the Fog" has been selected. It is "Caught in the Fog." Editing of the production is now complete.

Fischer Joins Columbia in Sales Capacity

A. H. Fischer has joined Columbia Pictures in a sales capacity. His first assignment will be the opening of the company's new exchange in St. Louis, which will have jurisdiction over Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois.

Internal Discord in Sapiro Organization

AT a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Independent Motion Picture Exhibitors Association May 30, Elias Mayer of the firm of Mayer & Schneider was removed from the committee on the purchase of film. Harry Brandt was elected to fill the vacancy.

At the same meeting President Sapiro was instructed and authorized by the Board of Directors to begin legal action against the Mayer & Schneider Theatres Corporation to collect money due the Association. This action was taken when it was reported to the Board that none of the Mayer & Schneider theatres have paid into the Association any of the sums due in the form of dues since they became members.

It was reported to the Directors that the Mayer & Schneider theatres were the only absolute delinquents.

While Mr. Mayer was removed from the Film Purchase Committee, and while legal action will be begun against the theatres with which he is connected, these actions will not affect the membership of the Mayer & Schneider theatres in the Independent Motion Pictures Exhibitors Association. As was stated at the meeting, they will be kept in the Associaion "for their own good."

At the same meeting Isaac Katz was elected a director, to fill a vacancy.

Commission Ready With Code of Industry Ethics

Disapproves Block Booking and Non-Theatrical Ban, But Commends Majority of Conference Resolutions

THE Federal Trade Commission has handed down its findings on the resolutions adopted at the Trade Practice Conference held in New York last October. The complete report of the conference and the recommendations of the Commission are being sent to the industry. Its content, however, on the important subjects under discussion, has been revealed.

The Commission approved a large number of the rules adopted at the Conference, accepted a number of others as "expressions of the trade," disapproved entirely the resolution regarding the sale of film to non-theatricals and held in abeyance many others because the industry could not come to any agreement regarding them.

The Commission held as "illegal and restraint of trade," Exhibitor Resolution No. 1, which sought to ban service to non-theatricals. Block booking was also held illegal, and Abraham F. Myers, Federal Trade Commissioner who conducted the Trade Practice Conference, has recommended that the Commission proceed at once against every distributor selling in groups.

Code Divided Into 4 Sections

The Code of Ethics on which the Federal Trade Commission reports, is divided into four sections as follows: Group 1 includes resolutions accepted and approved by the Federal Trade Commission; Group 2, those received and accepted by the Commission as expressions of the trade; Group 3, embracing one resolution on non-theatricals, which is disapproved; and Group 4, including resolutions held in abeyance without further action by the commission as the sharp division of the vote at the Trade Practice Conference indicates a hopeless lack of agreement among the different branches of the industry.

M. Markham Flannery, director of trade practice conferences, has recommended to the Federal Trade Commission a trial period of six to twelve months to observe workings of the results of the Trade Practice Conference and adherence to the code of ethics.

Holds Block Booking Unlawful

Attached to the report which is being sent to the industry by the Trade Commission is a statement by Commissioner Abram F. Myers, in which he recommends that those resolutions adopted at the conference regarding block booking of motion pictures be not accepted. He holds that the conference did not result in an agreement coinciding with the Commissioner's views on block booking, and that a pledge made by the distributors, which cannot be regarded as a formal resolution of the conference, and which modifies the block booking practice in certain particulars, cannot be accepted as a compliance with the Commission's order to Paramount regarding block booking.

"The position of the Commission in that case, as I understand it," reports Commissioner Myers, "is that block booking is, in and of itself, unlawful. That being true, no resolution which recognizes the legality or propriety of the practice and contemplates its continued observance by the distributors can be accepted as a compliance with the order and as dispensing with the necessity for proceedings against the other distributors employing the practice."

Commissioner Meyers recommended that the Commission proceed against other large distributors practicing block booking.

The Commission took no action on resolutions dealing with producer ownership of theatres or bookings, on the ground that the sharp division of the vote by which they were accepted indicates a total lack of agreement as between the opposing branches of the industry. These resolutions condemned the acquisition of theatres by a producer or distributor with the intent or affect of intimidating or coercing an exhibitor to lease the films of the producer or distributor or surrender his theatre holdings; declared the allocation, leasing or licensing of films to any group of exhibitors without affording all competing exhibitors an opportunity to bid for such films; holding that the granting of protection with the leasing of a film over a theatre which is not in competition with the theatre so protected is an unfair trade practice; and also declaring an unfair trade practice the refusal of a distributor to lease a picture to an exhibitor for exhibition within a reasonable time after its prior run.

The Commission approved and accepted resolutions calling for the revision of the standard contract and of the arbitration rules, and declared the use of a standard uniform contract providing for arbitration is a fair trade practice.

Rules Adopted

As a result of the Commission's action the following rules will become the regulations by which the industry is to operate:

Rule 1, whereas the motion picture industry recognizes that commercial arbitration promotes good will, economy and better standards of business, and is endeavoring to develop in the most complete way possible a system of arbitration for the settlement of disputes between distributors and exhibitors which will be both fair to all and speedily expedient; and

Whereas it is the desire of all branches of the industry to use a uniform exhibition contract, both to standardize its contractual relations and to provide for such arbitration; and

Whereas it is the further desire of all branches of the industry that the standard exhibition contract so providing for each system of arbitration shall be fair as possible at this time and shall be changed or modified as from time to time experience may demonstrate that it should be changed, and the further desire that the present provisions of such contract and all future changes or modifications herein shall themselves be subject to arbitration, and the further desire that the rules and regulations for the arbitration of all disputes arising under such contract shall be as fair as possible at this time and shall be changed or modified from time to time by arbitration, as experience may demonstrate and warrant that they should be; and

Whereas it is believed that changes can be effected in such standard exhibition contract to improve the same; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, (1) That to carry out the purposes of this resolution and the desire of all branches of the industry to promote fair arbitration and contractual relations, a committee of six shall be immediately designated, consisting of three members chosen by the unaffiliated exhibitor delegates here assembled and three members chosen by the producer-distributor delegates here assembled; that three affiliated exhibitor delegates without right to vote may participate in the work of this committee; that such committee shall immediately institute a study of the provisions of such standard exhibition contract and the rules for the arbitration provided for there, and develop improvement in such contract and in such rules for arbitration, and develop a plan for the further operation of arbitration. In the event the exhibitor members and producer-distributor members of said committee are unable to agree, a seventh member of such committee shall be designated, such seventh member to be chosen unanimously by the six members, and if such six members can not unanimously agree on such seventh member, then the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States shall

(Continued on following page)

One Film Buyer Urged for Oklahoma T. O.

AT the regional meeting of the motion picture theatre owners of Oklahoma, held in Tulsa, Okla., this week, resolutions were adopted recommending theatre owners to buy foreign film subjects for screening and to refuse to sign clause one of the new standard contract because they allege it is an unfair trade practice. The Oklahoma showmen also urged that one authority be developed to buy all films for individual theatre owners in Oklahoma.

Commission Ready With Code of Ethics

Delivers Findings on Last October's N. Y. Conference be asked by such committee to appoint its seventh member.

Contract Resolution

(2) That after such adoption of such modified standard exhibition contract and such modified rules of arbitration, it shall be the further purpose of such committee to have periodical considerations of both said contract and rules of arbitration at consistent periods, under the plan therefore which said committee shall develop to consider whether changes in such standard exhibition contract and arbitration rules are warranted by experience, and at such periodical deliberations the seventh member may be called in for decisions.

(3) It is understood that such amended standard exhibition contract and amended rules of arbitration shall be ready for use for the season 1928-29; Be it further

Resolved, That the use of a standard uniform contract providing for arbitration both of disputes arising out of said contract and of the provisions of the contract itself, is a fair trade practice.

Rule 2, Resolved, That the insertion of commercial advertising, for which compensation is received, in motion picture productions leased to exhibitors as entertainment is unfair trade practice.

Rule 3, Resolved, That the substitution by a producer or distributor for any photoplay contracted for by any exhibitor, as the photoplay of a specified star or of a specified director, or as based upon a specified story, book, or play, of any photoplay in which such specified star does not appear, or which has not been directed by such specified director, or which is not based upon such specified story, book, or play, as the case may be, unless with the consent of the exhibitor, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 4, Resolved, That the requirement by any distributor that an exhibitor as a condition of being permitted to purchase any picture of such distributor shall also purchase pictures of another distributor, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 5, Whereas the use of misleading or salacious advertising is recognized as an evil, and

Whereas the distributors of motion pictures represented in the membership of the film boards of trade themselves will not use misleading or salacious advertising in connection with their product:

Resolved, That it is a fair trade practice to use their best efforts to discourage others in the industry from using misleading or salacious advertising.

"Bicycling" Held Unfair

Rule 6, The purchasing of photoplays for a specific theatre, which photoplays are also used in other theatres uncontracted for, commonly known as "bicycling," is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 7, Deliberately returning a print late, thus securing additional exhibition time without payment of the rental therefor, or by reason of such delay making it impossible to ship such print to the next exhibitor who has it booked, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 8, Resolved, that the giving of any gratuity, either by an exhibitor to a salesman or a salesman to an exhibitor, in exchange for advantages not otherwise procurable between buyer and seller, either in relation in the sale or booking of motion pictures, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 9, Resolved, That the use of a signed application for a contract by an exhibitor, and the showing of the rental prices thereon, either by a distributor or another exhibitor for the purpose of securing higher rental prices, or by an exhibitor to a distributor other than to whom such application is addressed, for the purpose of securing a reduction of rental prices, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 10, Resolved, That the practice of contracting for pictures for one theatre and using service at an entirely different theatre than the one specified in the contract is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 11, Resolved, That failure on the part of the exhibitor to promptly report correctly the results of percentage bookings is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 12, Resolved, That any agreement among competing exhibitors, to allocate among themselves the motion pictures of distributors, thereby eliminating competition in the rental of such motion pictures, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 13, Resolved, That any agreement among distributors to prevent any exhibitor from contracting for the motion pictures of such distributors, or to exact from such exhibitor a higher rental for the motion pictures of such distributors than could otherwise be obtained in open competition, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 14, Resolved, That the using of buying power for the purchase of more photoplays than an exhibitor can consume, in order to deprive a competing exhibitor of the opportunity of purchasing his supply of photoplays, whether it be an attempt to corner the market against such competing exhibitor or whether it be with the thought of forcing a competing exhibitor out of business, or the compelling of such competing exhibitor, to sell his theatre, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 15, Whereas the following rule or regulation has been adopted by all the members of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc.:

"No member shall directly or indirectly or through the instrumentality of any officer, employee, agent, representative, or servant of such member, or otherwise offer or cause to be offered any money inducement or advantage of any kind to any actor, director, or employee of any other producer or distributor in an effort to persuade or induce such actor, director, or employee to become dissatisfied with such employment and to breach any contract between such actor, director, or employee and any other producer or distributor;"

Resolved, That such a rule is a fair trade practice.

Expressions of the Trade

The following rules were accepted by the Commission as expressions of the trade:

Rule 16, Whereas the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., has allied itself with the International Advertising Association, the National Association of Credit Men, the American Bankers' Association, and the National Better Business Bureau, to prevent fraudulent activities: Now therefore be it

Resolved, That the proper educational work of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., in co-operation with such other organizations, with respect to any attempted fraudulent enterprises relating to motion pictures, to the end that the public may not be defrauded by fake motion picture scenario schools, or other dishonest enterprises which trade on the public's ambition to become a part of the motion picture industry, is a fair trade practice.

Rule 17, Whereas, it is a trade practice

(Continued on Page 1891)

R. H. Cochrane Declares Findings Benefit General Situation

WITH regard to the publication of the findings of the Federal Trade Practice Parley, R. H. Cochrane, chairman of the Distributors Division of the Trade Practice Conference and Joint Chairman of the Contract Committee, which met early this spring in Chicago, gave out the following statement yesterday from the general offices of the Universal Pictures Corporation, of which he is Vice President:

"The report approves most of the trade practices suggested by the conference and in doing so benefits the general situation. It is disappointing that the report does not approve the distributors' declaration of purposes relative to block booking because such modifications as are proposed and as are now actually in practice under the new contract really eliminate those features of block booking to which objection has been made in the past. I hope Mr. Flannery's recommendation of a six months or twelve months trial period will be adopted, because I am confident that when the new contract is in general force and is understood by both exhibitors and distributors it will prove satisfactory to everyone."

The Voice of the Screen

News and Comment on All Phases of "Sound" Pictures

Specialized Attention

FOR two years, Motion Picture News has devoted special attention to sound pictures and their rise to a place of commanding importance in the industry.

Writing from the Coast more than a year ago, William A. Johnston predicted that the whole picture business would be revolutionized by the talking and sound devices.

Motion Picture News has not suddenly "discovered" the importance of sound films.

Announcements recently made by leading companies of the signing of contracts for sound production and reproduction come as a natural development in the situation.

Motion Picture News will continue, as before, to keep exhibitors informed on this highly important subject. We group news items and discussions under the heading, "The Voice of the Screen", which, again, is a natural development of the specialized attention which The News has given to sound pictures for two years.

Leatrice Joy Preparing for "Talkie" Pictures

Hollywood, May 26.—Leatrice Joy, said to have had considerable legitimate stage experience prior to her advent on the screen as a DeMille star, is one, among the established list of film stars, who realizes the ever growing importance of a good speaking voice, and although recent "talkie" tests have rated her "one hundred per cent," Leatrice has decided to go even further, and on account of the im-

(Continued on page 1887)

Officials Give Views on Standardization

Statements Issued by Photophone and Western Electric on Interchangeability of Sound Systems

PHOTOPHONE theatre projection equipment is standardized with Vitaphone, Movietone and Firnatone, in that films made by the Western Electric or Photophone process may be operated on all these machines interchangeably, according to a statement issued by Elmer E. Bucher, vice-president of the RCA Photophone, Inc.

Interchangeability was termed conjectural by J. E. Otterson, president of Electrical Research Products, subsidiary of Western Electric.

Amplifying his statement, Mr. Bucher said:
Research Products Co. have interchanged drawings and sketches covering the dimensions of their respective talking movie systems, with the view of obtaining standardization so that the films produced by the Western Electric Co. or the Photophone Process could be reproduced on the same machine.

"Further, Movietone engineers have been at the studios of the Photophone Co. and have reproduced their films with perfect success on the Photophone theatres reproducing equipment. Likewise, engineers of the Photophone Co. and of the General Electric Co. have been at the Fox Movietone studios, where they have played films made by the Photophone process on the Movietone reproducer with success.

"The Photophone method of sound recording and the Movietone method of sound recording are not the same, but, nevertheless in either system the sound is recorded alongside the picture and at the same distance from the point where the picture is reproduced. Further, the aperture dimensions for the sound track are identical.

"There is utterly no difficulty in getting proper operation from sound films recorded by either Western Electric or by Photophone process."

The statement of Mr. Otterson follows:

"The Western Electric system of talking pictures used in the theatre equipment was especially designed by the Bell Telephone Laboratories to project sound from films or dises, which have been recorded by our own laboratory methods. We have been concentrating on the perfection of this system of recording and reproducing which is now in successful use in 300 theatres, and which has had nearly two years of successful commercial demonstation.

"We have had no occasion to either try other types of sound films on our projectors or to adapt our own records and films to use on other machines. Why should we? Although other makes of machines and films have been given public demonstration from time to time, so far as we know, not one of them is in commercial use in any theatre nor even for sale today. The question, therfore, as to how Western Electric sound projectors and films are going to work with others which are yet to be developed is purely one of conjecture.

"The problem which this company is facing today is to produce recording equipment for the studios and projecting equipment for the theatres fast enough to meet the demands which are being made upon us. However, we are busy increasing our already large manufacturing facilities, and I anticipate that we shall be able to meet readily this problem of large scale production to the entire satisfaction of our customers all over the United States."

Paramount News With Sound; Other "Talkie" Developments

THOUGH Paramount has maintained strict secrecy as regards its plans for the development of its talking picture department, it was learned this week that the Paramount News Reel will embroider its scenic shots with sound accompaniment. It is also expected that Paramount will shortly announce that sound accompaniment will be used in connection with many of the Paramount feature length pictures already produced, some of which are now on exhibition.

In the latter connection it is practically assured that the productions, "The Wedding March," "Abie's Irish Rose," and other pictures of that calibre will, when generally released, have sound accompaniment.

It has been decided, according to reliable sources of information, that "Abie" will be taken out of the [illegible]

(Continued on page 1887)

Newspaper Reactions on Talking Pictures

Prominent Critics View Subject from Various Angles

THE New York Sun recently devoted a lengthy editorial on "Talk With Pictures," stressing the point that this new form of entertainment "means a revolution of the industry for it necessitates training entire companies of players reasonably proficient in the art of elocution as well as pantomime, who, in addition to being physically fitted to the roles they take, have voices that meet the requirements of the dialogue they must utter. . . "In motion pictures there are many sound actors and actresses whose schooling included voice culture . . . but there are many players who have grown up in the studios. . .. some unquestionably can adapt themselves—some whose voices do not match the necessities of the stage will have a tough time."

The Sun further points out: "It is the practice for the director of the silent drama to rehearse the company and supervise the photographing of the play . . he is now at liberty to give stage instructions orally while the camera is in action . . . this will be out of the question when the sound recorder is in operation."

Nelson Bell, in the Washington, D. C., Post, states: "The synchronization of any single sound with the accompanying action is, of course, one of the present-day commonplaces. It is in the development of the recording of dialogue in complete synchronism with the appropriate action depicted on the screen that current interest centers. The idea seems to be making dangerously rapid headway, judging from the stream of enthusiastic reports that constantly deluges my desk with glowing accounts of what intensity is lent silent drama by rendering it no longer silent."

Robert E. Sherwood, whose articles are syndicated in a number of newspapers, writes: "The Jazz Singer" has been an eye-opener as well as an ear-opener. It has proved that Vitaphone is a force of inestimable potentialities in the world of entertainment. . . . the day is imminent when it will be possible to make a feature picture in which every word and every sound are flawlessly recorded." But, Mr. Sherwood goes on to ask, "what assurance have we that talking films will be worth listening to? . . . it is all very well to turn Al Jolson loose with his wise-cracks and songs . . . but the supply of Al Jolsons is limited. . . . the main problem of the talking movie is not a mechanical one, but an artistic one. The burning question at present is not, 'How are the pictures to learn to talk?' It is, 'What are they going to say?' "

Carl B. Adams, who conducts a column in the Cincinnati Enquirer, "wonders whether all this mental energy and ingenuity is being expended to good purpose," but grants that "possibilities of auditory movies are almost unlimited." Mr. Adams thinks: "there is so much noise in the modern world that it is a relief to sit and just see a 'movie' and give one's ears a rest. . . . besides, the silent drama is a distinct art and should be developed as such without extraneous aids. . . . what the screen really needs is more imagination, more spirituality, more originality and less mechanical ingenuity."

"At the moment, the talking picture still apears to be at its best and most satisfying when catching the picture and the sound of persons and things, on newsreel or travel film," says Quinn Martin, conductor of The Magic Lantern, in the New York World . . . with the more general use of Vitaphone and Movietone the job of preparing scripts and speeches for the players also will become another thing again, and, of course, with the more sensible and more craftsmanlike aspect of the speech of cinema players will come, quite naturally, a more believable and more credible result in the picture as a whole. . . .but to all persons interested in the fascination of new things I advise a visit to Warners Theatre . . . you are likely to come away with a deep respect for the possibilities of a newly discovered magic."

Richard Watts, Jr., under the heading "The Screen Breaks It's Silence and Talks a Bit Extravagantly," in the Herald-Tribune, New York City, has to say of Tenderloin's premiere at Warners: "To us the cinema's greatest blessing is its lack of words and we are convinced that the combination of photographic pantomime with music provides the grandest assault on the emotions yet devised. We feel, if I may continue the manifesto, that the cinema is on the right track as a distinct medium of expression only when it realizes its limitations of silence and then develops its chosen field. "

W. Ward Marsh, writing for the Cleveland Plain Dealer, appears to be a convert to the Talkie. Mr. Marsh, in a recent article, says: "Perhaps I have been among the last to accept the talking movies. . . . it was a silent art and I felt it had no right to fare afield. . . . the one brief sequence, as far from perfection as it was, in "The Jazz Singer," proved that the spoken word could lift the action of the play to unbelievable heights. . . . I still believe the day is not far distant when the films will not only talk, but will have color and depth, and when that day arrives, the stage will find only the important centers of the world left to it."

"Hollywood Not Excited Over Talkies," Says Le Baron

"HOLLYWOOD is not at all excited over talking movie production and is carrying on as usual with its job of making motion pictures," declared William Le Baron, F B O vice-president in charge of production, in a recent interview with a MOTION PICTURE NEWS reporter, during which he compared the West Coast's cool, business-like attitude with the note of hysteria displayed in the East towards the latest, and, at times, styled revolutionary, innovation to the screen.

"I do not believe there is anything revolutionary about the advent of talking pictures," continued Mr. Le Baron. "First of all, if there are to be real, good talkies, a producer must make just as good pictures. This is absolutely necessary. These will be the attractions which will register at the box office. The balance will arrange themselves in the usual order which exists among motion pictures of today—mediocre and poor—and they will reap their just results.

"I further believe that I am echoing the sentiment of other producers when I state that we will proceed along experimental lines this season at the F B O studios as far as out and out talkies are concerned." Our present plans call for only two, and at this time even these are not far enough advanced to go into any detail on them. We intend to go slow—very slow.

"The use of sound effects is another matter. F B O has selected six pictures out of its season line-up which will at once be synchronized to sounds and orchestration. These are: 'The Hit of the Show,' 'The Perfect Crime,' 'The Gang War,' 'The Circus Kid,' 'Blockade' and 'Taxi 13.' All of these are particularly suitable for sound effects on account of themes. For example, 'The Circus Kid' would bring in the noises of animals and tent show life and 'Taxi 13' would likewise make audible night life scenes of New York City."

Mr. Le Baron predicts that talking pictures will again revive production in the Eastern studios for reasons that New York City is the centre for talent among stage actors and actresses and that this type will be necessary for the success of the talkies, the percentage of screen professionals

(Continued on page 1888)

New Sound Projector Co. Organized

A NEW sound projector company, the Madaltone Corporation, was organized this week in New York City. The officers are: Ferdinand von Madaler, president; S. Cocalis, secretary and general manager; J. Margolis, vice-president, and M. M. Keilsohn, director of advertising and publicity.

Von Madaler, the inventor of the Madaltone, is said to have spent the past fifteen years in the perfection of sound-reproducing apparatus. Simplicity of operation, accuracy and low cost of installation are some of the invntor's claims. Until recently, Mr. von Madaler was a consulting engineer for the Eastman Kodak Company and Columbia Phonograph Company. H eis also the inventor and sole manufacturer of silennium, used by prominent manufacturers in the production of telephoto instruments.

Further claims for Madaltone are that it does not require a new projector and that an operator can learn to operate it in a few minutes.

An Announcement

MOTION PICTURE NEWS, in association with a group of publishers and bankers, has formed the Angus Company which will operate a number of seasoned and successful class and trade journals.

The Angus Company, unlike any merger, will operate upon a strict policy of decentralization, devoting its ample resources and exceptional organization facilities to the high development of its specialized units, each of which retains individual management and control.

Publications now included are:

The Spur—the ultra-quality magazine of society and amateur sports.

The Plumbers and Heating Contractors Trade Journal—the "Saturday Evening Post" of trade magazines, established by J. M. Heatherton in 1883.

Motion Picture News—the dominant journal in the motion picture trade.

Other publications, including certain prominent newspaper properties, are under consideration to be added to the above group.

WILLIAM A. JOHNSTON is president of the new Angus Company, and the executive committee and board of directors also includes:

Kenneth M. Goode, prominent advertising authority and former editor of Hearst's International Magazine, associate editor of Saturday Evening Post, etc.

Chester B. Van Tassel, publisher of Asia magazine and formerly advertising director of Harper's Bazaar, System, etc.

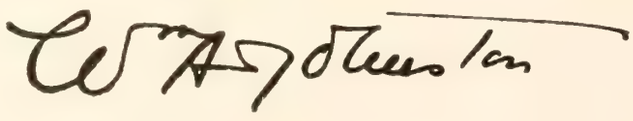
William A. Johnston continues as president and editor of Motion Picture News, devoting his personal attention as heretofore to this publication; the present policies and entire organization of Motion Picture News continue as before.

TO OUR MANY FRIENDS IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY



YOU will, I know, join my pleasure in the announcement that MOTION PICTURE NEWS has been enabled so greatly to strengthen its service to this industry.

Publishing, like the motion picture business, has changed greatly since, fifteen years ago, I started the NEWS in a little room overlooking Times Square, and when many of the leaders of the motion picture industry were also launching their present great properties within four walls.

Banking support and cooperation in large units has come, in both fields, to be essential to real greatness and usefulness.

The new Angus Company was organized to associate undoubted leaders in those publishing fields which have the most promising futures.

It is to those of you who have supported MOTION PICTURE NEWS so long and so loyally that I feel I really owe my thanks for the fact that the "NEWS" was among the first three selected by this cooperative publishing company and that I was honored by election as president.

The SHOWMAN
June, 1928

Features

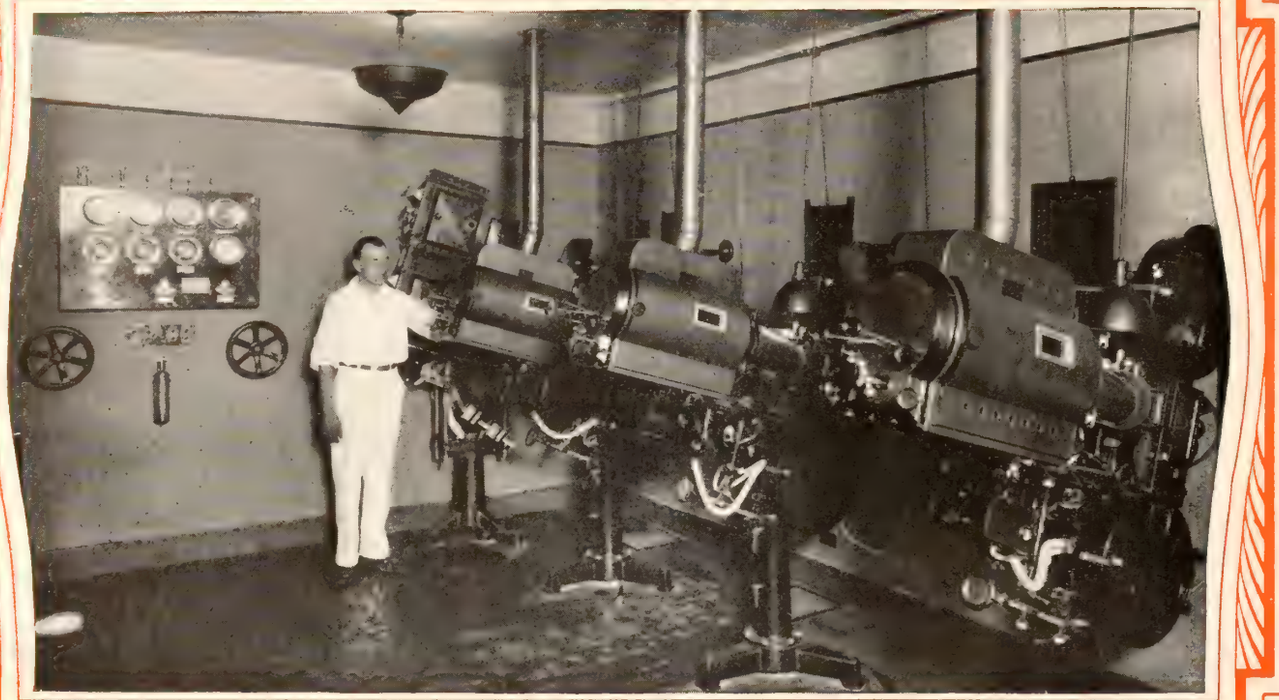
Pictorial Review of Theatres.

Business Building Theatre Map.

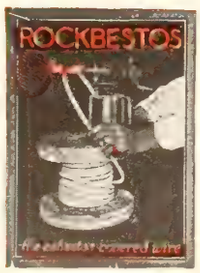
Color Lighting as an Aid to Theatre Music

How Can Distributors Improve Stock Material for Window Displays?

Using Radio to Stimulate Interest in Music for Pictures.



The Finest Theatre in Paris



Exterior view of the new Paramount Theatre in the French capital, a palatial cinema designed and operated in accordance with the most modern ideas of beauty and service for the patrons. The location is at Boulevard Capucines and Rue de la Chaussee d'Antin. The exterior design, reproducing the architectural style of the 3rd Empire has received the approval of the Commission attached to the Beaux Arts. The Paramount was designed and built by French architects and engineers after plans by R. E. Hall & Company, architects and engineers, New York.

ROCKBESTOS

–the asbestos covered wire

The best Motion Picture Cable an economy

Rockbestos Motion Picture Cable is the best, and because of this, fewer replacements are required. It is therefore economy to buy the best.

In the new PARAMOUNT THEATRE, in New York, all of the projectors in all of the projection rooms are Rockbestos equipped.

This beautiful projection room, pictured above, is one of the best equipped in the country. These Simplex projectors are Rockbestos equipped—naturally.

ROCKBESTOS PRODUCTS CORPORATION

5942 Grand Central Term. Bldg., New York — NEW HAVEN, CONN. — 224 Madison Term. Bldg., Chicago

465 Union Trust Bldg., Pittsburgh — On the Pacific Coast—C. Dent Slaughter

View of the stage and proscenium walls of the Paramount Theatre in Paris. The auditorium is executed in the Italian Renaissance style. Notable features of the decoration are the crystal fountains at either side of the proscenium arch.

NOT in twenty-five years has the theatre in Paris enjoyed the popular interest it now commands—and this, strange as it may seem, is the result of the interest aroused by the new Paramount theatre, a cinema planned and operated in accordance with methods similar to those which have won such wide popularity for the de luxe motion picture house in this country. The authority for this statement is a Frenchman—M. Simeon Shepard, who supervised the entire construction details of the playhouse.

The Paramount occupies a site of great historical interest—that of the far-famed Vaudeville, built during the 3rd Empire, and the scene of many events which occupy an important place in the history of the theatre in Paris.

It was built by French engineers after plans by R. E. Hall & Company of New York, architects and engineers of several notable theatres in this country. The construction and design was carried out by Frank T. Verity of London, designer of the Plaza and Carlton theatres there, and Auguste Bluysen of Paris. Major Charles H. Bell, of London, was the engineer in charge of the electrical installation.

The Paramount, built on a plot approximately 75 feet by 150 feet, has a seating capacity of 1900. The construction is entirely of reinforced concrete. Girders, uprights and flooring and sidewalls all are of concrete reinforced with steel. From a standpoint of construction, the Paramount in Paris is one of the most unusual theatres of recent times.

The plan is orchestra, mezzanine and balcony, with a total of 1900 seats distributed over the three levels.

Owing to its plan and unusual equipment, conforming in every detail of utility and luxury to the service features found in the most palatial motion picture theatres in this country, the Paramount takes rank as the finest playhouse on the Continent.

A combination of architectural features and the method of its operation, accomplish a result that is unique. The space allocated to public rooms and lounges, beautifully decorated and equipped with appointments which provide the utmost in comfort and luxury, previously was unknown in the Paris theatre. For another, the operating policy under which the patron pays a flat sum for his admission ticket, including tax, and the absolute rule that no tips can be accepted by attendants of the theatre have eliminated a series of annoying demands upon the theatregoer in Paris. Banishing tips, and the annoyance of making a special operation of the payment of the Government tax, supplemented by the absence of the folding seats strapped on to the aisle chairs—a saleable product when crowds descend upon the theatre, but a makeshift at best for those occupying both the end chairs and the folding seats—show a regard for the patron which has won many friends and many patrons for the Paramount.

Among the service features is a saloon, where tea is served free. Popular demand made it necessary to add a small bar, where more stimulating refreshments than tea could be obtained. The management dispenses these beverages at cost—thus adhering in another matter to the policy of charging only for entrance to the theatre.

Other equipment devices which place the Paramount in Paris among the best-equipped picture theatres are an elevating orchestra pit, indirect lighting throughout with dimmer control, and a weather conditioning plant, designed and made in this country by the Carrier Engineering Company.

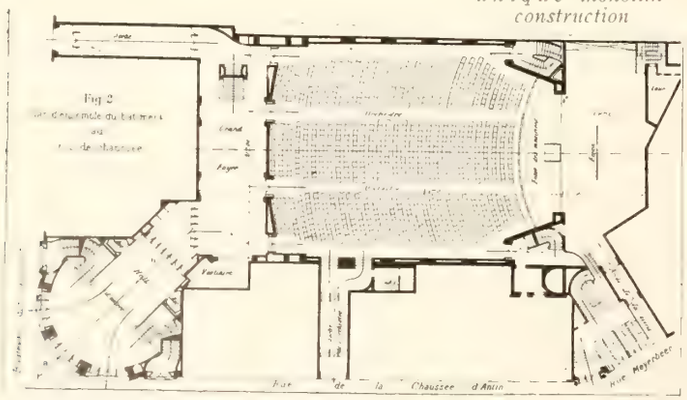
This latter feature, M. Shepard declares, has proved itself so important that he is certain that every theatre to be built on the Paris Boulevards from this time on will have a similar installation. The Paramount's air conditioning plant is the first to be installed in a theatre on the Continent, and it immediately duplicated the success which has made modern ventilation systems a standard equipment in American theatres.

The Paramount's main entrance is at the corner of Rue de la Chaussee-d'Antin and the Boulevard Capucines, a location which rivals there the site occupied by the Paramount at Times Square in New York City.

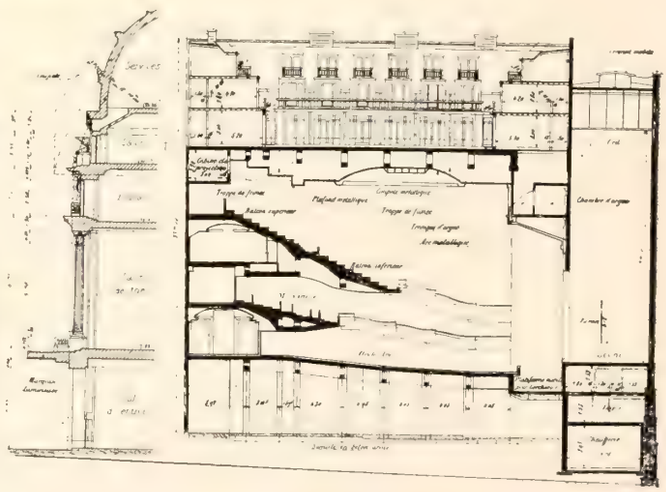
The view above shows the main foyer of the Paramount.
Below is a section of the auditorium, showing plan of the mezzanine and balcony.

The entrance has been built into the corner of two structures fronting on the Boulevard and Rue de la Chausee-d'Antin.

It was designed to conform to the style of architecture of the 3rd Empire—a requisite laid down by the municipal building commissioners. Just how successfully the designers were in creating a true representation of this architecture is attested by the fact that the design has been approved by La Commission Superieure des Batiments Civils, attached to the Beaux Arts—a high distinction for any architectural work to receive.



The main entrance opens on a grand foyer done in a conservative Modern French style. Rough cast plaster is used for the sidewall treatment. There is a marble mosaic floor, featuring a conservative modernistic design. Marble stairways at either side of the foyer lead to the mezzanine level, which has a promenade opening on a well over the main foyer. The stairway railings are hand-forged steel, worked in a modern design and polychromed. Chrome metal is used for all of the hardware.



The design of the auditorium is in the Italian Rennaissance style, while the ante rooms and lonnges are in the modern style. The auditorium is done in a light color, the predominating tone being a cream white with gold pointing. The wall and ceiling are in rough cast plaster, with Italian frieze in polychrome, and under it a panel worked out in Italian designs. The stage drapes are of a changeable silk, made up of gold, yellow and green tints. The chairs are upholstered with a fabric in mulberry and gold color.

The foyers and ante rooms have rough cast plaster walls, save in the salon, where an oak wood wainscoting is used. The doors leading from the foyers into the auditorium are of mahognay wood.

The Paramount attracts its patronage from the mass of the people, and numbers among its regular attendees a representation of the more discriminating classes formerly not among those who patronized motion pictures,

Below, a general plan. On the right is a cross-section diagram showing unique monolith construction

BOOTHS THAT ADD TO THE BEAUTY OF THEATRE LOBBIES

Above, the lobby of the new Stanley Theatre, Jersey City, N. J., showing two booths in the Italian Renaissance style. Below, lobby booth at the Park Plaza Theatre, New York City, constructed of American Walnut and black and gold marble.

Above, The new booth installed at Poli's Palace, Worcester, Mass.

Photos by courtesy of Stanley Frame Company, New York.

Auditorium Minnesota Theatre. GRAVEN & MAYGAR, ARCHITECTS

THE MINNESOTA—NEWEST THEATRE IN MINNEAPOLIS

Is One of Country's Largest and Most Palatial Cinemas

ON March 24 the new Minnesota theatre, a $2,000,000 house controlled jointly by Publix and Finkelstein & Ruben opened in Minneapolis. Since that time the many experienced showmen who have visited it have been quite willing to concede that it is one of the most beautiful and modern theatres in the country. In the matter of size there is apparently no controversy—the Minnesota seats 4,050 persons. Graven & Maygar of Chicago are the architects.

The theatre's exterior does not give the impression of great size, nor for that matter of extreme beauty. The exterior, however, is dignified and is architecturally very attractive. Brick was selected for the exterior material, and the trimming is terra cotta in a buff shade. A delicate tinge of green in the brick and terra cotta helps to set off the exterior detail. The mass follows no particular style, but ornamental details are taken from the Italian renaissance. The interior, like the exterior, does not follow any particular style, although the details selected by the architects in search of motifs suggest the Italian and the French.

The grand lobby is perhaps as distinctive and spectacular as any part of the theatre. Here massive colonnades run from the main floor to the ceiling cornice line, and huge chandeliers of dazzling brilliance dominate the entire lobby. The lobby is terminated at the opposite end of the entrance by a monumental stairway of marble. This stairway is the means by which patrons desiring mezzanine or balcony seats may reach the upper levels of the auditorium.

The auditorium has been studied with the idea of providing ideal points of vantage for the patrons as well as with the idea of achieving attractive motifs. Arrangement of the seats, it is said, gives a vision which is unequalled by any theatre of its size in the country. This has been made possible by the introduction of a mezzanine floor shaped like a horseshoe. This floor is placed between the orchestra floor and the balcony, and seats about 450. This arrangement is not only very attractive architectually, but gives an atmosphere of intimacy to the entire theatre.

No gilt or bronze was used in the decorative scheme of the theatre. Instead gold, silver and aluminum leaf covered by French lacquer was employed. This combination, decorators say, reflects light better and gives the impression of greater depth.

The color scheme in the foyer contains a number of shades, starting with a ceiling of burnt orange and soft rose intermingled with jade green and peacock blues, all of which is being overglazed to give an antique effect. One of the walls is mirrored, while the rest are finished in marble supported by huge marble columns. The floor is of terra cotta.

There are 40 rows of seats in the main auditorium and 28 rows in the balcony. To reach the uppermost part of the building, one must climb four flight of stairs. The orchestra floor seats 2,010, the balcony 1,546, and the mezzanine 456. Standing in the projection room, it is 180 feet to the front of the stage.

Along the top of the auditorium are gorgeously conceived domes, the largest being 75 feet in diameter, and all trimmed with gold and silver. It is said that more than 1,000,000 sheets of gold and silver foil were used in decorating these domes and other portions of the building. Some 6,000 yards of heavy, soft carpet add to the note of luxury, and help to keep distracting sounds at a minimum.

The stage of the Minnesota is large enough to care for the most pretentious stage presentations, including grand opera. It has an 85-foot fly gallery in which 50 drops can be suspended, permitting the setting of from 50 to 60 acts at once, if necessary. The dressing rooms backstage have a capacity of more than 75 persons. The backstage facilities include a large lounge room, modern comfortable chorus rooms and shower baths for the actors. The switchboard cost $12,000 and could light ten acts at the same time, if such an exigency ever arose.

The four manual organ cost $100,000 and is said to have a tonal volume equivalent to a 1,000-piece orchestra. More than five miles of copper wiring were used in its construction. The console is installed on an elevated and revolving platform, to permit the lowering, raising or turning of the organist and his instrument. The organ loft is a great room nearly 30 feet high and 40 feet long and 30 feet wide. Is contains the trap drums and such instruments as the xylophones, cymbals, chopsticks, wooden blocks, Scotch bagpipes, hand organs, trombone, effects, etc.

The orchestra pit is placed upon an elevating platform, and can accommodate 100 musicians. The platform of the orchestra pit is equipped with a series of sound boxes which look something like violins. As the orchestra plays the sound is picked up through these boxes and sent out to all parts of the theatre so that the reception of music is unimpaired.

Right, view of the grand lobby as seen from the balcony level over the main entrance.

Below, looking down toward the stage from the balcony.

PITTSBURGH'S NEW THEATRE ONE OF COUNTRY'S FINEST

SEATING four thousand people, the Stanley theatre in Pittsburgh, is one of the country's newest motion picture houses and one of the largest and most beautiful in Pennsylvania. The theatre is operated by Stanley-Davis-Clark Corporation under the direction of The Stanley Company of America. It was designed by the Hoffman-Henon Company of Philadelphia, designers and general contractors for many of the theatres in the Stanley chain.

The theatre building rises to a height equivalent to eight stories. The structure is of granite, light brick and terra-cotta. In architectural style it is Italian Renaissance and Spanish varied.

The lobby entrance is in the center of the building on Seventh street. A copper and bronze marquee is mounted over the entrance and above the canopy is a forty-foot electric sign flat against the building. Two store rooms are located on each side of the entrance.

On the left is an exterior view of the Stanley, a handsome building of granite, light brick and terra-cotta.

Below—a general view of the auditorium taken from the stage and showing the excellent seating arrangement.

The lobby has a terazza floor, marble base, and walls of ornate plaster, marble and mirrors, with a highly ornamental ticket booth constructed of bronze, marble and glass located in the center of the lobby. The foyer is a spacious hall from which two grand staircases rise to the promenade floors, where check rooms, lounging and smoking rooms are located.

The auditorium is finished in ornamental plaster, marble and damask of rich coloring. The ceiling features a huge dome indirectly lighter by vari-colored lights and with an immense chandelier suspended from its center. The stage opening is seventy-five feet wide and fifty feet high.

The back stage equipment includes mechanical lift apparatus and a thoroughly modern lighting system. The orchestra pit is equipped with an elevator.

A spacious and handsome grand hall is one of the features of the Stanley, shown on the right.

Below is a near view of the stage showing decorative treatment of proscenium.

HOFFMAN-HENNON COMPANY ARCHITECTS

Do pile

Reseat

WHAT are your theatre seats doing to pile up profits for you? Are they so comfortable that they keep patrons pleased—make them want to return to your theatre?

A handsome, comfortable theatre chair will help increase patronage, fill your house every show, and pile up profits for you. And right now, during the summer season, is the profitable time to start reseating. We can arrange, if desired, to reseat your house without a single interruption in any program.

In one instance an exhibitor, who reseated with Heywood-Wakefield chairs, reports a 30% increase in patronage! The Balaban and Katz Tivoli in Chicago, Pantages in Minneapolis, Fresno, and Los Angeles, several Publix-operated houses and many more are reseating with Heywood-Wakefield theatre chairs. These progressive showmen know that an audience seated in handsome, comfortable theatre chairs is easy to please. They selected Heywood-Wakefield theatre chairs because they felt that these beautiful seats gave the most comfort and troubleproof service—dollar for dollar.

A note to the nearest Heywood-Wakefield sales office will bring you practical suggestions on reseating, without cost or obligation. Write today and find out why these beautiful, comfortable theatre chairs will pile up profits for you.

HEYWOOD-WAKEFIELD

YOUR theatre chairs up profits for YOU?

NOW!

SALES OFFICES

Baltimore, Md.
Boston, Mass.
Buffalo, N. Y.
Chicago, Ill.
Detroit, Mich.
Kansas City, Mo.
Los Angeles, Calif.
Minneapolis, Minn.
New York, N. Y.
Philadelphia, Pa.
Portland, Oregon
Saint Louis, Mo.
San Francisco, Calif.
Seattle, Wash.

Have You Received Your Copy of This Beautiful Theatre Seating Catalogue?

Upon request, we will be pleased to mail you a copy of our new 44-page catalogue on theatre chairs. It contains many of the popular theatre chairs in our line, including the seats used in the Roxy, Palace-Orpheum, Publix and other houses. Send for your copy today.

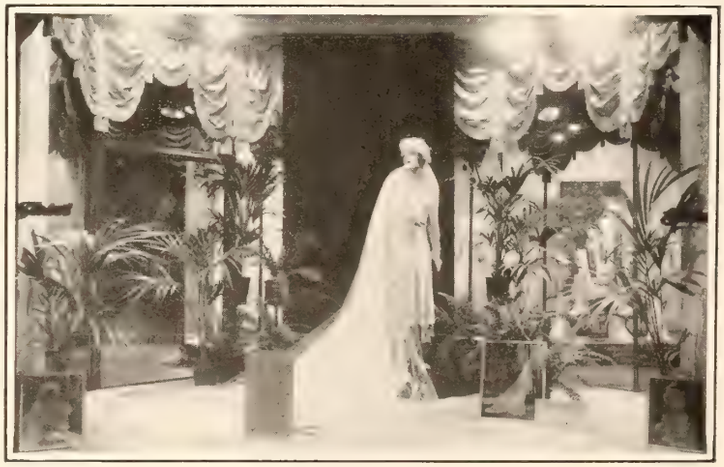
THEATRE SEATING

Stock Window Cards Conspicuous by Their Absence in These Modern Style Window Displays

A window display featuring a contest for school students in Terre Haute, Ind., schools through cooperation of a local jeweler and Manager S. R. Nicholson, of the Liberty Theatre, to exploit "The Student Prince." A watch was awarded the high-mark student during the period of the contest.

A poster cut-out from a stock 24-sheet was sufficiently attractive to win a place for "The Heart of a Follies Girl" in a furniture store window. This exploitation was arranged by Manager Chas. H. Amos, Riviera Theatre, Knoxville, Tenn., as part of an extensive campaign

A very attractive display made up of poster cut-outs to feature "Ramona" in a music store window. Exploitation by A. M. Roy, manager of the Tampa Theatre, Tampa.



Another clever window piece featuring a music tie-up for "Ramona." Stills mounted on a huge disc record. Staged by Manager W. H. Hemphill, Rialto Theatre, Macon, Ga.

A tie-up with the title "The Patent Leather Kid" supplied the idea which won this window display for Manager Hemphill for his showing of the picture at the Rialto in Macon.

A book tie-up featured in a window display for "The Glorious Betsy" in Gimbel Brothers store in New York City.

Window featuring replica of gown worn by Corinne Griffith in "The Garden of Eden." Loew's Valentine, Toledo.

(Editor's Note—Following is a letter received by this department from Mr. L. L. Levy, Advertising Manager of the Ideal Theatre, Corsicana, Texas. The difficulties faced by Mr. Levy in obtaining window displays is one which the vast majority of exhibitors in small towns encounter. It is to be hoped that all forward-looking showmen will follow Mr. Levy's suggestion that they submit their ideas on how the distributors can improve their service on window display material.)

I HAVE a little problem that I believe is being faced by most of the exhibitors in medium and small towns these days and that is the problem of getting window and tack cards placed and distributed. Of course, in the cities and larger towns they can afford to fix up hand painted and specially made attractive cards for the windows but the rest of us have to do the best we can with the window cards we get from the exchanges, which are far from being attractive enough or small enough to get placed in the best of the present day elaborate window displays. As for tacking, that is getting almost impossible on account of the doing away with wooden barns, fences and garages, so I believe the present window cards are really out-of-date and demand a great deal of improvement.

I think the best way would be to incorporate them in some way with the 8 x 10 stills, or fix some little frame that these stills would slip into, but, of course, that would have to be tried out and I believe if other exhibitors would send in their suggestions on this subject that some good idea would come out of it.

My idea is to use an 8 x 10 publicity still and a small frame of stiff cardboard with the name of the star and picture at the top and a space for the date and theatre name at the bottom of the frame. Of course, his idea could stand a lot of improvement and I think other exhibitors should send in their ideas on this subject.

This week I took a window card into a drug store across from the high school and asked to place it on the fountain. The lady owner said no. But she allowed me to place a publicity still photo of Mary Pickford right on the cash register—the best position I could ask for. The picture was "My Best Girl."

Then two weeks ago I placed five publicity stills on Richard Dix in "Sporting Goods" in three dry goods stores, one shoe store and one sporting goods store windows—windows that I had never been able to place any window cards. The photos featured golf shoes, clubs and clothes. Of course, they did not look very neat without frames and some curled up. On another occasion I placed a photo of Alice Joyce in "The Noose" in an exclusive jewelry window where no one had ever been able to place cards before, not even the churches or schools.

So you see, with the cards made as I suggest, out of publicity stills you would have variety, attractiveness, and they would be easier placed.

L. L. LEVY,
Ideal Theatre, Corsicana, Texas.

Distributors Should Bring Their Window Display Cards Up-to-Date

IN the communication printed above, Mr. Levy calls attention to the weakest link in the chain of advertising accessories prepared by the distributor's exploitation departments. Window display is the department of exploitation which more than any other is left entirely up to the exhibitor—because the stock window cards issued by the companies have outlived their usefulness.

In these days of extensive window shopping on the part of the public, the merchant—even the smaller merchant in the smaller town—realizes very well that his windows are worth money to him. The windows sell goods and also sell prestige. Consequently the out-and-out ad for a picture show or anything else is literally "out." Even the high-school shows now get their window publicity by means of specially painted posters—the product of the art classes in the local institutions of learning. The old-style window card—a first cousin to the tack cards for nailing on barns and telephone poles—may find its way into a window of the cobbler's shop, but even after it gets there, thanks to good salesmanship on the part of the theatre manager, it doesn't sell anything.

Merchants of the sort whose window displays are worth the while of the advertiser, are eager to tie-in with something of general interest to the public, such as a motion picture. But they want the display to have qualities of interest and pictorial value sufficient to stop the passerby and direct his attention to the window. That sort of thing happens only when something distinctive, attractive and appealing is placed in the window.

Mr. Levy's suggestion that card frames, bearing the title of the picture at the top and having a slot to accommodate a scene still, in the last analysis amounts to bringing the window card up-to-date. The frame, having a de luxe appearance, would be far more acceptable by the local merchant for a place in the window.

But there is more to window display than display merely. Having the show represented by a picture and the name of the theatre, with play dates included, is not necessarily a profitable effort on the part of either the showman or the merchant. Window display that does not have its effect on the people outside the window, as a matter of fact, is worthless. Unless the display commands interest and sells an idea—or at least creates an association of ideas in the mind of the spectator, by recalling newspaper advertising, or other publicity that may create a desire to see the show—the effort is lost. Also, to be really successful, the display must sell something for the merchant as well, because the theatre man cannot go on indefinitely getting space in the merchant's window unless the tie-up of interests has some advantage for the store.

On another page we are reproducing photographs of some recent window dis-

(Continued on Page 1870)

Theatre Building Business Map

Including Analysis of Key City Attendance Averages

		Very light new construction
Above Average Business	AA	Light new construction
Average Business	A	Moderately heavy construction
Under Average Business	UA	Heavy new construction

The map of the United States shown here is divided into seven territories, with colored shading indicating the division of new proposed theatre building as represented for the period from April 15th to May 15th. This new construction is represented in valuation of dollars and cents rather than number of projects.

The shading is in four densities; solid, which represents the greatest value of proposed theatres; heavy stipple, which is second in valuation of new construction; medium, which areas represent conservative building; and the very light areas, where the investment in new theatre projects is very light. The information used in compiling the statistics visualized by the map was obtained through several reliable sources, and the map is to be considered as very nearly accurate in representing comparative theatre building activities in various sections of the country.

The circles shown on the map are located in key cities and illustrate averages of theatre attendance during the three months' period from April 15th to May 15th. The diagrams indicate the relative attendance at the better theatres in these cities during the period covered. These are given by "averages," with symbols to indicate "Above Average" and "Under Average" box office returns. The term "average" as applied in this survey indicates satisfactory box office returns, based upon theatre expectancies, which, in turn, are governed by past earnings under similar or nearly similar conditions.

These attendance statistics were compiled from an analysis of the Key City Reports, published weekly in Motion Picture News, and other sources of information gathered by this publication.

THE moderate curtailment in theatre building over the record-breaking pace set for the first three months of this year, which was in effect for our report as of April 15th, continues for the thirty day period ending May 15th.

The falling off in the rate of construction of new theatres is by no means alarming but simply a reversion to a volume of construction that may be considered normal.

The figures for this thirty day report, April 15th to May 15th, give a total dollar investment for new proposed theatres for the United States as 10,552,000. This program calls for 37 new theatres, which will encompass a seating capacity of 49,000. Of these 37 theatres, 5 will require an investment of over one million each, and 4 will fall in the class between $500,000 and a million dollars.

From these figures it is deduced that the average theatre will cost $285,000 and will have a seating capacity of 1,324; the cost per seat of this average theatre will be $215.40.

Canada reports two new theatre projects, one of which will cost over a million dollars. The two theatres together call for an investment of $1,250,000 and will seat 2,475.

Including these two theatres in Canada, the total investment called for in the construction of the new theatres reported for this thirty day survey, is $11,802,000.

The North Atlantic division of the United States continues to show heavy construction and in this report, leads any other territory by approximately a million dollar investment.

Seven new theatres will be constructed in the North Atlantic States, two of which will cost over a million dollars. The total investment is $3,300,000, covering the cost of constructing 12,100 seats. The average cost for these theatres is $471,430 with seating capacity of 1,730 and the cost per seat is $272.50.

The South Western States report an exceptionally lively theatre building program through 9 new theatres which will cost $2,587,000 and seat 12,100.

Two of these theatres will cost over a million dollars. The averages for these theatres are $287,444 cost per theatre with a seating capacity of 1,344, giving an average investment per seat of $213.87.

The Middle States come third in this report where 11 new theatres will cost $2,350,000 and have a seating capacity of 12,000. One of these theatres will cost more than a million dollars and one betwen $500,000, and a million. The averages given by these figures are $213,637 cost per theatre with a seating capacity of 1,091 and an investment per seat of $195.81.

The West Coast showed a moderately heavy program of theatre building last month and again reports a considerable investment for new theatres. In this territory $1,465,000 will build 7 theatres seating 7,700. Two of these houses will cost between $500,000 and a million. The average cost per house in this territory is the lowest of all territories reported for this month, the figures being $209,300, while the average seating capacity will be 1,100 and the cost per seat $190.30.

THE South Eastern district will project only two new theatres which will cost between them $550,000 and seat 3,100. The averages for these theatres are $275,000 cost per theatre with a seating capacity of 1,550 and the cost per seat $177.50.

In the New England States, one new theatre is scheduled, costing $300,000 and seating 2,000.

For the second time within a period of six months, the Western States report no building program.

New York, which has proved to be a state rivalling all others for leadership in theatre building for 1928, again takes the lead in the total amount of investment for theatres. For, in this state, $1,950,000 will be invested in 4 theatres which will have between them a seating capacity of 7,200.

California, while scheduling two more theatres to be built than New York, requires only $1,455,000 for its six houses which will seat 7,300.

Texas for the first time since the inception of MOTION PICTURE NEWS' building analysis ranks among the first six states in building. Texas for this thirty day report announces 5 new theatres which will cost $1,387,000 and seat 7,800.

Ohio and Pennsylvania each report two theatres and by way of coincindence, in both instances, require the same total investment of $1,200,000 with a seating capacity of the Ohio theatres of 4,000 and the Pennsylvania 4,100.

Tennessee is the last of the six ranking states where only one new theatre will be built seating 2,500 and costing one million dollars.

Theatre closings are continuing on a fairly heavy scale throughout the country. It was shown in our special article appearing in the April 14th issue of Motion Picture News that over 2,000 houses permanently closed or dismantled during 1927. This same rate of closings is continuing for 1928. It is therefore a foregone conclusion that 1928 will show a net loss of theatres in the United States and will reduce the total number of houses from 14,235 as reported by MOTION PICTURE NEWS, in existence, December 31, 1927, to around 13,500 by the beginning of 1929. These figures of the surface survey appear alarming. However, our analysis shows the theatres being closed are almost exclusively those which are entirely out of date and which have served their purpose in the development of the motion picture industry. New theatres take the place of those closed and in so doing, raise the standard of the average motion picture house.

It is also of particular significance to note that the total seating capacity of the country is not diminishing, even though the number of theatres are.

The falling off in the volume of equipment sold to theatres as reported in our April-May survey holds in the same degree for business during this May-June report. However, the volume of theatre equipment sold has been sufficiently large to insure satisfactory business to those concerns specializing in theatre equipment.

THE period from April 15 to May 15, which we cover in this report, represents the real beginning of the season of the theatre's discontent, so far as box office returns are concerned. The first few days of Spring mark a revolution against the period of enforced indoor sports under Winter's dictum, and reacts in a general urge for the people to seek the open places for their relaxation as well as celebration of a new era.

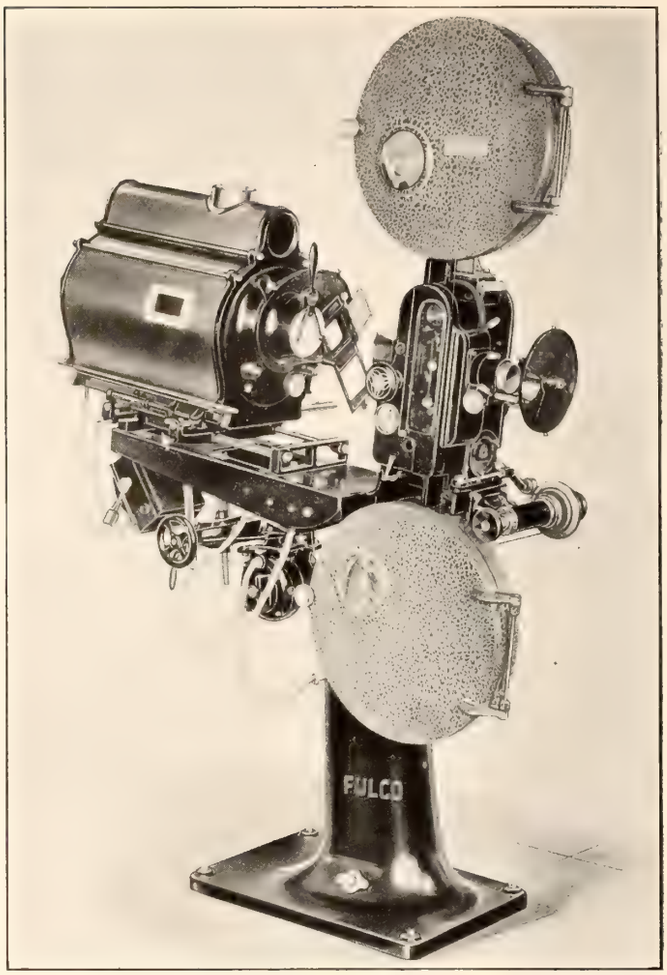
FACTORS militating against theatregoing are the opening of the baseball season and the daylight saving schedules becoming effective in many localities. However, this Spring, less than last year, the counter attractions and the daylight saving, while reflected at picture theatre box offices, have not interferred greatly with theatregoing, and all things considered—considerable lethargy in general business included—the picture houses in the key cities have held their own against the field.

By comparison with last month the attendance map shows a decided improvement on the whole. There are four cities with Under Average ratings this month as against seven last month, while two have Above Average marks as against one last month.

Reports from other lines continue to show that business generally is spotty, with advances and declines offsetting each other in tabulations of information from industrial and commercial organizations. Thus reports on May 15 from fourteen different companies in as many different lines showed that six reported declines from corresponding periods last year and nine showed increases. The heavy speculation in Wall Street held the center of the stage as the most serious factor facing business generally as summed up by leaders in banking lines, and the efforts to put a curb on stock trading on the bulky basis which has prevailed for some time, seem to bear out these public pronouncements by the bankers. The "street" showed signs of going into something of a slump, but contrary to general expectations there was nothing like a serious break and once more the public went ahead, apparently satisfied that things are not so bad nor anything like so precarious as some of the cautious ones have been implying in their admonitions.

The old bogy of a presidential year, usually a time for appreciable cautiousness and apprehensiveness by business, is already well along toward its peak as a presidential year and business seems to be little concerned so-far.

AT the picture theatres, the biggest complaint when a poor week resulted was from the standpoint of the attraction itself. The weeks in which strong pictures were shown proved up well at the box office and in most instances where unsatisfactory business resulted the condition seemed convincingly explained by the quality, or lack of it, in the feature picture.



Among the leading screen attractions for the month, at the key city theatres, there are only three real standouts. These are "Speedy," "The Jazz Singer," and "Across to Singapore." These, in the order named, take first three places on our "best ten" of the period. It is remarkable how "The Jazz Singer" has continued to occupy a place in the limelight over a long stretch. The reports which give it these high ratings, of course, emanate from theatres where the film was presented in connection with Vitaphone.

During the period under discussion "Speedy" also has played several extended run engagements, and the Lloyd comedy has held up pretty well as a repeater. There is no exact means of checking it in this respect against some of Lloyd's former works, but on the surface of things, "Speedy" seems to be running somewhat behind the best of this comedian's previous works as a repeat attraction.

"Across to Singapore," the Ramon Novarro vehicle, drew to its credit several highly satisfactory weeks at theatres scattered about the country. It is followed, in our check, by "The Legion of the Condemned" in fourth place.

Fifth place is held by "Tenderloin," which has shown well at the box offices of nearly all theatres which have presented it with its Vitaphone accompaniment. Incidentally, "Tenderloin" without the talkie feature fell down badly at one theatre, in Kansas City. In the order of their appearance the following, complete the list of the best ten of the period from April 15 to May 15 at the key city houses: "The Garden of Eden," "Ramona," "The Smart Set," "The Port of Missing Girls" and "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come."

New Fulco Projector Offers Features of Advanced Design

Shown on the right is a photo of the new Fulco Projector. The mechanism is of Ernemann design and the base or pedestal houses all wires.

IN the official announcement of the formation of the E. E. Fulton Company as a national distributor of theatre equipment and supplies, made exclusively in MOTION PICTURE NEWS, officials of the company indicated that a new projector would be introduced by their organization. A short time later, the new projector was announced, production on the machines at that time having reached a point where the Fulton company could place their new projectors on the market.

Speculation has run high concerning the details of the new projector. In a recent demonstration it was shown that this new machine incorporates in its design and mechanism several innovations thoroughly in line with modern ideas and projection principles developed within recent times.

The new Fulco projector offers many unique features of design and operation. In accordance with the modern tendency to pay high regard to appearance, the designers of the Fulco projector manifestly have given considerable thought to this feature. Mechanically it reaches standards of efficiency in operation and performance made possible by years of experience and the refinements that engineers have accomplished in the field of motion picture projection.

Considering the more external features, the Fulco projector is mounted on a pedestal of pleasing design and one while carrying no unnecessary weight is sufficiently massive to assure absolute steadiness. Within this pedestal, all wires are concealed and a generously proportioned piston (ball bearing mounted) is controlled by a screw which allows circular adjustment and affords means for vertically raising or lowering machine and lamp. The longitudinal table carried by this piston and upon which is mounted machine and lamp—is provided with a very novel and efficient device for tilting and locking the machine to any desired pitch. Where angle of projection must be changed speedily during show as is the case with some houses using forward and rear screens, the adjustment from one position to the other can be accomplished instantly. Motor is suspended from a swiveled mounting with spring pressure which automatically applies the correct tension to belt at all positions of machine.

No belt tighteners nor screw adjustments of any kind are needed. This combination of roomy pedestal and piston with sub frame for motor and tilting device, together with a very substantial cast iron horizontal table, is an assembly which eliminates all vibration and assures steady projection.

The magazines are of 3000 ft. capacity and like all other part of the equipment are very substantially built. Upper magazine shaft is mounted in "bearium" metal, and lower magazine shaft runs in ball bearing.

The mechanism — of Ernemann design—has a wealth of unique features, all of which will be highly appreciated by every operator.

The gearing compartment of the mechanism has a visible feed oil system, including a rotary pump which automatically functions when machine is in action and literally drenches and floods all gears, cams, shafts and intermittent movement with lubricant. The ball bearing intermittent action is a unit assembly, which may be taken out in a moment by simply removing one nut. In removing sprockets—feed, take up, or intermittent, nothing but a screw driver is necessary. The same tool will also release guide rollers, etc.

The threading operation is a simple and convenient one and the film passes through a long gate having lengthy shoes which may be instantly removed and replaced if occasion arises. Tension on the film may be varied at will while film is in motion. Special shoes are provided for accommodating freshly made films which tend to stick as they pass through.

Film gate is constructed with numerous fins to insure rapid radiation of heat from lamp and the automatic fire shutter is highly sensitive and responsive. Feed and take up sprockets are twice the diameter of the intermittent sprocket and all three are removable.

Framing control is effected through a sizeable circular knob, conveniently placed at side of glass door of mechanism. Framing does not affect shutter, nevertheless an adjusting thumb piece, located above lens mount permits accurate shutter adjustment while machine is in action. Ball bearing shutter is secured to shaft in a manner which prevents slippage and it may be set to any position on shaft without loosening or setting a screw. Shutter shaft may be extended to suit lenses of almost any focus.

The film speed indicator which forms part of the mechanism, enables operator to know exactly the rate at which film is moving and furnishes the visual report of the functioning of the speed control attachment.

At bottom of mechanism, a small brake lever provides a convenient means for slowing up film at titles without disturbing film speed adjustments. You simply apply brake pressure to power wheel on opposite side of mechanism and slow up machine just for the moment it is needed.

The speed control located just above lower magazine is exteremely compact. It is of the governor type and is so designed that the automatic control elements are concealed within the rotating drums.

An idler pulley riding the slack belt from speed control to mechanism is attached to a spring tensioned lever giving an additional factor of control to operator. Machine may be started from motor switch or, if preferred, motor may be started any time and machine started or stopped through belt idler. Speed control may be adjusted in advance and when idler is thrown forward machine responds instantly to pre-determined rate of speed. All controls—governor, idler release, motor switch and lamp switch are operative from either side of machine.

The Cost of those Who Pass

And How To Turn Passers-by Into Regular Patrons

Every day there are people passing your theater who COULD BE PERSUADED TO COME IN.

Why do they pass? The answer to that question means DOLLARS to you — MANY, MANY DOLLARS. To many exhibitors the answer means the difference between a profitless summer season and a healthy and highly successful one.

In hot weather your theater can be a powerful attraction. Instantly it establishes a reputation for cool comfort in torrid weather — you'll notice increased business. People who once passed without interest will ENTER with enthusiasm.

Give your ticket sellers mork work in the summertime. Keep your ushers busy. Fill your seats. You have all these facilities at hand—bought and paid for. Stop those who PASS; make your theater so inviting, so cool, so comfortable they cannot resist the urge to ENTER.

Among the hundreds of letters in our "Bouquet File" fully 30% specifically mention increased business resulting from providing proper inside air with Arctic Nu-Air Systems.

Here is a system representing a million dollars invested by actual users. 3,000 installations make your satisfaction sure.

It is the big capacity year-around system, with complete control. You can use it in the winter for ventilation and to aid in circulating the heat that lingers around radiators. On not-so-hot days you can reduce its speed, providing a gentle circulation of fresh air that is most comfortable and refreshing.

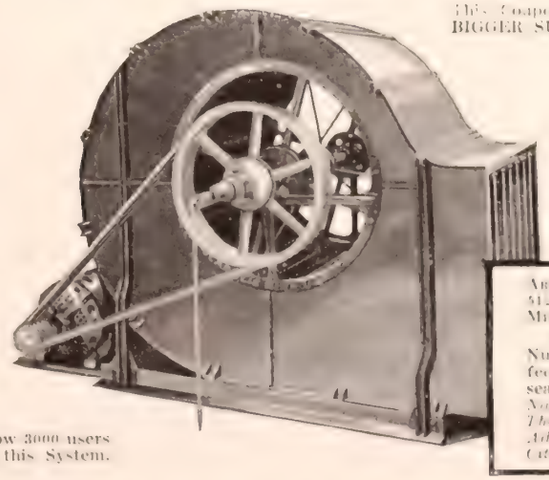
It is easy to install. Our engineers render valuable cooperation. Most installations are extremely simple—no complications or disorder.

Our easy financing plan puts the system in on a small down payment. You have a year to pay the balance in small installments. Thus your system pays its way, and you will enjoy every interview with your banker.

The first step toward better times, bigger business, and boosting patrons

—the coupon below. It will tell you what happens when an Arctic Nu-Air System begins to STOP THOSE WHO PASS.

ARCTIC NU-AIR CORPORATION



512-514 SOUTH 4TH ST. MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

SALES OFFICES

Atlanta
Boston
Chicago
Cleveland
Dallas
Detroit
Milwaukee
New York
Oklahoma City
Philadelphia
San Francisco
Seattle

EXPORT OFFICE

71 Murray St.,
New York City

This Coupon brings word of BIGGER SUMMER PROFITS.

Mail this Coupon Today

Arctic Nu Air Corporation
512-514 South Fourth St.
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Send engineering data and information on Arctic Nu-Air Year Around System for my theatre feet long feet wide, feet high, seating .. .. people.

Name
Theatre
Address
City State

It costs but a stamp to find out how 3000 users are BUILDING BUSINESS with this System.

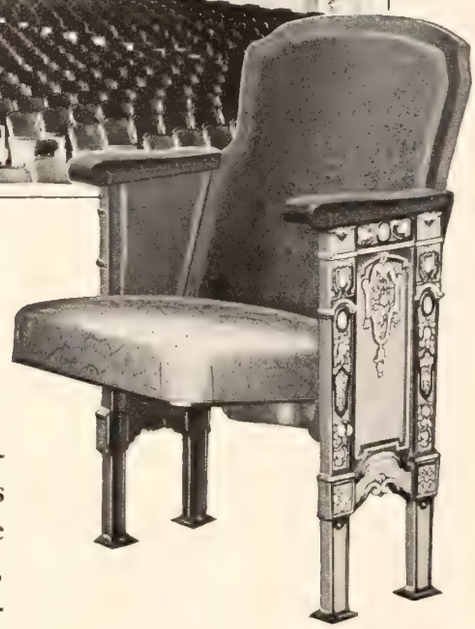
Also Manufacturers of SANIDAIRE Humidifying Systems for Homes, Hospitals, Subway Cars, Apartments, Hotels and Industries.



STATE THEATRE
Kalamazoo, Mich.

John Eberson
Architect

For You— a 3 Way Profit

TO you, as owner or manager, American Theatre Chairs add three factors to the "drawing power" of your house that should never be overlooked. First, American chairs give your patrons a maximum of comfort that brings them back to your house. Second, the beauty of design and finish of American chairs assures perfect harmony with the decorative effect and appointments. And third, the in-built quality of American chairs makes them an investment that yields a steady profit in reduced upkeep costs and more years of durability.

No. 6065—1369 of these chairs were installed in the State Theatre, Kalamazoo, Mich. American Walnut wood parts, upholstered back and dark red Moroccoline seat. Noiseless ball bearing hinge insures silent and easy seat movement. Comfortable, durable and pleasing to the eye.

American Seating Company

Theatre Chair Builders to the American Public For Over 50 Years

10 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Illinois

113 W. 40th St., New York City
1211-K Chestnut St., Philadelphia
77-D Canal St., Boston

Color Lighting as an Aid to Music in the Motion Picture Theatre

By A. L. Powell

Manager, Engineering Department, Edison Lamp Works

MOST of the larger motion picture houses have color lighting installations which they use during the playing of the overture or musical interlude. Some of these are in the form of cove or cornice lighting where colored lamps are concealed from view and light from these directed on the ceiling and walls. Others employ large ornamental fixtures fitted with several circuits of colored lamps, and still others are able to flood a neutral tinted curtain with colored light from above, below, and the sides.

This changing colored lighting may be very pleasing to the audience or may be annoying to the artistic, sensitive person. It can be pleasing to everyone and a thing of interest, joy, and thrill to the sensitive individual if proper coordination of color and music is attained. With ordinary methods of operation, however, the likelihood of really annoying effects is indeed great.

On many occasions the writer has been back stage and watched the electrician manipulate switches and dimmers on the color circuits during the playing of the musical numbers. Except in a very few outstanding instances, where the management has set forth a very definite schedule which it insists on the operator following, the average electrician pays no attention whatever to the music as he manipulates the various circuits. His attitude seems to be somewhat as follows:

"Here is a color lighting installation. It is paid for and in operation. I will show the audience that we have this and turn on red, blue, green, blue and yellow as my whim or fancy dictates."

If there is anything to the fact that two of our senses, hearing and seeing, can be acted on at the same time, to produce a desirable reaction—if there is any basis of the coordination of the psychological value of color and music, and the writer and many others who have given the matter serious thought are convinced that there is a very definite tie-in, then by this hit or miss method of operation the chances of proper coordination are very slight indeed.

The motion picture theatre is striving constantly to raise its programs to a higher level. It has a remarkable opportunity through this medium to educate the public in music appreciation and to make its offerings more attractive to the better class of patron. Proper coordination of color and music has a popular appeal. This is no mere theory but has been worked out in practice. At the Edison Lighting Institute in Harrison, New Jersey, one of the features is a demonstration of "Color and Music." This has been shown to many thousands during the past four years and always creates interest.

The modern motion picture house is particularly fortunate in the way it is able to apply color. We see by reflected light, and to get the maximum impression of color there must be a relatively large light colored area on which the tinted light can be thrown, as is the case of indirect lighting from cornice to the ceiling, or the lighting of the curtains and drapery at the front of the house. The scheme of having the orchestra itself clothed in white suits and beams of colored light projected on the area occupied by the orchestra is also good. The use of a large central fixture with colored lamps is not effective because the fixture itself becomes a center of interest and one does not "feel" the atmosphere of color.

Light is similar to sound (music) in more ways than most of us realize. One is received by the eye, and the other by the ear and then conveyed by nerves to our brain where we get the impression.

LIGHT is produced by vibration in the so-called ether: sound by vibration of the air. With sound a deep tone is the result of a slowly moving wave of vibration, a high pitch results from a much quicker movement of the wave. In light, there is a range from the lower frequency red to the more rapid violet waves.

An analysis of a sound shows the wave to have three characteristics—frequency or vibrations per second giving the pitch; amplitude or size of the wave on which functions the volume (softness or loudness) depends; and finally the shape of the wave giving the quality or character of the sound. For example, a musical instrument and the human voice may emit the same tone with the same volume, but we can readily recognize the difference in quality.

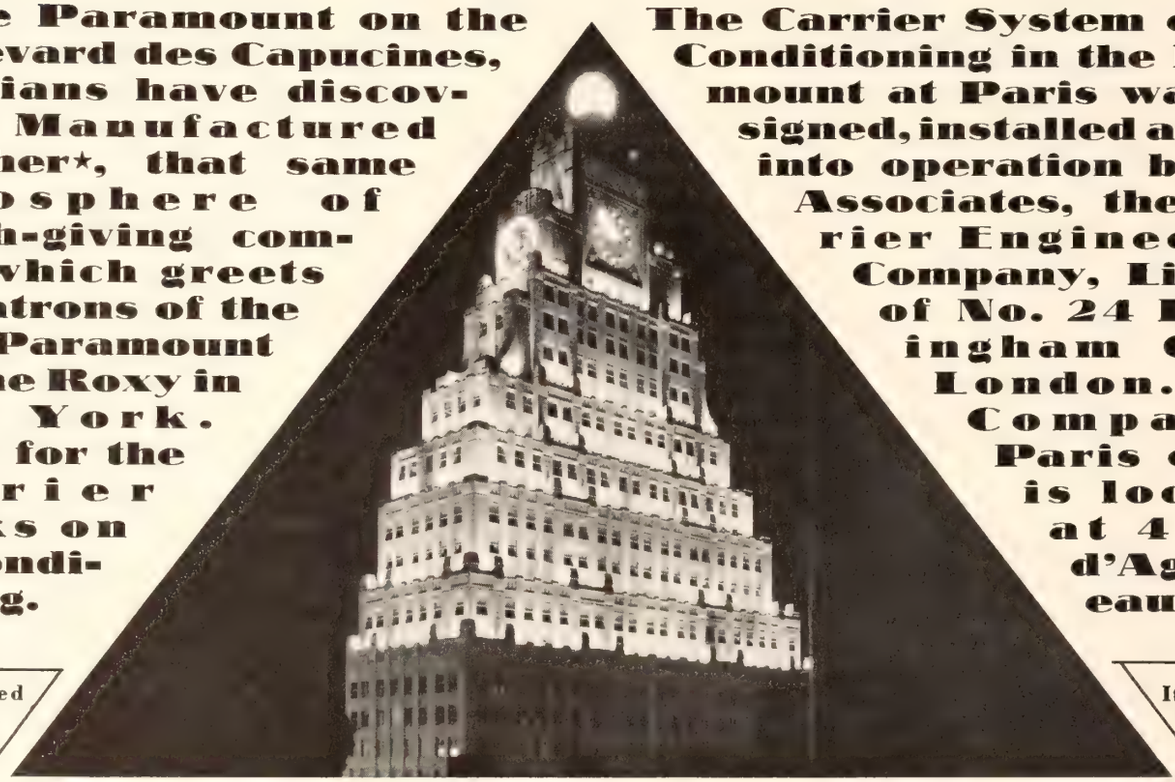
With light the color or hue is a function of the frequency. The volume is represented by the intensity, while the mixture of white light with the fundamental color determines its purity or what is called the "saturation."

Both sound and light are capable of causing sensations of pain or pleasure either by association or as the result of a direct effect from the inherent quality of the light or sound. A shrill, piercing whistling or a heavy crash may actually give physical pain for a moment and possibly, if violent, produce a permanent injury. A glaring brilliant light source may hurt our eyes, and prolonged exposure to it may actually injure the mechanism of the eye.

DUE to the similar characteristics of light and sound, some experimenters made the mistake, the writer believes, of too close a tie-in. We have a so-called octave of sound, c, d, e, f, g, a, b, c, and what may be called an octave of light, red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet, with half-tones represented by yellow green, green blue, etc. Certain people have attempted to assign tonal values to the colors of the spectrum just as though they were to play a scale in colors or write a score for color as they would for sound.

As a somewhat exaggerated illustration of the point we are trying to bring out, an experimenter might try to write a color score for "America" (My Country, 'Tis of Thee). His music would read, c, c, d, b, c, d, e,e, etc., his light score might read, yellow, yellow, green, orange, yellow, green, blue, blue, etc.

It is obvious that attempting to follow any such practice as this would lead us nowhere and that we would have a meaningless, unintelligible result. We must have our tie-in between the two senses—hearing and sight—based on the psychological or association element. Realizing this, it is evident that rather than an individual note having a corresponding light to accompany it, a group of notes, that is a mood or theme of the composition, or even a whole section, will have a much more definitely associated color.



We must give consideration to the manner in which light will affect our emotions. We are stirred at the sound of the military band, the soft soothing strains of the Humoresque or Kamennoi-Ostrow rest us and quiet the nerves, while the modern jazz tune has still another effect. Some of us experience the whole gamut of human emotions, listening to the wonderfully descriptive music of Massennet, Puccini or Wagner. Particular phrases promote sorrow or joy, depress or exuberate us. Light has a similar effect, the colorings of nature as expressed in sunrise or sunset give one a thrill, the cool, restful green of wood has its effect, while the changing blues and white caps of the sea also produce an impression. Certainly these can be combined.

It is obvious that there is a definite psychological connection between music and color. Everyone will agree that certain music is exciting, other music quieting, and that still another tune may actually sadden or depress us. It has been proven very definitely that, in general, red is exciting, yellow stimulating and buoy-

Manufactured Weather ✧

In the Paramount on the Boulevard des Capucines, Parisians have discovered Manufactured Weather✭, that same atmosphere of health-giving comfort which greets the patrons of the great Paramount and the Roxy in New York. Write for the Carrier Books on air Conditioning.

The Carrier System of Air Conditioning in the Paramount at Paris was designed, installed and set into operation by our Associates, the Carrier Engineering Company, Limited of No. 24 Buckingham Gate, London. The Company's Paris office is located at 4 Rue d'Aguesseau.

✭Manufactured Weather makes "Every day a good day"

It isn't Manufactured Weather unless it's a Carrier System

NEW YORK
PHILADELPHIA
BOSTON
CHICAGO

Carrier Engineering Corporation

Offices and Laboratories
NEWARK, N. J.

CLEVELAND
WASHINGTON
KANSAS CITY
LOS ANGELES

ant, green quieting and soothing, while blues and violets are depressing, subduing and saddening in nature. Therefore, all we have to do is to analyze a composition and determine whether as a whole it is exciting, quieting, stimulating, etc., and accompany it with the color of light which gives the same reaction. It is this very fact which makes haphazard operation of the lighting so objectionable to those of us who are sensitive. If, for example, the orchestra is playing a martial Sousa march which tends to excite us and the electrician has turned on the blue light, we have two forces working within us producing quite opposite effects. Similarly, if the orchestra is playing a quieting, pastoral bit and the house is brilliantly illuminated in yellow, again we have opposing forces at work.

BESIDES this purely psychological effect of color, there is another action which we might term association. Certain music of the so-called program or descriptive type paints in our imagination a perfectly definite picture and it is logical to accompany various parts of this constantly changing picture with color that suggests the same thing. Through the ages we have come to associate color with certain attributes. For example, red with fire, danger, war, courage, passion, etc.; yellow with gaiety, festivity and revel, youth, action, warmth, glory; blue with the moonlight, the sea, the sky, truth, fidelity, loyalty; green with the wood, the meadow, youth, spring, hope; white with peace, purity, modesty; pink with beauty, love, health, and so on.

The numerous themes offer great possibilities for changing colors. Flashes of one color can be superimposed on another. A shrill, piercing note can be accentuated by a brilliant light momentarily exposed. At times, the change from one color to another will take place gradually, at other parts abruptly.

With a crescendo passage the intensity will naturally increase with the volume of sound. During moments of pianissimo it is logical that low values of lighting should be used. As the music rises and falls the illumination follows its every movement.

A color "chord" can be produced by shooting shafts of light adjacent to each other rather than blending the lights together. As mentioned above, when one color is thrown on top of another one the effect is that of a third color which the eye cannot analyze. If the colors are side by side one will probably get the impression which it is desired to create.

If a curtain is to be illuminated, then lights can be located above, on the two sides and below. The curtain can be made to assume one tint at the top and a different tone at the bottom in the case where it is desired to produce two reactions simultaneously. For instance, when two themes are being played, one by the strings, the other by the woodwinds. As one theme gradually overpowers the other (illustrated by the "Pilgrims March" drowning out the Venusberg motive in the "Overture to Tannhauser") the color assigned to the second is gradually increased in intensity while that assigned to the first motive is gradually dimmed.

As indicative of the method of procedure, let us consider that we have a curtain at the front of the auditorium which can be illuminated from both top and bottom with red, green, blue and yellow light at will. Such an arrangement is likely to be found in any well equipped theatre. The accompanying diagram shows an arrangement used in the Edison Lighting Institute for a curtain 14 feet wide, 12 feet high, that has been very satisfactory. A similar layout for curtains of other dimensions can be made by modifying the wattage to fit the design under consideration. For example, a curtain of approximately twice these lineal dimensions would have four times as many square feet to be illuminated and one might use twice as many units, each of which is approximately double the wattage used in this example. Proportionately larger dimmers would be required.

The curtain in this case is of heavy pile velour of brownish gray or taupe color. The row of border units is placed between a valance drop and curtain with lamps one foot from the curtain. Here eleven units are used, X-Ray reflector No. 610, Laco-Phillips, color caps, four circuits thre 200 watt blue, three 200 watt green, three 150 watt red, two 200 watt amber in the order of colors as shown on the sketch. It is to be noted that the curtain hangs in deep folds or from four to six inches so that light streaks down these folds creating color shadow effects.

THE footlights are approximately 2½ feet in front of the curtain. Twenty-three units are used, X-Ray reflector No. EC-71 with glass color plates. There are six 150 watt blue, six 150 watt green, six 100 watt red, six 75 watt amber. The order of colors is as shown on the sketch. At the upper right and left corners of the curtain are concealed lens spotlamps to shoot shafts of clear light diagonally across the curtain. In addition to the dimmer control of each circuit the red border, the amber border, the amber foot and two spotlight circuits have momentary contact short-circuiting switches across the dimmer resistance for producing flashes of color.

With color equipment if this nature a music cue sheet on typical numbers might be as follows:

Rheingold—"Entrance of the Gods into Wallahalla"—Wagner

Wotan and the other Gods stand contemplating the beautiful golden castle Wallahalla that the giants have built for them. It is far across the valley and they have no means of entrance. Donner causes a storm to come up (Incanation of the Thunder motive) which soon subsides, leaving a dazzling rainbow bridge (the Rainbow motive) to the castle (Walhalla motive). As the Gods pass over this fairy bridge we hear from the music that Wotan is thinking of the ring (Ring motive) which was stolen from the Rhine (Rhine motive). The "Rhine Daughters" are heard bewailing the loss of their "gold." Wotan realizes that he must create some powerful means to defend the Gods and we hear for the first time in the music drama a very important motive, "The Sword of the Gods."

It would seem that the following lighting is quite appropriate.

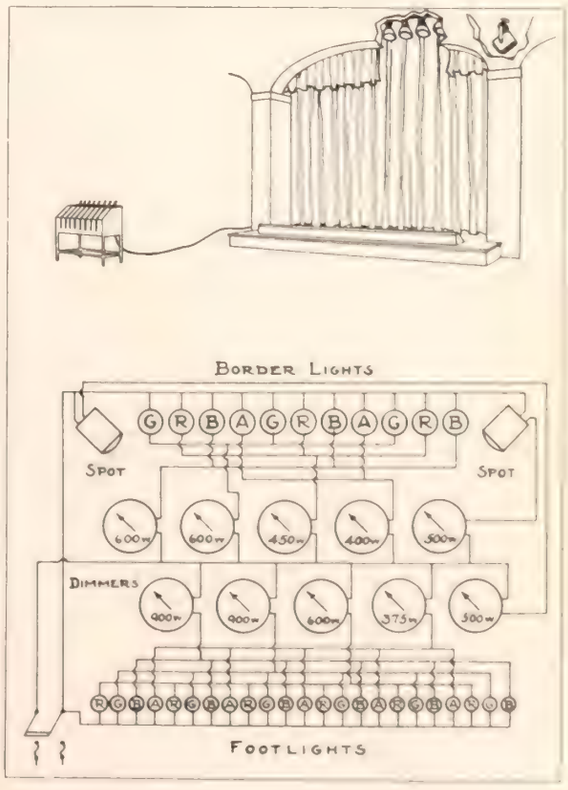
"Incantation of the Thunder"—low intensity of blue with flashes of yellow at the proper time symbolizing the lightning.

"The Rainbow"—Shafts of red, green and blue light from the top streaking across the curtain giving the effect of the spectrum.

"Walhalla"—Yellow from above, red from below.

"The Ring"—Yellow top and bottom.

"The Rhine"—Bue top, green bottom, rising and falling in intensity.

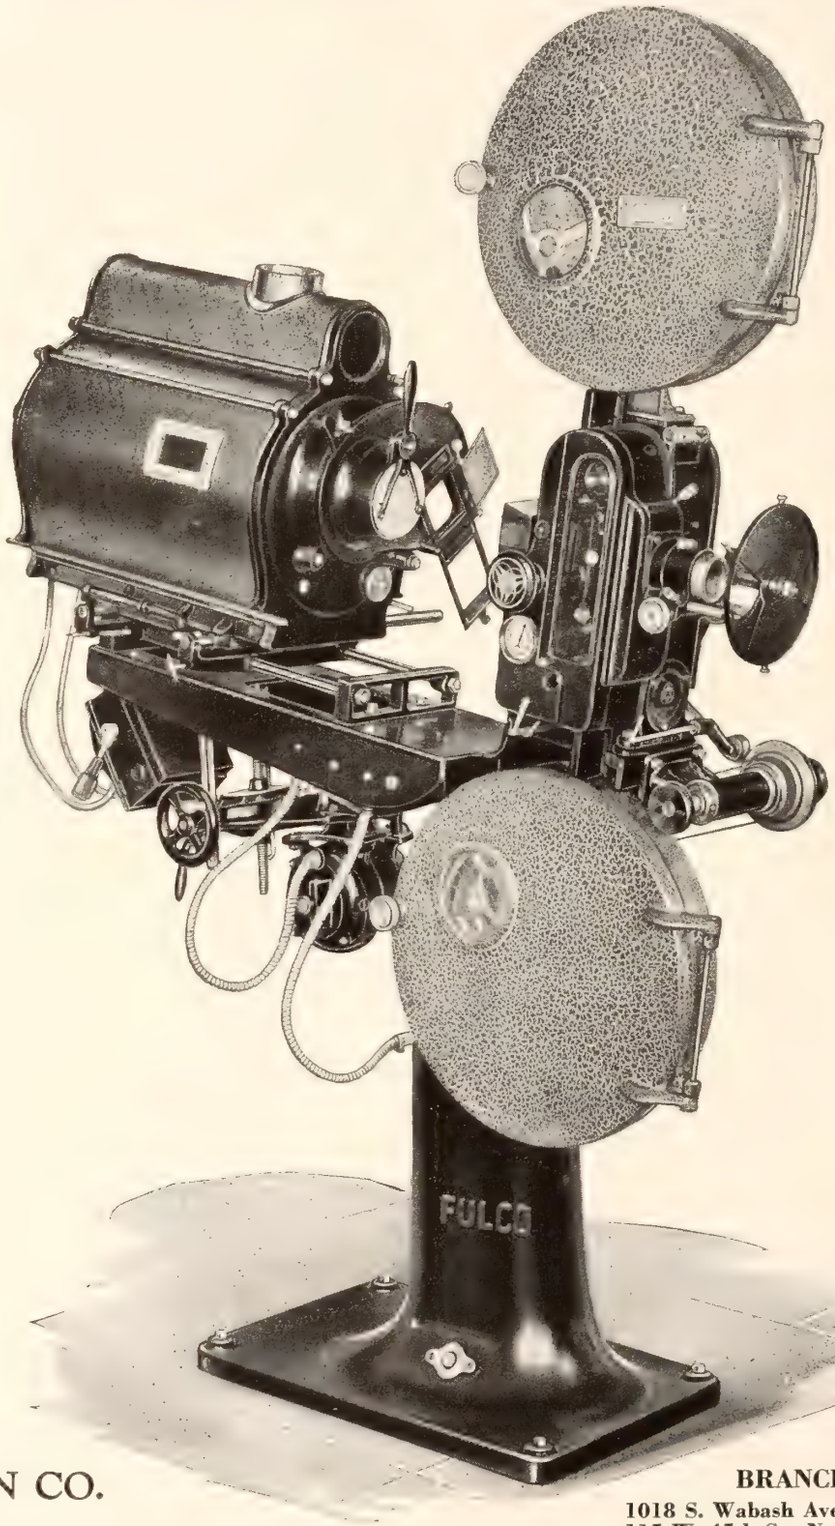


"The Rhine Maidens"—Shafts of green from top.

"Gold" Shafts of yelow on the blue background.

"The Sword of the Gods"—Brilliant red of high intensity top and bottom.

Finally Rainbow at top changing to all up full brightness.



(Continued on Page 1878)

Wiring layout for color curtain as used at the Edison Lighting Institute, and described in the accompanying article in connection with methods of coordinating lighting and music in the theatre.

The NEW FULCO PROJECTOR

THE ROLLS-ROYCE OF PICTURE MACHINES COSTS NO MORE THAN OTHERS

SEND FOR DESCRIPTIVE CIRCULAR

NOW READY FOR DELIVERY

E. E. FULTON CO.

C. H. FULTON, President
F. A. VAN HUSAN, V. P. & Sales Mgr.
A. G. JARMIN, Treasurer

Executive Headquarters
1018 S. Wabash Ave.
CHICAGO, ILL.

BRANCH OFFICES

1018 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.
115 W. 45th St., New York, N. Y.
3403 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo.
151 Seventh St., Milwaukee, Wis.
340 N. Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind.
255 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco

Factory
2001 S. California Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Stanley Theatres Campaign to Promote Moviegoing as Summer Diversion

"Jubilee Week" to Launch Season of Big Pictures at Circuit's Houses

THE Stanley Company of America, in Philadelphia and adjacent districts, has undertaken a unique and comprehensive plan to stimulate public interest in the theatre during the summer months and to impress upon patronage the fact that the houses under its direction will not only continue to present unusually high quality entertainment, but offer even greater programs.

The week of June 4th has been set apart for an intensive and far-reaching campaign of promotion along this line, and has been designated "Stanley Theatres,' Jubilee Week." Indications already point to one of the most successful promotional efforts ever attempted by this organization.

The plan was put into execution through the office of A. L. Einstein, publicity director, with the assistance of E. L. Trenchard, his aide, co-operating with Eli M. Crowitz and the managers of the various Stanley theatres participating in the big event.

The carefully laid-out program of the celebration was presented before the municipal authorities of Philadelphia, Chester, West Chester, Lancaster, Wilmington, Camden, Atlantic City and other places in which it was proposed to operate, and it was enthusiastically received by the several mayors and other public officials. In Philadelphia and some of the other localities, permission was granted to place artistically designed banners and other exploitation means at conspicuous points along the central streets and in the business sections.

Co-operation of the public utilities was secured, the street cars, buses and other passenger conveyances operated by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company are carrying the Jubilee message.

The railroad and subway stations displays the banners, cards and other novelties calling attention to this special week of Stanley theatres get acquainted campaign.

Merchants in Philadelphia and the other cities and towns included in the celebration are lending their support through mutually advantageous "tie-ups," including special Jubilee Week Sales and other announcements.

The novel Stanley Train, with locomotive, pullmans, etc., moves about the streets of Philadelphia advertising this celebration. Street parades have been organized, business men's associations and civic bodies have been enlisted in this unusually big and comprehensive movement.

While the publicity and exploitation departments of the Stanley Company have adequately covered the campaign, each house manager is more or less responsible for the success of the Jubilee Week in his own theatre. Toward this success, the managers have gone to unusual lengths to put on programs that are out of the ordinary. The choicest of pictures were scheduled for showing, together with added attractions in many of the houses, taking the form of stage offerings, beauty contests, prize offerings, special decorations, lobby displays and "tie-ups" with neighborhood stores and civic, fraternal, social and business organizations located in the vicinity. Special nights featuring "home talent" also have been arranged.

A few samples of the special programs arranged in the way of added attractions may indicate how extensively and intensively the managers of the theatres and the promotion department of Stanley have taken the idea up. The Earle theatre, Philadelphia, will present, as one feature during the week, the 110-piece Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company's Employees' Band. This feature has been donated, as have most of the others to be present throughout the district during the event.

At the Broadway theatre, in South Philadelphia, where John J. O'Brien is in charge, aside from the showing of several of the big feature pictures and other screen offerings there is this special inducement:

Monday, June 4, Home Talent Night; Tuesday, June 5, Guest Night; Wednesday, June 6, Club Picadilly Night; Thursday, June 7, Hageman String Band; Friday, June 8, Surprise Night; Saturday, June 9, Club Lido Night.

At the Grand theatre, Lancaster, in addition to the screen offerings, arrangements were made for a popular Lancaster tenor, Carl Aument, to sing several numbers in a stage presentation, before the showing of Clara Bow in "Red Hair," as well as to sing the musical theme, "Red Hair," at intervals throughout the offering of the picture.

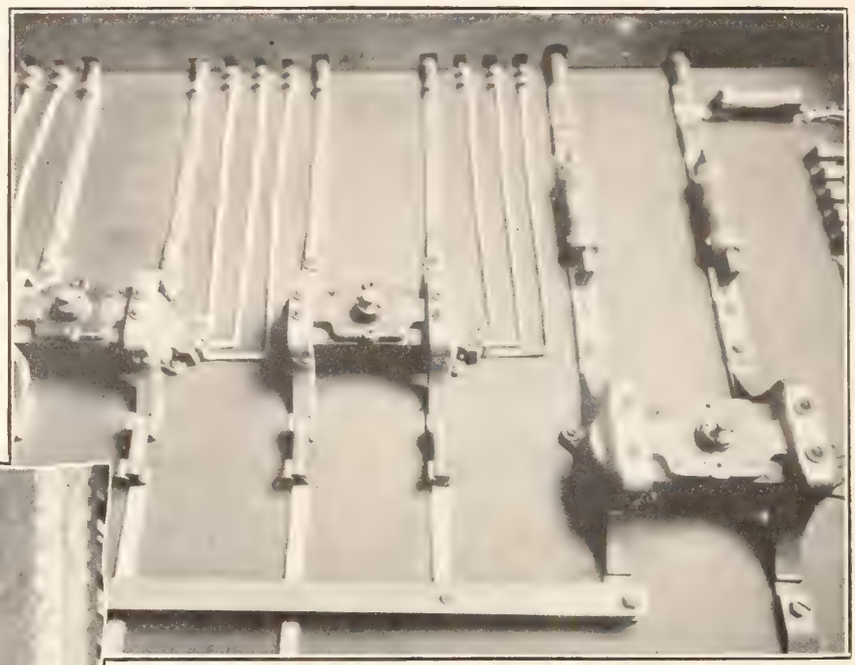
The Capitol theatre, Lancaster, will offer vitaphone attractions, together with the Adelphia Quartette.

The Hamilton, Lancaster, is putting on a special Apache dance and a string orchestra. A circus ballyhoo in the way of a street parade was arranged for the opening day of the showing of the Wagon Show.

These are typical of the efforts the house managers are making to make Jubilee Week a success.

Two of the Philadelphia radio broadcasting stations are being used, and on Thursday, June 7, the services of the Columbia chain of stations will present offerings in connection with the celebration.

Independently operated theatres in various parts of the country are adapting on a smaller scale a similar idea to open up the Summer season. In the majority of these campaigns there is particular emphasis upon the atmospheric comfort of the theatres equipped with ventilating systems. Those houses so equipped have an excellent selling argument in behalf of moviegoers as a hot weather diversion. To realize the full value of their cooling system feature, the progressive and aggressive showmen are conducting newspaper, screen and program reader copy to create in the public mind an attitude of favor toward the theatre in Summer.



Summer Drives On In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY theatre men are using various types of campaigns to combat the summer competition—hot weather and outdoor attractions.

Loew's Midland is offering a series of short trailers as an argument against warm weather slumps. Last week the door of a theatre was flashed on the screen, the door locked and bound by a huge chain and lock. A reader goes on to explain that in the olden days it was necessary to close up during hot weather, but that today public demand is so strong for motion pictures the year 'round, and that the theatre is so cool inside, that no hot weather season is recognized any longer.

Samuel Carver, manager of the Liberty theatre, first run downtown house, recently held a voting contest among patrons, each of whom dropped a ballot in a box as they entered the theatre over a period of several weeks, on pictures which were most favored for revival showings. The revival showings now are being offered, on a 1-week run basis, the same as any first run pictures, and the stunt is proving popular.

"Diamond H" Remote Control Switches should be in every Theatre!

Mayfair Theatre
New York, N. Y.

How about your lighting system in case of fire?

What would happen to your audience if fire broke out tonight, or if lightning crippled the main current supply?

Of course you have thought about it—but are you prepared? By installing "Diamond H" Remote Control Switches to link up your main and emergency lighting circuits or two sources of main current supply, if anything happens "Diamond H" is on the job and automatically shifts from one to the other.

You will have light in your aisles, exits, corridors, stairways no matter what happens.

These Remote Control Switches can be used in a great variety of ways in theatres. They save money in wiring and are absolutely reliable.

If you are not protected, let us tell you how "Diamond H" Remote Control Switches can protect your lighting.

In the Mayfair Theatre "Diamond H" Remote Control Switches control the stage lighting.

THE HART MANUFACTURING CO.
HARTFORD, CONN.
NEW YORK BOSTON CHICAGO TORONTO

DIAMOND H SWITCHES

How We Used Radio to Tell the Public About Our Musical Programs

By C. T. PERRIN

Manager Sterling Theatre, Greeley, Colorado

I FEAR that this is going to make quite a lengthy story, this effort of mine in in compliance with the request of the editors of THE SHOWMAN, to tell the details of our broadcasting of the musical accompaniment to a picture at the Sterling theatre over a local radio station. However, I am told by the editors that only the full details will be valuable as an outline and working method for the consideration of other exhibitors who may at some future time desire to employ a similar exploitation idea in conjunction with their home broadcasting stations.

To begin with the radio entertainment we broadcast was put on by Carlos, featured organist at the Sterling, and myself. For four or five weeks straight we had a little act which we put on over the radio during our weekly frolics. We had intended it to be only one, but the request from radio fans that we continue the feature resulted in further adventures along the same line.

These acts were in the nature of my asking Carlos questions which he would answer with music. During the act, the music never stopped. For instance, if I should ask him, "Where were you born?" he would start playing "Sidewalks of New York," or any other number chosen.

In each case, of course, the entire number would not be played, but enough that everyone would know the name of the tune, and the answer to the question which I asked.

After four such programs, we began to run out of questions and suitable answers, so decided to put on a little act of showing how Carlos might go about cuing a picture program.

Our local radio station is not an advertising station, and we must be very careful about doing anything or saying anything over the station that might be classed as advertising. Therefore, it is necessary to get what little benefit we can by using stunts of this nature, perhaps to create interest in our business, generally, or to cause outside comment in which our theatre might be mentioned.

Each week, we announced that "Cash and Carry" (which name we took for ourselves) would be back on the air again the following Friday with another stunt, and our radio audience grew each week—judging from the comment which we received locally, and from every State in the Union and three provinces in Canada.

I will try to give you an outline of the program.

Announcement before music starts, when microphone is turned over to me for the act:

"It has been brought to my attention that many people give very little thought to the musical accompaniment to a picture when they attend the theatre. Many do not realize that the organist or orchestra leader must spend many hours in preparing a program to properly fit a picture, and that you attend a theatre may enjoy a program—both because the program is a splendid one and the music is such as that you just seem to live with those who appear on the screen.

"Tonight, Carlos is going to show you how he goes about cuing a picture program. We will go through the entire gram, just the same as you will hear him at any regular performance in our theatre.

"But just a minute, Carlos, before we start. You seem to be a little bit gloomy, tonight. What's the matter with you, anyway?"

Carlos Plays: "Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning."

In each case, now, the music is continuous, and my talking goes on at the same time. He remains on this number until the next question is complete, then swings to that answer.

"So much for that, though. Now, Carlos, let's get back to our picture program.

"The first subject will be our news reel. The first subject on the news is: 'Conference between the Mayor and Underworld King of a Large Eastern City.'"

Carlos Plays: "Together, We Two."

"Next on the news: Lindberg at a California bathing beach, surrounded by bathing beauties."

Carlos Plays: "Lucky Lindbergh." (Lindy in California at that time.)

"And now: The Senate leaving the Senate chamber after a hard day's work."

Carlos Plays: "Just Another Day Wasted Away."

IMMEDIATELY upon starting this, and after just enough to get the tune across to the listeners, he is stopped with the following announcement:

"Wait a minute, wait a minute. That is enough for that one. After that, I think we had better go on to the next unit of our program. It is hard to tell what the next news subjects might bring."

Music is now silent.

"The next subject on our program will be a very pathetic short subject, perhaps a little unusual. I would like to remind you who are listening in, however, that such suffering as will be portrayed in the following sketch is so realistic—so true to life—that it should be uplifting, rather than depressing."

Carlos Begins Playing: "Hearts and Flowers" as sketch begins.

"Our hero is a big, husky farmer lad from the great outdoors, now engaged in the art of selling sewing machine needles. Our heroine is one of those blondes, by choice—a quiet, coy, little maiden, search-for romance. Her father is in the second-hand coal business. He hauls ashes."

AND from here, a comedy sketch goes out, that must be of the make-up of the local team. This can be made equally as funny as the ability of the person doing the talking to put it over—and that is all. From the above, everything that takes place is in the form of words spoken rather than the form of a story.

Announcement:

"And that, folks, is the end of our short subjects. And we hope we have not brought too much sadness to those of you who are our audience this evening.

"And now, going from the ridiculous to the sublime, we come next to the organ solo by our Mr. Hahnewald. Carlos has chosen for his solo tonight, his version of 'My Ohio Home.' All right, Carlos."

Carlos Plays His Solo—"My Ohio Home"—his own version.

"Immediately following the solo, we present our feature picture. We will not take time to go through an entire feature tonight, since that would take too long. Rather, I think, we will choose for our feature the screen version of 'Rose Marie,' since this is a picture that everyone will want to see very soon—and we will just give you a touch of it.

"Local listeners will pay particular attention to these numbers as Carlos uses them during the showing of this production on Wednesday and Thursday, and we are sure you will feel and realize the real importance of music with a picture when you visit the Sterling theatre and hear it with 'Rose Marie.'

"Carlos' first number will be 'Indian Love Call.'"

As Carlos gets into the number a short ways, the following announcement is made, thoroughly in keeping with this part of the program, and without the slightest touch of comedy.

"'Rose Marie' is a story of great love and romance in the woods of the Canadian Northwest. Toward the first of the story, 'Indian Love Call,' beautiful beyond words, and just a little touching as Rose Marie sings it as a signal to her lover, who is listening at a distance, that they must not see each other again. He

(Continued on Page 1878)

Serving the AMERICAN Theatre Industry

Consultation

Consultation with the National costs you nothing. It will save you money. For National has specialists in every part of the country who know the theatre from the ground up. They can advise you right—show you how to get the most for your money.

Only the most experienced men in theatre supply lines find a place on National's staff, because serving you right is no "handy man" job. And shoulder-to-shoulder they work with you to furnish better merchandise, better service—to cut costs without cutting quality. These things are only possible with a big, well financed organization like National Theatre Supply.

Consult the National on anything you need—from complete equipment and furnishings to replacements on smallest parts. One of our thirty-one branch offices is near you and it is manned ready to answer your call, day or night.

(4105)

National Theatre Supply Company

Offices in all Principal Cities

New Type Organ for Smaller Theatres

THE growth of musical appreciation is one of the outstanding characteristics of the times. Never before was the desire for really good music so widespread or so clearly in evidence. Never before has it been possible for people to satisfy their musical appetites to the extent that now obtains. This is due in part to radio broadcasting, which is sending the best in music to an ever-widening circle of homes. It is due in part to improved instruments for reproducing recorded music. Last, but most important, is the credit that is due to Motion Picture theatres, which have made wonderful strides in providing increasingly artistic musical programs for their patrons.

Managers of leading theatres, in their desire to attract large and continuous patronage, have not failed to consider this significant trend of the times. Therefore, they are devoting increasingly large amounts of advertising space to announcing high-class musical features, with the result that the movie fan no longer goes to a theatre merely to see a feature picture, but to enjoy an afternoon or evening of pleasing entertainment, in which music plays a most important part.

It is the organ which is mainly relied upon to enhance the dramas and comedies of the screen; to provide artistic and delightful overtures and musical specialties; and to establish and maintain a large and regular patronage.

Photo above shows the Wurlitzer "Organette" style W, a combination organ and piano played by organist or automatically and especially developed for the small picture theatre.

With its electrical action and instantaneous response, the modern organ makes orchestral transcription easy for the organist. It enables him to vary his music at will to suit the needs of the photoplay he is following.

The necessity of having in the small theatre musical accompaniments of a high calibre has created a need which organ manufacturers are now giving their greatest attention. It is interesting to note that the Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, builders of organs for theatres of all sizes, recently have brought out a new small instrument. This new creation is called the "Organette."

The "Organette," now being placed on the market is an innovation which places within the reach of the small theatres, seating from two to six hundred persons, the facilities for providing good musical accompaniments for their picture presentations.

This small instrument is a combination of piano and organ. It may be played either as a piano, an organ with piano accompaniment, or as a straight organ. It may be played by an organist or automatically, by means of music rolls; the rolls being of the Duplex variety, one rewinding while the other plays. The instrument may be started or stopped by means of an electrical switch from the box office or the booth. One of the outstanding features of the "Organette" is the surprising volume for its size which the Wurlitzer designers have accomplished in the building of this new departure in small organ construction.

Remote Switch Changes Spotlight Colors

TO the several advantages of Mazda-type spotlights for stage and decorative lighting in the auditorium there recently has been added another feature in the form of complete remote control of color as well as intensity.

Well known advantages of Mazda-type spotlights are that they do not require an attendant as is the case with arc-types; they can be operated by a distant switch; and they can be used with dimmers. But heretofore there has been no way of changing at will the color of the light beam, except by the manual removal and insertion of different color frames.

With the perfection of a new device, wherein the operation of the color frames is controlled electro-magnetically—the entire service of the spotlight in respect to white lighting, color lighting, and dimming, can all be controlled from a distant point.

The new Mazda-type spotlight having these features recently was introduced by Kliegl Bros., Universal Electric Stage Lighting Co. The spotlight may be located wherever requirements dictate—frequently in concealed and inaccessible places, as is particularly the case when the lighting is for auditorium decorative purposes—and the control may be placed wherever it is most convenient for the operator. A group of the spotlights can be controlled as easily as one unit.

In many instances where color lighting was desired it has been the practice to install several groups of spotlights, one group for each of the colors desired. For example, a group of spots fitted with red color filters, another with blue, another with amber or green and still another group for clear white or unmodified lighting—usually operating one group at a time. It is now possible to install a single group of Spotlights that will give all these color variations, or install the same number of spotlights, obtaining four or five times as much light for each color.

The mazda type spotlight providing remote control of color frames as well as light intensity by means of dimmers. The color frames are operated electro-magnetically

Also since each color frame is independently operated, two or more color frames may be used at one time, obtaining a blending of colors; as, amber and red for producing orange—thus further extending the range of colors available.

Though each spotlight and color frame may be individually controlled they also may be, and usually are, so wired that all the spotlights installed, or any selected group, may be changed instantly from one color to another, or all color frames removed, giving the maximum intensity of white lighting—the operation being performed through the medium of a selective control board with master switches.

In theatres, where the direction of illumination is fixed, these new spotlights may be used for spotlighting or floodlighting the stage—from the balcony rail; from a recess in the ceiling; or from concealed locations in other parts of the house. They also provide facilities for lighting front drops with varied color

(Continued on Page 1880)

YORK air conditioning

Exempts you from a weather tax

With a public that has been educated to comfort, —air cooling and conditioning is today, just as important as a modern heating plant or a lighting system.

It is no longer an innovation or an unusual feature. It is an essential, and the theatre which neglects this phase of its equipment is laboring under a handicap that the best show cannot offset.

York Mechanical Refrigeration is foremost the world over in every phase of commerce and industry where controlled cold is required.

York Engineers have brought to the theatre field their knowledge and experience which has made York equipment for play houses successful and advantageous from every operating standpoint.

Write today for complete information regarding York Air Conditioning equipment in your theatre.

YORK
ICE MACHINERY CORPORATION
YORK Y PENNA

The York Carbon Dioxide Compressor direct connected to a synchronous motor has been specially designed to meet the requirements of the theatre field. Quiet operation and the comparatively small space required for this part of equipment, are among its many advantages. Economical, and absolutely dependable, it represents the most advanced equipment for air cooling and conditioning requirements.

"Service" is Salesman and Wage Earner of the Equipment Distributor

An Interview With

Walter E. Green

General Manager, National Theatre Supply Co.

THE organization which properly functions as a distributor of theatre equipment is primarily a service organization. And by that I mean an organization which specializes in supplying the needs of the theatre owner—and seeing to it that the articles sold are of a quality that will serve the desired purpose satisfactorily, making sure that the installation is correctly made, and providing credit facilities which enable the buyer to distribute the cost of his purchase over a period of time.

Just what that entails in the way of maintenance costs for technical research, specialists in installation and service work, sales personnel, office force and inventory, I shall briefly outline later on—after I have answered the question which apparently inspired this interview and which it seems to me is an echo from the discussions of conditions in other lines where different economic factors prevail and "high-cost distribution" is the popular topic of conversation.

To begin with the theatre equipment distributor has a very limited field in which to operate. The total expenditure for theatre equipment last year was, approximately, $50,000,000. But this figure includes the sale of organs, stage rigging, chairs and other furnishings of a permanent or quasi-permanent nature, and many of which are purchased direct from the manufacturer. These are "new theatre" furnishings and their life, ordinarily, equals the life of the theatre itself. Of this $50,000,000 total about one-fifth, or $10,000,000, was spent for equipment handled by distributors, and included such articles as booth equipment, and other materials more or less in steady demand by theatres under operation. One need not go any further than that to realize that there is no real economic need for reduction of distribution costs in a field where consumption is so small.

In the second place, unlike automobiles where obsolescence is great owing to wear, style changes and rapid introduction of new models, theatre equipment is long-lived. The theatre equipment distributor for his sales appeal to the prospective buyer depends solely upon the facilities he can offer the theatre owner in supplying, installing and servicing apparatus of established quality at a list price.

Distributive processes which in other lines accomplish price reductions, effect economies by three methods. These are volume buying, volume selling and elimination of service features. The handiest example of the latter method is to be found in the policy of chain stores, which under the guise of a facility, eliminate the costs of delivery and credit.

Theatre equipment manufacture and distribution does not lend itself to volume production or selling. There are about 2,500 projectors sold each year. The number of new theatres, many of them of the de luxe type in which three projectors are installed, account for a large share of this 2,500. Though projectors would seem to be machines having a limited life, owing to wear, we have no proof that there is any considerable replacement of this apparatus in older theatres. New parts are purchased for the old machines—and even here replacement is much less than it should be if first-rate projection results are to be obtained—but new machines for old booths are a rare exception to the rule.

The equipment distribution business developed in harmony with the development of the motion picture theatre. In the early days when small, independently operated picture houses were the rule, there was need for a supply dealer whose inventory assured the theatre man of ready access to supplies he could not afford to stock.

LATER, the development of the chain or circuit theatre organizations, created the need for a national organization, capable of selling supplies at the headquarters of the circuit companies where purchasing departments are maintained, and providing service at the point of installation—at a theatre in a distant city. The maintenance departments organized by the circuit companies, and the supply dealer located in the city where the purchases were made but with no representation in other cities, were helpless to cope with this new situation. In consequence of a changed condition and a new demand, National Theatre Supply Company was organized.

The servicing of apparatus and equipment sold by National Theatre Supply Company is only one part of an elaborate service scheme. This begins with the technical research involved in seeking new devices developed for the theatre.

Show room displays of equipment enable the theatre owner to judge the appearance and see the actual operation of an article of equipment he is seeking. The proper installation of apparatus has much to do with its performance and wearing qualities, and for that reason we maintain a staff of specialists to make installations. Our line, embracing a multiplicity of articles, is a time-saver for the theatre owner, who thus enjoys the benefits of centralized buying. The maintenance of a staff of experts in the design of projection booths, lighting systems, stage rigging, interior decoration, etc., gives the theatre owner access to technical advice and information which is in addition to that available to him from the architect, engineer, or others identified with the construction work connected with a new theatre project or the remodeling of an old theatre.

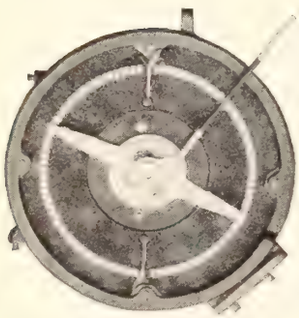
REPAIR shops are maintained in the majority of our 31 branch stores scattered throughout the country, and the stock of supplies is sufficient to provide rapid delivery of equipment. This involves an inventory of over $1,500,000. Our day and night emergency service is another service feature that has saved many a theatre from loss due to breakdowns of apparatus. In connection with this service we carry an emergency loan inventory valued at $200,000, invested in spare parts and units ready for immediate installation in the event of a breakdown. And this figure is given at replacement value.

Periodical inspection of equipment in which experts make a thorough investigation of apparatus and report directly to the theatre owner or manager, is another free service feature our organization offers at all of the branch stores.

From experience we know that there would be no justification for reducing our service facilities. From experience and strict scrutiny of every phase of this service organization, we know that maintenance costs have been reduced to the lowest level commensurate with efficient performance.

The national theatre equipment distributor offers the manufacturer a steady outlet for his product—which enables the producer to operate his factory at the maximum of its efficiency. This saving of waste in manufacturing effort is passed on to the consumer. Likewise, the distributor, through his ability to handle a wide range of articles, assures the theatre owner of a wide choice of models and types of equipment devices. This makes for the greater appeal, comfort and quality of entertainment he can offer prospective patrons—service in a word.

C-H "Simplicity" Dimmers



Marks Bros.' new Marbro Theater, Chicago, equipped with C-H Dimmers, pump and orchestra lift control. Levy and Klein, Architects

The Great Lakes Theater, Buffalo, equipped with C-H Dimmers and ventilation control. Architect, Leon Lambert

—the Choice of Leading Theaters Everywhere

BECAUSE they improve presentations by providing illumination control as flickerless as night fall, giving the most subtle and beautiful lighting effects. Because their mechanical and electrical perfection both in materials and construction assure ease of operation, low maintenance, and long life.

Write for our booklet "Illumination Control for the Modern Theater"

Because C-H Dimmers are adapted to any theater and easily enlarged for future needs. Just ask your architect or electrician about the advantages of C-H Dimmers and in the meantime write for complete facts contained in the booklet "Illumination Control for the Modern Theater".

The Tampa Theater, Tampa, Fla., is equipped with C-H Dimmers. Eberson & Eberson, Architects

The CUTLER-HAMMER Mfg. Co.
Pioneer Manufacturers of Electric Control Apparatus
1255 St. Paul Avenue
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

CUTLER C-H HAMMER

Perfect Illumination Control for the Modern Theater

How We Used Radio to Stimulate Interest in Our Musical Program With Pictures

(Continued from page 1867)

hears it, turns, and begins his long journey—alone."

Carlos finished the number without talking. After the number, the following announcement:

"Next—'Totem Tom Tom'—a more lively melody, used during the Indian sequence of the story.

Carlos Plays "Totem Tom Tom."

"And, at last, 'Rose Marie.'"

Carlos Plays "Rose Marie."

After starting, just enough time is allowed to get following announcement in, perhaps a few measures from the end.

"'Rose Marie,' the very beautiful ballad which is the love theme of the story throughout. The tenderness, the charm, and the soft, rich melody, will hold you. You will live the life of Rose Marie and Jim—love with them—and rejoice with them, as they find each other, never again to be parted. Happy—yes—and the very breath of love and happiness is found in the beautiful ballad, 'Rose Marie.'"

And, as the picture ends, leaving you with a heart filled with love and happiness, the curtain closes as the last notes of "Rose Marie" are heard.

Carlos follows out this action perfectly.

There is a pause for just a second—then—a good lively exit number, and you leave the theatre with a feeling of happiness and contentment, rested and cheerful because your evening has been one of perfect entertainment.

At finish:

"And that is that, folks, from 'Cash and Carry.' Carlos and I hope that through our little sketch we have really brought the importance of screen entertainment and music to you, in a small way—some of it sense, and some of it non-sense. This is a frolic, you know, and our part in life is to be happy and try to make others happy. Hence, the first and lighter part of our program. But we sincerely hope that you were also impressed with the music of "Rose Marie," and the manner in which action on the screen may be perfectly fitted with music and the importance of this part of our program to you, daily, in our Sterling theatre.

"I am now turning the microphone back to the station announcer, until next Friday evening, when 'Cash and Carry' will be with you again. 'Cash and Carry' bid you good night, and pleasant dreams."

The organist must work with head phones from the amplifier in order to catch all talking and work perfectly.

It may be that there might be a little criticism on the first part of our stunt, due to the fact that there might be too much non-sense and comedy, and not enough real constructive and instructive material on the point of actual cuing of pictures.

As an explanation, I might add that our programs are put out each Friday night as "Midnight Frolics," and in our particular case it was necessary to have this in the program in order to have it in keeping with the spirit of the thing.

On a more serious program, this thing could be worked out on a really large scale, I believe, and perhaps in the form of a story of the feature, or play, interpreted with music.

I believe that we managed to get a real message over on this one—and at least we had any number of comments on it, both locally and from many surrounding cities and states.

Personally, I would not suggest that anyone try it until they have done quite a little work over the "mike," and are really accustomed to it. If it is done, it must be done as naturally as if you were talking to a single person within the room, and this cannot be done, usually, in the first attempt over the "mike."

Then, too, the quality of the voice, the distance from the "mike," and the volume of both organ and voice should be carefully tested and tried before such an attempt is made.

This can be practiced and heard at the station, without being sent out over the air, and should be done several times before such an attempt is made.

ROXY now uses 6 BRANDTS

"Roxy" (S. L. Rothafel) knows how to attract the crowds. Here they are trying to get into the new Roxy Theatre on Monday, April 18th. Roxy knows how to handle them, too. He says, "first contact with the house is by way of the Cashier; therefore, how important it is that the first point of impression convey all the management desires in the way of courtesy and service." That's why there are six Brandts in Roxy's box office. His cashiers press-one-key-only—corresponding to the ticket price—automatically, in less than a second—the Brandt delivers the correct change direct to the patron.

Press ONE KEY — Pays Right Change INSTANTLY

The New THEATRE MODEL Brandt Junior Automatic Cashier

With the Subtracting Keyboard

Over 40,000 Users

Sold Direct not through dealers

Use the coupon

30 Days FREE Trial

Brandt Automatic Cashier Co., Department O, Watertown, Wis.

Please place with us on Thirty Days Free Trial your Brandt Automatic Cashier. It is of course understood that we can return it as we accept the trial without charge [illegible] or expense. Please check whether used on [ ] right or [ ] left side of the Box Office.

Firm Name .....

Individual .....

City ..... State .....

Manager Calls on Former Stage Experience in Staging Presentations with Pictures

A theatre manager for only two years, Earl Wellman, of the Madison theatre at 300 Genesee street, Rochester, one of the most pretentious neighborhood houses in this part of the state, has blazed a trail of inititative effort that won him considerable praise as a showman and an interpreter of the public's wishes.

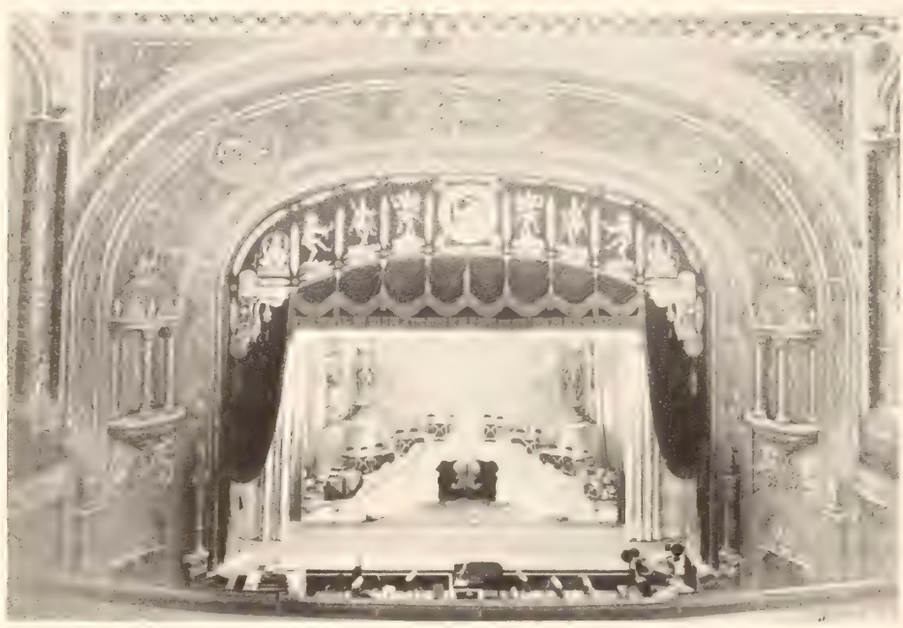
For many years Wellman trod the stage boards in theatres from coast to coast, in vaudeville and presentations, as a blackface comedian. During that time he made a careful study of the business from all possible angles.

The net result was that when he took charge of the Madison theatre, he did not limit his activities to the confines of the manager's office, but became a producer for his own house, conceiving stageband presentations at a negligible cost and, what's more, making a personal appearance in them.

So successful did this venture prove that Mr. Wellman was asked for a statement and he complied with the following:

"Upon assuming the duties as manager of the Madison theatre, Rochester's largest community house, I immediately made a survey of the patrons and their likes and dislikes. It appeared at that time that they were beginning to look for something different. A novelty, as it were. Rather than go astray and feature a gift night, or some other unprofessional bait, I conceived the idea of presenting a stageband show.

"This type of show never before had been attempted in Rochester. After carefully staged auditions, a popular and good orchestra was selected. The first show was written and rehearsed without a hitch. The orchestra consisted of seven pieces—piano, two saxes, tuba, trumpet, banjo and drums. Most of the musicians were capable of doubling on some other instrument. Scenery and costumes were selected which were appropriate to the act's title, 'Collegiate.'



"The total cost of the production was below $30, since the scenery and costumes were rented with the understanding that similar rentals would be made for a period of about ten weeks. Titles, music, scenery and costumes were changed weekly and the patrons did not fail to tell their friends, for the box office receipts began climbing. This added feature made new friends for the theatre and now that the stageband show is off for a little vacation, they still patronize the movies.

"Unknown to the patrons, I appeared in blackface makeup as master of ceremonies and band-leader. Between numbers, up-to-date gags were worked and the ensuing numbers announced either in a comic or straight way. Occasionally, a clever dancer, male or female, was spotted between orchestra and vocal selections.

"It is my belief that it's much wiser to use this form of added attraction in preference to vaudeville, because it is impossible to get enough good acts for the amount the average community house can afford."

Mr. Wellman also has some emphatic opinions on the style combining pictures and divertissements.

"Rochester," he continued, "is hard hit with the double feature curse. The average style of picture program that was used during our stageband presentations was: Society love theme, mystery and news or cartoon, or society love theme, comedy drama and news of cartoon. The stageband presentation was always scheduled to go on between shows. This gave them two appearances out of three full picture shows.

Loew's New Syracuse Theatre
Thomas W. Lamb, Architect

Another Leading Theatre Equipped By Peter Clark

Peter Clark continues the record of equipping the leading theatres throughout the country. Loew's New Syracuse is another added to the long list.

Complete stage equipment, including counterweight system and curtain equipment; two stage presentation lifts and platforms; orchestra, organ console and piano lifts were installed by Peter Clark in this theatre.

There is a difference in stage equipment—superiority in design and quality of construction sets Peter Clark installations apart.

Peter Clark, Inc.

544 West 30th Street New York City

Backed by a quarter century of experience in building stage rigging and equipment.

Serve Coffee in Lobby at Theatre Showing "Simba"

Patrons of the Grand Opera House, Cincinnati, were treated to physical as well as mental stimulation during the showing of "Simba," the Johnson animal picture which was exhibited at that house recently under auspices of the local Zoological Gardens. A corner of the lobby was converted into a coffee booth from which this beverage was dispensed to all patrons who cared to avail themselves of the opportunity.

NEW MODEL M SIMPLEX NOW READY FOR DELIVERY

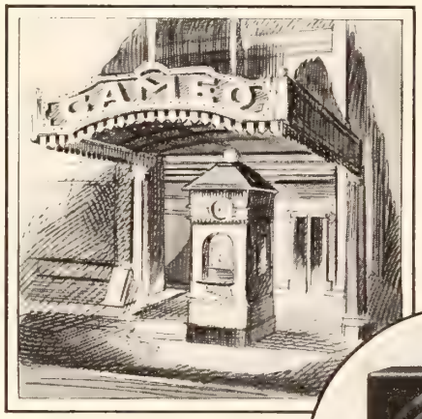
SPECIAL MODEL M SIMPLEX FOR MOVIETONE

WILL BE SUPPLIED WHEN SPECIFIED

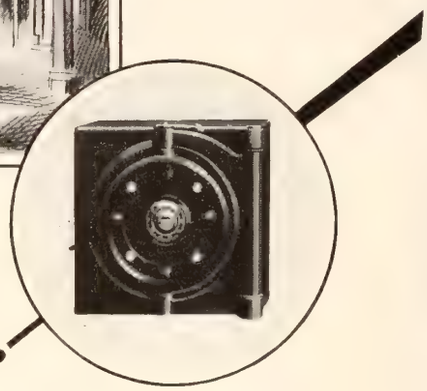
INTERNATIONAL PROJECTOR CORPORATION

90 GOLD STREET, NEW YORK

How Can Distributors Improve Window Display Material?



(Continued from page 1855)



plays featuring motion pictures. The ideas employed to obtain the display in thle first place, and the method of presenting it in such fashion that the window will have attraction value and produce results mutually beneficial to theatre box office and the merchant's cash register, are pretty generally covered. There is the book display for "Glorious Betsy," the shoe store tie-up through a title for "The Patent Leather Kid," the flash attractor using a cutout from the 24-sheet on "The Heart of a Follies Girl," the costume idea displaying the original or exact duplicate of a feminine star in the picture advertised, and the music store tie-ups.

It is difficult under the circumstances which prevail for a distributor to supply material that is "ready made" for window display. The national tie-ups through music or book stores, or even on merchandise are widely used by exhibitors, but each display is an individual job, devised by the theatre manager or the merchant himself. Special still boards, hand lettered and with scene or star portraits mounted on them, are extensively used. Cutouts from the large posters and the smaller bills, or even figures cut out from scene stills are another attractive feature.

Like all the other items of exploitation, window display to be successful requires first an idea—some little slant that makes it appealing to the merchant and attracts the attention and arouses the interest of the public.

But while the ideal results will, perhaps, be left up to the exhibitor to accomplish in window display, the companies could and should improve their window material. The companies, or at least some of them, are now working on ideas to improve the window accessories. William Ferguson, head of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exploitation department, may soon introduce a specially prepared accessory conforming to the modern style of display card or picture widely used by merchants in displays for other lines of merchandise. However, the exhibitors themselves can help along greatly in finding a solution to the problem, by sending along their ideas on what sort of material, based on their experience in working in co-operation with local merchants, is most likely to prove generally acceptable to the merchant and productive of box office results for the theatre.

Put SAFETY in your Box Office.

SAFETY in your Box Office as well as in your bank is essential in these days of daring holdups and safe-cracking activities.

The unprotected receipts of your evening's performance is a lure for outlaws. Protect yourself and your business by means of similar security to that used by your bank—the York Safe.

There's a York Burglary Chest made especially for theatres—scientifically designed to meet theatre requirements.

Write today for complete information

York Safe and Lock Company

Factory and Principal Office: York, Pa.

New York	Chicago	Tampa	San Francisco
Baltimore	Philadelphia	Los Angeles	New Haven
Boston	Seattle	Cleveland	Detroit
Houston	Washington	St. Louis

Why Dry Moving Air Makes Theatres Cool

ANSWERING an oft-repeated question the Arctic Nu-Air Corporation offers interesting data on their ventilating and cooling system. Many exhibitors ask, "Why does your blower, introducing a large volume of outside air, keep the people in a theatre more comforable during hot weather?"

The answer is shown on this instrument, known as a Hygrometer.

It is simply a pair of ordinary, but very accurate, thermometers, one having a wick fastened around the bulb. When this wick is moistened the temperature shown by this "wet bulb" thermometer is approximately the temperature felt by people sitting in that same atmosphere.

The human body in summer is usually moist with perspiration, just as the wick of this instrument is moist. The dry air, moving over human bodies and over this wick, causes the moisture to evaporate, and this evaporation causes cooling.

So it is easy to see the comparison between this moist thermometer bulb and the moist human bodies, and to see that what causes evaporation and cooling of the thermometer will act in a somewhat similar manner on the human body.

The illustration shows how this instrument would look on a fairly warm day—temperature of the dry bulb reading higher than the wet bulb.

HARMONY or DISCORD?

You know that the measure in which your audiences enjoy your presentations is the measure of their future patronage. Just so does the manner in which your lighting is synchronized with your music govern the harmony or discord of your musical selections. ¶ Proper coordination of Light and Music has more than mere entertainment value. Tests prove that it has a definite box-office value, as well. ¶ The vibrant, majestic chords of the organ . . . the fanfare of brass . . . the softer tones of the woodwinds and strings . . . all of these produce tangible reactions in your audiences. And each has its own counterpart in Light, the most versatile medium for the expression of the spirit of music. ¶ The art of coordinating light and music has been pioneered and developed to a fine degree by the engineers of the Edison Lighting Institute at Harrison, N. J. Here are modern and complete facilities for research and demonstration. And here is a new service that will prove increasingly valuable to the motion picture industry. Progressive theatre owners are already profiting through its use. For it is the new order of the day in modern showmanship!

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

GENERAL ELECTRIC

Sibley G. Pease
Says:

SIBLEY G. PEASE
322 SOUTH MILTON AVENUE
LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

Feb. 13th, 1928.

D. Appleton and Co.,
35 W. 32nd St.,
New York.

Organ Music Dep't.

Gentlemen:

A couple of yearr ago I purchased your volume "Standard Organ Pieces the Whole World Plays" and just thought I would tell you what a fine library of good organ music is really is.

'Tis true I have many of the selections in sheet form, but of over 100 organ collections I have, this finds more use. Many of the selections which I did not happen to have I have used in my Sunday recitals at the Elks Temple, now numbering ninety one without repeating a number. Then, I broadcast three times weekly at Angelus Temple and always have this book in my bag for most of the phone requests can be granted from it. Also, as Organist of St. James Episcopal Church I find it useful.

Just thought I would pass this information along in the hope that the book can be sold to those just starting the organ profession as well as to some of the older ones in the game.

The Editor, Albert E. Wier, shows exceptional judgment and practical taste in his work - rare qualities indeed.

With best wishes, I am very sincerely

Sibley G. Pease

A collection of 114 standard, classic, modern, sacred, operatic, march and characteristic pieces arranged for pipe organ, employing three staves, the pedal bass being on a separate line. It is without question the most complete collection of organ music ever published, supplying every possible need for concert, moving-picture, church or home playing Price $3.00 in substantial paper binding—$5.00 in green cloth binding.

This Schubert Album Valuable to Theatre Organists

This year (1928) is the centenary of Schubert's death, and a volume of Schubert's compositions will be valuable to every organist. Contains 10 piano works, 10 song transcriptions, 3 symphonic excerpts, 6 dance numbers and 2 operatic selections. Arranged for piano solo, but easily used for organ. Descriptive circular with complete contents sent on request.

PRICE, $1.50

These collections can be had at all music stores, or from the publishers

D. APPLETON & COMPANY

35 W. 32nd St.
New York City

Color Lighting as Aid to Musical Program

(Continued from page 1863)

the events which took place during the Napoleonic campaign of 1812, when fresh from their other victories, the French forces subjected Moscow to a severe bombardment, taking the citadel of the city. During the night the Russians set fire to the town, rose to arms and succeeded in driving Napoleon from the scene.

The descriptive music opens with peace resting over the city of Moscow. The usual color accompaniment of the sunset seems appropriate, changing into the blue green of moonlight. As night comes on the people retire to their homes after having sung the Russian hymn, "God Preserve Thy People." Here a somewhat low intensity of yellow might symbolize the lighting in the open squares during the community chorus, fading into a low intensity of blue as the song ends. The spirit of the music suddenly changes and the French troops are heard approaching with snatches of the "Marseillaise" and the booming of cannon. Here the semi-darkness is broken by flashes of yellow as would result from the distant cannon. The music grows more and more furious, the drums beat and the trumpets blare. The scene gradually becomes red with more vivid flashes of yellow. Then as the city burns the red becomes more and more intense, gradually dying out as the battle terminates. The sky clears again and we return to the blue green of the moonlight.

Overture "Tannhauser"

Pilgrims chorus—Deep blue rising in value as motive becomes more pronounced.
Venusburg motive—Pinkish lavender from below washing out the blue for the pilgrims chorus as the music overpowers the latter.
Hymn to Venus—Brilliant red.
Elizabeth motive—Vertical shaft of white on the colored background.
At end reverse procedure of opening harmonizing with the predominance of the "leit motifs" ending with brilliant blue touched with pure white.

It is recognized that the public as yet does not have a universal appreciation of the possibilities of the combination of color and music, and the motion picture house can do a remarkable educational work. It is suggested that in the program be printed a brief outline of the fundamental principles on which this coordination is based. This should be followed by a brief description of the musical numbers which are to be played, accompanied by color. And, finally, a synopsis of the colors which will be used with the various themes, motives, or sections such as outlined above. In this manner the audience will become interested in the undertaking, will appreciate the music, will enjoy the effect and the theatre will build up a reputation for novelty and progressiveness.

If You Have Not Tried

ELECTRA

CARBONS

There Is Pleasure in Store for You

HUGO REISINGER
11 BROADWAY NEW YORK

Every Month
Features that Interest

Theatre Executives and Managers Assure Reader Interest in

THE SHOWMAN

When You Flash This on your screen It Makes a BIG HIT!

Your patrons can tell, the moment they enter your theatre, whether or not you have a modern ventilating system. If the atmosphere is stuffy and close, they will hesitate a long time before again giving you their patronage. But—provide for them, and tell them about, the efficient system of Lakeside ventilation that creates and maintains a cool, comfortable atmosphere through every minute of the performance, and you may be sure of a steady stream of business.

Aggressive Houses Are Changing to This Modern Method of Ventilation

Theatres throughout the country find that Lakeside Ventilators assure the best equipment available today. Their tremendous power, quiet operation, and easy installation mean the utmost in service with practically no up-keep. Then, too, a Lakeside costs much less than many of the complicated cooling and ventilating systems on the market. You take no chances with Lakeside Equipment, because it is backed by a reliable guarantee. It must "make good" in actual service.

Empty Seats Pay No Profits

Competition is keen. Your theatre must be modernized in every way. You need an efficient ventilating system, and the Lakeside has been approved by ventilating engineers throughout the United States. Lakeside Ventilators are made in different sizes to meet every requirement and, if you will let us know the size, capacity, etc., of your theatre, we will be glad to submit suggestions and quotations without obligation to you. Write today for information.

LAKESIDE COMPANY, 225 Main Street, Hermansville, Michigan

VENTILATING IXL SYSTEM

Lakeside Electric VENTILATOR

Remodeling—Renovating?

The entire atmosphere of your theatre can be changed by the effectiveness of your stage.

Vallen Noiseless Curtain Controls and Noiseless All-Steel Tracks provide, not brilliancy, but refinement of presentation which,—after all, is the nucleus of all profit!

Any curtain can be started, stopped or reversed by the mere pressing of ONE button

Vallen High Speed Curtain Control

Vallen Junior Curtain Control

Vallen Noiseless All-Steel Track

VALLEN GUARANTEE, VALLEN SERVICE!
YOU KNOW WHAT THEY MEAN TO YOU!

VALLEN ELECTRICAL COMPANY

Have you received your "Quiet Book?" It's Different.

VALLEN
REMOTE ELECTRIC CURTAIN CONTROL EQUIPMENT

225 Bluff St.
Akron, Ohio
U. S. A.

Standard
VAUDEVILLE
for
Motion Picture Presentation

THE FALLY MARKUS AGENCY
Astor Theatre Building
N. W. Cor. 45th St. & Broadway
Lackawanna 7876

RADIO-MAT
RADIO-MAT SLIDE CO. NEW YORK
TALK from your screen
WITH your quickly
TYPEWRITTEN MESSAGES.
WHITE, AMBER or GREEN.
Accept no substitute.
IS THE STATIONERY OF THE SCREEN

Mazda Spotlight Controlled by Remote Switch

(Continued from page 1869)

schemes during overtures, and for flood-lighting the orchestra.

The Kliegl spotlight is designed for use with a 1000-watt G 40 or a 2000-watt G 48 concentrated filament lamp. It projects a brilliant spot of light any distance up to 100 ft. and when used for flood-lighting gives a wide-spread. The mogul-screw-base receptacle is mounted on a sliding base with an extension wing nut for focusing. A concave mirrored-glass reflector is mounted back of the lamp utilizing all the available candle power of the lamp. The housing is of aluminum and rustless iron. The top of the housing is hinged and permits access to the interior for changing lamps. The front is fitted with a 6-inch condensing lens, mounted on an aluminum frame and held in place with a split ring, allowing unrestricted expansion.

The color-frame-control-magnets are mounted in a casing on the side of the spotlight. They are of the plunger type, and actuate concentric shafts which extend along the side of the spotlight. At the extreme end of each shaft a color frame is attached. A separate magnet controls each color frame. Springs hold the color frames back out of position in front of the lens, but when current flows in one of the magnets, the plunger is drawn down, and the color frame is thrown into position in front of the lens where it remains as long as current flows in the magnet. Upon opening the circuit the retrieve spring throws the color frame out of position.

The color frames are light, circular, metal frames made in two sections and provided with spring clasps. To insert or replace gelatin color filters, is simply a matter of removing the clips and inserting the gelatin between the two sections, trimming to size and replacing the clips. Guard wires protect the gelatin.

The spotlight is balanced, and mounted on a pivot bearing which permits it to be adjusted to any angle desired.

Offers Novel Overture With "Laugh Clown Laugh"

William Haynes arranged an unusual and impressive overture for "Laugh, Clown, Laugh" at the Allen theatre last week. Taking the chorus of "Among my Souvenirs" as the theme, he had Director Myron Roman arrange an overture presenting this theme as six of the leading composers might have done it. The six were Richard Strauss, Mozart, Beethoven, Johann Strauss, Wagner and Paul Whiteman. Each won great applause from the audience. The orchestra followed with the song "Laugh, Clown, Laugh."

UNIFORMS FOR HOUSE ATTACHES COSTUMES FOR STAGE PRESENTATIONS BROOKS 1437 B'way N. Y. City

Stand of Iron filled with Artificial Flowers, drooping vines and Natural Prepared Ferns.

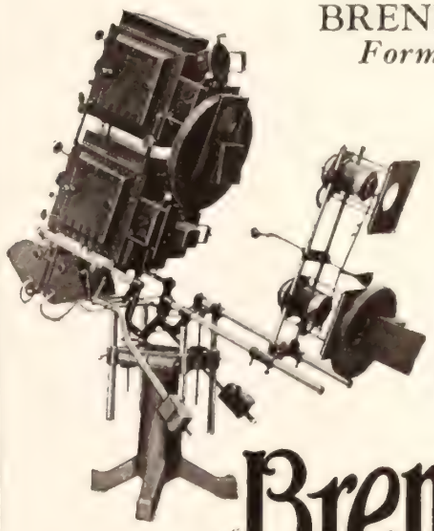
Kentia Plant and pot with removable leaves from 4 to 8 feet high.

Write for

Illustrated Catalogue No. 7

in Colors of Artificial Flowers, Plants, Vines, Trees, etc.

Mailed Free on Request



FRANK NETSCHERT, Inc.

61 Barclay St. New York, N. Y.

PRICE REDUCED

On the Remarkable

BRENKERT F-3
Formerly $575

Now $460

F-3 universally known combination effect projector at $460 is a sensational value. Why use makeshifts when this remarkable effect device is obtainable at such a low price?

Brenkert

Brenkert Light Projection Co.
St. Aubin at E. Grand Blvd., Detroit, Mich.

Features that go to the Heart of the Showman's Problems Every Month in The Showman

The Proper Control of Light On Your Screen

Picture films vary as well as current conditions. Your projectionist can adjust his arc current to always give you a clear, bright picture if you equip with PERFECTION. Current saving also is a result of PERFECTION equipment, for he need not use full current till the actual projection is started.

PERFECTION
RHEOSTATS RHEOSTATS

FOR PERFECT PROJECTION USE REMOTE CONTROL RHEOSTATS

USED BY ALL THE LEADING THEATRES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY

Sold by Your Theatre Supply Dealers

HOFFMANN & SOONS
Mfg. Division
387 First Avenue New York City

Contracting Electrical Engineers—Moving Picture Theatre Electrical Specialists

Marvelous Effects Obtained With

THE GALLAGHER MOBILE STAGE ORCHESTRA LIFT

Individual platforms that raise and lower
Entire stage moves forward and back
All under instant control of the Leader
No Tracks on stage floor

Can Be Installed Between Performances

Complete particulars on request

Write now

GALLAGHER ORCHESTRA EQUIPMENT CO.
616 Elm Street, Chicago, Ill.

West Coast Office—1487 W. Washington Boulevard, Los Angeles, Calif.

McGuire Talks on Better Projection at Meeting of A. M. P. A.

ONE of the greatest advances made in motion picture projectors in recent years has been the labor-saving devices which give the projectionist more time and more opportunity to control the presentation of a picture, Mr. P. A. McGuire, director of publicity of the International Projector Corporation, told members of the A. M. P. A. at the meeting of that organization held May 17 at the Cafe Boulevard, New York City.

Mr. McGuire was the chief speaker at the meeting and in the course of an address concerning the development of motion picture projection, he traced the history of the design of such apparatus from the early days up to the present.

Speaking of the production problems which face the projector manufacturer, Mr. McGuire said:

"Manufacturers of projectors are severely handicapped by low production basis and this is largely due to the fact that many theatre owners are unwilling to purchase new equipment until absolutely forced to do so. Even in the repairs and replacements, many large theatre owners who are liberal in other ways are extremely economical when it comes to the projection department.

"While, of course, there has been a constant effort to improve projection and tremendous strides have been made in this direction, comparatively few realize the consequences of poorly projected pictures. If the projection is not too bad and there is no outright criticism on the part of the patron, the theatre owner concentrates his attention upon other matters which he regards as more important.

"One of the greatest mistakes this industry has made is to believe that projection is purely mechanical and to fail to realize that the projectionist must be a highly skilled specialist. No matter how skillful or conscientious the projectionist may be, he cannot be expected to give the best possible results, with defective equipment. There are many things responsible for poor projection but is seldom any good excuse for inferior screen presentation."

WHEN there are many claiming the title of "finest lighting control system" it is well to look into the matter of who buys it and where it is installed. The (FA) Major System has, by a wide margin, been installed in more theaters, from the largest to the smallest, than all other types put together. This leadership is not chance, but practical worth. You will be convinced if you investigate. Details and estimates free, of course.

MAJOR FA SYSTEM

Simple Safe
Selective

Remote Control of Lighting

Send for details

Frank Adam
ELECTRIC COMPANY
ST. LOUIS
Offices in Thirty Cities

Say it in Flashes
with Reco Flashers

Douglas Fairbanks gets over big because he puts action in his pictures. Your electric sign will get your name over with a far greater number of people if stirred to action by a Reco Flasher. Saves its cost in current saving.

REYNOLDS ELECTRIC COMPANY
2628 W. Congress St.
Chicago

Also Reco Color Hoods, Traffic Controls, Signboard Reflectors, Food Mixers, Vegetable Peelers, etc.

EXHIBITORS! CONVERT YOUR HAND-PLAYED ORGAN to double-traker 88 note type at nominal cost.

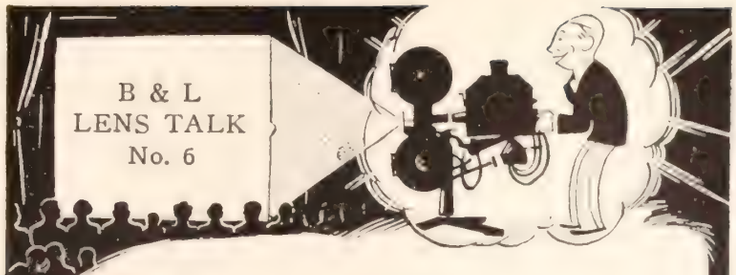
There are today more hand-played organs being converted to double-tracker roll types using picturolls than at any other time in the history of the industry.

Write the following for complete details:



W. C. RADEBAUGH & CO.
HAVANA, ILLINOIS

MICHIGAN PIPE ORGAN SERVICE CO.
2800 FRANCIS ST.
JACKSON, MICHIGAN

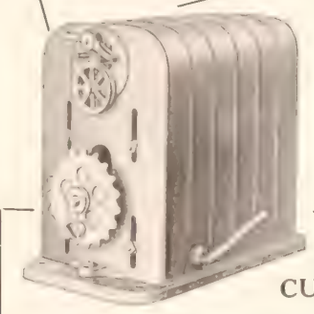
For complete lists of Filmusic Organ Picturolls, write:

FILMUSIC COMPANY,
6701-13 Santa Monica Blvd.
Hollywood, California

SAVING OF $30.00 to $50.00 a week GUARANTEED

B & L
LENS TALK
No. 6

Lens Follies



No article of manufacture lends itself more readily to the salesman's enthusiasm for "talking points" than a lens. To this fact must be ascribed the claims made for this lens or that, many of them too mystifying for words, others so obviously impossible as to serve only to give him who knows a laugh.

To the latter class belongs the claim for superiority in respect to stereoscopic effect and for depth of focus. Stereoscopy absolutely requires one picture for one eye and another for the other eye. Depth of focus depends upon the speed decreasing with increasing speed. To claim high speed giving high illumination, and extraordinary depth of focus on the same lens is one of the perennial jokes of the lens business.

Cinephore Lenses aim to reproduce on the screen with the utmost fidelity the picture which the director, the camera man, and the actors labored hard to put on the film. For the projection lens to aim at any other end is to defeat their efforts and would constitute a ridiculous effort to transfer the making of the picture from the studio to the motion picture theatre.

BAUSCH & LOMB OPTICAL COMPANY
653 St. Paul St. ROCHESTER, N. Y.

The BENSON THEATRE in BROOKLYN, N. Y., has operated its curtains by A. D. C. AUTOMATIC CURTAIN CONTROL and ROLL E-Z TRACKS for the past six years.

"SATISFIED USERS SPELL SUCCESS"

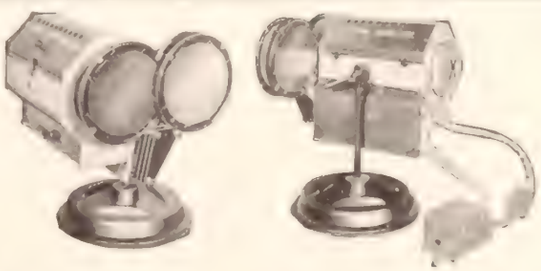
FOR PERFECT CURTAIN MOVEMENTS

A. D. C. AUTOMATIC CURTAIN CONTROL
AND
ROLL E-Z TRACKS

AUTOMATIC DEVICES CO.
739 HAMILTON ST. ALLENTOWN, PA.
Also manufacturers of the STABILARC MOTOR GENERATOR

EVENHEETERS
FOR SUMMER USE TOO

EVEN in the hot summer the organ needs protection for dampness harms the instrument then as coldness does in winter. Dampness causes the organ to deteriorate, and that means that maintenance is necessary.



That's why Architects all over the country are specifying Evenheeters in their organ equipment. They have found a way to lower maintenance expense, and to guarantee longer and more perfect organ life.

Join this list of Architects that specify Evenheeters. May we send some Evenheeter particulars?

Eberson & Eberson, Rapp & Rapp and Walter Ahlschlager all specify Evenheeters in their organ chamber equipment. Why not you!

CRAMBLET ENG. CORP.
286 MILWAUKEE ST. MILWAUKEE

REMOTE CONTROL
Kliegl Spotlight

COMPLETE and entire operation of Mazda type Kliegl Spotlights—including the control of four color frames—can now be accomplished from any desired point. The Spotlight itself may be located wherever requirements dictate—frequently in concealed and inaccessible places—and the electric control may be positioned wherever it is most convenient for the operator. A group of Spotlights can be simultaneously operated just as easily as one. Write for full details.

KLIEGL BROS
UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC STAGE LIGHTING CO., INC.
321 WEST 50th STREET
NEW YORK, N.Y.

—tickets always cut TRUE!

The millionth ticket that your Gold Seal Register issues will be cut in precisely the right spot, the same as the first one. An automatic adjustment compensates for any wear in the ticket wheel so that the ticket cutting never can get out of true.

GOLD SEAL
Ticket Registers and "Tickets That Fit"

Gold Seal Register users are never annoyed with the bother of having tickets inaccurately cut, which, of course, renders exact accounting impossible. This is just one point of Gold Seal superiority over old style registers, and there are many others. Sealed-in lubrication eliminates the need of attention. A master lock enables you to protect your register against tampering in your absence. Bronze bushings on all driving shafts, case-hardened wearing surfaces, rust-proofed steel, etc., make for longer and more satisfactory service. From every standpoint, the Gold Seal is the one best ticket register.

Our Reserved Seat Ticket Plants in Boston and New York Can Save You Money. Get Our Estimates.

GOLD SEAL — USED WHEREVER AUTOMATIC TICKET SYSTEM TICKETS ARE SOLD — THE MARK OF PERFECTION

AUTOMATIC Ticket Register Corporation

723 Seventh Ave., New York

Independent Printers of Quality Tickets for Every Purpose.

STOCK PROGRAMS
PROGRAM COVERS
For
Moving Picture Houses
Joseph Hoover & Sons Company
Market and 49th Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

The Theatre Building Business Map

in this issue gives you the real facts about new construction and an accurate line on the Box Office Performance of recent releases

Index of Advertisers and Information Request Blank

The following list of advertisers in the June Showman has been prepared for the convenience of readers and, while compiled with the greatest of care to make it correct, it cannot be guaranteed against possible errors or omissions.

Adam Electric Co., Frank....1882
American Seating Co. 1860
Appleton, D. & Co. 1878
Arctic Nu-Air Corp. 1859
Automatic Devices Co. 1883
Automatic Ticket Register Corp. 1884

Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. ... 1883
Brandt Automatic Cashier Co. 1873
Brenkert Light Projection Co. 1881
Brooks Costume Co. 1880

Carrier Engineering Corp. ... 1862
Clark, Inc., Peter 1874
Cramblet Engineering Corp. .. 1883
Cutler-Hammer Mfg. Co. 1872

Derby Press, The 1885

Edison Lamp Works of General Electric Co. 1877

Filmusic Co. 1882
Fulton Co., E. E. 1864

Gallagher Orchestra Equip. Co. 1881

Hart Mfg. Co., The..... 1866
Hertner Electric Co., The 1885
Heywood-Wakefield Co. 1852-53
Hoffman & Soons 1881
Hoover & Sons Co., Joseph.... 1884

International Projector Corp. .. 1875

Kliegl Bros. Universal Electric Stage Lighting Co. 1883

Lakeside Co. 1879

Markus Agency, The Fally ... 1880
National Screen Service 1885
National Theatre Supply Co. .. 1868
Netschert, Inc., Frank 1881

Radio Mat Slide Co. 1880
Reisinger, Hugo 1878
Reynolds Electric Co. 1882
Rockbestos Product Corp. 1844

Theatre Ad Mat Service, Inc. .. 1885
Typhoon Fan Co. 1885

Vallen Electric Co. 1880

York Ice Machinery Corp. ... 1870
York Safe & Lock Co. 1876

INFORMATION REQUEST BLANK

Showman Service Bureau
Motion Picture News
729 Seventh Ave.
New York City

Please obtain for me without obligation additional information in connection with the advertisements or articles appearing in the June issue of The Showman.

.....

.....

(insert above name of advertiser or title of article)

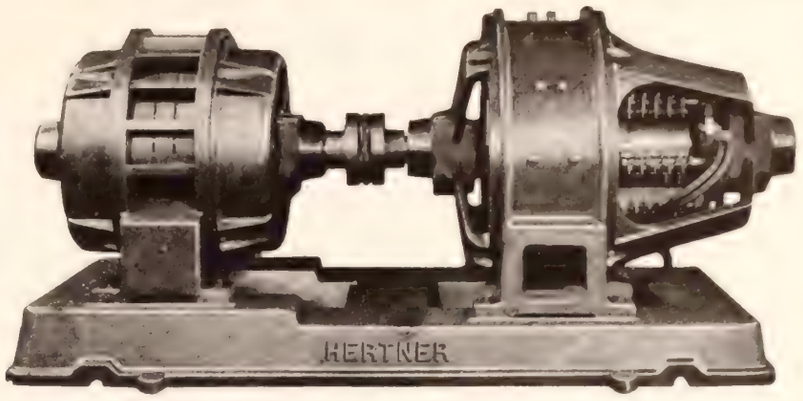
Name.....

Theatre .....

Street.....

City & State.....

A BUSINESS BOOSTER



for your theatre

A Beautiful, 2-color Program, all Features written up for you, Printed and Delivered to your theatre at a small cost.

Write for Samples and Prices to

THE DERBY PROGRAM CO.

1799 Jerome Ave. New York City
2015 So. Vermont Ave. Los Angeles, Calif.

AS SIMPLE AS TWO AND TWO MAKE FOUR

Good projection with good pictures means more money at the Box Office.

The TRANSVERTER

will enable your projectionist to give better results because it enables him to give his entire time and attention to his projection work.

The Transverter saves current and saves time through its more constant control.

Ask for our latest literature. You will be convinced that "If you show pictures you need the Transverter."

Distributed in U. S. A. by The National Theatre Supply Co.

THE HERTNER ELECTRIC COMPANY

1900 W. 112th St. TransVerteR CLEVELAND, OHIO, U. S. A.

Peppy breezes in your lobby to greet people coming in—

Gentle breezes--cool and refreshing--inside your house—

That's the way to pull big business all summer—every summer.

It isn't the breeze alone that makes Typhoon a winner. It's the tremendous volume of pure, fresh air from outdoors—a complete change once every minute—that gets rid of the enormous amount of heat and humidity given off by the audience. You know wall fans won't cool your house—nor will anything else that gives you just a breeze.

The one-minute air change—AND the breeze besides: That's what does the trick.

Quick action—NOW. Get our Booklet N-5

TYPHOON FAN COMPANY

345 W. 39th Street New York, N. Y.

Offices in Principal Cities

Watch For Your Copy of

Theatre Building & Equipment

Buyers Guide

Featuring Theatres Designed By

Thomas W. Lamb, Architect

12 pages of colored reproductions of theatres; also a 16 page photographic review of theatres and a special story by Thomas W. Lamb treating on theatre design and construction and in addition a complete buyers index for all types of theatre equipment and accessories.

Published By

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

The Fields Best Advertising Medium

Other Talkie Development

(Continued from page 1839)

Street theatre and generally released in the first block of pictures Paramount will offer for the new season. This picture, from which was expected so much, is said to be grossing not much more than the rental of the theatre in which it is playing since the opening. It is thought, says the News authority, that the endowment of sound will make it a more attractive buy for the exhibitor.

The many different versions of "The Wedding March" which have been made can mean nothing but that the company is on the anxious seat as to how it will release this newest Stroheim effort. Though first announcements by the company classified it as a road show it has been noticed that later publicity material does not mention in which category this picture is now regarded. Therefore, credence is lent to the idea that this picture, too, will have a musical accompaniment.

Analyzing this information it becomes apparent that Paramount will use the Vitaphone method of synchronization for "Abie," "The Wedding March" and those other pictures now completed with which it is believed there will be sound effects and music. To use its own Movietone device would necessitate the remaking of the negative due to the system called for in recording Movietone subjects.

Insofar as Paramount News is concerned it is believed that its sound accompaniment will follow the system which uses sound effects only when the occasion warrants, such as the speech of a world renowned figure, a parade, the flights of Lindbergh or other similar events which it would be worth-while recording for historical purposes.

Actual production with the new sound equipment cannot possibly be started within six to eight weeks, as the Paramount Astoria studio is now undergoing external reconstruction to accommodate the new stages and machines used in the production of Movietone subjects.

Furthermore, there has been no actual experimental work in recording at either the West or East Coast plants of the company. With construction completed and the equipment installed it will still be a matter of weeks before experiments and corrections in construction and equipment can be made.

Therefore, it is safe to predict that Paramount sound pictures will not go into production before late this summer.

Joy and Lorraine Talk on Sound Pictures

(Continued from page 1839)

portance she attaches to talking pictures, is reported to have recently rejected an offer from one of the leading phonograph organizations to make records of negro spirituals. Instead she will spend a month in intensified voice culture under Professor Toseonni in New York during her absence from Hollywood.

On the other hand Louise Lorraine says: "I feel perfectly fitted to meet the situation in the event that talking pictures become established. However, I believe it is only a vogue that cannot last.

Newest Developments in Companies' Sound Plans

"Love Song" United Artists' First Full-Scored; First National Installs Elocution Teacher

IN addition to the developments in their sound picture departments listed by Paramount and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer during the past week comes the news of the progress of plans for the talking pictures announced by United Artists, First National, and the Hal Roach organization, which releases through Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

United Artists this week announced as its first picture with sound accompaniment, "The Love Song," in which Lupe Valez will sing a theme song especially written for the picture by Irving Berlin. Sam Taylor is directing this picture at the United Artists studio in Los Angeles. According to the U. A. announcement this production will be Movie-toned with a full musical score. The singing of the theme song by Miss Valez will be the sound accompaniment highlight.

Ralph I. Poucher, assistant production manager for First National, in charge of that company's sound device, Firnatone, has arrived at Burbank, where he will confer on the company's sound policy with Clifford B. Hawley, First National president.

It is expected that First National will shortly commence the erection of soundproof stages on the Burbank lot to take care of the new type of production. In addition, First National will, in all probability, install a teacher of elocution to coach the young First National players in voice culture and control. Most of the First National stars and players, Sills, Murray, Mulhall, Billie Dove, etc., have had stage experience and therefore will not need the services of the elocution teacher, but some of the newer stellar lights and featured players have appeared only before the camera.

Following the announcement of last week that his company would incorporate sound with the new season's films, Hal Roach this week stated that installation of the necessary equipment will take place at his studio in the very near future. Patrons of the Roach comedies in the future will be able to hear the quish of a pie as it is thrown and the humorous gags will also be given voice instead of being screened in the form of subtitles.

Musicians Union in Arms

St. Louis Locals Seek Elimination of All Forms of Mechanical Music; Picketing Theatres

THE Musicians Union in St. Louis, Mo., is endeavoring to have local theatres and other amusement and recreational places eliminate all forms of mechanical music and to employ members of the musicians union. The first steps in this campaign were taken during the past few weeks.

The drive first came to public attention when members of the union began to pass out hand bills in front of the Senate, Astor and Rainbow theatres operated by C. Goldman and J. Leventhal calling to the attention of the public that these houses were using mechanical music equipment instead of orchestras composed of union musicians.

So extensively were these bills handed out in the vicinity of the theatres the sidewalks and streets became littered and the police arrested nine of the pickets. They were later discharged by Police Judge Roseean on the grounds they were not responsible for what happened to the handbills after they were given to passersby. The management of the theatres did not ask for the arrests and took no active part in the prosecution.

Published statements that several days prior to the arrests the theatres had dispensed with their union orchestras and substituted phonographs were not correct, it is stated. The fact is that the Senate has always used a mechanical organ since it was opened about two years ago, while the Rainbow and Astor installed mechanical organs about five years ago. The Rivoli theatre on Sixth street, near Olive street, also operated by Goldman and Leventhal, does not use any music. Several other of the lower-priced down-town theatres of St. Louis also use mechanical organs, but to date have not been picketed by the union.

Dodgers similar to those distributed in the vicinity of the Senate, Rainbow and Astor theatres are said to have been passed out near Westlake Park at the Natural Bridge and St. Charles roads in St. Louis county. This place is using an auditorium orthophonic phonograph for dance music. All records are made by union musicians.

A short time ago the musicians insisted that Skouras Brothers retain an orchestra at the Grand Central theatre, although that house plays only Vitaphone pictures and the services of a regular orchestra is not needed.

Messrs. Goldman and Leventhal feel there is no real issue between them and the musicians since they have been using the mechanical organs for years. They are willing to dispense with the organs provided they are protected on their investments in the equipment.

Operators employed by the Goldman-Leventhal theatres are members of the union and the theatres have always been fair to organized labor, it is stated.

Semi-Annual Golf Tournament Proves Big Success

MORE than 130 players turned out for the fourteenth semi-annual golf tournament held under the auspices of Film Daily at the Rockville, L. I., Country Club on May 24. There was a morning round, a putting contest at noon, an afternoon round and the dinner at night, all of which went to make the occasion a great success. The winners:

Low Net (Leg on Film Daily Cup and Stebbins, Leterman & Gates Trophy)—Jack Gottfreund.

Low Net Runner-up (Pathe Exchange Trophy)—M. Spiese.

Low Net Runner-up (J. P. Muller Agency Trophy)—Arthur W. Stebbins.

Low Gross (M. P. News Trophy)—Tom Moore.

Low Gross Runner-up (Al Ruben Trophy)—Jack Nolan.

Second Runner-up (Jules Brulatour Cup)—J. U. Richey, Jr.

Low Net Morning Round (National Theater Supply Trophy)—T. Da Costa.

Runner-up (Hedwig Laboratories Trophy) Mitchell May.

Low Gross Morning Round (Morning Telegraph Trophy)—William Rabell.

Runner-up (Wm. Massce Trophy)—Arthur Kliesrath.

Low Exhibitor Score (Jules Mastbaum Memorial Trophy)—Henry Brandt.

Runner-up (Eastman Kodak Trophy)—Lee Ochs.

Putting Trophy (Carl Laemmle Cup)—William Orr.

Runner-up (Gotham Prod. Cup)—Richard Brady.

Birdie Trophy (FBO Cup)—Al Ruben.

Runner-up (Dupont-Pathe Trophy)—Gerry Kayser.

Driving Trophy (Jack Cosman Cup)—Paul Burger.

Runner-up (Columbia Pictures Cup)—A. L. Pratchett.

Low Gross Advertising and Publicity men (Associated Publications Trophy)—Jerome Beatty.

Phil Orr of Metro won the Carl Laemmle trophy in the putting contest.

Dick Brady of Eastman Kodak Co. won the runner up prize in the putting contest which was the Gotham Prod. trophy.

Sunday Troubles Continue

Test Cases in Canada Started; York Exhibitor Fined; Permission to Exhibit Granted Brooklyn, Iowa

THE Sunday law agitation continues to cause trouble throughout this country and Canada. Test cases, instituted by the Government, have been launched against Canadian exhibitors, and a York, Pennsylvania, exhibitor was this week fined for Sunday showings.

The opening rounds have been fired in the Sunday show battle in the Province of Quebec by the issuing of summonses in behalf of Honorable L. A. Taschereau, Premier of Quebec, against two exhibitors of Quebec City and one in Montreal because of alleged contravention of the Canadian Federal statutes providing for Sunday observance. Announcement has been made that the present prosecutions are in the nature of test cases and Premier Taschereau declares that the actions will be taken to the Privy Council at London, the highest tribunal of the British Empire, if necessary.

The issue to be decided is whether the Quebec Provincial Government can enforce the Dominion law covering Sunday closing, or not. It is contended that, theatres having operated in Quebec centers on Sundays for the past 25 years, the law has automatically become obsolete and inoperative.

Another setback in the fight for the establishment of Sunday theatrical performances and other amusements in the City of York came on May 21 when Fred C. Bothwell, manager of the White Rose Amusement Park, in that city, was sentenced to pay fines aggregating $100 or spend 30 days in jail for violating the city's Sunday Blue Law. Bothwell, along with Ed. R. Moore, manager of the Hippodrome theatre, has taken a lead in fighting for a liberal Sunday in York with relation to amusements.

At Brooklyn, Iowa, the permission to show on Sundays was granted to the Broadway theatre there. The manager of the Broadway, M. A. Fauver, was given permission to show pictures on Sundays in Brooklyn for three months, after which time the permanent action on the measure will be taken.

Bairnsfather Picture Is Now Completed

Much interest was aroused in the report the other day that President E. P. Johnston, of Canadian International Films, Limited, Toronto, had secured an order at Osgoode Hall directing Capt. Bruce Bairnsfather, author and director of "Carry On, Sergeant," to hand over the continuity and negatives of 300 still photographs which, it was claimed, he was wrongfully withholding.

A statement has now been sent out by Col. W. F. Clarke, vice-president and general manager of the Canadian International, that the filming of the feature had been completed, 165,000 feet of celluloid having been used in the making of the picture, and that "Carry On, Sergeant" would be released for its first public showing during the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, which starts August 25. In this statement, Col. Clarke gives credit to Bainsfather for the story and for directing the production.

Hollywood Not Excited Over Talkies

(Continued from page 1840)

versed both in screen personality and voice being small. Furthermore, it is a well known fact that it is a hard matter to entice members of the New York colony away from Broadway, particularly when they are enjoying comfortable salaries. In New York, it would be possible for them to continue their positions at legitimate theatres and also devote spare time to talking picture production.

Commenting upon the R.C.A. Photophone, the use of which device by F B O was made possible by the affiliation with the Radio Corporation of America, Mr. Le Baron compared this sound machine and other devices of the past with the latest Victor orthophonic phonograph and the old cylinder records with their "morning-glory" horns. It is further claimed that the R.C.A. device can be used with any standard make of sound film on the market.

Joseph M. Schenck Will Attend G. O. P. Convention

As a delegate from the state of California, Joseph M. Schenck, president and chairman of the Board of Directors of United Artists, will attend the Republican National Convention at Kansas City. He is vice-chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of California.

Chicago Film Board to Try All Indiana Cases

AN agreement whereby the Chicago Film Board of Trade will try all Indiana cases on one day each month has been reached with the Indiana Association. Under the arrangement prominent Indiana theatre owners will go to Chicago and sit as arbitrators in cases in which the association members are interested. This is the first attempt to have an Indiana representative on the Chicago board. The new plan is proving popular with northern Indiana theatre owners who are served by the Chicago board.

V. U. Brown, an association director, has handled Indiana interests in Chicago the past year. Floyd Beitman former owner of the Tacoma took care of the Chicago arbitration in April under the new plan. D. B. Cockrill, owner of the Princess at Newcastle, in May and Billy Connors of Marion is scheduled to represent the Hoosier interests in June.

Indianapolis T.O.Assoc. Financially Sound

A FINANCIAL statement of the Associated Theatre Owners of Indiana issued in connection with a recent bulletin shows the association has no outstanding indebtedness and is in a healthy financial condition. The organizations accounting method whereby all expenditures and receipts must be accounted for to members has drawn favorable comment from other state exhibitor organizations. The association's semi-annual report reveals more than 200 individual problems are handled each week. The bulk of the matter is handled by Miss Helen Brown, secretary; legal questions are referred to Charles R. Metzger, president and attorney, and office details are taken care of by Miss Margaret Hudspeth who has been in charge of the office for the past year.

New Theatre Planned for North Attleboro

The New England Theatres Operating Corporation, Boston, independent theatre operating chain, has completed arrangements with Carl Canner, of Boston, for the erection of a new motion picture theatre on the site of the present North Attleboro post-office, which property is owned by Mr. Canner.

The architects, Frokyn, Browne and Rosenstein, have drawn all plans for the new theatre and work is to start on it immediately, with expectations of having it ready for opening by October 1.

The house, to be named "Netoco Community Theatre," is to be Colonial in style throughout. There are to be 1,800 seats, all on one floor, and Vitaphone and Movietone apparatus. The policy of the house will be pictures, vaudeville and tabloid presentations. Samuel Pinanski, president of the New England Theatres Operating Corporation, will supervise the erection of the building.

English Producers Secure German Picture Workers

Lupu Pick, German producer who is supervising Louis Blattner's new British production scheme, has signed Karl Freund, camera man. There has been considerable American competition to secure Freund's services.

Lilian Harvey, German star, has also been booked for Pick's Blattner Productions which will be released by Gaumont and British International in England and by Terra in Germany. Harvey is of British origin and still a British subject, although she spent most of her life and career in Germany.

"Ransom" Is Columbia's First June Release

Columbia's first release for June will be "Ransom," a mystery drama, which, it is announced, will be ready for exhibitors on June 7. The offering is an adaptation of George B. Seitz' own story, "San Francisco.

Stanley Company Passes Quarterly Dividend

Probable Affiliation With Goldman Sachs Paves Way for Warner Brothers Alliance

DIRECTORS of the Stanley Company of America, at a meeting held in New York on May 23rd, voted to omit the quarterly dividend in order that the company might be in a stronger position to take care of its obligations. The directors elected Waddill Catchings, of Goldman, Sachs & Co., bankers, a member of the board of the Stanley Company. While no official announcement has been made on the subject, it is taken for granted in financial circles that the election of Mr. Catchings will result in Goldman, Sachs & Co. becoming bankers for the Stanley Company and will also pave the way for an alliance between the Stanley Company and Warner Brothers, thus giving the latter firm an improved outlet for its films. Re-financing plans for the benefit of the Stanley Company are under consideration and it has been reported that a loan of from $5,000.000 to $10,000,000 will be arranged. In response to the announcement of these re-financing plans, Stanley stock on the local exchange, which has steadily declined fore shadowing the omission of the dividend until it touched 30½, rallied until it reached 37 on May 25th.

Major John Zanft, vice-president and general manager of the William Fox Circuit of Theatres, upon being interviewed by newspaper men this week, denied emphatically that there is any truth in the current rumors that there is to be a merger of the Fox Theatres Corporation with the Stanley Company of America. He also denied the report that Winfield Sheehan, vice-president of the Fox Film Corporation, contemplated a visit to Philadelphia for the purpose of formulating plans for a merger of the Fox interests with the Stanley Company. Mr. Zanft stated that the Fox Theatres Corporation will continue its extensive program of expansion in Philadelphia and vicinity.

Warren Lewis in Charge of Vitaphone Publicity

Vitaphone publicity and advertising over which A. P. Waxman has general supervision will be in charge of Warren Lewis, on the Warner advertising staff for some time and who is to take over the duties of Jack Keegan, now promoted to the post of New York branch manager for the Vitaphone Corporation.

Walter K. Hill has been appointed to take over the position vacated by Mr. Lewis. He was formerly president of the Theatrical Press Representative of America.

Commonwealth to Handle Chesterfield Program

Chesterfield Motion Picture Corporation closed a link in the chain of distributors who will handle its program when contracts were signed last week between Samuel L. Zierler, President of Commonwealth Exchange of New York City and George R. Batcheller, President of Chesterfield M. P. Corp. whereby Commonwealth will distribute in the Greater New York territory for the ensuing year.

K. C. Film Board Endorses Doty Plan on Zoning and Protection

A ZONING and protection plan for the Kansas City territory has been endorsed by the Kansas City Film Board of Trade. Under the plan which was originated by Leo. J. Doty, vice-president of the film board, no favoritism is shown to either exhibitors or distributors. Natural barriers, seating capacities, geographical locations, admission prices and numerous other problems were the factors which had to be dealt with in perfecting the plan.

Kansas City theatres were divided into six classes—A, C, D, E, F and G, there being no class B theatres, that class having been left open for future developments. Any house which is showing a first run picture is a class A house, class C being first suburban or subsequent run theatres charging admission prices of 30 cents, the class A theatres having 28 days protection from the closing date over class C houses. Those houses in class D are suburban theatres charging 25 cents, they having seven days from the opening of pictures in class C houses before pictures are available to the latter class. Houses charging 20 cents admission are in class E, they having 35 days following the closing of pictures in class A theatres. The class F theatres are those charging 15 cents. Pictures for that class become available according to the run contracted. Class G houses are those charging 10 cents. Pictures which do not play classes C, D and F houses become available for class G 49 days after the closing of the picture in class A.

Predicts Seven to Eight Million Loew Net Ending August 31, 1928

ACCORDING to the Wall Street Journal, net profit for Loew's Inc., ending the fiscal year of August, 1928, will be from seven to eight million dollars after dividends on the $6.50 preferred stock have been paid.

This would be equivalent to between $7.50 to $8.00 a share on the 1,060,780 shares of common stock outstanding and to around $6.15 a share on the 1,325,925 shares of common that will be outstanding after the payment of the 25 per cent stock dividend recently declared.

This would be a new high record in earnings for the company.

For the 28 weeks ended March 11, net profit was $4,423,860 after all charges, or $4.01 a share on the common, against $3,887,654, or $3.66 a share, earned in the corresponding period of previous year. In the full year ended August 31, 1927, Loew earned $6,737,205, or $6.35 a share.

There is now on hand in the treasury about $15,000,000, of which $10,000,000 is being loaned out on call and in the next three years an additional $13,000,000 should come into the treasury through the exercise of warrants, it is stated.

Brown Predicts Profitable Year for Pathe

Kennedy Will Continue as Special Advisor for "Indefinite Period"; New Officers Elected

ON his return from the Chicago sales convention, Colvin Brown, newly elected vice-president of the reorganized Pathe Company, amplifying a statement made to stockholders by President J. J. Murdock that Pathe would enjoy a satisfactory year, stated that convention delegates were enthusiastic over increased collections during recent months, and predicted a profitable season. The loss last year was attributed to the absorption of P. D. C. and the entry of Paramount and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in the short subject field.

Joseph P. Kennedy, president of F B O, will continue as special adviser to Pathe for an indefinite period, according to a recent announcement concluding the reorganization of the Pathe company.

J. J. Murdock has been reelected president of Pathe and other officers are: Colvin Brown, executive vice-president; Elmer Pearson and John C. Flinn, vice-presidents; Lewis Innerarity, secretary; John Humm, treasurer. The new directors are: J. J. Murdock, Maurice Goodman, Marcus Heiman, E. F. Albee, Richard Hunt, Elisha Walker, George Armsby, Cecil B. De Mille, Paul Fuller, Jr., Jeremiah Millbank, Frank Callahan, Lester D. Burton, Colvin Brown, Chas. Reynolds and Elmer Pearson.

English Sales Problem

Distributors Having Difficult Time to Cope With Rapidly Changing Conditions

CONFUSION of English exhibitors has increased considerably during recent months owing to a new sales problem growing out of rapid formation of circuit theatre companies with their rapidly changing line-ups and the effect of the quota bill. The entry of the bankers in the field, with their speed of action, has also added to the confused situation. All through England circuits are forming, and where they already were intrenched, are expanding their holdings.

Under provisions of the Films Bill, it is impossible to book very far ahead. This circumstance, coupled with the other, has brought about a condition where operators are sitting back in order to see what happens before booking additional pictures for the latter part of 1928 or the early months of 1929. Distributors, therefore, have not been having an easy time of it.

P. C. T., backed by Lords Beaverbrook, Ashfield and their banking interests, has been the leader of the circuit movement, with Gaumont British and the General Theatre Corp. also contestants for first place. These companies have been acquiring theatres at such a fast rate that if an exhibitor hasn't already received an offer for his house he at least expects one at any moment.

The first big acquisition by Gaumont was the Davis Circuit, which takes in the Marble Arch Pavilion, Shepherds Bush Pavilion and other London theatres. At present this circuit will run well over 100 theatres. The General Theatre circuit has control of the Liverpool section where there are some 27 houses, all of the suburban type; has at least four in Edinburgh and one in Newcastle and also three first theatres in London. P. C. T. operates its big chain in the principal key cities such as Aberdeen, Glasgow, Cardiff, New Castle, Leeds, Sheffield, Nottingham, Edinburgh, Manchester, Liverpool, Birmingham, and approximately twenty other localities in London.

New Firms Incorporated at New York Capital

Newly incorporated motion picture companies, chartered by the department of state at Albany during the past week, included the following: Staley and Howell, Inc., Rochester, $75,000, Richard F. Staley, Mortimer B. Howell, Cass F. Staley, Rochester; Manhattan Studios, Inc., $10,000, Carl Mittenthal, Gertrude Winograd, Estelle I. Weintraub, New York City; Newpo Theatres, Inc., capitalization not stated, Daniel Becker, Henry Grusky, Newburgh; Hanna Lindberg, New York City; Charles Burns, Inc., $1,000, Charles Burns, Abe Potal, William Meltzer, New York City; Certified Automatic Devices, Inc., $10,000, Thomas Gilleran, Charles S. Lubin, Max Lubin, New York City; Arlington Amusement Corporation, $2,000, Benjamin Berson, Barnet Liman, Morris Leff, Brooklyn.

Laemmle Denies Rumor of Metzger's Resignation

The rumor that Lou B. Metzger, sales manager for Universal, is about to resign from the Laemmle organization is denied by Carl Laemmle in a recently issued statement.

"It is only another of those silly stories," said Mr. Laemmle.

$220,000,000 Reduction in New Revenue Bill

RETENTION of the Senate provision for an exemption of $3 on admissions reduction of the corporation tax to 12 per cent and total elimination of the proposed reductions in the surtaxes on individual incomes were the outstanding features of the revenue-reduction bill as agreed upon by House and Senate conferees.

The House had provided for an admission exemption of $1 which was increased by the Senate to $3, and the result of the retention of the latter figure will be to save the theater goers of the country $17,000,000 a year.

The corporation rate of 12 per cent was a compromise between the House rate of 11½ per cent and the Senate rate of 12½ per cent, and will save the corporations $123,450,000. The exemption for corporations is increased from $2,000 to $3,000 under the bill as agreed to, reducing revenues by $12,000,000 and the limit for earned income is increased from $20,000 to $30,000 with a reduction in revenues of $4,500,000.

The bill carries a total reduction of approximately $220,000,000, as contrasted with a cut of $290,000,000 made by the House and $206,000,000 carried in the Senate bill.

THE PERFECT 36

The Outstanding Line-Up of Box-Office Attractions on the Market for 1928-1929

DON'T GAMBLE!

Insure Your Profits Next Season with a Columbia Contract!

COLUMBIA PICTURES

"NOTHING to WEAR"
Satirizing, Symbolizing —and Sympathizing with the Eternal Urge of All Femininity
"A Broadway Hoofer"
"HURRICANE"
starring
HOBART BOSWORTH
NORMAN SPRINGER
The LONE WOLF'S DAUGHTER
"STO PIGE
"Light Fingers"
Begins Where Others Leave Off!
ALFRED HENRY LEWIS
STREET of ILLUSION
Greatest Mystery Melodrama in Years!
FULTON
DONOVAN AFFAIR
"The DONOVAN AFFAIR"
The YOUNGER GENERATION
FANNIE HURST
"Fath
Object-Alimony
ELMER HARRIS
"the SPICE of LIFE"
"The Scarlet Woman"
Starring LYA de PUTTI
The Much-Discussed Serial Story That Was Read by Millions in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST
"Trial Marriage"
By Elizabeth Alexander
"INTO
College Coquette
A Box-Office Opera Leader!
"DRIFTWOOD"
HARD HARDING DAVIS
A Brilliant and Intense Portrayal of Human Love and Hate — Against a Tropical Background of Mystery and Gorgeous Color.
"RESTLESS YOUTH"
COSMO HAMILTON
"THE FLYING MARINE"
Box-Office Ma
INTRIGUE, MYS
against a colorful
A strange and poo rogue and the fascin
who became a pow

"Runaway Girls"
REWARD FOR GI
GETS WARM
Missing Her
TO LOST GIRL F
Vanished Girl's Face
McCLURE'S
EVENING CHRONICLE
BIG SOCIETY SCANDA
"THE POWER of the PRESS"
by FREDERICK A. THOMPSON
"SINNERS PARADE"
A Powerful Romance of the Parisian Underworld!
"The APACHE"
"ove"
he Stepmother"
"THE FALL OF EVE"
JOHN EMERSON
ANITA LOOS
"Success Now a Magnificently
"COURT-MARTIAL"
An Intense
American Action-Drama!
JACK HOLT
The Wildcat
Mystery Drama Par Excellence
"Behind Closed Doors"
EPTHS
"REDEMPTION"
COUNT LEO N. TOLSTOI
The Screen Surprise of the Year!
MARY ROBERTS RINEHART
"ACQUITTED"
"The Bachelor Girl"
The Wicked Ange
"The LOVE CAPTIVE"
"Gre Eye
"Greenwich Village"
The SIDESHOW

Judge Us By Our Past Performances!

FOR years Columbia has given its customers a standard grade of merchandise. We have kept every promise--delivered every picture. ¶ Our business and our prestige have been established on a live-and-let-live policy. We own no theatres--are not in competition with our customers. ¶ Furthermore, we sell our product at a price that enables exhibitors to make a good profit on their film rental investment.

Great Authors!

Story material for The Perfect 36 has been chosen from outstanding stage plays, magazine serials and short stories written by nationally known authors. Millions of people will be glad to see these pictures when you show them at your theatre. ¶ Among our writers and playwrights are Fanny Hurst, John Emerson, Anita Loos, Owen Davis, Mary Roberts Rinehart, Joseph Louis Vance, Cosmo Hamilton, Count Leo Tolstoi, Channing Pollock, Willard Mack, Elmer Harris, Norman Springer, Elizabeth Alexander.

Box-Office Stars!

You can always depend on getting a good star in a Columbia picture! We have already signed up to appear in The Perfect 36--Jack Holt, Lya de Putti, Lois Wilson, Hobart Bosworth, Margaret Livingston, Bert Lytell, Betty Compson, Dorothy Revier. ¶ Direction is to be entrusted to men who know through experience how to get the utmost entertainment value into pictures.

No Pictures Anywhere in the Industry Will be Better Made, Better Exploited or Better Advertised than The Perfect Thirty-Six

Action Sought Against Block Distributors

Myers Recommends Trade Commission Proceed at Once

(Continued from Page 1838)

to enforce in 482 film exchanges in the United States rules and regulations for the prevention of fire more drastic than those provided by the State and city fire commissioners, and fire drills are conducted each week, a safety committee comprising three branch exchange managers and secretary of the local film Board of Trade conducts a rigid monthly inspection enforcing regulations regarding general housekeeping conditions to prevent fire, including regulations against smoking, protecting film or waste matter from contact with radiators, steam pipes and electric lights, testing sprinkler systems and fire extinguishers, eliminating the use of any inflammable material in the shipping and inspection departments and preventing accumulation of scrap film, and every other possible regulation to protect the lives of employees and to insure safety; and,

Whereas, The reports of the safety committee are checked in the home office of the film board of trade; and any violation of any rule or regulation is immediately corrected; and as a result of this work fires in film exchanges have been practically eliminated; and since January 1, 1927, there has been no fire loss in any department in the distribution of film.

Resolved, That such regulation of film exchanges is a fair trade practice.

"Shut-In" Showings Approved

Rule 18, Whereas, throughout the United States today more than 1,500 public, private and charitable sectarian and non-sectarian institutions for caring for "shut-ins" are showing motion pictures; and such motion picture programs are furnished to these various institutions by national and regional distributors through the various film boards of trade under a plan whereby the responsibility for such distribution is divided among all members of each board; and in most instances such motion picture programs are furnished free of charge to such institutions as orphan asylums, homes for the aged, tuberculosis hospitals, and institutions housing war veterans; and,

Whereas, In some cases they are furnished upon payment of the postal or express charges to ship and return the films, and in other instances where institutions have appropriations available with which to purchase entertainment for the inmates, nominal charges are made; and,

Whereas, In all instances motion picture films are furnished to such institutions with the understanding that they are to be shown only to the inmates and attendants of their respective institutions, and that the general public is not to be admitted either free of charge or for an admission charge; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the admission of the public, either free of charge or for an admission charge, to any such motion picture entertainment or performance is an unfair trade practice and unfair competition to theatre owners; and

Resolved, That the showing of motion pictures in such institutions where the public is not admitted, either free of charge, or for an admission charge, is a fair trade practice.

Rule 19, That the practice of transferring title to a theatre without making an honest and sincere effort for the transferring at the same time of existing contracts is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 20, Whereas, the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., have subscribed to the following preamble and resolutions:

"Whereas, The members of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., in their continuing effort to 'establish and maintain the highest possible moral and artistic standards of motion picture production,' are engaged in a special effort to prevent the prevalent type of book and play from becoming the prevalent type of picture; to exercise every possible care that only books or plays which are of the right type are used for screen presentation; to avoid the picturization of books or plays which can be produced only after such changes as to leave the producer subject to a charge of deception; to avoid using titles which are indicative of a kind of picture which could not be produced, or by their suggestiveness seek to obtain attendance by deception, a thing equally reprehensible; and to prevent misleading, salacious, or dishonest advertising: Now, therefore, be it

Ban Questionable Stories

"Resolved, By the board of directors of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., that said association does hereby reaffirm its determination to carry out its purposes above set out, and does hereby repledge the best efforts of the members of the association to that end, and does hereby further declare that they will not produce or promote the production, distribute or promote the distribution, exhibit or promote the exhibition, or aid in any way whatsoever in the production, distribution, or exhibition by the members of this association, or by companies subsidiary to said members, or by any other person, firm or corporation producing, distributing, or exhibiting pictures, of any picture or pictures, by whomsoever produced, distributed or exhibited, which because of the unfit character of title, story, exploitation, or picture itself, do not meet the requirements of this preamble and resolution or hinder the fulfillment of the purposes of the association set out herein."

"And Whereas, In carrying out the purposes of the aforesaid resolution when any company member of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., is offered the screen rights to a book or play of a questionable nature, its representatives immediately inform the officers of that association; and if the judgment of the member company to the effect that the picturization of the subject matter is inadvisable is confirmed a notice is sent to all the other member companies giving the name of the objectionable book or play, and such company members thus having their attention directed to the subject in question have the opportunity of avoiding the picturization of the novel or play."

Resolved, That this is a fair trade practice.

Rule 21, Whereas, for the purpose of further establishing and maintaining the highest possible moral and artistic standards in motion pictures, the members of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., have adopted a formula with reference to the selection and rejection of certain story material for picturization:

Resolved, That the execution of the purposes of this resolution is a fair trade practice.

Rule 22, Whereas, there existed a practice with respect to the securing of employment by extras in motion picture studios through agencies which charged them a fee of from 8 to 15 per cent for placing such

(Continued on Following Page)

Stanley, Loew Join in Baltimore; Book Paramount, M-G-M and U. A.

THE Stanley Company and Loew have practically closed a deal whereby the theatre holdings of both companies in Baltimore will be pooled.

The arrangement provides for the pooling of the new Stanley theatre with Loew's Valencia and Loew's Century into one operating company with management probably vested in Loew's.

It is assumed that all three houses will use the product of Paramount, M-G-M and United Artists exclusively. The combined outputs of these three producers would about cover the needs of these theatres.

The Stanley, a new house, has a weekly change policy, the Century a similar booking arrangement and the Valencia uses approximately 26 pictures a year.

James Clark Ad Sales Head for Paramount

JAMES CLARK is now manager of the Paramount ad sales department, having been raised to that post recently. Mr. Clark is in his twenties and began his film career with Mutual Film Company in 1924 as film inspector. His first job with Paramount came in 1920 when he was engaged by Herman Wobber in San Francisco as salesman for the non-theatrical department. January of last year, he was made assistant manager of the ad sales department.

Non Theatrical Resolution Is Rejected

Termed Illegal and in Restraint of Trade by Body extras each time they secured a position through such agencies; and,

Whereas, Besides certain legitimate casting agencies, there were many questionable agencies that preyed upon would-be motion picture extras, and by their activities brought great discredit upon the motion picture industry; and,

Whereas, At the request of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., the Russell Sage Foundation made a survey of the entire situation in conjunction with the State Labor Commission of California, and the Association of Motion Picture Producers of California; and,

Free Employment Bureau

Whereas, The findings of the survey resulted in a joint recommendation that the industry operate and maintain free of cost to the motion picture extra a central employment bureau; and,

Whereas, The Central Casting Corporation has been established, and has been functioning in the recommended manner for a period of 21 months, and has made 502,916 placements in that time without cost to the extras, and has brought about certain other betterments in working conditions of such extras. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the establishment and functioning of such a non-profit casting bureau be, and the same hereby is, declared to be a fair trade practice.

Rule 23, Whereas, the Los Angeles Board of Education and the State of California labor authorities were experiencing great difficulty in restraining the improper exploitation of children in motion pictures by their parents, which resulted in non-attendance at school and an insufficient ratio of work and recreation; and,

Whereas, The Association of Motion Picture Producers and the California State Labor Bureau and the Department of Compulsory Education of Los Angeles by joint recommendation consummated the present method by which a teacher is supplied by the Board of Education and paid for by the producers in every studio, together with similar financing of class-room facilities where children are engaged in motion picture production, so that each child works not more than four hours during the day and has its regular schooling and recreation; and,

Whereas, Any child not proficient in its lessons cannot secure a permit to work in pictures, with the result that the practice of improperly exploiting the child has been entirely eliminated. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the present formula obtaining in respect to the employment of minors in motion picture production, as set forth in the foregoing preamble, is a fair trade practice.

Rule 24, Whereas, producers at times desire to lend employees under contract for whose service there exists no current necessity; and,

Whereas, The services of such temporarily disengaged contract employees may be desired by another producer; and,

Whereas, Waste is avoided and the interests of both employer and employee are advanced by continuous employment. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the practice of a producer lending an employee under contract to another producer for an amount equal to the salary paid to the contract employee plus a reasonable amount to absorb the fair pro rate of such employee's idle time is a fair trade practice.

Registering of Titles

Rule 25, Whereas, to avoid duplication and conflict in titles for motion pictures, the members of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., have a plan for the registering with the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., of their intention to produce a certain motion picture under a certain title, and through such registration have exclusive right to that title; and,

Whereas, Such plan further provides that if the title registered duplicates or conflicts with a title already registered by another member of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., the parties whose titles conflict are notified so that they may confer to avoid conflict, with the understanding that the company first registering a title possesses the right to use the title unless it voluntarily withdraws its prior registration in favor of the later one, or it is shown that the member making the later registration has, by purchase or otherwise, obtained prior legal right to the title. Be it

Resolved, That this is a fair trade practice.

The statement of policy proposed by the producers and distributors and accepted by exhibitors, dealing with booking, has been held in abeyance until results can be determined from its actual effect upon the motion picture industry. This statement was as follows:

Rules on Bookings

"1. The sales method known as block booking shall not be used for the accomplishment of any illegal purpose.

"2. No distributor will require as a condition of permitting an exhibitor to lease its pictures that such exhibitor shall also lease pictures of another distributor.

"3. If an exhibitor shall claim within a reasonable time prior to the date fixed for the exhibition of any picture included in any block leased by him that such picture will be offensive to the clientele of his theatre, because of racial or religious subject matter, such claim shall be arbitrated by the board of arbitration of the proper zone, and, if sustained, such exhibitor shall be relieved of obligation to take any pay for such picture.

"4. If any exhibitor who has purchased an entire block of pictures offered by any distributor so elects, within a reasonable time prior to the date fixed for exhibition of any picture included in such block, such exhibitor may refuse to take such picture by paying one-half of the allocated price thereof, provided that the pictures so rejected out of any block shall not exceed 10 per cent of the number included in such block, and if a rejected picture is resold by the distributor, one-half of the net price received on such resale shall be credited against the exhibitor's obligation in respect of such picture up to the amount of such obligation.

"5. Reissues will not be included in any block with new pictures.

"6. Newsreels and short subjects will not be included in any block with features, and the lease of newsreels or short subject blocks shall not be required as a condition of being permitted to lease feature blocks or vice versa.

"7. The matters dealt with by paragraphs 3 and 4 shall be covered by appropriate provisions to be included in the new standard form of contract."

Trial Period Recommended

Reporting upon the conference, and the resolutions adopted, M. Markham Flannery, director of trade practice conferences, recommends that a trial period of 6 to 12 months be allowed within which to observe the workings of the results of the conference, at the end of which time a report be made to the commission on the working of the rules, accompanied by a recommendation with reference to the advisability of calling another conference or with reference to such other action as conditions at that time seem to warrant.

"The task undertaken by the Commission in this conference was colossal," Mr. Flannery commented. "The net results accomplished may not be all that might have been hoped for by the Commission, but they exceeded greatly the expectations of exhibitors, distributors and producers, as judged by their generally expressed preconference predictions and by their later comments as to what the conference accomplished, as reflected verbally, in correspondence and by the press.

"This task is by no means complete. It has but begun. The members of the different branches of the industry have barely become acquainted. Heretofore they have dealt at arm's length, largely through agents. Never before had the four branches of the motion picture industry met and mutually discussed their problem. To discuss them fully, frankly and fearlessly, under the auspices of an impartial, official, disinterested body, was, indeed, novel, and for this the independent exhibitors were not fully prepared.

"Agreement among the groups on some of the many subjects covered seems remarkable when it is considered that many of the unaffiliated delegates were entirely unknown to one another, no confidential relations existed between them, and they appeared to be doubtful and distrustful of one another as well as of the other groups. Some of the problems arising within this comparatively new industry were exceedingly complex, and branches of a single industry could hardly be conceived as farther apart in their objects and opinions than were the unaffiliated exhibitors and the other groups. This was freely remarked prior to and at the commencement of the conference, but a feeling of growing confidence became apparent early in the proceedings, which increased and strengthened as the conference progressed, and a disposition became manifest by all the various groups to try to see the other side and agree on matters in dispute."

FBO Starts Department for Short Subjects

A DEPARTMENT for short subjects has been inaugurated at the F B O home office. Cleve Adams, central sales manager, has been promoted to the post of short subject sales manager. He is now on a tour of the exchanges in the interests of the short subject. Other promotions made in the F B O sales ranks last week were: J. Frank Shea, western sales manager, who has been appointed assistant general sales manager with headquarters in Los Angeles; Edward L. McEvoy, home office field representative, who has been made assistant general sales manager with headquarters in New York; Larry Gardner, who has been appointed sales manager of the Boston office; C. F. McGerigle who has been made office manager at Boston; Jerome Safron, sales manager for Eastern, Pa. and Southern, N. J., who has been placed in charge of the Pittsburgh office.

Alleges Patent Violation in Suit Against Stanley

Mrs. Mary Hallock Greenewalt, of Philadelphia, on May 25th brought suit in the United States District Court in Wilmington, Del., against the Stanley Company of America, charging that it has infringed on her patents for a symphonic color organ. She is the inventor of a device that emits light rays and is played like music by variations in color and combinations of color. Mrs. Greenewalt claims to have spent much time and money in perfecting the instrument so that it could be used commercially. She received a patent on the device in January, 1924, and the patent was reissued in 1927. According to the complaint the Stanley Company has been using the patented method in theatres in Philadelphia and elsewhere and the complaint asks that an accounting of profits and damages be ordered and that an injunction be issued restraining the company from continuing the alleged infringement.

New Productions at First National Studios

In addition to four pictures now in the making, an equal number of other pictures will soon go into production at First National's Studios in Burbank. Colleen Moore is preparing to start on "Oh, Kay!" Richard Barthelmess is to begin work soon on "Out of the Ruins." Billie Dove is to start on "The Night Watch."

Alice White is about to start on her first starring vehicle, "Show Girl."

Rayart Contract for Canadian Distribution

Columbia Pictures, Ltd., of Toronto, Canada, with branch offices in Winnipeg, Montreal and St. John, N. B., have just signed a contract with W. Ray Johnston, President of Rayart Pictures Corporation, for the new Rayart "Box-Office Twenty" for 1928-29. Columbia is not a new customer, by any means, having handled Rayart's "Unbeatable Eighteen" for 1927-28 in addition to earlier releases.

Rothacker Completes Job

First National Studio Work Finished; Intends Resigning in July; Rockett Studio Head

WATTERSON R. ROTHACKER, managing director of the First National Burbank studios, announced the completion of reorganization and building program which he inaugurated at the studios last year, at an informal meeting of the department heads of the First National studio, held the evening of May 28th.

Mr. Rothacker also unofficially announced that he expects to proceed to New York late in July and to sail for Europe early in August. It is understood he will, at that time, tender his resignation as managing director and vice-president of the studio to become effective on the exact date of his departure for the Continent.

By severing his connection with the company at that time it is understood that Mr. Rothacker expects to leave with no obligation to return to the studios to complete his current contract which expires in October of this year.

A further declaration of Mr. Rothacker at the May 28th meeting was to the effect that, after his resignation is formally accepted, President Clifford B. Hawley intends to appoint Al Rockett as resident head of the studio in charge of West Coast production, with R. W. Poucher assisting him as studio executive manager.

Until Mr. Rothacker sails there will be no change of men or methods at the Burbank plant.

Vitaphone for Strand, N. Y.

Installation Being Made in Broadway Playhouse; To Show Seventeen Warner Pictures

ANNOUNCEMENT was made this week that the Mark Strand Theatre, New York City, is installing Vitaphone and has contracted with Warners to 17 features with Vitaphone orchestrations.

Vitaphone equipment is now being installed in the Mark Strand at a cost of $45,000, and at the same time new projection equipment and a new type of screen upon which the picture will be shown, are being installed.

"Tenderloin," will inaugurate the new policy on June 2.

It is announced that the stage performances will be continued during the weeks that Vitaphone attractions do not play and will also be presented sometimes on the same program with the Vitaphone features.

Frank Bligh, of the Capitol Theatre, Salem, Ore., reports a nice increase in the business with the advent of his new Vitaphone accompaniment with "The Jazz Singer."

In Birmingham, Ala., Vitaphone and "The Jazz Singer" are writing up a new record at the Strand Theatre. Now in its third week, the picture has already established a precedent for length of run and bids fair to remain the strongest local drawing card for another two or three weeks.

March Film Exports Reach High Total

MARCH exports of motion picture films reached the highest total recorded since last August with shipments of 29,345,604 feet valued at $810,860, compared with 21,695,625 feet valued at $595,895 in February, according to figures just compiled by the Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C. Shipments during the month included 7,565,517 feet of raw stock valued at $168,581; 934,793 feet of negatives valued at $126,484, and 20,845,294 feet of positives valued at $525,795 compared with 1,803,453 feet of raw stock valued at $115,064; 661,735 feet of negatives valued at $77,084 and 16,330,437 feet of positives valued at $403,747 in February.

The principal markets for positive films during the month were Argentina, taking 2,836,675 feet valued at $82,661; Brazil with 2,390,646 feet valued at $58,182, and Australia with 2,196,679 feet valued at $54,155. France was the principal market for negatives, taking 295,367 feet valued at $20,688, although the value of those shipped to the United Kingdom was much greater, that country taking 278,745 feet valued at $83,157. The United Kingdom was also the most important market for raw stock, taking 4,223,099 feet valued at $89,027.

Columbia Reorganizes Its Scenario Department

Its scenario department at the studio is being reorganized by Columbia Pictures. John Goodrich has been made scenario editor and he will have charge of the writing department and will exercise supervision over all the scripts for the new Columbia output. Bess Meredyth has joined the scenario staff, which also includes Norman Springer, Winifred Dunn, Peter Milne and Dorothy Howell.

Paramount to Release 2 New Horton Comedies

Two new two-reel comedies starring Edward Everett Horton are to be released by Paramount during the coming season. "Call Again" and "Vacation Waves" are their titles.

Ray Rockett Signs Liane Haid, Screen Star

Liane Haid, popular European star, has been booked by Ray Rockett for four years, to be starred, alternately in First Ntional's German and British productions.

Photophone Process Told

"Straight Line" Method Used for Reproduction; Special Optical Reduction Printer Employed

IN announcing that the RCA Photophone will be available July 1, Elmer E. Bucher, vice-president of the organization, said, in part:

"An important feature of the Photophone method is the fact that the sound track will outlast the life of the picture, which surpasses average usage. No difficulties are presented in making natural pictures, and both music and voices are reproduced with almost uncanny fidelity. There is no trace of mechanical imitation; every shade and nuance of tone is heard with pleasing fidelity, and complete synchronization without breaks or flaws is assured by the Photophone's principle.

"The superior tone quality of the Photophone system lies in its superior method of recording sound on film. That is, the Photophone process employs the 'variable width' or 'serrated edge,' and this accounts for the very fine tone quality which the Photophone system produces. One other system uses the 'variable density' method of recording, which was abandoned by the Radio Group in their experiments some years back.

"In the Photophone recording process, the development of the sound track is not a serious matter. A little over-development or under-development of this portion of the negative has no bearing on the tone quality.

"The Photophone reproducing apparatus embodies all of the technical advancements which the Radio Group have brought to light in their work in the broadcasting field. Photophone reproduction is practically a 'straight line method which gives substantially equal amplification for all sound frequencies. Farther, the Photophone does not use horns for reproduction. It employs a newly developed and highly perfected cone type of reproducer of the electro-dynamic type, which gives a tone quality which never can be approached by the horn method.

"It is the only method of recording sound on films already produced and awaiting distribution, which does not destroy a part of the picture record. The Photophone Company has developed a special optical reduction printer which enables it to save the entire picture record and still leave room on the film for the sound track. Other systems destroy approximately one-eighth of the picture in order to include the sound track."

Northwest Arbitration Tangle

Steffes Threatens Legal Action If Substitute Board Attempts to Pass on Cases

ARBITRATION activities in the Minneapolis territory are at a standstill, following the warning by W. A. Steffes, exhibitor leader, that court action will be resorted to in case any attempt is made to arbitrate cases with any board other than that composed of Film Board of Trade and Northwest M. P. T. O. members.

This came about through the refusal of Steffes to arbitrate United Artist cases, because of that firm's service to non-theatricals, and the declaration by C. C. Pettijohn, general counsel of the Film Boards of Trade, that exhibitor members were disqualified.

An effort was made by the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce Association to adjust the differences, but having failed, the association will not try again. It is said distributors will appeal to Mayor Leach to name arbitrators, but it is expected he will decline. The American Arbitration Society may be appealed to as a last resort.

According to Mr. Steffes, his organization will attempt to prevent any substitute board from acting in arbitration.

"We shall place every obstacle in the way of such a board and resort to any tactics necessary to protect our interests," said Steffes. "We propose to learn if exhibitors have any rights in this industry, and if so what they are."

First National Summer Billing Drive June 3

THE annual summer billing drive of First National will begin on June 3rd and extend through a period of thirteen weeks to Sept. 1st. The governing rules will be the same as were adopted for 1926 and 1927.

Branch offices have already been advised of the amount of their individual quota. A cash prize equivalent to one week's salary will be paid to each employee of every branch whose gross billings for the period equal or exceed quota, provided he shall have been in the employ of First National throughout the full thirteen week period.

Financial Details of New Stanley Venture Revealed

Important details of the plan of financing the proposed $2,000,000 State theatre, to be leased by the Stanley Company of America, at 52nd and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, are contained in advertisements of a $1,300,000 bond issue which appeared simultaneously in newspapers throughout Central Pennsylvania on May 22. The site of the building is 227 feet on Chestnut street with a frontage of 117 on 52nd. It will be a steel frame structure which will contain three large stores in addition to the theatre which will have 3,100 seats and a large organ. It is stated the location is in one of the most densely populated districts of Philadelphia, and experts have appraised the completed value of the land and building at $2,000,000.

The advertisements explain that "the theatre is leased for twenty years by the Stanley Company of America, owning or leasing about 255 theatres. The minimum net annual rentals will be more than sufficient to meet the greatest combined annual interest and sinking fund requirements with respect to the bonds outstanding."

The bonds, which are offered by S. W. Straus & Co., 1617 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, at par and accrued interest, are first mortgage 5¾ per cent sinking fund gold bonds, dated May 1, 1928, and maturing in eight years. The Colonial Trust Company, Philadelphia, is trustee.

5 M-G-M Features Listed for June Release

June releases from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchanges will include "The Cossacks," "Telling the World," "Forbidden Hours," "Detectives" and "Madamoiselle from Armentieres."

The first, "The Cossacks," has been in production for eight months, George Hill having handled the megaphoning of the story adapted from Tolstoi. William Haines with Ann Page, his 17-year old leading lady are seen in "Telling the World." Ramon Novarro is starred in "Forbidden Hours," with Renee Adoree as his leading lady. "Detectives" is a vehicle for Karl Dane and George K. Arthur. The last release for the month, "Madamoiselle from Armentieres," is a story of the World War made in England by Director Victor Saville and a cast of continental players.

Virginia Lee Corbin on Tour for Gotham

Personal appearances in conjunction with the showings of "Bare Knees" in which she stars for Gotham Productions, will be made by Virginia Lee Corbin, under contract to the Sax organization. She is scheduled to appear at the Strand, Akron, O., during the week of June 3; at the Palace, Lorraine, O., from June 10 to June 13; and at the Ohio, Mansfield, O., from June 14 to June 16.

Universal Will Feature Mary Nolan

Mary Nolan, an addition from the musical comedy stage to the players acting in Universal productions, will be featured in a picture for the new season. It will be titled "Come Across." William Wyler will direct.

Gotham Opens 2 New Exchanges in N. Y.

AN exchange in Albany and an exchange in Buffalo have been opened by Gotham Productions. Both of these New York offices will be known as Gotham Pictures Exchange. They will be under the management of Herk Webster for five years with Bond Photoplays Corporation. The Buffalo office will be located at 505 Pearl Street, and the Albany office at 1046 Broadway.

A Second Printing Was Necessary!

TO supply the orders of Exhibitors, Theatre Executives and Theatre Workers for the most comprehensive and authoritative work written on the subject, the publishers, George H. Doran Company, New York, has made a second printing of—

MOTION PICTURE THEATRE MANAGEMENT

By Harold B. Franklin

(President of West Coast Theatres, Inc., and leading theatre executive)

NOW

you too may obtain a copy of this monumental work dealing with every branch of the theatre and offering a carefully considered presentation of the theories and practices, tested by years of experience, making for the successful and profitable business method of running a motion picture theatre.

The author, Harold B. Franklin, is known throughout the industry as one of the most progressive and able theatre executives and showmen the picture theatre has developed, and one of the leading forces contributing to the advance which the motion picture playhouse has made from its "nickelodeon" beginning to the palatial community institution which the better theatre of today represents.

DON'T DELAY

The present supply of copies is by no means large enough to supply all those who eventually will want copies of this book, so prompt action is imperative if you want to be assured of a copy.

THE PRICE IS $5.

35 Chapters and 26 Illustrations* Tell You How—

To train and maintain an organization that will function smoothly in the running of your theatre.

To provide adequate safety methods.

To carry on systematic inspections.

To prepare a properly balanced budget.

To judge the effectiveness of advertising.

To purchase equipment and to Build Good Will.

Order Your Copy Today →

Use This Order Blank

MOTION PICTURE NEWS,
729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

Send me postpaid MOTION PICTURE THEATRE MANAGEMENT by Harold B. Franklin.
I enclose (check) (money order) for $5.00.

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

State .....

Classified Ads

RATES: 10 cents a word for each insertion, in advance except Employment Wanted, on which rate is 5 cents

Situations Wanted

Projectionist. Five years experience. Desires position, where real projection is appreciated. Any equipment, anywhere. Single, reliable. Write or wire. Carr Hilburn, Bladenboro, North Carolina.

A-1 Male Organist at liberty. Wurlitzer specialist. Organist, 1112 Lee St., Charleston-Ka., W. Va.

ORGANISTS and SINGERS, thoroughly trained and experienced in theatre work. Men and women now ready for good positions. Union or nonunion. Write salary, and other data. Address, Chicago Musical College, 64 E. Van Buren, Chicago.

Studio and Laboratory manager desires change. Complete knowledge of cameras, laboratory, titles, animation, theatre trailers, news releases. Best references. Want position with future. If you can offer good salary and need a man who knows the game, write Box 353, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Avenue., New York City.

YOUNG MAN, five years' experience as moving picture theatre assistant manager desires position in that capacity or opportunity as manager of small house. Experienced publicity and ballyhoo man and in the compiling of programs, etc. Address Box 336, care of Motion Picture News.

MANAGER 9 years in last position. Broad experience, married, best references, wants position in motion picture theatre. Can make good anywhere. Address Box 349, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York.

THEATRE MANAGER desires change, wife organist, both thoroughly experienced Vaudeville, Pictures. If your theatre is a dead one let us bring it to life. Best references. Box 320, care Motion Picture News, New York City.

ORGANIST, Male. Southern Exhibitors, attention! No finer soloist available for first run theatre, using organ exclusively. Present and past record to prove above statement. Your communication, address Box 328, Motion Picture News, will receive promptest attention.

EXPERIENCED OPERATOR and mechanic. Best reference. Would like to invest part of salary in same theatre. Address Box 337, care Motion Picture News.

ORGANIST at liberty. Man with excellent references and recommendations at liberty. States bordering the Great Lakes preferred. Long hours no objective. Has good library and uses it. Address Box 198, care Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

Wanted

WANTED.—Manager for Motion Picture House, live town of 8000, hard coal region. Good opportunity for right man who must be live wire with modern ideas and stand strict investigation. Don't write unless you can make good. State all first letter. Address K. R., care of Motion Picture News, 729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

Theatre Wanted

THEATRE WANTED.—Country Town or Suburban, will lease or buy. Give particulars. H. R. W., 8 Downing Ave., Downingtown, Pa.

A group of four newspaper displays exploiting "Tenderloin" with Vitaphone Accompaniment. The reproductions above show the form of advertising used by Neth's Grand, at Columbus, O., represented with two displays each of two-column size; the Apollo at Indianapolis, with a three-column display, and the Rialto in Dallas. The Rialto ad was two columns wide.

HOLLYWOOD

Lillian Gale
Staff Correspondent

Wm. McCormack
Western Representative

Ray Murray
Special Representative

Hollywood Office—6381 Hollywood Blvd— Phone Granite 3982.

Film Board Secretaries End Seven Day Session

Delegates from Various Parts of U. S. and Canada Close Meet at the Hotel Ambassador

HOLLYWOOD, May 26.—The second annual convention of Secretaries of the Film Board of Trade closed its week's session at the Ambassador Hotel, late Saturday afternoon. Important problems of arbitration and other matters occupied the time of the fifty-five delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada. The principal point of discussion was the new uniform contract. Every paragraph of this important document was taken up and thoroughly gone into by members of the convention.

The various clauses were fully explained by Charles C. Pettijohn, general counsel of the Film Boards of Trade and by Gabriel Hess, attorney for the Secretaries' organization. There were 32 secretaries present representing that many key cities of the United States, and six from Canada. All left at the conclusion of the session Saturday evening for San Francisco and the northern route back East. Mrs. Laura A. Gentry, secretary of the Los Angeles Film Board of Trade, played hostess at the convention, and the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences tendered them a banquet at the Hotel Roosevelt on Friday, May 25.

Many stars attended the dinner which was presided over by Fred Beetson, chairman of the Association of Producers and Distributors. Among the stars who attended were: Conrad Nagel, Buster Keaton, Russell Simpson, Richard Arlen, Jobyna Ralston, Col. Tim McCoy, Alan Hale, Geo. Bancroft, Jack Mulhall, Eddie Quillan, Ken Maynard, and Robert Armstrong. Vaudeville acts from the West Coast Theatres circuit were furnished by Harold B. Franklin. Short addresses were made by Louis B. Mayer, Mr. Hess and Mr. Pettijohn.

Paul Kohner, Universal executive, receives Carl Laemmle's personal congratulations on his supervision of "The Man Who Laughs"

The list of those who attended the Secretaries convention included: C. C. Pettijohn, New York; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hess, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Don Douglas, Dallas, Tex.; Patricia Lynch, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. R. B. Lynch, Seattle, Wash.; Edna Priester, Albany, N. Y.; Audrey Littell, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Clare Foley, San Francisco, Cal.; Rowena Foley, San Francisco; Martha Ferris, Boston, Mass.; Kathryn Sullivan, New Haven, Conn.; G. D. Moffet, Cleveland, O.; E. M. McNamee, Cincinnati, O.; L. B. Schofield, St. Louis; Miss Doyle, St. Louis; Alma Walton, Memphis, Tenn.; Tess Heraty, Chicago; Theresa Drazin, New York; Eva Rosenthal, Winnipeg, Can.; Julia Heine, New Orleans; Mabel Dietz, Minneapolis, Minn.; M. M. McCollough, Indianapolis; M. R. Parkhouse, New York; M. G. Wrenn, Charlotte, N. C.; A. L. Menagh, Kansas City, Neb.; Leone Matthews, Des Moines, Ia.; Rosemary Foley, Omaha, Neb.; L. A. Gentry, Los Angeles; Emma Applenalp, Buffalo, N. Y.; Lamar Trotti, New York; Don Koenig, Milwaukee; J. D. Abramson, Chicago; Harry Myers, Butte, Mont.; E. L. Cole, Atlanta, Ga.; Chas. Zears, Oklahoma City, Okla.; J. H. Greenberg, Philadelphia; J. D. Fitzgerald, Washington, D. C.; Jack Levine, New York; Louis Nizer, New York; Duke Dunbar, Denver; E. K. Oppenheimer, Portland, Ore.; D. T. Lane, Salt Lake City; Dan Palfreyman, Detroit; J. A. H. Milligan, Calgary, Can.; F. Donnenworth, Vancouver, B. C., and C. O. Durnett, Toronto, Can.

"Companionate Marriage"

Emphatic announcement has been made by Sam Sax for himself and for Asher, Small and Rogers, his associates in the production of "Companionate Marriage," that the picture, the most ambitious effort of this group of independents, will be put out as a road show. No national release has been set for it, nor will negotiations at this end be invited, until after world premier test showings of the picture.

Betty Bronson has been signed for the leading feminine role; Alec B. Francis, Richard Walling, Hedda Hopper and Richard Tucker have been engaged for featured roles, and it is not unlikely that arrangements will be made to have Sue Carol share stellar feminine honors with Miss Bronson, since the narrative development indicates two exceptional roles for feminine players.

Judge Ben B. Lindsey and Beatrice Van's story will be directed by Erle C. Kenton, with Harold Schumate acting for Sax, Asher, Small and Rogers, in supervision of the production.

Both Sax and Charles R. Rogers, speaking for his firm, concurred in the statement that Gotham Productions were in no way concerned in the production of "Companionate Marriage." The picture is being produced under the corporate title of "C. M. Inc.," at Universal City.

"Big City" Stories Popular

According to Paul Bern, in charge of stories at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios, those dealing with life in a great city are the most popular for filmization, and in confirmation of his opinion, Bern points to a list of successes headed by "The Crowd." "Rural locales and period dramas have lost their popular appeal," declares the executive.

Lili Damita Dined

The Hollywood Association of Foreign Correspondents tendered a dinner to Lili Damita, the French film star, on Tuesday, May 29 at the Hotel Roosevelt. Samuel Goldwyn, Irving Berlin, Sid Grauman, the French Consul of Los Angeles, Henri Didot, and about a hundred fan and newspaper correspondents honored Miss Da-

(Continued on following page)

M. P. D. A. in New Quarters

HAVING sold their clubhouse located at 1925 Wilcox Avenue, Hollywood, the Motion Picture Directors Association will hold forth, temporarily, in the Cherokee Building.

Henry Otto is president of the association which comprises in its membership many of the leading megaphone wielders of the industry, while Reginald Barker is chairman of the executive- council. However, Frank Cooley and George Irving have been in charge of the removal of association headquarters which are now open and functioning in the new location.

Hollywood—Continued

mita with their presence. Miss Rita Kissin, secretary of the Hafeo, presided.

Wampas Honors Larkin

The Wampas tendered Mark Larkin, retiring president, a testimonial dinner at the Roosevelt Hotel on Monday night, May 28. Barrett Kiesling and Fred Hamilton arranged the affair at which the 1928 Wampas stars were honor guests. It was a formal dinner dance and served also to welcome the succeeding president, Harold Hurley. Hal Roach's orchestra furnished the music for the evening, which proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

The Wasps Entertained

On the same night Fox Studios entertained the Wasps. It had fallen to the lot of Tammie Johnson to act as hostess at the monthly guest meeting, but she was relieved of the responsibility when the company with which she is affiliated made known their intentions to entertain the members of the Woman's Association of Screen Publicists at dinner and with a program including a movietone offering. Each Wasp was entitled to bring one guest. The assembly included sixty people.

Two June Weddings

Two motion picture romances came to light this week by the parties having filed intentions to marry. Mrs. Athole S. Ward, sister of Norma Shearer, will become the bride of Howard W. Hawks, scenarist on the Fox lot, in June, and on June 3, Al Rayboch, director, will claim the hand of Miss Curtyne Mohr Englar, a Los Angeles dancing teacher.

Charged With Falsity

Charged with false advertising and failure to obtain employment agency permits, Charles A. Lynch and Mrs. DeVernal Doran will face trial June 12. Several young women allege the defendants accepted $3.50 from them on the representation that they would be booked for a picture production.

Spence Brings Suit

Ralph Spence, famous title writer, has brought suit against the Christie Film Company for $3,000 claiming this amount is due him for titling the comedy "Tillie's Punctured Romance." Spence states he was to furnish the humorous titles for ::Tillie" for $5,000. He was paid but $2,000 and is suing for the balance. The Christie company asserts his titles were unsatisfactory.

Marshall With MacLean

George Marshall, former supervisor of all of Fox comedies, has joined the Douglas MacLean unit and will direct the star's next production for Christie-Paramount. Marshall will likely direct MacLean's next two pictures for the Christies.

Marion Byron Signed

During Hal Roach's recent trip around the world, he kept one eye peeled for a certain type of girl to add to his stock company, but not until he was in New York on his way home, were his efforts rewarded. He found her on the screen, playing with Buster Keaton in "Steamboat Bill, Jr." Roach immediately wired his general manager, Warren Doane, that the search was over and to get in touch with Marion Byron. Consequently, by the time the chief executive arrived in Hollywood, the deed was done. Miss Byron has affixed her signature to a long-term contract to appear in the Roach Star Series of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedies.

Feature Role for Hale

With Ralph Block holding the reins of production, Alan Hale is to be featured by Cecil B. DeMille in Dale Collin's "The Sentimentalists," for which a scenario prepared by Julien Josephson was ready when Hale completed his last role in "Power."

Irving's Father Roles

George Irving has been nine kinds of a father in less than a year and upon completion of an important part in "Love Over Night," in which he appeared as the father of Rod LaRocque, Irving transferred his parental duties to Tec-Art Studios, where he re-assumed them in "The Wright Idea."

A New Tiffany-Stahl Film

Elmer Clifton, former Pathe-DeMille director, will make "The Devil's Appletree," for Tiffany-Stahl, and this organization has signed Virginia Valli to play the feminine lead in "The Rainbow," said to be a million dollar production to be directed by Reginald Barker. Exteriors for "The Rainbow" will be made in Nevada.

Rogers at Princeton

Charles Rogers, Paramount's newest star, together with Director Frank Tuttle and staff, are enjoying springtime near Princeton University, where scenes are being made for Rogers' initial stellar production. The Executive Board of the University has given Paramount permission to utilize any of the buildings and college grounds for the picture, according to word received from Wells Root, author of the story.

Al Wilson Has Narrow Escape in Accident

AL WILSON, stunt flier for the Caddo Film Company, making scenes for "Hell's Angels" while flying at a height of 4200 feet over Hollywood, narrowly escaped death when the propeller of the German Fokker battle plane flew off and the plane crashed to the ground. Wilson saved himself by jumping clear of the falling plane in a parachute. The plane was demolished when it landed in the yard of Frank H. Spearman, novelist on Franklin Ave., in the heart of town.

Keefe in Vitaphone Sketch

Cornelius Keefe was recently signed to play the lead in a Vitaphone sketch entitled "Thanksgiving Day," written by Addison Burkhardt, directed by Bryan Foy. Keefe has rapidly gained a foothold in motion pictures since his arrival in Hollywood a year ago, when he left New York after a successful run in the juvenile lead of the stage production of 'The Poor Nut."

"Mr. Craig" Selected

Warner Baxter will play Mr. Craig before the cameras. This announcement is made by William DeMille, who is bringing the George Kelley play "Craig's Wife," to the screen. It is the producer-director's belief that stage plays should be brought to the screen as accurately as possible, and he feels confident that with Irene Rich in the title role and Warner Baxter playing the husband, that gratifying results will be obtained.

Duane Thompson Featured

The leading feminine part in "Phantom Fingers," which is the new title given Basil Dickey's original screen story "The Stool Pigeon," was awarded Duane Thompson. The cast was headed by William Cody, although George Hackathorne depicted a role of major importance.

Re-creating a Carnival

A big carnival is in full swing at First National Studios. With all the gay banners flying, the freak tents filled with curious visitors, the barkers shouting to the crowds scenes are being made for "The Barker," screen version of the famous stage play of that name.

Trevor Moving Forward

Hugh Trevor sold Richard Dix a lot of life insurance and in return, Dix sold Trevor the idea of going into motion pictures. The result is that during the past year Trevor has been kept busy playing before cameras. His latest opus is the lead opposite Martha Sleeper in "Taxi Thirteen," starring Chester Conklin.

Lubitsch Editing

Ernest Lubitsch, Paramount Director, is editing his picture "The Patriot," which will present Emil Jannings as star of the Paramount release.

New Story for Sills

Milton Sills' next stellar vehicle for First National Pictures will be "The Wrecking Boss," a railroad story, dealing with the experiences of the boss of a wrecking crew. It is from the pen of Frank L. Packard. Eddie Cline is to direct.

A Lunatic Contribution

An epic of journalism was recently re-

(Continued on page 1906)

Conducted by
An Exhibitor for Exhibitors

BOX OFFICE PROBLEMS

By Charles E. Lewis
Managing Director, Capitol Theatre, Middletown, Conn., and Palace Theatre, Norwich, Conn.

The Manager's Assistant

Last week we mentioned the fact that every manager or theatre operator can utilize the services of an assistant with an earning power of over a quarter a million dollars a year. Of course, on the face of this statement, many may smile and think it a far-fetched thing to say.

Those of us who run theatres in the average smaller town have all we can do to properly manage the theatre without being expected to develop or possess an unusual knack for advertising work. True, some are more fortunate than others, in that we either possess such ability or have an assistant capable of handling or creating ideas along such lines. But the greater majority lack this ability or assistant, with the result that our theatres suffer for want of modern advertising ideas and exploitation.

But, is there any reason why such a condition should exist? We have a high salaried and marvelous assistant at our disposal if we would but make use of him, but, unfortunately, there are many of us kind of old-fashioned and we plug along in the same old way year after year, often wondering just what is wrong with the way we advertise and never for a moment suspecting that we are not keeping abreast of the times.

This high priced assistant we speak of is your weekly copy of MOTION PICTURE NEWS. And to make this point clearer, let us inform you that the advertising matter that you see in every issue is conceived and made up by trained men in this particular field. They are advertising specialists in every sense of the word. They don't have to worry about your box office receipts, about your projection or about your opposition. But they DO have to worry about advertising, and there hangs a tale. Why not use their ideas? Why not make their efforts swing business in your direction? In plain words, why not make them work for you? They have but one thought—to produce advertising material that will attract attention, that will best show off the good qualities of the pictures they are selling to YOU through the medium of the NEWS. And to do justice to the picture itself. And yet, gentlemen, you pass up the brains of these wonderful men every time you fail to use your NEWS for advertising ideas.

Why Not Employ Trained Help?

What a mistake. Just think what an asset one of those men would be to your theatre if he were working for you alone. If he were concentrating on your particular problems. You would, indeed, rejoice that you were able to employ such a man, and no question about him bringing results. Well, you can have him and a dozen like him without any cost at all to your payroll.

THEATRE manager, exhibitor, or, in fact, anyone connected with our industry, that failed to read Mr. Zukor's discussion on advertising, and Mr. Johnston's editorial on same, should be placed in the deadwood class. There was truth and common sense in every line and the value of this discussion to the average manager lies first in following Mr. Zukor's own example. He said, "I make it a practice to study the advertisements of all the companies. I am interested and pleased, because I know that such advertising stimulates interest in product."

That is the point that our own department on Box Office Problems and The Manager's Round Table Club have been preaching ever since they started. You too should study the advertising in every issue of the NEWS.

He is, indeed, an unfortunate manager who cares nothing for the ideas of other men and who keeps his own accomplishments a dark secret. The interchanging of ideas stimulates interest in what different exhibitors are doing in all corners of the world and the opportunity to profit by each others' experiences by knowing what they are doing and possibly applying their ideas in your own community.

Charles E. Lewis.

For example, we have before us a copy of the NEWS for April 21st, and as I glance at the front cover the first thing that strikes my eye is the Metro ad with a caption that reads "Lon Chaney, you are wonderful in 'Laugh, Clown, Laugh.'" Are we going to use that caption when we run the picture? You can bet your last dollar we will. If we did not watch the NEWS we might never have thought of that slogan. Do you follow my reasoning?

On the second inside page we read a telegram reproduction on "WE Americans" that is going to be used to good advantage when we run that picture. A little further on we find a two-page spread on Sue Carol in "Walking Back" that is a knockout, (if you will pardon our slang). It contains a blazing caption about the picture that I can visualize right now at the heading of a theatre ad.

In the issue of April 28th, we find some corking suggestions for ads on "Speedy" that no live exhibitor should overlook.

In this same issue we find some great slogans on Warners pictures that could be utilized to mighty good advantage in making up ad copy for our local papers.

Ready Made Ad Copy

Take any one of Carl Laemmle's "Straight From The Shoulder" talks and you will find a wealth of material that you can convert to your own use.

We find an ad on "Sadie Thompson" that could almost be copied right into our own newspaper and it would convince any theatre-goer that it's a great picture.

Then there is First National's ad on "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" that offers great possibilities.

And at this point I come across William A. Johnston's editorial on "Following Through" which every exhibitor in the world should read and digest. It is the very essence of what this entire department was created for. To help you sell the picture to the public, to make you realize the great value of your trade publication in aiding you to make up GOOD, LIVE advertising so that you can sell your public, whether that public is on Main Street or Broadway. That's what we are trying to promote, and if we can only succeed in making you look at the advertising every week in the NEWS, we know we will win you over to the idea that you can convert the majority of those ads into business getters for your theatre. It's the highest powered advertising in the whole wide world, so take it and use it.

But best of all these examples we have picked on in these two issues of the NEWS is the thought behind these suggestions—that you can convert them to apply to most any picture you are going to play. The idea is not married, in all cases, to that particular picture.

As I keep turning the pages of this trade publication many ideas suggest themselves to me from as many different angles. And if this department can convince its readers to try this little interesting game, we are certain we will win you over to these methods. And you will be just as enthusiastic about them as we are and many others whom we have already "sold" the idea to.

Send in Copies of Your Ads

But in justice to this department, we want to hesitate here just long enough to say that if you try it and find it works, please send us a copy of your ads, so we can pass the word along.

Now we have still another angle that is sadly neglected. That is the Press Book issued by the various producers on every picture. There may be some argument as to the real value of the Press Book, but that's no reason why we can't suggest that you make use of it for the selection of eye-attracting mats, or some idea that it contains that is feasible and can be converted for use in your town. The chief trouble with most of the press books is that they seem to be turned out like sausages. Now and then we come across one that really contains some marvelous cuts or mats, a REAL idea that has been created by someone who knows what he is talking about, and not just trying to fill up space, and other helps in the line of Reviews and readers already prepared.

(Continued on following page)

We often wonder if the men who make them up have ever had any real experience in the smaller towns where such ideas either have, or have not, any honest-to-goodness value. We know that we could make up a mighty different press book than we are now getting if it were up to us. But, anyway, don't throw it aside. Look it over carefully and see if there is not something in it that you can use in your own advertising, maybe you can improve on some of the sample ads they show. Or some caption might appeal to you. It's worth a trial at any rate, and we know of so many who never even ask for a press sheet when they book their pictures.

Give This Play a Fair Trial

Now we have tried to set forth as briefly as possible the many advantages to be gained by employing your weekly issue of the News as an aid to setting up, making up and suggesting advertising copy. Our only plea is that you try it for a week or two and give it a fair trial. You will be surprised to find how many valuable suggestions you will get out of a single issue, and how converting these suggestions to your individual requirements, will improve your own copy. Once you have tried it and found that it means something we are certain you will continue. Bear in mind that the suggestions offered through these columns are not just imagination, but have all been tried and found favorable. We realize that it is a simple matter for us to make suggestions, but should these suggestions turn out to be unfeasible you would soon lose faith in our little department and that would never do.

One man's ideas alone would never be sufficient to carry along a department like this so please, if you try any of the "helps" we suggest, send us along everything you can on it, and we will pass it on to your brother exhibitors. This is an open forum, and we want you to feel that your ideas and suggestions are as welcome as ours.

Until next week, I leave you with best wishes.

Paramount Starts a New Foreign Office

With the appointment of George Kates as "counsellor on foreign affairs," Paramount has started an office at the Hollywood studio the main function of which will be to advise on pictures having foreign locales. The new department will be in constant touch with the making of those Paramount pictures having foreign settings from the time of their initial scenes to their conclusions. It will endeavor to make the films technically correct in all details and eliminate anything that will offend foreign countries.

THE MANAGER'S ROUND TABLE CLUB

Applications for membership in the Club are coming in fast, so don't delay. We are reproducing the application blank again this week.

It is my contention that from the Exhibitor's and Manager's viewpoint, the MOTION PICTURE NEWS is the leading trade publication of today. And it is the purpose of this Club to educate all its members to "USE THE NEWS" and use it often and regularly.

The Manager's Round Table Club is the Clearing House for all Box Office Problems and ideas and the exchange of such ideas and problems will be of material benefit to every manager wherever the NEWS is read.

Don't forget to send us your photo together with your application for membership. If you have not got one, then have one taken right away. This idea of Managers hiding themselves away in all corners of the earth is alright, but there is no excuse for keeping yourself a secret. We want to hear from you and we want to see you,—and so does everyone else.

Charles E. Lewis
Chairman.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN "MANAGER'S ROUND TABLE CLUB"

I hereby apply for membership in the club and promise to send in, for publication, a complete description of every successful advertising campaign or exploitation that I put across.

Name .....

Address ..... Policy .....

Theatre ..... Capacity .....

City ..... State .....

Honorary Chairman
Wm. A. Johnston

Chairman
Charles E. Lewis

Key City Reports

New York City

ON the whole the Broadway picture houses last week had nothing to complain about. The continuous run theatres with nothing particularly outstanding in the way of picture attractions did a highly satisfactory business—which to a certain extent can be attributed to the sort of weather that made theatregoing propitious at this time of the year. Summer did not arrive and so the playhouses were not bothered by competition from the outdoor attractions normally of very great appeal at this period.

One of the best figures of the week was recorded at the Paramount, where Paul Ash and "Something Always Happens" were the attractions. Ash is credited with a big share of the business brought in and it totaled higher than his opening week on Broadway, thus seeming to indicate that the former Chicago matinee idol is finding his way around very quickly at the Times Square cinema palace.

The Roxy with "Don't Marry" and all the Roxy embroideries had a good week, collecting a goodly sum that ranged between $95,000 and an even hundred thousand.

At the Capitol a revival of "The White Sister" failed to stir up any especial excitement and the trade was not very heavy for a house that size. This makes a stretch of three weeks during which the Capitol has turned in only light averages.

The Strand had a very good week with "The Yellow Lily" as the screen attraction. This house soon is to offer sound pictures via the Vitaphone and Movietone process. "Tenderloin," will inaugurate the talkie features at the Strand, which is now being wired for the sound equipment.

The other continuous run house, the Cameo, had an average week with "A Daughter of Israel."

John Barrymore's new starring vehicle "Tempest" rushed into prominence among the two-a-day screen attractions with a bang-up week at the Embassy, where it played to capacity audiences. "Wings" at the Criterion maintained its place in the sun as one of the Broadway hits. Traveling along at a smooth pace, also, is "The Trail of 98" at the Astor. "Street Angel," at the Globe, and "The Man Who Laughs" at the Central did very well. "Four Sons" closes out at the Gaiety—where it will be supplanted by "Fazil"—with a fair record of achievement at the box office. At Warner's "Glorious Betsy" with the Vitaphone accompaniment continued to do a highly satisfactory business. "Ramona" at the Rivoli had a good second week and showed signs of wearing well as a Broadway attraction at this long run house. "Steamboat Bill, Jr.," failed during its two weeks at the Rialto to show any particular strength and let the Rialto down to low figures before it was followed in by "The Street of Sin."

When Tom Mix and Tony departed from the massive Hippodrome, they took with them the house attendance record. On Saturday approximately 5,000 people, mostly children, contributed to the financial intake of the K-A-O house. The cowboy star delivered a rambling monologue, shot a rifle or two and signed autographs for adoring children. However, one had to be close to hear what he was saying. "Hot Heels," starring Glenn Tryon, was the film attraction. Mix over-shadowed it.

Chicago

A SLIGHT improvement in attendance was apparent during the week just ended and the majority of Chicago houses played to better mid-week business than for some time past.

"Diamond Handcuffs," was the screen attraction at the Oriental and Al Kvale, an old-time favorite at this theatre lead the stage band, good crowds being the rule for the week. "Skyscraper," the feature at the Chicago, with a strong stage show including some well known stars, did only an average business.

"Laugh, Clown, Laugh" was brought back to the loop for a second run and did well at the Roosevelt, and "The Street of Sin," continued to pull at the McVickers theatre.

"Sadie Thompson" is drawing near the end of its successful run at the United Artists theatre and promises to go out of the loop with an excellent box office record. "Glorious Betsy" has caught on well at Warners' Orpheum, talking movies interesting the public.

The Uptown offered "Legion of the Condemned," and Pagoda Land on the stage to average business. "Don't Marry" was the screen feature at both the Marbro and Granada with big stage shows, Vitaphone acts and Movietone world events thrown in for good measure, and business was satisfactory at both theatres.

"Speedy" did fairly well at the Capital, and "Tenderloin" pulled well at the Avalon, both features being shown on a program including stage bands and acts.

New Orleans

BOX office receipts at the downtown motion picture houses have experienced a big drop during the past few weeks. Managers attribute this to the large amount of unemployment in the city. However, they are all optimistic, especially so since the flood control bill has been signed by President Coolidge, and predict that a revival is not far distant. Also, the city's officials have announced that work on a number of municipal buildings will get underway shortly and this will put several thousand persons to work.

It was a toss up between Loew's State Theatre and its across the street neighbor the new Saenger Theatre, for first honors in the best business competition. Loew's State featured Milton Sills in "The Hawk's Nest" on the screen and business was better than it has been for several weeks. The picture drew them to the house as the stage program was rather weak. At the new Saenger the stage bill was not up to average and credit for bringing whatever business this house did can be given to "The Yellow Lily," starring Bill Dove.

At the Orpheum "Dressed to Kill," with Edmund Lowe and Mary Astor, was the highlight of the show, although the stage bill was better than previous weeks. Bebe Daniels was starred in "Feel My Pulse," at the Strand theatre and was liked by those who saw it. "We Americans" had its local premiere at the new Saenger several weeks before and the Globe's business was not up to average.

"Harold Teen" with Arthur Lake was the Trianon feature but wasn't strong enough to draw them in, in large numbers.

Tampa

RAIN finally arrived and we had three days and nights of intermittent showers last week, which broke the drought and was worth untold value to the State, but, for the show shops, "not so good."

The Victory came the nearest to keeping receipts up to the mark the first, and rainy half of the week. The attraction was "Walking Back" with four Vitaphone presentations and the Movietone.

Since this house installed the sound pictures each show has been given an entire week and two of them were held over for a second week. This week Manager Peck decided to change the schedule and cut the above program to four days so as to bring in "Glorious Betsy" for a run of ten days. The three days of this week went over fine and from the way the customers are boosting it, next week should put the house away over the average.

The Tampa had "Hold 'Em Yale" as the feature for the first half. The picture seemed to pack plenty of kick and was liked real well, but it couldn't buck the weather. "The Fifty-Fifty Girl" went over better the last half helping out the average for the week.

The Strand had an off week. "The Big Noise" opened Sunday to average business but failed to hold up Monday. "Their Hour" followed for a three days' run, and it failed to draw. Both these pictures had adverse weather against them. "Lady Be Good" finished the week to average receipts.

"Josselyn's Wife" and "The Slingshot Kid" were the first runs used by the Franklin, with "The Divine Woman" and "West Point" in for second showings. None of them drew what would be average receipts for the house.

Minneapolis

BUSINESS was a bit better than usual at the Minneapolis movie theatres this week . The Minnesota enjoyed its best business for several weeks with Richard Barthelmess in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," supplemented by the Publix stage unit show "Gems."

The Minnesota, by the way, has just started a policy of laying more emphasis on the feature picture, and is expected to show much stronger photoplay attractions in the future.

The Vitaphone picture "Old San Francisco" showed to good crowds at the State, while the ever popular Beery-Hatton trio scored at the Lyric in "Partners in Crime." Pantages found that "Why Sailors Go Wrong" with Ted McNamara and Sammy Cohen, pleased the comedy fans, while the Hennepin-Orpheum rounded out a good bill with Irene Rich in "Beware of Married Men."

The Lagoon, a neighborhood house, did a fine business with Harold Lloyd's "Speedy." Other outlying houses, including the Loring, Arion, American, Lyndale and Rialto, were showing such pictures as "Rose Marie," "Devil Dancers," "Two Flaming Youths," "The Garden of Eden" and "The Warning."

About the only competition the movies had was at the Shubert, where Edith Taliaferro opened as a guest star with the Bainbridge Players in 'What Every Woman Knows."

Buffalo

FOR the second time in a month, the Lafayette is holding over a picture for a second week's run on account of the tremendous box-office appeal it showed in its first week's showing. Right after "Tenderloin," talking picture, wound up a two-weeks' engagement, during which the house's previous box office records were broken, another talking picture, "Lion and the Mouse," was installed for a week and it went over so big that Manager Bill Raynor is holding it over for one more week.

Other houses showed similar prosperity during the past week. Shea's Buffalo presented a bill that drew good crowds steadily throughout the week; the screen feature was "Ramona," which had been ably exploited and met with favorable comment from the patrons, and the stage presentation was "Knick Knacks."

Loew's State did a normal week's business with Theodore Roberts, in person, headlining the vaudeville bill, luring good crowds, along with the picture, "Diamond Handcuffs," featuring Eleanor Boardman. At Shea's Hippodrome, "Sailors' Wives," starring Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes, on the cinema, and a stellar vaudeville program headlined by Al K. Hall, clown comedian, brought average box-office returns.

The Great Lakes did the usual run of business with "The Showdown," featuring George Bancroft and Evelyn Brent, as the picture, and an army of freaks, direct from circus tents, as a novelty stage presentation.

Neighborhood houses got their share of patronage and did pretty well during the week.

Seattle

THE Fifth Avenue Theatre, with "Legion of the Condemned" as the screen attraction, was the local prize winner of the last week, taking first honors in a week of only mediocre business at all the houses. The air film, played just a week in advance of the road showing of "Wings," was very well liked by the audiences, and was put across by a strong advance teaser campaign. Fanchon-Marco's stage act consisted of several specialty numbers, including Bailey & Barnum, Nell Kelly, and a number of excellent dancers, and the stage and film units combined to make a very presentable show that played to good business.

At the Seattle Theatre, "The Actress" was the screen attraction, and it played to business that was slightly below par. The Publix stage show, as usual, was very acceptable and seemed to please everyone. The film did not have particularly strong box office appeal. Business only moderately good.

The Blue Mouse Theatre, playing "Tenderloin" for its second week, still continued to draw very big houses, with long waiting lines every night. The film is attracting much attention, but is far from a strong story and audience opinion is not entirely favorable. Regardless of that, the fact that it is the first "talking picture' is all that is ncessary to assure packed houses, and the second week was very good. A third and final week follows.

"Nevada" was the attraction at the Columbia Theatre, and it was decidedly below par. Business was not very good. An interesting two-reel color subject and some good musical specialties were the saving features of the program. A week below normal.

"The Garden of Eden" at the United Artists Theatre was another film that was not up to standard. It played to fairly good business for the week, but was far from being a strong box office picture or a particularly good film achievement. Business below average.

At the Orpheum Theatre "Skinner's Big Idea" combined with a fair bill of vaudeville played to mediocre business. The film had no appeal.

"A Thief in the Dark" at Pantages was slightly better, but business at this house also has been below normal during recent weeks. Both these vaudeville houses were under the average toll.

"The Red Signal" at the Embassy, "Aflame in the Sky" at the Winter Garden and "Truxton King" at the Palace Hip were all mediocre films that played to business which was nothing more than ordinary. Altogether, suburban houses included, it was a week below par.

Cleveland

A WEEK of very cold weather and of very good pictures made a happy combination for the theatres, and all of the first-run houses reported business that would be considered good at the height of the season.

"The Enemy" in its second week at the Stillman, continued to draw big houses. It's an unusually fine production and Lillian Gish was never seen to better advantage, "We Americans" literally packed Keith's Palace regularly each day. It's stirring and interesting and entertaining and possesses that spark of universality that makes brothers of us all. "Harold Teen," a comedy of the younger generation, with excellent cast, went over big at the Allen with a Jazz Week accompaniment. "Three Sinners" at State, a tale of continental marital tangles, did average business.

The Park also had about its average quota of business last week with "Across the Atlantic" as the feature. The picture has thrills, especially the trans-oceanic flight, which make it interesting. Keith's East 105th was satisfied with box office receipts during the run of "Feel My Pulse," a thoroughly amusing comedy. "His Foreign Wife," mildly interesting conventional tale, did just fairly well at Reade's Hippodrome. "Wings," just through its seventh week, is still going strong at the Colonial and will continue several weeks longer.

Neighborhood theatres looked up a bit last week. Due, no doubt to the cold weather and the impracticability of outdoor amusements.

Harrisburg, Pa.

CONSIDERABLY cooler weather the last half of the week of May 21 revived to some extent the business of the motion picture theatres in Harrisburg which during the first three days had shown a falling off of business due to heat and the counter attraction of outdoor amusement places beginning to open for the summer season. The most talked-of picture, perhaps, was "Drums of Love," at Loew's Regent. The play, featuring Mary Philbin, Lionel Barrymore and Don Alvarado. Bebe Daniels won lots of laughs from her audience in "50-50 Girl," at the Victoria, and, as a newspaper critic remarked, her supporting company was especially good. The week's attraction at the Colonial was Rin-Tin-Tin, in "Rinty of the Desert," and the famous dog was declared in one newspaper review to have appeared at his very best. Rin, as usual, attracted a large percentage of children particularly at the Saturday matinee.

John Gilbert in "St. Elmo," was the screen offering at the State, the last three days, and this play had a big appeal to the feminine element with whom Gilbert's acting is very popular in Harrisburg. The first half of the week the State showed Irene Rich in "Powder My Back," which went over well.

Colleen Moore in "Twinkle Toes" drew fairly well at the Royal, while the Russell did satisfactory business with "The Enemy," starring Lillian Gish and Ralph Forbes. Monte Blue, in "The Bush Leaguer," and Fritzie Ridgeway and Gene Gowing in "Face Value," made up a double bill at the Broad Street that was a strong combination.

Indianapolis

MOVIE business was exceptionally poor last week as the result of adoption of daylight saving time and several days of fine weather. Although downtown houses are continuing on the central standard time schedule they are expected to suffer heavy losses because of the increased number of patrons who will seek amusements elsewhere in the extra hour of daylight.

"The Crowd" at Loew's Palace did not meet expectations although the Palace and Indiana led downtown houses for business for the week. Baby Peggy in "oddities," a stage presentation, and Emil Seidel's band were added attractions at the Loew's house.

The Indiana did fair business with "The Play Girl," Charlie Davis' stage band continuing to draw heavily.

Receipts continued off at the Circle with Mary Astor in "Dressed to Kill." Dick Powell substituted the last minute for Eddie Pardo in "The Yachting Party," stage presentation.

Richard Dix in "Easy Come, Easy Go," with movietone and vitaphone vaudeville acts did moderate business.

Neighborhood houses began to feel the summer slump in business.

Indianapolis motor speedway on Decoration day will draw hundreds from the movie houses this week.

Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE theatres enjoyed a very brisk week, a pleasing contrast to last week's poor business. The weather was very cool and for the most part clear.

The Wisconsin theatre did unusually good business with Van & Schenck heading their bill, and "Feel My Pulse" as the feature picture. The house was crowded at practically every performance. The Orpheum was packed at every performance also; "Love Hungry" here made a strong appeal to the patrons. "Sadie Thompson" was held over at the Garden for a second week and continued to draw exceedingly good houses. "13 Washington Square" at the Alhambra was fairly well attended.

"Diamond Handcuffs" did very good business at the Merrill. "Burning Daylight" at the Strand played to very good houses.

"Why Sailors Go Wrong" was the photoplay feature at the new Riverside offered on a very good bill, and the patronage as a consequence was satisfactory.

Neighborhood theatres were also very successful in drawing excellent business this week. The Oriental with "A Girl in Every Port" found things very lively. "Mad Hour" was featured at the Garfield, Uptown, Tower and Modjeska and was a fair drawing card.

"Let 'Er Go Gellagher" brought good business to the Venetian.

Atlanta

ATLANTA theatres this week took an upward boom, although having very bad weather to battle.

The Howard rose high with Emil Jannings in "The Street of Sin" plus a good presentation.

Next door, Loew's Grand playing "Skirts," an English production with Sydney Chaplin enjoyed a good week.

At the Metropolitan, Lois Wilson and H. B. Warner in "French Dressing" proved a favorable number, while "Tenderloin" continued its successful third week's run at the Rialto.

Keith's Georgia rose above last week with "Golf Widows," a Columbia comedy, aided by an unusually good vaudeville.

Phyllis Haver brought full houses to the Capitol in "The Wise Wife," one of the cleverest comedies seen in a long time.

The Tudor with "Casey Jones" and "Blood Will Tell" had a larger week than usual, and the New Alamo enjoyed its usual substantial box-office.

Philadelphia

THIS week in Philadelphia was characterized by average business in practically all of the first run houses.

The Stanley had a good week with Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton in "Partners in Crime" and a colorful revue "In Bermuda" with Buddy Page as master of ceremonies, featuring Walters & Ellis, adagio dancers, Madeline Killeleen, Liebling Singers, The Eight Revelers and Sully and Coogan.

Enthusiastic audiences at every performance greeted the "Maytime Revue," a musical comedy offering, which proved the principal drawing card at the Carman, the film feature "The Escape," being of secondary importance. In response to demands of patrons for earlier and later shows, the Carman reverted to its former evening policy, picture shows being shown three times with stage presentations twice.

Richard Barthelmess, in "The Patent Leather Kid," which proved such a pronounced success at the Erlanger Theatre earlier in the year, drew good crowds at the Stanton all week.

The Fox with H. B. Warner and Lois Wilson in "French Dressing" and a varied surrounding bill, had a fairly prosperous week.

The Arcadia had rather an off week with "Baby Mine," a comedy featuring Karl Dane and George Arthur.

Very satisfactory results marked the first week of "Old San Francisco" with Vitaphone accompaniment at the Aldine. There was also a prologue and Tiffany color subject.

The Allegheny has inaugurated its new summer policy of presenting high-class musical comedies by a stock company of 35 principals and chorus. Audiences found a delightful combination offered in the play "Mary" and the latest Talmage film "The Dove."

The Victoria, with "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" aided by an elaborate lobby display, had a satisfactory week.

The Karlton with "The Enemy" and the Capitol with Douglas Fairbanks in "The Gaucho," did normal business.

Des Moines

AT the Capitol Theatre, the stage show taken from "The Mikado," was given a vote as being unusual, and met with good reception although some patrons opposed a program which did not give Jimmy Ellard a chance to sing. The picture was "Partners in Crime." The plot of the film is engaging and holds up Raymond Hatton and Wallace Beery, who are good enough, but have to have something new to be accepted with regularity.

At the Des Moines, "Diamond Handcuffs" was not considered so strong, but the Vitaphone drew in a good week's average at the box-office, cutting into business at the Capitol.

At the Strand, "Ben Hur," on second run did splendid business, as did "Bringing Up Father."

San Francisco

A FAIRLY cloudy and foggy week helped increase the box office reports of the first run motion picture theatres. When the weather is exceptionally good, the people in San Francisco go to the beach. Business, however, generally in both first run and residential motion picture theatres, did but fairly well with a few exceptions where extra good reports were made.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," at Loew's Warfield Theatre, together with the presentation act of 20 pretty playmates, was the outstanding attraction of the week. The theatre was crowded every day and night. "The Big Killing," with the Publix Revue at the Granada Theatre, also did exceptionally well every day the picture was shown. The crowds enjoyed the showings at these two theatres.

Charlie Chaplin in "The Circus," was held over a third week, but the people were disappointed in his acting and it was not boosted by those who saw it at the St. Francis Theatre. "The Street of Sin" was held over another week at the California and although it was considered wonderfully produced, the theatre itself did very poor business. The production is not blamed for this, as Jannings is very popular here.

"Wings" shown for a third time at the Columbia theatre at increased prices, where the seats are reserved, did good business.

"The Heart of a Follies Girl" helped draw many to the Golden Gate Theatre, the special acts being the main attraction.

The Union Square Theatre, reported good business with "His Rise to Fame," "Fleshy Devils," "The Race to Paris" and its vaudeville. Denny made a big hit at the Pantages Theatre in "Good Morning, Judge," many more would have been there if the house would be in a better location, however.

In the residential motion picture theatres, the Alexandria did very well with Jannings in "The Last Command" and the Coliseum did very well with "Sporting Goods" and its presentation act. Both of these theatres are Ackerman, Harris & Oppen theatres.

Albany

BUSINESS at the majority of Albany's motion picture theatres was satisfactory during the past week, and this in face of considerable opposition from the legitimate at the Capitol Theatre.

There were three money getters in Albany during the week. The first of these was "Ramona," playing to standing business each night during the week at the Mark Strand. The picture was coupled with two Vitaphone presentations. The Leland used "The Smart Set" and packed the house throughout the week, the picture being of the sort that drew both men and women from all ranks of life. In addition to the feature Manager Sayles used an exceptionally good Grantland Rice picture, and added to the usual newsreel several shots taken of the German fliers when they were in Albany the fore part of the week. The Mark Ritz did not do so bad with "The Crimson City," although considerable exploitation was apparently necessary to attract the crowds. Clinton Square continues to do well with its weekly change of double features, first-run, and staged "Bachelor's Paradise" and "The Whip Woman."

The majority of the residential houses said that business was above the average for this time of the year. Weather continued cool.

In Troy, "Easy Come, Easy Go," at the Lincoln Theatre, had the crowds lined along the sidewalk on Sunday night, and business on a par with the winter months kept over a four-day stretch. The remainder of the week, given over to "Ham and Eggs at the Front," did not pan out any too well.

"The Crowd" ran to excellent business for four days at the Troy theatre, but there was a noticeable falling off with "The Crimson City" during the remainder of the week.

The main trouble in Troy last week came from a personal appearance on the part of Peaches Browning at Proctor's theatre. The movies were deserted by many who flocked to the Proctor house and then found themselves unable to get much farther than the lobby.

Daylight saving appears to have hit the theatres in Troy harder than in Albany, business being reported about one-third off from normal. Reports reaching Albany's Film Row from the rural section indicate that business is also off in many of the smaller towns.

Ottawa

EXCELLENT pictures, excellent patronage—excellent week—were enjoyed by the exhibitors of Ottawa, Ontario, generally, from May 19 to 26, one day of which, May 24 was a general holiday, being Victoria Day, when the Weatherman drove thousands to the theatres with timely showers.

The attraction that was most "talked" during the week was "The Last Command" at the Regent Theatre, where it held the attention of big crowds every afternoon and night.

A feature that caught the popular fancy was "The Escape" at B. F. Keith's Theatre. Lots of people told Manager J. M. Franklin that they enjoyed this one very much and he heard no complaints.

An interesting situation prevailed at the Imperial Theatre. The big one here was a revival of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." The engagement opened with the largest matinee crowd in months and the attendance reached near-record proportions for the week.

The Centre Theatre had a busy box-office with "Lady Be Good," this being the only light entertainment photoplay during the week locally. The younger element were tickled by its snappy theme and peppy atmosphere.

Lon Chaney caused another big rush to the Fern Theatre where he was seen and enjoyed in "Unknown." Other subjects here included "Here Comes Precious" and the serial "Melting Millions." They were standing in line waiting for the box office to open.

All of the neighborhood cowboys caught the show at the Rex Theatre where the attraction was "Cactus Trail" and a chapter of "Blake of Scotland Yard" helped to fill the house each evening and Saturday matinee.

There was a fair parade to the Columbia Theatre to see "The Whispering Sage," with a mind reader as an added attraction.

St. Louis

GENERALLY speaking business in St. Louis and its environs was better the past week than for the average in some time. Good bills and fair weather from a theatre standpoint helped to tone up the box office.

Employment is also on the increase and neighborhood houses are doing somewhat better than in the periods of extreme depression, but business is far from ideal.

Down at the Ambassador Theatre this Ed. Lowry person who presides as master of ceremonies of the stage show continues to go like a house afire, so the screen attraction doesn't mean much either way. This week the feature film was "Broken Dreams" or "Doomsday" with Florence Vidor and Gary Cooper as the stars and got by very nicely.

Loew's State Theatre offered "Rose Marie" with Joan Crawford and James Murray and had a very fair week everything considered.

Missouri Theatre's screen feature was "Lone Eagle" with Raymond Keane and Barbara Kent. It came during the celebration of the first anniversary of Col. Lindbergh's flight to Paris in The Spirit of St. Louis but how much that helped the box office was not apparent.

At the St. Louis Theatre the screen attraction was "Hangman's House" with Victor McLaglen and June Collyer.

The Grand Central offered via the Vitaphone "Glorious Betsy" with Dolores Costello and Conrad Nagel in the leading roles. This theatre continues to do big business with the talkies.

The Vitaphone has converted a loser into a winner judging from the business at the Grand Central.

Salt Lake City

THE Salt Lake City downtown motion picture houses had very good business as a whole the past week, considering the fact that the warm season has commenced.

The Capitol Theatre did a very satisfactory business with Corinne Griffith in "The Garden of Eden," having also presented the Fanchon and Marco stage presentation "In Holland."

The Pantages Theatre is reported to have had a tremendous week with "Across of Singapore" having established house records here. The regular vaudeville bill was also presented at this house.

The Paramount Empress Theatre did exceptionally well with George Bancroft in "The Drag Net." Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton in "The Big Killing" played to fairly big crowds at the Victory. Monte Blue, Clyde Cook and Leila Hyams in "The Bush Leaguer" was the feature picture offering at the American with fairly good results having been enjoyed.

The Gem Theatre did an unusually big business with "The Forbidden Woman," featuring Jetta Goudal, with packed houses throughout the week being the result. "The Student Prince" was presented as a second run at the Rialto Theatre to fairly packed houses.

The New State Theatre here has been packed most of the time since the opening two weeks ago. The feature pictures offered last week were "The Haunted Ship" and "Tea for Three."

Betty Blythe in "She," a first run presentation here, has proven to be a drawing card of merit at the Jewel Theatre of this city, having been held over for a few days.

"The Night Flyer" with Wm. Boyd, is being shown at the Towers Theatre. This picture having been made in Southern Utah, is always a drawing card here.

Dallas

THE Dallas theatres had only fair attendance last week, the Melba being the only one to have more than the average crowds.

The Melba Theatre enjoyed one of its best weeks since its opening as a Publix house with the showing of its second vitaphone picture, "Tenderloin," featuring Dolores Costello and Conrad Nagel.

"Hold 'Em Yale" at the Palace failed to bring the usual Palace business. Few people are interested in foot ball at this season, and the stage presentation was not heavy enough to make up for the picture.

The Majestic had only an average week with "Hangman's House," starring Victor McLaglen. The Bathing Girl Contest was responsible for part of the week's receipts.

"Bare Knees" with Virginia Lee Corbin brought the average business to the Capitol.

The Old Mill had a dull week with George Sidney and Charlie Murray in "Flying Romeos."

The Arcadia did good business with Charlie Chaplin in "The Circus" and "Sharp Shooters" with Lois Moran and George O'Brien.

Cincinnai

BUSINESS at the various houses during the past week did not set any high attendance records, and while one or two of the houses maintained a fairly steady flow of patronage, the others did not get anything like good breaks.

The Albee featuring "Laugh, Clown, Laugh," together with some excellent stage presentations, did fairly well, although business was not up to the usual high mark for this house.

"Ramona," at the Lyric, rounded out its second week with a somewhat better record than the preceding seven days, although there was still room for some improvement.

The Capitol, with Marion Davies in Quality Street," together with Vitaphone and Movietone, had a satisfactory week, but not one that will go down in history as something to shoot at.

Keith's featured "The Escape," and managed to hold up satisfactorily, although this house has had better weeks to its credit.

"Midnight Rosie" for first-half at the Family and "A Woman's Way," last half, did an average business for this house, which has a following all its own on account of the lower admission scale.

The Strand in "Burning Daylight," had a fair week, and that's all.

Palace, vaudeville and pictures, did a good business, although neighborhood and suburban houses report returns considerably below normal for the past seven days.

News Reel Resume

In International News Vol. 10 No. 42 were the following items: The finish of "Cold Cash" Pyle's "bunion" derby; inventor of the ornithopter giving his bird-like plane a test; Mayor Walker inspecting the new New York subway; Helen Jacobs, tennis star, in final practice for English matches; Coast Guard cadets march at dedication of Arlington world war memorial; Salvation Army honors Gen. Wm. Booth, its founder, in England; Jap babies painted as charm against disease; chimpanzee in a wire walking act; test of artillery at Fort Story, Va.

No. 43 shows recent views of General Nobile and his derigible, the Italia; lumber shipment riding the rapids; Chicago girls seeking beauty crown; students of University of Miami diving for submarine specimens; J. L. McNab, who will nominate Hoover at G. O. P. convention; co-eds in a football clash; Hawaii honoring mothers of visiting sailors; Stanford winning the intercollegiate meet at Cambridge, Mass.

In Fox News Vol. 9 No. 69 were views of the crash between two vessels in New York harbor; the President and Mrs. Coolidge visiting home at Northampton; German zeppelin nearing completion at Friedrichshafen; Gene Tunney in training at Speculator; imported African beasts for zoos; girls rehearsing for St. Louis opera; Joie Ray setting a new mark for a marathon; chorus girls display the new spring styles; the historic gardens of Versailles opened for the summer; Mexico's cavalrymen in difficult stunts.

No. 70 had scenes of the Bremen crew's welcome at Albany; Spain's King and Queen at review of army reserve; King George and Queen Mary; King Gustav of Sweden; Pennsylvania girls contest to be state's representative at beauty show; an exercise device invented in England; breaking ground for the new $5,000,000 college for Los Angeles; society girls playing golf; U. S. sculptor who won Paris salon prize; camel taxis crossing the American deserts; the beautiful Victoria Falls in the heart of Africa; coast artillery display at Fort Story.

Issue No. 87 of Paramount News includes shots of U. S. Marines landing at Shanghai; new British plane in test flight; Sec'y Mellon dedicating new memorial at Arlington Cemetary; the "bunion" derby; test of the ornithopter on Florida beach; motor boats racing at Long Beach, Cal.; army guns boom in practice at Fort Story; scenes of Wilkens and Pilot Eielson, Spitzbergen after completing the hop across the North Pole.

M-G-M News Vol. 1. No. 82 leads off with glimpses of the competitors in the Pyle cross-country race. Its other scenes are: salmon battling falls to push upstream; fete at Luxembourg; new air destroyer of Britain in test flight; General Nobile and Spitzbergen, his base for Polar flight; ice jam near Moscow breaks causing rejoicing; Uncle Sam trying out his coast guns at Fort Story, Va.

Kinograms No. 5399 features German motorcyclists competing for championship; floral procession at San Jose; Sir Hall Caine in a camera interview. A fine novelty is had in close-up scenes of a cat mothering a brood of chicks. Other items include Japanese women flocking to their special shrines; young men made up as chorus girls for college show; a collapsible tank for swimming; a display of style aloft in the clouds.

Pathe News No. 45: "bunion" derby finish; unveiling a memorial in France; the Knight Templar parade in Reading, Pa.; wooden hats which Parisian women are now wearing; college troops erecting a bridge in 30 minutes; General Lassiter assuming command in the Philippines; General Nobile and the Italia.

Fay's Theatre, Rochester, Closed by Fire

Fire last Wednesday night gutted Fay's Theatre, Rochester, N. Y., so that the house has been compelled to close down temporarily. The first and second balconies were virtually destroyed by the flames which did damage estimated at $10,000 and for a time threatened the destruction of the entire building. Chester Fenyvessey, owner of the property, has announced that a cigarette dropped into a crack in the gallery floor, caused the fire.

No time has been set for the reopening of the house.

M-G-M Details Tour of Lion Mascot

THE proposed tour of Leo, the animal trade-mark of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, recently announced by the company as an exploitation ballyhoo, will follow the trail of the M-G-M Trackless Train, now in Australia.

In a special, motorized circus cage with patented feeding and water troughs and illumination for night displays, the lion will travel with Frank W. Phillips, lion tamer, who will put the beast through a series of tricks twice a day before theatres and city halls, it is said. Sheets of glass will offer protection against weather conditions. The cage is 23 feet in length.

An 18-foot motorized advance wagon will arrive in each town two weeks in advance of the lion's appearance. The wagon will have a special press compartment and will carry accessories for the exhibitor. A calliope and three special cameramen will accompany Leo.

Opinions on Pictures

The Street of Sin

Jannings Fine as Usual; Story Not So Hot

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

ANYTHING that Emil Jannings undertakes in the way of characterization is bound to prove interesting, no matter whether the story has merit or not. The new entry of the talented Teuton is not in the same class as some recent efforts, but it is forceful and dynamic in its play of expression. It reminds us of a Burke "Limehouse" story in that the central figure is a "roughneck" of the London slums. The tough guy has an affair with a dizzy blonde, but eventually gets religion before he dies. It is then that he encourages a sweet little thing to join the Salvation Army.

The picture could be more authentic in an atmospheric way, but one overlooks these matters of detail in the Jannings manner of registering his emotions. Yes, indeed, the boy is there. Fay Wray and Olga Baclanova help considerably in lending feeling and sympathy to their performances.

Drawing Power: Any Jannings picture will draw. O. K. for any house. Exploitation Angles: Play up star as supreme artist of screen. Bill as study of realism.

THEME: Drama of regeneration of brute.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Length, seven reels. Released, May, 1928. The Cast: Emil Jannings, Olga Baclanova, Fay Wray, Ernest Johnson, George Kotsonaros. Director, Mauritz Stiller.

Bringing Up Father

Jiggsian Skit is Fair

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

THE Jiggs, the George McManus cartoon family, take their comic strip troubles into a comedy typically slapstick and rough and tumble. The resultant comedy which emerges from this transplanting of the Jiggs-Maggie feud is of a sort which average fans will find entertaining. It can be said, however, that there are many two-reelers which have ever so more of comedy than this conglomeration of humor and fun which often misses fire, sputters and dies.

There are veteran comics in the cast, such old-timers as Marie Dressler, Polly Moran and Farrell Macdonald, and then there are the titles of Ralph Spence. But even these names which denote ability in fun-making cannot spruce up the story, which wanders along and at times seems lost. In the role of the comic Irishman, Jiggs, Macdonald does the best that can be done with such a character. But the best performance is given by Marie Dressler, who has a style of comedy all her own and an appreciative one at that.

It is not necessary to recount the story. Suffice it to say that Maggie and her rolling pin are kept busy socking Jiggs, that Jiggs steals from the house every now and then to carouse with his friend, Dinty Moore. Maggie tries to buck society, and the social aspirations of his wife are a cause of grief to the patient Jiggs. There is a happy ending.

Drawing Power: Everyone doesn't read the McManus cartoon, but there are enough who do to make the title strong in pulling power. The comedy is best suited for neighborhood houses, where it will best be appreciated. Exploitation Angles: See the press book.

THEME: Jiggs and Maggie are continually warring as man and wife. Maggie has social ambitions for her daughter and she regards Jiggs as an impediment to these ambitions. That his wife and girl might enjoy their fling at society, Jiggs buys a luxurious mansion where they can stage their balls and parties. Left out in the cold at these affairs and ignored by his wife, Jiggs makes believe that he has committed suicide. Maggie becomes repentent when she sees what is supposed to be the body of her spouse and shows genuine sorrow. Jiggs shows that he is alive and they are again the happy couple.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Released, March 17, 1928. Length, 6,344 feet. The Cast: Farrell Macdonald, Polly Moran, Marie Dressler, Jules Cowles, Gertrude Olmsted, Grant Withers, Andres de Segurola, Rose Dione, David Mir, Tenen Holtz. Story by George McManus. Continuity by Frances Marion. Titles by Ralph Spence. Director, Jack Conway.

His Tiger Lady

Fair Enough to Please Them

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

ANOTHER sophisticated farce-comedy bobs up here to furnish Adolphe Menjou with more opportunities to raise his eyebrows and assume that quizzical expression. As pieces go it is a good bet, though not so rich in mirth and satire as some earlier Menjous.

This one is thoroughly matured and carries on well for half its length, releasing many quiet chuckles in its journey around the spool and across the screen.

It details how a humble super, a chap who impersonates a Hindu dignitary, falls in love with a duchess seated in a stage box. To win her he keeps to his disguise and accompanies her home from a restaurant and pulls a fast line, which in the end nets him what he's after.

It's nicely mounted and doesn't go silly very often. Evelyn Brent is the heroine and is just serious enough to make Menjou score his points.

Drawing Power: Menjou's popularity. Should go well in all types of houses, but preferably high-class ones. Exploitation Angles: Tell of Menjou's masquerading as a Hindu high official. Feature Evelyn Brent. Bill as comedy.

THEME: Farce-comedy.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Length, six reels. Released, May, 1928. The Cast: Adolphe Menjou, Evelyn Brent, Rose Dione, Emil Chautard, Mario Carillo, Leonardo de Vesa, Jules Rancourt. Director, Hobart Henley.

Man, Woman and Sin

An Unusually Good Picture

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

MONTA BELL, who wrote and directed this story, has given the screen some worthwhile and commendable films, but in this effort he outdoes himself. This is probably his best film. Also it is one of the best films that has appeared in a long time.

The story is of the serious and dramatic type. Hokum does not emerge in its scenes, rather there are grim reality and disillusionment.

A different type of hero is also seen. The boy, working on a newspaper, falls in love with the society editor. Love is blind in his case for he envisions her as an angel. When he discovers she is the mistress of the owner of the paper he kills the man and is sentenced to death, not even attempting to defend himself in court. A happy ending is effected when the mother of the boy begs the girl, who witnessed the murder, to confess. She tells the judge the true facts of the case.

A slight telling of the plot does not even hint at the many dramatic and emotional scenes. One, in particular, is particularly good: the girl is face to face with the boy and the other man. To dismiss the boy, she laughs and jeers at him and tries to express how little she values his adoration. The finished and perfect bit of acting Jeanne Eagels turns in at this moment is wonderful. Only a superb actress could tell with her face that tumult going on inside the girl, her anxiety and love for the boy struggling to gain over the other side of her nature.

The picture has a sincere and logically knit story; it carries a splendid performance from Miss Eagels, an effective mother study from Gladys Brockwell, and a good portrayal of the disillusioned hero from Jack Gilbert; sincere and beautiful production from Monta Bell.

Drawing Power: An unusually good picture to which Gilbert will draw the patronage because of his popularity. Exploitation Angels: Feature Gilbert and Miss Eagels, who is the stage's famous "Sadie Thompson." Remind the fans of Bell's other successes, "Torrent" and "The Snob."

THEME: A young man, always close to his mother, gets a job on a newspaper and becomes infatuated with the editor of the society columns. He does not believe the tales he hears of her real association with the owner of the paper, but on learning the truth he kills the man and is sent to trial. He is saved from execution only by the confession of the girl.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Released, Nov. 19, 1928. Length, 6,280 feet. The Cast: John Gilbert, Jeanne Eagels, Gladys Brockwell, Marc McDermott, Philip Anderson, Hayden Stevenson, Charles K. French and Aileen Manning. Story by Monta Bell. Adaptation by A. D. G. Miller. Titles by John Colton. Director, Monta Bell.

Laugh, Clown, Laugh

Chaney Needs Them Stronger

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

TRYING to find something different for Lon Chaney is proving to be quite a task. He's registered such cameo characterizations in the past that it doesn't seem possible that anything could be left for him to enact. Legless and armless wonders have appeared and disappeared. What to do? What to do? So they've given him the hoary idea of the clown who must laugh though his heart is breaking.

Such a plot naturally reeks with sentiment, but in the present instance it doesn't ring very sincerely, principally because it is difficult to imagine the clown mooning all over the place for a girl who's scarcely out of childhood. She has a terrific hold not only on him but also on a younger and more attractive rival. When she declares to the clown, who has reared her, that she loves him he believes she is talking against her heart. So he performs the supreme sacrifice and effaces himself from life and the picture.

There's not much to it, and it drifts with heart appeal that fails to stir a tear. So it's purely a case of being miscast and harping too much on a tragic note. Nils Asther, as the youth, is not able to act other than artificial.

Drawing Power: Chaney's name. Suitable for average houses and first runs.

Exploitation Angles: Feature Chaney in clown role. Play up title and fact that original play featured Lionel Barrymore.

THEME: Drama of clown who sacrifices himself that younger man may win his ward.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Length, seven reels. Released, May, 1928. The Cast: Lon Chaney, Nils Asther, Loretta Young, Cissy Fitzgerald, Bernard Siegel. Director, Herbert Brenon.

Lady Be Good

Still Carries Some Kicks

(Reviewed by Laurence Reid)

WHAT was once a corking good musical comedy has been whipped into a more or less satisfying film, though not as spontaneous as the original. Since it presents a slice of stage life (the small town vaudeville type) it will be away ahead of "Broadway," "Excess Baggage," and "Burlesque," but this isn't saying that it will put them in the shade. On the contrary it is only fair as a funmaker.

Still it has its possibilities. And these are realized by the director and the principal players, Jack Mulhall and Dorothy Mackaill.

It is Mulhall who plays the part of ten, twent', thirt' magician, and Miss Mackaill is his "assistant"—the girl who, through the magic words, presto-chango, is produced from the cabinet. The act doesn't do well, so after a spell of forced idleness they quarrel, with the result that the girl joins a rival's act as a dancer.

"It is a "give and take" affair until a reconciliation is effected. The piece is easy to spot, but it has its moments. It will do as an everyday type of attraction. The players are well chosen for the leads, the principals fitting right into the scheme of things and delivering the goods.

Drawing Power: O. K. for average houses or first runs if program is balanced.

Exploitation Angles: Tease that title and bill as clever picture of vaudevillians.

THEME: Comedy drama of vaudeville troupers who have misunderstanding, but who are reconciled.

Produced and distributed by First National. Length, six reels. Released, May, 1928. The Cast: Jack Mulhall, Dorothy Mackaill, Dot Farley, John Miljan, James Finlayson, Aggie Herring, Jay Eaton, Eddie Clayton, Yola d'Avril. Director, Richard Wallace.

Hollywood

(Continued from page 1898)

ceived by Edward J. Montague, scenario-editor-in-chief for Universal. A lengthy conglomeration of meaningless words on about twenty sheets of paper was submitted to the genial executive by an inmate of an eastern insane asylum, enclosing authorization for the free use of his story, as a "drammer."

Paramount Re-Signs Brian

Mary Brian is to remain with Paramount as a featured player. The popular young actress has just signed a new contract.

The outstanding directorial plum plucked recently, has been handed Roy Del Ruth, by Warner Brothers. The popular director will direct "The Terror," an adaptation of the stage success which will be produced to synchronize with Vitaphone, throughout.

L. M. Goodstadt Dies

The film colony suffered a severe shock when word was received of the passing of Leo M. Goodstadt, whose death occurred on Wednesday, May 23.

During the past several years Mr. Goodstadt has acted in the capacity of an executive at the DeMille Studios, and previously served as casting director for Famous-Players-Lasky over a period of several years.

He was born in Richmond, Va., 50 years ago. He entered the theatrical profession at an early age and eventually came to California.

Mary Duncan in "Talkies"

Mary Duncan will not rush off to Europe upon completion of her work in "The Four Devils," for the reason that she has been selected to play in a Movietone production which is scheduled for showing at the convention of the Fox sales forces to be held in New York beginning on May 23.

Reconstructing Fox Lot

Extensive improvements are being made around the Fox lot. One of the oldest buildings, formerly occupied as a laboratory and now occupied by the publicity forces, is being torn down to make way for a modern laboratory. The publicity department is being moved to a new building erected on the western side of Western avenue, which will also house the writers, directors and supervisors. In addition, Fox will build two new cutting rooms and two more projection rooms. The improvements will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

The Alcazar Robbed

Two bandits held up the Alcazar theatre, on Baker avenue, last Tuesday night and escaped with $500 from the box office. They escaped in a small roadster. Both were described as youths about 20 years of age.

New Use for Films

A novel use for the motion picture camera has been found by Rev. Dr. Frank Dyer, of the Wilshire Boulevard Congregational church. To save the church, which has a $50,000 mortgage against it, Dr. Dyer had his own news reel made of those who contributed toward the amount, at the conclusion of his services last Sunday.

No Roving Menagerie

Following several complaints, August Mascotti was refused permission to keep skunks, buzzards, opposums and other animals and birds within the city limits of Hollywood. Mascotti stated the animals were harmless and were allowed the freedom of the streets and studios without leash and that there had never been any trouble. The police department decided, however, they were not the kind of pets which should be allowed to roam at large within the city limits.

Hoot's Leading Lady

Blanche Mehaffey is playing opposite Hoot Gibson again. This time in "Silks and Saddles," under direction of Henry McRae.

Cast as Gold-Digger

In the Pathe-DeMille production, "Power," the role of a city gold-digger is being depicted by Jacqueline Logan.

Geraghty with F. N.

First National Pictures Corporation has signed Tom J. Geraghty to a long-term contract to write originals, scenarios and titles at the Burbank Studios.

Mae Murray's Next

Alan Crosland and Mae Murray are holding conferences on "The Guns of Gault," a Denison Clift story, which indicates that Crosland will direct Miss Murray in her first effort under her own production banner. There is a rumor that some mechanical device for synchronizing music during the making of the picture will be used. Inasmuch as Crosland has made two Vitaphone productions for Warner Brothers, the rumor appears rather well founded.

Jetta Goudal Sues

Depositions are to be taken in London, England, in connection with the suit brought by Jetta Goudal, film star, against the Cecil DeMille Pictures Corp. for $42,250 for alleged breach of contract. Important testimony is necessary from W. C. Crothers, formerly connected with the DeMille studios, but who is now in England. Crothers will be asked relative to conversations he might have overheard which will throw light on the interest Miss Goudal took in her work.

My Home Town

Ordinary Heart Drama

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

THIS Trem Carr production is a sentimental yarn of a lady crook and the love she bears for a small town boy. It strikes about the average notch of entertainment.

The old tale of misunderstandings which the heroine wilfully places between her and the boy, so that he will go away thinking she doesn't care for him any more is told once again. Of course, the girl loves the boy but is willing to sacrifice her love for his own welfare. Plenty of efforts are made in its tearful scenes to tug at the heart strings.

Gladys Brockwell, who in emotional ability is a first-rate actress, seems here very subdued. Not vibrant as the heroine, she does, however, make the role, one which is kind of tame, plausible. Gaston Glass, as the boy, gives a fair portrayal of the hero. William Quinn is the nasty heavy.

This attraction will best go over in theatres where a change of features daily is the rule. Not suitable for presentations, strictly, in first run houses, its best medium seems to be the neighborhood trade.

Drawing Power: For the average film house. Exploitation Angles: Bill the star, mentioning her great work in "Seventh Heaven" and other recent pictures. The title of the film is also the title of an old song. Arrange a tie-up with a music store.

THEME: After a tilt with the traffic cops, during which he accidently caused the death of an officer, a small town worker is imprisoned. While in the jail two hoboes get him in conversation, and, learning his mother is wealthy, they help him to escape the prison and send him on to their New York rendezvous. At the hoboes' home in the city, the boy meets the sister of one of them and falls in love with her. The hoboes, really crooks, arrive at the house and forge letters asking the boy's mother for financial aid. Learning their duplicity the boy leaves them. But later he finds that the woman had no part in the deception. So they meet again and later wed.

Produced and distributed by Rayart. Released, March, 1928. Length, 5,608 feet. The Cast: Gladys Brockwell, Gaston Glass, Violet LaPlante, Carl Stockdale, Henry Sedley, Wm. Quinn, Ruth Cherington, Frank Clark. Story by Arthur Hoerl. Director, Scott Pembroke.

The Sporting Age

A Fair Celluloid Drama

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

ARMAND KALIZ, the actor, has written several stories for the screen. The theme of his tale here is the love of a middle-aged woman for a youth. Directed by Erle C. Kenton, the story makes a fairly interesting picture. Belle Bennett is the starring player. In other roles are Holmes Herbert, Carroll Nye and Josephine Borio.

Miss Bennett and Herbert give a good account of themselves in their respective roles of man and wife. Herbert is a sportsman and because he is not demonstrative his wife thinks he is more interested in his stable of race horses than he is in her. Concluding that he has lost interest in her, she proceeds to fall in love with the young secretary of her husband. Their love affair develops unhindered by the husband, who has been temporarily blinded in a train wreck. Gradually the man regains his sight and, unknown to the wife, witnesses her efforts to capture romance.

He believes in working out his difficulty in a sporting manner. He brings on the scene a young girl with whom he hopes to attract the youth away from his wife. The scheme works and the wife is made aware that she has passed the age for love affairs. The husband, realizing he has not been paying enough attention to his wife, reveals the fact that he has seen all and that he will try to make amends for his indifferent attitude toward her.

Drawing Power: A fair attraction and best suited for second run and neighborhood houses. Exploitation Angles: Place emphasis on Miss Bennett. Horse racing has something to do with the picture, therefore you can use a sporting display.

THEME: Heart drama of a married woman's search for love.. Her husband temporarily blinded, she carries on a love affair with the young secretary to her husband. After a while the husband regains his sight and becomes aware of the intimacy. He arranges to have his young niece visit at the house with the idea in mind of having her act as a counter-attraction to the young man. The plan works, the girl and boy marry and the wife returns much wiser to her husband.

Produced and distributed by Columbia. Released, March 2, 1928. Length, 5,467 feet. The cast: Belle Bennett, Holmes Herbert, Carroll Nye, Josephine Borio, Edward Davis. Story by Armand Kaliz. Adaptation by Elmer Harris. Continuity by Peter Milne. Cameraman, Ray June. Director, Erle C. Kenton.

The Wagon Show

A Lively Western

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

PRODUCER CHARLES R. ROGERS has come across with the goods with this western starring Ken Maynard. It is a winning film which should easily come up to all the requirements an exhibitor places for the western dramas which flicker on his screen.

Fans generally want lively action and a peppy story in their westerns. With this one they will undoubtedly be pleased, as Maynard supplies enough action to satisfy the most rabid, and the story incorporates a good line of events which have a snap and twist to them. Maynard and his horse, Tarzan, have a number of action shots all to themselves. One of the best scenes in westerns today is to see Maynard go underneath his mount's neck while Tarzan is galloping down the stretch.

In the story, which tells of two rival circuses which try to operate in the same territory, it develops that one of the circus owners is endeavoring to undermine his rival's business by unscrupulous methods. Maynard happens to be guiding the show of the honest circus owner across the territory. When the enemy circus owner's plans begin to work he lends a hand.

Drawing Power: Up to the usual Maynard standard, which means it's okay. Exploitation Angles: See the press book for ideas to use.

THEME: Cowboy working with a circus jumps into the fray going on between his tent show and that of another trying to force it out. The other circus tries foul means to drive its rival out of business, but the cowboy lends a hand when his circus needs it most. The star rider leaves the show flat to go over to the other circus, but the cowboy takes his place and succeeds handsomely. When the rival circus steals several of the wagons and the show is being held up for lack of equipment, the cowboy ventures over to the rival camp and after a hard race gets the missing wagons back to the circus site in time to satisfy the impatient audience.

Produced by Chas. R. Rogers. Distributed by First National. Released, February 19, 1928. Length, 5 reels. The Cast: Ken Maynard, Marion Douglas, Maurice Costello, Fred Malatesta, Geo. Davis, May Boley, Paul Weigell, Henry Roquemore. Story by Marion Douglas. Director, Harry J. Brown.

The Branded Man

Good Box Office

(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

A BETTER production than the average independently produced picture can lay claim to, an excellent story and some good playing [illegible] to make this opus okay at the box office. The story and acting alone place it far above the cut and dried film drama.

Charles Delaney and June Marlowe are the leads and Erin La Bissoniere is the feminine heavy. A product of Tod Robbins' pen, the story concerns a young student, who suddenly slides into wealth following the death of a relative. Caught into the marriage net by a tenement girl, and plunged into sorrow when he finds her carrying on an intrigue with another man, he departs from her life and the life of his friends and through an accidental circumstance is thought by them to be dead. But having slipped on the downgrade to degradation, he is fast coming up again as a young prize fighter. On the night of his greatest ring combat in which he wins over the champion he is recognized by a friend by a scar on his arm and he again comes back into the circle [illegible] left to find happiness with a girl who had always liked him but who, seemingly, he had never been interested in.

The story has been clearly wrought. A smooth continuity and a strong line of tension, it runs unhesitatingly along with the more than passable performances of the players giving it the semblance of reality every good picture needs.

Drawing Power: A good picture which should find a just response. Exploitation Angles: Mention fact that author also wrote "The Unholy Three." Play up the prize-fighting angle. Feature Delaney as a rising young player.

THEME: Betrayed by his wife, young husband departs from her life and the lives of his friends, all thinking him dead. Becoming a hobo, he falls in with a prize-fight manager and fights his way up to the championship. Recognized by a friend, he again meets a former acquaintance who had always loved him and falls in love with her. He is free to marry her when his wife, still carrying on her philanderings, is killed by a jealous lover.

Produced and distributed by Rayart. Length, 6,089 feet. The Cast: Charles Delaney, June Marlowe, [illegible] George Riley, Andy Clyde, Erin LaBissoniere, Lucy Beaumont, Henry Roquemore. Story by Tod Robbins. Adaptation by Arthur Hoerl. Director, Scott Pembroke.

"Reel Life"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

ANOTHER offering of Universal's "Keeping Up With The Janeses" series; nothing in the way of hilarious comedy may be found in this number. The usual domestic trials and tribulations of Pa and Ma McGinis are once again pictured, furnishing what the writer believes, enough laughs of a more or less slapstick nature to satisfy audiences not too critical.

Pa McGinis causes a general disturbance when forced by the domineering Ma to dress up for the stylish Jones' house party. However, Ma is more than satisfied with the sensation that she and Pa create on their arrival at the affair, not knowing that it is a stray balloon holding her skirt above her head and drawing the attention. Moving pictures of the guests are made by a cameraman, who is a "practical joker," and later thrown on the screen. They prove very disconcerting to Ma, when Pa is shown in active flirtation with one of the beautiful guests in the garden. Ma puts the show out of business and gives Pa a sound drubbing

"Holy Mackeral"
(Paramount—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

JIMMIE ADAMS works industriously as the starring player of this Christie comedy for Paramount release. There is not what you would call a whale of fun in its scenes and probably it can all be summarized as just about fair comedy potion. Harold Beaudine directed Adams.

Jimmie is told his uncle is sending him a few gifts and as the uncle is extremely wealthy he does not put up a kick when an elephant and a few trained seals arrive at the house. Most of the fun contributed by Adams consists in his efforts to hoodwink his landlord that there are no animals about the place. To do this he must carry on like a nut and his antics may succeed in getting a few laughs loosed. A fairly amusing comedy.

"Felix the Cat in Arabiantics"
(Educational—One Reel)

AN atmosphere of the Arabian Nights cloaks this new cartoon creation from the Pat Sullivan Studios. In it Felix, as usual, is an entertaining performer. The gags and story with which the cat has been provided make, along with his inimitable pantomime, a good cartoon to enliven any program in need of the light, fantastic touch.

Felix buys a rug on which he intends to get a nap, but he does not know that he has been lucky enough to buy a flying carpet. He goes to Arabia, via the carpet, and trades the rug for a bag of jewels. They are stolen by a thief, who has as confederates an army of wily mice. Felix has to put up a stout defense and offense to reclaim and keep his jewels.—RAYMOND GANLY.

"The Gloom Chaser"
(Educational—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by Raymond Ganly)

A NEW "Big Boy" number that is a top-notcher as a comedy. The team of Charles Lamont and the boy star is again responsible for an entertaining subject. One of the best comedies of the "Big Boy" series.

Little Lorraine Rivero, Monty Collins, Wallace Lupino and Eva Thatcher support the little boy, who more than lives up to the Educational motto, "the spice of the program." Though he has grown taller, "Big Boy" is still the likable little performer with a talent for acting far beyond his years. He and little Lorraine have several scenes in the new comedy which are appealing as well as funny.

An orphan child, he is adopted by a sniffy lady, who did the kind act because she did not want Lorraine, her niece, to miss him. The fun starts in earnest when the boy is brought to his future home. He smashes several things, causes consternation among fussy lady guests of Lorraine's aunt; and annoys considerably Lupino and the cook.

"Big Boy" has a fine interlude with a baby in the orphanage. He is cleaning the mite and the manner in which he does it will go over with audiences everywhere. It is generously laden with good, wholesome fun.

"Her Haunted Heritage"
(Universal—One Reel)

BEN HALL and his comedy teammates, bring about many laughs in this Universal one-reeler, which has for its setting a haunted house. A story of this type, carrying the "spook" atmosphere, if not too widely burlesqued, always proves good comedy entertainment, as in this case where Director Doran Cox has spun a web of uncanny situations, that are all the more humorous because of their reality.

Ben Hall, as Harold the cub reporter on the Clarion, learns that Annie, general handy girl around the office has fallen heir to some property. The newspaper staff decide to share Annie"s good fortune, and set out for the estate, where, upon their arrival at dusk, they learn the house is haunted. None too happy, they are forced to spend the night there. It is at this point that the fun of the piece commences, continuing at an uproarious pace to the end.—GEORGE J. REDDY.

"Just for Art's Sake"
(Educational—One Reel)

THERE is some very interesting matter incorporated into this Curiosities release from the studios of Walter Futter. Interesting is the word—interesting to the fan and to any concerned in the film industry. For the film deals with Hollywood and its environs. There are sights to be seen in the movie city, but you do not have to travel there to see them at first-hand. The camera here brings before your eyes some of the eye-catching stores and places of commerce of which Hollywood boasts quite a few. The proprietors of these shops have gone in for creating an elaborate atmosphere and some of their places are a blending of business and art. Among the places seen by the Curiosities camera are the Japanese Gardens, the Brown Derby, the Jail Cafe, a Spanish restaurant, a French bungalow, a Turkish house, the Egyptian and Chinese theatres of Sid Grauman. These are real Curiosities.—RAYMOND GANLY.

"Limberlegs"
(Pathe—One Reel)

GRANTLAND RICE'S newest "Sportlight" release is especially appropriate for showing during the late Spring and Summer, as it centers around popular outdoor sports of this season. The film presents a highly entertaining study, of the important part limberness of leg muscles and sure-footedness play in attaining speed in sports, among both man and beast. Producer John L. Hawkinson, has corralled for the human demonstration of this fact, such cinder-path celebreties as Ross Nichols, Pacific Coast hurdle champion, and John Lawritizen, the famous "sprinter." Speed kings of the race-track, both horse and greyhound, supply a splendid animal exhibition.—GEORGE J. REDDY.

"Pathe Review No. 24"
(Pathe—One Reel)

ISSUE Number 24 of Pathe Review is on a par with average release of this educational reel and presents as its highlights: "Picturesque Devon," a colorful pictorial of views taken along the English Coast of Devonshire; "Exterior Decoration," a novelty offering, showing the newest fad of female decoration; and another installment of "Sahara, The Mystic," a weekly film record of the adventures of Horace D. Ashton, explorer in Africa, this time at El Qued, the "City of the Ant Men."—GEORGE J. REDDY.

"Newlyweds' False Alarm"
(Universal—Two Reels)
(Reviewed by George J. Reddy)

THIS two-reel Stern Brothers' comedy starring "Snookums," surpasses any previous effort of the child comedian that the writer has witnessed. Director Francis Corby, on this occasion has secured for the mischievous "Snookums" a story that lends itself admirably to the type of "gags" and childish pranks the youngster is able to get over most convincingly.

"Snookums" attaches his affections to the little girl next door, and takes her for a ride in his toy automobile. Very much in love, he fails to notice a dozen or more pedestrians in his path, whom he knocks sky-high, bringing down their wrath upon his father, who, of course, is forced to pay damages. "Snookums" and his girl friend accompany their parents to a hotel opening, and it is here that the kid comic gets across a goodly portion of the fun. He locks the chef in a refrigerator, whip-creams his father's hat, and rides on a dish conveyor, to be frantically snatched off by his despairing parent, who, in doing so, falls into the washing vat. The climax to the film is an unusually funny one, making this subject in all, good entertainment.

Production Progressing on Paramount Shorts

"Walls Have Ears" and "The Home Girl," the second and third of the Great Actors and Authors series of short subjects, have been completed and the fourth, "Prancing Prune," is now in production. The productions are being made at the Cosmopolitan studio in New York City under the direction of Edwin Lawrence, stage and screen director. They will be released through Paramount.

In "Walls Have Ears" are Madge Kennedy, Efrim Zimbalist, Hale Hamilton, Roland Young, Gladys Hanson, Louis John Bartels, William Kent and Ann Shoemaker. The story is an original by Irvin Cobb. "The Home Girl," by Edna Ferber, includes in the cast Margalo Gilmore, Otto Kruger, Sylvia Fields, Miriam Hopkins, Alexander, Jr., and Vincent Lopez and orchestra. The cast of "Prancing Prune" includes Helen Hayes, Ada May, Hal Skelly, Jefferson De Angeles, Dallas Welford, Humphrey Bogart, Harry Beresford, George Le Guerre, Charles Eaton, Elizabeth Patterson and Josephine Drake.

7 New Pathe Shorts for June 10 Release

"Limberlegs," a new Grantland Rice Sportlight, Pathe Review No. 24, second chapter of "The Yellow Cameo," Topics of the Day No. 24, "Puppy Love," an Aesop cartoon, and Pathe News Nos. 50 and 51 are the program of short subjects scheduled for release by Pathe during the week of June 10.

In the Review issue are: "Picturesque Devon," "Exterior Decoration," "Sahara the Mystic" and "City of the Ant Men."

A Correction

A review of "The Devil's Skipper," which apeared in last week's issue of the NEWS credited First National as being its distributor and producer. This was an error as Tiffany-Stahl produced and is distributing the picture.

Regional News from Correspondents

Buffalo

HOWARD LICHEY, recently in charge of all exploitation for the Schine Circuit, will be Director of Public Relations of the New Empire theatre in Syracuse, which will shortly throw open its doors to the public. Albert P. Kaufman, associated with Marc Buckland in the direction of the new house, announced the appointment of Lichey last week.

An unsuccessful attempt was made on Friday morning, May 25, by two unidentified holdup men to rob the Roosevelt theatre in Buffalo, located at 887 Broadway.

Nikitas Dipson, treasurer of Affiliated Theatrical Utilities Service, which represents 200 theatres, left last week for Pittsburgh to spend a couple of weeks there with Henry Wilkinson, manager of the Pennsylvania territory, and to make arrangements for larger quarters.

Michael Shea, veteran theatre operator, and member of the Buffalo Lodge of Elks, is virtually single-handed raising most of the funds to finance the holding of the state Elks convention here in June. He turned over the Buffalo, the most pretentious theatre in town, to the Elks for an elaborate midnight show on Tuedsay night, May 29, and donated the attractions appearing at this house and at Shea's Hippodrome for the performance.

J. B. Butch, who recently disposed of the Elk theatre here, to take a fling at some other business, has taken the Elk over again from Billy West.

Shirley Kempner, young daughter of Marvin Kampner, manager of the Paramount-Famous-Lasky exchange here, fell and fractured her wrist while at play last week.

Manager Becker, of the Buffalo branch of the National Theatre Supply Co., announced last week that the Strand theatre, at Watertown, managed by P. C. Yournakis, has ordered 300 chairs, and the Lyric, at Utica, run by V. Danills, has bought 700 chairs, through his office. The Suburban theatre in Binghamton, operated by Arthur K. Manney, has purchased two Simplex proejctors with Peerless reflecting arc lamps; one Hertner generator, and a Daylite crystal-white screen. Mr. Becker also said that his office had supplied considerable material for equipping the stage of the Dreamland theatre at Bolivar, with drapes and scenery.

R. C. Fox, manager of the exchange here that bears his name, left last Tuesday night for New York to consult with producing organization headquarters there in regard to pictures for next season. John Bykowski, his assistant, is looking after things here in Fox's absence.

A. M. Atlas, theatre operator of Niagara Falls, obtained a temporary building permit from the City Council for the erection of a playhouse in Buffalo avenue in La Salle.

Bobby Albert, who operates the Albert theatre at Lancaster, returned last week from New York City where he spent two weeks transacting business and looking over the shows and other attractions in the metropolis.

Clarence Ross of the Pathe exchange here has stepped out with a new shiny motor car.

The management of the Avondale theatre in North Tonawanda announced that during the months of June, July and August, the house will be operated only on Saturdays and Sundays.

Abe Corrin, of the Alcaza theatre in Syracuse, visited the Warner exchange last week and was not as cheerful as usual. His son is in a sanitarium at Saratoga for his health.

C. E. Almy of the Warner exchange, recently appointed district manager in charge of the Buffalo, Albany and Pittsburgh offices, was out of town all of last week, visiting the Albany and Pittsburgh branches.

The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange here now has two Gottliebs on the staff. Several weeks ago S. Gottlieb came here to take over the booker's desk. Now B. Gottlieb has been added to the sales force. However, neither claims any relationship to the other.

Jack Berkowitz, who operates the First Graphic exchanges here, is commuting frequently these days between Buffalo and New York City, dickering with important independent producers with a view to handling their next season's products.

Marion Gueth, industrious secretary of the Buffalo M. P. T. O., was informed last week that W. Averill is no longer manager of the Park theatre at Palmyra, a post he had filled for some time. The name of his successor was not given.

Jack Thompson, an old-time film exchange man who once was connected with Pathe here, is in a hospital in a critical condition. A blood tnansfusion was resorted to last week in an effort to save his life.

Jack Crouse, Pathe cashier here eight years ago, is returning to this city to join the United Artists sales force.

Byron Interbitzen, formerly with the Pathe organization here, has decided to resume his pleasant task and henceforth sell Pathe's product in the Syracuse territory.

John Sitterly has taken unto himself a new automobile. He recently left the United Artists sales staff here.

Jules Michaels is getting tired of having the safe of his Regent theatre here blown by yeggmen. It happened last week for the fifth time in recent years. The robbers got nothing because they were unable to open the inner door of the safe after blowing the outer door to pieces.

Geo. H. Moeser, Buffalo branch manager, returned last week from the National Convention of United Artists in Chicago.

John Nolan, Buffalo branch manager of the Fox Film Corporation, spent last week in New York City attending the organization's national convention.

Gotham Productions, heretofore handled by the R. C. Fox exchanges, opened their own office here last week with Herk Webster, formerly of Bond Photoplay Corporation, in charge. Webster has leased office space in the quarters of the First Graphic exchanges in the film building on Pearl street. Miss H. Samuels, stenographer in the R. C. Fox exchanges, is resigning her position to join Mr. Webster in a similar capacity.

Pittsburgh

THE Stanley Company has slashed admission prices in several of its Pittsburgh theatres. The Grand admission was cut in half for matinees, now being twenty-five cents in the afternoon and fifty at night. Olympic reduced prices from fifty to thirty cents. Regent and Liberty from fifty to forty cents. The Blackstone, back to grind policy, at fifteen cents. The State has been closed for alterations.

E. B. Lee, Pittsburgh architect, is preparing plans for a new theatre to be erected at Morgantown, W. Va., by the Morgantown theatre and Morgan Realty Companies. The house will be built on a lot, 82½ by 120 feet. Seating capacity to be 1,400.

The Harris Amusement Company will begin at once the erection of a theatre at McKeesport, Pa., to cost in the neighborhood of $750,000. Seating capacity will be 2,500 persons. Present plans call for a straight picture policy, inasmuch as the Harris Co. already has a large combination house in this town.

Earl L. Crabb is the newly-appointed general manager of the Stanley theatres in Western Pennsylvania, succeeding Mr. Strakosh, who recently resigned. Mr. Crabb has appointed A. S. Davis as managing director of the Stanley-operated theatres here.

Rowland Lee Barton, for the past two years assistant manager of the Cameo, downtown Pittsburgh, has been appointed manager, succeeding James Palmer, who returns to manage Stanley's Grand, a position which he formerly held before going to the Cameo. Rowland is a son of "Bill" Lee Barton, a salesman with the local Universal exchange for more than twenty years. The Cameo theatre is owned by Universal.

Ernest Grimes, of Hinton, W. Va., is the new manager of the Oakford theatre at Richwood, W. Va., according to word from P. L. Dysard, president and general manager of the Allegheny Theatre Company. Mr. Grimes succeeds C. E. Cooper, who has been transferred to Ronceverte.

It is rumored that Rochester, Pa., is soon to have a new half-million dollar theatre, although the names of the owners are not forthcoming at this time.

Another Filmland Romance! Angelo Marino, of Universal, and Miss Genevieve Storf, of Paramount, were recently married in Pittsburgh.

Harry Handel, of the Centre Square theatre, has taken over Mr. Bennett's Victoria theatre on Centre avenue, but a short distance from Harry's other house, and the Victoria was opened under the new management on May 19th.

Larry Jacobs has joined the publicity staff of the Stanley Company in Pittsburgh.

Among the exhibitor callers to Pittsburgh's Film Row the past week were: Mike Manos, Greensburg; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kinney, Franklin; William Gray, Monongahela; B. E. Cupler, Washington; George Schweitzer, Titusville; Charles Feinler, Wheeling; Joseph Mercer, Warwood; Tom Rankin, Bridgeville; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hall, Uniontown; Mrs. Arcuri, East Canonsburg; John Newman, Speer Marousis, and Charles Freeman, New Castle; Guy Ida, McDonald and Maurice Baum, State College.

Stanley Jacques, division manager for Pathe, was a recent visitor at the Pittsburgh branch of the company.

C. B. Pascoe, after having operated the Grand theatre at Somerset for many years, has sold the house to Messrs. Blatt and Patton, the new owners taking [illegible] charge on May 21st. Mr. Pascoe will retire temporarily.

Central Penn

ANNOUNCEMENT is made that Louis J. Appell, son of Nathan Appell, late head of the Appell Amusement Enterprises, whose death occurred in May, will become head of the corporation which controls a chain of theatres, including all of those in the city of York. Louis Appell was associated with his father in an executive capacity and is familiar with the details of the business. He has stated that Phil Levy, auditor of the corporation for years and intimately acquainted with the financial details of its operation, will continue with the company in the same capacity.

M. E. Comerford, of Scranton, head of the Comerford Amusement Company, which controls a chain of theatres in northeastern Pennsylvania and in New York, confirmed reports that he closed a deal for the purchase of the Strand Theatre, Carlisle, from Robert A. Steele.

A formidable competitor to the motion picture theatres of Harrisburg will be eliminated after the week of June 2d, when the Morgan Wallace Players, who have been presenting stock at the Majestic Theatre, will close after a season of thirty-six weeks.

Flames came so menacingly close to two of the largest picture theatres in the business district of Scranton, Pa., when fire did $100,000 damage to the Glidden paint store and the M. Alpert & Sons furniture store last week, that the managers of both places of amusement, the Poli and the Strand, were compelled to direct the patrons quietly to leave the buildings.

Through the fortunate circumstance that she was in Sunbury visiting friends during the fire in the Capitol Theatre, Pottsville, Mrs. Lloyd Hause, wife of the assistant manager of the theatre, who lives in one of the suites above the theatre, escaped that ordeal.

Construction work on the new Astor Theatre, Reading, for the Equity Theatres, has progressed so far that the Arcadia, which occupies a part of the site, and which has been kept in operation while the work was underway, will have to be closed early in June.

The Stanley Company of America announces the appointment of Harry Knobloch, a theatre man heretofore in the anthracite coal regions, as a zone manager in their Philadelphia office. Mr. Knobloch formerly owned the Grand Opera House, Hazleton.

A big steel girder that is to be placed in the new Capitol Theatre, which the Comerford Amusement Company of Scranton is erecting in Williamsport, is 99 feet long and weighs 36 tons.

Fifteen theatres of Allentown, which had previously met and agreed to continue to operate on Standard time notwithstanding the city as a whole went on Daylight Saving Time, have rescinded their action and joined the Daylight Saving movement. They issued a joint statement, showing that the reason for yielding was in "the interest of harmony" and to prevent creating confusion in the city.

The body of Joseph F. Malloy, assistant manager of a San Diego, Calif., theatre, who was killed by a bandit in a hold-up in the office of the theatre, was brought to his former home in Allentown, Pa., for burial. Mr. Malloy become associated with the West Coast Theatre Corporation four years ago, and was placed in charge of one of their theatres.

Announcement is made that the name of the new corporation which plans to erect a $210,000 theatre in Kulpmont, Pa., has been changed from the Arcade Amusement Company to the Imperial Amusement Company. The backers of the project, it is disclosed, are three Mount Carmel bankers. They are Dr. W. R. Buckley, secretary of the board of directors of the Liberty State Bank and president of the Mount Carmel Chamber of Commerce; Joseph Mallinowski, vice-president of the bank, and John Zotkiewicz, a director in the bank, owner of a cigar manufacturing business and manager and principal stockholder of the Arcade theatre, Mount Carmel. The new theatre will be a stone and concrete building with a marble front, and will seat more than 1,000. It will be devoted to both movies and vaudeville and will be under the management of Mr. Zotkiewicz, who has had fifteen years experience in the theatre business.

Denver

THE following changes have taken place in the local Paramount office since their convention in Los Angeles last week: Hugh Braly, local manager, has been made district manager for Denver, Salt Lake and Butte, Samuel Henley succeeding him as manager in Denver. C. H. Watson, salesman out of the Denver office for the New Mexico territory, has been transferred to the Salt Lake office to take care of Idaho, and Brice Loveless, salesman from the Salt Lake district, is now in the Denver office, with Wyoming as his territory.

The Denver Theatre has inaugurated a training school for ushers. Arthur Greer, house manager of the theatre, has charge of the school, which is for the purpose of teaching the boys all phases of production and theatre management, and the initial lesson was on projection. Attendance is voluntary, but every usher in the Denver is taking advantage of the opportunity to learn more of the business in which he is engaged.

Charles Scheuerman, director, and A. B. De La Vergne, business manager of Scheuerman's Colorado Theatre orchestra, have left this organization. They have both been associated with musical organizations in Denver for many years, having formerly been affiliated with the Orpheum Theatre orchestra. Scheuerman will spend a vacation in the East, and De La Vergne has left for the West. Oliver Alberti has appeared at the Colorado as the new leader of the orchestra.

Mr. Sheffield, of the local Columbia exchange, returned recently from a trip to Salt Lake and Boise, Ida. Mr. Frederick, of the Salt Lake office, accompanied him on his trip into Idaho.

Duke W. Dunbar, secretary of the Denver Film Board of Trade, who is attending the convention of film board secretaries in Los Angeles, seems to be having a very enjoyable time, as evidenced by postal cards received at his office.

Ed Lustig, of the sales department of Columbia, was in Denver recently, and is now on a trip through western Nebraska and Wyoming.

S. D. Weisbaum and Sam Feinstein, of the local F. B. O. exchange, have been away attending the convention of that company in Chicago.

Chas. R. Gilmour, local manager for Warner Bros., left last week for a trip in the Wyoming territory.

Pat Argust, of the America Theatre, Colorado Springs, was a caller at the Columbia exchange in Denver last week.

Milwaukee

N. J. BLUMBERG resigned his position as manager of the Milwaukee Theatre Circuit, Inc., the Milwaukee branch of the Universal chain, effective on May 19th. He is succeeded by Louis Sewnig, formerly Mr. Blumberg's assistant.

Some additional changes have been effected in the personnel of the theatres since Mr. Sewnig has taken charge. The Rialto theatre at Racine has been closed and Leo Grossman, who had recently been appointed manager of the Rialto, has returned to Milwaukee to take over the Juneau, where he was manager a short time ago. Otto Lang, formerly manager of the Jackson theatres, has been appointed assistant to Mr. Sewnig. Edwin Koenigsreiter, who was managing the Kosciuszko, has resigned and Arthur Wertheimer was appointed to take his place. Mr. Wertheimer was previously assisting Jack Gross at the Sheboygan theatre in Sheboygan.

Charles Bauman, manager of the Star theatre at Oshkosh, was in the city last Monday on business.

Frank Welter of the Grand theatre at Wausau came down to Milwaukee last Tuesday and purchased a new high powered motor car.

Art Schmitz, F. B. O. salesman, is back on the job after an illness of several weeks.

Charles Powell and Roy Bettes have been added to the sales force of Tiffany. Mr. Powell, who was at one time sales manager for Fox in Milwaukee and more recently associated with National Screen Service out of Chicago, has been assigned to the central and southern Wisconsin territory. Mr. Bettes will cover northern Wisconsin and upper Michigan.

Ed Wagner has taken over the Park theatre on the south side from Bert Fischer.

Dan Kelliher, of Elkhorn and Delavan, spent last Thursday along film row.

J. M. McConville and T. F. Grady, Metro-Goldwyn home office auditors, are spending some time in the local exchange.

John Honus, who formerly managed the Opera House at Antigo, recently made the rounds of the exchanges.

The Milwaukee branch of Tiffany-Stahl, has recently received word that they have won the company's National sales contest.

J. Eskin, who recently took over the Orpheum at Richland Center from R. J. Theiler, last week called on Leo Blank, manager of Educational's Omaha branch. Mr. Blank assisted Mr. Eskin in arranging future bookings.

New England

E. J. O'LEARY, formerly district manager for FBO at the Boston exchange, has been promoted to assistant sales manager of the Pathe organization, with headquarters in New York City.

William "Larry" Gardner, of the Boston sales force of FBO, has been advanced to branch manager of this exchange. C. F. McGerigle, head booker, has been advanced to exchange manager. Harry Goldstein, who has been covering Western Massachusetts and Rhode Island, is made Boston and vicinity salesman, and James Kennedy, formerly with the Paramount forces, has been made salesman for Southern Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Branch Manager John J. Scully, of Educational, attended the convention of that company at Montreal last week.

Joseph Raymond, former theatre manager at Utica, is now managing the Strand and Rialto Theatres at Westfield, Mass.

Joseph A. McConville, Abe Montague, Samuel Moscow, Timothy O'Toole and I. H. Rogovern, all of the Independent exchange, Boston, have returned from the Columbia Pictures' convention in New York City, of which company Independent handles the distribution in New England.

The American Feature Film exchange, Boston, is undergoing extensive redecorating.

The Empire Theatre at New Bedford closed last Saturday, and the New Bedford Theatre is scheduled to close this week. No dates for reopening have been set.

Mrs. E. Mandell, formerly of the Saugus Theatre, Saugus, Mass., is now operating the Palace Theatre at Ashburnham.

Howard Duffy has been appointed manager of E. M. Loew's Colonial Theater at Springvale, Me.

Harry Wasserman, formerly manager of the Dudley and Rialto Theatres in Boston, has been promoted to field manager of his organization.

J. W. McNamara, formerly manager of the Jamaica Theatre in Jamaica Plain, Mass., has been made manager of five theatres in the New England Theatres Operating Corp.; The Jamaica, Dudley, Rialto, Rivoli and Criterion. These theatres are all in the adjoining districts of Roxbury and Jamaica Plain, Boston.

Harry Goldstein, who has been at the Shawmut Theatre, was recently placed in charge of the Franklin Park and Niagara Theatres of the New England Theatres Operating Corporation.

The Victory Theatre, Lowell, operated by Charles Williams, formerly the National Theatre, Boston, has closed indefinitely.

F. H. Welton, of the Opera House at East Pepperell, Mass., is seriously ill at his home.

Morris Pouzzner is now booking for the Central Theatre at Westerly, R. I., in addition to his own theatre at Southbridge, Mass.

Sam Goldstein, of the Goldstein Brothers' circuit, with headquarters in Springfield, was a visitor to Boston the past week.

The Casino Theatre at Oak Bluffs, Mass., opens this Saturday. Eugene Magee is in charge of the house for this season.

Luther Kelliher, [illegible] at the Pathe exchange, will become the bride of Arthur Fallon, of the Fox exchange, on June 18th.

The Grand Theatre at Fitchburg will be renamed the Majestic. It was purchased by Lionel D. Forkey from Morin & Fredette.

The Steinberg Theatre, Worcester, has been sold by the L. A. W. Acceptance Corporation to I. H. Joffee, who will operate.

W. J. Brusso has sold the East Fairfield Theatre at East Fairfield, Vt., to T. L. Tupper.

The Auditorium Theatre, Brattleboro, Vt., has been sold by Fred P. Sharby to George Sharby.

The Cosmopolitan Theatre at Lawrence, Mass., is no longer operated by A. Mozatto, according to rumor.

The Central and Waldorf Theatres at Waltham, Mass., have been acquired by the New England Theatres Operating Corporation.

Albany

A STIFF fight is in sight in the coming election to determine officers in the motion picture machine operators union of Troy. Nominations were made last week. William Jarvis is opposing Harry Brooks, who has headed the local for sixteen years, for the presidency. Charles McCarthy and Felix Mangoine seek the vice-presidency. Al Lemay, who has been financial secretary for sixteen years, seeks re-election, while Louis Rinn is being opposed by Arnold Lownes for recording secretary. John Boss is running for re-election as treasurer. The election will take place on June 17.

Harry Ross, manager of the King theatre in Troy, has been ill from an attack of quinzy. John Pfeiffer, of Schenectady, is trying out the King theatre for ten days and may become its new owner.

Children in the fifth to eighth grades in Troy's public schools were given a treat last week in three reels of Daniel Boone's life and three reels of travelogues, these pictures being shown at the various schools at different hours of the day.

Al Guteck, Albany manager for F. B. O., and Abe Van Dusen, the booker, were in New York City the past week.

Charles Stombaugh returned during the week from the Chicago convention and is once more at his desk at the Pathe exchange.

Quite a number of theatres in northern New York have installed the Vitaphone during the last few weeks. Schine Bros. have installed it in their houses in Utica, Gloversville, Watertown and Oneonta, while Harry Lazarus has installed it at Kingston.

John Fain, of Schohairie, was along film row during the week. Others in town included Sam Hochstim, of Hudson; William T. Finn, of Clinton; Len Garvey, of New Hartford, and Louis Buettner, of Cohoes. Mr. Buettner has apparently recovered from his recent illness.

There is a new theatre to be opened soon at North Creek with the Adirondack Fruit Company at the helm. No word has yet reached Albany as to the opening date of Smalley's house in Johnstown. Although buildings have been removed from the site acquired by the Stanley Company in Albany, for a new theatre, there are no signs of excavating.

C. E. Patten, of Adams, N. Y., is now running but one day a week, while Charles Morse, of Adams, Moss., is running but four days each week.

M. B. Riddell, of Luzerne, plans to run his house seven days a week beginning the last week in June to Labor Day. G. A. Woodard, a former exchange manager in Albany, who is now selling real estate, is doing the booking and leasing for the Luzerne theatre.

Charles Rose, who has been handling Smalley's theatre in Cooperstown, has resigned to become manager of the Liberty in Herkimer, one of the Schine Utica houses.

Lew Fischer, of Fort Edward paid a visit to film row last week.

The Bradley, in Fort Edward, is now running seven days a week, instead of the five-day schedule which has been in effect for some time past at this house.

George Doolittle, shipping clerk at the Pathe exchange, was laid up for four days last week by a badly injured finger.

Ben Stern, who handles the Lincoln in Troy, has selected new uniforms of a wistaria shade for his ushers. The uniforms made their appearance during the past week.

Al Lemay operator at the Lincoln theatre in Troy, leaves on June 3 for Detroit, where he will attend the national convention of motion picture operators.

Ida Grant, who leased her theatre in Hobart a few weeks ago, has decided to return to the business, and is once more looking after the house.

James Kelly, operator of the Palace theatre in Troy, has been laid up for several days with illness. His place has been taken by Mr. Van Buren.

W. W. Farley, owner of several theatres in Schenectady, was in New York City last week.

According to rumor, the American theatre in Troy may close for part of the summer. This will serve to force more business to the other Stanley houses and will be in line with the procedure of a year ago.

George Cohan, who has operated three theatres in Newburgh and an [illegible] in Poughkeepsie, [illegible] has been [illegible] sometime past, will be relieved of the duties with the incorporation [illegible] to take over the management of the six houses. Daniel Becker of Newburgh is one of the incorporators.

Joe Becker, who formerly ran a large silver fox farm near Schroon Lake, has acquired a motion picture theatre at Long Lake, which will open in the near future.

According to reports, C. L. Gardner, operating the Pine Hills theatre in Albany, has an option on a theatre in one of the eastern states and may remove from Albany during the coming year.

There were two carnivals in Troy last week. Thus far no carnivals have hit Albany, though several are scheduled during the summer.

St. Louis

THE Rivoli Theatre, Sixth street, just south of Olive street, St. Louis, Mo., recently installed a new washed air cooling system that is expected to tone up attendance during the hot weather experienced in St. Louis during June, July, August and the early days of September. The new system [illegible] in conjunction with the ventilating fan system that has been in use at the theatre for years. A series of pipes on the roof spray water in a continuous shower, and the air that is pumped into the theatre auditorium is drawn through the sheets of falling water. A [illegible] In addition to cooling the atmosphere the new system has the additional advantage of keeping dust out the fans.

Des Moines

YOUNGCLASS & LATTA, who have been in partnership for more than a year in the management of the Grand and Foxy theatres at Perry, Ia., closed a deal last week in which they transferred these theatres to Mr. Stanley. Youngclass and Latta succeeded, some time back, in putting across a campaign for Sunday shows in Perry. They will retain their theatre interests at Woodward, Iowa.

Visitors at the office of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer the past week were: W. A. Torrey of Eddyville, who has the Bonzo theatre there; F. G. Sterns of Corydon, W. A. Graham of Knoxville and Walter Carroll of Colfax.

The young son of Bill Eddy is managing the theatre at Indianola. Bill was for several weeks at the Lutheran Hospital in Des Moines recuperating from a stomach disorder, and is now on a strict diet.

Air Day celebration in Iowa, with three dozen planes taking part in the Register-Tribune's program, meant a half holiday for the film exchanges.

John Elman of the Amuzu theatre, an East Des Moines house, is to have his first vacation in fifteen years. He is planning a three months trip to California. Mrs. Elman will accompany him.

The Des Moines, Omaha and Sioux Falls offices of the F. B. O. exchanges held a joint conference on Sunday and Monday of last week. Those who went from the Des Moines office were H. R. Frankel, manager of the branch; William Beale, Bob Green, A. B. Seymour and R. W. McEwen.

Fred McConnell, former trade paper man, and now service director out of the New York office of Universal, was in Des Moines last week. A special sales meeting was conducted by Mr. McConnell with all the salesmen in from the road for the conference.

Lew Morgans, who was for some time salesman for Paramount, and after that a member of the Pathe sales staff, has opened a music shop next door to the Des Moines theatre.

W. E. Banford, manager for M. G. M., operated in the southern Iowa territory last week.

Ralph Pratt, of the Fox theatre at Washington, was seen along film row last week.

The Auditorium and the Opera House at Harlen, Iowa, are to be completely redecorated and extensive changes made in construction. George Spooner, architect in charge of the reconstruction work, states that the house is to have a new heating system, new stage effects and lighting fixtures. A stage is to be constructed and the theatre, which will occupy the main floor of the building, will be installed with 600 new seats.

Exhibitors of western Iowa attended the Nebraska Iowa M. P. T. O. A. meeting last week. The next meeting is planned for November.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones are again operating the Gem theatre, Des Moines, having rebought the theatre from Fred Worrel of Oskaloosa, Ia.

Dave Bader, general accessory manager for Universal, arrived in Des Moines last week to assist Bert Thomas, the new accessory manager for the Des Moines office, in getting a start.

Mrs. M. C. Wentland, who was owner of the Strand theatre at Victor, Iowa, has again taken the management of this house. Mrs. Wentland sold the house two years ago to Sam Sosna.

Kummerfeldt and Chapman last week bought the Rialto theatre at Terrill, Iowa, from M. L. Lamb, who expects to take up other interests in the theatre business.

Florida

THE Panama theatre, Panama City, was totally destroyed by fire last Sunday. However, no interruption in the moving picture program was caused, due to the ingenuity of W. M. Atkinson, owner and operator of the house.

Although finding himself completely without a theatre Sunday night, Manager Atkinson opened up in a vacant store with chairs and began his first show on time Monday morning.

Mr. Atkinson announces that he will immediately begin plans for rebuilding.

According to reports from Eustis, there will be no more Sunday shows, beginning the 27th of May. Clergymen strongly protested Sunday showings, so Chief of Police W. J. Davis issued orders for a general close-down.

C. P. Lester, manager Universal exchange, was in Tampa the past week.

John B. Carroll, general manager of the Consolidated Amusements, Tampa, who control all of the big down theatres, is taking a short vacation this week, visiting in Asheville, his former home.

R. H. Palmer, Jr., manager of the Ramon at Frostproof, accompanied by his wife and daughter, visited in Tampa recently.

Since the Seminole, Tampa's de luxe neighborhood house, was opened, the policy has been second run pictures and a daily change of program. Two weeks ago Manager O. G. Finley broke the rule with two and three day runs, and business was good.

Manager C. B. Ellis, F. B. O. exchange, returned from the company's Chicago convention last Saturday, brining with him a cigarlighter, which was presented to him as a prize for his work in the Managers' Spring Clean-up Drive. He was the winner in his division.

While on a visit to the Jacksonville Universal exchange last week, J. V. Yearty, of Trenton, Fla., announced that his new theatre at Trenton will open Saturday, May 26. It will be the first motion picture house in Trenton and will be known as the Gilchrist.

The management of the Capitol, an airdome theatre in St. Petersburg, has contracted for the building of sidewalls and a roof over the entire lot and it will soon be a completely enclosed theatre.

Arthur Elchinger, formerly manager of the Grand, Tampa, until it closed last month, and then assistant at the Strand, has resigned and will leave for New York next week. Charles Kirkconnell, who has been house manager at the Franklin, will be transferred to the Strand to the berth left vacant by Arthur and Charles Lankford will succeed Kirkconnell at the Franklin.

The members of F. B. O. exchange were treated to a beach party-dance and chicken dinner last Thursday night by Manager Ellis.

The Palace, Jacksonville, which reopened last Saturday, has the appearance of a new theatre from the outside. Fresh paint, new electric signs and a general freshening up add to its appearance.

J. H. McLaughlin, former manager of the Franklin, Tampa, has been placed in charge of amusements and entertainments for the Elks' convention which will be staged in Tampa the coming month.

N. V. Darley, manager of the Rivoli in Ybor City and the Royal at Tarpon Springs, sailed last Thursday on the Cuba for a second visit to Havana. Mr. Darley may invest in some amusement enterprises there.

Manager Scotty Chesnutt, of Paramount Exchange, and his salesmen, Stiles and Stevens, returned last Sunday from the sales convention held at Washington, D. C.

Manager C. P. Lester, of the Jacksonville Universal Exchange, is making a trip down the West Coast territory.

Mrs. Muriel Sykes, the efficient secretary of C. B. Ellis, manager of FBO exchange, is spending her vacation at Lakeland.

Kansas City

FOR the first time a stage band will be used permanently in a Kansas City suburban house. The Tracey Brown orchestra of Omaha has been engaged by the Uptown theatre, one of Kansas City's larger suburban houses, for an unlimited run.

The Ritz theatre, suburban house of Kansas City, will be operated by Dr. Nathan Zoglin, who purchased it from Oscar Litwin. Dr. Zoglin owns a building which houses several exchanges on Movie Row.

Universal Chain Theatrical Enterprises, Inc., announces the appointment of L. M. Garman as manager of its Uptown Theatre, Kansas City, Mo. Garman will also supervise the Apollo, Lincoln, Isis, Gillham and Gladstone theatres, other units of the "U" chain in this city.

Martin Finkelstein has been appointed assistant supervisor of these theatres, having been promoted from the ranks.

C. A. "Red" Jones, Tiffany branch manager, was out in the territory hustling for more contracts last week.

Russell Borg, of the Educational branch, hurried away from his desk to catch a train for Montreal, Canada, to attend a sales convention of his company.

C. E. "Doc" Cook, former business manager of the M. P. T. O. Kansas-Missouri, who resigned about a year ago, and who since has been representing Pathe, has moved to Maryville, Mo., where he will be associated with his father and brother in managing the Missouri and Electric theatres.

Seattle

SEVERAL changes in the ownership and operation of smaller theatres in the Pacific Northwest territory were announced on film row in Seattle, Washington, last week. They include the following.

Sale of Liberty theatre at Nyssa, Idaho, by Milton Leigh to G. C. Knight, who plans to acquire houses in neighborhood towns within the next few months. Sale of the Community theatre at Belgrade, Mont., to Martin Lawrence. Sale of the Grand theatre at Grass Range, Mont., to Jess Morgan.

Star theatre at Igomar, Mont., sold to J. M. Miller, by Henry Harbricht; also the Rialto theatre bought by George Kahn from Rex Flint at Terry, Mont.; Winifred theatre at Winifred, sold by Paul Sudan to A. W. Harris; Project theatre at Warden, Mont., sold to Sward Orton by Delano & Hoefert.

B. T. Metter is the new owner of the Princess theatre at Troy, Idaho, acquired from W. F. Kientz. Idaho closings for the summer season include the Liberty theatre at Kamai and the Temple theatre at Nez Perce.

Lee Theuerkauf arrived in this city last week with Les Weir, district manager of Pathe, and has been duly installed as manager of the Seattle exchange for the Pathe organization. Mr. Theuerkauf was formerly district chief for Universal. He succeeded L. A. Samuelson, who resigned two weeks ago.

Benjamin Wallace Rucker, manager of the local Educational exchange, last week was elected president of the Northwest Film Board of Trade of Seattle, succeeding the previously-mentioned Mr. Samuelson, who resigned the president's position at the time he severed his connections with Pathe.

Leroy V. Johnson, general manager of Jensen-VonHerberg's suburban theatrical interests in this city, returned last week from a trip to Montana, occasioned by the illness of his wife.

Ben F. Shearer, president of the B. F. Shearer Theatre Supply Co., returned last week from California after completing the entire job of decorating and equipping the Morosco theatre in Los Angeles in record-breaking time.

J. A. Gage, former Educational manager in Seattle and more recently head of the Tiffany-Stahl office, last week was appointed West Coast representative of the Vitaphone division of Warner Bros. company. This was the information released at the time of the visit here of Joseph Skirboll, West Coast district manager of the same organization, who spent several days in business conference with Carl Stearn, manager of the local Warner office.

Paramount's local exchange, under the direction of Neal East, last week celebrated the opening of beautiful new quarters on Seattle's new film row, at 2413 Second avenue.

Rolla Duncan, Northwest showman, last week opened his new Avalon theatre in Olympia, Washington, operating this 650-seat house on a 25c. first run policy.

F. F. Vincent, exploiteer recently connected with Universal's chain of suburban theatres in this territory, has been transferred to the Universal exchange in Portland.

Harry Akins, veteran manager for some of John Danz's Sterling Chain Theatre houses, last week announced his resignation from that organization and has started with his family for California. He plans to make connections with a similar operating company in the southern locality.

Art Adamson, former sales representative for Pathe in the Oregon territory and Universal in Seattle, last week was appointed to the sales staff of the Seattle Pathe exchange.

Clem Pope, one of the operators of the Clemmer theatre in Spokane, spent a short time on film row last week.

James M. Beale, manager of the Tiffany-Stahl exchange here; Chas. Beale, his brother, head of the Portland exchange; D. C. Millward, general manager of the territory; and Fred Knight, manager of the Northwestern Film Corporation, are all in Los Angeles at present, absorbing the information about Tiffany-Stahl's product for 1928 and 1929.

Hal Elais, connected with the publicity department of Ben Fish's local Metro-Goldywyn-Mayer exchange for the last few months, was called back to the home office last week.

George and Lee Brewerton, operators of the Orpheum theatre in Shelby, Mont., were Seattle visitors last week. Part of their time was spent selecting new decorations and equipment for their house.

Lou Metzelaar, sales representative of the local Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer exchange, last week bought a new car.

Jess Beckman and Rex Thompson, film men of this territory who recently acquired control of the Community theatre at Port Orchard, planned an elaborate reopening campaign for last week. A considerable amount of money has been spent by the new owners in the remodeling and re-equipping of the house.

L. J. McGinley last week joined Manager Matt Aparton's local Universal sales force. His first trip was to San Francisco, with Mr. Aparton, to attend the "U" convention.

B. Jaycox, supervisor of playdates for Universal out of the New York office, left last week after a few days visit.

Cincinnati

ACCORDING to present indications, the Walnut Theatre, a historical landmark in Cincinnati, which was closed several weeks ago on account of proving an unprofitable picture house, will not reopen. It is reported that local parties have secured an option from the Keith-Albee-Harris-Libson Heidingsfeld interests, and that a large garage will likely replace the present structure.

The Forest Theatre, a neighborhood house, located in Avondale, has closed for the summer. Concurrently with the closing, the Forest Airdome, located next to the theatre proper, began operations. Through strategic placing of the organ in the Forest when remodeling last summer, the theatre organ will be used for the airdome programs.

The Palace Theatre, playing vaudeville and pictures, has inaugurated a new schedule of showings. Picture programs now begin at 1 P. M. instead of 10 A. M., as heretofore, except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, when the old hours are in effect. Vaudeville performances are given but three times daily under this new arrangement, instead of continuously as heretofore.

Henry C. Geis, feature organist at the Albee Theatre, Cincinnati, since the house was opened several months ago, has resigned, and his future plans are indefinite. No successor has been named.

Both the Palace and Rialto Theatres, Hamilton, Ohio, are changing pictures three times a week instead of twice as has been the custom during the regular season. Two changes per week will be resumed in the fall.

The son of John Schwalm, manager of the Rialto Theatre, Hamilton, narrowly missed death recently when he figured in an automobile mishap. No bodily injuries were sustained, although young Schwalm's car was very badly damaged when struck by another machine.

The Peoples Theatre Co., Dayton, Ohio, has appointed Geyer & Newffer as architects to design a new house at Third and Mathison streets. The building will contain stores and apartments in addition to the theatre.

Joe Goetz, manager of the State Theatre, Dayton, Ohio, and, incidentally, one of the youngest managers in the Middle West, has attired his ushers in full regulation sailor outfits, which, he says, adds an air of coolness to the house.

Majestic Theatre, Mansfield, O., has closed for the summer, and will be extensively remodeled before opening again in the fall, according to Manager George J. Reister.

FOR SALE

One Egyptian Setting complete.

Two Painted Backings
Two Real Jars
Two Incense Stands
Artificial Vines

One pair Close in Curtains made of sport satin.

One pair Screen or Title curtains made of Brilliant cloth with 50% fullness and lined with sateen. Black velour surroundings for Picture screen including two special appliqued panels.

One Ground cloth of heavy duck painted in dyes.

One Sky border cyclorama.

One Cyclorama of LUSTRE metal Gold cloth lined with sateen, size 24′ x 66′, with 1-3 fullness.

One Special Fabric Drop size 24′ x 48′, 50% fullness lined with sateen.

One Black Velour Drop size 24′ x 48′.

One Black Velour Border size 9′ x 52′.

Two Black Velour Legs size 24′ x 8′.

All of the above velours have 1-3 fullness.

PUBLIX THEATRES CORPORATION
PARAMOUNT BUILDING
NEW YORK CITY

Price furnished upon request
Apply M. J. Mullin

Cleveland

CONTINUED cold weather has worked in favor of business at the local theatres. The big attractions are continuing to draw big crowds. As yet, outdoor competition is nothing to worry about. While there is talk of curtailing the number of operating days at neighborhood houses, nothing has been done to put this summer practice into effect. As long as the thermometer stays down to 60 degrees, theatres will continue their winter policies.

Walter Loewe has resigned from the local United Artists sales force. He is reported to have joined the First National office in Cleveland.

Saul Resnick, United Artist sales manager, has returned from a three days convention in Chicago.

The first type M Simplex projection machine to be installed in this territory through the Cleveland office of the National Theatre Supply Co., went into the American theatre at East Liverpool. The American belongs to the Tri-State Amusement Co., chain operators.

Sam Lurie, Pittsburgh exhibitor, has entered the Cleveland exhibition field. He recently purchased the Arion theatre, Kinsman Road and East 130th street, formerly owned by Messrs, Shenker and Deutsch. Lurie operated several motion picture houses in Pittsburgh.

Ward Scott, local Fox exchange manager, is conventioning. First he attended the national Fox convention in New York. Then he attended the midwest regional convention in Chicago. The booker and sales staff of the office also attended the Chicago gathering, which was held June 1st and 2nd at the Stevens Hotel. Those who went were booker F. J. Hunt, and salesmen H. J. Gell, D. Klein, D. S. Davidson, L. C. Thompson, C. J. Ward and J. F. Bruce.

Fred Schram of Security Pictures Corporation spent last week in New York, negotiating for pictures for Ohio distribution during the coming season.

Jesse Fishman, general manager of Standard Film Service Co., was also in New York last week, signing up for new independent product.

H. R. Skirboll, manager of the Educational Film Exchange, attended the Educational convention in Montreal last week.

Keith's East 105th street began its split-week policy Sunday, May 27th. At the local Keith headquarters it was announced that the quality of production under the split-week policy will remain the same as under the full week policy. Only first-run pictures will be shown, and vaudeville the same as formerly.

The Euclid East 105th street section will have one less theatre in operation during June and July. The Alhambra, playing stock has closed for two months. Robert McLaughlin, manager, announced that the house will reopen in August and that the visiting star system will be renewed.

Canada

A THREATENING fire visited the Monument National theatre at Ottawa, Ontario, recently, the flames reaching such proportions that a second alarm was turned in. Fire started under the stage and worked along the walls to the balcony, but were extinguished before hitting the projection room.

The Monument National, which is completely equipped for film performances, was reconstructed a few years ago at a cost of $30,000. The loss from the fire was $6,000.

The Confederation Amusements, Limited, a new Montreal firm headed by F. A. Tabah, well known locally as a retail merchant, is the owner of the Empress theatre, seating 1,800 persons, which was opened last week. The house is situated at Old Orchard avenue and Sherbrooke street, Montreal.

When the Canadian Pacific Railway recently staged its annual French-Canadian Folk Song and Musical Festival in Quebec City, use was made of the Auditorium theatre, Quebec City, opened a few months ago by the Auditorium Company, of which J. A. Paquet is president and Albert D. Denis is manager. This theatre is the latest addition in Canada to the Keith-Albee circuit.

The Regent theatre, a new house at Gatineau, Quebec, under the management of Joseph LaFlamme, has been menaced by late spring floods of the Ottawa and Gatineau rivers. Navigation by water has been the mode of transportation throughout the town, and people have experienced difficulty in reaching the Regent. The house has been operating without interruption, however, despite the situation and regardless of the uncertain electric services.

Famous Players new theatre at Ottawa, Ontario, to be known as the Capitol, is scheduled to open January 1st, under the management of Ray Tubman, who now has the Regent and Imperial theatres in Ottawa.

The Avalon theatre, which is being erected in Ottawa by P. J. Nolan, will open September 1st. The structural steel work was completed May 26 despite a strike in Canada of the steel workers. The Avalon will seat 1,000 persons.

The Imperial theatre, Montreal, one of the largest in that city, was closed, June 2nd, by Manager H. W. Conover, for one month, so that extensive remodelling could be carried out. This house is owned by E. F. Albee, who also has the Imperial theatre in St. John, N. B. In close proximity to the Montreal Imperial is the Albee Building, in which practically all of the film exchanges have their offices.

Fred McLennan, manager of the Brock theatre, Brockville, Ontario, lost out in his fight against daylight saving in that city, the council having voted unanimously for summer time, which will start June 17th, and continue until September 2nd.

South East

FRIENDS on film row of S. E. Peppiatt, Charlotte branch manager for United Artists, will be glad to learn he is rapidly recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

W. G. Carmichael, Atlanta branch manager for United Artists, returned last Wednesday from Chicago where he attended the company's sales convention.

Al Rook, formerly connected with M-G-M's Charlotte office, joined the sales force of United Artists' Atlanta branch recently.

John Ezell, Warner's Atlanta branch manager, made a trip to Charleston, S. C., the past week.

Visitors in Charlotte this week were Donald M. Eaves, Eaves Theatre Circuit, Union, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Schnibben, Opera House theatre, Florence, S. C.; Jack Marcus, manager of O'Dowd theatre, Florence, S. C.; D. Holt, Troy Theatre, Troy, N. C.; A. I. Mason, Capitol theatre, Laurens, S. C.; Rudolph Mason, Mason's theatre, Goldsboro, N. C.

J. C. DeWaal, Pathe's home office traveling auditor, is now at work at the Atlanta exchange.

Miss B. Douglas joined Warner Bros.' local force last week.

Rose Marie Burke, secretary to Arthur Lucas, president of Educational, spent last week in Macon.

Whitney Butner, son of J. H. Butner, manager of Educational's Atlanta office, who recently underwent an appendicitis operation, is much improved.

Mrs. M. L. Morris, of Educational's personnel, was away from the office last week on account of the illness of her young daughter, Mary Frances.

C. A. Clegg, First National's Atlanta branch manager, expects to leave this Saturday for a tour through Florida. He will be accompanied by salesman George Almon, representative in that territory.

O. L. Freeman, ad sales manager of Paramount's Atlanta office, recently traveled the South Georgia territory.

Fred F. Creswell, district manager of Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions, has returned to Atlanta from a trip in Florida. He reported that the company's new exchange, which was opened in Tampa on May 1, was functioning most successfully.

John W. Mangham, Jr., Atlanta branch manager of Liberty-Specialty, made a trip to Birmingham last week.

Recent visitors along film row were: Henry Hury, of the Champion and Frolic theatres, Birmingham, Ala.; W. H. Odom, of the Pastime theatre, Sandersville, Ga.; Charles Oswald, district booker for Publix, Jacksonville, Fla.; Roy Martin, of the Martin theatres, Columbus, Ga., and J. N. Morgan, manager of the Royal, Columbus.

Salt Lake City

F. T. DeVALL, owner of the Gem theatre at Murray, Utah, was elected president of the Lions Club this past week.

Sam Feinstein of the Denver F. B. O. sales force spent a few days in Salt Lake last week.

Sam Kaminsky, who is in charge of the F. B. O. Butte office, was in this city last week attending a sales meeting at the local office.

Manager Fred Lind has returned from the F. B. O. convention, held at the Blake Hotel, Chicago, recently.

Manager Ball of the Warner Bros. office will make the Montana territory shortly, it is announced.

A. W. Hartford, Universal manager, is at present on the road. C. C. McDermond is covering the Coal Camp section of Southern Utah, and Ernie Gibson is in Idaho.

Manager L. C. Wingham, of the Metro Goldywn Mayer office, left last week for Idaho.

Don Carrothers of the Orpheum theater at Pocatello, Idaho, and the Peery Bros. of the Egyptian and Ogden theatres of Ogden, Utah, were seen along the row last week.

Barney Shooker, formerly of the Atlas exchange in Denver, has joined the sales force of F. B. O. in this city and will cover the Idaho section.

Johnny Dickson, salesman for United Artists for some time past, has also recently joined forces with F. B. O., and will work in Montana. T. J. Walsh is also covering Montana for F. B. O. and George Jensen is still in the Southern Utah territory.

T. Frank Shea, sales manager for F. B. O. Pictures Corporation, visited Salt Lake City recently.

Upon the return of Manager Fred Gage of the United Artists exchange a sales meeting was held with the local sales force.

Earl D. Smith, local manager of the National Theatre Supply Company, returned a few days ago from San Francisco, where he attended the National Convention.

Recent callers on film row were: H. J. Miller, of the Cameo theatre, at American Fork, Utah; Reno Memmott, of the Amusement Hall at Sipio, Utah, and Manager Robinson, of the Gem theatre of Provo, owned by Louis Strike.

"Hap" Fredericks, local office manager for Columbia, was in from his territory for a few days.

J. W. Johnson, of the Iris theaatre at Midvale, has recently recovered from diphtheria.

Manager Clyde H. Messinger, of the Educational exchange in this city, is expected to return soon from the convention held at Montreal, Canada.

Charles Walker, Fox branch manager here, will arrive back within a short time from the Fox convention held at New York city.

Traveling Auditor Thomas Cleary has left the local Fox exchange and is now en route to Canada.

S. W. Hutchings of the Royal theatre at Lehi, Utah, was among the exhibitor visitors here last week; also Elmer Teitjen of the Jewel theatre at Santaquin, Utah.

Manager W. F. Gordon, of Associated First National exchange, is busy in the state of Idaho closing key run situations. Salesman Claude Hawkes is also working in Idaho, and Pete Stewart is now covering the entire state of Montana.

A. L. Glassman, who has recently purchased a chain of [illegible] throughout this territory, has returned from a trip to Los Angeles.

An announcement will be made shortly by the DeLuxe Feature Film exchanges as to a change in the general management and a new name which this concern will assume, according to exchange manager James R. Kuitz. Fred Brown, general manager of this company, is expected to arrive in Salt Lake City within the next few weeks.

The Excellent Pictures, Inc., are opening new offices at 142 East 1st South street in conjunction with the DeLuxe exchange.

A sales meeting has recently been held at the local Warner Bros. exchange by Western Division Manager Harry Lustig, who has since left for Los Angeles.

M. F. Keller has been transferred back to the Portland Warner Bros. office. Ed C. Mix, at present, is making a short trip into Northern Utah.

Louis Marcus, of the Louis Marcus Enterprises, returned a short time ago from the Paramount convention, held in San Francisco.

Chicago

A GENERAL meeting of the members of the Chicago Exhibitors' Association was held recently, and the present officers of the association, Jack Miller, president and business manager; Ludwig Siegel, secretary, and Frank Shaffer, treasurer, were unanimously nominated for another year, candidates for directors also were nominated. The annual meeting of the association will be held on June 13 at Ridge Hall, at which time the members will ratify the nominations.

G. G. Shauer & Sons, who operate the Premier and Memorial Theatres at Valparaiso, Ind., are adding vaudeville acts to their programs on Saturdays and Sundays.

Sales Manager Cecil Mayberry and Manager of Exchanges McGowan, of Columbia Pictures, visited the company's local exchange last week for a conference with Manager Henry Elman. Mr. Mayberry, who is on the road most of the time, leaves Chicago on Monday for Memphis, and Mr. McGowan will visit the new Milwaukee office before returning to New York.

Abe Tague has disposed of the Milford Theatre to A. M. and I. M. Melzer and B. Nathan. It is reported that Mr. Nathan will be in active charge at the Milford.

I Turon has taken over the Ritz theatre, Gary, from A. Rudjinski. This is a new house and is reported to have cost over eighty thousand dollars.

South Bend Enterprises, Inc., which is erecting the elaborate new theatre in South Bend, report that the house will be ready for opening in about September 1st. It will be operated by Publix theatres and has a capacity of 1,200 seats.

Another Gary House which has a new owner is the Ritz, now being operated by E. Popkins.

The Honeymoon, of South Bend, is now being managed by Ralph Rohn, who formerly operated for Ben Lucas.

A wire from Tess Heraty reports that she is having a glorious time in Los Angeles, where she went as a member of the Film Boards of Trade convention party. It will be two weeks more before she will return to her desk at exhibitor headquarters.

The convention season is near its end and film row is resuming its normal appearance. At this writing, however, one more meeting was scheduled. That of Fox, at the Drake, starts June 1st, with James R. Grainger presiding. Clyde Eckhardt was expected to return from New York, where he is attending a sales conference, in time to welcome the one hundred managers and salesmen expected at the Chicago gathering. United Artists' regional was held at the Drake last week, and Pathe executives and salesmen also met there in convention.

Jimmy Clayton of West Frankfort, Ill.; R. E. Atkins of Elkville, Ill., and John Marlowe of Herrin, Ill., were among the out-of-town exhibitors seen along Picture Row during the past week.

Portland, Ore.

WORD comes to the row this week of another change in West Coast house managership. E. C. Jeffress, who was recently in charge of West Coast houses in Tacoma, Wash., will occupy a similar position at Butte, Mont. Jeffress was for many years associated with houses in the East and Middle West. He will be assisted by Harry Stone in the management of the Rialto and American.

F. F. Vincent, known on the Portland row as exploiteer for Universal, has returned to the Rose City, where he will be kept busy for the next few months looking after the new product.

Sid Shuback, manager of the Arco theatre in Portland, announces that he is leaving his position June 2nd, and that the house will hereafter be under the management of Art Lodahl.

Bert Levy, manager of the Columbia theatre, Portland, has the happy faculty of picking out some stellar presentations for his previews and generally makes it a custom to run them every Saturday night.

EMPIRE FILM VAULTS, INC.

MODERATE PRICE FILM STORAGE

1 to 10 Containers	$ .75	Over 100 Containers	$ .35
11 to 50 "	.50	Cases per month	2.00
51 to 100 "	.40	Cases per month over 10 cases	1.75

723 Seventh Avenue, N. Y. Bryant 5437-5736-2180

New York & New Jersey

MORRIS SEIDER, manager of the Regent theatre, Bay Shore, L. I., and nephew of Joseph M. Seider, of Prudential Film Distributors, was recently complimented in the columns of the Bay Shore Journal, for his fine judgment in the selection of programs shown his patrons.

Illness crippled the sales staff of Commonwealth Pictures Corp., last week, with Manager Dave Rosengarten, formerly of Metro Exchange, taken down with influenza, Jerry Adler laid up with an abscess of the ear, and Mannie Meyers suffering an attack of rheumatism.

Contractors are making rapid progress on excavation work, prior to the laying of foundations for the pretentious new film building, which will be erected at 45th street and 9th avenue, New York City.

The A. H. Schwartz circuit is building a new house on Flatbush avenue in the near vicinity of Prospect Park, Brooklyn, scheduled for opening the latter part of June. A name for the theatre has not yet been determined.

Julius Joelson's Blenheim theatre, at 167th street and Park avenue, the Bronx, which was recently damaged by fire, will reopen about the middle of June.

Opening of the new Firment theatre, located at 177th street and Tremont avenue, the Bronx, originally scheduled for Decoration Day, has been postponed until June 15th, because interior work has not yet been completed. Joseph Weinstock is the owner of the house, and the Loew Corporation will operate it with pictures and vaudeville.

Managing Director Noble, of the Valentine theatre, Fordham road, the Bronx, reports that the fire which occurred at that theatre last week did little harm, and that the house continued to run without a day's halt.

The Mark-Stanley Strand theatre, 147th street and Broadway, purchased last week from the National Theatre Supply Company 3 new Simplex Projection Machines.

The Westwood theatre, a new 1,600-seat house, will be opened about June 14th, at Westwood, New Jersey, under the supervision of E. Allan Mayer. The theatre is owned by Westwood Theatres Corporation, of which Mr. Meyer is general manager, and will run a vaudeville and picture policy.

Charlie Goldrey, former Bronx exhibitor, returned last week from California, after several months' vacation, during which time he visited many of the large film studios. Charlie's many friends are glad to see him back.

Walter Green, recently appointed general manager of National Theatre Supply Corp., left New York last Friday for Chicago headquarters of the company, and from there he will make a business tour of all the National branch offices throughout the country.

Morris Needless, owner of the Park West theatre, 99th street and Columbus avenue, sailed for Europe last Saturday, accompanied by his wife and daughter. Mr. Needless will vacation on the Continent for several months, and his itinerary will carry him through Germany, France, Hungary and other countries. Harry Needless is operating the Park West in his father's absence.

N. J. Murphy sold his Strand theatre, Hasbrouck Heights, New Jersey, to George Martin.

Kelba Realty Corporation has purchased from the Kimasi Amusement Co. the Pantheon theatre, a 1,200-seat house, located at 71 Burnside avenue, New York City

Lee Ochs, owner of the Uptown and Costello theatres on Washington Heights, will depart the second week in June, together with his wife and daughter, for a three months' pleasure tour of Europe. George Allison will be placed in charge of both houses in the absence of Mr. Ochs.

South West

R. J. TINNETT, part owner of the Capitol theatre, Dallas, Texas, has taken over the duties of managing director in place of his late partner, Simon Charninski. Jean Darnell, publicity director, has been retained, as has the entire staff.

Construction work on a new $200,000 theatre at Laredo, Texas, has been launched by Robb and Rowley, to be completed by Aug. 15th.

Two unmasked bandits robbed the Blaine theatre at Henryetta, Okla., recently, and took over $800. Two employees were bound and gagged while the bandits looted the safe.

Martin G. White was elected president of the Little theatre, Tyler, Texas, for the season of 1928-29. Other officers selected were Mrs. Dabney White, vice-president; Miss Ada Boyette, secretary, and D. G. Connally, treasurer.

D. F. Spaulding will operate a motor truck line for distribution of films between Oklahoma City, Ponca City and Enid. E. M. Cackler will operate another line between Oklahoma City and all intermediate points.

The Grand theatre at Walters, Okla., opened last week.

Max Holstein of Liberty-Specialty, Oklahoma City, is on a vacation. He'll visit Kansas and Colorado before returning home.

Carl Bishop, cashier for Educational at Oklahoma City, has resigned to accept a position with the Blue Motor Express Co., and is succeeded by Miss Della Vogel.

Manager W. A. Moran and his corps of Universal salesmen have returned from the National Convention.

L. G. Aubrey has sold his Olympia theatre at Braman, Okla., to O. S. McKee, and will move to Blanchard, Okla., where he will operate a theatre.

Louise Bemis, shipping clerk for Universal at Oklahoma City, has resigned to return to her home in West Virginia.

Sam Benjamin has returned to Oklahoma City from the F. B. O. convention, to which he was accompanied by his wife.

Wallace Walthall, manager of the Home-State, Oklahoma City, spent the early part of last week along film row.

The various Oklahoma City film exchanges are getting back to normalcy, as managers and staffs return from conventions held in various parts of the country.

J. C. Klock, salesman for the National Theatre Supply Co., has taken over the entire Oklahoma territory.

William Smith and Mr. Sobelman are erecting a new 795 seat theatre at Tulsa, Okla., to be completed for opening about July 1st.

W. A. Ryan, manager of the Fox film exchange, Oklahoma City, returned from a week at the Texas M. P. T. O. and left for New York City to attend his company's National Convention.

Minneapolis

JOHN J. CAMPBELL, owner of the Wonderland theatre, Minneapolis, is mourning the loss of his mother, Mrs. E. R. Campbell, who died suddenly at the age of 69.

Ben Marcus, manager of the Minneapolis branch of Columbia Pictures, and members of his sales force won first prize in the Columbia Victory drive held among the 33 branches.

Frank Rubel has left Finkelstein & Ruben, where he has been in charge of out-of-town bookings for two years. He will devote himself to the distribution of a special film in the Minnesota and North and South Dakota territories.

The Eagle theatre, at Montevideo, Minn., will be opened shortly under the management of McCarthy Theatrical Enterprises, which purchased it recently. The theatre has been redecorated and provided with new equipment and organ.

F. D. White is acting as manager of the office of Screen Classics, Minneapolis independent exchange, during the absence of the general manager, O. S. McConnell, who has been in Chicago in the interests of the company.

The Minneapolis branch of Columbia, under the direction of Benny Marcus, led the Columbia exchanges of the country in sales records for the period of six weeks.

Clara Kimball Young will arrive in Minneapolis this week to prepare for a two weeks' stock engagement as guest star at the Shubert theatre. She will be a guest of the Northwest Theatre Owners' at their annual convention at the Nicollet Hotel in Minneapolis.

When the Elks held their Ambassador Revue at the Minneapolis Lyceum theatre April 19-21, Miss Margaret Morris, motion picture actress, appeared in one performance. Miss Morris was visiting at her home in this city at the time of the Revue. A slight attack of flu kept her from the last two performances.

COMPLETE RELEASE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of Distributors in order that the Exhibitor may have a short-cut toward such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features which are finished or are in work, but to which release dates have not been assigned, are listed in "Coming Attractions" (S. R. indicates State Right release.)

Refer to THE MOTION PICTURE NEWS BOOKING GUIDE for Productions Listed Prior to September

BRAY PRODUCTIONS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Co-Ed, The	Murdock-Cavalier-Lancaster	Feb.	10	2 reels	Jan. 7
Barnyard Rivals	W. Lantz-M. Shaw-T. Ward	Mar.	10	2 reels	Mar. 17
Cat Tales	McDougall Kids	Feb.	20	2 reels
Cutting Up	McDougall Kids	Mar.	20	2 reels	Mar. 17
Daze of '49	J. Cooper-L. Carver	Jan.	2	2 reels	Feb. 4
Duke's Dirty Doings	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Feb.	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Fowl Play	McDougall Kids	April	20	2 reels
Lost In the Lurch	P. Murdock-N. Cavalier	Mar.	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mr. Pooh	McDougall Kids	Jan.	20	2 reels	Jan. 7

COLUMBIA

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Storm	Bosworth-Gilbert-Delaney	April	19	5459 feet
By Whose Hand?	Cortez-Gilbert	Sept.	15	5432 feet	Jan. 7
Broadway Daddies	Logan-Lease	April	7	5466 feet
College Hero, The	Agnew-Lease-Garon	Oct.	9	5628 feet	Dec. 9
Desert Bride, The	Compson-Forrest	Mar.	26	5425 feet
Fashion Madness	Windsor-Howes	Dec	8	5513 feet	Mar. 31
Golf Widows	Ford-Reynolds-Rand	May	1	5592 feet
Isle of Forgotten Women	Tearle-Sebastian	Sept.	27	5645 feet	Jan. 21
Lady Raffles	Taylor-Drew	Jan.	25	5471 feet
Matinee Idol, The	Walker-Love	Mar.	14	5925 feet	May 5
Modern Mothers	Chadwick-Fairbanks, Jr.-Kent	May	13	5540 feet
Name the Woman	Stewart-Glass	May	25
Opening Night, The	Windsor-Bowers	Nov.	14	5524 feet	Mar. 17
Ransom	Wilson-Burns	June	7
Sally in Our Alley	Mason-Arlen	Sept.	3	5892 reet
Siren, The	Revier-T. Moore	Dec.	20	5996 feet
So This Is Love	Mason-Collier-Walker	Feb.	6	5611 feet
Sporting Age, The	Bennett-Herbert-Nye	Mar.	2	5467 feet
Stage Kisses	Harlan-Chadwick	Nov.	2	5435 feet
That Certain Thing	Graves-Dana	Jan.	1	6047 feet	Mar. 10
Tigress, The	Holt-Revier	Oct.	21	5357 feet	Mar. 17
Warning, The	Holt-Revier	Nov.	26	5791 feet	Jan. 7
Wife's Relations, The	Mason-Glass	Jan.	13	5508 feet	April 28
Woman's Way, A	Livingston-Baxter	Feb.	18	5472 feet

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Beware of Blondes
Gangster, The	Livingston-Day
Way of the Strong, The	Day-Livingston
Virgin Lips	Borden-Boles

EDUCATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
All Bear	Curiosities	April	29	1 reel	April 21
All Set	Lupino-Sargent-Hutton	Jan.	15	1 reel	Feb. 4
Always a Gentleman	Lloyd Hamilton	Feb.	5	2 reels	Feb. 18
At It Again	Monty Collins	May	13	2 reels	April 28
Between Jobs	Lloyd Hamilton	Mar.	18	2 reels
Blazing Away	Lloyd Hamilton	April	22	2 reels	April 7
Builders of Bridges	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Feb.	26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Call of the Sea, The	Hope Hampton	Jan.	1	2 reels	Dec. 31
Chilly Days	"Big Boy"	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Circus Blues	Dorothy Devore	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 17
Count Me Out	Barney Hellum	Mar.	11	1 reel	Mar. 3
Crown Me	Wallace Lupino	June	3	1 reel	May 26
Cutie	Dorothy Devore	Jan.	15	2 reels	Feb. 18
Dog Days—Sun and Rain	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Jan.	29	1 reel	Feb. 25
Dummies	Larry Semon	Jan.	1	2 reels	Dec. 23
Fall In	Monty Collins	Jan.	1	1 reel	Dec. 23
Fandango	Lupino Lane	May	6	2 reels	April 14
Felix the Cat in Arabiantics	"Sullivan Cartoon"	May	13	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Comicalities	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	1	1 reel	April 21
Felix the Cat in Draggin' the Dragon	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Jan.	22	1 reel	Feb. 25
Felix the Cat in Eskimotive	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	29	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Futuritzy	"Sullivan Cartoon"	June	24	1 reel
Felix in In-and-Out-Laws	"Sullivan Cartoon"	May	27	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Japanicky	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Mar.	4	1 reel	Mar. 31
Felix in Ohm Sweet Ohm	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Feb.	19	1 reel	Mar. 17
Felix in Outdoor Indoor	"Sullivan Cartoon"	June	10	1 reel
Felix the Cat in Polly-tics	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Mar.	18	1 reel	April 14
Felix in Sure-Locked Homes	"Sullivan Cartoon"	April	15	1 reel	May 5
Felix the Cat in the Oily Bird	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Feb.	5	1 reel	Mar. 10
Felix in the Smoke Scream	"Sullivan Cartoon"	Jan.	8	1 reel	Feb. 18
Feline Frolics—Tonquin Valley	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	Mar.	25	1 reel	Mar. 10
Gloom Chaser, The	"Big Boy"	June	24	2 reels
Green-Eyed Love	Ruby McCoy-George Hall	April	8	1 reel	Mar. 24
Hectic Days	Lupino Lane	June	17	2 reels	May 26
High Strung	Jerry Drew	Jan.	29	2 reels	Feb. 4
Hints on Hunting—Day by Sea	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	April	22	1 reel	Mar. 31
His Maiden Voyage	George Davis	Feb.	26	2 reels	Feb. 18
Homemade Man, A	Lloyd Hamilton	June	17	2 reels
How to Please the Public	Hodge Podge	Mar.	11	1 reel	Mar. 17
Indiscreet Pete	Jerry Drew	Mar.	11	2 reels	Mar. 10
Kitchen Talent	George Davis	April	15	2 reels	Mar. 31
Listen Sister	Lupino Lane	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Love's Springtime	Hope Hampton	Feb.	12	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mother Birds	Curiosities	Mar.	4	1 reel	Feb. 18
Mysterious Night, A	Monty Collins	Feb.	12	1 reel	Feb. 4
Navy Beans	"Big Boy"	May	27	2 reels	May 12
Never Too Late	Wallace Lupino	May	6	1 reel	April 28
New York's Sweetheart	Curiosities	Jan.	1	1 reel	Feb. 11
Nicknames	Hodge-Podge	April	8	1 reel	April 21
No Fare	"Big Boy"	April	8	2 reels	Mar. 24
Off Balance	Monty Collins	April	22	1 reel	April 14
Peculiar Pair o' Pups, A	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	May	20	1 reel	May 5
Penny Postals	Curiosities	April	1	1 reel	Mar. 17
Pretty Baby	Monty Collins	Feb.	26	1 reel	Feb. 18
Racing Mad	Al St. John	Jan.	8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Rah Rah Rah!	Dorothy Devore	June	3	2 reels	May 26
Recollections of a Rover	Hodge-Podge	Jan.	8	1 reel	Feb. 4
Rubbernecking	Curiosities	Feb.	5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Running Ragged	Lewis Sargent	Jan.	29	1 reel	Feb. 4
Sailor Boy	Monty Collins	June	17	1 reel
Say Ah-h	Charley Bowers	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 18
Simple Sap, A	Larry Semon	Feb.	12	2 reels	Feb. 25
Slippery Head	Johnny Arthur	April	29	2 reels	April 21
Spring Has Came	Monty Collins	Mar.	25	1 reel	Mar. 17
Star Shots	Hodge-Podge	Feb.	5	1 reel	Feb. 4
Sword Points	Lupino Lane	Feb.	12	2 reels	Dec. 31
There It Is	Charley Bowers	Jan.	1	2 reels	Jan. 7
Thoughts While Fishing	Bruce Outdoor Sketch	June	17	1 reel
Three Tough Onions	Monty Collins	May	20	1 reel	May 12
Visitors Welcome	Johnny Arthur	Mar.	4	2 reels	Mar. 10
Wandering Toy, The	Hodge-Podge	May	6	1 reel	May 26
Wedding Slips	Monty Collins	Jan.	1	1 reel	Feb. 11
Whoozit	Charley Bowers	April	1	2 reels	Mar. 17
Who's Lyin'?	Davis-Collins	June	10	2 reels	May 26
Wildcat Valley	Johnny Arthur	Jan.	22	2 reels	Feb. 4
You'll Be Sorry	Charley Bowers	May	20	2 reels	May 19

EXCELLENT PICTURES (S. R.)

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Back to Liberty	Walsh-Hall	Nov.	10	5980 feet
Bit of Heaven, A	Lee-Washburn	April
Bowery Cinderella, A	O'Malley-Hulette	Nov.	1	6900 feet	Nov. 25
Broadway Madness	De La Motte-Keith	Oct.	1	6300 feet	Oct. 11
Inspiration	George Walsh			6600 feet
Satan and the Woman	Windsor-Keefe	Dec.	15	6400 feet	Mar. 10
Stronger Will	Marmont-Carewe	Jan.	15	6600 feet
Women Who Dare	Chadwick-Delaney	Mar.

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Life's Crossroads	Hulette-Hamilton
You're in the Army Now	Santschi-Blythe

F B O

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Aflame in the Sky	Lynn-Luden	Dec.	18	6034 feet	Nov. 11
Alex the Great	Gallagher-Dwyer	May	13	5886 feet	Mar. 24
Bandit's Son, The	Steele-Sheridan	Nov.	20	4789 feet
Bantam Cowboy, The	Buzz Barton	Aug.	12	4893 feet
Beyond London's Lights	Shumway-Elliott	Mar.	18	5583 feet	Feb. 25
Boy Rider, The	Buzz Barton	Oct.	23	4858 feet	Sept. 30
Breed of the Sunsets	Bob Steele	April	1	4869 feet
Cherokee Kid, The	Tyler-Lynn	Oct.	30	4837 feet	Mar. 3
Chicago After Midnight	Mendez-Ince	Mar.	4	6249 feet	Mar. 17
Clancy's Kosher Wedding	Sidney-Lease-Lynn	Sept.	17	5761 feet	Aug. 26'27
Coney Island	Wilson-Mendez	Jan.	13	6390 feet	Feb. 25
Crooks Can't Win	Lewis-Hill-Nelson	May	11
Dead Man's Curve	Fairbanks, Jr.-Blane	Jan.	15	5511 feet	Dec. 23
Desert Pirate, The	Tyler-Thompson	Dec.	25	4754 feet
Devil's Trade Mark, The	Bennett-Mong-Douglas	April	7	5984 feet
Dog Justice	Ranger-Martin	June	10	5058 feet
Driftin' Sands	Bob Steele	Jan.	1	4770 feet
Fangs of the Wild	Ranger-Kitchen	Feb.	5	4804 feet	Jan. 14
Fighting Redhead, The	Buzz Barton	July	1	4758 feet
Flying U Ranch, The	Tyler-Lane	Sept.	4	4924 feet
Freckles	Bosworth-Fox, Jr.	Mar.	21	6131 feet	Jan. 28
Gingham Girl, The	Wilson-Arthur	Oct.	2	6301 feet	July 29 '27
Harvester, The	Kingston-Caldwell	Nov.	23	7045 feet	Nov. 25
Her Summer Hero	Thompson-Trevor-Blane	Feb.	12	5146 feet	Dec. 30
Hook and Ladder No. 9	Ellis-Keefe-Hearn	Nov.	13	5240 feet	Dec. 16
In a Moment of Temptation	Stevens-Keefe	Sept.	18	5605 feet	Nov. 11
Jake the Plumber	Devorska-Lynn	Oct.	16	5186 feet	Nov. 4
Judgment of the Hills	Valli-Caldwell	Nov.	6	6481 feet	Aug. 19'27
Law of Fear, The	Ranger-Reid-Nelson	April	8	4769 feet	Mar. 10
Legionnaires In Paris	Cooke-Guard	Jan.	31	5893 feet
Little Buckaroo, The	Buzz Barton	Mar.	11	4801 feet
Little Mickey Grogan	Darro-Ralston-Nye	Dec.	27	6515 feet	Mar. 3
Little Yellow House, The	Sleeper-Caldwell	May	28	6829 feet	April 21
Loves of Ricardo, The	George Beban	June	17	5181 feet	Sept. 4 '26
Man in the Rough, The	Steele-King	May	20	4748 feet
Mojave Kid, The	Steele-Gilmore	Sept.	25	4924 feet	Aug. 12'27
Phantom of the Range	Tyler-Thompson-Darro	April	22	4781 feet	Feb. 11
Pinto Kid, The	Barton-Trevor-Lee	April	29	4834 feet	Jan. 7
Racing Romeo, The	Grange-Ralston	Sept.	1	5992 feet	Dec. 16
Ranger of the North	Ranger (dog)	Oct.	9	4977 feet
Red Riders of Canada	Miller-Byer	April	15	6419 feet	Dec. 23
Riding Renegade, The	Bob Steele	Feb.	18	4729 feet
Sally of the Scandals	Love-Forrest	July	15
Shanghaied	Miller-Ince	Oct.	19	5999 feet	Aug. 26'27
Skinner's Big Idea	Washburn-Sleeper-Trevor	May	11	5967 feet	Mar. 17
Slingshot Kid, The	Barton-Morgan-Rice	Dec.	4	4896 feet
South Sea Love	Miller-Shumway-Brooks	Dec.	10	6353 feet	Feb. 18
Swift Shadow, The	Ranger (dog)	Dec.	11	4897 feet	Dec. 23
Trail of Courage, The	Steele-Bonner	July	8

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Wall Flowers	Trevor-Arthur-Todd	Feb.	16	6339 feet
When the Law Rides	Tyler-Darro	June	24	4698 feet
Wizard of the Saddle	Barton-Thompson	Jan.	22	4805 feet	Dec. 30

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
After the Squall	Al Cooke	April	30	2 reels
All Alike	Carr-Alexander-Ross	April	9	2 reels
All Washed Up	Al Cooke	Feb.	6	2 reels
Almost a Gentleman	Al Cooke	June	25	2 reels
Are Husbands People?	Al Cooke	April	2	2 reels
Big Berthas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	May	14	2 reels
Come Meal	Al Cooke	June	11	2 reels
Happy Trio, The	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Mar.	12	2 reels
Heavy Infants	Karr-Ross-Alexander	June	11	2 reels
Joyful Days	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Aug.	14	2 reels
Mickey's Babies	Mickey Yule	Aug.	7	2 reels
Mickey's in Love	Mickey Yule	June	4	2 reels
Mickey in School	Mickey Yule	Feb.	6	2 reels
Mickey's Little Eva	Mickey Yule	April	2	2 reels
Mickey's Nine	Mickey Yule	Mar.	5	2 reels
Mickey's Parade	Mickey Yule	Jan.	2	2 reels
Mickey's Triumph	Mickey Yule	July	3	2 reels
Mickey's Wild West	Mickey Yule	May	7	2 reels
My Kingdom For a Hearse	Al Cooke	April	16	2 reels
Oui Oui Heidelberg	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Feb.	13	2 reels
Panting Papas	Karr-Ross-Alexander	Jan.	9	2 reels
Rah! Rah! Rexie	Al Cooke	Feb.	20	2 reels	Feb. 18
Restless Bachelors	Al Cooke	May	14	2 reels
Silk Sock Hal	Al Cooke	May	28	2 reels
Social Error, A	Al Cooke	Jan.	23	2 reels	Feb. 11
Standing Pat	Karr-Ross-Alexander	July	9	2 reels
Too Many Hisses	Al Cooke	Mar.	5	2 reels
Top Hats	Al Cooke	Mar.	19	2 reels

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Battling Buckaroo, The	Tyler-Clair
City of Shadows, The	Luden-Lynn
Danger Street	Baxter-Sleeper
Down Our Way	Valli-Caldwell-Darro
Gang War	Borden-Pickford
Eagle's Talons, The	Tom Tyler
Headin' for Danger	Steele-Mendez
Hit of the Show, The	Brown-Astor-Olmstead
Perfect Crime, The	Rich-Brook-McConnell
Saddle and Spurs	Barton-Eason
Stocks and Blondes	Logan-Gallagher
Taxi 13	Conklin-Sleeper-Trevor

FIRST DIVISION (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Comrades	Keith-Hughes-H. Costello	Jan.	1	5970 feet	Mar. 10
Death Valley	Nye-Wells-Rae	Nov.	15	5880 feet	Aug. 12
Devil's Cage, The	Garon-Keith	May
Fagasa	Kelly-Kelton-Wells	Mar.
Finnegan's Ball	Landis-Mehaffey	Oct.	1	6200 feet	Dec. 9
Masked Angel, The	Compson-Oakman	Feb.	1	5700 feet	Mar. 24
Merry Wives of New York	Pauline Garon	Jan.
Polly of the Movies	Short-Robards	Dec.	15	6900 feet
Ragtime	De La Motte-Bowers	Sept.	15	6700 feet	Sept. 9
Souls Aflame	James-Wells-Lard	Mar.
Temptations of a Shop Girl	Compson-Garon-Kaliz	Dec.	1	5604 feet

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Free Lips	Marlowe-Novak

FIRST NATIONAL

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
American Beauty	Dove-Hughes	Oct.	9	6333 feet	Oct. 21
Barker, The	Sills-Compson-Mackaill	Aug.	19
Big Noise, The	Conklin-Hardy-White	Mar.	25	7400 feet	May 12
Breakfast at Sunrise	Talmadge-Alvarado	Oct.	23	6042 feet	Dec. 16
Burning Daylight	Sills-Kenyon	Mar.	11	6500 feet	April 28
Camille	Talmadge-Roland	Sept.	4	8692 feet	May 6
Canyon of Adventure	Maynard-Faire	April	22	5800 feet	May 19
Chaser, The	Langdon-McConnell	Feb.	12	5744 feet	April 21
Chinatown Charlie	Hines-Lorraine	April	15	6365 feet
Crystal Cup, The	Mackaill-Mulhall	Oct.	16	6386 feet	Nov. 25
Drop Kick, The	Barthelmess-Kent	Sept.	25	6819 feet	Sept. 30
Flying Romeos	Sidney-Murray	Feb.	26	6184 feet	April 14
French Dressing	Warner-Brook-Wilson	Jan.	15	6344 feet
Good-Bye Kiss, The	Eilers-Burke-Kemp	July	22
Gorilla, The	Murray-Day-Kelsey	Nov.	13	7133 feet	Dec. 2
Gun Gospel	Maynard-Faire	Nov.	6	6288 feet	Mar. 10
Happiness Ahead	Colleen Moore	June	24
Harold Teen	Lake-Brian-White	May	27	7500 feet
Hawk's Nest, The	Sills-Kenyon	May	27
Heart of a Follies Girl	Dove-Kent	Mar.	18	5957 feet	Mar. 17
Her Wild Oat	Moore-Kent	Dec.	25	6118 feet	Feb. 11
Home Made	Hines-Daw	Nov.	20	6524 feet	May 26
Ladies' Night in Turkish Bath	Mackaill-Mulhall	April	1	6592 feet	April 14
Lady Be Good	Mackaill-Mulhall	May	6
Life of Riley, The	Sidney-Murray	Sept.	18	6712 feet	Sept. 16
Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come	Barthelmess-O'Day	April	8	7700 feet	May 19
Love Mart, The	Dove-Roland	Dec.	18	7388 feet
Mad Hour, The	O'Neill-Kent	Mar.	4	6625 feet	April 21
Man Crazy	Mackaill-Mulhall	Nov.	27	5542 feet	Dec. 30
Noose, The	Barthelmess-Joyce	Jan.	29	7331 feet	Jan. 7
No Place to Go	Astor-Hughes	Oct.	30	6431 feet	Mar. 17
Oh Kay	Colleen Moore	Aug.	26
Patent Leather Kid, The	Barthelmess-O'Day	Jan.		11412 feet	Aug. 26, '27
Private Life of Helen of Troy	Corda-Stone-Cortez	Jan.	8	7694 feet	Dec. 23
Red Raiders, The	Maynard-Drew	Sept.	4	6214 feet	Dec. 9
Rose of the Golden West	Astor-Roland	Oct.	2	6477 feet	Oct. 7
Sailors' Wives	Astor-Hughes	Jan.	22	5485 feet	Mar. 10
Shepherd of the Hills	Francis-O'Day	Jan.	1	8188 feet	Feb. 25
Smile, Brother, Smile	Mackaill-Mulhall	Sept.	11	6669 feet	Sept. 9
Texas Steer, A	Rogers-Fazenda	Dec.	4	7419 feet	Nov. 18
Three-Ring Marriage	Astor-Hughes	May	27
Upland Rider, The	Maynard-Douglas	June	3		May 19
Valley of the Giants	Sills-Kenyon	Dec.	11	6336 feet
Vamping Venus	Murray-Todd-Fazenda	May	13
Wagon Show, The	Maynard-Faire	Feb.	19	6212 feet
Wheel of Chance	Barthelmess-Basquette	June	10
Whip Woman, The	Taylor-Moreno	Feb.	5	5087 feet	Mar. 24
Yellow Lily, The	Dove-Brook	May	20	7187 feet	May 26

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Butter and Egg Man	Mulhall-O'Day
Code of the Scarlet	Maynard-McConnell
Divine Lady, The	Griffith-Varconi
Glorious Trail, The	Maynard-McConnell
Head Man, The	Murray-Reed-Dawson
Heart to Heart	Astor-Hughes
Here Comes the Band	Langdon-Davison
I'll Tell the World	Colleen Moore
Lilac Time	Moore-Cooper		Mar. 24
Phantom City, The	Ken Maynard
Whip, The	Mackaill-Nilsson-Forbes
Wright Idea, The	Hines-Lorraine

FOX FILMS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Arizona Wildcat, The	Mix-Sebastian	Nov.	20	4665 feet	Mar. 24
Black Jack	Jones-Bennett	Sept.	25	4777 feet	Mar. 3
Blood Will Tell	Jones-Perry	Nov.	13	4556 feet	Mar. 3
Branded Sombrero, The	Jones-Hyams	Jan.	8	4612 feet	Jan. 14
Chicken a la King	Sterling-Carroll-Meeker	June	17
Come to My House	Borden-Moreno	Dec.	25	5430 feet
Dare Devil's Reward	Mix-Joyce	Jan.	15	4987 feet	Jan 21
Don't Marry	Moran-Hamilton	June	3	5708 feet
Dressed to Kill	Lowe-Astor	Mar.	18	6566 feet	Mar. 17
East Side, West Side	O'Brien-Valli	Oct.	9	8154 feet	Nov. 4
Escape, The	Valli-Russell	April	29	5109 feet	May 12
Farmer's Daughter, The	Beebe-Burke	July	15
Fleetwing	Norton-Janis	July	22
Gateway of the Moon	Del Rio-Pidgeon	Jan.	1	5038 feet	Jan. 14
Gay Retreat, The	Cohen-McNamara	Sept.	25	5524 feet	Sept. 23
Girl in Every Port, A	McLaglen-Armstrong	Feb.	26	5500 feet	Mar. 3
Hangman's House	McLaglen-Collyer-Kent	May	13	6518 feet	May 19
Hello, Cheyenne	Mix-Lincoln	May	13	4518 feet	May 19
High School Hero	Phipps-Stuart	Oct.	16	5498 feet	Nov. 11
Holiday Lane		Jan.	22
Honor Bound	O'Brien-Taylor	May	6	6188 feet	May 26
Horsemen of the Plains	Mix-Blane	Mar.	11	4397 feet	Mar. 24
Joy Girl, The	Borden-Hamilton	Sept.	18	6162 feet	Sept. 23
Ladies Must Dress	Valli-Gray	Nov.	20	5599 feet	Dec. 23
Love Hungry	Moran-Gray	April	8	5792 feet	April 21
Loves of Carmen	Del Rio-McLaglen	Sept.	4	8538 feet	Oct. 7
News Parade, The	Stuart-Phipps	May	27
None But the Brave	Dorothy Knapp	June	24
No Other Woman	Del Rio-Alvarado	June	10
Painted Post, The	Mix-Kingston	July	8
Pajamas	Borden-Gray	Oct.	23	5876 feet	Dec. 2
Play Girl, The	Bellamy-Brown	April	22	5200 feet	April 28
Publicity Madness	Moran-Lowe	Oct.	2	5893 feet	Feb. 11
Road House	Barrymore-Alba	July	1
Seventh Heaven	Gaynor-Farrell	Oct.	30	8500 feet	June 10
Shame (re-issue)	John Gilbert	Nov.		5467 feet
Sharpshooters	O'Brien-Moran	Jan.	15	5573 feet	Jan. 28
Silk Legs	Bellamy-Hall	Dec.	18	5446 feet
Silver Valley	Mix-Dwan	Oct.	2	5011 feet	Oct. 14
Soft Living	Bellamy-Brown	Feb.	5	5629 feet	Mar. 3
Square Crooks	Brown-Armstrong-Dwan	Mar.	4	5397 feet	Mar. 31
Thief in the Dark, The	Meeker-Hill-Lee	May	20	5937 feet	May 26
Two Girls Wanted	Gaynor-Tryon	Sept.	11	6293 feet	Oct. 7
Very Confidential	Madge Bellamy	Nov.	6	5620 feet	Dec. 16
Why Sailors Go Wrong	Cohen-McNamara	Mar.	25	5112 feet	April 14
Wizard, The	Lowe-Hyams	Dec.	11	5629 feet
Wolf Fangs	Thunder-Morton-Lincoln	Nov.	27	5331 feet	Dec. 16
Womanwise	Russell-Collyer-Pidgeon	Jan.	8	5050 feet	Mar. 10

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
America's Little Lamb	Variety	April	15	1 reel	May 26
Arkansas Traveler	Variety	Jan.	8	1 reel
Cow's Husband, A	Spenser-Temple			2 reels
Desert Blooms, The	Variety	Mar.	19	1 reel
Follow the Leader	Payson-Ramon	May	13	2 reels	May 19
Head Hunters of Ecuador	Variety	Jan.	22	1 reel
Hold Your Hat	Phipps-Stuart	Jan.	15	2 reels	Mar. 24
Hot House Hazel	T. Brooks-T. Hill	Jan.	1	2 reels
In a Music Shoppe (Movietone)	Special Cast
Jack and Jilted	P. Cunning-M. King			2 reels	May 26
Jungles of the Amazon	Variety	Feb.	5	1 reel	Jan. 21
Kiss Doctor, The	Brooke-Thompson	Jan.	29	2 reels	Mar. 17
Lady Lion	Lincoln-Clayton-Bletcher	Mar.	25	2 reels	May 19
Lords of the Back Fence	Variety	Jan.	22	1 reel
Love is Blonde	Rollens-Ellis	Feb.	26	2 reels
Low Necker, A	Marjorie Beebe			2 reels	Jan. 14
Mum's the Word				2 reels	Sept. 3
Old Wives Who Knew	Hallam Cooley	April	8	2 reels	May 26
On a South Sea Shore	Variety	April	1	1 reel
Over the Andes	Variety			1 reel
Psyche and the Pskyscraper	"O. Henry"			2 reels
Ship Ahoy!	Variety	Feb.	19	1 reel
Spanish Influence	Variety	April	29	1 reel
T. Bone for Two	Tyler Brooke	April	22	2 reels
Too Many Cookies	T. Brooke-L. Miller	Mar.	11	2 reels
Vintage, The	Variety	Mar.	4	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Air Circus, The	Carrol-Lake-Rollins
Cock-Eyed World, The	Lowe-McLaglen
Dry Martini
Fazil	Farrell-Nissen-Busch
Four Devils, The	Macdonald-Gaynor-Morton
Four Sons	Mann-Hall-Bushman	9412 feet	Feb. 18
Girl Downstairs, The	Moran-O'Brien
Me, Gangster	Collyer-Stuart
Mother Machree	Bennett-McLaglen	6863 feet	Mar. 17
Pigskin	Rollens-Carol
Plastered in Paris	Cohen-Pennick
Red Dance, The	Del Rio-Farrell-Revier
River Pirate, The	McLaglen-Moran
Street Angel, The	Gaynor-Farrell	9221 feet
Sunrise	Gaynor-O'Brien	8729 feet	Oct. 14
Wild West Romance	Bell-Lincoln

LUMAS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bare Knees	Corbin-Faith	Feb.	1	5800 feet	Jan. 28
Blondes By Choice	Claire Windsor	Oct.	1	6987 feet

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Cheer Leader, The	Graves-Olmstead	Nov.	1	6000 feet	Mar. 10
Chorus Kid, The	Faire-Washburn	April	10	6200 feet	April 14
Girl From Rio, The	Myers-Pidgeon	Sept.	1	6990 feet
Hell Ship Bronson	Mrs. W. Reid-Howes-Beery	May	1	7000 feet	May 12
San Francisco Nights	Marmont-Busch	Jan.	1	7060 feet	Dec. 31
Thru the Breakers		Aug.
Turn Back the Hours	Loy-Pidgeon	Mar.	12	6500 feet	Mar. 17
United States Smith	Gribbon-Lee-Harlan	May

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Able of the U. S. A	George Jessel
Down Grade, The	Fairbanks-Calhoun
Gypsy Love (tent.)
Head of the Family, The		July
Man Higher Up		June
River Woman, The	Alma Rubens
Uncensored Woman, The
When Danger Calls	Fairbanks-Sedgwick
Woman Between, The

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Across to Singapore	Novarro-Crawford	April	7	6805 feet	May 5
Actress, The	Shearer-Forbes-O. Moore	April	28	6998 feet
Annie Laurie	Gish-Kerry	Sept.	17	8730 feet	May 27 '27
Baby Mine	Arthur-Dane	Jan.	21	5139 feet	Jan. 14
Becky	O'Neill-O. Moore	Nov.	12	6433 feet
Ben Hur	Novarro-McAvoy	Oct.	8	11693 feet	Jan. 16, '26
Big City, The	Chaney-M. Day-Compson	Feb.	18	6838 feet	Mar. 31
Big Parade, The	Gilbert-Adoree	Sept.	10	11519 feet	Nov. 28 '25
Body and Soul	L. Barrymore-Pringle-Kerry	Oct.	1	5902 feet	Nov. 25
Bringing Up Father	Macdonald-Olmsted-Moran	Mar.	17	6344 feet
Buttons	Coogan-L. Hanson	Dec.	24	6050 feet	Mar. 31
Certain Young Man	Novarro-Adoree	May	19
Circus Rookies	Dane-Arthur	Mar.	31	5651 feet	May 19
Cossacks, The	Gilbert-Adoree	June	23
Crowd, The	Boardman-Murray	Mar.	3	8538 feet	Feb. 25
Diamond Handcuffs	Boardman-Gray-Nagel	May	5
Divine Woman, The	Garbo-Hanson	Jan.	14	7300 feet	Jan. 21
Enemy, The	Gish-Forbes	Feb.	18	8189 feet	Dec. 31
Fair Co-Ed	Davies-Brown	Oct.	15	6408 feet	Nov. 4
Forbidden Hours	Novarro-Adoree	June	16
Foreign Devils	McCoy-Windsor	Sept.	3	4658 feet	April 28
Garden of Allah	Terry-Petrovich	Nov.	5	[illegible] feet	Sept. 16
In Old Kentucky	H. Costello-Murray	Oct.	29	[illegible] feet
Latest from Paris, The	Shearer-Forbes	Feb.	4	7743 feet	Mar. 3
Laugh, Clown, Laugh	Chaney-Young-Asther	April	14	7015 feet
Law of the Range, The	McCoy-Crawford	Jan.	21	5394 feet
London After Midnight	Chaney-M. Day-Nagel	Dec.	3	5687 feet	Dec. 23
Love	Garbo-Gilbert	Jan.	2	7365 feet	Dec. 16
Lovelorn, The	O'Neill-Kent-O'Day	Dec.	17	5950 feet	Dec. 30
Man, Woman and Sin	Gilbert-Eagels	Nov.	19	6[illegible] feet
Matsy, The	Davies-Caldwell-Gray	Mar.	10	7289 feet
Quality Street	Davies-Nagel	Dec.	31	7193 feet	Nov. 18
Riders of the Dark	McCoy-Dwan	April	21	5014 feet
Road to Romance, The	Novarro-M. Day	Sept.	24	6544 feet	Jan. 21
Rose-Marie	Crawford-Murray-Peters	Feb.	11	7745 feet	Feb. 18
Skirts	Chaplin-Balfour	May	19
Smart Set, The	Haines-Holt-A. Day	Feb.	25	6476 feet	Mar. 10
Spoilers of the West	McCoy-Daw	Dec.	10	4764 feet	Mar. 24
Spring Fever	Haines-Crawford	Oct.	22	6705 feet	Oct. 22
Student Prince, The	Novarro-Shearer	Jan.	30	9435 feet	Oct. 7
Tea for Three	Cody-Pringle-O. Moore	Dec.	10	6273 feet	Nov. 11
Thirteenth Hour, The	L. Barrymore-Gadsdon	Nov.	26	5252 feet
Under the Black Eagle	Flash-M. Day-Forbes	Mar.	29	5901 feet	May 19
West Point	Haines-Crawford	Jan.	7	8134 feet	Jan. 7
Wickedness Preferred	Cody-Pringle	Jan.	28	5011 feet
Wyoming	McCoy-Sebastian	Mar.	24	4435 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Aching Youth	Charley Chase	Mar.	17	2 reels
All For Nothing	Charley Chase	Jan.	21	2 reels	Jan. 14
Amazing Lovers	Ufa Oddities	Mar.	10	1 reel
Barnum and Ringling, Inc	"Our Gang"	April	7	2 reels	April 21
Bird Man, The	Charley Chase			2 reels
Blow by Blow	Max Davidson	Mar.	31	2 reels	April 21
Came the Dawn	Max Davidson	Mar.	3	2 reels
Children of the Sun	Ufa Oddities	Feb.	11	1 reel
Cleopatra		July	7	2 reels
Crazy House	"Our Gang"	June	2	2 reels	May 26
Czarina's Secret, The	Baclanova-Mir-Rand	Mar.	17	2 reels
Dumb Daddies	Max Davidson	Feb.	4	2 reels	Feb. 25
Edison, Marconi and Co	"Our Gang"	Mar.	10	2 reels	April 7
Fair and Muddy	"Our Gang"	May	5	2 reels	May 12
Family Group, The	Charley Chase	Feb.	18	2 reels	Feb. 18
Fight Pest, The	Charley Chase	May	12	2 reels	May 26
Finishing Touch, The	Laurel-Hardy	Feb.	25	2 reels	April 7
Fishing With a Microscope	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Follow Through	Laurel-Hardy			2 reels
Forty Thousand Miles with Lindbergh	Aviation Film	Mar.	4	3 reels
From Soup to Nuts	Laurel-Hardy	Mar.	24	2 reels	April 21
Golden Fleeces	Ufa Oddities	May	19	1 reel
Happy Omen, A	Ufa Oddities	July	14	1 reel
Heavenly Bodies	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Jungle Round-Up, A	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	28	1 reel	Oct. 9
Lady of Victories, The	A. Ayres-O. Matiesen-G. Irving	Jan.	21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Leave 'Em Laughing	Laurel-Hardy	Jan.	28	2 reels
Let George Do It	Laurel Hardy			2 reels	Mar. 3
Limousine Love	Charley Chase	April	14	2 reels	April 21
Monarch of the Glen, The	Ufa Oddities	Mar.	24	1 reel	Jan. 21
Nature's Wizardry	Ufa Oddities	July	28	1 reel
Palace of Honey, The	Ufa Oddities	June	16	1 reel	May 26
Pathfinders, The	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Pass the Gravy	Max Davidson	Jan.	7	2 reels	Jan. 14
Perfume and Nicotine	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	14	1 reel
Pets and Pests	Ufa Oddities	Jan.	28	1 reel	Mar. 3
Primitive Housekeeping	Ufa Oddities	April	21	1 reel
Rainy Days	"Our Gang"	Feb.	11	2 reels
Sanctuary	Ufa Oddities	May	5	1 reel
Secrets of the Sea	Ufa Oddities	Feb.	25	1 reel	Mar. 3
Should Women Drive?	Max Davidson	May	26	2 reels	May 19
Sleeping Death	Ufa Oddities	June	30	1 reel
Spook-Spoofing	"Our Gang"	Jan.	14	2 reels	Jan. 14
Tally-Ho	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Tell It to the Judge	Stanley-Dwan-Manning	May	12	2 reels
That Night	Max Davidson			2 reels
Their Purple Moment	Laurel-Hardy	May	19	2 reels	May 26
Tokens of Manhood	Ufa Oddities	June	6	1 reel	May 26
Virgin Queen, The	Stanley-Dwan-Manning	May	12	2 reels	May 19
Wicked Kasimir, The	Ufa Oddities	April	7	1 reel
Wonders of Blue Gulf Mexico	Ufa Oddities			1 reel
Your Darn Tootin'	Laurel-Hardy	April	21	2 reels	Mar. 3

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Adventurer, The	McCoy-Sebastian	4709 feet
Baby Cyclone, The	Cody-Pringle
Beau Broadway	Cody-Pringle
Bellamy Trial, The	Joy-Bronson
Brother Love (tentative)	Dane-Arthur
Bushranger, The	McCoy-Douglas
Cameraman, The	Keaton-Day
Deadline, The	Flash-Lorraine-Gray
Detectives	Dane-Arthur
Excess Baggage	Haines-Cortez
Four Walls	Gilbert-Crawford
He Learned About Women	Haines-Page-Percy
Her Cardboard Lover	Davies-Asther
Loves of Casanova, The	Special Cast
Madamoiselle from Armentieres	E. Brody-J. Stuart
Masked Stranger, The	McCoy
Mask of the Devil	John Gilbert
Napoleon	Special Cast
Our Dancing Daughters	Crawford-Brown-Sebastian
Show People	Davies-Haines
Telling the World	Haines-Page
Tide of Empire	Adoree-Murray
Trail of '98, The	Del Rio-Forbes	11100 feet	Mar. 24
War in the Dark	Garbo-Nagel
While the City Sleeps	Chaney-Page
White Shadows of the South Seas	Blue-Torres
Wind, The	Gish-Hanson

PARAMOUNT

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adventure Mad	Asther-Hall-Davis	Mar.	31	[illegible] feet
Barbed Wire	Negri-Brook	Sept.	10	6591 feet
Beau Sabreur	Brent-Cooper	Jan.	7	6536 feet	Jan. 28
Big Killing, The	Beery-Hatton	May	19	[illegible]
Chang	Jungle Film	Sept.	3	6536 feet	May 13 '27
City Gone Wild, The	Meighan-Brooks	Nov.	12	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Doomsday	Vidor-Cooper	Feb.	18	[illegible] feet	April 7
Drag Net, The	Bancroft-Brent	May	26	7[illegible] feet
Easy Come, Easy Go	Dix-Carroll	April	21	5364 feet	May 12
Feel My Pulse	Daniels-Arlen	Feb.	25	[illegible] feet	Mar. 3
Figures Don't Lie	Ralston-Arlen	Oct.	8	5260 feet	Mar. 3
Firty-Fifty Girl, The	Daniels-Hall	May	19	7720 feet	May 26
Fools for Luck	Fields-Conklin	May	5	5758 feet
Gay Defender, The	Dix-Todd	Dec.	10	[illegible] feet	Dec. 31
Gentleman of Paris, A	Menjou-O'Hara	Oct.	15	[illegible] feet	Oct. 14
Gentlemen Prefer Blondes	Taylor-Sterling-White	Jan.	28	6671 feet	Jan. 21
Get Your Man	Bow-Rogers	Dec.	10	5998 feet
Honeymoon Hate	Vidor-Carmanati	Dec.	3	[illegible] feet	Feb. 11
Jesse James	Thomson-Lane	Oct.	22	[illegible] feet	Oct. 28
Last Command, The	Jannings-Brent	Jan.	21	[illegible] feet	Jan. 28
Last Waltz, The	Fritsch-Vernon	Nov.	26	6940 feet	Dec. 30
Legion of the Condemned	Cooper-Wray	Mar.	10	7415 feet	Mar. 24
Love and Learn	Ralston-Chandler	Jan.	14	5737 feet	Feb. 25
Nevada	Cooper-Todd	Sept.	10	6256 feet	Oct. 28
Night of Mystery, A	Menjou-Brent	April	7	5741 feet	April 21
Now We're in the Air	Beery-Hatton	Oct.	22	5798 feet	Dec. 23
Old Ironsides	Ralston-Farrell-Beery	Mar.	3	[illegible] feet	Dec. 18 '26
One Woman to Another	Vidor-Von Eltz	Sept.	24	4551 feet	Sept. 30
Open Range	Chandler-Bronson	Nov.	5	[illegible] feet	Mar. 10
Partners in Crime	Beery-Hatton-Brian	Mar.	17	[illegible] feet	May 5
Peaks of Destiny	Special Cast	Jan.	28	[illegible] feet	Jan. 21
Pioneer Scout, The	Thomson-Lane	Jan.	21	6118 feet	Mar. 10
Red Hair	Bow-Chandler	Mar.	10	6331 feet	Mar. 31
Rough Riders, The	N. Beery-Bancroft	Oct.	1	9443 feet	April 3 '27
Secret Hour, The	Negri-Thomson	Feb.	4	7[illegible] feet	Mar. 17
Serenade	Menjou-Carver-Basquette	Dec.	24	[illegible] feet	Dec. 31
Shanghai Bound	Dix-Brian	Oct.	15	[illegible] feet	Dec. 9
She's a Sheik	Daniels-Arlen	Nov.	12	[illegible] feet	Dec. 9
Shootin' Irons	Luden-Blane	Oct.	8	5179 feet
Show Down, The	Bancroft-Brent	Feb.	25	7616 feet	Mar. 10
Something Always Happens	Ralston-Hamilton	Mar.	24	4792 feet	May 26
Speedy	Lloyd-Christie	April	7	7960 feet	April 14
Sporting Goods	Dix-Olmstead	Feb.	11	5951 feet	Feb. 18
Spotlight, The	Ralston-Hamilton	Nov.	19	4934 feet
Stark Love	Special Cast	Sept.	17	6200 feet	Mar. 11 '27
Street of Sin, The	Jannings-Wray	May	26
Sunset Legion, The	Thomson-Murphy	April	21	6763 feet
Swim, Girl, Swim	Daniels-Hall	Sept.	17	6124 feet	Sept. 16
Tell It to Sweeney	Conklin-Bancroft	Sept.	24	6066 feet	Oct. 28
Three Sinners	Negri-Baxter	April	14	7029 feet	April 28
Tillie's Punctured Romance	Fields-Conklin	Mar.	3	5733 feet
Two Flaming Youths	Conklin-Fields	Dec.	17	5319 feet	Jan. 7
Under the Tonto Rim	Arlen-Brian	Feb.		5991 feet	April 28
Underworld	Bancroft-Brent-Brook	Oct.	29	7643 feet	Sept. 9
Way of All Flesh	Jannings-Bennett-Haver	Oct.	1	8486 feet	July 8
We're All Gamblers	Meighan-Millner	Sept.	3	5935 feet
Wife Savers	Beery-Hatton	Jan.	7	5413 feet	Jan. 21
Woman on Trial	Negri-E. Hanson	Oct.	29	5960 feet	Oct. 14

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adoration	Novelty	Feb.	25	2 reels
Behind the Counter	E. E. Horton	Mar.	3	2 reels
Bugs My Dear (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	April	21	2 reels
Bum Steer, A	Krazy Kat Cartoon	April	21	1 reel
Campus Cuties (Christie)	Billy Dooley	April	7	2 reels
Dad's Choice	E. E. Horton	Jan.	7	2 reels
Fighting Fanny (Christie)	Featured Cast	Jan.	21	2 reels	April 28
Frenzy	Novelty	Jan.	14	2 reels
Gallant Gob, A (Christie)	Billy Dooley	May	26	2 reels
Goofy Ghosts (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	April	28	2 reels
Halfback Hannah (Christie)	Ann Cornwall	April	14	2 reels
Hold 'Er Cowboy (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	June	2	2 reels
Holy Mackerel (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Feb.	11	2 reels
Hunger Stroke, A	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb.	25	1 reel
Ice Boxed	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Feb.	11	1 reel
Just the Type (Christie)	Neal Burns	Feb.	18	2 reels
Knights of the Air	Aviation Film	Mar.	31	2 reels
Ko-Ko's Bawth	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb.	18	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Haunted House	Inkwell Cartoon	April	28	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Hot Dog	Inkwell Cartoon	April	14	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Jerm Jam	Inkwell Cartoon	Feb.	4	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Earth Control	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	31	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kink	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan.	7	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Kozy Korner	Inkwell Cartoon	Jan.	21	1 reel
Ko-Ko's Smoke	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	3	1 reel

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Ko-Ko's Tattoo	Inkwell Cartoon	Mar.	17	1 reel
Long Hose (Christie)	Jack Duffy	Mar.	17	2 reels
Love's Young Scream	Anne Cornwall	May	12	2 reels
Love Shy (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	Mar.	24	1 reel
Love Sunk	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar.	21	1 reel
Pig Styles	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Jan.	14	1 reel
Save the Pieces (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Jan.	28	2 reels
Say Uncle (Christie)	Jack Duffy	June	9	2 reels
Sea Food (Christie)	Billy Dooley	July	14	2 reels
Shadow Theory	Krazy Kay Cartoon	Jan.	28	1 reel
Slick Slickers (Christie)	Neal Burns	July	7	2 reels
Slippery Heels (Christie)	Jimmie Adams	June	16	2 reels
Sweeties (Christie)	Bobby Vernon	Mar.	10	2 reels
Tong Tied	Krazy Kat Cartoon	April	7	1 reel
Two Masters	Eaton-Post
Water Bugs (Christie)	Billy Dooley	Feb.	4	2 reels
Wired and Fired	Krazy Kat Cartoon	Mar.	10	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Abie's Irish Rose	Hersholt-McDonald	12103 feet	April 28
Beggars of Life	Beery-Arlen-Brooks
His Tiger Lady	Menjou-Brent
First Kiss, The	Wray-Cooper
Glorifying the American Girl	Special Cast
Half a Bride	Ralston-Arlen
Hot News	Daniels-Hamilton
Just Married	Hall-Taylor
Kit Carson	Thomson-Lane
Ladies of the Mob	Bow-Arlen
Magnificent Flirt, The	Florence Vidor
Perfumed Trap, The	Brian-Brook
Odd Fellows	Fields-Conklin
Patriot, The	Jannings-Stone-Vidor
Quick Lunch	Fields-Conklin
Racket, The	Meighan-Prevost
Sawdust Paradise, The	Ralston-Howes
Side Show, The	Fields-Conklin
Vanishing Pioneer, The	Holt-Blane
Warming Up	Richard Dix
Wedding March, The	Von Stroheim-Wray
Wings	Bow-Rogers	12 reels	Aug. 26 '27

PATHE

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Alice in Wonderland	Special Cast	Dec.	25	5 reels
Alice Thru Looking Glass	Special Cast	Feb.	12	5 reels
Almost Human	Reynolds-Thomson	Dec.	26	5596 feet	Mar. 24
Angel of Broadway, The	Joy-Varconi	Oct.	3	6555 feet	Dec. 16
Apache Rider, The	Leo Maloney	Feb.	12	5755 feet	Feb. 18
Avenging Shadow, The	Klondike-Hallor-Morris	April	29	4293 feet	Mar. 31
Ballyhoo Buster, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Jan.	8	4805 feet	Dec. 30
Blonde for a Night, A	Prevost-Ford	Feb.	26	6 reels
Blue Danube, The	Joy-La Rocque	Mar.	11	7 reels	May 26
Born to Battle	Bill Cody	Sept.	11	4875 feet
Boss of Rustlers Roost	Dan Coleman	Jan.	22	4833 feet	Jan. 14
Bronc Stomper, The	Dan Coleman	Feb.	26	5408 feet	Mar. 3
Bullet Mark, The	Jack Donovan	Mar.	25	4550 feet	Mar. 31
Chicago	Haver-Varconi	Mar.	4	9992 feet	Dec. 30
Combat	Walsh-Adams-Hulette	Oct.	23	5100 feet	Nov. 11
Cowboy Cavalier, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Jan.	29	4526 feet	Jan. 28
Crashing Through	Jack Padjan	Feb.	5	4480 feet	Feb. 11
Desert of the Lost, The	Wally Wales	Dec.	18	4933 feet	Dec. 30
Desperate Courage	Wally Wales	Jan.	15	4398 feet	Jan. 21
Devil's Twin, The	Leo Maloney	Dec.	11	5478 feet
Discord	Ekman-Dagover	Nov.	20	8586 feet	Nov. 11
Dress Parade	Boyd-Love	Nov.	11	6599 feet	Nov. 11
Fangs of Fate	Klondike (dog)	June	24	5 reels
Flying Luck	Monty Banks	Dec.	4	6403 feet	Nov. 18
Forbidden Woman, The	Goudal-Varconi	Nov.	7	6568 feet	Dec. 16
Girl in the Pullman	Prevost-Ford	Oct.	31	5867 feet	Nov. 18
Golden Clown, The	Ekman-Bell	Dec.	18	7913 feet	Mar. 24
Gold From Weepah	Bill Cody	Nov.	20	4968 feet	Dec. 23
Grandma's Boy (re-issue)	Harold Lloyd	Dec.		4750 feet
Harp in Hock, A	R. Schildkraut-Coghlan	Oct.	10	5990 feet	Dec. 9
His Foreign Wife	McDonald-Murphy	Nov.	27	4890 feet	Feb. 11
Hold 'Em Yale	La Rocque-Loff	May	13	8 reels
Hoof Marks	Jack Donovan	Nov.	13	4076 feet	Dec. 23
Land of the Lawless	Jack Padjan	Dec.	25	4131 feet	Dec. 30
Laddie Be Good	Bill Cody	Jan.	1	4155 feet	Dec. 30
Law's Lash, The	Klondike-Ellis-Maberry	May	20	4902 feet	Mar 31.
Leopard Lady, The	Logan-Hale	Jan.	22	6650 feet	Mar. 10
Let 'Er Go Gallegher	Coghlan-Ford	Jan.	15	5888 feet	Jan. 28
Main Event, The	Reynolds-R. Schildkraut	Nov.	18	6472 feet	Nov. 11
Marlie the Killer	Klondike-Bushman, Jr.	Mar.	4	4600 feet	Mar. 3
Midnight Madness	Logan-Brook	Mar.	25	6 reels
My Friend From India	Pangborn-Fair	Dec.	19	5750 feet	Mar. 31
Night Flyer, The	Boyd-Ralston	Feb.	5	5954 feet
Obligin' Buckaroo, The	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Oct.	16	4575 feet	Nov. 11
On to Reno	Prevost-Landis	Jan.	1	6 reels
Passion Island	Special Cast	Feb.		7 reels
Perfect Gentleman, A	Monty Banks	Jan.	15	5626 feet	Jan. 14
Ride 'Em High	Buddy Roosevelt	Oct.	9	4542 feet	Nov. 11
Roarin' Broncs	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Nov.	27	4375 feet	Dec. 30
Rush Hour, The	Prevost-Ford	Dec.	12	5880 feet	Mar. 10
Saddle Mates	Wally Wales	Mar.	11	4260 feet	Mar. 17
Skyscraper	Boyd-Carrol	April	8	7040 feet	April 14
Soda Water Cowboy, The	Wally Wales	Sept.	25	4546 feet	Nov. 4
Stand and Deliver	La Rocque-Valez	Feb.	19	5423 feet	April 7
Turkish Delight	R. Schildkraut-Fay-Robson	Nov.	11	5397 feet
Valley of Hunted Men	Buffalo Bill, Jr.	Feb.	19	4520 feet	Mar. 3
Walking Back	Carrol-Walling	May	20	6 reels
What Price Beauty?	Nita Naldi	Jan.	22	5 reels	Jan. 28
Wise Wife, The	Haver-T. Moore-Logan	Oct.	24	5610 feet	Dec. 16
Wreck of the Hesperus	Bradford-Marion	Oct.	31	6447 feet	Mar. 31

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Animal Snaps	Rarebits	April	8	1 reel	April 21
Barnyard Artists	"Aesop Fables"	April	29	1 reel
Barnyard Lodge No. 1	"Aesop Fables"	April	8	1 reel	April 7
Bath Time	Sportlight	June	24	1 reel
Battling Duet, The	"Aesop Fables"	April	15	1 reel	April 7
Beach Club, The	Bevan-Hurlock	Jan.	22	2 reels	Jan. 14
Benares (Educational)	Geographical Number	Jan.	24	1 reel
Best Man, The	Bevan-A. Bennett-V. Dent	Feb.	19	2 reels	Feb. 11
Bicycle Flirt, The	Bevan-V. Dent-D. Garley	Mar.	18	2 reels	Mar. 10
Blaze of Glory, A	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	26	1 reel
Boats and Fishermen	Science Number	Mar.	4	2 reels
Boy Friend, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	22	1 reel
Broncho Buster, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	1	1 reel
Buddhists of Burma, The (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb.	5	1 reel
Busy Bodies	Sportlight	Jan.	8	1 reel	Dec. 31
Clothes and the Game	Sportlight	April	15	1 reel	April 7
Coast to Coast	"Aesop Fables"	May	13	1 reel	May 19
County Fair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar	4	1 reel
Crowned Heads	Sportlight	Feb.	19	1 reel
Delhi (Educational)	Geographical Number	Feb.	26	1 reel
Do Monkeys Manicure?	Stan Laurel	April	1	1 reel
Eagle of the Night (Serial)	Frank Clarke	Oct.	21
Family Frolics	Sportlight	Jan.	22	1 reel	Jan. 14
Famous Playgrounds	Sportlight	May	13	1 reel	May 19
Flight That Failed, The	"Aesop Fables"	June	3	1 reel
Flying Age, The	"Aesop Fables"	April	22	1 reel	April 21
Flying Elephants	Roach Stars	Feb.	12	2 reels	Feb. 11
Fun Afoot	Sportlight	Mar.	18	1 reel
Galloping Ghosts	Carew-Hardy	Mar.	11	2 reels	Mar. 3
Girl From Nowhere, The	Pollard-Holloway-Swain	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 24
Good Ship Nellie, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	5	1 reel
Happy Days	"Aesop Fables"	May	27	1 reel	May 19
High Stakes	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	15	1 reel
Honeymoon Hints	Rarebits	Jan.	15	1 reel
How Man Suits His Life	Science Series			2 reels
Houses of Arctic and Tropics	Science Number	Feb.	12	2 reels
Jungle Days	"Aesop Cartoon"	Mar.	25	2 reels	Mar. 31
Jungle Triangle, A	"Aesop Cartoon"	April	28	1 reel	May 19
Kashmir, Old and New	Geographical Number	Jan.	10	1 reel
Limberlegs	Sportlight	June	10	1 reel
Love at First Flight	Pollard-Hurlock-Cowley	Jan.	29	2 reels	Jan. 21
Man Without a Face (Serial)	A. Ray-W. Miller	Jan.	15	10 episodes	Jan. 14
Mark of the Frog, The	M. Morris-D. Reed	Mar.	25	10 episodes	Mar. 24
Matching Wits	Sportlight	April	29	1 reel	April 21
On the Ice	"Aesop Fables"	Mar.	11	1 reel
Over the Bounding Blue with Will Rogers (Travelesque)		Feb.	12	1 reel	Feb. 11
Playing Hookey	"Our Gang"	Jan.	1	2 reels
Puppy Love	"Aesop Fables"	June	10	1 reel
Reeling Down the Rhine	Travelesque	Jan.	15	1 reel	Jan. 7
Run Girl, Run	Sennett Girls	Jan.	15	2 reels	Jan. 14
Scaling the Alps	"Aesop Fables"	April	1	1 reel	Mar. 31
Season to Taste	Sportlight	Mar.	4	1 reel
Shalimar Gardens, The	Geographical Number	Mar.	18	1 reel
Should Tall Men Marry?	Roach Stars	Jan.	15	2 reels	Jan. 7
Smile Wins, The	"Our Gang"	Feb.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Army Life	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Feb.	5	2 reels	Feb. 4
Smith's Bargain	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson			2 reels
Smith's Farm Days	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Mar.	4	2 reels	Mar. 3
Smith's Holiday	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	Jan.	8	2 reels	Dec. 31
Smith's Restaurant	Hiatt-McKee-Jackson	April	1	1 reel
Soldier Man	Harry Langdon
Son Shower, The	"Aesop Fables"	Mar.	18	1 reel
Spider's Lair, The	"Aesop Fables"	Feb.	19	1 reel	Feb. 18
Star Builders	Sportlight	May	27	1 reel	May 19
Swim Princess, The	Pollard-Clyde-Lombard	Feb.	26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Tail Waggers	Sportlight	April	1	1 reel
Terrible People, The (Serial)	Ray-Miller	Aug.	12
Trees	Rarebits	Mar.	11	1 reel
Twenty-Four-Dollar Island	Novelty			1 reel	Dec. 23
Versatility	Sportlight	Feb.	5	1 reel	Jan. 28
Volcanoes (Educational)	Geological Number	Feb.	19	1 reel
Wandering Minstrel, The	"Aesop Fables"	Jan.	29	1 reel
War Brides	"Aesop Fables"	May	20	1 reel	May 19
Work of Running Water	Geological Number	Mar.	11	1 reel
Yellow Cameo, The (Serial)	Ray-Hearn	June	3	10 episodes

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
Annapolis	Basquette-Brown
Black Ace, The	Don Coleman
Bride of the Colorado	Boles-Blossom
Cop, The	Boyd-Logan
Flying Buckaroo, The	Wally Wales
Forty-Five-Calibre War	Coleman-Loff
Godless Girl, The	Basquette-Prevost
King of Kings, The	Warner-Logan	13500 feet	April 29 '27
Ladies Must Love	Rod La Rocque
Love Over Night	La Rocque-Loff
Man-Made Woman	Joy-Boles-Warner
Power	Boyd-Logan
Red Mark, The	von Seyffertitz
Ship Comes In, A	R. Schildkraut-Dressler	June 4
Sin Town	Allen-Fair
Survival of Slim, The	Wally Wales
Tenth Avenue	Haver-Varconi
Valley Beyond the Law	Coleman-Loff
What Holds Men	Leatrice Joy
Yellow Contraband	Leo Maloney

PEERLESS PICTURES (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Girl He Didn't Buy, The	Garon-Simpson	April		5600 feet
Golden Shackles	Priscilla Bonner	Mar.		5600 feet
Out of the Past	O'Malley-L. Rich	Sept.	26	6000 feet
Web of Fate, The	Lillian Rich	Nov.	7	5800 feet
Wilful Youth	Harlan-Murphy	Dec.		5800 feet	May 26

RAYART (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Boy of the Streets, A	Walker-Bennett	Sept.		5059 feet
Branded Man, The	Delaney-Marlowe			6796 feet
Casey Jones	Lewis-Robards	Jan.		6673 feet
Cruise of the Hellion	Murphy-Keith	Sept.		6089 feet	Sept. 30
Danger Patrol, The	Russell-Faire	April		6076 feet
Divine Woman, The	Vera Reynolds	July
Gun-Hand Garrison	Tex Maynard	Oct.		4879 feet
Gypsy of the North	Gordon-Hale	April		5976 feet
Heart of Broadway, The	Garon-Agnew	Jan.		5853 feet
Heroes in Blue	Bowers-Rand	Nov.		5076 feet
Law and the Man, The	Santschi-Brockwell	Jan.		5916 feet	Mar. 24
Light in the Window, A	Walthall-Avery-Keefe	Oct.		5960 feet	Nov. 11
My Home Town	Brockwell-Glass	Mar.		5608 feet
On the Stroke of 12	E. Torrence-Marlowe-O'Shea	Nov.		5970 feet
Painted Trail, The	Buddy Roosevelt	Feb.		4571 feet
Phantom of the Turf, The	H. Costello-Lease	Mar.		5905 feet
Prince of the Plains	Tex Maynard	Sept.		4134 feet
Ridin' Luck	Tex Maynard	Oct.		4137 feet
Trail Riders	Buddy Roosevelt	April		4627 feet
Trailin' Back	Buddy Roosevelt	Mar.		4308 feet
Wanderer of the West, A	Tex Maynard	Nov.		4200 feet
Wheel of Destiny, The	Stanley-Hale	Oct.		5869 feet
Wild Born	Tex Maynard	Dec.		4490 feet
You Can't Beat the Law	Lee-Keefe	Feb.		5260 feet

STERLING PICTURES (S. R.)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Pretty Clothes	Ralston-Walker	Oct.	15	5652 feet	Nov. 4
Outcast Souls	P. Bonner-Delaney	Dec.	15	5210 feet
Burning Up Broadway	H. Costello-Frazer	Jan.	30	5200 feet
Marry the Girl	Bedford-Ellis	Mar.	1	5300 feet	Mar. 10
Million For Love, A	Dunn-Howes	May

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Length	Reviewed
It Might Happen to Any Girl
Undressed	Bryant Washburn

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Adorable Cheat, The	Lee-Keefe	Chesterfield	April	15	5400 feet	April 21
Aftermath	Special Cast	Collwyn	Dec.		6800 feet	Mar. 3
Air Mail Pilot, The	Mefaffey-Metcalfe	Hi-Mark			5000 feet
Battles of Coronel	Special Cast	Artlee	Feb.		8400 feet	Mar. 24
Broadway After Midnight	Bonner-Landis	Krelbar	Nov.		6199 feet	Nov. 4
Broken Hearts		Hercules
Czar Ivan the Terrible	Special Cast	Amkino	April		8500 feet	Mar. 24
Dance Fever	Corda-Varconi	Brill
Dawn	Special Cast	Arch Selwyn
Daughter of Israel	Betty Blythe	Aywon			8300 feet
Devil's Passion, The	Special Cast	Arfa			5700 feet
Faithless Lover, The	O'Brien-Hulette	Krelbar	Mar.		5600 feet	Mar. 3
Fangs of Justice	Silverstreak-Walker	Bischoff			5000 feet
Jealousy	Lya de Putti	Brill
Last Moment, The	Matieson-Hale	Zakoro	April		5800 feet	Mar. 31
Little Wild Girl, The	Lee-Landis	Hercules
Modern Du Barry, A	Maria Corda	Brill	June	1	7000 feet
Port of Missing Children	Special Cast	Superlative
Port of Missing Girls	Bedford-McGregor	Brenda			7270 feet	Mar. 3
Primanerliebe	German Cast	Scenic Films			6500 feet	Mar. 24
Sally of the South Seas		Hercules
Sealed Lips	Swedish Cast	Colwyn			6000 feet
Shadows of the Night		Hercules
Shooting Stars	English Cast	Artlee	April		5800 feet	April 28
Simba	Jungle Film	Capitol Pict			8000 feet	Feb. 4
Streets of Algiers	Camilla Horn	Brill			7 reels
Thrill Seekers	Clifford-Fulton	Superlative			4900 feet
Tartuffe the Hyprocrite	Jannings-Dagover	Brill			7 reels	Aug. 5 '27
Tracey the Outlaw	Jack Hoey	New-Cal	Mar.		6000 feet	Mar. 31
Two Brothers	Conrad Veidt	Brill
When Fleet Meets Fleet	English Cast	Hi-Mark			7953 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bet The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Cigarette Maker's Romance	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
District Doctor, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Girl with the Golden Eyes, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Mysterious Airman, The		Weiss Bros			10 episodes
Necklace, The	F. P. Donovan (producer)	Mary Alden			2 reels
Nothing to Live For	Al Joy	Cranfield Clarke			2 reels
Piece of String, A	F. P. Donovan (producer)				2 reels
Police Reporter The (Serial)	W. Miller-E. Gilbert	Weiss	Mar.		10 episodes
Sophomore, The	G. O'Neill-L. Graydon	Hi-Mark
Spookey Money	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke			2 reels
Who's Who	Al Joy	Cranfield-Clarke			2 reels
You Can't Win (Serial)		Weiss Bros			10 episodes

TIFFANY-STAHL
FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Bachelor's Paradise	O'Neill-Graves	Mar.	15	6147 feet
Clothes Make the Woman	Southern-Pidgeon	May	1	5209 feet
Devil's Skipper, The	Bennett-Love-Landis	Feb.	1	5510 feet	May 26
Girl From Gay Paree	Bedford-McGregor	Sept.	15	5233 feet	Sept. 23
Green Grass Widows	Hagen-Harron-Olmsted	June	10
Haunted Ship, The	Love-Sebastian-Santschi	Dec.	1	4753 feet	Feb. 4
House of Scandal	Sebastian-O'Malley	April	1	5297 feet
Ladies of the Night Club	Cortez-Leonard	May	15
Lingerie	White-McGregor	July	1
Nameless Men	Windsor-Moreno	Feb.	15	5708 feet	April 14
Night Life	Harron-A. Day	Nov.	1	6235 feet	Dec. 2
Once and Forever	Miller-Harron	Oct.	15	5629 feet
Prowlers of the Sea	Cortez-Myers	June	20
Scarlet Dove, The	Frazer-Borio	April	15	5102 feet
Stormy Waters	Southern-McGregor	June	1	5735 feet
Streets of Shanghai	Starke-Harlan	Dec.	15	5276 feet	Mar. 3
Their Hour	Harron-Sebastian	Mar.	1	5652 feet
Tragedy of Youth	Baxter-Miller-Collier, Jr.	Jan.	15	6361 feet	Mar. 31
Wild Geese	Bennett-Southern-Keith	Nov.	15	6448 feet
Woman Against the World	Ford-Hale-Olmsted	Jan.	1	5283 feet
Women's Wares	Brent-Lytell-Kent	Oct.	1	5614 feet	Nov. 18

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Marcheta	Color Classic	Mar.	1	1 reel
Medallion, The	Color Classic	Mar.	1	1 reel
Mission Bells	Color Classic	Mar.	15	1 reel
North of Suez	Color Classic	Jan.	1	1 reel
Perfect Day, A	Color Classic	April	1	1 reel
Scarface	Color Classic	Jan.	15	1 reel
Souvenirs	Color Classic	Feb.	15	1 reel
Tom, Dick or Harry	Color Classic			1 reel
Treasure Land	Color Classic	Feb.	1	1 reel

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Albany Night Boat		July	20
Beautiful But Dumb		Aug.	1
Domestic Relations		Aug.	15
Ghetto, The	George Jessel
Grain of Dust, A	Cortez-Windsor-Rubens	July	10
Marriage of Tomorrow	Miller-Gray
Toilers, The	Ralston-Fairbanks, Jr.

UNIVERSAL
FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Air Patrol, The	Al Wilson	Jan.	1	4259 feet
Alias the Deacon	Hersholt-Marlowe	Jan.	22	6869 feet	Oct. 21
Arizona Cyclone, The	Fred Humes	May	6	4078 feet
Back to God's Country	Adoree-Frazer	Sept.	4	5751 feet	Aug. 29
Border Cavalier, The	Fred Humes	Sept.	18	4427 feet
Buck Privates	De Putti-McGregor	June	3	6171 feet	Feb. 4
Call of the Heart	Dynamite-Cobb-Alden	Jan.	29	4345 feet
Cat and the Canary	La Plante-Hale-Stanley	Sept.	11	7190 feet	May 20
Cheating Cheaters	Compson-Harlan	Oct.	9	5623 feet	Dec. 23
Chinese Parrot, The	Bosworth-Nixon	Oct.	23	7304 feet	Jan. 7
Clean Up Man, The	Wells-O'Day	Feb.	12	4232 feet
Cohens and Kellys In Paris	Sidney-Macdonald	Jan.	15	7481 feet	Feb. 18
Count of Ten, The	Ray-Ralston	June	17	6279 feet
Desert Dust	Ted Wells	Dec.	18	4349 feet
Fangs of Destiny	Dynamite-Cobb-Caldwell	Dec.	4	4295 feet
Fearless Rider, The	Humes-Worth	Jan.	15	4173 feet
Finders Keepers	La Plante-Harron	Feb.	5	6081 feet	Mar. 17
Flyin' Cowboy, The	Gibson-Hasbrouck	June	1	5109 feet
Four Footed Ranger, The	Dynamite (dog)	Mar.	25	4426 feet
Four Flusher, The	Lewis-Nixon	Jan.	8	6193 feet	Jan. 28
Galloping Fury	Gibson-Rand	Nov.	20	5503 feet
Good Morning Judge	Denny-Nolan	April	29	5645 feet
Harvest of Hate, The	Rex-Perrin
Hero For a Night, A	Tryon-Miller	Dec.	18	5711 feet	Dec. 2
Hero of the Circus	Special Cast
Hot Heels	Tryon-Miller	May	13
Hound of Silver Creek	Dynamite (dog)	May	20	4095 feet
Irresistible Lover, The	Keane-Moran	Dec.	4	6958 feet	Sept. 16
Les Miserables	Special Cast	Oct.	30	7713 feet
Lone Eagle, The	Keane-Kent	Sept.	18	5862 feet	April 28
Love Me and World Is Mine	Philbin-Kerry	Mar.	4	6813 feet	Feb. 11
Made to Order Hero	Ted Wells	June	3	4120 feet
Man's Past, A	Veidt-Bedford	Dec.	25	6135 feet	Sept. 16
Midnight Rose	De Putti-Harlan	Feb.	26	5689 feet	Mar. 10
One Glorious Scrap	Fred Humes	Nov.	20	4172 feet
On Your Toes	Denny-Worth	Nov.	27	5918 feet	Jan. 14
Out All Night	Denny-Nixon	Sept.	4	6170 feet	Oct. 7
Painted Ponies	Gibson-Claire	Sept.	25	5416 feet	Aug. 5
Phantom Flyer, The	Al Wilson	Feb.	26	4253 feet
Put 'Em Up	Fred Humes	Mar.	11	4200 feet
Rawhide Kid, The	Gibson-Hale	Jan.	29	5382 feet
Shield of Honor, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Hamilton	Feb.	19	6172 feet	Dec. 20
Silk Stockings	La Plante-Harron	Oct.	2	6166 feet	Aug. 26
Sky Hand Saunders	Al Wilson	Nov.	6	4393 feet
Small Bachelor, The	Kent-Beranger	Nov.	6	6218 feet
Stop That Man	Lake-Kent	Mar.	11	5389 feet	April 28
Straight Shootin'	Ted Wells	Oct.	16	4251 feet	Aug. 19
Surrender	Philbin-Moskine	Mar.	4	8249 feet	Mar. 10
Thanks For Buggy Ride	La Plante-Tryon	April	1	6179 feet	Feb. 4
That's My Daddy	Denny-Kent	Feb.	5	6073 feet
Thirteenth Juror, The	Nilsson-Bushman	Nov.	13	5598 feet	Dec. 19
Thirteen Washington Square	Hersholt-Joyce	April	8	6274 feet	Feb. 4
Three Miles Up	Al Wilson	Sept.	4	4136 feet	July 11
Thunder Riders, The	Ted Wells	April	8	4353 feet
Trick of Hearts, A	Gibson-Hale	Mar.	18	5495 feet
We Americans	Sidney-Miller-Lewis	May	6	9151 feet	April 7
Wild Beauty	Rex-Allen-Marlowe	Nov.	27	5192 feet
Wild West Show, The	Gibson-Gulliver	May	20	5254 feet
Wolf's Trail	Dynamite-Cobb-Lamont	Oct.	2	4167 feet
Won in the Clouds	Al Wilson	April	22	4348 feet

SHORT SUBJECTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Length	Reviewed
Africa Before Dark	Oswald Cartoon	Feb.	20	1 reel	April 7
All Balled Up	Charles Puffy	Feb.	27	2 reels	Feb. 4
Ambuscade, The	Fred Gilman	June	16	2 reels	May 19
Any Old Count	"The Gumps"	Jan.	23	2 reels
Back to Nature	Arthur Lake	Feb.	27	1 reel	Feb. 11
Bare Fists	Jack Perrin	Jan.	14	2 reels	Dec. 23
Battling Justice	Fred Gilman	Mar.	24	2 reels	Feb. 25
Big Bluff, A	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhail	May	2	2 reels	April 7
Boss of the Rancho	Bob Curwood	Jan.	7	2 reels
Brand of Courage, The	B. Curwood-P. Montgomery	Feb.	4	2 reels	Jan. 7
Brand of Courage, The	B. Curwood-P. Montgomery	Jan.	7	2 reels	Jan. 7
Bright Lights	Oswald Cartoon	Mar.	19	1 reel	April 7
Buckskin Days	Newton House	Feb.	18	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster Minds the Baby	Trimble, Turner and Dog	June	27	2 reels	May 26
Buster's Big Chance	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Jan.	11	2 reels	Dec. 23
Buster Shows Off	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Mar.	14	2 reels
Buster Steps Out	Trimble, Turner and Dog	Feb.	8	2 reels	Jan. 28
Buster's Whippet Race	Trimble, Turner and Dog	May	23	2 reels	April 28
By Correspondence	Arthur Lake	Jan.	30	1 reel	Jan. 14
Case of Scotch, A	"The Gumps"	Jan.	9	2 reels	Dec. 23
Cloud Buster, The	"The Gumps"	Feb.	6	2 reels	Jan. 21
Code of the Mounted, The	Jack Perrin	May	5	2 reels	April 7
Dangerous Trail, A				2 reels	May 5
Dates for Two	C. King-C. Doherty	Jan.	18	2 reels	Dec. 31
Diamond Master, The
Fighting Destiny	Fred Gilman	May	19	2 reels	April 21
Fighting Kid, The	Newton House	June	9	2 reels	May 19
Fox Chase, The	Oswald Cartoon	June	25	1 reel	May 26
Frame-Up Man, The	Bob Curwood	May	26	2 reels	May 5
Full House, A	Long-Adams-Lymon-McPhail	June	13	2 reels	May 19
Gauge of Battle, The	Fred Gilman	April	21	2 reels	Mar. 24
George Meets George	Sid Saylor	June	20	2 reels
George's False Alarm	Sid Saylor	Feb.	29	2 reels	Feb. 4
George's School Daze	Sid Sacylor			2 reels	May 5
Haunted Island, The (Serial)	Jack Daugherty-Helen Foster	Mar.	26	10 episodes
Harem Scarem	Oswald Cartoon	Jan.	9	1 reel
Her Haunted Heritage	Ben Hall	July	2	1 reel
Her Only Husband	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhail	April	4	2 reels	Mar. 17
Hidden Money	Bob Curwood	April	26	2 reels	Mar. 31
High Flyin' George	Sid Saylor	Jan.	25	2 reels
His In Laws	Charles Puffy	Mar.	12	2 reels	Feb. 18
Horns and Orange Blossoms	Charles Puffy	Jan.	29	2 reels	Jan. 7
Horse Play	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhail	Jan.	4	2 reels	Dec. 16
Hungry Hoboes	Oswald Cartoon	May	14	1 reel	April 21
Indoor Golf	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhail	Mar.	7	2 reels	Feb. 11
Iron Code, The	Jack Perrin	June	30	2 reels	May 26
Looters, The	Bob Curwood	Mar.	3	2 reels	Feb. 4
Madden of the Mounted	Jack Perrin	Mar.	10	2 reels	Feb. 11
Man of Letters, A	Sid Saylor	Feb.	15	2 reels	Jan. 28
Married Bachelors	Charles Puffy	April	9	2 reels	Mar. 17
Mistakes Will Happen	Ben Hall	Feb.	13	1 reel	Jan. 21
Money! Money! Money!	Ben Hall	May	7	1 reel	April 14
Neck n' Neck	Oswald Cartoon	Jan.	23	1 reel
Newlyweds' Advice		Jan.	2	2 reels	Dec. 16
Newlyweds' False Alarm, The		July	2	2 reels
Newlyweds' Friends, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhail	April	2	2 reels	Mar. 10
Newlyweds' Happy Day, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhail	June	4	2 reels	May 12
Newlyweds' Imagination, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhail	May	7	2 reels	April 14
Newlyweds' Servant, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhail	Feb.	6	2 reels	Feb. 4
Newlyweds Success, The	Snookums-Bartlett-McPhail	Mar.	5	2 reels	Feb. 11
No Blondes Allowed	C. King-C. Doherty	Mar.	21	2 reels	Feb. 25
Oh, What a Knight	Oswald Cartoon			1 reel	May 5
Ole Swimmin' 'Ole, The	Oswald Cartoon	Feb.	6	1 reel	Mar. 24
One Every Minute	Arthur Lake	April	23	1 reel	April 7
Out In the Rain	"The Gumps"	Feb.	20	2 reels	Jan. 28
Ozzie of the Mounted	Oswald Cartoon	April	30	1 reel	April 7

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Payroll Roundup, The	Bob Curwood	Mar. 31	2 reels	Mar. 3
Poor Papa	Oswald Cartoon	June 11	1 reel	May 19
Prince and the Papa	Charles Puffy	Feb. 13	2 reels	Jan. 21
Reel Life	Long-Adams-Layman-McPhaill	July 4	2 reels
Ride 'Em Plowboy	Oswald Cartoon	April 16	1 reel	Mar. 24
Ride For Help, The	Newton House	July 7	2 reels
Riding Gold	Newton House	Jan. 21	2 reels
Ring Leader, The	Jack Perrin	April 7	2 reels	Mar. 10
Ringside Romeos	Arthur Lake	Mar. 26	1 reel	Mar. 10
Rival Romoes	Oswald Cartoon	Mar. 5	1 reel	April 7
Sagebrush Sadie	Oswald Cartoon	April 2	1 reel	May 5
Sailor George	Sid Saylor	May 9	2 reels	April 14
Scarlet Arrow, The (Serial)	F. X. Bushman, Jr	June 3	10 episodes
Sealed Orders	Jack Perrin	Feb. 11	2 reels	Jan. 28
Shady Rest	"The Gumps"		2 reels
Sliding Home	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan. 16	2 reels	Dec. 30
Social Lions	Ben Hall	Mar. 12	1 reel
Some Babies	Charles Puffy	Mar. 26	2 reels	Mar. 3
Some Pets	Arthur Lake	Jan. 2	1 reel	Dec. 14
Son of the Frontier, A	Newton House	April 14	2 reels	Mar. 17
So This Is Sapp Center	Ben Hal	Jan. 16	1 reel	Dec. 30
Special Edition	Ben Hall	April 9	1 reel	Mar. 17
Speed Sheik, The	Arthur Lake	June 18	1 reel	May 26
Start Something	Long-Adams-Laymon-McPhaill	Feb. 1	2 reels	Jan. 14
Summer Knights	Arthur Lake	May 21	1 reel	April 28
Swell Clothes	Arthur Lake	Dec. 5	1 reel	Nov. 18
Taking the Count	C. King-C. Doherty	April 18	2 reels	Mar. 24
Terrors of the Unknown (Serial)			10 episodes
That's That	Trimble-Turner and Dog	April 11	2 reels	Mar. 17
There's a Will	C. King-C. Doherty	Dec. 21	2 reels
Tricky Trickster, The	Ben Hall	June 4	1 reel	May 19
Unexpected Hero, An	F. Gillman-M. King	Feb. 25	2 reels	Jan. 28
Untamed, The	Newton House	May 12	2 reels	Apri. 14
Valiant Rider, The (Western)	Bob Sherwood	June 23	2 reels	May 19
Vanishing Rider, The (Serial)	Wm. Desmond	Jan. 16	10 episodes
Watch George	Sid Saylor	Mar. 28	2 reels	Mar. 3
What a Party	C. King-C. Doherty	Feb. 22	2 reels	Feb. 4
When George Hops	Sid Saylor	April 25	2 reels	Mar. 31
When George Meets George	Sid Saylor	June 0	2 reels	May 19
Whose Wife	King-Doherty	June 6	2 reels	May 12
Winged Hoofs	Newton House	Mar. 17	2 reels	Feb.25
Winning Five, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Sept. 26	2 reels	Sept 19
Winning Goal, The	Lewis-Gulliver-Phillips	Jan. 2	2 reels
Wolves of the Range	Fred Gilman	Jan. 28	2 reels
Woman Chasers	C. King-C. Doherty	May 16	2 reels

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Anybody Here Seen Kelly	Love-Moore
Body Punch, The	Daugherty-Faire
Brides Will Be Brides	Laura La Plante
Burning Winds	Hoot Gibson
Children of the Sun	Special Cast
Clearing the Trail	Gibson-Gulliver
Cloud Dodger, The	Al Wilson
Crimson Hour, The	De Putti-Moskine
Danger Rider, The	Hoot Gibson
Doubling For Trouble	Gibson-Gilbert
Fallen Angels	Kerry-Starke
Foreign Legion, The	Kerry-Stone-Nolan
Freedom of the Press	Stone-Keith-M. Day
Fresh Every Hour	Glenn Tryon
Girl on the Barge, The	Hersholt-O'Neil-McGregor
Give and Take	Sidney-Hersholt
Grip of the Yukon, The	Bushman-Hamilton-Marlowe
Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?	Love-T. Moore
Home, James	La Plante-Delaney
Honeymoon Flats	Lewis-Gulliver
Jazz Mad	Hersholt-Nixon-Lewis
Last Warning, The	Laura LaPlante
Lonesome	Tryon-Kent
Man Who Laughs, The	Veidt-Philbin		11 reels	May 12
Man, Woman and Wife	Kerry-Starke-Nixon
Michigan Kid, The	Nagel-Adoree
Navy Blues	Arthur Lake
Phyllis of the Follies	M. Moore-A. Day
Play Goes On	Veidt-Nolan
Plunging Hoofs	Rex-Perrin
Red Lips	Nixon-Rogers
Show Boat	Rubens-Fitzroy
Silks and Saddles	Nixon-Walling-Nolan
Sky Skidder, The	Al Wilson
Uncle Tom's Cabin	Special Cast
Viennese Lovers	Philbin-Hersholt-Keane
Watch My Speed	Denny-Worth
Wild Blood	Rex-Perrin

UNITED ARTISTS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Circus, The	Chaplin-Kennedy	Jan. 7	6400 feet	Jan. 14
College	Buster Keaton	July 29	5800 feet	Sept. 23
Devil Dancer, The	Gray-Brook	Nov. 19	7000 feet	Dec. 30
Dove, The	Talmadge-Roland	Jan. 7	8400 feet	Jan. 7
Drums of Love	Philbin-Alvarado	Mar. 31	9195 feet	Jan. 28
Garden of Eden, The	Griffith-Ray	Feb. 4	7558 feet	Jan. 14
Gaucho, The	Fairbanks-Valez	Jan. 1	9358 feet	Dec. 2
Magic Flame, The	Colman-Banky	Aug. 14	7850 feet	Sept. 30
My Best Girl	Pickford-Rogers	Oct. 31	7460 feet	Dec. 9
Ramona	Del Rio-Baxter	Feb. 11	7552 feet	Feb. 4
Sadie Thompson	Swanson-L. Barrymore	Jan. 7	8600 feet	Feb. 11
Sorrell and Son	Warner-Joyce	Dec. 2	9000 feet	Nov. 25
Steamboat Bill, Jr	Keaton-Torrence	April	7700 feet	May 19
Tempest	J. Barrymore-Horn		9800 feet
Two Arabian Knights	Boyd-Wolheim	Sept. 23	8250 feet	Nov. 4
Two Lovers	Colman-Banky		8500 feet	April 28

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Awakening, The	Banky-Byron
Battle of the Sexes, The	Bennett-Hersholt-O'Neill	Aug.
Battle of the Sexes, The	Bennett-Hersholt-O'Neill
Hell's Angels	Lyon-Hall-Nissen	(about)	7 reels
La Piava	Boyd-Valez
Revenge	Dolores Del Rio
Woman Disputed, The	Talmadge-Roland

WARNER BROTHERS

FEATURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Across the Atlantic	Blue-Murphy	Feb. 25	6052 feet
Beware of Married Men	Rich-Ferris-Cook	Jan. 14	5421 feet	Jan. 28
Brass Knuckles	Blue-Bronson	Dec. 3	6330 feet	Dec. 23
College Widow, The	D. Costello-Collier, Jr	Oct. 15	6616 feet	Nov. 25
Crimson City, The	Loy-Miljan-Hyams	April 7	5388 feet	April 21
Dog of the Regiment- A	Rin-Tin-Tin-Gulliver	Oct. 29	5003 feet	Nov. 11
Domestic Troubles	Fazenda-Cook	Mar. 24	5164 feet
First Auto, The	Miller-Oldfield	Sept. 18	6767 feet	July 8
Five and Ten Cent Annie	Fazenda-Cook	May 26
Fortune Hunter, The	Chaplin-Costello	Nov. 7	6639 feet	Jan. 21
Ginsberg the Great	Jessel-Ferris	Nov. 26	5390 feet
Girl From Chicago, The	Nagel-Loy	Nov. 19	5978 feet	Dec. 31
Good Time Charley	Oland-H. Costello	Nov. 5	6302 feet	Nov. 25
Ham and Eggs at Front	Wilson-Conklin-Loy	Dec. 24	5613 feet
Husbands For Rent	Moore-Costello	Dec. 31	6320 feet	Jan. 7
If I Were Single	McAvoy-Nagle	Dec. 17	6320 feet	Dec. 31
Jaws of Steel	Rin-Tin-Tin	Sept. 10	5569 feet	Sept. 30
Jazz Singer, The (Vitaphone)	Jolson-McAvoy	Oct.	7423 feet	Oct. 21
Little Snob, The	McAvoy-Frazier	Feb. 11	5331 feet
Missing Link, The	Syd Chaplin	Aug. 7	6485 feet	May 20
One-Round Hogan	Blue-Hyams	Sept. 17	6357 feet	Oct. 17
Old San Francisco	D. Costello-Oland	Sept. 4	7961 feet	July 8
Pay As You Enter	Cook-Fazenda	May 19
Powder My Back	Rich-Ferris-Beranger	Mar. 10	6185 feet
Race For Life, A	Rin-Tin-Tin-Nye-Faire	Jan. 28	4777 feet	Feb. 11
Reno Divorce, A	McAvoy-Graves	Oct. 22	5492 feet	Nov. 4
Rinty of the Desert	Rin-Tin-Tin-Ferris-Nye	April 21	4820 feet
Sailor Izzy Murphy	Jessel-Ferris	Oct. 8	6020 feet	Oct. 28
Sailor's Sweetheart, A	Fazenda-Cook	Sept. 24	5685 feet	Oct. 14
Silver Slave, The	I. Rich-Miljan	Nov. 12	6142 feet	Dec. 9
Slightly Used	McAvoy-Nagel	Sept. 3	6412 feet	Sept. 30
When a Man Loves	Barrymore-Costello	Aug. 21	10081 feet	Feb. 18'27

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Length	Reviewed
Fools in the Fog	McAvoy-Nagle
Glorious Betsy (Vita.)	D. Costello-Nagle		7091 feet	May 5
Ladies Prefer Bonds (ent.)	Nagle-McAvoy
Land of the Silver Fox	Rin-Tin-Tin-Nye-Hyams
Lion and the Mouse (Vita.)	L. Barrymore-McAvoy-Collier, Jr			May 26
Midnight Taxi, The	Moreno-Costello
Noah's Ark (Vita.)	D. Costello-O'Brien
No Questions Asked	Ferris-Collier, Jr.
Singing Fool, The (Vita.)	Jolson, Bronson
State Street Sadie	Loy-Nagle
Tenderloin (Vita.)	D. Costello-Nagle		7782 feet	April 28
Terror, The (Vita.)	McAvoy-Horton
Women They Talk About	I. Rich-Ferris-Collier, Jr.

The Blue Book of Filmdom—

Containing Accurate Records and Ratings
on Pictures & People

STUDIO DIRECTORY

and

BOOKING GUIDE

Write for Biography Blank

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

729 Seventh Avenue,
New York City

Hollywood Security Bldg.,
Hollywood, Calif.

Roy Press
Printers

Preference means Profits

The theatre that stresses screen quality is well on the way to popular preference. And that preference means profits.

Specify prints on Eastman Positive—the film that preserves every bit of photographic quality for your screen.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

no other company offers a service like this!

Paramount Ad Sales Manager Morris Gluck conferring with an exhibitor

Discuss your advertising problems with these trained men in Paramount exchanges

Albany	George Beattie
Atlanta	O. L. Freeman
Boston	Fred Maguire
Brooklyn	Bert Barnett
Buffalo	Ernie Williams
Charlotte	R. E. Parsons
Chicago	E. I. Rubin
Cincinnati	Ed Kaffenberger
Cleveland	Vincent Ochs
Columbus	Herman Seebohm
Dallas	Ralph Larned
Denver	Howard Crain
Des Moines	Leroy Palmquist
Detroit	J. W. Brown
Indianapolis	Art Schmaltz
Jacksonville	Ralph Kay
Kansas City	Murrel Hillyer
Los Angeles	Roy Price
Maine	George Richardson
Memphis	Harry Travis
Milwaukee	Roy Bassett
Minneapolis	Mel Evidon
New Haven	Steve Martonicz
New Jersey	Ed Hollander
New Orleans	Phil Keller
New York	Morris Gluck
Oklahoma City	Gilbert Clark
Omaha	Irving Fischer
Philadelphia	Lou Lang
Pittsburgh	Dave Brown
Portland	Dwight Spracher
Salt Lake City	F. H. Hallow
San Antonio	Charles Karr
San Francisco	Al Taylor
Sioux Falls	B. Bergen
Seattle	Royce Brown
St. Louis	Selby Carr
Washington, D.C.	Weldon Waters

a poster expert in every PARAMOUNT exchange

¶Best pictures. ¶Best advertising and best posters. And a special, experienced poster man in each exchange to advise with exhibitors regarding poster selections, locations and other theatre advertising problems. ¶THAT'S PARAMOUNT SERVICE!

The Morgan Lithograph Co. manufacture Paramount posters. General Office: Cleveland, O. Branches: New York City; Los Angeles. Plants: Cleveland, O.; New York City; Elmhurst, L. I.

June 9, 1928

Motion Picture News

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

TRADE NEWS

Lon Chaney

LON CHANEY in LAUGH CLOWN LAUGH held over second smashing week, Capitol, N. Y.

Ramon Novarro

RAMON NOVARRO in ACROSS TO SINGAPORE tremendous success at Century, Baltimore; Capitol, Montreal; and everywhere.

Marion Davies

MARION DAVIES in THE PATSY a big hit at Palace, Washington; and all over the country.

William Haines

WILLIAM HAINES in TELLING THE WORLD previewed this week and hailed as biggest sensation of months. Watch it!

Charlie Chase

CHARLIE CHASE in THE FIGHT PEST a Roach-M-G-M comedy held over 2 weeks at Capitol, N. Y. The Capitol has booked in a series of comedies, Oddities and M-G-M Great Events in Technicolor to follow.

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

THE IMPORTANT COMPANY

Vol. XXXVII No. 23

PRICE 20 CENTS

Published Weekly—$5.00 a Year

Los Angeles New York Chicago

don't Gamble!

Preachers, editors, bankers are continually advising their audiences not to gamble...

Doubtless you agree that their advice is good.

Don't gamble with the lives of your patrons... Don't gamble with a fire-hazard which is unnecessary... Don't gamble with panic...

In brief, remove the possibility of fire's dread consequences by installing SENTRY SAFETY CONTROL in your theatre.

SENTRY SAFETY CONTROL
CORPORATION

13th and Cherry Sts., PHILADELPHIA 1560 Broadway, NEW YORK
And All Branches of
NATIONAL THEATRE SUPPLY COMPANY

The positive fire preventer. Can be attached to any projector. Costs only a few cents a day.

in tune with these changing times!

¶ The outstanding fact about the present season is the way theatre grosses on Paramount Pictures have far outstripped figures on other companies' product. It's no secret why. Paramount alone is making the type of pictures that the modern public flocks to see. People are fed up on run-of-the-mill movies and old-style stars. Pictures and personalities that would have been hits two years ago are flops today. Audiences demand novelty, color, flash, striking players, something they can get their teeth into. ¶ "Underworld," "Chang," "Metropolis," "The Drag Net," "The Street of Sin," the ever fresh Harold Lloyd in "Speedy." Jannings, Bow, Dix and the other bright stars of today. Pictures and stars in tune with these swift, smart, exacting times. ¶ Paramount, as always, saw this coming a year ahead of any other company. Paramount set its present product accordingly. Paramount exhibitors have reaped the benefit. That's the advantage of dealing with the leader. ¶ Now comes the 1928-9 season. And Paramount's Whole Show Program. Features, Paramount News, Christie Comedies, Short Features. Every picture in tune with the times. Every star a popular favorite. Far in advance of the field. ¶ Proof? Here it is:

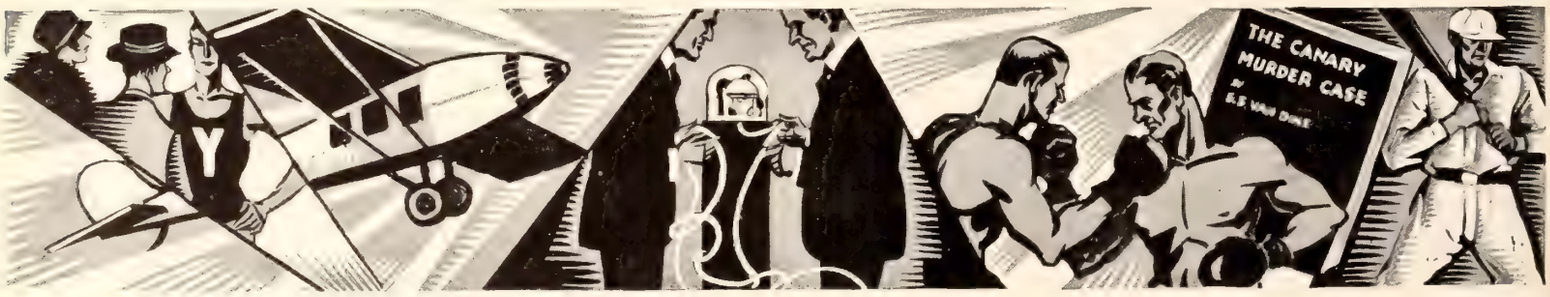
SOUND PICTURES → PARAMOUNT OFFERS



With entrance of Paramount into sound field, the real Era of Sound — quality pictures in sound—begins!

"WINGS," with same amazing sound effects as $2 exhibition. "THE WEDDING MARCH," synchronized. Jannings-Lubitsch masterpiece, "THE PATRIOT," with sound. More to come!

AGE OF COLOR → PARAMOUNT READY

Flaming orange fountain pens. Fords in color. Kodaks in pinks and blues. Color a mighty selling force today.

Von Stroheim's "THE WEDDING MARCH" partly in Technicolor. Zane Grey's "THE WATER HOLE," with color sequences. Etc., etc.

FRONT PAGE NEWS → PARAMOUNT FIRST

Aviation news packs the newspapers. The public in the stock market and 4,000,000 share days. Prize fights draw millions. Mystery novels sell by hundreds of thousands. Colleges packed. Big league baseball bigger than ever.

Air classics, "WINGS," "DIRIGIBLE." First big stock market smash, "WOLF OF WALL STREET." Prize fight thriller, "THE MAN I LOVE." Mystery best-seller, "CANARY MURDER CASE," plus "INTERFERENCE" and "PERFUMED TRAP." College leader, "VARSITY." Dix baseball drama, "WARMING UP."

Harold Lloyd

Clara Bow

Emil Jannings

Richard Dix

Bebe Daniels

George Bancroft

Esther Ralston

Charles Rogers

Pola Negri

Adolphe Menjou

Wallace Beery

Florence Vidor

Douglas MacLean

Thomas Meighan

STARS OF TODAY

Not the doll-faced favorites of yesterday. But flashing, high-spirited women. He-men. Real, vibrant personalities who can act. Theatre-packers of today.

STARS OF TOMORROW

Youth. New faces. Talented artists hurled into popularity by real public acclaim. Box office assets getting bigger by the minute!

Fay Wray

Gary Cooper

William Powell

Evelyn Brent

James Hall

Clive Brook

Nancy Carroll

Mary Brian

Richard Arlen

Louise Brooks

Ruth Taylor

Fred Kohler

SHORTS that SELL SEATS → PARAMOUNT in the LEAD

The day of filler shorts has passed. Short features must draw by their own value. That's why leading theatres play Paramount Short Features.

New, progressive Paramount News. Leader from the start. Christie Comedies: "Confessions of a Chorus Girl," "Sandy MacDuff," Bobby Vernon, Billy Dooley, Edw. Everett Horton Comedies. Great Stars and Authors. Krazy Kat, Inkwell Imps Cartoons.

keen showman brains, foresight, resources, manpower exhibitors' one sure reliance in these changing times—

PARAMOUNT

WHOLE SHOW PROGRAM 1928-9

An Answer by Joseph M. Schenck to

THE Film DAILY

Where the HELL am I heading?

THE bull slinging season is on. This year, however, I'm wearing ear-muffs.

I've been pumped full of hot air season after season. Now I MUST talk—and talk straight out—up, down and AT. I either get help or the Sheriff gets me.

I'm just a two theatre exhibitor—independent. I was in this game when a two-reeler was a feature.

At one time I made a profit. In the last two years, I've made a near living. I'm spending some of this money now on these ads, to shout MY battle cry, and to broadcast "Watch Your Step" to others.

What is sapping the life-blood of my two theatres?

What the hell is anyone doing to fight the menaces that are stabbing at the heart of my business?

What's keeping people away from my houses?

Is it Radio that keeps 'em glued to their Morris Chairs every night? If it is, how am I going to draw them when they can hear Paree and Coolidge and Dempsey or Al Smith or Hoover. What is anyone doing about this Radio Menace?

How can I fight over-seating and over-building?

What about this "Presentation Craze"—spangled sets, acrobats, tin pan bands and other stage hokum? Am I in the picture business or am I running a side show?

What can I do about the competition of toy cameras and films for the homes? If they get movies with their soup and coffee now—must I serve beer?

What can I do about these tin Lizzies on wheels and Lincoln highways?

Why must I be taxed the fat overhead salaries for fat heads, when I book their "Economy Wave" pictures?

Why must I take a dozen "duds" to get one possible box-office HIT?

Why must I pay for a nightmare of colors to tell me how great pictures may be—maybe, and most of the stuff hasn't been put through the sausage grinder yet?

Where the Hell am I heading? How can I meet these threats at my livelihood?

I WANT TO KNOW.

I guess there must be others like me who want to know—who must know, or blow up.

If things don't get better, I'm going to take up bricklaying, where a brick's a brick, and no gold paint's on it.

If anyone's got the answer, for Heaven's sake, shoot—write me personally. I'm desperate. For good reasons, I can't sign my name. But you can reach me by addressing

Just an Exhibitor—Box M-395 Film Daily
1650 Broadway, New York City

Mr. Just an Exhibitor:

Your advertisement entitled "Where the Hell Am I Heading?" was unusual and daring. I'm glad I was in town when your ad. appeared.

I am NOT going to write you personally. I'll play you across the boards and answer you in paid space also.

Your fearless "battle cry" must appeal to constructive thinkers in this business. Your facts not only interested me, yet behind your plea, I felt the heart of a human being—thank goodness you haven't lost your sense of humor either.

You have analyzed your own problems and those of other exhibitors like you. You also hit many problems that confront the industry. You are to be commended for your courage.

Let me answer each one of your questions individually.

1 If radio keeps them in their Morris chairs, you must have more powerful attractions, more interesting entertainments to bring them to your chairs. Don't fear radio. Eye entertainment has much stronger appeal than ear entertainment. That's a scientific fact. You can beat radio by showing great pictures for the eye.

And now comes Movietone to give a big thrill to the ear. That will put radio out for keeps as competition.

2 No over-seating situation is so bad for the energetic showman that he can't overcome it by playing and exploiting good pictures. A good picture will draw people to a tent or a stadium. It isn't your seats, it's your screen.

3 If you're wise, you'll stick to running a picture show and not a side-show. Presentations on the stage usually camouflage poor entertainment on the screen. Good pictures never needed acrobats or spangles in the past. High-class attractions need no "hokum" today. Get a record of the houses that consistently run nothing but good pictures and you'll see a record of consistent profits. Pictures are the magnet, the major attraction.

4 Don't worry about home movies. Amateur films are no more competition for your theatre than amateur theatricals are for the speaking stage. In fact, good pictures are guides and inspirations to amateurs. Home movies create more movie fans.

5 Why let that exhibitor fifteen miles away draw your people? Run good pictures, outstanding attractions. Give them better entertainment than anyone else can give them. The Lizzies and Rolls Royces will stop at your door.

6 Salaries for production executives depend upon the supply and demand for ability. True, some may be overpaid, but I trust to your fairmindedness to recognize the sincerity of the campaign that is constantly being waged to reduce picture costs. You must realize, too, that great pictures are quality pictures, and quality pictures must be produced up to an ideal and not down to a destructive budget. By all means, support every producer whose sole aim is to make good pictures and not to turn out so many cans of film.

7 The question of booking pictures has been a matter of growth. Some exhibitors book 20 or 30 or 40 pictures in one lump thinking they are protecting themselves. Some companies sell pictures in bulk to protect themselves also. This condition will have to be ironed out between you and them. You can correct this "buying of a dozen duds to get one hit" by booking only those pictures that are suitable to your theatre.

You know you can book good pictures individually on merit if you want to. Make quality your aim instead of price. When you buy bulk, you must take the gamble.

8 Trade paper advertising is a constructive force—a powerful economic factor. It reduces our cost to sell. You do not pay for picture advertising any more than your public pays for your theatre advertising. You should know the line-up of pictures every company offers you. Attractive trade paper advertising helps you and helps us.

As to where you are heading — you'll head the right way if your policy is "The Best Pictures I can Secure at Any Price." Keep your finger on your public's likes and dislikes and only fill your play dates when you are assured you have the best to give your patrons. Then you need never worry about Radio, Home Movies, Lincoln Highways or any of the so-called menaces.

The answer in every industry to any menace is Better Product.

Joseph M Schenck

President and Chairman
Board of Directors
United Artists Corporation.

Available Now — When you Need it!

Day and date with Broadway!

The strongest box-office picture ever produced at Warner Bros. Studio, based on one of the strongest stage plays known in theatrical history.

Now playing to capacity audiences at the Aladdin Theatre, Denver; Lafayette Theatre, Buffalo; Warner Bros. Theatre, Hollywood.

Opens June 15, Warner Theatre, New York, for an extended run, at $2.20 prices.

Available now, when you need it—instead of being held out for next season, for bigger prices.

Another example of Warner Bros. policy of giving you big pictures when you need them!

DAY AND DATE WITH BROADWAY!

Coming! "NOAH'S ARK"
MADE TO TOP ANY PICTURE EVER MADE!

"The LION and the MOUSE"

WITH

MAY McAVOY
LIONEL BARRYMORE
WILLIAM COLLIER Jr.
ALEC FRANCIS

FROM THE PLAY BY CHARLES KLEIN

DIRECTED BY LLOYD BACON

SCENARIO BY ROBERT LORD

A WARNER BROS·EXTENDED RUN PRODUCTION

PROMISES! PROM

Promises in Red Ink----- Promises in Silver Ink---

BU

Universal is the only company in th
tures READY NOW for you to see in the exc fact—that's performance—that's smashing all precedent. I company has ever done this before! I it any wonder that the word
"Universal has the world by the tail. Again Carl Laemmle shows the wa
See 'em with your own eyes!

Four Great Laemmle Super Productions

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

Carl Laemmle's $2,000,000 Production direct from its six months run on Broadway at $2.00 top.

THE MAN WHO LAUGHS

Victor Hugo's immortal romance. Starring Mary Philbin and Conrad Veidt. Now selling out every performance at Central Theatre, Broadway, N. Y. $2.00 top.

BROADWAY

Filmed from the Jed Harris stage production written by Philip Dunning and George Abbot
It's the one and only Broadway!

SHOW BOAT

Tremendous—as Edna Ferber's best selling novel.
Tremendous—as the sensational Florenz Ziegfeld musical show.
Tremendous—in advance publicity and exploitation.

6 Big Laemmle Specials

THE MICHIGAN KID

RENEE ADOREE and CONRAD NAGEL

THE COHENS AND KELLYS IN ATLANTIC CITY

Further adventures of the world's funniest comedy team from the Broadway stage success by Aaron Hoffman.

GIVE AND TAKE

GEORGE SIDNEY and JEAN HERSHOLT

THE GIRL ON THE BARGE

from the Cosmopolitan Magazine story by RUPERT HUGHES.
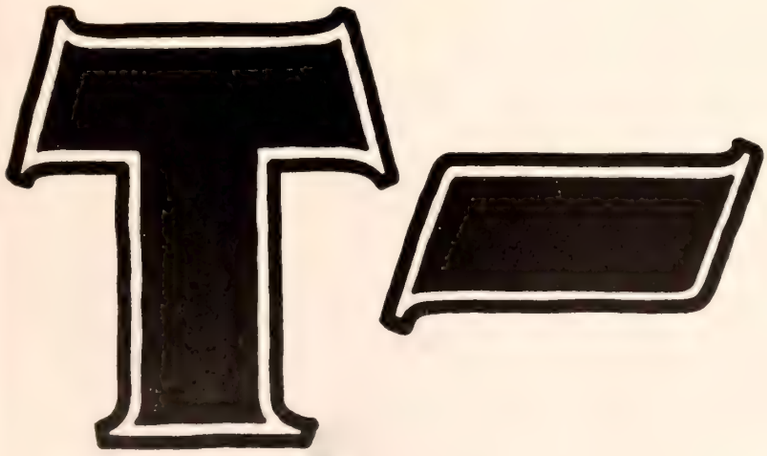
SALLY O'NIEL and JEAN HERSHOLT

THE LAST WARNING



Sensational Broadway mystery play
More thrilling than "The Cat and The Canary"

THE FOREIGN LEGION

starring NORMAN KERRY and LEWIS STONE with Mary Nolan, June Marlowe and others.
The dramatic thrill of the year—Sex, Soldiers and Strife with the most famous military organization in history.

ISES! PROMISES!

Promises in Green Ink-- Promises in Gold Ink---

e industry which has twenty-six pic-hanges—with more coming every week. That's t knocks the spots off all gold inserts—and promises! No has flashed from coast to coast and from exhibitor to exhibitor—y!" Here's the marvelous line-up of Universal Headliners for 1928-29.

4 BIG MONEY DENNY'S

Reginald Denny in four he-man stories with speed in every picture!

Red Hot Speed — His Lucky Day
The Night Bird — Clear The Decks

22 Headliner Jewels

4 LAURA LaPLANTE'S

The Screen's Great Comedienne! In four delightful romantic comedies.

4 GLENN TRYON'S

His face is your fortune. In four new knockouts.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

with LEWIS STONE, MARCELINE DAY, Henry B. Walthall, Malcolm MacGregor.

ANYBODY HERE SEEN KELLY

with TOM MOORE, BESSIE LOVE.

MAN, WOMAN AND WIFE

starring NORMAN KERRY with PAULINE STARKE.

THE PLAY GOES ON

Beautiful legs dazzling lights red hot lips back-stage life!

THE CHARLATAN

Shivery chilling gripping!

HONEYMOON FLATS

with George Lewis, Dorothy Gulliver, Bryant Washburn.

JAZZ MAD

starring JEAN HERSHOLT.

THE SHAKEDOWN

The double-action, money-making kick of show-business and underworld atmosphere.

COME ACROSS

A smashing melodrama of the underworld! Silks and satins in the shadow of the law!

RED LIPS

Charles Rogers, Marian Nixon.

SILKS AND SADDLES

From Gerald Beaumont's great story "Thoroughbreds," with MARIAN NIXON.

THE GRIP OF THE YUKON

with NEIL HAMILTON, FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN.

PHYLLIS OF THE FOLLIES

MATT MOORE, ALICE DAY.

YOU CAN'T BUY LOVE

Fast moving drama of the restless spirit of youth

8 HOOT GIBSON JEWELS

Proven at the box office absolute King of all Western Stars—that's Hoot Gibson!

The Danger Rider—Burning The Wind—Smilin' Guns
The Getaway—Points West—Blow For Blow
Clearing The Trail—King Of The Rodeo

22 Western and Thrill Features—5 Reelers

7 Ted Wells Western Dramas — 7 Thrilling Melodramas
6 Rex, The Wonder Horse with Jack Perrin — 2 Aviation Pictures with Jack Wilson

Loaded with action—crowded with drama—packed tight with thrills

Behind the Lines with Pathe at the Greatest Studio in the World...

RALPH BLOCK
Associate Producer

WILLIAM SISTROM
General Manager, Pathe Studio

HECTOR TURNBULL
Associate Producer

OUT at Culver City, California, a brilliant production unit, backed by equipment developed and perfected to an amazing degree, is turning out Pathe's features for the new season. William Sistrom, General Manager, and associate producers Ralph Block and Hector Turnbull represent a trio whose knowledge of dramatic construction and studio problems is rock-ribbed insurance for every showman playing Pathe Pictures. Messrs. Block and Turnbull have been responsible for many of the greatest box-office hits ever made and they are without peers among the producers of filmland. A great corps of directors and writers is associated with them. Production brains—the best plant in the country for making motion pictures,—these are factors that demand your careful consideration in buying for the new season. From the Foundation Up—Pathe is Prepared!

Note — Watch for amazing new R. C. A. PHOTOPHONE musical and effect accompaniment on certain forthcoming PATHE FEATURE PRODUCTIONS Season 1928–1929.

PATHE STUDIOS

Culver City, Calif.

The Gibraltar of Studios, the foundation on which will be built Pathe's feature structure for 1928-29.

Pathe's Equipment "Behind the Lines" Guarantees the Utmost in Feature Production 1928-29

No army is greater than its strength back of the first trenches. No organization is greater than the foundation on which it rests. You can put a program on paper with adjective and ink, but it won't stand up unless it is backed at the base with the fundamental assets of physical and mental equipment. The finest studio in the world, the Pathe Studio at Culver City, Cal., gives you these units tuned to the minute for making pictures with the stamp of modernism—

Cecil B. DeMilles

"KING OF KINGS"

by Jeanie MacPherson

available for general release October 1st, following its unparalleled road show achievements.

Cecil B. DeMille's

"THE GODLESS GIRL"

by Jeanie Macpherson

a stupendous new road show special, introducing the marvelous R. C. A. Photophone.

11 SPECIALS, with casts headed by Pathe's popular marquee names, each with a box office title, and made to order for elaborate exploitation.

16 SUPER FEATURES, varied in subject matter, woven around the best in original story material and widely known books and plays, and sure-fire in entertainment qualities.

9 PATHE SUPER WESTERNS, with fresh, breezy stories and with casts headed by names like Leo Maloney, Harry Carey, Don Coleman and Wally Wales.

Pathé

MACK SENNETT Sets a New Milestone for Pathe's Progam of Super-shorts..

MACK SENNETT
The Master of Comedy Producers

The greatest laugh manufacturing plant in the world, the Capital of Comedy, recently completed at Studio City, Cal., for Mack Sennett.

OF course it would be a Pathe Producer who would step away from the old regime and built the finest studio in the world for the making of short comedies. Mack Sennett, creator of the Bathing Girls, the Keystone Kops, and the discoverer of more stars than any other producer, has set a new milestone in short subject production. Every facility under the sun for brightening the lives of film patrons has been incorporated in the new plant, a studio that will be a model for those who take their cues from the Monarch of Merriment.

An army of fun makers is now at work at the Sennett headquarters and there the greatest array of comedies ever made will be turned out for Pathe's 1928-1929 program. Sennett always sets the pace. If you don't play the Sennett brand, you won't be playing what your public demands.

104 Issues PATHE NEWS

The life blood of the screen. Edited by Ray Hall.

20 MACK SENNETT Super Comedies

including the world-renowned Sennett girls, and the leading fun-makers of the screen.

18 (6) DAN THE TAXI MAN. (6) HANDY ANDY. (6) TIRED BUSINESS MAN.

New and novel two-reel comedies.

10 SMITTY and HIS PALS

kid comedies featuring a group of popular child actors. Presented by Amedee J. Van Beuren and based on the famous cartoon character originated by Berndt, syndicated in newspapers throughout the country.

52 Issues PATHE REVIEW

incorporating new and modern ideas. Now under the guidance of Terry Ramsaye, historian of the motion picture industry.

52 Issues AESOP'S FILM FABLES

The most famous cartoon subject on the screen.

52 Issues TOPICS OF THE DAY

embodying the wit, humor and philosophy of the press.

26 GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS bringing the thrills and drama of the sports world to the theatre.

5 GREAT NEW PATHE SERIALS

PATHE has well earned the title of the Premier House of Short Subjects. Its short product has been the backbone of film programs for a quarter of a century. Pathe shorts have stood the acid test of the box office and have always more than made good. ····· Pathe has units established through performance, subjects with a value proved week in and week out, year in and year out. Each series covers a field all its own, and each, except the new product, has built up a tremendous following in thousands of theatres.

Pathé

VITAPHONE

First in the Field

VITAPHONE is established. Vitaphone is in successful operation in approximately 400 theatres throughout the United States, and by September 1st, will be in 750.

VITAPHONE in less than two years of operation has brought about the most revolutionary change in business that any industry has ever experienced.

VITAPHONE CORPORATION

VITAPHONE has passed the elementary stage. Years of experimenting and laboratory work have placed Vitaphone as far ahead in its field that no comparisons can be entertained. Exhibitors are not asked to experiment and pioneer with Vitaphone. Vitaphone has done the experimenting and pioneering. Vitaphone is perfected.

VITAPHONE is backed by the scientific knowledge and laboratory facilities of the world's greatest group of electrical engineering organizations, and by the production knowledge and studio facilities of the Industry's foremost independent producers—Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.

Vitaphone, with exclusive contracts, brings to the screen the voices of the world's greatest opera stars and of the leading actors and actresses of the spoken stage.

VITAPHONE has been in continuous production for two years. Vitaphone has more than 400 proven box office attractions available. With its superior facilities and the advantage of two years of actual production experience, Vitaphone reproduces the voices of the world's greatest entertainers with a natural clarity comparable only to the actual voice of the artist.

More information of interest to exhibitors concerning

VITAPHONE

will appear in subsequent issues

321 WEST 44TH ST. NEW YORK

A Second Printing Was Necessary!

TO supply the orders of Exhibitors, Theatre Executives and Theatre Workers for the most comprehensive and authoritative work written on the subject, the publishers, George H. Doran Company, New York, has made a second printing of—

MOTION PICTURE THEATRE MANAGEMENT

By Harold B. Franklin

(President of West Coast Theatres, Inc., and leading theatre executive)

NOW

you too may obtain a copy of this monumental work dealing with every branch of the theatre and offering a carefully considered presentation of the theories and practices, tested by years of experience, making for the successful and profitable business method of running a motion picture theatre.

The author, Harold B. Franklin, is known throughout the industry as one of the most progressive and able theatre executives and showmen the picture theatre has developed, and one of the leading forces contributing to the advance which the motion picture playhouse has made from its "nickelodeon" beginning to the palatial community institution which the better theatre of today represents.

DON'T DELAY

The present supply of copies is by no means large enough to supply all those who eventually will want copies of this book, so prompt action is imperative if you want to be assured of a copy.

THE PRICE IS $5.

35 Chapters and 26 Illustrations* Tell You How—

To train and maintain an organization that will function smoothly in the running of your theatre.

To provide adequate safety methods.

To carry on systematic inspections.

To prepare a properly balanced budget.

To judge the effectiveness of advertising.

To purchase equipment and to Build Good Will.

Use This Order Blank

MOTION PICTURE NEWS,
729 Seventh Ave., New York City.

Send me postpaid MOTION PICTURE THEATRE MANAGEMENT by Harold B. Franklin.
I enclose (check) (money order) for $5.00.

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

State .....

Order Your Copy Today →

Preference means Profits

The theatre that stresses screen quality is well on the way to popular preference. And that preference means profits.

Specify prints on Eastman Positive—the film that preserves every bit of photographic quality for your screen.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

. . . AND IT WILL BE ADVERTISED TO 10,400,000 NEW TICKET BUYERS

A great picture—

Colleen Moore in "Happiness Ahead."

Plus unusual advertising support—

Full pages in August True Story and Smart Set, out July 5th.

Two great national magazines never used before by any leading producing company—

Reaching a vast NEW audience of ticket-buyers—

Telling 10,400,000 readers . . . Influencing 2,600,000 families!

THOUSANDS IN EVERY KEY CITY will be headed toward the theatre that shows

COLLEEN MOORE in "HAPPINESS AHEAD"

Presented by

JOHN McCORMICK

Make sure it's YOUR theatre that gets this extra business!

First National Pictures

First National

does the Smart thing in National Advertising—every time!

She's DIFFERENT It's DIFFERENT

Member of Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America Inc.—Will H. Hays President in YOUR CITY will be looking for "HAPPINESS AHEAD"?

These advertisements will be seen by—

36,160	people in	BIRMINGHAM, ALA.
19,448	" "	LITTLE ROCK, ARK.
131,244	" "	LOS ANGELES, CAL.
40,204	" "	OAKLAND, CAL.
69,692	" "	SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
27,944	" "	DENVER, COLO.
23,972	" "	BRIDGEPORT, CONN.
21,700	" "	HARTFORD, CONN.
17,136	" "	NEW HAVEN, CONN.
14,604	" "	WILMINGTON, DEL.
83,284	" "	WASHINGTON, D. C.
29,064	" "	JACKSONVILLE, FLA.
24,920	" "	TAMPA, FLA.
38,568	" "	ATLANTA, GA.
11,924	" "	SAVANNAH, GA.
97,220	" "	CHICAGO, ILL.
18,384	" "	PEORIA, ILL.
14,404	" "	SPRINGFIELD, ILL.
20,896	" "	FORT WAYNE, IND.
71,656	" "	INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
22,268	" "	DES MOINES, IOWA
55,376	" "	KANSAS CITY, KAN.
10,264	" "	TOPEKA, KAN.
30,968	" "	LOUISVILLE, KY.
37,264	" "	NEW ORLEANS, LA.
23,660	" "	PORTLAND, ME.
75,068	" "	BALTIMORE, MD.
28,111	" "	BOSTON, MASS.
22,980	" "	SPRINGFIELD, MASS.
19,780	" "	WORCESTER, MASS.
25,908	" "	GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.
241,048	" "	DETROIT, MICH.
15,256	" "	DULUTH, MINN.
83,048	" "	MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.
29,400	" "	ST. PAUL, MINN.
61,824	" "	KANSAS CITY, MO.
112,472	" "	ST. LOUIS, MO.
9,880	" "	BUTTE, MONT.
32,568	" "	OMAHA, NEBR.
10,724	" "	MANCHESTER, N. H.
29,908	" "	JERSEY CITY, N. J.
97,044	" "	NEWARK, N. J.
29,364	" "	TRENTON, N. J.
32,036	" "	PATERSON, N. J.
21,392	" "	ALBANY, N. Y.
71,408	" "	BUFFALO, N. Y.
655,816	" "	NEW YORK, N. Y
76,560	" "	ROCHESTER, N. Y.
33,304	" "	SYRACUSE, N. Y.
16,920	" "	UTICA, N. Y.
7,640	" "	WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.
37,456	" "	AKRON, O.
74,016	" "	CINCINNATI, O.
115,180	" "	CLEVELAND, O.
65,164	" "	COLUMBUS, O.
32,204	" "	DAYTON, O.
17,360	" "	TOLEDO, O.
44,956	" "	OKLAHOMA CITY, OK.
34,164	" "	PORTLAND, ORE.
181,856	" "	PHILADELPHIA, PA.
106,960	" "	PITTSBURGH, PA.
31,844	" "	READING, PA.
27,396	" "	SCRANTON, PA.
37,004	" "	PROVIDENCE, R. I.
7,908	" "	CHARLESTON, S. C.
28,768	" "	MEMPHIS, TENN.
20,256	" "	NASHVILLE, TENN.
35,836	" "	DALLAS, TEX.
20,664	" "	FORT WORTH, TEX.
26,352	" "	HOUSTON, TEX.
20,196	" "	SAN ANTONIO, TEX.
17,996	" "	SALT LAKE CITY, UT.
21,256	" "	NORFOLK, VA.
21,680	" "	RICHMOND, VA.
35,364	" "	SEATTLE, WASH.
14,216	" "	SPOKANE, WASH.
19,204	" "	WHEELING, W. VA.
88,788	" "	MILWAUKEE, WISC.

Other Cities in Proportion

These estimated figures are based on the actual circulation of the March, 1928 and November, 1927 issues of "True Story" and "Smart Set."

With Edmund Lowe. From the story by Edmund Goulding. Scenario by Benjamin Glazer. A William A. Seiter Production.

Motion Picture News

Volume XXXVII NEW YORK CITY, JUNE 9, 1928 No. 23

The Code of Ethics

Mass Meetings and the Solution of Economic Problems

By William A. Johnston

THE regulation of the economics of so complicated a business as this is a difficult job. When the method selected is a mass meeting, with strongly conflicting interests fighting every inch of the way on vital points, the result is still further in doubt.

That, it seems to us, is the lesson of the Trade Practice Conference, held in New York last Fall, and now crystallized in the report of the Federal Trade Commission, six months later.

* * * *

Most of the major issues remain just where they were: block booking; producer acquisition of theatres for coercive purposes; allocation of product without open competition to all; granting protection to a theatre not in competition with the theatre protected; and a distributor's refusal to let an exhibitor have a picture within a reasonable time after first run.

The non-theatrical question is, if anything, more involved than it was before. The Commission, obviously, could not put the stamp of approval on a proposal to ban service to non-theatricals, because that would be sanctioning restraint of trade.

If the effect of this ruling is to be that distributors cannot refuse to sell to non-theatrical institutions, even when they may be in direct competition with theatres, then the situation is tangled indeed.

* * * *

On the positive side, the Commission ruled that the uniform contract providing for arbitration of disputes is a fair trade practice.

Other rules, which the Commission sanctioned, cover some important matters, but they are dwarfed by the essential things upon which the Conference could reach no agreement, or which the Commission itself could not recognize as lawful or proper.

It is a fact, however, that the industry, by going into a conference under Government auspices, committed itself to this form of self-regulation. This can only mean, in our view, that there would have to be other Trade Practice Conferences before it would be possible to tell whether major problems can be solved in this way.

Bringing men together in a room to thresh out their differences is a desirable thing, in principle. It may work and it may not. The economics of a business may be so complicated that not all the good intention in the world can straighten them out.

This is about what happened at the first Trade Practice Conference. The final result shows that the attempt to regulate through the mass-meeting plan is not a big success in this industry. Not yet, at any rate.

* * * *

Meanwhile, some vital problems will be fought out in the arena of the courts. The actions brought by the Department of Justice, relating to the legality of certain practices in the industry, will, it appears, go to trial soon.

These cases will test out the workings of the arbitration system as it is practiced in this industry and will also have to do with the operations of the credit committees of the Film Boards of Trade.

Doubtless, the cases will ultimately find their way to the United States Supreme Court.

Laura La Plante shines luminously in the film firmament as one of the best blonde stars in pictures today. She first appeared in Universal pictures in 1923, playing in a few westerns, and since then has progressed steadily. She has just finished a light comedy role in "Home James" and is soon to begin working in "The Last Warning," a Laemmle special

Jack Pickford is returning to the movies again. With Olive Borden he will appear in "Gang War," a melodrama about to be filmed by F B O. Bert Glennon, director, is also pictured above

Considered by many to be the best rider in westerns today, Ken Maynard is a veritable giant in popularity and fan following which are his. Back in 1925 he was breaking into the states right field, but under the tutelage of Charles Rogers, he has developed into a personality of considerable magnitude. His name is way up front in the First National roster of stars

With "the Great Gatsby" and other finely-etched roles to his credit, Warner Baxter gets another nice "break" from the casting directors, having been cast as Mr. Craig in Pathe's "Craig's Wife"

How they like their boss. The "Our Gang" bunch, with appropriate signs of welcome, greet Mr. and Mrs. Hal Roach upon their arrival in Hollywood after a trip around the world

Helene Costello, talented young Warner Bros. player poses with Scotty, her serious visaged pet. She is now playing opposite Tony Moreno in 'The Midnight Taxi"

Hermine Hoffman, the daughter of M. H. Hoffman, Tiffany-Stahl executive, who was recently married to Leon Navara, musician and theatrical figure. Besides being a graduate of Barnard College, she is a film actress, her screen name being Myrna Hoffman

Getting tuned up for summer production work. Charles Lamont feels a personal responsibility for "Big Boy," whom he directs in "Juvenile" comedies for Educational

Here's a little girl who is fast budding into stardom. Featured in a number of Warner Bros. pictures during the past year, Audrey Ferris has developed in her flapper characterizations. Now the Warners are going to star her in several films with Buster Collier

Inside Slants on the Industry

PICTURES AND PEOPLE

The Mirrors of Filmdom

THE arrival here of J. D. Williams with some eighteen British-made pictures, together with his announcement that he will distribute this volume of product to the exhibitor, strikes us as an important event in American film annals. He states, moreover, that even this program is but an entering wedge, that European studios will be organized so that next season a supply of fifty or more foreign-made pictures will be distributed here by his sales organization.

The distribution here of foreign-made pictures has so far been irregular; one or more have been brought over at different times, and purchased by the American distributor. Others have been accepted or made abroad for quota purposes. Until now, there has been no regular sales organization here nor any well conceived effort on broad lines to produce a stable supply of pictures for the American market.

Foreign-made pictures, as we have often pointed out, need here all, and more of, the advertising and selling effort put back of the Hollywood product. J. D. Williams, as everyone knows, is equipped, as are few others, to do this sizeable job. And it is a sizeable job, one that had best be done right or not attempted.

The American market is ripe, we believe, for new atmosphere in pictures, especially if the foreign pictures are given the advantages of American technique and showmanship. There is too much of the Hollywood pattern in our annual output of seven hundred feature pictures. We have plenty of individualism in direction but too few regimes in production. The wider the creative effort the better the American public will be pleased.

* * * *

J. D. has his mind, too, he tells us, on the new talking picture. He points out some salient facts: first, that English actors are renowned for their fine speaking voices, and, again, that the two great picture marts are the United States and Great Britain and that both are English speaking nations.

* * * *

THE following story—a true one—carries a world of significance to the film trade. About a year ago a British banker of the ultra-conservative type, put some capital in a picture producing concern. When some friends heard of his venture they called, in some bewilderment, to see if he still had his sanity; and they got the following facts from him.

His daughter has been recently married and the banker undertook to supply for the young couple their home and its furnishings. After the house was selected, father and daughter spent a day in London shopping about for the furniture, drapes and other interior decorations. They went only to those good old houses which the family had patronized for generations; but at the end of a tiring day they had not made a single purchase. Whereupon, the daughter made the following suggestion: that she prepare a budget, secure the father's approval of the figure set and go about the matter herself. She felt quite confident she could handle the transaction to her own and the satisfaction of all concerned. And, of course, she carried her point.

"When my wife and I," related the banker, "first entered the new furnished home, we gaped, gasped and sat weakly down. We did not see a living room—as we knew a living room. We saw a motion picture. That room, and every other room in the house, was a composite of impression registered upon my daughter's mind by motion pictures. There was scarcely a piece of British-made decoration in the entire place.

"So there you are. I thought it a good idea to look into the motion picture business."

* * * *

THE above tells the story, better than we have often tried to explain to the American trade, of just why Great Britain intends to put British-made pictures into world circulation. World circulation means getting into the American market. That's what Great Britain must do and means to do—and undoubtedly, will do.

* * * *

THE premiere of the week is "Fazil," the Fox picture with Charles Farrell and Greta Nissen. It is a decided let-down from the general quality of specials which the Fox studios have been turning out in recent months and fails to take its place with such films as "Seventh Heaven" and "Street Angel."

"Fazil" starts out to be a great picture, but it falters along the way, and runs into inconsistencies and absurdities, which, however, cannot dim the remarkable performance given by Farrell in the role of the Arab.

Miss Nissen, replacing Janet Gaynor as Mr. Farrell's team mate in this picture, is a good choice for the part of the modern girl in conflict with the strict Arabian ideas about wifely duties. There are some "hot" love scenes, and in this respect the picture is pointed toward box-office success.

In general, however, "Fazil" does not impress as up to the standard set recently by the Fox company.

* * * *

THE Movietone program, which precedes the showing of "Fazil" at the Gaiety Theatre, New York, contains some excellent numbers and some not so good. The news and magazine events are very fine, as usual. The specialty acts are only fair, with the exception of Clark & McCullough.

* * * *

MRS. ANNA BRUNI has announced the marriage, June 2, of her daughter, Miss Olga Bruni to Thomas C. Kennedy, editor of "The Showman" and valued member of the editorial staff of Motion Picture News. The couple will be at home, after July 1, at 72 Twenty-Eighth Street, Jackson Heights, L. I.

The News' staff joins in hearty congratulations and best wishes.

* * * *

BUCK JONES is a fine, clean cut personality, whom it is a pleasure to meet. His entry into the independent field, backed as it is by a long record of successes in Westerns, is an event that is attracting considerable interest.

There will be four special features, the first, "The Big Hop," being ready in August.

The accession of such a star as Jones is a fine asset to the independent field.

Seek Signers to Live Up to Code Agreement

Trade Practice Conference Division After Signatures to Put Industry on Fair Competitive Basis

SIGNATURES are being sought to an agreement to place the industry on a fair basis of competition in compliance with the code of ethics adopted at the Trade Practice Conference of last Fall and just released by the Federal Trade Commission.

The agreement is being distributed for signatures by M. Markham Flannery, director of the division of Trade Practice conferences, who is anxious to keep in touch with actual workings of conference rules. He is soliciting opinions as to the effectiveness of the rules as announced by the commission. The suggestion has been made that the rules be given a six or nine months trial to prove their effectiveness and at the expiration of that time some changes be effected if they are then considered necessary.

Producers, distributors and exhibitors who were represented at the Trade Practice Conference at which the code of ethics was drawn are being circulated with copies of the agreement. They are asked to sign and live up to the code as made public by the commission.

The agreement urges that the industry by compliance with the code will be placed on an equally fair competitive basis. It reads as follows:

"In consideration of the abandonment by others in the industry of practices covered by rules adopted in resolution form at the Trade Practice Conference held by the Federal Trade Commission for the motion picture industry at New York City, October 10 to 15, 1927, inclusive, and for the purpose of placing as near as may be all in the industry on an equally fair competitive basis, the undersigned hereby subscribes to, and the undersigned and such others as now have subscribed, or in the future shall subscribe, hereby mutually agree to abide by said rules, copy of which has been received and read by the undersigned."

F & R Acquire Theatres

Company Launches Big Expansion Program by Purchase Of Several Additional Houses

APPARENTLY the Finkelstein and Ruben company has entered upon a big expansion program as they have just announced the purchase of the three theatres at Huron, S. D., the Orpheum at Aberdeen, S. D., the Orpheum at Duluth, Minn. and the only remaining competitive theatre at Mitchell, S. D., the Lyric.

The Orpheum at Duluth was purchased from the Blackmore brothers. The sale of the Orpheum at Aberdeen to F & R marks the firm's entry into that city. It is reported to have made a good offer at one time to the Walker Amusement company which has numerous interests there and about a year ago it was announced that F & R were planning to build a theatre in Aberdeen but after preliminary arrangements were made the matter was dropped.

The three houses secured at Huron by F & R include the newly built State theatre, which was owned by Don Harris, the Lyric, operated by Leak and Goethals, and the Bijou, operated for the past three years by Henry Richfield.

In the Twin Cities the F & R chain has added to its interests by purchasing of the leases of the New Arion on the east side and the Granada, which is nearing completion on Hennepin between Lake street and Thirty-first Streets. The Nokomis, a suburban theatre at Thirty-eighth Street and Chicago Avenue, is to be remodeled and enlarged at an expense of approximately $30,000. The capacity of the house is to be increased by 200, a large pipe organ will be added and the theatre entirely redecorated.

Announcements concerning building and remodeling by the firm which would involve the expenditure of more than a quarter of a million dollars were made some time ago from Minneapolis. These plans included the erection of two new suburban theatres —one at Lake Street and Second Avenue and the other in the Lake Harriet district. The erection of the latter was postponed owing to objections of residents in the district and the matter has not yet been settled.

3 Companies Concur on Cleveland Protection

THE Cleveland exhibitor association's demands that the protection accorded first runs be limited to 21 days have been granted by three distributing companies, Educational, Tiffany-Stahl and Standard Film Service, says George W. Erdman, manager of the Cleveland organization.

The association which comprises nearly every subsequent run theatre in Cleveland recently protested against the 57 days' protection granted Loew theatres by declaring a buying strike and demanding a protection limit of the length granted by the three distributors mentioned.

Five Firms Incorporate at Albany, New York

Companies incorporating in the motion picture business in New York state during the past week and receiving charters from the department of state, Albany, included the following: Brooklyn Paramount Corporation, $100,000, William T. Powers, Brooklyn; John J. Wildberg, Alvin T. Freisinger, New York City; The Lenox Hill Players, Inc., $20,000, Louis J. Latzer, Yonkers, Mitchell P. Marcus, Mary W. Hallett, New York City; Buck Jones Corporation, $100,000, Buck Jones, Hollywood, Calif.; Donald McElwain, Jackson Heights, L. I.; Murray W. Garsson, New York City; Louben Film Corporation, capitalization not specified, J. T. Cosman, Louis T. Rogers, Benjamin P. Rogers, New York City; The Cunnion Corporation, capitalization not stated, John J. Cunnion, Edward J. and Abigail Cahill, Brooklyn.

Pantages Theatre, Dallas, Subleased to Underwood

R. J. Stinnett, managing director of the Capitol Theatre and Pantages Theatre, has subleased the Pantages to W. G. Underwood and associates who assumed control June 1. The new policy of Pantages calls for the installation of Vitaphone and Movietone synchronizers in order to enable the theatre to show second runs of sound pictures, according to an announcement by Mr. Underwood. The name of the theatre will be changed shortly.

For the past three years Mr. Underwood has operated the Crystal Theatre, but his lease expires this fall when the Crystal is to be converted into an office building. Mr. Stinnett will continue to manage the Capitol which he owns in partnership with the estate of the late Simon Charninsky.

Fred Desberg Denies He Will Retire

Fred Desberg, general manager of the Loew theatres operated in Cleveland, has denied the rumor that he is to retire from active management of the circuit. A rumor has been current that Desberg has severed his connection with the Loew circuit either to retire altogether from business or to become associated with the company in its New York office. Desberg says both of these rumors are false.

A. S. Dowling Manager for F B O Export Corp.

Ambrose S. Dowling will be manager of F B O Export Corporation, announces Joseph P. Kennedy, president of F B O Pictures Corporation.

Mr. Dowling, an importer and exporter for the past 25 years, is thoroughly familiar with the foreign market. Having been abroad 20 times, he has traveled extensively. As assistant to Mr. Kennedy when he became owner of F B O, Mr. Dowling has made himself familiar with the requirements of the foreign buyers.

Universal Promotes Ben Y. Cammack

Ben Y. Cammack, short subject and complete service manager for Universal, has been promoted, to take the position of Eastern division manager of Universal.

Fred McConnell, erstwhile editor of the Daily Review, becomes the new short subject and complete service manager.

New J. D. Williams Organization

World-Wide Pictures Will Distribute Best of Foreign Product Throughout U. S. and Canada

J. D. WILLIAMS, managing director of United Motion Picture Distributors, Ltd., of London, England, arrived in New York late last week on the Berengaria, to perfect an organization in this country for the distribution of foreign made product.

The new concern will be known as World-Wide Pictures, for which a $2,500,000 company is now said to be in process of formation under the laws of Delaware. At present Mr. Williams has eighteen productions ready for distribution, but the first of them will not be released until September. Within the year it is planned to have about fifty foreign pictures for distribution in the United States and Canada. World-Wide Pictures will not handle distribution anywhere but in the United States and Canada. It will not handle American product in Europe, but will confine itself entirely to European product.

Mr. Williams has stated that there will be no buying restrictions on this product, the exhibitor will be able to buy one or all of the pictures as he pleases. The total line-up of the first fifty pictures that will be available this year will be divided into ten groups of five pictures each. The first year's product includes 35 pictures from England and 15 from Continental studios.

It is Mr. Williams' plan to organize at least 35 branches in the United States and Canada, but the physical handling of the distribution has not yet been decided upon. Mr. Williams will maintain his own selling force.

J. D. Williams

Included in the program of pictures to be released by the new organization are twelve pictures comprising the entire 1927-28 program of British International Pictures, Ltd. These are:

"The White Sheik," directed by Harley Knoles; "The Silver Lining," made by Thomas Bentley; "Poppies of Flanders," Arthur Maude production; "The Ring," directed by Alfred Hitchcock; "The Farmer's Wife," made by Hitchcock; "Moulin Rouge," E. A. Dupont picture; "Tommy Atkins," directed by Norman Walker; "Tesha," Victor Saville film; "Champagne," Alfred Hitchcock picture; "Adam's Apple," directed by Tim Whelan; "Not Quite a Lady," made by Thomas Bentley, and "Toni," Arthur Maude production.

Mr. Williams declares that the thing most needed for the world benefit of motion pictures is competition for Hollywood. There is a certain resentment abroad that the opinion prevails that good pictures can come only from Hollywood. "This is by no means true," he said. "Good pictures can and are being made abroad and they are going to make better ones. There is no reason why this cannot be. Foreign stars come over here and are just as big drawing cards as they are in their own country. They need only the same conditions under which to work over there as they have here, and we are going to see that they get them.

"There is no reason why some of the leading American players and directors cannot be induced to work in Europe. I think it would benefit and broaden them all. Climatic conditions are splendid over there, and once the fact becomes known

(Continued on Page 1952)

Arbitration Success, Says Hays

Tells Detroit Commerce Board Exhibitors Won 52 Per Cent of Their Cases Against Distributors Last Year

APPEARING before the Detroit Board of Commerce, Detroit, Mich., June 5, Will H. Hays, president of Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., delivered an address, the subject of which was "Arbitration in Industry." Beginning his speech Mr. Hays traced the course of arbitrary ruling through the centuries, called the Chamber's attention to the enormous investment the motion picture industry represents today, and to the many trade problems it has been striving to overcome, the ease of their solution today as compared to conditions in 1922, and wound up his address by outlining the vast indirect sales medium afforded manufacturers by the motion picture.

14,346 Cases Adjusted

A salient fact cited by Mr. Hays was that in 1927 alone, 14,346 arbitration cases, involving $3,825,636.76 were amicably adjusted. Of the total number of claims filed by theatre owners against distributors, the theatre owners were upheld in fifty-two per cent. Of the total number of claims filed by distributors, forty-one per cent were upheld. Only thirty-six cases required the seventh arbitrator.

Commenting upon the latest uniform contract, agreed upon May 1, 1928, and the present system of arbitration in this industry, Mr. Hays said:

"The motion picture industry today represents an investment of two billion dollars, an annual expenditure in production of pictures alone of $125,000,000. The industry directly employs more men and women than Ford and General Motors combined. One hundred million paid admissions in the United States alone each week testify to its touch with the public. Twenty-five thousand miles of film are handled each day in the exchanges of this country alone.

Must Contract in Advance

"In the many thousands of small cities and towns, men with small capital must contract in advance for each year's showing of feature pictures. The general nature of the product is told them by the salesmen of the competing companies. Prices and dates of exhibition, with many other technical but vital details, are agreed on. Out of the 600 to 800 pictures offered him by twenty or thirty companies, the small theatre owner, like the large, selects the companies which best meet his needs as to price, variety of product and advertising co-operation. He agrees to buy certain groups of their productions and exhibit them at stated times for stated prices.

"The whole machinery of the manufacture of this product, which reaches nearly a quarter of a billion ultimate consumers each week, depends on the good faith and stability of individual contracts with theatre owners.

"There are many legitimate reasons why a theatre owner may find his contract difficult of fulfillment or may honestly believe the distributor is not giving him 100 per cent service under its terms. What the way to winnow the just claims from the unjust, temptation on both sides to call the contract broken long constituted a major source of instability.

Dubious Until 1922

"Until 1922 the producer with ten million dollars' worth of orders on his books

(Continued on Page 1952)

Congress Gives Industry Little Attention

Tax Bill Increasing Exemptions Only Important Measure of Session Effecting Motion Pictures

THE session of Congress which adjourned on May 29 was remarkable for the little attention which was paid to the motion picture industry. The only measure affecting the industry materially, to be enacted during the session, was the tax bill, under which the exemptions from admission tax were increased from 75 cents to $3. It is estimated that the revenues of the Government will be reduced approximately $17,000,000 a year by this increase.

Although a number of measures affecting the industry were introduced during the session the only bill to receive serious consideration was that of Senator Brookhart of Iowa, prohibiting block and blind booking and discrimination. This measure was the subject of extended hearings before the Senate committee on interstate commerce, but no action was taken to report the bill because Senator Watson of Indiana, chairman, spent much of the time toward the latter end of the session in his home State, where he is a "favorite son," for the Presidential nomination.

Another measure of considerable importance was the resolution introduced toward the end of the session by Senator Walsh of Montana, calling for an investigation by the judiciary committee of cases which have been brought by the Government with relation to the activities of the film boards of trade throughout the country. This resolution was referred to the judiciary committee, and Senator Walsh attempted to have it brought up for consideration in order that it might be reported and passed before the session adjourned, but was unable to secure any action.

Sunday closing for the District of Columbia, which was the subject of lengthy hearings by the House District of Columbia Committee last session, still remembered for their verbal and fist fight, was proposed early in the session by Representative Lankford of Georgia, author of the measure before the House last year, but nothing whatever was done with the bill during the session. Bills identical with that of Senator Brookhart of Iowa, dealing with booking, were introduced in the House of Representatives by Congressmen Hudson of Michigan, Celler of New York and Cannon of Missouri, but no action was taken by the House committee pending a determination by the Senate committee as to its report.

Congressman Hudson of Michigan also put in a bill toward the end of the session providing for Federal regulation of the motion picture industry, which also included the provisions of Senator Brookhart's bill. In this messure was the so-called censorship bill which has been before Congress for several sessions.

Repeal of the present ban upon the interstate transportation of prize fight films was sought in a number of measures introduced in the House of Representatives early in the session, but they were given no consideration during the hearings.

All of these bills go over until the next session in December, but it is not likely that the industry will be materially harassed next winter because of the fact that the session is required to adjourn March 4, giving it little time to deal with other than appropriation and major measures.

Likes Code of Ethics

Fred Weherenberg Approves Resolutions Adopted by Federal Trade Commission

"I AM heartily in accord with the general attitude of the Federal Trade Commission as expressed in the new code of ethics recently handed down by that body," said Fred Wehrenberg, of St. Louis, president of the eastern Missouri and southern Illinois exhibitor unit, who was a delegate to the Trade Practice Conference.

"Perhaps some exhibitors may object to the apparently liberal views toward non-theatrical exhibition of motion pictures, but as stated by the commission it regards any attempt to restrict the purchase of films by churches, lodges and similar organizations as in restraint of trade and subsequently illegal.

"We independent exhibitors have always contended that a motion picture exhibitor should be permitted to buy such pictures as he desired. We could not consistently endeavor to prevent others from enjoying the rights we demand for ourselves.

"The commission is absolutely in accord with the views of the independent exhibitors on the various subjects touched upon in the code of ethics. It has taken a definite stand on block booking and will push criminal proceedings against those who are guilty of violating the laws in that respect. On other points at issue it apparently favors giving the industry more time in which to adjust itself and bring about the reforms desired by the commission and the independent exhibitors of the country."

Montreal Managers Assoc. Elects New Officers

Much interest was taken in the annual elections of the Montreal Theatre Managers Association, held in Stanley Hall, June 1, because of the warfare which is being waged by Montreal exhibitors against the provincial authorities over Sunday shows, juvenile patronage and censorship issues. No less than 46 of the 54 theatres in Montreal were represented at the meeting.

Joseph Patenaude, of the Francais, Alexander and Moulin Rouge theatres, succeeded George Rotsky, of the Palace theatre, as president of the association, while Harry S. Dahn, of the Capitol, was elected vice-president. B. M. Garfield, Rialto theatre, had been secretary-treasurer since the organization was formed eight years ago, and he was elected to that office again without opposition.

George Nicholas, managing director of United Amusements, Ltd., was the choice as chairman of the board of directors. The latter include John P. Smythe, Regal theatre; Joseph Cardinal, St. Denis theatre; F. J. Shields, Dominion theatre; Harry Kauffman and Frank Norman.

3 Firms Obtain Charters at Harrisburg, Pa.

Three new firms were granted charters of incorporation by the department of state in the capitol at Harrisburg, Pa., last week when the following companies incorporated: The President Amusement Company, of Philadelphia, $300,000 capital stock, Thomas Morch, treasurer, Philadelphia. Incorporators George H. Grant, Harry Kramer and Hugh C. Pedley. Success Pictures, Inc., Philadelphia, stated capital $25,000, Arthur Boll, treasurer. Incorporators Oscar Newfeld, Arthur Boll, and Charles P. Boyce. The Park Machine Company, Beaver Falls, Pa., capital $25,000, H. G. Traver, treasurer. Incorporators Mr. Traver, Harry Ackley, and J. Wilmer Martin.

Manager of U. A.'s Lima Office Now in N. Y.

Gustav Mohme, general manager of the United Artists exchange in Lima, Peru, is now in New York for two weeks. He is conferring with Arthur Kelly, vice-president and general manager of foreign distribution. This is his first visit to the United States since he opened the Peruvian office in January, 1926.

A luncheon was given in his honor by the organization on May 31 at the Manger Grill.

Mo., Ill. Assoc. May Join Sapiro Body

MANY members of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois may affiliate with the Independent Motion Picture Exhibitors Association headed by Aaron Sapiro. Fred Wehrenberg, president of the M. P. T. O. of Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois, informed the correspondent of this publication that a large number of the independent exhibitors of St. Louis and the adjoining trade territory are thinking seriously of joining the Sapiro Group and added that it is very probable that a St. Louis office of the Independent Motion Picture Exhibitors Associated will be established in the near future.

An invitation is being made, it is said, to have Sapiro visit St. Louis to explain the operations of his organization to the Wehrenberg organization at their annual convention.

Report Says Seattle U. A. House is to Close

FOLLOWING the posting of an official notice giving the customary two week's advance information to employees that their services will no longer be required, reports were prevalent in Seattle, Washington, last week to the effect that the United Artists Theatre is to close its doors on June 6. The report is not denied by Pacific Northwest officials for the West Coast Theatres, Inc., who operate the house jointly for West Coast and United Artists.

The theatre up to a few weeks ago was showing a pleasing statement at the box office, but it is understood among the trade that the theatre will be closed in an attempt to divert the business to the Fifth Avenue and Seattle Theatres, both of which are being operated by West Coast on what is said to be a losing financial basis. Al Bernard, manager of the house since the promotion of W. Stefan Perutz to the position of general manager of West Coast theatres in Tacoma a few weeks ago, is understood to be moving to Portland for the same company.

Badgley Returns to Ottawa; Finds British Active

After several weeks spent in England, where he made arrangements for the distribution of the official Canadian films, F. C. Badgley, director of the Canadian Government Moving Picture Office, returned to Ottawa recently. The British film industry is showing considerably more activity, Mr. Badgley declared, praising the new studio outside of London.

While in England he urged British producers to sell Canadian rights to important productions direct to film distributors in Canada rather than to those in the United States. Canadian films, he reports, are now being shown in from 300 to 500 theatres in the British Isles.

Slogans Arouse Opposition to Daylight Saving

Daylight saving continues to be a lively issue in Vancouver, B. C., and the exhibitors have taken an active part in opposing the plan whereby summer time would be adopted locally for a period of five years through a plebiscite of the people.

Various snappy slogans have been screened to arouse the ratepayers to vote down the measure, such as: "Remember, Daylight Saving Is Daylight Slaving"; "Vote Against Daylight Saving—Don't touch the clock"; "This plebiscite is for a period of five years—Vote No!"; "Work and vote against Daylight Saving."

Carl Goe Sales Agent With Tiffany-Stahl

Carl J. Goe has been appointed special representative by General Sales Manager Ed. J. Smith, of Tiffany-Stahl Productions, with headquarters at the New York office. Mr. Goe was formerly circuit representative for Pathe, and previous to that was contract manager for F.B.O., First National and Universal.

Trouble Expected Over Non-Theatricals

Commissions Ruling Interpreted As Compulsory Service; Others Size Up Situation "As Is"

INTERPRETING the Federal Trade Commission's action in rejecting the resolution passed at the Trade Practice Conference against non-theatrical bookings as meaning compulsory service, distributors of the Northwest believe it will cause further trouble in a territory where the situation is already strained. This view was expressed following a letter sent to presidents of Film Boards of Trade by C. C. Pettijohn, head of the organization, ahead of publication of the Code of Ethics, and based on advance information.

Mr. Pettijohn's letter informed the film board heads that any non-theatrical institution, properly complying with ordinances having to do with public safety and other regulations, would be in a position where no distributor could refuse to sell its product.

Other views concerning the rejection of the resolution, based upon reports from those in the know, size up the situation as being just where it has always been, with the exception that distributors must not act as a body in refusing to serve non-theatricals. An individual may continue to refuse to serve, according to this report.

One of the causes of the strained condition in the Northwest was U. A.'s service to non-theatricals. Then exhibitors would not act on this company's cases. It is expected that N. W. exhibitors will continue their fight against this service.

Another opinion concerning the situation is that exhibitors need not be greatly alarmed over any competitive bidding from non-theatrical institutions; that none of them would be in a position to pay the average theatre rentals, at least, those of the larger houses.

Presentations for Shorts

Old Order to Be Reversed When Eleven First Run Key City Houses Show Comedy Films

SHORT subjects, once crowded out of the big first run houses by presentation acts in connection with feature pictures, are now to be the subject around which presentations are to be built, according to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, who have just closed with eleven representative key city de luxe presentation houses for practically the entire output of M-G-M shorts.

The houses that have signed for these shorts are, the Capitol in New York City, Midland in Kansas City, State in St. Louis, Ohio in Columbus, Allen in Cleveland, Penn in Pittsburgh, Century in Baltimore, Palace in Washington, D. C., State in Boston, Palace in Indianapolis and the State in Syracuse.

The product involved in the contracts includes the entire group of forty Hal Roach comedies divided into four series featuring Our Gang, Charley Chase, the Roach All Stars and Laurel and Hardy; the series of six Great Events in technicolor, twenty-six Ufa Oddities and M-G-M News.

The feature releases that have in the past been included in the programs of these houses have always been supplemented by elaborate stage shows and little time was available for short feature film presentations. In all instances where it is practicable, these houses now plan to build their stage show presentation around the theme of the comedy, Great Events or Oddities.

As an example, the Oddities release, "Soaring Wings," which will shortly be presented at the State Theatre in Syracuse, will form the keynote of a novel presentation number. The study of birds in flight which the subject presents, is being likened to man's development of the aeroplane. An appropriate aeroplane setting is to be arranged on the stage and a soloist singing number will accompany the showing of the picture.

As another presentation act the entire stage chorus will be attired in boxing costume, with boxing gloves and the ring atmosphere in a dance number preliminarry to the Charley Chase comedy, "The Fight [illegible]."

Committee Raps Lax Dues Payers

NON-MEMBERS and members of Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois M. P. T. O. whose dues are not paid in full will not be represented on the arbitration committee of the St. Louis Film Board of Trade, Fred Wehrenberg, president of the exhibitor unit, announces as the outcome of a meeting held by the executive committe of his organization held on May 30. The committee is said to have voted unanimously on the question.

In effect Mr. Wehrenberg's statement implied that the time has arrived to compel all theatre owners who derive protection from the association to help pay the expenses of the organization. Heretofore, the representatives of the association have handled all cases coming before the Film Board of Trade for arbitration regardless of whether the exhibitor was a member of the association or not. Members who fail in their dues will be treated as non-members should they desire the services of the arbitrators, Wehrenberg said.

Theatre Building Active

Many Important Operations Are Reported Under Way in Provinces of Ontario, Quebec

MUCH activity is being seen in theatre building operations in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, a number of important projects having been reported, four being in Montreal alone. They include:

Montreal—Electric Theatre, being erected by Electric Theatre, Limited, 570 St. Catherine Street; cost $500,000; architect, E. A. Doucet, 195 St. Catherine Street East.

Montreal—Theatre being started on Notre Dame Street West, by United Amusements, Limited, 12 Mayor Street, Montreal; cost $150,000; architect, R. Gariepy, 15 St. James Street West. This company already operates 12 theatres in Montreal.

Montreal—Benjamin Isaacs, 52 Arlington Avenue, Westmount, has purchased a large site at St. Catherine Street West and Chomedy Street, and plans are being prepared for a theatre.

Windsor, Ontario — The Paramount-Windsor Company, Limited, a subsidiary of the Famous Players Canadian Corp., Royal Bank Bldg., Toronto, has purchased the site at Ottawa Street and Moy Avenue, Windsor, for a theatre seating 1,500. Paramount-Windsor Company already has the Capitol, Palace and Walkerville Theatres. N. L. Nathanson, of Toronto, is president, while Wallace R. Campbell, Col. Walter McGregor and Simon Meretsky are associates.

Ottawa, Ontario—Famous Players Canadian Corp. has started construction of the Capitol Theatre, Ottawa; cost $1,250,000; architect, Thomas Lamb Company, of New York; this theatre is scheduled to open January 1.

